SICKNESS—AND YOU!

Even the "Bic C" (cancer) is a very natural cell mutation gone crazy.

Readers, please understand that when I turn my full attention to things regarding YOUR health, it is SERIOUS BUSINESS. I can offer you help and insightful understanding but neither I, nor mine, can do more. As you are finding things which assist as tools in healing, or cutting down microbes which attack a body, it has to be realized that, because the items have been recognized prior to now as being useful, they are taken from you as to legal acquisition of same. Even now as the microbes offered for your "personal buffet" of intake increase in numbers and virility, some of our own offerings will have to be increased in amounts and you have to "shift" about to determine which substance to intake to effectively blast out the numbers of invaders to a non-lethal level while the body takes control and negates the remaining buggers.

And furthermore, it is all but impossible to manage the simple shipping restrictions which now apply to anything, inclusive of literature, crossing

FIRE FROM THE SKY, PART VI
The Killing Continues

by Calvin Burgin

JOHN MARK DEUTCH

Harold Brown, the Bolshevik Zionist Secretary of Defense under (actually over) President Carter, had a second in command, right-hand-man named William Perry. Perry has a right-hand-man named John Deutch, who is now the head of the CIA. Deutch was sworn in as the Director of Central Intelligence on May 10, 1995, by a vote of 98-0 in the Senate, which says a lot about our Senate.

Deutch is a multi-millionaire and is involved with many defense and technology companies. He has been involved in many questionable and outright illegal practices. Some of the frauds are well known by some, but who is going to cross Deutch?

We have a Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the highest ranking military man in the country, who was born in Russia and cannot speak good English. Now we have a head of the CIA and fast becoming head of ALL intelligence groups, who is also foreign born.

John Mark Deutch was born in Brussels, Belgium on July 27, 1938. His dad was Michael Joseph Deutsch (original spelling) and mother Rachel Fisher. Arab diplomats at the UN have stated that his appointment as director of the Central Intelligence Agency is "a very major step in the Zionist lobby's campaign to take full control of...the U.S. intelligence community." Deutsch/Deutch's grandfather was a diamond dealer who ran the Zionist Federation of Belgium and was a close friend of Chaim Weizmann. Deutch works closely with the Israeli Mossad and with the Jewish terrorist groups Tagar, Betar, and ADL, or perhaps I should say, they work with him. At age 22

Deutsch was recruited by Lt. Col. Edward G. Lansdale as a CIA operative and he later worked with Robert McNamara and Harold Brown. Deutsch/Deutch is a committed, lifelong Zionist and feels that "joint operations shared by the CIA and the Mossad are his most dependable projects" (such as, according to some, the Oklahoma City federal building bombing, the bombing of the World Trade Center, and such). Spotlight newspaper of Oct. 23, 1995, says a former colleague of Deutch on the faculty of MIT said: "Intelligence operations financed by the CIA and run by Israeli agents have essential characteristics that are appealing to Deutch right now. For one thing, they have a special, ultra-secret classification." Deutch recently visited his aunt and other relatives in Israel. The Zionist press expressed great satisfaction that Deutch was Jewish and that he was firing all intelligence heads that were not Jews or "Israel-firsters" and replacing them with his own people.

Here are some other quotes about Deutch:

Secretary Perry said, "I know he will excel as my right hand, managing the day-to-day activities of the department" (while Deutch was assistant Secretary of Defense).

"New Masters for military spies? Panel seeks to put Pentagon intelligence under CIA control" (Army Times, March 18, 1996, p. 32). The article says the panel, chaired by Harold Brown and Warren Rudman, want the other intelligence agencies reassigned to work under the CIA. A cabinet rank position was created for Deutch.

Parade Magazine, November 19, 1995, promoted Deutch as the "CIA's Last, Best Hope." "Three months after taking office, Deutch completed his sweep of all eight top agency executives. In replacing them, however, he was unable to fulfill an early promise—to bring in a new generation of managers. To head the troubled Directorate of Operations, for instance, he named David Cohen, a 30-year veteran analyst from the Directorate of Intelligence." Rats.

He placed Nora Slatkin in the post of executive director, in charge of running the day-to-day operations. Deutch was chosen by Arlen Specter and Harold Brown, both also Jews, to take charge of all the intelligence services and they are backing him in his takeover. Those who object, such as former CIA director William Colby, who fired James Jesus Angleton (head of the CIA's Mossad desk—or more accurately, the Mossad's head of the CIA), are being removed.

A Zionist coup began (if you want to pick a starting point) when Israeli Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion issued the order to kill John F. Kennedy to the Mossad assassination chief Yitzhak Shamir, who passed on the order to kill Kennedy to the Mishpucka chief Meyer Lansky and pals Santo Trafficante, Carlos Marcello, Johnny Roselli, and Sam Giancana. However, the Israeli Prime Minister is a puppet just like the American President, and pulling his strings were others which involve the Secret Service, the CIA, big business (Perminex, Brown Bros., Bechtel, etc.) and more. A good source for information on these suppressed details are the books by Michael Collins Piper, Final Judgment and Default Judgment. The coup is currently hammering the final nails into the coffin of our freedom. The Jewish Week, July 21, 1995, said Clinton's administration is "setting records for the number of Jews in high-level positions."

In the 1960s, the Rockefellers were identified as the "top dogs" pulling the strings behind the scenes, then they were replaced by "Communists," and now the Jewish Zionists are eliminating their competition for king-of-the-hill. This is somewhat of an oversimplification of a much more complicated scenario.

Deutch and Perry fired the Director and Deputy Director of the National Reconnaissance Office, Jeffrey K. Harris and Jimmie D. Hill. They put Keith Hall in charge. Aviation Week & Space Technology, March 4, 1996, p. 28, said: "The new acting NRO chief, Keith Hall is a protege of Deutch and a point man in the DIC's efforts to make the intelligence community leaner and more responsive." The article mentioned that Arlen Specter had put pressure on Deutch to make "heads roll".

Unclassified, the quarterly publication of the Association of National Security Alumni, expressed concern over Deutch's appointment because, among other reasons, a "Clinton anti-terrorist executive order gives new extra-legal powers to intelligence agencies."

The Gulf War veterans opposed Deutch as Director of Central Intelligence. Charles Sheehan-Miles, executive director of the Gulf War Veterans of Massachusetts, distributed the following to members of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence at a hearing on the confirmation of John Deutch as director of the Central Intelligence Agency, (quoting:)

Deputy Secretary of Defense John Deutch, President Clinton's nominee for Director of Central Intelligence, has placed the lives and health of thousands of veterans at risk through a four-year cover-up which he led, by obstructing investigations and keeping vital documents classified and by lying to the public and the Congress. Secretary Deutch should not be confirmed as Director of Central Intelligence until this issue is resolved.

For four years the Department of Defense, with Secretary Deutch as their point-man, has maintained a cover-up of chemical weapons exposures in the Persian Gulf War. He assumed responsibility for this issue within the DoD by writing, "The Department of Defense is committed to identifying all information pertaining to the health problems of Operation Desert Storm veterans... Continued classification will require my approval." While he claims the DoD is committed to identifying this information, he has refused to cooperate with Congressional committees investigating the issue. Recently his spokeswoman told a newspaper reporter that Secretary Deutch was too busy to respond to allegations that he has placed the lives of Gulf War veterans at jeopardy.

Secretary Deutch has ordered that he must be the approval authority for any classified documents, implying that these documents will be released. However, thousands of records which may show why Gulf War veterans are sick and dying remain classified. Others have turned up missing, and in some cases the DoD claims they have been destroyed. Many others have vital information blacked out or missing.

Deutch has repeatedly lied to Congress and the public. In a recent national television interview, he stated that every single one of the thousands of chemical alarms which sounded in the desert were false alarms. Further, he has claimed that not only were no coalition troops injured by chemical weapons, but that the Iraqis had no chemical weapons in the Kuwait Theater of Operations. However, dozens of Defense Department documents show that these statements simply are not true. These documents include:

- Deutch's own testimony during a November 10, 1993 unclassified briefing for members of the US Senate. John Deutch said that the Department of Defense was withholding classified information on the exposure of U.S. Forces in the Persian Gulf War to biological materials.

- Logs from the 24th Infantry Division which indicate that chemical weapons were discovered inside the KTO.

- Czech reports that chemical weapons were present in the fallout from coalition bombing.

- An official USMC history which shows the exposure of two armored vehicle crewmen to mustard gas. British and American reports which have documented a 250-gallon container of mustard gas in Kuwait City.

- The Central Command NBC (Nuclear, Biological, Chemical) log which notes a number of incidents of exposure, both by fallout from coalition bombing and direct Iraqi Scud missile attack.

- An internal DoD memorandum from Major General Ronald Blanck concluding that chemical weapons were present in low concentration on the battlefield.

- A report written and authenticated by Colonel Michael Dunn, a DoD chemical weapons expert, concluding that a Third Armored Division soldier had been injured by mustard gas.

Finally, according to the Associated Press in an article released yesterday, the Central Intelligence Agency is currently conducting an investigation into the possibility that Gulf War veterans were exposed to chemical weapons. Such an investigation would be seriously impeded by Deutch's confirmation, as any investigation would include his role in covering up the exposures.

According to the Department of Veterans Affairs over 2600 Gulf War veterans are now dead. Tens of thousands have sought treatment for their illnesses, and they cannot get that treatment because Deputy Secretary Deutch and the Department of Defense continue to lie about what happened in the Persian Gulf War. Deutch has led a massive cover-up of chemical weapons sightings and injuries in the Gulf. He has obstructed attempts to investigate the issue and he has lied to the public and to Congress. He must not be confirmed as Director of Central Intelligence until this issue is resolved. (End of quoting)

Unclassified expressed concern over cronyism and rumors that several Arkansas FOBs (friends of Bill) have been placed on the CIA's payroll and have offices at CIA headquarters in Langley, Virginia. "These FOBs do not have security clearances." (Quoting:)

U.S., ISRAEL POOL TERRORISM EFFORT

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP)—CIA Director John Deutch and Secretary of State Warren Christopher joined today in fleshing out a new U.S. counter-terrorism agreement with Israel that provides for pooling of intelligence about militant Islamic groups and their operations.

"The Purpose is tracking down the enemies of peace," Christopher said after he and Deutch met with Israeli Prime Minister Shimon Peres at the Israeli defense ministry (March 15, 1996). (End of quoting)

Time, May 6, 1996, said "Deutch is becoming the most powerful CIA chief ever." It said "Deutch is in the midst of one of the most impressive power grabs ever seen in Washington. At one point during last week's hearing, intelligence chairman Arlen Specter said the committee was 'trying its best to strengthen the hand' of the director of Central Intelligence.

"...His squash partner is Clinton's Oxford classmate and Deputy Secretary of State Strobe Talbott. Deutch likes playing hardball. William Perry, the Secretary of Defense, is not only Deutch's ex-boss at the Pentagon but also his former business partner."

Time is misleading in calling Deutch a "former" business partner of Perry, as they are working together on many fronts. As one example, if you join the Internet and want to register your "Domain Name", the company that you formerly registered with was called Network Solutions, Inc. However, NSI was recently purchased by Scientific Applications International Corp. This gives SAIC considerable control over the Internet. The current and former board members of SAIC include William Perry, John Deutch, Admiral Bobby Ray Inman (former head of the National Security Agency), Melvin Laird (defense secretary under Richard Nixon), Donald Hicks (former head of research and development for the Pentagon), Donald Kerr (former head of the Los Alamos National Laboratory), General Maxwell Thurman (commander of the U.S. assault in Panama), and Robert Gates (CIA director under Bush). How's that for a Rat Pack.

SAIC was indicted in 1990 by the Justice Department on 10 felony counts for fraud in managing the environmental Superfund toxic cleanup. In 1993 the Justice Department sued SAIC for fraud involving an F-15 fighter contract. In May 1995, it was involved in a suit that charged it had lied about security systems tests it conducted for the Treasury Department currency printing plant in Fort Worth, TX. SAIC has a $2 billion contract to computerize the Defense Department medical system.

JEREMY MICHAEL BOORDA, RIP

The highest ranking person in the Navy is Secretary of the Navy, John Dalton. An article about Michael Boorda, the highest ranked uniform Navy officer, in the Wall Street Journal, May 21, 1996, comments on the secret session of the Armed Services Committee to waive through the nomination of Dalton to be Secretary of the Navy in spite of Dalton's dealings with Stephens Inc. of Arkansas. The article does not go into detail, but Stephens is involved in the Vince Foster murder (the gun left in his hand reportedly came from a gun club owned by Stephens). Stephens was involved in illegal drugs, money laundering through failed savings and loans, etc., and Stephens himself was head of the Dixie Mafia. Why did they mention Stephens in an article about Boorda? It makes little sense unless you know more of the background.

Boorda's Jewish grandparents were born in the Soviet Union. They were more of the Bolshevik Zionists that were run out of Russia and fled to the United States.

The information on the Internet is saying that Boorda was part of the "Fifth Column", although I do not see any way to prove it.

On May 16, police responded to phone calls reporting multiple gunshots. As soon as they arrived, they found U.S. Marines at Boorda's residence holding shotguns and refusing admittance to the police. They also refused admittance to the homicide squad. It was reported that Boorda had committed suicide by shooting himself in the chest with a shotgun, a rather awkward feat for a short man like Boorda.

Later the story was that he was depressed over wearing a medal that some said he should not have worn, so he shot himself in the head with a pistol, and left two suicide notes behind (in two different handwritings, I wonder?).

New York Times, May 17: "The Navy's highest ranking officer, Adm. Jeremy Boorda, committed suicide on Thursday, shooting himself in the chest..." Reuter (May 16): "...apparently shot himself in the chest at his home..." United Press International, May 16: "Pentagon officials...said [he] was discovered with a gunshot wound to the head..." The Associated Press, May 16: "...apparently of a self-inflicted gunshot wound in his chest, officials said." You know how these short people are, it's hard to tell the chest from the head. Reuter said that John Dalton said Boorda was found near a bench in his yard.

New York Times: "...returned to his home at the Washington Navy Yard about 1 p.m. and shot himself with a .38 caliber handgun." Associated Press: "Boorda, 57, the Navy's top uniformed officer, was shot shortly after 2 p.m...." I reckon the police were so shaken up by a real-life homicide that they forgot what the time was. Newsweek said he was pronounced dead at 2:30. Newsweek Washington Bureau Chief Evan Thomas said he had scheduled a meeting with Boorda at the D.C. General Hospital morgue at 2:30 p.m. Apparently Boorda kept that appointment.

Multiple witnesses said they heard gunshots (more than one) at about 2.00 p.m. ABC News, May 16, David Henser, reports multiple gunshots were heard. CBS News, May 16, Dan Rather, said it was a shotgun. CNN said (May 16) "The nation's top Navy officer, Adm. Jeremy Michael Boorda, died Thursday afternoon of a gunshot wound to the chest...a .38 caliber pistol was used in the shooting. The gun belonged to his son-in-law."

With a fast breaking story and a controlled media, they have to make up stories until they get their directives from above. Eventually they get it straightened out, and all the newsmen then say the same thing, nearly word for word.

Someone that did some checking, said Boorda was standing in his front yard, and said that there were two shots, one a shotgun and one a pistol, and the two shooters both left a suicide note behind.

THE UNABOMBER HOAX

CONTACT, The Phoenix Project newspaper carried a headline "There Is No Unabomber" (July 4, 1995). This would appear to be a big mistake, to those who know little about what is really going on. It is not a mistake!

CONTACT is not the only paper, however, to report the situation. The New Federalist, April 22, 1996, said, (quoting):

UNABOMBER CASE: INVESTIGATE PRINCE PHILIP'S ECO-TERROR NETWORK!

by Rogelio A. Maduro

April 16 (EIRNS)—On April 3, in Montana, the FBI arrested environmental radical Theodore Kaczynski as their main suspect in the 17-year-old Unabomber case. The arrest has resulted in breaking, finally, the coverup in the news media regarding the source of terrorism in the United States.

Still, there is a great deal that is not appearing in the press—including leads to the national ecology-terrorist network which this newspaper printed over a year ago. Also, there is a dangerous tendency to assume that the case is wrapped up in the person of the "loner" Kaczynski, rather than taking the information now being developed as the starting point to investigate that eco-terrorist network as a whole. (End of quoting)

The article went on to state that Kaczynski is only a part of a much broader network that helped him pick his targets. In 1994, Kaczynski participated in the Native Forest Network conference (Nov 9-13) in Montana. The New Federalist identified the NFN as part of the eco-terrorist network. Their related intelligence gathering publication, Executive Intelligence Review, Jan. 13, 1995, said: "The 'Green' Terrorists on Prince Philip's Leash, speakers and participants represented the 'Green' spectrum, from national and international leaders of the World Wildlife Fund/World Wide Fund for Nature (WWF), National Audubon Society, and Greenpeace, the leadership of Earth First!. The keynote speaker was Cecilia Rodriguez, the representative in the U.S. of the Mexican Zapatista guerrillas."

These Lyndon LaRouche publications say that the Unabomber is not an individual, but is part of a network. The Unabomber was picking targets from a list called "Eco-F—ker Hit List" published in a journal called Live Wild or Die, published by the former head of Earth First!, Mitch Friedman.

It is a cinch that Kaczynski could not have manufactured those precision bombs in his mountain cabin with no electricity. "...the Feds no longer believe Kaczynski was working alone."

John Elvin of Political Dynamite newsletter calls these groups the "eco-militia".

Spotlight newspaper of April 29, 1996, p. 5, says: "Actually, Kaczynski's name appears in FBI files as being connected with Earth First!, a radical left-wing group which was formed in 1980 by David Foreman, who was a former lobbyist for the Wilderness Society. Earth First! has been documented as using illegal and violent tactics to further its ends...." On page 9, Spotlight says that Foreman "pleaded guilty to felony conspiracy for distributing copies of the manual [describing sabotage and explosives] to a group of Earth First! members in Arizona who blew up a power plant in 1989." Does this give you any clues as to who caused the train derailment in Arizona on Oct. 9, 1995? A nuclear power plant nearby to where the Amtrak sabotage took place has been targeted by Earth First! and is near a 'wilderness' area that the eco-terrorists have demanded be turned into a no-man's-land. It was about 150 miles from the Graham International Observatory. Earth First! has tried to block the construction of the Large Binocular Telescope at the Arizona Steward Observatory. Phoenix is a main area for Earth First!.

The Austin American Statesman, May 5, 1996, A15, has an article which begins: "Earth Firsters are terrorists." The article says that Earth Firsters claim they are peaceful. An earlier article called the Unabomber suspect "an Earth-first, Birkenschlock academic quasi-Marxist."

The Executive Intelligence Review of October 13, 1995, had an article called "The SAS: Prince Philip's manager of terrorism". This article claims that Prince Philip's World Wide Fund for Nature and British Army's Special Air Services (SAS) sponsor terrorism through links with security operations such as Keenie Meechie Services (KMS) whose name is taken from the Swahili term for the motion of a snake in the grass. KMS was hired by Oliver North to train Afghan mujahideen, to mine the harbor in Managua, Nicaragua, and to train Nicaraguan Contras. KMS provided security for the Saudi ambassador Prince Bandar, who was working with George Bush in supplying tens of billions of Saudi dollars for "Iran-Contra" operations. The heads of security for the nations of Kuwait, Bahrain, Saudi Arabia, Qatar, Omani, are "former" British SAS and KMS officers. Lyndon LaRouche had a personal friendship with David Stirling, founder of the SAS, which gave LaRouche inside information. LaRouche commented on the paradox of Sterling doing very distasteful things "for the good of the country". I am reminded of an apparently somewhat similar relationship between John DeCamp and William Colby.

There has recently been a major bombing in Saudi Arabia and currently the media is saying they have absolutely no idea of who did it. That means to me, that they know perfectly well who did it, it means, it was not done by an "Arab nut group" but was done by a major intelligence service.

FIRE IN THE SKY

American taxpayers are paying billions of dollars for spy satellites, secret space missions, and star wars stuff. Yet, Time, for instance, said "The CIA freely roams through Yeltsin's Russia" (May 6). The FBI, under Louis Freeh, another Zionist, works closely with the KGB's successor in Moscow. Russian and American astronauts are in space together. So what's the big secret? Who are they afraid of? From whom are they keeping the secrets (certainly not each other)?

The Wall Street Journal, June 12, 1996 (A16) had an article by Richard Staar which said that so far this year Russia has allocated $8.9 billion to the Defense Ministry, and $11.7 billion on research, development and production of new weapons systems, over twice what it was last year. What is the big build-up all about? Are Russia and the U.S. so afraid of Saddam Hussein and Kadhafi?

Staar said (bolding mine): "Despite the alleged shortage of funds for the military, Moscow has continued a Soviet-era project to build a huge command-and-control center for nuclear war at Mount Yamantau, near the city of Belorets in the Urals, according to testimony by Adm. William Studeman, then acting CIA director, before the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence last year.... Already coming off the assembly line are miniature nuclear weapons (weighing under 200 pounds), to be carried by a new, highly accurate tactical missile for Russia's ground forces.... Seven quieter nuclear-powered Severodvinsk-class submarines, being built to supplement the 13 Akula-class ones, will carry the new D-31 submarine-launched ballistic missile. Russia's air defense already boasts the only anti-ballistic missile system in existence. The SH-11 is designed to detonate a nuclear charge above the atmosphere and destroy incoming warheads, whereas the SH-08 has high acceleration for intercepts inside the atmosphere. Yet a recent U.S.-Russian 'framework agreement' reportedly would place even greater restrictions on the American side than the 1972 Anti-Ballistic Missile Treaty. Despite everything, the U.S. continues to pour massive amounts of money into Russia...."

Oh, and the "mad cow disease"? The government has announced that they intend to put up a satellite network to monitor disease. Think about that. There is so much to that subject that I will have to leave it for another time.

And what is really going on in space? That is another subject for later.

CONTACT's full headline was "There Is No Unabomber: What's Here Is The New World Order!" The forces of the New World Order are frantically trying to complete their total subjugation of the Earth; their target date was the year 2000. Their success is being complicated by struggles of the various factions for king-of-the-hill (king-of-the-Earth) top-dog positions. We see the Rockefellers fighting the Communists fighting the Zionists fighting the Environmentalists fighting the Big Business fighting the Arabs fighting the.... And then there are the forces behind these factions, pulling their strings.

It is about to get most interesting. Happy Freedom Day. Calvin Burgin, June 29, 1996. [End quoting of Part VI and CONTACT's Part 43]

DOCTORS CLAIM FLU-VACCINE CAN CAUSE DIABETES

Excerpted from NEXUS magazine, Dec./96-Jan./97, [quoting:]

"After a presentation of our data, we were asked to evaluate the effect of a recent hepatitis B immunization program in New Zealand on the development of insulin-dependant diabetes. We found a large epidemic of diabetes, 60% increase, occurred in New Zealand following this immunization program, and believe the most likely explanation is that the immunization program caused the diabetes epidemic [emphasis mine]."

These were the words of Dr. J. Barthelow Classen, of Classen Immunotherapies Inc. in Baltimore, USA, in a letter to the New Zealand Medical Journal.

Dr. Classen also warned in his letter:

"Based on this mechanism and our early finding that diabetes epidemics have followed the widespread use of the Haemophilus influenza B vaccine, we expect a second epidemic of diabetes to follow the Haemophilus influenza B immunization program that was started in New Zealand in 1993/4 [emphasis mine]." —Sources: The New Zealand Medical Journal, 24 May 1996; Vaccination Information Network, PO Box 149, Kaeo, Northland, New Zealand [End quoting]

CONTACT has been warning you about vaccines from its beginning.

I don't believe this was an accident—do you?? The Elite's Plan 2000, which includes depopulating the Earth to less than 1 billion people by the year 2000 (only 3 years), has been in effect for decades.

Yesterday (Dec. 25), close friends of mine said that 90% of the school children in Edmonton, Alberta (a city of approximately half-a-million people in central Canada) were sick with the flu. I highly suspect that this is a man-made epidemic—don't you??

As you have probably heard, the U.S. is in the throes of a flu epidemic also, but I believe they are covering up the severity of this situation.

POLIO VACCINE VIRUS LINKED TO LUNG CANCER

Excerpted from NEXUS magazine, Dec./96-Jan./97, [quoting:]

A polio vaccine that was administered to millions of Britons in the 1950s and early 1960s is being linked to a virulent form of lung cancer, following the discovery that it was contaminated by a monkey virus.

Doctors have expressed concern at the latest studies in America which show that the virus, SV40, was found in several tumors.

It is estimated that between 10 million and 30 million Americans were given the contaminated polio vaccine.

The vaccine, cultured from monkey kidney cells, was used in mass vaccinations until 1961. After that, a new vaccine using human cells was developed. —Sources: New Scientist 24 August 1996; The Sunday Telegraph [UK], September 1996 [End quoting]

BUDGET AMENDMENT COULD CAUSE CONSTITUTIONAL CRISIS

Excerpted from THE DAILY NEWS, Los Angeles,

12/??/96, [quoting:]

Unfortunately, instead of preparing to end the deficit, leaders in Congress are spending this month lining up votes for a balanced budget amendment. By concentrating on this phony issue, lawmakers are wasting time that could be spent trimming government expenses.

A balanced budget amendment is a dangerous, nutty idea. Tinkering with the Constitution and grandstanding for voters will accomplish nothing good. The only way to end the deficit is for Congress to get down to the difficult work of establishing sensible spending priorities and eliminating waste. [End quoting]

If Congress really wanted to balance the budget all they would have to do is abide by the Constitution, just as it is, since it provides for a balanced budget. They do not want a balanced budget, they want to do away with the Constitution and replace it. They are desperately trying to find some way to get a Constitutional Convention so they can accomplish this replacement.

They can also balance the budget by getting rid of the UNconstitutional Federal Reserve and issue real money instead of Federal Reserve notes. They know this but they think they can pull the wool over us dumb sheep.

FEDERAL GOVERNMENT SEEKING TO RECRUIT VOLUNTEER READING TEACHERS FOR SCHOOLS

Comment on TV news broadcast 12/20/96:

I heard on the TV news several times that the children desperately need help in reading and that the federal government is trying to recruit volunteers to help in the schools to teach reading.

First, they make the time for teaching "Getting Along With Others" and every other subject except good reading, writing and arithmetic, load the school system with overpaid administrators and won't allow good teachers to really teach, and then they have the nerve to recruit untrained teachers to come in and teach the basic course of reading. How much longer are we going to put up with this nonsense??

U.K. SURVEILLANCE CAMERAS TO RECORD ALL NUMBERPLATES

Excerpted from NEXUS magazine, Dec./96-Jan./97, [quoting:]

Police and security agencies are placing large orders for surveillance cameras that will track the movements of millions of drivers in the UK.

Using sophisticated software, the cameras will read the numberplate of every passing vehicle, and automatically check it against a police database of known or suspected offenders.

As the network expands, it will be possible to find or follow any vehicle in Britain simply by typing in the registration number. The cameras will also be used to detect unregistered vehicles, enforce road laws and monitor traffic congestion.

Starting in spring 1997, customs-operated cameras at ports will log the numberplates of every vehicle entering the UK. —Source: The Sunday Telegraph [UK], 15 September 1996 [End quoting]

CONSUMER DEBT GROWS TWICE AS FAST AS WAGES

Excerpted from the NEW FEDERALIST, 12/9/96, [quoting:]

U.S. consumer debt, now at $1.4 trillion, is growing at an annual rate more than twice that of wages, according to the Nov. 24 Washington Post. Those figures are according to the Federal Reserve. They figure total household debt was nearly 95% of annual income at the end of 1995, up from less than 60% in 1960, and less than 75% in 1980. Most of the debt is for mortgages, but consumer debt is now figured to equal more than 20% of annual income.

One result is growth in personal bankruptcies, now expected to exceed one million by year's end. Credit card delinquencies are at their highest since the American Bankers Association began keeping records in 1974. [End quoting]

Do you still believe Clinton and his gang saying "the economy is booming"?? If you do you'd better wake up soon because you are being set up for a VERY BIG CRASH—SOON!!

SMOG RULES LOWERED

From THE MODESTO BEE, 12/14/96, [quoting:]

Smog regulators Friday threw out rules requiring permits for small engines, Freon recyclers, storage tanks and other equipment. The estimated savings for businesses is $1.5 million a year. The move by the board of the South Coast Air Quality Management District eliminates about 10,000 pollution control permits. [End quoting]

Will miracles ever cease to exist? Of course, this probably is only a little sugar to help us take what is coming, such as STEALING A LOT OF OUR CARS BY CLAIMING THEY ARE GROSS POLLUTERS!!!

Never forget that we could have 100% pollution free energy for all uses if they would allow us the technology that the Elite are hiding, after they stole it from the inventors and tortured or killed them—hundreds of them—INCLUDING NIKOLA TESLA over 50 years ago!!

DOCTORS RECOGNIZE THE ROLE OF FAITH IN HEALING

Excerpted from THE MODESTO BEE, 12/16/96, [quoting:]

Virginia Harris knew it wasn't going to be a team of emergency room doctors that would save her. It was going to be God.

So when surgeons in a Detroit hospital said they didn't think she would recover from a car crash 20 years ago, she and her husband declined treatment and decided to go home and pray.

Within two weeks, she was on her feet.

The link between faith and healing is getting a closer look from more and more doctors, a survey of the American Academy of Family Physicians found.

Ninety-nine percent of doctors believe there is an important relationship between the spirit and the flesh, according to the survey due out today.

"They didn't give me a lot of hope," Harris said of her doctors. "That wasn't good enough. I knew I had no other place to go than to pray."

She sees her recovery as a testament to faith's importance in healing, a relationship nearly all doctors recognize despite a traditional gulf between religion and science.

"I think this is a historic time," said Dr. Dale Matthews, a professor at Georgetown Medical School. "The spiritual traditions of healing will be joined with surgery and pharmaceuticals. I think we're entering the era of prayer and Prozac [I'd be cautious of Prozac.]"

To further examine that connection, nearly 1,000 health care professionals are meeting at Harvard Medical School this week for "Spirituality & Healing in Medicine", a course exploring the murky area where religion meets medicine.

"I'm not a religious person," said Dr. Herbert Benson, founder of the Mind-Body Institute at Beth Israel Deaconess Hospital and a Harvard medical professor. "I came to this not from belief but from science. Honestly, I came to this [with] feet dragging."

Many doctors pinned their interest on scientific evidence, including two studies that lend credence to a faith-health connection.

In a California study of prayer's effects on recovery from heart problems, half the nearly 400 subjects were the subjects of prayers by Christians, while the others received no known prayers from anyone affiliated with the study. Neither group was told about the prayers.

The patients who received prayers had half as many complications as those who didn't and had a lower rate of congestive heart failure, Matthews said.

A second study, by Dartmouth Medical School, tracked how patients' own prayers helped them recover from bypass surgery. The death rate after six months was 9 percent, Matthews said. For churchgoers, however, the rate dropped to 5 percent. None of the deeply religious patients died during that period. [End quoting]

INTERNET ROUNDUP

The Internet, The Thought-Police,
And CompuServe

From SMITH'S REPORT newsletter, Dec. 1996, [quoting:]

The Internet and the World Wide Web in particular have become the greatest open forum for the free exchange of ideas in the history of man. The ability to instantly "publish" ideas and opinions on just about any topic has appealed to the sensibilities of millions worldwide. Today, virtually anything and everything can be found on the Internet. Opinions spanning the complete spectrum are available on the Internet from Revisionists to Exterminationists, the Right to the Left, Christians to Pagans. Along with valued political and historical discourse, there are of course those who peddle pornography for cash.

Just as people have thrilled to their new found freedoms, governments have shuddered, recognizing their loss of control. Ever since the popularity of the Internet has grown, so have the concerns of the would-be censors and thought-police around the world. Oftentimes using the pornographers as a justification, censors worldwide have attempted to stem the tide of political dissent. Most of the countries of the world have explored various methods to censor materials on the Internet. Earlier this year President Clinton signed a sweeping piece of censorship legislation know as the "Communications Decency Act" only to have it overturned in a court of law.

One of the countries leading the pack in the denial of free speech and thought is Germany. A new law under consideration in Germany's lower house of parliament would require on-line companies to block access to "child pornography", "neo-Nazi materials", or "other extreme pictures or writing" on the Internet.

Although this latest attempt at Internet censorship seems ominous and sends shivers down the spines of civil libertarians around the world, it is flawed. The bureaucrats in Germany don't understand the beauty and power of the Internet [They understand, alright—that is just the reason they are trying their best to gag the 'Net, AT ANY COST.]. Their attempt to control the minds of the people can be likened to the building of a fence to hold back the sea [When has there been a time in history that the power hungry, bully, gangster bastards ever considered beauty in their thirst for power??—Unless it would be that they see beauty in torture, murders and wars with their evil, twisted minds.].

In response to Germany's threat, CompuServe, the world's second largest on-line service provider, has announced that it may simply move its operations out of Germany. CompuServe is considering moving its headquarters to another country that does not hold on-line companies responsible for the content of the Internet. CompuServe will, however, continue to provide services to Germany.

The general manager of CompuServe, Felix Somm, told German television: "It cannot be that a provider has to make massive investments to control an international network, if you can offer services with significantly less cost next door in Luxembourg." [Do you notice he mentions nothing about freedom—only that it will keep his wallet thinner.]

The genie called "freedom" is out of the bottle. While the politicians of the world try to put him back in, truth is being beamed from and to every corner of the globe. [End quoting]

Pornography is largely a product of the ones trying to censor the Net. The Elite are willing to put their own product under controls to make much larger gains by controlling the flow of truth.

If they can gain complete control of the Net, how are the people going to freely circulate the truth for those who are seeking it? Pornography will always be available, but if you lose the freedom of the Net, the truth will be very difficult to come by except for word of mouth, since the printing process is a too expensive and time consuming method, even if you can get by the already present censorship in that media.

Parents can control their children's viewing, if they really want to, by proper teachings and guidance while they are young, and the available methods of blocking the computer's reception.

PRAY THAT GOD HELPS US KEEP THE NET UNCENSORED!!

JAY ROCKEFELLER (D.-W.Va.) AS PRESIDENT??

Excerpted from THE SPOTLIGHT, 12/16/96, by Skolnick on Tom Valentine's radio show, [quoting:]

Skolnick highlighted a recent news item about psychiatrists discussing the 25th Amendment, i.e., the presidential succession in case of the chief executive becoming incapacitated.

Skolnick is convinced that Clinton will not finish his second term, but Vice President Albert Gore will be somehow removed first, so that Sen. Jay Rockefeller (D-W.Va.) can be appointed vice president.

"Rockefellers covet the presidency and know they cannot be elected to the job," he pointed out. [End quoting]

Stranger things have happened and besides we really don't have a choice, at the present time, of who is in office. They keep fixing any election we have and will continue to do so until enough of us wake up to throw the rascals out.

GREENSPAN, REPUBLICANS AND DEMOCRATS PROPOSE HIDDEN TAX HIKE

Federal Reserve Chairman Alan Greenspan and some Republicans and Democrats are proposing to change the way the cost of living index (CPI) is calculated so as to make it lower.

Excerpted from THE SPOTLIGHT, 12/16/96, [quoting:]

Critics, including the American Association of Retired Persons, have denounced many of the proposals as little more than a "back-door effort" to cut entitlement programs and raise taxes.

Seemingly shut out of this entire discussion is the already skewed way in which the Labor Department has reported the increase in the cost of living for some time now. In a recent month, for instance, it was reported that the CPI increased by .4 percent (an annualized rate of around 5 percent), but that, excluding the volatile food and energy sectors, the increase was a mere .1 percent for the month.

What this means to middle America is that, as long as you don't eat, feed your family, buy gasoline or heat your home this month, you have nothing to worry about. But if you spend money on these seeming necessities of life, are you being told the truth now about "inflation"?

The actual increase in the cost of living for the typical American is significantly higher than you are being told. In addition to attempting to throw out higher increases in food and energy prices, the current CPI formula vastly understates the effects on older Americans of rising health care and prescription costs. State and local tax increases are not given sufficient weight [emphasis mine].

It adds insult to injury for plutocrats to tell the millions of Americans who have served their country in battle—or have little to live on other than their Social Security benefits—they must have their already-inadequate "cost of living adjustments" reduce via a cynical accounting gimmick.

This scam will likely figure prominently in 1997 and the efforts toward implementing more austerity are intensified by both the Clinton Administration's "neo-conservative" allies running the Republican Party. [End quoting]

All of this is taking place while they are throwing billions to our REAL enemies.

INTEL'S SUPERCOMPUTER BUILT FOR SPEED

From THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, 12/17/96, [quoting:]

ASSOCIATED PRESS

The world's fastest computer made its debut Monday. Now it's going to work for the government.

Intel Corp. said Monday it has developed the world's fastest supercomputer, capable of performing 1 trillion operations a second, for the Department of Energy.

That speed comes close to tripling the previous record achieved by Hitachi Ltd. in 1995 with a supercomputer capable of doing 368 billion operations a second, Intel and government officials said.

The Intel supercomputer will be used at the government's Sandia National Laboratories to simulate the performance of nuclear weapons, replacing live tests of stockpiled weapons.

"One trillion operations per second—this was once thought unachievable," Energy Secretary Hazel O'Leary said during a conference call with reporters.

The supercomputer also will be used to predict weather changes and natural disasters and in other Energy Department projects requiring simulations of series of events with massive mathematical calculations, department officials said.

John Schroepfer Remembered

Reflection On Passages And Underlying Choices

12/24/96 #1 HATONN

CHRISTMAS EVE
IN THE MORNING...

Ah, but it is Christmas Eve in the Evening in some other parts of the world, so how DO we count? Or, do we make too big a to-do over counting as in the tick-tock of a clock or the rising/setting of a sun billions of miles off shore?

What will come forth before the midnight tolls this night? You cannot know, can you? You can always, at best, plan and hope that plans are fulfilled.

BIG JOHN SCHROEPFER

Was anyone with John when he made his transition? Of course! No one ever makes the transition from one dimension to another without a guide. Wouldn't it be wonderful if we could speak on those things instead of the nasties of the world? Is it not ever so much more worthy to know of LIFE than of bodies which only last for such a short period of days?

More important to Dharma this morning is, "What do we do now in order that honor is offered to this lonely soul?" Well, we DO whatever unfolds as appropriate to do and John's SOUL IS NOT LONELY! A man who has separated so far from his family, however, as to have no contact with them until death separates them even further, while George Green and Brigade are still trying to get everything from him for their ongoing personal activities, is quite terrible, it seems. I tried to warn the caretakers that time was very short for this person and we are grateful that he was in a medical setting and getting excellent care at his departure.

Zita is not doing well either and must get into a medical setting also so that she can be more personally attended by a physician. We take one step at a time and help where we can and, dear ones, that is ALL anyone can do for anyone else in any circumstance. There are so many people down and helpless from this "flu" passing around that it is all but impossible to keep the already sick from getting sicker. When the stomach rejects intake, however, there MUST be hydration and nutrition offered by a bypass method or the body weakens so much that the electrolytes get so unbalanced as to cause cardiac arrests in some persons.

Dharma was feeling quite depressed this morning and told E.J. and Rick that she finally understood the old saying of "let the dead bury the dead" because today she feels quite dead, especially between the ears.

What you precious, precious children do not yet understand, or at the least, comprehend, is that LIFE begins at passage as in the case of John—not ends. John had given up his desire for living in this empty shell where not even his most personal affairs were ever managed and more and more he was physically dependent upon others instead of feeling fit enough to work at his occupation of his career experience.

How can this atrocity of abuse by the legal system so completely bind a man's very existence? Do we simply WAIT until ALL the players are dead and gone? Will George Green be relieved at this passage? Perhaps, but I wouldn't think so for the notes held by John were issued by George Green personally and there are two sets of original documents along with checks made out TO George Green from Schroepfers. The "original" documents were stolen from John at the time Greens moved to Nevada but Patricia Young produced a full set of original documents that she said she had been asked to hold. Also, in deposition with Doris, Horton presented seven pages of notes signed by George Green while trying to say "dharma" did the signatures and didn't remember. This got dropped like a VERY hot potato when it didn't fly. So, the documents exist and it is why Green has done every nasty thing he can do up to now to get rid of those notes, even to having Abbott and Horton continue to even name John in their own cases and at least establish Eleanor as some kind of conservator over John—which has never been accurate. She may well have been named but her son (who hated John) was the "in fact" prison warden over John's person while in the prison of an Alzheimer's Center.

So, in response to, "What can I do?" Dharma, YOU can't DO anything—for it is up to the next of kin. Friends of John can certainly have a gathering in memory and in honor of John, but responsibility for body funeralizing is up to relations and the law is the law. I marked this file reference as a general writing because you all must learn that love, sharing, caring, and GOD may well be the intent of SOUL, but LAWS take over when the soul leaves the body. Must you grieve and weep over a body? Can you not RE-JOICE at the total freedom achieved by this man who has walked such a sad journey these past four years? He had a GOOD life with friends during this time, but generally John's life fell apart with the dastardly actions of those people trying to take everything he had and managed to do so for they took his property and, even after being ordered to return it—did not. They even took his pension for a while and when a man loses everything and cannot control his own life-stream, the desire for living ceases.

You do not live in a kind or gentle world, friends, and transitions will be many as managed diseases take their toll. We can only thank God constantly for the blessings and Grace bestowed upon each and all for no man knows the contract of another nor the agreements between that one and God. For "another" there can only be offered LOVE, respect, reverence and, then, release. After this is offered, accepted or denied acceptance, then there is only "let go and let God". There is something else you will learn as we advance along the paths of learning and that is that "age" in itself has NOTHING to do with death. No one dies of "age" but rather, of failures of other "systems" within the body. Even a baby, if genetically imperfect, can have failure and body death. The greatest minds in all of historical data are those who have advanced years to allow for LEARNING, hopefully through advanced acquiring of

They said it would take every man, woman and child in the United States 125 years working nonstop with handheld calculators to perform 1 trillion calculations.

The breakthrough was even more remarkable considering that Intel built the supercomputer using standard commercial desktop computer chips arranged in what the industry calls "massive parallel processing".

"We were trying to demonstrate that with standard building blocks you can deliver world record-breaking power," Intel Executive Vice President Craig Burnett said during the conference call.

But Intel does not see much of a market for the huge machines beyond a few government agencies, he said.

The Energy Department will pay Intel about $50 million for the machine under terms of a contract set in September 1995.

Burnett said there was a "reasonable" market for intermediate-sized parallel processing supercomputers using the company's Pentium Pro chips.

But the Energy Department and White House officials said they could see super computers of the highest speeds used in a host of scientific and industrial applications.

"There are a lot of other things in our economy that require this...weather forecasting, sequencing the human genome," said John Gibbons, director of the White House office for science and technology policy, calling the development "a major milestone" in computing. [End quoting]

Can you begin to see how the Elite can keep minute track of the hundreds of millions of people in the United States?

This was probably already obsolete technology as of a decade ago (or much longer)—knowing how the Elite hold back up-to-date technology.

GUARDIAN "DOG" ANGEL

From ANGELS ON EARTH, Premiere Issue, Guideposts, 39 Seminary Hill Rd., Carmel, NY 10512, [quoting:]

When our son Danny was 11, he was a newspaper carrier, up and out at 4:30 a.m. When I told him that his father and I worried about his safety at that hour, he said, "Mom, don't you know God walks with me?" Each morning a beautiful collie greeted Danny at the beginning of his route and accompanied him the whole way, then disappeared. We don't know where the dog came from; no one in our neighborhood owned a collie. On Sunday mornings—when his father took him in the car to deliver the thick edition—the collie didn't show. How did that dog know he could take Sundays off? Because there are angels in this world, and one was a beautiful collie. —Mary Morris Dobrick, Cypress, California [End quoting] wisdom and reason. A mind unused, however, is a sorry thing, for unused a brain and a mind withers and loss of mind is far worse than loss of living tissue. Sometimes, however, as with such as John, the mind takes leave to find rest and peace and the body simply follows on with ceasing function. This kind of passage is gentle and peaceful and the Soul simply detaches and ascends to its proper level of placement for its further journeys.

John continually demanded audience with the "Council"—fine, now he can get it! Eleanor used to call John a "crazy old man". No, it was not John who was crazy—he knew exactly how things work and oh how wondrous if others had listened.

CHRIST ON CHRISTMAS

I find myself quite interested in responses to such incidents as dimensional passages at, say, Christmas time. "How sad..." we hear. Sad? You can't seem to find Christ anywhere else at Christmas Season and what is really meant usually is, "how inconvenient". Grieving is for those left behind—or annoyances at having to attend funerals when there is "so much to do". So, don't! I think it rather appropriate to be with Christ on Christmas—if you are truly a Christ-I-AM. Beyond the veil of physical sensing is KNOWING and realization beyond consciousness. THIS WHOLE TOPIC CAN ONLY BE EXPLAINED THROUGH THE VERY PRESENTATION OF LIGHT AND BEING.

What I hear YOU asking, Dharma, is "accepting responsibility" when a friend has been left without his responsible family members. You may well be surprised at how well responsibility is worn in the moment of presentation of need—and how duty-bound ones become in their moment of guilt and unfinished business of relationships. These of family who have chosen to disallow relationships to flourish are often finding the only solution to their own feelings of sorrow and regret is to accept responsibility. It is a time to reflect on reality of feelings within which is as necessary a confrontation as is being birthed.

There are several people who will be "making excuses" for the neglecting of attention to a passing friend, relative or even a stranger. I did not say "reasons" for reasons are not necessary to offer—excuses are there to "excuse" yourself from participation when you know you should have done more—and this is true of friends as well as acquaintances. YOU, for instance, can do NOTHING more for the departed, either soul or body. Would John, for instance, have had a wonderfully exciting Christmas in a hospice so far away as to allow no visitors? Is THAT what all of you would wish on this poor lonely and miserable man? You cannot control a man's death any more than you could control his life. Those who helped destroy his living and sensing self are the ones to bear regret and guilt, not you who did all you could do to make things better in a loving and protecting environment. So be it. I apologize for getting completely off onto the subject of transition/translation/ascension, but it seemed a bit appropriate to speak on this topic this morning for this state of being comes to EVERYONE.

I am going to give you a very short but most important message and lesson right here: You have no right to ask, when sorrow comes: "Why did this happen to me?" unless you ask the same question for every joy that comes your way! It is wise to reflect [in order] that you find balance—but beyond that it is only good to "remember" so that the lessons learned are permanent. Forgive, however, all things for happenings are evaluated by perceptions of wrong or right—not actuality. Let us always remember and occasionally reflect on passing moments but let us NOT dwell within them lest we cease to function in the moment which is ALL THERE TRULY IS. Further, in those reflections, allow the GOOD thoughts to bury the bad ones. Leave each person the BEST LEGACY they can have been. Let each passing being reflect LIGHT and not the dankness of bad memories living on forever. Let the reflections be of the goodness which is within for there IS goodness of some extent in ALL. The "wrongs" accomplished are between self and God.

By the way, the celebration of "Jesus" Christ's birth should most certainly be in your calendar year, August. I remind you that, however, Isaac Newton was born on December 25, but I don't notice much being made of the event. When you celebrate things for the convenience of the commercial setting, you must realize that accuracy of events is lost. And, when one lie piles upon another—the entire event is questionable as to accuracy. So enjoy that which IS and stop trying to pretend it to be something else, for when you come to believe the lie you have no hope of regaining reality of purpose. Or, is there something else wrong with the celebration of Christmas? If the coming of the date causes you to wish to reach out and touch someone, then it is worthy indeed. And if for a brief moment in time you reflect on a tiny child's birthing—so be it for how wondrous it is.

I think this writing will be short as interruptions are frequent and lengthy and the day rushes past with much to do. I can only offer these thoughts to assist you through the times which come as they will so that you can GROW through each experience and glean the positive energy which is always present in every exchange. May there be love and friendship in this, your holiday season, for it is meant that man experience his journey and experience it well. Happiness of a moment is but a passing trifle—JOY is that which endures forever. Therefore my prayer for each of you is that you have JOY. Salu.

CHRISTMAS DAY,
BUT IS IT MERRY?

"Will there be any tears shed at my passing?" goes the sad cry up from the heart of a person. "Will I have left a world better for my coming and going?" is the second thought to pass the fearful and doubting heart. "WHO WILL LOVE ME AND WHO WILL CARE?" the mind goes on in its rending pull at ego and then toward soul. Ah, but the lessons are for the LIVING, not for the departed, and note I did say DEPARTED, for after the severance of the silver cord, even though the energy be present, it is no longer enshrouding the body flesh.

Unto you a child is born, goes the timeworn cry on Christmas Day, on Christmas Day, on Christmas Day—in the morning! Well a few days ago a friend, John Schroepfer, was reborn in SOUL, released unto God and who took notice? Do you realize that, although John has a family—we are the only ones to take note of this good man's passage?

Where are the ones who dumped him in a horror-cell in a place of incarceration for the mentally defective? Where is the wife John tended who was infirm and bitter to the extent that the person who was caretaker of the parrot has to remove the bird from the room because of the screeching and cursing it learned in Schroepfer's presence? Where is the brother and sister who now will not even come to a service at burial of their brother? Where is the son NAMED for John? He said something to the effect, "you guys got him, so now he is your problem!" This one doesn't want anything to do with the circumstance, John, and/or refuses to even help in the expenses of burial—OF HIS OWN FATHER.

Where is George Green? Leon Fort? Ed Cleary? Betty Tuten—all who claimed to be a BROTHER and deeply caring crusaders to "save John's money"? Is THIS what life is, friends? The money is used in entangled court battles and the carcass is dumped on the dung-heap of no longer being even worthy of a last rite? SHAME is what I see and all the last minute excuses are of no merit. I see what I see and I want you of my local team to SEE HOW IT IS WITHOUT THE SHAM OF PRETENSE.

Big John was a BIG man, a secure man—a man who attended a screeching and infirm wife for many YEARS.

John Will Be Missed By His Friends

Word was received in Tehachapi on Monday, December 23, 1996 of the passing of John Frederick Schroepfer, in Porterville, California. He was born in Visalia, California on January 18, 1920, where his father owned and operated a dairy farm. John worked on the farm as he was growing up and designed and built a home for the family while he was still in high school. In 1941 he graduated from the University of California at Berkeley, where he was on the rowing team. He was in the Army during WWII and was in General MacArthur's occupation forces in Japan.

He was a member of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers and the Society of Automotive Engineers. He had a distinguished career in the aerospace field, filling lead positions with Rohr Industries, Ryan Aviation, Fairchild Camera and Instrument, and the Lockheed Companies. He last served as Chief, Reliability Section, at Lockheed's Space and Missile Division in Sunnyvale, California. He enjoyed telling stories of his experiences as the director of a large Navy Lab at San Diego, and he designed the engine mounts for the C-130, the fuel bellows for the F-14, and was consulted in the early design stages of the Stealth planes.

After his retirement he moved to Tehachapi to be near friends, and pursued his concern for community by actively engaging in disaster preparedness. He was often heard saying, "We have to make sure everybody has enough to eat!"

As his health declined in recent years, he made his home with friends. On Monday, just after he was bathed and dressed and seated in a comfortable lounge chair, "Big John" slipped gently away to go on to a larger life. He is survived by many loving friends.

— Audrey

She ended up trying to kill him so that she and her stepson could collect his assets. This man turned his trust to George Green a few years back to be used in the Institute—but some of the “notes” produced at a deposition are for funds never turned over to the Institute—or, the opposition blundered in producing too many documents in their express efforts to claim “Doris” forged signatures. Patricia Young had a set of original documents, now residing with the CLC, that had been given to her “to hide” until further notice would be given for their use. And yes indeed, Green claims the Ekkers are swindlers and scam artists. This should not be a good day for Mr. Green. Death brings confrontation in many ways, and when a man doesn’t die from “murder by mental crucifixion” as intended in this case, the FACTS emerge to SHAME the snatchers and snitchers.

THIS is the lesson for all of you readers! A man has made passage from death into LIFE, and those who claimed to love and only serve his affairs have run like rats from a sinking ship. Wow, where is all that unconditional LOVE? And, will Abbott and Horton simply continue to use poor John in their cases—they never stopped doing so before he died even though he had no connections whatsoever.

How will these people LIE their way through Christmas Day this day? Shame upon you who USED this good man for your own purposes for your names are written in blood of this departed friend and the stain shall NOT be removed. I have waited until this Christmas Day to write about this in detail so there would be ample opportunity to spread the word of John’s death so all involved WOULD KNOW. Whatever karmic debts John might have considered his “lot” are now paid in full as he serves in a moment of truth for MANY. Whatever might have been John’s doubts or strange ideas—he NEVER failed to recognize GOD and he KNEW TRUTH that reached beyond the veil and beyond the church wherein songs of great beauty and salvation are spewed from the lips as would any chant represent ritual spouted forth in child’s games.

How many will gather in churches this day AFTER the show-and-tell of opening pretty packages transferred back and forth like bounty to be returned or exchanged at the stores tomorrow? So, do I want you to feel sadness at loving the Holiday Season? NO! I DO NOT!! I want you to LOOK at what you do and why you do it, for the Christmas you have come to know is the time of children’s dreams and fantasies. However, it is the time of confronting SOUL for ye never know when transition is the call of the day—FOR YOU.

There are more suicides and pain at this time of year than in all the other months combined. There is a franticness to “reclaim” something by adults, that never was present except in a “wishing” mind. And, the adversary laughs all the way to the bank! I only ask that you look within and see what is REALLY there and then let us all move on. Let us give reverence and, then, let us move on.

May we who remain in watching the unfolding of such divergent feelings, anger, spite and non-caring involvements, remain able to call in the LIGHT to shine upon this passage and may peace be brought into the hearts of men. May realization of self-status be granted to those who choose to deny life-attachments for theirs will be pain in the ongoing hate-filled lingerings of memory. Do not, however, dump ALL within the assumption of one. I don’t care how long John’s ashes sit in our place for John is very much alive and well and in far better positioning NOW than ever before and you will come to realize as much. And, NO, nothing will ever be “routine” in our expressing and this is but one realization of same. God works HIS mysterious miracles in very strange ways sometimes! And please note, friends, that we are clearing up a lot of loose ends which have continued to tie knots in our every effort at course direction.

Please realize that “the call compels the answer” and a LOT of you are constantly CALLING—and I find that you are now reading clearly the ANSWER. And, furthermore, thank you for leaving THE WAY to God in HIS INFINITE WISDOM.

Never mind where you might be next Christmas—where are you TODAY? Let us serve today and that which will come will be fine. You KNOW that you are in the final years of accomplishment of the PLAN 2000 as set forth for the taking total control of the globe. Therefore, it is expected that many still hidden accomplishments have to be made by the adversary. That does NOT mean that all will be terrible for all God’s chilluns. You can work among the enemy’s field-hands without becoming a field-hand for the Devil. I personally think it was nice to put A KNOWN FRIEND of ours into the Head of the United Nations station. Out of Africa may well come to mean more than a Robert Redford movie. And, for that matter, “Long live the Greeks!” with their own long set-aside contacts. You just never can tell—can you? Some of you who continue to refuse to recognize the “confirmations” perhaps need a spanking? Did everyone witness our ship last evening? Ah, we showed our blue lights in flashing brilliance for the blue-white light of total LIGHT is represented therein. God is never more than a THOUGHT away, as is REALITY.

There are myriads of responses and exchanges worthy of mention but some have more meaning than others in our task achievements. One son called last evening to find out if Doris is in jail or free because of the impending petition of adversaries to have her incarcerated for writing on LIGHT, etc. Another called from Greece to tell of most interesting evolutions and to tell Doris to keep right on doing what she is doing “please”. There are dozens of messages stating that no matter WHAT happens it is recognized that it is part of God’s own PLAN 2000. In this perception we can make it through the hard times quite nicely. Please realize that it takes as much love, care and attention to send us these messages FROM YOU as it does to continue our work here. Can you see that there is no separation other than in task perceptions? YOU are the fuel that keeps our engines running.

I ask Bob to please compile a presentation regarding his “motor” for a meeting with Bananas Inc. on their CEO’s next planned visit to the States. I don’t want this set aside, please, for things are going to start moving pretty quickly as we clear out the old year and begin some new adventures. I would also like for some background information to be available regarding “Brown’s gas”, etc., so that it can also be inputted at an original meeting as to possibilities. In return for sharing with US, we share with them. You need to consider a WORLD market place because you can see what bindings there are on the old U.S.A.

Make sure Simon in S.A. realizes these magnificent possibilities in business accomplishments because what you will have is a replacement for carbon-based fuels and it will come in a most respectable manner for all concerned. It truly is NOT for the grabbers so keep it out of the hands of attorneys—PLEASE. This is a gift to Mankind and somebody is going to make a full mint of value to selves. Let it flow to the world, please, and not into attorneys pockets to be a source of harassment forever. A handshake will have to again become the bond of a man’s word, and so should it be for oaths and contracts are things in expectation of the breaking. If you can’t get this simple concept then you have no RIGHT to go forth in ANY business.

Do you have “time” for all this? OF COURSE.

No, I did NOT say you have to have Brown, nor do I say you have to have ANYONE else—we just need to allow these things to unfold and watch the ones who already give forth false information so that you are not somehow trapped within their circles of misinformation. “On wings of Eagles shall come forth Truth,” so the promise goes! So, the next question might well be—“Are our wings strong enough?” YES INDEED!

Please note what some people actually do as they try to claim unto themselves the rightfully public ownership of great men’s work, as they came before. It is especially seen in the work on “free energy” devices as the work on LIGHT and motion, as was presented in its more deadly potential form by Tesla, is tampered, taken as new inventions, etc., by all ones, and especially those CLAIMING to be working FOR mankind and planet. No, they are FIRST working for self ego and financial gain—no matter what they tell otherwise. Is it not time to stop letting these snipes get away with their actions? If Doris has to spend some time in jail to stop it in the very annals of God, then so be it. We have faced harder things when we consider the overall whole.

When full efforts are given to blowing out the candles of truth instead of lighting new ones, you ERR.

I am intrigued by attitudes and at your shock as you are presented with mouth-opening things such as "Higher Forms of Killing" as presented in a book by Robert Harris and Jeremy Paxman. Is it not so much more important to know about "Higher Forms of LIVING"? In this Christmas Season—please consider these thoughts for the clock is ticking wildly in these final days of this millennium. Don't, please, be caught with your clock already run-down simply because it needed winding. And, I suggest you ALL (each) get a wind-up clock that needs winding every day to give of you its time recordings—for batteries can go dead and SHALL go dead from time to time in the days to come!

That would have been a good Christmas gift? Well, try the after-Christmas sales for a better price on old Big Ben. I further suggest you start working toward solar powered "brains" because electromagnetic equipment is also going to fail from time to time. An electric mixer, for instance, is going to mix very little when the electricity is NOT. Have you ever tried to listen to an audio tape without power to the play-back equipment?

These are things to think upon on this Christmas day of presents and exchange. God gives and regives and therefore you can know that that which is abounding on your place is NOT of God, but rather, the trappings of Men. To live in fullness of experience—you need BOTH. First we crawled and then we walked our stumbling steps—NOW WE KNOW, WE ARE OFF AND RUNNING! We no longer accept or expect that the Adversary wins just because he is meaner and bigger. We take control of every fragment of our lives which proves our destiny and, when we do this—the unfolding becomes quite different in presentation. We create that which we want to create and the destroyers are left without ability to create. They are left with the dregs of left-over ill-intent and misinformation. Why should YOU lock yourself within their traps laid for themselves?

May the beauty of THIS DAY shine far further than the limitations of a Santa Claus or even the perception of celebration over that of which you are no longer sure. And in that realization, may we honor those willing spirits who came to serve and teach, i.e. the John Schroeppers of the world. These are the fundamental lessons which give and regive forever.

Blessings rest upon the realization of Truth and, yes, abundance, that you don't miss the gifts. Salu.

JOHN SCHROEPFER
REMEMBERING

I ask that this day be dedicated to the memory of our beloved brother, John. May his name be listed high on our list of Teachers who gave greatly that all the rest of us might GROW.

How does this happen? How does anyone make another GROW? All things are connected and in that interconnection all things contribute to the whole in production of opportunities, scenarios in which choices are made and actions are taken, and above all, each life offers another the opportunity to GO WITHIN and CHOOSE attitudes, perceptions and perspectives. We find that each passage offers us, if they touch us physically, an opportunity to serve goodness, darkness and/or fence-sit. Most just continue to fence-sit while washing hands of any possible involvement which may interrupt an otherwise boring day.

How many of us left it to "others" to see to John's passage, dignity in the transition process, and final appropriations? Well, Audrey and Eric have earned stars in their crowns as we sorted through the morass of uncaring family and indifferent attachments. Did they mumble about "why me"? Did they say, "Well, it's no longer my problem"? No, they did what was necessary in the midst of disappointing insults and back-turning. They did it in spite of the spiteful and hateful things that even John shouted at them in his final time among friends.

Ah, but is this a eulogy to Audrey? No, it is an appreciation for Audrey which each of us should consider very, very carefully. Do you have any idea how difficult it is to make arrangements for a final resting place and circumstance for a human person when the family refuses to participate and makes clear that no "funds" will be forthcoming to even purchase a flower to rest on the coffin? And whether or not you ones like to consider this truth—the SOUL is present for a long time in witnessing that which takes place in the departure processing. The departure process is that time period of sequenced events that allows a being to process and appraise a life journey, discharge that which must be stored as data, evaluate exchange sites and generally relocate. Or, did you think it was just wham, bam, thank you, ma'am, and away we go?

I am going to do something today that I have never done in this gathering place. I am going to ask those who can to advance a few dollars, which are shortfall, to cover the outstanding expenses of John's funeral arrangements. I don't mean cookies and punch; I mean actual expenses which are outstanding at the mortuary and for transportation of John's physical remains, and just as a temporary help to the conservators who are some dollars short until other funding can either be arranged or forgotten. John has some zillion years of service in high places of employment and should have insurance, etc., but without family help in next-of-kin relationships, the conservator has to do what he can. It would help greatly if you present would just offer a couple of dollars or so to help temporarily. I will have to ask Audrey what is the shortfall but I see that it is not a great sum and no more than necessary for immediate use is even desired—perhaps the sum you would ordinarily offer in flowers which are now unnecessary—after the fact.

Everything is tied up in litigation, bless Green's heart, and Ekkers simply can't carry it all from their Social Security and neither can Audrey and Eric. In fact, we would prefer to handle this as always, as a temporary LOAN until John's own last Social Security and pension funds can be settled.

Readers, this petition is for the ones in this location who might wish to participate but when we print what we write here, it becomes impossible to remove, nor do we wish to, our local conversations. YOU are as much a team member as anyone here but the needs are immediate and therefore we have to petition to the ones present. Perhaps we can extend the Christmas Spirit of LOVE just a few days more. Thank you. I believe that the Law Center is working with conservators, so perhaps Mr. Dixon or Karen, or even Audrey, would be happy to handle the IOUs. And yes, sincerely, we DO believe it will only be for a short while but we would appreciate no usury, please.

Now, in addition, it is necessary to enter any outstanding costs assumed in John's care. By this I mean such things as the cost of furnishing and providing an apartment, vehicles, etc., while John was getting settled before moving into care facilities. In the care facilities there are extra things for repairs, replacements of

Remembering John

12/26/96 RICK MARTIN

May God bless John with clarity of mind in his continuing journey.

I knew a far different John than the one seen at recent Sunday meetings. I knew a John who was always quick to offer a helping hand when needed. I remember one time when my old Chevy Nova was acting up and I drove by John's house and mentioned it to him. Without a moment's hesitation John rolled up his sleeves, opened up his garage and began looking for his socket wrenches. He then proceeded to tear into my car's engine to see what was wrong.

Another strong image I have of John is with food. John would often travel to Bakersfield or into the valley to buy various kinds of food—not for himself, but for others. It seems like I used to perpetually see John offering a fresh bag of local oranges to me, always with a smile on his face.

John had a very strong practical sense of spiritual things. I have never known a man who believed so much in the power of prayer. John was also able to intervene into events (even in the political arena) by projecting himself (physically-astrally) when most people had never even heard of the term, much less how to do such a thing, which comes from a sense of deep concern.

There was far more to John than met the outward eye. We all remember him, of course, for his unrelenting concern for his Mercedes automobile. Yet, to a certain extent, who could blame him? John had worked hard at his professional engineering craft and had earned everything he had, the hard way! And before the vultures came in, he had a lot, but was ultimately stripped bare by some very greedy, small-minded buzzards.

The facts are, John's friends and "real" family were here in Tehachapi. People here gave back to John in generous offering. I will never forget going to John and Eleanor's house in 1988-89, sitting in the living room, when suddenly there was an ear-piercing shriek: "JOHN! JOHN!" The screeching was emanating from the stressed-out, feather-plucked parrot that John loved so dearly. The bird had learned, through many years of living with them both, to emulate the strident screams of Eleanor to John.

I want to ask something of John now: "John, now that you are where you are, put in your personal petition to the Grand Council to get us some help so that we may complete that which has been started." Thank you, and enjoy exploring this new road of freedom upon which you now walk—Lighted as it is by God and the good wishes of many loving friends.

carpets and such to which John caused personal damages and necessitated replacement. This is going to, in some instances, come to several thousands of dollars and, in one instance, some $6,500. This NEEDS to be entered to allow the conservator to settle John's affairs. THAT is why a court conservator was appointed and paid for services. There are large legal fees outstanding, as well, but those will be handled in a more appropriate manner than today's "business". And we will not overlook the prior loans made to the "Friends of John" fund when it comes settlement time for the conservator.

Dr. Overholt knew John Schroefer the longest of anyone here and shared much with John prior to ever hearing about "us". My hope is that any discomfort in John's final days will not distort the original friendship, for as LIFE impacts each of us we find conflicts to be ever so much more damaging to fragile "feelings". We all, who know John's story, can recognize that a normal young man would probably have had a mental breakdown or committed suicide at facing such incredible pressures as were on John in his last five to ten years. Most of us don't do too well at a day of problem-fearing, to which Al himself can attest. Even MURDER was attempted on John's being in order for departed associates to get his assets. If you all knew all about this circumstance you would have found John to be incredibly clear and functional. HOW WOULD YOU HOLD UP UNDER SUCH PRESSURES?

You look at living and you look at dying and THE GREAT MYSTERY looms ever so large before you. What is life and what is death? NOTHING. LIFE is that which you move INTO, not OUT OF. YOU are not the flesh body of self. However, at transition there IS a period of adjustment of Spirit (soul). There is NO adjustment period for body and the soul of that body couldn't care less what YOU do with it. YOU remaining in physical form are the ones that have to face the flesh/physical aspect of "another's" passage. Some people actually deliberately take their physical lives just to cause one of YOU to have to attend the mess left behind.

At the time of transition, however, the Soul is able to judge intents and witness that which is outstanding in "debts", or in actual relationships—without the lies of the parties remaining. By this I mean that an individual witnesses, and has to confront, all relationships in order to assess status. Is it not hard, do you suppose, to have to face REALITY in knowing that you are not worthy of so much as a call-back from a son, a denial of all connections by a brother, and so on down the line of relatives and even from those who tried to get your assets? Ah, but you can KNOW these latter ones will continue to try to strip every last thing, including the dignity, of the deceased. When you have those who try to do so in life, just watch what happens at death.

Why do I speak of these things at a "eulogy", when everyone is supposed to gush and squeak about "what a nice Joe this was"? Because I bring TRUTH and the facts are that a so-called death is only another BEGINNING for the departing being. John is much more "around" this place THIS DAY than he ever was in his physical form. And he needs to be honored for the great opportunities he gave freely to all of us who were, yes, privileged to share a bit of his journey.

John had some wondrous tales to share and most ones simply tossed them aside as outrageous and crazy talk. No, they were REAL and you were not. John grew to be confused between the REALITY HE KNEW and the experience of his imprisoned mind. He finally could see no hope of ever again merging fully, the two, and even if he could do so, his physical body could no longer serve him well. At this point a decision is made, considered, and honored.

John often demanded of me to tell him exactly "where the tunnels are" for he needed access, storage space for food and supplies for you, his friends, and he knew they are present. They are, and now he knows where, EXACTLY, they are. Too late to help? No, just keep listening, you who discount the possibilities.

Anyone moving on with the Angels of LIGHT are in for wondrous new and remembered experiences. The ones who move on with the dark imps of the next dimension are going to wish they had NOT. John moved with HIS angels so you are still the ones at disadvantage.

Ah yes, BUT, life goes on for the remaining undeparted and responsibilities, love, fun, relationships and ongoing "living" must be attended and, preferably, in a state of JOY. Since this is TRUE, why do YOU push the river's flow?

I asked some of you to write while Dharma is under fire for serving me and I needed a respite for her to regroup and be able to confront the next line of attack. I DID NOT ASK YOU TO BECOME PSYCHICS AND FORTUNE TELLERS TO OTHERS WHO ATTEND YOUR DIRECTIONS AND SUGGESTIONS. Be careful in either the receiving or the offering of such input and be VERY CAREFUL NOT TO CALL THE INSTRUCTIONS "HATONN'S" FOR I DO NOT FORTUNE TELL NOR DO I URGE RELATIONSHIPS IN ONE WAY OR ANOTHER.

You who are freshly involved in relationships—WHAT IS YOUR ALL-FIRED HURRY? Is it sex; is it a show of commitment? What is your problem? Can you not first find if you are stable and capable of standing ALONE before you move into relationships in which you have no knowledge or input on short term recognition? Move carefully, slowly, do your individual jobs, live wherever you want to live (together if possible) and yet live in RESPONSIBLE COMMITMENT, not with some State certificate of contract waiting to be broken one piece at a time.

Rick isn't here today so I can share that, by this time, he was involved and "in love" some four times prior to now, and had he ventured off into that marriage state, he would have broken all four contracts. I repeat the question: WHAT IS YOUR ALL-FIRED HURRY?

Love is a total commitment without any attachments or conditions as to contractual living. Can't you let that grow prior to doing silly things which are then difficult for responsible parties to UNDO? Can you not enjoy the growing together as friends first and then the final arrangements as to attachments CAN BE FINAL. What you do about your physical relationships is up to you, always with both parties in front of mind in responsible actions. Can you not, publicly if necessary to your inner comfort, make a commitment without all the trappings? Or, make the commitment, have the trappings of a SPECIAL DAY, and then let the river flow on its own? BE PATIENT for only in unfolding sequence of events can you KNOW how it will come to pass.

When you become a "team" without the bindings—then, and only then, can you experience freedom in relationships. Most people put on the handcuffs and shackles and THEN wonder what the Hell went wrong. When you cease to USE one another, you can have the freedom of a wondrous team in harness, for living, not in shackles for contractual foolishness.

Homosexual partners are totally without "reason" for LOVE has naught to do with physical interchange in a sexual fashion. Those activities are exactly what they are called, sexuality and sexual intercourse of all sorts and ridiculous fashion. LOVE IS THE BOND WHICH IS ABSOLUTE, FILLED WITH RESPECT AND REVERENCE, and NEEDS NO CONTRACT.

Share with your friends the joy of a relationship and be patient in the growing of that relationship and then, only then, can you at the right sequence of events, realize open freedom of choices. What, pray tell me, is wrong with two people, of the same sex or opposing sex, living under one roof with or without chaperone? What nonsense! It seems to me quite intelligent to share expenses, work load, cleaning and tidying, cooking and SHARING COMPANIONSHIP AND CARE.

GOD only requests RESPONSIBILITY in all things. A contract, from its very nature—is a paper to be BROKEN apart and ripped asunder. If a married couple has the right relationship, that piece of paper was and is unimportant except to remember a commemoration day which in itself is usually used to torment the OTHER HALF. If he/she forgets, God forbid.

If you can't work out your sharing arrangements without a contract, you DO NOT HAVE READINESS FOR A BIGGER STATE CONTRACT. If you find it necessary for your arrangements to suit self, children or anyone, based on anything but LOVE, RESPONSIBILITY, AND MUTUAL AGREEMENT, then DON'T put on the cuffs linking you together for there will only be heck to pay at some time, such as death separation.

John Schroefer had to leave the physical plane with his own bondage unresolved. Is that what you seek? Of course not, so again, what is your all-fired hurry in binding up one another into captivity? Do you fear another will come and you will lose your "chosen or accepted" mate to another? Well, let me warn you that a marriage certificate does not hamper that reality one iota. You may have the other party bound—but you will NOT bind the love.

Why take this day of all days, while honoring John, to speak of these things? Because of the circumstances at departure of one JOHN SCHROEPFER. There are thousands of you out there working through relationships, either out of them, into them, through them, hating them, loving them, arguing over them, being hurt this day or that, for this or that attitude of the other—and generally ignoring the fact that LOVE and MAGNETISM TOWARD ANOTHER are NOT IDENTICAL, but only a perception usually based on pretty blind hearts. If it is LOVE IN TRUTH, it WILL ALWAYS BE LOVE. If it is not, it needs to be known and that takes experience through myriads of events. Some of you think you need approval of ones you respect, such, frankly, as myself. I approve. I can see pitfalls in personal relationships but even if I point them out—you will not wish to accept them from me, at any rate. Most will tell me right up front what they have done or plan to do and thus and so. That is to prevent me from entering objective input.

This, unfortunately, comes not just with relationships but with dimensional change as well. John, for instance, says to me, "I'm going to leave this defective place and what do you think of that, Sir?" What can I think about that? In John's instance it seemed like probably a good idea and, after all, IT IS HIS DECISION! He suggested that if he waited for the law to settle his affairs, he would undoubtedly be into his post-century years and his legs already wouldn't hold him erect.

By the way, I do not like the term "Angel of Death". There are Angels of LIFE and Angels of Transition, as well as Angels or Energies of incarceration. There is not even death of the flesh body! There is ONLY CHANGE.

I am told by the "experts" that death is that which happens when the brain dies and energy departs. Ah, but energy NEVER DEPARTS. The cells change after they first become static and then a reversal of structuring takes place and the process is ongoing until once again the elemental status of the physical is exchanged into elements and energy of a different variety, and then it really reactivates itself. Even during the brief periods of rest (voidance) there is activity even if it be in microscopic change as things move into either release or dormancy or whatever. THAT, however, is no longer any CONCERN to the departed SOUL MIND.

"Well," I often hear, "you don't know how these things touch us as ongoing humans." Don't I? What is it that YOU know that is so much more valid than my own experience? What do you know about anything beyond that veil? Is not your opinion simply THAT—your opinion? How many of you see John sitting in that chair usually reserved for him? Well, HE IS THERE—WHERE ARE YOU?

A most funny thing happens to you physical beings as you move on toward living, and pass through these experiences and I can share some as examples.

Dharma and E.J., in planning for this day—REMEMBER BACK to what John used to like most. He liked coming from his prior residence to spend time at their house. E.J. even made a road in back so that John could park on the living-room level so that Eleanor would not have to go up and down the stairs. John liked nothing better than the evenings with pizza, wine or coffee, and cookies. He was a "cookie monster" and he would always bring cookies from his treks back and forth—from his favorite bakery. I'm glad that Dharma has insisted on having cakes and a bit of social interchange for these months for it allows you to enjoy one another briefly while you are living in the ability to partake physically and not just witness. John will be just as happy to witness now for he enjoyed, more than most of you, the treats. We honor where and when we can and then, friends, we RELEASE unto GOD that which GOD has reclaimed for a new adventure. Only GOD and JOHN can review and judge, discern, and evaluate service, so how nice that all we have to do is offer respect and RELEASE a friend, be it relative by blood or simply attachment through the chance encounters of evolvment. The term "chance" is ill-chosen but it presents the "idea" I hope to offer. There are only "choosings", not "chances".

My hope is that in having opportunity to speak more of LIVING IN PHYSICAL ATTACHMENTS that it is not embarrassing to anyone reading or listening for, after all, YOU are stuck with living in this environment and the ones already departed do not NEED the lessons. The better you live and the more responsibly you experience—the fewer "changes" are required of you in passage. John, of all people present, knew as much and found it to be "too late smart" and had to make passage in loneliness and with a heavy heart. Perhaps that with which I might end this appropriately is to ask all of you—again. WHAT IS YOUR ALL-FIRED HURRY? And KNOW something: John doesn't have "time" to hang around and dally with you longer.

In love and appreciation I share that which we can share, cherish the things we can share and, always, in infinite LOVE as with the LOVE OF GOD, I salute you and I offer humble respect, appreciation, and graduation to a humble STUDENT. Because JOHN WAS, he shall exist for all time. And someday, in the long ahead events, shall come some readings and someone will ask, as with John of Revelation, JOHN WHO? Ah, is not life a passing and interesting thing?

Good morning, and may the life you SAVE be your own, for it cannot be otherwise. Salu.

Corporation Formation—Structure, Part I

12/26/96 CORT CHRISTIE

We will now take a look at just what makes up a corporation and how the components of a corporation come together. As we move through this next section, keep in mind that there is a flow and a process to setting up a corporation and that everything that the corporation is doing needs to be properly documented. This section has been compiled in the order of just how a corporation comes to life. From its birth to its first breath and then on to crawling and walking. Keep in mind that everything that is happening is giving this corporation its own identity and its proof of existence.

Name: After the decision has been made to incorporate, the next step is to name your new creation. This question can be as simple as the first thing that pops into your head to spending days figuring out "THE NAME". The amount of thought you put into a name should depend exactly on how you plan to use your corporation.

If your corporation was created to protect you and to give you privacy, you obviously would not want to go with "YOUR NAME, INC." If you have had other businesses that you were or are associated with, you should be sure not to use those names or derivatives of those names. You need to think out all of the ways in which a name can promote your plans. For instance, if you created your corporation for the purpose of purchasing real estate, you may find great benefit in using a name that can benefit you when it comes time to negotiate a deal. If the name of the corporation was National

Real Estate, Inc. the impression is that this corporation is a large company that deals in real estate. For instance, when you were to approach a seller to buy property, you would say that "I'm Jim Johnson and I'm an agent for..... and my client is interested in your property". This can give you a great advantage as you go back and forth cutting a deal for your "client" with whom you periodically confer on the telephone.

In deciding on a name for your corporation, you may want to convey the image of a large, older, respectable institution by using a name such as "Landmark" or "First National". You can also piggy back by using well known names that are no longer in business like "Youngstown Sheet and Tube" or "United States Steel". You may also find it a great advantage to use a name similar to an existing company such as IBM which may stand for your company, Iowa Business Machines.

Some companies use names giving them the image of being a part of the Federal Government — such as The Federal Reserve, Federal Express, Inc., and the one no one is too sure about, the Internal Revenue Service. There can be many advantages to using names such as these if your business was interested in government contracts. You may want to use a name which sounds familiar to them, such as Federal Maintenance, Inc., Federal Construction Agency, Inc., etc. Conversely, you can completely hide your corporate identity by having it file for a legal alias (doing business as). Thus, Fred's Cafe might be the trade name for International Capital, Inc., thereby creating a complete change of image and identity. Most Las Vegas casinos are known by trade names rather than by the names of their parent corporations. The Sands is really Hughes Property Management Corporation. The Aladdin is really a Japanese company called Ginji Corporation.

Whatever you decide to name your corporation, you should be sure to give that decision plenty of consideration. As you can see, there can be a lot in a name. A great name can be a major catalyst for the future success of a new business.

Corporate Address: Resident Agent: Use your Resident Agent as the lightning rod. Always place the focus of the corporation on to your Resident Agent and towards their location. The Resident Agent, Nevada Corporate Headquarters, Inc., will draw focus away from you as much as is possible. When you need to utilize the physical address of the Resident Agent, use 3132 W. Post Rd., Las Vegas, NV 89118. We prefer that for routine corporate mail you utilize our P.O. Box 27740, Las Vegas, NV 89126. This box allows us to maintain the utmost privacy for all of your corporate mail.

Resident Agent Function: All corporations are required to have a physical office within the state of Nevada. The Resident Agent's responsibility is merely to represent you in Nevada. This means that any time that there are legal papers to serve on a corporation, that the Resident is there to accept that service. Also, if someone has a court order requesting documentation on a corporation, the Resident Agent is required to have specific documents on every corporation that they represent on file. These are the Resident Agent's most significant responsibilities. They are also required to have office hours all week long and they are required to have a location that is accessible by the general public. Every corporation that is represented by a Nevada Resident Agent must be sure to have on file at the location address of the Resident Agent, a copy of the corporation's Articles, Bylaws and their Stock Ledger Statement. If you have a need for other services, such as phones answered, business license hanging, etc., call Nevada Corporate Headquarters, Inc. directly at 1-800-398-1077 for more information. A Christmas Miracle: Get Your Kleenex!

12/26/96 #1 DORIS EKKER

A CHRISTMAS STORY— GET YOUR KLEENEX!

Please, a note from Doris: GOD IS EVERYWHERE AND YOU WILL BE EXACTLY WHERE YOU NEED TO BE AT ANY TIME IN ANY MOMENT!

Yesterday was Christmas and the hearts here were filled with the loving kindness of our friends upstairs, our Teachers, our very life-source.

We went with friends out of town to have dinner in a little town called Inyokern, to a little restaurant called Two Sisters. There were eight of us who had no "plans" for dinner and it seemed to be a wonderful day for a little desert drive and it seemed right to quietly GO somewhere for a little respite. And surely enough it was a happy dinner and all was well with the world.

Some miles into the trip back, we happened into HELL. A small car had crashed into a bridge abutment. There were flames erupting from the motor area which was now crunched into the front seat and God alone knows where the hood had flown.

We slammed to a stop and ran as fast as we could to the vehicle and I am amazed at how God takes control if you ask Him in. I have prayed before but never more sincerely. A young woman, perhaps thirty, and a child of about eight years were pinned between the dash and front seats. She was so pinned into the car as to be unable to even be shifted. She was, however, conscious and calling for help. "Somebody" got the flames out and by then other cars had begun to stop. I was holding the woman's head and actually had my arm through the shattered windshield, propped for support on the baby car seat which was tipped forward. Ah, but when we tipped the car seat back to free the other child wedged in between the Mother and it, THERE WAS A BABY IN THE CAR SEAT.

Little blue eyes from a round little cherub face smiled up at us and, friends, God smiled too—there was not a scratch on the baby. She only cried softly for a few minutes until a lady picked her up and got a blanket around her.

The story is not meant to be a tear jerker but it became one for all of us witnessing and getting the people out. To me it is pretty much of a blur.

One man who had stopped said he worked for the Forest Service and had "some" emergency training. The men were continuing to TRY to get an opening into the car—and the flames started up again. We asked for another fire extinguisher and humor entered the scene. Whoever put the flames out THIS TIME really did a job and the area was a fog-bank for a minute or so, stopping all of us—BUT WE DID NOT HAVE FURTHER FIRES.

I don't want to belabor this story but God was there in full form. I, being a hypnotherapist/nurse of a long time ago

Don't pray about anything you wouldn't want God to do through you.

Colossians 4:2

seemed to remember something from the haze of forgotten "things to do" and was able to get that lady, who was in absolutely excruciating pain from a compound hip fracture, into a relaxed stupor.

I think to shorten the tale I will just say that the NEXT people who stopped, among them, was a PEDIATRICIAN. It took six or seven men to pry that car apart enough to finally get enough opening to pull that woman from the mangled mess.

We got her and the children to safety (from the car possibly exploding). It seemed everybody just knew what to do and DID IT. We all knew we were at least a half hour away from help from any direction and it was, actually, more nearly an hour.

We determined the older child, Susan, was hurt but probably only superficially and the baby seemed to not even be damaged. I will interrupt this tale to say that had there been an airbag in that car—that baby would have been killed by it and this is without doubt.

We worked over the mother who had her teeth broken, abrasions, and visible fractures, for what seemed an endless time period but, bless her heart, she always responded and, in fact, I was able to keep her in a drowsy state long enough that that Forest "person" was able to actually reduce THAT MAJOR LEG FRACTURE, probably saving her months of later misery if not the very loss of the leg. So, we worked down the body giving some instructions to her to stop the bleeding and tell us where she was hurt, etc. And, God smiled, and the bleeding stopped.

Now for the most remarkable thing: this little mother was clutching my hand and by now Al Overholt was holding her head steady and she looked right through him, and then me, and said, "I know you." Unlikely, seeing that she had never been anywhere near either of us.

Then she grasped my hand more tightly and asked me: "Are you a Christian?" When I said, "Boy, am I ever a Christian!" (and at that moment I really knew it), she just relaxed and whispered, "Don't leave me." Al and I both assured her God AND Christ (and I think the Hosts of Angels) were all there and had attended just about everyone involved. She murmured something about "...are you an angel?" and I muttered something back like, "Well, God and Angels come in all shapes and sizes."

Later as we started to leave the scene I surveyed the setting and began to shake as the "let-down" from adrenalin settled in. I saw the scattered toys and blood and mangled metal and realized I had experienced a Christmas Miracle beyond description. We knew that a dying mother would live to attend her babies and God had somehow spared the children.

I'm sure each person in attendance would have a somewhat DIFFERENT version of everything—but most all of us would have the same appreciation for God and Angels. What has happened to me is beyond "reasonable"—I suddenly KNEW that, yes, I am an Angel. Al is an Angel; E.J. is an Angel; YOU ARE AN ANGEL. And now I realize that God sends help when called upon and this lady was calling—and the hands that help are attached to we, the Angels, God sends in our moments of need—when we ask.

When the mother and children were settled into the ambulance (which is another story in itself) the baby (Annie, I think), smiled and said—"Bye". I thought I was back with E.T. at the end of the movie.

We will find this lady in a hospital somewhere, I hope today, for she will need to meet her "angels" and I need to know she will be alright. But, it was a Christmas Story I needed to share, friends, for I must always recognize that what I do DOES affect others as does every effort YOU make, affect me and others. And, if God has chosen to use MY HANDS for HIS service—I am ready, willing and able! If I seem more blessed than others—forget it. The only difference in YOU and me is that HE used the "2 x 4" perhaps a bit harder (or sooner) on my thick head.

I, like you, probably, want somebody ELSE to be what I must be and yet it cannot be. God provides the circumstances—we must provide the responsibility and the actions. And we must take CONTROL of our SELVES and only then can we control any part of our environment according to responsibility as noted in any given moment in time.

I feel a bit of shame as I read your cards and letters and lick my wounds over such idiotic things as jail threats and silly court games. I watched God at work yesterday, and frankly, EVERY DAY there comes another confirmation beyond reasonable explanation of HIS PRESENCE all around everything we do—and I don't have any real problems! I repeat: I DO NOT HAVE ANY PROBLEMS that cannot be solved if we just TAKE CONTROL of the circumstances.

I now know this because I HAVE GOD, and the adversary has NOTHING! If we take control of our own destinies NOW, we can end these blasted court attacks from the moronic minds of the few ill-intended beggars; these greedy, lying, cheating, niggardly people.

I will go on record this day of December 26, 1996 as assuming my status as "an Angel of the messenger variety" and "I'm mad as Hell and don't intend to take it any more." You help me, friend, and I'll help you and WE will get this terrible disease on our place—STOPPED! I witnessed yesterday, men actually bending and shattering those car windows without thought to cuts or whatever. We all stayed at that car while it threatened to "blow" and never gave more than a thought to get another fire extinguisher. Heroes? No, it never entered any of our minds to do otherwise. We have let a FEW terrible people living in the spaces of evil gain control of and continue to destroy our moral values, our daring spirits, our very beings, and we stand around like we have no alternatives. Yes we do—we can save ourselves or we can give it up—whichever outbalances the other. I choose to work on the "salvage" end of this see-saw!

I learned something else yesterday: YOU AND I WILL BE WHEREVER WE ARE SUPPOSED TO BE—AT THE RIGHT TIME—IF WE SIMPLY "GO WITH GOD". You see, the car yesterday did not blow up, through loving and immediate care, from total strangers going who knows where from who knows where; a madonna and two babies lived and it's enough Christ—mas for me! I shall die with the picture of that mother's eyes pleading with me to just stay with her and the incredible smiling eyes of that baby girl—who barely cried! Don't anybody, ever again, try to tell me there are not Angels and there is NO GOD. And the next time a Leon Fort or a George Green tries to convince the world or anybody, that I am evil or bad or crazy—forget it—for yesterday I not only saw God but He held my hands and I don't need to die here to KNOW Truth and/or that which HE has given into my care and responsibility in purpose.

When such as George Abbott puts in the Associated Press International writings that "Doris claims to be Jesus Christ" I shall just remember the stupidity of such a foolish thing and realize that silly is as silly does and his stupidity is not my problem because I KNOW God; I KNOW this very Christ being of which they taunt, AND I SUDDENLY KNOW MYSELF!—finally.

I am caused to remember a song played during World War II called The White Cliffs of Dover in which lyrics read, "when the lights go on again all over the world..." I was just a child but I remember. Today the tune keeps running through my mind—"when the LIGHT comes on again, all over this world..." Well, they won't come on again—anywhere, if we don't turn them on.

We tend to go into our trance state and go with the observers who will say such as "how lucky that a pediatrician came along" and "how lucky and what a coincidence that an emergency tech happened along" and "how lucky that someone knew a little hypnosis technique" and on and on—but readers, there are NO COINCIDENCES and NO LUCKY ANYTHING!

We got home last night in a somewhat disheveled state (putting it nicely), all of us feeling humble and quiet in our own thoughts. We will treasure whatever private thoughts we hold about this incident but we all felt closer and knew we had witnessed LIFE. When E.J. and I came in there were some packages yet unopened, after having been misdelivered, and we opened one from his sister, Evelyn, and found a little angel figure she had made which had a tinsel halo all askew and her hair was frazzled and her "robe" was quite untidy and we fell to laughter because this angel will become a most precious possession and I shall lend her out to anyone who perceives there are problems in their lives.

We tidied up her halo and reglued her robe but her wings are still a bit crumpled. That seems to fit the occasion and keeps us all humble in checking our own wings. It is not our hands that hold miracles but God holding our hands that creates the miracles.

I wonder if I can bring my angel to jail with me? Hummmn, doesn't sound so bad today! And yes, indeed, when the LIGHT goes on again, around this world—we shall be there to share, IF WE WANT TO BE. And I want to be. I will also try to always determine my actions by my "status as an angel" and check out my motives and my actions according to my hands, serving as God's witness, hopefully, BEFORE I act rashly in reaction to this or that thing, instead of responding in thoughtful and logical expression within reason and Truth. BUT, readers, now that I KNOW this Truth I shall warn the adversary that THE DAYS ARE NUMBERED for their prevalence against Truth and we who hold the LIGHT, because they have not a prayer of making their lies hold water—anywhere, anymore. And, we (you and me, us and you'all) will join hands through those invisible bonds and connections and we will move as a team that we ARE. And our TEAM will stretch across the nations and LIGHT will come forth. ~~We need no groupie, no church,~~ no bunch of doctrines and dogmas—WE HAVE GOD IN HIS LIGHTED ALLNESS. We HAVE the Christ-Truth which allows us guidelines for our every intent and action and we don't need a preacher to tell us WRONG information. Further, God will GIVE AND REGIVE infinitely for however, and however long, we call upon HIM, the SOURCE CENTER of energy flow, for the whole of the Universe. GOD IS LIGHT in reality and, as the Great Teacher reminded us, "what I can do, ye can do, and more."

Thank you for allowing me to share this little story, which is about as big a story as I have experienced, with you. I'm sure that if you think upon the matter you will find many such tales scattered amongst your memories. But I can't live YOUR memories, only mine. Together, they become OURS and I treasure that thought above others.

I shall never be the SAME, I shall be better! — Doris Killer Bugs Are Here!

borders, even State borders.

A shipment of Spelta was stopped at the California border and held for now over three weeks because of a possible presence of something called a leaf beetle of some kind. This is noted here because cleaning the grain a second time will take out the beetle itself. So too will winters such as are found in Wisconsin, etc., kill both the beetle and the larvae. However, that means that grain from those areas cannot be "simply" shipped about the States without special packaging, bagging, cleaning, etc., except February through April. This is not to get nasty but it is specifically to keep the infestors out of other growing states. Since we want the varmints no more than do the originating farmers, it becomes a real problem at times and a more expensive problem than the market can bear. Part of The Plan is to keep such wondrous grain as Spelta, off the market.

I repeat something here: if you had 4 eight-ounce glasses of hydrated Melloram and two regular-size slices of Spelta whole grain bread a day, you would produce a perfectly healthy adult body. That body would be slim, trim and muscled. Even though Melloram contains some dairy products, it is totally digestible to even you more critical cases of refusal of milk as a food.

Some products are not "ours" to either advertise or speak of too abundantly because all sorts of regulations prevent us from saying much more than you "probably won't perish from use of the product". Any kind of positive "claims" simply are not allowed—period.

I have asked the producer of the product to set up a supply of this product in its original formula (and no, substitute products are NOT acceptable in exchange for I know nothing about substitutes and this particular product is an "original" which has since been changed—for the worse, I hastily add).

Now I am really going out on a limb but I can't see how it could possibly be unlawful to make some suggestions to you.

Before I take up Melloram, however, I need to speak about colloidalized vitamins, etc. Please realize that we are prevented, again by regulations, from offering MORE than a colloidalized solution of vitamins and/or minerals greater than an amount to supply a perfectly healthy body in top-level condition. Therefore, if you can do so, I suggest you keep up some supplementation of the KNOWN substances which enhance or ameliorate ailing organs, etc. Example: You need additional silica if you still have unhealthy nails. We are not allowed to add enough silica to the vitamin "base" to do more than allow for 100% cell take-up. Also KNOW that a liquid is far superior to use by a body than is a compressed pill-form of anything. A chewable form is not as good as a liquid but is superior to a pill. You have to use your brains and do what you can for self because regulators will not allow us to do more and they are going to stop much of what the non-drug health market now produces.

Some of this regulation is not bad, readers, because there are shysters in every field which has proved to be worthy, and the colloid industry is a prime example.

So, if you want to enhance such as Melloram (which, by the way, substitutes for ALL requirements for dairy products if you have allergies and digestive problems.), you need to know a few things.

1. Take multivitamin tablets, add minerals and other supplements and crush them. Dissolve what will dissolve in a small amount of water so that you now have drops for use.

2. For a HALF GALLON mix of Melloram in a shaker bottle, blender or whatever you use for mixing, add 5 to 7 drops of the vit./min. mix as above No. 1.

3. Add 5 drops of Gaiandriana to that mix. When well blended—VORTEX for at least eight (8) times turning of your vortex bottles. This will remove all negative taste from the vitamin drops and homogenize the solution. I still suggest shaking the mixture at use but that is, of course, up to you. The point, however, is to get the most you can from EACH amount taken in. Even for a family with children drinking a lot of milk, this is a "near miracle" substitute and will end up costing you no more, at worst, than purchased processed milk [approx. 2 cents per ounce]. And, your children will stop having slimy noses all year.

4. You will find all sorts of wonderful things "seeming" to happen. One is an almost immediate soothing of intestinal inflammations. Another is a lessening in the pain of such things as arthritis. If you add extra ZINC you will find, possibly, a full remission of arthritis. The point is, readers, you can evaluate for selves what you ADD to your Melloram.

If you wish to do this with simple powdered milk, you will find an enhancement of flavor if you simply VORTEX the mixed milk.

ALWAYS ADD A MINIMUM OF 3 DROPS OF

New Gaia Products

FOOD-GRADE (35%) HYDROGEN PEROXIDE PER HALF GALLON TO INSURE WATER THAT HAS NO MICROBIAL INFECTIVE ORGANISMS—or use boiled water for mixing your drinks. Filtered water may well taste wonderful but you cannot insure microbe-free water with filtration.

I will also go on record as saying that, if you like milk—you will probably like Melloream, as to flavor, better. If you don't, you can mix it with any number of flavored extracts to make it more suitable to your particular taste-buds.

THIS IS NOT A SUBSTITUTE FOR GAIALYTE. THERE ARE THINGS IN GAIALYTE THAT YOU DO NOT GET ANYWHERE ELSE. HOWEVER, IF YOU MIX YOUR GAIALYTE AND ADD THESE EXTRA SUPPLEMENTS AS DESCRIBED ABOVE YOU WILL HAVE A PERFECT HEALTH DRINK. VORTEXING ANY LIQUID MIX IS A TREMENDOUSLY VALUABLE ENHANCEMENT AND A VERY ACCEPTABLE, EVEN TO CHILDREN AND THE ELDERLY, WAY TO GET LOTS OF EXTRA VITAMINS AND MINERALS INTAKEN WITHOUT STRUGGLE, AND, IN A FORM THAT IS PERFECT FOR BODY USAGE.

[EJ Note: We were first attracted to Melloream because of its nutritional completeness, compatibility with spelt bread, and its long (now known to be longer than ten years) shelf life. For last ditch survival, please give that some thought.]

Ah, but to clean the vortex apparatus now "homogenized" with a coating of liquid milky substance? "Vortex" half a bottle of water with detergent or soap—then rinse in the same manner. You will not have any bacteria buildup if you add appropriate Hydrogen Peroxide to the rinse water. Moreover, you can use antiseptic grade (3%) Hydrogen Peroxide for that purpose. In fact, if you have no food-grade peroxide available, and that happens from time to time, use an additional three drops of the regular antiseptic Hydrogen Peroxide IF YOU ARE GOING TO VORTEX THE SOLUTION. Add it, of course, before you vortex so that the action is not lost to the "raw" solution. Hydrogen Peroxide, immediately upon vortexing, moves into the CELLS present and is nicely appreciated by the body but is rendered harmless as an antiseptic quality. It is THE reason, however, that it also renders whatever is in the product—HARMLESS for body cells which either accept/reject that which is suitable/unsuitable for particular cell processes.

I am asked what happened to the baby "Brown" of which we wrote many months ago. Well, the family had some extended quality time with the child, but genetically he was unable to reclaim his missing genetic structure. He came home a few weeks ago. Genetic tampering seems to be the thing of the day in the laboratories but is unavailable to you-the-people in such circumstances. We could help, but we could not rebuild or replace something totally MISSING or too damaged to allow for reproduction.

Dr. Wendell Hoffmann followed the baby until his passage. And, speaking now of Dr. Hoffmann, our beloved friend, you who keep in touch with him will find him at a new address and perhaps we could run that address for you friends for he has been so involved with us that we want to give credit and appreciation [see box below]. Dr. Hoffmann's family relationships have been irreversibly damaged by George Green's antics and he has had to move to a separate location... Life is sometimes hard, readers, and often is without resolution when greed and avarice take control. Some of Green's buddies tampered with products in about 1993 and sent them to laboratories in order to shut down Hatonn—but only damaged "his own friend" Wendell. Life will be far improved for Wendell. The price for goodness SEEMS HIGH at times, but it is NOT, for after all, it is the RESULTS that bring joy or sorrow, not the passing moments of facing life as it comes. When one partner wants "things" of seeming value and the other wants TRUTH, the twain shall never be able to resolve differences. When these things happen—you will be most regretful if you choose "things" over GOD for there will STILL be no peace or joy in the compromise.

I want now to pour some more data onto you. It is NECESSARY against the day the colloids are taken from you. And, this is obviously a product that can be made and utilized in time, in countries such as Italy, Greece, etc., where the Olive Tree is the KING of all trees. So, this is NOT a new product but is one that in the newly "civilized" countries is all but unknown. And, as we move along in the information zone, please know that SELENIUM, added to your vortexed liquids will save your neck and assets. I suggest, in fact, that you will want to add crushed Selenium tablets to your vit./min. mixture. Don't overdo—just use the tablets already available in a ratio appropriate for your dropper use.

I am going to talk about Olive Leaf Extract as offered but I will assure you that enhancement of that product is possible and we SHALL do it. Dharma simply has no time for it now and if she ends up incarcerated for speaking on LIGHT we have a real problem for I won't give it through others. With this in mind we are going to reprint here a paper by DR. MORTON WALKER, Medical Journalist, Contributing Editor, Alternate Healing Methods. The paper itself is reprinted with permission of Explore Publications and appeared in Vol. 7, No. 4, 1996. This product is coming out from here and there all over the U.S. map so I will NOT without further permission recommend any particular product—but as our own people work further with the author and others, we will keep you posted and even make sure that we can get a product available as quickly as we can do so. So far this comes in capsule or pill form, neither of which is optimum value product—so we will wait and see as we unfold our own mode of direct cellular-use product. We have the product, we just have to get it in finalized form, integrated with the Drias, and this in itself is like growing a seasonal crop. However, not to further detract:

From Dr. Morton Walker, [quoting:]

OLIVE LEAF EXTRACT

THE NEW ORAL TREATMENT TO COUNTERACT MOST TYPES OF PATHOLOGICAL ORGANISMS

[H: We will only utilize the portions of the work that give historical background and general information. If you wish further insight and product information you will have to contact Dr. Walker yourself. I believe that Mr. James, who can be reached through CONTACT, might very well have reprints of this article in separate format. For our purposes this is sufficient.]

You and I—residents of Western Industrialized countries—currently are confronting attacks of pathological "superbug" invaders. Because of immune system degradation among masses of the populace, our countrymen (and women) are suffering from often inexplicable afflictions brought on by certain ubiquitous disease-producing microorganisms. The organisms consist of:

1. viruses—most especially the retroviruses—that don't merely pass through cell membranes but rather take control of the affected cell's genetic machinery;

2. antibiotic-resistant bacteria which in some cases actually thrive on the synthetic drugs developed by pharmaceutical companies supposedly to kill and/or suppress them;
3. yeasts and additional opportunistic fungi which produce candidotoxin and other microtoxins largely responsible for those collective symptoms designated as chronic fatigue and immune dysfunction syndrome;
4. parasites, both as protozoa and helminth worms, which are the sources of serious diarrheal diseases and constitute the greatest single cause of sickness (morbidity) and death (mortality) for humankind.

Such pathological organisms are associated with (a) an overburden of one's immune system, (b) the variable diseases of over-industrialization, (c) a deterioration of Nature's original ecological setting, and (d) the inability of most people to adapt when living amidst high technology.

In such situations of manmade artificiality, human immunological defenses become so weakened that retroviruses often come out of their dormancy where they've rested in commensalism. (Commensalism is the neutral state in which an organism lives on or in another of a different species without harming or benefiting the host.) When retroviruses are awakened to activity by alteration of the human internal terrain, they may readily take hold of their immediate environment by creating pathology within the host's cellular structures.

No single treatment has been known to work against these superbug invaders—until now. The current article will discuss a newly discovered antimicrobial agent which actually has been available to mankind since God created our planet. This new, orally-administered gelatin capsule containing grayish/brownish/greenish powder embodies an extract of leaves harvested from "the tree of life"—the olive tree, botanically classified as Olea europaea L. [H: Dharma is particularly ticked-off at me for this new batch of writings on this topic because she and E.J. and family moved, after two decades of living in a wonderful sprawling and very huge home nestled among 54 of these ancient old olive friends—of this variety. The children considered them the curse of their "chore" lives with their suckers growing for trimming and the olives dropping all over everything with seemingly no use whatsoever except to ruin a child's life of leisure. We had to bring ancient OAKS into Dharma's life to allow her to give up those old olive friends and now, look, they could have made a fortune from that wondrous acre of ground. Oh well.... The facts are that olive trees, underwater, are not nearly so effective!]

TWO MILLION AMERICANS GET HOSPITAL-ACQUIRED INFECTIONS

Over two million Americans enter hospitals each year with one ailment and wind up with another. The mere fact of being in a hospital exposes them to "nosocomial" or hospital-acquired infections, which are fatal to as many as 22,000 Americans a year and untold numbers of other countries.

"The very technology that saves patients' lives now sets them up for infection," says Robert Haley, M.D., head of the Epidemiology and Preventive Medicine Unit at The University of Texas Health Science Center at Dallas. "Ten years ago many of these patients would have died, but the techniques that save them bring a risk of infection. We have more burn units, more ICUs [intensive care units], more catheters, more respirators. Every piece of equipment, every invasive technique provides the opportunity for infection to develop."

Worse, antibiotic-resistant organisms are an integral risk of any infection whether they are the original cause of illness or acquired nosocomially. "About the time the cost-price of an antibiotic comes down, the bacterium's resistance to it goes up," Dr. Haley said in a University of Texas press conference.

After forty years of their overly aggressive pushing of antibiotics for any little reason, physicians are now confronting the bacteria that have mutated and built defenses against drugs. The infectious bacteria have become types of "super-bugs", causing the deaths of patients who succumb to once-treatable invasions of these pathological organisms.

HOW ANTIBIOTICS HAD ACTED AGAINST BACTERIA

Without question, the reappearance of highly infectious bacteria cloaked in their super-resistant mantles lies with allopathic medicine's overuse and misuse of antibiotics. The bacteria's return with a vengeance is attributable in small part as well to the ingenious biochemistry of the microorganisms themselves.

For a bacterium to cause an infection, it must enter the body and find a place to multiply in large numbers before the body's natural defenses remove it. If the bacterial quantities increase beyond the capability of a person's immune defense system, dire consequences result. As their numbers elevate into the billions, the bacteria bring about illness by churning out toxins or by digesting tissues.

In 1928, however, Dr. Alexander Fleming gave the world penicillin, and a set of new therapeutic principles was born using antibiotics. Most antibiotics had worked effectively by killing the growing bacterial colony in one of three ways.

1. A large number of antibiotics, including penicillin, interfered with the microbe's ability to build its cell wall.
2. Other antibiotics, such as erythromycin and tetracycline, gummed up the machinery that bacteria use to assemble vital proteins.
3. A third antibiotic type adhered to the bacterial chromosome, effectively shutting down reproduction.

To accomplish any of these tasks, the antibiotic either penetrated the body of the bacterium or fitted like a lock-and-key onto a chemical binding site on its outer membrane or cell wall. Because of the microorganisms' mutations in defense, the antibiotics hardly create these therapeutic effects anymore. The super-bugs are resistant to almost every type of antibiotic created in the past, and nothing in the future holds much promise.

Bacterial immunological genes are a factor too. The bacteria have returned with a vengeance because they are moving targets. If just one in a population of a billion develops a random gene mutation that allows it to survive an antibiotic attack, it can pass this immunity gene along to its offspring. For example, some of the microbes that first developed an immunity to penicillin did so by altering the shape of the cell wall target to which the drug normally attached. Over the years the pharmaceutical industry responded with more powerful (and more expensive) antibiotics. But the bacteria kept upping the ante by altering their own defenses with immunological genes.

This antibiotic immunity is not entirely the result of chance mutation. The super-bugs are able to cooperate with each other to resist the antibiotics by exchanging small, self-copying loops of deoxyribonucleic acid (DNA) called plasmids. Plasmids contain supplemental genes that may not be present on a bacterium's main chromosome. In addition, these pathological organisms contain "jumping genes", bits of DNA that pop from one microbe to another. "Bacteria are not separate populations but part of a vast, interactive microbial world," says Stuart Levy, M.D., of Tufts University.

TYPICAL ANTIBIOTIC-RESISTANT SUPER MICROBES

Bacteria replicate at blinding speed in vivo—sometimes doubling within five minutes. The reproductive process can produce genetic mutations that give bacteria defenses against a given drug—making an enzyme that splits the penicillin molecule, for instance, so it becomes harmless. The microbes can then quickly pass on their genetic armor to offspring.

Some of these super microbes mutate into a "multi-drug-resistant" strain as in the case of one type of tuberculosis which hit major cities and hospitals in 1992. This strain of Mycobacterium tuberculosis becomes immune to several medications simultaneously and causes death in 50 percent of its victims.

Then there is the common staphylococcus which may prove deadly when it contaminates a wound, gets inside the body during surgery, or infects someone in a weakened condition, such as a bedridden hospital or nursing home patient. Although once cured with penicillin usage, the staphylococci that breed in hospitals now have learned to inactivate almost every antibiotic except vancomycin, an intravenous drug with serious complicating side effects such as kidney toxicity and hearing loss. [H: Well, in most instances it no longer is effective anyway. Moreover, you cannot have access to this therapy outside a hospital environment as is true with other things which WOULD act to rid the body of toxic microbes. For instance, had John Schroepfer been non-hospitalized and we were afforded ability to use other alternative products—he would still be a physical, living being and regain his faculties for a productive life. This is no longer afforded the public as an opportunity and, as quickly as possible, the alternative substances are being removed from all public acquisition. However, it gets impossible for the "government" thugs to remove everything from you because air and water are essential to THEIR lives also. We just have to be as clever as they and as harmless as the proverbial Dove.] And resistance even to this brutal drug has developed in a related staphylococcus organism—the enterococci—which infect surgical wounds below the waist.

Two common respiratory infectors, Haemophilus influenzae and Streptococcus pneumoniae have emerged as antibiotic-resistant. The standard ear and sinus infections often present in children and adults usually are created by S. Pneumoniae. Both of these infectors can cause meningitis.

According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), cases of food-borne, drug-resistant salmonella have risen from 16 percent in 1989 and are 44 percent today.

Even with the thirty or so antibiotics the established pharmaceutical industry claims to be working on, currently there are no more potent antibiotics left to treat these drug-resistant bacteria. [H: Even Vancomycin!] Whatever the companies come up with, all of the antibiotics derive from molds and bacteria in the soil and work through the same narrow mechanisms. Get infected with one of the super resistant pathological organisms, and the odds are that you or your loved one could become exceedingly ill—perhaps die! That's why we need a natural, safe and nontoxic, food supplement that's proven itself repeatedly as the means of counteracting invasions of immune-suppress-

[END OF QUOTING]

We have offered less than half the article so please stay tuned; however, we need to attend other things today so we will come back to this for the next session.

I want you to let this digest anyway for you are in seriously troubled times, readers.

Some of you write or complain that you can't afford, say, GaiaCol or other products. Can't you? If you are sick to the point of medical care—what does it cost you? Oh, insurance pays? Medicare pays? Really??? What is your deductible? How much does that insurance COST? What exactly is covered by your policy? How long can you go with only receiving antibiotics THAT DON'T WORK? You are going to have to balance $20 to $40 against the hundreds of dollars spent and the possible failure of any response to the going antibiotics. No, I am NOT saying to not go for help where you can get it—but DO NOT give me the old "I can't afford it". The facts are that our people can't afford to produce the products! So, it is up to YOU what you do. We are not offering you some kind of Nostradamus fortune-telling about the seriousness of your plight—THIS INFORMATION COMES FROM YOUR OWN SCIENTIFIC CENTERS.

It reminds me, along the same lines of thought, how careless you are and how you wish to discount what we bring to your attention. This is like the earthquake possibilities when I tell you there will be a B. 3 One on the San Andreas of above 10 on your meters. That is NOTHING to what your own geologists tell you DAILY.

Just WHO will you listen to, readers? Well, God gave me a mission to "tell you"—He didn't say I had to also open your ears and eyes! So be it.

Thank you and good morning. Salu.

OLIVE LEAF EXTRACT

Our friend, Bob James, has researched and met with a Dr. James R. Privitera, M.D. who I feel is THE expert on the subject of this extract. I ask that you be informed as to HOW you can get his small booklet entitled Olive Leaf Extract—a new/old healing bonanza for mankind. [Call New Gaia at 800-639-4242 to order the booklet.]

I am not going to continue with the whole of the literature available, but I will move to excerpting from the article begun on the yesterday. I do suggest you get Dr. Privitera's information to become fully informed.

WHAT THE COMPONENTS OF OLIVE LEAF EXTRACT CAN DO

Dr. Privitera described his uses in clinical practice and we'll offer his listing for you:

- * The generalized degradation of pathological microorganisms of all types: viruses, retroviruses, bacteria, fungi, yeasts, molds, protozoa, helminth worms, and other parasites;
- * the relief of arthritic inflammations, especially osteoarthritis and rheumatoid arthritis; [H: Please note that major improvement is also noted by

- arthritis sufferers by use of Goat's milk whey and users of whey-based Melloream.]
- * the reduction of insulin dosages for better control over the risks of symptomatic diabetes;
- * the elimination of chronic fatigue and the symptoms associated with its syndrome;
- * the creation or restoration of abundant energy with prolonged stamina;
- * the normalization of heart beat irregularities (arrhythmias);
- * the improvement of blood flow in cardiovascular and/or peripheral vascular disorders;
- * the lessening of pain from hemorrhoids;
- * the attenuation of toothaches;
- * the antioxidant quenching of free radical pathology;
- * the obliteration of fungal infections such as mycotic nails, athlete's foot, and jock itch;
- * the permanent relief of malaria (from a protozoa), and other more exotic but deadly tropical diseases which produce fever as a primary symptom;
- * the prevention and effective treatment of all types of viral diseases including the Epstein-Barr virus, cytomegalovirus, the herpes viruses, human herpes virus-6, the retroviruses, the influenza viruses, viruses of the common cold, and the human immunodeficiency virus (HIV);
- * the reversal of almost all symptomatology connected with Candida albicans and other organisms causing the yeast syndrome;
- * the death and excretion of a variety of parasites: the microscopic protozoa and the macroscopic helminth worms.

The applications seem to be unlimited while at the same time the extract shows no signs of toxicity to either test animals or humans.

WHAT IS OLIVE LEAF EXTRACT?

Oleuropein, the bitter glucoside lodged in leaves of the green olive tree, and products of its hydrolysis, contain certain components which are valuable as newly discovered therapy for both infectious and degenerative diseases. The empirical formula of oleuropein ($C_{25}H_{32}O_{13}$) makes it a member of the iridoid group, a uniquely structured chemical class which contains a carbohydrate component appearing as D-glucose. The first iridoid found in nature, verbenalin, was isolated as early as 1835, but no investigation into the group's structure began until 1963. That's because iridoids are extremely unstable and one member of the group has the capability to transfer into another. This is the biogenetic characteristic which causes the unique therapeutic advantages of components within the iridoid oleuropein.

In checking for oleuropein toxicity, doses as high as one gram per kilogram of body weight for seven days were used in experiments with test mice. No death was provoked and the dosage exerted no toxic effects. In fact, oleuropein in olive leaf extract is so safe that the investigators failed to determine the lethal dose or even find a toxic dosage.

I toss this in because you will always find the skeptics who say such as "yeah, but..." And, "yeah, but it may become addictive and...". I certainly hope so! Well, the "yeah, but..." can have their sicknesses just as long as they want to hold them, I always say.

Virgin Olive oil is a FINE product as well. If you could add a bit of olive oil to your intake of Melloream, you would have a PERFECT food source. Put all this together and you have a long-time-storage food supply and products to get you through illnesses and into GOOD health. Melloream, for instance, has been now tested in storage of no particular care and has remained relatively unchanged from new product—AFTER A PERIOD OF TEN YEARS. Since "time" is the critical guideline here, it is not known how long the product will store but obviously, a long, long time if kept dry and sealed. The same with OLIVE OIL and these products of Olive Leaf Extract—just keep them sealed! If rancidity happens to the oil—use it in your lamps on days the power fails. You have to realize, readers, that THERE WAS LIFE BEFORE THE DRUG COMPANIES STARTED KILLING YOU OFF THROUGH THE POISON, SLASH, CUT AND BURN TECHNIQUES. And remember that the American Medical Association is a PRIVATE CLUB just as is the BAR ASSOCIATION. When you stop to realize that a private club determines what you can have and what you cannot have—you might just get a bit miffed and do something about it. When you can't chew olive leaves instead of taking the chemical poisons dictated by law, you are in a very SICK society—and that is exactly where you find yourselves this day.

It used to be in the Mediterranean countries that if a roadway came upon an olive tree—the road was split or changed and the tree remained unchanged. This is an excellent idea for the olive tree is truly THE tree of life.

It truly is, however, a tedious task to pick, dry, and package the leaf extract and keep the product viable and potent. I can't offer you an easy way to do same and I don't want to even try. We can easily enhance the leaves which do lose some of their component parts to changes by simply spraying them with Dria-based solutions of minerals and vitamins. Selenium is a critical component of a GOOD extract so to insure full value we would have to stabilize the leaves and boost the element. Then we can colloidalize it, freeze it, bind it or simply let someone else do this work. Today Dharma pleads for the latter approach.

If we can ever get the law cases wound down, we will free up time for these things which require our own attention. Until then we can't function well because of the constant attacks and manipulations thwarting our every attempt at producing the wondrous things for you people. How long can it go on as is? Until the lawyers put a stop to it so that they too can do positive and productive WORK toward betterment of the judicial system as a whole.

We are so honored and humble to have had our own team over in South Africa offer to give us ALL of their income from any of our projects, if Dharma and E.J. need same for legal defense. No, they need that for growth and their own projects in which we can share, such as this above product. The point is to keep Ekkers from jail for speaking on LIGHT, and if that is the only way we can win the round (by consuming funds for projects) then we will all just go sit in jail. The offer is, however, what keeps us keeping on in that there is love and sharing enough to stretch our limits beyond our immediate "having" for selves. This assault in the name of US&P needs to be stopped at source—US&P. ONLY you can arrange that message getting through to Dr. Okilo. [Write to Dr. Okilo % US&P's Newsletter Light Waves, P.O. Box 520, Waynesboro, VA 22980]

People who have never heard of Walter Russell, and much the less, US&P, have had access to THE INFORMATION so what have we? Well, we'll see won't we? We have far larger interests to pursue so what will be in that circumstance is simply what will be. We have little choice other than to allow the play to unfold as it will. YOU have to change the play if you wish it to be different.

Reach Out And Touch Someone(s)

12/28/96 #1 HATONN

THE GRASS IS ALWAYS GREENER ON THE OTHER SIDE OF THE FENCE

No, it usually isn't but it is always that which you don't have, can't reach, appears to be, and is beyond your knowing and vision that tempts each and all

When that desire to KNOW AND EXPERIENCE is gone, you are pretty dead, brother.

When you reach a point in so-called "living" that you desire to remain stagnant rather than continue to search, choose, and make decisions because you fear responsibility, you are through as a contributing citizen and you are a dead-head to self. It matters not your handicaps because handicaps, are those things which challenge the being and Spirit. You can choose to become a productive person or a vegetable to be fed three times a day. Which are YOU? But you don't KNOW HOW? Remember that all people are born basically EQUAL and teaching old dogs new tricks is a stupid statement for the "old" have more to draw FROM than do the youngsters. When it appears someones succeed against all odds—they probably have. But what is success? Success is that which you achieve—period. Be it total loss or magnificent gain—you have succeeded at something.

When it appears, for instance, that Dharma can succeed better than you, or E.J. can seem to handle anything while you can't, or whatever is your perception of another versus self, you err in choices. Your challenge will not be the same but even if it would be, it is simply what you choose to do about circumstances and how willing you are to plow the untilled ground, for the weed-filled ground is there for BOTH.

"Ah, but they have you," chime the tones. Oh? YOU HAVE ME! For instance, "Margie" doesn't do the same thing Dharma does, but she spends meditation time EVERY DAY in communication WITH ME. Blessed are those of you who have Margie on your team for there simply is nothing she "can't do". I chuckle at the surprise as you move about your worlds and find coincidences and small suggestions of "miracles". I can go right back to the Christmas experience of our friends and the accident of the Mother and children: [12/26/96 writing by Doris Ekker]. "Oh how fortunate she hit the barricade instead of going another foot and falling into the gorge." "Oh, it is so lucky the car did not explode and burn the people." This suggesting goes on and on, but I have news for all of you: THE SPLIT SECOND THAT CAR WENT OUT OF CONTROL, THAT MOTHER CRIED OUT TO GOD TO HELP HER! You, in turn, who offer services according to the will of God in such circumstances are "coincidentally" available at the right place at the right time. Oversimplification? No, you just want to complicate everything you touch so that you can either say "look what I did" or "I simply couldn't do a thing about it" When you cease to focus on SELF at any given time a job is to be done, you become almost super-human in your capabilities and will use that strength. And, as long as you continue to seek healing substances—YOU WILL FIND THEM. You are simply BLINDED and stalled out by the ability of the kingpins in the drug industries to keep you dead.

"I" did not put Dharma at that spot that day any more than any other—but I did see to it that Al was there because he "believes in Angels" and he can be a wondrously close FRIEND to this young mother and her children. There is a whole mystery of loving experiences ahead if he but keeps his contacts going. Family contacts are painful for him, as is the fact with all of you who move in the direction of actively trying to offer Truth. Nobody WANTS to hear that they have to clean up their act. Especially YOU! Reach out your hand to a stranger and, if that person grasps it—hold tightly, for they are precious indeed. Each of you, all of you, any of you—go forth and contact that little Mother. Send a card, send love, send healing and allow someone in a small town hospital to KNOW YOU LOVE HER, FOR THE DAYS OF HEALING WILL BE LONG AND PAINFUL.

The greatest return on your love input will come from the one YOU DO NOT KNOW! Take a chance, reach out and, like Cathy O'Brien, Mark, Kelly—you will find a diamond mine. [Cathy O'Brien and Mark Phillips, % CONTACT and/or Kelly Cox % Jabnell P.O. Box 690, Powell, TN 37849]

I ask Al to not let that lady get away without addresses, phone numbers, visits, flowers, whatever. Find out if she needs child-care, help, whatever, please. See, I just said "Margie can do anything". Tell Margie and EVERYBODY go see little Janet, Susan and Annie. DARE to find out if THEY NEED YOU because you might actually enjoy the gifts you can offer unto them. [Write to: Janet Leary %Antelope Valley Hospital, 1600 West Ave. J, Room 241, Bed 1, Lancaster, CA 93536.] Perhaps the most nasty of men on Earth could be changed if they simply were shown love and respect. Reaching really far-out, perhaps even a Jason Brent or a George Abbott could and would respond to friendly gestures. But don't count on it for if you do something nice JUST to get rewards of smiles and attention, you will be made the fool.

I watched Diane, yesterday, spend hours GIVING AWAY one of Dharma's little baby birds (cockatiel). It was being tamed for Diane's little girl who is rather a presser than a petter, so time can only improve that instinct. So, in the pet store a family came from a great distance and Diane—being either nosey or friendly, always visits with anyone happening into her spaces—found out that the people had come a great distance to REPLACE a child's pet bird that had just died.

Diane volunteered "her" bird and the fun began in trying to work out the details of simply GETTING the bird. A comedy of fun and games ensued but finally the two parties (bird and person) were firmly hooked up and launched on a new adventure in "birdland". Now, however, you have to understand something—Diane had to go forth and buy more than the people would have paid to the pet store owner for loss of the sale. But this is what I mean, chelas, reach OUT and do some random act of stretching your love and the return will overwhelm you. Opportunity is everywhere you accept it for it is abundant all around you in every moment of your experiencing. If you find a hand reaching out—GRAB IT! IT JUST MIGHT BE GOD'S! Furthermore, a little child may ask you to Christmas dinner NEXT year. Get YOUR priorities straight and instant in response to circumstances and you BECOME THE MIRACLES. There is no Angel more special than another just as there is no person more special than another, but there is a whole big bunch of special both.

Anamie in South Africa (who has been a visitor here) is very, very ill. She has young children and is alone much of the time as the husband has to travel in order to support his family. Reach out to her, people, for YOU became her life-ring and there is no time and no space in LOVING. Your words, a message in a card, is precious beyond pearls to we who receive them in our moments of conflict. Those words across the miles or in the same room keep us afloat and on-going. Write to: Anamie Gardner, P.O. Box 68871, Bryanston 20, South Africa.

You people had a pep-rally going at one time by claiming that "this or that needs love, too", i.e., "even dirty old men need love, too". Well, old Angels need LOVE also and, like you, we need to GIVE AND REGIVE it. Thank you for the opportunity to serve and simply be recognized. We don't need much else to do our work!

WHERE TO FROM HERE?

We keep moving as directly as is possible—RIGHT TO GOD. To keep on keeping on we must never deviate from the GOAL of achievement necessary to reach that goal and treat all trivial deviations as that which they are—DISTRACTORS. So, do we have time? What else do you have that is so all-fired important to get done? The ball game on Sunday or New Year's? How about taking down that Christmas tree? Is that really important? Yes it is if it was a living tree for it becomes potentially bomb-material the more dry it gets in your living room. You see, LIFE ceases when you remove it from its source—therefore, you had best not remove yourself FROM YOUR SOURCE lest you holocaust yourself like the fragile dehydrated Christmas tree somebody killed in order that you can hang baubles on its branches—and run the risk of burning yourselves alive if the power surges.

I can't give YOU a "where to" from here because YOU must decide where you go from this point forward. I can promise you this much, however: you have to GO FROM WHEREVER YOU HAPPEN TO BE RIGHT NOW! Moving somewhere, waiting for money, waiting for whatever, won't get you THERE. LIFE IS WHERE YOU ARE! GOD IS WHERE YOU ARE! Your life is not, for instance, Dharma's problem. HER LIFE IS HER PROBLEM! We SHARE and that is all we CAN do. When everyone learns that simple truth, that you cannot force another to do or be anything, you will find yourself being far more acceptable. Your own attitude about relationships must be redirected with these facts in mind. YOU alienate people as often as they offend you or deny your offerings. A gift unaccepted is but a thing to keep or toss and, if you offer a gift of your choosing, you can't depend upon it being something the other wants. If this is what happens in denial of the gift—be sure you have gotten something YOU WANT FOR SELF for, after all, you did the purchasing.

I can use the passage of John Schroepfer as an example. The family wants nothing to do with John's left-over body, even to the extent of denying any conversations further than denia

Should we do what they should do? No, but we can easily CARRY John because he is our brother and that makes him never too heavy. Let the burden of hate rest on those who have the hate. Why should we deteriorate our souls by dropping to such levels of meanness? You don't even have to appreciate John—but you CAN hold compassion and love in your hearts for a lonely man. Do YOU have to continue to err and err because someone else made errors in your past relationship? This is what was meant by "turning the other cheek", NOT TO BECOME A SPINNING TOP EVERY TIME SOMEONE WISHES TO STRIKE YOU. But, to simply "strike" back is indeed folly for after all, what if the "other" is a 1100-pound gorilla hoodlum? You had best, in that instance, consider a better way to respond in wisdom and intelligence.

But how does Dharma get her lessons? EXACTLY the same way you get yours from me. And, I can measure my teaching through her level of understanding. There is no magic here but, rather, a series of steps toward knowing. Through these steps we grow into seeing and hearing the opportunities always knocking and we learn to miss fewer and fewer such opportunities. Every day, every day—we take in as much as we possibly can glean for it is the ONLY way to knowledge. And no, she doesn't like the job any better than you do. It is not fun to have to write and then go study the lesson, but it is the ONLY way to learn. KNOWING does NOT shower down on you like a snow-storm scatters ice crystals. In the telling you that it DOES is the first and most deadly lesson, and lie, you will get from your religious preachers! "Let somebody else do it for you," is the second. So be it.

You need to look around and realize that just as Christmas came flying through and went—so too, come and go all things—EXCEPT GOD AND THE CREATION. Circumstances change, perceptions change, all physical things change. GOD DOES NOT CHANGE ONE IOTA—EVER.

With this in mind, perhaps we should just leave you with these things to think upon.

May the Light ever shine around you, for without being able to see IN THE LIGHT, you shall continue in the darkness of ignorance. Salu.

Soltec: Wake-Up Call For The Grand Experiment

12/27/96 SOLTEC

Good morning, my friend. It is I, Toniose Soltec, come in the Radiant Light of Creator God. Thank you for sitting this day and allowing for this interaction.

Much has been happening around your area where secret underground-base complexes abound, as well as around the world. The would-be controllers are aware of that which is about to befall them and they do not plan on taking it lying down. This is why there is so much in the way of distractions underway, such as the weather being "worse" in various areas than anyone can remember. Before this play is over, you ones shall have endured many "mind blowing" phenomena that will defy explanation unless you have kept up with your lessons.

GEOLOGICAL UPDATE

Much of what you are told (or not told) on your "news" programs are outright lies when it comes to the facts about the geologic stability of your planet. These skilled manipulators of data realize that even the casual observer can, at this point, figure out that both frequency and intensity of earthquake activity have tremendously increased around the planet recently. This is why there is little or no reporting of the world condition over your prostituted news media avenues, while successful steps have been taken to stop (or otherwise distract into side-projects) those who were, through independent routes, bringing you truth about Mother Earth-Shan's rising blood pressure.

"Ignorant, blind sheep" is what the masses are referred to in the Elite circles of the dark adversarial forces that are manipulating your reality of world perception. The readers of CONTACT are not ignorant and THE WORD is spreading and shall not be contained. The harder the adversary tries to shut us down, the more Light they will end up shining upon themselves. Truth shall win out in the end!

Please take this opportunity to, once again, check to see that your emergency supplies are ready and in good condition. You shall be thankful for doing this—and your neighbors and your neighbors' children may be quite thankful as well.

MESSENGER "COMET"

There has been much concern over the coming "comet". This "comet" is the REAL messenger that your Native Americans have been waiting for as a sign which signals the new beginning called the "Age of Peace". These ones know that their ancestral origin was from the stars. They also know that there shall be the great cleansing of the planet prior to this "Age of Peace".

This cleansing has been prophesied as being the cleansing with fire. Fire has many levels to its intensity. A candle flame can be gentle and soothing. A mountainside on fire can be quite alarming and cause great panic and destruction. A nuclear explosion can distort the very Light fabric of one's soul, and thus may cause an actual dispersal of soul energy. A "scalar" pulse can, if strong enough, completely disperse Soul essence.

Through "scalar" devices, you have the ability to completely extinguish an entity—to a point that that entity may never know consciousness in any form ever again. You have, in effect, created the means for truly "killing" someone. This is NOT REFERRING TO THE DEATH OF THE PHYSICAL BODY, BUT RATHER, TO THE DEATH OF THE SOUL!

Your "scientists" who play with these "scalar" devices have very little understanding of how these devices affect non-physical space. They have their mathematical models and theories of how they THINK these things work, but their models are limited and leave out the consideration of Soul essence (LIGHT!).

INTERPRETING PROPHECIES

The ancients who were given the prophecies of this Endtime were given the images or visions, and then had to translate, to the best of their ability, that which they had seen. For some of what they saw, there were no words, and they had to use examples and concepts that have a generally accepted meaning. You will have to look past the words: for example, consider words such as "fire" with a measure of discernment and insight, and realize that there may be MANY possible meanings of that word.

As an exercise, take your current world scene and try to overlay various ancient prophecies with that which you now know to be true. For instance, when your biblical Scriptures were written, there was no awareness of devices called "nuclear bombs". Look to your Book of Revelation wherein it is described that "the sky opened up like a scroll". Now, overlay in your mind a picture of a nuclear bomb detonation. See the "mushroom" cloud billowing upward and unrolling LIKE (similar to but not the same as) a scroll. Use discernment and learn to make your own judgments, for even the honest interpretations are at best the "accepted" interpretations of "holy" men from 300 to 800 years ago, when there was no awareness of even the possibility of such nuclear devices.

RESPONSIBLE CHOICES

You shall be held accountable for your actions, and if you choose, willingly, to remain in ignorance to the changing world around you, then you will have to deal with the consequences of these actions. Help is being provided to those who will hear and LISTEN!

Many are running around trying to find their "guru" who will somehow tell them what to do and when to do it. This is running away from your personal responsibility and you are, in effect, trying to cheat your way through the challenges of your current level of growth. The only thing you really end up doing is guaranteeing that you will have to come back, and do it all over, again and again, until you can get it right!

Stop waiting for another to do a thing for you. BE MORE ASSERTIVE AND DO THE THING YOURSELF. If another has agreed to help you, and they will not keep their agreement, then I, Soltec, would suggest that you find someone who can keep their word and who knows the INNER value of helping another.

For instance, if you are a business owner and you have ones you pay for their services, then you should have a CLEAR understanding (written if need be) of what you expect from them and what they expect from you. If an employee cannot or will not perform to your agreed-upon level of expectation, then caution the person that you are not satisfied and that you will have to move them to a lesser position of responsibility if they cannot perform up to expectation and agreement.

Do not allow an unbalanced condition to persist just because you do not want to be the "bad guy" and have to demote someone. When you allow a condition of unbalance to persist in your life, you have, in effect, taken on the responsibility for all that comes from that which you have "bought into".

WAKE-UP CALL FOR THE GRAND EXPERIMENT

Back to the subject of the "comet". You have ones waking up all around your planet who realize that this "comet" has certain peculiarities about it and they are feeling the winds of change. The "comet" represents your past, present, and future. This is the awakening that cannot be avoided—nor would you who read these messages want to avoid this inevitability.

This experience can be viewed as a large experiment in awakening ones to their true heritage as Lighted Souled Beings who belong to a much larger community or family—whether they know it or not! The experiment comes in when you have a theory that has not been tested-in-fact previously. You have calculated that it should work, but you must, at some point, play out the actual experiment to see that your discernment is correct.

This is not done in a haphazard manner on the "whims" of any one being. There is much research and collaboration among many to find as many different viewpoints and observations as is practical. Then, when enough have agreed to the experiment, it is taken before a Council to decide whether or not it would be spiritually ethical to even attempt such a thing. Only after a proposed scenario has been approved at every level, will it then be allowed to be attempted.

You all are part of the larger experiment, an experiment which entails Ground Crew to help bring forth a stabilizing influence for the ones who we are attempting to wake up at this time. The emotional support that your energy fields will project, when the less-aware ones become overwhelmed with fear, will be that which will enable these ones to overcome these challenges of growth.

Be prepared for the impact of the upcoming changes. You, as Ground Crew, will have to be STRONG in your conviction—else you risk the possibility of being overcome with the lower-frequency emotions of those you have come to assist. You will find this whole experience quite a challenge. This is as it should be.

rience quite a challenge. This is as it should be. Toniose to standby.

12/28/96 SOLTEC

Shall we continue, please. This is Toniose Soltec, come in service to the One Light Source.

Many down there are just awakening to the awareness of the situation that is unfolding at this time. Among these ones are Ground Crew. ALL awakening ones are hungry for the Truth and will be attracted to that which they can FEEL in their heart to be true. These are the teaching opportunities that you aware Ground Crew ones have been awaiting most of your life.

As the time of chaos (the death struggle of this current political and social state) heats up, there shall be tremendous opportunity for growth for all involved. This goes for you of Ground Crew as well as for those younger beings whom we have come to assist. All shall be faced with great challenges of faith and discernment, as well as great emotional pressures as you face the challenges of giving birth to the new Era of Peace.

Preparing oneself mentally is perhaps the single most important one thing you can do. This will allow US (whether you think of us as Spirit Guides, Angels, Elder Brothers or your deceased Aunt Annie) to get a message or thought through to you in a critical moment.

If you become overwhelmed with the lower emotions of shock, grief, or despair, this will make it quite difficult for a communication such as this to get through. You will need to keep a clear head and you will, as well, need to have trust and faith that you need these experiences and that you volunteered to go down there and experience these challenges.

Always keep the Larger Picture in mind! This is a picture we have been helping you to see through many weeks of important lessons brought through this scribe—a Ground Crew member just like you, who must constantly work (despite personal demons of distraction) at holding mental balance, to be able to receive and share these lessons.

Again, remember the Big Picture: This is but a holographic play and you are one of the actors in the play (or players in the game). There is a HIGHER REALITY outside that which you perceive as consciousness. And remember, in this play, to ALWAYS call in the Light for both guidance and protection!

The reason for these words of caution at this time is so that you can have time to PREPARE MENTALLY for any upsetting possibility that you can imagine for yourself. What would your reaction be if you just now heard that New York City was destroyed by a nuclear bomb? What would you do? Would you stop and take a moment to clear your space, call in the Light, and ask for guidance? Or, would you just RE-

ACT to your inner fears, shut down with disbelief, and become dysfunctional—and thus closed to our communications?

If you stop to prepare yourself mentally NOW, you will have, in effect, written a script (or program) for yourself that you can use in order to help you keep your head clear—and thus make reasonable judgments based upon intelligent thought, instead of reacting out of fear. You have these messages as warnings and "heads-up" notices so that you will be able to function in the next upcoming ten years or so in your counting.

The ones who either refused to hear, or simply were not able to understand, will be looking to you for basic guidance. These ones shall be in shock and, in most cases, they will shut down out of fear or they shall become overwhelmed with the experience and become quite erratic, if not outright insane. Many a "learned" man shall be found weeping in fear, for they won't have a clue as to what has happened once their artificially constructed world of intellect is gone and these ones realize they haven't cultivated even the most basic of skills for survival.

The farmers—those who tend to the foodstuffs of the land—shall become the most important teachers. These farmer-teachers will enable the ones who can overcome their fears and grief to become functioning parts of the community efforts to rebuild self sustaining, rural communities from the ashes of destruction.

These experiences are the "HARD" lessons for you have long passed the time of course correction to avoid these experiences. In the upcoming Age of Peace, you shall find that there will be NO tolerance for corrupt thinking and that these lessons and experiences will be "burned" into the consciousness of each being.

No, this is not a pleasant message. Please be assured that it is given with great compassion and warmth—with the intent to help, NOT to frighten anyone! As always, please discern for yourself and act with wisdom. Ask for guidance within the Light and await your answer.

Remember: change is inevitable! Even the most stubborn of people shall be caused to grow from these experiences. This opportunity for growth is quite unique, and for those who persist through these challenges, you shall know great personal reward and satisfaction for having gone through this experience.

I am Ceres Anthonius Soltec (as in Solar-tech./technician, Light Worker, Soul-tech.—one who works with the soul). I am blessed, as are YOU, by our Father with insights and gifts that allow for helping other Light Workers to progress in their infinite journeys of the SOUL, for the giving and re-giving ALWAYS comes full circle and we all grow from the sharing. I come in the Radiance and Oneness of Creator Source. Salu.
