WITH A SONG IN MY HEART

ELECTION CONVENTIONS

This is not a suggestion to "whistle in the dark". I am truly suggesting that in the morning—or whenever you arise—find a song in your memory which represents love, beauty, appreciation and positive attitudes. Then sing it or hum it or merely think of it when the waves of negative thoughts or physical impacts flow upon you. An especially good song is "You'll Never Walk Alone" for when you can sing a bit of the words you will be reminded that storms come and go, LIFE happens—and each day is a new beginning with company along your journey and today may be THE day you have worked toward, served for, and attainment can be realized in some measure of growth and

Are you paying enough attention to the idiot boxes to see what is taking place? Really? I certainly do not refer to the convention coverage. Note all the [Please see Storm Clouds Gather Over Crumbling U.S.A., p.2] things which are hardly even mentioned as the days of hoopla and gathering mass hypnosis takes over the political scenes wherein every word uttered is planned for its value to cause chaos or putting you back to sleep as you turn over the remainder of your lives to the orchestrating thugs.

BROADCAST & POWER INTERRUPTIONS

How many of you are noting the troubles being unfolded on the Turner networks? There are interruptions in signals, static interruptions and then there is shutdown of the entire television cable systems and on and on—while nobody is focusing on anything of VALUE.

Moreover, you continue to have daily "brownouts", "blackouts" and nobody is even paying attention any longer. The electric grids go dead and nobody hardly notices except for the interruptions in the pleasure departments. Have you noticed how life STOPS when the power goes off? Well, get ready, dear ones, for it is going to happen a lot in the days to come.

ELECTION PATHOS

Note the crooked faces on the crooked liars who get up and give their show-and-tell in the exact opposite trust of what they have planned for you. Note the silly rituals of the chanting crowds who are so wound up at those conventions as to have no notion at all of what they are about. The visitors are simply there doing what everybody else is doing, and dignitaries are there protecting their own assets, in great numbers, to be seen and treated with the trappings of visiting royalty. This is all after the fact of the selection, while heat and mass reaction become the outcome of the moment. The point becomes a "good convention" without thought to GOOD LEADERS. The football and the war wounds become the central qualifying issues! Where is your CONSTITUTION? Missing, of course. YOU ARE WITNESSING THE TAKEOVER BY THE NEW WORLD ORDER.

ENTER, THE TAVISTOCK INSTITUTE

Remember all those lessons we shared, especially the ones from John Coleman, on brainwashing and mind control? Are you noticing the large array of Brookings Institute speakers and commentators during this "political frenzy"? Well, readers, you are witnessing a technique perfected by the Tavistock Institute for Human Relations. This is the world's premiere brainwashing institute. Tavistock names this method of creating public opinion "long range penetration and inner directional conditioning". Once you know what it is you can't overlook its methodology and you can watch it at work before your own eyes.

It is not just a Republican Convention attitude; you have seen it in full flower as the Clintons are exonerated from all "wrongdoing", all illegal activities, and actually the touting becomes one of moral integrity as the hype goes on and it is "proven" through court garbage that "the guilty are innocent".

How many of you realize that sweet Hillary had her visits with the Spirits of Mrs. Roosevelt and Ghandi? Do you, however, realize that these two were the most devout and worst of the Communists (in actual theory of what "Communism" has come to mean)? Of course they wouldn't call it that, nor would they accept it from anyone else—but that is and was exactly what it was. But the important point here, readers, is that you can no longer tell one Party or one Politician from another as they are ALLOWED to SPEAK. Deviation from the Party Line is tested as by Powell on "choice", but no further in-depth meaning than drawing pictures in the sand at the seashore on rising tide. No dissension is allowed to slop over onto the mesmerized participants as the frenzy is fed through all the senses of the human spectators. The spectators think they are participants—no, they are robots going through the rituals of political programming. They do not cause good government; they facilitate the downfall of good government.

Since I have sidetracked onto this subject I believe I will ask someone to get me some information from Coleman on this topic because the man is more qualified to speak on Tavistock than any person into researching mind-control methodologies.

Our next topic in Fire From The Sky VI, is along the same lines of hyper-presentation of lies to mislead and distract YOU-THE-PEOPLE. The topic upcoming is called "The Patriot Missile Hoax". Bush bragged about how wonderfully they performed, with a near perfect record. The American public cheered and waved yellow ribbons and swelled with pride. Readers: some of the missiles called Scuds were armed with concrete, nothing more. Further, the accuracy of the Patriot missiles was almost 100% failure.

With this in mind as FACT—who misleads you? Obviously, if the only information you get comes from the media and what you are told, the lies are fully aimed at YOU by the cover-up deceivers and are intentional. You are NOT told the truth of how or why a war incident begins or about the players involved to pull off a sham, so how could you know the other details? It becomes easy to destroy a nation and here I do now have the document to share with you so you can see how it works. Please use this as a reminder of the games and you can apply the principle to ANYTHING.

John Coleman has done a special issue of his WIR to fit with the Fourth of July holiday of this year, 1996. It appears to have been published in June. Again, I owe a debt of gratitude to one of our Australian readers who is a constant source of background information—FOR YOUR CONFIRMATION.

Dr. Coleman is so kind and gracious in his sharing that we cannot yet fully offer reward for such allowances—but we will get "there" and meanwhile you will have had the information. Please, if you already have John's books, don't neglect sending him a card or note of appreciation for his fine and insightful work. Sometimes it is only the love and appreciation that keeps us going when those Eveready batteries begin to lose their clout.

Since the mind-manipulation subject is so appropriate for TODAY and what is happening I think we will choose to delay the next segments of Burgin's missile discussion about the Gulf War incidents and offer the Coleman material. Remember, readers, my task is not to give revelations BUT TO OFFER YOU INFORMATION, which is already available to you if you but know where to look. Yes indeed, I could just tell you to get Coleman's paper—but how many would do so? Coleman can tell you to go forth and STUDY and really know your Constitution—but how many will do so? Right, so when a topic is of such urgency as this, we offer it AGAIN and then again if necessary.

I am asked if I couldn't just sort of summarize the articles and save space and time. NO, I WON'T! The least I can do in appreciation is to offer IN FULL such documents as are shared so that you can evaluate the material—and not just use my interpretation. The only way to do that is to basically offer what we can in as full a text as possible. This is a request of all valid authors—to use the work but to use it all as offered. No author objects to comments or opinions—but every author SHOULD object to gross disregard of the content as offered to the public. The best material needs no interpretation save that of the author and you, the receiver. Censors and critics are the destroyers of worlds.

STORM CLOUDS GATHER OVER THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

A SPECIAL 4TH OF JULY ISSUE

The brave Pilgrim Fathers who set off from their homes to a far-distant land where an uncertain future awaited them, rather than continue to suffer the abuses of tyranny, which with it, brought a decline in the metaphysical and spiritual welfare of their persons and nation, marked the beginning of the greatest civilization in the history of mankind on Earth, at least for the past 6000 years.

The remarkable thing is not that this great upsurge of learning, culture, economic well-being, arts, literature and system of government should have arisen on the vast North American Continent, but rather that it should have begun to decline so rapidly. When dealing with past, great, civilizations, historians in general tend to blame outside influences such as invasion and overrunning by barbaric hordes. This is true of the historians' view of Rome, but it is at best, a superficial view.

A reading of Toynbee's works—although I am not one of his admirers—nevertheless will convince skeptics of the paucity of this view. Toynbee writes that out of the 21 times civilizations were established, 19 perished from internal decadence and not from external conquest. If ever we want clear evidence of internal decadence, a wasting of spiritual substance, cultural deterioration, whose Republican institutions are daily under vicious assault, we need look no further than the Clinton presidency and his administration, which is fast becoming a spiritually-dead ruthless hierarchy, where the possibility of an outright Socialist dictatorship being established looms large in the brooding storm clouds hovering over this once great land.

Even more, we need only look at the compelling condition of total decadence on every hand in the government in Washington as evidenced in the frantic cover-up by the Democrat Party of their leader, as unworthy a man to lead the party and this nation as could be found, even if a diligent search were to be mounted throughout the world to secure one who would be his equal.

The other general misconception of which some notable historians are guilty of, namely, that material progress and luxury and a high standard of living have contributed toward the decadence that set in in ancient civilizations—Rome often being cited as an example of their point of view. However, this viewpoint arises from a confusion of cause and effect, which is most often the result of a superficial education.

When a society begins to show signs of cultural neglect leading to cultural decline, there comes with it a stronger and stronger manifestation of the decline in the increased hedonistic lifestyle of the populace where eat, drink and be merry, live for today, if it feels good—do it, wanton sex, degradation of women, homosexuality and libertinism become the culture. In the United States, this wanton hedonism is given free reign in such places as Hollywood and is prominently featured in the films it turns out. Some of these Hollywood types even play a prominent role in influencing the Clinton Administration.

Today, if we but knew it, we are witnessing the decline and fall of the United States where a decadent government has persuaded its populace that they, the government, can "fix" everything by mechanical legislation and where misguided loyalty to Pres. Clinton begs the question, "which is worse, misguided loyalty or none at all?"

This is precisely the same situation which prevailed in Rome where industry had given way to indolence, where "bread and circuses", chariot races, bloody sports such as boxing, consumed the time of the people, who daily scrambled for free bread and wine handed out by the Roman welfare system. The City of Rome in due course became badly disfigured by narrow streets crowded with shabby housing inhabited by a shiftless population.

Then, as today in America, the people of Rome lost their initiative and increasingly became more dependent on government responsibility which meant more control by government of their lives. In the America established by the Pilgrim Fathers and preserved as a near-perfect system of government (given the vagaries of mankind) by the Founding Fathers, this was a poison that surely eroded their concept of a United States. A sure indication of a sick society is the passing of initiative among its people and a greater dependency upon authority.

When this happens, it is not long before the balance of power lying in the hands of government, brings forward some opportunist, aggressive "leader" who seizes control and establishes a despotic dictatorship of the worst kind. It is not without reason that there exists the old saying, "All nations have the government they deserve."

But the important point here, readers, is that you can no longer tell one Party or one Politician from another as they are ALLOWED to SPEAK. Deviation from the Party Line is tested as by Powell on "choice", but no further in-depth meaning than drawing pictures in the sand at the seashore on rising tide. No dissension is allowed to slop over onto the mesmerized participants as the frenzy is fed through all the senses of the human spectators. The spectators think they are participants—no, they are robots going through the rituals of political programming. They do not cause good government; they facilitate the downfall of good government.

In Rome nationalism was swamped by universalism and to quote Gibbons' THE DECLINE AND FALL OF THE ROMAN EMPIRE... "The name of the Poet was almost forgotten, that of orator was usurped by the sophists. A cloud of critics, of compilers, of commentators, darkened the face of learning and the decline of genius was soon followed by the corruption of taste... This diminutive stature of mankind... was sinking daily below the old standard and the Roman world was indeed peopled by a race of pygmies."

If this does not accurately describe the state of the American nation today, nothing else will. One cannot turn on T.V. without being greeted by "a cloud of compilers and commentators darkening the face of learning." In his book, OUTRAGE, The Five Reasons Why O.J. Simpson Got Away With Murder, a veteran former prosecutor Vincent Bugliosi says of such commentators:

"Why should I care if these talking heads (commentators) were babbling and ranting on TV almost around the clock? Actually, I wouldn't have cared if Simpson had been convicted. But I feel confident—although I can't be positive—that they contributed, even if not in a major way, to the not guilty verdict in the case. The majority of them were criminal defense attorneys who, whenever possible, usually offered a pro-Simpson pro-defense interpretation to what was happening in court, magnifying defense points far beyond their worth and muting important points made by the prosecution.

"Like the print media they were constantly finding problems and weaknesses with the prosecution's evidence that either did not exist or that they exaggerated. They loved to expound on how the prosecution's case was unraveling. 'The D.A. has no chance of winning... Their case is in rubble...' these negative interpretations of the prosecution's case were in the air every day and night, and they became the conventional wisdom, the party line, as it were.

"If the jury somehow inferred that the consensus of the community was that the prosecution's case was full of holes and falling apart, how could this not help but push them, consciously or otherwise, in the direction of reasonable doubt, and hence a not guilty verdict?"

Bugliosi is fairly sure that the jurors heard all of the commentaries by the "talking heads" through conjugal and family visits allowed by Ito, who comes in for a horrible shellacking of his handling of the case. [H: What is meant by "talking heads"? Well, readers and TV watchers—what do you actually SEE when you look at pictures and watch TV news commentaries? All you ever see of the persons supposedly at those news-desks, etc., are the HEADS with the wagging mouths. Thus what you ACTUALLY see are "talking" heads.]

What Bugliosi was describing, although he is not aware of it, is one of the techniques perfected by the TAVISTOCK INSTITUTE FOR HUMAN RELATIONS, the world's premiere brainwashing institute. As I mentioned first in 1979, Tavistock calls this method of creating public opinion, "long range penetration and inner directional conditioning". As I have possibly the only Tavistock training manual in private hands, certainly in the United States, I can speak with some authority on the subject of Tavistock methodology used to brainwash the American public at large.

Thanks to Tavistock, Pres. Clinton is winning the Whitewater battle, as is his wife, whose involvement in questionable transactions like the infamous Castle Grande scheme cost the American public millions of dollars. Her seances with Mrs. Roosevelt and Mahatma Gandhi, two of the worst Communists ever to walk the Earth, should shock Americans, but probably won't, again thanks to Tavistock. The "talking heads" are in overdrive in their efforts to cover the posterior of Pres. Clinton. They use Tavistock's conditioning around the clock:

"The American people don't understand Whitewater."

"Whitewater is very different from Watergate where the issues were easy to understand."

"The American people aren't interested in Whitewater."

"The American voter does not think Whitewater is a significant matter."

"Voters don't much care about Whitewater."

"By the time the election comes around, voters will have discounted Whitewater as a factor in their decision-making."

"Whitewater was some land deal in which the Clintons were only marginally involved."

"The public is bored with Whitewater."

"Whitewater is not a big issue."

I kept diligent score of these phrases and I can report that they were used in the aforementioned forms or words closely related to the above, both in the written media and on TV, by 187 "talking heads" commentators and journalists as follows:

[H: I don't know how Dr. Coleman counted or wherefrom he gets his information but I don't doubt the validity of his observations. You will note that in the numbers and months he offers there is a thrust, an increase, every other month. This is extremely important for people have such short attention spans and tend to forget quickly unless reminded constantly. Moreover, invalid information can be slipped in without any note being taken of the errors in reporting.]

January 1996: 2210 times.
February: 1790 times.
March: 2006 times.
April: 1735 times.
May: 2473 times.
June: 1121 times. Up to and including June 18th.

[H: I would point out several observations here. There is both a negative and positive side to such as the information passed on by Dr. Coleman—or ANY "authority". Why? Because by simply establishing himself as "an authority" the material and numbers are presented and accepted in such a way as to not be questioned. This does not mean in any way whatsoever that the numbers are not correct or the concept invalid. What I am telling you is TO CHECK OUT, RESEARCH, DISCERN AND THEN JUDGE FOR YOURSELF BASED ON SOMETHING OTHER THAN ANY AUTHOR'S RESOURCE. THIS INCLUDES ME! There is a KNOWN involved here in this presentation which is not a Tavistock original and that is that people will tend to believe anything told to them by an "authority or expert". If it is put into PRINT, it is believed and if you team up with these two factors—you can fool just about everyone every time. Then above all things: MAKE SURE THERE IS CONTINUAL REPETITION OF WHATEVER YOU WISH "BELIEVED" AND THE DEED IS ACCOMPLISHED.

This, coupled with rampant voter fraud—which we will come to later—will be enough to get Clinton away and running for the next four years, in spite of overwhelming evidence of his unsuitability to hold office. Had Clinton been subject to an FBI check, as all White House employees must undergo, in itself unconstitutional, there is reason to doubt whether or not the results would have qualified him for any job in the White House.

[END QUOTING OF PART 1]

We have run short of time for this writing so will continue this topic when we next write. However, in leaving I would like to run a little test of our own in that

When was the date of the last Republican Convention prior to this one? Where was it held? Who was the keynote speaker?

A reading of Toynbee's works—although I am not one of his admirers—nevertheless will convince skeptics of the paucity of this view. Toynbee writes that out of the 21 times civilizations were established, 19 perished from internal decadence and not from external conquest. If ever we want clear evidence of internal decadence, a wasting of spiritual substance, cultural deterioration, whose Republican institutions are daily under vicious assault, we need look no further than the Clinton presidency and his administration, which is fast becoming a spiritually-dead ruthless hierarchy, where the possibility of an outright Socialist dictatorship being established looms large in the brooding storm clouds hovering over this once great land.

Even more, we need only look at the compelling condition of total decadence on every hand in the government in Washington as evidenced in the frantic cover-up by the Democrat Party of their leader, as unworthy a man to lead the party and this nation as could be found, even if a diligent search were to be mounted throughout the world to secure one who would be his equal.

I will name off several things in question form and see how much you can answer without stopping to research. This helps you to understand how manipulated and controlled are your receivings. After you make a note of incidents—then classify how and from whom you got your information.

When did the plane crash which killed Ron Brown?
Who was Ron Brown?

Where was the place located? Who runs that country? Why was Brown there?

Who invented the telephone? In what year? What about the radio? When? Well, right off you probably missed the first question in this paragraph because it was a man named Reise in the telephone instance and not Bell, and Marconi is wrong in the second as Tesla "invented" wireless radio. The strange thing is that the LIE never replaces the TRUTH but does, when heard enough, become the accepted ritualistic retort.

Now, who was the most powerful man on the stage at last night's session of the Republican Convention? Right: Bush, and, who was the most despicable? Right again, Bush. But, one of the worst of the morality-lacking operatives on the roster was FORD. We won't even bother to speak of "Uncle Ronny". I suggest you get another copy of Trance Formation of America by O'Brien and Phillips—OR, go study it again and again until you understand, immediately, the GAME AFOOT HERE.

Thank you and good morning.

8/16/96 #1 HATONN

Since we have a townfull of visitors and myriads of responsibilities to be attended, I must consider allowing shorter writings during the interim. However, I feel we need to move along a little further in Coleman's July Fourth writing, for you are not into Political Party Conventions—which have become nothing but a political rally of sorts with no basis for actually selecting a

CONTACT: The Phoenix Project

CONTACT is a unique and inspired newspaper for concerned citizens everywhere, though it particularly focuses on the United States because of this country's special mission in the affairs of the world. That is, "As goes the United States, so goes the world."

CONTACT is a vehicle for Commander Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn's most recent writings on important current affairs, plus those from other enlightening sources, on matters critical to a responsible and informed public at this time of planetary transition and final days of battle between the Forces of Light and the "Evil Empire" forces of darkness.

CONTACT exists to counteract the manipulating lies and clever half-truths put out (on purpose) by the regular print and broadcast media prostitutes of the Satanic Elite controllers—parasites who are in the process of economically, physically, and spiritually collapsing this once great country (and actually the entire planet) down to a slave-state level of existence under their diabolical control plan called The New World Order.

This newspaper, CONTACT, began life on March 30, 1993, risen, like the mythical bird, with great determination "up from the ashes" of its internationally acclaimed predecessor called THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR.

THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR, in turn, began life in mid-October of 1991, having evolved from an earlier newsletter called the PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS, which itself came into existence as a faster way to get THE TRUTH out to you readers than was possible with the more substantial "book" format of the PHEONIX JOURNALS. Much incredible ground has been covered so far in that mission.

While the PHOENIX LIBERATOR's motto reminded all that "The Truth Will Set You Free", the CONTACT's motto, displayed prominently in the masthead, takes that thought another important step forward and proclaims: "Ye Shall Know The Truth And The Truth Shall Make You Mad!"

The "Phoenix Project" is about those preparations needed—at body, mind and soul levels—to both understand and survive the great healing changes which are beginning to energize this beautiful little planet, now so frazzled and tortured from abuses of all kinds. We look forward, with great expectations, to the CONTACTing with all of you—a coming together that is rapidly taking place as the entire Phoenix Project "ground crew" continues to connect, solidify, and gain strength through becoming informed of THE TRUTH. Indeed, welcome aboard, friends!

candidate. Since Dr. Coleman has done such a superb job of summarizing the Clintons' antics I believe it is important to have the information prior to the Democratic Convention for Buffoons.

[QUOTING, PART 2, from John Coleman's WORLD IN REVIEW (WIR) newsletter:]

[Still speaking of Clintons]

The Clintons lead a charmed life, buoyed up in a sea of jello poured out by the print and electronic media, 24 hours a day, a non-stop brainwashing which is on hand to greet us from sunrise to sunset, charting a course through a blizzard of accusations which would have sunk the Pope, had he been the target. Clinton's Tavistock spin doctors steer his barque through waters so filled with the rocks of his record that it should have been holed at least 50 times and sunk long ago. Let us examine Clinton's record:

The latest shocking allegations appear in the book, POWERS IN PARTNERS: THE CLINTONS AND THEIR AMERICA, by Roger Morris, a former senior aide to Presidents Lyndon Johnson and Richard Nixon. Morris is a very respected writer whose book is published by the publishing house of Henry Holt. Morris details scores of allegations which, if they are provable would, under normal circumstances be so damaging as to disqualify Clinton from ever holding public office again. But a decadent, thoroughly corrupt United States is not operating under normal circumstances.

Among the allegations made by Morris are the following:

Evidence of a "serious and sustained affair" between Hillary Rodham Clinton and Vince Foster.

Roger, his half brother, was caught on police video camera telling a supplier, "Got to get some (cocaine) for my brother, he's got a nose like a vacuum cleaner." [H: And we all thought he didn't inhale!]

Clinton pulled every string to avoid the Vietnam draft. This amazingly well documented, full account of how Clinton evaded the Draft should be an eye-opener to everyone except perhaps Sen. Sarbanes and Tavistock-trained Mark Fabiani, White House counselor and attack dog-in-chief.

Paula Corbin Jones' claim that Clinton had propositioned her in a hotel room was just one of scores of incidents involving troopers acting as sexual gophers for Clinton when he was governor.

And so on and so forth, page after page after page of this sort of stuff. Now the President will probably have to either ignore the allegation contained in the book or charge slander. It will be interesting to see what transpires. The very idea that such things as Morris alleges, the Jennifer Flowers scandal and the Paula Corbin Jones case, would make most Americans believe that Clinton shouldn't hold any public office.

That would be the case if it were not for the Tavistock Institute which has an answer for everything Clinton and his wife do. Their Tavistock-trained lawyer, Mark Fabiani, (or at least his responses give this impression), has rebuttals and explanations for everything, explanations one has the benefit of from a Tavistock Institute education.

What the Morris book about Clinton and his wife describes, is called moral turpitude but it does not seem to make any difference to Clinton defenders in the Democrat Party. Sen. Sarbanes, in particular, spent hours during the Whitewater hearings—and afterwards, on talk shows like Larry King Live explaining that there was no evidence of wrongdoing by the Clintons in Whitewater. It was all just a big Republican plot to cost their man the election.

Such a sanguine approach will not fool anyone who continues to look at Clinton's record:

Longtime Arkansas insider buddy, Wes Hubbell, appointed No. 2 man at the Justice Dept, convicted of stealing close to $400,000 from Rose Law firm and sent to prison. Hubbell was also a confidant of Hillary Clinton, a Rose Law firm partner.

Clinton insiders Ron Brown, Henry Cisneros and Mike Espy placed under investigation for various forms of alleged criminal misconduct. Espy is forced out of office. All held senior cabinet posts.

Clinton tries briefly to prevent Whitewater investigators from doing their job by claiming "executive privilege".

Paula Corbin Jones brings sex harassment suit against Clinton (she was only one of many such cases according to author Desmond Morris) and Clinton's lawyers try the absurd ploy of claiming "active duty" status to deflect it. Attorney Bennett quickly gets the message from the public, "This isn't going to work." Court has still to set trial date. [H: And you have another Convention so the old boy can try it again!]

One-time banker, David Hale, accuses Clinton of putting pressure on him to make illicit loan to James McDougall and wife, Susan, which was never repaid. Hale convicted on fraud charges but stands by allegation.

Long time close friends and business partners of Pres. and Mrs. Clinton, James and Susan McDougall, convicted on multiple counts of fraud in which Clinton testified by videotape in their defense. Clinton not charged with any wrong doing in Whitewater partnership with the McDougalls. Apparently continues to bear a charmed life.

Mrs. Clinton "parleys" $1,000 investment in cattle futures into $100,000 with help of Clinton Crony tycoon "Tyson". Cattle futures traders experts dub exercise "an impossibility". Senate Whitewater Committee makes several complaints about tardiness of White House in turning over documents. White House says billing records for work done by Mrs. Clinton while at Rose Law firm "lost".

Months later the "lost" billing records are "discovered" in the personal quarters of the Clintons in the White House.

Senate Whitewater Committee alleges that Hillary Clinton, concerned about the discovery of damaging documents by investigators, "dispatched her trusted lieutenants to contain any political embarrassment or political damages".

"Trusted lieutenants" accused of stonewalling, convenient lapses of memory and worse and referred to Special Prosecutor Starr for possible criminal indictment of lying to, and/or obstructing Committee.

Several Senators ask for criminal charges of perjury or obstruction of justice against senior Clinton insider advisors, including Harold Ickes. Also request same for other Clinton aides whom they allege were involved in removal of files from office of Vincent Foster after his alleged suicide.

Whitewater Special Prosecutor investigates whether or not Hillary Clinton arranged and orchestrated the firings of White House travel office employees including the charges brought against its director which were later dismissed. Strong suspicion that Hillary Clinton tried to steer business to her Hollywood "in crowd" friend, Harry Thomassen and his wife, frequent guests at the White House, and whether or not Hillary Clinton later lied about her role.

In course of the Travelgate investigation it surfaces that the White House requested and obtained more than 400 FBI confidential files on Reagan-Bush era employees. White House spin doctor Panetta calls it an "inexcusable mistake" while Clinton calls it "a bureaucratic snafu". White House Tavistockian lawyer Fabiani goes into usual attack-dog mode.

SENATE KEY ROLES

Since the Senate is playing such a key investigation role, it might be prudent at this point to look at how senators are appointed, what their functions are, and what the Constitution has to say. Originally, it was never intended that there be Statewide elections for U.S. Senators. This was left up to the State Legislatures with the responsibility for electing two of its most esteemed members with long and honorable records. The Framers of the Constitution felt this was a safe method of selection as the members of the State Legislatures themselves truly represented the wishes of the Sovereigns, the citizens residing in the several States. [H: Oh yes indeed, this is EXACTLY what the CONSTITUTION says!]

At all times we need to RECALL THAT ELECTIONS ARE A MATTER FOR THE STATES, not the Federal Government. There is no such entity mentioned in the Constitution as the Federal Elections Commission. THERE ARE NO FEDERAL ELECTIONS. Elections belong to the Sovereigns of the several States and NOT to Washington.

The intent of the Framers was to hold the elected senators responsible for their actions in Washington, so that they could be called before their respective State Legislature and asked for an accounting of their deeds, where the legislators were displeased over their votes on certain issues. This was the primary intent: that senators be fully accountable to the State legislatures and, through them, to the Sovereigns, the people residing in the several States.

But this finely-tuned instrument was turned on its head through passage of the 17th Amendment, which was ratified in 1913:

"The Senate of the United States shall be composed of two Senators from each State, elected by the people thereof, for six years; and each Senator shall have one vote. The electors in each State shall have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the State Legislature, etc."

The 17th Amendment was ratified by the States on April 8, 1913 and ratification opened the doors to the perfidious multi-million-dollar State-wide elections which have cursed the States and the Sovereigns with Lobbyists and Political Action Committees, totally eliminating control over Senators by the Sovereigns of the several States, as was the intent of the Founding Fathers.

As a result, Senate races have become no better than Turkish bazaars where wares are bartered and traded. Senate seats—and the men who vie for them—have become saleable items. In this regard, as elsewhere, the United States matches many of the conditions which prevailed when Rome was in a state of decline.

Lobbyists and "special interest groups" now control Washington through these Senators thereby usurping the functions of the Sovereigns of the several States to whom the Senators are no longer accountable. This leaves them free to vote for measures that fly in the face of the wishes of the Sovereign People of the Sovereign States, notable examples being the Panama Canal Treaty, The Gulf War, NAFTA and GATT, to name just a few.

[END QUOTING OF PART 2]

I would like, in closing this segment, to remind you of something else which is so significant as to have escaped most of you even though most of you will remember it.

NIKITA KHRUSHCHEV

In June of 1957, Nikita Khrushchev, head of the Soviet Communist Party and President of the USSR, speaking on American nationwide television, said:

"I can prophesy that your grandchildren in America will live under Socialism." (This in itself tells you that "Communism" is a sick cover for total Socialism.) "And please don't be afraid. Your grandchildren will not understand the progressive nature of a socialist society."

When he was preparing to leave for his celebrated visit to the United States, Khrushchev made the following statement:

"We cannot expect Americans to jump from Capitalism to Communism, but we CAN ASSIST THEIR ELECTED LEADERS IN GIVING AMERICANS SMALL DOSES OF SOCIALISM UNTIL THEY SUDDENLY AWAKE TO FIND THEY HAVE COMMUNISM."

All of you who still think this is some kind of a bad joke had best reconsider your thought processes.

Now, remember WHO set up the Communist Party in Russia and begat the Soviet Union. All the names of that Board of Directors changed their NAMES to protect the identity of the actual participants. "Communism", as in PARTY, is NOT "Communism" as would be practiced by a non-thinking species—it is the fundamental lie which allows the integration of STATE RULE BY THE ELITE—in a purely SOCIALISTIC-FASCIST STRUCTURE.

And, to get there, there will be a breakdown of the Welfare System, the Retirement Programs and chaos will ensue. This is going to happen because the ones on Welfare will not be able to get work, eat or shelter themselves—that capability has been TRAINED OUT OF THEM. The children on Welfare will become totally integrated for programming, wards of the STATE. There will be planned hardship, citizen uprising and chaos, crimes, and holocaust as it falls apart. Your nations will be unable to fill-in with assistance with the myriads of famines, natural disasters (no longer "Nature"-caused) and breakdown into bankruptcy of the entire economic system of global interflow.

So, I am a fear-monger? Where have YOU been who would tout such a thing? YOU WHO STATE SUCH OBVIOUS IGNORANCE ARE THE VERY ONES WHO HAVE BROUGHT YOU TO "HERE"! Never mind ME; it is YOU on the hotseat, World Citizen.

May God have mercy in your time of need that you might open your hearts, minds AND SOULS to HIS WONDROUS PRESENCE for you are IN TROUBLE, WORLD!

Good morning and Salu.

So, America, HERE is where you are today! The crossroads of your very planetary structure in passage is at your feet and a decision is mandatory.

The Untold History Of America

Part II of a Series

Editor's note: Part I of this bold series was presented in the 8/13/96 issue of CONTACT.

8/14/96 RAY BILGER

[A correction to Part I: In Part I of this series, in the August 13, 1996 issue of CONTACT, on page 6, in the second column, the reference to "Baron Edmond de Rothschild, born in 1744", should have read "Baron M.A. Rothschild (1744-1812)". (Baron Edmond de Rothschild presided over the Paris Peace Conference that ended World War I.)]

James Polk was President of the United States in May of 1846 when hostilities broke out with Mexico. On the night of his inauguration, Polk had told his Secretary of the Navy that one of his plans was the acquisition of California. Not surprisingly, Polk instigated the Mexican War by sending troops into disputed territory along the Rio Grande. Mexico had already rejected an American negotiator named John Slidell (remember that name), and then killed some American soldiers, providing the perfect pretext for what was a bloody war. In the end, Mexico was no challenge for American military might, and a peace treaty was signed less than two years later, in February of 1848. The U.S. gained New Mexico, Arizona and California, but over 9,200 of our soldiers had deserted during the war. The U.S. paid Mexico $15 million.

Part I of this story informed us that in 1801 the British-based Freemasonic Lodge established itself in America. It did so in Charleston, South Carolina under the name of the "Grand Council of the Princes of Jerusalem of the Mother Supreme Council of the Knights Commander of the House of the Temple of Solomon of the Thirty-third Degree of the Ancient and Accepted Order of the Scottish Rite of Freemasonry in the United States". Whew! That's a mouthful. Try saying that three times, fast. This secret society would later direct the Confederate secessionist insurrection in what would be known as the American Civil War.

Today, the Masons are in cities and towns all across America. The majority of its members are lower level (out of 33 different degrees) and consist of the business people in their local communities, such as doctors, lawyers and merchants. Most Judges in America are Masons. The average Mason has no comprehension of what happens at the higher levels (degrees) as the entire organization is supersecret from the inside out.

From the very inception of the American nation in 1776, it was well recognized that the North and the South were quite different in their societal, economic, and employment arrangements. The North had a large manufacturing base, while the South was predominantly agricultural. In 1790, the South produced 1,000 tons of cotton per year and had 500,000 slaves. By 1860, there were 4 million slaves producing 1 million tons of cotton per year.

When there was the suggestion of including an anti-slavery amendment to the Constitution, it threatened the collapse of the Constitutional Convention altogether. The decision was made to delete any such reference in preference to getting the Constitution passed and of securing and maintaining the stability of the Union. It does, however, seem obvious that the international bankers and secret societies were always aware of the fact that they could foment dissension between the North and the South by generating antipathies between the two regions, should the need ever arise to do so. This is the old formula of divide and conquer, and it is for the express purpose of control (of the people, the money, the laws, everything). It has always been the same way; keep the people in chaos and confusion and they will be easily controlled. Wars have always been a most convenient vehicle for accomplishing these ends.

Thus, plans were made by the international bankers to divide the United States into two nations, by instigating a war between the North and the South over the issue of slavery. The London branch of the Rothschilds financed the North in part through their agent, August Belmont. The Paris branch of the Rothschilds financed the South through their agents, Judah P. Benjamin and John Slidell. Few Americans, then or now, knew of these secret and diabolical plans.

What the people saw on the surface was that the North had never found the use of slavery acceptable, and time only saw these feelings grow. From about 1820 onward the situation grew more tense. The compromise of 1850 consisted of a series of compromise measures which clearly defined the status of slavery from coast to coast. New states were admitted to the Union as slave states or free states. As long as things remained even, neither side could gain control of the national government and force its way of life upon the other side. The South assumed that the struggle was pretty much settled.

When California had entered the Union as a free state in 1849, the free states took control of the Senate and the House of Representatives and the fragile peace that still existed began to deteriorate more seriously through the 1850s. The Southern states had made it clear that they would secede from the Union if the Northern states were successful in winning full control of the national government.

Abraham Lincoln was campaigning for the Presidency in 1860. Lincoln had said:

"A house divided against itself cannot stand... This government cannot endure permanently half slave and half free."

Lincoln was elected President in 1860 without carrying a single Southern state. South Carolina (remember, the Freemasonic Lodge was headquartered there, at Charleston) seceded from the Union as soon as it heard of Lincoln's election. Within six weeks Mississippi, Florida, Alabama, Louisiana, Georgia and Texas followed suit. This is where the story gets rather interesting. (The Civil War actually started, on April 12, 1861 with the attack on Fort Sumter at Charleston, South Carolina.)

The question is, or should be, can the government endure when states secede? Thomas Marcy has conducted extensive research (including going through the old Congressional Records) surrounding the Civil War period, and has written an incredible book on the subject entitled Conquered (unpublished as of this writing). In the many hours that Mr. Marcy and this author have had discussions on this subject, Mr. Marcy posed the question, "If the states had the right to organize themselves together into a Union, do they also have the right to secede from that Union?" The answer is yes. His next question is, "If states secede from that Union, does that Union still exist?" His answer was no, not as it had been originally constituted. Although the Constitution (a contract) makes provision for adding New States at Art IV, Sec. 3, cl. 1, there is absolutely no provision for any state to be able to secede from the Union. If half of the parties to a contract unilaterally withdraw from that contract because the other half are trying to change the original agreement, then the conditions which constituted the original contract no longer exist. In order for the Union to continue to exist, it would have to be reconstituted (re-established), since the secession involved members of the original 13 states, now breaking up the Union.

Lincoln was an ideal puppet, wittingly or unwittingly, to be used by those who were manipulating the government from behind the scenes. He was popular with those who disliked slavery, and he wanted to see it end as well.

By January 31, 1861, nine states had seceded from the Union, and their Congressmen had left the Congress. On March 4, the old Congress disbanded, leaving the government with no Legislative Branch in session, and the Union, in essence, already dissolved. Lincoln was, in effect, no longer President of the United States of America, as the states were not united. On April 15, three days after the war had begun, Lincoln effectively discarded our Constitution and, among other things, he implemented Martial Law, he suspended Habeas Corpus, he called out the Army to surround the White House and he ordered the Army to attack Virginia. On April 19th, Lincoln proclaimed a blockade of Southern ports. Whether or not Lincoln was actually doing these things by direction from higher-ups, or simply because he felt a responsibility to try to keep things as together as possible is not exactly clear, yet he was committing treason. His actions were not authorized by Congress (they required such authorization), but were purely from the Executive Branch, from himself. This appears to be the first use of Executive Orders in the United States. No precedent had ever been set for what Lincoln did.

By July 1, 1861, Lincoln had prepared for submission to the new Congress a Joint Resolution which commended and condoned all of the actions he had recently taken. On July 4, the new Congress was seated. For the Congress to have maintained any degree of credibility they would have to immediately declare Lincoln's actions and conduct as treasonous. They did not. There was much talk and debate in both Houses of Congress about exactly what should be done. Again, it is not exactly clear how much influence the agents of the international bankers and the secret societies had upon Congressional members, but by not declaring Lincoln's actions as treasonous, the Congress itself became guilty of aiding and abetting the commission of a crime, namely treason.

The debates continued throughout the month of July 1861, and by the 31st, only 4 Senators and 5 Representatives opposed Lincoln. So, votes were taken in both Houses and Lincoln's Joint Resolution was approved.

According to Mr. Marcy, for all intents and purposes the old United States of America was finished, and a new United States was established. No one had had a new election for President in this new government, so Lincoln was, in essence, our first new Dictator, even though he may not have seen himself as such.

This new government needed a new Constitution, as the old one expired with the old nation. Thus, the Fourteenth Amendment was adopted. The old Constitution was kept as a facade to fool the people (as long as the majority believe the facade, it will stand), but this new amendment gave a whole new meaning to the old document. Read the Fourteenth Amendment in light of the information herein and see what you think of all this. Is Tom Marcy correct? The old Thirteenth Amendment (on titles of nobility) certainly disappeared. What happened to that? If indeed there was now a new Dictatorial Government, that new government could certainly throw out an amendment if they didn't like it.

The people were never consulted through any of this. One thing is for certain, the international bankers are very clever.

Meanwhile, there were other things that Lincoln did which would make it seem that he was an unwitting puppet. When Lincoln requested loans from the private banks to conduct the war, the banks demanded 28% interest. Knowing it would cost a considerable amount of money to prosecute the war, were the international bankers attempting to throw the nation into perpetual debt? Lincoln's response was to order the Treasury to print a total of $450 million worth of U.S. Notes, called "Lincoln greenbacks". Again, under the Constitution, only Congress could make such an order. This debt-free money was used directly to pay for goods and services required for the war. The bankers were not happy with this. Lincoln said at the time:

"I have two great enemies, the Southern Army in front of me and the financial institutions in the rear. Of the two, the one in my rear is my greatest foe."

The bankers never let up pressure on the government, insisting in 1862 that the government issue War Bonds to be used as a banking basis, so that the war debt could be used to control the volume of money.

Secretary of the Treasury Salmon P. Chase, and Congress, succumbed to the pressure of the international bankers and in 1863 passed the National Bank Act. Again the bankers had gained the power to create our money as debt. Later, Mr. Chase would regret his actions, (quoting:)

(T)he passage of the National Bank Act was the greatest financial mistake of my life... It should be repealed, but before that can be accomplished, the people will be arrayed on one side and the bank(s) on the other, in a contest such as we have never before seen in this country. (End quoting)

Horace Greeley, an American journalist and political leader, would write in 1872 about the National Bank Act, that it had brought all workers to a common level, not so much by raising the level of the slaves, but by "reducing the whole working population, white and black, to a condition of serfdom".

The international bankers, to insure that their money monopoly remained inviolate, and to keep honest debt-free money from being issued again by Lincoln, had to make sure Lincoln was eliminated. John Wilkes Booth, a member of another secret society, the Knights of the Golden Circle, carried out his mission of assassination successfully. There is evidence to show that he slipped away (probably by prearranged plan), and that a soldier who looked exactly like Booth was brought in as Booth. Booth appears to have lived until about 1920 and tried to tell his story in later life, with few believing him.

The Front page of the June 4, 1996 issue of CONTACT newspaper carried an article by this author about the "U.S. Military Role in the New World Order". The article was about United States Marine Corps Major General Smedley Butler, and his military role as an enforcer and racketeer for the international bankers, big business and Wall Street, by forcing small countries to comply with their demands (all in the name of protecting American interests, of course). But should we expect that Gen. Butler was the first military man to be used by the international bankers to promote their brutal control of the world? Such thinking on our part would be foolish indeed.

In 1962, Secretary of State Dean Rusk presented to a Senate committee a list of "Instances of the Use of United States Armed Forces Abroad 1798-1945". The Secretary presented this State Department list to show a precedent for the use of armed force against Cuba. In the period of 1798-1895 alone (less than 100 years), the U.S. made 103 interventions into the affairs of other countries. How many readers are aware of any of this? And, were those interventions done for the people or to promote the international bankers and big business? Here is just a sample of some of the more notable interventions from 1850-1894, with the reasons given by the State Department in each instance, (quoting:)

1852-53—Argentina. Marines were landed and maintained in Buenos Aires to protect American interests during a revolution.

1853—Nicaragua. To protect American lives and interests during political disturbances.

1853-54—Japan. The "Opening of Japan" and the Perry Expedition. (State Department gave no more details, but it involved warships forcing Japan to open ports to U.S. trade.)

1853-54—Ryukyu and Bonin Islands. Commodore Perry on three visits before going to Japan and while waiting for a reply from Japan made a naval demonstration, landing Marines twice, and secured a coaling concession from the ruler of Naha on Okinawa. He also demonstrated in the Bonin Islands. All to secure facilities for commerce.

1854—Nicaragua. San Juan del Norte (Greytown) was destroyed to avenge an insult to the American Minister to Nicaragua.)

1855—Uruguay. U.S. and European naval forces landed to protect American interests during an at-

ARTICLE XIV

Passed by Congress June 13, 1866. Ratified July 9, 1868.

SECTION 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

SECTION 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice President of the United States, representatives in Congress, the executive and judicial officers of a State, or the members of the legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State, being twenty-one years of age, and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion, or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

SECTION 3. No person shall be a senator or representative in Congress, or elector of President and Vice President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States, or under any State, who having previously taken an oath, as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof. But Congress may by a vote of two thirds of each House, remove such disability.

SECTION 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States, authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations, and claims shall be held illegal and void.

SECTION 5. The Congress shall have power to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article.

tempted revolution in Montevideo.

1859—China. For the protection of American interests in Shanghai.

1860—Angola, Portuguese West Africa. To protect American lives and property at Kissebo when the natives became troublesome.

1893—Hawaii. Ostensibly to protect American lives and property; actually to promote a provisional government under Sanford B. Dole (of pineapple fame). This action was disavowed by the U.S.

1894—Nicaragua. To protect American interests at Bluefields following a revolution. (End quoting)

Anyone still think that the role of the military is to restore or maintain peace? Peace will never be forced on any nation. War, however, is big business (and control), and it nets incredible profits for international bankers, big business, oil companies and armament manufacturers. The people who actually compose the military forces are nothing but cannon fodder and expendable useless eaters, usually easily mind controlled and brainwashed into believing they are making the world safe for you and me. Nothing could be further from the truth.

America experienced a great economic depression that began in 1893, and President Grover Cleveland used American troops to break up a demonstration of unemployed men who had come to Washington. He used the troops again in 1894 to break up the national strike on the railroads. By now the reader should have noticed that the international bankers (and our world controllers) have never allowed the American people one moment of peace. There was, and is, always something to keep us off guard. If we were not in some foreign intervention, then we would have an internal civil war against slavery, or an economic depression, etc., etc. (wait until we get into reviewing the 20th century).

Always keep the people in chaos and confusion. And since it has all been very carefully orchestrated, we would never suspect that such a deceitful and insidious plan is intentionally being worked out on us.

William McKinley won the Presidential election in 1896, in what appeared to be the first time that the corporations and the press mobilized together with a massive use of money in an election campaign. Whether or not McKinley himself wrote the words to his speeches, they did contain a remarkable rhetoric for connecting big money and the flag. (Quoting:)

I am glad to know that the people in every part of the country mean to be devoted to one flag, the glorious Stars and Stripes; that the people of this country mean to maintain the financial honor of the country as sacredly as they maintain the honor of the flag. (End quoting)

It is doubtful that the people knew he was talking about equating his friends, the international bankers, with honor to our flag. Two years later, in 1898, the United States declared war on Spain in what was called the Spanish-American War. Teddy Roosevelt, in a letter to a friend in 1897, had said, "In strict confidence... I should welcome almost any war, for I think this country needs one." That is the kind of statement one might expect from a sick mind.

A Washington Post editorial at the beginning of the war stated in part, (quoting:)

A new consciousness seems to have come upon us—the consciousness of strength—and with it a new appetite, the yearning to show our strength... Ambition, interest, land hunger, pride, the mere joy of fighting, whatever it may be, we are animated by a new sensation. We are face to face with a strange destiny. The taste of Empire is in the mouth of the people even as the taste of blood in the jungle... (End quoting)

The press appeared to have become the very mouthpiece of the international bankers, promoting their brutal military expansionist policies. We were face to face with a strange destiny all right. The international bankers were getting closer to total control of the world, with all its people their slaves.

A major part of the Spanish-American War involved Cuba. The U.S. had tried to buy Cuba from Spain in 1854, with no luck. From 1868-1878, the Cubans had fought an unsuccessful war for independence. The war was renewed in 1895, this time with the U.S. leaning toward intervention.

The U.S. had major investments in Cuba, in sugar plantations, mining, and other businesses. The trade between the U.S. and Cuba in 1889 was about $64 million. By 1893 it had increased to about $103 million. Allegations that American businessmen had helped to incite the conflict in 1895 have apparently remained unproven. That may only mean that they didn't get caught, or perhaps that they paid someone to keep quiet.

The direct cause of the Spanish-American War was the sinking of the American battleship, the U.S.S. Maine, in Havana Harbor, on the night of February 15, 1898, by a powerful explosion, killing 268 crewmen. The American press immediately blamed Spain, but the actual cause of the explosion has never been proven. Is it possible that the ship was blown up by someone other than the Spanish, then blamed on them to start a war?

The Spanish were in no condition militarily or economically to fight the U.S., and they let it be known to the American Minister at Madrid that they were making every concession their public opinion would tolerate. It seems unlikely they would be stupid enough to blow up a U.S. battleship. But Teddy Roosevelt had just said he would like to have a war, our economy was in bad shape, and, according to the press, the American people were hungry for Empire. After all, war is not only very profitable for big business and the bankers, it also brings high employment. And, this war further united the American people, still a bit divided from our Civil War. Besides, no one would ever believe that the U.S. would blow up one of its own ships, killing our citizens! Observant students of history will also realize that this kind of trick was in use long before 1898.

Whatever the cause of the explosion, the indignation in the U.S. was high and the war spirit was raised to the boiling point. On April 25, 1898, the American Congress declared that a state of war existed with Spain.

The war also included actions in a Pacific theatre, most importantly in the Philippines. Nowhere, Atlantic or Pacific, did the war last very long, the Spanish being no match for the American war machine. All hostilities ended on August 12, 1898, with a peace treaty formally signed on December 10, in Paris, France. As part of the deal Cuba was (supposedly) set free, Puerto Rico and the Philippines became U.S. possessions, and the U.S. paid Spain $20 million. The U.S. then established a "temporary" military administration in Cuba. National City Bank of New York, the most powerful bank in the U.S., came away as the proprietor of the Cuban sugar industry. American casualties were over 5,000 dead, of which over 90% had died of disease!

When we continue, we will close out the 1890s and enter the diabolical and deadly 20th Century, and see how America (very early in the century) was sold, lock, stock and barrel, to the international bankers. And we will see how weather modification and geophysical manipulation (including everything from hurricanes, tornadoes and floods, to earthquakes) have been used, not only to bring the people of America (and the world) to their knees, but also to destroy them, literally. With only a few short years remaining, we'll all be lucky to make it through this century alive!

Lincoln said at the time:

"I have two great enemies, the Southern Army in front of me and the financial institutions in the rear. Of the two, the one in my rear is my greatest foe."

ECSTASY TO AGONY THROUGH THE PLAN 2000

In the course of men's lives comes the opportunity to do that which is ungodly or that which epitomizes the intent of GOD. Through the ages of man's experience he has often been brilliant and often become as evil creatures of manufactured robotic actors on the stage called physical life in expression. As unbalance has occurred so has the very planet brought ending to civilizations--some at the hands of the very men who would have rule and kingdomship over all things physical--wisitfully efforting to capture the very God-soul of each and all beings. The cycle has come full circle--the time is at hand and YOU must know that which has brought you down. Herein is presented "THE PLAN" for capture by the adversary of God--and that which could have saved your world--had you borne God-Truth as your shield. Where shall YOU go from here?

STATE OF THE SAXON NATION

Excerpted from HOSKINS REPORT, P.O. Box 997, Lynchburg, VA 24505, [quoting:]

1—POLITICAL

The fact that a person pays taxes is proof that he lives in a feudal society and is governed by a king (or a king by any other name; ie president, premier, monarch, etc.). Being ruled by a king in an episcopal system (rule from the top down) is alien to the Saxon [and all of God's children] whose natural habitat is the self-sufficient farm (SSF) where all his needs are met from his own efforts under direction of his God. His own militia provides protection, education is provided within the community, the country store handles the overflow of goods from cottage industry, AND, there is no tax-tribute paid to anyone.

The king is put on the throne by the international merchant to protect his interests. His "retainer" is the right to collect taxes.

Everyone pretends not to know that the king was put in office to serve his master. He just can't come out and admit that he is hired help, put on the payroll to protect the merchant. Instead, the king tells the people that "the government is here to protect you." The king must then search to find an enemy to protect the people from.

Establishment kings pick fights to have "bad guys" to war against. Southerners were made to "shoot first" when a fleet loaded with troops was sent to invade and occupy Charleston harbor.

If those selected to be "bad guys" can't be coerced into doing something dangerous and terroristic then something along that line must be done in their name. This is how the bogus KKK, recruited from federal agents and occupation soldiers, came into existence after the War Between the States. The atrocities committed by this group justified the things done against the South by the occupation government.

This is the reason the king's agent showed Arab "terrorists" how to make the bomb that was used to blow up the New York trade towers, an act that was, unfortunately for the king, recorded on tape.

The threat of a developing "terror" in the land is the goad used by kings to justify the collection of tribute and other treasure from the people. (In the Far East, kings seldom bother with such niceties. They have a history of doing as they like with the people they rule and liquidating those who object. However, if ruling kings are unable to protect the international merchant and his goods, the merchant will find a replacement for the king.)

The king's retainer is the right to collect tribute from the people. It is not the merchant's concern how this is done or what group does it—Democrat, Republican, Communist, or barbarian invader. The thing that matters is that the merchant and his goods are protected.

STATE OF THE MEDIA

Unsophisticated observers sometimes ask—why doesn't the media blow the whistle and expose the king's transgressions? This was done in earlier days when there were countless locally owned county newspapers. Today, the mass media is owned by the international merchant. He selects kings to be elected by the people by giving them publicity. He pulls kings down by merely ignoring them. The voters can only vote for candidates they know—they can do nothing else. They can only know those the media tells them about. They vote for the ones they know best, but the only ones they know are the ones publicized by the media owner. This means that the ones elected are in fact agents of the media owner.

THE REASON FOR FOREIGN INFLUENCE

Many People misunderstand and therefore underestimate the function and importance of the media Robert Maxwell, media owner par excellence, was found floating in the Atlantic. He owned a great many media outlets including many in America. Upon learning of his death, Swiss banks descended on his estate to claim their media property. This revealed that "king-maker" Maxwell was not the owner but merely a media manager. The real "king-maker" was another level up and operated through Swiss banks.

If Maxwell were only a manager, it may be assumed that the rest of the world's media moguls, including the Australian Rupert Murdoch, may also be only "managers" for the same Swiss banks. If this is in fact the case, it would explain why Western governments pass laws requiring affirmative action, force busing, unlimited immigration and allow Western industry to move to alien nations—all acts that polls say are opposed by the vast majority of Western peoples. To make sure that the reader fully understands what is being said, let's illustrate with a hypothetical situation:

If, in a nation of 20,000,000 Saxons, there can be found only two people who are anti-Saxon—the media owner will publicize these two so that one of them will be elected king. The entire nation of Saxons will then be ruled by one of the only two anti-Saxonites in the country—one who is an agent of the media owner who was responsible for having him elected.

This is an extreme illustration, but a necessary one to make the point. The actual situation is not far removed from the following illustration. It is:

There is not a single country in the Saxon West whose leaders are not hand picked by the media owner for the people to choose between. The result is that there is not one leader in the West who holds his people's interests above that of the media owner who is responsible for having him elected. Since these leaders operate from Swiss banks, it follows that there is not one leader who is not an agent of an alien power. This includes every single elected official in the West who was selected by the media owner to receive favorable publicity—from president of the country down to many who sit on local city councils. The media is much more than just the media.

ECONOMIC STATE

A nation can be conquered economically as well as politically. The existence of usury banks is proof that the people of a country have been conquered economically. Whoever owns the usury bank is the conqueror.

A usury contract is fraudulent from its conception—where the victim promises to repay 11 when only 10 exist. Repayment can only be made by taking from another victim—but a victim is required. "Usury," the ultimate monopoly, empties countryside, creates the city and super-state, and demands taxes, socialism, and communism to protect the monopoly. Usury is a capital crime under Biblical law. ("Hath given forth upon usury... he shall not live." Ezek. 18:13; "Unto a stranger [Heb:zwe'r—racial alien] thou mayest lend upon usury; but unto thy brother thou shalt not lend upon usury." Deu. 23:20)

Virginia was an extension of the British trade area. She was taxed unmercifully to support the king and to force her substantial subjects to borrow from the English usury banks to pay the required taxes. John Robinson's fiasco (Virginia printed paper money which was paid back in to the treasury for taxes. The state did not issue new money but continued to collect taxes when there was no money to pay. People were desperate. Robinson lent his friends treasury money to pay taxes at 5% interest. When he died, the colony attempted to collect those loans. There was not enough money in circulation to pay. Bankruptcy was everywhere.) in the mid-1700s ruined many Virginians and taught the rest to avoid debt at all costs. They took to heart the Biblical admonition:

"Woe to him, who is great upon loans! How long can he carry his debts? Will they not suddenly rise for their interest? and Awake with terrors for you? And you will become like their prey." Habakuk 2:6 (Ferrari Fenton p. 639)

FIRST BANKS

The first usury bank in America was not founded until 1780.

Since then, usury banks have spread like a cancer, snapping up land, businesses, and farms. While this conquest was taking place, hardly a voice was raised against it. The reason for this is that most of the voices that should have been raised were on retainers—the payroll of the international merchant. The politician who owed his election to the media, and the priest who gained advancement by co-operation—neither would fight the thing that gave them prosperity. [End quoting]

HOUSE APPROVES BILL ON OFFICIAL LANGUAGE

Excerpted from DAILY NEWS, 8/2/96, [quoting:] WASHINGTON—After nearly six hours of emotional debate, the House on Thursday, approved a bill that would make English the official language of the United States.

The vote was 259-169, with 223 Republicans and 36 Democrats favoring the bill, and eight Republicans, 160 Democrats and one Independent opposing it. [End quoting]

I hardly think this is a solution to the language problems in this country—some more wool for covering your eyes.

EX-COLORADO

GOVERNOR LAMM SAYS

"ELDERLY HAVE A DUTY TO DIE"

According to the news, Richard Lamm, who is running for President of the U.S. on the Perot Reform Party ticket, made the above statement. His basic philosophy seems to be that we cannot as a nation afford to allow them to be useless eaters or consumers.

First abortion, then Dr. Kevorkian, then just kill off the old and ill and then murder anyone who disagrees. Do you see anyone except Satan in this picture?

This also reminds me of ex-Judge Jason Brent—ruled against the Ekkers in their house case—who made a similar statement that we need to kill off the old, ill, insane and crippled people.

CHILLING OUT IS LATEST TREND AT FLORIDA BEACHES

Excerpted from THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, 7/31/96, [quoting:]

DAYTONA BEACH—For anyone who has dipped a toe into coastal waters lately, the reason is obvious. Despite air temperatures in the low to mid-90s, the water temperature the past few days has been cold.

"It's so weird," said one surfer Tuesday. "It's 95 degrees on the beach, and you go into the water and it feels like wintertime. I can't explain it."

On July 13, the surf temperature in Daytona Beach was 83 degrees—close to normal. But the temperature had plummeted to 68 degrees by Saturday—creating a not-so-welcome wake-up call for weekend beach goers. [End quoting]

HAIL CLAIMS SOARING PRAIRIE STORMS CAUSE HUGE DAMAGES

Excerpted from THE GLOBE AND MAIL (Canada), 7/27/96, [quoting:]

The cost of a rash of freak storms on the prairie provinces this year now stands at an estimated $180 million.

Insurance industry officials put the cost of damage to automobiles and property at nearly $90 million after a bruising hail storm in Winnipeg that dropped kiwi fruit-sized projectiles on the city on July 16.

Hail damage to automobiles alone has been pegged at $53 million in the Manitoba capital, representing the worst single disaster claim against the Manitoba Public Insurance Corp. in its 25-year history. [End quoting]

THE MYSTERIOUS MAGAZINE

Two pieces from ANGELS ON EARTH magazine, a Guideposts publication, [quoting:]

It's not always easy being 26. Recently I was having one of those "What am I going to do with my life?" days. I had ducked into a store to buy a soda when I noticed a copy of Angels On Earth on the magazine rack. I glanced through it even though I didn't intend to buy it. While paying for my soda at the counter, I realized I still had the magazine in my hand. "I guess I'll take this too," I said to the cashier.

"That's strange," she said. "We don't carry that magazine." She eyed the rack curiously. "Looks like you got the only copy." After reading it, I was reminded of some important things in my life—faith in God, trust in others and optimism about the future. It was as if the magazine itself were an angel meant especially for me. —George Johnson, Lewes, Delaware

WINNING FINISH

When I was in fifth grade, I was the fastest runner in school. "You'll be taking home all the ribbons," my teacher predicted on Field Day. Between events my classmates and I teased Phyllis, who with her thick glasses and frizzy hair, was trying to hide on the sidelines. "You're dumb and you walk funny", someone shouted. I made up a name to call her, but before I could yell it, a knot tightened in my throat. Two years earlier, at another school, the kids had laughed at me. Now I watched Phyllis sitting alone, and remembered how I had prayed to be accepted.

When the events were finished I had an armful of ribbons. Phyllis walked by, her head down. Impulsively I held out a blue ribbon. "Here" I said, "It's for you." Her face brightened and she hurried away, holding her prize. My teacher swooped me into her arms. "I'm proud of you," she said. I began to cry. I knew that the ribbon I would always remember would be the one I didn't take home. —Penny LeMaster, Denver, Colorado

It's Getting Deep In The Heart Of Texas!

8/14/96 #1 HATONN

OH BOY! DEEP IN THE HEART OF TEXAS!

I have been forwarded a letter from Texas sent to CONTACT regarding my stance and statements on the Banking operation in the new "Sovereign Texas". It is such an excellent letter that I feel I must respond publicly for you are being so misled by good intentioned people (I suppose their intentions are good although you will note the term "Bible Christians" used in describing the intent). These people obviously hold a vision, a dream, and want to accomplish what MUST BE ACCOMPLISHED if America is to turn about. I will offer MWL's letter and then I will comment, please.

I in no way can decide what you will do, or with whom you will lend support and/or cooperate in moving forward—or backwards, as the case may well be. However, I note some OUTSTANDING FLAWS in the presentation and, with respect to each and all participating individuals, I am asked to make comment regarding this "program" as presented in order to have opportunity for our readers to become a bit more informed.

[QUOTING:]

August 11, 1996

Dear Contact:

Perhaps unfortunately for me I became involved in the Republic of Texas before Hatonn warned us against it. It was also unfortunate that Hatonn did not receive more information about the Republic of Texas before last week's article was written about the proposed banks. [H: I will state right off the top, here, that I have received piles of information regarding Texas, and now, those "banks".]

I have entered into this in the belief that perhaps it can be accomplished, and if so that it would be good for people everywhere. I understand that there will be much opposition from the adversary. I will be 80 years old in November, so I am not looking for a nine-to-five job. I do look for my pensions to go down the drain so this may help me later on with some income. I do not desire to get rich or famous as I can not take either with me. I do desire to be self supporting and at the same time be helpful to others.

As for the "NEW" Republic of Texas—"New" it is not! [Editor's note: Nobody said it was a New Republic. I (E.Y.) titled the Front Page headline: Serious Caution About The "New" Texas Republic. The word new was encapsulated in quote marks precisely because it is being used out of typical context since the Republic of Texas is NOT new—for all the reasons listed below, plus others—and yet, this latest situation is being presented, possibly in a con-scheme context, as a new thrust toward freedom and independence from the crooks in high places. Regardless, first it is important to get ones' facts and communications straightened out.] The territory of Texas was organized as a Republic before the Civil War and Texas statehood. The people have been lied to about "statehood". Records show that the Republic of Texas signed a treaty with the States of America, united, in order for the Republic of Texas to become a "state". There is no record of the U.S. Senate signing the treaty. In fact they could not sign one and be correct according to the Constitution as it does not permit this type of treaty. The persons involved in the Republic of Texas contend that the Republic still exists because it was never dissolved or in any way done away with. It just has not been used by the liars since that time and it is just dormant at this time. The Republic of Texas still owns embassy property in London and Australia. The contention is that the "State of Texas" does not, and never has existed from a constitutional standpoint. So far no one has come up with any proof to disprove this contention. So the old Republic of Texas still exists and only needs to be used in order to be constitutional! The Republic of Texas now follows the old original constitution, with a few corrections involving slaves, Indians, etc.

The Republic of Texas does not intend to charter banks that are owned by corporations. They intend to deal only with individually owned banks, so that they deal with people instead of organizations. [H: Well, "corporations" are not bad or good—BUT PEOPLE ARE!] Business corporations within the territory of Texas will be taxed in the future in instances where the individual would not be taxed.

By the term "qualify" they mean that a person must be a citizen of the Republic of Texas, must have allegiance to the Republic, and be capable of managing the money. Persons on public assistance programs who can not manage money will be taught how to manage a republic expense before receiving the money. "Wet" Mexicans will not be given money to take back to Mexico. People will be trained to hold a job or run their business when they are capable of being trained.

The Republic of Texas has entered into an agreement with the CENTRAL DOMINION TRUST. The Seventy + trillion dollar trust is to furnish the money to the Republic of Texas and the Republic of Texas is to distribute the money according to the dictates of the trust. [H: AND WHAT DO YOU KNOW ABOUT THIS TRUST?] The trust is said [H: IS "SAID"??] to be backed by HARD assets such as Steamship lines, Railroads, deposits in offshore banks of Gold and Silver, and VALID Gold certificates. All of this being held offshore to prevent it from being stolen. Hatonn has mentioned that Gold certificates can be valid if handled offshore. This is one of those cases. [H: Don't misunderstand me, readers, I would certainly hope that this is SO. However, unproven certificates that the wicked witches of the North have not proven-up on for themselves will not be honored. There are ways to handle that matter if you have brave banks with a lot of "hidden" loot from unlawful resources—using the certificates as a "front"—but just to "compete" with valid documents and contracts is going to be slippery at best. But the main thing I speak against is that fee up front from you-the-struggling-people. If there is THAT MUCH MONEY AT BECK AND CALL—WHY IS THERE NEED FOR YOUR $2,000 EACH? IT ALWAYS HAS TO COME BACK TO THAT POINT, DOES IT NOT? THE PAPERWORK WE RECEIVED ASKED FOR THE $2,000 SO WE DIDN'T JUST DREAM IT UP. I WILL COMMENT ON THIS LATER. Some of these "banks" plan to "incorporate" on Indian lands through corporations set up for that purpose. The problem is that to DO BUSINESS you have to meet regulations and requirements demanded by the MAJORITY (Democracy, remember?) of the citizens and this type of operation will not be honored except by the gun and the guns simply are not big enough—in the hands of the people and especially the Indians. I don't like the way IT IS, but I do see HOW IT IS. All I ask is that anyone who comes my way—not misunderstand my suggestions because I offer information and certainly do not force anyone to do anything.]

Following this fax, I will send a fax giving the history of the Central Dominion Trust. Richard L. Jones was a Bible-believing Christian who believed that he was supposed to pay off debts for other people according to Deuteronomy 15-1, etc. He attempted to do this with the help of a few other people and he was murdered because of that. Two of his helpers, Johonnas Eicke and a British subject named Heather Altshuler have been imprisoned here in Texas on false charges in order to cover up big thefts of these funds by the adversary that they tried to give away. They found that only a few people can not do those things.

The Republic of Texas hopes to be able to distribute some of the trust's funds by having 100 banks involved in the program with thousands of people knowing what is going on. These banks will not operate under the usual banking laws because they will be giving the trust money away, and later they will loan the trust money on an interest-free basis. Any customers' deposits in these banks will not be loaned out, but will be kept on hand. It is hoped that with residents wanting to receive this money that it will be difficult for the adversary to pull any funny stuff with so many people looking on.

It is planned to do away with property taxes and all other taxes except possibly a sales tax or something which is to be used only for local governments. Land owners are to be given allodial deeds. The Republic will get its funds solely from a 1% import tax plus a 1% export tax. These reductions in taxes along with the money provided to the people will surely be a tremendous boost to the economy of the territory of Texas.

It seems to me that the entire basic plan for the Republic of Texas is sound and workable. Some details are being worked out as they go along. The plans are for this group to complete this program over a two-year period. This is to be followed by a public general election of new officers with these people NOT running for office after this transition period. All of the plans have been approved at general public meetings held every three weeks in various locations throughout Texas. You would not know much about this from the papers and TV.

I have investigated these things and am reasonably sure that they are correct. There are sure to be problems to be worked out and they are capable of doing this. There have been infiltrators who have been removed. There will be greedy persons probably which will have to be dealt with. There will be bankers, attorneys, and others who will try to put a stop to this. With so many people looking on we hope that they will not be able to do much damage.

The Republic of Texas group is a very dedicated group of serious people. They believe that this is a God-given plan and that they are chosen to do this. They believe that if they are killed or imprisoned that others will pick up the pen and continue the plan. If they are correct, it should all work out in spite of the problems. They are not doing this with guns. The only liens that they have filed are liens on all properties of the State of Texas. Individuals may have filed liens against judges and other officials, but these are NOT official acts of the Republic of Texas. I ask for guidance or help of any kind because it seems to me that this is a good thing to do.

Sincerely,
MWL

[END OF QUOTING]

RESPONSE

My response is the same as before: BE CAREFUL.

I have searched the paperwork sent and am even MORE EMPHATIC in my WARNING: BE CAREFUL.

This whole program is a replica of that which took place in Justus, Montana—with greater odds against ever finding enough security to do much of anything except get sent away to [prison in] Huntsville, Texas—for a long, long stay.

The only address I find which is apparently a participating party, since letterhead for TRUSTGATE is the American Patriot Fax Network, and I will comment. We have been TOLD many, many things only to find that NONE of the tales have been either accurate or valid. So, I can only TELL you and you will have to research parties who might be involved. Perhaps finding these very parties involved will make you feel better—perhaps not.

Ken Vardon, Box 946, Shiner, Texas Republic Tpz 77984 runs American Patriot Fax Network. Ken was formerly of Las Vegas, Nevada. Ronn Jackson reported that he did a lot of things with Vardon but became disenchanted because of some problems with Vardon. That be as it may, Ronn Jackson then reported that he had personally INCORPORATED the APFN to "protect" it for use later when Ronn would be free, able to work, and get his own programs going.

Ronn Jackson is still in hiding (to the best of knowledge) and is being looked-for regarding a couple of vehicles leased for Ronn by others and then left high and dry—with the payments and no notion as to the whereabouts of either Ronn or his new wife, Betty.

Ronn is all entangled in THIS Texas maneuver even if he doesn't realize it because the people behind it are touting the same "Certificates" that Ronn said HE HAD. Someone said "China" was backing this Texas "deal". I strongly question any such possibility because the Chinese would have the business done overseas to protect everyone involved.

Furthermore, if the Chinese are involved—there would be NO NEED for up-front funds to process anything. And, when there is something told in gibberish as a reason for "fees" it behooves the individual participant to look very, very closely at "management costs". One reason Ronn Jackson is in such hot water is that he came along after Buckley and others, and damn if he didn't set up another link of that "Farm Payoff" program at $300 or so per head (for processing the paperwork) and ripped off, we are told, hundreds of people. He even wanted Grandma to finally get him off the hook by using her VALIDATED contracts. Why would he do that if he already held some just as valid, except that hers held first payback sequence.

These are not the things, unfortunately, which bother me the very most about people being sucked in—especially anyone who reads my material. The most damaging problem I have is that I am counted as some sort of "cult" leader if I even comment. However, THIS IS NOT THE WAY TO DO WHAT YOU CLAIM TO WANT TO DO.

People, you can't have it both ways; you say you want sovereignty over self and business—but you also draw pensions and Federal "services". This makes for a CONTRACT BETWEEN YOU AND THE GOVERNMENT AND THAT MAKES YOU SUBJECT TO THEIR RULES AND REGULATIONS! Now for the more obvious thing: LAWS, even of man, are made to give order and protection to ALL CITIZENS so there will always have to be laws, and to simply say that "I don't like the laws so they don't apply to me" is indeed foolish.

I note that to "qualify" for a position that a person must be a citizen of the Republic of Texas, must have allegiance to the Republic, and be capable of managing the money. Are these not equally oppressive demands as you already have going in the non-republic of Texas? "Wet" Mexicans will not be given money to take back to Mexico. People will BE TRAINED to hold a job or run their business when they are CAPABLE OF BEING TRAINED. Oh? And this is FREEDOM? Who is going to decide which "Mexicans" can work and how they can spend their money? Who is going to TRAIN people? Who decides WHO IS CAPABLE OF BEING TRAINED? What you have going here is a worse dictatorship than the Feds have yet thought up in their night-sweats. Moreover, I note that income for government will come from 1% import and 1% export taxes. Import? From where? Export? To where? All the other 49 states have to do (along with the MAJORITY of Texas) is to send you NOTHING. They are not going to need your exported products but YOU WILL NEED THEIRS.

How big and exactly WHERE IS this Republic withdrawn from the Corporate U.S.?

Now for the most thought-provoking inquiry of all—who is Richard L. Jones? You say he was trained by an international banker? He did quite a few large transactions in Europe for governments and government banks in Egypt, Saudi Arabia, Indonesia, etc.? Actually, when I refer to "you said", I refer to the write-

Vortex Kit

WATER—THE MOST AMAZING SUBSTANCE ON EARTH

Water is alive. The discovery made by Henry Coanda in the 1920s showed that water flowing over any surface tends to cling to that surface. As the rivers flow, the water clings to rocks and soil picking up the minerals on its way down. As the water picks up speed and goes around and over rocks, spinning in different directions, millions of vortices are formed. The swirling vortices produce electricity which has been measured in lab tests and reveals that this motion colloidalized the minerals making them easily absorbable by the body.

Patrick Flanagan carried on the research only to discover that these vortices can be duplicated by stirring or agitating the water. Dealing with a 4" diameter vortex, Flanagan lowered a thin, specially shielded wire electrode into the center of its vortical throat, being careful not to allow the wire to touch the water. By means of another electrode touching the water, he was able to record a charge of more than ten thousand volts emitted from its swirling water when the vortex was moving at approximately one thousand revolutions per minute. By drinking this water, it is said that the body's cells gain a charge that can prevent them from clumping and aging quickly.

New Gaia offers a way to duplicate this vortex in your own home with the use of a simple inexpensive process. The kit they present contains two bottles, the vortex coupling with magnets and the simple instructions on how to create the vortex. The Rare Earth minerals offered by New Gaia in capsule form [see box on p. 5], would be a potent addition to break open and put into the water before the vortex procedure. The electrical energy created by the vortex action will thus colloidalize the minerals making them easy to assimilate. The colloidal minerals and electrically charged water potential make even the most common of waters alive with youth-offering properties. Order the Vortex Kit from New Gaia for $8.

up sent with MWL's letter—not to MWL. I find it interesting that the initials of RLJ are the same as Ronald L. Jackson who has also claimed many connections in these same places around the world. Moreover, perhaps he has them but it doesn't look like you can get past the problems to find out!

Next we have the following: RLJ's client base had grown to approximately 4,000 clients worldwide, each with contracts for transactions of $100 million. Then, "Where is the beef?" Where is all the money? These are outlandish and outrageous numbers which reminds me, again, of RLJ who said he had over a billion subscribers to his newsletter (FAX) and growing. Do you realize that if you had a billion subscribers at only $1.00 per—you have a billion dollars? And if not—how could the phone bills possibly get paid? When numbers are totally absurd how can anyone believe anything else a man tells you? So, the part I'm quite sure you can know is valid is the $2,000 for processing your membership. And therefore, THIS IS WHY I say "be careful". If it feels really good to you and you KNOW what you speak about—fine. It is just that our friends have been stung so much already by so many "takers" as to make every-one quite "gun-shy".

MICHAEL MAHOLY UPDATE

I would also ask that ALL of you readers BE CAREFUL along other lines. I am asked a lot about Michael Maholy and if he is dead or alive, free, or still in prison somewhere, etc, etc, etc. No, he is not in prison; he has been released and as far as we know he is located in Chillicothe, MO. 64601, (609 Polk St.) He is writing and asking funding help from the people who wrote and attended him while in prison. Again, readers, do what you will, but don't, PLEASE, say that I told you to do it. He will tell you the same old story, that "nobody wants to hire a felon," and "...I don't have a car or a ride to get to work..." There is a lot of difference in writing and offering compassion and love to someone who is sharing with us from his own store of experience. It is quite another to fund a guilty party's wishes. Michael Maholy was not some innocent child at play and happened to "get caught" with matches in his hands—the man dealt drugs with the top-bunch of criminals. So, what you do is up to you—but again, be careful what that is because you don't know what may be taking place. And, no, I am not speaking badly of Michael but I object to these people such as Michael, Gunther, Jackson, etc., coming out and hitting on OUR readers just because they have a nice new mailing list.

Let the old buddies support them and then, with a clean slate, come to you and ask to serve—NOT TAKE MORE. I would suggest that when you are told Michael is "back home" (in Missouri???) you might check out who is in Missouri because our prior recognition was that Maholy was from the area around ARKANSAS. All that I am asking you readers is to use discretion and discernment.

I am also asked "How did you (we) get hooked up with Maholy in the first place?" Through Betty who is now married to Ronn Jackson.

I cannot consider all the "deals" that will be coming your way so please don't ask my comments unless you want TRUTH because I can offer no other and I find such "deals" as this "Trust" highly dangerous, a "suck-in" and can even be a total sting operation just as well as a total "con" game. The people who have "tried" to get this done have had nothing but murderous grief at best, disaster in the courts—IF the stories are true—which they may well be only exaggerated in favor of the poor had-ees. People who break the laws of the LAND are not such helpless parties as at first they appear to be. There are troubles which come and there is NO "reason" for anything but when you are deliberately breaking the regulations and the laws of the land (wrong as they might be) there is NO WAY to fight for your freedom because you KNOWINGLY relinquished it by your own actions. I happen to know things can be changed by doing it within all laws if people would stop the scam operations.

And lastly: a Trust is about the same thing, only not as openly SAFE and sheltering as a corporation. You will never have VALID banks unless they ARE incorporated or in some way set forth for protecting ALL ASSETS of the participating parties.

Next, IF these people are using "Grandma's" Bonus Certificate for this "deal"—I suggest you stop it right now because that one is about used up by the Bush Boys and the New World Order to skive off the U.S.A. Through IT the U.S.A. can be restored and there are BUNCHES of those smaller contracts out there—around the globe. Who goes with independent operations is within Constitutional LAW but, if it rips off even one citizen—it is WRONG! I don't notice that there is any honoring of any CONSTITUTION as constructed at the founding of your nation.

These people learned how to set this up by studying with Schwietzer in Montana (Justus, Mont.) and you will have the same, only far worse, response, I fear. What do you actually "hear" or "know" about those Montana people? I thought not. What about Broderick in Lancaster, Calif.? Ah indeed—what may be right ANYTHING has changed here except that some of our prior "takers" have taken so much that we are much less able to handle guests and certainly there are no funds to pay anyone anything. We have had to cut back on regular workers here—just this month in fact. This is a LITTLE town with very few jobs, so please think carefully about how quickly an attitude can change when your perceptions are not fulfilled to your wishes. We can't change things and we aren't going anywhere so I weary of ones coming here, joining us at their own wishes, and we try to do what we can, and then they turn against us when they don't find it suitable for them or they don't get what they think they should get. I make everyone welcome and I do not intend to change—it is for you to decide what is happening in YOUR WORLD. And, by the way, the ones who claim to be looking the hardest and the LONGEST—are NOT GOING TO FIND IT HERE! You may find it but we find that those who seek and seek and finally think they find—will also find that everything else in the "world" will cause them to "fail" for they really didn't want to find anything but their own pleasure in the first place. Understand something: YOU ARE THE CENTER OF YOUR WORLD.

YOU ARE NOT THE CENTER OF ANYONE ELSE'S WORLD!

Thank you for asking my opinions and please do not be offended when I give them—or, don't ask me, for it brings pain if I come across as disagreeable and my scribe has enough disagreeable things in her life—along with some very disagreeable people as well. We find that when we have been burned once it is an accident—but twice burned by the same stove is foolish—and it causes more caution than might be necessary for the third go at the fire.

Perhaps that "next" banker, worker, business man, fixer, manager, whatever—may well be THE ONE, but alas, so far it has not worked out very well with any of the above! We are NOT a cult, a church, a groupie, or a bunch of idiots. We are about doing some work, making some connections—and nothing more—so we must insist that you not treat us otherwise. We will share EVERYTHING we have with you but we will no longer sit still to be taken advantage of in that sharing mode.

Please understand our own caution for we are about out of bandages for the wounds we have accrued, as people test the water for their own temperature wishes and we are left holding the responsibility of tending the pool. Blessings be upon all of you and may our journeys be shared in the LIGHT OF CREATOR for I will go naught else. Salu.

REALITY CHECK

and lawful—is ILLEGAL IF THE ENFORCERS SAY IT IS ILLEGAL AND CAN BACK IT BY A LAW ON THE BOOKS.

Charges may well be "dropped" with a big bargain to not pursue or do any further with these "deals"—it is up to the individual circumstances and how dangerous you might be to the New World Order. Believe me, there is PLENTY of prison room for Political prisoners.

Now I would ask one more thing from you thinking people—as we near critical time: We again have a few who think just saying "I believe in Hatonn" is somehow a mandatory call for someone here to meet your wishes and wants. We have NOTHING here and our people want to be gracious and, certainly, never rude—but do not ASSUME anything that requires anything from anyone. Our people have all they can handle. Dropping by for a week-end is nice—becoming a live-in is quite another and because it is a special "time" and a bit of a "gathering" is expected, does not mean

Paul The Venetian: Your Innate Creative Expression

Editor's note: The following writing is by the Ascended Master known as Paul The Venetian or Paul The Artist, of the Third Ray or Aspect of Creator's spectrum, among the seven great "Rainbow Masters" who are communicating at this time to help us get through Earth-Shan's planetary transition and rebalancing.

In Journal #7, called THE RAINBOW MASTERS, Paul relates: "It is most difficult to separate we of the Higher Frequencies. We have a thrust, a talent given, if you will, toward focused purposes. As Morya represents most preciousely the 'will' of God, Lanto the 'wisdom' of God — I, Paul, will focus on the element of 'LOVE' and spirit discernment.

"I come on the comfort vibration of what we call the 'pink' frequency. My talents have long been in artistic perceptions and projections....

"Please do not confuse my terminology of love with what thee defines as 'love'. Myself and the brotherhood with whom I serve, of the Third Ray, are not idle dreamers of poetry and sounds of harmonious music. Ah, would it be that it could be so. We are quite pragmatic of the way of the Holy Spirit. It is through the beauty and purity of the Third Ray through which the wondrous qualities of diplomacy, patience, tact, arbitration, unity, brotherhood, culture, beauty and the perfecting of the 'heart' are made manifest."

PAUL THE VENETIAN, THE ARTIST

Greetings, my friend. It is I, Paul the Venetian. I represent the Third Aspect of Creator's spectrum. I come now in the wholeness of His Light to impart my specific message to you ones who need and desire balance.

I am often referred to as "The Artist". This is because my frequency most often is associated with the inner creative urge to express one's emotional state in a physical manner.

This feeling of desire to express is the inner drive that removes one from the limits of time and the restrictions of the third-dimensional compression and propels one to enter into a non-linear, higher-dimensional state of expression. This is why the TRUE artists of your planet are most often viewed as eccentric or are, in general, misunderstood.

Each has their own special talent and ability to express in a creative manner. Most think of an artist as a painter, or a sculptor, or a musician, or a poet.

Let me assure you ones that you ALL have your specialties of expression. For example, what about the machinist who can create a functional tool from a raw piece of steel, or the grocery clerk who stacks the cans in a manner so that they appear more pleasing and neat, or the editing staff who make the headlines look just right.

Ones are constantly and naturally expressing their individuality within the Oneness of Creator's whole idea. Please know that creative expression is as much a part of each person as is logical, analytical reasoning.

Artistic expression, or lack of same, can give you ones insights concerning the ones you are dealing with. It has been said that the mental states of a society are reflected in its artwork.

Let us take a look at a large problem facing you ones: Many of the larger cities are filled with children who are so shut-down emotionally as to be, for all intents and purposes, the walking dead. Even these ones have an urge to express themselves and find a uniqueness if they can.

Look at the graffiti. For the most part it is vulgar slang words without much feeling other than, perhaps, anger. Yet, even among these gang members, there are ones who escape the reality of this life into a subculture where they can express their potential in a manner that can be appreciated.

These are the ones who, with cans of spray paint, create fantastic murals upon the sides of buildings. These murals actually reach through to people who need so desperately to feel the connection to Higher Inspiration. These ones are Light Workers—whether they know it or not.

So be careful in your generalities toward lumping all gang members into the category of being mindless or bad. God will ALWAYS reach through and find a way to touch the Heart of a seeking soul in need. It is His promise and your right!

Each must learn to bring their gifts of expression into this world. Whether it be a new invention, a new song, or even a new way of preparing food, all these creative expressions contribute to the overall quality of life on the planet.

You ones who are constantly trying to find happiness should stop and think for a minute of those things in the past that have made you feel the best. Most often this happens when you are GIVING in some manner. The act of giving opens up energy flows that allow for even more giving (and regiving). Now couple that giving with a personal creative touch that is unique to YOU, and then you shall find the joy you seek, as others benefit from that unique joy you give.

You only need to look within, and express that which you feel in your heart. Express it in your unique manner which speaks it to the world.

If it is pain you feel, then express the pain. Why do you ones appreciate the talented "blues" singers so much? Most often, these ones are highly sensitive people who have endured a lot of pain. Their moving, and often profound, musical sharings are a method they utilize in order to release their pain without having to forget their lessons.

As another example, if you give of yourself through volunteer work, you can perhaps be the person who always has a warm smile to share. Or, you may be the one who gives the encouraging words to others who feel down, yet still show up to do their volunteer work.

There are infinite and subtle ways you ones can give to each other.

And let us not forget laughter. Every souled being appreciates humor in one form or another. The healing properties of laughter are perhaps only secondary to those of love. Ones who can create the conditions that will allow another to find humor, and laugh, are perhaps the most needed ones on the planet, especially in the upcoming times of turbulent change.

Why this message at this time?

You ones are fast approaching a time when the need for unconventional solutions (creative solutions) to problems will be needed. The past ways of doing everyday things will soon be gone. Your very survival may depend upon each person's ability to hear or feel the Creative Nudge that will enable you to survive.

As the famous quote goes, "Necessity is the mother of invention." Perhaps another way of stating this insightful observation is, "Creativity is usually inspired by necessity."

The ones with the "common sense" approach to life are going to be the ones who save the day. Ones may be very well schooled in History, Math and English, but if they cannot function when their electricity goes off or when their supermarkets are empty, then all their education is of no real value.

The farmer, on the other hand, who may only have a high school education, may be called upon to TEACH the ones who do not know how to grow their own fruits and vegetables or raise chickens and such.

Realize, please, that each has their own uniqueness and each is as important as the next. The only difference is in the job that you have come down here to do.

Those who seek glory as their reward shall most often go lacking of fulfillment, for they have surely missed the big picture as to why they are there. These ego-motivated ones are most often the ones who are in constant agony and have great inner personal conflict. These ones, however, can still exploit good ideas and spread them far and wide. Thus recognize that they, too, serve a productive role and purpose in the overall scheme of things.

These ego-driven ones, however, go through life not realizing that their pain is due to the higher self doing battle with that ego. In this case, the soul's creative energies are being utilized in a manner which create the conditions most beneficial to the growth of the being. This is why these ones often seem to be challenged with great personal conflicts.

Consider the example of a marriage plagued by conflict and dispute. When these ones finally learn the lessons they have come down to learn, they will realize that their life has transformed away from the drain of inner emotional conflict and moved toward the balance which comes from inner peace.

For some, they never handle the problem in one lifetime. It may simply take several lives to handle a particularly difficult problem. However, when ones finally do overcome the challenges of this life, they come out of the situation stronger and have, in the process, created a more balanced condition for themselves in which to express. They have, in effect, cleared out a lot of the garbage, thus creating more mental space or "headroom" in which to operate. This equates to a greater ability to express the Higher Creative Potential within.

Welcome this life's challenges and find (create) a way to overcome that which pulls on your heart. Know that you grow as a being every time you truly overcome a problem. Know also that the higher self (the soul you) is constantly creating conditions that will allow you to grow. Stop repeating the same old ways of handling those inner problems and find (create) a new way of coping with the challenges. This is the fastest way to freeing self up so that you can truly enjoy this life's expression.

Thank you for taking the time to read this message of inspired, Lighted truth. May this message resonate with understanding within your heart and mind.

Blessings to you all and may you create a better, more Lightened (Light-filled) world in which to express.

I am Paul the Venetian, the Artist, come in the Radiance of the One Light. Salu.

Signs & Designs Of The New World Order

8/16/96 #1 HATONN

WHAT SONG DID YOU CHOOSE?

Dharma chose her song for today to be a mixture of Whistle A Happy Tune and You'll Never Walk Alone. There is a theory being that if you whistle a happy tune you will probably catch some company on the way. Everybody has enough misery of their own!

My own heart wants to say special things today, New Year's Eve—but my RESPONSIBILITY claims first place in the current flow of happenings. You are now on the brink of full takeover of the New World Order under United Nations Rule. And, along those lines some of you older friends will remember a logo saying, "I would rather be dead than Red." I bring this up because what is taking over your world is that same Beast in different clothing calling itself the Lamb of Freedom. How can you KNOW that the U.N. is in power? I want to take a minute here to remind you of U.N. regulations. Not only is it in the U.N. Charter as to who heads the World Army but the Soviets are already occupying the U.S.A. and Mexico. There is a little difference in Canada but very little—because of the closer attachment to the throne of England as with New Zealand and Australia. And, if you think Africa is somehow FREE—forget it.

What do I plan to do to change things? Nothing! I wouldn't SAVE anything if I could! Why? Because it is not my business to force change upon anything—especially my fellow travelers. If you ASK in such a way, for assistance without limiting our ability to respond, we DO. I can point out possibilities and tell of probabilities while urging you to heed some input and seize opportunities which COULD change the world—but otherwise, YOU have to do it, take the challenges and the opportunities and run that race.

What will the politicians do? Well, they have been "offered". They have each been given information, copies of contracts and valid certificates and we shall see who controls them—really. These political leaders can turn around the world and finance it without necessity of any public input—and, seize the moment of GREATNESS. Ah, but will they?

How do you know the possibilities are actually probabilities? Well, here is one little bitty confirmation: The packet and CLAIM placed against the Fed. Reserve in San Francisco was returned WITH A BIG NASTY LETTER UP FRONT FROM THE HEAD OF THE LEGAL DEPARTMENT. HE WAS NASTY, ACCUSATIVE, AND TOTALLY INFORMING OF THE VALIDITY OF THE CLAIM. He further warned that NO FURTHER CORRESPONDENCE FROM THIS SOURCE WOULD EVEN BE ACKNOWLEDGED! Fine, I hope you nice people act ACCORDINGLY and send his message and copies of everything to home offices of the Fed—and to the Government and figure a way to lodge a complaint with the World Bank(s), etc. GET IT RECORDED PUBLICLY.

Put a PUBLIC NOTICE of the failure to even acknowledge the material in as many places as you find print space. The man says the Feds in San Francisco wouldn't have anything to do with it even if it were REAL. Say what? THEY ARE IN THIS DISTRICT AND THAT IS ESTABLISHED BY THEIR OWN FELLOW BULLIES. I certainly do suggest that YOU make that man's name live in infamy along with the other attorney traitors who will be responding—IF THERE IS A RESPONSE AT ALL.

So, back to Earth and out of the Pits, it must be a time of reminding and REMEMBERING. AND a time of using wisdom in your responses while never REACTING in haste and foolish false patriotism of personal EGO ATTACKS.

We have a "reminder" some nice reader sent from the infamous Internet and you might well choose to consider this message very, very carefully and you will quit asking, "Why are the Russians here with their equipment and men?" For one thing, a couple of years ago there was a "joint venture" agreement made to cross-train soldiers, utilize U.S. bases for training and on and on—so YOU-THE-PEOPLE wouldn't notice and/or would think it really a nice gesture after that nasty old Cold War.

Well, in addition, crack SWAT teams and police departments all around your nation—swapped personnel. In other words, even little Tehachapi and KERN COUNTY (Calif.) exchanged MANY police and sheriff's personnel. It was a big deal in a major "love-in" type of presentation to you sleepy people. [Please don't choose the song of the day to be "Just Two SLEEPY People..."] These are the final mind-control tools to lull you into awakening too late to change a thing. You will also be reminded that there are many "weapons" of WAR and most of them you know nothing about—but it won't be won or lost this time with pop-guns or even "automatic" gunfire. With this in mind let us quote:

August 13, 1996

[H: Please don't forget that on July 4th, 1976 it was decided by the Elite New World Order that 1996 would be a target year for the major changes which will allow for the final five-year THRUST to a working TAKE-OVER in the U.S.A. Remember that Plan 2000 is to be in working ORDER by year 2000 and in total operation by 2001 with worldwide integration.]

THE NEW WORLD ORDER INTELLIGENCE UPDATE

<http://www.inforamp.net/~jwhitley>

THE NEW WORLD ARMY
MUST ALWAYS BE HEADED BY A RUSSIAN

(Permission to ref-post unedited is hereby granted.)

When Alger Hiss [later convicted and executed as a Soviet spy] set up the U.N. with his U.S. State Department colleagues, they established the U.N. DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL AND SECURITY AFFAIRS, which would have jurisdiction over ALL future U.N. MILITARY OPERATIONS. Written into the fine print of the rules and regulations which govern the U.N. is the rule that the head of this U.N. Department will always be a soviet citizen, military officer, or person designated by the SOVIETS. This has been the case for the past 47 years, with the following 14 Communists having chaired that vital U.N. Post since 1946:

1944-49 Arkady Sobolev
 1949-53 Konstantin Zinchenko
 1953-54 Ilya Tehemychev
 1954-57 Dragosiav Protitch
 1960-62 Georgy Arkadev
 1962-63 E.D. Kiselyv
 1963-65 V.P. Suslov
 1965-68 Alexei E. Nesterenko
 1968-73 Leonid N. Kutakov
 1973-78 Arkady N. Shevchenko
 1978-81 Mikkhail D. Sytenko
 1981-86 Viacheslav A. Ustinov
 1987-90 Vasily S. Safronchuk

All were Soviet citizens. If you think that "Communism is dead", you're in for a rude awakening! The names and faces have changed—not the politicians, parties, military hierarchies OR the vast Russian expenditures on military weaponry and material. And if you think that the U.N. ARMY will be benign, you'll quickly reconsider when foreign U.N. troops under, ultimately, Russian command are drafted into your neighborhood to suppress dissent or "restore order" under the New World Order! They'll be ARMED, and YOU won't.

So you think that this is fanciful? Read this UPI news item, which appeared on September 8, 1993: RUSSIAN-AMERICAN DEFENSE AGREEMENT CALLS FOR JOINT MANEUVERS

WASHINGTON: The United States and Russia signed an agreement Wednesday on military cooperation that provides for joint military maneuvers by the two former Cold War foes.

The Russian Defense Minister, General of the Army Pavel Grachev, who is visiting Washington, signed the memorandum of understanding with Defense Secretary Les Aspin at a Pentagon ceremony.

The agreement calls for the two sides to hold joint maneuvers that practice peacekeeping techniques.

The agreement also calls for annual meetings between Grachev and Aspin and their successors, exchanges between the chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and his Russian counterpart and a bilateral defense working group to formulate projects of Russian-American defense.

"This ceremony demonstrates again that the relationship between our two countries is undergoing historic transformation," Aspin said.

"As President Clinton and President Yeltsin said at their Vancouver summit meeting," he said, "we are establishing a strategic partnership." "It is a partnership in which military and defense relations play a leading role."

"Russia places its highest priority on its cooperation with the United States," Grachev said, "We promise to do all in our power... to realize this agreement."

The Russian-American ground maneuvers will train the two sides in peacekeeping techniques. The first units to participate will be the U.S. 3rd Mechanized Infantry Division and the Russian 27th Motorized Rifle.

Both division commanders, U.S. Maj. Gen. Leonard Holder, Jr. and Russian Maj. Gen. Anatoly Sidiyakin, were on hand for the Pentagon ceremony.

"Our two commanders, right after the signing of this agreement, will sit down at a table and start working out a whole series of steps to make this all happen," Grachev said.

Both Grachev and Aspin said they wanted to establish a "hotline" between their respective defense establishments although provision for that was not actually in the agreement they signed.

In addition to joint peacekeeping exercises, the memorandum calls for annual meetings between Aspin and Grachev and their successors, exchanges between the chairman of the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff and his Russian counterpart and a bilateral working group to think up more projects for Russian-American military cooperation. [H: Still think Colin Powell is such hot stuff?]

No date or place for the first joint Russian-American ground maneuver has yet been set.

Pressed on whether the exercise would be held this year, Grachev noted that the planning time needed for maneuvers of so large a scale would mean that if so, it would probably have to start during the [?]

"The 3rd Division commander," he joked, "said if it's OK with them, we can go to Siberia and hold them there."

[END OF QUOTING]

I think this is enough to give you the picture clearly enough. Readers and Citizens (of the world), YOU cannot have any idea of the magnitude of the manipulations which have occurred in SECRET PLACES to bring you to TODAY! You are now in the final stages of the completion of the prophecies which would bring you under TOTAL CONTROL. If the Order controls everything from your Religious and Spiritual beliefs, your economies, your caretakers, i.e., Justice Departments and Legal entities and Medical Agencies—it goes right on down the line to FAMINE, PESTILENCE, INABILITY TO OBJECT AND THUS AND SO. YOU HAVE ALREADY HAD YOUR CONSTITUTION SET ASIDE AND IT WAS DONE QUITE "LEGALLY" EVEN IF "UNLAWFULLY". SO, WHO IS GOING TO GET IT BACK FOR YOU?—FOR YOU HAVE LOST YOUR 'FORCE' WHICH MAKES COMPLIANCE A REALITY. FORCE WILL NOT CHANGE THE WORLD—TRUTH AND GODLY RESPONSE CAN DO SO. SO, WHERE WILL YOU BE? WITH YOUR POP GUNS OR YOUR TRUTH IN STANCE AND ACTION?

Premarin: Prescription For Animal Cruelty

"When you see a colt being born and you have to destroy it...it's rough because they're babies. I just didn't think it was right." — Ollie Bracken, Retired PMU Farmer

This year, approximately 75,000 mares will be impregnated and confined in cramped stalls so their estrogen-rich urine can be collected for use in a drug called Premarin. In the spring, the mares will give birth to foals, most of whom will be killed before their first birthday.

Premarin is made from pregnant mare's urine, and its production results in misery and death for tens of thousands of horses and foals every year. To produce Premarin, pregnant mares are fitted with rubber collection bags and tied up in cement-floored stalls measuring just 3 1/2 to 5 feet wide and 8 feet long.

For six months, while their bodies are producing the most estrogen, these mares are unable to take more than a step or two in any direction, turn around, or even lie down comfortably. Lameness often develops. So that they can be put right back into production the next winter, the mares are reimpregnated seven to nine days after giving birth.

Within a few months they are separated from their foals and put back on the "pee line". Fertile mares may go through this same grueling cycle year in and year out, some for more than 20 years.

At the tender age of four months, the foals—all but a few kept for stud or to replace worn-out mares—are sold for slaughter.

When mares become old, infertile, or crippled, they, too, are auctioned off to butchers.

In 1993, about 75,000 mares throughout Canada and North Dakota were confined for urine collection, and the number is expected to triple in the next few years. Wyeth-Ayerst, the maker of Premarin, is already preparing for an expansion of its facilities in Manitoba with $20 million in aid from the Canadian government.

Premarin is the ONLY menopause drug still made with animal-derived estrogen. Safe, effective synthetic and plant-derived alternatives are available. Won't you make the switch?

WHAT YOU CAN DO:

•Share this information with your family, friends, and doctor. If you are currently seeking hormone replacement therapy, ask your physician to prescribe one of the synthetic estrogens, such as Estradiol Transdermal System, Estradiol tablets, Estropipate, and Estrone. Natural remedies, such as plant progesterone and dietary changes, can also be effective.

•Write to Robert Essner, President, Wyeth-Ayerst Laboratories, P.O. Box 8299, Philadelphia, PA 19101, or call 1-800-666-7248 to voice your protest.

•Write to Minister Lloyd Axworthy, Department of Western Diversification, House of Commons, 418-M Center Block, Ottawa, Ontario KIA OA6, and to The Honorable Gary Filmon, Premier of Manitoba, 450 Broadway, Winnipeg, Manitoba R3C OV8, to protest the government's funding of Wyeth-Ayerst's expansion.

Kern County Judicial System

Ekkers' Trial Postponed

An Editorial Commentary

8/7/96 RICK MARTIN

After eight long years of sacrifice, discovery, depositions, stress, tears, and waiting (a long time in anyone's life), the final moment of truth had finally arrived. All discovery was completed. All motions had been disposed of, favorably toward the issue of going to trial. All witnesses had been subpoenaed and the attorney was ready to go.

Over the last two days I've been sitting in a Kern County courtroom witnessing what would take place with the long awaited Doris & EJ Ekker case. This case, as most CONTACT readers are by now aware, concerns the non-sale of the Ekker home, which was then taken by Santa Barbara Savings & Loan, and later, the Resolution Trust Corporation. That much is history. This present case holds accountable those individuals who conspired to keep the non-sale "secret", and thus kept the property in the hands of the bankers.

How can I accurately describe what I've witnessed these last two days and not be held for libel? In what manner may words find expression to frame the level of frustration, confusion, abstraction at a system designed to be hidden from John Q public? How is it that a complex case such as this one, by the time it goes to trial, becomes so whittled down as to be but a tiny fragment of the true picture?

Perhaps Eustace Mullins said it best, "We must be aware of what has happened to our legal guarantees which were written down in our Constitution. We must be able to challenge the stealthy takeover of our judicial system by furtive conspirators, hiding behind international allegiances of the law merchant, the Star Chamber procedures of the equity courts, and the secret fraternal associations which dictate judicial decisions diabolically opposed to the interests of our citizens and our nation."

The Ekkers have fought long and hard to "get a hearing in court"—to be ruled upon by a jury. The only thing was, when I went to Department 7 on Monday, Judge Wallace's court, I was told that the Ekker case would be heard downstairs in Department 11. Downstairs in the dark basement quarters of the Bakersfield halls of justice. This proved to be highly symbolic. In fact, there were several people in the courtroom waiting for this case to be called. Among them, Leon Fort and Betty Tuten. Interesting. But back to the subject at hand. How was it that Judge Wallace passed off the Ekker case onto a NEW judge, one not familiar with the, literally, boxes upon boxes upon boxes of legal documents filed in this case. Who is Judge Sidney P. Chapin and what circumstances existed to create the scenario of Chapin hearing this case? How will he view this case?

Stunned by the sudden change in courtrooms and judges, I found myself off-center as I waited to observe the next development.

Mr. Horn, in typical fashion, revived a previously-filed motion in limine, that had been decided against him by Judge Wallace.

A Motion in Limine is defined as: "a pretrial motion requesting court to prohibit opposing counsel from referring to or offering evidence on matters so highly prejudicial to moving party that curative instructions cannot prevent predispositional effect on jury." I hope that cleared it up for you.

The only problem is, if the judge ruled in favor of attorney Horn's Motion in Limine, the net effect was that there wouldn't be a jury trial. And that is exactly what happened.

With obtuse words such as Res Judicata, Estoppel, and Collateral Estoppel bandied about like it was nothing out of the ordinary; left in the dust of such confounding and baffling interchange by legal counsel, those on this side of the bar tried their best to just "keep up"—to no avail. Out of the blue, Judge Chapin pronounces a prevailing legal principle which applies to this case, namely Common Law Retraxit. Definition? "A retraxit is a voluntary renunciation by plaintiff in open court of his suit and cause thereof, and by it plaintiff forever loses his action." Say what? The judge repeatedly used this term countless times, regardless of input to the contrary from Ekkers' counsel, Brad Ellie. Interestingly enough, however, California is not a common law state.

After withdrawing to "chambers" for a time, both sides withdrew knowing the outcome. The judge was absolutely convinced that Retraxit applied to these parties, even though they were not named parties in the prior action.

Judge Chapin was very clear. He listened carefully to both sides (even though his mind was clearly made up from the beginning), and allowed the attorneys from both sides to speak fully.

Call it "luck of the Ekkers". His ruling stood—Horn's motion was granted. The Ekker trial was now off. If it went the routing of appeal, a possible trial date would be about ten months out. It was agreed by all sides that Ekkers would file a Writ, and failing that, would appeal to the Appellate court.

In his book And Justice For None, Jerry Spence writes, "Clarence Darrow was right. Justice cannot be defined. And to the same extent that justice cannot be defined, neither can it be realized. Yet is not our great challenge to form a system that harmonizes such noble ideals as forgiveness with such a human impulse as revenge? At the heart of justice is a divine spirit. It sprouts from the same seeds as life itself. And although we can define neither life nor justice, we are able to recognize injustice, the supreme form of which is to surrender to the status quo and to sanctify the myths and fantasies that breed it, among which is the national legend that in America there is liberty and justice for all."

Horn was gloating in his victory, and for obvious reasons. This cash cow would keep on producing—Horn's money machine was still in motion.

Already the legal investigators have located more than sufficient grounds to overturn Chapin's ruling. But, the damage is done. And, as is so common with the adversary, delays have been accomplished. So what else is new?

While this seems like the never ending story, for sure, this story is to be continued...

People Who Have Died Since Bill Clinton Took Office Who Are Of Interest

Editor's note: In conjunction with our Front Page story this week, plus the recent curious downing of Clinton's "body guard" plane near Jackson Hole, Wyoming, plus the Ron Brown plane crash earlier this year, plus many other mysterious casualties in Clinton's orbit, we have decided to rerun the following list which is an excerpt from the 4/19/94 issue of CONTACT for your contemplation.

4/13/96 #1 HATONN

So what happens to ones who "know something"? Well, it is pretty simple—suicide them. We have here a paper which was sent which was put together by Chuck Harder (radio) with Linda Thompson and we offer it to you readers as you might well find it quite interesting.

[QUOTING:]

PEOPLE WHO HAVE DIED SINCE BILL CLINTON TOOK OFFICE WHO ARE OF INTEREST

1. July 30, 1992, Victor Razor, 52, Alaska, Nat'l financial Co-chairman of Clinton Campaign, and his son, Montgomery Razor, 22, also very active in the campaign, were both killed in a private plane crash in Dillingham, Alaska. [H: Perhaps it is wise that George Green didn't take the job of financial chairman for the Carter campaign as he claimed he was asked to do. It seems the Carters and the Clintons are relatively unsafe PARTNERS.]

2. September, 23, 1992, Little Rock, Ark. Paul Culley, a Clinton campaign aide, Democratic Nat'l Committee political director. He was the architect of Clinton's strategy which allowed him to be competitive in the electoral voting. He was found dead in his hotel room of unknown causes. He was 48. Heart attack speculation. But nothing known.

3. Dec. 9, 1992, Monticello, Ark., Paula Gilbert, 36, travelled with Clinton as governor and during campaign. She was killed in a one car accident and the police said there were no witnesses and no reason for the accident.

4. Dec. 21, 1992, Aspen, Colo., Jim Willhite, Arkla executive, 54. He was a close friend and bus. assoc. of White House Chief of Staff and a friend of Clinton. He supposedly ran into a tree while skiing and died. Mat McCarty used to work with Clinton at the Rose Law Firm along with Bubble and Hillary. McCarty was the last person to speak to Jim W. and was also an executive of Arkla, a multi-state natural gas co. and had dealings with the same banks that are now being investigated in Ark.

5. Bonn, Germany. Major General Jarrett J. Robertson, 52, deputy Commanding General of V Corps died when his UH-60 Blackhawk 'copter crashed as it tried to land at Weisbaden, Germany, Air Base. Also killed was William J. Ginsburg (chief of ops), Col. Robert Kelly (chief of intelligence), and crew chief Gary Rhodes. Robertson was responsible for the First Armored Division which played a key role in the Bosnia peace-keeping plan along with the carrier Roosevelt. He was an opponent of the Bosnia "plan". Several people that are dead were Clinton's escorts on the carrier, the only time he was there. Five people are dead who were associated with Clinton's only visit to that carrier—his escorts and the people involved with the planning of the troop movements. Five of the escorts, Navy aviators, were killed when their ETUC Hawkeye early-warning plane crashed into the sea. They were waved off because of a supposedly rough sea and pitching deck and then "somehow" crashed.

6. 4 agents killed in the Waco tragedy were Clinton's bodyguards: Conway, Bleu, McKeen and DeWillis. They often use ATF agents as bodyguards during campaigns. All of these were out of the Little Rock, Ark. area, and had guarded Clinton when he was Gov.

Each of these agents had one wound to the left temple that blew out the back side of their heads, just like an execution. Each one of them had an identical wound to the left temple.

7. 4 presidential helicopter crewmen, Marines, Sgt. Hainey, 32, Major Barclay, Sgt. Sable, Capt. Reynolds. These 4 did not usually fly together. They were the four that flew Clinton TO the carrier Roosevelt.

8. June 22, 1993, Paul Wilcher, DC lawyer who was investigating many of the same things that Linda Thompson was investigating. He had talked to the same people. And people who talked to him then sought her out. Some of these were gov't. agents and not very good guys. He also talked to a producer who also talked to Linda T. He was found in his apartment, no known cause of death. He had written a 99-page letter to Janet Reno some 3 weeks earlier detailing CIA drug running, mind control used on Branch Davidians. He was concerned about the death of reporter D. Casolaro, who was investigating the theft of a computer program [INSLAW] by the Department of Justice. He was also murdered but not in relation to the Clinton body count. [H: Forget this old hog-wash. And someday, some of the self-styled reporters are going to realize WE DO HAVE information which might save them egg-covered faces. Gunther Russbacher had just sent [to Wilcher] a full set of disclosure tapes, video tapes, etc., of the Bush escapades—and they certainly DID relate to the drug trade, CIA involvement and other "goodies". This was a close personal friend, as well, of Russbacher.]

9. In July 1993, the death of Vincent Foster. [H: ALL the representations of Foster's death are erroneous except the one offered right in CONTACT by one who KNEW the details right from the horse's (gunman's) mouth.] {See the 7/27/93 and 3/22/94 issues of CONTACT.}

10. The Health Reform Committee Chairman and its attorney. Stanley Heard, a chiropractor from Hot Springs, Ark. had met Clinton playing pinball years ago. Steve Dixon, the lawyer, was the advisor on the health reform issues. Both were killed on a plane. The men had rented a plane which developed mechanical problems on the way to DC. They rented another one in St. Louis and it crashed. Shortly after takeoff he said there was a fire on board; that was the last heard. You have to work to crash a small plane in such circumstances.

11. Nov. 30, 1993, Ed Willy, Clinton fund raiser, a prominent real estate lawyer and land developer, a hunter, sportsman. He was found dressed in a suit in the deep woods with no suicide note. He had a "self-inflicted" gunshot wound to the head just like V. Foster's. His wife works regularly for Hillary. He had substantial debts for some time and the news connected these two items as excuse for his "suicide". This is not true.

12. Hershel Friday, an attorney from Little Rock, Ark. He too had been a Clinton fund raiser. He was killed in a single-engine plane accident. Details not known.

13. Jerry Parks, Clinton's director of security in Ark. He was found dead, riddled with bullets, alongside a road in Jacksonville, Ark. Suicide? How did he shoot himself multiple times? [Same "inconvenience" as Vincent Foster case in #9 above.] There was some effort on follow-up to make it appear to be a random-crime shooting.

So there appear to have been at least 29 confirmed deaths with 12 of those being Clinton's body guards.

[END OF QUOTING]

Thank you, Chuck and Linda.

As you may be aware, C.A.L.L. and the Committee of 1776 are presently organizing America's largest Patriot's March and Rally in Washington, D.C. on Labor Day Weekend. This peaceful demonstration of all concerned Americans, will feature a freedom concert and special guest speakers. Your organization and all members of your coalition are cordially invited. It will be our pleasure and pride to introduce a selected representative of your choice from your coalition, and to introduce and honor your group efforts to save America from the loss of Constitutional freedoms and individual rights.

This will be the greatest ground swell of Patriotic Americans. Help us "IGNITE THE SPIRIT" for "ONE MOMENT IN TIME.

All the serious points of concern are slowly surfacing across the country!

This event will ignite the major exposure of all our concerns to a "sleeping Giant." We look forward to your participation and America's recognition of your wonderful efforts!

If your coalition of like minded participants would like to help this great cause, please contact us. We look forward to as many of your members or supporters to join us at this exciting non-racial, nonpartisan, and non-bias Liberty Rally of Americans, for Americans, by Americans! Sponsor a charter bus to this historical Rally with a message! It's a great fund-raiser for your organization.

This is a C.A.L.L. to restore America's promised future for our children - Let us stand together! Without publicity a terrible thing happens... nothing! "

Please include this information in your next publication, on your hot-line, BBS, fax, mail, and distribute etc- This is the 11th Hour! Time is of the essence! Help Spread the word! Call the Radio Talk shows and announce the Rally! Send the press release to the media!

C.A.L.L., Citizens Against Legal Loopholes, is centered around the First Amendment to peacefully assemble and petition the government for redress of grievance. C.A.L.L. has served an Actual Constructive Notice and Demand to Congress (all legal documents and information are included in the book, Ignite the Spirit "THE PLAN" Available from The Free American.

On Saturday, August 31, on the Capitol Mall in Washington D.C. there will be a FREEDOM CONCERT with an ALL STAR jam session with members of the Steve Miller Band, Lynard Skynard, Carl Klang, Steve Vaus, Barry Weinstein, Dave Riddell and a host of other talented performers, celebrating the Constitution. They will entertain you under a star spangled sky, where you, your friends and your families hearts will fill with love of country.

On Sunday, September 1, all day long, you will be able to hear your favorite speakers (from all spectrums). They all have one thing in common — restoring the Constitution and our unalienable Rights.

We cannot impress upon you enough, our fellow Americans, how truly important this Rally is to the future of our nation. It's for all the wonderful Americans who have investigated and exposed the activities of our present political system, and awakened millions of previously uneducated Americans as to what direction our country is going.

Many rumors about the Terrorist Bill and others are spreading, but we must stand strong. Remember: there is strength in numbers. All those with BRAVEHEARTS must step forward for this peaceful Rally, guaranteed by our First Amendment protected right to assemble.

And there is more great news! Progress is being made. On March 21, 1996, California state senator Don Rogers introduced SJR 43. This resolution will memorialize the President and the Congress of the United States to take specific action in regard to terminating the emergency powers, which permits the federal government to rule the country without reference to normal Constitutional processes." SJR 43 calls for a plan to restore the American system of economic independence set forth in the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution.

"Without publicity a terrible thing happens... nothing!"

Let's get the word out. Please call in to Radio Talk Shows and mention the Rally! We can and will wake up America to the truth.
