YOU Must Decide As A Nation Do We Live Or Die?

This year of 1994 has begun with several major, visible assaults by "the crooks in high places" to bring the people of this once great nation under submission into the New World Order.

For most people, what is happening is simply regarded as random "natural disasters" (as in the case of the devastating Los Angeles earthquakes) or just plain "Mother Nature acting up" (as in the case of the unprecedented cold weather crippling the life and economy back East).

However, readers of CONTACT know better than to view these kinds of goings on with such breathtaking naiveté. In fact, more and more of our readers are well past the stages of simply being fooled by the cruel shenanigans of the Elite crooks, or being shocked by realization of THE TRUTH. Many have moved on into the stage of positive action—of bringing the Light of Understanding to other seekers and aiming the spotlight of exposure directly into the dark places where the Elite crooks run to hide.

This week's CONTACT is exceptional in that regard. The uncoverings are happening faster and deeper, and these exposures are being made by ever more daring citizens, come forward to share with us that which THEY KNOW ALL TOO WELL.

What we-the-people DO with this information is the great spiritual test that is underway.

Or, as geophysical Commander Soltec reminds us in the middle of a serious earthquake warning, starting on Page 18, "You are in a time of accountability for actions, and it shall be up to EACH and EVERY individual to be accountable for self....You want freedom and liberty, yet you continue to run to the very ones who would have you under control to bail you out of a bad situation. Your nation was built by those who were willing to pull themselves together and take a stand. They were tough enough to get going when times got tough, not stand around and wring hands and cry out for the Government to help them. Fear is the only thing that is standing in your way....Your strengths are your greatest weapons against the bondage."

Of course, behind ACTION is the need for INFORMATION to guide that action with Wisdom and Intelligence. Yes, THE TRUTH ought to set you free—but even more, it first ought to make you mad, as we say in the masthead above.

So, as Commander Hatonn sums it up in a writing starting on Page 20, "What we offer is indeed 'shock therapy for awakening citizens'....The CONTACT and the JOURNALS shall soon become THE information resource for your nation as revelations unfold and the 'great' among you join with us. We have become the big thorn-in-the-side to multitudes of Elite....Just keep on keeping on, friends, and YOU are going to produce your MIRACLES!"

Freedom vs. Tyranny

Beginning Or End For U.S.A.?

1/22/94 RICK MARTIN

"When in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bonds which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the Earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and Nature's God entitles them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed. That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shown, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security." [Declaration of Independence - 1776]

"Article 1: Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press, or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.

"Article 2: A well regulated Militia, being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear Arms, shall not be infringed.

"Article 4: The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and no Warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by Oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized.

"Article 6: In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury of the State and district wherein the crime shall have been committed..." [Bill of Rights]

We as a nation have been witness in recent months to a very dangerous trend. That trend is tyranny by law enforcement agencies, who now are not bound by the U.S. Constitution but rather are headed by the Treasury Department which falls under the scrutiny and instruction of the United Nations. The individual's rights under the Constitution are being trampled, buried, and outright ignored. We have been witness to a corrupt judicial system that is a 'good-ole-boy' network that looks out for its own rather than holding each accountable for the deeds carried out under the banner of The Law.

Compiled herein are a series of articles which, when seen together, contemplated together, should blow the awakening horn of warning across the land...beware. Herein are examples of average people; indeed, it could be you who are next victimized by an illegal search, a false 'tip' against you. Yet even within the corruption and evil that is so very prevalent in our dying society, the power of the individual remains above even the laws which are on the books. Let me explain what I mean by that statement. "The law itself is on trial quite as much as the cause which is to be decided." [Harlan F. Stone, 12th Chief Justice. U.S. Supreme Court]

"The pages of history shine on instances of the jury's exercise of its prerogative to disregard instructions of the judge..." [U.S. vs. Dougherty, 473 F 2nd 1113, 1139 (1972)]

"As an additional reminder to a generation who has not been taught about our rights under law: 'Life is the immediate gift of God, and a right inherited by nature in every individual.'" [Evans. v. People, N.Y., 1 Cow.Cr.R. 494, 501]

"Life...includes all personal rights and their enjoyment embracing the use and enjoyment of the faculties, acquiring useful knowledge, the right to marry, establish a home, and bring up children, freedom of worship, conscience, contract, occupation, speech, assembly and press." [Rosenblum v. Rosenblum, 42, N.Y.S.2d 626, 630, 181 Misc. 78.]

We include here, for your thoughtful consumption, a series of documents. First, is correspondence between Gerry Spence and a close friend concerning his defense of Randy Weaver. Secondly, you'll read a summarization of the Treasury Department's official version before Congress on Waco. Following this governmental summary are portions of a letter written to Attorney General Janet Reno by, now dead, Attorney Paul Wilcher. Next are excerpts from current articles concerning the trial of the Branch Davidians [Waco], which, admittedly, has been extremely underplayed or hidden in the media. It is only through the thoughtful efforts of one of our readers that we are able to bring you information about the trial, which we've not received for several days now since national attention is focused on the recent earthquake activity. You will then read about a raid which took place in September, 1993 against a family in Montana, near the Canadian border. And finally, law enforcement legend Gary Wean provides two letters which detail still further the extent of Judicial corruption within our boundaries.

It is, additionally, extremely interesting to note that there is no mention in the [traditional] media of the $20 million dollar [per plaintiff] lawsuit filed by the Cause Foundation [P. O. Box 1235, Black Mountain, NC 28711 - Kirk David Lyons, Attorney] on behalf of Oliver Gyarfas and Elizabeth Gyarfas, and Startle Summers [Case # W93CA334 filed September 29, 1993 in the United States District Court for the Western District of Texas, Waco Division] against President Clinton and the United States Government, Janet Reno as Attorney General and individually, and a very long list of other involved government officials.

Whenever a Ruby Ridge or Waco can occur while these God-given [unalienable] rights, supported by LAW, are in place, it sends up a red warning flag and should, by all means, give sober cause to ask the question: What is happening to the United States of America?

First They Came For The Fascists...

by Gerry Spence

Randy Weaver's wife was dead, shot through the head while she clutched her child to her breast. His son was shot, twice. First they shot the child's arm—probably destroyed the arm. The child cried out. Then, as the boy was running, they shot him in the back. Randy Weaver himself had been shot and wounded, and Kevin Harris, a kid the Weavers had all but adopted, was dying of a chest wound. The blood hadn't cooled on Ruby Hill before the national media announced that I had taken the defense of Randy Weaver. Then all hell broke loose. My sister wrote me decrying my defense of the "racist." There were letters to the editors in several papers that expressed their disappointment that I would lend my services to a person with Weaver's beliefs. And I received a letter from my close friend, Alan Hirschfield, the former chairman and chief executive officer of Columbia Pictures and Twentieth Century Fox, imploring me to withdraw. He wrote:

After much thought I decided to write this letter to you. It represents a very profound concern on my part regarding Randy Weaver. While I applaud and fully understand your motives in taking such a case, I nonetheless find this individual defense troubling. It is so because of the respectability and credibility your involvement imparts to a cause which I find despicable.

The Aryan Nation, The Brotherhood, and the Order are all groups dedicated to only one premise—hatred of the unlike by the like. They deny the Holocaust and preach the gospel of ethnic debasement and racist supremacy. They are societal malcontents and misfits who espouse nothing worthwhile. It is the beliefs of these groups that Mr. Weaver represents.

Mr. Hirschfield went on to argue that my involvement would lend dignity to an illicit and repugnant movement:

This is not Huey Newton and the Black Panthers fighting 200 years of prejudice and second-class citizenship nor even the PLO seeking a homeland by terrorist method. While I abhor terrorism of any kind I do understand its politics. Not so with the philosophy of the groups Mr. Weaver stands for.

The issues involved are reminiscent of the recent national uproar over the Warner Brothers recording made by the rap singer Ice T which advocated killing cops. Other tracks on the CD were virulently anti-Semitic and homophobic. The right of Ice T to publicly record these songs was not the issue. What was troublesome to myself and others was the role of Warner Bros. in disseminating his message in the name of preserving their "creative integrity." I gave an interview on this subject and suggested that at least in business there was a line to be drawn between unbridled creative freedom and corporate responsibility. In Warner's case they could have chosen not to distribute this record (it still would have found a distributor); instead they trumpeted the creative freedom argument and by lending their world-renowned prestige to the issue they imparted to Ice T and his message a legitimacy wholly underserved and in doing so made the recording a national hit in contrast to his previous mediocre results.

My premise, therefore, is not the right of Weaver or anyone else to the best possible defense but rather the message sent when the finest trial lawyer in America undertakes that defense, simply to make that point. The message, I believe, will embolden those espousing the cause Weaver represents and encourage other mindless haters to join up. The resultant media attention will provide a platform previously never enjoyed by those people.

I clearly know this is not your intent in defending Mr. Weaver but I believe...there is a time when a person of your extraordinary talent and commitment, and knowing full well the notoriety that comes with your representation, perhaps demurs, rather than allow legitimacy and notoriety to a sick and twisted philosophy.

As you know, I am not a religious person...but I am keenly conscious of my heritage and the endless persecution Jews throughout the world have suffered. There is in my mind no worse group of people than those involved here who espouse both hatred and violence against blacks and other minorities without purpose other than hatred itself. They don't need a homeland, they don't propose alternatives, and they don't want a solution other than the one Hitler sought. As a result of your involvement these same people will be given a greatly expanded voice at this trial.

It is because of this that I write and ask you to reconsider your decision to involve yourself in this case. I do so out of total respect and personal affection for you. And, of course, whatever your decision you will always have the same respect and that same affection from me.

*Your friend,
Alan J. Hirschfield*

The next day I delivered the following by carrier to Mr. Hirschfield:

I cherish your letter. It reminds me once again of our friendship, for only friends can speak and hear each other in matters so deeply a part of the soul. And your letter reminds me as well, as we all must be reminded, of the unspeakable pain every Jew has suffered from the horrors of the Holocaust. No better evidence of our friendship could be shown than your intense caring concerning what I do and what I stand for.

I met Randy Weaver in jail on the evening of his surrender. His eyes had no light in them. He was unshaven and dirty. He was naked except for yellow plastic prison coveralls, and he was cold. His small feet were clad in rubber prison sandals. In the stark setting of the prison conference room he seemed diminutive and fragile. He had spent eleven days in a standoff against the government, and he had lost. His wife was dead. His son was dead. His friend was near death. Weaver himself had been wounded. He had lost his freedom. He had lost it all. And now he stood face to face with a stranger who towered over him and whose words were not words of comfort. When I spoke, you, Alan, were on my mind.

"My name is Gerry Spence," I began. "I'm the lawyer you've been told about. Before we begin to talk I want you to understand that I do not share any of your political or religious beliefs. Many of my dearest friends are Jews. My daughter is married to a Jew. My sister is married to a black man. She has adopted a black child. I deplore what the Nazis stood for. If I defend you I will not defend your political beliefs or your religious beliefs, but your rights as an American citizen to a fair trial." His quiet answer was, "That is all I ask." Then I motioned him to a red plastic chair and I took a similar one. And as the guards marched by and from time to time peered in, he told his story.

Alan, you are a good and fair man. That I know. Were it otherwise we would not be such good friends. Yet it is your pain I hear most clearly—exacerbated, I know, by the fact that your friend should represent your enemy. Yet what drew me to this case was my own pain. Let me tell you the facts.

Randy Weaver's principal crime against the government had been his failure to appear in court on a charge of possessing illegal firearms. The first crime was not his. He had been entrapped—intentionally, systematically, patiently, purposely entrapped—by a federal agent who solicited him to cut off, contrary to federal law, the barrels of a couple of shotguns. Randy Weaver never owned an illegal weapon in his life. He was not engaged in the manufacture of illegal weapons. The idea of selling illegal weapons had never entered his mind until the government agent suggested it and encouraged him to act illegally. The government knew he needed the money. He is as poor as an empty cupboard. He had three daughters, a son, and a wife to support. He lived in a small house in the woods without electricity or running water. Although he is a small, frail man, with tiny, delicate hands who probably weighs no more than a hundred twenty pounds, he made an honest living by chopping firewood and by seasonal work as a logger.

This man is wrong. His beliefs are wrong. His relationship to mankind is wrong. He was perhaps legally wrong when he failed to appear and defend himself in court. But the first wrong was not his. Nor was the first wrong the government's. The first wrong was ours.

In this country we embrace the myth that we are still a democracy when we know that we are not a democracy, that we are not free, that the government does not serve us but subjugates us. Although we give lip service to the notion of freedom, we know the government is no longer the servant of the people but, at last, has become the people's master. We have stood by like timid sheep while the wolf killed—first the weak, then the strays, then those on the outer edges of the flock, until at last the whole flock belonged to the wolf. We did not care much about the weak or about the strays. They were not a part of the flock. We did not care much about those on the edges. They had chosen to be there. But as the wolf worked its way toward the center of the flock we discovered that we were now on the outer edges. Now we much look the wolf squarely in the eye. That we did not do so when the first of us was ripped and torn and eaten was the first wrong. It was our wrong.

That none of us have felt responsible for having lost our freedom has been a part of an insidious progression. In the beginning the attention of the flock was directed not to the marauding wolf but to our own deviant members within the flock. We rejoiced when the wolf destroyed them, for they were our enemies. We were told that the weak lay under the rocks while we faced the blizzards to rustle our food, and we did not care when the wolf took them. We argued that they deserved it. When one of our flock faced the wolf alone it was always eaten. Each of us was afraid of the wolf, but as a flock we were not afraid. Indeed, the wolf helped us by destroying the weak and dismembering the aberrant element within. As time went by, strangely the herd felt more secure under the rule of the wolf. It believed that by belonging to this wolf it would remain safe from all the other wolves. But we were eaten just the same.

No one knows better than the children of the Holocaust how the lessons of history must never be forgotten. Yet Americans, whose battle cry was once "Give me liberty or give me death," have sat placidly by as a new king was crowned. In America a new king was crowned by the shrug of our shoulders when our neighbors were wrongfully seized. A new king was crowned when we capitulated to a régime that was no longer sensitive to people but to non-people—to corporations, to money, and to power. The new king was crowned when we turned our heads as the poor and the forgotten and the damned were rendered mute and defenseless, not because they were evil but because in the scheme of our lives, they seemed unimportant, not because they were essentially dangerous but because they were essentially powerless. The new king was crowned when we cheered the government on as it prosecuted the progeny of our ghettos and filled our prisons with black men whose first crime was that they were born in the ghettos. We cheered the new king on as it diluted our right to be secure in our homes against unlawful searches and secure in the courts against unlawful evidence. We cheered the new king on because we were told that our sacred rights were but "loopholes" by which our enemies, the murderers and rapists and thieves and drug dealers, escaped. We were told that those who fought for their rights, the lawyers, were worse than the thieves who stole from us in the night, that our juries were irresponsible and ignorant and ought not be trusted. We watched with barely more than a mumble as the legal system that once protected us became populated with judges who were appointed by the new king. At last the new king was crowned when we forgot the lessons of history, that when the rights of our enemies have been wrested from them, our own rights have been lost as well, for the same rights serve both citizen and criminal.

When Randy Weaver failed to appear in court because he had lost his trust in the government, we witnessed the fruits of our crime. The government, indeed, had no intent to protect his rights. The government had but one purpose as it remains today, the disengagement of this citizen from society. Those who suffered and died in the Holocaust must have exquisitely understood such illicit motivations of power.

I have said that I was attracted to the case out of my own pain. Let me tell you the facts: A crack team of trained government marksmen sneaked onto Randy Weaver's small isolated acreage on a reconnaissance mission preparatory to a contemplated arrest. They gave Randy no warning of their coming. They came without a warrant. They never identified themselves.

The Weavers owned three dogs, two small crossbred collie mutts and a yellow lab, a big pup a little over a year old whose most potent weapon was his tail with which he could beat a full-grown man to death. The dog, Striker, was a close member of the Weaver family. Not only was he a companion for the children, but in the winter he pulled the family sled to haul their water supply from the spring below. When the dogs discovered the intruders, they raised a ruckus, and Randy, his friend Kevin, and Randy's 14-year-old son Sam grabbed their guns and followed the dogs to investigate.

When the government agents were confronted with the barking dog, they did what men who have been taught to kill do. They shot

Striker. The boy, barely larger than a ten-year old child, heard his dog's yelp, saw the dog fall, and, as a 14-year-old might, he returned the fire. Then the government agents shot the child in the arm. He turned and ran, the arm flopping, and when he did the officers, still unidentified as such, shot the child in the back and killed him.

Kevin Harris witnessed the shooting of the dog. Then he saw Sam being shot as he turned around and ran. To Kevin there was no alternative. He knew if he ran these three intruders, whoever they were, would kill him as well. In defense of himself, he raised his rifle and shot in the direction of the officer who had killed the boy. Then, while the officers were in disarray, Kevin retreated to the Weaver cabin.

In the meantime, Randy Weaver had been off in another direction and only heard the shooting, the dog's yelp, and the gunfire that followed. Randy hollered for his son and shot his shotgun in the air to attract the boy.

"Come on home, Sam. Come home."

Over and over he called.

Finally he heard the boy call back: "I'm comin', Dad." Those were the last words he ever heard from his son.

Later that same day Randy, Kevin, and Vicki Weaver, Randy's wife, went down to where the boy lay and carried his body back to an outbuilding near their cabin. There they removed the child's clothing and bathed his wounds and prepared the body. The next evening, Weaver's oldest daughter, Sarah, 16, Kevin and Randy went back to the shed to have a last look at Sam. When they did, the government snipers opened fire. Randy was hit in the shoulder. The three turned and ran for the house where Vicki, with her ten-month-old baby in her arms, stood holding the door open. As the three entered the house Vicki was shot and slowly fell to her knees, her head resting on the floor like one kneeling in prayer. Randy ran up and took the baby that she clutched, and then he lifted his wife's head. Half of her face was blown away.

Kevin was also hit. Huge areas of muscle in his arm had been blown out, and his lung was punctured in several places. Randy and his 16-year-old daughter stretched the dead mother on the floor of the cabin and covered her with a blanket where she remained for over eight days as the siege progressed.

By this time there were officers by the score, troops, armored personnel carriers, helicopters, radios, televisions, robots, and untold armaments surrounding the house. I will not burden you with the misery and the horror the family suffered in the standoff. I will tell you that finally Bo Gritz, Randy's former commander in the Special Forces, came to help in the negotiations. Gritz told Randy that if he would surrender, Gritz would guarantee him a fair trial, and before the negotiations came to an end, Randy came to the belief that I would represent him. Although Gritz had contacted me before he spoke to Randy, I had only agreed to talk to Randy. But the accuracy of what was said between Gritz and me and what was heard by Randy somehow got lost in the horror, and Randy's belief that I would represent him if he surrendered was, in part, his motivation for finally submitting to arrest.

And so my friend, Alan, you can now understand the pain I feel in this case. It is the pain that comes from the realization that we have permitted a government to act in our name and on our behalf in a criminal fashion. It is the pain of watching the government as it now attempts to lie about its complicity in this affair and to cover its crimes by charging Randy with crimes he did not commit, including murder. It is the pain of seeing an innocent woman with her child in her arms murdered and innocent children subjected to these atrocities. Indeed, as a human being I feel Randy's irrepressible pain and horror and grief.

I also feel your pain, my friend. Yet I also know that in the end, if you were the judge at the trial of Adolph Eichmann, you would have insisted that he not have ordinary counsel, but the best counsel. In the same way, if you were the judge in Randy's case, and you had the choice, I have no doubt that despite your own pain you might well have appointed me to defend him. In the end you would know that the Holocaust must never stand for part justice, or average justice, but for that most notable of ideals—that even the enemies of the Jews themselves must receive the best justice the system can provide. If it were otherwise, the meaning of the Holocaust would be accordingly besmirched.

Alan, I agree with your arguments. They are proper and they are true. I agree that my defense of Randy Weaver may attach a legitimacy and a dignity to his politics and religion. But it may, as well, stand for the proposition that there are those who do not condone this kind of criminal action by our government. I view the defense of Randy Weaver's case as an opportunity to address a more vital issue, one that transcends a white separatist movement or notions of the supremacy of one race over another, for the ultimate enemy of any people is not the angry hate groups that fester within, but a government itself that has lost its respect for the individual. The ultimate enemy of democracy is not the drug dealer or the crooked politician or the crazed skinhead. The ultimate enemy is the New King that has become so powerful it can murder its own citizens with impunity.

To the same extent that Randy Weaver cannot find justice in this country we, too, will soon be deprived of justice. At last, my defense of Randy Weaver is a defense of every Jew and every gentile, for every black and every gay who loves freedom and deploras tyranny.

Although I understand that it will be easy for my defense of Randy Weaver to be confused with an endorsement of the politics of the Aryan Nation, my challenge will be to demonstrate that we can still be a nation where the rights of the individual, despite his race color, or religion, remain supreme. If this be not so, it is because we have forgotten the lessons of our histories—the history of the American Revolution as well as the history of the Holocaust.

And so my friend, Alan, if I were to withdraw from the defense of Randy Weaver as you request, I would be required to abandon my belief that this system has any remaining virtue. I would be more at fault that the federal government that his murdered these people, for I have not been trained to murder but to defend. I would be less of a man than my client who had the courage of his convictions. I would lose all respect for myself. I would be unable to any longer be your friend, for friendship must always have its foundation in respect. Therefore as my friend, I ask that you not require this of me. I ask, instead, for your prayers, your understanding, and your continued love.

As ever,

Treasury Testimony On Waco

What follows are portions of testimony from Ronald K. Noble, Assistant Secretary of Enforcement for the Department of the Treasury before the U.S. House of Representatives, House Committee on Appropriations, Subcommittee on Treasury, Postal Service, and General Government on October 22, 1993.

"I would like to thank the committee and you, Mr. Chairman, for the support and patience you have extended to the Department of the Treasury while we conducted our lengthy and searching review of the events leading up to the assault on the Branch Davidian compound outside Waco, Texas.

"The investigation produced a report that is more than 500 pages long. It reflects the hard work and dedication of many individuals. The day to day direction of the investigation was directed by the project director, H. Geoffrey Moulton, Jr., a former federal prosecutor who earlier was a law clerk for Chief Justice William Rehnquist. With me here today are the two assistant project directors. David Douglas, also a former federal prosecutor, is on leave from private practice at Wiley, Rein & Fielding here in Washington. Special Agent Lewis C. Merletti, the other assistant project director, is presently a deputy assistant director with the Secret Service. He has been with the Secret Service for over 19 years. Special agent Merletti coordinated the activities of the 16 experienced treasury investigators assigned to the review from all of our law enforcement bureaus except, of course, ATF.

"To assure the American people that the report would be an uncompromising examination of the events leading up to the tragedy on February 28, we reached beyond the Treasury Department. We consulted 6 non-Treasury experts in tactical operations.

"To examine the issues arising from Koresh's stockpile of weapons, we also called upon two experts in firearms and ammunition.

"Finally, to review the implications of shipping invoices documenting the receipt of explosives materials and components we utilized the services of two experts in explosives and the manufacture of improvised explosives devices.

"The investigation and report were guided by three independent reviewers of national prominence and unquestioned integrity.

"Each of the independent reviewers has provided to Secretary Bentsen a letter assuring the secretary that the review was thorough, fair and impartial. With your permission, Mr. Chairman, at the conclusion of my remarks I would like to make those letters part of the record of these proceedings.

"In addition, Mr. Chairman, the office of the inspector general for the Department of the Treasury monitored the investigation to ensure that a reasonable investigative plan was formulated, that it was properly implemented, that all reasonable leads were pursued and that the final report adequately addressed the material issues. With your permission, I would also like to make that opinion part of the record.

"I would be remiss in not mentioning one final group without whom we could not have carried out the mandate of President Clinton to conduct a 'vigorous and thorough' review of the events in Waco—the ATF agents. We received unqualified cooperation from the hundreds of line agents we interviewed. They wanted the truth to be told. And to ensure that it was, they not only subjected themselves willingly to protracted and no doubt painful scrutiny—they welcomed it. Without their support of our efforts and their professional commitment to effective law enforcement, a difficult task may have been rendered impossible. In sum, Mr. Chairman, while the events outside Waco led to a tragedy unequalled in Treasury law enforcement, I believe the effort undertaken to learn from these events demonstrated the exceptional professionalism of Treasury's law enforcement bureaus. The men and women involved in the Waco inquiry and report should make all of us proud.

"The review found that there was ample justification for investigating David Koresh and his followers and that the investigation was properly and professionally conducted. Make no mistake: David Koresh had committed numerous felony violations of federal firearms and explosives laws and he presented a danger to the community. Before the raid, the investigation revealed that David Koresh had received explosives, assault rifles and ammunition. He also had the means and material to convert those assault rifles to illegal automatic weapons—weapons that were used against ATF agents on February 28.

"Koresh was investigated based on the evidence that he was violating federal firearms and explosives laws. He was not investigated for his religious beliefs. Those religious beliefs however should not have been—and were not—allowed to shield him from complying with federal law.

"As you all now know, we found that the tactical plan developed to serve the warrants was seriously flawed in several respects. However, four of our tactical experts concluded that the plan could have succeeded had the intelligence on which it was based been accurate. But all six experts identified serious deficiencies in the plan and ultimately challenged the wisdom of conducting a raid under the circumstances presented. Although we cannot prejudge all future situations, we must be open to the possibility that a dynamic entry as ATF confronted exposing agents, innocent persons and children to gunfire, may simply not be an acceptable law enforcement option.

"The report details the actions taken and statements made by some ATF field supervisors and national managers after the raid. The report concludes that statements were made to the public and the review team which were less than accurate. Indeed, it is difficult to characterize them as anything other than lies.

"As important as finding out what happened in Waco and why, is ensuring as best we can that similar tragedies do not occur again.

"Law enforcement will always be dangerous and at times deadly. Nonetheless, we owe it to those who risk their lives, as well as those whose lives may be put at risk, to ensure that each operation is thoroughly planned and executed with the utmost regard for safety.

"Mr. Chairman, in closing, I would like to thank the hundreds of people who assisted us in our review including this committee and your staff. We must learn from the past and our mistakes if we are to improve the future. I hope that our efforts at Treasury since that fateful Sunday in February will contribute to greater safety for our officers and better law enforcement."

Paul D. Wilcher's Letter To Janet Reno Concerning Waco

What follows are excerpts of a [101 page] letter written by Paul D. Wilcher, Attorney, now deceased [suicided, approximately June 20, 1993; see pages 19 & 44 of the 7/6/93 CONTACT and page 23 of the 7/13/93 CONTACT], to Janet Reno on Friday, May 21, 1993 concerning WACO.

"The meaning and significance of this new information—particularly with respect to the Justice Department's ongoing Waco investigation, and future indictments and prosecutions—i.e., you are headed in the wrong direction—because Bush Administration holdovers in the Justice Department, along with others tied to the CIA, are preventing you from ever learning the truth about what actually happened in Waco.

"[I bring to your attention] the extreme sensitivity of this information, and my specific proposal as to how you should handle it. The lives of key participants, other witnesses, and even myself are now in grave danger as a result of my passing this information on to you. If you let this information fall into the hands of the wrong persons, some or all of those who know the truth about Waco and are now prepared to come forward and testify could well be "silenced" (i.e., murdered) in the very near future.

"...and the extreme importance of this information to the overall quality of justice under the Clinton Administration, to your own place in history as Attorney General, and to President Clinton's very life and personal safety. This information, if handled in the manner I have spelled out in detail below, presents you and President Clinton with a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to expose, confront, and hopefully root out much of the system-wide corruption which has been at the core of the federal government for at least the past 30 years.

"The purpose of this letter, and of my meeting with you (whenever that occurs), is for me to deliver to you extremely sensitive information about the deaths of the 86 men, women, and children who perished at the Branch Davidian compound on Monday, April 19, 1993, and the truth about how it all happened.

"On the principles that the Justice Department must be administered with honesty and integrity, that no man or woman is above the law, and that the government itself must never be allowed to become the chief law breaker (rather than the chief law enforcer), you stated in your April 6th address: 'As we deal with the issues of violence and crime [such as the Waco incident and other matters which are the subjects of this letter], we must never forget the awesome power of the federal government. And we must harness that power to make sure that innocent people are not charged, or even tainted, by our actions, and that the guilty are convicted—according to principles of strict due process and fair play, and with adherence to our Constitution.'

"But the action I am undertaking here—blowing the whistle on the truth of what really happened in Waco on April 19th, putting that ugly truth into its broader context, and presenting to you a detailed, comprehensive plan as to how that underlying system-wide corruption can finally be exposed and rooted out—this is something far more serious than I have ever done in the past. For in presenting all this to you, I am, quite literally, laying my life on the line.

"However, let me hasten to add that at the conclusion of this presentation, I have set forth in specific detail a procedure under which some 16 or so men, each with extensive 'intelligence' and covert black operations backgrounds, over the past 30 years or so, many of whom do have direct, first-hand knowledge of what occurred in Waco on April 19, will come forward—if given full immunity and federal protection for themselves and their families—and will testify, under oath, at length and in specific detail, concerning not only all of these events surrounding this tragedy near Waco, but also concerning numerous other highly illegal and criminal black operations.

"In other words, David Koresh may have been what most people would consider a thoroughly disgusting, and mentally disturbed, megalomaniac. But he was the CIA's megalomaniac—or at least someone there was all too happy to use [him] for their devious right-wing purposes if and when the opportunity ever presented itself.

"Indeed, David Koresh and these six (6) other men in his inner circle had apparently been preprogrammed by the CIA to become, on cue, Manchurian Candidate-type robot assassins.

"This is one of the most crucially important pieces of information concerning this entire scenario. Koresh and his six (6) fellow sleepers were apparently pre-programmed by the CIA to become 'wind up, use once, then throw away' robot-type assassins

"The CIA has apparently been able to produce Manchurian Candidate-type robot assassins ever since the late 1940s, using methods reminiscent of the 'brain washing' we have all heard about in Soviet (and American) prisoner-of-war camps and prisons...

"One of the most important features of this kind of mind control programming or 'brain washing' is the fact that critical segments of the subject's memory—including most or all of the programming experience itself—are erased (or at least suppressed and deeply buried), with new false 'memories' implanted into the subject's unconscious mind in their place. Indeed, all of this mind, behavior, and memory alteration is done at the subconscious or unconscious level.

"Indeed, once the CIA's programming has been completed, memory blocks are installed into the subject's subconscious mind to make it next-to-impossible for him ever to recover these critical mind-and-behavior-altering experiences from his internal memory bank.

"Therefore, since he is unable to remember what was done to him—or when, where, how, or under what circumstances it happened—he is also virtually helpless to confront and overcome what his CIA programmers have done to him. He is thus at their mercy from then on—though, of course, they have no mercy.

"Wet Ops: Such 'dirty work' is generally referred to, among 'black' operatives within the Agency, as wet operations—operations where one or more persons are to be killed, where human blood is to be spilled.

"Debriefings After CIA WET Operations—The normal procedure is that after each black or wet operation, all persons participating in or connected with the operation are totally debriefed by a special debriefing team sent from Agency headquarters—including a psychiatrist skilled in the various mind control and memory block techniques we have been discussing.

"In this debriefing, each member of the wet team is required to recite to the debriefing team exactly what happened during the operation, in a precise, step-by-step, detailed manner. Each member's recitation is generally repeated several times—once normally, once under hypnosis, once with a polygraph, and once under scopolamine—and only when the debriefers are fully satisfied that they have gotten all the details and that there are no glaring inconsistencies between these different recitations, is the debriefing brought to a close.

"Part of the reason for this debriefing process is to provide detailed records and feedback to the Agency concerning all of these top-level black or wet operations—i.e., precisely what was done? Was the operation a success? Did it go off as planned? What mistakes, if any, were made?

"Then, at the conclusion of the debriefing, once the debriefers are confident they have gotten all of the factual details, each operative is put under deep hypnosis, and the psychiatrist in the team implants memory blocks into his subconscious memory, to block many of the gory details as to precisely how each of the persons targeted for elimination was 'taken out'.

"The importance of this point cannot be overstated. For, this means that deep within the bowels of the Central Intelligence Agency—if you only know where to look—you can find the detailed debriefing records of all of the black and wet operations carried out by the CIA over the past 30 years or so.

"You should subpoena these records immediately, Attorney General Reno. And once you get them—if you ever get them—you should put them under the tightest security imaginable to protect them from being tampered with or destroyed.

"Second, to alleviate the guilt which would otherwise be associated with these memories...

"Comments on wet operations: When such wet operations are used instead to take-out citizens of this country who do not pose a legitimate threat to the society at large—like David Koresh and the other 85 men, women, and children at the Branch Davidian compound—and whose only real threat is that if they were given a legitimate trial before an honest judge and jury, they might expose some of the CIA's dirty business concerning its top secret mind control operations and the murderous purposes for which they are used—i.e., where these wet operations are used merely for the purpose of covering up and burying the truth, along with the innocent victims, in order to protect the guilty—then such wet operations have clearly gone way out of bounds, and absolutely must be exposed, so that those responsible can be held accountable...

"Returning to David Koresh and his 6 fellow 'sleepers' in Waco: The point to be made here is that David Koresh and his 6 fellow sleepers were low-level Manchurian Candidate-type programmed robot assassins—who were scheduled to be used at some point in the future, but who had not yet been used for their preordained secret missions.

"Whereas the wet team that went in to take them out were some of the CIA's top professional killers, the term sleeper in this context connotes:

"(a) that the mind control programming which had been done on Koresh and his inner circle had probably been done a number of years earlier;

"(b) that the secret instructions implanted deep into their subconscious memories had lain dormant over the intervening years;

"(c) that the CIA now had to arouse Koresh and the other 6 from their 'sleep'—i.e., to reactivate the secret conditioned responses implanted into their subconscious memories—in order to get them to perform their secret missions on cue, whenever the CIA deemed it appropriate;

"(d) that the CIA could also activate the secret self-destruct signal, to cause the robotic suicides of Koresh and his inner circle, once they had performed their secret mission, or at any other time the CIA decided they were no longer of any use to the Agency.

"The primary purpose of this enormous arsenal was to allow Koresh and his 6 fellow sleepers to carry out whatever secret assignments they were to be given by their CIA 'handlers', if and when those handlers felt the time was right to activate the CIA's prior secret mind control programming of these 7 robotic assassins.

"Apparently, one of the factors which strongly influenced the CIA to initiate the original BATF raid on February 28, in the first place, was that Koresh and his 6 fellow sleepers were said to be resisting the attempts by their handlers to prepare them for that secret mission.

"Therefore, one of the principal reasons for the initial February 28 raid was to chasten Koresh and his fellow sleepers—to frighten them, and to whip them into shape.

"The truth is that these incessant loud and obnoxious noises—the acid rock music, Tibetan chants, Christmas songs, etc.—were merely the cover or mask for what was really bombarding the compound and its occupants—20 gigahertz microwave transmissions, designed to be as stressful and destructive to the human physiology, inner ear, psyche, and mental stability as possible.

"In short, the CIA has perfected the use of such high-intensity microwave transmissions on human subjects to such an extent they are absolutely certain that over time, such transmissions are beyond the ability of most human beings to endure, and that sooner or later, they will drive any normal person crazy—literally—or provoke him or her to suicide or murder.

"The members of The Delta Force were to bring everyone out alive—except for David Koresh and his six fellow CIA sleepers. Those 7 men were to be killed—no questions asked—period.

"For under no circumstances were these 7 ever to be allowed to testify in a Court of law or otherwise to reveal to the public what they knew about the CIA's secret mind control programming or its Manchurian Candidate-type robot assassins.

"In other words, this Delta Force plan, had it been allowed to proceed, would have been a CIA wet operation—carried out by some of the CIA's top professional killers, fittingly dressed in all black garb, to 'take out' these 7 CIA sleepers once and for all, so that their potentially explosive testimony concerning the CIA's secret mind control program would be silenced forever.

"What was actually propelled into the compound was a nerve reagent—a neuro toxin—nerve gas—a virulent poisonous substance, like curare—which instantly paralyzed and rendered totally helpless and defenseless all of the 95 men, women, and children inside the compound—except for those 9, later rescued, like David Thibideaux, who were on the 2nd or 3rd floor with their windows wide open on both sides, and who were thus spared the deadly effects of this tear gas/nerve gas combination.

"For all the others, they could no longer coordinate their muscles in the effort required even just to get up...

"This is an extremely serious matter, Attorney General Reno. For it means that here the U.S. military, the FBI, and the Justice Department—all directed by the CIA—used nerve gas on innocent men, women, and children in our civilian population—and then proceeded to murder them in cold blood.

"The remaining task for this wet team—after the multiple murders had been carried out—while they were still inside, was to place 3 or 4 canisters of Willie Peter (white phosphorus) in strategic locations throughout the compound in order to start the fires.

"These canisters were all equipped with delayed timing devices, all set to go off simultaneously."

Jury Selection And Ongoing News in Davidian Trial

In an article by Jeff Brailey, "SAN ANTONIO—January 10, 1993—Around three dozen demonstrators greeted the panel of prospective Branch Davidian Trial jurors as they arrived at the U.S. Courthouse in San Antonio this morning. The 84 men and women from 14 counties in South Texas arrived on three buses. As each bus deposited its passengers near a courthouse entrance, the demonstrators, standing about forty feet away, shouted for them to vote their consciences.

The activists, who began picketing at around 7:30am, came from as far away as California. They were mostly made up of members of the Fully Informed Jury Association (FIJA) and Libertarians. Four Branch Davidians also were present. They were Catherine Mattson, Edna Doyle, Myrtle Riddle, and Janet Kindricks. David Koresh's grandmother, Jean Holub, arrived later in the morning.

Nearly 200 media representatives were accredited by the U.S. Marshal Service and most were present for this first day of jury selection. The Times and The Sun of London were present as well as media representatives from Australia and all major news networks, services, and agencies from the United States.

Ken Fawcett of Dallas, reporting for Radio Free America, was selected to be part of the five-person media pool that was allowed into the courtroom to view the proceedings. The only others who were present were the defendants, attorneys from both sides, and a few visitors. None of the family members were seated in the courtroom and the Branch Davidians and Mrs. Holub also were refused entry.

During the jury selection, journalists not allowed in the courtroom listened to the proceedings from a press room in the building next door. The sound system was very faulty in the morning, but improved during the afternoon session.

Larry Dodge of the FIJA presented a motion to the court asking that it reconsider its decision to keep the jury wheel secret. He said that Judge Walter C. Smith made the jury anonymous not because of any threat to the jurors, but because his group was planning to distribute leaflets to potential jurors.

Jack DeVault, local activist, stated that the judge's action constitutes "Prior Restraint" and is illegal.

When the judge briefed prospective jurors, he listed three reasons why he ordered them to be anonymous. First, he said he wanted them to make sure their decisions were based on the evidence and not outside pressure. Second, he didn't want the jurors concerned about anyone contacting friends and neighbors. Third, he didn't want the jurors in the Branch Davidian Trial to be confused with another anonymous jury being selected in the same courthouse this week in a "Mexican Mafia" Drug Trial.

Interestingly, at least ten of the 29 jurors questioned today admitted in their pre-selection questionnaire that they didn't believe people should be allowed to own firearms. Upon further inquiry by Judge Smith, each one said they specifically oppose handgun ownership by non-law enforcement officers.

A large percentage of the jurors questioned today stated they either were affiliated with law enforcement or had close relatives or friends who were. Several were either in the National Guard or Reserves.

After the judge recessed for the day, several defense attorneys were questioned by journalists. To a man, they all agreed the judge had performed in a fair manner. To reporters listening to the proceedings, including Ken Fawcett, the judge also seemed to be trying to be as equitable as possible.

Jury selection continues at 9:00 am tomorrow.

In an article from the Jan. 9 edition of the MODESTO BEE, written by Chip Brown, SAN ANTONIO—"The confrontation that ended last spring in hellish fire and the deaths of religious leader David Koresh and more than 80 Branch Davidian devotees moves Monday into a federal courtroom.

"Eleven surviving followers are left to defend themselves against murder charges stemming from the botched raid on the Waco compound by agents of the U.S. Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms last Feb. 28. Gunfire killed four ATF agents and six Branch Davidians.

"A 12th follower charged with the others last August in a 10-count indictment pleaded guilty to a lesser charge in exchange for her testimony in the murder trial.

"Prosecutors will try to prove the defendants murdered the agents as part of a conspiracy to fulfill Koresh's doomsday vision that the world would end after a cataclysmic clash with the government.

"Defense attorneys intend to show the government was to blame for the gun battle by going ahead with a poorly planned raid even after losing the element of surprise. The defense plans to call U.S. Attorney General Janet Reno, former ATF Director Stephen Higgins and former FBI Director William Sessions as witnesses.

"Inevitably, lawyers say, freedom of religion and the right to bear arms will be central themes in the trial which is expected to last two months."

In an article taken from the Jan. 9 edition of THE ORLANDO (FLORIDA) SENTINEL, "Because the defendants remain committed to Koresh's beliefs, some of their lawyers have indicated they will try to avoid blaming Koresh in court.

"The Branch Davidians were devoted to God, the Bible and each other," said Mike DeGuerin, a Houston lawyer who represented Koresh during the 51-day standoff that followed the ATF raid and ended April 19 in an inferno as the FBI tried to force a surrender with tanks and tear gas.

"They believed sincerely that the world was going to end, and end in catastrophe," DeGuerin said. They believed that they were going to be attacked and they were right. Unless the religious issues are given a full and fair airing in the court, then it's not going to be a trial, it's going to be a sentencing."

"According to court motions and interviews before [Judge] Smith's order [not to discuss the case with media], defense lawyers intend to fight the murder charges by showing the Branch Davidians:

* Were merely defending themselves against excessive force used by 100 ATF agents seeking to arrest Koresh on weapons charges.

* Were educated people simply studying their religion and minding their own business out in the country.

* Had the right to bear arms as provided by state and federal law."

In an article from the Jan. 11 edition of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, "Prosecutors said Monday they plan to call more than 140 witnesses as jury selection began in the trial of 11 Branch Davidians...

"More than 80 prospective jurors were called for consideration by U.S. District Judge Walter Smith, who has ordered that jurors' identities be kept secret."

In an article from the Jan. 12 edition of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, "A jury was selected Tuesday in the murder and conspiracy trial of 11 members of the Branch Davidian sect, with opening arguments set to begin today.

"In a trial expected to last at least two months, the defendants face potential life imprisonment if convicted in connection with the deaths of four federal agents in the government's Feb. 28 raid on the Branch Davidian compound near Waco.

"The selection of the jury, which includes two alternates, lasted two days, with 43 potential jurors questioned about their views on guns and tolerance of religious ideas different from their own.

"Citing the bloody raid, the American Civil Liberties Union and the National Rifle Association joined forces Monday to accuse federal agents of using deadly force without cause and conducting illegal or ill-advised searches."

In an article from the Jan. 13 edition of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, "The government Wednesday opened its case against 11 Branch Davidians by telling jurors that David Koresh expected disciples 'to kill for God'. The defense blamed a faltering agency that 'declared war on its citizens.'

"Members of the Texas Rangers were the first witnesses called...

"He [Assistant U.S. Attorney Jahn] said the cult had prepared for a giant fire so they would be 'sucked up to heaven.'

"Ten defense lawyers took turns telling the jury and a packed courtroom that their clients were forced to retaliate as victims of an ill-conceived raid designed to pump life into a faltering government agency.

"These people, if they killed anyone, it was in self-defense," said Douglas Tinker, lawyer for Brad Branch.

"We will show that the ATF declared war on its citizens," said Steven R. "Rocket" Rosen, who is representing Kevin Whitecliff and Livingston Fagan."

In an article from the Jan. 14 edition of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, "Prosecutors added two .50-caliber rifles Thursday to dozens of charred weapons presented as evidence that 11 followers of David Koresh stockpiled firearms while plotting to murder federal agents.

"The rifles fire bullets that can pierce tank armor but can be purchased legally, Texas Ranger George Turner testified. He said there is no limit on the number of legally purchased civilian guns someone may own.

"The government's evidence includes at least 100 guns and gun pieces, mostly civilian makes. The evidence also includes ammunition, silencers, military-style helmets and clothing, fuel cans and a homemade bayonet-type weapon.

"Prosecutors want to prove that Koresh and his disciples had prepared for holy war against the government."

In an article from the Jan. 15 edition of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, "Testimony Friday in the murder and conspiracy trial of 11 members of the Branch Davidian sect focused on something that's missing: the front door to the sect's compound near Waco, Texas.

"Prosecutors introduced as evidence one-half of a set of double metal doors they said were at the entrance of the compound when it was raided by federal agents on Feb. 28, 1993.

"But the Texas Rangers state law officers testified that they were unable to find the other half of the set of doors, which could be crucial in determining which side shot first in the shootout that followed the raid.

"Prosecutors say the heavily armed cult members shot first, while surviving Branch Davidians argue that members of the sect acted in self-defense after federal agents opened fire on them.

"Among the biggest issues in the case is who shot first, defense attorney Tim Evans said during a trial break."

In an article from the Jan. 22 edition of THE BAKERSFIELD CALIFORNIAN, "A defense attorney grilled a federal agent Friday on the decision to go ahead with a raid on religious leader David Koresh despite a plan to abort the raid if the element of surprise was lost."

Weaver Revisited?

Sanders County, Montana

1775 - Another Settler is Raided - 1993

At 12:15 p.m. September 23rd, 1993 Andy Peroni got on his motorcycle to get his mail. He travels down his driveway, across Trout Creek up a private road at least a mile where it connects to the local county gravel road. As he approaches the intersection he sees a late model red Ford pickup carrying a white camper. The two men in the cab wave as he passes. As he approaches his mail box an older model white Ford pickup carrying a white camper approaches him from the opposite direction.

Suddenly men come at him from all directions, all in various civilian clothing, none displaying a badge or identifying themselves. As he stood in utter amazement he was slammed face down to the gravel as one of his assailants screamed at him, "get down on the ground mother f_ _ _ _," while shaking his gun at him. He was cuffed very tightly and thrown into the rear of the white on white camper then hauled somewhere just a few miles away and kept there for hours, still not knowing who his assailants were or what their motives were. His assumptions were that this was a hit and he would soon be dead.

Eventually he was taken 20 miles down Hwy 200 to the county jail where he was put in leg irons and belly band with cuffs. The local jailer asked Andy, "who are these men?" Andy replied, "I don't know". Andy then informed the agents that his wife was pregnant and that they would be held responsible if anything happened to her or the children. Andy was then escorted to the local airport by town police (#T-2) and county deputy (#35-5) where he was placed in the custody of three unknown men, placed aboard a dark colored helicopter and flown directly to Missoula, Montana. Upon arrival he and his escorts were driven to a holding cell by a woman named Jackie using a Forest Service vehicle.

Meanwhile at home his wife and children are holding lunch awaiting dad's return. Everyone was expecting grandma to show up at any time but no one knew what she would be arriving in. So at 2:45p.m. when a light green pickup carrying a white camper was noticed coming up their driveway, they did not feel overly concerned even though Andy was way overdue.

As the pickup approached their home, Judy Peroni went out on the porch and could see two men in the cab with a woman seated in the middle, none of whom she recognized. As the three got out and came towards the house the woman had her hands in her pockets, just as Judy asked "who are you and what do you want?", the rear of the camper burst open and at least seven men rushed towards her and the children. Most of them rushed right past her into the house, all with their guns drawn; finally one of them shoved papers at her. As she watched in total shock, up to fifteen more vehicles came roaring up their driveway. At least five were light green Forest Service vehicles, some with patrol lights on top. As the agents stormed through their home, with the family still at gun point, a large dark green helicopter landed in the pasture in front of their house; six men, one woman and two dogs exited the helicopter. They proceeded to place the family dogs into a penned area, then started combing the grounds with the two dogs. The search continued on both inside and out.

That evening the helicopter left without its cargo. After intense questioning, the children were relocated to a neighbor's home by county deputy (#35-4). Even though Judy was suffering great pain with her pregnancy, she refused to leave her home unattended and totally at their mercy. However, by the next morning she was forced to seek medical attention because of the pain and bleeding. On the way she lost the baby.

The search and seizure continued all through the next day, as observed by a neighbor on a nearby mountain top through his hi-powered telescope. When Judy arrived back home later that afternoon, she was forced to stand outside in the cold for questioning for one-and-a-half hours in spite of her condition, as witnessed by a retired lawman and her mother-in-law.

The raid was orchestrated out of the Kalispell, Montana Forest Service office by agent Lorney Jay Deist. The warrant was signed on or about September 20th, 1993 by the Honorable Leif B. Erickson, Federal Magistrate Judge, Missoula Division, P.O. Box 7219 Missoula, Montana 59807-7209. (For correspondence, Andy's case # is MCR-9358).

In addition to the Forest Service, the F.B.I., B.A.T.F. and U.S. Marshals, D.E.A., Fish and Game as well as the local Sheriff's Department participated in the raid. There were an estimated minimum of 75 agents involved. However the Sheriff himself was not. Both Andy and Judy's names appear on the warrant to be seized, yet only Andy was seized. Items to be seized were: (1) marijuana: both growing plants and processed marijuana ready for distribution. (2) All equipment used in the cultivation and distribution of marijuana, including but not limited to grow lights, timers, fans, watering systems, fertilizers, potting soil, scales, plastic bags and associated containers. (3) All written and printed materials dealing with the cultivation of marijuana and all written materials generated regarding status and growth cycles of cultivated marijuana. (4) All articles of personal property tending to establish the identity of the person or persons having possession of or dominion and control over the previously described property including but not limited to rent receipts, utility company receipts cancelled mail envelopes, keys. (5) U.S. currency, precious metals, jewelry and financial instruments including but not limited to stocks, bonds, which are evidence of proceeds of drug trafficking. (6) A brown horse with a white stocking on the left hind hock. (7) An orange or light red nylon horse halter. (8) A bridle with thin leather headstall and a straight or curved bit. (9) A light colored canvas or cloth bag with a drawstring top. (10) A chocolate brown western styled hat. (11) A green camouflage coat. (12) Boots with an air bob type tread, round air bobs on the sole and square air bobs on the heel. (13) Motorcycle with a heavy lugged v-pattern tire tread.

Dear reader, think about it, how much of the above list is in the average righteous home in America? Please be patient and study the above with the foregoing list so you may learn before it's your turn.

On 9-23-93 (day of the raid) only one receipt of items was issued and that from the B.A.T.F. for ten rifles, handguns and shotguns plus small quantities of various ammunition. None of these items were listed on the warrant yet B.A.T.F. agent Brad Farnsworth saw fit to steal them.

Andy served 2 1/2 years for blowing up a swimming pool in a bar and receiving stolen goods. It all happened 23 years ago in California. I am told that in Montana after four years you get your Second Amendment rights back. I am also told that if California does not notify their former felons of a felon's opportunity to regain their Second Amendment rights, such possession charges can not apply.

On 9-24-93 in the absence of anyone from the Peroni family, the agents produced three more lists of items, the E A.T.F. list had only five lines and signed by agent Brad Farnsworth. The Forest Service lists were signed by agent Billy Stewart and read as follows: One green plastic bucket containing soil (boy am I in trouble), one black duster coat oil skin 3/4 length outback (fits child), one list of firearms written in blue ink (B.A.T.F.. list), one hand painted note on rapid-gro plant food can (on kitchen counter almost empty, used for flowers in the house). Assorted bank statements, deposit slips and checks (he is a rancher, what do you expect?), assorted papers including savings deposit slip, owner's manual for a Marlin rifle and a list of gun numbers, one brown felt cowboy hat with light colored band, one black baseball cap: Miller racing team, (purchased by mom for son J.R. to wear to school). Assorted cartridges, shotgun shells, shotgun shell primers and primers and magazine, five tablets: 3 1/2 xanax 2 (for Judys heart condition), one address book, one address book from Mrs. Peroni's purse, (what's in your address book?), one pair of combat style boots taken from Mr. Peroni at his arrest, one six point elk rack with 1992 Montana hunting tags (Andy has purchased a hunting license from Montana for at least the last 13 years), brown cowboy hat suede (the custom of this area), owl feet (two from his pet that died), address of seed exchange (most of us grow our own gardens), two maps: one of Kootenai, one of ?????Montana (most country folk around here have maps of their backyards), five canvas panniers (bags for pack horses), one bit and bridle (won't fit the horse they took), 1988 atc 250es 200 Honda 3 wheeler????(warrant said motor cycle children's toy), 32oz. plant fertilizer (given to Judy by neighbor Brock and Linda for house plants), two black plastic pots, planters (selected out of several shapes and sizes and colors from plants that perished from birthday and anniversary gifts, etc.), blue address book, one horse black gelding/black appy, (the warrant differs, this horse has two white socks and is black). So where was the marijuana and all the support equipment as alleged and why were the agents going between Andy's property and the neighbor's with Andy's ladder during the raid?

This writer believes the Peroni family is being set up to make room for big business; after all he is former Special Forces and look at how many of them are dead, missing or in prison, The local Forest Service Marshal (Jerry Robbins) of Trout Creek, Montana has been quoted as saying, "there is ore up their valley." This writer has discovered that this whole region is one of the richest uranium finds in the world. Many strange things have happened here including the Weaver murders which is located only 1 1/2 hours from here and is also rich in uranium ore.

Andy has been battling the Forest Service for years in the courts over the use of the local citizens' private road for big business, i.e., logging and mining. He believes that erosion caused by the above will force them from their land.

In mid July, 1993, a man named Brian Kahn (whom Andy has had problems with involving Andy's cattle) was arrested farther up Andy's narrow valley and charged with a felony possession of dangerous drugs with intent to sell. Acting Sheriff Perry Mock (#35-5) and Deputy Jesse Gascon (#35-4) handled the entire situation all by themselves. Just two men, not 75 plus! Game Warden Mark Soderling and Forest Service Jerry Robbins were on Forest Service property.

According to the local paper, The Ledger dated Thursday, July 22, 1993, "Robbins transported the bulk of the marijuana plants back". Back to where? Everyone around here knows it's open range, meaning if you don't want the neighbors' cattle in your backyard, you must fence them out, not the other way around. So, for Andy to take care of his cattle he had to ride right through the trap that Robbins and his co-conspirators had set up with cameras, etc., knowing that it was just a matter of time before the Peroni family would be out of the way.

On August 28th, for son J.R.'s birthday the entire Peroni family went on a horseback ride to celebrate the occasion. Much to their surprise, they came across marijuana plants on adjacent property. According to Judy, pale green, sickly looking plants were hanging on to the edge of the creek and other strange rocky locations. Video tapes have been taken by private parties, also certified surveying to prove entrapment by certain agents. Andy has been brought before the Honorable Leif B. Erickson twice so far. The Forest Service has been caught lying on the stand. Private citizens are ready to testify as to the agents' lies. In the meantime Andy is looking at 180 years behind bars.

In all the years this writer has known Andy and his family I have never smelled, seen or heard of marijuana while in their company. Please keep them in your prayers.

Letter [all exhibits mentioned herein are on file in the CONTACT office] from Gary L. Wean To:

Det. Andrew T. Standley
Major Crime Detail
Santa Barbara Sheriff's Dept.
4434 Calle Real
Santa Barbara, Calif. 93110

Det. Standley;

Per our telephone conversation Friday, December 10, 1993, approximately 5:15 p.m.:
You asked me if I was in Ventura or Santa Barbara County three weeks prior to 12-10-93, and if I had an old rusty motorhome.

The answer to both questions was no. You also stated you had been looking for me as a possible witness, not as a suspect and the reason you were questioning me was regarding threats or some sort of action that had taken place against alleged Judges Slater and Adams of Santa Barbara County.

However you would not advise me of what had happened other than to state that a very serious crime of major proportions had been committed and that an official, formal crime report containing accusations had been made by the judges and filed with the Santa Barbara County Sheriff's Department.

But I subsequently learned that a force of four detectives from the Santa Barbara Sheriff's Department had gone to a specific neighborhood in Ventura where a relative resided (but I had never lived) and knocked on people's doors on the street asking questions about me.

The demeanor of the four detectives had left the residents of that neighborhood with the definite impression that I was a desperate, dangerous, wanted person rather than simply a witness who might have information regarding an incident.

Also the fact that you stated all my lawsuits involving the alleged judges Slater and Adams were being closely examined for evidence and proof of something I had done.

Regarding my whereabouts three weeks prior to our conversation on Friday Dec. 10, 1993:

In late October, 1993, I appeared in Ventura Superior Court and at that time was in California two or two-and-a-half days.

My records, gasoline and other credit cards, telephone calls, bank deposits, documented meetings with Josephine County, Oregon, and Oregon State employees, etc., document that I never left Oregon between the last of October 1993 and the 10th of December 1993, at which time I first learned that you were looking for me and I immediately called and cooperated with you, and gave you my telephone number and address.

However, there are far more evil, sinister reasons for the alleged judges, Slater and Adams to make their phony accusations and false crime report (which is a Penal Code Felony).

This is a vicious criminal conspiratorial set-up, the same as in 1989 when Chief Justice Malcolm Lucas ordered judges in Ventura and Santa Barbara County to 'lie in wait' and severely beat-up my process server, Michael A. Thomas in the public hallway of the Santa Barbara County Courthouse, (supposedly for trespassing).

On December 17, 1993, 1:30 p.m. my wife was scheduled to appear in Department 48, Ventura County Superior Court for a jury trial in Civil case No. 126048.

At 12:45p.m., Friday, December 17, 1993, I went to Department 48, forty five minutes early, the hallway was empty and the doors were locked. Adjacent to the courtroom doors a board was attached to the wall on which a two page calendar schedule for the day was pinned.

I was reading the schedule when a man appeared beside me.

He said, "Hi Gary; listen, I want to tell you something, you should get out of here as fast as you can, they are going to arrest you and throw you in jail on trumped-up charges, supposedly for threatening judges. With you in solitary confinement they'll force your wife to give them the documents they want. They won't let you out of jail until they get them."

The man left hurriedly—I seemed to recognize him from sometime in the past as being in law enforcement.

The two page schedule had fallen from the wall onto the floor. Picking them up I read the front page, on the top it had the words, 'Judge' but no name. EXHIBIT 'A'.

The second page at the top stated, 'Ventura County Municipal Court.'

I realized that the man who had warned me was telling the truth because at the top of page two it said, "Ventura County Municipal Court Calendar, Commissioner John H. Pattie." EXHIBIT 'B'.

They had switched to another phony judge because Malcolm Lucas, State Supreme Court Justice knew he did not have John J. Hunter handle the case any further because he had never, from the very beginning been a legitimate, authorized judge with jurisdiction to act in an American Court of law.

John H. Pattie is a 'low-life' petty shyster associated with Randolph Joyce and John Brown, two more shyesters who are involved deeply in the use, supply and sale of cocaine with Slater and Adams and other Ventura, Santa Barbara and San Luis Obispo County shyster lawyers and judges.

Realizing that the 1:30 p.m. court scheduling which was supposed to be a jury trial of Superior Court Civil Case No. 126048 was only an evil sham and a trap to falsely arrest and put me and my wife in jail, I left the Ventura County Center property.

At 1:30 p.m. John H. Pattie conducted a phony judicial hearing which he called a "trial without a jury" and ruled and made decisions and a judgement against my wife and myself.

Based on this judgement which is claimed to be a trial in an American court without the presence of the plaintiffs who, frightened and terrorized for their lives and welfare and property were afraid to even set foot in Ventura, Santa Barbara or San Luis Obispo Counties.

At this time it is not even known if it is safe for my wife and I to even be in another state. There is a terrible fear across the land among God fearing, law-abiding loyal American citizens, not of street gangs, drive-by shootings, etc., but of being put in jail and their families destroyed and everything they have worked for all their lives taken away from them with no legal, due process of law by cocaine-ridden shysters running around in black robes posing as American judges and making life-destroying decisions and judgements. EXHIBIT 'C'.

EXHIBIT 'C' consists of:

1. A threatening letter dated December 20, 1993, from a shyster lawyer, Charles J. Conway, Jr. This letter from Conway threatens that shyster Pattie's non-jury Judicial Decree on December 17, 1993, 1:30 p.m. is an "affirmative court order, ordering that Dorothy J. Wean hand over (surrender) her property (documents) to Conway or else it can ultimately result in her being jailed."

2. A Notice of Entry of Judgement, dated December 17, 1993, 1:30 p.m., Courtroom 48. Signed Charles J. Conway, Jr.

3. A Judgement on Complaint, dated December 17, 1993, 1:30 p.m. Courtroom 48, signed by "The Honorable John H. Pattie, presiding, without a jury, and was actually tried on that date."

This trial without a jury, which we were entitled to, was held 45 minutes after I had been warned that if I was in the courtroom at 1:30 p.m. I would be shackled and jailed in a frame-up supposedly for threatening alleged Judges Slater and Adams in Santa Barbara County which I did not do and of which acts (if they indeed did happen) I had no knowledge of whatsoever. The court, John H. Pattie, a Commissioner, a shyster that the other judges picked off the street and gave a black robe Decreed that, "he reserved Jurisdiction to make further order," whatever they would be no one knows, but weighs heavily on us with their threats of now jailing us for contempt of court, another terrible entangling escalation of their insanity.

This document has been sent to the Sheriff's Departments of Santa Barbara, Ventura and San Luis Obispo Counties.

Copies have been sent to newspapers, talk-show hosts, TV media, etc. Copies of Municipal Court Case No. 114526, and Superior Court case No. 126048 as conducted and adjudged by John J. Hunter have been reviewed by numerous lawyers from 2 states other than California. These lawyers have expressed profound astonishment, and grave concern, scarcely believing their eyes at the outright judicial corruption in California.

Amazed, they ask as one, how can this actually be happening in a United States Court of law?

It is with information and the firm belief of the below signed parties that these shyster lawyers in California will contact Oregon authorities and fill them with lies, orchestrating false stories that Gary L. Wean has engaged in some sort of threats or actions against judges and convince them to make a Swat Team type of raid on him and with the chance that he would be killed in the process.

Senator Robert Packwood, Oregon, is enmeshed in this same judicial conspiracy of destruction by the secret machinations of the same person as I [am harassed by]. This person, a member of a criminal organization, has planned and schemed and conspired for many years to ultimately become President of the United States.

It is a complicated, evil scheme, for this person, being a high-ranking Democrat, must also arrange to dispose of Clinton which they are in the process of now.

It has to do with Senator Packwood's Diary and what they fear in it. They must gain control of it.

These events involving Senator Packwood began in November 1987, when I along with another person flew to Washington, D.C. and hand delivered to all 100 U.S. Senators a 773 page, name indexed report, my book, (There's A Fish In The Courthouse) along with a Petition from the people asking and pleading with the United States Senate to investigate Judicial Corruption (murder and theft of the people's property) in California and the U.S. Ninth Circuit.

In my 773 page report it detailed how William P. Clark, President Reagan's National Security Director was involved in 1959 in a burglary of the Oxnard National Guard Armory in which many machine guns were stolen, one of these 50-cal. machine guns was mounted in Clark's house and he made remarks that, "when the Revolution comes I'll kill every Mexican and nigger that comes near." This revealed that Clark knew of and was involved in a conspiracy of up-coming riots and revolution.

At this time William P. Clark was up for confirmation for the cabinet position of Secretary of the Interior before the U.S. Senate Judiciary Committee.

Senator Strom Thurmond had been advised by me previously of William P. Clark's criminal violations and had stated in letters to me that he would investigate this matter involving Clark.

However, Thurmond, Joseph Biden and the other Senators on the Judiciary Committee met in conspiratorial secret meetings and discussions and agreed to cover-up these criminal acts of William P. Clark and confirm him as Secretary of Interior.

Senator Packwood having been present at some of these secret meetings it is believed and feared by others that these meetings and acts of concealment of gangsterism were recorded by him in his diary.

Several months after serving a second petition from the people on the 100 Senators and having no response, I, along with Michael A. Thomas personally served a Federal lawsuit on each of the 100 Senators charging RICO and Civil Rights violations against them.

Before serving each of the Senators in their offices it was necessary to make arrangements with Michael Davidson, the Senate Legal Officer. Davidson pressured both myself and Michael Thomas to make an illegal 'deal' with him and he would make it much easier for us to sue the remaining Senators. Michael Davidson did everything in his power to get us to remove Jewish Senators who belonged to the ADL from the suit, which we refused to do. This was witnessed by a Capitol Police plainclothes officer who was assigned by the Senate Sgt. at Arms to assist us in serving the senators.

Michael Davidson is still Senate Legal Officer and is presently savagely attacking Senator Packwood. Davidson is an ADL member and close associate involved with the high ranking California Democrat who conspires to be the next U.S. President. This high-powered person is also a ranking ADL member who while an elected government official conspired to spy on and sabotage the San Francisco Police Department and harm and destroy innocent loyal American citizens.

When Andrea Ordin was the U.S. Attorney General for the Los Angeles District I handed her documented evidence and facts of judicial corruption and crimes which she suppressed and destroyed because the judges involved belonged to the ADL. Ordin is married to Robert Ordin, a Federal Judge who is also a high level ADL agent.

This evidence was also sent to the Justice Department in Washington, where it was destroyed by David Margolies, a top level Atty. Gen. lawyer and ADL member. Margolies is the Justice Department agent who, while in Vince Foster's office, slipped in the phony suicide note.

If Senator Packwood and the other Senators had done their duty to protect the country and its citizens in 1987 instead of covering it up, many lives and billions of dollars of property would have been saved.

If the conspiracy of riot and revolution had been exposed, the Rodney King affair and the resulting riots and death would surely not have happened.

And the Waco holocaust with heavy cost of life would not have occurred had the past crime history of narcotics and gun-running by the international criminal Davidian family been investigated.

Former Senator John Tower, who had given my partner and me (Los Angeles District Attorney Bureau of Investigation, Criminal Intelligence Section) vital documents at a meeting in Ruidoso, New Mexico, shortly after President JFK was murdered, would still be alive and able to testify to secrets that would reveal who actually committed the assassination. At this meeting with John Tower, two other persons were also present, Dallas, Texas, Sheriff Bill Decker and Audie Murphy [WWII hero/movie star]. John Tower was killed in a mysterious plane crash almost identical to Audie Murphy.

Untold thousands of honest, loyal Americans would not have suffered horrifying indignities, incarcerations, destruction of their families and loss of everything they had worked for all their lives if the 100 Senators had done their bounden duty and listened to the 'petition' of the people.

What Vice Pres. Gore pushes as the 'Highway of Information' (fiber-optic cable). Under the conspiracy of Pacific Telesis Group (controlled by William P. Clark) they will control Paramount Entertainment, the entertainment world. They will control gambling, Indian Reservation gambling, State Lotteries, world banking connections involving Bank of America and its satellites, this will be accomplished through converted computer programs originally stolen from Inslaw-Promis.

The same people, Carl E. Ward, Jr., an associate of William P. Clark is involved in the Cabazon Indian Reservation gambling and murders, Portland gambling, and JFK assassination. All of this was revealed in the report and petition given to the 100 U.S. Senators in 1987 but covered-up by them. Carl Ward's brother Robert Ward, at the dedication of Pres. Ronald Reagan's Library, a short distance from the Rodney King trial, was arrested in a conspiracy to assassinate Ronald Reagan, George Bush, Gerald Ford, Richard Nixon and Jimmy Carter, all former Presidents and their wives in what was to be a lazer weapon attack.

Now Senator Robert Packwood himself faces the same terror that the people in 1987 begged him to save them from—judicial corruption and murder, total destruction of his entire career and inevitable conviction and incarceration in a Federal Penitentiary for harassing women and altering congressional documents and will be replaced by a handpicked person by the powerful Democrat in California who fully intends to be the next U.S. President. This person will then control, not only California but also Oregon.

In the future no other Senator in the U.S. will dare stand up to this dominating power in the face of the destruction of Packwood knowing how it was done and that the very same can happen to him.

But it can be turned around; Packwood can come out for the people, and if he showed that he was sincere the people would rally behind him. With the people behind him he could expose the terrifying Judicial corruption—instead of becoming a miserable low-life convicted felon spending the rest of his life in abject humiliation, constantly held up to scrutiny and recorded in history as nothing more than a crooked bum.

From the last paragraph of my book, There's A Fish In The Courthouse, a copy of this in 1987 was handed to each of the 100 Senators, I quote, "Only the U.S. Senate led by the Constitution is powerful enough to save America. Of the one hundred Senators, the treasonous, corrupt and cowardly will desert the people." The small group remaining will have to stand fast...."

Now Senator Packwood, facing the same terror the people face, can prove that he is a bonafide, brave, courageous leader and come to the front—expose and destroy this insidious judicial corruption—many of the silent, timid but knowledgeable Senators will eagerly respect and follow an American leader, destined to be a hero of the same magnitude as the great American battlefield hero, Audie Murphy, who gave everything.

Do not fear the ADL's vicious weapon where they scream Anti-Semitic to high heaven right in your face—not only can this be blunted, its evil can be totally destroyed—just look them right in the eye and demand, 'Are you an American first and a Jew second?'

The effectiveness and result of this demand for them to declare themselves is demonstrated by a Jewish Beverly Hills lawyer, G.B. Fleischman, who was representing Andrija Artukovic, an 85 year old Croatia accused by the Jews of alleged World War 11 crimes. Powerful political Jews attempted to get Fleischman, a Jew, to sell out Artukovic.

Refusing to do such a vile act, Fleischman gave them an amazing answer (direct quote), "I am an American lawyer first and a Jewish lawyer second, if these people can not understand that then there is not much I can really do about it." Refer to chapter 41 of my book There's A Fish In The Courthouse that was delivered along with the peoples petition pleading with the 100 U.S. Senators to safe-guard them from murderous, corrupt gangster lawyers who have seized and usurped the American Judicial System.

Your Special Report on the 'Decline' of the Court is excellent, very interesting, but;

Malcolm Lucas is much deeper into Insurance Industry and Judicial Corruption than appears on the surface. His top criminal accomplices are George Deukmejian, William P. Clark and Pete Wilson, etc., and their connections and involvement go back over twenty years.

It is a far more encompassing, vicious conspiracy than Watergate and a greater opportunity for Pulitzer Prize investigative reporting than Bob Woodward or the Washington Post ever dreamed of. Lucas, Wilson, Deukmejian and William P. Clark's criminal acts are destructing California and its financial structure.

The Modus Operandi is to use Malcolm Lucas' power to set-up and appoint phony judges to control Municipal and Superior Court cases and terminate them in the Insurance Companies' favor before they ever reach the Supreme Court level where Lucas would appear to be involved.

Most of the Judges and Lawyers involved were insurance claims adjusters while going to law school, they learned all the corrupt tricks of fraud, intimidating and siphoning claims and expense money and had made all their political connections long before they passed the bar and became lawyers.

I am sending you two exhibits of how Lucas appoints phony judges to make the corrupt decisions that these crooks want made.

Anatomy Of A Phony Judge

No. 1. John J. Hunter was a Municipal Court Judge whose term was running out. He wanted to become a Superior Court Judge; he ran for office but all the law enforcement and honorable citizens of Ventura County knew John J. Hunter was a crook, a thief and incompetent, so, the American people through the election process turned him out of office. He retired at close to $100,000 a year plus all the assets he had plundered from the people while he was on the bench.

Outside of Malcolm Lucas' involvement in Insurance Company fraud his biggest scam at the present involving billions (almost to the trillion mark and getting people murdered) is the Pacific Telesis Group which is controlled by William P. Clark (former Superior Court, Appeal Court and State Supreme Court Judge, National Security Advisor and Secretary of Interior) who is involved with the Taft Electric Co., and its subsidiary, Taft Telecommunications Inc. of Ventura. They are tied in[to] the PacTel Mobile Access which acts as that company's agent for Mobilinx cellular telephone service in Ventura. This is an extension of the powerful multi-billion dollar system operating in Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside and San Bernardino Counties. PacTel Mobile Access is a wholly owned subsidiary of Pacific Telesis Group and is the parent company of Pacific Bell.

Pete Wilson's assigned task at the present is seeing to it that fiber-optic cables and any and all interference with Pacific Telesis Group's conspiracy to take over all cable communications are not hindered in any manner.

The writer of this communication was and is involved in exposing Judicial corruption involving Malcolm Lucas, Pete Wilson, George Deukmejian and William P. Clark, etc.

Back to the Anatomy of a Malcolm Lucas phony judge and how they get their 'Black-Robes.'

No. 1. John J. Hunter had been removed from the bench by the honest citizens and voters of Ventura County via the electoral process to prevent Hunter from harming them further. Or so they thought, because;

William P. Clark, Governor Pete Wilson and George Deukmejian needed John J. Hunter to sit on the bench to make illegal, criminal decisions to financially destroy this writer and render him incapable of further exposing them and their cover-up of their criminal acts.

In order to accomplish their cover-up, Chief Justice Malcolm M. Lucas assigned "The Honorable John J. Hunter, Retired Judge of the Municipal Court to sit as a judge of the Municipal Court of Ventura County, from July 1, 1993 to December 31, 1993, and until completion and disposition of all causes and matters heard pursuant to this assignment."

Dated June 2, 1993, and signed Malcolm M. Lucas, Chief Justice of California and Chairperson of the Judicial Council.

Exhibit A.

In other words John J. Hunter receiving approximately $100,000 a year retirement benefits is now making another $120,000.00 of taxpayers money to sit as a Municipal court judge on a special assignment to destroy me with a phony Municipal Court lawsuit, Case No. MC 114526.

After Judge John J. Hunter had destroyed me and my wife in Municipal Court with his criminal rulings and decisions they then filed lawsuits against us in Superior Court, Case No. 126048.

At the first Superior Court hearing I walked into court and who was sitting on the bench but John J. Hunter, who immediately recommenced his criminal rulings and decisions against us on the Superior Court level. One of his first rulings was to repeat his Municipal Court order that I could not represent myself or my wife in court under penalty of contempt of Court and being jailed if I tried to do so.

Again in order to accomplish their 'cover-up' of their judicial crimes Chief Justice Malcolm Lucas had now assigned John J. Hunter to the Superior Court bench.

Now, retired Municipal Court Judge John J. Hunter (who had been removed from the bench by the voters) receiving approximately $100,000.00 retirement and making $120,000.00 as a Municipal Court Judge is making $140,000.00 as a phony Superior Court Judge.

I was able to obtain another of the 'confidential orders' of Chief Justice Malcolm M. Lucas to Ventura County Court Clerk Sheila Gonzales, it was another 'Special Assignment' for John J. Hunter.

"The Honorable John J. Hunter, Retired Judge of Ventura County Municipal Court is hereby assigned to sit as a judge of the Ventura County Superior Court, from July 1, 1993 to December 31, 1993 and until completion and disposition of all causes and matters heard pursuant to this assignment"

Exhibit B.

From the date of the first Superior Court hearing Hunter has refused to allow us to defend ourselves in court, sometimes ordering as many as four uniformed, armed deputy Sheriffs into the courtroom to insure that we are not allowed to say anything.

The Judges Pension Fund is a multi-billion dollar entity, a very mysterious operation. It is impossible to determine from where judges receive their paychecks. When asked they will say they are paid by the county wherein they are assigned. When pinned down they then claim they are paid by the state. It is even more impossible to determine how much money the taxpayers are forced to contribute to this mysterious fund and who is in control and administers this vast, huge pile of money which is being used to finance phony judges to make criminal judicial decisions and rulings to cover-up the corrupt California Judicial System.

To bring the California judicial corruption into focus at the dollar level of how much the taxpayers are being bilked, multiply the John J. Hunter, phony judge Anatomy by at least five hundred throughout the fifty two counties of the state.

And this does not take into consideration the trillion dollar amount these merciless gangsters steal from the people with their illegal, unauthorized decisions and rulings.

This particular reign of Judicial System usurpation was set-up approximately twenty years ago when State Senators Pete Wilson, Robert Lagomarsino and State Attorney General George Deukmejian and State Supreme Court Justice William P. Clark, etc., etc., under the guise of an amendment to 'degenderize' the State Constitution surreptitiously slipped an un-Constitutional 'one liner' into the Constitution.

This 'one-liner' was to the effect that the Governor could, "appoint a lawyer to the Municipal or Superior Court and at the first election this appointee must file to run for that position of Judge, but if no other lawyer files to run against him the appointee does not have to appear on the ballot. This means that John J. Hunter can remain a judge for twenty years and never once be on a ballot or elected by the people. But he is under the domination, the complete control and must make any and all decisions and rulings he is ordered to make by the Chief Justice of California and Chairperson of the Judicial Council, Malcolm M. Lucas.

This was the real purpose and reason behind the removal of Rose Bird because she could not be controlled by the herein, above named conspirators.

Not only is this 'one-liner' and the related statute they inserted into the Election Code unconstitutional it is in direct violation of the United States Supreme Court decision of Chisum v Rohmer wherein it states, "Judges are representatives of the people the same as a District Attorney, Secretary of State and other elected officials and as such they must be elected."

If a candidate for the position of judge does not appear on a ballot it is totally impossible for him to get even one vote much less become a winner to the office.

Lawyers who are running around in Black Robes will go to any lengths to protect Malcolm M. Lucas' corruption and to perpetuate their fantastic salary and retirement thefts and all the assets they loot from their victims who are forced to appear in court before them.

For example read the drivel appearing in the San Francisco Chronicle in the guise of a Letter to the Editor on December 1, 1993. Written by E. Mac Amos Jr., President, California Judges association, San Francisco, and Patrick J. Morris, Immediate Past President.

Exhibit C.

Ingest one particular paragraph in this letter, Exhibit C, wherein these famous, noted jurists Amos and Morris claim that Malcolm M. Lucas, "Encouraged the coordination and consolidation of our Municipal and Superior Courts into a (single-level) trial court through Judicial (cross-assignments) and unified trial Court management."

Attempt to unravel this drivel in the context of an Anatomy of a Malcolm M. Lucas, Special Assigned Judge, John J. Hunter.

An exhaustive criminal investigation by the California State Attorney General and the U.S. Federal Justice Department and Attorney General must immediately be commenced and indictment of these gangsters handed down under the U.S. Civil Rights and RICO statutes, etc.

All illegal judges, both acting and retired must be stripped of all salaries and pensions obtained illegally. The Judges Pension Fund must be investigated and analyzed as there are enough billions involved in this fantastic conspiratorial judicial scam to cancel out California's total debt.

In an article from the Jan. 16 edition of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, "Slowed growth in world food supplies provides real evidence that the planet's biological limits may have been reached, an environmental group says.

"Among the signs: a three-month doubling of world rice prices, millions of acres of rangeland chewed down to uselessness, spreading water shortages and an $80,000 tuna.

"As a result of our population size, consumption patterns and technology choices, we have surpassed the planet's carrying capacity," Worldwatch said in its 11th annual State of the World report on global environmental and social conditions.

"Its report points to several trends:

• Fish harvests from the world's oceans have leveled off at about 100 million tons a year, which may not be exceeded. Seafood prices are rising rapidly, and a bluefin tun can now bring as much as $80,000 (or more than $100 a pound).

• Water bodies are increasingly polluted and fresh water shortages are occurring in the United States, Mexico, China, India and the Mideast.

• Grain production has slowed dramatically in the last few years, with per-capita output of rice, corn and wheat falling 11 percent since 1984. Worldwide stocks of rice are at 20-year lows, and the price on the Chicago Board of Trade has doubled since August 30.

• Fertilizer use has dropped 12 percent since 1989, evidence that maximum yields may have been reached for many crops.

• Cropland has increased only 2 percent over the last decade worldwide, with topsoil disappearing and some areas such as China rapidly losing farmland to industrialization.

* Overgrazing, deforestation and agricultural mismanagement have ruined 5 million acres since 1945."

POST TRAUMATIC STRESS DISORDER

SYMPTOMS OF PTSD

BELOW are the common symptoms of post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD).

Psychic numbing: An inability to "feel feelings."

Helplessness: Feeling powerless over one's job or life.

Depression: Sadness, dejection, hopelessness, intense guilt.

Aggression or suspicion: Fighting, fear of crowds, intense suspicion of others.

Anxiety/panic attacks: Often intense and unexplainable; sometimes triggered by ordinary things such as aromas or flavors.

Nightmares: Usually involving past experiences; often with sweating, shaking, screaming.

Flashbacks: Intense reliving of a traumatic event; easily triggered.

Physical complaints: Anxiety-related headaches, backaches, sleep disorders.

Startle reaction: Permanent combat alert; one is constantly on guard, startles easily, sometimes with violent reactions.

Avoidance: Rejection of people, activities associated with war experiences, including normally pleasurable ones.

Recurring/intrusive thoughts: Often interferes with employment.

Selective memory: Forgetting traumatic experiences while remembering minute details.

Veterans who exhibit any of the symptoms listed above should seek counseling immediately. Visit a Vet Center, a VA regional office, a VA hospital or clinic, or contact your American Legion Department Service Officer. In some cases, PTSD is considered a compensable service-connected disability. For more information on where to find help for PTSD, write The American Legion, VA&R Division, 1608 K Street NW, Washington, D.C. 20006. —B.F.

SADDAM HUSSEIN

In an article from the Jan. 17 edition of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, "On the eve of the third anniversary of the start of the Persian Gulf War, Saddam Hussein lashed out at the West Sunday and said he would retaliate for its aggressions.

"The Iraqi leader said in a nationally televised speech that he would not stand by in the face of continued international sanctions against his country.

"Let these evil people, masters and slaves alike, end their illusions and let them not miscalculate again," he said, referring to the West and Gulf Arab states who joined the allied fight against Iraq."

THE ABORIGINE TREATY (Australia, 1993)

The Aborigine Treaty

The Draft Treaty written after consultation with the Sovereign Aboriginal Coalition at Alice Springs. These are just a few of the Aborigine demands:

1. Recognition of Aboriginal ownership of Australia.
2. The establishment of a separate Aboriginal nation of states.
3. The immediate restoration of all inalienable crown lands, state and national parks, Aboriginal reserves and travelling stock routes of Australia.
4. Negotiation of Aboriginal state boundaries.
5. Recognition of Aboriginal sovereignty of all Aboriginal lands complete with inalienable title in perpetuity.
6. Agree to the requirement that 40% of the total land mass of each Australian state be transferred to permanent Aboriginal title.
7. Australians to pay the Aboriginal nation compensation for the balance of 60% of Australian land not available to aborigines to compensate for the social, physical, and psychological ravages that have been made upon the Aboriginal people. Compensation rates to equal not less than 7% of GDP for the first ten years, 5% for the following ten years and 2.5% of GDP in perpetuity.
8. The establishment of a treaty between Aborigine and non-Aboriginal Australians.
9. Aborigines to retain sovereignty over all land and islands presently known as Australia.
10. Aborigines to be given freedom to manage their own internal and external affairs as a separate nation of people.
11. Aborigines to be given freedom to make Treaties regarding land and sea corridors as would any independent nation.
12. The Aboriginal State to become a self governing state involving separate economic, social and cultural development combining traditional religions and practice.
13. The aboriginal nation to operate an independent legal system subject only to international law.
14. All State Governments will be required to return appropriated land unencumbered to the Aboriginal state.
15. Aboriginal states will impose entry restrictions in classified areas or those areas adjacent to nominated Aboriginal sacred sites.
16. The Aboriginal nation will require the release of all Aboriginal people from prisons and institutions plus the return to the Aboriginal state of all Aboriginal human remains residing in museums plus all Aboriginal artifacts.
17. Together with the total compensation package, the Australian Government will be required to pay a sum direct to the new Aboriginal nation equal to $1,000,000,000 within four weeks of the establishment of the Treaty.
18. The Aboriginal nation will require existing State and Federal Governments to provide permanently all social, political, educational and legal benefits currently enjoyed by other Australians to the Aboriginal people. These benefits will also include welfare payments, the provision of pensions and health benefits. These benefits are to be in addition to the total compensation package.
19. The Aboriginal Bureau of Aboriginal State Affairs will be established to take over the existing Department of Aboriginal Affairs and Aboriginal Development Corporation structures.

CHURCH DONATIONS

In an article appearing in the Jan. 15 edition of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, "Contributing to the Lord's work has suddenly become more complicated.

"Under a federal tax law that took effect Jan. 1, people making lump-sum contributions of $250 or more to a church or other charity can no longer use a canceled check as a receipt when filing their federal taxes.

"Instead, they must obtain a detailed receipt from the church or charity stating the amount and nature of the donation."

ALCOHOLIC GENES

In another article from the same Jan. 15 edition, "American and Finnish scientists have discovered a gene that appears to predispose alcoholics to suicide, and it may be relatively common in the general population.

"The genetic mutation, which is linked to an imbalance in brain chemistry, may help explain why alcohol causes some people to become self-destructive or violent toward others."

TOMATO VIRUS

In an article from the Jan. 17 edition of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, "A fly the size of a pin-head is carrying a tomato virus that threatens the world's crop and already has infected much of Orange County, California, agriculture officials warn. Growers may have to abandon Orange County's tomato industry, which had $17.4 million in 1992 sales, in order to halt the spread of the disease carried by the greenhouse whitefly..."

WORLD BIRTH CONTROL

In an article from the Jan. 12 edition of the ALBUQUERQUE JOURNAL, written by Thomas W. Lippman, "The Clinton administration aims to guarantee that family planning services be available to 'every woman in the world who wants them' by the end of the decade, State Department Counselor Timothy E. Wirth said Tuesday."

HATE COMICS

In an article from the Jan. 14 edition of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, written by Robert Holguin, "Peter Bagge is the first to admit that his anarchic comic books, HATE, bear an eerie resemblance to the long-lived ARCHIE series.

"There's a real hilarious parallel there,' Bagge says. 'Even though my characters are disgusting and swear a lot, the way they interact with each other is almost identical to how the gang from ARCHIE interacts.'

"The differences are stark.

"Instead of full-color, squeaky clean teen-agers in letter jackets, Bagge's characters are scuzzy, twenty-something slackers with bad posture and thrift-store flannel drawn in black and white.

"HATE, a struggle for survival by five denizens of Seattle's neo-bohemian grunge scene, offers biting social commentary and gritty satire, a remorseless dismemberment of contemporary trends and attitudes.

"My guarantee is that my comic will make people laugh,' Bagge said, 'but at the same time, I'd like to think there is something a little disturbing about my comic. There's an edge to it, an unpleasantness that stays with the reader and detonates later.'

"HATE is quickly becoming one of the most popular alternative comic books ever published."

THERMONUCLEAR REACTOR

Harnessing star power on Earth

ITER, the International Thermonuclear Experimental Reactor, is part of a project to develop fusion as an energy source. The U.S., Russia, Europe and Japan have joined forces for the project. Argonne National Laboratory's role in ITER is to develop a system to capture the energy. Fusion power, which scientists believe will be safer than current nuclear reactors and has an unlimited fuel supply, is projected to be ready for commercial use in 2035.

What fusion is

At high temperatures, certain types of atoms combine to form new atoms and release energy as a byproduct. The sun and other stars are natural examples of fusion.

How it works

1 Two isotopes of hydrogen combine to form helium; energy is released in the form of free neutrons. This reaction takes place in a plasma mass at 100 million degrees.

ITER device

Part of the project to develop fusion as a source of energy.

2 The plasma must be contained within a magnetic field because it is so hot.

3 In the blanket area, liquid lithium absorbs the neutrons; they give off heat.

4 The hot lithium is circulated to other parts of the reactor to generate energy.

Magnets

In an article from the Jan. 12 edition of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, "For the first time in a decade, the FDA has approved the marketing of an over-the-counter pain reliever containing a new analgesic ingredient.

"The FDA on Tuesday approved naproxen sodium for non-prescription sale as a pain reliever. The drug previously had been available only as a prescription arthritis drug and has been marketed since 1976 under the trade name Naproxsyn.

"The last non-prescription pain reliever based on a new analgesic ingredient was ibuprofen, which was approved by the FDA for over-the-counter sales in 1984."

MINOR INFORMANT

Also from the Jan. 12 edition, "Deputy sheriffs didn't go too far when they used an 8-year-old boy's information to arrest his parents on drug charges, an Orange County judge has ruled.

"Circuit Judge James Hauser refused to throw out evidence against Bonny and Ricky Kreiter, who were charged in April 1992 with felony possession of marijuana after their son told a deputy they used the drug.

"Defense lawyers argued evidence should have been trashed because deputies abused their powers. Now the lawyers say an appeal is likely.

"We felt the police used coercive methods on a child of such tender age it was inappropriate for them to be interrogating him,' said Orlando lawyer Ray Bodiford. They [children] are too young to understand'."

"The law officers got a search warrant without telling a judge their tip came from a child."

VIDEO GAMES

In an article from the Jan. 10 edition of the FINANCIAL TIMES, written by George Graham, "Video game manufacturers in the U.S., under political pressure to limit the violence and sexual content of their products, have agreed to set-up a system to rate games according to their suitability for children.

"In an initial proposal outlined this weekend at the Consumer Electronics Show in Las Vegas, the Software Publishers Association, representing 1,100 companies, suggested a four level system ranging from E for everyone to AO for adults only."

SUPERCONDUCTIVITY

In an article from the Jan. 8 edition of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, Brisbane, Australia—"Australian scientists said Friday they had made a breakthrough in producing high-temperature superconducting material with potential uses in a growing number of applications.

"A research team at the University of Queensland said it had been granted world patents for the new method of producing the material.

"Superconductors, which offer virtually no resistance to electricity, could be used in transmitting electricity, producing magnetic fields and storing energy."

CRIME MAGAZINES

In a recent article appearing in the CHICAGO TRIBUNE, written by Tim Jones, "Nothing sells like sex, but fear is a pretty potent commodity these days.

"The heightened public perception of spreading national lawlessness, from subway shootings to child abductions to carjackings, is fueling a new wave of magazines that focus on crime.

"The shelf life of these publications may prove to be short. But for now, there is a market for prospectors.

"CRIME PREVENTION magazine, a planned quarterly publication scheduled to make its debut in march, is the latest media vehicle to respond to the burgeoning national market of fear."

SUPREME COURT RULINGS

MEXICAN CUSTOMS

In an article from the Jan. 5 edition of the ALBUQUERQUE JOURNAL, Nogales, Arizona—"Mexican officials say Michael Bottazzi can get his stolen automobile back if he goes through the proper channels, but he has so far been frustrated, watching the car being driven by a Mexican Customs employee.

"Mexican Customs routinely used stolen vehicles they seize, said Jerry Navarro, who recovers stolen vehicles in Mexico for the Arizona Department of Public Safety.

"It happens all the time," Navarro said. This is standard procedure for them. They don't have patrol cars, so they use (confiscated) vehicles for patrol cars."

PNEUMONIA

In a recent article appearing in the ROCKY MOUNTAIN NEWS, written by Gary Gerhardt, "Bighorn sheep in the Fall River area between Rocky Mountain National Park and Estes Park are suffering from viral pneumonia that has killed about 70 of the 100 animals in the herd."

efforts to modernize the world's largest and most complex court system are of legend-making quality.

"He had:

* Reorganized and democratized the policy-making body of the California judiciary. Lucas initiated a stream-lined policy-making process for the Judicial Council that taps the talents of all of California's judicial leaders.

* Introduced California to the federal court concept of 'individual calendar management.'

* Guided the California courts through a trial court delay-reduction program that has, despite substantial increases in case filings and a 7-year-long freeze on new judgeships, greatly decreased the backlog of cases awaiting trial.

* Encouraged the coordination and consideration of our Municipal and Superior courts into a single-level trial court through judicial cross-assignments and unified trial court management.

* Appointed commissions on gender, race and ethnic bias, and is now overseeing the implementation of those commissions' recommendations to assure that all who appear before the courts are treated fairly and with dignity.

"We who have closely observed Lucas' leadership of California's judiciary believe he has admirably performed as both a pragmatic and visionary leader. His stewardship deserves high praise, not condemnation."

establishment press with Gary Wean's insider comments (p. 10-13) for a great deal of further insight into the Macolm Lucas affair.]

IRAQ SANCTIONS

In an article appearing in the Jan. 8 edition of the ALBUQUERQUE JOURNAL, "Nearly 400,000 Iraqis, a third of them children under age 5, have died because of U.N. sanctions imposed more than three years ago, Baghdad's official news agency said Saturday."

Time To Face Facts

SERIOUS Earthquakes Ahead!

1/23/94 #1 SOLTEC

Toniose Soltec present. I come in and with the Light of Holy God of Creation. As the West Coast of your nation still struggles in the aftermath and recovery of the major earthquake that struck California on Monday, January 17, 1994, it is still of great importance that ones who have chosen to remain in the area—and even possibly rebuild upon the same locations—consider deeply and most seriously that which they choose to do. Is it truly wise to build again in this place? Take time to consider all your options, chelas.

In our attempts to reach out unto you of Earth-Shan, there have been accusations of bringing a message of fear and gloom and doom unto your world. However, the event of Monday last should act unto you as a warning—not as the end result, for I TELL YOU ONCE AGAIN THAT THERE IS MUCH MORE IN STORE FOR THAT SAME PLACE!

The more of which I speak will only result in additional destruction to those who refuse to heed this warning! You have also been warned by your own scientific community of that which is imminent for California.

Why is it that you still do not believe? Most of those who were closely affected by the earthquake on Monday are at present in somewhat of a state of denial of that which has just occurred. At this point in time, it is impossible for those who are sleeping under the trees in parks or living out of their vehicles to think rationally or clearly.

There is but one goal at present and that is to normalize their lives as much as is possible. They are looking at rebuilding in the same place and starting over again there as their only options.

Those who have lost all material possessions and some who have lost loved ones, be they two-legged or four-legged, are in a state of grief—an important emotion to express and not to suppress. In their grieving, there is little rational thinking and organizing being done, for it is being done in a moment of crisis. Crisis management, however, can be most hazardous because it is only the short-term that is taken into consideration, for the need of the present moment will tend to override any long-term projections or plans.

Yet, this may be the perfect moment in your present physical expression to not hastily make decisions that ones will be "married to" for a long-term duration. So, it is most important that ones not be too hasty to make decisions that will affect them for many years to come. Before signing any document "on the dotted line", take a little time to consider all options that may be open—and even some that are perceived as not open at present. Take the time to seek your Inner Guidance, for in such you shall find The Truth of it.

Tent cities are being set up all over the area affected, and many now are being forced into these government-controlled shelter units. Those who are going into these places have now lost everything—including their pride. Yet from these perceived dire circumstances, can come some of your GREATEST opportunities—for when the ego has been forced to succumb, and when the opportunity of each moment is seized, there can come the greatest growth.

Allow us, for a moment, to divert our attention from the devastation and look at the greater picture of that which is taking place: Six hours prior to the earthquake in Southern California on Monday, January 17, there was a temblor in Alaska, and five hours before, there was one in the area of Japan. Two hours after the earthquake in the Los Angeles area, there was a 4.0 temblor in Northern California, just north of San Francisco. Then, on Wednesday, January 19, there was a 6.9 earthquake in Indonesia and a magnitude 4.4 shaker in Klamath Falls, Oregon. On Thursday, January 20, there was important activity in Taiwan, Peru and, AGAIN, Northern California—near the town of Eureka [where the major inland San Andreas Fault takes a left turn and angles out into the Pacific Ocean]. On into Friday, there were two earthquakes in Indonesia, one at 7.3 and another at 6.2. All during this time the Los Angeles area was continuing to reel through more than 1500 aftershocks from the original earthquake on Monday! So you see, that Pacific Plate has been VERY busy moving during this past week, for there has been activity all around its perimeter.

When last we wrote, I took the liberty of reminding ones of the small, both known and unknown, faults that are located all throughout California and their significance to the earthquake of the past week. I reminded ones of the fact that we had spoken of these faults some time past, so I have requested that some of the past material be pulled up and incorporated into this writing. This material was addressed MORE than one year past in your counting.

Quoting from January 8, 1993 [refer back to pages 24-26 of the 1/12/93 issue of CONTACT's predecessor called THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR]:

"California, you are in an extremely critical situation! You, also, have experienced very odd weather occurrences of late—and to add to the situation, you have earthquake faults that have never been heard of before showing new signs of activity. Many are old faults that have laid dormant for a very long time. Others are new faults which have opened up because of the continually building pressures and shaking that you have experienced.

"You see, not all the earthquakes are felt on the surface. Many occur so deep that the motion is never felt on the surface, yet they do cause new pressure points and new fractures to occur, and sooner or later, with all that is going on beneath (and from above), you will begin to see these new (or old) faults wake up and become active. It is a serious indication that the place is slowly beginning to break up. How many cracks and fractures can there be before it begins to crumble away?"

That new little reverse thrust fault that acted up last week was one of those of which I spoke at that time. The CONTINUAL movements of the plates, the CONTINUAL series of little jolts from time to time, in addition to the activity taking place upon the surface, have all played a part in the precipitation of this new flurry of seismic activity you ones are experiencing.

And, as I have also stated in the past, about the only way your scientists have of discovering faults is when they show signs of activity. Your present technology is not effective when it comes to finding fault lines unless they have been activated. At this point, it is more a game of hit and miss—and every once in a while there is a little luck on their side.

Now let us quote from December 9, 1992 [see pages 23-24 of the 12/15/92 issue of CONTACT's predecessor called THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR]:

"This past week, your scientists discovered two NEW faults that run directly under the downtown region of Los Angeles.

The reason they found them is that there was some minor activity on them, though they did not bother to inform you of this. These are two NEW fractures that have occurred due to the extreme stresses in this entire region of recent.

"There are indeed other new fractures, but they are not yet active, so they remain undetected by your seismologists for the time being. The reason these two faults even made the news is because their very location causes a high level of concern.

"Have you any concept of the amount of stress on this area because of the population? Give some consideration to the weight concentration on this small, unstable area. Have you any idea of the impact this has on this area, with the majority right on top of these two new fault lines? Now, add to that all the vibrations created by the automobiles on all the freeways, the aircraft as they take off and land, and the excavations in the region, and you have a disaster looking for a place and time to happen.

"You have basically the same situation in the region of San Francisco. People have concentrated far more mass than the area can or should be expected to sustain....

"Let us for instance, take a look at Southern California, where there are many different classes of major earthquake faults within a very small region, from just north of Santa Barbara to just north of Los Angeles, and from the coast inward to the Mojave Desert.

"The largest of these is, of course, the San Andreas. But in addition to this one, you also have: the San Gabriel Fault, Malibu Coast Fault, Simi Fault, San Fernando Fault, Red Mountain Fault, San Cayetano Fault, Oak Ridge Fault, Santa Susana Fault, Santa Ynez Fault, Newport-Inglewood Fault, Big Pine Fault, plus several others that have not been tagged with names! There is also one known as a strike-slip fault that cuts directly through the center of Santa Cruz Island.

"ARE YOU ONES IN THIS AREA FEELING A LITTLE UNEASY BY NOW? You should be! For while your troops are 'saving' millions in Africa, you are ready to lose millions here. Is it any wonder WHY this place is in a constant state of shaking?! These are just the MAJOR faults. The list does not include the little ones—which can be as dangerous to you as the big boys. It also does not include those which cut directly through the Los Angeles basin itself, the population center of the region."

Nothing has changed since we first put these words to paper and all that I spoke of at that time is valid even now. The only difference is that MORE time has passed and MORE pressure has been added to these areas. TIME FOR THIS PLACE IS RUNNING OUT! A year has passed. Will another pass before it blows the final time?!

Do we blow our own horns or pat ourselves on the back for having an opportunity to chime "I told you so"? No, that is not our point. If there is a point to be made here, it is merely to remind you ones of the advantages of our ability to see the greater overall picture of that which is taking place, and the mission to get the information to you ones unconvoluted and with facts and truth. We are not in the business of doing damage control, for we have not the need nor the egos to stroke.

For many, many, many years, you ones have been warned of the dangers that lie ahead for the West Coast of your United States, and yet you ones have chosen to hide your heads in the sand, so to speak. Perhaps you are thinking of the story of the little boy who cried "wolf" too many times, yet one day there truly was a wolf among the lambs. Precious ones, your wolf has shown up, at long last, and he is in the process of devouring quite a few of the lambs.

You are in a time of accountability for actions, and it shall be up to each and every individual to be accountable for self.

It is not your Government's responsibility to pick up the pieces for you ones. When the Government is handing out the meal ticket, then it has the right to call all the shots. You want freedom and liberty, yet you continue to run to the VERY ONES WHO WOULD HAVE YOU UNDER CONTROL to bail you out of a bad situation!

Your nation was built by those who were willing to pull themselves together and take a stand. They were tough enough to get going when times got tough, not stand around and wring hands and cry out for the Government to help them.

Fear is the only thing that is standing in your way, chelas—fear that you may have to lower your lifestyles a little bit in order to gain your freedoms. We do not bring you fear. We bring unto you THE TRUTH, for only in TRUTH—and ACTION upon that TRUTH—will there be found liberation.

BUT THERE MUST BE ACTION! WISHES AND DREAMS ARE NOT ACTION AND WILL NOT GET THE JOB ACCOMPLISHED. PICK UP THE PIECES WHICH ARE LEFT OF YOUR LIVES AND GET ON WITH IT. DO NOT BE TRAPPED BY THE FEAR WHICH YOU HAVE BEEN TAUGHT! Your strengths are your greatest weapons against the bondage.

Do not let the fear of that which you have lost keep you from taking a step forward. Most of what was lost was merely material possessions. Most of you ones still have your families and loved ones intact. Material possessions are replaceable and most are not required for sustaining of your lives.

There is nothing wrong with having material possessions, provided they are held in proper perspective and are NOT the controlling factors of your lives. You have your lives, your wits and your abilities. Make the most of the assets you possess and stop concentrating on what you have lost. You cannot turn back the hands on the clock, so the best thing you can do is move forward—for forward is the only direction open to you ones.

Your world is in the process of change—MASSIVE CHANGE—and you are seeing it occur right before your very eyes. It is, for some, a frightening time to be alive—and yet for others it is a most exciting time, for they know that with these changes shall come better days.

The goal is to get through this time and onto the other side, for it is on the other side when you shall have the opportunity to look back and realize that all that was required to get there was well worth the journey. That is what this time is all about—making the transition and growing through the changes your world is experiencing.

The time of Light is drawing ever nearer and, as the gap narrows, you are beginning to see more glimpses of THE TRUTH. Less and less is able to be swept under the carpet, for in that time there shall be nothing done in secret or in hiding. Yet, the time of changes is one that shall test every fiber of your being, for you, too, must be purged and purified—for you are, after all, a part of the process of the change, as well.

You have but to look at the historical data of your world to know that there have ALWAYS been cycles of change with your planet and there shall continue to be cycles of change long after you have departed this existence. It is a natural process of the entire universe, for only through change can there come about growth.

Yes, we have become quite philosophical, Kali, so I would ask that we wind this up for now. And you thought that you were off the hook! No, I am afraid that you are not quite that lucky just yet, child. So long as there are those in need, we have a job to do and this is the only way in which we can get that job accomplished at this time.

Hold tight to that which you know to be and toss off that which is but the fluff. Keep the Light of Holy God about you in these times, for in it you shall find your solace. Peace and blessings unto you ones.

Toniose to clear. Salu.

Nevada Corporations

WHAT IS A CORPORATION?

Black's Law Dictionary: An artificial person or legal entity created by or under the authority of the laws of a state or nation, composed, in some rare instances, of a single person and his successors, being the incumbents of a particular office, but ordinarily consisting of an association of numerous individuals, who subsist as a body politic under a special denomination, which is regarded in law as having a personality and existence distinct from that of its several members, and which is by the same authority, vested with the capacity of continuous succession, irrespective of changes its membership, either in perpetuity or for a limited term of years, and of acting as a unit or single individual in matters relating to the common purpose of the association, within the scope of the powers and authorities conferred upon such bodies by law.

A franchise possessed by one or more individuals, who subsist as a body politic, under a special denomination, and are vested by the policy of the law with the capacity of perpetual succession, and of acting in several respects, however numerous the association may be, as a single individual.

Generally Understood, Definition: Your corporation is an artificial entity, it's a separate and distinct entity and apart from any of you. It is a separate entity and is basically a child that has residency in Nevada; it has its own rights and relationship with respect to state law in Nevada. You and the corporation are completely separate.

Further, a corporation is a distinct, legal entity separate and apart from its members, stockholders, directors or officers. Although it is a separate entity, it can act only through its members, officers or agents and cannot have knowledge or belief of any subject independent of the knowledge or belief of its people. A stockholder (owner or partial owner) is a holder of shares of stock in the corporation and is NOT IN LEGAL CONSIDERATION OR DANGER. (In other words you are not, as the owner or parent, responsible.). A stockholder is not the employer of those working for the corporation nor is he the owner of corporate property.

A corporation is a citizen in the state wherein it was created. A corporation does not cease to be a citizen of the state in which it is incorporated by engaging in business or acquiring property in another state. Since corporations are solely creatures of Statute Law, the powers of a corporation in another state are derived from the constitution and laws of the state in which it is incorporated. As an artificial person a corporation is considered to have its domicile in the state where it is incorporated and the place where it has its registered or statutory resident agent or home office in that state. When the corporation is actually active in a different place, the site of its resident agent is sometimes said to be its "statutory domicile".

The existence of the corporation is not affected by the death or bankruptcy of a shareholder, officer, or director. It has a continuous existence, it is immortal for as long as it complies with the annual requirements of the state in which it is incorporated.

The important point to remember, is that when you own a Nevada corporation, the corporation exists as a separate entity or person. You can live anywhere you choose, in any state or country. It is the corporation which conforms to the requirements of the state in which it resides. You will find that Nevada is the state with the most benefits to protect you and your corporation.

Latest JOURNAL Goes To Press

1/21/94 #1 HATONN

What we offer is indeed "shock therapy for awakening citizens". The assaults come so quickly now that we have not been writing regular columns but I note that you have abundance to digest. I must take this "introduction" as opportunity to update you readers on a few ongoing things so bear with us if the subject seems to have no connecting linkage. We work as we can when we can and appreciate your editorial allowances.

This will be one of the more "shocking" but awakening volumes which we have offered so please stay tuned for until we can get all this information to you we are unable to do an intelligent job of sorting and counter-acting.

Russbacher is "out" but being put through the continuing harassment and devilment of trying to simply get well. His leg is painfully necrosing and with dead tissue trapped in a vein channel it is hard to heal. He is seemingly not allowed to simply sit, raise the limb and heal so we do that which we can under the circumstances. He fears total loss of the leg to necrosis (gangrene from lack of blood supply) but I don't think we will allow the enemy to win that round!

Something is afoot, for the local Missouri probation and harassment crew personnel are running into higher regulators when they get impudent and pull the "dirty tricks" but it is not over until he is FREE AND CLEAR. So, in the midst of the terrible weather foisted off on the Eastern states, our friends are pretty ice-locked (which is what we need anyway—the body in a chair or bed with that leg ELEVATED and bearing less work). God did not make Gunther Russbacher to sit on his back-sides and dawdle—so we have to work with what we are given even if it means stopping him until he heals. You wonderful friends got him OUT and have kept them able to "iive" through your generosity and we are indebted to each of you. (It is good to have God's crew indebted to you, my friends!) All funds which have been sent through this conduit for their rent and help have been forwarded on in useable cash for their help. It has not been nearly enough but the Institute has been picking up the slack and we'll "get there". Gunther has been going to the Air Base to get such as drains placed in the wound—but they have simply come out and it is terror time to have the government do ANYTHING, so, Dr. Frank, who is a superb healer from out of state, has been flown-in to stay with Gunther until we get him up and around. Please keep your healing prayers focused on our brother for he is not out of the woods YET. As you go through this JOURNAL you will note that you are not even nearly out of peril but incredible information is flowing and through the courts ones are at least making an effort to fight back. This is hopeless at present but when we can draw some unity into the "attacks" through the Law Center and get some funding flowing with which to be able to attain legal help of the proper variety we will make great strides.

Mr. Spence is starting to give intensive lecture classes to lawyers as we write in order to bring together some goodly legal counsel and would-be patriots. Our prayer is to be able to begin to pull from this resource and some even higher up the ladder of notability, and begin to get some power behind the people who have dared, such as Eustace Mullins and the ones who have served the Illinois suit of which we have been writing for the next JOURNAL. When Dharma isn't writing every day, you can KNOW a lot of things are going on with us otherwise.

Eustace Mullins asks that we extend his appreciation to all of you CONTACT readers who have been so gracious to him since our printing of his filed lawsuit. [See the Front Page of 12/28/93 CONTACT.] Precious ones, it is through interaction and keeping those mailboxes filled that you will prevail.

As you entertain the Gary Wean material [see pages 10 through 13.] please realize that the "heat" is on him now even more than before as we publicize his information. We must stay right with him and the ones in target lest they be attacked even more than prior to now. The adversary does not fall easily under any encounter—much the less in the death grip. Let us not for a moment have these brave disclosers from our prayers and protection. Until they come to know and "recognize" me they are in limbo security—once they accept that I am real and can respond accordingly, the job becomes far easier. The CONTACT and the JOURNALS shall soon become THE information resource for your nation as revelations unfold and the "great" among you join with us. We have become the big thorn-in-the-side to multitudes of Elite—from George Green to the very top of the worldly "heap". Just keep on keeping on, friends, and you are going to produce your MIRACLES!

Bless you who take the time to share the burden with us—for in the "knowing" you BECOME the FORCE!

It requires your help. We are willing to continue the unfolding but YOU WILL HAVE TO ACT for we cannot do it FOR you. God will bless every effort, every step—if you but step forth and serve. Information in this volume is SHOCKING and runs from lawsuits filed by noted persons TO THE MOST INCREDIBLY HORRIFIC CHILD ABUSE RINGS IN THE WORLD. SATAN DOES HAVE DRUMMERS—THEY ARE AMONG YOU!

Latest Branch Davidian (Waco) Trial News From San Antonio, Texas

Editor's note: We would like to thank the American Patriot Fax Network (APFN) for distributing the three faxes from which the following three articles were constructed about the Waco Massacre trial now getting started in San Antonio, Texas.

Naturally, this trial is being heavily suppressed or distorted in the major (controlled) "news" media. As CONTACT readers are well aware, there is so much for the puppets--like the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms (ATF)--to try to hide for the Elite masters/perpetrators of the massacre, that this trial ought to be an interesting spectacle--what of it we manage to observe. Who knows, maybe even some of the truth will manage to leak out.

See pages 2 through 13 (and especially pages 7-9 within that discussion) for some other important background on this Waco massacre and the much larger machinery of corruption in which it took place.

APFN—Three agents testified today: ALEXANDER, LOWELL SPRAGUE and BARBARA MAXWELL. Alexander said, because of the wind, the mace used on the dogs came back on the agents in the dog team (himself, Champion and Richardson). He was shot in both legs. Testified to the screens on the windows unwillingly and reported he saw no glass falling from windows and saw no guns or faces in them. He says he was not aware of any plan B or C in case of trouble and that announcing "ATF" or "POLICE" WAS NOT PART OF THE TRAINING. He was aware that he would be part of raid the first week of Feb. and knew the scale of its size. Alexander was stationed in Little Rock along with 4 other agents who are involved.

Agent Sprague said Steve Willis fell onto his legs after Willis was hit in the neck and then went on to describe how he checked out his wound and when feeling to see where it was, his finger went into the wound because of its size and he could feel the blood pumping! Plain and matter-of-fact with no addition that this sickened him or was gross (he's a teacher). Defense attorneys caused him to testify that he indiscriminately shot at windows upstairs while seeing no target, which is against policy and the law. He agreed he was shooting to kill and that he shot at both of the guys (both?), whose silhouette he says he saw, on the water tower. Now, from his position behind the green van, 2nd vehicle to right of front door, on the west side of the building how can you see a silhouette looking to the north at 10:00 in the morning? Sprague was stationed in Tulsa, where does the sun rise there? He saw gunfire from the upstairs windows only, as do the other three today. Isn't that where they admit the women and children were?

All three said upstairs only!

Agent Maxwell is a beautiful woman and came across cheerful, yet knew what she had done when she stated it is against policy to shoot indiscriminately where no target is sighted. She added food to the tent story and that the Davidians were to be kept in them until the search was complete. Then testified that she saw no tents or food and knew not who was in charge of such. She was to clear the Chapel area and separate men from women and children. She heard someone say there is no one outside as they approached the building. She got wood and glass chips in her hair after she lost her ballcap and took cover behind and then in the white van.

All agents again heard no one announce their presence. These today reported hearing popping coming from left as they exited the trailers(Helicopters?).

Judge Smith is continuing to suppress the identification of those planners of the raid above the immediate supervisors Sarabyn, etc....Let the prosecution object to hearsay and protect the guilty. Court was adjourned today at noon and I heard the judge had a death in the family.

I talked with Norman Allison today as to why the defense is not going after the witnesses more and he said the attorneys are holding out for their turn. Hope it's good strategy.

A Branch Davidian Trial Sidelight

Gladys Ottman — Menace To Society

Protected by the Government and
The Salvation Army

When the Mt. Carmel retreat of the Branch Davidians was burned down on April 19, 1993, the mother of one of the women who escaped the fire was Gladys Ottman, a Canadian. Although she was not charged with anything, Mrs. Ottman was detained as a "material witness" and was placed in a half-way house which the Salvation Army runs in downtown Waco, and was given "federal prisoner" status. An early attempt at a habeas corpus petition was made by an attorney to free her, but the petition was not even given a hearing. The judge to whom it was given was initially willing to release her but the U.S. Attorney simply told the judge he didn't want her released—so the matter was dropped without a hearing!!! (Does this seem a little strange?)

I became aware of this situation after hearing about it on a radio talk show in October when a caller (whose voice I recognized) described the fact that he had discovered that the Salvation Army was operating prisons under contract to the government, and was incarcerating people who had not been charged with any crime. I later telephoned that caller and discovered that his wife had been corresponding with Gladys Ottman and had attempted to visit her in Waco, but had been told that Gladys was not allowed to have visitors. (Does this seem even stranger?)

When one of the letters which she had mailed to Gladys was returned unopened and marked "ATTEMPTED NOT KNOWN", my friend's wife asked me if I would write to Gladys to see if she was still there or if her mail was being tampered with. I did so and got a very pleasant letter back from a nice grandmotherly lady. She mentioned that most of her time was spent knitting but she was running out of yarn.

On December 27, 1993, I wrote her another letter and included a $20 postal money order which she had said would be the easiest for her to cash. On January 11, 1994, that letter came back unopened, marked "ATTEMPTED NOT KNOWN". The next day I hand carried a complaint to the Postal Inspector's office in San Antonio asking for a full investigation and prosecution of all who may have conspired to obstruct the mail or defraud a user of the mail.

On January 17, 1994, I visited the Salvation Army's Waco facility and ascertained that Gladys Ottman was still held there. (Is all this now sounding very strange?)

Folks, we are not in danger of sliding into federal tyranny; WE ARE UNDER FEDERAL TYRANNY!!! You probably knew that already, but perhaps you didn't know that the government 501C(3) church is in cahoots.

Is Judge Smith Guilty of Jury Tampering?

APFN—Judge Walter Smith, Jr. adopted the unusual tactic of keeping secret the jurors' identities for the express purpose of preventing them from being informed about their powers and responsibilities under the law.

What was so dangerous about the Davidian defendants that the Judge wanted to keep the jury wheel secret, and protect the jurors from the attorneys' questions during voir dire?

were just not suitable to serve on this jury?

This was his dictatorial process: After sending a questionnaire to about 300 potential jurors selected from the master jury wheel of 16,000, the judge examined their returned questionnaires and invited approximately 80 of them to come to the jury selection process. The press reported that most of the questions concerned religion and gun control (about 80% of these jurors believed that only police should have guns). After Judge Smith had the opportunity of removing anyone he deemed unsuitable, then he personally questioned that group and allowed the lawyers to whittle down to the final total of 18; 12 jurors and 6 alternates.

The San Antonio Express-News reports that among them are:

- a retired banker, 80
- a housewife, 44
- a retired teacher, 68
- an insurance account specialist, 44
- another retired school teacher, 60
- a title clerk, 58
- an insurance adjuster, 42
- a custodian, 29
- an administrative clerk, 41

- a leather inspector, 29
- a corporate secretary, 54
- a file clerk, 28
- a retired man, 47
- a school teacher, 46
- a grounds foreman, 45
- a medical secretary, 21

Will this be a jury of the peers of the defendants as the United States Constitution requires? Fat chance! It is a carefully screened group of brain-washed, pro-establishment, politically correct, sheeple whom the judge believes will not dare to deviate from the instructions of a court. This is appropriate only for totalitarian tyrannies not interested in justice, but in convictions.

Can Federal Judges Stack Juries In Texas?

Yes! And that is what we may have here. Could it be that we are no longer operating under the United States Constitution? We, The People, must take charge of our justice system and return to it the protections that our forefathers tried to preserve for us.

NWO Targets Calif.

Editor's note: Well, talk about "luck": The New World Order has chosen California to be the first state in the union to operate under "thier" agenda. The recent earthquake in Los Angeles provides a dry run for New World Order crowd control and "roundup" tactics through the machinery of FEMA (the Federal Emergency Management Agency). The next several pages are yet another experimental assault on controlling you-the-people. What you are about to read is the well-concealed, innocent-looking specific plan put forth, for the California ballot, to actually implement the New World Order within California's boundaries. And it's engineered to be carried out at taxpayers' expense, to boot! If you don't think this is a wily, serious maneuver, you're not paying attention to the Elite's game plan! Now that we have given you this information, who out there in our reading audience will do something about it?

Dear Friend of Justice:

California has been selected by the One World Internationalists as the first state to implement their plans for the "New World Order". A former U.S. Senator (Democrat from Alaska), Mike Gravel, has been picked to lead the way by means of an initiative on the California ballot during the coming June elections.

It seems that the signature drive will succeed since the Establishment does not need or work with "volunteers". I expect the effort to qualify easily, but our job is to see that the people of California reject the measure at the polls.

Enclosed is a packet of current information and an "Independent American's Reply" to this brazen and treasonous effort to reject our Constitution in favor of "world governance."

We will need all the patriots we can get to alert citizens of California and the other states to this threat to our Constitutional Republic. So if you can, please inform as many people as you're able to.

Will you please also send in your renewal or contribution to the NATIONAL JUSTICE FOUNDATION. As you know, the N.J.F. is the foremost professional organization in the nation dedicated to preserving and defending the sovereignty of the United States.

This world governance effort is the most serious threat to our freedoms since the "Declaration of Inter-Dependence" which was launched in 1976, we need your help.

May I hear from you, please.

Very sincerely yours,

The Attorney General of California has prepared the following title and summary of the chief purpose and points of the proposed measure:

WORLD CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION. APPROPRIATION. INITIATIVE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT AND STATUTE. Expresses choice of California citizens to participate in world constitutional convention to establish global governance. Calls for similar initiative elections in other states, and for national initiative. Creates American Electoral Administration to conduct such initiative elections. Appropriates 25 cents per resident from California General Fund to finance American Electoral Administration. Defines number of votes required, worldwide, before convention may be convened. Establishes qualifications for convention delegates. Apporitions delegates. Approves appropriations from U.S. Treasury to pay U.S. share of convention costs and to repay states' appropriations. Summary of estimate by Legislative Analyst and Director of Finance of fiscal impact on state and local governments: Initial General Fund costs of about $7.4 million to fund American Electoral Administration, with no specific requirement that this money be repaid by federal government and no federal law currently in place to assure such repayment. Additional unknown, but potentially major, General Fund revenue loss because contributions made by individuals to finance initiatives would be tax-exempt.

A WORLD CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION CALIFORNIA INITIATIVE American Electoral Administration 1994

Former United States Senator Mike Gravel (Dem. Alaska) who advocated a World Income Tax in 1976 is back again with grandiose plans to involve the people of California and all Americans in a World Government. He filed a 14 page petition with the Attorney General's office in California on November 20, 1993 requesting a title for an Initiative to be placed on the 1994 ballot which would create an American Electoral Administration (AEA). The AEA would conduct state and national initiatives & election of delegates to a World Constitutional Convention. (World government)

On December 20, 1993 Attorney General Daniel Lungren gave the requested Initiative a title and summary explanation. It was sent to the Secretary of State who processed it and distributed it to:

"ALL REGISTRARS OF VOTERS OR COUNTRY CLERKS AND PROPONENT

The AEA is estimated to cost Californians about $7.4 Million. The documents state: "...The following persons are appointed to the Board of Directors of the American Electoral Administration..."

"Former Presidents of the United States, President American Civil Liberties Union, President, The Conservative Caucus, President, American Conservative Union, President American Humanist Association, President Synagogue Council of America, President, National Organization for Women Chair, Republican National Committee, Chairman, Democratic National Committee, etc....etc...."

The minimum number of signatures required to pass the initiative is 615,958 and they have until July 22, 1994 to get the job done. Initiative Coordinator for the of State is Cathy Mitchell (916) 445-0820 at 1220 J Street Sacramento, CA 95814.

INTERdependence Impeachment Set

The National Justice Foundation of America, which supports the sovereignty of the United States as a Constitutional Republic, announced plans to continue with the "impeachment" of over 100 Congressmen who endorsed an internationalist political statement called "A Declaration of INTERdependence."

John Rakus, Justice attorney and president of the NJF, said the endorsement of "INTERdependence" by a congressman is a violation of his oath of office.

"We've studied this carefully and I've received a number of legal and constitutional opinions; they all point in the same direction... political impeachment, to remind all Congressmen that they owe allegiance to and loyalty to this country and not some foreign ideology or international organization."

The Declaration of INTERdependence is a political statement that mocks the Declaration of Independence. It was sponsored by the World Affairs Council and was drafted by Henry Commager, a notorious leftist educator.

The statement suggests that Americans should subjugate the national sovereignty of the United States and create a "new world order" under the United Nations apparatus. The U.S. would then be expected to surrender and redistribute American resources and energy to foreign nations and third-world governments, the NJF contends. The statement says in part "... to establish a new world order ... it is essential that mankind free itself from narrow notions of national prejudice

"This resurfacing trend in internationalist ideology is not exactly new in America; the last three Presidents of the U.S. all delivered 'State of the World' addresses to the Congress instead of the constitutionally required 'State of the Union' message.

Also, Sen. Mike Gravel (D-Alaska) has recently endorsed and proposed a "world income tax" (including Americans) the revenue of which would be distributed to an international lending agency (World Bank), an international granting organization (United Nations) and developing countries of the "third world."

Rakus agreed that the NJF impeachment proceedings were breaking new ground into yet untested areas of constitutional law. Although the Constitution expressly provides for impeachment of executive and judicial officials, it generally leaves disciplinary action against individual congressmen to Congress.

"Here," stated Rakus, "we make it abundantly clear, congressmen and politicians can and do get out of line and do engage in ultra-Constitutional activities ... we intend to call them to task for it. To impeach means ... to accuse, to charge a public official with a crime or malfeasance in office.

"It is a proceeding brought against officials in government and conducted before a 'quasi-political' court. Such proceedings are initiated by a written accusation called 'Articles of Impeachment.' We are in the process of drafting a Bill of Particulars on this matter right now." The primary accusation which the NJF is bringing against the congressmen is that they are violating their Constitutional oath of office.

"Obviously," said Rakus, "when one-world politicians endorse a statement that reads in part ... narrow notions of national sovereignty must not be permitted to curtail the obligation of (INTER)dependence; they are breaking their oath of loyalty to this country which compels them to support and defend the Constitution of the United States."

The NJF stresses that basic Constitutional freedom and national sovereignty are not only being betrayed but that such a betrayal is tantamount to treasonous conduct. The supplanting of our Constitutional freedoms and due process of law with a "world court" under the United Nations, would nullify American citizen's rights and open the door to control by internationalist dictators and despots.

"Some Congressmen may be under the 'impression' that they possess plenary authority to bind us to internationalism, but such power was never delegated to them by the Constitution and any attempt to officiously assume such authority is ultra vires, beyond the scope of their office.

For this reason we are taking action now before it becomes too late. We have plenty of scandals concerning the personal conduct of Washington congressmen lately, but we will not tolerate any modern Benedict Arnolds joining the parade," said Rakus.

SPOTLIGHT

PHILADELPHIA II

(Suggested Title)

INITIATIVE CONSTITUTION AMENDMENT AND STATUTE

An initiative, titled Philadelphia II, to determine the willingness of California citizens, as United States and world citizens, to participate in a World Constitutional Convention. An initiative, concomitant to concurrent and subsequent statutes in other jurisdictions, to determine if a sufficient number of people worldwide—a critical mass—wish to participate in a World Constitutional Convention. An initiative, if a critical mass exists, to call the convention, elect delegates and implement convention preparations. An initiative, in order to accomplish the above, that legislates a federal law which shall permit initiative elections throughout the United States. An initiative to appropriate funds as a loan from the treasury of California. And an initiative to appropriate funds from the treasury of the United States to repay loans made by states in approving Philadelphia II and to pay the U.S. proportional share of the costs of the World Constitutional Convention.

(Suggested Summary)

An act permitting the people of California to participate in a World Constitutional Convention if a majority of voters voting approve the Philadelphia II Initiative in California, in the United States and in a sufficient number of nations worldwide. Herein defined are: the requirements to determine the people's will to participate in a World Constitutional Convention in an orderly, fair manner, the composition of a Critical Mass of people in the world; the issuance of the Call to the Convention stating the time and location; the method of apportioning delegates to the convention; and the delegate election process.

In order to provide a process to facilitate elections to determine the will of United States citizens, this act creates the American Electoral Administration (AEA). The AEA is charged to defend any legal challenge to the sovereign right of the people to participate directly in creating a world government, to legislate national policy, and to codify their legislative rights and procedures by a process embodied in the Philadelphia II Initiative.

The first state approving the Philadelphia II Initiative initially creates and funds with a loan the AEA. The approval of Philadelphia II by citizens in subsequent states is their acceptance of the AEA and adds to its funding with additional loans from their treasuries. The amount of these loans is equal to twenty-five cents per citizen for each approving state as determined by the most recent census. These loans are to be repaid by a federal appropriation from the U.S. Treasury when the Philadelphia II Initiative becomes a federal law as a result of its approval by a majority of voting Americans. The AEA, an independent agency, is then funded through normal Congressional appropriations. The Philadelphia II Initiative enacted in this statute affords California citizens the opportunity to participate in a World Constitutional Convention and empowers them to contribute their will in the creation of a federal law that gives California citizens the same sovereign rights of direct democracy as United States citizens as they presently enjoy as California citizens.

PROPOSED LAW BY INITIATIVE IN CALIFORNIA

SECTION 1. This measure shall be known and may be cited as the Philadelphia II Initiative.

SECTION 2. Section 3.5 is added to Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of California to read:

Section 3.5 Notwithstanding Section 3 or any other Section of this Constitution, an appropriation will be made from the State Treasury for the purpose of making a loan to the American Electoral Administration, no later than ten days after it is applied for, to carry out its duties and activities under Division 3.2 commencing with Section 600 of Title I of the Government Code.

SECTION 3. Division 3.2 (commencing with Section 600) is added to Title 1 of the Government Code to establish in state government the following, to read:

DIVISION 3.2. A WORLD CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

Section 600 Preamble

We, human beings, hold that only human beings are sovereign. We declare the inalienable right and responsibility to choose the manner in which we govern ourselves. Governments and all other elements of governance receive their powers from us. We retain the right to withdraw or alter those powers.

Governance is required at all levels of human activity in order to establish justice for all persons, ensure the general welfare, secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, and restore and preserve the ecological balance of our home—earth. Lack of governance at the global level of human activity dooms the planet to mismanagement of its resources and impairs the effectiveness of all governments.

Therefore, commencing in California and continuing to other states of the United States and continuing to other countries, we undertake this global initiative process, called the Philadelphia II Initiative, to ask people if they wish to participate in a world constitutional convention addressing problems of global governance. The Philadelphia II Initiative, as a first step, can lead to a world governed by laws.

Recognizing that not all political jurisdictions in the U.S. have laws and procedures to present initiatives to their people, we, as American citizens, exercise our sovereignty to establish laws and procedures—direct democracy—in our nation to present initiatives to all the people of the U.S. on the question of their willingness to participate in a world constitutional convention.

Section 601 A World Constitutional Convention

We, the citizens of California, choose to participate, via democratically elected delegates, in a World Constitutional Convention that will be called if and when a sufficient number of people worldwide decide to participate, in accord with the rules and procedures set forth in this statute.

Section 602 Critical Mass

The majority of voters voting for the Philadelphia II Initiative in nations representing an aggregate of at least one billion people and twenty-five percent of the world's gross economic product shall be considered a critical mass—a sufficient number of people for purposes of this statute. The Call to the convention is triggered when that number of citizens—a Critical Mass—will have voted to participate in a World Constitutional Convention. The Convention Secretariat, created in Section 605, shall then communicate the formal Call.

Section 603 The Call

The Call shall be communicated to the American Electoral Administration (AEA), created in Section 608, and the Electoral Administrations (EA) of each participating nation. The Call shall announce the time, place and probable number of delegates to be authorized according to the formula in Section 604 (f) as it will have been applied to the most recent United Nations data.

(a) Time: The convention shall take place not less than 24 months, not more than 30 months from the date of the attainment of the Critical Mass.

(b) The Roll: During the first year after the Call, citizens of nations not yet participating may decide by initiative or referendum to participate in the convention. At the end of that period the roll of nations whose citizens are participating in the World Constitutional Convention shall be closed.

(c) Delegate Apportionment: The Convention Secretariat, within thirty days of the roll's closure, shall communicate to the EA of each participating nation the number of delegates authorized to represent the people of that nation, a number determined by the formula in Section 604 (f) as it will have been applied to the most recent United Nations data. Citizens of nations who do not choose to participate prior to the roll closure may, after an initiative or referendum and observer elections, send accredited observers to the convention.

(d) Place: The Convention Secretariat shall arrange for a suitable location for the efficient operation of the World Constitutional Convention.

Section 604 Delegates

The people who chose to participate in a World Constitutional Convention shall be represented by democratically elected delegates.

(a) Qualifications: Delegates must be twenty-one years of age and legal residents of the nation whose citizens they are elected to represent.

(b) Election: Delegates are to be chosen directly by the citizens of participating nations in plurality type elections. Each EA shall prescribe filing procedures for candidates seeking to be elected as delegates, and the conduct of the election and post election activities. The EAs shall be guided by procedures detailed herein, the practices in their jurisdiction and the practices of other EAs, toward an objective of making procedures universally equitable. The election results shall list the candidates according to the number of votes received, in descending order. Selections will be made from the list in accordance with the rule stated in (d) below until the authorized number of delegate positions shall have been filled.

2. Performance Factor uses the measurement of thirteen areas of national or governmental performance to modify the Primary Allocation of each nation. Each factor has a range from the "best" to the "worst" performance. Within that range, a level of performance is picked to represent what reasonable people currently would expect as the norm for a nation's performance as regards respect for human beings and their habitat. The difference between actual performance and the Norm produces a plus or minus number used to calculate an increment to be applied to the Primary Allocation of the nation. For two of the factors, the actual range of national performance includes performance so egregiously out of reason in a civilized world that the range is rejected and replaced with one more representative of human expectation. These two factors are Military Spending as a percentage of spending for Health and Education combined and Maternal Mortality. The effect of this modification is to make increments on the Primary Allocation of delegates for those two factors larger for all nations than they would be if the true ranges were used. The Performance Factor Computation follows:

$$PerformanceFactor = PrimaryAllocation \times (Norm - Performance) + FactorRange$$

3. Factor Weight is the relative importance given to each of the thirteen factors. The greatest weight (0.20) is given to the human rights performance of governments. The lowest weight (0.04) is given to Media Outlets which is indicative of how much information a government permits its people. The data representing each factor is available from the United Nations Development Programme, Human Development Report Office, 336 E. 45th Street, Uganda House, 6th Floor, New York 10017 (212) 983-1530, Fax: (212) 983-0025.

The Performance Factors, their Norms and Weights follow:

- | | | |
|---|-----------|--------------|
| 1. Human Rights Index | Norm: 28 | Weight: 0.20 |
| A formulation of 40 indicators of human rights reported as a "Human Freedom Index" by the UN. | | |
| 2. Maternal Mortality | Norm: 10 | Weight: 0.15 |
| Maternal deaths at childbirth, per 100,000 live births. | | |
| 3. Mean Years of Schooling | Norm: 9 | Weight: 0.12 |
| For total population above 25 years of age. | | |
| 4. Fertility | Norm: 2 | Weight: 0.10 |
| Expected number of live births per woman's lifetime. | | |
| 5. Gender Equality in Labor | Norm: 40 | Weight: 0.10 |
| Women in workforce as a % of total workforce. | | |
| 6. Greenhouse Effect | Norm: 1.5 | Weight: 0.10 |
| Emissions of "carbon dioxide equivalents" expressed as metric tons per capita. | | |
| 7. Social Security Spending | Norm: 15 | Weight: 0.10 |
| Measured as a % of Gross Domestic Product | | |

(c) Campaign Financing: Candidates for delegate positions shall not solicit or accept funds from government agencies, for-profit corporations or organized associations backed by such agencies or for-profit corporations to pay for any costs associated with seeking election as delegate. Each EA shall prescribe campaign funding reporting procedures.

(d) Gender Equalization: The person receiving the largest number of votes is elected to fill the first delegate position. If a second delegate position is authorized, it shall be filled by selection of the person who received the largest number of votes and who is of the opposite gender from the first person. Additional authorized delegate positions shall be filled in turn by alternately selecting the male or female candidate, not yet selected, who received the next largest number of votes, and so on. The delegates filling the third and succeeding odd-numbered positions shall be of the same gender as the person first selected. Those filling the even-numbered positions will be of the opposite gender.

(e) Vacancies: A vacancy in any delegation shall be filled by the person of the same sex who received the next largest number of votes in the original election.

(f) Authorization: The number of delegates authorized to the people of each participating nation is determined by the following formula:

$$Delegates = PrimaryAllocation \pm \sum_{for\ factors} PerformanceFactor \times FactorWeight$$

This formula is designed to assure adequate representation for the people of small and moderate-sized nations while assuring that the most populous nations will not dominate the convention by their sheer numbers; and secondly, to grant more or less representation to the people of participating nations in proportion to their national performance as regards the treatment of their citizens as sovereign human beings and as regards actions by their government in support of their human development and actions affecting the long term health of our planet.

A definition of the elements of the formula follows:

1. Primary Allocation is the population-based starting point from which will be determined the number of delegates authorized a nation. Because of the very wide range in the population of nations, a logarithmic function is used to equitably distribute delegates to nations. To emphasize representation for moderate sized nations, the logarithm is taken on the population, expressed in millions, divided by two. To arrive at a suitable number of delegates for every nation with a population greater than three million, that result is multiplied by four and the result is rounded. To avoid computational anomalies, the logarithmic function is not used for nations with population less than three million. Of these nations, those with population greater than one million are authorized one delegate as their Primary Allocation. Each nation with a population of one million or less is assigned a Primary Allocation of zero and the nation is expected to join in regionally defined aggregates with one or more designated other nations of one million or less population. The aggregate population of the group is then used to calculate a Primary Allocation for the group as above; except that the Primary Allocation for the group will be no less than one, even if the aggregate population of the group does not exceed one million. The Primary Allocation computation is as follows:

$$PrimaryAllocation = 4 \times Log.(Pop+2)$$

- 8. Hazardous Waste Generation Norm: 1.5 Weight: 0.08
Measured as metric tons per square kilometer of land mass.
- 9. Military Expenditures Norm: 12 Weight: 0.08
Measured as a % of Health and Education Expenditures
- 10. Gross Domestic Savings Norm: 20 Weight: 0.05
Measured as a % of Gross Domestic Product.
- 11. Gross National Product Norm: 20,000 Weight: 0.05
Per Capita, measured in U.S. dollars.
- 12. Human Development Index Norm: 0.85 Weight: 0.05
An index contained in the UN Human Development Report.
- 13. Media Outlets Norm 2,000 Weight: 0.04
Number of radios, television sets and daily newspapers per 1,000 people.

Example: Computation using Human Development Index data for the U.S.A.

The 1991 population of the USA (in millions) was 252.5. The Primary Allocation for the USA is 19.35 (The result of the calculation $4 \times \log 126.25$). For each performance factor, there is a six-step process to determine the increment on the Primary Allocation. The example uses data pertaining to the Human Development Index(1990) and U.S. performance with respect to it.

Step 1: Establish the range of the factor. For the Human Development Index (1990) the highest index recorded is 0.983, the least is 0.045; the Factor Range is 0.938 (from the calculation $0.983 - 0.045$).

Step 2: Assign a national performance Norm such that one might expect a nation to operate at that Level or better. The assigned Norm for the Human Development Index is 0.85.

Step 3: For each factor, determine the actual national performance with respect to this factor and calculate the ratio, (Norm - National Performance) + Factor Range. Whether the result should be taken as a positive or negative depends on what reasonable people would consider to be "better." The National Performance for the USA on the Human Development Index is 0.976. Therefore this ratio becomes 0.134 (from $(0.976 - 0.85) + 0.938$).

Step 4: Multiply the nation's Primary Allocation by the above ratio. For the USA, the result is 2.59 ($= 19.35 \times 0.134$)

Step 5: Multiply the result of Step 4 with the Factor Weight. The Factor Weight applied to the Human Development Index is .05. The result, for the USA, is 0.13 ($= 2.59 \times 0.05$)

Step 6: Cumulate the result of Steps 1 through 5 for all factors. Showing the result of Step 5 only for each of the factors, the sum for the USA is 0.10 (from $0.52 + 0.13 + 0.05 - 0.04 - 0.50 + 0.63 - 0.02 + 0.22 - 0.55 - 0.11 - 0.14 + 0.29 - 0.38$). The assigned number of delegates for the USA is 19 (from $19.35 + 0.10$, rounded).

Section 605 Convention Secretariat

A Convention Secretariat is hereby created to perform all the ministerial actions in preparation for the World Constitutional Convention.

(a) Organization: The Convention Secretariat shall be governed by a Board of Directors consisting of one person from each EA of participating nations. Each EA shall select their representative to the board of the Convention Secretariat from among the members of its board. The Convention Secretariat shall come into being when the boards of at least two EAs appoint their authorized member. The Convention Secretariat shall organize itself in a fashion similar to the organizational structure of the EAs as specified in Section 608, except that the Secretary General of the United Nations shall be an ex-officio voting member.

(b) Ministerial Duties: The Convention Secretariat shall perform the following duties:

1. Certification: Certify that all initiatives, referendums and delegate elections related to this World Constitutional Convention are democratically conducted;
2. Formal Call: Communicate the formal written convention Call to the EA of each participating nation, when the required Critical Mass has been attained.
3. Preparations: Provide for the necessary meeting and office space with furnishings and equipment for the efficient conduct of the convention proceedings. Contract for studies on subjects likely to come before the convention. Hire staff to serve the anticipated needs of the convention.
4. Fiduciary: Prepare budgets of anticipated expenses. Apply for, receive, spend and account for all funds and in-kind contributions in a publicly acceptable manner. Transfer all moneys, property, records and staff to the convention upon its organization.
- (c) Funding: Funding for the Convention Secretariat shall be provided by the EAs of participating nations on an equitable basis.
- (d) Discretionary Powers: In the absence of defined powers to properly deal with unforeseen requirements or other events in preparation for the convention and the apportionment of delegates according to Section 604 (f), the Convention Secretariat shall be authorized to the take actions necessary to fulfill the intent of the Philadelphia II Initiative, after consultation with the EAs of participating nations.

Section 606 The Convention

The convention, when convened, becomes a plenipotentiary democratic body whose delegates are responsible to the citizens they represent. If a constitution is produced by the convention, it shall be submitted to the people of the world for ratification.

Philadelphia II in California 10/30/93

Section 607 Convention Funding

There is hereby appropriated from the Treasury of the United States the funds necessary to pay the costs for its delegates and the U.S. share of the costs of the operation of the convention. The U.S. share (as for all nations) shall be an amount equal to the percentage of its delegates to the entire number of delegates to the convention.

Section 608 American Electoral Administration

An American Electoral Administration (AEA) is hereby created to conduct state and national initiatives, election of delegates to the World Constitutional Convention and referendums of a general nature to determine the will of the voting citizens of the United States. The creation of the AEA begins a state-by-state process that will in the end permit American citizens to declare if they wish to participate in a World Constitutional Convention and to create a federal law and procedures for the conduct of national initiatives and elections.

(a) Justification: Citizens of California have the sovereign power to legislate laws and changes to their state constitution. As citizens of the United States, California citizens do not now enjoy the same orderly methods to legislate as is their right. The necessary federal law and procedures need to be created so that the full benefits of direct democracy are enjoyed by California's citizens as Americans.

(b) Authority: The authority to legislate the creation of the AEA into federal law by a series of state initiatives, determining the will of the majority of American citizens, rests on the absolute sovereignty of each citizen. The absolute sovereignty of American citizens is evidenced in the written record of the deliberations of the Constitutional Convention in 1787, in the ratification procedures of 1787 and 1788 and in Amendments IX and X to the U.S. Constitution.

(c) Board of Directors: The AEA shall be governed by a Board of Directors. 1. Members: Membership in the board may be expanded or contracted by a vote of two thirds of the sitting board members below. The following persons are appointed to the Board of Directors of the American Electoral Administration:

- (d) Duties:
1. Assess The Will of the People: The AEA shall develop the means, as is envisioned in Section 12, to facilitate a vote on the Philadelphia II Initiative in any jurisdiction in the United States when a petition by qualified voters is submitted to the AEA. The AEA shall facilitate a full and free expression of the people's will on the Philadelphia II Initiative, on matters of public policy and on the election of delegates to the World Constitutional Convention.
 2. Facilitate Elections: The AEA shall hold or cause to be held initiative elections by: (i) negotiating with the government officials of jurisdictions where inadequate laws or none exist to permit the citizens of that jurisdiction to vote on the Philadelphia II Initiative and matters of public policy submitted as initiatives to the AEA; (ii) if those negotiations fail, to hold initiative elections by advertising a date, time and places convenient to all citizens, where voters may cast their ballot for or against the Philadelphia II Initiative or any other matter of public policy; and (iii) certify the results of said elections. The AEA shall provide for the election of delegates to represent the people of the United States at the World Constitutional Convention after receipt of the formal Call.

All government jurisdictions shall cooperate to the fullest extent possible to facilitate the exercise of the people's sovereign right to legislate and to implement the will of the people as expressed in legislation.

Section 610 Initiatives

In order to determine the will of the people, the AEA shall devise and publish regulations and procedures for initiatives—forms, petitions and ballots—and the means to deal with them. Its regulations shall include but not be limited to the following:

(a) Subject Matter: The subject of initiatives shall be matters of public policy. Each initiative shall be limited to one subject, expressed in no more than five thousand words. The accuracy of the descriptive language of the petition shall be determined by the AEA in negotiations with the initiative's sponsors. When requested, the AEA shall provide qualified staff to assist sponsors in drafting initiatives if it is determined that there is a reasonable probability the measure will eventually be submitted to the voters.

(b) Sponsors: The main sponsors names, organizations, and corporate association, if any, shall appear on the face of the petition and the ballot initiative.

(c) Funding: The use of funds to finance the sponsorship and advocacy of an initiative from for-profit corporations or associations backed by for-profit corporations is prohibited. Penalties for reporting false disclosures and the fraudulent use of funds shall not exceed $100,000 in fines and one year in jail per instance for individuals and corporate officers. Funds donated by individuals to finance initiatives shall be tax deductible notwithstanding any other provision of law.

(d) Communications: The AEA shall publish in relevant media and distribute to all registered voters of relevant jurisdictions, at least thirty days before the vote on the initiative, an unbiased analysis of the initiative to be voted upon.

(e) Disclosures: Disclosure statements by the sponsors of initiatives shall be filed with the AEA listing contributors with identifying information including employment and all other affiliations and amounts of donations. A disclosure report will accompany the filing of the signature petitions, detailing contributions and expenditures from the date the initiative petition was approved for circulation. Another report shall be filed ten days prior to election date, detailing contributions to date. The report shall detail all expenditures projected to election day. After the tenth day before the election, initiative sponsors are prohibited from soliciting and accepting contributions, if the contributions are in the aggregate greater than five percent of the total amount contributed in support of the initiative to date. All reports shall immediately be made available to the public.

(f) Qualifying Petitions: Petitions for national initiatives that propose laws or changes in laws shall be signed by registered voters representing five percent of all those voting in the last presidential election. Petitions for national initiatives that propose a change to the Constitution shall be signed by registered voters representing eight percent of all those voting in the last presidential election. The time period to gather qualifying petition signatures is 365 days for national initiatives. Petitions for state and local jurisdictions that propose laws or changes in laws shall be signed by registered voters representing five percent of all those voting in the last presidential election. Petitions for state and local jurisdictions that propose changes to the constitution or a charter shall be signed by registered voters representing eight percent of all those voting in the last presidential election. The time period to gather qualifying petition signatures is 180 days for state and local initiatives. The AEA shall be guided by the experiences and laws of jurisdictions worldwide that have initiative laws and procedures with particular attention to the 1993 Report and Recommendations of the California Commission on Campaign financing in Democracy by Initiative. Shaping California's Fourth Branch of Government.

Section 611 Appropriations

(a) State Appropriations: There is hereby appropriated from the California General Fund to the Controller of California a sum equal to twenty-five cents times the number of persons living in California as determined by the last census. This sum is to be loaned to the AEA upon its application so that the AEA can carry out its duties and activities under the law. The authorized sum shall be remitted to the AEA within ten days of its application.

(b) Federal Appropriations: There is hereby appropriated from the Treasury of the United States of America a sum equal to the amounts loaned to the AEA by various states. In a funding process similar to existing independent agencies of the United States, the AEA shall submit its annual budget to the U.S. Congress, which shall appropriate the necessary funds from the U.S. Treasury so the AEA can carry out its duties and activities.

(c) Appropriation Authority: A majority vote by registered voters in a jurisdiction makes the appropriation law in that jurisdiction and, more particularly, constitutes a law for purposes of Subsection 7, Section 9, Article I of the U.S. Constitution.

Section 612 Term

Commencing from the date that a Philadelphia II Initiative is first approved by a majority of voters in any state of the United States, voters in other state jurisdictions shall have ten years to approve or disapprove Philadelphia II. In the United States, if a majority of registered voters voting do not approve Philadelphia II within ten years, Philadelphia II laws that exist in any state shall be deleted.

At the time voters approve Philadelphia II in states having a majority of the registered voters of the United States, the Philadelphia II Initiative shall become a federal law and shall be added to the federal code in the appropriate manner. The text of the law created by voter approval of this initiative in California shall be deleted from the state code as the corresponding text is added to the federal code.

If a 100% check of signatures is necessary, it is advised that the petitions be filed by March 2, 1994.

Sincerely,

Attachment: POLITICAL REFORM ACT OF 1974 REQUIREMENTS

Editor's note: Missing gold in Fort Knox? THE NATIONAL TATTLER from 1974? What is this and why are we republishing it in 1994? Dr. Peter Beter was THE substantial source of valid information during that period of time, in direct communication with Commander Hatonn. Dr. Beter is no longer with us, but this information about Ft. Knox's missing gold, which Commander Hatonn has discussed in earlier JOURNALS, is all mixed up with other drain-the-U.S.-economy shenanigans of the International Elite's banking cartels. You would never see this story in the likes of a well-controlled NEW YORK TIMES. Since the economic jigsaw puzzle is far more complex than just that gold missing from Ft. Knox, you may want to read the following PHOENIX JOURNALS: SPIRAL TO ECONOMIC DISASTER (# 4), YOU CAN SLAY THE DRAGON (# 16) [presently out of stock], and THE NAKED PHOENIX (# 17). Any way you look at it, the burden of responsibility still rests on the shoulders of we-the-people to wake up and reclaim what the International Elite banksters have stolen from our once great nation--and gold is the least of it!

Dr. Beter, Rep. Rarick Push Investigation

Mysterious Death Silences Key Informant In Missing Fort Knox Gold Controversy

By TOM VALENTINE
Of the Tattler Staff

An informant who provided part of the information upon which TATTLER based a controversial "missing gold" story is dead under mysterious circumstances.

Dead is Mrs. Louise Auchincloss Boyer, identified by Dr. Peter David Beter as one of the sources for his charge that international speculators have looted Ft. Knox of much, if not all, of its gold.

Mrs. Boyer, age 59, was a former executive assistant to former New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller. She plunged to her death from a window of her 10th-floor Manhattan apartment on July 4, just one week after Dr. Beter made his charges in an exclusive article in TATTLER.

The story of the missing gold has caused a storm of controversy in Washington, where Rep. John R. Rarick, D-La., is demanding a full audit of the nation's gold supply.

Mrs. Boyer's obituary in the New York Daily News identified her as "a key Rockefeller aide in his wide range of private contacts with national and world leaders."

Dr. Beter told TATTLER that Mrs. Boyer was one of a number of informants "in the Rockefeller camp" who has provided him with highly sensitive financial information in recent years.

DR. BETER IS former legal counsel for the Export-Import Bank and American Gold Association and a widely recognized expert on international monetary affairs.

One of his books, "Conspiracy Against the Dollar," was the culmination of many years of investigating the Rockefeller family's financial activities. In the book, Dr. Beter accuses the Rockefellers of attempting to influence and control the economy of the United States.

In the TATTLER article that first reported the "missing gold" story, Dr. Beter flatly accused David Rockefeller, president of the Chase Manhattan Bank, as one of the persons responsible for what he termed "the looting of Ft. Knox."

Rockefeller denied the charge.

It is Dr. Beter's contention that an ad hoc committee made up of powerful persons in American politics and economics has allowed the secret sale of U.S. gold reserves to 13 individuals in Europe. These individuals, he says, are fronting for American speculators.

Dr. Beter charges that billions of dollars worth of U.S. gold has been sold and much of it stored in The Netherlands.

"The gold was sold for $42.22 per ounce at a time when the price was ranging between $160 and $170 per ounce," said Dr. Beter. He predicts the price of gold eventually may be manipulated to as much as $2,000 an ounce.

Representatives of the U.S. Treasury Department have denied that any large amounts of gold have been removed from Ft. Knox. Arthur F. Burns, chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, told TATTLE he had no knowledge of any sale of U.S. gold to foreigners.

BUT DR. BETER says he stands ready to present witnesses and documentation to support his charges in the event he is subpoenaed to appear before a federal grand jury.

Dr. Beter explained his association with Mrs. Boyer this way:

"I had discussed the Rockefellers' financial activities on several radio talk shows when I received an unsigned letter confirming information I had been given by another source within the Rockefeller circle.

"I later learned that Mrs. Boyer had written the letter and we finally got together via telephone contacts. It was all very clandestine.

"Mrs. Boyer was a latecomer to my circle of informants, but because of her position, her confirmations of my information were extremely valuable.

"In the last conversation I had with her, she certainly did not seem depressed," said Dr. Beter. "When I learned of her death, I was very shocked."

The body of Mrs. Boyer, dressed in a nightgown, was found at 5 a.m. in a courtyard beneath her apartment window. No determination of the cause of death has been made, although the police listed it as "apparent suicide."

No suicide note was found and friends said, to their knowledge, she had not been despondent.

Mrs. Boyer had been associated with Rockefeller interests since 1944.

IN WORLD WAR II, she served with the Office of the Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs, headed by Nelson Rockefeller.

Since 1953, she had been a director of the International Basic Economy Corporation, a global business founded in 1947.

She also was a director and officer of the American International Association for Economic and Social Development. Both organizations were created by Nelson Rockefeller with the support of his brothers.

Meanwhile, Rep. Rarick, and Rep. Phillip M. Crane, R-Ill., are insisting that a congressional committee be allowed to visually inspect the gold at Ft. Knox.

They have been promised by U.S. Treasury Secretary William Simon that he will take a congressional committee to Ft. Knox to inventory the gold personally in an effort to prove or disprove Dr. Beter's charges, but no date has been set.

In addition to an inspection by a congressional committee, Rep. Rarick also wants a full-scale investigation by the Government Accounting Office.

"Even if the gold is there, that does not prove that it has not been sold on paper, with delivery to be made at some future date," he told TATTLE.

"WHAT WE REALLY need here is a full-scale investigation by the General Accounting Office, followed by a complete report to Congress on its findings," he said.

Rep. Crane is in full agreement.

"We are taking this matter very seriously," he assured TATTLE. "We fully intend to investigate and assay the gold."

Dr. Beter says he will not be satisfied by a congressional inspection of Ft. Knox. He wants a citizens committee composed of congressmen, economic experts and the assayer of the Bank of England to make an audit of the nation's gold reserves.

Beter Ready to Lay 'No Gold' Charge Before Grand Jurors

Dr. David Peter Beter says he is ready to provide a federal grand jury with documentation for his charges that international speculators have looted Ft. Knox of its gold. Here is the essence of his charges:

Dr. Beter

● When Public Law 93-110 was signed into law by President Richard Nixon on Sept. 21, 1973, it effectively repealed Section 3 of the U.S. Gold Reserve Act of 1934. This new law made it possible once more to sell U.S. gold on the international market on the approval of an ad hoc committee consisting of powerful individuals in American politics and economics.

● The members of that ad hoc committee include Arthur F. Burns, chairman of the Federal Reserve Board; George Schultz, former Secretary of the Treasury; Henry Kissinger, Secretary of State; Peter Flanigan, of the White House Staff and Herbert Stein, formerly of the Council of Economic Advisors.

● Dr. Beter says he has information that between Nov. 14, 1973, and the middle of January 1974, large quantities of gold from Ft. Knox and four reserve banks was sold with the approval of the above committee.

● THE AMOUNT OF gold totaled many billions according to Dr. Beter. It was sold for $42.22 per ounce at a time when the international rate was ranging between $160 and $170 per ounce.

● Recipients of the gold were 13 individuals in Europe. These individuals were "fronting" for American financial interests, Dr. Beter charges.

● Much of the gold, he says, is presently stored in The Netherlands.

● Dr. Beter has named David Rockefeller of the Chase Manhattan Bank of New York as one of the persons responsible for the sale of U.S. gold reserves. (When contacted by TATTLE, Rockefeller denied the charge).

● It is Dr. Beter's contention that U.S. Army trucks hauled gold reserves to a depot in the Midwest. From there, the gold was flown to Mexico in a Rockefeller-owned jet, he charges. It later was flown to Switzerland and The Netherlands, according to Dr. Beter.

● Dr. Beter charges that at least part of the Ft. Knox gold may have been replaced by gold-painted lead bars made in Canada.

TATTLE's own investigation into the matter has uncovered this information:

● According to the latest report by the U.S. Treasury Department, the United States is supposed to have 273,949,000 ounces of gold on reserve valued at $11.5 billion.

● ABOUT 60 PER CENT of this gold is supposed to be stored in the vaults at Ft. Knox, with the remainder in four Federal Reserve Banks.

● The gold is audited once each year, but nobody actually sees the bullion. Auditors, identified by the Treasury Department only as "a blue ribbon committee," simply inspect wax seals on the vault doors to make certain they have not been broken. No inventory is taken.

New Gaia Products

GAIANDRIANA

Gaiandriana is a non-alcoholic health tonic which provides basic "foods" to help cells, weakened by the stresses of modern life, to return to a state of health.

The better our cells function, the greater is the stamina returned to our internal defense systems, and the better we can counter the constant onslaught of biological and viral invaders. The end result is a feeling of well-being by, of course, being well.

The Gaiandriana (commonly referred to as "chondriana" in the Biological literature) are capable of intelligent, organized attack against cellular invaders like viruses. Think of it as a "pac-man" operation of sorts. However, beyond that, the Gaiandriana are capable of stimulating cellular structural repairs due to damage caused by, for instance, free radicals and cumulative levels of so-called "background" radiation in our modern environment. Healthy DNA and RNA within the nuclei of our cells then lead to properly formed and concentrated enzymes, upon which healthy cellular function depends.

Gaiandriana liquid is made entirely from wholesome natural ingredients.

Complementary to the Gaiandriana product, AquaGaia is also a non-alcoholic health tonic which provides basic "foods" to help cells, weakened by the stresses of modern life, to return to a state of healthy function.

AquaGaia contains mitochondria. These are the major biochemical energy "processors" within cellular metabolism. First, enzymes begin the breakdown process of organic nutrients (like fats, carbohydrates and proteins) to intermediate substances such as amino and pyruvic acids. Then, in the next "bucket brigade" step, these various acid molecules are processed within the mitochondria to release chemical energy recognized as adenosine triphosphate (ATP).

About 95% of the energy needed to "run the machinery" that keeps each cell going and healthy is produced in the mitochondria. Unfortunately, the mitochondria are particularly damaged by free radicals and cumulative levels of so-called "background" radiation in our modern environment. These compromised mitochondria, like half-dead batteries, then lead to impaired cellular functioning and health. Thus is the importance of AquaGaia, with its assimilatable supply of healthy mitochondria — like "fresh batteries" for the body's cells.

The better our cells function, the greater is the stamina returned to our internal defense systems, and the better we can counter the constant onslaught of biological and viral invaders.

2/11/93 #2 HATONN

GAIANDRIANA & AQUAGAIA

To help in understanding the workings of these organic "pac-men" you must realize that there is a protein covering "cap" on viruses. The protein cap is centered on a charged zinc atom and is the part of the virus that recognizes and binds to DNA—in turn allowing the virus to reproduce.

AquaGaia, in conjunction with the Gaiandriana, knock out the zinc atom (a simple "charge" change), which renders the protein ineffective. This is a breakdown of "parts" of the Gaiandriana male-female DNA structure which releases many working variants but frees the Gaiandriettes or "killers" to take out that zinc atom and pass right into the affected cell. Without the "cap", the virus cannot reproduce and infect more cells—further, the damaged virus feeds the Gaiandriana unified cells and the circulating mitochondria.

Healthy cells are not affected because they lack the zinc-centered protein cap on the virus.

These "Gaia" compounds have an effect on cancer cells because they stop an enzyme on the cancer cells from producing a "messenger" molecule that blocks a second enzyme from attacking the cancer cell's DNA. The compounds (Gaia) have been seen to actually take out leukemia, breast, brain and colon cancer cells. We have no claim to anything other than stating that people utilizing these simple and natural substances do show improved well-being and do report feeling generally and, often remarkably, improved as to state of health, thought processes and stamina.

The obvious conclusion is that there might well be good reports of better health and faster recovery, following infection by other viruses, than those mentioned above. All viruses known react in generally the same manner.

It is known that many diseases are due to retroviral DNA and these are the most affected viruses by the Gaia-chondrianas (living crystal forms). We, again, make no medical claims—we are simply reporting in an effort to explain WHAT takes place within the cellular structures of living organisms.

NOTE

If any product you receive has an unpleasant odor — it is from the finishing culture process. Leave the bottle open to air and it will quickly dissipate. Then, depending on taste and preference—refrigerate after opening and reclosing.

IMPORTANT: Do not mix the two, Gaiandriana and AquaGaia, together for storage as the AquaGaia (mitochondria) are aggressive and begin to "eat" the Gaiandriana for fuel. Once ingested, they go about their appointed tasks, but in bottle prisons they are not particularly compatible once the available fuel supply is exhausted. Juices are excellent to take with the AquaGaia because the mitochondria must have the fuel derived from same, the most effective juice being from the tropical "Guava" fruit. Any juice is fine, however, and is most pleasant to intake. Diabetics should utilize whatever juices are available on their food plan to keep within the safe guidelines for calories and other requirements.

The most innocuous and easy intake available is simply a few drops under the tongue, both products taken at the same time or at different times of the day. Once the "initial" program is completed, and the maintenance level of intake is being followed, certainly the drops under the tongue are the least annoying to any daily regimen.

A-C-E ANTI-OXIDANT FORMULA

There is growing evidence that essentially everyone in our society is exposed to free radicals, now more than ever. While free radicals are normal products of our cells and have certain beneficial roles in the body, increased levels of free radicals in our body tissues can be detrimental to our health. Free radicals are highly unstable substances produced in the body through, among other routes, metabolism of oxygen. Free radicals multiply through a series of chain reactions and can attack the polyunsaturated fatty acids of cell membranes. Unless excess free radicals are neutralized, they can cause considerable damage to the structure and function of cell membranes and thus, the cells themselves.

The products from free radical reactions are implicated in the progressive accumulation of deleterious cellular changes over time, which may eventually result in recognizable disease. Free radical damage is implicated in the initiation and promotion of many cancers, as well as atherosclerosis.

One area of aging research suggests that free radicals damage body cells and cause the pathological changes associated with aging. Besides being by-products of the metabolism of oxygen, such as during strenuous exercise, we are also exposed to significant sources of free radicals from the environment, such as from so-called "background" levels of ionizing radiation.

Cooperative defense systems that can protect the body from free radical damage include certain enzymes and the antioxidant vitamins A, C, and E and Beta-Carotene, which protect cell membranes from oxidative damage. Vitamin E, one of the fat-soluble vitamins, is present in the blood as d-alpha-tocopherol and is well accepted as the major antioxidant in lipid body tissues. Vitamin E is considered the first line of defense against cell-membrane damage due to peroxidation. Vitamin E scavenges free radicals, terminating chain reactions and confining damage to limited areas of the membrane. Selenium contained in the enzyme glytathione peroxidase is the second line of defense that destroys peroxides before they can damage cell membranes. Beta-Carotene, a precursor of Vitamin A, also traps free radicals. Vitamin C is water soluble and serves to neutralize free radicals in aqueous systems.

The antioxidants show promise as cancer-prevention agents, alone and in combination.

ALOE JUICE(Whole Leaf, Cold Pressed Aloe Vera Concentrate)

Aloe Vera has a long and impressive history that spans hundreds of centuries, countries and cultures, and appears in countless "folk remedies" as a plant revered for its healing qualities.

Aloe Juice is a whole-leaf concentrate prepared from the freshly harvested leaves of the Barbadensis Miller Aloe Vera plant. Aloe Juice guarantees a minimum of 10,000 mg. of mucopolysaccharides per liter.

The nutrients reported in Aloe Vera include mucopolysaccharides and polysaccharides (glucomannans), glycoproteins, glucose, mannose, galactose, xylose, arabinose, tannins, steroids, organic acids, antibiotic principles, glucuronic acids, enzymes (oxidase, catalase and amylase), trace sugars, calcium oxalate, a protein containing 18 amino acids, "wound healing" hormones, biogenic stimulators, saponins, vitamins B1, B2, niacin, B6, choline, folic acid, chloride, sulfate, iron, calcium, copper, sodium, potassium, silicon, manganese, plus many other metabolism-assisting components.

GINKGO BILOBA(Ginkgo Biloba extract, 24%)

The Ginkgo Biloba extract is a complex compound. The green leaves of the tree are usually harvested from trees grown on plantations in South Korea, Japan and France.

Ginkgo is reported to have a natural affinity for the nervous system. It also seems to stimulate the vascular and endocrine systems that, in turn, strongly affect the function of the nervous system, possibly increasing the capacity for normal physical activity, and the flow of blood to the brain. Some research indicates the possible effectiveness of Ginkgo in the treatment of Alzheimer's disease.

Due to its pharmacological properties, Ginkgo is now widely used throughout Europe for treating many forms of vascular disease. In a survey of packaging information of European products, Ginkgo has been recommended for such ailments as headaches, vertigo, inner-ear disturbances, diminished intellectual capacity and alertness as a result of insufficient circulation to the brain, anxiety, and depression, to name a few.

Ginkgo Biloba Extract (24%) is concentrated from the leaves of the Ginkgo Biloba tree. The highly specialized extraction process yields a 50:1 concentrate from the leaves (50 grams of leaf produce 1 gram of extract). The extract is then further standardized to contain 24% of the active Ginkgo Flavoglycosides.

CHLORELLA

Chlorella is a nutritionally balanced whole food and contributes to the health and growth of human cells like no single vitamin or mineral possibly can.

Chlorella is extremely high in protein (60%) and contains more than 20 vitamins and minerals, 19 of the 22 essential and non-essential amino acids, enzymes and chlorella growth factor. It is one of the richest sources of RNA and DNA known and has twenty times as much chlorophyll as alfalfa, 10 times more than other edible algae including spirulina, and 10 times more than barley grass.

Chlorella is a natural vitality enhancer. The vitamins found in chlorella cells include: vitamin C, provitamin A, B-carotene, chlorophyll-A, chlorophyll-B, thiamine (B1), riboflavin (B2), pyridoxine (B6), niacin (B3), pantothenic acid, folic acid, vitamin B-12, biotin, choline, vitamin K, PABA, lipoic acid, inositol and para-aminobenzoic acid. The minerals include: phosphorus, potassium, iodine, magnesium, sulphur, iron, calcium, manganese, copper, zinc and cobalt.

The amino acids include: lysine, histidine, arginine, aspartic acid, threonine, serine, glutamic acid, proline, glycine, alanine, cystine, valine, methionine, isoleucine, leucine, tyrosine, phenylalanine, ornithine, tryptophan.

The suggested daily consumption is 3 grams per day.

ECHINACEA GOLD PLUS(with American Ginseng)

In recent years few medicinal plants have garnered as much attention as Echinacea (Echinacea Purpurea and Echinacea Angustifolia).

Echinacea is a non-specific stimulant to the immune system. Claims for Echinacea include: stimulation of leukocytes, mild antibiotic activity, anti-inflammatory activity, stimulation of the adrenal cortex, stimulation of the properdin-complement system, interferon-like activity, stimulation of general cellular immunity, and antiviral activity. Internal preparations are said to assist in alleviating cold and flu symptoms, respiratory infections, and arthritis, to name a few.

Goldenseal (Hydrastis Canadensis) is among the most popular herbs in the American health food market. Uses are numerous, including but not limited to: antiseptic, hemostatic, diuretic, laxative, and tonic/anti-inflammatory for the mucous membranes, hemorrhoids, nasal congestion, mouth and gum sores and eye afflictions.

Few medicinal plants in the world possess Ginseng's near-legendary status. Dating back thousands of years, its history of use in the Orient records therapeutic properties so wide ranging that it was first dismissed by Western doctors as a "panacea". When fatigued, Ginseng reportedly restores both physical and mental functions to peak efficiency and, with regular use, improves resistance to disease and stress. American Ginseng's genus name is Panax Quinquefolius.

Over 40,000 species of mushrooms exist, many of which are used as medicines. Of particular note are such remedies as penicillin- and ergot-based extracts used in migraine treatment, to name a few. Extensive research has been done with one mushroom in particular, namely, Reishi. This mushroom is now considered a tried and true immune system fortifier.
