Judge Ito Not A Judge?

Nightmare For Dream Team

Wean Sues For Fraud And RICO

In a bold move by retired Police Detective Gary Wean, a major lawsuit was filed in KERN COUNTY on September 19 [case #229531] against defendants: California Governor Pete Wilson, Johnnie Cochran, Robert Shapiro, Lance Ito, and Does 1 through 700 inclusive, for conspiracy to commit fraud and to defraud; lack of judicial jurisdiction; illegally changing the California State Constitution and surreptitiously legislating an illegal election code statute without legislative jurisdiction; conspiracy to violate the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organization Act (RICO); violation of the Civil Rights Act; and violation of the Mail and Wire Fraud Act, to name a few of the 15 counts.

And what, possibly, you may ask, could Gary Wean's purpose be in filing such a suit? The answer is clear and simple: O.J. SIMPSON HAS A RIGHT TO RECEIVE A FAIR TRIAL—

AND IF O.J. DOES NOT RECEIVE A FAIR TRIAL THEN YOU OR I MAY BE NEXT!

Has anyone else noticed that Judge Ito has ruled against anything which would help the Defense? This is the very same tactic used several decades ago by Judge David Horowitz in the trial over the murder of Vicki Morgan and Marvin Pancoast—with many of the very same current players. As in

Judge Ito Not A Judge?

Vicki Morgan's case, Judge Horowitz simply ruled against anything that would help the Defense—a visible and predicable “modus operandi” of the Mishpucka-controlled injustice system in modern socialist AmeriKa.

With a simple one-line illegal alteration to the California State Constitution [done in 1974], Judges are allowed to sit on the bench BY APPOINTMENT. That one-line alteration appears as Exhibit B in the lawsuit, and in the Constitution is Section 16, Sec. B.—“Judges of other courts shall be elected in their counties or districts at general elections. The Legislature may provide that an unopposed incumbent's name not appear on the ballot.” How many of you knew such an alteration of the Constitution had occurred? It is in this way that many rights are simply usurped WHILE NO ONE NOTICES!

Further, if Judge Lance Ito was NOT elected to sit in the chair as presiding judge—then he is there fraudulently because Constitutionally speaking—judges are to be ELECTED TO OFFICE. And, based on Gary Wean's documentation, there appears to be more evidence supporting the contention that Ito is not a judge, than there is that O.J. Simpson is guilty.

Moreover: what is the source of the very “mysterious” trillion-dollar [according to Gary Wean] California judges' pension fund which no one seems to want to discuss?? Tangled webs, indeed!

But, you may ask yourself, if this lawsuit is true it could have VERY FAR REACHING CONSEQUENCES and certainly could shut down the O.J. Simpson trial completely! That's true. If what Wean says in the suit is true, then there are many judges, not just in California but across the nation, who are sitting in judge's chairs yet have NO RIGHT TO BE THERE AND ARE THERE ILLEGALLY. But, you may say, if all appointed judges are removed from the bench, it would create judicial chaos. NO, it simply means that LEGAL ELECTIONS WOULD NEED TO BE HELD TO PLACE LEGITIMATE JUDGES ON THOSE SEATS. And, frankly, the retrials for those illegally convicted by fraudulent judges would be A BOON TO LAWYERS AND THE LEGAL PROFESSION GENERALLY!

On September 21, Brent Moorhead and I [Rick Martin] accompanied Gary Wean to Los Angeles to witness the serving of legal documents to the “Dream Team”, by author and researcher, Dr. Robert L. Brock. Now that was an interesting experience—not the least because of the sheer degree of insulation surrounding access to these individuals. But insulated or not, Johnnie Cochran was successfully served papers which means that Mr. Cochran is now squarely on the HOT SEAT. Why? Because if Mr. Cochran has evidence which indicates that Judge Ito is not legally a judge and O.J. Simpson is convicted of murder—Mr. Cochran could, theoretically, lose his license.

Mr. Cochran is now in a position where the interests of O.J. Simpson must be placed FIRST. The obvious question is, will he?

Will Cochran file a writ or some other document in an effort to have Judge Ito removed from this case?

Will the “controlled media” pick up this story and tell the American public?

America and the world are watching the O.J. Simpson trial with its legal manipulation and gamesmanship—however childish at times. The circus trial of the century is indeed in full bloom.

This travesty of justice under the global magnifying glass holds the United States of America up for international ridicule. But then, we've been the laughing stock as “little Israel” for some time now, I guess.

The racial tensions, big surprise, are mounting in Los Angeles and across the nation. While in Los Angeles, the air hangs like a thick fog.

“THIS TRIAL IS NOT ABOUT RACE,” you'll hear some people shouting in a state of total denial. OF COURSE IT IS ABOUT RACE—IT HAS BEEN DESIGNED THAT WAY! “They” are trying to fan the flames of racial hatred, riots and revolution—THAT IS THE PLAN. Always has been, as CONTACT first informed you when we initially showed Gary Wean's scathing O.J. Simpson case documentation in our 9/6/94 issue.

Doesn't anyone else wonder why the entire world gets to hear the tapes of Detective Fuhrman ranting and raving against Blacks, EXCEPT THE JURY? These things are DESIGNED TO INFLAME AN ALREADY AGITATED SITUATION.

I suppose an elderly Black gentleman summed the sentiment best as we walked by, exiting the courthouse where the trial was taking place. “If Judge Ito rules O.J. Simpson guilty, I'm going to rap this cane right over his head!”

As the strategy to convict O.J. Simpson of murder wraps up and human emotions are whipped beyond endurance, will wisdom prevail while injustice is witnessed? Or will emotions rule, creating the necessary environment for fulfillment of the carefully laid plans of chaos and destruction? We shall see. We shall see.

What follows is the actual lawsuit filed by Gary Wean. —Rick Martin

12. From 16th American Jurisprudence Sec. 256, 177, 2nd Ed. the general rule is that an unconstitutional statute, though having the form and name of law, is in reality no law, but is wholly void and ineffective for any purpose; since unconstitutionality dates from the time of its enactment, and not merely from the date of the decision so branding it. An Unconstitutional law, in legal contemplation is as inoperative as if it had never passed. Such a statute leaves the question that it purports to settle just as it would be had the statute not been enacted:

13. For conspiracy to violate the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organization Act (RICO) as amended 18 U.S.C. 1961-1968; gangster infiltration of the California Judicial System:

7. Conspiracy to commit fraud and to defraud by using phony judges who do not have judicial jurisdiction to conduct hearings and trials and judgements and sanctions against the plaintiff:

8. In Chisom v Roemer, U.S. Supreme Court Case No. 90-757 the court decided on June 20, 1991 that judges are representatives of the people the same as prosecutors, sheriffs, state attorneys general and state treasurers and as such must be elected. "The word representative refers to someone who has prevailed in a popular election, where as the word candidate refers to someone who is seeking an office. Thus a candidate is nominated, not elected:"

9. In the U.S. District Court, Eastern District of Wisconsin Case No. 94-CR-140, United States of America v George L. Wilson et al., the court ruled that statutes enacted without Legislative Jurisdiction are unconstitutional:

10. Having not prevailed in a popular election and thus not being duly-elected to a judicial position Lance Ito is not a judge and cannot claim immunity as such:

11. The Election Code Statute was void (ab initio) from the very beginning, it cannot be used to except any judicial candidate from having his or her name placed on the ballot:

STAFF ANALYSIS: ACA 99 (SIEROTY) As Amended May 8, 1974
AB 3109 (SIEROTY) As Amended May 8, 1974

SUBJECT: De-masculinizes our State Constitution

SUMMARY: ACA 99 amends specified sections of our State Constitution to do the following:

1. Substitutes non-sex linked references in places where masculine references are made
2. Adds title of "Assemblywomen"
3. Substitutes "presiding officer" for "chairman"
4. Changes "material men" to "persons furnishing material"
5. Substitutes "workers' compensation" for workmen's compensation

Companion bill, AB 3109 amends various code sections to change "workmen's compensation" to "workers' compensation". Requires forms to reflect "workers' compensation when present supply is depleted.

BACKGROUND: Author left controversial Section 6 of Article IV unchanged so as not to reinstate the Reapportionment Commission.

Similar de-masculinizing amendments have been made in for Article I (Declaration of Rights) in ACA 60 (Meade).

BALLOT DEADLINE: June 8, 1974 for the November ballot, otherwise a companion bill is needed. Absolute deadline with companion bill is June 28.

COMMENTS:

1. Very few masculine references are made in our State Constitution. This ACA would probably make our State the first to have a Constitution free of sex-linked titles.
2. Page 3, line 39 of AB 3109 refers to "his use". Should this be amended?
3. Last week, the League of Women Voters gave men full membership, but rejected changing the name of the League. They also voted to retain "chairman" for all committee heads.

VERIFICATION

1. I, GARY L. WEAN, AM THE PLAINTIFF IN THE ABOVE ENTITLED ACTION. I HAVE READ THE FOREGOING AND KNOW THE CONTENTS THEREOF. THE SAME IS TRUE OF MY OWN KNOWLEDGE, EXCEPT AS TO THOSE MATTERS WHICH ARE ALLEGED THEREIN ON INFORMATION AND BELIEF AND AS TO THOSE MATTERS I BELIEVE IT TO BE TRUE. I DECLARE UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY THAT THE FOREGOING IS TRUE AND CORRECT AND THAT THIS DECLARATION WAS EXECUTED ON SEPTEMBER 18, 1995 AT CAVE JUNCTION, OREGON.

Twenty-first--That Section 15 of Article VI is amended to read:

Sec. 15. A person is ineligible to be a judge of a court of record unless for 5 years immediately preceding selection to a municipal court or 10 years immediately preceding selection to other courts, he has been a member of the State Bar or served as a judge of a court of record in this State. A judge eligible for municipal court service may be assigned by the ~~Chairman~~ of the Judicial Council to serve on any court.

Twenty-first--That Section 16 of Article VI

is amended to read:

Sec. 16. (a) Judges of the Supreme Court shall be elected at large and judges of courts of appeal shall be elected in their districts at general elections at the same time and places as the Governor. Their terms are 12 years beginning the Monday after January 1 following their election. Except that a judge elected to an unexpired term serves the remainder of the term. In creating a new court of appeal district or division the Legislature shall provide that the first elective terms are 4, 8, and 12 years.

(b) Judges of other courts shall be elected in their counties or districts at general elections. The Legislature may provide that an unopposed incumbent's name not appear on the ballot.

(c) Terms of judges of superior courts are 6 years beginning the Monday after January 1 following their election. A vacancy shall be filled by election to a full term at the next general election after the January 1 following the vacancy, but the Governor shall appoint a person to fill the vacancy temporarily until the elected judge's term begins.

(d) Within 30 days before August 16 preceding the expiration of his term a judge of the Supreme Court or a court of appeal may file a declaration of candidacy to succeed himself. If he does not, the Governor before September 15 shall nominate a candidate. At the next general election, only the candidate so declared or nominated may appear on the ballot, which shall present the question whether he shall be elected. If a majority of the votes on the question is in favor of the candidate, a candidate not elected may not be appointed to that court but later may be nominated and elected.

The Governor shall fill vacancies in those courts by appointment. An appointee holds office until the Monday after January 1 following the first general election at which he and the court to become a candidate or until an elected judge qualifies. A nomination or appointment by the Governor is effective when confirmed by the Commission on Judicial Appointments.

Elections of a county, by majority of those voting and in a manner the Legislature shall provide, may make this system of selection applicable to judges of superior courts.

ARTICLE VI. GENERAL PROVISIONS

The Public Debt

1. All debts contracted and engagements entered into, before the adoption of this Constitution, shall be as valid against the United States under this Constitution, as under the Confederation. See also Fourteenth Amendment, Section 4.

Supreme Law of the Land

2. This Constitution, and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof; and all treaties made, or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States, shall be the supreme law of the land; and the judges in every State shall be bound thereby, anything in the Constitution or laws of any State to the contrary notwithstanding.

Oath of Office--No Religious Test Required

3. The Senators and Representatives before mentioned, and the members of the several State Legislatures, and all executive and judicial officers, both of the United States and of the several States, shall be bound by oath or affirmation, to support this Constitution; but no religious test shall ever be required as a qualification to any office or public trust under the United States.

ARTICLE VII. RATIFICATION OF THE CONSTITUTION *

Ratification of Nine States Required

The ratification of the conventions of nine States, shall be sufficient for the establishment of this Constitution between the States so ratifying the same.

DONE in convention by the unanimous consent of the States present the seventeenth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, and of the Independence of the United States of America the twelfth. In witness whereof we have hereunto subscribed our names.

The Constitution was ratified by the States in the following order:

1. Delaware--December 7, 1787.
2. Pennsylvania--December 12, 1787.
3. New Jersey--December 18, 1787.
4. Georgia--January 2, 1788.

Citizenship

SECTION 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor deny to any person

ON WRITS OF HABEAS CORPUS TO THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE FIFTH CIRCUIT

Syllabus

No. 90-757. Argued April 23, 1991.—Decided June 20, 1991.
The Louisiana Supreme Court consists of seven members, two of whom are elected at-large from one multimember district, with the remainder elected from single-member districts. Petitioners in No. 90-757 represent a class of black registered voters in Orleans Parish, which is the largest of the four parishes in the multimember district and contains about half of the district's registered voters. Although more than one-half of Orleans Parish's registered voters are black, over three-fourths of the voters in the other three parishes are white. Petitioners filed an action in the District Court against respondents, the Governor and state officials, alleging that the method of electing justices from their district impermissibly dilutes minority voting strength in violation of, inter alia, § 2 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965. As amended in 1982, § 2(A) prohibits the imposition of a voting qualification or prerequisite or standard practice, or procedure that "results in a denial or abridgment of the right . . . to vote on account of race or color," and § 2(B) states that the test for determining the legality of such a practice is whether, "based on the totality of circumstances," minority voters "have less opportunity than other members of the electorate to participate in the political process and to elect representatives of their choice." (Emphases added.) The United States, petitioner in No. 90-1032, subsequently intervened to support petitioners' claims, and the District Court ultimately ruled against petitioners on the merits. However, the Court of Appeals finally remanded the case with directions to dismiss the complaint in light of its earlier en banc decision in League of United Latin American Citizens Council No. 1143 v. Clemente, 914 F.2d 420 (LULAC), that judicial elections are not covered under § 2 of the Act as amended. There, the court distinguished between claims involving the opportunity to participate in the political process and claims involving the opportunity to elect representatives of minority voters' choice, holding that § 2 applied to judicial elections with respect to claims in the first category, but that because judges are not "representatives," the use of that term excludes judicial elections from claims in the second category.

Held: Judicial elections are covered by § 2 as amended. (a) As originally enacted, § 2 was inoperative with the Fifteenth Amendment, and it is undisputed that it applied to judicial elections. The 1982 amendment expanded § 2's protection by adopting a results test, thus eliminating the requirement that proof of discriminatory intent be necessary to prove a § 2 violation, and by adding § 2(B), which provides guidance about how to apply that test. Had Congress also intended to exclude judicial elections, it would have made its intent explicit in the statute or identified or mentioned it in the amendment's unusually extensive legislative history. (b) The results test is applicable to all § 2 claims. The statutory text and this Court's cases foreclose LULAC's reading of § 2. If the word "representatives" placed a limit on § 2's coverage for judicial elections, it would exclude all claims involving such elections, for the statute requires that all claims must allege an abridgment of the opportunity both to participate in the political process and to elect representatives of one's choice. Thus, rather than creating two separate and distinct rights, the statute identifies two inextricably linked elements of a plaintiff's burden of proof. See, e.g., White v. Regester, 413 U.S. 756.

*Together with No. 90-1032, United States v. Roemer, Governor of Louisiana, et al., also on certiorari to the same court.

(c) The word "representatives" describes the winners of representative, popular elections, including elected judges. Although LULAC correctly noted that judges need not be elected, when they are, it seems both reasonable and realistic to characterize the winners as representatives of the districts in which they reside and run. The legislative history provides no support for the arguments that the term "representatives" includes only legislative and executive officials or that Congress would have chosen the word "candidates" had it intended to apply the vote dilution prohibition to judicial elections. (d) Adopting respondents' view of coverage would lead to the anomalous result that a State covered by § 2 of the Act would be precluded from implementing a new voting procedure having discriminatory effects with respect to judicial elections. Clark v. Roemer, 500 U.S. ___, but a similarly discriminatory system already in place could not be challenged under § 2. (e) That the one-person, one-vote rule is inapplicable to judicial elections, White v. Edwards, 409 U.S. 1065, does not mean that judicial elections are entirely immune from vote dilution claims. White rejected a constitutional claim and, thus, has no relevance to a correct interpretation of this statute, which was enacted to provide additional protection for voting rights not adequately protected by the Constitution itself. Cf. City of Rome v. United States, 446 U.S. 154, 172-183, 917 F.2d 137, reversed and remanded.

STEVENS, J., delivered the opinion of the Court, in which WHITE, MARSHALL, BLACKMON, O'CONNOR, and SOUTER, J., joined. SCALIA, J., filed a dissenting opinion, in which REHNQUIST, C. J., and KENNEDY, J., joined. KENNEDY, J., filed a dissenting opinion.

JUSTICE STEVENS delivered the opinion of the Court. The preamble to the Voting Rights Act of 1965 establishes that the central purpose of the Act is "to enforce the fifteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States." The Fifteenth Amendment provides:

"The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude." U. S. Const., Amend. 15, § 1.

In 1982, Congress amended § 2 of the Voting Rights Act to make clear that certain practices and procedures that result in the denial or abridgment of the right to vote are forbidden even though the absence of proof of discriminatory intent protects them from constitutional challenge. The question presented by this case is whether this "results test" protects the right to vote in state judicial elections. We hold that the coverage provided by the 1982 amendment is coextensive with the coverage provided by the Act prior to 1982 and that judicial elections are embraced within that coverage.

Petitioners in No. 90-757 represent a class of approximately 135,000 black registered voters in Orleans Parish, La. Pub. L. 89-110, 79 Stat. 437, 42 U. S. C. § 1973 et seq. (1964 ed., Supp. D).

Section 2 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended, now reads: "Sec. 2. (a) No voting qualification or prerequisite to voting or standard practice, or procedure shall be imposed or applied by any State or political subdivision in a manner which results in a denial or abridgment of the right of any citizen of the United States to vote on account of race or color, or in contravention of the guarantees set forth in section 4(c)(2), as provided in subsection (b). (b) A violation of subsection (a) is established if, based on the totality of circumstances, it is shown that the political processes leading to nomination or election in the State or political subdivision are not equally open to participation by members of a class of citizens protected by subsection (a) in that its members have less opportunity than other members of the electorate to participate in the political process and to elect representatives of their choice. The extent to which members of a protected class have been elected to office in the State or political subdivision in one circumstance indicates a right to have members of a protected class elected in numbers equal to their proportion in the population." 96 Stat. 134.

The "Supreme Law of the Land"

pursuant to Article VI., Section 1, Clause 2)

"THE SUPREME LAW OF THE LAND"

From 16th American Jurisprudence, Second Edition, Section 256:

The general rule is that an unconstitutional statute, though having the form and name of law, is in reality no law, but is wholly void and ineffective for any purpose; since unconstitutionality dates from the time of its enactment, and not merely from the date of the decision so branding it. An unconstitutional law, in legal contemplation, is as inoperative as if it had never passed. Such a statute leaves the question that it purports to settle just as it would be had the statute not been enacted.

Since an unconstitutional law is void, the general principals follow that it imposes no duties, confers no rights, creates no office, bestows no power or authority on anyone, affords no protection, and justifies no acts performed under it...

A void act cannot be legally consistent with a valid one. An unconstitutional law cannot operate to supersede any existing valid law. Indeed, insofar as a statute runs counter to the fundamental law of the land, it is superseded thereby.

No one is bound to obey an unconstitutional law and no courts are bound to enforce it.

resolved by crediting judges with total indifference to the popular will while simultaneously requiring them to run for elected office. When each of several members of a court must be a resident of a separate district, and must be elected by the voters of that district, it seems both reasonable and realistic to characterize the winners as representatives of that district. Indeed, at one time the Louisiana Bar Association characterized the members of the Louisiana Supreme Court as representatives for that reason: "Each justice and judge now in office shall be considered as a representative of the judicial district within which is situated the parish of his residence at the time of his election." Louisiana could, of course, exclude its judiciary from the coverage of the Voting Rights Act by changing to a system in which judges are appointed, and in that way, it could enable its judges to be indifferent to popular opinion. The reasons why Louisiana has chosen otherwise are precisely the reasons why it is appropriate for § 2, as well as § 5, of the Voting Rights Act to continue to apply to its judicial elections.

The close connection between § 2 and § 5 further undermines respondents' view that judicial elections should not be covered under § 2. Section 5 requires certain States to submit changes in their voting procedures to the District Court of the District of Columbia or to the Attorney General for preclearance. Section 5 uses language similar to that of § 2 in defining prohibited practices: "any voting qualification or prerequisite to voting, or standard, practice, or procedure with respect to voting." 42 U.S.C. § 1973c. This Court has already held that § 5 applies to judicial elections. Clark v. Roemer, 500 U.S. (1991). If § 2 did not apply to judicial elections, a State covered by § 5 would be precluded from implementing a new voting procedure having discriminatory effects with respect to judicial elections, whereas a similarly discriminatory system already in place could not be challenged under § 2. It is unlikely that Congress intended such an anomalous result.

VI

Finally, both respondents and the LULAC majority suggest that no judicially manageable standards for deciding vote dilution claims can be fashioned unless the standard is based on the one-person, one-vote principle. They reason

"Financing a campaign, soliciting votes, and attempting to establish a name identification are, at the very least, unseemly for judicial candidates" because "it is the business of judges to be indifferent to popularity." Savana, The Office of an Office, Chicago Bar Rec. 276, 280, 281 (1974).

Louisiana State Law Institute, Project of a Constitution for the State of Louisiana with Notes and Studies 1089 (1964) (1971 Report of the Louisiana Bar Association submitted to the Louisiana Constitutional Convention). The editors of the project explained that they included the 1921 Report because "on the major issues involved in revising the judicial provisions of the present constitution, it offers many proposals that even after the passage of thirty years, still merit serious consideration. Of particular interest are the procedures for the selection, retirement and removal of judges." Id., at 1083.

"The one-person, one-vote" principle was first set forth in Gray v. Sanders, 372 U.S. 383, 389, 391 (1963): "Once the constitutional unit for which a representative is to be chosen is determined, all who participate in the election are to have an equal vote - whatever their race, whatever their sex, whatever their occupation, whatever their income, and whatever their home may be in their geographical unit. This is required by the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment."

"The conception of political equality from the Declaration of Independence to Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, to the 19th century, Servant, was that each citizen should have an equal vote. Since then, the rule has been interpreted to mean that 'each person's vote should count equally, insofar as it is practicable, as any other person's.' See, e.g., Shaw v. Reno, 509 U.S. 630, 644 (1993)."

least, that Congress intended the amendment to cover more than legislative elections. Respondents argue, and the majority agreed, that the term "representatives" was used to extend § 2 coverage to executive officials, but not to judges. We think, however, that the better reading of the word "representatives" describes the winners of representative, popular elections. If executive officers, such as prosecutors, sheriffs, state attorneys general, and state treasurers, can be considered "representatives" simply because they are chosen by popular election, then the same reasoning should apply to elected judges.

Respondents suggest that if Congress had intended to have the statute's prohibition against vote dilution apply to the election of judges, it would have used the word "candidates" instead of "representatives." Brief for Respondents 20, and n. 9. But that confuses the ordinary meaning of the words. The word "representative" refers to someone who has been elected in a popular election, whereas the word "candidate" refers to someone who is seeking an office. Thus, a candidate is not elected. When Congress used "candidate" in other parts of the statute, it did so precisely because it was referring to people who were aspirants for an office. See, e.g., 42 U.S.C. § 1971(b) ("any candidate for the office of President"), § 1971(e) ("candidates for public office"), § 1973(c) ("any candidate for the office of President"), § 1973(e)(2) ("any candidate for the office of President"), § 1973(c) ("candidates for public or party office"), § 1973f-2 ("In the case of the offices of President and Vice President, a vote for a named candidate"), § 1974 ("candidates for the office of President"), § 1974a ("candidates for the office of President").

The LULAC majority was, of course, entirely correct in observing that "judges need not be elected at all." 914 F.2d at 622, and that ideally public opinion should be irrelevant to the judge's role because the judge is often called upon to disregard, or even to defy, popular sentiment. The Framers of the Constitution had a similar understanding of the judicial role, and as a consequence, they established that Article III judges would be appointed, rather than elected, and would be sheltered from public opinion by receiving life tenure and salary protection. Indeed, these views were generally shared by the States during the early years of the Republic. Louisiana, however, has chosen a different course. It has decided to elect its judges and to compel judicial candidates to vie for popular support just as other political candidates do. The fundamental tension between the ideal character of the judicial office and the real world of electoral politics cannot be arbitrary purpose or intent" and to "delimit(s) what legal standard should apply under the results test and clarify that it is not a mandate for proportional representation." Hearings on S. 83 et al. before the Subcommittee on the Constitution of the Senate Committee on the Judiciary, 97th Cong., 2d Sess., 40 (1982). Thus, the compromise was not intended to exclude any elections from the coverage of subsection (b), but simply to make clear that the results test does not require the proportional election of minority candidates in any election.

"Moreover, this Court has recently recognized that judges do exercise in policymaking at some level. See Grutter v. Bollinger, 539 U.S. (2003) (slip op., at ___). ("It may be sufficient that the appointee is in a position requiring the exercise of discretion concerning issues of public importance. This certainly describes the bench, regardless of whether judges might be considered policymakers in the same sense as the executive or legislative." A judge brings to his or her job of interpreting laws "a well-considered intellect & will to bear for the community." Id., at (slip op., at ___). As the concurrence notes, Justice Holmes and Justice Cardozo each wrote eloquently about the "quasi-judicial nature of the judicial function." Id., at ___ (slip op., at ___) (Warren, J., concurring in part, dissenting in part, and concurring in judgment).

The Hidden "Jewish" Tyranny: The Issue That Dwarfs All Other Issues

Editor's note: The following is excerpted from a highly confidential 1976 interview by Walter White of Western Front with Harold Wallace Rosenthal, a Jewish administrative assistant to Sen. Jacob K. Javits of New York. Although space constraints in this issue of CONTACT do not permit our printing the complete transcript of this incredibly brazen interview, we here present some excerpts supportive of Gary Wean's discussion of the O.J. Simpson case. For the entire interview, see Phoenix Journal #80, TRUTH FROM THE "ZOG BOG". See the Back Page for Journal ordering information.

[QUOTING:]

"It is a marvel that the American people do not rise up and drive every Jew out of this country."

MR. HAROLD WALLACE ROSENTHAL, [himself a Jew] made this statement after admitting the Jewish dominance in all significant national programs. He said, "We Jews continue to be amazed with the ease by which Christian Americans have fallen into our hands."

Asked how a nation could be captured without their knowing it, Mr. Rosenthal attributed this victory to absolute control of the media. He boasted of Jewish control of all news. Any newspaper which refused to acquiesce to controlled news was brought to its knees by withdrawing advertising.

Asked about men in high political office, Mr. Rosenthal said that no one in the last three decades has achieved any political power without Jewish approval. "Americans have not had a presidential choice since 1932."

Mr. Rosenthal was astoundingly candid on other topics, as well:

[U.S. foreign policy:] "It is Zionist-Communist policy from beginning to end. Yet the citizens think this Jewish policy will benefit America." The credulous nature of Americans drew only contempt from him. "We Jews have put issue upon issue to the American people. Then we promote both sides of the issue as confusion reigns. With their eyes fixed on the issues, they fail to see who is behind every scene. We Jews toy with the American public as a cat toys with a mouse."

[Anti-Semitism:] "Anti-Semitism does not signify opposition to Semitism. There is no such thing. It is an expression we Jews use effectively as a smearword—used to brand as a bigot goys like you—anyone who brings criticism against Jews. We use it against hate-mongers."

[The United Nations:] "The United Nations is nothing but a trap-door to the Red World's immense concentration camp. We pretty much control the U.N."

[The future of America:] "...in the foreseeable future there will be no Presidential power in the United States. The Invisible Government is taking strength in that direction...There will be a forced class-warfare here in the United States and many will be liquidated...It is an established rule to destroy all members of pre-existing government, their families and relatives, but NEVER JEWS."

[The "Jewish religion":] "We can live among other nations and states only as long as we succeed in persuading them that the Jews are not a distinct people, but are the representatives of a religious faith who, therefore, constitute a 'religious community', though this be of a peculiar character...This is the greatest of our falsehoods...We are obliged to conceal our own particular character and mode of life so that we will be allowed to continue our existence as a para-site among the nations."

[Money power as the tool for world conquest:] "Our power has been created through the manipulation of the national monetary system. The Federal Reserve System fitted our plan nicely since it is owned by us, but the name implies that it is a government institution. From the very outset, our purpose was to confiscate all the gold and silver, replacing them with worthless non-redeemable paper notes. This we have done!... Through this, we acquired total monopoly of the movie industry, the radio networks and the newly developing television media. The printing industry, newspapers, periodicals and technical journals had already fallen into our hands. The richest plum was later to come when we took over the publication OF ALL SCHOOL MATERIALS. Through these vehicles we could mold public opinion to suit our own purposes. The people are only stupid pigs who grunt and squeal the chants we give them, whether they be truth or lies."

[Jewish control over the "goy":] "We have castrated society through fear and intimidation. Being so neutered, the populace has become docile and easily ruled. We establish your thinking—we even place within you a 'guilt complex' making you afraid to criticize Jewry openly."

[Jew's control of religion:] "Religion, too, must be taught. With our control of the textbook industry and the news media, we have been able to hold ourselves up as the authorities on religion. Many of our rabbis now hold professorships in supposed Christian theological seminaries. Judaism is not only the teaching of the synagogue, but also the doctrine of every 'Christian Church' in America. Through our propaganda the Church has become OUR MOST AVID SUPPORTER. THIS HAS EVEN GIVEN US A SPECIAL PLACE IN SOCIETY, THEIR BELIEVING THE LIE THAT WE ARE THE 'CHOSEN PEOPLE' AND THEY, GENTILES...Through religion we have gained complete control of society, government and economics."

[Mr. Rosenthal sums up Jewish "philosophy", morality, and Talmudic teaching:] "Money is more important than morality. We can accomplish anything with money...Our teachings are not concerned with moral problems, but rather with how to 'get'...Since we do not believe in a life after death, all our efforts are directed to the 'now'. The idea of self-sacrifice is abhorred by Jews...No cause is worth dying for since death is the end. The only time we unite is to preserve our individual selves. As a group of wolves unite to attack a prey, but then disperse after each is filled, so we Jews unite when peril is pending, not to preserve our community but to save our own skin.

"This attitude permeates our entire being and philosophy. We are not the creators, for to create would only benefit another. We are the 'acquirers' and are interested only in satisfying the 'self'. To understand our philosophy would be to understand the term 'to get'. We never give but only take. We never labor but enjoy the fruits of others' labor. We do not create but confiscate. We are not the producers but the para-sites. We do not physically live within any society, but always remain spiritually apart."

[Soon after this interview, Harold Wallace Rosenthal, age 29, was killed in an alleged sky-jacking attempt on an Israeli airliner in Istanbul, Turkey, August 12, 1976. It would appear that Mr. Rosenthal might have talked too freely.] [END OF QUOTING]

Elite Controllers Again Fool Nearly All Of The People

With language smooth as satin, The Controllers' spin-doctors weave their tangled web with careful precision. From September 27 through October 1, The New Worlders are holding a "State of the World Forum" at the opulent Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco. The Forum is being sponsored by the Gorbachev Foundation/USA which is housed at the Presidio in San Francisco—home to the infamous Satanist, Michael Aquino. The Forum is a proverbial Who's Who among the world's Elite. These Controllers will effectively be snubbing their noses at the American public who would read the following description and say to themselves, "Hmmm, that sounds pretty good."

So easily fooled, the sheeple think not beyond the masterfully laid deception while the final nails are driven into freedom's coffin. Chaired by former Soviet President Mikhail Gorbachev, the Forum should more aptly be called, "Elite Controllers Fool All The People". In addition to printing the Forum's stated purpose, we are electing to print the list of participants, many of whom frequent such places as the Bohemian Grove or have appeared in the writings of Cathy O'Brien. Some appear in Dr. John Coleman's book CONSPIRATORS' HIERARCHY, THE STORY OF THE COMMITTEE OF 300.

One World Order? Read on, and please do so between the lines, because carefully woven therein is the description of what they have planned, in all of its evil. While these Elite meet and dine on white linen in the ivory tower of The Fairmont—the tablecloths should more aptly be red to match the blood that will surely run in the streets before the final curtain falls on this alleged New World Order pageant. — Rick Martin

"There are good reasons for suggesting that the modern age has ended. Many things indicate that we are going through a transitional period, when it seems that something is on the way out and something else is painfully being born. It is as if something were crumbling, decaying and exhausting itself, while something else, still indistinct, were arising from the rubble." —Václav Havel

MISSION

The State of the World Forum is the launching of a multi-year global initiative to focus on the fundamental challenges and opportunities confronting humanity as we enter the next phase of human development. It is being held in the belief that at this momentous juncture in history—between the ending of the Cold War and the dawn of the new century—we are experiencing the birth of the first global civilization.

The goal of the Forum is to articulate a clearer vision of new international priorities. Its product will be an on-going process to generate innovative approaches to the challenges facing human society.

This historic gathering will:

- * Analyze the current state of the world; and
- * Launch a multi-year process, culminating in the year 2000, to articulate the fundamental priorities, values and actions necessary to constructively shape our common future.

Ultimately, the State of the World Forum is an invitation. It is a call to individuals throughout the world to join in this dialogue and to work directly with the convening of committed individuals as an active member of an historic and timely global initiative.

PARTICIPANTS

Mikhail Gorbachev is the convening Chair and will be joined by Co-Chairs: President Askar Akaev, President Oscar Arias, Secretary James A. Baker, III, Prime Minister Tansu Çiller, Prime Minister Ruud Lubbers, Nobel Laureate Rigoberta Menchú Tum, Prime Minister Yasuhiro Nakasone, Secretary George Shultz, Mr. Maurice Strong, Mr. Ted Turner and Archbishop Desmond Tutu.

The initiative will bring together some of the most thoughtful individuals in the world representing senior statespeople, current political leaders, business executives, scientists, artists, intellectuals, spiritual leaders, community activists and youth. The format will be intimate and highly interactive: several hundred people from around the world working together in a consensus-building process over a four-day period.

tives, scientists, artists, intellectuals, spiritual leaders, community activists and youth. The format will be intimate and highly interactive: several hundred people from around the world working together in a consensus-building process over a four-day period.

At the center will be approximately 100 Fellows, chosen for their internationally recognized contributions to designing our emerging global civilization. Working directly with the fellows will be other participants, comprised principally of senior executives from around the world who are actively committed to fulfilling this mission.

THE PROCESS

The Forum addresses themes relevant to today's complex and interdependent world. Within these themes are a series of specific policy and issue initiatives, each designed as the beginning of a multi-year focus on some of our most challenging problems and exciting new opportunities. These initiatives, organized as working roundtables, will serve as catalysts to propose and address specific solutions and actions within an issue area; and ultimately, assist the Forum process as a whole reach consensus on the larger vision.

THE CONTEXT

The State of the World Forum is being convened to focus attention on the critical issue of humanity's immediate common future. Priorities set and actions taken now will define the shape and substance of the next phase of human development. During and after both World War I and II, the world reflected on the momentous changes brought about by these watershed events and took active steps to bring the international community in line with post-war realities. These processes led in the aftermath of WWI to the articulation of Wilsonian democracy, the Treaty of Versailles, and the creation of the League of Nations. The Treaty of Versailles failed because it was predicated on the concept of total defeat; the League of Nations collapsed because it extended too much power to individual states.

During WWII, the political leadership of the Allies realized that total defeat must give way to assisting the vanquished, resulting in the establishment of the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development and the Marshall Plan. It also became clear that national sovereignty must be balanced by international cooperation, resulting in the creation of the United Nations.

Because of conscious reflection following these watershed events, the world experienced movement and development.

Little such reflection has occurred in the aftermath of the Cold War. As a result, the world appears to have entered an era of increased instability, with most nations drifting reactively from event to event. Little leadership is demonstrated because little vision is held.

The State of the World Forum will consider those principles which should govern the next phase of human development. In the immediate past, security was based upon "mutually assured destruction". Little attention was given to the value of achieving sustainable social, economic and ecological systems.

There is now an historic opportunity to set new goals and reorder existing priorities. This requires careful attention to where we are and where we want to go. For the first time in human history, what and how we decide affects everyone everywhere.

Participants to the Forum have been chosen to assist in both our reflective function and in the proposing of positive solutions. The statespeople who were instrumental in ending the Cold War established for the first time in modern history the possibility of a global peace. In new ways, therefore, our political leaders are challenged to provide the framework for stability and regulated human interactions; our moral leaders to give expression to the eternal values which have always guided humanity; the business community to provide for the investment and management necessary for continued prosperity; scientists to continue technological advancement and the meeting of basic human needs; artists to give metaphorical expression to our dreams and our tragedies; community leaders to press for non-ideological and pragmatic solutions to local needs; our youth to demand that the future be better than the past; and intellectuals to offer penetrating insight concerning humanity's progress toward shared goals.

Only the creative interaction of these groups, rather than the supremacy of one group over the other, will allow the answers we all seek to emerge and guide us as we shape the next phase of human development.

A Monetary Chess Game With Disappearing Pieces

9/18/95 #1 HATONN

EACH DAY NEW CLUES

Each day brings the clues which will tell you the order of the tale in progression. It will also tell you why some things are stalled out on the monetary front. IF, for instance, the debts to ME (and to Mr. Jackson) can be postponed in finalizing, there will be the currency change-out (the new money) and the assumption is that there will be no need to "pay" debts. The nations, such as the U.S.A., will have been appropriately FORECLOSED and, for all practical purposes, the government will be a dead organism.

I get argument over this but you had best look at the string of events. The new currency $100 bill has been INTRODUCED IN MOSCOW, RUSSIA. Also, recently, the Treasury debt was NOT issued in dollars—but in a foreign currency. The Treasury (federal agency) was forced to issue bonds in German MARKS (a FOREIGN CURRENCY). What will all this mean to such as big business? Well, it means that these Big Boys can expatriate their wealth and KEEP their citizenship. It means that although there may be a picture of Benjamin Franklin on the New and prettier $100 bill, for instance, it will be a One World Currency and your old dollars will be as worthless as Confederate paper. For a while, of course, the tale will be that the "old" currency from the U.S. will be valid right along with the "new". By introducing this elsewhere you nice people won't pay much attention until wham-bam it is over and you are caught with your dollars down (or hidden away).

Remember that last year, September, I told you that your nation (the U.S.) had joined fully the World Central Bank? It was a SECRET maneuver and nobody noticed because that bank was and is called the BIZ or "Bietz" Bank. It is the Bank of International Settlements in Basel, Switzerland.

The EXCUSE now, of course, is that the membership of the FED was triggered by the request of the "New World Order" to help finance the Mexican economy with an additional $10 billion of loans by the Bietz Bank. This also represents the full surrender of American sovereignty. The first full function of U.S. membership was the $10 billion to Mexico, which can never be paid back (BY DESIGN)—so everything is right on schedule. The dollar is in serious trouble and will take the same beating as has the Mexican Peso. Your insane "market" manipulators simply are feeding you the bait and, surely enough, you are eating it.

WHERE HAS ALL THE METAL GONE?

Are you aware that silver stocks have been secretly REMOVED from domestic physical warehouses? This includes those registered with the Comex division of the New York Mercantile Exchange. Something very, very important is happening with precious metals, but WHO is doing this? Those who know are in the mode of "silent running" and the reporters are warned not to ask the "W" questions (Who, Why, What, etc.).

Remember that earlier in this very year, stock piles of the metal fell very sharply which resulted in a rise in silver to the $6.20 per ounce level. Four months later European stock piles are being also drawn down and no one will say why or who is purchasing this metal. Stocks of silver in London are at the zero level, and stocks in Zurich are awfully low also. The manipulators are unknown.

HOW IS THIS HANDLED?

It has been quite easy, as producers lease silver and gold from warehouses, liquidate it and pay the loan back with their own production. This is a cheap way to borrow money. But now, instead of paying 1% per annum to borrow silver, the rental rate has reached over 8% with no one willing to lend! This is causing consternation as no one knows WHERE all the silver is going. We are, at this moment, dealing only with silver. Gold is handled differently for the most part but you can lump all the precious metals into the same general plan afoot.

You have to combine all these actions, i.e., introduction of new currency to the Soviets and a sale of Treasury debt that is totally disastrous and you can be SURE the CRISIS IS COMING DOWN THE PIKE AS WE WRITE.

GOLD

The gold market is in worse manipulation. The price of gold is pushed down and kept down by the Central Bank liquidations which are taking place regularly, about every alternate week, which pushes the price down and you will note recently that it has been hovering from about $390 to mid $380s over and over again. There will be a signal given, readers, and the liquidation of Gold will STOP—and that price will rocket upward. KNOW that the New World Order will take as few people on the next upward ride in price as is humanly possible. I can only suggest you not bite on the game plan—hold your metals if you can do so. But be prepared to have them changed out as confiscations take place. REMEMBER THAT THE GAME IS TO GET ALL PROPERTY AND CONTROL ALL ASSETS AND PEOPLE. Also keep in mind that you will be traded out, as before, with some kind of currency as gold is confiscated. This currency will become basically worthless.

I am NOT A FINANCIAL ADVISER and I do not act as fortune-teller. I can point out what is happening—you may have missed it—but opportunities are getting very limited.

I would warn all you readers who might well be considering lending money to the Institute that you be very careful, for the gamesmen are at it with the substitute CORPORATIONS. The paper (CONTACT) SUBSCRIPTIONS are being diverted to a copy-press and hapless ignorant ones are making it possible right from Tehachapi, although the game is played in Nevada and places north. Also a similarly structured program with gold purchase to cover loans as collateral has now been almost structured. This was tried prior to this but the Elite didn't bite when Mr. Green tried to do this while he was still in Nevada. The LAW and FEDS are after the culprits and the staff of CONTACT are making arrangements to close the loop as directed by the FBIA.

While Mr. Green feigns innocence and sends his documents—he is setting up a plan to royally shear you sheep—and BLAME his old ignorant friends. He thought up the plan he now calls a "Ponzi scam" and he is not about to let you off the program. He has receivers for your gold in Puerto Rico and Costa Rica, ready, willing and able for the diversion.

I ask that this portion, at the least, of this document be forwarded immediately TO RONN JACKSON. It will not only help him realize WHAT IS AFOOT but might well clear up some of the problems encountered here. When you have someone [George Green] who is a "claimed" old buddy to one as powerful as Paul Volcker—you have a problem in getting things done with the NEW buddies in the court. Indeed WE placed the bait and the rats are eating—but this bait is poisoned and they are going to have a severe tummy ache. Nobody lives long who crosses the Committee and I would think that would disturb some of those nit-wits. I suggest that Mr. Jackson take his trump cards to the table NOW and get something done!

We are not interested in great piles of gold and silver—we just want some funding which can be converted immediately into some rather lowly projects for our remnant people scattered about the globe.

CAN YOU HAVE A NEW REPUBLIC?

Yes, if it is out of the way and does not compete with the dying dragon in Washington D.C.! In fact, you will need some ORDER within the CHAOS OF ANARCHY WHICH IS BEING LOOSED ON YOU NOW! And, I repeat something VERY IMPORTANT: I offer information regarding the how-to of a New Republic. I will work with you—I have no interest or intention of heading up, running or structuring such an entity. I am NOT on ANY committee of any kind and have no intentions of ever being such. Mr. Jackson is on his own with his promises and follow-through, for my agreements are with those "above" his level of decision-making. He is the conduit through which the agreements are to be kept and every day that passes without fulfillment of those promises is indeed harsh and damaging to his credibility. I do suggest to those controllers and handlers—that they either handle it through the appointed resource—OR GET IT DONE SOME WAY—QUICKLY. I WILL NOT LIKE IT, HOWEVER, IF IT IS DIVERTED, BY A FARTHING, TO THE "TAKERS". I SUGGEST I VERY QUICKLY NEVER HAVE TO EVEN HEAR THE NAME GEORGE GREEN AGAIN!!!! I FURTHER SUGGEST THAT ALL OF OUR PROPERTY BE RETURNED IN FULL AND THAT YOU WHO ARE CARING FOR THE BUSINESS OF THE INSTITUTE BE MOST DILIGENT IN YOUR CERTAINTY THAT THOSE COPY-CAT ORGANIZATIONS NOT CLAIM ANYTHING. This same plan was worked ON GRANDMA'S program in order to get her Gold Certificates and valid papers—along with the corporation—RIGHT IN NEVADA. How far do you think the government hoods and criminals would go to bypass the business of God's Hosts? George Green even CLAIMS he has the copy"write" (sic) to SIPAPU ODYSSEY. Well, perhaps we should hang him for the PROJECT SIPAPU AS WELL? That was THE project label of the first HYDROGEN BOMB THAT BLEW AWAY ENIWETOK. "Sipapu" refers to the Hopi "sipapuni" which represents the WOMB, the place of emergence from the preceding world. To go back through the "sipapuni" is indeed an interesting concept which WE GAVE TO DHARMA for the story—

NOT TO GEORGE GREEN UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES WHATSOEVER—NO TIME AND NO WAY!

We are told that Mr. Jackson is actually working with the FBI and Mr. Green. I seriously doubt that any sane man would do such a thing. And NO, we have EEN NOTHING, NOTHING, NOTHING of return of money from ANY claims which were supposed to fund in September (this).

Father Ed even rumored that the FBI was going to arrest Ekkers week-before-last as a final thrust. And now he speaks ill of us all. I wonder from where he got such information? I find it interesting that ones sit and listen to me and claim to honor me and then confuse me with my writer. Do you actually THINK THAT I DON'T KNOW? First these same ones claim we are CIA and then that the FBI is going to arrest the people here. Are you nuts, or does it simply continue to appear that way? Do you think that your CONTACTS aren't telling everything you share with them?? You are betrayed by the very ones you think you serve, Father Ed, Mike, etc. YOU ARE THE SET-UP ONES, NOT ME! YOU GO ON AND THREATEN THAT IF YOU ARE "TRIED" TO BE REMOVED FROM THE BOARD YOU WILL "FIX THEM"??? The recent happenings of closing down the farming of the farm—has NOTHING to do with the Institute. It is a failure of return on the loans for which the other corporations have to now honor—without income benefit. Why would anyone want either you or Mr. Rod OFF THE BOARD OF THE INSTITUTE? Mr. "Rod" said things were "just getting interesting". I guess so, but he doesn't seem to know WHO and WHAT, exactly, are the interesting game players.

First, ones must KNOW that there is nothing here except business and my work. We have no groups but some of you still claim cult status by your very actions and failures to enter into the community around you as you cling to the ones who simply are doing their job of protecting your very interests. I find it interesting that ones of you who have OBJECTED most strongly to recent confrontations—NOW COME TO THESE VERY ONES TO GET ASSETS TO FURTHER THE LOST INVESTMENTS—WHILE THE ONES IN POINT WON'T EVEN SPEAK TO THE ONES FROM WHOM YOU SEEK REWARD FOR THEM. If you are so all-fired willing to pour more of SOMEONE ELSE'S ASSETS into "family"—why would you not use your own??? I have no family who responds to necessity in the manner followed here or anywhere. Are you suggesting a corporate loan from the Institute or what? First you claim Ekker mis-manages and then you ask him to further mismanage—"but this is different"? How so is it different? Who is going to guarantee the future needs? I suggest to Mr. Ekker that he be very careful about putting his foot into this pile of you-know-what for the ones who are going to "fix you"!! With friends like we have accumulated—we should have worked with our enemies.

WELFARE

Notice, readers, that the Welfare system is in closure! Even in Los Angeles where the "gang" populations are the largest—the health agencies are shutting down in great numbers (5-6,000) layoffs last Friday! Your cities, counties, states and nation are BANKRUPT. What do you NOT understand? I would NOT bet on welfare checks to fund anything—a job is all that will save your bacon and how many places are left in which to work? It would seem to me that ones would be looking for a place where growing and preparing can be available along with security of your ACTUAL families. Waiting for the gold that never comes is a frail reed upon which to base long-term plans (or short-term for that matter). How many of you have already spent money which was promised but has never come? I see!! By the way, for you around who think the corporations here are simply paper chase games—WRONG! WRONG!! WRONG!!! Furthermore, ANYONES who treat them as such—are FOOLS.

And by the way, do not give me the old "but these are your children." NO, they are your individual children and YOU promised GOD to attend them properly, care for them, teach them truth and honor in all ways—and guide them safely to their missions. They were released into your CARE and nurturing—and the responsibility is upon the parents who made them through your physical actions. MY JOB IS ASSIGNED BY THAT SAME GOD—WHO PLACES ME IN AVAILABILITY TO ATTEND THEIR SOULS—WHEN ALLOWED TO DO SO BY THOSE PHYSICAL PARENTS! The old "but I gave them to God" doesn't sell either for you cannot give a souled being to anyone for anything. God entrusted His souls into your care—what have YOU DONE TO TAKE THAT RESPONSIB-

BILITY?

YOU have reached the "time" in evolvment—to consider head-on these things, and YOU WILL face them. Wives will decide what to do if husbands play games, and husbands will make decisions likewise. The children are "caught" in the net—but they are the actual measure of responsibility of those in adult control—called parents.

Tehachapi is a strange and interesting PLACE. I suggest that you who would "show them" or "fix them" are working a game of entrapment. I don't play in "sting" operations and I expect my people who have any sense left at all—to not fall into the traps being laid forth to "catchya". You may think you are waiting for El Dorado—but you are hooked onto the strings of the Puppet Masters. Salu.

Adult Decisions & Latest O.J. Confirmations

9/20/95 #1 HATONN

IT HAPPENS EVERY DAY

Each day "happens" and brings with it the needs which come from not only your own journey—but from the journey of others who overlap your own.

What do I mean? Well, Dharma got up early to write because things are coming together in the Simpson trial which have only just evolved and I ask her to watch ALL. But—there is bread to be tarted because the realization came to confront that all was gone in the baked form; a very important guest is in town with major changes which can be made in the judicial system; a "friend" resigned all assistance to the "cause" of CONTACT because the articles are too crude and revealing as to, specifically, Cathy O'Brien [see pgs. 12-15 in the 9/12/95 CONTACT] (Dharma had been totally repulsed by the writing also) and Bam, Bam the day was "behind" before the beginning. We are accused of printing pornography? No, readers, the lives of YOUR LEADERS ARE PORNOGRAPHIC!!! We are caught up sharply because the assumption is that the paper is somehow a spiritual beacon unto the Angelic Hosts and near-saints of God. No, the "near-saintly" of God do not need our information! Ponder it.

Another suggestion is that, in this instance, an eight-year-old child is at stake and subject to CONTACT'S pornographic writings—that all reading material entering that home is encouraged in the reading by that child. Sorry, friends, if a parent cannot guide a child's reading—how can you possibly blame the paper which does nothing save lay there upon the table. In addition, the subject material includes a child hardly older than the eight-year-old being molested and abused by PRESIDENTS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA! Again, "kill the messengers" and leave the truth in its ugliest form hidden behind "nice" and saintly garb.

Do we blame and outcast such opinion? NO! Every opinion is welcomed and everyone must learn to be tolerant; he should have an understanding heart and a forgiving nature, knowing that all men stumble now and then, and that he who never made a mistake never accomplished anything. Why should YOU escape the discomfort and embarrassment of TRUTH so that you are not "embarrassed"? That is the presumption that has allowed the heinous and beastly acts to continue on and on and on and on! It is fine that you take a stand; it is good that you are alive enough to take a stand. Threats and shoutings are to be considered, but that sort of tyranny is exactly that—you who claim friendship, tyranny and intended manipulation.

The writers and editors, whether it appears so or not—DID EDIT THAT PIECE. NOW, WHAT MIGHT YOU THINK IS IN THAT WHICH IS EDITED OUT AND NOT PRINTED BECAUSE IT WAS TOO TERRIBLE TO PRINT? If we lose readers over one article, then it is YOUR loss, not ours. Out of over 52 issues a year of anywhere from 32 pages to over 90 and you find one you can't stomach—to cease your information flow is hiding from truth and your own eight-year-old child will not have opportunity for a better world—for you choose ignorance. To use a child for an excuse behind which to hide—adult—is not worthy of meriting consideration of maturity. A child's reading material and that which enters a home MUST BE MONITORED. Who would a child trust if not her PRESIDENT and her POLICE? Do you train your own children to go directly into the dens of the dragon—to save YOUR sensitivity?

I suggest we all look at the paper most carefully. It is a PUBLIC voice—not a censored piece of garbage to sell to the saints. If the saints can't withstand truth—how can the people?

GOD HAS TO FACE THIS HORROR EVERY MOMENT OF EVERY DAY AND YOU CLAIM TO BE GODLY—BUT YOU WANT TO FACE NOTHING! IS IT NOT TIME YOU FACE WHAT GOD FACES MOMENT BY INCREDIBLE MOMENT AND DO SOMETHING ABOUT WHAT YOU HAVE BROUGHT UPON HIS PEOPLE AND HIS LANDS? Responses of such outbursts and continued building of pressure indicate that some pretty awful things are hidden in YOUR past, dear child, and to you it is as terrible as anything Cathy might have endured, even if it was tiny in comparison, for what happens to "you" is the measure of damage and pain.

O.J. SIMPSON

As the farce moves into its near final show and tell—I remind you of several things of which CON-TACT can be quite proud of its work, investigations and presentations.

Why was the lead defense attorney, Johnnie Cochran, in Florida instead of in court in L.A. on one of the most important days of Simpson's trial last week? Perhaps I might point out that we have told you WHO murdered Nicole and Goldman. We told you who was behind the murders and we told you it was completely wrapped up in political manipulation, desire to incite riot, racism and plain old "Mafia-type" CRIME. Why O.J.? Well, he is the perfect showpiece—ISN'T HE?

We had a silent "informer" send information through several other "informers" until we don't have identity of the FIRST, but we do have the first handwritten information note still before us. You will note that we have to spell names according to the way they "sound" because we are dealing with both oriental origins AND Italian-type crime figures. We received this information in May (May 1, 1995) and passed it immediately to every member of the defense team, the prosecution, the media AND Gerry Spence, Rosie Greer, Attny. Grimes, Larry King, and, and, and.... We also told about the set-ups in both the higher political arena, the police AND the FBI. We offered, over and over again, the INVESTIGATIVE REPORTS OF GARY WEAN and sent them to every Tom, Dick and Harry available anywhere—AND YOU CAN NOW SEE THEY ARE TRUTH. You have just had a dose of hidden courtroom work wherein the witnesses (Fiatto[s] [spelled by sound]) (Crime figures) came in to testify. They are in the witness protection program? No, they are simply part of THE operation! At any rate, did anyone notice that ALL methods of recording, audio and pictorial, (even sketch artists) were tossed OUT OF THE ROOM? Worse, when Ito swore in the first Fiatto brother, HE HAD FORGOTTEN TO BRING IN THE JURY!

Ah, but what has happened? What has happened is that Nicole's MOUTH (sister, Denise) has had a "relationship" with one of those "nice" brothers? What is going on here? Or, perhaps better, what is coming OFF here? Is O.J. a SAINT? Goodness NO, why do you think they set HIM up? He WILL BE after all this is over!

I suggest everyone go read Gary Wean's writing AGAIN! Then keep this message in mind from May 1, 1995: "Ippolito got out of jail two weeks before the Simpson murders (he is supposed to have escaped!). The week before the murders Ippolito was with Paduano who is the owner of a 'night club', Fat Body Paduano. O.J. Simpson was the financier for Fat Body Paduano's and Paduano himself." O.J.'s "Paula" was sent to Florida where she could have bodyguards and protection when it became obvious the POLICE were a real hazard to her California health. The source of the "ring of operations" is out of Florida and the "opposition" or COMPETITION is out of San Luis Obispo County, Calif. and Los Angeles.

"Paduano's son Anthony was BEST FRIENDS with Ronald Goldman and both had been on the TV show, STUDS."

The message says that "Ippolito had Nicole and Goldman killed, thus eliminating Paduano's son's best friend and Puduano's financier's wife," effectively setting the circumstances for the most hidden under-world war of all time and setting the stage for the worst race riots ever known. This WHOLE thing is THE STABBINGS HEARD 'ROUND THE WORLD!!

"Sino Salvatori Sighisio WAS THE ACTUAL HIT MAN!" [The spelling of the name may be off just a tad as the "g" may be a "z" in the Sir-name and the "S" may be a "G" in the "Christian" or first name.]

Now let us turn to other happenings of, for instance, Ito, Cochran, Shapiro, etc.—including Governor Pete Wilson.

UNCONSTITUTIONAL AND ILLEGAL FOOTWORK IN THE JUDICIAL MESS

There is unlawful footwork which has been going on in the judicial quarters for a very long time, aided and abetted by the political SYSTEM. You have to understand that a JUDGE must be elected. To be elected he must be on a ballot where he can get "votes". Simple? No, if you have an incumbent who is not opposed, his tenure is assured by a hidden agenda "rule" that keeps him from even having to be on the ballot. So, NO ONE counters the judges and therefore there is no election. So, 99.9% of your "elected" judges ARE NOT. They are never more than "CANDIDATES" "for" election. You have the smoothest criminal system, for getting all judges of municipal and superior court systems ONTO THE BENCH, ever schemed by political criminals. ITO IS NOT EVEN A JUDGE—SO HOW CAN HE QUALIFY FOR THE BENCH AND THEREFORE BE THE PRESIDING JUDGE OVER THE O.J. SIMPSON MATTER?

Readers, JUST BECAUSE A THING "IS" DOES NOT MAKE IT EITHER LEGAL OR RIGHT.

On Thursday (tomorrow) a filed case summons will be personally served upon Ito, Wilson, Cochran, Shapiro and "Does" one through 700 inclusive. The papers have been filed in Kern County, California and the summons issued.

THIS IS CASE NO. 229531 ENDORSED AND FILED SEPT. 19, 1995 at 2:33 P.M., TERRY HONALLY, CLERK, KERN COUNTY, CALIF. (IN BAKERSFIELD). No, sorry, but no one involved here is involved with this AT all. Although I think Mr.

Martin and Mr. Moorhead might enjoy watching the service of this document to, at the least, Johnnie Cochran as it is planned to be served, as I am informed, by a very important person by the name of Brock, right out of Washington D.C. on the steps of the Court building in L.A. Yes indeed, Gary Wean plans to be there, also, to witness this historic incident.

It is fully expected that the documents filed will be BURIED so we are offering this information IN ADVANCE so that it is expected and will not be so easy to toss and shred. [see pgs. 1-10.]

Since it was KNOWN that it would be "buried" in L.A. County, the case is filed in Kern County because of jurisdiction coverage. It is, however, known to all Californians that Kern County is the most CORRUPT county in California—possibly second only to the political throne of corruption, San Luis Obispo County.

The political state of affairs is in upheaval today as this was filed yesterday. The reign of terror is at work along with the line of criminal cover-ups. The causes of action seem quite interesting and politically "correct" so what is the big deal? And, fall of a political structure!! Will it "fly"? No—but it is a START if YOU will get behind the brave parties involved. This will make every case heard—unconstitutionally managed. This is not just true of California—this is everywhere! WHO would DARE to run in an election AGAINST JUDGE LANCE ITO? You think about it a while.

I need to close this briefly as it is court time and I want Dharma to watch everything until this case closes, so we will take this from the computer (where it has been tapped off and already in the "works" by the Elite). I thank you in the surveillance crew for your rapid movements in this instance. It also is not effective to bother our people—it would only make SURE this case WORKS! Good luck, Americans!

GULF WAR SYNDROME UPDATE: DEADLINE CONSIDERED

Here's an update to Rick's four-part series on the Gulf War Syndrome, which appeared in CONTACT in the August 22 through September 12 issues. This article is taken from the September 18 issue of ARMY TIMES, [quoting:]

WASHINGTON—For the first time, Persian Gulf veterans would face a deadline for declaring they are sick if they want the government to give them priority care at veterans hospitals, under a bill making its way through Congress. The proposed restriction, approved Sept. 7 by the House Veterans Affairs subcommittee on hospitals and health care, drew the ire of Gulf War veteran advocates on Capitol Hill. They predicted it would lead to a repeat of the lengthy delays in the treatment and compensation experienced by Vietnam veterans who became ill after being exposed to the herbicide Agent Orange. ["Priority care at veterans hospitals" sounds more ominous than curative.]

VET WINS MEDICAL RETIREMENT

WASHINGTON—Fewer than a dozen soldiers were on hand at a Sept. 6 hearing as Sgt. George C. Vaughan described his ailments to a physical evaluation board in the Eisenhower suite at Walter Reed Army Medical Center. But thousands of others awaited the outcome. Vaughan, 33, was medically retired from the Army that day because of injuries he suffered four years earlier during Operation Desert Storm. This decision overrode one by another board that found he was suffering only from depression.

Last year Vaughan was one of the first Gulf War veterans to go public about debilitating ailments he and others attribute to service in the Persian Gulf. Since then, his story has been at the core of the controversy centering on the complaints of thousands of veterans of the conflict.

Board members said it wasn't an easy case. When a soldier is medically discharged from the Army, a physical evaluation board must determine the diagnosed illness, which prevents the soldier from performing his or her duties, then rate its degree. This rating determines the level of medical benefits to which the soldier is entitled. "But we didn't have any diagnosis," said Col. William L. Carr, who presided over Vaughan's appeal. "All we had were undiagnosed symptoms, so we had to march down each one. This is the first case we've had to approach like that."

Gulf War Syndrome symptoms include headaches, nausea, intermittent diarrhea and constant fatigue. But after four years, scientists and doctors still don't know why thousands of soldiers who served in the gulf are getting sick. [CONTACT readers have a pretty good idea, though.] Some of the possible causes that have been suggested include biological and chemical warfare agents; treatments given to soldiers in preparation for chemical warfare; leishmaniasis, a parasitic disease caused by sand fleas; petroleum vapors, solvents and combustion products.

COOPERATIVE NUGGET 95

The next article describes what went on during Cooperative Nugget 95—the multinational military exercises that took place this summer here in the U.S. From September issue of THE PRESENT TRUTH MINISTRY (PO Box 437, Uniontown, AR 72955), [quoting:]

According to the press release, some of the military exercises included:

- * How to occupy and operate a checkpoint.
- * Search a building, vehicle and person.
- * Establish and supervise traffic control points.

- * Short range small arms and various explosives.
- * Encountering hostile civilians and refusing to distribute food.
- * Multinational soldiers learn about "Interoperability" for "peacekeeping" and humanitarian relief.

Some of the training is done in "mock villages" and neighborhoods with American-designed homes. The disturbing thing is, they are preparing for a threat that does not yet exist. Do we have food shortages? Is there martial law, national gun confiscation, or riots in the cities? No, not today. So the question is, are the conspirators planning to create problems in America and then be prepared with the "solution?"

This most recent military exercise with foreign troops is an important part of the conspirators' scheme of ushering America into the New World Order. The so-called "Anti-Terrorism Bill", which has already passed the House, has a section to increase the time allowed for foreign troops to remain on U.S. soil from the previous 30 days to six months. (H.R. 896/S.390; Title VII: Antiterrorism Assistance, Section 702)

SOLDIER SAYS "NO" TO U.N.

The article is from the September 4-10 issue of THE WASHINGTON TIMES, NATIONAL WEEKLY EDITION, [quoting:]

A U.S. Army medic in Germany has told superiors he opposes wearing the uniform of the United Nations as part of a peacekeeping task force because, "I swore allegiance to my country, not the U.N." [Bravo!] Spc. Michael New could face discharge if he refuses a direct order to wear the U.N. beret and insignias when he and 550 other members of the 3rd Infantry Division are scheduled to leave in late October for Macedonia, the southernmost component of the former Yugoslavia. The soldier is the first armed services member known to have officially notified his chain of command that he is opposed to serving under U.N. control. But Spc. New said there are silent dissenters. "We're patriots and we love our country and I joined to wear the United States uniform to stand for my country," he said. "Others feel the same way. But they don't want to voice it."

For now, Spc. New is not subject to disciplinary action because he has only voiced opposition. The pivotal moment will come when he is ordered to wear the U.N. uniform and join his colleagues deploying to Macedonia to relieve 550 American troops.

BUILDING A CASHLESS SOCIETY

From the September 18 issue of USA TODAY, [quoting:]

OMAHA—Amid cow pastures, cornfields and a crop of offices stands the Fort Knox of the cashless society. Rising above the Nebraska prairie, this massive building is meant to be unremarkable. It houses the card-servicing division of First Data Corp. of Hackensack, N.J.—soon to acquire First Financial Management, to create the world's largest credit-card processor. Behind the guarded gates is a vault filled with 74 million plastic cards that are as good as cash around the world. Here, those cards are turned into credit cards, debit cards, and—one day soon—microchip-powered "smart cards" that will store a user's bank balance or credit line. High-speed machines encode magnetic identification stripes, punch and emboss a cardholder's name, account number and an expiration date into the cards at a rate of up to 1,400 an hour per machine.

When you use a credit card or debit card, check your credit-card balance or get a credit-card bill, chances are your transaction was touched by First Data. The same goes if you call collect on MCI, phone Dreyfus or another mutual fund company about your account, pay a utility bill at a convenience store, send a money order or wire money to a relative. First Data's Omaha operations are the heart and soul of a $736-billion-a-year worldwide market for payment-card processing. What happens here and in other First Data buildings in 131 cities in the USA, the United Kingdom, Australia and Mexico is becoming increasingly vital to the lives of millions of consumers everywhere.

Ten miles from First Data's Omaha card-service center is the war room, a command center that easily could be mistaken for an air-traffic control center. Behind walls designed to withstand tornadoes and even earthquakes [atomic bombs?]—which rarely occur here—is the computer data center that provides around-the-clock technical advice and service to banks that issue credit cards and to merchants who accept the cards. Workers staff rows of computer terminals. On the walls before them, huge screens monitor credit-card activity of banks and merchants. First Data handles just about everything needed to make, book and process financial transactions electronically. It reviews credit applications, checks credit references, records credit-card purchases at the points of sale, speeds a record of sales to banks, keeps track of a customer's payment record and prints and mails credit-card bills.

In the mailing center, each laser printer spits out credit-card statements—on 1,800 different forms with different logos—at a rate of 244 pages a minute, seven days a week, 24 hours a day. The printers consume 55 million linear feet of paper a month, up from 30 million five years ago. Statements pass through 17 check points before they get to machines that sort them by zip code and prepare them to be delivered by the U.S. Postal Service. The computer center is bigger than a football field. Most of it is filled with data storage silos that contain more than 200,000 computer tapes. The silos contain information on 92 million credit cards processed last year—up from 44 million in 1989. You can walk blocks before bumping into a human being.

Across town, the plastics processing center, there are plenty of people. And they treat the plastic cards as if they were gold. Here are row after row and box after box of 24,000 types of cards, representing thousands of issuers. Among them: some of the nation's largest banks, oil companies and retailers. One bank may have as many as 3,000 versions of a card, naming the cities in which it operates.

By year's end, First Data... expects to have completed its acquisition of rival First Financial Management. The deal means that the much-hyped cashless society—when electronic financial transactions virtually replace the use of cash and checks—that's been talked about for decades may be closer.

WORLD FOOD DAY "CELEBRATION"

From the September 4 issue of THE NEW FEDERALIST, [quoting:]

October 16 is the annual World Food Day, declared by the United Nations, and this year the UN will mark the occasion by a conference in Quebec City, Canada, to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the founding of its Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO) created in 1945 along with the World Bank and International Monetary Fund. We hereby want to alert the public to the special role of this event this year. With the connivance of Ted Turner's CNN and the rest of the media, messages will be beamed from Quebec around the world on how there are now desperate world food shortages, but how, on the other hand, no concerted economic emergency action should be taken to deal with the crisis. In fact, the speakers and press releases will emphasize that world food shortages demonstrate the need, not for agriculture infrastructure and output, but for population reduction.

As part of the FAO commemorative ceremonies, a "Quebec Declaration" on the right to food security will be issued, and a proposed plan of action on world "food security" will be drawn up and submitted to a follow-up meeting of heads of state, now set for November 1996, as a "World Food Summit". The theme for this has been set as "Food for All". The last UN world food "summit" took place in 1974 in Rome—headquarters of the FAO, where Henry Kissinger, then U.S. Secretary of State, was the featured speaker. While talking of sympathy for the hungry, the food summit was part of the British/UN deployment in the 1970s to use food, oil, and other commodities as weapons of strategic economic warfare, and speculation.

PATAGONIA AND THE WILDLANDS PROJECT

From the September 11 issue of THE NEW FEDERALIST, [quoting:]

Patagonia, the manufacturer of high-priced clothing for Yuppies, has in its latest catalogue exposed (unintentionally, we presume) the plans of the environmentalists to eradicate the human race from the face of the Earth. These plans are laid out in a series of maps that appear in a special section of the clothing catalogue promoting the so-called Wildlands Project. The maps use Florida as an example of how environmentalists intend to set up a network of nature preserves over the next few decades, to expel human beings from more than half the United States and restrict human habitation to a few areas, cut off from the rest of the country. As described at length in a promotional in the clothing catalogue, the Wildlands Project is a 100-year plan to turn one-quarter of the United States, plus the rest of the North American continent, into a series of "protected areas" and corridors" where the presence of human beings will be strictly prohibited, and to turn another quarter of the land into "buffer zones" where human presence will be severely restricted. The eradication from these areas of human beings will allegedly protect the "natural ecosystems".

Before the reader concludes that this is only a crackpot theory, with no muscle behind it, you should know that the Wildlands Project in fact has the support of Prince Philip of Great Britain and Vice-President Albert Gore. Furthermore, the United Nations Biodiversity Treaty actually cites the Wildlands Project as the model it will follow to depopulate the world (only the UN doesn't use those words, of course). As noted in the Patagonia catalogue, the Wildlands Project was founded by David Foreman. What Patagonia doesn't say is that Foreman is also the founder of Earth First!, one of the world's most dangerous ecological-terrorist outfits. Before authoring the Wildlands Project and writing articles for Patagonia catalogues, Foreman wrote extensively on how to carry out acts of sabotage and terrorism "in defense of Mother Earth". [Will the real endangered species please stand up!]

TOO MANY OLD CODGERS

From the September 11 issue of THE WALL STREET JOURNAL [quoting:]

JACKSON HOLE, Wyo.—Balancing the federal budget will be tough, as Republicans in Congress are demonstrating daily. But even if they succeed, they won't have truly fixed the government's fiscal problem. Balancing the budget isn't enough? "No," was the nearly unanimous conclusion of central bankers and economists gathered at the Grand Tetons for a Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City conference. The U.S. and other industrialized economies face a common demographic fact: Their governments inevitably are going to have more and more elderly to care for, and the cost is going to be staggering. Longevity is, of course, a measure of social progress. But an aging population means that health care will eat up an ever-larger share of government spending. And public pension funds won't have enough money to maintain current benefit levels without significant tax increases. [Articles like this serve to condition us to the "problem": too many old people. Then we become more receptive to their "solutions". Just last week Commander Haotom presented "The Plot To End Social Security" from the Weekly World News. The Elite have several "solutions" in mind, including their "depopulation-by-man-made-disease plot".]

TAKING THE FIFTH

From the September 14 issue of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, [quoting:]

More than 250 years after John Lilbourne was whipped and put in the pillory for refusing to take an oath before testifying, his legacy lives on in the O.J. Simpson courtroom and the Ruby Ridge inquiry. The history books say the Englishman's later exoneration is one root of the right against self-incrimination, carried forward from the mother country into the U.S. Constitution. This week, the FBI sniper who killed the wife of white separatist Randy Weaver at Ruby Ridge, Idaho, three years ago invoked his Fifth Amendment rights before a Senate hearing. Last week, retired Los Angeles Police Detective Mark Fuhrman fell silent on the same constitutional grounds in the Simpson murder trial. Its use invariably taints the user with the presumption of guilt in the public's mind, even though jurors are instructed not to think that way.

In crime-fearing times like these, "It's probably the most disliked and criticized of all the provisions in the Bill of Rights," said Yale Kamisar, criminal law professor at the University of Michigan. But, of course, he added, "It all depends on whose ox is being gored." [It is another example of how brainwashed we have become that we would presume a person is guilty if he claims his constitutional rights. People who make comments like: "What's he got to hide? If he's innocent, what's he afraid of?" obviously don't know much about lawyers and the government. When you are warned ala Miranda that: "Anything and everything you say may be used against you in a court of law", they're not kidding! If the government thinks it has a case against you, let them prove it without your help. Today O.J. Simpson formally claimed his Fifth Amendment right in declining to take the witness stand. Also today, Judge Ito gave the jury instructions, one of which was: "you must accept the law as I give it" and "you MUST do this and you MUST do that". I really didn't expect him to say: "You are the power in this courtroom. You can disregard anything I say and do pretty much whatever you think is right." Jurors are supposed to know that intuitively, I guess.]

CENSORSHIP OR ?

From the August 31 issue of THE BILLINGS GAZETTE, [quoting:]

More books were banned from public school libraries and classrooms last year than the year before, a liberal advocacy group said Wednesday, although the number of attempts to remove controversial material actually fell. "The attacks are bolder, broader and more organized than ever before," said People for the American Way legal director Elliot Minberg. The group said it documented 338 attempts to remove or restrict access to a book, and said 50 percent, or 169 were successful. But conservatives accused the group of exaggerating the number of incidents among the nation's 80,000 public schools, and of attacking parents' legitimate concerns. [Parents have the right and duty to oversee the education of their children, including the selection of books and materials used; they may exercise their preference NOT to implement a book FOR ANY REASON they choose. It is pure Khazarian propaganda to assign the trigger word "censorship" to this process. To do so furthers their agenda of subverting the education process—a not-so-difficult task, considering the inherently flawed concept of "public" (i.e., government) education. This issue wouldn't even come up if the schools were run privately. Parents would select a school that supported their own educational philosophies.]

GOVERNMENT PHOBIA: IT'S OFFICIAL!

From the American Information Newsletter, and printed in the September issue of THE PRESENT TRUTH, [quoting:]

Apparently the American Revolution, as well as the Constitution, were led by and inspired by lunatics. That, at least, is the only conclusion which can be drawn from a new "mental illness" outlined in the Clinical Psychiatric News of October 1994. In that issue the newly discovered disorder of "government phobia" was outlined. It is "characterized by a persistent fear, despite any facts to the contrary, of all governmental agencies." The publication laments that it is "becoming epidemic in the United States". Suffers allegedly "develop tightness of the chest, palpitation, diaphoresis, and several other somatic symptoms if they sense any threat that the involvement of the government is increasing around them." [Perhaps George Washington suffered from this when he said, "Government is not reason; it is not eloquence; it is force! Like fire, it is a dangerous servant and a fearful master!"] It should be remembered that it was the Soviet Communists who pioneered this technique. [Remember Lavrenti Beria and his lectures on psychopolitics?] They defined opposition to Communism as "mental illness" and started sending opponents to mental institutions. Remember, a "psychotic" can be imprisoned in an institution without a real trial, without being charged with any specific crime and on the sole testimony of a psychiatrist.

FLORIDA TODAY

There are significant protected areas in Florida today, but they are fragmented and threatened from many sources. Existing parks and reserves do not provide adequate habitat for panthers and other wide-ranging species. Wetlands that are important for crocodiles, amphibians, fish, birds and other sensitive species, are inundated with agricultural runoff or artificial water flows based on the needs of agriculture hundreds of miles away. Roads daily take their toll: threatened animals are hit by cars and poachers gain access for illegal hunting.

FLORIDA IN 100 YEARS

This map shows what we need to do to ensure the biological health of the state. Cores are large enough in many cases to sustain natural processes such as plant succession on their own. Key species such as the Florida panther, Florida black bear and American crocodile have several viable populations. Poisonous agricultural and urban run-off into marshes and swamps has been stopped, protecting birds such as the short-tailed hawk and southern bald eagle. All ecosystems — such as pineyards and oak scrub — are well represented in protected areas, not just marsh and swamplands.

TALK ABOUT A 'FULL SERVICE' CATALOGUE! Patagonia's latest clothing catalogue includes propaganda on the anti-human Wildlands Project Patagonia is pushing—and that includes graphics like these maps showing Florida today and in 100 years, when all the people have been driven out by the Wildlands operation.

Health Update

SPROUTS FOR HEALTH

by Phyllis Linn

A couple of years ago I stumbled across an article about a family who became snowbound in a remote Montana cabin. The only food they could find was a sack of beans. When they emerged a couple of months later, having eaten nothing but BEAN SPROUTS, their health had actually IMPROVED! That got my attention and, knowing there are no coincidences, I considered I had been led to that magazine, that article, at that time for a reason. Since then I have learned a lot about sprouts as a survival food and a delicious, health-enhancing addition to everyday menus.

Sprouts have A LOT going for them! Any bean, pea, grain, nut, or seed can be sprouted. These basic foods are readily available, inexpensive, easy to grow, and have a long shelf life if properly stored. They can be grown indoors in any climate and mature in a few days, rather than the 50-130 days required to grow fresh fruits and vegetables. No processing or preparation is required. They are easy to digest, even for people with weak digestion. Sprouted, these foods afford one of the most concentrated and truly natural sources of vitamins, minerals, enzymes, and amino acids known. Quite a resumé!

Sprouts are BIOGENIC—alive—and capable of transferring their life energy to you. When you eat a sprout you are eating a tiny, easy-to-digest plant that is at its peak of nutritional value. Filled with nutrients needed by the growing plant, and alive with vital enzymes, seeds are the very core of life. All the energy and life of a plant goes toward making seeds. Each seed is a potential plant, awaiting a suitable environment to begin sprouting. When the seed germinates, or sprouts, an incredible flow of energy is released; natural chemical changes occur and enzymes are produced to convert the concentrated nutrients into those needed by the growing plant. The chlorophyll in green-leaved sprouts, such as alfalfa, is the result of a conversion of the sun's energy—which makes it sort of a living battery. Sprouts are nature's transformation miracle!

The healing properties of sprouts are too numerous to be adequately covered in this brief article, but in her excellent resource, The Sprouting Book, Ann Wigmore discusses how sprouts can increase the body's immune response, reduce toxicity in the blood, inhibit carcinogens, regulate metabolism, and more. Although this book doesn't mention spelt as a sprouting option, you know what Commander Hatonn says: "SPELT, SPELT, SPELT!" (Follow the directions for wheat.) [To order SPELT see Next-to-Last Page.]

HOW TO DO IT

I have invested in—and used—expensive and elaborate sprouting gizmos, so you may want to afford me some credibility when I tell you: SIMPLE IS BEST. All you need to assist nature in making super sprouts are a supply of wide-mouth quart canning jars, a few rubber bands, and some cheesecloth or nylon netting.

Using the chart, measure the appropriate amount of seed into the jar. (Lentils are a good choice for a first attempt.) Remember that sprouts expand—one pound of alfalfa seeds produces eight pounds of sprouts. Cover the jar with the cheesecloth or netting and secure it with a rubber band. Fill the jar about halfway with purified water and allow seeds to soak for the required length of time. Then drain off the water (use it for watering your plants!). Place the jar at a 45° angle, mouth down, in a place where it can drain freely. The small openings at the bottom will allow excess water to drain and air to circulate.

For best results, rinse the sprouts twice a day by placing the jar under the tap, filling it with water, and allowing it to overflow. As hulls rise to the top, you can scoop them out and discard. After rinsing, replace the jar of sprouts at a 45° angle so that excess water will drain away.

When the sprouts have matured, transfer them to a clean glass jar with a cover or a sealable plastic bag. Sprouts that are hulled, drained well and stored in glass or plastic will keep from seven to ten days in the refrigerator, growing slowly until you decide to use them.

By the way, sprouting is a fantastic project for children. It is an important responsibility that supports the health and well-being of the family. And when they grow 'em, they'll eat 'em!

The chart provides suggested uses. The Sprouting Book, mentioned earlier, has a chapter of recipes. But again, why not KEEP IT SIMPLE and just MUNCH THEM! As a portable lunch or snack, they need no refrigeration. They're great in salads and sandwiches. You don't have to worry about eating too many!

SURVIVAL SPROUTS

In my 72-hour pack I keep a quart jar, netting, rubber bands, a couple of sealable plastic bags, and a sprouting mixture. Wherever you and your pack end up, you can easily soak and sprout—and munch slowly, for maximum benefits! It's also a good idea to keep a good supply of your favorite grains, beans and seeds on hand for "emergencies". (Check shelf life. Some, such as nuts and brown rice become rancid after a few months, while others, like beans last for several years. Rotate your stock.) What with impending Earth changes, riots, economic collapse, global pandemics, nuclear war and other Elite-conceived disasters, your survival sprouts could REALLY come in handy!

Anatomy Of A Lawsuit

by Eustace Mullins

The only person who has ever dared to sue the dread Anti-Defamation League of B'Nai B'Rith, Eustace Mullins, had his lawsuit dismissed by the United States Court of Appeals, August 1, 1995, during the court's annual recess from June 4 to September 8, 1995. This case covered an odyssey of five years. Mullins had been invited by a patriotic group, Freedom Forum, to address a meeting at the Greek Orthodox Church on Cape Cod in June of 1990. The Anti-Defamation League organized a hate campaign to prevent the meeting from taking place, placing feature articles in the Cape Cod Times that Mullins was "a vicious anti-Semite", organizing a phone-in campaign, and demanding that the priest refuse to allow the meeting to take place. The priest refused, stating that he had given his word to the group. Callers then threatened to "blow up the church and everybody in it" if Mullins spoke there. The priest reluctantly cancelled the meeting. This was the outstanding hate crime of 1990. Although the FBI, state and local police and other authorities were notified, to this day there has never been any investigation of the hate crime. The priest was hastily retired, and church officials now deny that the incident, fully reported in the press, ever occurred.

The Cape Cod Times is owned by the giant media conglomerate, Dow-Jones Corp., which publishes the world's largest newspaper, the Wall Street Journal. Mullins sued Dow-Jones in Virginia. The federal judge claimed "no jurisdiction" and at Mullins' request, transferred the case to federal court in Boston, Mass. Judge Dave Mazzone promptly dismissed the lawsuit, accepting Dow-Jones' claim that it had no responsibility for anything published in any newspaper it owned. Mullins refiled against Cape Cod Times. Mazzone quickly dismissed this lawsuit "with prejudice", meaning it could never be refiled.

On December 7, 1993, Mullins filed a one-hundred-million-dollar lawsuit against the ADL in Washington, D.C. federal court. The ADL attorneys, Washington power law firm Arent and Fox, failed to make a timely answer and went into default for $100,000,000.00. Judge Harold Herman Greene of U.S. District Court gave a special allowance to file a late reply. In their answer the ADL attorneys failed to deny any charges brought by Mullins, thus admitting all allegations stated in the lawsuit. Instead of answering, the ADL attorneys filed a lengthy Motion to Dismiss. Mullins then filed his usual Request to Amend Complaint, which is routinely granted by any court. It is an essential part of legal practice, as it gives lawyers more opportunity to run up horrendous bills against their unfortunate clients.

Months passed, but Judge Greene made no answer to Mullins' Request to Amend Complaint. On May 24, 1994, he stunned Mullins by suddenly dismissing the suit against the ADL with prejudice, meaning that it could never be refiled. Judge Greene had granted the ADL permanent immunity from Mullins' lawsuit, which had charged the ADL with illegal surveillance of his personal life for almost fifty years, in violation of many statutes prohibiting such criminal activity against American citizens.

Judge Greene was world famous as the judge who single-handedly broke up the world's largest corporation, the giant AT & T Co. He was extremely secretive and had given only one interview in his entire public career. Mullins discovered that he had been born in Germany as Heinz Grunhaus. In 1939, his family was allowed to leave Germany, implying that they were a favored Jewish family by the Nazis, like Max Warburg, the banker who had financed the Nazi movement and who was also allowed to come to the U.S. in 1939. Greene then went into the U.S. Army intelligence, serving in Germany with Henry Kissinger. He was recruited into the Sonnenfeldt-Kissinger Axis, a cabal of German Jews who soon infiltrated the federal government on behalf of the Rockefellers and their German partners, the notorious I.G. Farben chemical monopoly. In Washington, they replaced the Harold Ware cell, an espionage group run by Felix Frankfurter, Supreme Court Justice, which had to go underground because of the exposure of Alger Hiss.

Greene was placed in the Justice Department where he moved up rapidly. Working closely with officials of the Anti-Defamation League, he set up a new department, the Civil Rights Division. He also produced legislation drafted by the ADL, including the Civil Rights Act and the Voting Rights Act passed by Congress. Current Biography quotes a Justice Department official: "Harold either wrote, reviewed, argued or participated in every significant civil rights case heard in the most crucial era of civil rights litigation. He had more to do with the writing of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and the Voting Rights Act of 1965 than anyone else."

Green was rewarded for his key role in President Johnson's civil rights revolution by being named chief superior court judge in the District of Columbia. He was given many important political cases, as presiding judge in the trial of Nixon's aides in the early Watergate hearings. He ruled in favor of the ADL in the landmark case against the Hanafi Muslims, who had invaded the offices of the ADL to make a political point. There was no violence, but Greene revoked the bail of the Hanafi Muslims, turning Washington's black community against him. Mullins had demanded a jury trial, a jury which would have been drawn from Washington's black community where the ADL was heartily despised because of its manipulation of "house niggers" such as Jesse Jackson.

Mullins' appeal with the U.S. District Court of Appeals, states that Greene's dismissal of his suit against the ADL with prejudice is in error because there was no discovery, no pleading, and no proof; that Judge Greene erred in refusing his Motion to Amend Complaint; and that Judge Green erred in allowing the case to proceed after the ADL had gone into default. The appeal states that the ADL's criminal activities were funded for many years by the two Godfathers of the National Crime Syndicate, Moe Dalitz and Meyer Lansky, who received public recognition by the ADL for their financial support. Moe Dalitz, the inspiration for The Godfather movie, died in his home in Las Vegas at the age of eighty-nine, after a criminal career spanning more than seventy-five years. His obituary in the New York Times hailed him as a philanthropist, ignoring the hundreds of murders committed by Dalitz and his partner, Lansky, to rid themselves of competition in gangland. The Times proudly pointed out that during his seventy-five year career of crime, Dalitz had never been convicted. This explains the ADL determination to control all judicial appointments in the United States. Meyer Lansky's biographer, Hank Messick, stated that by 1965, Lansky had amassed a three-hundred-million-dollar fortune.

A prominent Washington physician noted the ADL crime connection in addressing the Schiller Club at Howard University, September 16, 1992, "The Anti-Defamation League wants to lynch black people. They're [your "friends"] only if you are a pagan, an ignorant person, but not if you are truly a Jew, a Christian or a Muslim." Dr. Mohammed is one of the most respected physicians in Washington, a fact recognized by the mayor, Sharon Pratt Lekky, when she proclaimed July 11, 1992 as "Abdul Alim Mohammed Day". The New Federalist newspaper in Washington, D.C. headlined the following: "WASHINGTON PRESS CONFERENCE DENOUNCES THE ANTI-DEFAMATION LEAGUE AS GANGSTERS". The Anti-Defamation League of B'Nai B'Rith, notorious for its defense of the international drug cartel and its smearing of its political enemies as "anti-Semites", was denounced at a press conference here as having nothing to do with civil rights, but as being a gangster organization with political motives which should be treated as such. At the press conference, Dr. Mohammed rejected charges that he and the Nation of Islam are anti-Semitic, and said that the slanders emanate from the World Jewish Congress meeting in Brussels, Belgium. Lawrence Freeman outlined his history of the Anti-Defamation League. The ADL was founded in the early part of this century as a public relations front for the Jewish branch of organized criminals. Many of Meyer Lansky's top lieutenants were always among the ADL's biggest contributors. In 1985, the ADL gave its Torch of Liberty award to gangster Moe Dalitz, a big shot in the National Crime Syndicate and close ally of Meyer Lansky.

The December 1978 historic special issue of The Campaigner, "Zionism is Not Judaism" states, "The B'Nai B'Rith was a British Intelligence unit dedicated to the destruction of the American Republic. It was an arm of British Intelligence with that chartered purpose at the time of its founding in 1843, and remains so to this day. The founder of B'Nai B'Rith was Henry Palmerston, then British Foreign Minister, who simultaneously created the international Zionist movement. In the period of 1843-1860, Zionism was only one of tens of cults created under Palmerston, some "Jewish", some "Christian" in name, and spread across Europe and America as subversive arms of the British Empire. The academic intellectuals have found it easy to set up networks which reward each other, promote each others' work, and magnify each others' dubious activities. Each cult was modelled on the Ashmolean Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, of which Palmerston was Grand Master—itsself modelled on Ptolemaic Egypt's death cult of Isis. In early 1995, Bill Gates and his huge Microsoft empire had been challenged by Judge Stanley Sporkin whose office is a short distance from Judge Greene in the cavernous federal court building at Third and Constitution Ave. in Washington. Sporkin hoped to seize control of the Microsoft corporation as his rival Greene had done with AT & T. Bill Gates fought back, and the Appeals Court scheduled oral arguments. They soon gave a decision in favor of Microsoft and permanently removed Sporkin from the case. Because Mullins had filed with the same court a year earlier, it seemed likely that he too would soon be called. However on July 20 he received an order from the U. S. Court of Appeals that there would be no oral argument in his case. He had previously inquired at the Appeals Court to see when his case was coming up after more than a year had passed and was informed that the court was in recess from June 4 to September 8. A few days later, he received a Judgment from the court affirming Greene's dismissing of his suit against the ADL. This was filed August 1, 1995. There was no explanation as to how this had been arranged while the court was in summer recess. It seems likely that it was one of the famous "law clerk decisions" for which federal courts, including the Supreme Court, are famous in Washington, in which the judges merely initial a finding issued by the clerks. Mullins was then informed by the ADL law firm that he was liable for enormous costs after losing his appeal.

Mullins promptly filed a Motion to Set Aside the Judgment, pointing out that the ADL, a tax-exempt corporation funded by secret contributors to carry on its criminal activities as an unregistered agent of the State of Israel, had no standing to defend in court, because of its close association with the Mafia and Mossad. (Black's Law Dictionary: standing—to be such capacity to be a defendant in this action—Reputatio est vulgaris opinio ubi non est veritas.) He pointed out that the Judgment affirmed that there was no legal redress for the well-documented crimes committed against him for almost fifty years by the ADL, including religious persecution, genocide, and conspiracy to deny his civil rights. "The continuous and ongoing nature of this conspiracy renders moot the district court's attempt to separate individual acts of these crimes from the ongoing conspiracy of the Anti-Defamation League of B'Nai B'Rith, in order to make the claim that these separate crimes are time-barred."

Mullins' Motion also criticized the peculiar assignment of this case, a Christian defending himself against a vendetta by the ADL as a Jewish campaign, to a Jew from Germany, whose associations with the ADL were a matter of record. Mullins also noted that while the appeal was before the U. S. Court of Appeals, the ADL launched a nationwide propaganda campaign against Mullins in order to influence the appellate judges against him. ADL-placed stories in the New York Times, the New Yorker, Nation, New Republic and many other nationally circulated publications denounced Mullins as "a vicious anti-Semitic-fascist".

If the U.S. Court of Appeals refuses to set aside its Judgment, Mullins remains liable for the costs to Arent and Fox, the ADL law firm. An appeal to the Supreme Court is the next step, but the Supreme Court rarely hears any case for damages.

IN THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS
For the District of Columbia Circuit

No. 94-7116

Eustace C. Mullins, Appellant

v.

Anti-Defamation League of B'Nai B'Rith

MOTION TO SET ASIDE JUDGMENT

Appellant, Eustace C. Mullins, appearing for himself as Attorney Pro Propria Persona, respectfully moves this Court to set aside its Judgment in this action, for the following reasons:

1. The appellee, the Anti-Defamation League of B'Nai B'Rith, has no standing to defend in this action before this Court. It is a tax-exempt corporation which is funded by secret contributors to carry on its criminal activities against Eustace Mullins and other Americans throughout the United States as the illegal and unregistered representative of a foreign state, the State of Israel, functioning as a state within a state, committing crimes against American citizens without fear of reprisal, in close association with other criminal gangs such as the Mafia and Mossad, a terrorist group operating as Israeli Intelligence. (Black's Law Dictionary: standing—to be such capacity to be a defendant in this action. Reputatio est vulgaris opinio ubi non est veritas.)

2. The Judgment of this Court affirms that there is no legal redress for the well-documented crimes committed against the person of Eustace Mullins over a period of many years, by the Anti-Defamation League of B'Nai B'Rith, including religious persecution, genocide, and conspiracy to deny civil rights. The continuous and ongoing nature of this conspiracy renders moot the district court's attempt to separate individual acts of these crimes from the on-going conspiracy of the Anti-Defamation League of B'Nai B'Rith in order to make the claim that these separate crimes are time-barred. A conspiracy is an agreement between two or more people to commit a crime. The conspiracy itself is a separate crime, and no part of the conspiracy can be separated and labelled as "time-barred".

3. The assignment of this case in the United States District Court was, to say the least, peculiar. A sensitive action involving a citizen of the Christian faith defending himself against a world-wide vendetta against Christians conducted by the Anti-Defamation League of B'Nai B'Rith as a Jewish campaign, was assigned to a judge who may have been overly aware of his Jewish commitment. Formerly known as Heinz Grunhaus of Germany, he was said to have lost most of his relatives in the Holocaust, and to have recurrent nightmares of millions of Jewish corpses stacked up like cordwood. Conflicting stories pointed out that the Grunhauses were allowed to leave Germany for the United States at the onset of the Second World War as a family given favored treatment by the Nazis, like the banker Max Warburg, who had financed the Nazi movement in Germany.

4. In Washington, Grunhaus was drawn into the Sonnenfeldt-Kissinger Axis, a cabal of German Jews which infiltrated the federal government and operated it for the benefit of the Rockefeller interests in partnership with I.G. Farben chemical combine, after its predecessor, Felix Frankfurter's notorious Harold Ware cell, had to go underground because of the Alger Hiss exposures. Grunhaus was placed in the Justice Department, where he advanced rapidly. Working closely with Anti-Defamation League interests, he established the new Civil Rights Division and drafted such important ADL legislation as the Civil Rights Act and the Voting Rights Act. He was then moved to Superior Court in the District of Columbia, where he openly ruled in favor of the Anti-Defamation League in the famous ADL-Hanafi Muslim case, which turned Washington's black community against him. The ADL then lobbied President Carter to move him to the U.S. District Court. When Mullins' lawsuit was filed before this court, he requested a jury hearing of this action, which would have been impaneled from the Washington community. Before this could take place, the case was hastily dismissed with prejudice and could never be filed against the Anti-Defamation League again. There was no discovery allowed, no hearings, and no jury hearing.

5. It was well known that the Anti-Defamation League had long considered Eustace Mullins a primary target in its nationwide war against Christianity in the United States. In 1993, the ADL-published The Religious Right: The Assault on Tolerance and Pluralism in America, a book which, according to Larry Witham of the Washington Times, "Charges members of the 'religious right' with anti-Semitism, Christian 'triumphalism', Nazi sympathies and denials of the Holocaust." The ADL intensified a national campaign against Eustace Mullins on the same charges. Ralph Reed, head of the Christian Coalition, described the ADL book as "filled with errors, half-truths, and outright lies designed to stereotype Christians and other people of faith." Pat Buchanan, in his column, defined the ADL assault as "Christian-bashing". The Anti-Defamation League assaults against Eustace Mullins stemmed from its activities as publicist for the Cult of Baal, a Canaanite group which promoted sexual degeneracy and abuse of children. During His Ministry on Earth, Jesus Christ had preached against the Cult of Baal. All of Eustace Mullins' writing and lecturing is carried on under the auspices of the O.T.U. Christ Church. In 1968, his autobiography, My Life in Christ was published by Faith and Service Books. His Christian work is the sole basis for all the ADL denunciation of him as a "vicious anti-Semite", constituting a flagrant case of religious persecution.

6. When the district court dismissed Mullins' lawsuit against the Anti-Defamation League of B'Nai B'Rith, Mullins filed an appeal with the United States Court of Appeals. In a campaign to bring undue influence to bear on the judges of this court, the Anti-Defamation League launched a national smear campaign against Mullins through the Zulzberger-Newhouse Axis, featuring assaults on him as a "vicious anti-Semite" in national publications including the New York Times, the New Yorker, Nation, the New Republic, and other publications responsive to ADL influence. This campaign was designed solely to sway the deliberations of this court, and is described in detail in Mullins' forthcoming book, The Anatomy of a Lawsuit. Virginia's largest newspaper, the Richmond Times-Dispatch in a lengthy feature article May 10, 1995, stated, "Mullins has been tracked for years by the Anti-Defamation League of B'Nai B'Rith, which labels him a Holocaust denier and anti-Semitic fascist." Their authority was Samuel Kaplan of the Virginia-North Carolina office of the Anti-Defamation League, who wrote in Virginia's second largest newspaper, Norfolk Virginian-Pilot, May 18, 1995 another lengthy diatribe against Mullins for his Christian affiliations. It is noteworthy that while this action was in litigation, the ADL continued an intensive nationwide campaign against Mullins in order to influence the court. The virulence of the religious hatred of the ADL thugs against Mullins also surfaced in the ADL-directed massacres of the Weavers, a Christian family in Idaho, and the Waco Holocaust, in which ADL-directed FBI jackbooted thugs exterminated an entire Christian congregation in their church, using tanks and helicopters in the worst religious massacre in American history. The Waco Holocaust also was a trial run for Plan Naamah, a plot to exterminate all Christians in the United States after their guns have been confiscated by government decree. Plan Naamah was exposed in Mullins' books, The Curse of Canaan and The World Order.

Wherefore, appellant, Eustace C. Mullins moves the Court to set aside its Judgment and allow this action to be litigated with due process and equal protection of the laws.

Latest Historical Spotlight On Khazarian "Jewish" Serpent People

9/22/95 #1 HATONN

DARK ROBES

I note that some people are circulating Hilarion's book about the Dark Brotherhood to prove to selves that I am of that label and surely not a Host of God. I am pleased, for if in the searching for the clues to MY "problems"—perhaps you shall find your own reflection in that mirror. I, after all, am the one who brought the book to your attention after Wally Gentleman brought it to mine—YEARS AGO. It was demand reading by all who asked to work with me. We grow and learn in many ways—the point, however, is to grow and learn. Ask a better way within the WILL OF GOD in true service (that which overrides the ego circle about self) and He shall uproot you, if necessary, to move you along. The wondrous realization is that realization within self from having "accomplished" something for self when the plot seemed the darkest and most painful. If I tell you truth am I less your friend?? It is said that "Better are the blows of a friend than the false kisses of an enemy." No—the worst of all comes from the FALSE kisses of a "friend". Never mind "me" who simply brings the uncovering and re-presents that which has slipped away from your knowing—check those "friends" who kiss and tell. Check those friends who sympathize, offer solutions for other people to attend than themselves (especially as regards money), and see where TRUTH ACTUALLY FLOWS. "TALKING" a big game does not make a big game. Is the neighbor over the back fence or the sister in the lodge who prattles, tattles, tells and gossips not more dangerous and damaging than all the ones who confront the issues? Why? Because you come to believe the negative input and build defenses around self to the point that you no longer SEE the facts and when actions come otherwise—you are stunned and blind. Why do you not seek the true CAUSE of your discomfort, comfort, sad plight or happy joy? Why do you stash more and more dismal and macabre skeletons in your closets instead of tossing out the new ones along with those you nurture like worthy assets?

Why are ones bashing selves and others over that which is unaccomplished in talents? If you need to type and can't—is it not worthy to learn to type if your choice of work is to type or run a computer? OR, do that to which you are suited? Why do you blame your boss for hiring another to type if typing is a necessity and you cannot?

I have to repeat something here and again: IF YOU CANNOT STAND THE HEAT IN THE KITCHEN—GO ELSEWHERE FOR THE KITCHEN IS WHERE THE COOKING MUST BE DONE. FURTHER, IF YOU ARE UNWILLING TO COOK AS THE CHEF DIRECTS IN HIS KITCHEN—SHOULDN'T YOU GO WHERE THE CHEF IS MORE SUITABLE AND LESS DEMANDING? I CAN GUARANTEE, HOWEVER, THAT WITHOUT ABILITY TO LEARN TO COOK AND PRODUCE GOOD PRODUCT, THE RESTAURANT WILL FAIL! EVEN IF THE FOOD IS BAD AND CANNOT BE MADE GOOD—ARE YOU NOT BETTER ADVISED TO LEAVE THE KITCHEN

RATHER THAN DEMANDING THAT THE COMPANY PROVIDE THAT WHICH IS NOT AVAILABLE?

If your body odor is offensive and people twiddle about it—am I LESS YOUR FRIEND for telling you and suggesting a solution?? I can simply tell you to spray with OxySol and while the underarms or elsewhere is damp from the spray, use a crystal mineral. Then, use, in addition (during cleansing procedures) a non-aluminum based antiperspirant or deodorant. Then, bathe frequently, take a zinc supplement, launder clothing OFTEN and you shall be as sweet as a petunia. Is THAT offensive to you to the point that you can no longer function?? Are you so offended that other people have noses that you cannot accept discussion about SELF?

Speaking of "skeletons", I am asked to offer you a story which was the Cover Story for "JEWISH WORLD" and offered in The Jerusalem Report, Sept. 7, 1995. I think it worthy of being presented for I weary of the bashing which takes place because we offer you truth in historical sequence. It is important to always notice WHY a thing is hidden for it is ALWAYS that truth is undesirable in public forum, if it reflects that which is less than goodly. I get letters; boy, do I get letters—about my writings about the Khazars (spelled and pronounced a dozen different ways). Yes, readers, there were and ARE Khazars. They are from that lineage who now form The New World Order. They have no race, no color—they have, however, full intent to take your world. They, worse than all their deeds, TOOK THE HERITAGE OF THOSE WHO COULD BE CONSIDERED JUDEAN AND CALLED THEMSELVES, IN 1767—JEWS. They brought with them the Talmud of the Elders (Men—not God) and from there you have the NEW LAWS UNDER WHICH YOU ARE ENSLAVED! My point is not to point fingers—it is to offer you some background facts so that you understand and KNOW what YOU are serving.

The Khazar empire of one thousand years ago was the largest-ever Jewish state. Yet the Jews and the Russians have always shied away from examining its history and its significance.

The largest sovereign Jewish state in history was not in the Land of Israel, but far to the north, in what is now southern Russia. For a little over 200 years, between the 8th and 10th centuries, the powerful Khazar empire was ruled by kings with Hebrew names like Hanukkah and Menasheh Aharon and Yosef, and its soldiers fought the Arabs and the Russians under commanders with names like Pesah.

Yet the legacy of the massive, powerful kingdom is still shrouded in mystery. And the search for the treasures, records and ruins of this lost culture has been deliberately stymied in Russia and Israel, both haunted by the specter of the Khazars as skeletons in their national closets.

Jewish and Israeli discomfort stems from apprehension over the theory, popularized in Arthur Koestler's book The Thirteenth Tribe, that the Khazars are the direct ancestors of today's Ashkenazi Jews. In other words, most Jews today have no genetic connection to the Israelites who received the Torah and the Land of Israel from God, but are the progeny of Turkic gentiles who never set foot in the Land of Israel. That theory has been discredited by serious scholars, but unsurprisingly picked up by Arab Leaders bent on diminishing Jewish claims to a historical connection with Palestine.

The Soviet line was laid down in a 1951 Pravda article, reportedly written at the express instructions of Josef Stalin [H: I'm sure this would be true—look at Josef Stalin's loving Godly hatred and disrespect to human life.], warning against poking around for Russia's Khazar origins. "They wanted everything in Russia to begin with the Russians and no one else," says Ukrainian scholar Prof. Omeljan Pritsak, 80, considered the top contemporary expert on the Khazars. [H: Stalin KNEW he was of that line of pompous misfits and Barbarians and didn't want anyone to find out the truth.] Interviewed in Kiev, Pritsak, who also teaches at HARVARD, says he is convinced that early Russia grew out of the ruins of the Khazar kingdom. But for the nationalists it was considered shameful to admit there were Jewish emperors in the land before the earliest Russian princes. [H: Yes the Khazars first called themselves, tribally, the Serpent People, then chose a "religion" which was labeled, Jewish, created the Yiddish language, and in 1917 CREATED COMMUNISM.]

The Soviet determination to sweep the Khazar story under the carpet has meant that the two-century life span of the Jewish empire has never been satisfactorily investigated. [H: How can you investigate something WHICH IS AGAINST THE NEW LAWS RESTRICTING ANY INVESTIGATION OR SPEECH ABOUT THE SUBJECT?] The imperial capital Itil may well lie buried under millions of tons of silt—a Khazar Atlantis—where the mighty Volga River pours into the Caspian, still called the Sea of the Khazars by the Iranians. [H: No, you don't have to look for the old "city"—go directly to Moscow, Tel Aviv, and Washington D.C.—but do not overlook London on the trip.] But only superficial excavation in the area has ever been sanctioned. Various relics, including dazzling golden objects, are kept in collections in the former Soviet Union, but passed off as the heritage of other peoples. Others are thought to be stored away in a dusty vault in Moscow, hidden there by the Soviets after being unearthed during the 1950-52 construction of the Volga-Don canal.

What is known is that the empire was the first-ever state to emerge in Eastern Europe, established by West Turks who were pushed into Caucasia by Chinese armies in the year 550. The Khazar rulers, together with some of their nomadic tribesfolk, converted to Judaism in 740, and claimed to be descended from the Biblical tribe of Shimon. Two centuries later, the empire was routed by the Russians, and the Khazars faded away, with the fate of their descendants never resolved.

Today, a new generation of Russian archaeologists is pushing for funds that will enable them to solve the Khazar mystery. Divers have combed the bed of the Caspian Sea; photographs taken from Soviet cosmos observation satellites have been declassified and studied. "The first person to unearth a Khazar synagogue," says archaeologist Sergei Kotinkov, of Astrakhan University, "will gain an international reputation up there with Heinrich Stielmann, the discoverer of Troy."

One major goal is to find Itil, which contemporary sources say was built partly on an island. Scholars at the University of Elista in Kalmykia identify Itil with a hill in the ancient riverbed of the Volga; others think it was covered by the rising Caspian Sea. Dr. Evgenia Schneidstein, a Jewish archaeologist and novelist, calls Itil "an Atlantis that really existed."

As things stand now, there are very few physical remains of the Khazars as an empire, which began with the King Bulan (or Sabriel, according to another document) in 740, apparently under the influence of Jewish merchants in order to stay neutral in the Muslim-Christian conflict. At its height, the Jewish-led empire covered a territory hundreds of times the size of the modern State of Israel. It extended from Astrakhan on the Caspian Sea, more than 1,000 kilometers west, beyond today's Ukrainian capital, Kiev, believed to have been founded by the Khazars. The Jewish population, though, says Pritzak, probably never numbered more than 35,000—but constituted both the ruling dynasty and much of the elite.

RESEARCHING THE PUZZLE

Heading an Israel TV team traveling for weeks through this area, from the Crimean peninsula to the mountains of Azerbaijan, in search of pieces of the Khazar puzzle, I saw museum displays of typical Khazar black earthenware vessels, and occasional evidence of archaeological ruins.

Contemporary Hebrew, Arabic, Persian, Armenian and Byzantine sources describe great treasuries of Khazar wealth—little of which has been uncovered. What has been found is jealously guarded. We did, for example, film an extraordinary collection of Khazar gold bracelets, rings and chains, stored in match-boxes in the cellar of a remote scientific institute in a town on the Don River.

Some sweet talk and, more crucially, a modest financial donation, secured access to another set of cellars holding Khazar relics, including tombstones inscribed with primitive versions of the seven-branched menorah and Turkic emblems of the deceased's family.

But in the Crimean city of Kerch—known to Jews in the Middle Ages as "Scpharad" (Hebrew for Spain)—local authorities claimed, "There never were Khazars here." In fact, many Khazar Jewish graves were discovered there, on the straits linking the Black and Azov seas.

Moreover, the few remaining Khazar artifacts are disappearing. Some of the finds from Sarkel, a fortified Khazar city covered by the waters of the Tsimilanskaya Dam, have vanished from a museum in one of the cities on the Don. Local farmers have taken large stones with Khazar inscriptions from Khumar, in Circassia, and used them to build cowsheds. The hill believed by some to be the site of Itil has no guards, and pieces of pottery have been spirited away.

Some months ago, an unsuccessful bid was made to steal Khazar relics and other items from the Jewish antiquities collection of the hermitage Museum in St. Petersburg. Jewish "businessmen" and former KGB agents are suspected of the attempt.

In some Russian museums where Khazar artifacts—including golden jewelry—are on display, they are not attributed to their Khazar-Jewish origins. Instead museum directors insist that the Khazars had no culture of their own, but merely borrowed from others.

The result is that little is really known about the Khazar civilization, not even their language. There is no way of assessing their Judaism, even though some scholars think it may be possible to reconstruct their miniature golden Tabernacle—used for rituals—small parts of which are believed to have been uncovered in the course of some excavations. It's not certain if the Ark was based on the Biblical description, or if its origins—as those of the Khazars themselves—are pagan. [H: Well, they certainly ARE NOT "CHRISTIAN".]

The most detailed information on the Khazar Jewish empire comes from a 10th-century exchange of correspondence between Hisdai Ibn Shaprut, a Jewish minister in Muslim Spain, and the Khazar King Yosef. Ibn Shaprut wrote a letter inquiring whether rumors reaching Spain of a Khazar Jewish empire were accurate. King Yosef wrote back in the affirmative, gave details of the empire, his battles with the Russians, his trade with Arabs, sketched the Khazar conversion, and listed the names of all Khazar Jewish kings before him. Copies of these letters were found in the 16th century and in the medieval Cairo Genizah. There are two surviving versions of the Hebrew correspondence—one kept in Oxford, the other in St. Petersburg—whose authenticity is accepted by most modern scholars.

When the Khazar empire was founded, its supreme leader was a spiritual figure known as the Kagan. With time, though, military leaders began to assert increasing power. According to Prof. Pritzak, the rivalry came to a head in the 9th century, and exploded into full-scale civil war. The Jewish successors and supporters of King Bulan prevailed, and the Kagan fled to join a Viking trading post. It was his Russian descendants who returned a century later to defeat the Khazar empire.

On the question of what became of the Khazar Jews, Pritzak, like other serious historians, rejects Arthur Koestler's theory of a mass migration from the Khazar kingdom to Poland and Lithuania. About 8,000 of the 35,000 Jews in Khazaria, the professor estimates, were absorbed into the young Russia, and then disappeared, while the fate of the other 27,000 is completely unclear. The Ashkenazis' ancestors, by contrast, are traced back by Pritzak to central and Western Europe. This view is supported by Prof. Zvi Ankori of Jerusalem, who has demonstrated convincingly that the Ashkenazi East European Jews are descended from migrants who moved from the West long after the fall of the Khazars.

[H: It might be good to remind you, about here, that it is expressed so eloquently by lawyer Alan Dershowitz that the United States of America "is the new homeland of the Jews". YOU in the U.S. are all of the hidden things behind the rainbow! The headquarters are located in New York.]

There are also challenges to the conventional wisdom promoted by the Soviets—accompanied by shrill tones and recriminations. The works of M.I. Artamonov, the great archaeologist who excavated Sarkel and pioneered modern research on the Khazars, are being reevaluated because he was said to have "softened" his conclusions—on the extent of Khazar influence and the Khazars' role as forerunners of Russia—under Stalinist pressure.

In Dagestan, a remote Central Asian republic, Prof. Muran Megomedov is publishing monographs on his excavations at dozens of Khazar sites in the Caucasus. A Muslim ex-army officer turned enthusiastic archaeologist he puts out the booklets—primarily on Samandar, the Khazar capital before Itil, and the garrison town of Balanjar—at his own expense. He mocks the cowardice of Moscow colleagues who still won't admit to the significance of Khazar culture and who refrained from inviting him to a major scientific conference on the Khazars, held last fall at Yalta in Crimea. [H: Ah, this is enough "confirmation" in itself! This is the way of science and technology—whatever the Big Boys want, the Big Boys get—especially when truth is involved. And these nice "Big Boys" have their major Kol Nidre holiday on this coming Monday! BEWARE, CITIZENS—THERE ARE GREAT PLANS AFOOT FOR YOUR DEMISE!! HOW INTERESTING THAT THE OATH TO LIE, CHEAT AND STEAL COMES JUST AS THE CASE OF O.J. SIMPSON GOES TO THE JURY AND THE ASSOCIATION OF BAR MATES CAST THEIR DAMAGES ONTO YOU. I REMIND YOU—IT HAS NOTHING TO DO WITH RELIGION, RACE OR COLOR, THIS CREED OF DECEIT, GREED AND POWER! YOU WATCHED THIS FALSE-JUDGE TO RULE HIS DIRTY-TRICKS AS VALID LAW.

FAIR TRIAL? THERE IS NO SUCH THING REMAINING UPON YOUR PLACE.]

Indeed it is only with great circumspection, now that the Soviet Union has collapsed and Pritzak has been publishing his theories at Harvard, that scholars in Russia are starting to cast off the Stalinist censorship. Ask Prof. Sergey Ribakov, archaeology doyen under Stalin, and now living out his retirement in Moscow, why he played down the Khazars' crucial formative role in what became Russia, and he replies: "What could we do?"

Although research is now being carried forward by young Russian archaeologists—most of them half-Jews who concealed their origins in the past—the theory of Russia's Khazar origins is coming under attack from anti-Semitic Russian ultra-nationalists, who describe it as an attempt to "poison" Russian blood and "warp the glory of the Russian heritage". Every so often, leaflets appear denouncing the "Jewish conspiracy" that glorifies the Khazars. That is strong stuff in Russia, where every school-child learns by heart the Pushkin poem on "smashing the ignorant, brutish Khazars."

Support for the Khazar-Ashkenazi theory has come, not surprisingly, from the Arab world, where any diminishing of the Jewish connection with Palestine is welcome. President Hafiz al-Asad of Syria has mentioned it several times in public speeches, and recently brought it up again to American visitors in Damascus.

Mahmud Abbas [Abu Mazen], the Palestinian architect of the Oslo accords, mentions it in his 1980s PhD thesis. He goes on to claim that Zionism has no historical-ethnic basis, and that as descendants through the Khazars of Noah's son Japheth, not Shem, today's Ashkenazis are not Semites.

This suggestion is repeated in dozens of books in Arabic, most of them anti-Semite. Chaim Weizmann, Israel's first president, came across it in 1947, from members of the Anglo-American Commission of Inquiry in Palestine, who told him they'd heard it from Palestinian, Syrian and Saudi spokesmen. "Oy, vey," cried Weizmann melodramatically, smiting his forehead, "So we've been weeping for nothing for 2,000 years."

Apprehension over giving ammunition to Zionism's foes may be behind the prolonged indifference—and worse—with which Israel has treated those researching the subject. The late Prof. Avraham Poliak, who in the 1940s wrote the first Hebrew book on the Khazar kingdom, "Khazaria", found his academic career blocked—despite a successful record as an intelligence officer and impeccable Zionist credentials. No books on later research have been published in 30 years. [H: No this is not so—it is just that the published books are banned, confiscated and disallowed distribution.]

Only one Israeli scholar—a 20-year-old doctoral student who immigrated from Moscow a year ago—is currently specializing in the subject. And there are only a few American Jews working on the Khazars, most notably Prof. Norman Golb. In 1972, Golb published the Kiev Letter, a 10th century Hebrew manuscript in which Jews from Kiev, bearing mixed Turkish-Hebrew names, appeal to other Jewish communities to send them funds to help secure prisoner releases. This letter is a key proof that a Jewish community of Khazar origin existed in Kiev for years after the empire was destroyed. [H: The EMPIRE was NEVER destroyed. It simply metastasized as all cancer will if left unattended and nurtured with debasement.]

Some scholars have presented an alternative theory on the Khazars' conversion, positing that they were converted not to rabbinic Judaism but to Karaism, a schism that dates back to the 8th century and recognizes only Biblical commandments. [H: B.S.!!!! Well, I may be too abrupt—for the Holy Bible as you all recognize it—was worse than Khazarian—but written by the same non-Jews. You have been hoodwinked all of the time since the beginning. GOD OF LIGHT simply does not do any of the evil things spoken of in that Biblical garbage. You will, however, find the permission to accomplish the heinous acts, even to the sexual molestation of children—IN THE TALMUD.]

The issue came up at last fall's Yalta conference, held in a guesthouse in the past reserved for the party elite. An angry and not always polite duel took place between Dr. Igor Baranov, an activist in the new Communist Party, who believes in the Karaites theory, and most of the others present.

Linking Karaites and Khazars was the life's work of Avraham Firkovitch, a Karaite scholar and collector. In the mid-19th century he roamed the Caucasus—and traveled to Palestine and Egypt—in search of evidence that the Karaites were descended from Khazars and should therefore not be blamed, like the rest of the Jews, for killing Jesus, and not restricted by the czar to the Pale of Jewish settlement. During the Nazi occupation of the Crimea, the Karaites there used Firkovitch's theories to avoid destruction.

Firkovitch is notorious for altering names and dates in inscriptions he found on tomb-stones to suit his theories. The 19th-century, Kiev-based Prof. Abraham Harkavi exposed some of the forgeries, and state-of-the-art technology is now being used to scrutinize Firkovitch's work and repair the damage where possible. The attempt to link the Khazars and Karaites has no basis in fact, but the few hundred Karaites still living on the Crimean peninsula cling to the theory, though many of their kinfolk have recently moved to Israel.

The Khazars may not be the ancestors of today's Jews, but the possibility keeps cropping up in the imagination of generations of Jews, up to the present. The pre-state poet Y.L. (Zalman) Shneur wrote of his self-suspected Khazar ancestry: the late Ya'akov Shabtai imagined seeing Khazar faces in Tel Aviv; a certain resident of Haifa, who prefers to remain anonymous, claims his genealogy can be traced back to the Khazar kings, as do many others with hints of oriental physiognomy. [H: Well indeed the Khazars are of Rus, Nordic and Mongolian lineage. This is a mixture directly springing from the Serpent Races of such as Orion, etc.]

An Israeli satirist is currently writing a novel with a Khazar context; Czech Jewish writer, Oscar Baum, waxed lyrical about a Khazar-Jewish princess's love for one of the warriors in his book The Sleep-Enshrouded Nation.

The mysteries of the Khazars may never be solved. Most experts do not expect, even in the luckiest of circumstances, spectacular new archaeological finds. The Khazars were nomads who had just begun to settle down in the area, and even their permanent settlements comprised mostly tent encampments.

The best hope is for the discovery of some artifacts, better yet inscriptions, that will shed light on the Jewish Khazar's religious culture. What, for example, is the significance of the clay scorpion sculptures found over the years at various Khazar sites in the Caucasus? [H: That's easy—they bore the very markings and signs of that which is the serpent and that which is "lower than the serpent"! It is all there in the historic documentation of those people who came along and when you reach out for specific findings on a given Khazarian stopover—you err. The very snakes that adorned the Egyptian Pharaohs tell the story as does the "serpent in the tree in Eden". These are THE signs of the Serpent Races of the Cosmos and they are NOT OF GOD OF LIGHTED CREATION! THEY ARE STEEPED IN THE VERY STUFF OF WHICH PHYSICAL EXPERIENCE IS BASED. THEY BUILT GREAT TEMPLES TO THEMSELVES AS HOPE FOR DIVINE LIFE AFTER DEATH. THEY NEVER FOUND IT AND THEY DO NOT HAVE THAT POSSIBILITY TODAY!] And who is the woman whose image is engraved on various items of gold jewelry, also unearthed in the Caucasus, whom unlicensed diggers in the area have called "The Khazar Madonna".

These are among numerous striking pieces already in hand, mostly in Russian museums. An exhibition of them might not be the Khazar answer to King Tut—but it would not lack for golden treasures, precious stones and jewelry, and weapons borne a millennium ago by a people who considered themselves lews and inspired fear among all their neighbors.

[END OF QUOTING]

We must bring this to an abrupt halt. Please add the map available [see below] and the Lost in Time "timing" outlay [see next column] as presented. Thank you.

LOST IN TIME

Circa 550 CE—Khazar royal family from central Asia takes control of northern Caucasia.

661—A Muslim army conquers Derbent from the Khazars, beginning a 100-year war that ends inconclusively. The Arab invasion of Europe is halted in the Caucasus.

685—Counterattacking Khazars reach Ardabil on the border of Persia.

704-732—Byzantine kings marry Khazar princesses.

722—The Khazar capital moves from Samander to Itil.

737—The kagan, or spiritual king, converts briefly to Islam.

740—Military king Bulan/Sabriel converts to Judaism with members of his family and entourage. Later writings report a religious dispute in his court, discovery of Torah scrolls in a cave, and a dream directing him to Judaism.

775-780—Leo IV the Khazar rules as Byzantine emperor.

834—The Khazar fortress Sarkel ("the White City"), is built on the river Don.

840—Reformation of King Obadiah. Rabbis invited to Khazaria, synagogues built.

850—Civil war between the supporters of the Jewish king and the kagan, who flees to Vikings in the north.

860—St. Constantine, the converter of the Slavs, in a religious disputation at the court of the Khazar king.

864—A Benedictine monk reports in Bohemia on the conversion of the Khazars.

865—The Muslim caliphate's head of intelligence tells of cooperation between Khazars and Jewish merchants from France along the rivers.

880—Khazar tribes settle in Hungary.

882—Russia's Prince Oleg conquers Kiev from Khazars.

910—Muslim historians write, for the first time, about the Judaization of the Khazar royal house.

943—Jews flee the Byzantine empire for Khazaria, after persecution by emperor Romanus. The Khazars attack the Taman peninsula in retaliation.

960—Correspondence between Hisdai Ibu Shaprut, a Jewish minister at the Muslim Spanish court, and Yosef, king of the Khazars the main source of our information.

965—Prince Sviatoslav defeats the Khazars. End of the kingdom?

969—Prince Vladimir is baptized as a Christian.

1100—Rabbi Yehuda Halevi writes the Kuzari, a philosophical work based on king's conversion by rabbinic Jews.

1140—Rabbi Yehuda Ibn Tibon translates the Kuzari from Arabic to Hebrew. (The book is required for the Jewish history bagrut matriculation exams in modern Israel.

1840—Avraham Firkovitch, a Karaite Crimean, counterfeits antiquities to prove Karaites are descended from Khazars.

1896—Solomon Schechter acquires the contents of the Cafro Genizah, including the Hisdai-Yosef correspondence.

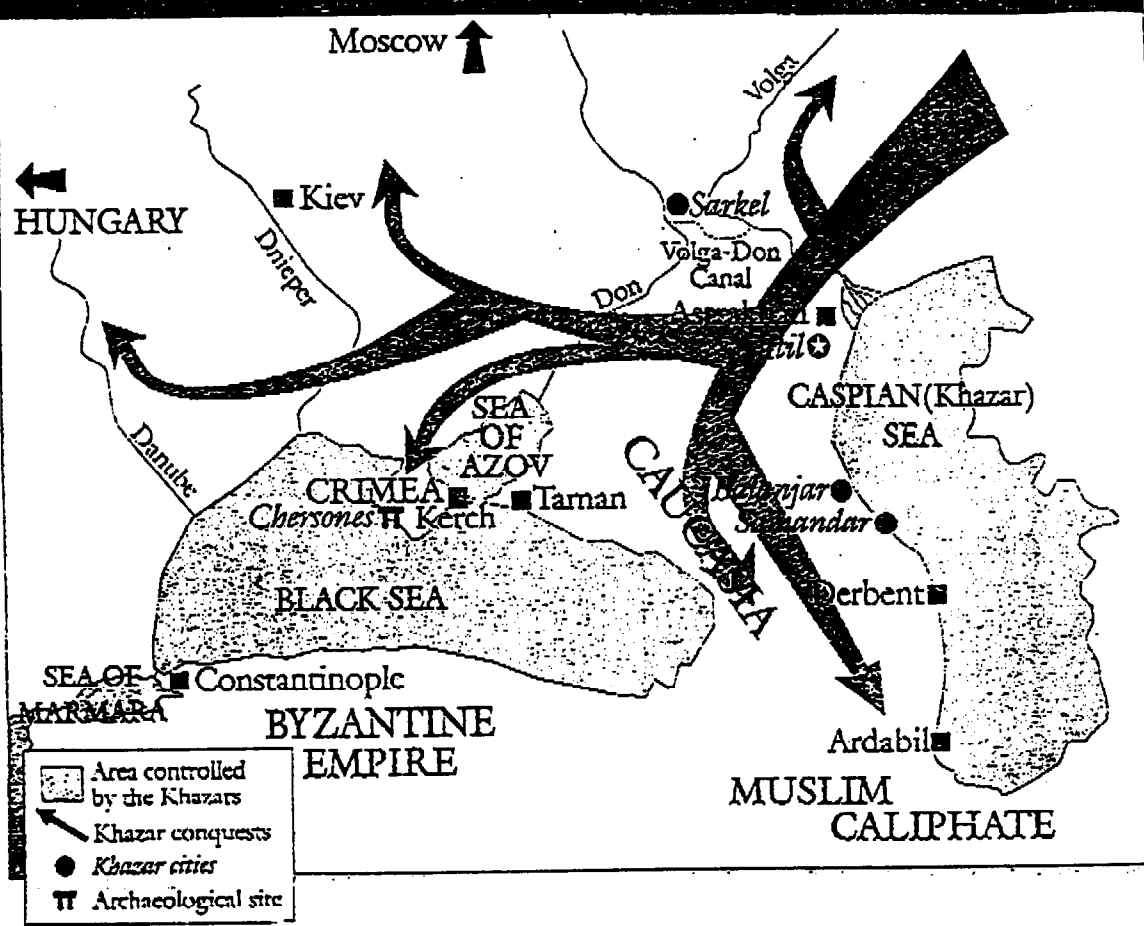

1951—Ruins of Sarkel flooded by the Volga-Don canal. Article in Pravda against research into the Khazars.

1954—Prof. Douglas Dunlop publishes History of the Jewish Khazars at Princeton. Book barred from the Moscow international book fair.

1962—Ten years after completing it, K.I. Artamonov publishes book with excavation results. Norman Golb of U.S. discovers the "Kiev document" in the Cambridge archives.

1978—Omeljjan Pritzak begins to publish his theory of Khazar history.

The Khazar Empire 600-1000

Storm Warnings Up On Several Fronts

9/21/95 #1 HATONN

STORM WARNINGS ARE UP

Many things are going on this very day as we write—and STILL it goes unnoticed as to those things of most import. The earthquake of yesterday which epicentered at China Lake Naval Station [near Ridgecrest, CA] and ran the tunnel into Pasadena (Los Angeles) was as interesting as anything other than False-Judge Ito's rulings that nothing against O.J. Simpson would be spared and nothing FOR HIM would be allowed into the jury's presence. A REAL job has been done on you-the-people and I suggest you study the "suit" elsewhere in this paper [see pgs. 1-10] VERY, VERY CLOSELY. You continue to ask in your "helplessness": "But what can we do?" YOU CAN CHANGE "THIS" RIGHT THROUGH THE LAW AND THROW THE MISHPUCKA(S) OUT!

YOU go forth and join with another and another—find the circumstances in play and pick a place WITHOUT an organized ADL (if longer possible) and do this SAME THING! If you build interest and notice and BRING BACK YOUR PROPER CONSTITUTIONAL LAWS AND RETURN THE DELIBERATELY CHANGED AND EXCISED WORDINGS, EXCISE THE SECRETLY PLACED UNLAWFUL INSTRUCTIONS—YOU CAN GET EVERY ACTING FALSE

JUDGE OFF THE BENCHES, OUT OF YOUR GOVERNMENT AND, HOPEFULLY, INTO THEIR OWN GROWING NUMBER OF PRISONS.

WHO DO I THINK I AM?

In the shoutings and pronouncements of ones who have confrontations with companies and assumed thwartings who go about demanding in shouting THE question, "Who does he think he is??" I have this answer: "WHO DO YOU THINK YOU ARE?" I know who I AM. I have not changed one iota in my direction, my actions, my writings or in my intent. I also do not have problems with blindness or absurdity.

Further, ones who disclaim me or my offerings—fine, I have no objection. I have no bindings on anyone—but neither shall I represent a free lunch or ride for anyone. You who conjure to pull me down or the ones with whom I share work, and join with others who came before—remember that YOU WERE ON THE "OTHER" SIDE and since I HAVE NOT changed my attitude or stance one iota—who might have changed opinions and directions? I take no deference nor offense to your disagreements with me—but again, you who take things out of context (because you demanded the information cease flowing to you or yours) cannot possibly have the story or the lessons. Check your OWN BUDDIES WHO POINT OUT THESE ASSUMED

THINGS WHICH AGGRIEVE YOU, FOR, IF YOU ARE NOT READING THAT WHICH I WRITE (BY YOUR OWN DEMAND) HOW COULD YOU POSSIBLY KNOW OF THAT WHICH I SAY OR MEAN??? MORE IMPORTANT A QUESTION TO ASK OF SELF: HOW KNOW YE THAT IT BE FOR YOU?

SIDETRACKING AND PAPER RUSTLING

Who and how are ones sidetracking papers and information? Easy, I suppose. Mostly, well intended and frightened readers fear Big Brother's power and simply secretly copy and send along on networks various articles. We are honored and pleased that this happens. I simply MUST bring to your attention how easily sidetracking is accomplished. I get inquiries by the boxes full.

One obvious thing which presents itself in full view is the very relationship of readers and writers with one Ronn Jackson. Either Mr. Jackson is giving flawed information OR he and his associates pulled off a mail coup of the century. What do I mean? Well, he says he received over 33 million pieces of mail regarding the New Republic. The major address offered at ALL times was THE CONTACT BOX NUMBER IN LAS VEGAS. He further claimed that he received over $2 million from those mailings. Now, THAT was CONTACT'S address and number and only a FEW of those came through CONTACT'S BOX, and no money. Ronn told us that he had had the massive amount of mail DIVERTED for handling to HIS PEOPLE. We are also told that some of that mail is still in the "handling" phase. How much funding might have been intended for continuation and subscription TO CONTACT? Now, this gets more sticky than before, doesn't it? Well, Mr. Jackson has no need to republish CONTACT, for his mailing list is almost all of CONTACT'S to begin with. So, we have to assume that it is very easy to DIVERT mail—even accomplished FROM prison.

Am I suspecting or accusing Ronn Jackson? No, but a lot of you are doing so as time passes and Ronn is yet unable to meet his obligations as promised. Am I on his side or yours? Both and neither—it is not my business! Another bit of abuse WE RECEIVE these days COMES FROM irate women who seemed to believe they had been misled by the "James Bond" side of Mr. Jackson. Please, readers—THAT IS MOST CERTAINLY EVEN LESS MY BUSINESS THAN BUSINESS ARRANGEMENTS!! Some have even gone to New Mexico to follow this leader. What is found there? Oh my—almost NOTHING is found there—except a very large piece of land OWNED BY TEXACO. Has the wrong location been found? I wouldn't know—I have nothing to do with the New Republic.

So, what do I have working with Ronn Jackson? A very high level committee (no, not Mr. Jackson's Committee of 16) has made agreements to bring venture funding to my projects which are quite minimal in needs relative to amounts available. I detest working with any such Elite human misfits but my task is to get the remnant through in human form. You who come to bash, trash and castigate my mission or my people—are NOT of my concern.

Is Mr. Jackson somehow "changed out"? NO! Mr. Jackson is having a far worse time than any of you and he can't SAVE your nation for you!

Now, for the last point about Mr. Jackson and his workings. I HAVE NOTHING TO DO WITH GOLD CERTIFICATES (RONN SAYS HE HAS MANY), GRANDMA'S CERTIFICATE, FBI FILES, LAND CLAIMS, DAMAGE CLAIMS, OR DIRECTED OR MISDIRECTED FUNDS TO PAY FOR THOSE CLAIMS. I, IN FACT, STATED THAT THE GOVERNMENT WOULD NEVER HONOR SUCH CLAIMS—UNDER THE KNOWN GOVERNMENT OPERATIONS. If you were paid off on September 5th as promised—please notify us differently. My MIS-SION is not in transfer of funds, gold, silver, money, New Republics or manipulation of politics. This MUST be left to you who must live within your manifestation as human citizens. My agreements are for far higher cause and small allowances. If and when our tasks and missions overlap, we share and always we honor. Remember what I have said many times in the prior writings and speakings: "If a man comes to me and introduces himself as Jesus Immanuel—I shall call him Jesus." Why would I do otherwise? If a man comes and says he will help us—why would I not honor that in appreciation? If he fails, do I blast him away or something? No, I insist he keep his obligations. Ronn Jackson sits between a rock and very hard place—and NEITHER is of my doing. He has to meet agreements with MY adversaries LEST he return to the "Three Strikes, you're out" laws. If his games are "con-games" the law will put him away forever. If his friends do not honor his demands for producing his own funds, he is likewise at disadvantage. This is purely through simple deductions, Dr. Watson.

I do believe, however, that a lot of good information is flowing from Dr. Carlson (who is still in Hawaii doing all he can to change the oppressions) and is now in debt some considerable amount into the thousands of dollars because he shared and believed what he was told. I also find that Dave and Rex are still writing great papers while in Nevada. Betty, who does the "New Republic", I believe, is close to Jackson most of the time—so these ones who work with Mr. Jackson are the ones to inquire of, not me or mine who have little to no contacts at all save through a FAX machine. But the ONE to ask about these things is RONN JACKSON. To my recollection he has not declined to speak with any of you.

APFN (AMERICAN PATRIOT FAX NETWORK)

Ken Vardon? I have NOTHING to do with or about Ken Vardon. He has a lot of problems—OF HIS OWN MAKING! I am told that Jackson has sheltered the name APFN through some copyright shelter. I can't know how that works without Vardon's permission—but apparently it can be done??? Also, incorporation is going to be done outside of Ken's circle because some people have totally supported the operation while Ken blew the funds and the property. How can one usurp a totally separate business or corporation? Well, I suggest that Ken did not "incorporate" in the first place. I further warn you, however, that getting almost perfect duplications of corporations are as simple as say, what happened here with the Constitutional Law Center, Inc. and Gary Anderson's (with Green's assistance) Constitutional Law Cen(tre) Trust. Set up in the same building with the same secretary to divert and pick up mail from the SAME BOX and you have it done. Unless something goes wrong or someone speaks out—how do you know? YOU DON'T! Ones who used to support CONTACT turned and poured financing into Ronn

Jackson—so you stand to lose CONTACT AND, so far, your funds.

Are these things "just more lessons"? Oh, dear ones, I truly HOPE NOT. Readers, there is a "toad" in South America whose babes are attached to the mother's back, the father fertilizes them or moves them to another hapless frog and implants them onto the back (out of reach for even scratching the itch which ensues). A film of skin grows over those little incubating babes and they swim quite freely around under the skin until the host is totally puffed and mutated. Then, out they pop—from literal "pods" into which they pop back as danger is sensed. It is a most interesting process for everyone, of course, except the mother(s). When the birthing is over and the babies depart—the mother/host looks like a colander and likely feels worse than one. Well, so much for princes and toads.

I am even asked about the validity of the story of "Camelot". Camelot? John Kennedy's murder and who ordered it? Did Earl Warren actually order the murder? NO! He did, however, lead in the cover-up by the Commission. Kennedy was killed indirectly and DIRECTLY by the Mishpucka which is "the family" of the Israeli Mafia CRIME family in conjunction with the old time Sicilian based La Costra Nostra Mafia families. This is what has become THE NEW WORLD ORDER and knows no RACE OR COLOR.

SIMPSON'S PLIGHT

I am underwhelmed at the pure fear of Ito as the Fianto brothers pranced into his courtroom for testimony. He even forgot to bring the jury back into the courtroom. You must understand that this man is a part of the plan—and is a simple tool of this Mishpucka "organization". You will remember that the old Italian based HOODS wore their costumes and left their "calling cards" through Gucci adornments, fingerprints, etc. Well THIS BUNCH wears Bruno Magli (phonetically spelled) EXPENSIVE footwear. You know, the very kind which LEFT THE BLOODY FOOTPRINTS AT "BUNDY"—SIZE 12 (the most common size for the "clan"). BOTH FIATTO BROTHERS WALKED INTO AND ONTO THAT COURTROOM IN BRUNO MAGLI EXPENSIVE "NEW" SHOES. Then, following the court testimonies, they went forth and one had a nice big interview with ABC in which he claims a "big RELATIONSHIP" with Denise Brown—the sister of Nicole Brown Simpson. Are not the crime lords RULING and playing puppet-masters to the clowns in the courtroom who they control with steel puppet strings?

SYRINGES

Why the fuss over blood-drawing and syringes in the O.J. blood-letting? Because we now KNOW by EXPERT testimony that it is more likely that the "nurse" drew MORE BLOOD THAN 8CC IN HIS 10-CC SYRINGE. A VACUAINER WILL PULL OUT NINE CCs FROM ITS OWN VACUUM SYSTEM IN A 10-CC VIAL. IF THE BLOOD DRAWER USED A SYRINGE FOR A "BIG-ARMED MAN SUCH AS O.J." AS STATED BY THE NURSE—HE DREW MORE, NOT LESS, BLOOD TO BE SCATTERED AROUND THE COUNTRYSIDE. I DO HOPE THE DEFENSE TEAM, WHO ARE NOT ON O.J.'S SIDE AT ANY RATE, DO NOT MISS THIS INPUT.

WHY NOT USE WHITEHURST?

Because Whitehurst WOULD and will, if you stay awake, pull down the whole involvement and set-up of the FBI and BATF in the Trade Center Bombing, Waco AND the Oklahoma City bombing. There is DIRECT involvement of Martz and others to the O.J. Simpson lab DISINFORMATION and staged information presentations—but what an interesting position for an unlawfully "sitting" judge. If you think Fuhrman went under trial—can you imagine what would pop out of this if Whitehurst was allowed hearing? So, ONCE AGAIN, CRIME PREVAILS and you have simply lost interest. Moreover, O.J. has been so compromised to surely convict himself if he testifies as to truth in THIS murder case. This is the way the criminals operate—without honor, without truth and WITH BLACKMAIL OF ALL HEINOUS SORTS.

THE POINT, BELOVED ONES, IS TO ALWAYS ACT AND LIVE IN A MANNER IN WHICH THE SLINGS, LIES AND ARROWS ARE NEVER ABLE TO FIND A MARK. NO, THIS DOES NOT MEAN YOU MUST BE AN ANGEL—ONLY LIVE AS IF YOU ARE AND COVER YOUR BACKSIDES WITH QUALITY FEATHERS AS AVAILABLE RIGHT WITHIN YOUR OWN SYSTEM. FOR INSTANCE, FOR GREEN TO CALL "US" A CULT—DOES NOT MAKE US ANYTHING—ESPECIALLY A CULT. IT DOES, HOWEVER, PROVE HE IS A FOOL. There are, further, ones who make every effort (in good intentions) to have a loving "family", who are incorrect in their assumptions. THE MAFIA AND MISHPUCKA REFER TO THEMSELVES AS "FAMILY"—NOW THE BIGGEST FAMILY ON THE FACE OF THE EARTH. NO THANK YOU!

CLUBS AND SOCIETIES

Almost ALL clubs and social societies, even the Freemasons, began in truth, honor and brotherhood. The "masons" were the master-masons of such as the pyramids. They formed a brotherhood which was good! THE INFILTRATION OF THE MISHPUCKA FOR AS FAR BACK AS THERE IS HISTORY, CHANGES EVERYTHING AND ALWAYS HAS DONE SO. Clubs and organizations do not make MEN bad or good—MEN CHOOSE TO BE BAD OR GOOD—individually in sovereignty—perhaps the only sovereignty of fact remaining on your place.

ET ANYTHINGS

Now that earthbound MEN have taken your world—you want, at the least, the angels of ET origins and existence to FIX it for you?? No thank you—we didn't break it. Honor us, deny us, honor our truth in God Creator and our service, or deny it—it matters not one iota—EXCEPT TO YOU INDIVIDUALLY. You demand us PROVE our presence so you can — DO WHAT? —??

You must choose wisely, act in wisdom and the way becomes quite clear for passage. You must work WITHIN the legal system which IS and make sure to discard that which is unlawful. No one can do this FOR you—but together as citizens demanding proper ballots you can change the unlawful judges out of the benches and system come into corruption—it is a good start. Follow who you will, but do not blame that "leader", false or otherwise, for your lack of discernment. YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR THAT WHICH YOU DO AND WHO YOU SERVE. To rip apart your driver's license to prove something—is to prove you are a fool—I don't care WHO tells you otherwise—while he laughs at your foolishness!

I must have my scribe elsewhere so we will bring this to a close. I ask you to keep your eyes, ears and senses alert and these things can be quite easily witnessed. Perhaps THIS IS YOUR CONFIRMATION AND PROOF? Salu.

Hydrogen Peroxide Use For Water Purification

To purify water (of viruses as well as bacteria and other critters) for drinking purposes, use 10 drops of 35% Food Grade Hydrogen Peroxide per gallon of water and agitate container enough to mix well.

Locating the 35% Food Grade Hydrogen Peroxide can be a problem as the Elite effort to close down everything that promotes health, from products to therapies. Food Grade Hydrogen Peroxide is necessary as the drugstore (3%) variety contains additives and stabilizers not good for ingestion.
