Close Encounters Of The FOOLISH Kind Don't Mess With God!

2/8/94 #1 HATONN

RED BECKMAN

The calls come in this morning with great concern about Red Beckman and the ATF, IRS, et al. possibly being in the present act of surrounding and evicting Red and all in the premises. Well, it seems the LAST ones those in that location want is actual participation by anyone here and especially by anyone connected with God's Hosts. I understand that Col. Gritz' security fighters and excursion decoys are the ones sought after. Well, go for it, Rambo, and you will finally reveal yourself.

Col. Gritz now presents on the radio to the national audience that you can purchase tickets for space rides, interviews, etc., from various and sundry personages around. He says he has had interviews with "that Lizard" and Doris Ekker. I find that interesting.

I find it interesting that the ones in charge of destroying this grandma and grandpa—OWE THE INSTITUTE IN POINT, THOUSANDS UPON THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS.

Go for the "gusto", good buddies, and I can promise that Bo will get decorations and medals and the persons in point will LOSE! It is being shown over and over again—you nice people just "miss it".

It seems that Bo presents Hatonn as a reptilian, lizard and other reptile descriptions. HOW WOULD HE KNOW SO MUCH? IS IT THAT HIS CONTACTS ARE WITH THE VIPERS OF THE UNIVERSE? Well, his actions are of the Earth plane and all of you readers had best realize that.

He, in connection with Green, Anderson and the Elite controllers are doing nothing more than setting up the lies which can be the excuse for making a raid by the ATF and Feds on the house in which Ekkers live. They are deliberating setting up a plan whereby they can use RICO under "fraud" to master such a swoop. The point being that they could then move in free concert with those who are efforting to "get" "me".

The Mormon Church in Salt Lake City is staging a push to "get the Ekkers" and the plan is openly spoken of in the "Washington" circles. Kissinger runs your nation and has since Nixon—in total. His side henchman is Scowcroft who is the plant and runner of the Mormon Church. My, my, how important can a couple of old people be? Sound ridiculous? How ridiculous does it sound to "sell" tickets for $1,200 each for space trips as Mr. Gritz authoritatively stated on national radio?

ton to Electron—and more importantly, HATONN. HE STATED THAT HATONN WAS NO LONGER IN TEHACHAPI, “NO LONGER SERVED DHARMA, THE EKKERS; EVERYONE SHOULD MAKE A RUN ON THE INSTITUTE AND DESTROY THE MYTHS COMING OUT OF THAT PLACE.” THIS WAS HEARD ON NATIONAL RADIO FROM PENNSYLVANIA TO FLORIDA TO CALIFORNIA AND ESPECIALLY NEVADA AND MONTANA.

Doris Ekker has NEVER had an interview—anywhere! Dharma has never had an interview—anywhere. She has spoken for me on perhaps 5 to 8 occasions and each time Mr. Green’s acquaintances and/or Col. Gritz’s have called in to ridicule. Mr. Green has had hundreds of interviews, UFO B.S., expert seminars on business and survival and claims to be a honcho expert in everything in business and survival—AND GOD, CHRIST AND UFOs. SO, WHO DO YOU THINK MIGHT BE SELLING TICKETS ABOARD SHIPS WHICH DO NOT EXIST AND WHO WOULD “YOU” INTERVIEW—AT $400 A WHACK? THERE HAS NEVER BEEN A SINGLE CENT EITHER EXCHANGE POSITION, REQUIRED, DONATED OR OTHERWISE ACCEPTED FOR ANYTHING PROJECTED OR PRODUCED BY ONES, EKKERS OR ACQUAINTANCES—FOR INTERVIEWS!

How were these particular numbers arrived at? Well, I guess you will have to personally ask Col. Gritz as he gave his 800 number [800-476-0685] for your convenience to find out about these trips and interviews. This would, it seems to me, further indicate that somehow he has quite tangled-up Green’s “Hatonn” with anything to do with the Ekkers. I suggest part of his problem is the owing these ones over $19,000 personally! And again, no one, especially the Ekkers, has ever seen or noted ANYTHING reptilian about the Lighted presentation of God’s Hosts OR ME. Could these cute deceivers be “trying too hard” for some reason? So be it.

PHOENIX INSTITUTE

George Green originated the plan for the Institute. Obviously it was to “work” greatly different than at upstart. Ekker was working for God—George for himself, in his expert stance as a “business man” with years of international and Elite connections and experience. The Institute ends up in GOOD CONDITION so something went badly wrong for Mr. Green.

Mr. Green was working in conjunction with Gary Anderson who set up a Constitutional Law Centre TRUST in the same building with the Constitutional Law Center and Mr. Green would receive funds (the major donation in point came from one called Ruby P. which “caught” the sticky-fingered-thieves), would send the checks and donations to the CLC TRUST, would be endorsed by Anderson as CLC Trust OR WE THE PEOPLE, deposited in Colorado and these people here do not know how much you nice people were robbed of. It is now worse, for they now publicly claim (to ones working with them, like Gritz) that they have enough blackmail against the CLC acting director to KEEP HIM IN CONTROL. This is blackmail at its most disgusting worst—for the love of gold.

Mr. Green uses connections through a man named Hernandez in Puerto Rico and places in Costa Rica (the major center for INTELLIGENCE meetings) to launder and hold both offshore TRUSTS and GOLD. Oh, by the way—Col. Gritz knows every nook and cranny of business and laundering of both drugs and money through PANAMA! Ask him on that 800 number he gives out [800-476-0685]—Panama was one of his biggest OPERATIONS!

Mr. Anderson simply hops around ADVERTISING his connections with GRITZ to continue to deceive you listeners into TRUSTS AND OTHER THINGS WHICH WILL GUARANTEE LOSS OF EVERY CENT YOU THINK YOU PLACE INTO SAFETY. MR. ANDERSON GOES BACK A LONG WAY—ALL THE WAY TO CHICAGO FRAUD TRENDS—THROUGH SPECIAL FORCES AND THROUGH MANY AN ALSO-KNOWN-AS. THERE ARE ONES WHO PERSONALLY ASK ME TO STAY OUT OF THIS FEUD FOR “THEY” WANT HIM!

Green, further, is working with the judicial system in that he has informed the lawyers and the courts that he is but an Intelligence “TOOL” TO CATCH THAT TERRIBLE “CULT” IN CALIFORNIA AND IS WORKING AT THE BEHEST (AND IS BEING PAID BY) THE ELITE CORPS TO PULL DOWN THAT TERRIBLE ALIEN CULT. HE CAN PRODUCE THE PAPERS AND BADGES TO CONVINCING THEM OF SAME—BECAUSE HE WAS SUCKED (ACTUALLY BARGAINED AND APPLIED TO THEM FOR REACTIVATION) BACK IN TO DO THE DIRTY DEALS.

What is found here? Two old people who have had their home taken, their property stolen, nothing left to them, living on food stamps and eligible for welfare (their family pays their meagre bills) and are applying, because of age, for their Social Security. There is not and NEVER HAS BEEN so much as a “group” of anything in this place. Dharma writes in the basement of the house where they are yet allowed to dwell temporarily.

Does this make the most DECORATED “HERO” OF THE SPECIAL FORCES PROUD OF HIS MACHO IMAGE?

SORRY, READERS, THERE IS AND NEVER HAS BEEN ANYTHING FOR SALE HERE—NOT EVEN THE BOOKS WRITTEN BY DHARMA—MR. GREEN AND MRS. GREEN HAVE THEM IN THEIR CONTROL—ANY HERE ARE NEWER ONES!

This bunch of thieves and liars have done everything from FBI investigations, mail fraud and setting up Gaiandriana for all sorts of terrible things—all to no avail for nothing is found or amiss in anything the Ekkers do or present.

The whole thing with US&P (University of Science and Philosophy) was set up with and through Green. This is fine; the Brookings Institute who now is running your major defense and international programs, has controlled that “University” along with British Intelligence MI-6 for a VERY LONG TIME. If this is the kind of advertising they wish, so be it.

Why would Green want to shut down the Institute? To keep the gold coins he STOLE from same. You know of $350,000 in coins but there is an additional $182,000 in gold maple-leaf coins and untold amounts sent to him while still in Tehachapi by you who just wanted your gold converted WITHOUT IRS CONSEQUENCES—AND HE SAYS “EKKERS” ARE THE BAD GUYS? My, my, Ekkers were obviously not bright enough to even think of such travesty of thievery!

PHOENIX INSTITUTE OWNERSHIP

After Green LEFT Tehachapi he set up through other persons TWO Nevada Corporations agents. (Mary Ann and Grant). He made special presentations in seminars that he ALSO had fronted over a million dollars to Cort Christie (his man, he said) for the one which now comes under attack from and by him. He told hundreds of participants that he has MANY corporations.

Now for the biggie, good readers; WHO OWNS THE PHOENIX INSTITUTE?

At onset of setting-up the Institute E.J. served as President and Doris served as Secretary. They knew the paper work required to establish a working corporation. George was a member of the Board of Directors, and a Vice President (with check cashing ability on the account established at the bank). He refused to have his wife, Desiree, on the Board because “we will never get anything done”.

Now, let us look at this carefully—FOR DORIS NEVER EVEN SAW THE STOCK! AS ACTING SECRETARY—SHE SHOULD NOT ONLY HAVE SEEN THE STOCK BUT, EVEN IF NEVADA HAD NO RECORDS OF OWNERSHIP—SHE WOULD HAVE. WHO GOT THE STOCK? WHO NOW WANTS TO “RECEIVERSHIP” THE INSTITUTE IN ORDER TO HOLD THE ASSETS IN HIS OWN ACCOUNTS? WHO SET UP THE PLAN IN THE FIRST PLACE AND NOW CALLS IT A PONZI SCHEME? I SUGGEST YOU SERIOUSLY LOOK TO MR. GREEN FOR I AM SURE THAT STOCK IS EQUALLY AS DEEPLY HIDDEN UNDERGROUND AS WERE THE BURIED GOLD COINS!!! If THIS is the reputation Mr. Horton, Abbott, Gritz and group want in their circles, so be it.

As I stated, the set-up now is to trick the “big boys” into the illusion that something is going on by and through the Ekkers—sorry, there aren’t even any “meetings” to be found here—with or without me. The “Ekker Cult”, as Mr. Green advertises—is stated as if it were a Waco parallel but when investigated—THERE IS NOTHING—no group, no church, nothing—save two elderly people who have lost everything and are struggling against ALL “FIXED” ODDS to make damned sure no person alive or dead loses a farthing, cent or doodle from anything in which they were ever sucked into by these adversary anti-Christ.

Mr. Gritz claims Jesus Christ and then speaks of Reptilians and Lizards when relating to that Jesus Christ? Where are your discernments, good friends? He is both "Mormon" and works with Scowcroft and is a betrayer of friends. He even betrayed his brothers in POW/MIA camps in Asia!

WHY THIS PRESENTATION TODAY?

Because on the weekend there was a full MILITARY operation set up (in San Luis Obispo COUNTY) to take out a few "good men" and women—AND DORIS AND E.J. EKKER! There was a full-blown operation with guard troops and military troops to literally blow them all away. Nice?? Well, I don't cotton to these tricks too well and, finally, after two hours of very strange things—I told them they would, within three more minutes, have a FULL ALIEN ENCOUNTER OF THE WORST KIND—ON THE GROUND FOR THE WORLD TO SEE—if they did not scrub the mission and disperse immediately.

Do you still think there is NOTHING going on? Well, I am going to take my people off the murder line. Doris, if she will, will continue to write for me—nothing more. E.J. will continue to serve until the Institute "thing" (nightmare) is resolved and then totally retire. Any businesses in which I have participated will continue as they ARE—separate and apart from ANYTHING. My people have paid enough for seven years of HELL.

What will happen to the paper? The paper is a totally separate and apart entity which, I hope, will continue to be printed—nothing is changed—NOTHING!, except, Mr. Martin will have ultimate running control of the paper in point.

CONTACT WITH YOUR FRIENDS

As long as Ekkers can continue to have housing of any kind they will be reached as ever—but I would guess that CONTACT will continue to always be able to reach them. I will continue to write with Dharma as ever for the CONTACT as "guest editor" because I have so much to share with you readers of spiritual nature as well as continue to point out your enemies about you. The foundation has been laid for your receiving and the paper will go forth as any other FINE, TRUTH-BEARING voice for as long as it can be financed.

These people in this place remain under MY PROTECTION and if the adversary thinks Sunday was a "bad show" I can promise them a "terrible disaster" if they make one attempt to harm my people here. The truth is coming forth about the political corruption in all areas of this valley, including the association with Jason Brent to the Green gang and his direct payment to the former Governor of the State of California for his Judgeship!!

Can these ones win in these "fixed" courts? Probably not, but the Ekkers MUST continue their efforts—FOR THEY ARE HOMELESS SINCE THE RTC CONFISCATED AND SOLD THEIR PROPERTY—ALL THEY HAVE EVER WANTED IS SIMPLY THEIR SURVIVAL AND A ROOF OVER THEIR HEADS—THEY ARE IN THEIR 60s AND THEY MUST CONTINUE TO EFFORT TO GET BACK SOMETHING ABOVE THE LEGAL COSTS WHICH HAVE PUT THEM SO INTO DEBT AS TO STILL HAVE NOTHING EVEN AFTER A SETTLEMENT!

AMERICA—YOU ARE IN SERIOUS TROUBLE! SERIOUS INDEED!

PROJECTS

What of projects as spoken of all along the years? The proposals have been offered, accepted by at least two to three funding resources and, if those funds flow—so too will the projects. The ones ongoing will continue if possible—THE EKKERS DID NOT, DO NOT, AND WILL NOT, HAVE ANYTHING SAVE MY INPUT AND SERVICE (VOLUNTARY) TO ANYTHING. THEY ARE NOT THE MIRACLE—EXCEPT TO HAVE SURVIVED THROUGH THIS HORRENDOUS NIGHTMARE—YOU ARE THE MIRACLE!

Will "I" forsake you? Of course not—I am OF GOD. MAN MOVES AWAY FROM GOD—GOD DOES NOT MOVE AWAY FROM MAN! I do, however, have another phase of work to be accomplished and shall be attending it. I LEAVE no one—nowhere!

FUNDING

Funding for the projects was arranged and funding made and transferred for the upstart—but a great deal of same. You don't seem to understand how BAD is your circumstance—THE FUNDS WERE THERE BUT, BECAUSE EVERY TRANSFER MUST GO DIRECTLY THROUGH CHASE MANHATTAN BANK (Rockefeller's bank taken over by Kissinger Associates) THERE—THE ISRAELIS (YES, I SAID "ISRAELIS") STOPPED THE TRANSFER. Through this little manipulation it was stated that Kissinger, et al.—"certainly don't like you"—this means "Hatonn", God, Aton, and the Ekkers. My, my—how far around can two old people make trouble? Doris immediately got on Kissinger's "hit list" when she first started writing—does this tell us something? Doesn't it also tell you a lot about WHY MR. GREEN HAS BEEN ORDERED TO KEEP THOSE JOURNALS OFF THE PUBLIC ABILITY TO OBTAIN THEM—AND WHY IT IS SO IMPORTANT TO THEM TO KEEP THE TRUTH OF LIGHT AND GOD (PLEIADES CONNECTION SERIES OF JOURNALS) BANNED AND HELD IN COURT?

LISTEN UP, READERS

I am not going to even ask my scribe and E.J. to go further in this—BUT THE INSTITUTE WILL CONTINUE UNTIL THE LAST HOUND IS HUNG—TO RECLAIM, BALANCE AND HOLD TRUTH IN THE COURTS TO RECOVER AND RECLAIM

THAT WHICH IS YOUR PROPERTY AND RETURN TO PRIOR AND PROPER OWNERS THE ORIGINAL TRANSFERS OF THOSE GOLD COINS AND SUMS.

THE JOURNALS HAVE BEEN SO DISCOUNTED AS TO BE WORTH VERY LITTLE IF ANYTHING—BUT THOSE DEFICITS IN VALUE WILL BE PURSUED AGAINST MR. GREEN FOR HOLDING THE NOTE IN THE COLLECTION PROCESS. DON'T FORGET—GREENS TOOK, IN CASH, $150 THOUSAND in loans from the Institute, claiming use for publishing—all of which now makes sense in the rip-off category. The Institute just had to pay many thousands of dollars to George's prior printer to clear him of the horrendous debt unpaid by Greens. Where did the funds go? Well, part of them went to publish Dr. Coleman's book, "300"! Now, isn't this all interesting? The game has gotten down and dirty? I don't know, is it? Or is it that TRUTH is painful and the lies are that which are DIRTY?

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW CENTER

There have only been one or two supporters of the CLC—I wonder WHY?) and so much was ripped-off by the "Friends of Green" that we cannot know where that entity will go—it matters not to Ekkers for they have NOTHING to do with it except that the CLC has offered some advice and help in filings, etc., with their barrage of legal battles. You must understand, you who continue to hear from George Green with his sad tales—the Ekkers are not in conflict OR LITIGATION with Green in Nevada OR ANYWHERE—THE PHOENIX INSTITUTE IS IN LITIGATION IN AN EFFORT TO STAVE OFF RECEIVERSHIP AND LOSS TO ANYONE. SO FAR, THE INSTITUTE HAS ONLY BECOME MORE AND MORE SOUNDLY SETTLED. GREEN EVEN WENT TO THE METALS CORPORATION TRYING TO PUSH THEM INTO SOME KIND OF CHARGES—NO GO—BUSINESS HAS BEEN PERFECTION AND VERY SOUND.

SO WHAT IS THIS MESSAGE?

Doris will make her own statement within a few days as she can emotionally handle the near-death experience on Sunday and the probability of a SWAT TEAM, ATF raid in effort to destroy the rest of their existence. I, therefore, am making these statements so that THERE IS NO MISUNDERSTANDING—LET MY PEOPLE GO! This is a greedy game of little boys and girls out of control—and directly according to the LAWS OF THE UNIVERSE AND GOD—THAT WHICH YOU SEND OUT, GOOD BUDDIES, WILL COME BACK IN YOUR FACE TO REVEAL THE EVIL AND SUFFER THE CONSEQUENCES! FURTHER, THAT WHICH IS GIVEN IN TRUTH UNTO GOD IN SHARING—SHALL COME BACK IN REWARD IN MORE ABUNDANCE! THIS IS THE PROMISE OF GOD. THE CHOICES ARE YOURS AS TO WHERE YOU FIT INTO THIS PLAY.

They will (Doris and E.J.) continue to serve in voluntary capacity within any requesting corporation or business as may be sought—however, except for writing and guest Editorials—they have resigned from the business machinery of any projects we have projected. They will serve as representatives for corporation positions just as they did at upstart for the purposes of “paperwork” required in the establishment of any corporation anywhere. However, friends, for a while I request that you not ask it of them.

Dharma will be no less BUSY at work than before—it is that Green has projected an image of these two beloved brothers that is NOT valid. Dharma is my secretary and E.J. has worked 24 hours a day in doing that which I have requested of him. They shall continue in full-steam ahead work—but no longer in any connection with these clandestine circles of lies. I AM NOT GOING ANYWHERE but am changing my focus and therefore to continue to kick the dead dogs here—is stupid indeed. It is time you ones turn your own focus to the guilty parties and stop this nonsense.

You cannot BUY a ticket for interview with God or Hosts—but the communication is ALWAYS FREE AND TOTALLY OPEN. YOU CANNOT EVEN BEGIN TO PURCHASE A TICKET ON GOD'S FLIGHT CRAFT—YOU MISS THE BOAT IF YOU LOCK YOURSELVES INTO SUCH THOUGHTS—YOU ARE PLAYING INTO THE TRAP OF THE ADVERSARY WHO USES THE CHRIST AND GOD FOR THEIR DECEITFUL PURPOSES—AND DECEIVE YOU WITH TOUTINGS OF REPTILES AND LIZARDS WHEN SAME RESIDE IN THE NESTS IN WHICH THE TOUTING MOUTHS SIT. IT IS A TIME OF DISCERNING, READERS. As to “readers”, who do I mean, the thousands who get this right off the machinery or you who subscribe to the paper honorably? BOTH. This has been the resource moving to Washington, the Intelligence Community and all the way around the globe—before the thing is taken from the computer. It is fine, it was PLANNED to be that way—and I now use that routing to tell you intelligence gatherers—that I appreciate your cooperation even if buying a subscription would have made the ongoing project more easily accessible to you. FRIENDS, YOU WILL FIND THE ADVERSARY DECEITFUL AND CHEAP EVEN TO HIS SMALLEST OPERATIONS!

WHO WINS?

Listen to Bo Gritz—for this is really TRUTH: GOD WINS! Further, GOD wins through Truth and revealing of that which is evil and corrupt. When the mighty warriors of highest rank and activities, such as Col. Gritz, effort to destroy a grandmother in her sixties with NOTHING, (SAVE THE PEN), then you surely MUST HAVE YOUR LIVING EXAMPLE!!! As a matter of fact, readers—GOD HAS ALREADY WON! These ambassadors of the Evil Empire just don't seem to realize they have done themselves “in”, YET. (You have set yourselves up as total FOOLS and are now proving it to YOUR PUBLIC!)

Yes, indeed, good readers—I ask that you continue to call Sir Gritz for information regarding space rides and interviews—further, call America West and Mr. Green for HE IS OBVIOUSLY THE ONE TO WHICH MR. GRITZ MUST HAVE BEEN REFERRING AND SOMEHOW ERRED IN NAMING DORIS EKKER FOR SHE DOES NOT EVEN REPRESENT THAT SHE HAS EVER SO MUCH AS “SEEN” ME—MUCH LESS SPEAK OUT MAKING APPOINTMENTS FOR ME. SHE IS NOT MY PERSONAL PUBLIC SCHEDULE KEEPER—SHE IS A TYPIST-TRANSLATOR. SO BE IT. I suggest ALL OF YOU follow up on this investigation to and from the SOURCE as offered by Cmdr. Gritz and ongoing by Sir Green(berg?). Mr. Anderson? Oh gosh, readers, he is just an automatic-weapons-in-the-briefcase toting criminal and thief—not even considered worthy of Green's and/or Gritz's notice. May they all rest well in their little insecure worlds—for those whom they first betrayed on the Elite side of this little caper are OUT TO GET THEM AND THEY CAN CONSIDER THIS ANOTHER WARNING! I have no further interest in them—only that final example to you readers of TRUTH and how easily YOU CAN BE FOOLED!

May you be given to walk in the Lighted presence of GOD—for it is the ONLY security left to you upon the places of physical MAN. The point of no return has come and passed—you are IN THE CHAOS—NOW!

I fully intend to move my major thrust to the HIGHEST POWERS ON YOUR GLOBE AND AWAY FROM THE FOCUS ON THE MOST TINY SERVANTS OF GOD'S OWN PLANS. I salute you who have served and I do not leave you—but I suggest that many who have worked so diligently to set-up my people and myself—clear out of this place of Light for you are uncovered as well and I no longer have any reason to cover you in your betrayal activities for the whole of the scam and scheme is uncovered and you who serve the adversary in the way of these small creeps—had better be making choices—NOW. I believe you must realize that the “house-cleaning” has BEGUN! Let's just say that it is time for the next “relay” team runners to take the chalice and they are ready, prepared and willing—I guess “you” call it “ready, willing and able”! They have been sent on DEATH MISSIONS, undergone DEATH surgeries of several kinds—and each has undergone the ALIEN ENCOUNTER OF THE MOST INCREDIBLY BEAUTIFUL KIND—THEY HAVE MET AND COUNSELED WITH GOD—IN GOD'S PLACES! SO BE IT.

I speak of no “religious” teachers or speakers of “hypothetical truths”—YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR YOUR ACCEPTANCE OF THE HOGWASH OR THE GLORY FOR IT WILL NOT BE THEM THAT CONFRONTS GOD AT YOUR PASSAGE—IT WILL BE YOU!

Continue, if you will, to discount me and mine—it matters not one iota to me or to them. They are on a mission in preparation for God—and so be it. I remind you: GOD WINS THIS ONE! YOU 'AIN'T SEEN NUTTIN' YET'!

WHY DID THIS NOT GET IN LAST WEEK'S PAPER?

This is Tuesday and the paper is already at press and yesterday Dharma was still in emotional shock over the Sunday events. It is not easy to realize that you are at the center of a full-military operation to KILL YOU and, further, a stand-off between the Elite commanders who set up the deal and THE COMMAND WITH SPACE CRAFT IN READY FOR BATTLE—SEEN BY EVERYONE IN THAT GROUND SQUADRON. THE LARGEST NUMBERS OF DEBRIEFINGS AND ORDERS FOR SILENCE CAME OUT OF THE SCRUBBED MISSION ON SUNDAY THAN IN ANY OPERATION ON YOUR GLOBE! Dharma was in no condition to write on this subject and I HAD TO USE HER FOR TRANSLATING DIRECTLY THROUGH AUDIBLE SPEAKINGS.

To you who were present and wonder why I did not speak of the “encounter”—I made agreements to hold up until today (allowing them their brain-orders of troops) to make a public statement about the incident. I keep both my promises and my agreements. It is something you ones should learn to do—for if they be made in truth—they will stand into infinity. “Consequences” are then simply “understood” and testing gets to be less important in confrontation by your idiots in charge of your destiny—YOU gave them that power, you must realize.

I do ask that this be run up-front in any paper who will take the copy—I have no thing to hide or COVER. I further request that it most certainly be given TOP BILLING in the CONTACT—which has served as my voice of Light and information.

To you who continually botch this computer this morning as we write—I suggest you withdraw for I am MOST HAPPY TO MAKE THIS AVAILABLE TO ANY AND ALL READERS THROUGHOUT THE GLOBE. YOUR TAMPERINGS WITH THE EQUIPMENT WILL NOT MAKE ONE MEASURE OF DIFFERENCE IN THAT PRESENTATION—ONLY PROOF TO MY SCRIBE OF YOUR ONGOING MONITORING, TAPPING AND INTENTIONAL EVIL AGAINST THIS ONCE GREAT NATION.

Dharma, thank you scribe—the monitors are going to wipe out the program if we go further. Let us close this as you can see the computer ready to self-destruct. No, good enemies, you will not blow out this machinery and kill her—I STAND BETWEEN THEE AND SHE! GOOD DAY. Fear not, little friend, I shall not leave your side for even an instant—to take you they must take me and I suggest for another last go of information—GOD WINS! The light that keeps flashing at you now must tell you to close this as the next one triggers the blast! Salu

Hatonn to stand-by,
IN SERVICE TO GOD ALMIGHTY—I AM THAT YOU SHALL BE!

HOW DO WE SHORE-UP, CLOSE-UP OR PICK-UP?

FROM RIGHT WHERE WE ARE!

Little Crow: Loving myself unconditionally means I love God the Creator, the Mother-Father Energy, unconditionally. I don't put any conditions on the Creator and the Creator doesn't put any conditions on me....Love eliminates a lot of powerlessness. We feel powerless when we don't love ourselves.

Thank you, Brother—we can go on a few steps further now.

* * *

Nobody promised you a rose garden, children. The PROMISE is that the world will undergo cleansing, wars, clearing and renewal. You cannot have any one of these massive happenings without great and wondrous as well as horrendous repercussions of such physical changes—or, for that matter, spiritual changes. God does not whisk you away on fluffy clouds and he who thinks it to be that way will be greatly shocked and LOST. You don't "purchase" tickets to God—YOU GET THERE THE OLD-FASHIONED WAY—YOU EARN IT!

FEEL AND BE WORTHY OF YOUR GIFTS

Little Crow reminds Dharma that "we have done this before, walked this journey" and that means, dear ones, that realize it or not—you are experts and practiced at this task at hand. God does not make sloppy plans and if you are feeling unfinished and unwilling to make passage while within our work "timing", then you aren't going to go anywhere except to WORK. You may well not SEE our hand as the forces in enemy camps are stayed. However, THEY SEE THE HAND and therein lies the importance. God within the soul is the protection and YOU DON'T NEED TO SEE SILLY VISIONS—ONLY HOLD TO THAT POWER. Love yourself enough to feel and be worthy of that which is gifted in abundance and glory and we shall all fare very well indeed. Disappointments and cutting of entanglements are but part of the choosing, testing and securing process. If one is not going to serve and refuses change and opportunities for reclamation—the caring is unilateral and will never, under any circumstances, work out in goodness. Therefore, confront within the possibilities, take stance in unbending TRUTH

AND RIGHTNESS and go for it.

If the person(s) still refuse or make choices against you, so be it for it is "lost" to your possibilities anyway. It is as with death of the body—the sooner all involved and touched by such instance face the circumstance, grieve for the loss and move on, facing the facts and not the fantasy of such situation, the better for each and all. The confrontation allows for OTHERS to make their decisions based on fact and not "druthers" or WEAKNESS in selfishness which cannot go beyond that impact on "self". When you refuse to accept weakness in another, when you offer the support necessary for that one to be strong, you may help the weak one to face responsibility and bring change FOR self. If not, that one is lost at any rate to his/her own choices and consequences. It is NEVER too late as long as there is "life" but in every instance it will be THE person involved who MUST change, for you can only offer tools and support for the journey of "another". I remind you, however, MAKE SURE YOU ARE STRONG WITHIN SELF, IN LOVE WITH SELF PROPERLY IN GOODNESS, AND THEN CONFRONT THE PROBLEMS HEAD ON IN THAT STRENGTH.

I have never seen the primitive and perfect rose that has no thorns—even in that sought-after rose garden. However, I have never seen ANYONE bleed to death from the pricks of the thorns. I HAVE, HOWEVER, WITNESSED THE MULTITUDES WHO LEARN TO CONFRONT THE THORNS, WEAR GLOVES, PLUCK OFF THE THORNS OR AVOID THEM. SOME GO RIGHT ON GOUGING THEMSELVES WITH THE STICKERS UNTIL THEY DO THEMSELVES IN. YOU MAKE YOUR OWN CHOICES ABOUT THOSE ROSE-BUSH THORNS. THEY WILL CONTINUE TO BE ABUNDANT IN YOUR GARDEN SO YOU HAVE TO DECIDE HOW YOU WILL DEAL WITH THEM—OR NOT DEAL WITH THEM—UNTIL THEY TAKE OVER YOUR EXISTENCE AND THE ROSE ITSELF IS FORGOTTEN. Turn the other cheek to the thorns? HOW STUPID!

There will always be perspective presentations on any given matter or thing. Mr. Green stole $350,000 IN GOLD COINS, took them to Nevada and buried them in his backyard (HIS STORY—NOT MINE). He was REQUIRED by LAW and officers enforcing that law, to dig them up and deliver them to the court—under enforcement procedures. He even bitched and moaned about having to dig "through four feet of dirt and snow"—poor dear. Now HE tells everyone that he did nothing, in fact instigated the thought and turned over the coins in point to the court. (Of course he only turned over the ones with documentation to prove the theft—the rest were later taken into a place for his security.)

He says, as a matter of fact, that "I took them to the court where they remain so how can I steal them?" Quite different in presentation from the facts, wouldn't you say? Well, this is life and you will live it as it comes—until you decide to change it, and when you decide to change it—you will do so. No more and certainly no less. If you despise the thorns enough you will pluck them off and render the rose harmless as well as beautiful to the soul. TRUTH AND PERSEVERANCE IN RIGHTNESS WILL DO NICELY AS YOUR WEAPONS AND THORN PLUCKERS. The bush will not give up the thorns as it will give up the blossom long before the thorns—in fact, the thorns remain and the rose goes.

Now, why have I given you this rather boring parable? Because I have given you the thorn-pluckers and all you have to do is pluck them. Always discern and judge the advantageous and correctly beneficial way as stewards of God's property and mission—and go for it. If it requires that you APPEAR to be losing or lost—so what? What APPEARS and WHAT IS are two very, very different things, my children.

You must, however, cease to focus on that which seems to always be the "negative" except as to realize that something may well need to be done prior to receiving so that always protection and good stewardship is involved. If you focus on the facet of one reflection—you may well delay the receiving until you can focus on the WHOLE in proper action. God's delays are not only lack of denial but often are nudgings or proper sequence strategies for security and provide opportunity to check your plans and cover all your bases. The enemy will not miss a hole in your shield or the crack in your fortress. But he will, in fact, point them out to you if you remain ever alert. You simply need to "walk" on—NOT "ON WATER".

LOST CAUSES?

My goodness, students, what have we going on here? Let us example the simple matter of, let's use as example for it is so prevalent these days, Ekkers being compelled by court to not do this or not do that as relates to writings. Does that impoundment mean that "Joe" can't write or print or whatever? No—it means that Ekkers may not break the order and do that which is legally forbidden. Dharma cannot, for instance, control (especially since all her work is "dated" magazine JOURNAL-type material and NOT copyrighted) the reprinting of anything she has done—or anyone else for that matter. The law states that "she" may not and "she" may not promote or participate in anything that is bound by court-order. I certainly do not propose that Ekkers do anything except possibly retire for the books in point were never "their" property or, for that matter, we find that they don't care about them except for the Truth within them. Dharma has no interest in them AT ALL for they represent only bad images of bastards at work for the Evil Empire. Do YOU actually think Dharma gives a hoot, since her only work has been stolen by Green and others, what happens? Hers was to get it typed as asked by me and/or others of MY COMMAND, AS GIVEN. Her job was and is not to get it published, burned, buried or read—in fact, she has NOT read it. If others in Tim-buck-too-too, without her knowledge, re-present the entire lot she would reflect not even interest. She NEVER considered the work to be "hers" or her rightful gain—she certainly cares a whole lot "less" NOW. It is much as with the thorns—if you can't get rid of them and "allow" stoppage of your journey, so be it. To allow this is but to have total lack of creative capability—which is exactly that which the enemy wishes upon you.

George, for instance, demands that the books in his hostage room be valued at $6.00 minimum, a volume. Come now, all of you sleepyheads. Let's say you have 110 thousand copies of OLD outdated monthly TV Guides or even Reader's Digests. Especially if you have a subscription and got the information and saved your copy—how much is an old repeat of last June's issue worth on the open market? This, especially, AFTER TOTAL DENOUNCEMENT OF BOTH WRITER AND INFORMATION AND INFORMATION SOURCE—BY THE PUBLISHER? Does this not take on a rather "different" perspective than the selling of novels and books which may or may not move up or down in value? I'll tell you one thing—once a publisher denounces work as lies and blasphemy, a book is of almost NO VALUE and the expense of disposing of the lot is all but too expensive to consider. I would, in fact, in the case of George Green—I would simply demand repayment of the loans he took from the Institute and let him worry about those hostages—most especially the copies he hoarded of old newspapers. Who in his right mind would want 110 thousand old local papers from, say, downtown Podunk? When you are held equally hostage by an "idea"—you spend more in the long run in energy AND MONEY than the product could possibly be worth.

George still tells "everybody" that Hatonn left Tehachapi and went with him and Desiree to wherever they are. He, as late as yesterday, said the "Command" has told him this or that...etc. Well, I don't know who HE THINKS he is quoting—but it ain't "command". He, further, says that God is not here with this scribe—and then, he demands a price structure of $6 per volume retail value? How about even the $3.00 he claims in printing costs? He hadn't even paid the printer for months and months and at most the printer NEVER CHARGED HIM MORE THAN $1.50 A BOOK. A cheat and liar rarely changes, my friends.

Do you actually think old back issues of, say, The McAlvany Report, The Gold Update, Executive Intelligence Review, OR old, irrelevant New Federalist papers are worth much? If you don't stop looking at the "ideal" "druthers" and face, squarely, THE FACTS—you are going to be duped worse than you have already been "had". George Green was TOLD EXACTLY WHAT THE JOURNALS AND PAPERS WERE AND ARE—if he has chosen to call them something "else" to garner a market and money, then I note it is his own trap he has sprung on himself. These works have been called "Journals" SINCE INCEPTION. Every entry bears at least TWO DATES to point out the total calendar-register. I suggest YOU GET AN "EXPERT" to evaluate with THESE POINTS RIGHT UP FRONT! I submit that Mr. Green has devalued further the already present "dated" devaluation of the material to ZILCH and will, in fact, stick YOU with the storage fees as well. You, further, have additional expenses involved in deleting or making substitution of publishing information FOR I WILL NOT ALLOW MORE OF MY WORK TO GO FORTH BEARING AMERICA

WEST AS THE BEARER OR PUBLISHER—OR ANYTHING ELSE OF GOD'S PRESENTATIONS.

ENOUGH IS ENOUGH

AM I SERIOUS?? DEAD SERIOUS!! IF YOU ONES DON'T KNOW WHEN YOU'VE "HAD ENOUGH"—I DO! And, in that vein, I ask that the name of "M" be covered and those letters, exactly as are, received yesterday—be printed in the next paper [see page 8]. We are efforting to bring this garbage to a final stop so that we can get on with our work. The readers are weary of the Soap Opera to great extent (but they have to have these lessons as well as do you at home base). The paper, however, was started and continued to serve as a message network TO OUR PEOPLE. If other readers don't like that which we offer—DON'T READ THE DAMNED THING!

To you who have been faithful and supported us—yours shall be a nice surprise coming. Our "team" here could not have made this journey without your loving letters, cards and "kleenex" when the hurt has been too much for the moment.

YOU ONES have done what no-one in the system could do—you got a political prisoner released. It may take MORE support to get him totally disconnected that he might function—but YOU got Gunther Russbacher to this point of possible freedom. On that subject—he is virtually under "house arrest" as the lawyers and judges argue, ponder and "check with the big boys" over his fate. If they re-incarcerate him I believe we can depend on such a barrage FROM YOU as to blow off the top of that Missouri court system and uncover the bastards in corruption. America may well be a "chosen" place—IT IS NO LONGER EVEN A "NICE" PLACE!

The major focus is on this "big old caretaker" herein writing. They are trying to protect themselves and at the same time not push me too far. Well, I am patient and they are such "small fish" as to annoy me in my overall duties—so we can wait as it gives time to do some other necessary shoring-up against the beast you thought to be your "brothers". RICO charges? I think not—or at the least, it will be so nasty as to make your eyes turn brown, if they happen to be blue—you who are working on that assault.

MESSAGE TO MONITORS

This gives me an opportunity to present another little message to the ones monitoring this keyboard: The time is at hand for keeping of agreements for I, too, have itchy trigger fingers and you have just about overdone your games. Do that which is agreed and you shall find yourselves around to play another time—but my annoyance is being offset only by my increasing irritation. If you think the craft presented to you in SLO—was nice, shiny and looked like an inbound destroyer of the worst kind—push me; that one was a tiny baby craft—my Command craft is rather impressive at first glimpse—and LAST. Back off—get the agreements transacted and leave my people ALONE for that is one agreement YOU WILL NOT BREAK. I suggest the players in the beast's control get on with the functions or the head beasts might get some rather awkward-to-explain headaches.

For you readers: This document is already being run on the receiving units in Switzerland, London, New York and other places near and far—as we write. This fact has been a great advantage to my cause as it becomes the fastest communication system on your globe. I'll leave it alone if you will, puppets. I suggest to you who are concerned here, remove the "holds", make the agreements so, and get out of the way—we require very little so my hope is that wisdom is greater than your absurd greedy antics. My people may be a bit weary—I AM NOT AS I THRIVE ON THE ENERGY OF THE "BATTLE", GOOD BUDDIES, AND I AND MINE HAVE BEEN PATIENT FOR A VERY LONG TIME.

You of the Adversary's puppets are NOTHING to me or mine. You are as tiny ants moving one by one in the pathway of the elephant herd. You have lost all loyalty to your plight so as to rally an army of devoted warriors and the ant army who could kill the largest of the beasts are controlled only through ignorance and FEAR and will turn on YOU like the black widow devours her mate. There is no control of mind powerful enough on your place to override MY OWN ABILITY. NONE. I hope you consider these messages carefully for at this time I have no greater wish than do you, to give problems—the difference is—I WILL and in the areas of capability of which I reference—YOU CAN'T! By the way—what about those lies you shuffle off on the people about your shuttle mission?? Light and truth may also be in order—the Russians don't like you either. You are a sick and dying society almost to the point of "no return". I believe you in "charge" have noted that I do not "threaten"—I ACT EXACTLY AS I SAY—EVERY TIME. Thank you for your attention.

RENEW AND REGROUP

Dharma, never mind the thorns as they shall be moved aside as we continue without intimidation. Rest for the weary? You did not come to "rest". Time for renewal and regrouping? Yes, as we continue to move along. Never mind the piles and heaps of material waiting—there are these other things which cannot "wait". We shall take up again, at leisure, the subjects so lately interrupted that we can rearrange loads and responsibilities. Man has not much "longer" to awaken and there is enough information to last him a lifetime in the alarm ringing. You do not have to bear the burden of it ALL. Just as the "moving finger writes and moves on", so too shall you accept that we must move on as responsibilities change in the ever flowing transitional passage. Others must take that which is already given and come into realization and self awakening—ours is but to PRESENT and THE WORD is only a portion of the WHOLE. Man desires to sit in his dreams and be fed the food of utopia without the responsibilities which are mandatory in utopia. YOU SHALL KNOW ME BY MY "LIGHT"—NOT MY FACE!

To all of you, as with Dharma as the valley of shadows surrounds her and you all: Little Crow...The answer is there and what we need to do is to have faith in what we believe. If you believe that there is a God and that there is heaven, then believe that and believe it with all of your heart and all of your being and act accordingly to it. Act accordingly to it. Behave as if you do believe that. That's all...

Take my hand, child, and I will bring you home...for I know the way! Salu.

I AM AND YOU ARE!

Jan 31, 1994

Dear M

Desiree and I wish to respond to your letter. I am enclosing a packet of information in which you should read.

I am also enclosing a copy of Dave Overton's letter that HE wrote. We have several. We were instructed from Command NOT to respond to the energy in Tehachapi. That is not GOD Desiree and I have put out over 3/4 million dollars, are still guaranteeing over $150,000 in bills, and we wish you would pay us back our advances (see schedule for just two years) and pay the Hinnsorider, the attorneys. THE GOLD, a Gift to us to help get the word out, SHOULD HAVE BEEN SOLD AT THE TIME, but I ellected to see other real estate and keep the gold as our guarantee that we would be able to continue and cover ourselves.

We put the GOLD IN COURTS HANDS AND have requested a TRIAL BY JURY to show the truth. Since the court has it, HOW COULD WE STEAL IT. We are not desparate like the EKKERS, who LIE Look at the information on the house enclosed. Judge Brent and I have never met. We did talk recently because of all the slander in the paper. He does not have any nor does he represent any body on ANY TYPE OF ACTION against the EKKERS, but after the attack against him by Rick Martin, I wouldn't blame him!!

You are free to believe anything you wish. We love all of you and as Hatonn has told us (There are lessons of disernment for everyone)

May God be with you in the days ahead.

Regards,

George Green

P.S. We have only had 3 letters like yours, and we understand that many people have disassociated themselves from this ENERGY

Feb 1, 1994

Dear M

I am enclosing some more reading for you. I and Desiree would appreciate your sending $70,000. to James Hildbolt as per attached letter so Desiree can sleep. She is sure the TRUTHFULK EKKERS aren't going to pay these amounts in which they huridly cashed and took control of. and so therefore you, since you believe the CULT is telling the truth, will certainly be willing to take on these notes. Mr. Hilbolt will assign these to you without my personal guarantee!!

YOU ONLY GOT PART OF THE STORY AND IF IF YOU ONLY GOT THE REST.. They are masters at deceipt.. Sounds like Evil to me!

God does not have to lie..

"The Truth Will Set You Free"

Open Letter To James "Bo" Gritz

From Pained Vietnam Vet Family

February 14, 1994

To Bo Gritz:

I'm writing regarding your radio show of 2/11/94 and have a few things to say if you don't mind. First of all, my husband is Viet Nam vet and we supported you during your presidential campaign. I would like to say that if your listening audience would like to really hear the truth to call 1-805-822-0202.

And just as an aside, my husband and I found out about you and your presidential campaign through Hatonn because he pushed you in the Liberator (the name of the paper at that time -- now called the Contact) and in fact we bought your books through George Green's America West Publications. Which by the way has never paid Doris Ekker one dime from publishing her materials.

Also I'd like to know in your quest for truthfulness and telling the truth to the people why you haven't told the people that the Phoenix Institute loaned you $15,000 for your presidential campaign and that you have not yet repaid it? You were curiously silent about the Ekkers or Hatonn until Hatonn starting supporting Perot in the paper because he had a better chance of winning. Then you started coming down on Doris and Hatonn.

Tell the truth Mr. Gritz? Do you even know the definition?

You are not telling the people the truth, Mr. Binder is not telling the truth and George Green definitely is not telling the truth. Doris Ekker and EJ Ekker have never published any books -- George Green published them. There are 86 journals now that have been published regarding the truths of the past and of the future. Have you read any of them? All the way through? Did you ever stop to wonder how one person could write so much material on so many varied subjects from the past, to the present, to the future without some help from God?

And as far as the Ekkers taking money from people? They never were and are not now shareholders in any corporation, including America West Publishers or anything that George Green was connected with. It might behoove you -- if indeed you desire the truth -- to look into George Green and his "taking of people's money". I have been receiving this material since its inception and not once have I ever been asked for any money in any form -- either a donation or whatever -- from the Ekkers or anyone close to them. Never once did I receive any information that they charged $400.00 for a "session" with Hatonn or that Hatonn charged $1,200 to be beamed aboard his ship through Mt. Shasta. That is a complete and total lie. I know people who have gone to Tehachapi to some of the meetings held there and they certainly did not pay anything much less what you lie about over the air. However, I did receive a written request from George Green -- one that he sent to many people -- requesting donations.

You also do not know what you're talking about regarding the photon belt. This is not a new idea -- and in fact it didn't even come from Hatonn -- he was merely repeating what they had received from scientists and in fact said that it would happen but not until 2008 or 09. Why don't you read everything regarding this before you make a judgment and then get on the public airways and tell full lies.

I've studied this type of material and information for twenty years and my mother has studied for over forty years (and we certainly are not what you would call "New Age") -- long before we came across the Phoenix Journals and the ideas presented by Hatonn are not new in them -- only more succinctly put together in a form that is easier to understand. What is so wrong with that?

You also said you never called Doris Ekker an ugly little old lady and that J.Z. Knight of Ramtha fame was much better to look at. That is a bold-face lie Mr. Gritz because I was listening to your talk show the day you said it! And that's exactly what you said. I thought to myself then, "why is this supposed Christian, God-loving man making such derogatory remarks about a person who he truly knows nothing about?"

I will tell you now that I, nor my husband nor any of our friends (also Viet Nam vets) who supported you in the past will ever support you again. I've talked this last week to people who don't even know who Hatonn is who are wondering what has happened to you? It seems to us that you go after and try to expose and tell the supposed "truth" about people in and out of the patriot movement who either oppose you or disagree with you. This includes Linda Thompson and Mark from Michigan, among others.

I'd like to know what's happened to you? Or have you always been this way and only hide it for the presidential campaign? I also find it very interesting that you could never get on any radio talk show or buy air time when you were running for president but now you can buy all the radio time you desire. Odd.

By the way, I tried calling into your talk show Friday night and funny thing -- somehow I was supposed to have known when to call because I was told by the 800 operator that your show was pre-recorded. Somehow you fail to tell your listening audience that there are certain times in which to call in to ask questions. Really interesting, since you without fail continually say on your show that you cannot manipulate the callers or shut them out when they call in, etc.

You are not a person who truly desires to know the truth -- only the truth which you decide is truth -- I am sorry Mr. Gritz -- but you make me ill.

Perot Interview

On C-SPAN

Editor's note: We are here running the second part of the dynamite interview between Ross Perot and cable TV's C-SPAN interviewer Brian Lamb which aired on Sunday morning, 1/23/94. Mr. Perot discusses United We Stand America, the possibility of him running for President in 1996, how he plans to head off Clinton's Health Care Plan, and the problems of media control. Part 1 appeared in the 2/8/94 CONTACT, starting on p.16. This is the second and final portion of the interview.

Brian: Let's hear some more about United We Stand America. Do you ever intend to publish the number of people aboard.

Perot: I don't know. We'll talk about that when we all get together. Everybody gets so excited about it. It's kind of like Christmas. Anticipation is better than the day.

Brian: Somewhere I saw that there were over a million. Can you tell us that.

Perot: We don't say, but it's a very significant number of people and we are very fortunate to have so many wonderful people in the organization. We have not published a number and I don't give instrumental numbers because the next person would say is it over 2, and the next one would say is it over 3, so we don't say.

Brian: Since you've gotten into this politics business over the last 2 years do you have any idea how much total money you've spent?

Perot: Well, most of it was during the campaign and that's a matter of record. I promised the American people if they would put me on the ballot in all 50 states we would run a world class campaign and would not spend a penny of government money and we didn't. I spent somewhere in the [area of] $60 million dollars. I don't have it exactly in my head but it was a lot of money.

Brian: Would you ever do it again?

Perot: Nobody, I think, would want to do it. There are really nice parts of it and those are with the American people. That is pure joy and pleasure! There is a lot of it that is just like most of life, that is, sort of like cleaning up the kitchen and taking out the trash, and doing what you have to do. But, the best part is the American people because the American people are really wonderful good decent people who love this country: who do want to continue to build and strengthen this country, who do understand that every time you pass another law in Washington telling us when to brush our teeth or what-have-you, you are taking away a part of our freedom! The average person on the street understands that the core of a free society is the willingness of each individual to take full responsibility for his or her own actions. The American people understand that a free society can't endure without a strong moral ethical base. All these parts, that's the fun part.

In terms of public versus business life, no comparison. Business life is pure pleasure as far as I'm concerned because you are working and building and creating jobs and you are doing productive, constructive things. The other, and I think this is just an American tradition, is a thousand stray bullets a day unrelated to what the coalitions are but that's the way the game is played. If I could waiver one, let's not make it a game anymore. Let's make it a serious undertaking and let's agree that you and I can disagree without my feeling the need to try to destroy everything about you including your cat if I can. In other words, if you say we should go and do one thing, we should debate that issue. I should respect your views. You may disagree with me but you say in a free society I have a right to my views. That's not the way the system works now. You get a consensus, as you know. And then you get the establishment and then you get the beltway crowd and then once they decide to roll, then anything that's in the way is considered something that needs to be moved out of the way.

Brian: I'm going to ask you again, do you think you would ever run again?

Perot: For example, I never wanted to run for public office. People have been trying to get me to run for office since 1968 when somebody ran a poll and said I could be Governor of Texas. I had so many people writing and calling me wanting me to run for President I finally said one night, if you want to put me on the ballot in all 50 states I'll do it. I did it! I would say the only reason I would ever run again is that if the members who have worked so hard and so effectively just really really don't feel—see my dream is that the democrats and the republicans will have two candidates so good that the average citizen feels heads we win, tails we win in 1996. I am not driven to be an elected official. I am more than happy to be a servant in my country. What role? Maybe the role we're in now where we just stay focused on the issues.

Brian: Let me approach it a different way.

Some people surmised that you've been so soured by the process of the media and all of the exposure and everything that you've had enough of it. Would you say that you haven't had enough of it?

Perot: See, these are myths that they create and promulgate. That did not come from me.

Brian: So you are not tired of all of this?

Perot: But see the point is, I can understand why you would raise the question because when you read it long enough in other people's opinion—but I don't think you have ever heard me say that. I'm just being completely candid with you in terms of, and I think this is an interesting thing for the American people to think about and I don't mean that I fall in this category but let's assume that we do want the best and most talented people in our country in public life. We don't want them as a career. We want them to come, serve, and go back home. Then we need to have an environment that would attract the best and talented people to give up whatever they are doing. Now maybe its a doctor, maybe its a lawyer, maybe its an Indian chief, whoever, a nurse or whatever. They leave! They go serve! They come back home! I think we'd have a much better, stronger country rather than having everybody so thirsty for power that goes. That's the wrong reason to go! So thirsty for power that they will endure anything in order to have power. That is probably the least healthy thing that could happen in a free society. It's something for the American people to think about. It's something that the American people do think about.

Brian: Thank you. I understand your next get-together is with what people?

Perot: All the elected State officials will get-together, get our agenda set for '94 and go do it.

Brian: Where are you going to meet?

Perot: We'll meet here in February.

Brian: Here, you mean Dallas?

Perot: Dallas, yes.

Brian: How long will your meeting be?

Perot: It will last several days. I think four days.

Brian: You've had two books published in the last couple of years; one on your budget proposal and one on NAFTA. How did they do?

Perot: Three. We've had three now. They've all been on the best seller list. The first one was number one on the best seller list, to my amazement continued after the election for a while on the best seller list, which I found fascinating.

Brian: Do you know how many books they actually sold?

Perot: Not in my head, but large numbers.

And the other two got to second on the best seller list so they've all had good distribution; and there is a great thirst on the part of the American people for clear and detailed explanations of the issues. You won't believe how many people read the big NAFTA volumes and how few Congressmen did. I don't mean my books. I'm talking about the two published volumes by the U.S. Government on NAFTA. And then at the last minute this giant thing that became the law that nobody in Congress had time to read because it was given to them at the last minute. Now, only in America would you have buried in there tax breaks for Honda Motor Company, which has nothing to do with NAFTA. That's what's wrong with us. It's the system.

I was watching television the other night and they were showing again all of the lobbyists taking the Congressmen and their staffers out for vacations. That's wrong! You wouldn't allow some clients to do that in your company.

Brian: That was on the Prime Time Live on ABC?

Perot: Yes, late last night.

Brian: Why is it wrong? Why shouldn't a member of the Congress and the Senate be allowed to go places for charity like they were?

Perot: Oh, give me a break! For charity! This has almost nothing to do with charity. If you look at the amount of money that goes for the charity, its insignificant. It's tiny compared to the amount of money it costs to get them there and entertain them. Right? This goes back to public servants should not take anything from special interests. For example, there is a strong feeling in our organization that the members of Congress should only take contributions from people in their district. The members of the U.S. Senate should only take contributions from people in their State and that it is dead wrong for a Congressman to try to get on one of these power committees like banking so that every bank in the country dumps huge contributions into his war chest and nobody in his District can raise a fraction of that much money and television time is the key to winning. So that nobody has a chance and he becomes the longest serving Congressman in history because he got on the power committee. That's not right!

Brian: Back to the books. Do you plan another book?

Perot: We are talking about it. We will probably do something on health care this year and there will be issue-oriented books.

Brian: How soon would you have to have a health care book out in order to make a difference in this debate?

Perot: Who knows. It may drag on. It may move quickly. It all depends on how things come together; if there is any indication, it will be a lengthy debate. There is some indication that Senator Moynihan wants welfare reform put in front of him so there will be the usual moving and the kind of thing that goes on in a free society that has priority. You never know.

Brian: Will you mount an effort in Health Care like you did in NAFTA?

Perot: If the members want to. We'll discuss that while they are in Dallas.

Brian: What are your instincts?

Perot: I feel very strongly about it.

Brian: What aspect of it? Are you for Health Care reform?

Perot: Yes, yes, but in the language of the street, keep in mind that I spent an awful amount of time on the street last year with real people. And here is what good folks that make the world go round are saying: The government is going to take over Health Care in the Clinton plan. They are going to tell a doctor how much to make, what he can and can't do, etc. They figured all this out. If they are going to tell doctors how much they can make, why don't they tell lawyers how much they can make and why don't they tell athletes how much they can make and why don't they tell anchormen how much they can make? Why do they single out doctors?

Once you cross that threshold in a free society then you have gone and put everybody on a maximum salary. And you say, "Well I don't know." Isn't it interesting that ordinary people think that way. In the second thing, if these fellows are so good at Health Care, then they say, "Can the government run the Health Care System?" And the man on the street says, "Those are the worst hospitals in the United States, the ones the government runs, the Veteran Hospitals." If they think they can run Health Care why don't they prove it to the American people by making the Veteran Hospitals role models of excellence is, step 1. I think that's an interesting point for ordinary Americans.

Then they saw the organization chart for the Health Care System plan. One fellow said it looked like Rube Goldberg had that plan while he was having a nightmare, and it does. If you understand organizations and you look at that chart, you realize that makes the Pentagon look like a ballet dancer. That thing is designed to fail, that organization chart. So, their point is, if you are going to try to solve a problem, why turn it over to an institution that has a history of doing a terrible job in Health Care.

Medicare and Medicaid are totally out of control, if you look at the original forecast of what Medicare and Medicaid would cost at this time. You see Medicaid was not supposed to exceed a billion dollars a year and I think it's now, at the last figures I saw, $76 billion; so that is a little bit of a miss in your forecast, right! Medicare is used to missing forecasts.

Let's take a logical process here. Let the government prove that it can do a good job in Health Care. Number 1: Clean-up the VA hospitals. Number 2: Make all of these savings that they are promising on Medicare and Medicaid which they are running now. Put the money in the bank. I can't wait to see that happen. Make those savings because this whole Health Care System is predicated on those savings. Then having proved their ability to do this job well, let's start experimenting on a pilot basis with some of their ideas. The average person here in Texarkana, Texas, understands that what works in a small town in health care probably won't be the system that works in New York City and in our major metropolitan areas.

You totally lose grass-roots America on this Health Care Plan when they realize that the mother cannot pick the doctor that will deliver her baby. They look at you like you are from Mars when they see that aspect of it. They leave you totally on the thought that if they have a serious illness, a life threatening illness, a member of their family, they couldn't go find the finest doctor to try to save that member of their family.

So, we have a system that needs dramatic improvement but just turning it over to the Federal Government with its history of mediocrity and failure in managing social programs and its total lack of discipline on spending when it comes to social programs and finally, (here is my favorite) we are going to do this off budget so that when it goes out of control we can pretend it doesn't and not have it stacked up in the national debt even though it is a part of the national debt.

This is an airplane with no wings. You can't, on a free candy idea, something for nothing, that's the way this will be sold. We are going to take care of you. That's step one in a free society, when they start telling you that, you had better be alert. The fundamentals of a free society are, everyone who can must take care of himself or herself. There is a good chance we will seriously damage the whole medical profession if we are not careful here. We have wonderful medical care in this country. Expenses are out of control is the basic reason for it. When I grew up here in Texarkana, the patient was the customer. Now the Insurance Company is the customer. For example, I got a big medical bill through my office yesterday for one of our employees (and everybody in my businesses has always had the same medical care I had). And I asked a casual question, now has this person signed off all this bill? And the person said, no but the Insurance Company did. I said, "that's not the point, I want the employee who knows what they did and didn't do to go line item through the bill like you would if you were paying for it out of your pocket, right?" This goes back to individual responsibility. Have the employee check it. Make sure the person who was treated always goes through it. We've taken [that] the patient is no longer the customer. Now it's the Insurance Company.

If the new plan goes through as proposed the government will become the customer and Health Care will be rationed and you and I will stand in line, which is not pretty if you need a heart operation or you have some life-threatening problem. People pour out of Canada to the United States because they can't wait. There is a tragic story of a little boy who had to have a heart operation. He couldn't get it in Canada. He was on the waiting list. Then the story was run. A U.S. doctor and hospital heard about it and said, send him down here and we'll save him. That story was run in Canada. The Canadian government was so embarrassed that they put him at the head of the list but they delayed until after he died to operate on him. You don't want to take what we have now and go to that!

Here in Texas, I can take you to Dallas, Texas, Parkland Hospital, and you can see the poorest person in Dallas come in with a life-threatening problem and see the genius doctors and the Nobel prize winners from medical school operating on that person. The quality of the person with the scalpel in their hand is unbelievable. Now before we change all of this with a radical plan put together by people whose lives have not been spent in Health Care, we'd better really be careful!

Brian: We talked earlier about the issues on United We Stand America's list. You had campaign reform. You had line item veto, balanced budget amendment, health care, term limits.

Perot: We like term limits tied to, we feel strongly that the Economic Plan should have had an overall planned balanced budget over time and we had proposed that we put term limits as part of that if it didn't stay on their schedule, term limits which have already been enacted into law would kick in. So there is a reason to stay on schedule. Right now there is no reason to stay on schedule. There is every reason in the world to hand out candy. To agree to build two airplanes that the Pentagon doesn't want that cost almost $2 billion dollars in one Congressional District to get one vote for NAFTA. What in the world does that have to do with discipline in spending? Let's assume that you are determined to do that. My advice would be just find out what your salary costs to the people in that District would be, which is a fraction of the cost of the airplane. Agree to pay that. Don't create the airplane. Don't buy the aluminum. Don't buy the hull. Don't buy the wings, just pay them. You have spent a fraction of what you would have spent plus you don't have airplanes to maintain. The cost to maintaining airplanes is very expensive. BUT, that's not the way the system works.

Brian: Going into 1994 how much of your time are you going to spend on politics versus your business?

Perot: All of it.

Brian: All politics.

Perot: All my time gets spent, I don't call it politics, working with United We Stand members.

Brian: Are you going to make the rounds of the television shows again? Let me express it differently, are they as interested in you today as they used to be?

Perot: At this point, I think the general mood is no access to television. I cannot buy television time at this point.

Brian: Why not?

Perot: I don't know. I think the thing is this is not inside the system. This is not part of the lobbying network. We've got things working the way it has been working now. We want to keep things the way they are. We don't want change. And these are proponents to change so the real bullhorn voice is the authority to talk to the American people. We accept that as just a temporary issue. The facts are it is their right if they want to sell time to sell it. It is their right if they don't want to sell time not to sell it. Now, you could say that the airways belong to the people. You could make a big argument, but we will get the message out. Just think of how many people got messages out before television came along. We will get the message out and we are getting the message out. Who knows, maybe that will change over time.

Brian: When was the last time they sold you time?

Perot: I think it was last spring.

Brian: And did they give you a reason when you tried to buy time for NAFTA?

Perot: Oh, yes. We tried to buy time before NAFTA, after NAFTA, and we are not able to buy time at this point.

Brian: Did you ever think of using a legal recourse?

Perot: No. It's again, I don't think that's productive and we haven't even talked about it.

Brian: What about access to different programs? You know, the TODAY SHOW, GOOD MORNING AMERICA? Are they interested in hearing from you these days?

Perot: No. Well excuse me, I can't speak for them but I haven't heard anything from them lately. They've probably been busy on other issues and they may or may not be interested in the future and yet, that's their right as far as I'm concerned.

Brian: If they are not interested, would you have any idea why they wouldn't be interested?

Perot: Oh, I'd say you would have to ask them.

Brian: On the issue of crime, your group plan anything?

Perot: Yes, we'll be talking about that in our four day meeting and talking about—there are some things you can't pass a law to correct. The American people really need to spend a lot of time thinking about this. We cannot pass a law that says: "The United States of America must have a strong moral and ethical base. Each person must be very caring and sensitive about every other person and under no circumstances would a good decent American go out and shoot somebody in a drive-by shooting."

This goes back to who we are, what we believe, and what we stand for. This goes back to the deterioration of the family unit. You can make a direct correlation to violence and the strength of the family unit in different segments of our cities. These are problems we have to work on outside the law. But, we really need to discuss them and talk about them and a lot of people are starting to do it and a number of leaders in various groups are starting to talk about it. I think that's healthy. We need to very clearly, though, pass laws where if one person inflicts violence on another person. See, the Brady Bill will not solve the problem. It's a step and I don't condemn it or anything but it doesn't fix the problem. It has produced a rash of gun purchases. I don't know if you have read that or not but there is a huge number of people out buying guns while they still don't have a waiting period, etc. It's what you do with that gun that really matters.

We live in such a violent society particularly in the poorer sections of our city where people have bars on their windows and bars on their doors, the law abiding people because their neighborhood has been abandoned to crime and that includes Washington D.C. My advice to Washington is take every good idea you have on crime and make Washington D. C. your test because there is a city in trouble. And you live there, Congressman! Let's make Washington a role model for the country and the world! Just appropriating huge sums of money, that won't do. We will have to make it unthinkable to inflict violence on another human being. Not just with a gun. You can kill a guy with a gun, a knife, or a pipe. If he's dead he's dead. The price for that ought to be you go away and you don't ever come out. And you don't go to someplace that costs more to keep you every year than Harvard would to educate you. And you are just put out of society and you're not coming back. So no matter how drunk you are or how high you are or how crazy you are that will clear your head. You're not going to pull the trigger or stick the knife and you are certainly not in order to earn membership in a teenage gang going to drive-by and kill an innocent human being as a trophy.

For example, when I was growing up in Texarkana I never heard of anybody driving along the roads at night shooting cattle or horses or animals in the pasture to prove something. It was considered terrible to kill an animal when you were hunting unless you were going to eat that animal. You just didn't kill for sport, even animals. Now we kill human beings for sport. The only way to bring a screeching halt to that is take the time to build a strong moral and ethical base and that will take time. What our children see on television and in the movies does nothing to build a strong moral-ethical base. It does everything to deteriorate it because violence becomes thinkable if you watch all of this created violence night after night after night; then it becomes thinkable.

Brian: Should the government get involved in the London hearings on this lately?

Perot: Yes, I would like for the people who run the entertainment industry to say, "We really can have an enormous impact on this country. We can be a terrific force for good."... The finest parent in the world has difficulty offsetting this hour-after-hour barrage of violence.

Brian: But should the government get involved? in the future specifically?

Perot: As a last resort. I think we just had the people on the airways and the government has the responsibility not to saturate the country with a type of programming that degrades the moral, ethical standards of the American people because a free society must have a strong moral and ethical base. And when you get into this everybody wants to say, "but wait a minute, it's really talking about Catholic, Protestant, Jewish." I say, "Take the common factors in all those religions. I don't want a religion that doesn't teach some variation of the Golden Rule. I don't know of a religion that doesn't teach people to care for one another and to try to do the right thing." So it has nothing to do with faculty religion. It has everything to do with, this is square one on making a free society work. We've got to stop trying to all be tricky and chic. Everybody wants to run down the side lines on the field of ethical behavior. When I grew up in this little town everybody lived in the center of the field with ethical behavior and it wasn't a question if it was legally legal. It was a question whether it was right or wrong. And that's the way they lived their lives. We will only be a great country if we continue to do that.

Brian: But how the government, I mean with the First Amendment, how can the government determine ways possible to be on television?

Perot: You see, I don't look at it in terms of how do we go technical legal so and so. I look at what we have to do. I would like to build a consensus. We have to do this for our children. We have to do this for the future generations. We can't program our children to be animals. We can't make their heroes people who do violent things. We have the wrong heroes in our country. See, the real heroes in our country nobody ever heard of. All of our heroes, for example rock stars are heroes, athletes are heroes, and some of these athletes are not good role models for our children. Some of these rock stars, people who have these high visibility roles, when you get into their private lives just by basic standards, for example, having kids out of wedlock, not being married, not being responsible for a child, etc., etc., is a terrible message to send to young people. I think right now everybody would choke on the idea of ever saying to young people that the first rule of sex when you are single is abstinence and yet, to avoid these massive problems from AIDS to illegitimate children you've got to go back to square one and all our religions teach this: that you should have a strong family unit is step one to have a child and then both parents have an equal obligation to be there and rear that child and make sure that child is a good citizen. The government can't do that for you.

Brian: We just have a couple of minutes left. In the two years you've been involved with the public have you changed the way you deal with the media and the public at all? What have you learned?

Perot: The main thing I have learned is the goodness of the American people and to have the potential for the greatest years in our country's history can be in the future because the American people still are devoted to this country, are still patriots, still want to do the right thing but feel like straws in the wind that are being swept around by a lot of these factors we have discussed today.

Brian: You know how people inside the beltway analyze this today. Have you changed the way you interact at all with the media? Did you learn anything from that experience you had on the NAFTA thing? Would you do something differently

Perot: Neither person would interrupt the other person in mid-stream and that the only thing they could talk about would be the issues. That would be just so basic and so simple but that would have to be, say in terms of what you learned from that one experience. That's what I learned from that experience. You say, "Well gee, you should have known that going in." Well, I guess I was naive and assumed that's the way it would be.

Brian: Would you debate the Vice President again on an issue?

Perot: Sure, I'll be glad to debate anybody, anytime.

Brian: How about your relationship with the print media, medium? Do you do much one on one interviews with newspapers?

Perot: Sure, if there is some issue somebody wants to talk about.

Brian: How about the overall experience of using television? There are books that have been written about your use of television to be a candidate. Can anybody else do what you've done?

Perot: I would guess anybody could. There's nothing special about it. It's not as though we invented perpetual motion or anything, so I would think anybody could do it.

Brian: Are there any shows that you appeared on in the past that won't have you on in the future like you go back to Meet the Press?

Perot: That won't have me on?

Brian: Yeah, would you go back to Meet the Press if you are invited?

Perot: Well, again, I would want to know, you know, for what? What is the issue and what are we going to talk about, etc.

Brian: Just a general discussion if you went back like you did the last time.

Perot: Well, I went and everybody on the program knew that I came for one reason and that was to raise money for flood victims on the Mississippi River and I knew that they were going to ask me questions on other subjects. But, they understand that that's why I went. That was my motivation for going. That was when our organization was hard at work trying to raise money for the flood victims.

I called up and said, "Is there anything that you all would like to discuss that is very detailed that I should bring a lot of details with me?" They said, "No". Those were the issues that would require, at least for me, some notes or drawings or study. If they had said, "Well, we want to discuss this mess but please don't bring anything but what you just have in your head."

Well, I can always get that in my head. But, I was trying to make sure that whatever they wanted to talk about I would be ready to talk about! And, they said, "No, there was nothing they wanted to discuss in detail." Fine.

I get there and that was what it was about. Man, that's fine! That's the American way. But the reason I asked that question is that one prior time they raised a very detail question based upon on a stack of papers they had just gotten from the Office of Management and Budget and I had no idea what the premises were, what the assumptions were, and the person asking the questions didn't know what the premises and what the assumptions were.

I later found out that the premises and the assumptions were wrong when we finally got to look at them after the program. We couldn't have an intelligent conversation so I'd have wanted to avoid that; but, in the real world this is the way the process works.

Brian: Thanks for joining us on our (garbled) in your home town.

Perot: Great. Nice to see you!

CHERNOBYL MELTDOWN

In an article published in the Jan. 30 edition of THE SALT LAKE TRIBUNE, originally appearing in the BOSTON GLOBE, "A Massachusetts Institute of Technology researcher who spent 18 months studying the ruins of the devastated Chernobyl nuclear reactor has revealed new and frightening details of what took place in the hours and days after the 1986 explosion.

"Contrary to previously available accounts of the world's worst nuclear accident, his work has shown that the initial explosion did lead to a complete core meltdown, and that the reportedly successful attempt to douse the blazing core with 5,000 tons of material dumped from helicopters actually missed its target completely.

"As a result, the amount of radioactivity released during the disaster was as much as four to five times greater than previously published estimates, confirming suspicions that had been voiced by many researchers but strenuously were denied by international and Soviet authorities.

"In addition, the effort to entomb the reactor in an airtight sarcophagus of concrete, and to prevent it from contaminating nearby river water with a 1-mile-long concrete dike, has been equally unsuccessful, says Alexander Sich, a nuclear engineer who turned his research into a 500-page doctoral dissertation he presented this month.

"Those efforts actually may be increasing the risk of further contamination, Sich and Russian officials say. Today, according to scientists at the site, there are more than 11,000 square feet of holes in the concrete building.

"I believe the sarcophagus was and still is the most dangerous structure in the nuclear industry," said Alexander Borovoi, the Russian scientist in charge of monitoring and studying the site. "One hundred eighty tons of partially burned nuclear fuel remains in this building."

"On the positive side, however, what Sich found appears to alleviate fears that such a disaster would lead to the China Syndrome, in which a molten reactor core would burn through the bottom of a nuclear plant, contaminating vast amounts of ground water and setting off a potentially enormous steam explosion. Although the Chernobyl core melted into a lavalike mass that burned through the reactor vessel and flowed into the lowest recesses of the massive plant, it never broke through the concrete floor of the plant basement, and the nuclear reaction simply burned itself out after 10 days, Sich said.

"Morris Rosen, deputy director of the International Atomic Energy Agency's division on nuclear safety and the man responsible for that agency's analysis of the Chernobyl accident, was surprised by most of Sich's conclusions, he said from Vienna on Friday.

"Told of Sich's calculation that more than 185 million curies of radioactive material, and possibly as much as 250 million curies, were ejected during the first 10 days after the accident, Rosen said, 'I don't think I've heard numbers like that before...It would be very surprising.' Soviet officials have claimed that 50 million curies were released. (A curie is the amount of radioactivity contained in one gram of radium. While health effects of different types of radiation are hard to compare, the U.S. Department of Energy estimates that as little as 10 millionths of a curie of plutonium, if inhaled, could cause cancer.)

"It's a new theory that I haven't heard of, but I can't say it's crazy,' Rosen said."

There is a mind boggling and fascinating addition to the known Chernobyl puzzle in PHOENIX JOURNAL #65 titled, THE LAST GREAT PLAGUE UPON MAN: AIDS AND RELATED MURDER TOOLS. Here's a sample: "In December of 1988, space command was again summoned by the Soviets, and at this intervention we lost a Pleiadean craft with crew. Nine of the dozen or so crew members were killed outright and the remaining ones were severely burned and injured. The Soviets, however, treated our men with great respect, care and brotherhood."

RUSSIAN COMMENTARY

In an article from a recent edition of THE SALT LAKE TRIBUNE, Michael Nakoryakov writes: "Confusing signals coming from Moscow these days leave the Clinton administration wondering if its unconditional support of Boris Yeltsin's policies is a mistake.

"Major defeats of reformers at the December parliamentary elections and subsequent resignations of the leading market advocates from the Kremlin government seem to have caught the U.S. experts on Russia off-guard.

"There are people in Washington who know exactly what's going on in Russia, in Europe or elsewhere—not only know but arrange things to happen,' said Robert Porterfield.

"The Sandy (Utah) draftsman noted that although he has nothing against the Russian people and even sympathizes with the hardships they must endure, he still believes Russians are used as a weapon in a world conspiracy against American freedom and independence.

"American Study Group, a nationwide organization in which Porterfield previously served as Midvale chapter chairman, was created in Provo, Utah in 1990, driven by the conviction that the end of civilization is imminent. Some 4,000 members based their apocalyptic ideas on Christian and Mormon scriptures, the works of LDS (Church of Latter Day Saints) President Ezra Taft Benson and the firm belief that Russia will attack the United States.

"The organization didn't live long. In October 1991, after what Porterfield calls 'unwanted publicity', including several SALT LAKE TRIBUNE stories, the leaders called it quits. But the ideas survived.

"We don't have the organization, but there are lots of people who share my views,' he said. "The history of this century is a history of a global conspiracy aimed at creating a world dictatorship."

"To Porterfield and his friends, the 1917 Bolshevik Revolution in Russia, Stalin's reign of terror and Mikhail Gorbachev's perestroika are links in a chain that eventually will strangle American democracy.

"First, the conspirators tried communism as a tool. They succeeded in killing democracy in Russia, but by the end of the '80s they saw communism didn't work as they wanted, so the tactics changed,' Porterfield said.

"Now, we see their second scenario in progress. They still plan on a Russian nuclear attack against the United States, but increasingly concentrate on the infiltration of the U.S. power structures, putting their agents into decision-making positions and blowing up our democracy from within."

"George Bush? 'He was the one who first said new world order,' Porterfield said.

"President Clinton? 'Of course he is following orders.'

"The Soviet coup attempt in 1991 was 'contrived to garner global sympathy.'

"And how about the increasingly popular Russian ultra-nationalists who charge Yeltsin is a puppet manipulated from some evil center in the West? 'I have to acknowledge people in Russia seem to understand the realities much better than Americans do,' Porterfield sighed."

ZHIRINOVSKY

In a recent AP article from an unknown source, MOSCOW—"Continuing his string of bombastic attacks on the West, Russian nationalist Vladimir Zhirinovskiy on Saturday accused the United States, Germany and the Vatican of instigating World War III against Slavs in the former Yugoslavia."

MORE ZHIRINOVSKY

In an article from the Jan. 29 edition of THE SALT LAKE TRIBUNE, PARIS—"Russian ultranationalist Vladimir Zhirinovsky committed his ideas for the future shape of Europe to paper—redrawing a road map to wipe out Austria, Slovenia, the Baltics, the Czech Republic and Bosnia.

"The French daily newspaper LE MONDE on Friday carried a copy of the map, which shrank the size of Poland and Romania and split former Yugoslavia between the Serbs and the Croats.

"Zhirinovsky, whose party made a strong showing in last month's Russian elections, dreams of restoring the Russian empire. Prosecutors in Russia opened a criminal case against him this week for alleged war-mongering.

"The main changes he made to the European map included:

- A sharply reduced Poland. Germany would get the city of Gdansk and Silesia province, and Russia some eastern territory. Poland would be given Ukraine's Lvov district in compensation.

- Russia would take all Baltic states—Estonia, Lithuania and Latvia—except for a small area around the Estonian capital Tallinn, to become a city-state.

- Germany would take control of Austria and the Czech Republic, two areas annexed by Adolf Hitler in the late 1930s.

- The Russian Baltic sea enclave of Kaliningrad would revert to Germany.

- Bosnia would disappear with Serbs and Croats dividing former Yugoslavia between themselves. Zhirinovsky added the words U.N. Out in English on the map.

- Hungary would take Transylvania from a shrunken Romania.

- A greater Bulgaria would take chunks of Greece, Romania and European areas of Turkey."

RUSSIAN SUBMARINES

In an article appearing in the Feb. 5 edition of the DAILY NEWS (Southern California), STOCKHOLM, SWEDEN—"For more than a decade, Sweden has sought proof of whether submarines from the Soviet—and now Russian—navy are prowling in Swedish coastal waters, and why.

"Swedish radio reported Friday that Russian intelligence officers are finally providing the answers—for cash.

"The radio quoted naval sources as saying the agents had sold information about a special submarine spying unit based at Primorsk, near the Russian naval base of Kaliningrad. The agents said the Primorsk unit uses the Swedish archipelago for training exercises, the report said."

WEAPONS BAN

In a Jan. 30 AP article from an unknown source, written by Carolyn Skorneck, WASHINGTON—"Guns weigh heavily on the American psyche, and Congress is poised to respond by banning the manufacture and sale of new assault-type weapons that mimic firearms intended for combat.

"This would be an extraordinary move for an institution known for its long-standing resistance to gun control—and it would be the second time in less than a year that Congress moved to limit the availability of guns.

"The assault-weapons measure, introduced by Sen. Dianne Feinstein, D-Calif., would stop the manufacture, sale and new possession of 19 specified semiautomatic assault weapons, and bar production of copycat models.

"More than 650 hunting weapons would be exempted by brand name, and people who already own an assault weapon would not be required to give it up.

"Senate Judiciary Committee Chairman Joseph R. Biden, Jr., said he's certain the House will pass the bill.

"'This is bigger than any senator, any group of senators, any congressman,' said Biden, D-Del.

"Even Rep. Bill McCollum, R-Fla., a House Judiciary Committee member who opposes gun control efforts, acknowledged, 'There's such an impetus for this sort of thing that it's likely to be approved.'"

GUN SNIFFING DOGS

In an article sent to CONTACT from the Feb. 4 edition of GUNWEEK, "A Houston, TX, area company, which trains and supplies dogs to sniff out drugs, alcohol and other contraband, is now supplying dogs capable of finding hidden firearms."

HATE CRIMES

In an article from the Jan. 28 edition of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, TALLAHASSEE—"The Florida Supreme Court on Thursday upheld a Florida hate crimes law that allows harsher penalties for crimes motivated by certain prejudices.

"But some legal experts said the ruling will have little effect on future cases because new sentencing rules don't call for the stiffer punishments. Now it will be left to a judge's discretion whether someone deserves more punishment for a hate crime, the experts said.

"The court rejected a Broward County Circuit Court ruling that the law unconstitutionally infringes on free speech, and ordered the court to rehear the case of a Fort Lauderdale man charged with shoving and berating a Jewish attorney.

"Broward County Circuit Court Judge Leonard Fleet had struck down the law in the case of Richard Stalder, accused of shoving attorney Herbert Cohen in April 1991 and uttering anti-Semitic epithets.

"'It may seem doubly vile to members of our legal community to denigrate another for being a Jewish lawyer, as Mr. Stalder allegedly did, but such an act standing alone is every citizen's right,' the Supreme Court said.

"'To assault another solely because he or she is a Jewish lawyer on the other hand, is no one's right,' the court said.

"Justice Major Harding said in a dissent—with Chief Justice Rosemary Barkettt concurring—that the law was unconstitutional and it was up to lawmakers, not the Supreme Court, to change it.

"'The majority has gone too far in trying to give an unconstitutional statute a constitutional meaning,' Harding and Barkettt wrote.

"Some hailed the decision.

"'This is a good day in the fight against hatred and bigotry,' said Arthur Teitelbaum, director of the Anti-Defamation League of B'Nai B'rith, which helped create the model for the law."

"The U.S. Supreme Court upheld a similar Wisconsin law in June, ruling that people who commit crimes motivated by bigotry may be sentenced to extra punishment without violating their free-speech rights."

ATF & RELIGIOUS CULTS

In an article from the Jan./Feb. 1994 edition of THE JUBILEE P. O. BOX 310, MIDPINES, CA 95345 (209) 742-6397, "Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms director John W. Magaw has said his agency plans to keep a close eye on what he calls religious cults in 1994, noting that he is determined not to let cults develop into armed compounds like the Davidians did. 'They're out there,' Magaw said referring to cults, 'They don't yet have the kind of weaponry that we saw in Waco but they will develop if society allows them to.'

"Although society has nothing to say about churches (or cults) who own legal weapons, it's clear the ATF intends to halt Christian groups who do—especially in the name of protection against run-a-way, blood-thirsty agencies.

"Magaw said the ATF is keeping tabs on 'three or four places around the country,' but would not be more specific. A cult can be any group that opposes tyrannical government control, maintains non-judeo doctrine or who simply desires to be self-sufficient and independent of the system.

"Those who call themselves 'Identity Christians' for example, are considered number one enemies as they not only oppose oppressive government but teach the unpopular truth that those who call themselves Jews are impostors of true Israel—an unauthorized teaching according to government officials and those who strongly influence them such as the Anti-Defamation League.

"The ATF utilized the services of the ADL sanctioned Cult Awareness Network in Waco during the Branch Davidian siege and according to Magaw, the agency plans to step up the use of 'cult experts' in the future. 'We need to talk to people about cults,' he said, 'to find out what their history is, their background and makeup.' This is just what many Americans appear to be concerned about—what business does government have investigating the beliefs and histories of religious groups or individuals? Many are asking, why is the ATF so worried? When was the last time a cult even attempted to 'overthrow' the government? Is there a real threat or is the government simply attempting to disarm any potential opposition to disarmament?

"Columnist Jack Anderson wrote a nationally syndicated article entitled: 'HEADLINES YOU COULD SEE IN 1994,' published in late December, 1993. One proposed headline reads: With Some Cults, Heaven Can't Wait wherein he describes a small number of cults who are 'well armed...and taught daily that the secular government will oppose them.' Some of these cults, he touts, 'blend a fervent belief in white supremacy with their Christianity.' It's white supremacist cults, he says, who will 'have a stand off with federal agents in 1994.'

"Unfortunately Anderson is probably correct, given Magaw's determination to disarm (via raids?) all churches or individuals who oppose federal tyranny and especially those nasty hate-filled white people. The question is, will the so-called cult busters be successful in achieving their goal?"

RANDY WEAVER & KEVIN HARRIS

In an recent AP story from BONNERS FERRY, IDAHO—"Randy Weaver and Kevin Harris say they were not the aggressors in a 1992 gunbattle with U.S. Marshals, despite a convicted felon's claim that they 'decided to shoot first and ask questions later.'

"In newspaper reports published Friday, Weaver and Harris denied the claim of a jailhouse informant who is quoted in U.S. Justice Department documents.

"'What this guy is reported to have said in the papers is false, he's a liar,' Harris told THE SPOKESMAN-REVIEW of Spokane, Wash.

"The documents say James Radler told investigators that Harris had confessed to fatally shooting deputy U.S. Marshal William Degan without provocation. Radler told authorities that Harris made the statements while the two were cell mates.

"'That is a crock of crap,' Weaver told THE IDAHO STATESMAN of Boise.

"Weaver and Harris, a family friend, were acquitted in July in U.S. District Court in Boise of murder and conspiracy charges in Degan's death.

"Degan and Weaver's 14-year-old son, Samuel, were killed in an Aug. 21, 1992, shootout."

MORE ON WEAVER/HARRIS

In an article sent to CONTACT, appearing in the Feb. 4 edition of GUN WEEK, "Randy Weaver is planning to leave Idaho soon, but his case likely will linger for years, the Spokane, WA, SPOKESMAN-REVIEW reported in late December.

"Boundary County, Idaho, Prosecutor Randy Day still is investigating whether he will file charges for any of the three killings during the siege of Weaver's Ruby Ridge cabin.

"In addition, Weaver's attorneys won't say whether they are planning a civil lawsuit against the government because of the deaths of Weaver's wife, Vicki, and son, Sam.

"And a U.S. Justice Department investigation of federal authorities' handling of the case is expected to be completed soon. Some officials could face criminal charges of misconduct.

"'If I had it my way, I wish I had enough information to make the decision today,' Day said in a recent interview. 'We will wait until we see what the federal government has to say.'

"He said any charges he might bring in state court could be unnecessary if the Justice Department files charges.

"'I don't have any sense of what they are going to do...they were very noncommittal,' Day said, referring to his meetings with Justice Department officials in Quantico, VA, the week before Thanksgiving. 'If the federal government identifies this as their problem and takes appropriate steps to redeem the problem, I would be satisfied.'

"Day said he also met with Sen. Larry Craig, R-ID, when he was in Washington, D.C. Craig has been a vocal critic of the government's handling of the Weaver case and pushed Attorney General Janet Reno to investigate the conduct of agents of the FBI, Marshal Service and Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms (BATF).

"Day said he would need testimony from Weaver, his daughters and Kevin Harris if he is to charge the deputy U.S. Marshal who shot Sam Weaver in the back and the FBI sniper whose shot killed Vicki Weaver.

"'We need to talk to Randy, Sara, Rachel and Kevin,' Day said. 'I've had some preliminary contact with Weaver's attorney, Gerry Spence regarding attempts to arrange those meetings.'

"Day said Weaver and Harris would have to waive their Fifth Amendment right to silence. Neither of the men took the stand during their federal trial last summer on murder, conspiracy and other charges.

"Harris, who shot and killed Deputy U.S. Marshal William Degan, pleaded self-defense and was acquitted of the murder charge. Of the 10 counts against him, Weaver was only convicted of failure to appear at a 1990 court hearing.

"Spence said he has discussed the matter with Day, but has not reached an agreement with him concerning immunity for Waver, should he testify.

"Justice Department officials told the SPOKESMAN-REVIEW that they can't comment on their investigation. But one official said the report could be finished some time next month.

"One law enforcement agent who spoke on condition of anonymity said he long ago hired an attorney to protect himself.

"He said one of the reasons federal agents worked so poorly with each other during the Weaver trial was that within days of the shoot-out at Ruby Ridge, deputy marshals and FBI agents involved in the case had hired lawyers to protect themselves.

"U.S. District Judge Edward Lodge in October fined the FBI for its behavior and criticized the agency for its lack of respect for Weaver and Harris's civil rights."

MAYNARD CAMPBELL

In an article from the Jan./Feb. edition of THE JUBILEE, written by Frank Isbell, "Wednesday, January 19, 1993, a jury in Eugene, Oregon found Maynard Campbell [author of Assault at Ruby Creek, concerning the Randy Weaver, Kevin Harris story] guilty of threatening to kill a Federal Magistrate, a U.S. Attorney and U.S. Marshals, their wives and their children. The threats were made during a siege of Campbell's home in October of 1992.

"The conviction could result in a sentence of 33 years without possibility of parole. For Campbell, 52, that's a life sentence. If Campbell would have threatened the average citizen on the street, charges against him would not have been likely. He could have killed the average citizen and been paroled in 6.9 years (average time served for homicide).

"It appears that there are substantial grounds for a motion for a new trial. Campbell's attorneys are in the process of filing their motions and/or preparing for an appeal."

RAY RENICK

As regular CONTACT readers are aware, Ray Renick has been incarcerated in the San Luis Obispo, Calif. County Jail for many months now. He has exposed the so-called S-L-O Connection of crooks in high places, with such powerful names as Judge William P. Clark, Ronald Reagan and George Bush, to name just a few.

Ray has been found by the court to not be mentally competent to stand trial, even though a jury found him to be competent. Judge Duffy, in a hearing on 2/10/94, ruled that Ray was to be transferred forthwith to a mental facility called Patton Hospital. Here, presumably, he is to receive treatment and, in his words, "get cured" so "I can stand trial".

Obviously Ray is very concerned about his mind being fried by one or more chemicals or drugs so prevalent within these particular closed walls. While, to this point, Ray has not truly received the benefit of counsel, but rather, defense from what he terms "the public pretender", it now appears that new counsel will be retained to begin to enter motions, etc. on Ray's behalf. We'll keep you posted with updates as they occur.

[Editor's note: As some background to refresh your memories about WHY it may be advantageous for some rather important crooks in high places to wish to "rehabilitate" Ray's mind and otherwise keep him locked up and out of public circulation, first go back to the 8/24/93 issue of CONTACT, where we collected together, in a mind-blowing 26-page spread, all of Ray's earlier writings on the sordid "S-L-O Connection" to the New World Order's highest crooks.

Since so much of this unbelievable activity exists around his longtime home base near San Luis Obispo, CA, Ray's research has made him a "popular" fellow for quite some time now. Here we find direct links between the political controllers of San Luis Obispo County—including VERY important and nationally prominent judges of the injustice system—and some very heavy-duty, federal government-related drug trafficking, child pornography and other businesses of inconvenient posture. The names of Ronald Reagan and George Bush also surface among the prime ingredients in this deplorable soup.

Then, in the 9/21/93, 9/28/93 and 10/19/93 issues of CONTACT we reported on the beginnings of Ray's latest frameup—or "shut-up"—through his local SLO injustice system. They initially tried to brand him as an out-of-control "paranoid" of the most dangerous kind, in a comical—if soberingly all too "legal"—circus hearing, with many open-mouthed and aghast media people in attendance.

Meanwhile, seemingly undaunted by the many-months-now barrier of his jail cell, the "team" of Ray Renick in California and ex-lawyer Jim Vassilos in Chicago began to share some REALLY eye-opening "connections" between several dens of crooks in VERY high places, their cover organizations, and their business activities, in the 12/21/93, 1/11/94 and 1/18/94 issues of CONTACT.

If you go back and review all of this overwhelmingly damaging material, it becomes quite obvious WHY the crooks in high places want to see to it that Ray's mind becomes "rehabilitated"! And do keep in mind that these are your tax dollars at work being used to keep Ray quiet from telling THE TRUTH.]

CHURCH UNIVERSAL TRIUMPHANT SHOOTING

In an article in the Dec. 23 edition of the LIVINGSTON ENTERPRISE (MONTANA), written by Karin Ronnow, "A witness to the fatal shooting of a 34-year-old man on the porch of his North Glastonbury mobile home Tuesday says the man appeared to be pointing a sword childishly at police before they fired, but said she saw no gun.

"Local authorities are sternly disputing her observation.

" 'There was a gun found,' Park County Attorney Nels Swandal reiterated Thursday. 'Let's get that straight.'

" Mitch Mandell stood on the porch of his mobile home praying and taunting lawmen for nearly two hours Tuesday, said Rebecca Thompson, who witnessed the standoff from her home about 200 yards away.

" The lanky, bespectacled, cerebral man first appeared to be 'just acting foolishly' after losing his patience with a tenant who had been renting his mobile home, she said.

" 'At this point it wasn't serious,' she recalled Thursday morning.

" 'We just thought he was making a fool of himself. We thought, 'Why doesn't he just go with the sheriff?' There he is making prayers, saying, 'Archangel Michael, help me,' she said.

"But Mandell, a member of the Church Universal and Triumphant, carried on, repeatedly commanding the officers to leave his property, she said.

"And the situation eventually erupted in gunfire, although Thompson said she only saw the police aim and shoot."

In an article from the December 27 edition of the LIVINGSTON ENTERPRISE, written by Todd Dvorak, "A top state crime official investigating last week's fatal shootout between lawmen and Mitch Mandell at a Church Universal and Triumphant subdivision said the officers killed Mandell in self-defense and praised their actions Monday."

VERDICT OVERTURNED

In an article from the Feb. 10 edition of THE BAKERSFIELD CALIFORNIAN, written by Tracy Corrington: "The case of a former California State University Bakersfield athlete whose neck was broken by a city police officer has been overturned by a state appeals court, erasing the athlete's earlier $319,000 award and possibly forcing a new trial.

" The 5th District Appellate Court in Fresno late Wednesday ruled against the case initiated by Joe Evens...

" Evan's neck was broken in 1989 by Officer Joseph Bianco during a skirmish between the pair in downtown Bakersfield.

" In 1991, a jury awarded Evans the $300,000 in damages he asked for.

" Shortly thereafter, the city appealed.

" Deputy City Attorney Walt Poor called Wednesday's appellate court ruling personally and professionally gratifying.

" 'The court has said that settling disputes in the streets are not the way these things are handled in a civilized society,' Poor said.

" In its appeal, the city basically argued that citizens cannot use unreasonable force to resist being detained by police, even if the detention is unlawful.

" During the 1991 trial, the presiding Kern County Superior Court judge told the jury that citizens could use reasonable force to protect themselves.

"The Fresno appellate court disagreed with the Kern judge and agreed with the city. That effectively throws out the old case and mean Evans will have to go through a new trial."

CHIEF JUSTICE MALCOLM LUCAS

In an article appearing in the Jan. 29 edition of THE MODESTO BEE, (MODESTO, CA), "The state Commission on Judicial Performance said Friday it has cleared Chief Justice Malcolm Lucas of impropriety in his travels, some of which were funded by parties appearing before his court.

" Lucas' trips did not interfere with his performance on the state Supreme Court, and the funding did not influence his decisions or create the appearance of favoritism, the commission said in a statement. The SAN FRANCISCO CHRONICLE reported in November that Lucas had accepted trips to Thailand, Austria and Hawaii during the last four years from a Lloyds of London subsidiary and a group of lawyers who represent insurance companies. Lloyds has been a party in at least three cases before Lucas' court."

FBI ON THE STREETS

In an article from the Jan. 28 edition of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, "FBI Director Louis Freeh said Thursday that 600 agents in supervisory or administrative posts will be reassigned to street jobs in the fight against crime. 'We need fewer agents behind desks and more on the streets, investigating and arresting criminals, corrupt public officials, spies and drug dealers...', Freeh told a news conference. He said the transfers, which represent a small percentage of the FBI's total force of more than 10,000 agents, were essential 'in a time of high crime and stringent budgets.'

FINGERPRINTS

In a photocaption from the Jan. 22 edition of THE BRADFORD ERA (PA), "Welfare recipient Sandy Vogel, an unemployed bartender places her index fingers onto tiny glass plates Tuesday in Syracuse, N.Y., which displays her fingerprints onto a computer screen at the welfare agency. A few New York and some California counties are now required by state welfare agencies to take fingerprints by computer to deter welfare cheats from receiving benefits under more than one name."

DECODER TECHNOLOGY

In an article appearing in the Feb. 5 edition of the DAILY NEWS (LANCASTER, CA), originating with THE NEW YORK TIMES and written by Edmund L. Andrews: "Turning aside vehement objections from computer makers, communications companies and civil-rights groups concerned about privacy, the Clinton administration adopted Friday a technology that would enable law enforcement agencies to intercept coded telephone and computer communications.

" The technology is meant to solve a difficult problem created by the explosion in electronic communications.

" With commercial coding technology becoming more affordable and more convenient almost every day, law enforcement agencies say it is becoming increasingly difficult to carry out traditional forms of wire-tapping.

" Top officials from the Justice and Commerce departments said they would press ahead with a plan to combat this trend by pushing federal agencies—and urging private companies—to use an encoding device called the Clipper Chip in telephone and computer equipment.

" The Clipper Chip, proposed in April and derided ever since by many computer and communications executives, was designed in cooperation with the National Security Agency, the secret federal agency that monitors the communications of countries around the world.

" The technology contains a secret 'back door' that makes it possible for law enforcement officials to unscramble the billions of bits of digital information that flow through networks in the form of phone calls or computer data.

" Privacy-rights groups argue that the technology could lead to unauthorized eavesdropping, because the keys for unscrambling the code will remain in official hands.

" 'The administration is preparing to implement systems that the public will not trust, that foreign countries will not buy and that terrorists will overcome.'

" The Clipper Chip contains a mathematical formula, or algorithm, that scrambles voice and data signals. Each chip will come with a unique serial number and two electronic 'keys' that must be used together to decode the signals.

" Normally, the sender of the message has one key and the recipient the other, which would enable the two to communicate in privacy. But copies of both keys, which are themselves algorithms, will be stored in separate data bases kept by the Treasury Department and National Institute of Standards and Technology.

" The Justice Department already has placed a $8 million order for encoding devices that contain the new chip, and the Pentagon is following suit, administration officials said Friday.

" State Department officials said Friday that they would relax those export restrictions for products containing the Clipper Chip.

" But critics of the technology including some members of Congress, quickly charged that the administration plan would not work and would harm industry.

" 'It is a tragically flawed idea,' said Douglas Miller, government affairs representative for the Software Publishers Association. 'Do you think any intelligent criminal is going to use encryption to which the government holds the keys?'

Where does Inslaw and the Promis software fit in all of this?

INTERNET BREAK-INS

In another article from the Feb. 5 edition of the DAILY NEWS, also originating from THE NEW YORK TIMES and written by Peter H. Lewis: "Citing computer-security violations of unprecedented scope, security experts have issued a warning that unknown assailants have been breaking into scores of government, corporate and university computers connected to the global Internet communications network.

" Saying that it had been 'flooded' with reports of computer break-ins in the past week, the federally supported Computer Emergency Response Team broadcast its warning late Thursday night over the Internet, a web of computer networks used by an estimated 15 million people in the United States and abroad.

" Sophisticated software, secretly planted on various computers throughout the Internet, has allowed unknown intruders to steal passwords and electronic addresses from legitimate users, computer security experts said Friday.

" Although there are apparently no reports of significant damage to big computer systems on the Internet, and although similar attempts to breach Internet security systems have been fairly common in the past, the sheer volume of the reported security violations caused alarm among some computer administrators."

GWEN TOWERS

In an article from the Jan. 25 edition of the MISSOULIAN, (HELENA, MT), "The U.S. Defense Department is dropping its controversial plans to build 23 Ground Wave Emergency Network towers nationwide, including one in Livingston, Rep. Pat Williams, D-Mont., said Monday.

" Congress passed a one-year prohibition on further construction of the GWEN towers last fall.

" Williams and seven other congressmen wrote to Defense Secretary Les Aspin in November, urging him to use the time to review the program, cancel any additional construction plans and terminate the GWEN system.

" Williams said the decision will save as much as $42 million over the next five years.

" The towers were built during the nuclear arms race as a backup communication system designed to survive an atomic attack.

" The Air Force is going to continue operation of its 54 GWEN towers until a satellite system can be deployed to replace it, Williams said."

JUBILEE SPECIAL

LIES, RAIDS, AND VIDEO TAPE

by Louis Ray Beam
Jubilee Correspondent

As the federal proceedings against the Waco Branch Davidians started this past week in San Antonio, what has become an all too familiar road show began act one in the court room of Judge Walter Smith. When the curtains rose one could see that actors had taken their positions. Snipers, with long barreled rifles and telescopic sights covered the roof tops. Federal Security Police watched, filmed, and followed any person thought not to be politically correct. Hallways were traveled by FBI agents dressed in tennis shoes and base ball hats pretending to be curious onlookers. Federal Marshals sucking on candy, and trying to look bad at the same time, spread out over the court room. The press in a gaggle overflowed the available seating. The judge took his seat pretending to be fair and impartial. The prosecution took their seats not pretending to be fair and impartial. And finally the beleaguered defendants were brought in, the only people in this whole production, not being paid handsomely to put in an appearance.

As the usual parade of double speaking federal agents made their way to the witness stand it immediately became apparent that as a result of all the adverse publicity the ATF had received over the badly bungled Waco raid, each agent was primarily concerned with not implicating himself first, and his cohorts second, for improper performance of duties that fateful morning of February 28, 1993. Nevertheless, testimony revealed that the storming of the church had originally been scheduled as a 6:00 p.m. Eye Witness News, multi-media, prime-time extravaganza, designed to titillate both congressional budget committees and anti-gunners clamoring for more action, as well as put the fear of God in the "I won't give up my gun crowd." Events were to reveal however, much to the Washington D.C. producers dismay, that even the most rehearsed production can sour when half the cast — the Branch Davidians — do not know their lines. In fact, testimony revealed that among agents the raid was unofficially referred to as "Operation Show Time." Agents did not know that this media event was to spare no expense in its production even if it meant their lives or those of the Davidians.

In between ATF yarn spinners the prosecution presented the Waco Tribune-Herald reporter who along with two others from the same paper were on the scene waiting when two cattle trailers loaded with gun police pulled up in front of the Mt. Carmel church of David Koresh. Reporter Marc Masferrer explained how he had been told by his editor the day before the raid that he was to be at Mt. Carmel bright and early Sunday morning on the 28th of February. Masferrer and companions watched and photographed from the road out front as 77 ATF agents disembarked and ran toward the church building hoping to take it by storm. Not revealed in his testimony were the particulars as to how his editor had known about the raid in advance, though this is sure to surface as the trial proceeds.

Dan Maloney, a Waco photojournalist testified that a longtime source tipped him about the impending raid four days in advance and that he joined the ATF caravan as it headed toward the Mt. Carmel church. His footage of the assault shown on national television after being highly edited, was the first view of the 51 day siege most Americans would see. He stated Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms agents did not try to stop him from following them to the church.

The eleven defendants, who are only defendants because the government possesses the power to indict those who commit crimes against them, sat quietly watching the parade of agents to the "Eye Witness News" stand. They are a clean cut, honest looking crew, who do not appear to belong in a court room being tried for murder, conspiracy, etc.

ATF agent Kris Mayfield, who worked as a security guard before becoming a black boot for the gun police stated from the stand that he was "on the dog handling team." Jurors, press, and spectators assumed this meant that the raiders had brought police dogs with them to sniff out drugs, as this canard of drugs had been used by the federals to hijack a couple of Texas National Guard helicopters for use in the assault. Not so, the ATF brought no dogs. Nor did the "dog handling team" bring leashes or cages, but rather fire extinguishers, shotguns and pistols. Mayfield, and other testifying agents, admitted to shooting the dogs as they rushed toward the front door. "Dog handling" in ATF parlance means to kill on first bark.

Beware of the"DYNAMIC ENTRY WARRANT"

As the trial proceeds Orwellian double speak gives way to triple speak...

As the trial proceeds Orwellian double speak gives way to triple speak as ATF agents push the English language to new heights in corruption of meaning. Listening to these modern day storm troopers describe the process of assaulting a church at a full run, with scaling ladders, machine guns, assault rifles, pistols, "flash bang" grenades, and battering rams as "serving a dynamic entry warrant" severely grates on ones oratory canal as the words tortuously make their way to the brain; arriving there only to be rejected by that organ of human understanding as pure gibberish. Yet, all sit quietly in the court room pretending: that this is normal, this is truth, this is justice! Oh fair land of freedom and peace from sea to shining sea, how far you have fallen from once so lofty heights. Sadly, such convoluted, twisted language, is indicative of the iron fist of a police state pre-of the trial, the prosecution presented ATF Special Agent Kevin Scott Richardson. This agent, a presumed equal opportunity hireling of the government, had some difficulty understanding and speaking English. Yet, steadfastly claimed to be an instructor for the ATF. If true, this would not only aid in explaining why the Bureau of Alcohol Tobacco and Firearms has obtained such an odious reputation among other law enforcement agencies and the public in general, but would fur-tending to have the best interests of it's citizens at heart. A "dynamic entry warrant" actually means that from the time ATF hits the ground running outside of premises where a search warrant is to be served movement is forward, fluid, and flowing, until every person on the premises is on the floor, hands behind back, and an agent is "in control." A typical house will be secured in less than sixty seconds. Nowhere is the concept of allowing a person to read the warrant he is being served with part of the dynamics of service. These tactics are an adaptation of those used in World War II in bitter house to house fighting in Europe and elsewhere, and are totally unsuitable for use on citizens of a free country who have a constitutional right to be safe in their home and possessions. Like police states of the past, the American incarnation will pay little attention to rights of individuals when they conflict with the power of the state.

Several ATF agents testified to being told by superiors prior to the raid that the Davidians "know we are coming, let's go! It's show time."

Much of the ATF witness stand rhetoric must seem confusing to the mostly Hispanic jury who because of cultural differences are not familiar with the nuances and subtleties of the English language. Not missed by the jury however, was the fact that part of the plan for the raid was to call it off in the event element of surprise was lost. Several ATF agents testified to being told by superiors prior to the raid that the Davidians "know we are coming, let's go!, it's show time." Such testimony conflicts with previous press statements on the day of the raid by bureau spokesmen who told a startled nation "we were ambushed." One does not voluntarily enter into the kill zone of an ambush. Listening to government witnesses it becomes clear that the tidal wave of lies began on the day of the raid has yet to subside despite the fact that several of the ATF's top bosses have been relieved of command over the raid.

For comic relief to the serious nature ther make a good case for returning the ATF to it's original job of stamping tobacco bales on plantations in South Carolina. During cross examination by defense attorneys, Richardson's disjointed answers became so unrelated to the questions being asked that several of the spectators, and one may presume some of the jurors, became embarrassed for him at his replies. Richardson went on to explain that his MP 5 automatic assault weapon was not really an automatic weapon because it "only" fires a two round burst when the trigger is depressed. He did not explain to the court why this would make the weapon a semi-automatic when the agency he is employed by defines any weapon that fires more than once when the trigger is depressed as an automatic weapon. Richardson apparently is in need not only of some instruction on what an automatic weapon is but also in basic gun maintenance — his weapon jammed as the raid started. Special Agent Richardson, member of the select "Special Response Team" and ATF instructor par excellence, is indeed a "special" person.

Special Agent Sprague from Tulsa, Oklahoma will want to attend the same classes with Special Person Agent Richardson. His weapon also an MP 5 automatic "especially designed to fire only two rounds at a time" was not an automatic weapon either. "The ATF does not use automatic weapons," says he. His MP 5 jammed twice...

And on and on it goes, double speak, triple speak, utter nonsense, it does not matter, these Special Agents have no compunction or shame at saying whatever is necessary to cover themselves and cohorts from criminal prosecution for improper service of a warrant. However, one thing in this trial is already crystal clear, in the sense that the American people understand the serving of a warrant — a knock on the door, an officer identifyng himself, a handing over of the document, a quick read by the receiver, and then a standing aside to allow lawful officers of the state to enter and search — was NEVER part of the ATF plan. "Dynamic Entry Warrants" do not allow for such niceties. Those people who do not know and understand history may indeed be doomed to reliving it's tragedies and horrors. The Soyiet KGB rounded up some 30 million citizens and sent them off to slave labor camps where most were never heard from again using similar "Dynamic Entry Warrants."

ATF agents without their black helmets, black bullet proof vests, black clothes, black boots, and machine guns, sitting on the witness stand, look for the most part like weak men, simple men, devoid of reason and understanding of the crimes they are committing against the American people and legal tradition. They are the type of men that would throw up their hands and retreat if they were to meet with determined opposition. With dog-like obedience, they follow the orders of faceless bureaucrats in Washington D.C., seeming not to understand that in a police state, it is not just the citizens who are held hostage by an abusive government, but the police themselves loose all the rights they take from citizens.

Outside the court room posted on the wall is a metal plaque with the Bill of Rights inscribed upon it. After court, when all have gone home for the day, while halls are silent as evening descends, if one stands in front of these sacred words and listens quietly, he can hear ever so far-off, distant cries of warning from Stalin's tortured dead. Pleading from nameless graves that we the living not allow this journey toward midnight to descend upon our precious little ones; that we the living, while there yet is time and ability prevent it. This distant warning should reach down into the very soul of each one of us. □

The Trial Of The Branch Davidians

FEBRUARY 7, 1994 —
SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS

The following summary was written by Jack DeVault, Major U.S.A.F. (Ret.).

The government's evasive witnesses go on and on. They avoid truth until it is squeezed out of them. Today's first witness, for example, was Deborah Harvey, a delivery driver for UPS. She did not testify that she had delivered a crate of hand grenades or a bomb or a bazooka; only that she had made deliveries there and had never had to go inside the shop. Someone always came out and signed for her deliveries. Now, isn't that revealing and incriminating!

The next witness was Wyatt Tuluse, an FBI agent who has been with the Hostage Rescue Team (HRT) for seven years. What we discovered was that members of the HRT are really hired killers, the counterparts of the ATF's 'Forward Observers'. They are equipped with every weapon that is needed to 'snuff' human life no matter where, when, or how fortified. These are the government's mercenary terrorists who sat out at 300 yards, and watched the Davidians around the clock with high powered telescopes and high technology night vision devices. Agent Tuluse was assigned to Sierra Two, a sniper station at the rear of the Mt. Carmel complex. Among the weapons at his hand were a Remington 700 bolt action sniper rifle, an M-60 machine gun, an M-16 assault rifle and an M-79 grenade launcher.

Another HRT witness, Thomas Rowen, brought us the first real testimony of that final day, the April 19th fire. Two combat engineering vehicles (CEVs) were planned to insert CS gas into the compound over a period of 48 hours in order to induce the Davidians to come out. Four Bradley tracked vehicles were assigned to lbb tear gas "ferrets" into the building in the event the plan to gas the Davidians 'peacefully' was compromised; that is, if they shot back when they were attacked.

In all, this one vehicle poured in 70-75 rounds of CS gas. There were three other Bradleys doing the same thing, and two big CEVs at each end pumping the gas in directly. The judge and prosecutor prevented any mention of the fact that the manufacturer of this gas calls for its use for riot control only; specifically warns of its use inside structures or where innocent persons may be exposed to it; warns that it is instantly incapacitating, and can be fatal if exposure lasts eight minutes.

FEBRUARY 8, 1994 —
SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS

The following summary was written by Jeff Brailey.

A total of six FBI agents were on the stand today as the Branch Davidian trial went into its 21st day of testimony. These prosecution witnesses testified mostly about events that occurred on April 19, 1993, the final day of the Waco tragedy.

Special Agent John Morrison underwent cross-examination as the day began. Yesterday, he had testified that he saw a person apparently start a fire just to the left of a piano laying inside the knocked-out front doorway of the Mount Carmel home.

DeGuerin (defense attorney) then displayed a photo of the front of the building. The right front was in flames but there was absolutely no fire located in the area that Morrison said it had first broken out.

Morrison could not explain the absence of fire where he had said it started. When another defense attorney asked him if it was possible the person he thought was setting a fire was actually extinguishing one, he conceded that was possible.

Doug Tinker, attorney for Brad Branch asked Morrison, "After the CEVs (combat engineer vehicles) began being fired upon was the plan to crush the building?" He responded, "They didn't crush the building."

Using FBI photos taken the day of the fire, Tinker managed to get the reluctant witness to admit three 20-foot gaping holes had been made into the front of the Mount Carmel home.

"The holes were punched in so people could get out," explained Morrison. Tinker asked the special agent if he knew stairways were located in the exact locations where the gaping breaches had been made in the walls. Morrison said he didn't see any stairs after the holes were made.

Also written by Jeff Brailey on February 8 comes the following:

Defense attorneys for 11 Branch Davidians on trial for their lives here in U.S. Federal Court say that since September 1993 they have been plagued by roadblocks in their attempts to subpoena witnesses. Before jury selection had even began, a total of 33 motions to subpoena had been denied by Judge Walter Smith.

The defendants are all indigent. Only three of the 20 attorneys working on their behalf are being paid as court appointed attorneys. The other 17 are serving pro bono—without pay. Since the defense cannot even afford to pay for the serving of the subpoena, not to mention payment to defense witnesses for transportation, lodging, and meals, attorneys must request the court to provide funds for this purpose.

The government prosecutors are not under the same constraints as these defense attorneys of indigent clients. They have unlimited funds to line up their witnesses.

FEBRUARY 9, 1994 —
SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS

The following summary was written by Jeff Brailey.

The names of five active duty U.S. Army Special Forces soldiers were entered into the record during testimony in the Branch Davidian trial here today.

This occurred when defense attorney Mike DeGuerin asked an FBI witness if he recognized the names of the five individuals.

Named by DeGuerin were Major Mark Petrie, Sergeants First Class Chris Dunn, John Wilson, and Grag Handy, and Staff Sergeant Cardell Ackley.

Two weeks ago, DeGuerin learned U.S. Army Special Forces soldiers were present at Fort Hood during the training BATF agents underwent there a week before the February 28, 1993 raid. During the cross-examination of two BATF agents who participated in the raid, it was revealed Green Berets were present at the training but not at the February 28 raid. Neither agent was able to identify any of the Special Forces personnel by name.

Major James Rourke of the Fort Hood Public Affairs Office confirmed the BATF trained at the central Texas Army post in mid-February 1993. The training was conducted at the post's "Military Operations in Urban Terrain Site". Rourke could not confirm if active duty soldiers served as trainers for the BATF.

Although he was unable to verify names of Special Forces trainers, Lieutenant Colonel Chuck Marlowe of the United States Special Operations Center (USSOC) at McDill Air Force Base, Florida said, "(Special Forces) set up a range for weapons training. They also provided medical training to (the BATF) before the raid occurred."

Marlowe did not describe the specific weapons used in the training or what particular medical emergencies the BATF agents were trained to deal with. When asked if active duty Special Forces soldiers were present at the Mount Carmel compound the morning of the raid, he categorically denied they were.

Sources close to the case and at Fort Bragg say Marlowe is mistaken, however. The reported presence at the Mount Carmel compound the morning of February 28 is the subject of an investigation by the U.S. Army's Inspector General.

Under Title 10 of the U.S.C. and the Posse Comitatus Act, it is unlawful for the active duty federal military to be used in law enforcement activities directed against American citizens.

FEBRUARY 9, 1994 — SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS

The following summary was written by Rod Norberg.

At the mid-way point in the Mt. Carmel/Branch Davidian/Waco Trial, let's look back and review a few of the points members of the jury may be pondering.

Prosecutor John Lancaster informed ATF Agent Chishold that he had misidentified Michael Schroeder as being the chap he had seen in a doorway at the back of the center during the 'cease fire' which followed the initial siege on Feb. 28, 1993. Other agents were sure that it was Jaime Castillo in the doorway, holding a long barreled weapon. Actually, Michael was several miles away at the time. "Yep...that could be a problem fer 'em."

Unfortunately for Mike, he did arrive at the scene a few hours later. He was one of three former residents who learned of the raid by telephone. In a call to the center, he spoke with Steve Schneider and learned of the ongoing raid.

The three decided to attempt to render aid to the 100+ friends and relatives that shared a common religious affinity.

There was an exchange of gunfire and Mike was on the receiving end of six hits by the now infamous Hydroshock ammunition...admittedly used by the Federal Agents. Incidentally, such ammo is strictly forbidden in wartime by international agreement. A breakdown of the descriptive word Hydroshock informs us that when the projectile comes in contact with body fluids, it ruptures/explodes with devastating destructive force...not the normal clean entrance, clean exit of conventional ammo. Mike's body lay where it fell...draped over a fence line...for almost a week. A less than successful attempt to retrieve the deteriorating remains with the aid of a helicopter snare or hook was belatedly attempted.

By contrast, the dead and wounded ATF agents were allowed to be safely evacuated from within the sprawling complex. Agents were videotaped retreating from the area with their casualties. Those not carrying their comrades departed the building and grounds with their hands extended over their heads. Had the defenders within the center chosen to take advantage of the agents in retreat, it would have resulted in considerably higher casualties within ATF ranks. No shots were fired.

There could be a problem with the use of the word AMBUSH...(or maybe not). It has been the position of the government prosecutors that the federal agents were the victims of an ambush. It has been clearly established that upwards of 100 ATF agents poured out of the rear of two canvas covered cattle cars...guns at the ready! It has also been made crystal clear that the disciples of David possessed considerable firepower...and many in their legion knew how to use that firepower. It doesn't take a Von Clausewitz to rationalize what a wholesale slaughter would have befallen the exiting raiders if defenders with automatic (semi or full-auto is really a moot point) weapons had poured massive and concentrated firepower from upstairs window and roof positions. The carnage would have been measured in scores...not on one hand.

"Yep, Jeb...that jus' might be sumpin' the jury'll think on."

And what conclusions are to be drawn when it was pointed out that not one round (bullet) slammed into the floorboards of the two cattle cars from which the agents exited? Had machine guns been spitting out thousands of rounds at stationary targets, the two rigs would have been peppered with holes. That, indeed, would have been irrefutable proof of an ambush!! Could be the shoe is on the other foot.

FEBRUARY 10, 1994 — SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS

The following summary is written by Jeff Brailey.

Reporters for alternative media outlets covering the Branch Davidian trial here have noticed a great deal of discrepancy between what is appearing in the mainstream press and actual testimony that took place in court. It seems the major newspapers and news services emphasize witnesses responses in direct questioning of the prosecutors much more than information gleaned by defense attorneys under cross-examination.

It is difficult to say whether the journalists from the mainstream media are purposely attempting to give only one side of the story, but the fact remains that very often they are. Very few of the points made by defense attorneys made the pages of the country's mainstream newspapers.

Most of the members of the mainstream media covering the Branch Davidian trial grew up in the late 70s and 80s, a time when young people were taught to trust their government. The members of the alternative press who are here are, for the most part baby boomers, children of the 60s, who hold their government's motives and actions suspect.

At any rate, the warning is "Reader Beware". What you read may not actually be the whole truth.

FEBRUARY 10, 1994 — SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS

The Gladys Ottman File

The following report was written by Jack DeVault.

The news is not as grim as it might be. The post office has not adequately responded to my complaint of fraud and mail tampering. The Salvation Army is no longer holding her prisoner, but nothing has been done to sever this ungodly contract which authorizes a 501C93 'government approved church' to act as prison guard for members of a non-government-approved church.

Gladys Ottman was sent to San Antonio ten days ago after being confined for almost ten months as a material witness. She had emerged from Mt. Carmel at mid-siege on March 21, 1993, and was placed in the McClennan County Jail. On March 25th she was transferred to the Salvation Army halfway house. At the end of April she was transferred to Belton for five weeks, returning to the Waco jail on June 7th and then the Salvation Army halfway house in Waco on June 8th. She was then in the custody of the Salvation Army continuously until January 31, 1994. During this period I wrote to her to encourage her upon the suggestion of a friend who had written to her several times, but had a recent letter returned. My letter was answered promptly and I wrote another a few days later in December sending a postal money order so that she would have money for crocheting yarn. This was returned just as my friend's letter had been, marked "ATTEMPTED UNKNOWN."

Gladys is still being held under a $25,000 personal recognizance bond as a material witness, although she is no longer imprisoned. She is living in a private home. Nevertheless, she is required to keep the government prosecutor's office informed of her whereabouts each week, and there has been no apology from the government for keeping a sweet, innocent, great-grandmother, age 68, incarcerated for almost ten months.

FEBRUARY 11, 1994 — SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS

The following summary was written by Jack DeVault.

The trial convened at 9:00 A.M. to complete the forensic testimony of Tarrant County Medical Examiner Nizon Peerwani. He completed the gruesome task of describing the deaths of those who were sacrificed in the disastrous ATF attack on Mt. Carmel, and in the inferno which followed fifty-one days later. The first explanation of the four fatalities suffered by the ATF was introduced, as well as a closer look at the death of Michael Schroeder who was killed in the late afternoon of the day of the initial raid, February 28, 1993. Of special interest to the defense attorneys was the clothing and equipment which seemed to disappear from evidence. There was a navy blue stocking cap that was worn by Schroeder as he tried to return to his Mt. Carmel home. His corpse was photographed with the cap, yet it was not among the effects sent to the Medical Examiner. In fact, no one has acknowledged seeing it. This might seem of minor consequence, but its absence makes suspect the head wound that Schroeder suffered. It could easily have absorbed the powder traces if that shot was delivered at close range—a possibility that the government attorneys have scrupulously ignored.

Another serious flaw in the government's case developed as Peerwani's testimony revealed that two of the four agents killed in the attack were carrying personal 35mm cameras, and a third one was carrying a roll of film. Where are those cameras? Where are the pictures that were taken by them? How many other agents were carrying cameras? Is there a camera inventory anywhere?

Later in the morning's testimony by Texas Ranger Cano, who was responsible for evidence collection, Attorney Evans displayed a photograph in which Cano identified Texas Ranger Captain Byrnes watching as one of the body bags was being removed and an ATF agent was participating. Still another photo showed another ATF agent with a rubber glove picking up evidence and placing it in a collection bag. Clearly this must be a serious indictment of the Texas Rangers who were supposed to see that those involved in the attack and fire had no opportunity to disturb the little remaining evidence! Cano's testimony further revealed that no fingerprints were taken from the evidence he collected in the base of the tower which was alleged to be a Glock pistol (which was not checked for recent firing), with clips and ammunition, a live hand grenade, and two Bic lighters. Cano's examination of the tower occurred on April 25th, six days after the fire. How credible can the jury find any evidence the Rangers present when no responsible police investigation was done, and ATF agents were allowed in all parts to "salt" the scene? Evidently several Bic lighters were found around the burned out site. (Now, how could they have gotten there?)

WACO DEPROGRAMMER BEATS CHARGES

In an article appearing in the Jan./Feb. 1994 edition of THE JUBILEE, written by Randy Grimes:

"Nationally known deprogrammer Rick Ross was acquitted of unlawful imprisonment charges stemming from an attempt to deprogram an 18-year-old Bellevue, Washington man.

"Rick Ross, 41, leaped from his chair and shouted for joy when the verdict was announced. He grinned to a hostile gallery and shouted to Judge David Foscoe: 'If you can't beat me with a rigged courtroom, a corrupt prosecution, and a judge who granted everyone of your motions, you can never beat me!'

"Jurors said prosecutors failed to prove that Ross participated in the abduction of Jason Scott from his mother's Kirkland, Washington home in January, 1991; that Ross directed Scott's confinement in an Ocean Shores, Washington beach house for four days, and that the state did not prove that deprogramming activities were criminal.

"The mother of Jason Scott, Kathy Tonkin, had hired Ross and three other men (Charles Simpson, 46; Mark Workman, 38 and Clark Rotroff) to deprogram her son. She claimed he was a member of a 'cult' in Bellevue, Washington known as the Life Tabernacle Church which is pastured by Harold Kern. The church is affiliated with the United Pentecostal Church.

"Ross, convinced that the United Pentecostal Church is a 'cult', gave an eerie description of cults—which interestingly includes the beliefs of many non-judeo churches that oppose the standard dribble of the government sanctioned National Council of Churches:

- * Members are saved by works not grace.
- * No jewelry allowed to be worn in church.
- * Women can't wear pants.
- * Women should wear long dresses.
- * Men, women, and children should all be well-groomed.
- * Church members should not send their children to public schools.
- * Church members give up their old friends and habits when they join.
- * Church members stop watching TV.
- * Church members stop reading mainstream publications.
- * Church members stop listening to the radio.
- * Church members basically stop seeing anyone else but other church members of their own faith.

"Ross who deals mostly with Bible-based 'cults' has been a deprogrammer since 1982. He estimates he has deprogrammed (i.e., reprogrammed) over 200 individuals in his career. He is recognized as a 'cult' expert by B'nai B'rith, Phoenix Police Department, Fargo Police Department, ATF, FBI, U.S. Bureau of Prisons, Arizona Department of Prison, and by Canada, Israel, Japan and Australia.

"Experts speculate that Ross was largely responsible for the deaths of the Davidians while serving as a consultant for the ATF and FBI before the Mt. Carmel holocaust. He is proud to tell of his accomplishment of deprogramming Kathy Schroeder, a former Branch Davidian who lived at Mt. Carmel—Mrs. Schroeder is now a government (prosecution) witness.

"Deputy Prosecutor Gerald Fuller said in his closing statement that Ross faced the stiffest charge because he was responsible for the kidnapping. 'This never, ever, would have happened without him. Ross brought the whole thing together.'

The Price of Faith

by Livingston Fagan
Branch Davidian

Here I sit as another day passes into nothingness.
Seven months ago I shared pleasure and joy in the company of my wife, mother,
son and daughter.
Now they are no more!

First they raided us with their guns and helicopters.
When we did not surrender our faith,
They cut our fuel,
and water.

We still did not surrender.

So they intimidated us.

Threats, Destruction of our properties.

But we did not surrender.

So they gassed us.

When we still did not surrender,

They burned our home, killing us.

But we did not surrender.

Now, they continue in their lies,
demonizing us.

We are imprisoned as they seek through their laws to cover their cruel deeds.

Accusing us of having faith.

But we are free,

And we will not surrender.

I am empty, yet full.

I sorrow but I'm happy.

Momentarily my family and friends are separated from me.

I'm a stranger from my relatives.

I have been here many days now, facing two life sentences.

In secret my tears flow.

All for what?

My faith in the Seven Seals of Scripture.

The price of faith is high.

But now I understand.

It can be no other way.

Father, for your sake,

Forget us not.

It is you who have placed

love for you in us.

Now you have found us.

Please don't let us go.

Accept our feeble response of gratitude.

Mr. Fagan is one of eleven now on trial in San Antonio, TX.

Defrauding America by RODNEY STICH

• One of the most explosive books on the market for understanding the pattern of hard-core criminal activities implicating high federal officials and how it affects the American people. It describes and documents epidemic corruption by federal officials, and a pattern of criminal misuse of federal offices against the American public. The contents are supported by a group of former federal investigators, covert intelligence agency operatives and contract agents, former FBI, police, and private investigators, composing a block of whistleblowers.

Among the corrupt activities described in Defrauding America are the following:

- Epidemic drug trafficking into the United States.
- Role played by the CIA in Savings and Loan and HUD looting.
- Conversion of Chapter 11 courts into a criminal enterprise.
- October Surprise and its criminal coverup.
- The ugly part of the Iran-Contra scandal.
- Inslaw, the tip of Justice Department criminality.
- Covert CIA financial institutions dealing in drug money laundering.
- Crooked federal judges and Justice Department attorneys.
- Felony persecution of informants by Justice Department attorneys and federal judges.
- Killings and mysterious deaths of informants and whistleblowers.
- Schemes to assassinate or remove U.S. Presidents and presidential candidates.

New Gaia Products

GAIANDRIANA

Gaiandriana is a non-alcoholic health tonic which provides basic "foods" to help cells, weakened by the stresses of modern life, to return to a state of health.

The better our cells function, the greater is the stamina returned to our internal defense systems, and the better we can counter the constant onslaught of biological and viral invaders. The end result is a feeling of well-being by, of course, being well.

The Gaiandriana (commonly referred to as "chondriana" in the Biological literature) are capable of intelligent, organized attack against cellular invaders like viruses. Think of it as a "pac-man" operation of sorts. However, beyond that, the Gaiandriana are capable of stimulating cellular structural repairs due to damage caused by, for instance, free radicals and cumulative levels of so-called "background" radiation in our modern environment. Healthy DNA and RNA within the nuclei of our cells then lead to properly formed and concentrated enzymes, upon which healthy cellular function depends.

Gaiandriana liquid is made entirely from wholesome natural ingredients.

AQUAGAIA

Complementary to the Gaiandriana product, AquaGaia is also a non-alcoholic health tonic which provides basic "foods" to help cells, weakened by the stresses of modern life, to return to a state of healthy function.

AquaGaia contains mitochondria. These are the major biochemical energy "processors" within cellular metabolism. First, enzymes begin the breakdown process of organic nutrients (like fats, carbohydrates and proteins) to intermediate substances such as amino and pyruvic acids. Then, in the next "bucket brigade" step, these various acid molecules are processed within the mitochondria to release chemical energy recognized as adenosine triphosphate (ATP).

About 95% of the energy needed to "run the machinery" that keeps each cell going and healthy is produced in the mitochondria. Unfortunately, the mitochondria are particularly damaged by free radicals and cumulative levels of so-called "background" radiation in our modern environment. These compromised mitochondria, like half-dead batteries, then lead to impaired cellular functioning and health. Thus is the importance of AquaGaia, with its assimilatable supply of healthy mitochondria — like "fresh batteries" for the body's cells.

The better our cells function, the greater is the stamina returned to our internal defense systems, and the better we can counter the constant onslaught of biological and viral invaders.

2/11/93 #2 HATONN

GAIANDRIANA & AQUAGAIA

To help in understanding the workings of these organic "pac-men" you must realize that there is a protein covering "cap" on viruses. The protein cap is centered on a charged zinc atom and is the part of the virus that recognizes and binds to DNA—in turn allowing the virus to reproduce.

AquaGaia, in conjunction with the Gaiandriana, knock out the zinc atom (a simple "charge" change), which renders the protein ineffective. This is a breakdown of "parts" of the Gaiandriana male-female DNA structure which releases many working variants but frees the Gaiandriettes or "killers" to take out that zinc atom and pass right into the affected cell. Without the "cap", the virus cannot reproduce and infect more cells—further, the damaged virus feeds the Gaiandriana unified cells and the circulating mitochondria.

Healthy cells are not affected because they lack the zinc-centered protein cap on the virus.

These "Gaia" compounds have an effect on cancer cells because they stop an enzyme on the cancer cells from producing a "messenger" molecule that blocks a second enzyme from attacking the cancer cell's DNA. The compounds (Gaia) have been seen to actually take out leukemia, breast, brain and colon cancer cells. We have no claim to anything other than stating that people utilizing these simple and natural substances do show improved well-being and do report feeling generally and, often remarkably, improved as to state of health, thought processes and stamina.

The obvious conclusion is that there might well be good reports of better health and faster recovery, following infection by other viruses, than those mentioned above. All viruses known react in generally the same manner.

It is known that many diseases are due to retroviral DNA and these are the most affected viruses by the Gaia-chondrianas (living crystal forms). We, again, make no medical claims—we are simply reporting in an effort to explain WHAT takes place within the cellular structures of living organisms.

NOTE

If any product you receive has an unpleasant odor — it is from the finishing culture process. Leave the bottle open to air and it will quickly dissipate. Then, depending on taste and preference—refrigerate after opening and reclosing.

IMPORTANT: Do not mix the two, Gaiandriana and AquaGaia, together for storage as the AquaGaia (mitochondria) are aggressive and begin to "eat" the Gaiandriana for fuel. Once ingested, they go about their appointed tasks, but in bottle prisons they are not particularly compatible once the available fuel supply is exhausted. Juices are excellent to take with the AquaGaia because the mitochondria must have the fuel derived from same, the most effective juice being from the tropical "Guava" fruit. Any juice is fine, however, and is most pleasant to intake. Diabetics should utilize whatever juices are available on their food plan to keep within the safe guidelines for calories and other requirements.

The most innocuous and easy intake available is simply a few drops under the tongue, both products taken at the same time or at different times of the day. Once the "initial" program is completed, and the maintenance level of intake is being followed, certainly the drops under the tongue are the least annoying to any daily regimen.

A-C-E ANTI-OXIDANT FORMULA

There is growing evidence that essentially everyone in our society is exposed to free radicals, now more than ever. While free radicals are normal products of our cells and have certain beneficial roles in the body, increased levels of free radicals in our body tissues can be detrimental to our health. Free radicals are highly unstable substances produced in the body through, among other routes, metabolism of oxygen. Free radicals multiply through a series of chain reactions and can attack the polyunsaturated fatty acids of cell membranes. Unless excess free radicals are neutralized, they can cause considerable damage to the structure and function of cell membranes and thus, the cells themselves.

The products from free radical reactions are implicated in the progressive accumulation of deleterious cellular changes over time, which may eventually result in recognizable disease. Free radical damage is implicated in the initiation and promotion of many cancers, as well as atherosclerosis.

One area of aging research suggests that free radicals damage body cells and cause the pathological changes associated with aging. Besides being by-products of the metabolism of oxygen, such as during strenuous exercise, we are also exposed to significant sources of free radicals from the environment, such as from so-called "background" levels of ionizing radiation.

Cooperative defense systems that can protect the body from free radical damage include certain enzymes and the antioxidant vitamins A, C, and E and Beta-Carotene, which protect cell membranes from oxidative damage. Vitamin E, one of the fat-soluble vitamins, is present in the blood as d-alpha-tocopherol and is well accepted as the major antioxidant in lipid body tissues. Vitamin E is considered the first line of defense against cell-membrane damage due to peroxidation. Vitamin E scavenges free radicals, terminating chain reactions and confining damage to limited areas of the membrane. Selenium contained in the enzyme glytathione peroxidase is the second line of defense that destroys peroxides before they can damage cell membranes. Beta-Carotene, a precursor of Vitamin A, also traps free radicals. Vitamin C is water soluble and serves to neutralize free radicals in aqueous systems.

The antioxidants show promise as cancer-prevention agents, alone and in combination.

ALOE JUICE(Whole Leaf, Cold Pressed Aloe Vera Concentrate)

Aloe Vera has a long and impressive history that spans hundreds of centuries, countries and cultures, and appears in countless "folk remedies" as a plant revered for its healing qualities.

Aloe Juice is a whole-leaf concentrate prepared from the freshly harvested leaves of the Barbadensis Miller Aloe Vera plant. Aloe Juice guarantees a minimum of 10,000 mg. of mucopolysaccharides per liter.

The nutrients reported in Aloe Vera include mucopolysaccharides and polysaccharides (glucomannans), glycoproteins, glucose, mannose, galactose, xylose, arabinose, tannins, steroids, organic acids, antibiotic principles, glucuronic acids, enzymes (oxidase, catalase and amylase), trace sugars, calcium oxalate, a protein containing 18 amino acids, "wound healing" hormones, biogenic stimulators, saponins, vitamins B1, B2, niacin, B6, choline, folic acid, chloride, sulfate, iron, calcium, copper, sodium, potassium, silicon, manganese, plus many other metabolism-assisting components.

GINKGO BILOBA(Ginkgo Biloba extract, 24%)

The Ginkgo Biloba extract is a complex compound. The green leaves of the tree are usually harvested from trees grown on plantations in South Korea, Japan and France.

Ginkgo is reported to have a natural affinity for the nervous system. It also seems to stimulate the vascular and endocrine systems that, in turn, strongly affect the function of the nervous system, possibly increasing the capacity for normal physical activity, and the flow of blood to the brain. Some research indicates the possible effectiveness of Ginkgo in the treatment of Alzheimer's disease.

Due to its pharmacological properties, Ginkgo is now widely used throughout Europe for treating many forms of vascular disease. In a survey of packaging information of European products, Ginkgo has been recommended for such ailments as headaches, vertigo, inner-ear disturbances, diminished intellectual capacity and alertness as a result of insufficient circulation to the brain, anxiety, and depression, to name a few.

Ginkgo Biloba Extract (24%) is concentrated from the leaves of the Ginkgo Biloba tree. The highly specialized extraction process yields a 50:1 concentrate from the leaves (50 grams of leaf produce 1 gram of extract). The extract is then further standardized to contain 24% of the active Ginkgo Flavoglycosides.

CHLORELLA

Chlorella is a nutritionally balanced whole food and contributes to the health and growth of human cells like no single vitamin or mineral possibly can.

Chlorella is extremely high in protein (60%) and contains more than 20 vitamins and minerals, 19 of the 22 essential and non-essential amino acids, enzymes and chlorella growth factor. It is one of the richest sources of RNA and DNA known and has twenty times as much chlorophyll as alfalfa, 10 times more than other edible algae including spirulina, and 10 times more than barley grass.

Chlorella is a natural vitality enhancer. The vitamins found in chlorella cells include: vitamin C, provitamin A, B-carotene, chlorophyll-A, chlorophyll-B, thiamine (B1), riboflavin (B2), pyridoxine (B6), niacin (B3), pantothenic acid, folic acid, vitamin B-12, biotin, choline, vitamin K, PABA, lipoic acid, inositol and para-aminobenzoic acid. The minerals include: phosphorus, potassium, iodine, magnesium, sulphur, iron, calcium, manganese, copper, zinc and cobalt.

The amino acids include: lysine, histidine, arginine, aspartic acid, threonine, serine, glutamic acid, proline, glycine, alanine, cystine, valine, methionine, isoleucine, leucine, tyrosine, phenylalanine, ornithine, tryptophan.

The suggested daily consumption is 3 grams per day.

ECHINACEA GOLD PLUS
(with American Ginseng)

In recent years few medicinal plants have garnered as much attention as Echinacea (Echinacea Purpurea and Echinacea Angustifolia).

Echinacea is a non-specific stimulant to the immune system. Claims for Echinacea include: stimulation of leukocytes, mild antibiotic activity, anti-inflammatory activity, stimulation of the adrenal cortex, stimulation of the properdin-complement system, interferon-like activity, stimulation of general cellular immunity, and antiviral activity. Internal preparations are said to assist in alleviating cold and flu symptoms, respiratory infections, and arthritis, to name a few.

Goldenseal (Hydrastis Canadensis) is among the most popular herbs in the American health food market. Uses are numerous, including but not limited to: antiseptic, hemostatic, diuretic, laxative, and tonic/anti-inflammatory for the mucous membranes, hemorrhoids, nasal congestion, mouth and gum sores and eye afflictions.

Few medicinal plants in the world possess Ginseng's near-legendary status. Dating back thousands of years, its history of use in the Orient records therapeutic properties so wide ranging that it was first dismissed by Western doctors as a "panacea". When fatigued, Ginseng reportedly restores both physical and mental functions to peak efficiency and, with regular use, improves resistance to disease and stress. American Ginseng's genus name is Panax Quinquefolius.

Over 40,000 species of mushrooms exist, many of which are used as medicines. Of particular note are such remedies as penicillin- and ergot-based extracts used in migraine treatment, to name a few. Extensive research has been done with one mushroom in particular, namely, Reishi. This mushroom is now considered a tried and true immune system fortifier.
