Col. Fletcher Prouty Exposes The Clandestine Society's Agenda For World Control

7/4/96 RICK MARTIN

USAF Colonel (Ret.) L. Fletcher Prouty, author of the books The Secret Team: The CIA And Its Allies In Control Of The World, and JFK, The CIA, Vietnam, And The Plot To Assassinate John F. Kennedy, is well known in clandestine circles. Between 1955 and 1963, Col. Prouty served as Chief of Special Operations for the Joint Chiefs of Staff and in a similar capacity with the Office of Special Operations in the Office of the Secretary of Defense. He also headed the Special Operations Office for the U.S. Air Force.

While he is technically "retired", Col. Prouty has witnessed government clandestine operations for decades and has seen, first hand, the power-broker usurpers at work.

We would like to take this moment to thank Col. Prouty for his willingness to speak with CONTACT about our world today, with many retrospective historical insights along the way. It is refreshing to speak with a man of honor, one who is not afraid to "tell it like it is." Our hats are off to you, Col. Prouty.

FRIENDS AND ENEMIES

I am constantly asked, "How do we handle our enemies?" How indeed. First you have them as your friend and, when that doesn't work—then you must consider the situation and you go about your life and responsibilities. You continue to try to have them, at the least, as pleasant and cordial acquaintances. If THAT doesn't work—then you must consider the situation very carefully. But you make your efforts and then you go about taking a stand in the Light of Truth and, if they cannot, or refuse to, hear that truth, so be it.

When that enemy goes too far in his/her actions to damage you, you take the route of the law "as is", for that purpose is its reason for being. Violence and sneak-thieving will not honor you with God or any person.

In addition to the sabotage to the irrigation system at the farm, someone watched and waited and, when the farm was empty, they came into the small mobile home and broke the water heater gas line. Unfortunately for THEM, Ray Bilger has been bunking at that place and was working diligently on his writing and research for CONTACT when there was an explosion and then a fire as the gas that had escaped blew up when the spark of the lighter was struck. The resulting fire was to the roof by the time anyone could act. This now is classified as ATTEMPTED MURDER and ARSON. Had Ray not been there, the entire farm and the major buildings would have burned—right down the row and right to the ground. Therefore I guess I go with the writer who said: "A man can't be too careful in the choice of his enemies." (Oscar Wilde)

I marvel at the newest mailing from Leon and Ann. She writes, he signs; he writes and, we assume, he signs. But there is a special in yesterday's mailing from them: "Is there not one from among you with courage to question 'Hatonn's' words?"

Oh indeed, Ann, EVERYONE AMONG US. And how a tiny handful of you can read the entire paper and only choose that which you choose to relate to selves is your business. I can't, nor can anyone else, HELP WHAT YOU WANT TO BELIEVE. I will go further than this and tell you—again—that Esther and Leon's family shall have back their portion of those loans when there is funding available to pay THEM. Leon and others of you choose to be our enemies—so it will not be paid to George Abbott, so this is simply the way it IS. Nothing can be done until the war stops for if YOU cannot see what George Green, Abbott and Horton have done to you—then there is no hope of us causing you to see. And don't give us the old "but we never said...". You DID say and wrote, even to Gerry Spence, and called those liars and cheats—"fine men". Those are NOT fine men and if you have no better discretion than this, you are incorrect in your assumptions—which then discounts everything else you speak.

You further fling at us: "But WHO IS IT REALLY? WHO IS IT THAT SAYS, 'I don't have to become you sorry, slime-balls to do business?' ... Is this not speaking of us all in human form?" No it isn't. Further, if you cannot READ, that too, is not our fault! I have no wish to "do business" with you at all. I do have to do business with some others on your place—remember? You are not the only people on your globe even though you can't reach out beyond the moment OR THE FACT. Abbott has told the court in one of his MANY filings that his bill is now well over the $80,000 figure. That, with the $40,000 he took of your money, Leon, doesn't leave a great deal of your loan does it? Moreover, he has liens against any asset you might gain by enforced liquidation of anything. I remind you that it pays to KNOW your real enemy. When you choose to dwell with those who are NOT what they seem, then you make interesting choices at best, for truth is not within them.

MILITIA ARRESTS

We offered the "inside" information weeks ago that the arrest of militia parties would take place in a big, big way in July. Well, it started yesterday in Arizona! Violence, sabotage and malicious vandalism, bomb-making, weapons hoarding and such activities will NOT be tolerated by this New World Government. Would YOU feel safe in your home to know that your neighbor is making bombs? No you would not—and therein lies the secret of taking over a world. The neighbors are NOT safe and therefore will stand with the police who stop the dangerous practice. FREEDOM does not come with violence or war weapons. You have LAWS which are just and proper in reasonable instances and no man has a right to set fire to your home or injure your person—militia, claiming patriotism, or otherwise. The citizens will demand, ultimately, enslavement by the forces of the Elite rather than fall to the ignorant or intentionally misleading neighbor. If you are deaded by a Saint, a Sinner or an ignorant militiaman—you are just as dead and dead right is not too much of a reason for a Purple Heart.

I am, however, impressed with one thing Ann and Leon have stated: "...the true revelation of Commander 'Hatonn' becomes more evident daily. Those with eyes will see and those with ears will hear." So be it. And may your own eyes and ears be opened. What did YOU expect? Did you expect one who wallows in the grime and mire of your worldly confrontations? Did you expect me to head the warriors with a pop-gun against lasers? What did you expect of the messengers of GOD CREATOR? Did you expect "me" to come forth and play with you so that YOU GET THROWN INTO PRISON UNDER THE EXTRATERRESTRIAL LAWS NOW OF YOUR LANDS? Just what do YOU EXPECT OF GOD? Do you only expect God to honor YOUR INDIVIDUAL REQUESTS, RIGHT OR WRONG, IN YOUR IGNORANCE OF ALL FACTS? If that is what you expect of God of LIFE then you are in error in your thinking and knowledge. These are the VERY CHOICES which set your destiny and, not until you can change in your erroneous perceptions and self-centered focus—will you find any peace or joy.

How ones could get "So what is this GOD Ha ha???" out of "Leon said himself that they plAnnd to get as much as they could until the Institute realized there was no agreement signed. Ha ha???" This was obviously my question asking if this is actually funny. And on in the same paragraph: "There was in the agreement a payback of some $10,000 per month which would by now have paid every cent in discussion twice over" (and Abbott did receive, as Leon's attorney, $40,000). That agreement was breached; one of its covenants was that if Leon or his attorney (Abbott) breached it, all payments had to be returned to the Institute. Another "Ha ha???" How do you get "So what is this GOD Ha ha???" in your confrontation to me and our people? YOU can be and do anything that you wish to do or be—however, you as a group are allowing and doing some very, very dangerous things and to vandalize and set fires to property is not going to be acceptable—even to the lawkeepers. Even if YOU don't participate, and claim innocence of any specific "action"—you are as guilty when you condone, aid and abet the perpetrators thereof.

I am going to turn now to extremely important and interesting topics so I repeat to you who would waste your, and our, time through the ongoing foolishness: you are as vulnerable to the national and world circumstances as are the leaders of the plan to take the freedom of humanity.

Another final word on the rebuttal of our writings, from Leon and Ann, is that you come forward tauntingly and try to discredit my indication of "attorney-client" privilege with the last information you have fed to your attorneys to use against us. Those documents were labelled personally, were removed from a PRIVATE mail-slot and SENT TO YOU—by someone right in the office complex of CONTACT. Of course we know WHO and are just as happy to know who—for your use of such material is more of an asset to us than any damage you will ever know by the snitching and, yes, "conspiracy", even if it be in non-intentional participation. Assuming that something is "just another..." is not acceptable.

Therefore, I now DEMAND that anything relating to ME, which is almost all of that which comes to CONTACT on the fax, or is in those mail-slots—be changed. Rick has to have access to privacy in the FAX and phone messages. That we have people who have NO BUSINESS in the office, much the less reading the FAXes before they even reach the parties involved or addressed, is also unacceptable. Some of these documents can literally mean the difference in the very life security of persons involved. If we cannot protect our contacts then we have no honor. I ask that something be done about that FAX machine and the phone messages so that Rick, at the least, can first have access to those things addressed TO HIM, or to me. With this most recent "error" in judgement and with the FAX from a very important party ALSO involved in funding, it is dangerous to have curious readers involved because YOU don't know who all is spreading the information directly to others who will use that information wrongly. Rick's very credibility is on the line. When you others get information and disperse it, how long will people such as you are now hearing from, from top levels of information holders, who are depending on him to have discretion WITH THEIR VERY LIVES, continue to share?

Because of the lax security we now have to place "Grandma" in serious jeopardy because too many know the information source and her name showed on the FAX heading. It does no good to hold in security, the letter—now. The letter was not signed but many copies were made IN THE OFFICE and distributed with that heading on the paper. So, when you wonder why you aren't included in the business affairs or insider-information circle—LOOK AROUND YOU AND AT WHAT YOU DO THAT MIGHT PREVENT THE LEVEL OF TRUST WHICH MUST BE PRESENT. IF ONES TRUST YOU AND THEN YOU SELL THEM OUT—EXPECT TO BE LEFT OUTSIDE THE CIRCLE OF TRUST. I do expect the FAX facilities and phones to have more privacy OR I SHALL STOP THE FLOW. I have to protect our people and privacy must be maintained. Just as it used to be with George Green—our people "out there" had no other resource for contact save through him because they had no other contact information. Note he used that very thing to steal untold amounts of gold—above and beyond the Overton packages. People think their information and contacts are private and when they find that anyone can walk in and read it all before it even reaches the proper parties, they are going to stop sharing! Now, you at that office have two choices: (1) Stop the nonsense, and/or (2) get that Fax receiver and sender OUT OF THE PUBLIC PLACEMENT.

But how will you get information? EVERYTHING that comes in is shared AFTER it is brought to the correct parties—and if it is not sent in PRIVACY. That FAX machine and phone line is NOT A PUBLIC HOT LINE FOR THE CURIOUS. Indiscretions are just about to cost the very LIFE of a retired Admiral—because of carelessness.

As for Grandma, I can't honor anyone of her position enough. She went through a very traumatic time when they killed her husband and did everything they could to get HER. I said back then that we could be patient and loving toward whatever she was doing because she needed to grieve and regain her balance. I think when all is said and done—she may well be called: THE MOTHER OF THIS NATION OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, for if it be salvaged it will ultimately be at her hands and generosity and no, I WON'T speak more on that topic—except to support her and thank her for her daring stance NOW, and realize that there was much she knew and yet the things she did not know are incredibly huge.

What she has done is respond to CONTACT'S last issue and specifically to the interview of "Al Martin" with "Rick Martin". Al claims that Rick misquoted or misinterpreted at least a hundred-and-thirty-six times in the writing. No, it was directly transcribed from the TAPED INTERVIEW IN FULL KNOWLEDGE OF AL MARTIN. If there are errors we can assume that it is wiser and safer for one Al Martin to move under that shelter of possible misprint. From KNOWLEDGE Vina now takes the questioning of this party a step or two further. No one wishes to view Al Martin's very life as invaluable enough to expect much further output but the questions, nonetheless, need to be asked and so we shall ask and Al Martin can handle them any way he chooses, and certainly there will be full understanding of any "silence". The best I can do, now that privacy is breached, is to simply offer the letter and move to offer protection of the people involved.

[QUOTING:]

June 29, 1996

Dear CONTACT and Readers,

Quoting Thomas Jefferson: "A morsel of genuine history is a rare thing, so rare as to be always valuable." (Glad you made that quote in your June 25, 1996 issue.)

About your IRAN-CONTRA "DRUG AND MONEY LAUNDERING" Whistleblower, Navy Lt. Commander (retired) Alexander (Al) Martin's statements: I find these very interesting, as would the families of "other CONTRA and CI-LTD (Central Intelligence Limited)."

There is a network of families, who have lost their sons, husbands, fathers, etc., which consists of over 140 men who have lost their lives due to this "CONTRA and MENA, ARKANSAS DRUG AND MONEY LAUNDERING" as addressed in your latest issue.

Like "Vince Foster", they also allegedly "suicided". Some of these family members were found bound, hands and feet, gags in their mouths, naked—and shot in the head [H: Sometimes, as with Foster, more than once.]. All, US Military Personnel. Most all were in the "CI-LTD" [H: For you inquiring minds, Ltd. is a label for CORPORATION.] of "CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY".

These Military Intelligence personnel all had MILITARY INSURANCE. The families were told: "We have no records on this person." Some were high ranking officers of long standing in the US Military Intelligence Community. Some of these Officers were operating in all Five branches of Service. There were Five "Insurance Policies". Each Policy reportedly in the amount of $200,000. The men were identified by their Policy Numbers. However, upon discovering the Insurance Policies, the families were told, "These Policies are no good" (??). Including: "WE HAVE NO RECORD OF THIS INDIVIDUAL IN THE 'MILITARY RECORDS'."

These "Suicide" victims' family members would in all probability never be "connected" or challenge or even begin to put 2+2 together. Especially, there would have been no challenge to the system IF the US military had done the simple thing of "Paying off" just a portion of the INSURANCE. Instead, most of the families were forced to "bankruptcy" after these cases of CIA "flu" and CIA "flu" or "Cancer" deaths of family members. But, the US MILITARY got greedy and kept the insurance while insisting these "Family members" were NUTS.

WE FAMILY MEMBERS WOULD LIKE TO HEAR EX-LT. COMMANDER ALEXANDER MARTIN'S VERSION OF THE FOLLOWING CIA-Contra members' involvement of: Colonel Al Caron (New York City and State COSTRA NOSTRA and MAFIA Family member), Col. John Cassie-Cappy (Oliver North), AMADAEUS (George Bush), Mid-Valley Airport's (another Mena) involvement, Col. Jim Straud-Strauss (The Cherub), Col. Robert Carderi, Bill Colby, Roy Mayhew, John Findlay, Mr. Douglas (Mr. "Q")—and "the GERMAN", Col. Russell Herrman-Herrmann.

Also, we would like to hear his version of the slaughter of women and children by the hundreds who were used for "training exercises" in Guatemala, Honduras, San Salvador, etc. In the "Contra Arms-Drug Money Laundering" Black Projects of the U.S. Govt., whose bodies were buried in mass graves—bladed out by caterpillars by the US Government, WITH THE GOVERNMENTS OF THESE NAMED COUNTRIES. WE WANT TO KNOW! AS FAMILY MEMBERS we would like to hear Ex-Lt. Commander Alexander Martin's version of "BLACK BEACH", THE SUB BASE at San Diego WHERE CLONING OF HUMANS is a common thing, and has been since the 1970s.

This operation has been ongoing in "concert" with SCRIPPS Medical Center.

Since this Ex-Lt. Commander, Alexander Martin, worked in the "finance end of the Contra and BLACK PROJECTS of the U.S. Government, we would like to hear his REAL version (not the Swiss accounts) of where the CONTRA ARMS ACCOUNTS (when the COWS COME HOME) as held in the "Guernsey and Jersey" Islands accounts—the "Swiss Accounts" are nothing but a "blind, and he knows this—WE ALL KNOW THIS. Then, we would like to hear his version of the LIECHTENSTEIN ACCOUNTS. These Banks were opened EXPRESSLY FOR THE CONTRA ACCOUNTS.

Then, what about the PAN-AMERICAN ACCOUNTS; such as NORIEGA'S "SAND DOLLAR" etc.?

Yes, Lt. Cmdr. Martin, WE, the family members, would like to hear it from you, and see it in writing. We would like to see if "your version" jives with OURS.

We, as family members of these "Victims" who "Served this Nation", would like to hear and see this from you, for we have petitioned the US House of Representatives for a "full formal and OPEN congressional hearing and investigation into these MURDERS of our FAMILY MEMBERS, which is directly tied to Mena and White Water, as it involves "CODE NAME "TROJAN"—a CLANDESTINE OPERATION TO DESTROY THE FINANCIAL BASE OF THIS NATION, BY THE CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY.

Lt. Cmdr. Martin, you did mention "Trojan" in the June 15th, 1996 issue of CONTACT, YOU DID NOT, HOWEVER, GIVE IT A NAME! Nor did you identify PROJECTS DUNGEONS AND DRAGONS, OR PAC MAN.

Let us hear your version—Ex Lt. Cmdr Alexander Martin, as WE are VERY INTERESTED.

Also, let's hear your version of US Rep. Dan Rostenkowski and Paul Simon's involvement as "THE ANGELS" who kept their "BLACK PROJECTS" secreted from the U.S. Congress. And, with full knowledge of the SAVINGS AND LOAN FIASCO, SANCTIONED THE MISS-APPROPRIATION (THEFT) OF THE LIFE SAVINGS OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE, AND WHO LATER SENT ALL $260 BILLION DOLLARS OF CERTIFICATES OF DEPOSIT TO THE EUROPEAN COUNTRIES FOR "SALE" ON THE OPEN MARKET, WHILE CHARLES KEATING AND THE KEATING FIVE LANGUISHED IN THEIR HOUSE SEATS AND SEATS ON SAVINGS AND LOAN CORPORATIONS—AND THEY NEVER RECEIVED MORE

THAN A LITTLE SLAP TO THE WRISTS. This was while under the protection of the real culprit "TROJAN", THE "CIA", AND DEPOSITORY TRUST CO. CONTINUED TO BANKRUPT THE UNITED STATES. We would surely LIKE TO HEAR YOUR VERSION.

Then, since you were so HIGH up in the Finance end of the US Govt., "I" would like to hear your version of "PRESIDENT GEORGE BUSH'S INVOLVEMENT WITH BCCI BANK AND THE UNAUTHORIZED USE OF THE CONTRACT OF BONUS 3392-181'S CONTRACT-CERTIFICATE and the use of NSA (The National Security Agency) to BANKRUPT Barings bank, Credit Lyonnaise and other International and National Banks: Including the Saddam Hussein oil CONTRACT which consisted of 376 MILLION barrels of "Bonnie Light Crude" PER DAY ON A 3X3X3 CONTRACT which GEORGE BUSH AND UNION OIL STOLE. When George could not pay for the oil we had Desert Storm!! Of course, George COULD NOT get the final "SIGNATURE" TO GET THE DEAL COMPLETED—SO HE HAD TO RESORT TO MURDER. Even then HE COULD NOT GET THAT SIGNATURE...!

Next, Ex-Lt. Cmdr, figure out what 376 MILLION barrels of OIL per day, at $18.25 per barrel, would amount to. Then, take the RESERVES OF 13,520 ACRES OF MICRO ALLUVIALS, consisting of 7,500,000 ounces of GOLD, SILVER, PLATINUM and SEVEN STRATEGIC RARE EARTHS, CORE DRILLED AND ASSAYED, TO 1920 plus or minus feet, per 100 ft depth, per acre, plus geothermals, which exceed $63 TRILLION dollars, and apply this plus the "Fraud" George and the Keating Five pulled on the GOLD CONTRACT, and you can then identify GEORGE BUSH'S "SUPER FUND", OF WHICH HE WAS SO PROUD IN 1991.

When George's pups did not obtain the 13,520 acres free from A LIEN—they sort of realized they had "crapped in their mess kit", plus they never did get a LAWFUL signature on the GOLD CONTRACT—nor has George been able to show good, clean, clear marketable funds on the $63 TRILLION in GOLD he has been trying to bring into the US from "CANADA" since 1991-92.

Then, please, Ex-Lt. Cmdr., what of "ROSEBUD", THE FARM CLAIMS and all the other "CODE-NAMED SCAMS" which have BILKED the American people of hundreds of BILLIONS of dollars, not excluding the fraudulent taking of HOMES, FARMS, WATER RIGHTS, AND MINERAL RIGHTS OF UNSUSPECTING AMERICAN CITIZENS—to bilk Americans of their sovereignty status by DISPOSSESSING THEM OF THEIR REAL PROPERTY STATUS "OWNERSHIP" WHICH WAS "INSURED", AND AGAIN NO POLICY OF INSURANCE WAS "OF VALUE"? No court recognized "equity" of the property owners?

Ex-Lt Cmdr., We would like to hear your version on these things, and why Congress sits on its asses, "with their thumbs up their fannies and their brains in neutral", making laws which HINDER THE AMERICAN PEOPLE IN THEIR RECOVERY OF PROPERTIES BY PASSING UNCONSTITUTIONAL LAWS, MAKING THE AMERICAN PEOPLE "CRIMINALS", WHEN TRYING TO SAVE THAT WHICH IS THEIRS—THEIR PROPERTY AND THEIR NATION?

YES PLEASE, LET US HEAR FROM YOU ON THESE ISSUES, LT. CMDR. MARTIN!!—IN PRINT.

Mrs. (Colonel) Russell Herrman-Herrmann AND other VICTIMS OF THE "CIA FLU" resulting from THE CONTRA AFFAIR, THE MENA AFFAIR, etc.; WIVES AND WIDOWS, MOTHERS AND CHILDREN ARE ALSO VICTIMS.

[END OF QUOTING]

Vina, I honor you and your ongoing efforts for this Nation—all far beyond any call to duty, service or expectation. Precious, they have to get THROUGH ME to get to you and that is simply NOT LIKELY to happen for the consequences are total revelation of EVERYTHING in that "grist-mill" of clandestine intrigue.

I would have a question or two for this same Commander like, "What about the Woodbridge account?" Would it (they) have anything to do with those dairy cow Islands? Well, it sure made Bentsen, Greenspan, Bush and Baker angry as the old proverbial "Mad Cow" (disease, of course) when they couldn't even MURDER their way into gaining information on those account(s). (Grandma adds: Have you noticed these MAD COWS when "TELEVISED"? ALL ARE DAIRY CATTLE NOT BEEF CONSUMPTION CATTLE (?) leading to more CONFIRMATION OF: THE TRUTH OF THE COW ISLANDS BEING THE "MAD COWS" DUE TO THE INABILITY TO RECOVER THAT PORTION OF THE CONTRA ARMS DEAL "WOODBRIDGE ACCOUNT", account number 608103047.)

Why, further, don't you reveal those cute details about Noriega and the "Sanddollar" account? Inquiring MINDS want to KNOW! By the way, dudes, do you actually think this MAD COW stuff is simply opening up the Mexican beef (Anthrax) into the U.S.?

Well, readers, you may never know no matter how inquiring you ARE because the plans as of RIGHT NOW are to depopulate the GLOBE. What is plAnnd for Atlanta at the Olympics is beyond your wildest nightmare possibilities. There is a plAnnd biological contamination which will return the disease globally as the people return home to their various countries.

Right now a cross between Hanta virus and Bubonic Plague is being set-up to merge through the mice droppings in Ventura County, California—with the Plague microorganism in the infected rodents a bit further East. This way nobody can relate to THE SOURCE of either as you all go forth to frantically play your hot-dog games on Patriot Day.

Already the NEWS nits are picking at the FACTS that your grain crops worldwide are failed—AND, speak of the sky-rocketing grain prices and famine of live-stock also causes meat prices to "go out of sight". People—YOU ARE IN IT!

While Leon quibbles over my interpretation of his "unconditional love", the nation languishes in ignorance on the brink of destruction. The FACTS are that the Elite Controllers fully plan to reduce the population on YOUR GLOBE to no more than 200 to 300 million people. Further, they plan to do it with your blessings while you demand they do it—without realizing, of course, that YOU are among the targeted FOR DEATH.

Readers, WATCH THE WORDS USED. The GAME is expressed in the code of WORDS. Perhaps once you might have been able to swallow the lie that "what you don't know can't hurt you" but NO LONGER—WHAT YOU DON'T KNOW IS KILLING YOU.

By the way, Al (Martin), do you remember anything like "Birdie" or "Bird Man"? Just inquiring—being a "birdman" myself. I certainly think George Bush should give careful consideration to ME. My patience is growing short—and ALTERNATIVES are always present in all circumstances. We are not going to wait while ROME BURNS!

I would like to end this writing as I began it on the subject of privacy and discretion. Do YOU want to be responsible through simple indiscretion of bringing death to a brother? Please start using those wonderful brains with which God blessed you. And, while you struggle with your arguments, denunciations, and self-focused problems of the day, is it worthy of your potential GREATNESS? Our people, just like YOU, must attend that which faces them at any moment. Is it possible that you might well be responsible for your own indisposition and discomfiting circumstances? Have YOU just possibly made some wrong choices in friends and intent? We are paddling just as fast as we can and how can you expect to regain anything from us, that you claim is yours, if you give us no opportunity to do our work?

You have no cause to do anything about "me" for you can believe, denounce, or try to discredit anything through these conduits. I do marvel, however, that the would-be KINGS recognize me WELL. No amount of name-calling will make your misperceptions RIGHT OR TRUE. However, be it KNOWN that if you deny the messengers—the messengers shall deny you before our Father. Is this some kind of threat? No—it is a FACT. And moreover, 12th-hour changes may well be fine with GOD—they are not too likely with the messengers. And by the way: He who lives by the lawsuit will NOT perish by the Lawsuit—IF HE BE RIGHT! Where else save a court of law can there be forum for defense? If you cannot come before a bench of JUSTICE—where have you left to turn in your plights? If you think you are right and the other party thinks himself to be right—you have an impasse. Worse, under the LAWS AS WRITTEN—there is no alternative when others or corporations are involved—regardless of what anyone might like to think or believe—or what the information spewed about incorrectly contends. Further, as the acts of vandalism worsen at the farm, local persons, the consequences will be most ungratifying. The last trick could have killed a man and burned Mr. Turner's property to the ground. This is not funny (Ha ha???) This is as serious as you can get in such games and is unacceptable under ANY RULES and REGULATIONS. You now have brought mistrust of yourselves within the very circles you chose to mislead and they are ANGRY for YOU make them look foolish, if nothing else.

By the way, Rod Enz/Ence can now add PERJURY to his list of credits, just through his recent affidavit—which he himself FILLED TO OVERFLOW with contradictions of his own statements. Well, you do that which you wish—but it seems unfortunate a pathway—to me— but then, who am I to question YOU?

To you other readers, we hope to be able to finally get to nothing save the truth of circumstances—SOON, in our writings but, until we can, we must consider the lessons of the moment—for they ARE the lessons for ALL.

INDEPENDENCE DAY AGENDA

Have you seen the newly released film Independence Day? This statement made by its writer/producer Dean Devlin appeared in a recent issue of the (Los Angeles) DAILY NEWS—it couldn't be clearer as to intent, [quoting:]

The reason why it's called Independence Day is that we wanted to take what we think of as the best American holiday, strip the nationalism away from it and turn it into an international day. There has been this fantasy that if there was an outside aggressor, the whole world would band together and forget all of our petty differences. [And eagerly welcome in the New World Order! The film acts to soften us up—to anticipate a "real" invasion.]

MILITIA ARRESTS

The handwriting has been on the wall for some time. The militia was used as a concept to manipulate the minds of Americans—to train us to equate anyone who stands for the preservation of the Constitution and opposition to the NWO with fanaticism, terrorism, crackpot-ism, and racism. The recipe is simple and often used by the Elite: Take those who oppose your activities, infiltrate and set them up according your agenda, use the media (and potent trigger words) to create strong public opinion against them, and smash them under the guise of the "will of the people", at the same time using the furor as a ploy for instigation of as many "anti-terrorist" (i.e., draconian "anti-citizen, anti-constitutional") measures as possible. This old formula continues to work splendidly on prison planet Earth. Here it unfolds as portrayed in the July 3 issue of THE BAKERSFIELD CALIFORNIAN, [quoting:]

PHOENIX (AP)—They've threatened to blow up power plants, government buildings, even the Hoover Dam. Some have held military exercises in the desert, firing automatic weapons and setting off bombs [nowhere does the word "allegedly" appear]. With its wide-open desert spaces and tolerance for guns, Arizona has long been a breeding ground for self-styled militia members. The indictment Monday of 12 members of a group called the "Viper Militia" was just one in a series of cases involving paramilitary activity dating back to the 1970s.

Arizona is "in the top five or 10 states" for militia activity, said Bryan Levin, an expert on the movement and assistant professor of criminal justice at Stockton College in New Jersey. He estimated as many as 30 militia groups have surfaced in the state. [Montana and Idaho are other states targeted as threats to the NWO.] Neither Levin nor David Rosenberg, who tracks militia groups for the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith in New York [say no more!], had heard of the "Viper Militia", the group accused in a federal indictment released Monday of plotting to blow up government buildings in the Phoenix area.

There has been speculation that the group took its name from "OPLAN American Viper", a plan for overthrowing the government that has been distributed anonymously at gun shows and other gatherings around the country. The 68-page document includes instructions for attacking targets from water supplies and rail and communications lines, to airfields, fuel depots and ammunition dumps. It warns of a plot by an unidentified world power to "disarm and enslave the American people." "The whole idea behind it is the violent overthrow of the government," said Morris Dees [another familiar name in the annals of Khazarianism], who tracks hate groups [There's another tactic—accusing your enemy of what you yourself are doing!] for the Southern Poverty Law Center in Montgomery, Ala.

Patriot groups. [See the tie-in with "patriotism."] At least 27 "patriot" groups were active in Arizona between 1994 and 1996, according to a report compiled by the Southern Poverty Law Center's Militia Task Force. But the "Viper Militia" failed to cross the radar of the nonprofit civil rights organization [note the well massaged positive image THAT conveys, as opposed to those insidious "patriot groups"]. The task force identified 809 such groups nationwide. The task force report included common organizations that identified themselves as "patriots" opposed to a "New World Order" government conspiracy. Groups identified as having been active in Arizona between 1994 and 1996 were [this list has been abbreviated due to space constraints]:

- Constitutional Militia, Cornville.

- Arizona Patriots, Kingman.

- Citizens for America, Mesa.
- American Citizens and Lawmen Association, Phoenix [Jack McLamb's organization]

PARENTS NOT TOLD OF EXPERIMENTAL VACCINE

From the June 19 issue of the MODESTO BEE, [quoting:]

LOS ANGELES (AP)—To combat a measles outbreak, three clinics gave hundreds of predominantly poor and minority children experimental measles vaccinations without their parents' knowledge from 1989 to 1991, health officials said Tuesday. The consent forms for the government-sponsored study, designed to find out if children can be immunized before their first birthday, said they would get either of two vaccines. It never told the parents one was unlicensed in this country and therefore considered experimental. The study, co-sponsored by Kaiser Permanente of California and approved by the federal Centers for Disease Control in Atlanta, began during a U.S. measles epidemic in 1989.

ACCUSED NAZI DEPORTED

From the June 20 issue of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, [quoting:]

BOSTON—A man who lost his U.S. citizenship after being accused of running a Nazi secret police unit in his native Lithuania has left Massachusetts for Lithuania, the Justice Department said Wednesday. Aleksandras Lileikis, an 88-year-old retired machinist, was stripped of his U.S. citizenship by a federal judge last month. Lileikis allegedly signed death orders for a number of Jewish men, women and children who were shot near Vilnius, the Lithuanian capital, during World War II. [See how flimsy your rights of citizenship become when Zionist allegations begin to fly—no trial of your peers or confrontation by your accusers. What happened to this man's constitutional rights??]

PLUTOCRATS CORNER VITAMIN INDUSTRY

This article by Tom Valentine appeared in the June 24 issue of THE SPOTLIGHT, [quoting:]

Times are certainly changing. Why, it was only a few years ago that doctors and other scions of the establishment were telling everyone that taking vitamin pill supplements was a "waste of money" and "quackery". And now look at what's happened. The big boys, members of the institutionalized food and medicine world we live in, have muscled into the vitamin business. Why? Here's the text of a full page, four color add from the July 1996 issue of Forbes magazine. These few words and the well known clout of the company purchasing the ad speak volumes about the nature of our changing attitudes toward vitamin supplements—especially vitamin E—"natural" vitamin E, that is.

"Take heart in the power of vitamin E", is the headline. This is followed by: "A recent British study concluded that a dime's worth of vitamin E from natural sources seems to reduce heart attacks by 75% when taken by people with bad hearts. Heart disease is our nation's leading killer, and based on this study, there has never been an easier, or more economical way, to reduce the risk of heart attacks than by taking a daily dose of vitamin E. As the world's largest natural vitamin E producer, ADM has the capacity to supply 170 million people with the current recommended daily allowance of vitamin E. We're proud of our role in helping people fight heart disease, and that's something you can take to heart."

The emphasis on "natural" is ours, and that's quite a story. For the first 30 years of vitamin E research, all the studies on the health benefits of vitamin E were conducted with "synthetic" material produced by Hoffman LaRoche, the pharmaceutical giant. Because of a unique capacity to distill chemicals out of vegetable oil in a vacuum, Eastman Kodak company entered the vitamin A and vitamin E business decades ago, but the "standard" had already been established by the synthetic material makers and health advocates were demeaned for daring to suggest there could be any difference between synthetic molecules and natural molecules. However, there is a big difference and that difference has now been verified. Big money people know a good thing when they see it. The formerly largest producer of natural vitamin E—Eastman Chemical—has been "absorbed" following some supply squeezing tactics by the largest soy bean monopolists in the world—Archer Daniels Midland.

Natural vitamin E is commercially extracted from soy bean oil "lignans" or residue. And, to further verify that natural is "in" and synthetic is "out", the other agricultural giant, Cargill, has made a deal with Hoffman LaRoche to provide that drug company with a natural source. Industry insiders say the price of vitamin E will go much higher as the two giant producers tighten their monopoly. On the other hand, health advocates who remember the work of the two "Maverick" doctors—the famous Shute brothers who proposed that vitamin E was the ideal heart support nutrient 30 years ago and were condemned as "quacks"—are saying that even at a higher price, the value of natural

CLINTON'S "VICTIM AMENDMENT" TO THE CONSTITUTION

From a recent issue of THE NEW YORK TIMES, [quoting:]

Saying the justice system "too often ignores the millions and millions of people who are completely innocent," President Clinton called Tuesday for a constitutional amendment to protect the rights of crime victims. [Specific details are not provided, but it sure does sound flaky as presented here!] It was the first time in his presidency that he has supported an effort to change the Constitution. Clinton announced his position at a Rose Garden ceremony attended by relatives of murder victims who have become crusaders for such an amendment. Throughout his presidency, Clinton has opposed numerous proposals to amend the Constitution including a balanced budget amendment, school prayer amendment and an anti-flag burning amendment [all Republican-sponsored proposals.]

SANCTIONS AGAINST ENEMIES OF THE NWO

From the June 20 issue of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, [quoting:]

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House unanimously approved sanctions against Iran and Libya Wednesday that would punish foreign companies that invest in the two nations, both accused of sponsoring terrorism. [Their REAL crime is not playing ball with the big boy terrorists.] The legislation is backed by the administration but has drawn criticism from European countries that say it attempts to unilaterally impose U.S. policy on them. The bill, passed 415-0 [must be a real hot potato], lists six possible sanctions options against Iran and requires the president to impose at least two on any person or business that invests $40 million or more in one year in Iran's energy sector. The Senate passed a similar bill in December sponsored by Sen. Alfonse D'Amato, R-N.Y. Differences between the two measures must be worked out.

The House version mandates sanctions on foreigners who sell weapons, aviation equipment and oil equipment to Libya in violation of U.N. Security Council resolutions. Libya and Iran are both on the State Department list of nations that support international terrorism.

REAL LIFE ADVENTURES

Men cannot hear certain frequencies.

DOG SAVES FAMILY

Here's an upbeat antidote to all the nasty stuff going on in the world today (and every day)! From the June 28 issue of the (Los Angeles) DAILY NEWS, [quoting:]

NEW BERN, N.C. (AP)—When a dog spotted a fire sparked by lightning in the attic of his owners' house, he barked. But that didn't work. They ignored him. So Roc, a mix of Chesapeake Bay retriever and rottweiler, rang the doorbell. At 4 a.m., that got their attention. Rosevelt and Linda Matthews and their two teen-age children lost everything but their lives in the Tuesday fire. Roc won their eternal gratitude. The dog never was trained by the family to ring doorbells, though he did it once before to get their attention.

"ECSTASY" MAY CAUSE LONG-TERM BRAIN DAMAGE

From the June 14 issue of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, [quoting:]

LONDON (Reuters)—The street drug Ecstasy can cause long-term effects in users, literally rotting parts of their brains, two British doctors said today. Rodents and monkeys given the drug showed long-term brain damage, they said. Even one dose was enough to cause measurable damage in rats, they said. Tests show that the drug, a type of amphetamine, destroys the connections between brain cells and damages nerve cells that release serotonin, an important brain chemical.

COCKROACH LINKED TO ASTHMA

From the June 9 issue of the JOHNSON CITY (Tennessee) PRESS, [quoting:]

WASHINGTON (AP)—Five years ago, a team of researchers set out to determine why asthma is such a severe urban health problem. They penetrated the worst neighborhoods in seven big cities and spent $17 million vacuuming up dust, administering allergy tests and poring over the medical records of poor children. In a few months, their first formal reports will hit the medical journals. Perhaps 50 papers eventually will be published. But in the end, the piles of data largely boil down to a single nasty word: COCKROACHES. The surprising result is likely, in time, to change the way the medical world thinks about childhood asthma. Already, those in charge of the study view these bugs as a serious public health hazard.

The levels of infestation are particularly important because Dr. Alkis Togias of Johns Hopkins, who is looking at a cross-section of teen-age asthma victims in Baltimore, found that the more cockroaches in victims' homes, the greater their chance of being allergic to roaches and the more severe their asthma.

WHAT ABOUT NETANYAHU?

The June 2 issue of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL has this to say about that, [quoting:]

JERUSALEM—A conversation with Israelis about Benjamin Netanyahu inevitably comes around to how "American" he is. Some say it with admiration, some with disdain, but they talk of his American accent, his American education, his Kennedy-style clan and the American name he once tried—Ben Nitay. Above all, they talk about his mastery of "American style" politics [Zionism-saturated?], by which people mean his mastery of pungent sound bites and packaged issues. That Netanyahu's image was massaged by an American, Arthur Finkelstein, came as a surprise to no one. But behind Netanyahu's "Made in USA" facade is a very Israeli core, a native sabra reared on militant Zionism, honed in an elite commando unit and chary of ever giving an inch to his enemies, whether politicians or Arabs.

...as deputy foreign minister, Netanyahu gained further renown as the Israeli spokesman during the Persian Gulf War. Quick, succinct and good-looking, he was the voice of Israel day after day on every international network. After Likud lost in the 1993 national election, Netanyahu scrambled past the established figures of the Israeli right to seize the party chairmanship, in the process making numerous enemies in his own party.

After the assassination of Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin last November, the perception that he condoned or even incited the radical right led to a steep plunge in his standing in the polls. His fortunes changed with four suicide bombings in February and March, which now turned many Israelis against the government. [What a break for him, eh?!]

Benjamin Netanyahu enjoys the applause of his supporters outside his home in Jerusalem recently. Netanyahu came to America in 1963, when he was 14 and his father took a teaching job in Pennsylvania. He finished high school in the United States and got a degree at MIT. He ardently denied during the campaign that he ever contemplated staying in America. 'Not for a single moment,' he declared. 'I come from a Jewish, Zionist family, with roots here for 100 years.'

A History Of Judicial Corruption In America

7/5/96 RAY BILGER

In Part III of the series, Judicial Corruption at JAMS and Beyond, it was mentioned briefly that at the time of the birth of the United States of America there was a very strong anti-lawyer sentiment. Most people today, however, may not be aware of, or understand, the long ingrained basis for the Colonists' feelings in this regard. This article will provide some important background on how we've arrived at the point where we now find ourselves.

The Supreme Court's decision in Faretta v. California, 422 U.S. 806 (1975), provides a rather interesting and informative view of the Colonial period in America, and of the English judicial system which preceded it. We quote here variously, beginning at page 820 of the decisions, (quoting:)

In the long history of British criminal jurisprudence, there was only one tribunal that ever adopted a practice of forcing counsel upon an unwilling defendant in a criminal proceeding. The tribunal was the Star Chamber. That curious institution, which flourished in the late 16th and early 17th centuries, was of mixed executive and Judicial character, and characteristically departed from common law traditions.

The court of Star Chamber was an efficient, somewhat arbitrary arm of royal power. It was at the height of its career in the days of the Tudor and Stuart kings. Star Chamber stood for swiftness and powers it was not a competitor of the common law so much as a limitation on it—a reminder that high state policy could not safely be entrusted to a system so chancy as English law...

Counsel... had to be cautious that any pleadings they signed would not unduly offend the Crown.

For those reasons, and because it specialized in trying "political offenses, the Star Chamber has for centuries symbolized disregard of basic individual rights.

In 1632 William Prynne was informed against for his book called Histrio Mastix. Prynne's answer was, amongst other things, that his book had been licensed... He was sentenced to be disbarred and deprived of his university degrees; to stand twice in the pillory (a device with holes for the head and hands), and to have one ear cut off each times to be fined 5,000 pounds and to be perpetually imprisoned, without books, pen, ink, or paper... Prynne was himself a lawyer.

Five years after this, in 1637, Prynne, Bastwick, and Burton, were tried for libel, and were all sentenced to the same punishment as Prynne had received in 1632, Prynne being branded on the cheeks instead of losing his ears.

The Star Chamber was swept away in 1641 by the revolutionary fervor of the Long Parliament.

With the Treason Act of 1695, there began a long and important era of reform in English criminal procedure. The 1695 statute granted to the accused traitor the rights to a copy of the indictment, to have his witnesses testify under oath, and "to make... full Defense, by Counsel learned in the Law."

In the American Colonies the insistence upon a right of self-representation was, if anything, more fervent than in England.

The colonists brought with them an appreciation of the virtues of self-reliance and a traditional distrust of lawyers. When the Colonies were first settled, "the lawyer was synonymous with the cringing Attorneys-General and Solicitors-General of the Crown and the arbitrary Justices of the King's Court, all bent on the conviction of those who opposed the King's prerogatives, and twisting the law to secure convictions." This prejudice gained strength in the Colonies where "distrust of lawyers became an institution." Several Colonies prohibited pleading for hire in the 17th century (notably, Massachusetts (1641), and also Virginia, Connecticut, and the Carolinas), The prejudice persisted into the 18th century as "the lower classes came to identify lawyers with the upper class." The years of Revolution and Confederation saw an upsurge of anti-lawyer sentiment, a "sudden revival, after the War of the Revolution, of the old dislike and distrust of lawyers as a class." In the heat of these sentiments the Constitution was forged." (End quoting)

It was for the above reasons that the Framers of the Constitution, in Art. I, Sec. 9, Cl. 8, forbid anyone holding a title of nobility from holding any office of trust in the United States. The Thirteenth Amendment, passed in 1819, made this even more explicit that no lawyers would be in government. But corrupt sleight of hand eliminated this from the public consciousness by the end of the Civil War.

There are those who feel that our courts today bear some similarity to the Star Chamber. But even if they take everything we have, they still leave our ears intact, and our cheeks unblemished. Those things, including the Vincent Van Gogh look, have been relegated to what we now call cruel and unusual punishment. But do our courts function as originally intended?

People today may be operating under a misconception of how our so-called "Civilized Society" was meant to function. As it has been explained to this author, there is a five-tiered arrangement to our existence, within organized society, as follows:

- God
- Man
- Constitution
- Government
- Bureaucrats

In this arrangement, all power flows from the top downward. The use of the word "God" may not be appreciated by some, and is certainly not used here to give any religious connotation. But most will, if they think about it seriously, agree that there is some kind of "Creative Forces that has made the universe as we know it. There does, after all, appear to be some sort of design to it, even though we may not fully comprehend what it is.

Anyway, as it was explained, all of our Rights come from God, to Man. (The use of the word "Man" signifies Mankind, so the masculine includes the feminine, or the feminine also includes the masculine, if you wish.)

Man then creates Constitutions to clearly establish those Rights, and to set forth the parameters within which a Government will function, and to clearly explain how Bureaucrats are to operate under that Government.

All of this was well and just and looked good on paper when our Constitution was drafted. But time, along with Man's ingenuity, cunning, and greed, has a way of eroding even the greatest accomplishments. So it is, as it is today, that this whole arrangement has been turned completely up-side down.

Our Bureaucrats have taken the role of our Masters, God has been thrown out the window, and that old Constitution merely kept for window dressing—there so that it can be pointed to to say, see, it's still there. Well, if our Constitution is still there, it is almost dead, and being maintained only by life support systems. Sad but true.

It is perhaps time that we ask ourselves, just what is Law? Frederic Bastiat, in his book entitled The Law (1850), states that, "The law is the organization of the natural right of lawful defense. It is the substitution of a common force for individual forces. And this common force is to do only what the individual forces have a natural and lawful right to do to protect persons, liberties, and properties to maintain the right of each, and to cause Justice to reign over us all." This sounds like the intent of our Constitution.

Black's Law Dictionary, 4th Revised Edition (1968), at pages 1028 and 1029, contains a rather lengthy definition of Law. It states in part, "Rule of civil conduct commanding what is right and prohibiting what is wrong. General rule of human action, taking cognizance only of external acts, enforced by a determinate authority, which authority is human, and among human authorities is that which is paramount in a political society. Long established local custom which has the force of law. Doctrine or procedure of the common law, from which equity is a departure. Constitution or constitutional provision." These definitions comport with what is right and just and constitutional.

Our Declaration of Independence opens with a recognition of the Higher Law to which The People are entitled "When in the course of human events it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them..."

Sir William Blackstone clearly defined the Law of Nature as follows: "Man... must necessarily be subject to the laws of his Creator... This will of his Maker is called the law of nature .. This law of nature... is of course superior to any other... No human laws are of any validity, if contrary to this and such of them as are valid derive all their force... from this original."

Blackstone understood that in order for the laws of man to be valid, they would have to be made in pursuance of the Laws of Nature. This is in harmony with our Constitution for the United States of America, at Article VI, Section 2, which states in parts "This Constitution, and the laws of the United States which shall be made in Pursuance thereof... shall be the supreme law of the land; and the Judges in every State shall be bound thereby..." (Emphasis added)

The Supreme Court of the United States clarified the above Section of the Constitution in the case of Marbury v. Madison (1803), 5 U.S. 137, 180, where the Court held, "that in declaring what shall be the supreme law of the land, the constitution itself is first mentioned; and not the laws of the United States generally, but those only which shall be made in pursuance of the constitution, have that rank."

The Supreme Court of the United States, in their decision of Norton v. Shelby County (1886), 118 U.S. 425, 442, held that, "An unconstitutional Act is not a law; it confers no rights; it imposes no duties; it affords no protection; it creates no office; it is, in legal contemplation, as inoperative as though it had never been passed."

It would seem that since our Constitution is the supreme law of the land, and all laws must be made in pursuance of that Constitution, we should expect that Constitutional Law would be the operative law of the United States of America!!

Bastiat goes on to say that, "If a nation were founded on this basis, it seems to me that order would prevail among the people, in thought as well as in deed.

It seems to me that such a nation would have the most simple, easy to accept, economical, limited, non-oppressive, just, and enduring government imaginable—whatever its political form might be." This author could not agree more.

However, in this equation we also have that unpredictable variable we call Man. And, as Bastiat so eloquently points out, "When they can, they wish to live and prosper at the expense of others. This is no rash accusation. Nor does it come from a gloomy and uncharitable spirit. The annals of history bear witness to the truth of its the incessant wars, mass migrations, religious persecutions, universal slavery, dishonesty in commerce, and monopolies. This fatal desire has its origins in the very nature of man—in that primitive, universal, and insuppressible instinct that impels him to satisfy his desires with the least possible pain."

But today there appears to be a general awakening taking place in Mankind, slower to be realized in some than in others, that we can no longer continue we in the past and yet have any expectation of surviving very much longer into the future. Those who, being in positions of power, fight against this progressive change, are the ones who will doom us to self destruction if those of us who now know better do not soon correct the situation to that five-tiered arrangement set forth above.

This is the challenge now before us, and we are all in the very crucible wherein this problem will be corrected, if it is to be corrected, or else we shall all suffer together should we fail to meet our challenge.

It was not intended that this work should take such a philosophical turn, so let us continue to explore our original direction, the corruption now destroying America (and the world, for that matter).

It is the proper function of the Judicial Branch of Government to enforce what is right and just. Only those who are blind would say that this is what is now happening, while those who can see know that there is more enforcement of that which is wrong and unjust. This is so because the courts are enforcing legislation that has been clearly designed to destroy rights, rather than defend them. So, in order to correct our corrupt judicial system, we will have to correct our corrupt legislatures. And that will be most difficult, indeed, as long as there are lawyers in the Congress and the legislatures.

It would appear that the proper function of lawyers is to defend people in court, not to create legislation which insures them ever more work in those courts. The next logical question would be, how then do we get our original Thirteenth Amendment reinstated? Now there's a challenge. We would have to bring it to the fore in the media by incessantly pointing it out and holding it up for all to see. The controlled media would no doubt ignore the issue for as long as they could, given the fact that they are lap dogs, not watch dogs.

Patience, persistence, and perseverance will enable us to achieve any task we set our minds to, especially if the task being pursued is of noble enough character that its accomplishment be determined by forces beyond those of purely human control.

Our present course compels us to this, perhaps the greatest challenge facing Humanity today's Can we turn this "mess" around that all may enjoy Freedom? For, as goes America, so goes the world: If Freedom be lost here, it will be lost for all.

Reflections On This "Independence" Day

INDEPENDENCE DAY

July 4th is always a day of what? In the U.S. it seems to be a day of hot-dogs and apple pie while you PRETEND to have some kind of freedom and annual patriotism—but you don't have freedom and you are NOT patriotic. The closest you get this year is through a release of a movie by the same name and just as much of a farce. Sometimes I observe that you HAVE come the distance for what Grandfather told you would happen—wherein you would finally end up blaming Aliens for your destruction—and the pretenders would pronounce some kind of a stupid attitude somehow that YOU WON. No, if you actually get into a war of the worlds—you will NOT WIN—you are even losing against your enemies right on your turf.

Things, however, are not going very well for the New World Order at this time, it appears. And why is it going badly? Because of people like staunch and gutsy individuals such as Grandma Herman. What the "bad hats" didn't understand about a person like Vina is that when she found out the facts—got mad as hell with those truths hidden from her, looked at what she has for ammunition—the tormentors had better run for those proverbial hills. We of the guardian-messengers have to marvel at such tenacious resolve in the face of armies of destroyers. Something happens which is very clearly miraculous in that, after you have had attempts at murder on your person, damage in every known material and Spiritual way, and finally there are two choices left to an individual—it is either quit or go forth and win. Grandma has chosen to stand the ground and WIN. Militias will NOT win freedom and ongoing status of freedom—it will be the "Grandmas" of the world who are willing to take up the cross and the sword of truth—and do battle WHERE THE WAR IS RAGING and that is NEVER on a bloody battle field. The battle field of war is but the distraction the "bad hats" use to cover their atrocities.

Some readers proclaim that Grandma is outspoken and crude at times, hard to accept as a gentle voice of Spiritual leadership—well, people, what do you want, someone who pretends NOT and gets the job done—or pious Lady Biliaries who tell you one thing and are as dark as the dungeon in reality? And just why do you suppose "Lady Hillary" got left off in Europe? That nice First Lady of the U.S. has the code-name in the Intelligentsia of BLACK WIDOW. That very definitely means that she will kill and eat her mate, good people, and Little Billy is in, again, serious trouble. Did you notice that her little trippings are totally involved with Khazarian Zionism?

The PLAN was, by those would-be-worlders, to have YOU under total control by this Independence Day, after having gotten control of everything that could economically save you. Well, it happened—but it got "undone" and now they don't know what to do about it—bomb you all away or try for a more "civilized" way of suckering in you-the-people.

willing "Grandmas and Grandpas", figuratively speaking, who care enough to give the very best. It will NOT be the Viper Red Berets who blow up cities. Freedom held by Force is not Freedom, it is an exchange of Forces.

Informed KNOWLEDGE and Spiritual KNOWING in truth, offers freedom.

On this day of celebration of false perceptions I hope you give just a moment of your time to looking at that which you seem to adore and worship the most—your exchange money.

I enjoy giving Grandma a forum as the sharpness of her pain and losses dull a bit and her mind can go back to those things which she has studied and of which she knows best—these very Constitutional THINGS.

[QUOTING:]

July 3rd, 1996

Dear CONTACT, and Concerned Readers,
I always get a kick out of the Commander's statements: THE TRUTH SHALL SET YOU FREE, AND MAKE YOU—MAD AS HELL!

Then, I have my own, which is: "Congress sits on its ass with its thumb up its fanny and its brain in neutral, as the nation collapses from within." [H: So, we are crude and picturesque? Ah, then readers, you do NOT know even the half of it! You continue, as a people, to fiddle the same old scores while your world burns—and pronounce those who try to bring truth—liars, cheats, thieves and "crude". So be it—your choice!]

In other words; we have an IMPLOSION, from "those who sit on their collective asses", and like all other "LEGENDS" IN THEIR OWN—MIND—do more to destruct than to RESTORE.

It would be an absolute marvel, if they had the ability to research and understand the job THEY WERE HIRED TO DO, and do some collective READING on the old INTERNATIONAL MONETARY FUND AGREEMENT of 1945-'46-'47; Public Law 94-564. [H: But then, how many of YOU will rush to your Constitutional LIBRARY and study up on these topics?] for it would plainly tell them: "WE ARE IN DEEP PUCKEY," and "our treasury gold is held at $38.00 per ounce, while the "members" of the "Board of Governors" (the contracting G-7 Nations) can utilize Merrill Lynch, Monex, Goldman Sachs, etc., and other STOCK EXCHANGES AROUND THE GLOBE at the instructions of the FEDERAL RESERVE and THE DEPOSITORY TRUST CO. to manipulate the gold and platinum commodity markets, and sell off the TREASURY GOLD OF THIS NATION (in Govt. Black Projects) FOR AMOUNTS UPWARDS OF PLUS $380.00 PER OUNCE.

MOTLEY'S CREW

One U.S. Rep., on the House floor, in 1995, stated: "We have a surplus of gold of about $460 Billion dollars." What the fool did not realize is: $460 BILLION in Gold at $38.00 per ounce—"IF" utilized properly on the Open Market IS MORE THAN ENOUGH TO PAY OFF THE NATIONAL DEBT AT $380.00 PER OUNCE!

Then, there is the matter of the Supreme Court ruling on the "THE GOLD CASES OF 1933-'34-'35" whereupon they HELD: "We do not so read the Constitution; Congress exceeded its areas of Jurisdiction"... (BUT, NOT ONE SINGLE WEDDING RING WAS RETURNED TO THE WOMEN OF AMERICA, nor were the BANK STOCKS held by the family members which were in CONSTITUTIONAL GOLD.(?!)) [H: So, how could the government do this to you again, as they plan, (confiscate precious metals)? It is easy for as the President said a term back, "If the people knew what we are doing they would lynch us in the streets!" AND "...the citizens have no longer an attention span than four years AT BEST!" Well, some of our attention spans go far further back than Aton of Egypt—so watch those backsides!]

Here all these years you have been told that "it's illegal to own gold". The Supreme Court did not think "so" —!

Now, aren't you proud as punch over those brown thumbed idiots in our U.S. House of Reps?

Think about it—then—THINK ABOUT IT AGAIN!
Grandma Herrman-Herman

[END OF QUOTING]

I don't suggest you get carried away with aliens or "E.T.'s" shooting darts at your selves. I do suggest that the messengers are quite REAL and certainly do and shall present to the point of being recognized. The LAWS of your LAND demand incarceration and quarantine of ANYONE who encounters an alien E.T. so, guess what, we have to make sure you "encounter" none. This is WHY the alien myths and tales are so stupid as to be blatant. No MESSENGER of Godly beings would so much as endanger a hair of your head, head heads. There will, however, be more and more visible presentations—but you will have to consider that your own prison keepers have some magnificent flying machines to fool you almost all the time. The point of the "PLANNERS" is to scare the daylights out of you in a sham cover to cause you to panic in fear, do what they tell you to do and accomplish the end of causing you to live in terror—right in your own homes. This is NOT THE WAY OF GOD CREATOR! This is one of the more despicable and villainous attributes of human mankind.

Murder In The First Degree: Ron Brown Cover-Up Details

7/4/96 #1 HATONN

There is NO HONOR or LOYALTY among the leaders in HIGH PLACES on your globe. To evidence this I offer the following researched follow-on to JUST ONE INCIDENT—the murder of RON BROWN, Commerce Secretary.

[QUOTING:]

A note from Nick: As you are well aware, this issue of the WSU was delayed. The reason is the immense amount of research that went into the three primary stories. From a political standpoint, this is the most important piece I've done since "The Impeached President" several years ago. From an economic standpoint, there are two major pieces in this newsletter. One is an actionlog, that was the best format for me to communicate to you economic events I expect to unfold. Second is the piece about the pending grain crisis and the subsequent inflation. Please pay close attention. The bond market IS crashing. It led the stock market up and it will lead the stock market down. [H: We will, at least at this time, only write about the Ron Brown incident. The grain situation is beyond belief and you are into the makings of such a worldwide FAMINE as to stagger your imaginations—it is underway, this atrocity of the ages, and all but beyond help.]

[H: Why do we try to use other resource information on these topics? BECAUSE WE ARE NOT REVELATORS—WE OFFER WHAT "IS" SO YOU UNDERSTAND THE IMPORTANCE A BIT BEYOND THE MOMENT OF FORTUNE-TELLING. THERE IS PLENTY OF REVELATION GOING ON—WHY DON'T YOU PEOPLE TRY WHAT "IS" AND WORK YOUR WAY UP TO REVELATION?]

An interim report on the death of Commerce Secretary Ron Brown

Cilipi Airport, Dubrovnik, Croatia, 2:10 P.M., April 3, 1996: Captain Amir Schic lands a twin-engine corporate jet carrying the Croatian Prime Minister and the American Ambassador. It is one of five planes to land routinely on Runway 12 in the hour preceding the scheduled 3:00 P.M. arrival of IFOR-21, the Boeing T-43A carrying Ron Brown and his upbeat entourage of American industrial deal-makers.

Cilipi Airport, 2:15 P.M.: Businessmen begin to straggle into the lobby, a few carrying umbrellas to ward off the very light to moderate rain. They're early because they're anxious to greet the 35 Americans who at this moment are taking off from Tuzla, Bosnia, 130 miles to the northeast.

Outside, a perfect breeze blows at 14 mph from east to west. It is perfect because at 120 degrees from the north, it is only one degree off from being an exact headwind for the landing pattern of IFOR-21. Contrary to some U.S. news reports, it is not a dark and stormy night. IT IS THE MIDDLE OF THE AFTERNOON!

The Radio Shack of Cilipi Airport, about 2:30 P.M.: Maintenance Chief Niko Jerkuic, 46, nervously fiddles with the dials on his VOR (VHF Omnidirectional Radio) beacon. The VOR is the only instrument that can guide the IFOR-21 safely to the runway. Jerkuic re-checks his terrain map again and again. In a couple of hours, he will be a rich man, the two American operatives tell him, if he can quietly send IFOR-21 into Sveti Ivan (St. John's Hill), one of the highest mountains in the area at 2400 feet. [H: It is thought that changing that VHF Omnidirectional Radio signal is impossible to do—oh no, if you know what you are doing you can easily interrupt the signal and send out "imitation" guidance signals which will simply override the original settings, then, the original signals will automatically return to their proper settings when "released". It is more that the signal is changed enough to alter the instrumentation and guidance system of the plane in focus of that beam signal. THIS certainly is NOT like a shutdown of the Western U.S. a couple of days ago when 7 States were without power. That kind of outage should scare the living daylights out of every one of you!! THAT IS A SERIOUS TEST, READERS, FOR THINGS SET TO HAPPEN—AS EARLY AS TODAY, THE 4TH OF JULY! Remember that a massive power outage misdirects EVERYTHING.]

On the other hand, if he miscalculates... well, the Americans did not look like men who would forgive someone who botches an assignment as serious as this one. All Jerkuic knows is that there is someone on board the plane who is very dangerous to the American President, and it is his job to make sure the plane never lands at the airport.

He glances out at some broken clouds around 400 feet above. They would have no effect. He would have to depend on the main cloud-cover at 2000 feet. Sveti Ivan rises almost 400 feet into this overcast. Jerkuic calculates he would have to alter the signal by a full ten degrees, to send the plane that far off course and into the mountains.

Money or no money, he began to wonder if he was doing the right thing. He had seen so much bloodshed in the years of the Bosnian War—what was a little more?

Cilipi Airport, 2:48 P.M.: Captain Schic climbs to the control tower to give IFOR-21 a friendly radio greeting and reassurance that all is well. He describes the Cilipi weather: visibility eight kilometers (5 miles), winds still at 14 mph, all flights arriving normally. Flying at about 10,000 feet and 40+ miles away, IFOR-21 Co-captains Ashley I. Davis, 35, and Tim Shafer, 33, thank Schic for his words of welcome. Because there is no airport radar, the control tower will not be able to track IFOR-21 as she approaches the airport.

These conditions are later described by Newsweek and others as "the worst storm in ten years" with "visibility just 100 yards". (Their portrayal of the weather IS FLATLY DENIED by Aviation Week and Space Technology.)

In the clouds over the Adriatic Sea, 2:50 P.M.: IFOR-21 reports in to Cilipi routinely. It is the last time their voice is heard.

Split, Croatia, 2:52 P.M.: The main regional radar station loses IFOR-21 from its screen, as the plane descends below the cloud cover.

Kolocep Island, 2:54 P.M.: IFOR-21 is dead on course as it passes directly over Cilipi's first beacon, 11.8 miles from the airport. It then locks onto Jerkuic's beam, which is supposed to guide the plane to the runway. But Jerkuic has mis-set the guide beam at 119 degrees instead of 109 degrees. This will lead it directly into the mountain range (and the deaths of all passengers).

Aboard an AWACS Plane, 2:56 P.M.: The U.S. Air Force plane keeping track of all air traffic in the area loses trace of IFOR-21, just as it passes over Dubrovnik. Being the military version of a Boeing 737-200, IFOR-21 is not easily lost. But because it is less than a mile off course at this point, no one on the AWACS plane notes any problem.

Secreno, Croatia, 2:57 P.M.: Villagers hear a plane roaring past unusually low and close.

Plat, Croatia, 2:58 P.M.: Villagers Ana and Miho Dunlica rush outside and see IFOR-21 plunging "like a ghost out of the clouds."

Velji Do, Croatia, 2:58 P.M.: Everyone in this tiny collection of stone huts at the base of Sveti Ivan hears a plane go directly overhead in the clouds, then rev its engines mightily for one instant.

Aboard the plane, the claxon of its ground-proximity warning device suddenly blares, jolting the pilot Davis. But the two-to-three seconds of warning are far too little. The plane's left wingtip touches ground, spinning the plane directly into the rocky hillside, making an earth-shaking explosion.

There is the crackling hiss of a huge fireball as the plane and its large load of fuel burn. Then a dead silence in the mist. The tail section remains INTACT, but the rest of IFOR-21 is all over the hill, making later identification of many of the passengers impossible. The nose of the fuselage is just a blackish smudge in the ground.

All 35 people are dead except for stewardess Shelly Kelly, who is riding in the tail. SHE SUSTAINS ONLY MINOR CUTS AND BRUISES.

Cilipi, 3:18 P.M.: U.S. authorities are notified that IFOR-21 is down, location unknown. However, they are to suffer 11 1/2 hours of pre-planned confusion before arriving at the scene. One prominent report verifies that pieces of the wreckage have been spotted floating in the Adriatic. A later report says a CIA trawler has retrieved some pieces. [H: By golly, that CIA is everywhere isn't it?]

Republic of South Africa, approximately 4:00 P.M.: News reports say an attempt is made on the life of RON BROWN'S LAW PARTNER, TOMMY BOGGS, BY AN unknown ASSAILANT IN A STAGED CAR ACCIDENT IN CAPETOWN. Later Boggs refuses to talk about the attempt. Allegations have been made that Boggs was culpable in many of Brown's activities. [H: These will be spoken of later so please stayed tuned.]

Cilipi, later that same afternoon: Niko Jerkuic goes home to collect his reward, but the reward is not waiting for him. That comes three days later: A BULLET THROUGH THE CHEST, administered just shortly before he is scheduled to be grilled by the U.S. Air Force accident investigation team.

The hit squad wraps his hand around the gun and departs. The Americans do not want a live witness who could spill the beans later. Like many of the Whitewater dead, Jerkuic is immediately labeled a SUICIDE, even though there is NO EVIDENCE—and a chest wound is a rare cause—especially with a large caliber pistol (very unusual in Europe).

The quick official reason given for bachelor Jerkuic's death is despondence over romantic troubles with his girlfriend. I have been unable to find any verification for this. Instead, I have found that neighbors and friends all agree Jerkuic was NOT depressed. He had survived the years of the Bosnian War. He was excited that life was finally getting better.

Crash site, 7:20 P.M.: FOUR HOURS AND 20 MINUTES AFTER THE CRASH, the first Croatian Special Forces search party arrives on the scene. They find ONLY STEWARDESS KELLY surviving—nicely. They call for a helicopter to evacuate her to the hospital. When it arrives, Kelly IS ABLE TO GET ON BOARD WITHOUT ANY ASSISTANCE FROM THE MEDICS.

But Kelly NEVER COMPLETES THE SHORT HOP. She "dies" en route. According to multiple reports given to journalist/editor Joe L. Jordan, an autopsy later reveals a neat, three-inch incision over her main femoral artery. It also shows the incision came at LEAST THREE HOURS AFTER all her other cuts and bruises.

This creates in your mind a horrifying scene in the back of the chopper, as one Special Forces operative holds down the struggling woman and muffles her screams, while another slices her leg.

Further autopsies of other passengers probably will not be made. Clinton ordered the cremation of ALL VICTIMS—it's hard to perform autopsies on ASHES.

NICK: All this, of course, cries for an explanation of why anyone would be so eager to kill Ron Brown that they would take 34 innocent Americans along with him. I will address this in a moment. But first let me describe the current state of thinking on the cause of the crash.

CONFUSION OR COVER-UP?

Ever since the crash, most reporters and officials have refused to even consider the possibility of foul play. Some of them are merely following orders. But most have instinctively fled from the highly disturbing possibility that Ron Brown was assassinated by people close to his own President.

They are confronted with the brutal impossibility of two experienced pilots following a VOR beam into a mountain 1.6 miles off course. So they all shrug their shoulders in bewilderment. [H: Oh well...!] None of their theories have come even close to explaining how a beacon that is accurate to within two feet at the landing point could lead the plane so far astray. But they have tried:

* The Air Force's official explanation is that the pilots set the compass on the airplane 10 degrees off course. That is absurd. Beside having an electric compass, the plane was also equipped with a magnetic compass. Pilots routinely set their compasses right before takeoff. If the compass was set off 10 degrees, they could not have been on course when they passed the first beacon, 11.8 miles from the airport. Instead they would have been miles and miles off course at this point. To make this explanation even more absurd, the plane was flying on the VOR signal, not the compass. That explains the half-truth. Yes, the plane was flying 10 degrees off course, but it was because the VOR beam had been tampered with.

* One desperate explanation was that a nasty cross-wind "blew" the plane sideways. Not credible. This wind would require a wind 90 degrees off the actual wind.

* Most of the press and officialdom have blamed poor visibility. To do this, they have taken the ferocity of the rainstorm later that afternoon and evening—and moved it back in time to the crash hour. But records show the weather from 2:54 pm to 2:58 pm was simply not that bad. It was well above the minimum required for landing. And VHF beacons NEVER get blown off course by the wind.

* Pilot fatigue and strain? Not likely on a 45-minute flight.

* Equipment malfunction on a rickety old plane? IFOR-21 was the number two plane in the White House fleet—in essence, Air Force 2. It had carried Hillary and Chelsea Clinton and Defense Secretary William Perry just the week before. Everything about the flight was checked out and rehearsed a week in advance. [H: Good old careful Hilliary, Hillary, Hillary, Billiary, Bullery, etc., however you want to spell it seems appropriate for your First Lady.]

* Lightning or other troubles causing the pilots to lose track of the beam? No, they were both drilled in the standard procedure for Cilipi: if you lose the beam or miss the airport, YOU IMMEDIATELY VEER TO THE RIGHT AND UP to make sure you AVOID SVETI IVAN. Indisputably, the pilots thought they were following the beacon. Otherwise, they would have executed the standard right turn within seconds. Plus, their landing gear was locked "down". They expected to land at any moment.

In sum, none of the "official" explanations to date hold any water. And all of them ignore the glaring fact that IFOR-2 did not simply stray off path at the last moment. By all accounts, she went straight as an arrow to her doom, the moment she left the Kolocep Island beacon and picked up the Cilipi beacon. The problem had to be the Cilipi beacon, which was broadcast to cause the plane to fly 10 degrees too far north AFTER PASSING THE FIRST BEACON PERFECTLY ON COURSE.

AND EVEN WORSE...

Could the problem have been that technician Niko Jerkuic had let his equipment become run-down? No. Thousands of landings had taken place while his equipment was running. Some, just minutes before IFOR-21. To transmit a VOR beacon that's ten degrees off, has got to be done intentionally.

Yes, that VOR beacon is old and antiquated. But the fact is, millions of flights land successfully all around the U.S. every year, using the same old, antiquated equipment. A magnetic compass is old and antiquated. Columbus sailed to the new world with one. But to this day, every ship and plane in the world uses the same old, antiquated magnetic compass. They use them because they work. [H: What do you think happens at all the towers and to all the electric compass systems used today? Let me remind you of the CHAOS caused by one outage of seven states power shutdown as in day before yesterday's demonstration. It takes a few minutes to kick on supplemental power and often, in the cases of electromagnetic failure causes—there is no ability to kick on the supplemental power systems!!! Ah, but the media doesn't tell you that, do they? They just report a little Western United States power failure (all at once) as a run-of-the-mill happening wherein the only inconvenience mentioned are street lights, traffic irritation and the stations going off the air.]

Obviously, this explanation could do double duty, by aiding the suicide theory. In this scenario, Jerkuic simply felt so bad about his shoddy work that he shot himself. Unfortunately for the theory, you can't just accidentally bump a knob and make the whole VOR apparatus line up planes with Sveti Ivan. It takes a sustained effort, from an EXPERT TECHNICIAN.

Plus, the same beacon had guided other planes safely onto the runway, just BEFORE IFOR-21. So Jerkuic had to have made his adjustment at the last moment.

Alternative scenario: It is very possible—and a bit more simple—that Jerkuic simply shut his beacon down. At the same moment, a decoy beacon would have been turned on by a fellow operative sitting on Sveti Ivan. A decoy beacon easily FITS IN A JEEP. This is an old, old trick.

Wayne Stayskal

The question arises: could not the whole issue be resolved by a quick review of the tapes at the control tower? They probably could—IF THE TAPES HAD NOT SUDDENLY DISAPPEARED.

[END OF QUOTING]

We need a break and we are only half through this writing so, please, when we return to the keyboard, we will simply continue on this same "program". Thank you.

7/4/96 #2 HATONN

Let us return to the second part of the discussion of Ron Brown.

HOW MANY OF YOU REALIZE THAT RON BROWN, LIKE EVERYBODY ELSE UNDER WRAPS—HAD A CODE NAME? GUESS WHAT HIS WAS? WELL, LET US TRY "BLACK EAGLE". Am I right so far, gentlemen of the Intelligence branches and twigs? Perhaps it is much like the Dairy Mad Cow situation—the cows ARE MAD and have DIS-EASE in the Jersey and Guernsey Islands over such as the Woodbridge accounts? It may well get a lot worse, this madness, as things unfold. Spongy-brain is hard to eradicate once it infects the people and they find out what has been going on for these past years.

We left off the scenario about Black Eagle's nest-pooing last flight with, "Could not the whole issue be resolved by a quick review of the tapes at the control tower?"—But they disappeared in plain sight...!

[QUOTING:]

And couldn't the air traffic controller shed some light on things? Certainly. But NOW he too, has "committed suicide"—which, by the way, is a rare event for such a cause in Croatian culture.

I repeat: No official anywhere is facing these facts. As a result, their "explanations" are laced with words like "mysterious" and "unknown" and "inexplicably" and "unfortunate".

AIR FORCE INVESTIGATION KILLED (FOR THE 1ST TIME IN HISTORY)

The chief investigator for Pratt & Whitney happened to be at the Paris Air Show on April 3. Pratt & Whitney always sends an investigator when a plane powered by their engines has a mishap. So the man called his boss in America, and said in effect, "We just had a crash in Croatia. I think I'd better get down there." The response was "Go pack."

But as the investigator was packing at his hotel, his boss called back. "DON'T go," he told the astonished employee. "There's not going to be a safety investigation."

For the first time in history, the Air Force had canceled the safety investigation of a crash on friendly soil. [H: But remember who runs the Air Force, readers. That's right, the UNITED NATIONS.] There would only be a quick token legal investigation, designed to enable a committee to blame the pilots and some Air Force brass, and go home. [H: Wouldn't you think that at least one or two of the corporations served by THE OTHER PASSENGERS would object to such a wipeout of their executives?]

At this time, it's an open question whether the black boxes will play a role. Within hours after the crash, the Croatian Ministry of Transport announced they had the black boxes. One and a half days after the crash, Croatian TV (plus Russian and French TV) announced the FDR (flight data recorder) AND the CVR (cockpit voice recorder) were safely in the hands of the U.S. Marines. They said that soon, "The cause of the crash will be assessed to find out what happened." The U.S. European command in Stuttgart, Germany, also stated that a black box was aboard.

Later, the Pentagon brass stoutly denied all this. They said there were NO black boxes aboard. [H: Doesn't anyone reading this atrocity of lies have any brains? No recorders on the second most IMPORTANT plane in the world?] They claimed the actual recovered boxes were designed to hold soda pop and toilet paper. (In fact, the black boxes are painted bright ORANGE, so investigators can more easily find and identify them. The Croats, who feel they can tell a reel of tape from a roll of toilet paper, are keeping mum.)

It is hard to imagine that America's #2 VIP plane had no black box. And a veteran Air Force mechanic, who claims to have worked on just about every T-43A in the USAF, tells me he never saw one WITHOUT a recorder box.

WHY WOULD ANYONE WANT TO MURDER RON BROWN?

By all accounts, Ron Brown was a charming fellow who worked very hard and effectively to promote U.S. business. Why, then, would anyone want to kill him? And who would have the resources to do it by bringing down the #2 airplane in the White House fleet?

The answer, in brief, is that Ron Brown was going to prison—no if's, and's or but's about it. Also Bill Clinton's presidency was surely GOING DOWN WITH HIM. And the President could not allow that.

To anyone who has followed the story closely, this conclusion is inescapable. Brown was up to his neck in numerous major scandals: Whitewater, the Denver airport mess, Mena, the Keating Five, Lillian Madsen and her Haitian prostitutes, etc. Small wonder that 22 congressmen wrote Clinton in February 1995, demanding he fire Brown.

At the time of his murder, Brown was under investigation by:

- * a special prosecutor in the Justice Department;
- * the FDIC;
- * the Congressional Reform and oversight Committee;
- * and even his own Commerce Department Inspector General.

[H: This "Black Eagle" was even playing around in the Santa Barbara S&L, Financial mess which stole money and property as if it were a wholesale give-away—and got Ekkers', as well, in the flow.]

In case you missed the piecemeal accounts in the papers, here is an extremely condensed summary of 11 of Brown's woes. As I'll show below, many of them were shortly going to become Bill Clinton's woes:

1. How did North Viet Nam recently get the U.S. to drop its trade embargo against them so suddenly? Easy. As a leading Vietnamese businessman and official revealed to the press, the Communist government paid BROWN BLACK EAGLE $700,000 to do it. The money went into a "Singapore" bank account, the embargo fell, and Clinton squashed a feeble FBI attempt to investigate. He and Brown also neutralized a federal grand jury probe later.

2. Brown sold plane seats on other trade trips besides the one to Bosnia-Croatia. Companies making big contributions to the Democratic Party or the Clinton Victory Fund could buy access and tax break or regulatory favors.

3. The 1-23-95 U.S. News & World Report broke the news that Brown had bought a $360,000 townhouse for his girlfriend, Lillian Madsen, a prominent political player and whorehouse madam from Haiti.

4. Brown used to receive $12,500 a month as the P.R. agent for Baby Doc Duvalier, the much-loathed dictator of Haiti. Brown received this money for nearly five years, while he was a member of the Democratic National Committee. Brown also managed Baby Doc's $50 million investment fund, most or all of which is now in Viet Nam firms.

5. Brown was a key board member of Chemfix, a Louisiana "waste management" corporation that landed a $210 million contract with New York City in 1990, with Brown's help. That was despite the fact that Chemfix had two other contracts with other municipalities cancelled because of its inability to perform. Brown got company stock at 24% of market value, making him millions. New York Mayor David Dinkins got to host the Democratic Convention. A typical Ron Brown win/win deal.

6. Brown founded Capital/Pebco, which—fresh out of the box—got a contract with Washington D.C. Mayor Marion Barry to handle the city's pension funds. Not a bad start for a new company with no investing experience.

7. In a deal that has left CIA people livid, Brown okayed the sale of a new U.S. gas turbine engine to China. China will use the engines in its cruise missiles. McDonnell Douglas developed the turbine as a military engine. But Brown arbitrarily reclassified it as "civilian". That let China build a fleet of missiles, using U.S. engines and technology, which they can point at (who else?) the U.S.

8. Brown irked Congress and most of Europe by acting as point man for Clinton to bring Iranian influence and weapons into the Bosnian War. That broke the U.S.-endorsed arms embargo. The money for the arms most likely came from Commerce and Agriculture, slush fund money channeled to U.S. manufacturers; from there to U.S.-friendly nations and firms overseas; and from there to Iran.

The arms included helicopter gunships, big artillery, stinger missiles, land mines, anti-aircraft guns, anti-tank weapons, grenade launchers, and other quality weapons. Most of the arms will stay on the European scene for decades to come, keeping the area destabilized. As one leading munitions dealer put it:

"Iran/Contra was slingshots and cap guns compared to the quantities and size of arms given the Croatian Serbs."

That is why the Croatian Muslims enthusiastically hosted Brown's planeload of executives. They felt gratitude for the free arms, as well as a desire to do deals.

9. Brown was the partner of a Democratic fundraiser named Nolanda Hill. Hill paid Brown $500,000 for his 50% interest in First International, Inc., a company that never made any profits. Most glaringly, Brown never invested a cent in First International.

FRANK & ERNEST

First International owned Corridor Broadcasting, which had defaulted on massive government loans of $40 million. The loans were passed on to the FDIC, which was unsuccessful in collecting anything from Hill. Yet at the same time, First International was making large contributions to the Democratic Party, and paying hundreds of thousands of dollars to Brown, through shell corporations.

These payments to Brown—three checks for $45,000 each—were the core of Representative Clinger's evidence that forced Janet Reno to hire Daniel Pearson as special investigator of Brown's crimes. They were cashier's checks, all cut the same day in 1993, with sequential numbers. Yet, supposedly the money came from three contributors, acting independently. Brown never disclosed or paid any taxes on these amounts.

10. By personally delivering a warning letter signed by Clinton, Brown was able to force a bargain deal with the Saudis for $6 billion in American military aircraft and hardware. To get the planes, the Saudis also had to accept a fat $4 billion phone contract with AT&T; otherwise, they would get no aircraft. [H: Nice "pull"!]

Also part of the deal: AT&T had a multi-million dollar side agreement with Brown's First International, which was hired as a "consultant" (see above). And the Democratic National Committee and the Clinton campaign fund were beneficiaries.

This is how big business is done in Clinton's America.

11. The last nail in Brown's coffin was pounded in four days before his crash. FBI and IRS agents subpoenaed as many as 20 witnesses for a serious new grand jury probe of Brown in Washington. It seems that an Oklahoma gas company called Dynamic Energy Resources gave Brown's son Michael $500,000 in stock, a $160,000 cash payment, and exclusive country club memberships. Former Dynamic president Stewart Price told a Tulsa grand jury that the money was to be routed to Ron Brown, who was expected to "fix" a big lawsuit for Dynamic.

There is little chance you heard about this death-knell, grand jury case. Radio station KTOK in Oklahoma reported it on March 28, 1996; the Washington Times made it a front-page story on March 29. But then a lock was put on the story. The AP and New York Times wire services blocked any further release of the information. Welcome to the new world order.

FINAL PROOF

The 2-8-96 Washington Post reported Brown had retained top legal gun Reid Weingarten, a former high official in the Justice Department, as his criminal attorney. You don't pay his price ($750 an hour) unless you know a criminal indictment is coming, and you're probably going to jail.

Janet Reno appointed Daniel Pearson as Brown's special prosecutor earlier this year. She gave him blanket permission to investigate anything. That's when Brown angrily demanded that Clinton force her to withdraw Pearson. But Reno couldn't do that. She had been backed into a corner by Rep. William F. Clinger, Jr., chairman of the House Government Reform and Oversight Committee. Clinger had copies of Brown's First International checks, plus other incriminating documents.

When Clinton said he couldn't comply, Brown went ballistic. His fatal mistake—according to Brown confidants who requested anonymity—was telling Clinton he wasn't going to take the rap. He wasn't going to let his wife and son take the rap, either. (Both had received hundreds of thousands of dollars in under-the-table payments themselves.) He was going to finger Bill and Hillary instead. That would have sunk Bill's reelection campaign on the spot.

DEAD MAN WALKING

From that point on, Brown WAS DEAD. Like Vince Foster before him, he knew too much. He knew where all the money went for the payoffs, bribes, scams, money laundering, cover-ups, participation fees, hush money and side deals—all the way from one-man operations to vast multinational trade treaty fixes.

The phony suicide fakeout used on Foster could not be repeated, of course. But an airplane crash is always viewed as an accident. So agents were sent—not directly by Clinton, but through a White House staffer—to a standing network of high-level killers, sometimes called the "Octopus". If the frequently stormy weather at Cilipi had not cooperated, there would always be another trip—somewhere, somehow—and soon.

If the preceding data were widely known, America would realize BILL CLINTON IS BY FAR THE MOST DANGEROUS MAN EVER TO LIVE IN THE WHITE HOUSE. [H: Well, that may be stretching it just a bit because there are some who are STILL DANGEROUS

EVEN AFTER BEING OUT OF THE WHITE HOUSE!] Clinton's complex personality certainly has a genial side. But a clear overall picture of this man must include the brutal nature of the hit team that carries out his muttered wishes, and looks after his political fortunes. [H: He then cries great big croc tears and hugs the victim's loved ones on international TV and gets away one more time. But you can see his operations techniques—as he hands out medals, ribbons, honors and those hugs to the Fatherless children and hands a flag (of shame) to the wives and mothers.]

This is not simply the rag-tag "Arkansas Mafia" that followed Clinton to Washington. It is a small but extremely well-organized network of pro-establishment heavy hitters and their ground-level operatives. With a few changes of face, they have been on the scene since the 1970s. They are a diverse band of high-level thugs who are the muscle squad of the establishment.

If you are a member of Congress, I urge you to assign your most trusted staff members to investigate these crimes. Start with a conversation with Daniel Pearson. He is still willing to share his information.

[END OF QUOTING]

I dislike having to leave this story at this point but time constraints are limiting. I can only assure you that Bill Clinton's crimes are important to you. Moreover—WHO PULLS BILL CLINTON'S STRINGS? Ah, and that is another story for another day. If you get the picture you will be not only spellbound but the story puts together all the little pieces you might well have found missing.

Please, remember that in every great crisis there are also great opportunities of all kinds. Those who position themselves in carefully laid places do not have to suffer great losses and often some find themselves gaining extraordinarily from the circumstances. The key is, as always, in KNOWLEDGE in anticipation of what the future may hold—and having the courage to put that knowledge to work FOR YOU.

No person is SAFE if the TRUE STORY is told as the TRUE STORY it is—so you have to realize that in these days of press foolishness, you will have to look for the books, often of fiction character, which are buried.

We will leave this writing on this note and perhaps we can continue on as time permits. That luxury is, however, not this day. Thank you.

CONTACT: The Phoenix Project

CONTACT is a unique and inspired newspaper for concerned citizens everywhere, though it particularly focuses on the United States because of this country's special mission in the affairs of the world. That is, "As goes the United States, so goes the world."

CONTACT is a vehicle for Commander Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn's most recent writings on important current affairs, plus those from other enlightening sources, on matters critical to a responsible and informed public at this time of planetary transition and final days of battle between the Forces of Light and the "Evil Empire" forces of darkness.

CONTACT exists to counteract the manipulating lies and clever half-truths put out (on purpose) by the regular print and broadcast media prostitutes of the Satanic Elite controllers—parasites who are in the process of economically, physically, and spiritually collapsing this once great country (and actually the entire planet) down to a slave-state level of existence under their diabolical control plan called The New World Order.

This newspaper, CONTACT, began life on March 30, 1993, risen, like the mythical bird, with great determination "up from the ashes" of its internationally acclaimed predecessor called THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR.

THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR, in turn, began life in mid-October of 1991, having evolved from an earlier newsletter called the PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS, which itself came into existence as a faster way to get THE TRUTH out to you readers than was possible with the more substantial "book" format of the PHOENIX JOURNALS. Much incredible ground has been covered so far in that mission.

While the PHOENIX LIBERATOR's motto reminded all that "The Truth Will Set You Free", the CONTACT's motto, displayed prominently in the masthead, takes that thought another important step forward and proclaims: "Ye Shall Know The Truth And The Truth Shall Make You Mad!"

The "Phoenix Project" is about those preparations needed—at body, mind and soul levels—to both understand and survive the great healing changes which are beginning to energize this beautiful little planet, now so frazzled and tortured from abuses of all kinds. We look forward, with great expectations, to the CONTACTING with all of you—a coming together that is rapidly taking place as the entire Phoenix Project "ground crew" continues to connect, solidify, and gain strength through becoming informed of THE TRUTH. Indeed, welcome aboard, friends!

THE LAW OF DETACHMENT

In detachment lies the wisdom of uncertainty, in the wisdom of uncertainty lies the freedom from our past, from the known, which is the prison of past conditioning.

And in our willingness to step into the unknown, the field of all possibilities, we surrender ourselves to the creative mind that orchestrates the dance of the universe.

Deepak Chopra

Doris Ekker: I asked for help this morning as I sat to this keyboard and the above message is what Commander offered. I thought, again, that I could not go on. I had the pain in my heart of one I thought a friend, in deposition, call me "ignorant" and fragmented, and E.J., a "bastard moral pervert". Why? Because we try our very best to protect that which belongs to ALL while the two or three try to gather that which is another's. I cried out to God and said, "Why must I give it all—how can this be?" And He answered me softly—"No child, 'I' gave YOU all—so that this, in My name, shall come to be. We shall win the day and all the enemy shall have won is the darkness of their own hearts."

I saw an amusing thing or two from the deposition in point—especially as Mr. Horn was "called" for calling this very witness a "bastard" earlier, on the phone. This amusement came after the witness had explained his definition of many things, i.e. "bastard", "ignorant" and so on.

"Who will stand with me in truth?" I pleaded. And God said unto me: "I shall stand with thee! Any more silly questions?" And continued, "We have work to be done, let us get at it please."

So, I shall try this day to be objective and look in upon this life I have chosen—but I shall ALWAYS REMEMBER! I will always know in my heart the scars and the healing of this walk through HELL. I have nothing longer on this Earth to lose—I lost all THOSE things, and those who have loved and shared and walked with me—are not of this Earth—and I have gained IT ALL. I need NOT my enemy's blessings—for within I have found my passage and if my commission is to accomplish this task laid forth then this task is what I shall accomplish.

Can a handful of dollars sitting secure be worth the misdirection and grief of the Benedict Arnolds of this world? Yes, I suppose, if their leaders be BLIND.

Perhaps I too am blind—but in my blindness I found TRUTH for I turned to greater eyes than mine, greater ears with which to hear from within—and a greater mind to guide my steps and actions. Indeed, you who wait for me to share—WE SHALL WIN THE DAY! And, those impatient legal leeches—shall fall to the wayside. The pain comes in that they are taking that very thing for which the claimants petition from us, while their assets sit being eaten away by the ones manipulating their every intent. I have compassion for God Himself, for it must be terrible to try and make mankind hear, see, and understand. We cling to our tiny shards of focus and dwell in the places of dark actions and desires—and those things rule the day, the night and the vision.

And then, out of that darkness comes a voice which belongs to one who has awakened out of the pain and misery of his/her own passage—and the answers flow like water from a broken dam as the remembering kicks in and the contributions are made to show us the way. God waits, and heals, and then gently guides us back to our tasks. It is the renewal that comes from that wondrous guidance that softens our tattered hearts when KNOWING kicks in—and doubts are kicked out.

Hatonn has asked that I simply take a tape from "Grandma" and let us help Rick get some of the hours of interviews onto discs. We have no elaborate scanners, voice readers—nothing to take away the tap, tap of the fingers on the keys—for we "have not yet arrived" to be able to afford such luxuries. BUT READERS, WE HAVE REACHED, NOT JUST GOD—WE HAVE REACHED THE HIGHEST ENEMIES OF OUR LANDS AND AS THEY COME TO OUR TABLE TO DISCUSS OUR JOURNEY—WE HAVE WHATEVER IS NECESSARY TO STAND FORTH WITHOUT TAIN OF "RELIGIONS", "POLITICS" OR "SHAM PRETENSE"—AND IT IS WONDERFUL. Indeed, I can see the WAY—I can "finally" see the way for man CAN change and many will change because it is righteous—but more will change because it is better than the alternatives, and some will change because THEY HAVE TO TO STAY ALIVE IN THIS WORLD OF EVIL—THEN IT WILL BE UP TO EACH INDIVIDUAL TO BRING THE TIDE ABOUT AND KEEP WHAT WE SHALL HAVE GAINED.

As we talk with ones who have SERVED within the ranks of the controlled servants of the Elite—I marvel that any could find their way and again struggle for Truth. More have changed than have been LOST—and in that realization, it is obvious we can accomplish a turn-about and, slowly and patiently, with constant vigilance, regain and accomplish that which made this nation GREAT—ONE NATION UNDER GOD, INDIVISIBLE, WITH FREEDOM AND JUSTICE FOR ALL. And I also am given to understand that those who choose otherwise can quite frankly, with my permission, go to Hell where they already dwell. I know Truth and I do not need their "definitions" for God's are quite sufficient to my needs. And to you who patiently share, pray, and dwell in your hearts with us—I am on my knees to you for there is no way we could walk this thistled trail without your love, your cards, your remembrances and your help. Everywhere I look about my place are the reminders—from a handkerchief to a baby sparrow brought to be nurtured. I have baskets of love overflowing with your messages of "just one more step" and "we can do it"—and so we shall. I placed my hand in the hand "of the man"—and I find that even when I let go—HE DOESN'T.

I am going to spend this morning transcribing Grandma's taped visit of yesterday and I tremble a bit for her—but her teacher and guide is the same as MINE and, therefore, she too will be fine. Her life seems ever so much more exciting than does mine—but I have been blessed with wondrous adventures and incredible experiences as we have all passed this way—and moreover, we CAN live to see the deliverance if we hold to God to allow us protection of our thoughts—for now the Satanic walking devils have the ability to electrocute our brains (literally) and totally control us through our MINDS—and SOULS. There is only ONE LIGHT greater than these things of puppet strings—and that IS GOD—"they" CANNOT override GOD. Therefore WE must attend our attachments in every moment of every hour—and, yes, be objective about what appears to be uncertain—for with God—all is CERTAIN. Thank you for allowing me a minute to write for I must first be objective about myself. d.j.e.

This noting of my initials reminds me of another D.J.E. from Nevada who used to share Nostradamus with us, for Commander said she was given the gift of knowing the meanings of those quatrains. Moreover, she gave some personal writings for George Green and Col. James "Bo" Gritz which have borne TRUTH BEYOND MY ABILITY TO HAVE RECOGNIZED—AS IT HAS COME TO BE EXACTLY AS IT WAS PROJECTED THAT IT WOULD BE. But guess what, she had touched the "aliens" and developed cancers from the radiations—not of the aliens, but THAT WAS THE COST of being there at the wrong time, simply doing her job in a hospital. If she is strong enough to again share with us—NOW IS THE TIME for understanding is all we have to offer—and a forum for the unfolding.

Each week the paper begins its own week with NOTHING [in the bank account] with which to produce the mailings—but somehow enough of you offer help to allow "one more". Always we here do not see "how" but just keep right on writing—and somehow, once more, a paper goes forth. Thank you, for none of US HERE are "paper" people nor have ever even wanted to be—we are all just doing what YOU would do—the best we can while asking your patience with our lack of any semblance of knowing what to do. Dr. Young, for goodness sakes, is a Physicist and Engineer, Rick a Psychologist, Brent a MUSICIAN and composer—and Claudia? Well, Claudia just does the rest—around the clock. Everybody just pitches in and does what has to be done—realizing that one day it shall be "right" and that "knowing" is quite enough.

Do we have our own public and/or silent terrors? Oh my, yes. And we just passed one of them—some special friends made it possible to order THE LAST LOAD OF SPELT GRAIN IN THE WESTERN HEMISPHERE. We, friends, are in for a very bad time ahead as the Elite have all but wiped out our growing capabilities. It is truly frightening beyond anything I have come to realize. Commander has pointed out that both food and money are only important to the extent you don't have them. And yet, without money we can't have the other. Perhaps the "rapid ascension" of an atomic blast will seem better than the slow death of the other choices and I think that is what John must have meant in Revelation as people prayed to have the mountains fall upon them. Indeed, I have found Truth in Little Crow's wisdom: "...to serve Truth only gives you restless nights of sleeplessness—and days of heavy hearts..." But at the same time, as Ormond McGill shares with us privately—THERE COMES JOY WITHIN THE HEART. THIS IS NOT "HAPPINESS" AS SUCH—IT IS JOY. AND, THIS MOMENT IN

TIME—I FIND JOY WITHIN MY OWN. I look forward to the day I shall look in the eyes of God our Father and He shall say to me, "You have done well, come with me for you have earned your passage." And THAT is the BEGINNING of my REAL journey! But, I must practice my ability to CREATE—here, with what is available—as do YOU. Maybe we can, together, Create something worthy of the gift and the allowance of our journey.

I think this week's best lesson is reflected in the truth: "The loss of a beloved, deserving friend is the hardest trial of philosophy." I realize that this week I had to confront the FACT that I had lost a beloved and trusted friend and yet I found that I was not the one in "ignorance" nor E.J. the "perverted bastard". Why does not truth ease the sadness? I have not yet found THAT answer. I suppose it must be our "testing" to see if the hounds [from Hell] can cause us to break our bonds with "right"ness. Well, once more—it did not happen so perhaps we gained a bit in our lessons and this time we don't even slow up to nurse our wounds. In fact, I find, actually—there didn't come any left-over wounds from this encounter—so readers, from the experiences we learn to heal and move on without even slowing down except to get the barriers out of our roadway. AHO! AND THANK YOU, BROTHER CROW!

TAPE TRANSCRIPTION: GRAMDMA HERRMAN

DATE: JULY 5, 1996. Speaking to Rick Martin.

RM = Rick Martin

G = "Grandma" Herrman

(Any reference to Russell is Grandma's recently deceased husband. He lived a far more interesting life than any of us have yet found revealed—but Grandma is beginning to realize the involvement with the "Creep Society" headed by the Skull and Bones Society. Well, we just don't mind them helping us—do we? Thank you, Russell, and thank you, Grandma.)

G: Hey, you kids are onto this like a hen on a June Bug.

RM: ...what is "this"? We have done a whole other newspaper since the one you have...

G: Oh no, I have the one from the 2nd of July.

RM: Well, we are working and are almost through with the next one. So, there is a lot of water that has run under these bridges by the time you get your paper.

G: Ok. But you're on it... And also, there are account numbers available.

RM: Are you talking about Nugan-Hand or what?

G: I am talking about account numbers that will fit with these Banks that you speak of here in the Drug and Scam money-laundering within the dirty side of "high-finance".

RM: OK, keep talking...

G: Now then, you also have documentation on MERKAV International Banking Ltd., where they were marketing $200-$260 BILLION dollars in Certificates of Deposit in Europe—after the S&L failures.

This was by Marion Aiken who was the President and CEO of that corporation. This was a Govt. Black Project which operated in between governments and utilized banks in the European communities to mop and launder as well as underwrite these dirty Black Government Projects. He got thrown into prison and all of his materials were confiscated, in August of 1988 or 89 (I forget the exact date on that), but he was involved with Delehey(sp?), Brown, and quite a few well-known agencies with names with which we are all familiar.

He was put into prison in Copenhagen, Denmark. The arresting agency was INTERPOL, the arresting officer heading up INTERPOL was Arnie Gamelsgard. He can be located in prison and this can be confirmed through the Copenhagen offices at 011453631448. Fax number is 0114533912640, Ext. 2421. All of this can be confirmed and it was kept out of the U.S. and away from the news media by Ambassador Lynn Schively who blocked every effort of INTERPOL to get the assistance of the U.S. Treasury involved with this over $200 plus BILLION in Certificates of Deposit which came from the failed S&L mess.

RM: You were talking about Republic National Bank in Texas, weren't you?

G: Yes, this is all tied-in. The key to all of this would be the Bush, Baker, Bentsen, North, Herrman, (yes, Russell was involved in this also and I'm not going to pull any punches about it), and also, Greenspan, the Depository Trust Co. and the CIA. This was out of the Houston-based [Dallas-based?] Federal Reserve, which was caused to activate the Houston-based Republic National Bank of Texas which was the Contra-arms which was then transferred into the New York Republic National Bank. Rick, you've got those account numbers and the whole bit; I FAXed it to you.

RM: Yes I do.

G: This all goes right in to the Cow Islands (Jersey, Guernsey, etc.). Then of course, all this is keyed in to the article you offered on the Liechtenstein accounts that were held by Nugan-Hand. Then, you also have the Continental Bank of Illinois... Continental Bank of Illinois and First National of Illinois also fell, at which time, when they fell, they were taken over by another group who affirmed their identity and that was the Magna-Carta Bank. In other words, the "Magna" Banks. The Magna Banks are still after the same old scam. They have bank officers in there authorizing loans which has created one of the largest HUD scams in history. All they do is change the names of the parties. One case had twenty-three loans. They just switch around the names... say, if it was John and Jane Doe and Bill and Jane Gorman on one, they would just change it to Bill, Jane Gorman and Jim and Jane Doe on the next one, and then, say, Jane and Jim Doe, etc. They just keep switching it around. There is DEEP fraud in there and it goes all the way into HUD, to which Jack Kemp was made aware, as was Metzbaum back in 1991 and '92. They still slid right over it and never did a thing about it. The documents are available.

RM: What about the Sofi Bank of Mexico?

G: That is "Sofina" Bank. That's also a prime laundering bank. See, here is how they'd do this: They launder through what is called the "Banco" systems. The Banco systems are charter members to the Standard Charter Banks. You know what those are, don't you?

RM: No.

G: There are a hundred twenty-five Standard Charter Banks. And how many charter members are there to the International Monetary Fund (IMF)? A hundred and twenty-five.

RM: So then, what does Brownsville, Texas have to do with anything?

G: It is a prime money laundering area with Sofina Bank that launders the money out from the Banco de Mexico.

RM: Then does this tie into the other thing we are talking about—is it all related?

G: It ties right directly into the Banco de Espanole which is the Bank of Spain, the Banco de Paris which is the Bank of France. It ties right into all of them—they get into what is called "the loop". That loop is like a figure "8" that lays horizontally and just keeps on going and going and... This is how the laundering routes are established. They run the funds right straight through because everything has to go through SWIFT-WIRE. Everything on this continent has to run through the Federal Reserve. So, in other words, it runs through :001—which is the White House. That is the code number. It is a code number :001. It is called :001. And :001 then hits :002 which is the Federal Reserve. Number :001 is the White House and Treasury. Number :002 is the Federal Reserve.

They then hit the "loop" and they start activating with their SWIFT-WIRES, all their corrupt little money transactions, and it is never picked up by outsiders. But there is only one case that can be picked up. You could put a computer "stop" on :001 and :002 and :005 and :007. :005 is Chicago Regional and that will take in all the Magnas. And it will take in all of your Chicago Regional corruption, i.e. little Mafia garbage. And then you have the :007 which is your Houston-based Federal Reserve. You can attach it all right there in :001, :002, :005 and :007, which are the key areas within the loop.

All of these are Federal Reserve SWIFT-WIRES. Those are the code numbers. You also have the Continental Bank and all those Banks which were picked up by the Magna Group. The Magna Group is still doing the same thing that they were doing—only they are doing it under a different name. The players are the same.

All of this is part of the investigation Russell was working on and, yes, it is a Black Project to take over those damned fools who are operating the corporate United States. They believe that they are smarter than the Mafia—but, no, they ARE NOT. Because, see, the thing of it is... and I don't know whether you know this or not... but, no Catholic can belong to Masons.

Neither can any Black belong to the Masons.

If they do so they are labeled what is called "clandestine" Masons.

So what happened is that "they" brought the "Clandestine Masonry" in through assimilation. They accessed the "pure" Masonry. Now they have caused a breakdown within those circles. This whole thing just goes far DEEPER than you can ever realize but there are account numbers available. You are going to find that the NUGAN-HAND BANK was tied right in to the Liechtenstein Bank, then the Liechtenstein Bank was opened up specifically to accommodate the CIA and the Nugan-Hand.

You are then going to find that that little Sofina Bank down there in Brownsville, Texas is a KEY BANK. That little key bank brings in European funds and it funnels them off into Banco de Mexico and Mexico funnels them right back out—through Sofina Bank. Therefore, Sofina Bank is a prime "drug" bank and that is Salinas' prime mopping/laundering money bank.

RM: You might be interested to know, Grandma, that I had an interview last night with Fletcher Prouty—Col. Prouty. He is a very interesting man.

G: Yes he is and he was a friend, or acquaintance, of Russell. I've heard Russell talk about him and how intelligent he is. They might well have not actually been "friends" as such—but I do know that Russell knew him.

Reminds me: I want to give you a lady's number and ask you to call her. Her name is Dee Ferdinand. Dee is the daughter of Al Carone and if you want to dig in the dirt of the CIA—call her. She is Al Carone's daughter and Al Carone was one of the CIA. He was the liaison into the Mafia in New York. She is involved because "they" kept telling her that her father wasn't in the service and that he didn't have any rank and all of a sudden you find a convoluted mess. You will have to talk to her. You need, Rick, to get into the whole meat of this thing. Just tell her that Mrs. Herrman asked you to call her.

RM: Has she spoken publicly about these things prior to now?

G: Yes, she was fighting Colby like you wouldn't believe. She was what was causing Colby a lot of big headaches.

RM: Vina, I'm going to have to sign off for now.

G: OK, but go get your Title 18 out and look at Policy number one and policy number two. Remember—the PEOPLE are the GOVERNMENT AND THAT THE GOVERNMENT MUST ADHERE TO THE LAWS OF THE PEOPLE. They can't just go piddle-footin' around making new laws as they go along. Read it and be impressed.

Now Rick, know that there are account numbers available. It might take me a country year to locate them but I think I probably can locate them.

RM: Well, I'll try to get back to you this afternoon.

G: Bye:

The Clandestine Society's Agenda For World Control

TRANSCRIPTION OF A TAPED INTERVIEW.

INTERVIEW: July 4, 1996

FP = Fletcher L. Prouty, USAF Colonel (Ret.)

RM = Rick Martin, Senior Correspondent, CONTACT

RM: Well, I think it is rather fortuitous, if that might be a good word, that we meet on the Fourth of July.

FP: Yes, it's a good day for it.

RM: Did you find anything of particular interest in the issue of CONTACT I sent? Perhaps the Vincent Foster material or anything in particular?

FP: I'll tell you that I'm working on something that involves me in some serious research and writing so I went through it one evening just before going to bed. Of course the title itself always attracts me, because it was Meese who created the term "Iran-Contra". There wasn't any "Iran-Contra", he just created it to figure out a way of making the people believe that the money we were making in Iran was being used for something. He figured the Contra was a good idea so he added it to the title. It then more or less set the stage for that which followed because a lot of it was very well staged by the regime in power at that time.

You need to understand that the Contras, like many rebel forces of the period, including the troopers who landed on the beach in the Bay of Pigs, were always supported 100 percent by the United States Government. They didn't need anybody to buy their boots and weapons, tents or all that kind of stuff because it was provided; in fact, THAT was my job. I was in charge of the provision of military aid to clandestine operations of CIA. That was the job I held for nine years.

RM: That is certainly very interesting.

FP: Yes, so I do know the way things work.

RM: Are you familiar with the name Al Martin?

FP: No I don't remember him. Where was he?

RM: He was the one I interviewed on the subject we ran on the Iran-Contra. He was the person who set up some of the money-laundering side of things.

FP: Yes, laundering money was a big deal in those days—and still is.

RM: Was that the first issue of CONTACT that you have seen?

FP: I believe so, yes.

RM: I should tell you that it is a relatively small subscription paper but it does go around the world. It's primarily about the U.S. We only have about 1,300 subscribers, paid subscribers, but it seems to be the kind of paper that people photocopy every week and pass around as you wouldn't believe. I am constantly running into people, and hearing from people, not only across the U.S. but from Canada, Australia and all kinds of places, even South Africa. These people hear about CONTACT and then contact us because they know that we will put things into print that the traditional media won't even touch or is afraid to put to press. Therefore our readers, I would comment generally, are elderly, have experienced changes, and are extremely well informed. They are well informed about clandestine operations because we have printed a lot on those topics within the past several years and we just continue to find amazing things we didn't know.

I did not prepare with a bunch of organized questions for you because I thought we could get involved in an open and frank dialogue. Basically we would want to discuss the United States, the status of the world in which we find ourselves, and to even use the "military-industrial" complex is such an old cliché now, as is the New World Order, that I hate to use them. However, we are moving so close to such a restrictive and international life-style that our once great country seems to be on the wane quite rapidly. So I thought we might basically talk about how you view the world of the Intelligence Community in today's society, if you feel it is fundamentally just an octopus out of hand or whatever might be your thoughts on these topics. Let us talk without the concern about "sound bytes" because you can speak your mind freely and we will print it exactly as you offer it.

FP: Let me ask you a question before we begin. I have written two books that you might call autobiographical on that subject. I wonder if you've seen them.

RM: No, I haven't.

FP: One of them was printed by Prentiss-Hall in 1973, called The Secret Team. After it was started and was going very well it all of a sudden just vanished. There are, however, various people around the country who are either still reprinting it or getting it from somewhere. One good source is Tom Davis Books (P.O. Box 1107 in Aptos, California 95001-1107). I permitted him to put them together. That book has done well; just like you're talking about with the paper, it's been all over the world. When I see people with it it is usually a worn out book and they are carrying it around with them.

The other book is one that I did when I was working with Oliver Stone on his film JFK. I didn't intend to do it, it wasn't even in book form at that time. I wrote nineteen articles, in sequence, for a small publication in Santa Monica and what I was really doing was writing about the history of the Vietnam War from the inside view of how it was really done. Stone saw some of those articles and called the Editor, bought up all the back copies and then he called me to work with him. With that start a publisher put the 19 articles together, rewritten of course, and published a book under a rather unusual title. The title explained the contents and because of the movie is called JFK, the CIA, Vietnam, and the Plot to Assassinate John F. Kennedy. Too much title, almost, for the front cover. It has just come out in the past month, in paperback. I have no idea how it is doing but again, like CONTACT, it floats through the crowd and you run into it in all kinds of places with all kinds of people.

The reason I bring it up here is that I think those two books would answer almost any question you might have to ask or, if we talk about the subjects here it would confirm them and offer something to look at and read, along with checking references.

RM: Do you by any chance know Gary Wean? He is a Los Angeles detective and did quite a bit of research on the JFK assassination. He wrote a book a number of years back called A Fish In The Courthouse, about the judicial corruption in Southern California.

FP: Oh yeah. But you know I didn't really intend to study the assassination except the subject on which I was working, mostly in the Vietnam War period, and it came chronologically so that I couldn't avoid it. Furthermore, I was right there working for the Chairman of The Joint Chiefs of Staff at the time and had access to every darned thing going between the Pentagon and the White House. Therefore I was so very close to it whether or not I wanted to write about it. Therefore I wrote just the facts as I saw them. I am not an interpreter and I had never even looked at that Warren Commission report or any of that information.

RM: Have you ever been asked to keep silent and not speak out? Has anyone approached you about your writing or speaking and told you to keep quiet?

FP: Oh, certain people have come up like that but I'll tell you the honest truth, most of my contemporaries very quietly come over and shake hands and say they wish that they had done it. That includes some people with some pretty big names so the others are the kinds of people who are paid to come out and attack guys; oh you know, the literary prostitutes who make a living doing that sort of thing. I have been hit by almost every one of them so I'm used to that game.

RM: What do you think about Washington these days? What is the status of, say, the CIA? Do you think it is just an out-of-control monster?

FP: The understanding of it is very much in error today. For instance, Allen Dulles was a lawyer. He worked like a lawyer. I worked with him and did, in fact, work in his home with him so I knew him very personally because our work was so close in our agencies that that was the only way we could manage it sometimes. I know him quite well and respect him. As a lawyer you work for someone. When he came into the CIA he cancelled the administrative section of the Agency as being unnecessary. When you are in Intelligence, the fact that you are walking down the street and find a dollar, all of a sudden you have a dollar—but when you send an agent somewhere and he stumbles over something, they have then something they want to do or something they want to know, and that is called intelligence. They will plant intelligence. Well, as a result, the role of the Agency becomes two things, that it is an intelligence agency is a Cover-story for some of the things it does which are clandestine. But it doesn't have the wherewithal for those things so the U.S. Government, through a directive from the National Security Council, has set up a system that requires, not just asks but requires, the military to support the clandestine activities of the CIA. This right away means that the CIA is simply the cover for the clandestine activities supported by the military.

After all, the CIA didn't have any pilots to fly such as the U-2—they wouldn't have known what to do with the thing. So you see that people don't understand the role here. If you begin to understand its role, then it will be found that some things it did do wrong and still does do wrong. There's no question about that. But many other times it clarifies things that should be clarified by the press, but the press likes the game. They like to play with it.

RM: Several days ago I did an extensive interview with Walter Bower and I know that you know him through the Freedom of Thought Foundation.

FP: Is he the fellow who wrote the book MIND CONTROL? Oh yes, I know him quite well although I haven't seen him for a long time now but I do know him very well from some years ago.

RM: We have done quite a bit of publication on the issues of MK-Ultra and Monarch Mind-Control Programming and that kind of thing, and we pretty much printed Mark Phillips and Cathy O'Brien's entire story. I guess you might be very informed about that sort of thing?

FP: Well, that is a whole other area where under Gottleib and Cameron and Jolly West at UCLA—those fellow have some very deep CIA activity. That came out of the MK-Ultra Program. That is a different side of this story altogether. It's a very active story and a very dangerous thing.

RM: There are lot of victims just walking around today who...

FP: Oh, no question about it. Have you seen the paperback called TRANCE FORMATION OF AMERICA? [Call Phoenix Source for ordering information 1-800-800-5565.]

RM: Actually yes.

FP: Then you know that that thing is going to explode. And, of course it should. That sort of thing should not be sat on by the press. The press knows as much about it as whoever sat down and wrote that book. They just won't touch it. And that is the press.

RM: I thought that Mark Phillips and Cathy O'Brien were both extremely courageous in telling their whole story but to put it down on paper quite so succinctly, boy, that took a lot of courage!

FP: Yes, and it is things like that that don't even seem or appear to make a ripple but, of course, it is making ripples which will grow. It also is standing behind the door for a lot of things that are liable to open up all of a sudden. It wouldn't surprise me a bit. It is similar to the HAARP Project now being discussed by everybody, that is affecting the weather and agriculture as well as physically impacting the people. Have you been into that subject?

RM: We are familiar with the book ANGELS DON'T PLAY THIS HAARP which is about the HAARP system and, yes, we have published quite a bit about that. We are actually very, very concerned about it.

FP: Yes, rightfully so. I have the man's three patents and I've been trying to study them, which in itself is pretty difficult, but I've been into that kind of business so I'm working on them now. Back in my days we were doing things like that but nowhere near the magnitude of what capabilities are today.

RM: Let's just let you talk for a bit about your own choice of topics, for instance, what do you see as a concern in today's world? Obviously you have been through a lot, your background is very impressive and you have been through it for a lot of years and have seen the military and intelligence from a side than have very few people. We are out here on the West Coast and obviously our perception is very, very different than from where you sit, so, are there any concerns you would share with our readers?

FP: I have personal concerns that I think should be of concern to more people who I meet. I'm very much concerned about the leadership of the country with respect to this country's people and its infrastructure. Our infrastructure is being worn out, destroyed, and there has been no modernizing until, like Kipling said: "Transport is civilization."

If you grow tomatoes and you can't move them, then they aren't worth a penny. If you have an oil well that's got tons of oil, if you can't move oil it isn't worth a dollar. That is why we are fighting in Bosnia—so we can bring that oil from Kazakhstan. They have to have a route. If we can't make the United States the finest country in the world with the finest transport systems to begin with... I worked ten years with Amtrak and was their principle speech-writer for six of those years for people like Allen Boyd and Don Reichert and Roger Lewis and people like that who really know the business while I was their speech-writer, and I've written on the subject for McGraw-Hill Encyclopedia. If we don't get out there pretty soon we are in serious, serious trouble. I have recently gotten three letters from farmers growing crops which were rotting in the fields and the streets because the railroad spur lines that used to be into their towns to pick up produce are now closed. The big 18-wheeler trucks can't go over their little ten-ton bridges into town and so the crops are rotting in the fields. That is only one example of the kinds of things which concern me. Our country is simply rotting from the inside while people talk about foreign countries and all kinds of esoteric problems. These are, of course, important, but nowhere nearly as important. The next big thing after the energy crisis, then the banking crisis, and we are now in the beginning of a food crisis that is going to be absolutely terrible.

That is what concerns me today.

RM: I couldn't agree more. The status of the wheat crop around the world is almost decimated.

FP: Yes, have you seen Gerard Colby's new book? Colby wrote the book DuPont Dynasty. He has a new one out today that I would say, hands down, is the MOST IMPORTANT IN THE LAST TWENTY YEARS. It is, oh my God, its title is Thy Will Be Done. It speaks of the Rockefellers, the petroleum business and the way they are LED BY THE EVANGELICAL SYSTEM, the missionaries into Latin America and other countries, and through the missionaries they get rid of the people and take over the land and oh, it IS the most important book I have seen for years.

It just happens that twenty years ago I knew Colby but haven't seen him since then. He is a remarkable person but that book is EXTREMELY IMPORTANT. It's published by Harper, who has merged now, but it explains the very things we are talking about in much more detail and with much more policy and politics.

RM: Are you then familiar with the concept of Depopulation?

FP: That is part of it but he explains that it isn't actually the basic problem. It is, and you probably know all this stuff, but it's what such as Prince Charles is involved in—the Universal Wildlife Fund and all that—which is one of the most murderous organizations ever put together.

RM: Would you say more about that?

FP: I could talk on all night about it. I'll tell you what—I don't know if you ever read it or not, because I hate to talk about something when I know people are much more informed about something than am I, but do you read the EIR [Executive Intelligence Review]? Ok, go back in the EIR about six months. They have an issue which is almost the equal of Colby's work but it is all on this one thing about this monstrous system of the World Wildlife Foundation under Prince Charles and many other world leaders, we'll call them, that are intended to create genocide all over the world. It is a terrific series of articles. I had a lot to do with the beginning of them when the subject started and am delighted at what they did with it. It is a bunch of reporters working independently who then put the information together. I don't remember exactly how far back it was but see if you can find it, maybe six or even eight months ago. It is extremely important.

RM: Seriously now, what else concerns you? These are important times and no concern is trivial.

FP: I think one of the biggest failings in the country, because it is so controlled, is the news. I'm sorry TV was invented because I can't stand to even turn my set on—my daughter has to figure out the buttons for me for a ballgame occasionally. I can't stand the newspapers because they are absolutely abominable. They are all getting worse instead of better. It is like TIME magazine—have you seen it lately?

RM: No, I don't have much patience with it.

FP: You wouldn't want to see it but it's so bad that if you took one from twenty-five to fifty years ago and compared it to what they are doing today—it is absolutely abominable. The news has deteriorated under control and they are not allowed to do any better. If they got a tape about what you and I are talking about they would not be allowed to print it. And Rick, I'm a long-time member of the National Press Club. I was at the Press Club yesterday. I know a lot of the people there and the poor guys trying to make a living there feel just about as bad about things as I do, but, they have to make a living. They sort of plate themselves with armor and get accustomed to it. It is terrible.

A talk-show host has just asked me to talk about the Pentagon Papers next week because it is the twenty-fifth anniversary, and that Pentagon Papers thing is just nothing other than an absolute pack of lies, all the way from Dan Ellsberg on down. Dan Ellsberg used to work in the office where they put the Pentagon Papers together. He used to work for McNamara. He wasn't just some kid out on the street. [For the full story (from a well researched book, THE USURPERS by Medford Evans) see CONTACT 6/28/94, 7/5/94, 7/12/94, 7/19/94, 7/26/94, 8/2/94, 8/16/94, & 8/23/94 issues; or see Phoenix Journals #'s 99, 100, 101, 102, 103, 104, 105, & 107. See Back Page for ordering information.] You probably know all this anyway. When I worked at the Pentagon these people working on this were only a couple of doors down the hall from me. We all worked for McNamara. In fact, have you studied the Pentagon Papers?

Here is a simple line from one page of the Pentagon Papers, they do them chronologically so you're getting from the 20th of November that there was a conference in Honolulu...

"The 21st of November the conference broke up and some went home and the rest of them started for Tokyo to visit there and the Saigon crowd went home..."

"The 22nd of November Ambassador Lodge flies to Washington to speak to the President.

"The 23rd of November, 1963, Ambassador Lodge continues his discussions with the President."

There is never a mention of which President he is talking to. There was a change of presidents in those two days. But that is the kind of history the Pentagon Papers offers. That is just one small example. Have you ever noticed that? You ought to put that at the top of your paper where you write CONTACT—about every issue or so, just to wake up the people because the other papers who fought through the Supreme Court to get the privilege to print that stuff don't. Of course they wanted to print that stuff because it was ALL LIES. Of course you can lie by omission of the death of the President and the methods by which the President was killed but the future bunch of kids coming up are going to use the Pentagon Papers as the God's honest truth—because it had to go through the Supreme Court to have allowance to publish; my God, what a set up job. And, of course the young man who did that is now the President of the Council on Foreign Relations. He is the same guy that put out the Pentagon Papers. You may know him, Les Gelb. He was also Editor of the New York Times.

RM: The newspaper business seems to be pretty much gone down the tubes as far I can tell. You can count on one hand the free presses in this country, that are worth anything.

FP: Yes, in Washington here one of the owners of one paper, Washington Times, is a minister from Korea, although I don't think that's where his funds come from, but that's the public story, Sun Yung Moon—the Moonies, created the Washington Times, pays for it and has invested more than a BILLION dollars—all at a loss, and he's a minister from Korea. Now, what the hell is he doing publishing a Washington paper? He competes with the Washington Post. The only thing wrong there is the Post is a worse newspaper than the Times. This is just the way things are.

Many of our major newspapers are owned by foreigners. These are major chains that are formed and dictate what we read here in the U.S. That also includes TV.

RM: My mind is torn here between wanting to ask you about some of your past experiences and current issues. Obviously you were familiar with things like the Phoenix Project in Vietnam and some of those things.

FP: Oh yes, I was in Vietnam during 1952, '53 and '54. And, I was on Okinawa in 1949 when we brought Ho Chi Minh down and put in the government down there. General Galligher, an OSS man, brought him down there and, being on Okinawa, I saw them ship all the equipment that we didn't need for the invasion of Japan, down to Ho Chi Minh so he would be able to make an army, which he did. He then defeated the French with that army.

Then I was back there many times intermittently during the 1960s until I retired. Yes, I'm pretty familiar with it.

RM: Is there anything that hasn't been told that you might care to share?

FP: Well, I've written so much that that is why I think that my book is the best source of information but the biggest thing, if you recall, after the Geneva Convention in 1954 that divided Vietnam into the North and South. There was a little paragraph, the final paragraph regarding the area that said: "Because of the division of the country, which was arbitrary, if any persons living in the South of Vietnam wanted to go to the North," and of course these were both new countries, "or if anybody in the North wanted to go to the South, they should be FREELY permitted to go."

That was put there for a purpose. A little later John Foster Dulles made a speech at the American Legion Convention and he said that "we have moved one-million-one-hundred-thousand North Vietnamese to the South for sanctuary from that horrible business of Ho Chi Minh and Communism." Well, just how do you move one-million-one-hundred-thousand natives whose ancestor-worship is tied to ownership of ground and who never travel anywhere—they go nowhere. They are poor little people who live on farms and so on. You do it only with a form of terrorism. They got six-hundred-and-sixty-THOUSAND of those people on board ships and brought them down to Saigon, three hundred thousand in CIA's Air America's airlines and flew them down, and they then became the insurgents because they had no land, they had no homes, they had no food and didn't even have drinking water. They had to fight to live. So they became the insurgents and we started running counter-insurgency against them. That's how they built up enough people to say there was an "enemy".

How many people have ever realized that about 90%, if you can call it fighting in the modern sense, in Vietnam, occurred in South Vietnam? That is like Canada attacking the United States by invading Florida at Key West.

It is absolutely ridiculous but people never even think about it. That's the whole big story of Vietnam.

RM: It was certainly a proving ground for a lot of experimental projects as well...

FP: Of course, of course... and then, to beat it all, we spent five-hundred-and-seventy-BILLION dollars, lost 58 thousand men and killed over 3-1/2 million people in Southeast Asia.

We dropped more bomb tonnage in the Vietnam area, in Cambodia mostly, four times more than all of World War II. In Cambodia they just dropped bombs in the fields. The fields are so beat-up by bombs that they can't use them to grow anything any longer. And, we weren't fighting Cambodia, technically.

RM: I'm looking at part of a chapter out of Bo Gritz' book, Called to Serve. Do you know Bo?

FP: Oh yeah. I've met him several times. I don't really know him well but I have met him and know of him.

RM: Like I say, I'm torn here between talking about your past experiences and talking about the current state of the world. The current state of the world is so alarming to me and the current state of our country is even more alarming so I hardly know which way to go with this.

FP: Well, I went from a graduate school in banking, University of Wisconsin, and then spent 10 years in the banking world. I could slip over into that area and scare you even worse.

RM: Do you mean the coming collapse? That sort of thing?

FP: Well, (chuckle)—yeah. During the early part of World War II I was in the Middle East and I just happened, because I was a pilot flying different people, to be at the Cairo Conference and at the Tehran Conference. I was not a participant but was there and I knew what was going on. Well, in line with the Cairo Conference Roosevelt carried out a pretty neat little game. You know, they were going to Cairo in October of 1943 to meet with Chiang Kai-shek and with Churchill. Roosevelt's idea was to introduce Chiang Kai-shek to Churchill and then when they would go to Tehran, introduce them to Stalin and then you would have the Big Four of World War II.

Even ahead of that, since that was the scenario in the newspapers, Roosevelt sent a geological survey team by way of Cairo and by way of Tehran and then on to Saudi Arabia, which was neutral at the time, where there were some Americans over there representing the California Standard Oil Company. This geological survey team became my responsibility for flying them from Casablanca to Cairo, to Tehran, back to Bahrain and then into Saudi, where we landed on the sand because there wasn't even a runway there. They showed the California Standard guys (later the company became known as Aramco) where the oil was and how much there was. Gee, we were driving around in a sand-buggy and they would come up to a twelve-inch pipe sticking out of the ground eight or ten inches, unscrew the cap and oil would just bubble out—no pump—no nothing else. They kept telling the team to just come over here and get it because there is all you can ever use right here. Well, when the head of the team went back to Cairo it happened to coincide with the Conference (I didn't know there would be a conference but they did) and they went in to Roosevelt and told him about what they had seen. Immediately at the Cairo Conference Roosevelt ordered the construction of a 50,000 barrel-a-day refinery on the beach, on the sand, in Saudi Arabia where there wasn't even a palm tree—I never saw such a desolate place. That is the famous Tehran of today. In fact, one of the men that we met there was a man by the name of Floyd Oligher, who I think was the founder of Aramco.

In 1968 I ended up knowing him pretty well because I used to have planes going from Cairo and we would drop things down there for them on the ground, you know, newspapers, magazines and some good food—that sort of thing. So, I got to know him pretty well and he sent me a beautiful book that they put out, called the Aramco Handbook. It was for internal consumption within their company. I have never seen a better book on the oil situation. I have always been interested in that. That is what is behind Bosnia right now. In fact, it is what is behind a lot of action going on right now. [As Commander Hatonn has pointed out, the same applies to Chechnya.]

This next comment has nothing to do with religion, about people or anything else, it is simply fact: When the nation that is now called Israel was created in 1948, one month later they shut the oil pipelines down that go into the port of Haifa. Well, Haifa happens to be in that little plot of sand they call Israel. But those, and there were eight, pipelines carry all the oil from Iraq through the Mediterranean and to Europe. That is traditional and goes all the way back into the 1930s. In one swoop they shut them off. So then the Iraqis had to build a pipeline through Syria and Lebanon. Years later, when there was a battle against Lebanon, for some reason or another, the Iraqis didn't stop in Beirut, they went all the way north in the area of Latiquia (off the northern coast of Lebanon, near Turkey) and shut off the Iraqi pipeline coming out there. The reason for that was it was competing with British Petroleum.

The British Petroleum guys are the ones who CREATED the country of Iraq to be a plug in the oil pipeline.

Even more, the biggest pipeline in the world is TAPLINE. Kuwait, across the desert, across Jordan and across the southern part of Lebanon to a town called Seiden. This is a historic site from the very old historic days. Also, Tapline is where all the oil from Saudi Arabia goes to the Mediterranean. When the Israelis attack the so-called terrorists in Southern Lebanon, the first place they attack, all the time, is Seiden. Therefore, the oil flow through Tapline could also be stopped. That being the biggest pipeline in the world, today the ONLY real commercial movement of oil is by double-hull tankers. Double-hull tankers are owned and administered by a neat little organization called The Charter Institute of Transport. They are based in LONDON, ENGLAND.

I was invited to a meeting there in London, in 1982 (the same week that the British invaded the Falkland Islands and I believe it was 1982). It was very interesting because I represented the railroad industry because the exposure was in routing. The speeches were really something because they were about what really goes on in the control of oil. OPEC is just a playground. The Charter Institute of Transport is the important one thing because you can own all the oil in the world but if you can't move it you don't have anything. You have to have pipelines that stay open or you have to have double-hulled tankers coming for it. In 1973 when they claimed there was an Arab embargo, what it really was is that they were able to keep the tankers out of the Persian Gulf and wouldn't pick up the oil until the price was right. When it went up four times what it had been for ten years, then the tankers began to show up. Nice and clear little subject!

Colby's book [referred to earlier] explains a whole lot of that in great detail. It is a terrific book.

RM: It seems George Bush is spending a lot of his time in that part of the world these days.

FP: Yes, of course.... Well, it all began with his family. See, George Herbert Walker was in on the Baku fields with Deterding [very important], the founder of Dutch Shell [petroleum company] which was a British company despite the Dutch oil shell. He (George Bush) is now one of the big investors in the Kazakhstan oil which is the biggest oil discovery in the world—ever made, formerly controlled by U.S.S.R., but they didn't do anything with it and couldn't move it. If you don't have a shipping port and no pipelines to reach a port they could use, they couldn't move it. It is too expensive to move it by rail. They have a good rail system but you can't move oil by rail, profitably. Bush is in all that and that's why he was President of Zapata Oil and practically cornered the market on the Caribbean and because they had so many drilled oil wells in the Caribbean for the oil that is in there, it also was very nicely discovered that the customs people don't stop the drivers of helicopters [or boats] that go out to these wells so they come and go freely. And so, the boys from Colombia, with their little packages of seven or eight thousand pounds of their valuable stuff, would leave it on the oil platforms and the boys with their helicopters would fly them conveniently into the country.

Zapata is now making much more money with the Colombian product than they ever were making with the oil wells.

RM: We have printed quite a bit about that subject as well. This is not to mention Mr. Bush's pedophilia....

FP: [Only a chuckle without further comment on that topic.] He was a student at Yale when I was a professor there and when he was Captain of the baseball team. I'll have to say, they had a good baseball team and he was pretty good at first base.

Bill Buckley was editor of the Yale Daily News at that time and a bunch of other guys were there from that late-40s crowd—all at their prime right now.

RM: There are those that say that Bush is still one of the most powerful men in the world.

FP: Oh yes, that is absolutely true. Yes, you don't see him sitting around with those jerks at Bilderberger and Trilateral... he is a long way above them. They are only peons.

RM: We haven't heard much from Henry Kissinger lately, what is he doing?

FP: He's a good recorder-secretary as he was when he was with the foreign relations group. That is how he got into the business and then when he ran into Califano(?) and Haig and learned the Black Budget secrets he got to be a bit more popular than he was up at Harvard.

RM: You must know quite a bit about the Iran-Contra situation so were you surprised that it just sort of went away as quickly as it seems to have done?

FP: Let me put it this way. That began in about what, '72? I retired in 1964 but the men who used to work for me, like Secord and North—and when I say that I mean “down the channel” because we had thousands of men working in the system—I knew Secord personally but didn't know North and they both worked for a General who did work for me. What they did is simply carry that system out to where they were supplying Iran with weaponry that they had told the Defense Department would be used by the CIA. Instead, they sold it and made a hell of a lot of money through that enterprise and that was handled through Switzerland. And of course, to explain later how come they were making so much money they said, “Well, we're doing it to finance the Contras.” I only know that from “outside” because that was all printed and I wasn't active, myself, at the time. Since, however, I knew the principals, I did know what they did and how they were doing it.

There is a secret little system set up within the government which was set forth in 1954 that makes it so simple to do this kind of thing that one of my biggest jobs ever was to catch people stealing stuff within the system. Mr. Dulles was real good about it and as soon as I would write a name on a piece of paper he would can them—right then.

RM: For as much publicity as Mena has gotten over the years it seems that that whole thing has also just gone away. Starr doesn't seem to have much power or authority in his role as Special Prosecutor. It seems as though they are getting away, literally, with murder.

FP: Yes, and what amazes me is that they never mention the Defense Command. For instance, we have a Radar Defense Command that is so good that it watches about 47 thousand planes a day. When I was running clandestine operations into Cuba I would have to call Colorado Springs and say that “...tonight I'm running a small passenger plane into Cuba, I'm running it from Florida over there and it'll be going at 9:30; for God's sake don't touch it!” And they would let it go on by. Well, if I didn't call, they would have stopped me. They have the power to do it plus the fact that our Sea Frontier people know all the ships at sea. We know all the airplanes that are in the air, all the ships that are at sea—there is absolutely no way in the world, drugs or anything other like that can come in without the daily, regular and consistent help of the United States Government. It is mostly by failing to act. Therefore it is like a policeman seeing someone rob a bank and then come up and shake hands and offering to go get a cup of coffee and, by the way: “How much did you get today?”. We're on their side! I was one of the five men sent to Colorado Springs to establish the Air Defense Command in 1950 and I know how it works, what the system is; and when I was in the CIA business I played on that to learn how to let the CIA pass through and also shipping through and we did, of course. Now, it comes to carrying drugs—you get a free pass. Well, Mena happened to be a convenient little landing spot. Nobody, until recently, ever went there. Of course if they did nobody would touch them and certainly not the police. Certainly the U.S. Government wouldn't touch them, so it becomes a legitimate business.

RM: I assume that in your business you are familiar with particle beam weapons and electromagnetic pulsing and some of the capability of mind-control mechanisms. They have available, technologically speaking, ability of using....

FP: I don't really know much about the current advanced stuff other than what I get from others. I did know about it going on. I do know that it is extremely advanced and extremely dangerous. When I retired I don't have access to other than what I hear from others.

I'm actually afraid to take my dog to the vet.

RM: Why, because of fear he'll get a chip or something?

FP: No, I'm afraid they'll turn him into a lion or something.

RM: Well, ok... You have such an amazing background that I want to ask you about everything.

FP: I haven't had anything to do with this. Actually, when I graduated from college I had my cap and gown on and rolled up in the diploma were my orders to go to duty. Every single one of these things I've talked about was simply a function of orders I would be given. I was very fortunate in that I never had a job in the military that I didn't like. I went from one to the other and finally in 1964 I had two kids in college and my military salary couldn't handle that so I had to get out and think of money first rather than what I was doing. But really, I have had the most unusual jobs and I flew four-star generals around so when you have a general up in the air with nothing to do for eight hours or so except talk. I used to go back and talk with them a lot. I flew all the surrendering generals of World War II, from Tunis to Casablanca. That took about eight-and-a-half hours so I would just go back and talk to them. I had a great time talking to those German Generals who had been out there fighting like hell, out there in the desert with Rommel, and I got a full thesis just from talking to those guys.

RM: I'll bet—any surprises?

FP: Yes, they were surprised at our use of artillery. Our army, surprisingly enough, were advanced in how to use artillery so you could fire one shot and then know everything you needed to know from that one shot—as long as you had a good aerial photograph, then turn maybe fifty guns on the target right after that. The Germans really wanted to talk about that. You know, little things like that. It was interesting from my point of view because I had not been near that combat zone. I had been up in Russia and places like that but I had no experience such as they had. I'm talking about hearing them talk about it—just listening.

Do you know where they went after they I got them to Casablanca? They took them to the Greenbrier, that big resort here in West Virginia where they spent their POW time—right there at that beautiful hotel down there. No wonder they were glad they were through.

RM: Were you involved at all in Operation Paperclip?

FP: Yes, I ran that Operation. I ran all of the flight part of it. Who wrote about that, Tony Summers? He learned about it sitting in my living room here. At least he learned about part of it. I used to run it—out of Wiesbaden and places like that. I didn't select the people and I didn't arrange who they were, I simply provided aircraft and crews and that kind of arrangements. I did know where the flights were going.

RM: Are you at liberty to say how many people were actually brought over in that Operation.

FP: Oh, we never thought of counting them but I used to think there were right around eight or nine thousand. That was judging if the planes that were used were reasonably filled—we knew the numbers of planes.

RM: Were these all scientists?

FP: No, no, in fact something you might find interesting is to get a copy of the Register of the American Society of Psychiatry and you will find that out of something like 6700 psychiatrists in this country, more than 1700 came with Paperclip. Our psychiatry society is just loaded with those characters—Nazis.

RM: Wow!

FP: Just go to the library or some place where you can get the Register from the period of the '50s. This is because that during the '50s they didn't realize that their own little biographical sketches which they inserted were all printed verbatim. Now they are carefully printed. It will really open your eyes because that is the most important movement of any in that group. They simply took over the psychiatry profession in this country. They still have control of it today.

RM: That is a pretty frightening thought.

FP: You can look at the thing and see each name, their school, where they have been practicing, etc. The [German] lists come to the war and stop and then all of a sudden you see them entered as members of the American Society here. It is quite startling.

RM: Were there any surprises in what you found out about the Falkland Islands?

FP: No, I was in London when that happened. I was just using that to sort chronology. That wasn't even why I was in London so don't have anything on that.

RM: London is pretty interesting all by itself. I think I would be nervous to travel there personally.

FP: Yes, I would imagine that there is more power exuding from that city than any other in the world today, give or take Peking or Singapore, maybe Tokyo and New York. London certainly is in the top five.

RM: I didn't feel you really wanted to talk about the coming financial collapse? We were talking about food shortages but I mentioned financial collapse and you went rather quiet.

FP: Well, when the Continental Illinois Bank in Chicago failed with $47 billion on its books—and it failed and shut down the U.S. Government—and if the government didn't help it the corresponding banks, some 2200 of them, would also fail. So, the U.S. Government pumped it back up again and then, from that time on, it put the S&L business right out of business, practically, and then banks failed all over the country. It was an extremely profitable operation and great losers for the U.S. public. It was and is a very, very costly thing.

Now we have an entirely different system of banking which isn't under the same laws as back in those days. Take the FDIC, for instance. Do you realize that was a private insurance company? The Government is not supposed to back-up anything in those banks and, if you get the original FDIC law, it very clearly states that it is an insurance company with input from the banks and the amount put in is on regular insurance methods for supporting failures. And, that the U.S. Government is not responsible for any failure. When they said that you had your money insured by FDIC they couldn't say "and backed by the Government". They do now because they corrupted the law. That period of the 1980s, and especially through the Carter time, was probably one of the most costly decades for the American public, ever known. Its costs are still flowing through the system. Our money became worthless.

RM: Do you think Oliver Stone sold out on his film, JFK, in the final analysis?

FP: He did a good job, but the trouble is that when a fellow like that is working, and he manages to work rather independently, he still has to have financing. He had a very difficult time protecting himself from moles. Although I worked with him from the beginning to the end, and had my own organization, I couldn't travel with his and he was infested with a few moles—one of them was a real beauty who came from NSA. That weakens the script. He was kind enough to send me the seventh revision of the script and I cleaned it up the best I could but by that time some of the other stuff was already in the can and you couldn't change it. There are a few things that ended up in the picture but basically he did a pretty good job. At least what he did manage to get done proves how absolutely abominable the Warren Report is with its one-man-killer stuff. If other people want to believe such a thing then there isn't much other way to look at the film. He had a lot of opposition and that means very clever opposition.

RM: I find it interesting that they can send in moles so effectively. Was he aware that he had bad people inside?

FP: Yes, I am the one who found them. I knew them. The outfit I was with when I worked with the Secretary of Defense was in charge of NSA. Try to find my old book The Secret Team and you'll see what I put in the charter of the office in which I worked. Of all the things we were responsible for, one of the things was the NSA. Once I got certain leads I could check out the people pretty well and accurately. I found Stone had a whole house-full. That sort of thing is inevitable because that is their business.

RM: I probably should let you go because it is getting late there for you. I have you on our mailing list to receive the paper so just let me know if you want off the list, otherwise we'll just send it every week.

FP: That's very kind of you because I keep looking for something that has enough validity to it to be worth the time. I'll say the other side though, if you are working on a subject that you think falls within the areas of which we have been speaking, if you send me a draft I might be able to keep a few glitches out. I keep pretty busy but would be glad to help.

RM: It has been a real pleasure talking with you and I look forward to speaking with you again.

FP: OK, it has been very nice to meet you, Rick, and I have been pleased for the conversation.

RM: Thank you so much and I certainly thank you for your time.

FP: Good night.

Microwater™

Turn Your Tap Into A Fountain Of Wellness.

The Microwater™ Series One machine produces a healthful and refreshing high-altitude, electron-rich, free radical scavenging, alkaline water. It also breaks up larger-clustered water. It is actually "wetter", and therefore able to go to more places in the body, nurturing the organs, while removing acid wastes, one of the causes of numerous diseases. This type of water is usually found only in high-altitude mountain streams, twisting and turning, bubbling over rocks, where it picks up its electrons. Microwater is alive, and it functions as a powerful antioxidant. In Japan, this water has been successfully used to treat high blood pressure, diabetes mellitus, constipation and diarrhea, acidosis, and a wide variety of skin conditions. Although we make no medical claims, try the water for yourself and see what happens.

Archangel Michael's Cautions

About Upcoming Earth Changes

7/7/96 LORD MICHAEL

Good morning and thank you for hearing the call. It is I, Lord Michael, of the Archangelic realms, come in the Light of Holy Creator God. Thank you, my friend.

Your planet is in a quite volatile condition this day. You ones need to be prepared for the psychological stresses caused by the upcoming physical changes. The stress shall be GREAT!

How do we prepare you ones for the horrors of these catastrophic changes?

We simply tell you about what is coming in as many ways as we can and as many times as we can. I shall project a picture and I wish for you ones to place yourselves in the middle of what I describe and ask yourselves, "Am I prepared for THIS sort of reality?"

The scenario goes as follows: The Earth starts shaking and does not seem to stop. All power fails; your house starts coming apart; the ground is splitting open; gas lines rupture; fires ignite; your city starts to burn—not just in one location, but across THE ENTIRE CITY!

Now the Earth starts shaking again, just as hard or harder than previously. Water lines are broken; streets are, for the most part, impassable due to rubble and that which has collapsed all over the pavement.

Place yourself in this scenario. What would YOU do?

You must think about these sorts of possibilities BEFORE they happen so that you can act in intelligence. The panic and fear shall be so great that ones shall perish simply because they are so overwhelmed and frozen with fear.

Let us take this example further. You may be saying to yourself, "I do not live in a large city or near any major fault lines." But perhaps you have family and friends who do!

As these Earth changes start, there shall be survivors and a great migration of displaced people. In their desperation and confusion, they shall do things which they would NOT normally do in a "civilized" society.

They will steal from, and even murder, the ones who are trying to help them. There will be massive refuge camps. Ones will be moving inland from the coastal areas. These mobs will be fighting for survival. Food supplies will be scarce and the Government will send out the Army and the National Guard to control these panic-stricken, destitute survivors.

How will YOU act or react as your small, inland city has an influx of displaced, desperate and hungry people trying to cope with shock?

Will you feed and clothe your brother?

What about the 5th one?

What about the 50th one?

Call upon Holy God of Light and act with intelligence—and prepare! The life you save may not only be your own or your family's, but that of a complete stranger (to you now!).

The mental impact forthcoming shall be QUITE HARSH! You ones are past the point of avoiding these realities. This is only one example of the possible scenarios.

As the Earth cracks open and your major crustal plates (tectonic plates) shift, many sleeping volcanoes shall spring to life as your planet seeks to balance the pressures and stresses within. This alone shall cause a shifting of weather patterns GLOBALLY. The impact shall be felt by everyone on the planet.

As countries become desperate for survival, they shall petition other countries for aid. When that aid does NOT come, ones shall attempt to TAKE that which they need. This could easily escalate to the level of a planetary war.

The Elite of your planet know that these catastrophes are coming. They are trying to control the timing of major earthquakes. They do not understand that which they are attempting to do and are only compounding the problem. These major Earth changes shall be exploited by your planet's controllers in order to depopulate and control more fully the masses.

You ones who enjoy all the "modern conveniences" shall have the hardest time as you will no longer be able to just go down to the local store and purchase your food. The nation's food supply will be under strict control. Your farms shall be confiscated if need be; the crops shall most certainly be confiscated. You ones who rely on any resource—such as supermarkets, grid-system electricity, or even municipal water—shall be impacted greatly.

Your "elected" Government officials may be deciding who of you eats (lives), or does not eat (dies).

This is TRUTH!

You may say that this is not a very nice message. No, it is not! My intention is to get you ones THINKING.

The changes shall be far worse than anything written here or that you may be able to imagine. Take action and prepare TODAY, for tomorrow may very well be TOO LATE! God helps those who make efforts to help selves.

There shall be many praying to God to save them or to help them AFTER the changes begin—especially the ones who have ignored these messages and have NOT prepared and think that it could not happen to them.

The time to ask for assistance in planning is BEFORE you ones are in total chaos.

My scribe is overwhelmed and says, "What's the use? Ones who are going to listen are most likely already prepared and the rest won't listen anyway." My scribe perceives that ones do not want to hear this sort of message.

True, ones generally do not want to hear TRUTH. But, if only ONE does hear, and takes this warning seriously, then the entire message and effort is worth every last bit of it.

You ones who scribe these messages that are being sent out to the four corners of the planet are the ones who create the possibilities for even having a remnant survive this transition. Many lives you are touching and many lives you are saving. Do not allow the thought, "Oh, what's the use?" That is an adversarial ploy to distract you from saving lives and waking up the masses to the true spiritual nature of their situation down there on that planet.

Ones are responsible for their own choices and decisions. There is only so much that you ones can do for another. Presenting a Lighted message of truth to a brother in need is perhaps the greatest gift you ones can give. Be discerning in that which you offer to another or do for another. You must allow each to learn their own lessons; you cannot do it for them.

I am Lord Michael, come in the Radiance of the One Light. May you ones act in Wisdom this day. Aho!

TELEPHONE HOTLINE

This is a service for our dedicated readers. Today's Watch telephone hotline carries the latest news and comments from Commander Hatonn's most recent writings. This is our way of keeping you informed about fast-breaking news and events.

The message machine will answer after 2 rings if there are any new messages for that day, and after 4 rings if not. Thus daily callers can hang up after 2 rings and save toll charges if no new message has been recorded. The message update(s), if any, occur by 6 PM Pacific Time.
