U.S. Military Role In The New World Order

5/28/96 RAY BILGER

Our entire known and recorded history of military organization and operation in the world would lead us to believe that, as a species, we have never been able to live at peace with one another. This apparently innate antagonism that mankind wages against itself has been exploited as a major tool by those who would control the world, to sway public opinion against perceived enemies in order to control the masses. There can be no doubt that this campaign has been successfully manipulated to the point where we now stand on the brink of possible total nuclear annihilation of the planet. And where there was no enemy, one has always been created to carry out these objectives. The New World Order mentioned in the title of this article is neither new (this plan is as old as the hills), nor does it imply order (it is just the opposite, total chaos).

As a naive young man, this author joined the military at age 19, and served with "distinction" in the United States Marine Corps from 1968 to 1971, during the Vietnam "Conflict", as an electronic technician and repairman of top-secret encoding and decoding communications devices. In our extensive initial training (and brainwashing) in the Marine Corps (the training received in self-discipline has proved indispensable on numerous occasions), we were taught to respect (Please see U.S. Military Role In The New World Order, p.10)

One World Government Church Revived

Editor's note: While CONTACT does not necessarily support Dr. Coleman's blurring of the distinction between the organized religion(s) of Christianity and true spirituality, "Christianity" does indeed remain a great (though somewhat disguised) POLITICAL force in the evolution of the modern world. To order copies of this and/or any other WIR publication, please write to: W.I.R., 2533 N. Carson St., Carson City, NV 89706. We thank Dr. Coleman for sharing his thorough research with our readership.

MAY 1990 DR. JOHN COLEMAN

Now that the plans of the Conspirators to form a One World Government are more or less out in the open, I believe that the time is right to draw attention to the lesser known activities of the Washington-Moscow partnership in the religious theater of operations.

We have been led to believe that the Bolsheviks are opposed to anything of a spiritual and religious nature. In fact, this is not true at all. Mt. Athos remained the center of religious instruction for decades and indeed retains that position today. The Bolshevik's hatred of religion was directed at Christianity.

The revival of the Fellowship of Faiths is a sign of the times; barriers are allegedly down in Europe, and the nations of Europe are said to be uniting in one big happy family. As long as diverse religions remain a force, the advent of a One World Government will be delayed. As Bertrand Russell once remarked, "Religion is a nuisance; if we cannot take control of it, then we must get rid of it."

The recently revived Fellowship of Faiths is a step in the direction of what Lord Bertrand Russell had in mind. Not all the wars in the world thus far have been able to rid man of his spiritual awareness, and although Christianity, like no other religion, has been savagely attacked, and millions upon millions of Christians slaughtered, it remains the greatest spiritual force in the world today.

So, having failed to "get rid of it", other tactics are being employed, using the shop-worn relativistic idea that all religions are the same and of equal value. Proof that the onslaught against Christianity has not diminished is to be found in the attack upon the U. S. Constitution, which is being mounted in increasing intensity by Lloyd Cutler, who was recently joined in this effort by Attorney General Richard Thornburgh.

Why the massive effort to put aside this great document? I have often stated that the U.S. Constitution is second only to the Bible, and would not work unless based on Christian law, which it is.

That political tyranny will sweep the land if we do not have the protection of the Constitution is clear. It is one of the desired goals of the conspirators to bring the people of this country to heel under a tyrannical government. Only unrestricted private gun ownership is standing between the American people and those seeking to enslave them.

The spirit of evil, that hatred of the right to freedom embodied in the Constitution, is gaining ground, and grows stronger with the passage of time. Spiritually wicked men in high places abound; they are everywhere at work to enslave men, not only physically, but spiritually also. A frightening example of how successful they have become confronts us in the largest slave empire the world has ever known, to wit, the Union of Socialist Soviet Republics.

We are supposed to believe that the Soviet Union is disintegrating and that as a system it will soon be archaic. This is not so. Communism will never change. It may do so on the surface, but at the core there will be little change.

I will believe Communism has changed when the constitution of the USSR is scrapped. I will believe it when the gates of the huge sprawling complex of inhuman prison and labor camps swing open, and when the estimated twelve million political and religious prisoners are released.

President Bush has not made this a condition of any of the treasonous treaties he agreed to during the Gorbachev "summit" meeting in Washington at the end of May 1990. I say Gorbachev summit, for it certainly was his show. One would have thought that the President of the United States would feel some pity for the millions of enslaved people. Instead of vigorous protest, his lips remained sealed.

Where does the Fellowship of Faiths fit in? How can it affect political events in a profound manner? To get the answers to those questions, we must first of all

CONTACT: The Phoenix Project

CONTACT is a unique and inspired newspaper for concerned citizens everywhere, though it particularly focuses on the United States because of this country's special mission in the affairs of the world. That is, "As goes the United States, so goes the world."

CONTACT is a vehicle for Commander Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn's most recent writings on important current affairs, plus those from other enlightening sources, on matters critical to a responsible and informed public at this time of planetary transition and final days of battle between the Forces of Light and the "Evil Empire" forces of darkness.

CONTACT exists to counteract the manipulating lies and clever half-truths put out (on purpose) by the regular print and broadcast media prostitutes of the Satanic Elite controllers—parasites who are in the process of economically, physically, and spiritually collapsing this once great country (and actually the entire planet) down to a slave-state level of existence under their diabolical control plan called The New World Order.

This newspaper, CONTACT, began life on March 30, 1993, risen, like the mythical bird, with great determination "up from the ashes" of its internationally acclaimed predecessor called THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR.

THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR, in turn, began life in mid-October of 1991, having evolved from an earlier newsletter called the PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS, which itself came into existence as a faster way to get THE TRUTH out to you readers than was possible with the more substantial "book" format of the PHOENIX JOURNALS. Much incredible ground has been covered so far in that mission.

While the PHOENIX LIBERATOR's motto reminded all that "The Truth Will Set You Free", the CONTACT's motto, displayed prominently in the masthead, takes that thought another important step forward and proclaims: "Ye Shall Know The Truth And The Truth Shall Make You Mad!"

The "Phoenix Project" is about those preparations needed—at body, mind and soul levels—to both understand and survive the great healing changes which are beginning to energize this beautiful little planet, now so frazzled and tortured from abuses of all kinds. We look forward, with great expectations, to the CONTACTING with all of you—a coming together that is rapidly taking place as the entire Phoenix Project "ground crew" continues to connect, solidify, and gain strength through becoming informed of THE TRUTH. Indeed, welcome aboard, friends!

look into the history of this One World Government movement.

The idea of a unified religious faith is certainly not new. It is almost as old as Christianity itself, and if we examine it closely, we will soon discover that the main purpose is to destroy Christianity.

Who were the men behind a fellowship of faiths? The movement was the idea of Kedranath Das Gupta, who was a member of the Executive Committee of pro-Communist War Resisters League which advocates armed proletarian revolution.

The first formal session of the Fellowship of Faiths in America was held in Chicago in 1933, and the true nature and intent of the movement was soon declared by Sir Rabindrath Tagore, the founder of the pro-Communist school in India that bears his name, and underscored by Bishop Montgomery Brown, an Atheist-Communist keynote speaker. Montgomery closed one of his speeches with the following admonition to the delegates who wildly cheered him:

"There will exist a complete World Fellowship of Faiths only when the Gods are banished from the Skies and the Capitalists from the Earth."

It is interesting that Sir Rabindrath Tagore, a man whose ideas were so at odds with the beliefs of the British, was knighted by the very people he was allegedly railing against.

Sir Rabindrath was a great believer in sex education for very young children. We tend to think of this plague upon our children as a new thing, but my research proved that far from being new, it has its roots in the Cult of Dionysus (another name for Satan), and that it was firmly established among the priests of Baal and the Egyptian priesthood of Osiris.

It would be surprising to have found Christian priests and leaders actually accepting the idea of a fellowship of faiths and actively working together with haters of Christianity back in 1910, if we did not see the very same thing happening right before our eyes as we enter the year AD 1990.

In 1910, Sir Francis Younghusband (yet another Knight of the British monarch), made the following statement:

"The idea of a World Friendship of Faiths originated with an Indian and an American. Kedarnath Das Gupta was a native of Chittagong in Eastern Bengal, a town whose inhabitants are composed of four of the great religions of the world.

"The idea occurred to Mr. Das Gupta that a fellowship for the union of East and West might be formed for the mutual appreciation of each other's standpoint. He has worked for 25 years on this idea and latterly found a co-operator in an American, Mr. Charles F. Weller, who had for years been working hard for a League of Neighbors.

"When they spoke to me a few years ago about forming a Fellowship of Faiths, the idea made an instant appeal. In America, a Parliament of Religions assembled in 1893. In Paris, in 1904, commenced a series of sessions of the International Congress of History of Religions, other sessions of which were held in Basle, Oxford and Leiden."

It is not by accident that these cities were chosen, for especially in Basle, Oxford and Leiden, are found the organizations who promote Liberation Theology. The violent anti-Christian ideas generated there were nurtured and then turned into action throughout the world. Leiden today is THE center of revolutionary ideas, and some consider it to be the home of Liberation Theology.

It was out of Leiden that the traitor Heissewitz came, the son of a Jewish Rabbi who succeeded in dividing the Christian church in South Africa, and thus opening the door to the heathen black hordes of the African National Congress to swarm in. If ever there was a case of treason against the Christian faith, that dishonor belongs to Professor Heissewitz, alias Professor Heynes, a dedicated spiritual enemy of Christendom.

To return to the statement made by Sir Thomas Youngblood:

"In London in 1924, a Conference of the Living Religions of the Empire (the British empire), was held. And in 1933, in Chicago, continued in 1934 in New York, a Congress of the World Fellowship of Faiths was convened under the presidency of the Honorable Herbert Hoover and Miss Jane Addams.

"The Maharajah Gaekwar of Baroda was elected International President; it is now proposed to hold in London in 1936, a second such Congress."

The most striking objection to such a "meeting of religious minds" comes from the words of Christ, who asked, "What communion doth darkness have with light." In those few profound words lie the death knell of ideas of people who have long sought the demise of Christianity by merging, or better yet, submerging it in a floodtide of other religions.

Christianity is unique; it stands alone, it is the basis of the economic system we call Capitalism, although since the turn of the century, Capitalism has been utterly prostituted and debased by the Conspirators of the One World Government. Without Christianity, the world would plunge into a New Dark Age, such as overwhelmed it during the 15th century.

The Christian creed was not appreciated by Sir Thomas Youngblood. It is not appreciated by the legislators of this country. The Fellowship of Faiths sought to merge Christianity with other religions and so cause it to lose its unique identity, and the legislators of this country have carried forward Youngblood's ideas. We see it in the falsely vile doctrine of "separation of church and state." What is really meant by this term? I believe it means THE SUPPRESSION OF CHRISTIANITY.

Youngblood did not explain the nature of the Threefold Movement and the League of Neighbors. No wonder, when it becomes known that both the foregoing stood for unbridled revolution against Christianity and the Western ideals which rest upon it.

As already mentioned, the founder of the "Threefold Movement" was Kedarnath Das Gupta, a real dyed-in-the-wool Communist revolutionary. Other notables who joined with Das Gupta were as follows:

Keith Hardie: A Communist member of the British Labour Party.

Felix Adler: A notable Zionist and founder of the leftist Ethical Culture Society in New York.

H. G. Wells: Representing Bertrand Russell and the pro-drug league headed by Aldous Huxley, Wells was an ardent Socialist and a member of the Socialist International Society founded in 1919. Wells was also a member of the secret Masonic society, Kibbo Kift Kindred, "Clarte." It took a lot of digging on my part to find anything about KKK and "Clarte."

What I turned up was the KKK-"Clarte" had its headquarters in the Grand Orient Nine Sisters Lodge in Paris, the same Freemasonic lodge which played a major role in the bloody French Revolution, and of which Moses Hess, one of the most virulent Communists the world had ever known, was a member.

Hess and Wells actively supported the offspring of Clarte: the Society for Cultural Relations with Soviet Russia. It was in the confines of the sinister Nine Sisters Freemasonic lodge in Paris that Wells made the statement that set him in opposition to Christianity, and which later appeared in his book, The Shape of Things to Come:

"Henceforth, the new world government will not brook the competition of rival religious systems. It will have no place for Christianity. There must henceforth be only one faith in the world, the moral expression of the world community."

Annie Besant: Besant was a notable member of the Fabian Society established in London by Sydney and Beatrice Webb, as a leftist club for the Elite of Britain, the sole purpose of which was to foment a climate in which Communism would become acceptable. Besant was the spiritual successor to Madame Blavatsky, founder of Theosophy. Besant was head of Co-Masonry and was allied with Clarte and the Grand Orient Nine Sisters Lodge. Besant was very active in promoting what she called "social democracy", one of the forerunners of Willy Brandt's "Socialist International".

We shall come to the great harm done by all of the people, and I shall mention the organizations they represented at the time, and whose successors now befoul this great land, the United States of America.

Miss Jane Addams: Addams founded the Women's International League, in conjunction with Mrs. Pethwick Lawrence. Notice these are big "society" names, not the types one associates with the mad bombers who were attacking the Czar and his family in Russia.

Addams was an enthusiastic backer of Wall Street investment in the Soviet Union, and a stockholder in Nicolai Lenin's Russian-American Industrial Corporation and the Communist Federation Press.

Apart from Lenin, another close friend of Addams was Rosika Schwimmer. Schwimmer is interesting because she was a close confidant of Count Karloyi, the man who handed Hungary on a plate to the Red terror directed by the beast, the foul murderer, "Bela Kuhn", (real name, Cohen). It was Addams who arranged a lecture tour of America for Count Karloyi. Addams was a member of the Federal Council of Churches.

Among her closest friends were the Freemasons Dr. Glen Frank, Dr. John Lamp and Dr. Newton Baker, all Communists.

Mrs. Pethwick Lawrence: Definitely a member of the "upper crust" and a notable society figure in London in the early 1900s, Mrs. Pethwick Lawrence was co-founder of the Women's International League, along with Jane Addams. Like Addams, she was a member of Co-Masonry and a leading member of Blavatsky and Besant's Theosophical Society.

Mr. Charles Weller: Mr. Weller was a Capitalist-Communist millionaire at a period in history where the term really meant something. He was not a Donald Trump-type of millionaire. The task of organizing the American chapter of the Fellowship of Faiths was given to Weller, who quickly obtained the blessing of Samuel Untermyer, a leading American Jewish Zionist and one of the controllers of President Woodrow Wilson.

Untermyer received Weller's proposal with great glee and immediately took it to Woodrow Wilson, who endorsed it on the instructions of another of his controllers, Mr. Justice Brandeis. In fact, the controllers of President Woodrow Wilson, Baruch, Untermyer and Brandeis, made no secret of their blackmail powers over President Wilson.

I can do no better in this regard than to quote one of their close associates, a Mr. Samuel Landman, of the New Zionist Organization: "Mr. Woodrow Wilson, for good and sufficient reasons, always attached the greatest importance to the advice of a very prominent Zionist." He should have said, "to three prominent Zionists."

The "good and sufficient reasons", referred to by Mr. Landman were the packet of love letters written by Wilson to Mrs. Peck, who in exchange for considerations for her embattled son, handed them over to either Untermeyer or Baruch.

Woodrow Wilson had a great passion for affairs with married women, the Peck "romance" being one such particularly torrid one. Foolishly, Wilson expressed his love-lorn sentiments in writing to Mrs. Peck, an indiscretion which crippled Wilson's Presidency and this nation along with him, and brought about America's entry into the First World War.

Both Wilson and Harding supported the League of Nations, whose influence and input into the Paris Peace Conference almost carried the day for the One World traitors, and I will be talking more about that and the Fellowship of Faiths effect upon present day events as we continue.

Rabbi S. Wise: Wise succeeded Brandeis as Chairman of the Provincial Executive Committee for General Zionist Affairs. Wise was also a member of the pro-Communist Emergency Peace Federation and 19 other inter-connected Socialist-cum-Communist organizations, including the Fabian Society.

Many of these organizations are alive and kicking in the U.S. under other names today in 1990 and are just as much of a menace to our REPUBLICAN United States of America as they were from 1919 onward.

Incidentally, Wise was the leading light of the Jewish World Congress in Geneva in August 1936, when Congress reportedly wholeheartedly approved the Samuel Untermeyer plan of war against Germany—this being three years prior to the actual declaration of war by Britain and France.

Upton Sinclair: Sinclair was a member of the International Revolutionary Writers and a member of a number of affiliated societies along with Wise. Sinclair gave outright support to the Fellowship of Faith idea which would eventually unify and bring about a single religion. Sinclair gave Christianity a minus in this equation.

Madame Sun Yat Sen: Madame Sun Yat Sen was the wife of a Red Chinese Communist who rose to become the first Communist President of China. Madame Sun Yat Sen was a staunch supporter of the American Civil Liberties Union.

It became clear from the membership of the League of Nations that this was no organization devoted to peace, stability and religious freedom. On the contrary, its revolutionary activities showed exactly what the League intended. The following "poem", called "After the Order of Melchisedek" became part of the manifesto of the Fellowship of Faiths:

"I have no temple and no creed.
I celebrate no mystic rite,
The human heart is all I need.
Wherein I worship day and night.
The human heart is all I need.
For I have found God ever there—
Love is the one sufficient creed,
And comradeship the purest prayer."

This so-called prayer appears to be quite good on the surface, but the human heart is not noted for generating true inspired love, which is why Christ's Blessed Incarnation and Bloody Passion were necessary. It is the type of humanism inherited from the Fellowship of Faiths which is so prevalent today.

The Fellowship of Faiths failed to tell would-be new members that it was FREEMASONIC THROUGH AND THROUGH. Perhaps it did not need to state the obvious, as most new members drawn to it came from the ranks of Freemasonry.

By 1926, the Fellowship of Faiths was a well-established friend of revolution. Rosicrucians dominated its executive boards and committees. It had also formed an alliance with the Fellowship of Reconciliation, whose members in 1932, voted for the Communist ticket in elections of that year, particularly in New York and Chicago.

The Threefold Movement started by Charles Weller and Das Gupta in 1924, held meetings all over Britain and America. By 1925, they had held 253 meetings, one of which was in London under the Presidency of Dr. Noorwood of the City Temple. Thinly veiled attacks on Christianity were usually delivered at these meetings, although some of them had as their theme, "What Christianity means to me".

Among the leaders and organizers of the Threefold Movement were to be found the following religions and respective people:

HINDUISM—Represented by S. N. Malik of India, a member of Beni Isreal sect.

ZOROASTRIANISM—Represented by Dr. A. D. Jillia of the Parsees.

JUDAISM—Represented by Rabbi A. A. Green of the Hampstead, London synagogue.

MOHAMEDINISM—Represented by M. A. Dard.

SPIRITUALISM—represented by Arthur Conan Doyle. PLEASE note that this was the first time Spiritualism was held out to be a religion, a belief which continues to this day.

BUDDHISM—Represented by Angarika Dharmapala.

THEOSOPHY—Represented by Annie Besant.

The important point to remember is that all of these religions are essentially anti-Christian, and ALL DENIED THE DEITY OF CHRIST. The contradictory signals sent out by the Fellowship of Faiths was intended to lead to confusion and obscure the true mission of Christ.

It is noteworthy that literature published by the Fellowship of Faiths was to be found in Communist book stores all over America, Britain and Western Europe.

One of the distributors of such literature was the American Society for Cultural Relations with Soviet Russia. The First World Congress of the Fellowship of Faiths in the U.S. was organized by Jane Addams, and held in Chicago in 1933. We have already met Miss Addams earlier.

One of the principal speakers at the Congress was Bishop Montgomery Brown, an Atheist and National Chairman of the Communist Workers International Relief, and a member of fifty other Communist organizations. Bishop Brown was a keynote speaker and below are found two extracts from one of his speeches:

"There is one place in the world where they have dared to end the exploitation of man—Russia! In Russia, Science has replaced Religion, which is being stamped out... The USSR is the forerunner of International Communism, which will gradually absorb all the Capitalist States, which are gradually decaying away."

"If any Government, Church or Institute opposes or stands in the way of this Communist State, they must be ruthlessly overthrown and destroyed. If world unity is to be attained, it must be arrived at through International Communism, which can only be attained through the slogan: Banish the Gods from the Skies and Capitalists from the Earth. Then, and then only, will there exist a complete World Fellowship of Faiths."

Charles Weller and Das Gupta were effusive in their praise of Bishop Brown. Das Gupta stated "I am sure others feel as I do, that they have the same beliefs as Bishop Brown, but have not had the courage to come out and admit it. I want to say that I am thoroughly in agreement with Bishop Brown's sentiments."

"WHAT COMMUNION HATH DARKNESS WITH LIGHT?"

Bishop Brown wrote a number of works including one entitled The Teachings of Marx for Boys and Girls, and seventeen short works on sex for children, which were widely distributed. A survey of those who attended the First World Congress of the Fellowship of Faiths reveals that all of the Organizers were Freemasons.

The Fellowship of Faiths, established as a Freemason front, formed a new organization called the League of Nations Union, which as I said earlier, played a profound role in influencing the outcome of the Paris Peace Conference, which more than anything else, guaranteed that there would be another major war, the Second World War.

As Sir Francis Youngblood stated, "It (the 'Union'), is here to provide a firm spiritual basis for the League of Nations." We can best judge what KIND of spiritual basis was provided simply by looking at the United Nations, successor to the League of Nations. It is within the confines of this body and its religious executive committee, the World Council of Churches, that a revival of the Fellowship of Faiths as a One World Government religion is taking place.

We in the West cannot afford to turn a blind eye to this revival, which is gathering momentum as the falsehood that Communism is dying in Europe takes hold. Either we believe that the Christian religion is the basis of our Constitution and stand by that or we will perish.

It is time that we took our stand on Christianity, and made it central to the political and economic future of this nation.

Either Christianity is the one true religion or it is totally without substance. Christianity can learn nothing from other religions, which in the main, consist of partial truths.

Christ is God Incarnate, who brought to this world a perfect system of economics and politics, but which has become so prostituted as to be virtually unrecognizable today. The teachings of Christ in our spiritual, political and economic life are perfect and of supreme and unequalled value.

Christ remains without peer. Christianity has no equal and no rival. Christ's enemies and the enemies of the Christian church would have us believe otherwise, hence the revival of the Fellowship of Faiths as a One World Government entity.

This is not a religious issue only, it is a matter of the survival of this nation as a REPUBLIC based upon the laws of God, and NOT a democracy based upon the laws of man. It is also a perfect economic system which our forebearers did all they could to protect, for they knew full well that once INDIAN BABYLONIAN "Capitalism" gained ground, it would be but a short time before the United States of America, the greatest and most civilized country the world has ever known, would perish.

Abraham Lincoln and John Kennedy were two U.S. Presidents who were assassinated for the cause of justice. They knew what Babylonian "Capitalism" had done and was doing to the country.

Abraham Lincoln wrote: "We gave the people of this Republic, the greatest blessing they have ever had—their own paper money to pay their own debts." (These were called "Greenbacks".)

Lincoln caused to be printed $449,338,902 of these dollars and shortly thereafter, the London Times said that Lincoln's action "was mischievous financial policy," and called for the destruction of his government.

President John F. Kennedy also knew what the Federal Reserve Board was doing to the country, so on June 4, 1963, Kennedy signed a presidential document called Executive Order 1111(sic), which further amended Executive Order 10289, of September 19, 1951.

This gave Kennedy, as President of the United States, legal clearance to create interest-debt-free money that would belong to the people, and by-pass the Babylonian Federal Reserve Banks. On record is the fact that $4,292,893,825 of cash money was issued. For this, Kennedy was brutally and mercilessly gunned down.

It is in this light that we are duty-bound to regard the emergence of a "new" One World Religion which seeks to destroy the Constitution and then Christianity itself.

Today, a strenuous and deliberate war is being waged against Christianity and that means against the foundations on which the institutions of the Republic of the United States of America rest.

The forces supporting a One World Government seek to replace Christianity with "isms" of all kinds, including Deism, which they want to establish as a world religion. Some may say to me, "Why are you so concerned about religion?"

Well, I am not so concerned about religion as I am about Christianity, for history shows that when Christianity begins to wane, civilization goes into a steep decline. For me, Christianity extends well beyond the portals of the Church. All Christians have been charged with being MILITANT. We are supposed to be "the Church Militant".

The anti-Christian crusade will pick up steam, as the big lie that Communism is on the wane spreads throughout the world. With it will come a renewed cry for "equality, liberty and fraternity" and brotherhood. To achieve this goal we will be told it is necessary for us to give up "old ideas." TO ESTABLISH A FELLOWSHIP OF FAITHS, WE WILL HAVE TO GIVE UP CHRISTIANITY.

This most serious of all revolutionary attacks is the ongoing process started by Weishaupt, which has continued unbroken ever since 1776, and as I pointed out once, 1776 was a significant year. Leading the revolutionary assault is the World Council of Churches, (WCC) whose activities in the political field have resulted in profound changes in both politics and economics. The WCC is not so foolish to believe that Christianity belongs in the portals of the church.

I thought it worthwhile to go over the history of the Federal Council of Churches. The plank of this quasi-Christian organization was to take over the affairs of civil government in all Christian countries. This included strictly non-religious affairs.

My research proved beyond a shadow of a doubt that the Federal Council of Churches was run by radical anti-Christian groups—which its constitution allowed, many of the radical groups being members of the Third International. The aim of the Third International was to destroy Christianity. The Federal Council of Churches was run by militant revolutionaries.

The Federal Council of Churches claimed 20 million members in its heyday, a claim I have been able to thoroughly debunk. The question of who financed the Federal Council of Churches was also resolved when I discovered that much of its financial support came from carefully disguised Communist front organizations.

The FCC was active in setting the stage for the plague of homosexuality and lesbianism which has descended upon this land. The FCC published explicit sex instruction of an abominable kind. It is from this beginning that the WCC picked up on homos and lesbians and promoted this filth, and have ever since fully supported queers and lesbians. What was the object? It was the destruction of Western Christian morals as epitomized by 90% of the filth turned out by "Hollywood".

The FCC was backed from the very beginning by the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU). Anyone of substance who attacked the FCC and the Fellowship of Faiths soon found themselves in trouble with the courts. The same holds good today, and any patriot who openly conflicts with ACLU ideas will soon find himself on the receiving end of lawsuits of all kinds.

The Fellowship of Faiths in its revived and revised form is concentrating on making and consolidating opinions for the Christian Church worldwide. One of the strongholds of the Fellowship of Faiths is the Bahai Movement.

Since a number of those who follow my tape series have written to ask me about the Bahais, I will take the opportunity to give a summarized response. The movement was started in 1844, in Persia (today called Iran), by Mirza Ali Muhammad. He was also known as "Bab" or "Gate". Unfortunately for Muhammad, in 1850, he was shot at Tabriz for his "revolutionary activities".

Bahaism teaches that Zoroaster, Buddha, Confucius and Jesus Christ were leaders who prepared the way for the coming of the Mighty World Educator Bahau'lla (The Glory of God), whose forerunner was Abdul Baha, who died in 1921.

The Bahai Movement is very strong in Iran, Australia and Britain. What caught my attention is that Bahaism is merely FREEMASONRY IN DISGUISE, and since Masonry and Theosophy are virtually indistinguishable, it is no wonder that the Bahai religion became a world force to be reckoned with in such a short time.

In the United States of America, the ecology shock troops who will be unleashed in an all-out war against industry, has thousands of Bahais in its ranks. It is there where the revived "Fellowship of Faiths" will take hold. The ecology shock troops will be used in much the same manner as the Danton-Marat Paris street mobs were used in the Reign of Terror during the French Revolution.

The Bahai Movement claims to be the perfect unity of all religions, an idea which Freemasonry has supported in the past, and probably still does today, although not as openly as it once did in its articles in the American Freemasonic publication, The Builder. As for the Bahais, they say that Masonry sprang from their religion.

Madame Petrovna Blavatsky greatly favored the Bahai Movement, so it is worthwhile, I believe, to include a short statement of facts concerning this woman, probably the most remarkable charlatan in recent times.

Blavatsky got her start through Herbert Burrows, who promoted her through the "Society for Physical Research," which was a select club for the aristocracy, the rich and politically powerful of Victorian London. She was later described by H.G. Wells, a member of the Society for Physical Research, as "one of the most accomplished, ingenuous and interesting impostors in the world."

Madame Blavatsky was initiated into the Carbonari by Mazzini, a leading Freemason in Italy, who claimed he received information from the "Mahatmas". Blavatsky was a close associate of Garibaldi, and was with him at the battles at Viterbro and Mentana.

She was greatly influenced by Victor Micahl, and his circle, which included Rivail, all of whom were revolutionaries and Freemasons of the Grand Orient. She is reported to have greatly influenced the degenerate Scottish Rite Master Albert Pike, who was one of Mazzini's advisers and probably Mazzini's closest confidant. Blavatsky ran the Theosophist Society up to the time of her death in 1891.

Her mantle was picked up by Dr. Annie Besant. Mrs. Besant was Co-Mason under the control of the Grand Orient Lodge in Paris, which made her a Vice President of the Supreme Council and Grand Master of the Supreme Council for Britain. It is here where the convergence of Freemasonry, Theosophy and Fellowship of Faiths is clearly recognizable.

What happened to the Fellowship of Faiths? Shortly before the close of the First World War, it became virtually indistinguishable from World Zionism and following the close of that war, emerged as "The League of Nations". Then, just before the Second World War, it surfaced in England as the Oxford Group, which was succeeded by Moral Rearmament.

Following the close of the Second World War, it played a major role in the formation of the United Nations, and penetrated the American political scene through the liberal left, where it was allied to student revolutionary groups and a number of political organizations, such as the following:

THE LEAGUE FOR INDUSTRIAL DEMOCRACY

Social Democrats U.S.A.
Institute for Policy Studies
NATO, Political Wing
Club of Rome
The Cini Foundation
Cambridge Policy Studies Institute
Anti-Defamation Fact Finding League
Committee for a Democratic Majority
The United Nations
The Lucius Trust
New Democratic Coalition
War Resisters League
The Aspen Institute
Stanford Research
Greenpeace

The Fellowship of Faiths is a project of the "Olympians", or if you prefer it, the Committee of Three Hundred. This ensures that spokespersons for some of the richest and most powerful corporations in the world will actively promote the Fellowship of Faith aims.

The Tavistock Institute will do its share by promoting a new breed of rock singers whose lyrics will bring the message of a universal religion. This has been in the works for the past two years [i.e., since 1988], and it will be used to quiet the wave of resentment sweeping through America over the horrifying and explicit rock lyrics promoting sex, drugs, suicide, murder, and the worship of Satan.

Tavistock is owned by the "Eagle Star Group", so it is assured of unlimited funding for the "Aquarian" assault on Christianity. The Canadian and British Broadcasting Services, under the direction of the Queen of England, will throw their considerable weight behind the Fellowship of Faiths. I am expecting to see hundreds of Christian ministers who should know better, get sucked into the Fellowship of Faiths, or whatever its new name will be.

The interlocking families of giant companies owned by the "Olympians," can be verified by paging through Standard and Poors, Dun and Bradstreet and the American and British Who's Who.

I have explained many times in my papers that everything that happens in the political wing of NATO is controlled by the "Olympians." Thus, we can expect that NATO too, will be used to promote the Fellowship of Faiths, as it rapidly gains the upper hand of the military wing.

Everything can be traced back to the founders, corporate officers and board members and owners of the multinational banks and companies of the Committee of Three Hundred in the London-centered bankers, traders and international drug traffickers.

As this includes the BBC, ABC, NBC and CBS, I fully expect a mushrooming of "religious" programs, which will be used as trial balloons to test support for the ideas of a One World Religion.

The same Madison Avenue propagandists who sold the American public the idea that Gorbachev is quite different from his predecessors, have almost completed their draft of how the media will handle the onslaught against Christianity.

Just as the American people were sold the idea that it was better to let Lithuania go to the wall rather than upset the good relations between Moscow and Washington, so too will we be sold the idea that it is better to sacrifice Christian principles, if it means that peace will descend upon the world.

The Social Sciences new scientists and the theologians of Liberation Theology will be trotted out, one by one, to convince the skeptics that this is indeed a step forward for humanity. They will be backed by Judeo-Christian ministers who will jump on the bandwagon in haste to join the "modern" movement.

Only it is not a modern movement, but the revival of ancient ideas whose origins are lost in antiquity. The "ecology" movement will feature prominently in coming events, under the direction of Atlantic Richfield company chairman Robert O. Anderson, a protege of Robert Maynard Hutchins, probably the closest collaborator whom H.G. Wells ever had.

Anderson went to school with Mrs. Katherine Meyer Graham, master of the Washington Post, and we can expect to see a flurry of articles appear in that paper, all in support of the Fellowship of Faiths.

Anderson is the controlling light behind "Earth Day", whose shock troops have already launched a series of attacks on industrial targets and has extensively funded "Friends of the Earth", and the United Nations Conference on the environment. Anderson is a high ranking inner-core member of the Scottish Rite of Freemasonry.

Anderson's influence reaches far beyond the shores of these United States. In 1976, Anderson bought the Observer Ltd., newspaper, and installed Club of Rome members and One World Government officials Thorton Bradshaw, David Astor, Sir Mark Turner and Frank Stanton to run it.

Allied with this group of "environmentalists", is a powerful dope hierarchy which includes Kleinwort Benson. Turner is on the board of the Royal Institute for International Affairs, and chairman of Bank of America, the Toronto Dominion Bank and the National Cash Register Company.

The Fellowship Of Faiths

I mention these facts to give us a very clear understanding of the forces arrayed on the side of the Fellowship of Faiths in the coming onslaught against Christianity.

In the Soviet Union, Mrs. Risa Gorbachev has been coordinating unity with the Russian Orthodox Church, and her so-called Cultural Society, and is linked to many of the above organizations through Armand Hammer and David Rockefeller. Thus, the stage is set for a renewal of the Fellowship of Faiths.

During the historic meeting between Gorbachev and Pope John Paul II, it was Gorbachev who proposed a religious summit between the Eastern religions in his country and the West. This was enthusiastically received by the Pope. From this sprang the Synod of the Bishops of Europe from the Atlantic to the Urals.

What Pope John Paul II has in mind differs from what the Gorbachev and the Fellowship of Faiths expects to achieve, and as there are at least 120 high ranking Masons in the Vatican, it is the Fellowship of Faiths which is likely to infiltrate and dominate proceedings of the Synod.

It may come as a surprise to some that Pope John I lost his life because he gave orders to Cardinal Vilot, the then-Secretary of State, to immediately rid the Vatican of Masons. Pope John I was poisoned the same night he gave the order to Vilot.

Cardinal Vilot died a short while later under very suspicious circumstances. When Pope John Paul II took over the papacy, the long tradition of carrying out the wishes of the previous Pope was dropped. Vatican Freemasons remain more firmly entrenched than ever before.

On the advice of one of these, or perhaps even a number of Masons, the Pope has chosen Velehrad in Czechoslovakia as the site for the Synod. Velehrad is where the tomb of St. Methodius lies, who along with his brother, St. Cyril, Christianised the Eastern regions.

A significant comment was made by the President of Czechoslovakia, Vaclav Havel, believed by my sources to be a Mason, who stated: "I dare say that in this moment I am participating in a miracle. The miracle is that in the country devastated by the rule of the ignorant, arrives a messenger of love."

The Pope expects to reach Russia via Czechoslovakia. Speaking to students at St. Charles University, Pope John Paul II said, "If Europe's historical memory does not reach beyond the ideals of enlightenment its new unity will have superficial foundations." This is exactly the situation the Fellowship of Faiths hopes and expects to create.

Continuing, Pope John Paul II said, "Christianity, brought into this continent by the Apostles and penetrated into various parts by the actions of Benedict, Cyril, Adalbert, and countless hosts of saints, is at the very roots of European Culture."

Now the Pope was not talking about ANY OTHER RELIGION. Pope John Paul II was explaining how Christianity had made it possible for a European Civilization to grow. He did not say that this growth was due to the Albergensians or the Cathars; it was Christianity alone that had brought about the development and civilizing of Europe.

It is the destruction of this unifying force that the Fellowship of Faiths has set its sights on. The same so-called "spirit of investigation" in America, that led Henry Steel Olcott and George H. Fell to form the Theosophy Society of America, as a force to counter the spread of Christianity, is now at work once again.

I have not yet received the new name which the old Fellowship of Faiths will adopt. In the light of past experience, we may safely believe that it will be some high and lofty title which will completely obscure the true nature and intent of the forces arrayed against Christianity and the Republic of the United States of America.

The coming year will be a crucial one in the road toward a One World Government. Again, I urge you not to think of this battle as a religious matter; of course it is that, but its ramifications are vast and will affect every facet of our lives, and the lives of generations to come, and may even be a key factor as to whether we as a nation will survive or not.

The No-Sale Ekker Home Lawsuit

Article 1 Are You Anti-Semitic?

In a recent deposition of Doris J. Ekker concerning the lawsuit over the non-sale of their home almost eight years ago by an auctioneer who certified the sale but did not actually hold it as scheduled, Steven Horn, attorney defending Santa Barbara Savings and Loan, its affiliated corporations, RTC and the auctioneer, asked Mrs. Ekker: Are you anti-Semitic?

The subject, in my opinion, is totally irrelevant to the issues in point, and the question is beyond that allowed by our Constitution, which guarantees the people the right to their personal, religious and political beliefs, as well as the right to free speech. Was this question a personal concern which attorney Horn interjected into the proceedings or is there something more to his line of questioning?

I do not know. Nevertheless, it is a fact that the citizens in Europe and Canada, as well as elsewhere, have reported that laws have been thrust upon them in their countries which punish those accused of any suspicion, voiced or active opposition to the "Semites" (aka "Jews"). In these countries it is dangerous to be accused of being "anti-Semitic". In spite of our constitutional protections, there are pro-Zionist groups today who are also trying to make this a law in the United States. Is Mr. Horn among them? Will the judge hearing the case be among them?

Who are the "Semites"? To be anti-anything you must first know the meaning of the word in point. If you ask an Arab if he is anti-Semitic, he will respond, "Of course not, I am Semitic." (!). Look up the word and its derivatives in the dictionary, especially an older edition. According to the American College Dictionary (1962) the words mean, (quote):

Semite: n. a member of a speech family comprising the Hebrews, Arabs, Assyrians, etc., supposedly descended from Shem (aka Sem) (Gen. 10).

Semitic: n. 1. an important family of languages related to the Hamitic, including Akkadian, Hebrew, Aramaic, Arabic and Amharic. adj. 2. of or pertaining to the Semites or their languages.

Semitism: n. 1. Semitic characteristics, esp. the ways, ideas, influences, etc., of the Jewish people. 2. a Semitic word or idiom.

(End quote)

Therefore, to be in accord even with today's understandings, if you are "anti-Semitic" you are anti-Arab, anti-Assyrian, anti-Hebrew, etc. Did Mr. Horn intend to include the Arabs and others within his meaning of the word? You will have to ask Mr. Horn. However, the idea of "anti-Semitism" is one widely and strongly kept before the public today by the controlled media and the Anti-Defamation League (ADL), which is an organization under the umbrella of the B'nai B'rith, a secret Jewish Masonic Order. (Ref.: Encyclopedia Judaica and Destruction of Freemasonry Through Revelation of Their Secrets) There are very few Arabs who relate to the idea of "anti-Semitism", not having the ADL behind them and being Semites themselves. Many of them probably would classify themselves now, after their treatment in Palestine by the mostly Khazarian Jews, as anti-"Jewish" or anti-"Israel". From their point of view, it is the Jews who are "anti-Semitic", meaning "anti-Arab", in their case.

Mrs. Ekker responded to Mr. Horn's question by saying: "No, I am a Semite", Mr. Horn did not pursue the question. When the deposition was typed and distributed by the court reporter this response had been changed to: "No, I am sympathetic." (!) Mrs. Ekker is attempting to correct the record.

What did Mrs. Ekker mean by "I am a Semite"? I do not speak for Mrs. Ekker. However, it is my understanding that she meant she was a descendent of Semjasa, the forefather of all the White race on Earth, according to Hatonn. Therefore, she is a "Semite", although not the kind understood by most "religions" or historians today. Those who have been following Hatonn's teachings, and/or have read my research in The Garden of Aton, will know that much of the truth of the way things were has been lost or rewritten through the ages. Still, some remnants remain in the Bible. If you can accept the idea that most of the races on Earth were originally brought here from another place, and/or seeded by people from another place, you will better understand how Mrs. Ekker could be a "Semite" (i.e., a descendant of Semjasa, one of God's Hosts). In fact, it appears, that the people who were identified as Semites, Heberites, Eberites (aka Heber, with the prefix "H" dropped by some scholars), Iberians (Spanish) (Hiberians in Latin), Hibernians (Irish), from Hebrides (Scotland), Habiru (Middle East), Hebrew, etc., may have come from a "place beyond", according to the Bible, Genesis 20:21, (KJV, purchased 1940), quote:

Unto Shem (aka Sem) also, the father of all the Children of Eber, the brother of Japheth the elder, even to him were children born. (Parenthesis added.) (End quote)

All of these groups of people, and perhaps others as well, derive their names from a common root, the consonantal word HBR.

The word "Eber" means, according to my Bible Concordance, a "place beyond", and Sem was the father of all these people. (Ref.: Concordance by Oxford University Press and attached to my KJV of the Bible.) Of course, several understandings have been given to the word, understanding which cannot be affirmed. Nevertheless, in the context of Hatonn's teachings, I believe it is a clue to our true forebearers. In fact, there are many other clues in the Bible as well as other teachings which tend to support this view (i.e., scriptures of the Japanese and oral teachings of some of the Hopi Indians).

It is more than a little surprising that those who call themselves "Jews" today would even claim to be "Semitic" for another reason. The greater number of them (from 75% to 90% according to various researchers) are Ashkenazi Jews, descendants of their eponymous ancestor, Noah's son Japheth, according to biblical accounts. They are not Semites (descendants of Sem or Shem), and therefore not sons of Abraham, having no historical or hereditary "rights", for example, to the land of Palestine. They are of the Kazarian Jews, who accepted "Judaism" in the 8th-9th Century A.D. However, this "Judaism" is primarily not that of the Old Testament Hebrews, but is Babylonian Talmudism. Always keep in mind that there is a small percentage of Jews who are Judean and Torah-practicing Jews. They believe in God who is One and follow God's Laws. They are not Talmudists.

Therefore, when you question yourself as to whether or not you are "anti-Semitic", within the meaning of the word being imposed and/or claimed by the Babylonian Talmudists, you need to know what is said about you by the people claiming this distinction in the book that they follow. I have written extensively about the Babylonian Talmud in other articles. Suffice it to say here that it teaches those who follow it to consider the goyim (everyone not a "Jew", aka goim, goi or gentile) as animals, slaves, etc. It is rabidly anti-Christian and anti-Christ as well.

Thus, even if you would like to be "pro-Jewish", for example, you are trapped by their own definitions of you. To be "pro-Jewish" means, within the context of their own belief system, that you (a goyim or gentile—anyone not a "Jew") are against yourself. It is only the double-minded, foolish, dominated, oppressed, ignorant and unworthy who could tolerate that situation for long. The Talmudist's belief system is that only the Jews are men, the rest are animals to be exploited in every way possible. They are anti-goyim, anti-gentile, anti-Arab, and I believe anti-constitutional and therefore anti-American. I believe this is the true nature of the plans now afoot to bring about laws in the United States which would prohibit, on threat of severe punishment, any suspicious opposition to the Jews. (You can research this for yourselves. Many large libraries have copies of this Talmud. Also, please see bibliography for other sources.) Please share this information with your legislators and everyone else.

Immanuel taught us to love God first, and our neighbors as ourselves. I believe this applies to both "Jew" and "Gentile". The American people, in my estimation, have been most generous to the Jews. Nevertheless, it is not psychologically healthy or even intended by God or our Constitution that anyone should give over their rights and power to others, or to allow themselves to be denigrated as a person, a race or a believer of any "religion".

It is certainly past the time, in my opinion, that the Jews (Babylonian Talmudists) express their own appreciation for all the help the "goyim" in the United States have given them. Further, like Popes John XXIII and Paul VI, who during Vatican Council II at the insistence of the Jews, removed dogma perceived to be offensive to the Jews from approved Catholic teachings, the Babylonian Talmudists need now in turn to remove from their "book" all that is offensive to the "goyim". It is the only equitable thing to do, the Christians have certainly met them more than halfway. In view of the continuing anti-goyim attitudes of the Babylonian Talmudists it is not at all surprising to me that they would encounter what they term "anti-Semitism". In my view, much of this "anti-Semitism" could well be in most cases a healthy respect for oneself, be you American, Arab, European, Canadian, or whatever.

If you are asked in the future whether or not you are anti-Semitic, I suggest you insist that the questioner define the term. Further, instead of accepting the guilt I believe is deliberately implied by such a question, return the question to the questioner. Ask them: Are you anti-gentile? Are you anti-American? Are you anti-Christian?, etc. I believe this may encourage them to take a closer look at their own offensive book, and the leaders who teach them the path they choose to tread.

The question, "Are you anti-Semitic?", was in my opinion a mere fraction of all the obviously irrelevant questions imposed on both Mr. and Mrs. Ekker during several days of depositions costing $700 per hour. It appears that the opposition intends to break the Ekkers, financially or otherwise. This non-sale house case has run for over eight years, and the Ekkers have yet to have their day to speak in court. Mr. Steven Horn has represented the opposition throughout these long years. Mr. Horn admits in effect that during these depositions he is trying to discredit the Ekkers, who have charged

Santa Barbara Savings and Loan, their affiliates, the RTC and the auctioneer with fraud. How is Horn doing this? There is little to base his defense upon regarding the actual no-sale. Ekkers have witnesses to prove there was no-sale—the County Clerk, the Treasurer at City Hall and others. Horn consequently is going far afield to desperately try to find some dishonorable thing the Ekkers may have done in the last eight years in order to impeach their testimony. He has questioned everything to date: their beliefs, their family, their business activity, etc.—long after the no-sale, and irrelevant to it. How can this possibly prove there was no sale, which of course is not being addressed at this point? All of this overload of the system and apparent abuse costs $700 per hour. This case proves, in my opinion, that precious few citizens will be able to mount any kind of lawsuit against any kind of crime without considerable help from concerned others. Thank God the Ekkers have received what they needed to endure. With a few more like them and the concerned others, we may be able to turn this country around.

In my opinion, judges and attorneys have a primary responsibility for the situation and the need to correct it. Please send a copy of this to the governor and to the Bar Association in the states where you live. Addresses can easily be obtained from your city or county librarian. I believe this case starkly reveals the runaway greed and assumed autonomy of those running our "injustice" system. It is no longer a servant of the people in most cases, and no longer representative of our Constitution.

Until One Is Committed

there is hesitancy,
the chance to draw back, always ineffectiveness. Concerning all acts of initiative (and creation), there is one elementary truth, the ignorance of which kills countless ideas and splendid plans:
that the moment one definitely commits oneself, then Providence moves, too. All sorts of things occur to help one that would never otherwise have occurred. A whole stream of events issues from the decision, raising in one's favour all manner of unforeseen incidents and meetings and material assistance, which no man could have dreamt would have come his way. I have learned a deep respect for one of Goethe's couplets:
"Whatever you can do, or dream you can,
begin it./ Boldness has genius, power,
and magic in it."

and revere certain distinguished Marine Corps officers and enlisted men who had performed exemplary service in achieving major military objectives.

One of these officers who was held out very highly as one of the most distinguished of all Marine Corps leaders was Major General Smedley D. Butler. There was no shortage of references to the great military accomplishments he had made in the early part of this century. Gen. Butler was able to complete some very interesting maneuvers, and on at least one occasion, against resistant Nicaraguans, without ever firing a single shot. This man was indeed quite brilliant.

But what was never revealed to us while serving in the Marine Corps was what Gen. Butler decided to do after retiring from the Corps. It was as though this side of his life never existed. He went public with all the things he had kept inside of himself for those many years. And this is what makes this man truly brilliant.

This author has obtained, from an undisclosed source, a published list of "Radical Periodicals in the United States, 1890-1960, First Series", which lists 67 separate publications. It seems obvious, from having read some of the publications, that the reason they were considered radical periodicals is due to the very simple fact that they took an impartial and objective view in examining the corrupt activities conducted around the world by our government and other governments. The writers and publishers of these periodicals may not have been aware of it at the time, but they were observing and exposing an emerging New World Order as it unfolded on our "modern" world stage. The list of these Radical Periodicals is included here, and shows, by their titles and years of publication, the general insight that was gleaned at certain times. The reader may yet be able to obtain information on some of these periodicals from the U.C.L.A. Library, Archives on Microfilm.

One of these periodicals was called Common Sense, published from 1932-1946. After Gen. Smedley Butler retired from military service, he decided to go public with some of his knowledge about what he had been involved in with the Marine Corps, and wrote a series of 4 articles over a four-month period beginning with the October 1935 issue of Common Sense. The articles cover a wide spectrum of U.S. Military operations, including National Guard actions domestically against striking American workers. Gen. Butler lets us know, in no uncertain terms, that he was, in essence, a racketeer and enforcer for Big Business, for Wall Street, and the bankers.

Here is some of what he had to say in the November 1935 issue of Common Sense, (quoting:)

I Was a Racketeer.

It may seem odd for me, a military man, to adopt such a comparison. Truthfulness compels me to. I spent 33 years and 4 months in active service as a member of our country's most agile military force—the Marine Corps. I served in all commissioned ranks from a second lieutenant to Major General. And during that period I spent most of my time being a high-class muscle man for Big Business, for Wall Street and for the bankers. In short, I was a racketeer for capitalism.

I suspected I was just part of a racket at the time. Now I am sure of it. Like all members of the military profession I never had an original thought until I left the service. My mental faculties remained in suspended animation while I obeyed the orders of the higher-ups. This is typical of everyone in the military service.

Thus I helped make Mexico and especially Tampico safe for American oil interests in 1914. I helped make Haiti and Cuba a decent place for the National City Bank boys to collect revenues in. I helped in the rapping of half-a-dozen Central American republics for the benefit of Wall Street. The record of racketeering is long. I helped purify Nicaragua for the international banking house of Brown Brothers in 1909-12. I brought light to the Dominican Republic for American sugar interests in 1916. I helped make Honduras "right" for American fruit companies in 1903. In China in 1927 I helped to see to it that Standard Oil went its way unmolested.

During those years, I had, as the boys in the back room would say, a swell racket. I was rewarded with honors, medals, promotion. Looking back on it, I feel I might have given Al Capone a few hints. The best he could do was to operate his racket in three city districts. We Marines operated on three continents. (End Quote)

Gen. Butler contends, from his perspective, that we have never fought a defensive war. The intent is always offensive, in the name of "National Defense" (today it is called National Security), but to anyone who observes what takes place behind the scenes, the military might of the world works for the international bankers and big business.

Gen. Butler speaks about the War Department. After World War II, that name was changed to the Department of Defense. It is still the War Department, but with a new name, not to deceive those in the military, but to deceive those of us who are expected to pay for their escapades. Preparation for defense sounds better than preparation for war, no matter if it is a lie.

We quote here again from the November 1935 issue of Common Sense (Quoting:)

OUR IDEAL NEVER DEFENSIVE

Lest this seem to be the bellicose pipe dream of some dyspeptic desk soldier, let us remember that the military ideal of our country has never been defensive warfare. Since the Revolution, only the United Kingdom has beaten our record for square miles of territory acquired by military conquest. Our exploits against the American Indian, against the Filipinos, the Mexicans, and against Spain are on a par with the campaigns of Genghis Khan, the Japanese in Manchuria and the African attack of Mussolini. No country has ever declared war on us before we first obliged them with that gesture. Our whole history shows we have never fought a defensive war...

Actually our armed forces have up-to-date plans for offensive warfare against almost every country on the globe—all in the sacred name of "national defense"...

The gold braid boys (Generals and Admirals) are reliable puppets, obeying the string-pulling of their bosses and bowing to imperialist expediency whenever commanded. (End Quote)

Just what does Gen. Butler say about the intricate connection between Wall Street, the bankers, and Big Business on the one hand, and our military on the other? We quote here from the October 1935 issue of Common Sense, (quoting:)

The generals, besides being reactionary and possessing the backwardness of the military mind, are so closely identified with Big Business that the status quo is their first consideration. The average War Department officer is forever hoping he can step from his lowly position into some big industrial vice presidency... The generals, too, look with soft eyes upon Wall Street and banking, and when they retire they hope, oftentimes with success, to enter these fields. They have a large stake in the present and the future of the system. If they can inculcate their particular brand of military fascism widely enough and insulate their military system against all outside influences they will feel safe in giving any orders." (End Quote)

And, in the December 1935 issue of Common Sense, Gen. Butler said the following about our Navy, (quoting:)

"It is Wall Street's bill collector and profit maker, thereby earning the support of Big Business and industry..."

The American Navy has always been more than obliging to Wall Street. Utilizing its Marine Corps, the Navy occupied Haiti for 18 months and successfully kept the Haitians from holding elections or their Congress from meeting. The Navy occupied Santo Domingo for 10 years... Until 1922 the Navy occupied a province of Cuba... In all these occupations and "civilizing" expeditions and forays of capitalistic expediency the Navy, of course, was acting at the behest of our State Department, which is to say, Wall Street. The interests of the big New York banks were ably promoted: National City Bank, Brown Brothers, J. & W. Seligman and other houses-of-issue getting their investments pulled out of the fire. In addition, the bankers in Bolivia and... Columbia operated under the protective influence of the Navy's cruisers and destroyers. (End Quote)

Should we expect that things are any different today, that there is any less involvement between big money and the military? If anything, it appears to be much worse. It appears that the purpose of the military today is to insure that the wealth of the international bankers is maintained, and increased if deemed necessary, to crush into submission any nation or part thereof which could or does attempt to oppose the military machine and plans of the international bankers, and to be used, if the situation warrants it, upon the unsuspecting domestic population who at times become restless and discontent while suffering under the corruption they are forced to endure.

Gen. Butler discussed the domestic role of the military against those who organized into labor unions (much to the dismay of big business, as such actions threatened their profits) and against "subversives", in the November 1935 issue of Common Sense, (quoting:)

Our National Guardsmen have done even better. In the past two years large National Guard forces have seen active service in 20 strikes in as many different states, from the Pacific Coast to New England, from Minnesota to Georgia. They have used gas, bullets, and tanks—the most lethal weapons of modern war against striking workers. Casualty lists have been impressive. In one instance they erected barbed wire concentration camps in Georgia to "co-ordinate" striking workers with all the efficiency of the fascist repressive technique...

The intelligence men further justify their jobs by spy work on radical gatherings, by attending public forums in an attempt to detect political or economic heresy, by keeping tabs on various suspects, and by smelling out what they consider to be subversive activities everywhere... In the New York area, for instance, the military intelligence officers are especially busy... Radical meetings are attended, notes taken, speakers listed, and as many of the audience identified as possible. It is well known in liberal and radical circles that the military intelligence units have been planting men within suspected organizations. Often the "plant" appears in uniform carrying a radical publication...(End Quote)

Planting informers is nothing new, and from this author's own observations, it is rare indeed to find any organization informed about what our government does, that is without a plant.

But, barbed wire concentration camps in Georgia? If this was already done in the early 1930s against striking workers, why should we expect it wouldn't be done again under F.E.M.A. (Federal Emergency Management Agency), or with United Nations troops, if some calamitous and/or catastrophic situation(s) demanded such extreme measures?? A precedent has already been set over 60 years ago!

Gen. Butler makes some very sound suggestions for correcting the abuses of military power by those who pull the strings. We quote here from the November 1935 issue of Common Sense, (quoting:)

What is the Answer?

The correction of these evils is our immediate duty. We must deny to our armed forces the functions of diplomats, politicians and agents provocateur. To do this means reorienting the military both in location and in policy as well. Our entire doctrine of war must be restated as a defensive doctrine in theory and adhered to in practice. We must give up the Prussian ideal—carrying on offensive warfare and imposing our wills upon other people in distant places. Such doctrine is unAmerican and vicious...

Finally, the clique that has fastened itself upon Washington and which is responsible for these powerful militaristic influences must be uprooted... There must be no more reactionary and destructive intelligence work. The true domestic enemies of our nation (are) hunger, injustice and exploitation...

Indeed, we need to make an about face. We must change the provocative activities of our armed forces into those of passive defense. If the military has any excess energies, let them concern themselves with the welfare of the whole people. We must insure that welfare by defending it, rather than seeking to attack someone else. (End Quote)

General Smedley Butler is a remarkable example of a man. He went from being one of the most useful tools of the power Elite, and then made a complete turnaround to become a truly eloquent and articulate spokesman for the real American ideals.

He made mention in the last quote, to "reactionary and destructive intelligence work". Such could not be more adequately portrayed today than by references to our own Central Intelligence Agency. For those who might think the C.I.A. is involved in intelligence work, guess again. That is the job of the N.S.A. (National Security Agency), to be discussed in a future article.

The "Conclusion" to Ralph W. McGehee's book, Deadly Deceits—My 25 Years in the C.I.A., begins with the following paragraph, (quoting:)

The C.I.A. is not now nor has it ever been a central intelligence agency. It is the covert action arm of the President's foreign policy advisers. In that capacity it overthrows or supports foreign governments while reporting "intelligence" justifying those activities. It shapes its intelligence, even in such critical areas as Soviet nuclear weapon capability, to support presidential policy. Disinformation is a large part of its covert action responsibility, and the American people are the primary target audience of its lies. (End Quote)

Ralph McGehee reports in his book, on pages

142-143, that the C.I.A. contrived and fabricated information and events in 1965, that led to U.S. Military involvement in Vietnam. He should know, he was there.

The Vietnam "Conflict" was a long drawn-out no-win war. It appeared to be no-win as far as the people were concerned, and the people, of course, were the real losers. But, although it is of importance who wins a war, what is of equal, if not greater, importance is prosecuting a war. That is where the real money is made by big business. Vietnam netted incredible profits for the banks, big business and the armaments manufacturers. They made a real killing, no pun intended.

There is substantial documentation that this was exactly the situation in World War II. The major oil companies and the international bankers supported both sides in the war. Again, they made a real killing, but of even greater significance, what came out of World War II was the establishment of the United Nations, the effective front organization, and the new de facto One World Government that clearly installed the New World Order to full power.

"Professor" Soltec: On Earthquakes & The Problem Of "Missing" Time

5/30/96 SOLTEC

Commander Ceres Anthonius "Toniose" Soltec present in the Light of Holy God of all magnificent Creation. As I write, through this translator and scribe, we of my command are very busy monitoring the geophysical activities of Earth-Shan.

At this time you are experiencing a greatly stepped-up level of earthquake activity worldwide and, where appropriate, also stepped-up volcanic action, along all of the major fault lines dividing your various tectonic plates.

As a matter of most serious observation, we frequently call to your attention the actions around the Pacific Plate because, especially as concerns the stability of your West Coast of America, that is the "gear" driving the machinery which shall precipitate impending great change for the United States.

Before proceeding with a discussion of the current situation, I would like to refer back to a writing of mine, written through Dharma, from 6/15/91—just to remind you for how long it has been that our lessons have been offered and mostly forgotten or ignored.

[QUOTING:]

As Hatonn told you in the past days—pay attention for there is massive movement in the entire circumfer-ence lip of the Ring of Fire (the Sea of Peace Ocean). I believe it is the Pacific Plate Tectonic, as you refer to it. Please note that Australia is NOT within those boundaries but is THE MOST IMPACTED by movement of the Pacific Plate. There is tremendous activity in the outreach portions of Australia and New Zealand.

Georgia (Soviet Union) is a different matter and is in established upheaval to cause the Soviet Union to remain united, for as the Russian Republic becomes republicanized so will the other Bloc nations again rise up and Georgia is one which is already at a level of unacceptable restlessness. It is, of course, far more than that but it is a most dangerous game played when you tamper with Mother Nature.

You people of Earth-Shan are either the most daring or the most foolish beings we have come upon in a very long time of traveling.

The primitive people of the Philippines are terrified, just as are the natives of Australia and New Zealand, for they know the underground is ready to "uncreate" those islands or project up the entire ocean floor—which is going to cause happenings like you can only hold in the imagining. The atmospheric havoc is proof of that activity.

It is the location of Mt. Pinatubo that is most distressing to the Indians of the region for it is a part of the predictions (clues) of changes which would come upon the people and the world (which, of course, to them IS the Philippines and little more). The eruption could have been from Taal, Caniaon, Mayon and it would not have the same meaning as one which is dormant for centuries.

Now, please, look to Japan and the earthquakes and rumblings—this is NOT unusual for Japan, but you might well be seeing eruptions of those volcanos in Japan, also, within hours or days. Whether or not you hear of it, there will be great numbers of temblors in the Aleutians and right down through your chain of volcanos in the North American continent and through the entire circle to the south.

Earth man can precipitate earthquakes but he cannot control the activities very well, of volcanos. He can detonate high level nuclear explosions within the craters or from underground placement, but to cause activity in the mountain itself, there has to be a hole opened into the pressure caverns. This is why eruptions mean far more to geologists of the observers in my geologic survey teams, than does all the earthquakes you can produce.

[END OF QUOTING]

I have also chosen to example this particular writing from almost five years ago because of the teaching theme running through it that "all is connected to all"—that you cannot separate the earthquake or volcanic activities from the other shenanigans orchestrated by your would-be kings of darkness. So, let us continue with this lesson.

[RESUME QUOTING:]

As you study the upheaval in Georgia, U.S.S.R., note its political proximity to both Turkey and Iran, the Black Sea and the Caspian Sea and remember the trouble in Azerbaijan and Armenia, both bordering to the south and to the south-east. You ones must begin to look at the WHOLE and stop using the telescope attached to the kaleidoscope which simply blinds you through visions of colored glass.

The "state" of Georgia (U.S.S.R.), for instance, is a restless nation with many uprisings which have been quelled militarily—against the wishes of "Russia". Russia has over 146 million people to be reckoned with and Georgia has some 5.3 million to which the U.S.S.R. must account. Almost all the states of the Republic will side with Russia as the "party" grows stronger. Ah indeed, Yeltsin is a man with whom to be reckoned, and aid to little Georgia for earthquake relief may not be sufficient any longer.

Georgia can be most central in damage on an emotional level for it is in the western part of Transcaucasia and contains the largest manganese mines in the world. Well, what could that be worth? Lots! It is often a prime substance in the manufacture of steel, falling into the 6th octave periodic register of elements, falling into the same octave wherein argon is the seed and running from fifth toward seventh includes potassium, calcium, scandium, titanium, vanadium, chromium,

It's Tax Free Nevada (The last of the "safe havens")

If you're looking for the benefits that incorporating has to offer, such as limiting your personal liability, increasing tax-free benefits, and raising capital through the sale of stock—taking just 5 minutes of your time to explore the benefits of forming a Nevada Corporation could save you and your company thousands of dollars.

manganese and iron with cobalt on the cusp. So you see, you would have a much higher frequency, or "finer" steel than, say, vanadium or chromium. Lower in the octave you have argon, chlorine, sulphur, phosphorus, and silicon on the cusp. Moreover, manganese is a relatively low-frequency element and is utilized in producing low-frequency pulse beams. Indeed, the U.S.S.R. would not like to lose that commodity.

Further, Georgia is rich in timber resources and COAL mines. Basic industries are food, textiles, iron, steel, but it is resource for grain, tea, tobacco, fruits, grapes and other agricultural-related products. To maintain control, the U.S.S.R. MUST control at least Georgia, Armenia, Azerbaijan and especially the Ukrainian SSR. In the Ukrainian SSR, for instance, are almost 52 million people. Can you now see how frail a reed Mr. unpopular Gorbachev actually is blowing in the winds of possibilities?

I recognize that I am a "geologist" by "trade" but my commission is to study your globe from that particular aspect within the "whole". I could recommend nothing more important to your PHYSICAL input than to get good reference material and KNOW YOUR WORLD. You ones of Earth do not even know your own bodies and almost NOTHING about your planet. You speak of the "Ring of Fire" and yet you understand not the connections and why, for instance, eruptions in the Philippines are important! The Pacific Plate "generally" outlines the Ring of Fire, but oh, if you look no further, you are amiss in good judgment for there IS a Philippine Plate which has great impact just as does the Indian Plate which encompasses Australia.

These particular plates are impacted greatly by the movement of the Pacific Plate. Note also that the coastal areas of the volcano chain and the major western coastal fault lines are within the North American portion of the American Plate, while areas of Central America and northern South America are in the Caribbean Plate. South America is in the southern portion of the American Plate.

Now, you have to look at the area of Georgia which you will find in the Eurasian Plate which is affected by movement in both the American, Philippine and Pacific Plates. The magnificent Himalayas are the crumpled consequence, for instance, of an Indian Plate pushing northward into and under rigid Eurasia.

Do you begin to feel your education is lacking a bit of valid input? Precious brothers, you simply cannot expect to know nothing about your little world and then expect to be accepted without limits within the universal cosmic order. You as a species (civilization) of human physical beings are still quite in your infancy. There is nothing "wrong" with that, it is just so unlikely that your ability, at this stage of development and knowledge, allows you to participate in the great Federation of the cosmic experience.

You grow technologically into inability to control or cope with that which you tinker. You will find your brothers in the cosmos will not be very accepting of your demands in a Council wherein you do not even know the tectonic plates of your own planet. And I promise you that the ones who develop the death rays and weapons do not know anything about the working order of your globe—much less do the politicians who control every facet of your existence in your physical experience.

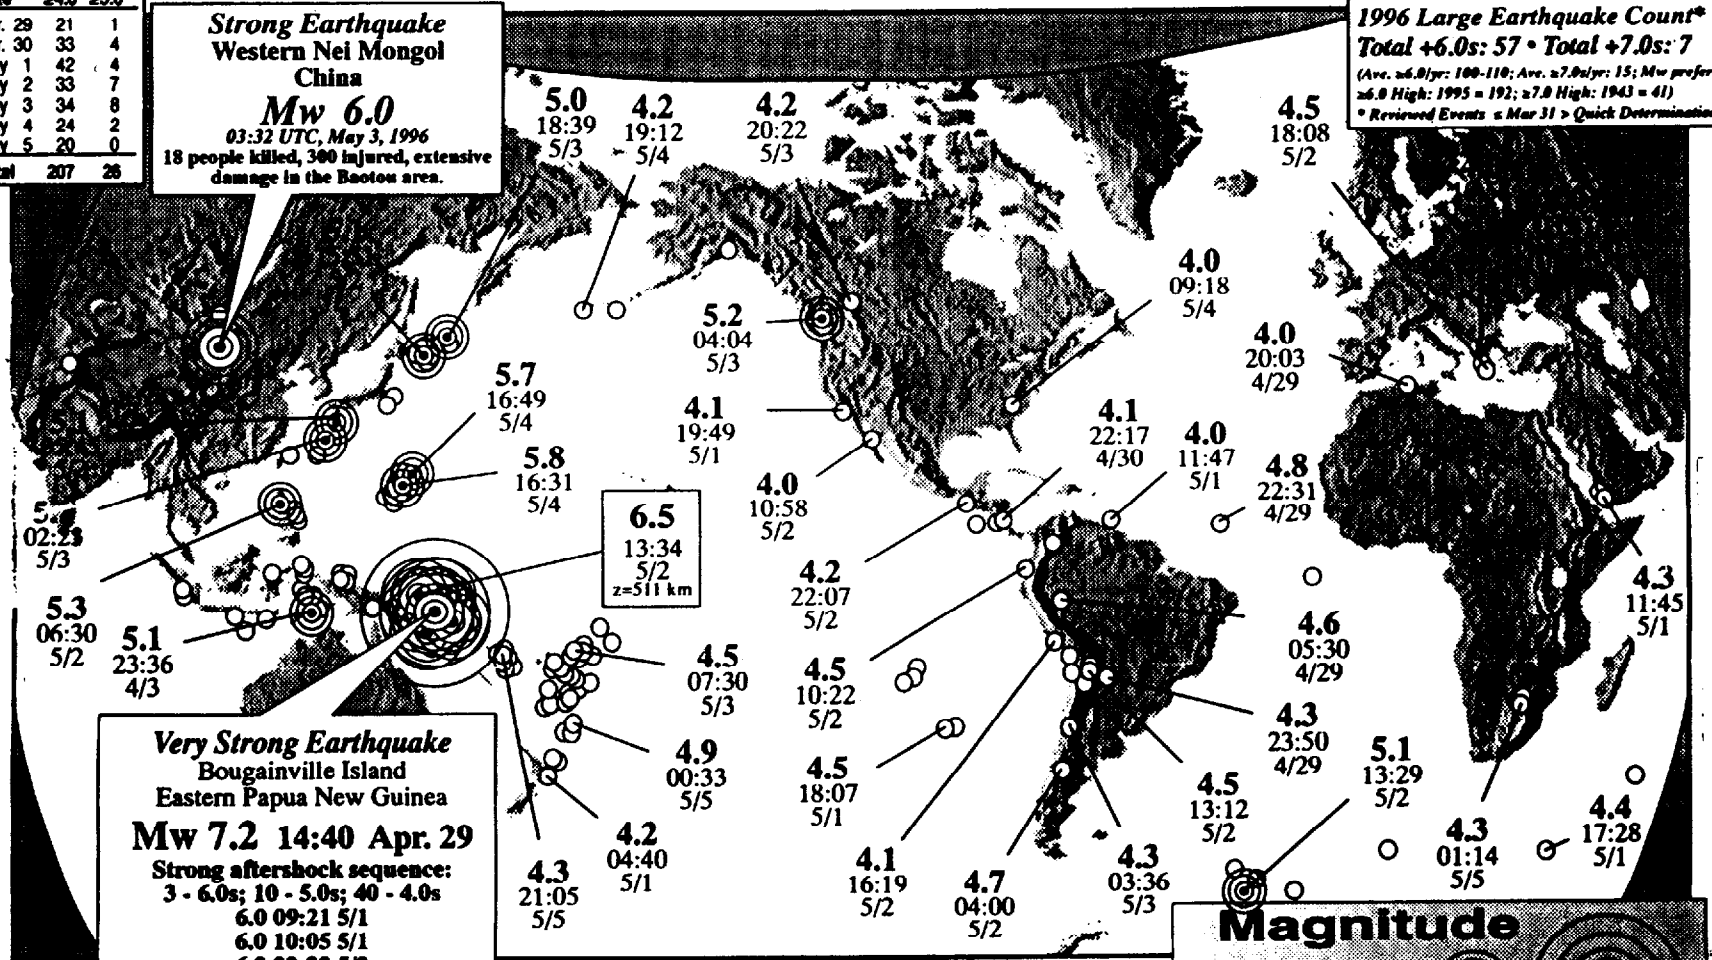

each is an ADULT trying to get past the whole lot of the garbage! Beyond the tending teddy bears. I believe Hatonn will have you cuddle your Constitution and NOT your teddy bear and binkie. Haven't all of you slept with your binkie long enough??

When God says, "come as children unto me", He doesn't mean with binkie and bunny. He means with curiosity, flexibility and eagerness to come into KNOWLEDGE with Himself. He cares not about your sexual or physical food preferences, nor other of the physicalness. YOU MUST COME INTO KNOWING THAT ALL OF THOSE THINGS ARE OF THE FLESH-PHYSICAL EXPERIENCE AND YOU—YOU—WILL COME INTO MATURITY AND KNOWLEDGE OR YOU WILL LINGER WITHIN THAT SHROUD OF DISCONTENT AND RESTLESSNESS. SO BE IT.

Preliminary earthquake data from a variety of sources are compiled and compared. NEIC or HRV Magnitude (Mw) are preferred. Data are the best available at the time of publication and subject to change. Consult sources for a full listing of events. One symbol may indicate multiple events. Times are in Greenwich Mean Time (UTC); subtract 7 hours for PDT, or 4 hours for EDT.

Would this not be the wondrous gift one such as "Inquirer General" Cole COULD give unto his listeners—or would he simply lose those who proclaim him "entertaining"? You see, we of the Command do not understand the insults to your intelligence which you not only tolerate but encourage. "Understand" is not a good word for use herein, for we DO understand what is happening and what is intended by your would-be King Masters, but our difficulty is the lack of expectation on the part of you-the-people to stand against the insults upon your experience.

I believe it should not have to be from an alien being that you should be gaining your education regarding these matters—it should be from your learned teachers at your universities and kindergartens. DO YOU NOT REALIZE THERE IS AN ADULT WITHIN EACH OF YOU TRYING TO GET OUT?

Hatonn and Dharma are going to bring forth some very interesting information which might be worthy of your attention; you keep working with the thin person trying to get out from the overweight trap; the inner child coming into protection—NO, NO, NO! Within planet. Is it not time you gave up your binkie and stopped this insanity?

I see that I have overstayed my welcome and will, therefore, give my appreciation—with a reminder or two. Within the next few years of your counting, things are going to heat up from your own place (I DO NOT MEAN GLOBAL WARMING BS) and from your atmosphere. You are going to have a lot of radioactive debris pouring back in on your orb and, if you don't get with the program and petition assistance, you are going to all get a very big hotfoot.

[END OF QUOTING]

Now, with that refresher lesson for foundation, let us take a brief look at relatively recent earthquake map data, first for the entire Pacific Plate and then for Northern and Southern California of your United States.

We consider the exercise of looking over these maps not so much because there are any changes from what I have discussed in over five years of past lectures, but because so many of you plead with me for an update on the geophysical front. Well, the same speeding train is still on the same crash course toward the same mountain side. Nothing has changed, nor is likely to, in the solidifying probability space for your orb.

issue of the superb publication called Seismo-Watch Newsletter (Advanced Geologic Exploration, P.O. Box 18012, Reno, NV 89511; 702-852-0992) where the world map we are using shows earthquake activity for the time span of April 29 through May 5, 1996. Remember that the Pacific Plate is approximately framed on its east side by the Americas and on its west side by Japan and Indonesia.

Now, if we consider the Pacific Plate as a clock face, it is plain to see that from 11 o'clock, north of Japan, down through 7 o'clock, near New Guinea, a great deal of activity is occurring. In the time frame of this particular graphic, Alaska (at slightly past noon on our clock face) and the Americas (between 2 and 5 o'clock) are "relatively" quiet.

But such is only the sleeping calm before the abrupt storm which must occur as that massive plate continues its northwesterly journey with increasingly more deliberate motion. Study the map carefully to discern just how busy is Mother Earth's crustal skin in its attempts to equilibrate massive forces at work beneath her surface and within her circulatory system.

Figure 2 [see this page] is also from Seismo-Watch and covers approximately the same time span, specifically from April 25 through May 1, 1996. What I wish to call to your particular attention here is the greatly increased level of creep activity along the San Andreas Fault in the active segment that is south of, and then northward on up to, what I shall call the "triple-junction point" where the San Andreas is intersected by the bottom ends of the two dangerous East Bay faults, the Hayward and Calaveras.

This is a most dangerous situation in the making, as that creep energy "piles up" like box cars on a train track at that triple-junction point, waiting to release this energy in travel by slippage, further on up north, along those three major fault lines, into all of those heavily populated San Francisco Bay Area cities.

It is a matter of particular tragedy that, for instance, most of the East Bay Area's hospitals and schools sit directly atop the Hayward Fault. Can you imagine the problems waiting to happen just from this one condition—assisted as it had to be in the past by town politicians and their real estate planning and zoning commissions?

Figure 3 [see next page] is taken from the Southern California Seismographic Network's weekly newsletter, covering approximately the same time period as do the other graphics we have been discussing, here specifically for the time period of May 2-8, 1996.

I wish to call to your attention the continued build-up of the activity along two major geometric "triangles": One extends from Santa Barbara ("SB" on the map) eastward to the Lake Isabella-Ridgecrest (China Lake Naval Weapons Center) area and then on down southeast through the northeast side of Palm Springs and the Salton Sea, and onward into Baja Mexico; the other triangle is smaller and tighter, encircling Palm Springs itself.

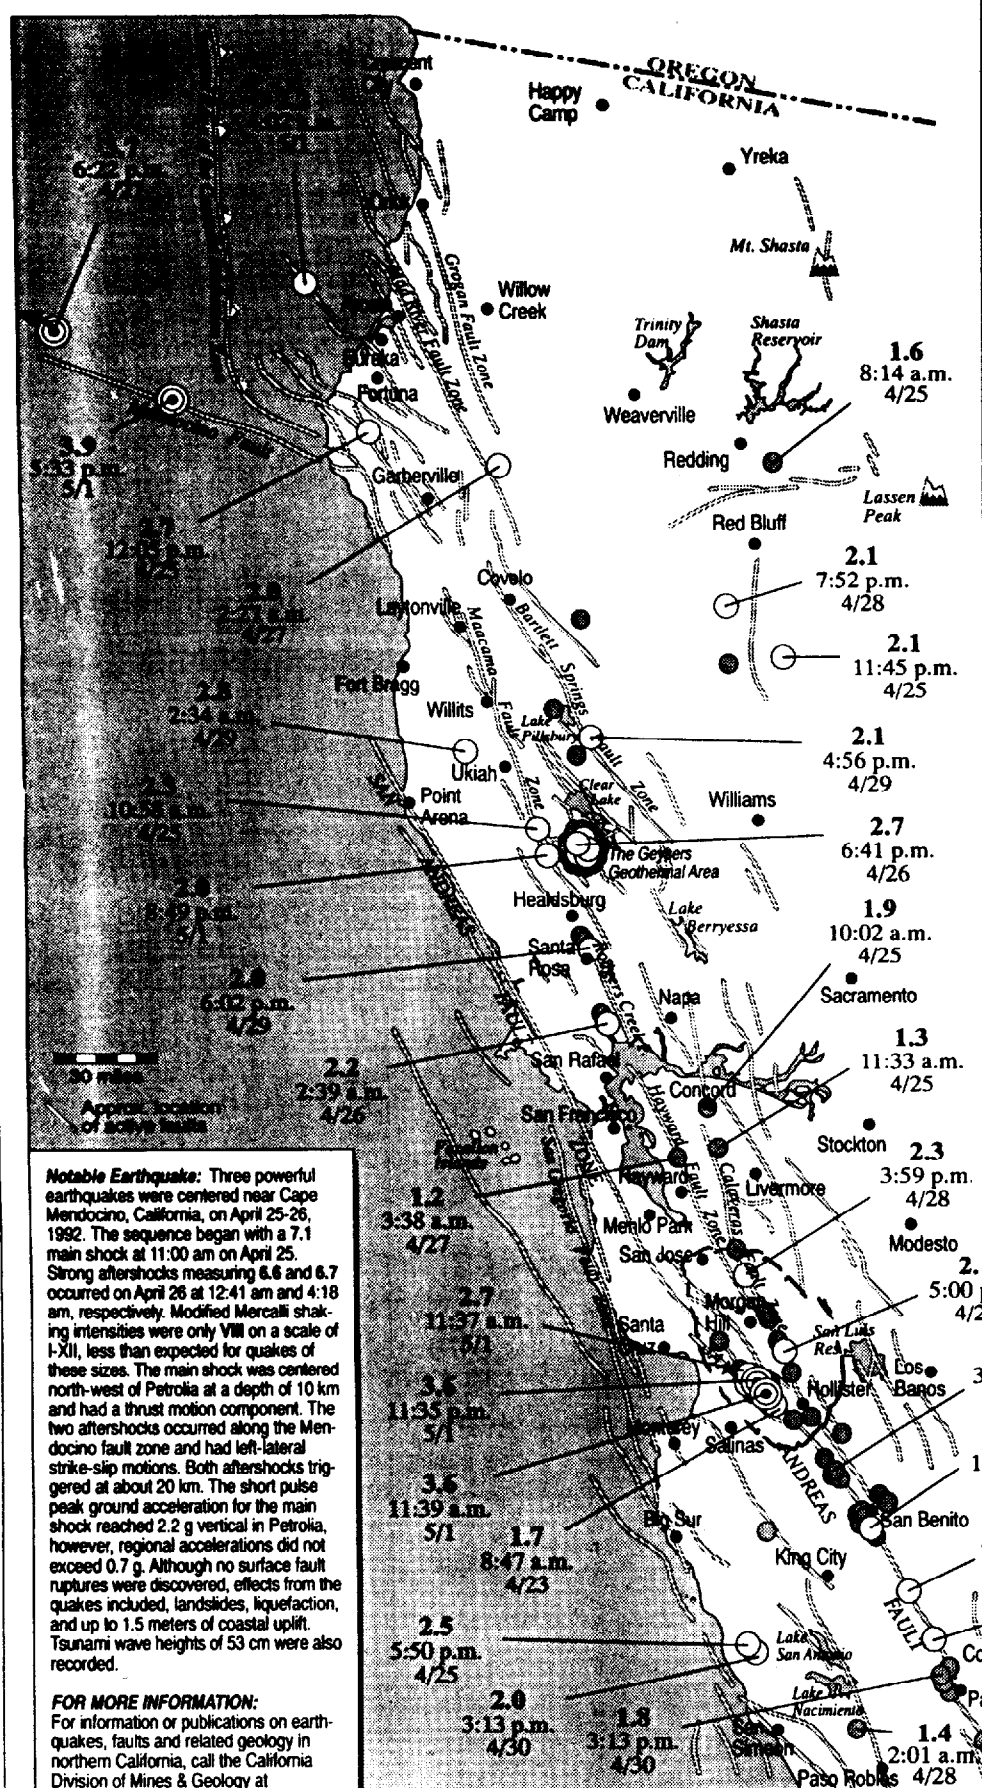

Those of you who have been attentive to the visions given to Gordon-Michael Scallion are already well alerted to keep an eye on this Palm Springs area for major, violent activity which will likely precipitate much shifting of the crust with attendant devastation on up through greater Los Angeles proper, especially along the volatile Elysian Park Fault.

And while we're on the subject of Los Angeles, look closely at the blob of black dots at approximately 11 o'clock to the letters "LA" on this map. That is the San Fernando Valley wherein was precipitated the Northridge earthquake on January 17, 1994. IF any of these shaking events manage to cause enough nervous responses of inquiry in the public to warrant mention over the media channels, such will always be along the lines of "not to worry", that they are "simply more expected aftershocks" of that devastating Northridge event. One can but marvel at that which is accepted without question by the mostly sleeping masses.

Thus, to sum up this three-map scenario, it should be clear that major stress-relieving (but life disrupting) earthquake and volcanic activity is imminent at many locations all around the massive Pacific Plate. From Figure 1 you can see clearly the motion as it looks from the perspective of the "big picture"; and from Figures 2 and 3 you can see, on a more close-up scale, the effects of that big picture motion as such reflects in the heightened activity in two very populated and economically powerful arenas of your United States' West Coast.

Remember my earlier quoted lesson from 1991, especially that "all is connected to all", and you will be well on your way toward forming a true understanding of your world. I thus leave it to you ones to connect the dots which fill in the details of this most sobering picture of impending great destruction while I turn now to addressing an issue in the larger context of the planetary transition now in progress.

We must never lose sight of the fact that earthquakes and other seemingly violent "natural" events are but "adjustments" made by Mother Earth at this time of transition as she strives to return to a state of healthy balance after much injury has been inflicted upon her by a particularly heartless variety of self-centered "fleas" crawling around on (and somewhat beneath) her skin.

Notable Earthquake: Three powerful earthquakes were centered near Cape Mendocino, California, on April 25-26, 1992. The sequence began with a 7.1 main shock at 11:00 am on April 25. Strong aftershocks measuring 6.6 and 6.7 occurred on April 26 at 12:41 am and 4:18 am, respectively. Modified Mercalli shaking intensities were only VIII on a scale of I-XII, less than expected for quakes of these sizes. The main shock was centered north-west of Petrolia at a depth of 10 km and had a thrust motion component. The two aftershocks occurred along the Mendocino fault zone and had left-lateral strike-slip motions. Both aftershocks triggered at about 20 km. The short pulse peak ground acceleration for the main shock reached 2.2 g vertical in Petrolia, however, regional accelerations did not exceed 0.7 g. Although no surface fault ruptures were discovered, effects from the quakes included, landslides, liquefaction, and up to 1.5 meters of coastal uplift. Tsunami wave heights of 53 cm were also recorded.

By way of introduction to this next topic, I shall first tell on my scribe as an example: As we write this, he is consciously carrying on four tasks, simultaneously, in order to try to "get everything done" that needs to get done within the confines of the seemingly available "time" as you perceive same. Of course, if I were to let him see what all else he is ALSO working on, simultaneously, that he is NOT conscious of doing at the moment, there would likely be a mutiny—or at least a weak plea for higher pay!

So, like most of you of the ground crew, he wrestles with both the frustrating limitations of seemingly more rapidly disappearing "time" or how "time" seems to be speeding up as the planetary frequency continues to move upward, as this transition process progresses, carrying with it all those who can adjust to the changes.

While this is a nearly impossible adjustment (upward in frequency with the attendant perceptible loss of time) for the many soulless or soul-deficient beings who mindlessly are running around on your orb, chasing after the next marketed item spewed out by your idiot box programings, for the Lighted ground crew, adjusting to and dealing with "the case of the disappearing time" is a nearly constant, often annoying, and sometimes downright unnerving struggle.

Nearly two years ago now I discussed the physics of this apparent "missing time" phenomenon with this scribe because he reasoned (and quite correctly so, from a strictly conscious point of view) that, as one's frequency increased, with the attendant stepping-up of all related activities, such as mental functioning and awareness-perception, time OUGHT TO SEEM to slow down.

After all, you ones can all relate to the slowdown-of-time sensation that comes from intense concentration and focus upon a task such as, say, "getting into" a fast sport like racquetball or ping-pong, or having to deal with some life-threatening emergency like your automobile brakes failing while you're driving down a winding road. Time seems to almost stand still in those situations.

And yet my scribe was complaining about finding himself LOSING time—that it was greatly speeding up—and sometimes at an alarming rate. The question was: how could this be?

The reason for the apparent contradiction is that, as you Lighted ground crew members continue to increase in frequency, access to other dimensions of expression become more fluently possible. Thus, like my scribe, you readers too are doing more and more things simultaneously—BUT THEY ARE BEING DONE MOSTLY IN THOSE NEWLY-ACCESSIBLE OTHER DIMENSIONAL SPACES!

Thus you could look at it as spending less "time", say per hour, in this particular conscious domain, so that every time you "come back" (and gather up the courage to look at the clock) you observe that more time has gone by than you can consciously account for. Thus is generated the apparent sensation of time speeding up!

The problem is that, right now, you are just not particularly conscious of this expanded theatre of activity which includes these now-more-fluently-accessible other dimensions.

By way of another example, consider that you are washing several dishes in the kitchen sink, a job you feel takes several minutes. But while you are doing that, at an UNCONSCIOUS level you make several trips to your den to play a few moves of chess with the computer, you check on the laundry in the laundry room, and you go outside and move the lawn sprinkler to another location. Now consciously back in the kitchen, you look up at the clock and are shocked to see that so much time has flown by while seemingly you were "just" washing those few dishes.

I share this discussion at this time because, from our vantage point of observation and monitoring, we see so many of you frustrated by and frequently questioning this accelerated evaporation of your useable "time". And you often support this observation with the self-defeating thought that YOU, most certainly, must, finally, now, be going crazy (or some such explanation) for, after all, there seems to be "no time" anymore for getting things done. You feel that you "blink twice and the day is over", right?!

Well, take comfort in the knowing that you are operating in a constantly expanding dimensional arena of activities, not all of which you can appreciate at the present moment. But while you work to be more patient with self and others, as you all effort through this disorienting perceptual phenomenon with time associated with the planetary transitioning process, ALSO consider this as a notice to consciously put what "time" you are given to good use!

On that note I think I shall take my own advice and sign off for now. As I said at the beginning of this writing, we are most busy in the monitoring department of Earth-Shan's geophysical activities. What has made our job most complex these days is, of course, that the effects of man's continual, heartless dinking with this planet are becoming so intertwined with the natural processes of rebalancing that the overall "vegetable soup" has become a most difficult broth to analyze in real time.

But now I've used that mysterious word again—time—and so it's probably time I take my leave. Know that all of you of the ground crew are much beloved and constantly watched over by we of the monitoring realms. Always keep an eye out for us as we make our presence known—whether in the "curious looking" and "appearing from nowhere" clouds you can easily spot, mostly in the daytime, or in our magnificent spectrum-strobing star-like jewels of the night sky. Know that we take as much delight in your confirming acknowledgements as you do in our subtle (or sometimes not so subtle) displays of presence. And we are ever only a thoughtful—or maybe better yet, a heartfelt—mental call away. Thus you should NEVER feel alone!

Toniose Soltec to clear in the Radiant Light of Creator's most perfect plan for the healing and growth that is this time of transition.

Salu—and make it a point to ask God to help YOU use your "time" wisely in these final days. You'll be glad you did!

BUREAUCRATIC PARENT ABUSE

Here's an example of how government "protects" our children. Paul Craig Roberts makes this report in the May 19 issue of the WASHINGTON TIMES WEEKLY, [quoting:]

In March, without parental notification, 50 sixth-grade girls, who attend J.T. Lambert Intermediate School in East Stroudsburg, Pa., were forced by public authorities to undergo a genital exam. When the youngsters found they were required to lie naked, spread-eagled on a table, they burst into tears and tried to run from the room, but were physically restrained. Outraged parents have been unable to get any explanation, and reporters have been frustrated by both school and state health officials, who will not return telephone calls.

What happened at J.T. Lambert is the opening gun of the final assault on the family. It will soon be happening to your child in your school district. As in East Stroudsburg, the authorities will be looking for signs of parental sexual abuse of their children. "Child advocates" maintain parents are the primary perpetrators of child sex abuse. After years of agitation, "child advocates" succeeded in getting themselves federally funded in 1974 when Congress passed CAPTA, the Child Abuse Prevention & Treatment Act. Powers and funding were expanded in 1985 with the Children's Justice Act.

In the years since, a bureaucracy has been created with the Orwellian name of Child Protective Services endowed with Gestapo-like power. Moreover, during the two decades, a significant percentage of school administrators, teachers, prosecutors, police detectives and social workers has been conditioned through participation in work shops, seminars and conferences to the idea that parents are child abusers. In other words, parents have become suspects. Indeed, they are such suspects that policies are in effect that require school teachers, ministers, doctors, hospitals, and child-care providers to report to authorities all signs of possible child abuse, sexual or otherwise. As schools are already required to report signs, it is a short step to genital and rectal exams to look for signs.

The formidable Social Services and Child Protective Services bureaucracies receive taxpayer funds for every child they seize from parents and place in "an out-of-home facility". In 1994, the National Center of Child Abuse and Neglect reports that 126,117 children were seized from parents in 35 states. "Child advocates" are pushing ever more frightening laws, such as the "Children's Welfare Act" in Colorado, which would require parents to participate in a "Home Visitor Program" in order for social workers to assess their potential for "child maltreatment".

Children should be protected from abuse, but not in ways that traumatize and humiliate them and destroy parental control. The draconian police state measures being put in place stem from propaganda that sexual abuse of children by parents is routine, whereas in fact it is extremely rare.

U.S. TROOPS MAY EXTEND STAY IN BOSNIA

We aren't surprised, right?! From the May 19 issue of the WASHINGTON TIMES WEEKLY, [quoting:]

NATO planners concerned about instability in Bosnia are considering a continued American role in the country after the U.S.-led Implementation Force (Ifor) ends its mission in December, diplomatic and other sources said. The sources said such a decision would be made at a meeting of NATO foreign ministers in December, several weeks after the Nov. 5 U.S. election. [Ha! This decision was made long ago by the Elite planners. It is just fed to us-the-populace in bite-sized bits for easier digestion and assimilation!] President Clinton has promised to remove the American forces by the end of this year. What is a Clinton promise worth to YOU?!

MARGARINE IS NOT A "HEALTH FOOD"!

Due to intense media and AMA propaganda, lots of people think they are very health conscious because they eliminated butter from their diets and substituted margarine. Not a good idea, says Dr. William Campbell Douglass. From the March issue of Dr. Douglass' SECOND OPINION (800-728-2288), [quoting:]

I've been hounding margarine for 15 years and now there's hope of putting butter back on the throne, where it belongs. A report from Oil World, Euromonitor, tells the whole sordid story of how the little Indian maiden in the corn oil TV commercial has been killing millions of northern Europeans and Americans with vegetable-oil induced cardiovascular disease.

In every single country where there has been a low consumption of margarine and a high consumption of either olive oil or butter, there has been a very low incidence of death from heart disease. No matter whether the population consumed large amounts of butter or not, a high consumption of olive oil (over 11 pounds per year) assured a low incidence of death from heart disease.

And the problem with margarine goes far beyond heart attacks. It has been shown that babies of mothers who consumed a lot of margarine during pregnancy have babies with a low birth weight, which is strongly linked to heart attacks later in life. Then there is the cancer question. Cancer is more common in northern Europe. The trans-fatty acids in margarine are known to be carcinogenic. You can draw your own conclusions.

Action to Take: (1) Avoid all margarine products. In cooking, when in doubt, add more butter or olive oil. Most recipes that call for margarine can easily use butter. Remember that most cheap pastries and many candies are loaded with killer vegetable oils—read the labels and avoid them. (2) Take at least one tablespoonful of extra virgin olive oil daily. [Considering how contrary this information is to what is generally touted by even the health-food industry, you might want to obtain some of Dr. Douglass' other articles on this subject.]

FEDS POISON SEAGULLS

From the May 19 issue of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, [quoting:]

BOSTON—Federal officials Saturday began slipping poison into the nests of thousands of seagulls threatening the homes of endangered bird species on an island off Cape Cod. Poisonous margarine-on-white-bread sandwiches [hmmm, does that tell you something about margarine?!] were planted in the nests of roughly 5,700 breeding great black backed and herring gulls on Monomoy National Wildlife Refuge, near Chatham. Animal activists who lost a court appeal of the poisonings on Friday delivered antidotes of tuna-and-charcoal filter sandwiches overnight to 2,400 of the birds nesting on the island. ["Zounds!" says reader 2x!]

HIV CURE ADD ORDERED OFF WEB

Here is a recent Associated Press article you might find interesting, [quoting:]

DEDHAM, Mass.—A woman who advertised on the Internet that she had a cure for HIV and urged callers to dial a 900-number, was ordered by a judge to take the ad off the World Wide Web. "In six weeks you are HIV negative," the ad said, referring to the virus that causes AIDS. "Even near-terminal patients can recover." Marjorie Phillips of Brockton offered the cure in a book for $24, or through a 900-number at $1.99 a minute. Attorney General Scott Harshbarger, seeking to warn "other cyber-snakeoil salesmen", obtained a temporary restraining order knocking the ad off the Internet on Tuesday.

The book recommends using a compound of wormwood, cloves and black walnut hulls, said George Weber, who heads the attorney general's consumer protection and antitrust division. Weber said there is no evidence that those ingredients help treat AIDS. [Sounds like Hulga Clark's book, The Cure for HIV and AIDS, doesn't it, and I'm sure SHE would disagree that there is "no evidence..." So much for free speech, freedom of the marketplace, etc.!]

JAPANESE HAVE A YEN FOR RODENT PETS

From the May 24 issue of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, [quoting:]

AMARILLO, Texas—Using a vacuum truck to remove prairie dogs from their holes, a pest control company is making a profitable roundup of the burrowing rodents that are highly prized pets in Japan. "These little guys are worth $700 apiece," said Gay Balfour, a co-owner of the company Dog Gone and the inventor of the special vacuum. Workers capture three to four dozen prairie dogs a day using the vacuum. This year's roundup is in its fourth week. [I wonder if they might find gophers equally amusing—this might be my chance to make a lot of yen!]

MUZAK WARDS OFF TROUBLE

From the April 26 issue of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, [quoting:]

DALLAS—A McDonald's is hoping to give street toughs the boot by serving up a little Bach with its burgers. Classical Muzak is played inside and outside the restaurant to scare away troublemakers and loiterers. The music, which the restaurant began playing three weeks ago, already seems to be working, Manager Michael Horn said. And as an added benefit, the restaurant's business clientele enjoy it.

ZIGGY

HIDDEN BLOOD "TRANSFUSIONS":
WHAT YOU DON'T KNOW CAN KILL YOU!

Add this to the information you've been getting about NWO depopulation schemes and designer diseases—some of which are transmitted by blood. From the May 18 GLOBE AND MAIL (from Canada), [quoting:]

MONTREAL—When Jane Dunn received a letter from the Ottawa Civic Hospital just before Christmas telling her she may have received tainted blood, she was floored. A nurse with a good grasp of medical procedures, she was certain she had never had a transfusion. What Ms. Dunn had received, however, was the blood product Rhogam, which is given to about 15 per cent of pregnant women. (Women with Rh-negative blood, whose husbands are Rh-positive, risk developing antibodies that can kill their babies, and the drug is a preventive vaccine.)

"I think I'm like most people in this country. I didn't realize that a lot of drugs are blood products, and getting a transfusion isn't the only way you can get blood," Ms. Dunn said. More than 600,000 Canadians a year are treated with blood and blood products, but many of them don't know it.

There is also much misunderstanding about who needs blood. For example, heart surgery and most amputations usually require no blood these days, but much hip surgery does, and infections are increasingly treated with blood products. The most-used blood product is not traditional red blood cells, but intravenous immune globulins (IVIg) a cocktail of antibodies used to treat all sorts of infections. Quebec Premier Lucien Bouchard, for example, owes his life to IVIg because the drug helped his body fight off flesh-eating disease [Of course, who does he have to thank for GETTING flesh-eating disease?]

Categories of Canadians receiving blood:

• People with blood disorders are the most regular users of blood, many of them needing it monthly. They include 20,000 people with Von Willebrand's disease, a clotting disorder; 2,500 hemophiliacs (half of whom now get genetically engineered products); 1,500 people with sickle cell anemia, most of them black, and another 3,000 with thalassemia, most of them of Mediterranean origin, all of whom suffer from an inherited form of anemia.

• Cancer patients: There are more than 75,000 chemotherapy patients in Canada at any given time, and about one-quarter of them suffer from anemia so severe that they need blood, on average five units per chemotherapy course; those with leukemia are treated with platelets because their bodies stop producing the essential blood component.

• Heart and stroke patients (see accompanying chart on surgery).

• Hip-replacement patients: An estimated 20,000 Canadians have hip replacements annually; about one-third of them get blood.

• Dialysis patients: Almost 10,000 people in Canada have kidney problems that require dialysis; the process makes many anemic, and about half get transfusions, on average eight units a year.

• Health-care workers, police officers, firefighters: People who are exposed to blood or trauma patients are vaccinated against hepatitis B, a vaccine often derived from blood.

• Vaccination recipients: Most vaccines, such as those given to newborns and schoolchildren, are extracted from animal, not human blood, but vaccines against rabies and tetanus are human-derived.

• International travellers: Many vaccines needed in order to visit foreign countries are made with hyperimmune globulins, another blood derivative.

• People with AIDS: The popular treatment AZT makes sufferers anemic, and the ravaged immune system is also helped with IVIg. More than half of people with AIDS get blood.

• Pregnant women: About 15 per cent of women are Rh-negative, and they are treated with a blood-derived vaccine; however, it is now quite uncommon to transfuse blood because of bleeding.

• Pediatric surgery patients: A heart-lung machine is required for most major surgery for children, and the machine is primed with blood.

Blood transfusion guidelines

There are no set rules about how much blood is transfused during surgery or to trauma patients. It depends on a person's size, the amount of bleeding and their health. Each hospital, however, has a maximum surgical blood order schedule that recommends how much blood (usually red cells, but also platelets and fresh frozen plasma for major procedures) should be on hand. The MSBOS gives a rough estimate of how much blood a patient will receive during these common situations:

Trauma

- Gunshot wound: 15 units
- Bicycle accident: 9 units
- Motorcycle accident: 8 units driver, 4 units passenger
- Industrial accident: 7 units
- Car accident: 6 units front seat, 4 units back seat
- Stabbing: 4 units

Vascular surgery

- Ruptured aortic aneurysm: 15 units
- Aortic aneurysm: 10 units
- Heart bypass: 1-6 units
- Heart valve replacement: 2 units
- Artery repairs: 2 units

Obstetrics and Gynaecology

- Exenteration (removal of reproductive organs): 4 units
- Laparotomy (abdominal surgery): 2-4 units
- Childbirth (cesarean and natural): 0 units
- Therapeutic abortion: 0 units

Orthopedic surgery

- Pelvis repair: 4 units
- Hip replacement: 3-4 units
- Knee replacement: 2 units
- Spinal: 1-2 units

On Montana, Clintons And The Extraterrestrial Exposure Law

5/30/96 #1 HATONN

ANOTHER WACO?

Please hold the people in Justus, Montana in your prayers. It matters not who agrees or disagrees with political or judicial issues—what is about to happen THERE is a terrible thing.

The FBI has moved “back” the media. That means, in simple English, that they are planning to do something so terrible that they do not want the media to be able to see it or cover it. Each man and woman must do whatever he is going to do—but no, I do not endorse such radical stance because dead martyrs are no longer even noticed—they will simply be discredited, denounced and PROOF will be offered as to their fanatical resistance. However, we honor them for that which they feel to be correct and “right”. But to continue the stand they have taken insures the death and invalidation of such as LeRoy Schweitzer.

I have to remind you that this is ALL totally integrated with the Bankster control and that, in turn, is going to hinge greatly on the outcome of the Israeli election TODAY.

The downfall of the Clintons is also a major distracting factor at this time—and also somewhat revolves around the outcome of the election in Israel. Remember that Clinton has proclaimed himself to be a “hat-wearing” brother of the Elite order. Do NOT forget his stint in KGB-land (Soviet Union). The dirty little politics and politicians are biting the dust in Arkansas and it WILL sweep over the larger circle.

So many of the close people who know the Clintons' affairs have been bumped off as to expect both Clintons to be somewhere next in line. The REALLY BIG players are not going to stand still for possible revelation by a turncoat Clintonista.

I note it is now being reported publicly that which I told you several years ago—that drugs are actually shipped nationwide and internationally, IN TYSON'S FROZEN CHICKENS. It has now been made public on national radio. It will be disallowed to be covered on the usual MEDIA, but it is out there and somebody is going to note it. Bush publicly DECLARED HIS WAR ON CLINTON WHEN HE STOOD WITH DOLE AND BACKED DOLE. HE JUST WANTED THE WORLD TO REALIZE THAT HE (BUSH) STILL HAS CONTROL OF THE WHOLE THING IN OPPOSITION TO THE OTHER POWERS THAT BE. THE OPPOSING PLAYERS ARE BECOMING EVER MORE CLEARLY DEFINED. And, readers, do not misunderstand for one single minute—we are not among EITHER RANKS OF PLAYERS.

Now in reference to the latter statement I would offer you some backup information. Several years ago, almost a decade now, Reagan stood before a national television audience, with Bush as his Vice-President and stated that the U.S. needed desperately to join forces with the Soviets to protect Earth “from the extraterrestrials”. Well, you never did NOT work with the Soviet Union and that facade charade ended with the so-called end of the Cold War. That does not, however, protect the U.S. OR THE SOVIETS from the very Russian [not Soviet-controlled] Cosmospheeres already in SPACE, never minding the extraterrestrials, this morning. However, there is always argument about acceptance of possible extraterrestrials, which in its own right I find amusing. You have valid LAW ON YOUR BOOKS as to “how to handle extraterrestrial contacts” of physical nature—from beings to rocks. If you have contact with an extraterrestrial, you are subject to be incarcerated indefinitely while “quarantined”. It has been amusing to watch Mr. Horn try to get Dharma and E.J. to describe their “contact” and physical descriptions, etc., of her “contacts”. She doesn't have any and this is THE reason she has NONE. These people, hooked up and into Green, have done everything imaginable to catch our friends in any predicament on any imagined charge under any buried law they can conjure. No thank you.

I have offered this law to you before but now that some are considering what may happen in August, I have to speak out. Yes I DID say that Tehachapi is a nice place to be, especially around the middle of August. You ones, however, are expecting a big landing of some kind and that, in itself, prevents such a thing from happening. We can't possibly get the motion picture squared around in time for such an event without funding and without this very law being removed. I marvel that more of you are not informed about your own circumstances. You can be angry with me all you wish—it doesn't make any difference. To have contact with an extraterrestrial is worth being jailed and fined IMMEDIATELY.

The law itself is called the:

EXTRATERRESTRIAL EXPOSURE LAW

This law is ALREADY PASSED BY CONGRESS. Let us just quote [QUOTING:]

On October 5, 1982, Dr. Brian T. Clifford of the Pentagon announced at a press conference in New York City, that contact between U.S. citizens and extraterrestrials or their vehicles is strictly illegal.

ACCORDING TO A LAW ALREADY ON THE BOOKS:

(TITLE 14, SECTION 1211 OF THE CODE OF FEDERAL REGULATIONS, ADOPTED ON JULY 16, 1969, BEFORE THE APOLLO MOON SHOTS.) ANYONE GUILTY OF SUCH CONTACT AUTOMATICALLY BECOMES A WANTED CRIMINAL TO BE JAILED FOR ONE YEAR AND FINED $5,000. The NASA administrator is empowered to determine with or without a hearing that a person or object has been

“extraterrestrially exposed” and impose an indeterminate quarantine under armed guard, which could not be broken even by court order.

There is no limit placed on the number of individuals who could thus be arbitrarily quarantined.

The definition of “extraterrestrial exposure” is left entirely up to the NASA administrator, who is thus endowed with total dictatorial power to be exercised at his slightest caprice, which is completely contrary to the Constitution.

According to Dr. Clifford, whose commanding officers have been assuring the public for the last 39 years that UFOs are nothing more than hoaxes and delusions to be dismissed with a condescending smile: “This is really no joke; it's a very serious matter.” This legislation was buried in the 1,211th subsection of the 14th section of a batch of regulations very few members of government probably bothered to read in its entirety, the proverbial needle in the haystack, and was slipped onto the books without public debate.

Thus from one day to the next we learn that, without having informed the public, in its infinite wisdom, the government of the United States has created a whole new criminal class: UFO contactees.

The lame excuse offered by NASA as a sugar coating for this bitter pill is that extra-terrestrials might have a virus that could wipe out the human race. This is certainly one of the many possibilities inherent in such contact, but just as certainly is not the only one, and in itself is not a valid reason to make all contact illegal or to declare contactees criminals to be jailed and fined immediately.

It appears the primary effect of such a law would not be to prevent contact; it would be to silence witnesses. If enforced, the law would prevent publication of contactee reports except under cover of anonymity, and unleash a modern inquisition in the Land of the Free. However, it is unenforceable, so obviously absurd and unfair that the public will refuse to accept it. The citizens of the United States will greet it with a resounding Bronx cheer and laugh it out of court, forcing it to be repealed. [H: Want to bet!?!]

It should be replaced by clearly worded legislation, not open to interpretation in a multitude of different ways, humanely relevant to the contingency of E.T. contact, debated and passed by Congress openly instead of slipped through “under the table” without the public being informed.

According to NASA spokesman Fletcher Reel, the law as it stands is not immediately applicable, but in case of need could quickly be made applicable. What this means is that it is ambiguously worded, so that it can be interpreted either one way or the other, AS THE GOVERNMENT DESIRES.

It is certainly not a coincidence that Dr. Clifford held his press conference during the period when the popularity of the film E.T. was at its peak. As E.T.

portrayed a type of extraterrestrial that was benevolent and lovable, the inference is that the press conference was intended to discourage attempts to communicate or fraternize with UFO occupants. However, instead of having the intended effect, it backfired, causing public furor. There may be some relationship between this fiasco and the next semi-officially endorsed attempt to deal with the subject of extra-terrestrials, the TV film V, which was featured with repeat performances and maximum publicity by major networks worldwide. The aliens portrayed in V are the most horrifying and repulsive nightmares imaginable, who are defeated, thanks largely to a CIA hit-man specializing in covert operations, the tough guy with the heart of gold who with the aid of the handsome hero saves the human race. This is obvious and transparent propaganda, designed to do what the government's widespread use of dis-information, and Dr. Clifford's press conference about the absurd lemon of a law already on the books failed to do: squelch attempts to communicate or fraternize with UFO occupants.

One way to avoid widespread panic at the announcement of the news that we are under surveillance by nonhuman intelligent beings with technology far more sophisticated than our own is to point out that this situation is nothing new, but has literally been going on for millennia.

If the "flying dragons" mentioned in the I Ching intended to attack and destroy us, they could easily have carried out this objective long ago. Along with this article, the text of the E.T. Law will be presented. However, there are several points that I wish to make:

1211.101 Applicability. The provisions of this part apply to all NASA manned and unmanned space missions...

I could dismiss this whole controversy as a tempest in a teacup if the above passage contained the word "only", so as to read: "The provisions of this part apply only to all NASA manned and unmanned...."

1211.102 DEFINITIONS:

(a) "NASA" and the "Administrator" mean, respectively the National Aeronautics and Space Administration and the administrator of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration or his authorized representative.

(b) "Extra-terrestrially exposed: means the state or condition of any person, property, animal or other form of life or matter whatever, who or which has:

(1) Touched directly or come within the atmospheric envelope of any other celestial body; or

(2) Touched directly or been in close proximity to (or been exposed indirectly to) any person, property, animal or other form of life or matter who or which has been extra-terrestrially exposed by virtue of paragraph (b)(1) of this section.

For example, if person or thing "A" touches the surface of the Moon, and on "A's" return to Earth, "B" touches "A" and, subsequently, "C" touches "B", all of these—"A" through "C" inclusive—would be extra-terrestrially exposed ("A" and "B" directly; "C" indirectly). [H: AIDS is subject to no quarantine requirements but extra-terrestrials are?? Sounds like a political Earth activity and laws, does it not?]

(c) "Quarantine" means the detention, examination and decontamination of any persons, property, animal or other form of life or matter whatever that is extra-terrestrially exposed, and includes the apprehension or seizure of such person, property, animal or other form of life or matter whatever.

(d) "Quarantine period" means a period of consecutive calendar days as may be established in accordance with 1211.104(a).

(e) Administrative actions. The Administrator or his designee... shall in his discretion:

(1) Determine the beginning and duration of a quarantine period with respect to any space mission; the quarantine period as it applies to various life forms will be announced.

(2) Designate in writing quarantine officers to exercise quarantine authority.

(3) Determine that a particular person, property, animal, or other form of life or matter, whatever is extra-terrestrially exposed, and quarantine such person, property, animal, or other form of life or matter, whatever. The quarantine may be based only on a determination, that there is probably cause to believe that such person, property, animal or other form of life or matter whatever is extra-terrestrially exposed.

(4) Determine within the United States or within vessels or vehicles of the United States the place, boundaries, and rules of operation of space missions.... However, it does not contain that one little word which would have made such a big difference. If the government was suddenly faced with the accomplished fact of an undeniable overt E.T. visitation, this regulation could therefore be construed as being applicable to all space missions, NASA or non NASA, whether of terrestrial or extra-terrestrial origin. As it stands, this law is applicable to UFO contact. The meaning would have to be stretched, but the built-in loophole does exist. [H: Just as with the New States Constitution, the powers that already take control will make the decisions and define meanings of ALL LAWS.]

1211.102 Definitions. (b)(2): Touched directly or been in close proximity to (or been exposed indirectly to)... even without involvement in a UFO close encounter, would become eligible for indefinite quarantine under armed guard according to the above. By including indirect exposure, the NASA administrator is empowered to make the definition mean just about anything he wants it to. An example of indirect exposure is given, but an example is not a definition. Unless indirect exposure is defined precisely, it can mean almost anything. The possibility is not specifically ruled out that other types of indirect exposure than the example given might be considered valid grounds to "quarantine" a citizen or group of citizens.

In my opinion, it is vital that we challenge the validity of this law, for if it is allowed to stand unchallenged, UFO contactees and researchers may all meet behind barbed wire and armed guards somewhere in Alaska. I strongly urge everyone who reads the E.T. Law, Title 14, Section 1211 of the Code of Federal Regulations (at the end of this article), to clip it out, and send it on to your congressman, with a demand penciled in, to repeal this absurd and potentially lethal law. We must use reason, and transcend fear in order to make this planet a place where all may live in peace and harmony, as One.

[END OF QUOTING]

This was received by FAX May 28, 1996 so it is not so far-fetched as it might at first appear. There have been thousands of people who have SEEN TOO MUCH and are locked away forever. No indeed, I will NOT subject anyone to such atrocious possibilities.

It is past time, readers, to take these things as seriously as they are intended for it will be by these foolish-seeming legal means that you will be taken "alive or dead". Remember that GOD only deals in LIFE and CREATION; Man deals in "death" and war.

A DEAD patriot is no patriot at all. Think on this, please, and then act in wisdom. Good morning.

YES, WE DID IT!

In our ongoing drama of survival in a difficult world, our continuing bashing with lies by the adversarial teams, we have ferreted out some more of the enemy troopers. Thank you. You readers will not know of that which I speak because the writings to which I shall refer WERE NOT, WERE NEVER PLANNED TO BE, NOR HAVE ANYTHING TO DO WITH THE PAPER, JOURNALS OR PUBLICATION.

The documents written, and for which I will leave no reference here, were PRIVATE, CONFIDENTIAL COMMUNICATIONS WITH OUR LAWYERS. I fully intended them to be critical of Green, Abbott, Horton and the Green Brigade, along with Steven Horn of Santa Barbara Savings and his clients.

Within mere hours of these writings THEY WERE IN THE HANDS OF ALL OF THE ABOVE-NAMED PARTIES. There have been two new "court filings" in Nevada courts based on that PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL CLIENT-ATTORNEY PRIVILEGED COMMUNICATION. I thank you gentlemen for being so quick to respond for the human elements around here did not have the confidence I share in that ego will blow its own horn to the detriment of the very individual with the horn (no pun intended). What I find interesting is WHO it was who secretly sneaked the writings, copied them, faxed them and then mailed hard copies—without checking to see what they had in hand and what would come of the betrayal. Even Mr. Horton has joined with Abbott, "joined" Green also, into a case for receivership with pages and pages of FALSE INFORMATION in a case in which neither he nor Green have any standing whatsoever. They have opened the way to present every countering TRUTH to that same court—and confront them with the criminal charges addressing the criminal acts they have committed. We are in great appreciation to you who lie, cheat and steal because you have now supplied us with the very connections we needed to PROVE the full conspiratorial linkage to all of the above-named parties. Mr. Horton states in his court document the very DIRECT statement, CLAIMED BY GREEN TO HAVE BEEN GREEN'S, that the Ekkers tried and intended to STEAL the property in litigation by Horn. He states to a Nevada court that Ekkers tried to steal the property for $10,000! George Green says, himself, that he has told everyone that bit of misinformation!

Mr. Horton and Green have now entered into court a document which states that Dave Overton (gold coins Green STOLE) was on his death bed and out of his mind when he assigned the gold to Phoenix Institute that Green et al. call Ekker-Ekker/Phoenix. Wrong, and foolish as it may seem in retrospect—Dave Overton went to Nevada and TESTIFIED IN COURT and was completely agile, sane, reasonable and stated his wishes and declared that George Green had NO RIGHT to do anything except enter his property with the Institute.

I still marvel that a man's reputation prior to an act is what is considered in any OTHER cases but somehow Ekker-Ekkers are tried to be judged by Green's own actions. Mr. Green has years and years of bad records behind him and Abbott has even been reprimanded for his actions and addictions by the Nevada Bar AND the SUPREME COURT OF NEVADA. And, moreover, they continue their fraud, ill-behavior, outright lies and disrespect to the Benches in Nevada and California with every presentation they make. So be it.

Depository Trust Co.

The Unknown

$9.1 Trillion Company

5/31/96 #1 HATONN

I find an article sent to us on a particular "bank" so interesting that I need to share it with you readers for we spoke of this institution at the time of the BCCI debacle and the BNL scandal. I think you will find it interesting as well so let us present the information and see how many of you knew anything about this "unknown" company, called DTC (Depository Trust Company).

[QUOTING:]

[H: The information was sent to us this time by a third party but was first printed in North Bridge News, Vol I, Issue 14, Nov. 1995 and was published by The Liberty Tree. It is so important that we will repeat it.]

THE UNKNOWN
$9.1 TRILLION COMPANY

The Depository Trust Company (DTC) is the best kept secret in America. Headquartered at 55 Water Street in New York City, this "financial institution" is perhaps the most powerful in the world, yet the public doesn't have a clue as to who they are or what they do. How can a "bank" hold assets of over 9 trillion dollars and be unknown?

In dealing with the trust department of a major New Jersey bank, one of our staff wanted to transfer his trust assets, comprising of stocks and bonds, to a new trust he had set up in another state. The bank said it would take at least 6 weeks to do so as none of his assets were currently held in his own name or in the name of his trust account! In a panic, he brought this before our entire staff and asked if we could investigate. We did, and the can of worms we've opened should frighten every American.

After encountering numerous "no comments" and a myriad of "that's not my department" excuses, we eventually spoke with Mr. Jim McNeff, Director of Training at the DTC. He says he's been employed there for 19 years and was very proud of his employer. By law, he should have disclosed to us that his employer(?) was recording our telephone conversation (our electronic equipment picked up on this immediately).

He informed us that "DTC is the largest limited trust company in the world with assets of 9.1 trillion". Can you imagine? An unknown banking company could pay off the national debt and then some! Jeff went on to say, "DTC is a brokerage clearing firm and transfer center. We're a private bank for securities. We handle the book entry transactions for all banks and brokers. Every bank and brokerage firm must secure their membership with us in case they become insolvent, so your assets are secure with DTC." Yes, you read that correctly. DTC is a private entity that processes EVERY stock and bond (paper securities) for ALL U.S. banks and brokerage houses. The big question is "just who gave the company such a broad range of financial power and clout?"

The reason the public doesn't know about DTC is that they're a private depository bank for institutional and brokerage firms ONLY. They process all of their book entry settlement transactions. Jeff told us "There's no need for the public to know about us... it's required by the Federal Reserve that DTC handle all transactions." The Federal Reserve Corporation is a private company, not an agency of our federal government. They mandated that DTC process every securities transaction in the U.S. It's no wonder that the DTC is owned by the same stockholders as the Federal Reserve Corporation. In other words, the Depository Trust Company is really a front for the Federal Reserve Corporation. Now, let's see how this affects the average working American.

You go to a broker or bank and instruct them you want to purchase 100 shares of IBM stock, for example. They set up an account for you and act as your agent with power of attorney to conduct business on your behalf, upon your buy or sell instructions. The broker will place your stock or bond purchase into their safekeeping(?) under a "street name". (According to DTC, no bank or broker can place the stock into their firm's own name due to Federal Trade Commission and Securities and Exchange Commission regulations.)

The broker or bank must then send the transaction to the DTC for "ledger posting" or "book entry settlement" under mandate by the Federal Reserve Corporation. Remember, since your bank or broker can't use their name on the certificate, they use a fictitious entry name or "street name". This artificial entity is always related to the broker or bank. Then, the "street name" stock or bond certificate is automatically transferred to, or credited to, the Depository Trust Company. Since DTC is a bank, they can't hold the certificate in their name either, so DTC transfers the certificate to their own holding company or "nominee name". We're not quite sure of the spelling, but the DTC's holding company is either "CD and Company" or "CeDe and Company".

The banks and brokers are merely "custodians". By federal law, they cannot hold any assets in your name, the customer. The assets must be held, eventually, in the name of DTC's holding company. That's how DTC has 9.1 trillion dollars of assets in trust... or is it really in "trust" if the private Federal Reserve Corporation is technically holding it in their "unknown" entity's name? Obviously, if stock and bond certificates you've purchased aren't in your name, then the "holder" (the Federal Reserve Corporation) could theoretically refuse to surrender them back to you under a "national emergency" according to the 1917 Trading with the Enemy Act. Is this the collateral being held by the private Federal Reserve Corporation to pay off the national debt owed to them by our federal government?

[H: Pay attention to this, readers, for quite recently there was a full public discussion about this very structured entity which would advance in sophistication to "smart cards" ONLY for doing any stocks, bonds, or other security business!!!]

According to Mr. McNeff, the DTC was a former member of the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) and, "Our sister company is the National Securities Clearing Corporation." Simply put, the Depository Trust Company absolutely controls every paper asset transaction in America, and they physically hold the majority of stock and bond certificates in their name. If you have stock or bonds in your name buried in your back yard or under your mattress, we suggest you keep them there.

Now we're about to reveal to you the most shocking discovery we've ever come across during our research into this matter. Most of us remember a few years back the alleged "computerized" selling of stocks that resulted in "Black Monday". The stock exchanges had dramatic record losses, and a record volume of shares was traded on that infamous Monday in October. We all asked ourselves how computers could have done this by themselves without someone knowing about it. After all, someone has to program a computer to tell it what to do and when to do it.

During our telephone conversation, Mr. McNeff was trying to assure our researcher that they have never lost a certificate or made a mistake in a book ledger transaction. In attempting to give us an example of how trustworthy they are, he said, "DTC's first controlled test was 4 or 5 years ago. Do you remember Black Monday? There were 535 million transactions on Monday, and 400 million transactions on Tuesday." He was very proud to inform us that "DTC cleared every transaction without a single glitch!" Read these quotes again. He stated that "Black Monday" was a controlled test! "Black Monday" was a deliberately manipulated disaster for many Americans at the whim of a "controlled test" by the DTC and their Federal Reserve Corporation.

What was the purpose of this test? Common sense tells us that you test something before you intend to use it. It's quite obvious that the stock markets are going to crash and burn at some future date, and for some unknown reason, since the controlled test was so successful. The Great Depression is about to be repeated, and it will be as deliberate and manipulated as the first one that began with the stock market crash of 1929.

On June 7, 1995, the federal government issued a new regulation requiring stock and bond certificate transfers to be cleared in three days instead of the previous five-day time period. This means that brokers and banks must get your stock or bond transaction into the name of DTC within 3 working days. That's hard to do considering banks claim that it takes 3 or more days to clear a check that you've submitted to pay for a stock purchase. But, there's a reason for this new regulation and it coincides with the introduction of the new fiat "dollars".

On February 22, 1996, "the DTC will flip the switch" according to Mr. McNeff. What switch, we asked? This is the day that "clearing house" funds will no longer be accepted for stock or bond transactions. Instead, only "Fed Funds" will be accepted. Fed Funds, or a "Fed Wire", are electronic ledger transfers between Federal Reserve Corporation member banks. No checks or drafts will be involved or allowed from that day on. This is called a "cashless transaction". We call it the reality of the "mark of the beast". This is the manifestation of our new god, the New World Order.

Consider this. All pension funds and other institutional "managed funds" are comprised of paper asset investments such as stocks and bonds. These certificates are technically in the name of DTC's private holding company. DTC is technically owned by the private Federal Reserve Corporation. Congress is moving right now to pass legislation allowing certain pension funds to be used by the government as alleged loans. All the Federal Reserve Corporation has to do is hand it over! But what happens to the people counting on those pension fund investments to feed themselves? Too bad... you're out of luck because for the "good of the nation", you must share your wealth. Since the Federal Reserve Corporation already holds our stocks and bonds in their fictitious name, then perhaps they'll cash them in for the federal government's failure to repay the loans that have become way overdue.

In 1933, all gold was taken from the hands of private citizens. Under the War Powers Act, a national emergency was declared due to the deliberately calculated stock market crash that preceded the Great Depression. Where did this gold end up? Into the hands of the Federal Reserve Corporation. The majority is stored in the impervious rock beneath New York City. Is it any surprise that DTC holds our stock and bond certificates in the same place?

[H: While you ponder all this so far, I suggest you put another "ponder" into your brain and realize that all WITHDRAWALS AND PAYOUTS OF ANY OF YOUR TRADING VENTURES ARE ALSO LISTED. SO, IF YOU HAVE ASSETS—"THEY" KNOW ABOUT THEM, WHERE THEY WENT, WHO HOLDS WHAT, AND YOU WILL BE LAID OUT FOR VISITORS TO COLLECT THAT WHICH YOU MAY WISH TO SHELTER FOR SELVES. BIG BROTHERS WILL KNOW EXACTLY WHO HAS WHAT AND HOW THEY HAVE ATTENDED THE ASSETS. LYING WON'T CUT IT FOR THEY WILL EVENTUALLY, UNDER PENALTY OF LAW, COME FOR AN ACCOUNTING. THE IRS IS A COLLECTION SERVICE FOR THESE PRIVATE CORPORATIONS SO THEY KNOW EXACTLY WHAT YOU ARE DOING AND WHAT YOU THINK YOU ARE KEEPING!]

Technically, our entire nation is still under the War

Powers Act and in a continual state of national emergency. The President can enforce any new emergency at any time under Executive Order or Presidential Directive. On or about February 22, 1996, expect a new national emergency to be declared. They'll blame it on the infamous drug dealers who are allegedly destroying our currency. Old dollars will be called in and exchanged for new ones. [H: Hummmnnn!] IF YOU DON'T DO IT WITHIN A GIVEN TIME PERIOD, YOU MAY BE SENT TO PRISON IF YOU'RE CAUGHT. THIS IS WHAT HAPPENED TO THOSE AMERICANS HOLDING GOLD AFTER 1933.

This national emergency will most likely call for the confiscation of all gold bullion again. Who will end up with it? The Federal Reserve Corporation, just like before. Then, perhaps they'll peg the new dollar to gold prices, as many experts have already reported. What will stocks and bonds purchased with old dollars be worth then? Pennies on the dollar, so to speak. Who ends up being the ONLY winner? The Federal Reserve Corporation stockholders.

People will be at the mercy of the government for daily food and for jobs. Without a Fed Fund ATM type card you won't be able to transact business, get your food ration, or pay for the electric bill. Checks will be phased out totally during (probably) 1996. The switch is being turned on in February. This is not speculation! This is the truth of reality. It's already been tested, and their new system works.

THE DAY HAS COME WHEN YOU MUST DECIDE TO ACCEPT OR REJECT THE BEAST.

[END OF QUOTING]

No, readers, it is NOT the time when you decide to accept or reject the Beast. The Beast is already in control—you are the pawn. I remind you that the "mark of the beast" which is important to YOU, is your soul within and it cannot be marked by the beast if you choose otherwise. You are caught having to survive in the world of Man wherein you are measured, checked out, numbered and enslaved. This is ALREADY done, basically, so those who choose to FIGHT WITH WAR WEAPONS, the beast, WILL LOSE. Is it not far more WISE to stay alive and healthy in order to share another day? These things have come by the hand of Man and will perish and diminish by the hand of Man. You are OF GOD in Lighted presence—so it will be through human hands that change comes about—not with bayonets and handguns.

How, for instance, can YOU fight a system or a corporation like the above without even KNOWING it exists? That is a most serious question, readers. Therefore, do I suggest you "roll over and play dead"? No, I suggest you roll with the river and swim so that you can continue to LIVE. You want God to lead you into war, you Christian soldiers? NO, GOD IS NOT OF WAR FOR GOD CREATES—HE NEVER DESTROYS! You will BUILD a better way or you shall perish in the one come upon you.

You just want "back" what they "took from you"? How claim you the right to those "things" more than the powerful who took the "things" in the first place? Prove it! Do you not see that "they" even have used YOUR property, changed the name to protect themselves and you are simply a slave presenting alms to your masters? You want someone else to do the things for which you ARE responsible—with that wish your desires are fulfilled—they have just taken care of you to death.

No, I will NOT come along and "take care of you". You have made your choices and it is not my prerogative nor privilege to do anything to or for you. I can tell you how it is, advise you to hold to GOD IN TRUTH, and offer some possibilities and alternatives. IT IS YOUR WORLD AND YOU HAVE MADE IT WHAT IT HAS COME TO BE! AND IT SHALL BE HE WHO SERVES GOD IN LIGHT AND TRUTH WHO SHALL BE SUSTAINED. THOSE WHO CLAIM TO BE GODLY AND ARE FALSE—WILL FALL. THE SEPARATION IS TAKING PLACE RIGHT NOW AND RIGHT WHERE YOU ARE. You who have allowed evil to flourish, even among your own claimed "friends" and "family", shall have to do some hard thinking and choosing for false people shall not prevail. Who will lift up the liars, cheats, and thieves? No, the New World Order WILL NOT! The NWO has established itself to annihilate the foolish and deliberately counterfeit charade players. Those who are faithful and true shall be sustained. All people, good and bad, must eat, have shelter, and be clothed against the elements to survive. We offer nothing more than opportunity to perhaps serve God, have some small industries and attend some grain, etc., for sustenance.

There is another "Population Conference" coming up right away this Summer. Remember that Jason Brent put it very well: "...it must be faced that the elderly, infirm and stupid will be dispatched..." I have no intention of "fighting" my enemies for I have NONE. I only have people doing actions with which I disagree and deplore. It is NOT my problem to JUDGE THEM—ONLY THEIR ACTIONS! If YOUR actions be wrong against mine, or me, I shall take a stand against you—no more and no less. Choose the evil pathway and you shall live in evil at the hands of evil controllers. It is the most simple of all perceptions. But, readers, Satan will eventually LEAVE YOU WITH NOTHING OTHER THAN SORROW AND DESTRUCTION—AND HE WILL SEE TO IT THAT YOU BRING IT DOWN UPON YOURSELVES.

Thank you for your attention. Good morning.
