What Might Be Ailing You And A Planet When Evil Reigns Unchecked

YOU AND WHAT MIGHT AIL YOU

I seem to start some days in trouble before I actually begin with Dharma. Because of that I think I should discuss WHY I noted that she has some lung scar-tissue which causes compromised lung function in the face of any invader or histamine reaction. In this particular instance the histamine reaction is caused by an allergic reaction to the little invaders which would ordinarily not even call attention.

If I misspoke about that particular trouble in her lungs at present, it is brought forth by knowing what came before. I always, in my own terms, refer to Blastomycosis as a very serious invasion and it is not to be confused with a form of rather serious but limited histoblastosis which causes a bursting of aveoli and leaves the lung bronchioles scarred. There is also the histoplasmosis which is usually a very benign thing except in rather rare instances and is found to be caused by little critters hitting in the Southwestern areas of which Texas is a good example. The organisms hit everybody equally but some people respond

Can God-Of-Light Be Copyrighted As Someone's Exclusive Preserve?

Editor's note: Of course the question seems absurd. But obviously not to the University of Science & Philosophy. As readers have been informed over the past several weeks, the US&P claims we have infringed upon their exclusive domain—again—when some information on the nature of God was presented in CONTACT in the Spring of 1996 from a South African source.

We were legally banned from printing anything that even remotely referred to the US&P/Walter Russell material on God and Light (God IS Light for Heaven's sakes!) in an injunction issued early in 1995. We have, since that time, worked hard, with monitors in place, not to print anything on this all-pervasive subject, as ridiculous a constraint as that may be to freedom of the press. US&P claims we slipped when we printed the South African material in the Spring of 1996, and for that slip, we should all go to jail. Period.

Meanwhile, our readers are beginning to get worked up into a state of indignation over this curiously and zealously vindictive legal affront to good common sense. They have gone so far as to call it "an obvious conspiracy", "absurd" and "petty".

We here share several letters on the subject since these speak from the heart, as well as from the head, and surely convey more natural intelligence than can be discerned to be emanating from US&P. Remember: While God wins in the end, nobody said the road to that destination wouldn't be bumpy. How are YOUR shock absorbers holding up?!

Sir:

I have difficulty understanding all the fuss being made over Walter Russell's books and the restrictions on discussion of BALANCING and the INNER LIGHT. All I know of Russell's material, is from CONTACT.

There have been numerous publications I have read and studied over the last 70 years (including the Bible) which speak of the Inner LIGHT and the necessity of a very balanced life in order to obtain same. So how can the Russell foundation claim patent on these ideas??? Looking through a few old books in my library, here are a few publications that stress both BALANCING and finding the Inner LIGHT.

(1) Alice Bailey—INITIATION, HUMAN & SO-LAR (P.68) "each of us is recognized by the brilliance of his light. The finer the grade of matter built into our bodies, the more brilliantly will shine forth the indwelling LIGHT. LIGHT is VIBRATION..." In A TREATISE ON WHITE MAGIC Bailey emphasizes "in the rounded-out (balanced) individual both head & heart must function with equal power" and in numerous ways affirms the head & heart must be balanced to produce "the sun-in-the-head".

(2) LIGHT ON TIE PATH, by Mabel Collins, refers often to "within you is the light of the world" and "When you have found the beginning of the Way the star of your soul will show its light"; "keep your eyes fixed on the small light & it will grow" and "the divine spark dwells in the still place where no convulsion of Nature can shake".

(3) All 1,000 pages of THINKING & DESTINY by Harold Percival stresses in very intricate language the lessons a soul must learn by performing its duties & obligations; self-discipline and the balancing of one's thinking & feeling (head & heart). All necessary Balancing to reclaim what he calls the "Light of Intelligence". Very much a study book on THE DESCENT OF MAN & how to the ETERNAL ORDER OF PROGRESSION.

(4) From Paul Twitchell's DIALOGUES WITH THE MASTER, pp.30 & 43: "try taking a shortcut to God. Look within for the LIGHT & listen for the Sound". Twitchell speaks often on "a well-adjusted outlook on the middle path" and the balance of "the mind and the heart".

(5) Simpler books like Max Long's SECRET SCIENCE AT WORK in his research of the Hawaiian Kahuna's Higher Self, was always symbolized as LIGHT. Brad Steiger, in his book REVELATION, THE DIVINE FIRE details many spiritual experiences with this Inner Sun or Divine Fire.

(6) From THE AQUARIAN GOSPEL (Levi), pg. 39: "for carnal men want not the LIGHT, they love the dark, and when the Light shines in the dark, they comprehend it not. We call these sons, REVEALERS OF THE LIGHT; but they must have the Light before they can reveal the LIGHT".

Please advise in CONTACT if the above ideas on LIGHT & BALANCING of Heart & Head are similar to those claimed by the RUSSELL FOUNDATION???

Sincere Reader of CONTACT.
Blessings on your work,

From: Ann Forbes—SA (Fax: INT 011-942-4708)

Dear Dr. Ed Young,

In pondering, half a world away, how best to deal with the law suits confronting all concerned with the CONTACT, may I suggest a "Reader's View" letter page become a feature of the next few newspapers, inviting opinion on "Who is God?" and "Can God possibly be copyrighted as the exclusive preserve of such as the US&P?", of your readers.

I believe through this means your subscribers and readers, other than regular contributors, could add their "voice" of protest as to how this case in being handled in your so-called "courts of law" (NB. [sic] not justice). That there is a conspiracy taking place, is blatantly obvious—especially when a case is brought by a (again) so-called seat of scientific and spiritual learning, such as the US&P, against yourselves—or any other, for that matter. Claiming exclusive right by copyright of something as fundamental as, "Who is God?"!

Public opinion often goes a long way in resolving cases of this nature, especially when the case for the prosecution is so obviously pathetic to the point of laughter (if it wasn't so serious).

Just a thought which I hope will help. Either way, you know we are all with you and that God will win in the end.

Light, love and blessings—and many, many thanks for all the hard work you and your staff put into making CONTACT the only newspaper worldwide worth reading.

P.S. In order to set this ball rolling, if you haven't already got better letters to hand; you have my full permission to reprint my letter of 17th December, '96 addressed to the US&P attorneys.

Dear Sirs,

Re: Case no. CV-F-92-5431-REC—The University of Science & Philosophy vs George Roy Green, Desiree Green, America West Publishers, EJ Ekker, Doris J. Ekker, Tehachapi Distributing, Inc. & Phoenix Liberator, Inc., et al.

As a citizen of the Republic of South Africa, and one with similar experience to that of the latter three Defendants in the above case; I find this case, which I have been following with great interest, ludicrous, to say the very least:

That our common Creator, currently transmitting "The End Time Word" through the Hosts of God under the command of one, Commander Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn—by means of light-frequency pulsation(s), is to be represented by a mere scribe and secretary obedient to the nth degree to her "boss", is not only laughable, but also clearly indicates how little your Client(s) understand the higher scientific principles upon which their institute is supposedly founded!

Further, that you Client(s) seemingly believe that God, Light and/or Creation can be limited, or that the Truth of the constituent, LIGHT, upon which the entire of creation is based, is their exclusive preserve, is not only the height of stupidity, but also says much about their ego and hope of financial gain. Ditto, the elements involved, namely, the Truth concerning the properties of atomic energy.

Sirs, do you yourselves honestly believe this knowledge is your Client's exclusive preserve, or that copyright means a thing in the eyes of God...even if in this particular case, failure to acknowledge your Client as the "exclusive holders of some perceived copyright", was that of the then publishers of the Phoenix Journal in point, namely, America West Publishers of George Green and his wife, Desiree Green, and their staff?

By way of clarification, we have here in South Africa—and have had for years, "receivers/scribes/contactees" and "secretaries" who've received, and continue of receive material by means so similar to that under dispute, from Higher Source, as to make this case—as already stated—laughable.

I, myself, am one of those who have been "given" this "knowledge" in "paraphrased" form by means of frequency-pulsations transmitting through my left hand (I am very definitely, right-handed), some ten to fifteen years ago. I had—and to this day—have never read (nor do I particularly want, nor need to read), the work, The Secrets of Light and Atomic Suicide. But I have read and found the substantiation of what I "received" through One, Commander Omegon of God, concerning these subjects in the Journal under dispute, Murder by Atomic Suicide. (The same applies to much of the material contained in the other Journals of this particular Phoenix Journal series.) In this way I have come to realize that TRUTH—however "paraphrased/copied and/or, by any other means, repeated"—IS. Whereas our earthly understanding and research into science and philosophy has sadly become a football in the hands of egotistical, oft commercially minded, very human, Beings. That one, Walter Russell was amongst the first to "receive" Truth this century does not make him neither exclusive but rather, greatly blessed.... But most certainly, this does not give anyone "a divine right" to exclusivity, be it self, a husband or wife, relative, friends, or any, any other opportunist!

Perhaps it is fortunate that I never went into print with the material I was receiving at the time or your Client would presumably have had me in court too facing farcical charges of "copy, paraphrasing, excerpting and otherwise duplicating the University of Science and Philosophy's copyrighted works The Secrets of Light and Atomic Suicide!!

It would perhaps prove an interesting exercise, before this case comes to court, for you to find out how many others across the Globe have been "given" the exact same, or in paraphrase, the same Knowledge, in the last 50 plus years, for which your Client(s) have sought your services to prosecute in a Court of Law.

"Judges ought to be more learned than witty, more reverend than plausible, and more advised than confident. Above all things, integrity is their portion and proper virtue."

—Bacon, Essays: Of Judicature

To my certain knowledge there are at least three others living (and one now deceased), right here in South Africa, alone—all of whom I have met, all of whom are quite sane, and with whom I have compared notes since the Knowledge was first "given" me.

Two of whom are already in print, and another's work is right this moment with a British publishing house and being considered for publication! None of them have/had ever so much as heard of Walter Russell let alone US&P or of the Phoenix Journals, until I told them about them.

Further, I am not at liberty to divulge.

In ending this letter, I am being instructed by my "boss", Commander Omegon of God, to remind both your Client(s) and yourselves, thus:

"Sirs, in the New Testament of the Holy Bible it is clearly stated that before the ending of this cycle (Time), God will make the Truth known to the four corners of the Earth. Today is that time of which it was told! Neither you, nor your Client(s), or any other principality or power has the means to stop it. It is happening.

Should you persist in attempting to close this one extremely important flow of Knowledge, the very flood gates of Heaven will open and the Truth setting all man free of the iniquities perpetrated against humanity—along with the Perpetrators (with no opportunity left them to see the error of their ways and change direction), will be made known.

"But either way, the Truth is being made known and THE PROMISED WORD is coming forth to all men FROM GOD, HIM VERY SELF, and THROUGH HIS COMMAND! I.e., The only Sign of His return: THAT OF JONAH. This 'Sign of Jonah' is already present in your skies against Whom NOTHING and NO-ONE WILL PREVAIL—be it attempted in your temples of 'worship', your courthouses, through your financial institutions, or your puny weapons—by means of which, you can only destroy yourselves!

"Should your Client(s) persist in their knowing defiance of The Word Of God for, or by any means whatsoever, they will live to rue the day. Theirs is the freedom given to choose their course of action...and the 'reward' upon themselves, this, their decision will unerringly bring.

So Be IT, and So It IS.

Signed, Omegon, in The Command of God"

This letter will be initially faxed to you, with the original following in the post, signed and sealed before a Commissioner of Oaths, with copies to the under-listed named. You have my permission to make use of it anyway you like, for it is THE TRUTH before God.

Yours faithfully,

Ann Forbes

Chief Melford Okilo
President: University of Science and Philosophy
Swannanoa
Waynesboro
VA 22980
USA

Dear Chief Okilo,

It is with great sadness that I find myself first communicating with you in defence of the Verities of God from certain members of the organization of which you are now President, namely, the University of Science and Philosophy.

As you possibly know, certain of your Directors have again brought a case against those whose mission (if you will) in life is that of Truth Bringer(s) these ending cyclic Times.

I believe from the enclosed copy of my letter sent to the US&P attorneys handling the case, it will become quite clear the problem these particular US&P Directors have with anything coming forth through the Phoenix Project via one, Commander Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn, Commander of the Hosts of God. Personally I find this pettiness very disturbing, especially at this particular time in the history of the Earth; because I believe these particular Directors to be under the influence of the same dark forces currently behind all the negativity and darn-right evil decimating (and genociding) our own continent, Africa—as well as much of the rest of the world...and rapidly spreading across the globe, today.

I am therefore, also attaching copies of the certified documentation pertaining to a previous case against the Phoenix Project for your consideration and in order to give you background to what is now going on.

That, and unless we accept that "Divine" intervention is now at work on our—Mankind's—behalf, I honestly believe, nay, Know that biblical prophecy will have its way and at least two-thirds of mankind (a large proportion of whom, will come from Africa), will literally lose their lives to the "ways of Satan" (if you will). Of those remaining, some 50+% will be controlled and ruthlessly ruled by "his" rod.

But whilst Knowing this with an absolute certainty, I also KNOW this whole scenario can be changed IF we begin listening in the Higher Octave: LIGHT.

In this regard I think the University of Science greatly blessed, for it was founded upon the "works" of Walter Russell and the TRUTH which came through him, which he was gifted to perceive and translate into Form.

I therefore sincerely believe the US&P should be playing a positive and supportive, rather than negative and suppressive role in getting this information out amongst the general public.

As I've already implied, I believe this is failing to happen solely because of some outside influence playing on the "exclusivity and the ego" of certain people in your midst...absolutely contrary to their Inner Knowing and Knowingness—for, yes, financial and social reward.

Either way, I wish you well in your new capacity of President of the University of Science and Philosophy. From what little I have read of your writings, I think you are the answer to subconscious "the clarion call" of your people, and will be the one to make the vitally necessary difference within the organization.

Very sincerely,

Ann Forbes

Walking THE Walk Beyond Simply Talking Some Talk

Editor's note: While providing room (starting on p.2), in this week's CONTACT to air the righteous indignation of several readers from afar, members of the team nearby requested a chance to express their views about our current legal storms, from more of a position "on the firing line".

Viewed from a perspective which takes in the Larger Picture, it certainly appears there is, as one reader put it in her letter, a "conspiracy" afoot amongst several ready puppets of the dark forces, out to attack those who contribute to this beacon of Light. You discern and sort for yourselves, from these first-hand accounts, those who really walk THE walk—beyond simply talking some talk. Indeed, God wins in the end, but nobody said the battle would be dull!

Copyrighting The Works Of God

2/9/97 RAY BILGER

The word plagiarism is defined in Black's Law Dictionary, 4th Edition (1951), at page 1308, as "The act of appropriating the literary composition of another, or parts or passages of his writings, or the ideas or language of the same, and passing them off as the product of one's own mind."

The need for laws to protect one's own literary work no doubt arose because of the greedy nature of some people to take the work of someone else and then appropriate it for themselves. If you were to tell a friend about an idea you had for writing a story and then shortly thereafter you saw your story idea in print under the authorship of your friend, you would be justified in feeling that your friend had stolen your idea, and you would probably no longer consider them to be a friend.

The Founders of America and the Framers of her Constitution no doubt understood this problem when they incorporated the provisions for protection of same in the Constitution at Article I, Section 8, Clause 8, which states, "The Congress shall have the power to promote the progress of science and useful arts, by securing for limited time to authors and inventors the exclusive right to their respective writings and discoveries." The purpose of the Clause, as well as the extent and the manner in which it is to be applied, are the source of continuous debate.

The Supreme Court stated in 1984, in the case of Sony Corp. v. Universal City Studios, Inc., 104 S.Ct. 774, 782, that a copyright "is intended to motivate the creative activity of authors and inventors" and at the same time "to allow the public access to the products of their genius..." Thus, the Congress, in passing copyright legislation, did promote the progress of science and useful arts.

In order to protect the literary expressions of authors and at the same time to promote the discovery of new facts and information, copyright legislation drew a clear distinction between fictional and non-fictional writings. Title 17 U.S.C. Section 102(b), states in part that, "in no case does copyright protection for an original work of authorship extend to any idea, procedure, ... concept, principle, or discovery." Accordingly, works of fiction are provided much wider copyright protection, while facts cannot be copyrighted. As one court stated, "the cause of knowledge is best served when history is the common property of all." See: Hoehling v. Universal City Studios, Inc., 618 F.2d 972 (2d Cir.). Another court went so far as to say that "fact" encompasses all "historical information". See: Craft v. Kobler, 667 F.Supp. 120, 122 (S.D.N.Y. 1987). Are not all of the writings of Doris Ekker within the realm of "historical information"?

The one pervasive prerequisite element for copyright protection is that such protection can exist only in "original works of authorship." See: Roth Greeting Cards v. United Card Co., 429 F.2d 1106 (9th Cir. 1970); also, Title 17 U.S.C. Section 102(a).

In a 1944 case it was reasoned that since an author is "the beginner... the first mover of anything... (the) creator, originator" it follows that a work is not the product of an author unless the work is original. See: Remick Music Corp. v. Interstate Hotel Corp. of Nebraska, 58 F.Supp. 523 (D.C. Neb.).

If an author were to recognize that higher intelligences or entities, invisible to most humans, were available to impart into the mind of the author some profound FACTUAL wisdom, and if such an author were to actually receive in his mind such higher profound FACTUAL wisdom, and if the author were to write down the information as it was imparted into his or her brain, then it would follow that the author would not be the real creator or originator of such written words. The real creator or originator of such profound wisdom would, of course, be "the first mover" of the information, that is, the Higher Intelligence or entity.

Many people today may have difficulty accepting the fact that invisible, higher intelligences or entities may exist. But there is a growing body of individuals who have come to the realization that there is more to the picture than meets the eye. In other words, these people recognize that there is an invisible realm or dimension of existence that stands behind the visible, physical world we all perceive. These people might well consider the imparting to mankind of some information from higher sources to be "divine inspiration".

Marcus Tullius Cicero (106-43 B.C.); the great

Roman statesman, orator and writer, knew well about the imparting of higher wisdom when he said, "Nemo Unquam Vir Magnus Fuit, Sine Aliquo Divino Afflatu", "No one was ever a great man without some divine inspiration."

Doris Ekker holds those words of Cicero near and dear to her heart, but has modified them to suit our modern understanding of an equal recognition of the importance of the contribution of women. Doris says, "No one was ever a great man or woman without some divine inspiration."

It appears for all intents and purposes that Walter Russell also recognized or intuitively understood the words of Cicero, as Mr. Russell had stated that his works on the subject of Light had been imparted to him from some higher intelligence or "White Light", and that this higher intelligence had told Walter that the information imparted was for all mankind and must be as freely given to the world as the information had been given to Walter himself. In addition, the higher intelligence also told Walter that other people would come along in the future, including both men and women, and that they would be receiving the same information.

It appears that Walter Russell understood and accepted the above arrangement and for 2 or 3 years he published his writings on the subject of Light for all the world to see, without copyrighting the material.

Walter was scorned for his work, which was considered far out, as it did not at all comport with what the mainstream scientific community was portraying as the way things are. Walter realized that his work was perhaps a bit ahead of its time and that the world was not ready to accept the information. (This appears to be a common problem with geniuses.) It is also quite conceivable that those who really run the world from behind the scenes did not want the truth revealed to the public in any manner whatsoever. In any event, Walter decided to go against the instructions of the White Light that had imparted the information to him, and Walter had the written material copyrighted in his name. Although he may have done so in order to protect the material from being distorted, later on others could come along and say it was Walter's work and not from a higher source!

It would appear that a case could be made that since Walter Russell was now appropriating the scientific work on the subject of Light for himself, even though he knew that the real creator or originator of the information was a higher intelligence, or White Light (or God, if you will), and that Walter was now passing this information off as the product of his own mind, then Walter Russell could be considered to be copyrighting the works of God. This is where things become rather curious.

God, or some other non-physical higher entity, may freely impart wisdom or higher truths into the minds of humans. God appears to have no need for either human courtrooms or for the money that can be garnered there by those who are successful and come out as the "winner". God's interest in His realm of existence does appear to be Light. Humans, for the most part, have not yet realized that you cannot buy that Light with all the money in the world. In fact, if you had all the money in the world and did not use it freely and wisely to better the lot of your fellow humans, you would be in an even worse position toward acquiring a bit of the Light. This is the meaning of the expression, "It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than it is for a rich man to enter the gates of heaven."

So, what we see is that God gives in abundance to humans, but unless humans have achieved a balance with their own egos, then those egos will lead humans down the path of taking God's gifts for themselves. We must learn to share those gifts.

Now, what is of real interest is the fact that the University of Science and Philosophy is trying to bring contempt charges against Doris Ekker for allegedly plagiarizing the work of Walter Russell, and then publishing it, simply because 0.2 percent of what Doris has written and published in the past 2 years bears some resemblance to something Walter Russell wrote in the 1920s.

If Walter Russell received his information about the subject of Light from a higher source (God), and if Doris Ekker received her information on the subject of Light, from a higher source (God), and if God is consistent and does not change His own information regarding the subject of Light, then it only stands to reason that some of what Walter Russell has written and some of what Doris Ekker has written is going to bear some resemblance.

The 1941 case of Oliver v. Saint Germain Foundation, 41 F.Supp. 296 (S.D. Cal.), bears more than a striking resemblance to the US&P case against the Ekkers, and offers persuasive argument for considering the US&P case to be baseless and without foundation or merit.

Basically, the case involved an action by Mr. Leslie Oliver and others who had written a book entitled A Dweller on Two Planets. Oliver admitted that he had received the information from a higher (non-physical) entity named Phylos. Mr. Oliver even admitted that he was not the author of the work, but that Phylos was. Oliver contended that an author connected with Saint Germain Foundation had plagiarized Oliver's material to write a similar book. The action by Oliver sought an injunction, damages, and impounding of all copies of the offending book and to be finally destroyed. Does this sound familiar???

The decision of the court stated in part, "Who can say that the spirit of the Master or Masters, whether called by one name or another, might not see fit to use both men as instrumentalities or amanuenses for communicating their messages of guidance and direction to humanity? The law deals with realities and does not recognize communication with and the conveyances of legal rights by the spiritual world as the basis for its judgment... One who narrates matters of fact may be protected by copyright as to his arrangement, manner and style, but not as to material or ideas therein set forth. Nichols v. Universal Pictures Corp., D.C., 34 F.2d 145."

The court went on to say, "There is no plagiarism or copying of words and phrases as such, but only slight similarity of experiences in that the parties became agencies for communicating between the spiritual and material worlds..." Understandably, the court dismissed the case!

Doris Ekker writes directly what she receives from higher entities and has no cause or instruction to interpret what she receives. There is a legal maxim that states her position succinctly: Quando Verba Et Mens Congruunt, Non Est Interpretationi Locus, "When the words and the mind agree, there is no place for interpretation." Furthermore, Doris Ekker does not copy-right the Words of God. That is something she cannot and will not ever do.

Therefore, since Doris Ekker arrived at her information regarding the subject of Light independently from Walter Russell, and since her work bears some resemblance to Russell's simply because the source, God, is the same source and His Truth is unchanging, then we need to look at the court's decision in the case of O'Rourke v. RKO Radio Pictures, 44 F.Supp. 480, 482,483 (D.C. Mass.). That court stated in its decision that "(E)ven an exact counterpart of another's work does not constitute 'plagiarism' if such counterpart was arrived at independently."

Said another way, the courts have argued that a work is original and may command copyright protection even if it is completely identical with a prior work, provided it was not copied from such prior work but is rather a product of the independent efforts of its author. See: 1971 case of Harcourt, Brace & World, Inc. v. Graphic Controls Corp., 329 F.Supp. 517 (S.D.N.Y.). Again, Doris Ekker did not copy her work on the subject of Light from anyone else, yet neither does she wish to copyright the works of God.

In the final analysis, it appears that Walter Russell himself may be liable for copyrighting the works of God (if such a state of affairs is cognizable At Law), while Doris Ekker now suffers undue burden and hardship by being charged with contempt for a crime she did not commit!!!

If the legal maxim is true that, Lex Semper Intendit Quod Convenit Rationi, "The law always intends what is agreeable to reason," then Doris should have a reasonable expectation of US&P immediately issuing a formal apology to her personally.

For, either Doris Ekker has a reasonable expectation that she may exercise her God-given and Constitutionally guaranteed Right to Freedom of Expression or she does not. And if she does not have that Right then there is no Constitution in Force and Effect. And if there is no Constitution in Force and Effect, then there is absolutely no basis, foundation or authority for any court to exist anywhere to find anyone in contempt of anything! If that is the case, then God help us all, for our courts and our government would be operating under tyranny and dictatorial rule, without the consent of The People our Constitution represents!!!

Truth is once again under attack. So what else is new?

And once again, as always, the most virulent attackers are the very ones who stood closest to the Divine-on-Earth, but yielded to those special tempters who prey upon the "called" (and sometimes even the "chosen") and were thereby sucked away from their higher opportunity. Just as the man called Jesus was betrayed by those closest within his circle, so again today it's the one-time servants of God who ally themselves with the outright scoundrels and evilers straight from hell.

Thus, for example, a key deception in Satan's latest affront against the mighty outpouring of Truth oc-curing in Tehachapi, California, for lo these past nine years comes from one Father Ed Cleary, apparently helpful during one phase of the work here, but just now another stupefied pawn of darkness. His ignorant assertion of the Ekkers' "100% control" over every tiny aspect of the CONTACT's contents is a critical component in the recent US&P campaign of terror aimed at silencing "Dharma," the scribe who (often reluctantly) has to pen whatever her "Cohan" Hatonn puts out.

Anyone having even a passing acquaintance with the facts surrounding this paper's production are all too aware of the difficulties EJ and Doris Ekker have just keeping up with the ongoing flow of print material from these offices, let alone maintaining complete control over the form in which even Hatonn's own writings end up on the page. Neither of them, of course, had anything whatsoever to do with the staff oversight of reprinting several "banned" passages of Hatonn's which loosely paraphrased several dozen apt phrases of the gifted Mr. Russell, whom the US&P claims to own outright.

Aside from the common sense realization that the three protested passages comprise a minuscule 0.2% of Hatonn's total writings in CONTACT for the two-year period under dispute (and barely 0.1% of the copy contained in the 104 issues put out during 1995-96), the simple fact is that these two had absolutely NO say in their being reprinted. Nor could anyone familiar with the exigencies involved in putting out a weekly paper, often running 60-80 tightly packed pages, really fault CONTACT's staff for reprinting such lofty and helpful material without first screening every paragraph of Russell's beautiful The Secret of Light and The Divine Iliad for possibly similar phraseology.

What makes the whole lawsuit so ludicrous is that the supposedly aggrieved party in the case, one "Dr." Tim Binder, who was evidently removed as the US&P's director some time ago (an organization that has just pulled another director, by the way, raising the question of who's really running this decaying monstrosity that appears to be more dedicated to suppressing than to spreading the Walter Russell message), could hardly be called a student of the great Russell himself. His entire attitude is so bizarrely out-of-sync with the spirit and message of the teaching he pretends to value that the very existence of this lawsuit constitutes a major embarrassment to US&P, if not a prima facie case against their right to claim the Russell intellectual heritage.

That any financial harm has been done "them" (whoever "they" are—for again, Tim Binder appears to be representing only himself in this action, and clearly no longer speaks for the Board, though he may retain his seat as a director) would obviously need to be proved by, say, hard evidence of some drop in sales of the books in point corresponding in time to the asserted damage done by CONTACT to US&P's financial interests. No such loss being documented, the suit reveals its real purpose—of harassment, pure and simple. Plainly, this is a dying organization, desperately reaching out in its final throes to slash and burn as, again, is so common (and predictable) among those who once sensed the rightness of rightness, but then, sadly, turned their backs.

So corrupt is our legal system, however, and so virulent is the hatred that darkness always has for the Light, that these spiritually dead, soulless beings may manage to inflict some brief physical discomfort upon a few in the hot seats offered to truth's servants on this weary, suffering planet—but stop the spread of the Lighted Message of God Himself in these desperate days? I hardly think so. Interestingly, the very losties themselves, in the depths of the self-hatred which has driven them into their weird pacts with Old Nick, sense that they can never turn back the tide—for as this one paper continually proclaims to the world, "God too has a Plan 2000." But the inability to swallow their pride, admit they were wrong and make peace with their Heavenly Father is a peculiarity of the insanity which over-takes those who, having been shown Truth, later come deny it. As the Master Teacher pointed out, "No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God" (St. Luke 9:62).

Of course, traitors and "jailhouse informers" are always among us. For as the Master also said, "And a man's foes shall be they of his own household" (St. Matthew 10:36). So if a world-weary judge chooses to believe a perjured ex-priest, lying in a fruitless attempt to try to forget his own failure to save himself at the end of life, well, again, what else is new? But if the day has come when one man's expression of the timeless truths of God's love for mankind render any subsequent re-portion unlawful if couched in similar words, then surely these are the last days foretold for this planet and Satan really has been unleashed on Earth.

Fortunately, however, the real truth is that we humans on this planet could easily oust the tiny, tiny fragment of wickedness among us by spreading the knowledge that heals. This is why the attack is made, even though it is so outrageous, so laughably spurious on the very face of things. Those extremely few would-be world controllers feel their long-hatched plans slipping away from them right in the middle of what was supposed to be their stunning moment of victory: They're battling openly among themselves and on the verge of tearing each other to pieces. (No honor among thieves, y'know.) And CONTACT is practically the only print source consistently tracking their downfall; it's an embarrassment to every would-be king caught without his clothes on.

Now really, doesn't anyone with even half a brain realize that, of course, God wins in the end? That's every time! To be satanic is just plain stupid. The "enemies" of CONTACT and of the Ekkers in this lawsuit, just like enemies of freedom of expression and thought everywhere, destroy primarily themselves. Pity the pathetic evil-doers for, as Christ so eloquently put it, "they know not what they do."

But let 'em get away with the tiniest infringement of even one hair on the heads of these dear, selfless hearers and doers of the Divine imperative? ABSOLUTELY NOT! Be warned, ye bottom-feeding creeps and crooks, it is you who, individually and personally, pay the highest price for your crimes against God and Truth, far, far more excruciatingly than any discomfort you can ever inflict through your despicable barratrics and fabricated indictments. You will lose, both in this world and in the Real world. It's never too late to return Home, true, but you're gonna need all the help you can get. Best wishes.

In the meantime, please crawl back under whatever rock you inhabit. We have a job to do, thank you, and will just be getting on with it, if you don't mind.

My Personal Opinion As I've Seen It

2/7/97 BRENT MOORHEAD

I first visited Tehachapi in September of 1991. My wife and I came here to meet the people who were publishing the most Truthful and Meaningful information we had ever seen. Our first impression of the town was one of wonderment as to why anyone would want to live here. After meeting many of the people involved in the work of the Phoenix Project, we immediately understood the reason. It had little to do with the geographic location, but it was the people and the Higher Energies involved who were and are important.

At that time, George Green was the publisher of the Phoenix Liberator and the Phoenix Journals. I remember asking him if there were any full time paying jobs available for someone with my job skills. His answer was a welcome one in that he said he would like us to move here as soon as possible and we would have full-time, paying jobs upon arrival. I kept in close contact with George over the next eight months and he always reminded me that everything was still "a go" for us to come and work. I trusted him then, until our arrival in Tehachapi in May of 1992.

You can imagine our excitement when we got here in our Ryder rental truck. I immediately jumped out and headed for George's office and sat down to discuss when I would start my new job. The first thing George said was that things were a little slow and he could probably find me some part-time work. My heart sank! What had I done? Looking back now I must say that God works in mysterious ways because within six weeks after we came to Tehachapi, George and Desiree moved to Gardnerville, Nevada. I then became the Business Manager for the Phoenix Liberator (later CONTACT & Phoenix Source Distributors, Inc.). George soon afterward offered a job to me in Carson City, Nevada, but how or why would I trust someone who had just proven to me to be a liar?

I have seen many people come and go around here, and really, it's very interesting to see how they actually behave after the honeymoon is over. Most of the people who came here to work, and are now professed enemies, came with seemingly good intentions. I've also noticed looking back that many came with a boat load of pain, guilt, low self-esteem and/or emotional baggage which they hoped could somehow be alleviated merely by performing the work of our mission. What they discovered was that they were the same people here that they were before they came here. No instant transformations were noted, no one received a bop on the forehead and a magic cure for whatever ailed them Spiritually or physically. They found the work to be hard and long and the accolades to be non-existent. What a bummer!

When it was discovered that George Green had run off with almost $400,000.00 worth of gold intended for the Phoenix Institute, it became even more clear why George wanted to become involved. He saw what he thought was a chance to set up a gold mine with the Phoenix Institute. When George discovered that he wouldn't be able to split town with all the Institute funds, he took what he could, and is still trying his best to make E.J. and Doris responsible for his actions. God only knows what stories he told some lenders to the Institute. It's very interesting to note that the few who are trying to shut down the Phoenix Institute now became involved financially because of George Green when he was an Officer and Director of the Institute. Now, they are blindly following a course which could only benefit George's lawyers and George. Go figure.

These adversarial people are motivated in different ways. Some are moved by what they believe is their work, some by money, others by over-inflated ego (which translates to feelings of very low self-worth) or any combination thereof. George and Desiree's main motivation, as far as I can tell, has been money and ego. They are constantly moving and trying to cover their tracks. George recently told a bunch of people that he moved to Las Vegas when, in fact, he moved to Coeur d'Alene, Idaho.

How many of you know that George loaned almost a million dollars to Lee and Brit Elders to finance the publication of Billy Meier photos in book form? How many of you know that George turned right around and sued them for his money back and obtained most of the books and, for all practical purposes, bankrupted the Elders? Does anyone else see a pattern here?

I didn't know Leon Fort very well, but I noticed that he changed rather abruptly in intention and attitude toward the Institute when a certain person moved in with him. Oops.

I knew Betty Tuten fairly well when she was here, and I always liked her. There have often been the hangers-on around here who don't seem to like us a lot but just can't seem to leave. A couple of those types began working on Betty a few months before she left. I could see what was happening when Betty's usually cheery attitude began to diminish as the ones to whom I refer began to take her ego through the wringer. They told her that she was unappreciated and being taken advantage of by those of us who work at the CONTACT office. Nothing could have been further from the truth and I told Betty that when I saw her feeling so down. Betty did volunteer work on the newspaper as well as cleaning up around the offices and meeting room. She even bought her own cleaning supplies, etc. This, she did gladly and lovingly, until she was duped into thinking otherwise by the hangers-on. Unfortunately for Betty, she bought the lies being fed to her. And when she sank to contacting George, it's been all downhill for her from there.

Saddest of all for me has been the parting of the ways with the Ence (Enz?) family. Unfortunately, Rod was a complete failure as a farmer. He will tell you that it was everybody else's fault but his own, of course. I recall Rod telling us how badly his father treated him as a child and that nothing he would ever do would be quite good enough in his father's eyes. It was obvious that Rod, a man in his forties, was still carrying a heavy emotional burden from childhood which greatly affected him, even to the present day.

As a result of this load, Rod greatly resented anyone who appeared as an authority. This rancor extended to E.J. and Charles who tried their best to salvage three years of failed spelt crops on the farm. Rod was offered other work (more in-line with his expressed pleasure of the perfect job) several months before he was asked to leave the farm, but he declined. We found out later that, more than a year before Rod was fired, he had decided he didn't like our mission and most of us. Apparently, he wanted to milk the job for all he could get before moving on. With free rent and utilities, a good salary, free gas, a free vehicle and all the Welfare he could whip up, I guess he figured, "Why not?"

He had been meeting for years with Mike Blinston and Ed Cleary who promised to put Rod in charge of all their farming when they got their big funding from the Philippines. So, Rod felt very comfortable in kissing all of us off. When it became known that Rod had solicited funds from Phoenix Institute supporters ($23,000.00) and then turned around and kept it for himself, I believe that was the last straw for most of us who knew him. These dear friends thought that they were sending funds to buy equipment in support of the Phoenix Institute and stated as much in an affidavit. Rod would never have known about these people except for the fact that he was President of the Phoenix Institute at that time. Rod not only lied to everyone about it, but originally he told everyone that the money came from his family.

Somewhere around September of 1995, Rod publicly announced at a meeting his enmity for Hatonn and all of us so-called misguided ones. I suppose in his mind he thought he was confronting the ones who mistreated him so terribly. Actually, Rod stood there at the meeting, yelling as loud as he could about what a fake and liar Hatonn was. It was a pathetic display because Rod was shaking all over and he made a total fool of himself. Hatonn waited until the tirade was over before he calmly responded to Rod's deaf ears. It was obvious to me that this was the boy who still could not gain the approval of his father. Rod's family members have since toed the line and blindly followed Rod's specious justifications. In the case of his children, that is totally understandable, but still sad. In the very same meeting Ed Cleary got up and announced that all the trips that he and Mike Blinston made to the Philippines and other places, which the Phoenix Institute sponsored in hopes of getting funding for Institute projects, was for their own benefit and no one else. This was no surprise at that moment, given the obvious collaboration of these pretenders. The next day I asked Cleary for his office key. I saw no reason for CONTACT, Inc. to furnish office space and a free telephone for his use any longer. He said, "You can't tell me what to do, Sonny!" I told him that his attitude was fine with me because I had already ordered a new lock for that afternoon.

Recently, I attended a court hearing regarding the Ekker house case in Bakersfield. After the attorney for the Ekkers made a compelling argument and showed how opposition attorney Steven Horn had deliberately lied to the court, Judge Chapin simply ignored the whole issue and once again ruled against the Ekkers. This is the latest of a long string of unbelievable courtroom rulings I have witnessed over the last five years. This particular hearing was most interesting because former Judge Jason Brent made an appearance in the courtroom just before the proceedings began. I believe that his presence there was a message to Judge Chapin that he had better "do the right thing" as far as "Judge" Brent was concerned.

Jason Brent is the one who stated that he violently disliked the Ekkers and he was a former Judge on this same case, as most of you will remember. It has been rumored that Jason Brent's former law firm in Beverly Hills had an interest in Santa Barbara Savings & Loan (the foreclosing lenders) at the time the no-sale took place with the house the Ekkers were living in and had hoped to buy. If that is true, it certainly is grounds for a lot of legal types to be sweating profusely over this case. This is the same Jason Brent who is a member of the Mensa Society and spouts that all the old and infirm should be killed for the benefit of the intelligent members of society such as himself. Oh barf!

Jason Brent and his new law partner have been advertising locally in the newspaper and on at least one prominent billboard along a major local highway. In their ad it says: "Sharks? You bet!" Talk about telling on yourself. This comes from a former Judge who is supposed to be dedicated to justice. So much for that nonsensical, outdated idea.

What has to be looked at here is the obvious about the Ekkers. The plain truth is that if they were unscrupulous crooks as accused by the Green brigade etc., why are they still here? Why didn't they take the money and run years ago and avoid all the hassle and heartache? They certainly are not living the "good life" enjoying great vacations and a luxury lifestyle. If their bags are packed as Ence and Green have told everybody, then they missed the boat a long time ago. As far as I've seen, their biggest thrill in life is driving to a good buffet restaurant in the tiny town of Inyokern near Ridgecrest a couple times a year. Why have they continued to fight an uphill battle rigged against them from the start? The answer is simple: They have agreed to be a part of a much larger team of Light-minded individuals who are willing to present and stand up for The Truth, despite the attack from the puppets of the dark forces who are trying desparately to prevail against The Light. The truth of the matter is: God wins in the end. Hold that in your hearts!

An Opinion Statement On The George Green Debacle

2/7/97 RICK MARTIN

As several of us helped George and Desiree Green move to Tehachapi from LaCosta, just outside of San Diego, in 1990, we helped to pack up their home office. I remember thinking to myself, amidst the externally opulent setting, "What chaos."

Referring to an open, intriguing box I was carrying, I off-handedly asked, "What's in this box?"

"Oh, those are Billy Meier's UFO photographs." Observing what appeared to be, literally, hundreds of photos and slides, I recalled Billy Meier, on a videotape I had recently watched, when asked to produce his original photographs, he simply said, "They've been stolen." Little did I know that my observation of chaos and apparent theft would be a precursor for things to come.

I also remember seeing a copy of the oversized UFO color photograph book of Billy Meier's work, a fairly rare bird. It was only later that I would find out the trail of tears behind its production, distribution and ultimate lawsuit with Lee and Brit Elders by the Greens.

Dharma has been "receiving" since 1987, and had published 4 Journals prior to George Green entering the picture. And yet, at the time, it was almost as if George and Desiree Green entered on a white horse to get the rapidly produced Word to print, bound, and out to the world. Little did we know it was, in actuality, a dark horse and the agenda was far more sinister than simply spreading truth. It was as with Col. Wendelle Stevens' UFO research, which George & Desiree published—get the rights, publish a few thousand books, then bury it!

How do I know these things, and how am I able to write about them? First hand experience and observation.

George and Desiree, upon arriving in Kern County, immediately chose to live in a gated community outside of town, out of reach to even those with whom they worked. No listed telephone numbers, of course. I was later to find out from George personally that the mob in Denver was looking for him. In hindsight, I had more advance clues than I realized at the time.

Not long after George and Desiree set up America West Publishers/America West Distributors operations in Tehachapi, I went to work for a corporation providing office management services to America West. Specifically, I wanted to help in getting The Word out to the public. I shared the same office space with George Green for over a year. During that time I heard many clandestine calls, often in bizarre code. I remember on several occasions looking up at him and thinking, "You've got to be kidding."

Frequently on radio shows, George and Desiree did succeed in letting people know The Word was coming forth, but unfortunately the cultish, conspiratorial, UFO-spin that George put into his talks made the information seem more lunatic fringe than from Higher Source.

After the newsletter THE PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS was established and in production, and George had structured the Phoenix Institute for Research & Education, Ltd. (a Nevada corporation), the mail started pouring in. This newsletter would later evolve into the newspaper, THE PHOENIX LIBERA-

TOR.

While it is true that I picked up the mail daily and signed for numerous packages daily, both at the Post Office and from UPS, I did not open the mail. From my prior corporate background, I found this very unusual, but George would personally open all mail—often, like Midas, tearing into each envelope looking for money before even considering the contents in print. Yes, the clues were certainly there.

At some point—I guess it was around the time that the University of Science & Philosophy brought suit for copyright infringement—George began to get really nervous. Plans were being made for Nevada operations. A Carson City hotel/casino was on the table as one possibility for George. Of course, at the time George was also sitting on $350,000 in gold coins which he had stolen from the Institute. No wonder he was nervous.

Before they left Tehachapi, some 50 or so Journals were in print and occasionally I would travel with George and Desiree and my mother, Zita, to various trade shows to help publicize The Word. Desiree had "received" much of The Phoenix Operator-Owner Manual, and also Pre-Flight Instructions. It was a real shocker to both my mother and me to witness George and Desiree just promoting those two Journals out of the 50! It was extremely evident there was some other agenda going on here, which, in fact, we discussed with others at the time.

Just prior to this time, I was privy to many difficulties George and Desiree were having with authors whom they'd published. One such author was Dolores Cannon, who had written Conversations With Nostradamous. Another was the author of The Immaculate Deception: The Bush Crime Family Exposed. And, in fact, there were others.

But then came the rather sudden move to Nevada. Shortly after they had gone to Nevada, the giftor of the gold to the Institute telephoned to see if the gold had arrived, as he had not been notified. Stunned, when E.J. Ekker found out this news, a lawsuit was immediately initiated on behalf of the Phoenix Institute to recover the gold coins. That suit was originally filed in early 1993. It has yet to be ultimately resolved, despite two Nevada Supreme Court rulings ordering return of the gold to the owner.

In their Jan. 4, 1996 Order Dismissing Appeal for Case No. 26286, the five Supreme Court judges stated, [quoting:]

This is an appeal from an order of the district court dismissing respondent's complaint. During 1991, appellant George Green ("Green") received four shipments of gold coins from David Overton ("Overton") which were meant to be donated to respondent Phoenix Institute for Research & Education, a Nevada corporation ("Phoenix"). Overton donated the gold coins to Phoenix in order to assist Phoenix in publishing some of its publications. Green, representing himself to Overton as an officer or trustee of Phoenix, did not deliver the gold coins to Phoenix. Instead, after moving to Gardnerville, Nevada, Green hid some of the gold coins in his home and buried the remainder of the gold coins in his back yard.

Then, further into the ruling we read, [quoting:]

We conclude that the district court did not err by returning the gold coins to Overton without conducting a hearing. In dismissing Phoenix's causes of action, the district court found that Green had been holding the gold coins in constructive trust for Overton. This court has stated that "[a] constructive trust is a remedial device by which the holder of legal title to property is held to be a trustee of that property for the benefit of another who in good conscience is entitled to it." Locken v. Locken, 98 Nev. 369, 372, 650 P.2d 803, 804-05 (1982). In the interests of effectuating justice, we do not deem it necessary to conduct a hearing in order to return property to a constructive trustor.

Then, further into the ruling, [quoting:]

We conclude that Overton did not divest title to the gold coins when he delivered them to Green. Overton testified that he intended to gift the gold coins to Phoenix, not to Green. [End quoting.]

Almost immediately upon arriving in Nevada, George telephoned several people in Tehachapi to ask them to pull their money out of the Phoenix Institute IN GOLD. He arranged for a meeting in Gardnerville with John and Eleanor Schroepfer, Leon Fort and Bud Clark. He discussed with them "his projects", which, in reality, had been stolen from E.J. Ekker and me.

It was at this time that George and Desiree began their full frontal assault against those involved in the Phoenix work. In one of the first such assaults, George writes in the letter to Nora Boyles dated Sept. 26, 1993, on America West Distributors letterhead, "Billy Meier had contacted us with messages from the Pleiadian Command and they discount the Tehachapi project." How convenient. To be continued...

State Bar Of Nevada Misleads Inquiring Public

2/7/97 RICK MARTIN

It has been called to our attention here at CONTACT that Mr. Rob W. Bare, Assistant Bar Counsel to the State Bar of Nevada, is misleading the inquiring public [see his letter in the box to the right]. Mr. Bare, in recent communications with those expressing concern over the illegal and unethical antics of two buddies of the George Brigade, Nevada attorneys George Abbott and David Horton, has informed the public that he is in communication (implying recently) with CONTACT: THE PHOENIX PROJECT. That is a lie. The last communication any of us here at CONTACT received from Mr. Bare was dated May 17, 1995!

For those individuals concerned about the assaults against the Nevada corporation The Phoenix Institute for Research & Education, Ltd., it is very interesting to note that Mr. Bare would deflect such legitimate calls for investigation to the doorstep of CONTACT, which really has nothing to do with any of it—other than also being concerned about these abuses.

Just when is the buck going to stop being passed from desk to desk within the state of Nevada, and who is going to stand responsible for investigating this matter? It won't just go away. For the State Bar of Nevada to investigate its own is like the fox guarding the hen house. The Secretary of State for Nevada has disavowed any responsibility or jurisdiction. The Assembly of Nevada, AT LEAST, has called for an inquiry. But it always returns to the State Bar and Rob Bare. Well, Mr. Bare, just what would Executive Director Wayne Blevins have to say about your lack of responsiveness to the members of the public holding Nevada corporations who want a resolution to these indiscretions by members of the Bar?

It is time to stop trying to push your responsibility inappropriately onto CONTACT and get on with your investigation. Mr. Horton and Mr. Abbott should not be allowed to practice law within your state boundaries, period!

Editor's note: If you haven't already read the letter from Rob W. Bare to John H. Ray in the box below, please do so now before going on to John Ray's reply to Mr. Bare.

Re: George Abbott, Esq. & David Horton, Esq.

Dear Mr. Ray:

This to advise you that this office is in receipt of your letter of concern regarding Contact, the Phoenix Project and attorneys George Abbott and David Horton.

While it is true for the proper place for this dispute to be settled would be the civil courts, this office has previously apprised Contact to keep us updated as to the procedural progress in any ongoing litigation concerning Mr. Abbott and/or Mr. Horton. We have informed Contact to please notify us immediately should a court make specific findings of impropriety concerning the actions of Mr. Abbott.

Thank you for bringing this matter to our attention.

Sincerely,

ROB W. BARE

inquiry to State Bar of Nevada on conduct of certain NV attorneys.

Dear Mr. Rob W. Bare, Esq.,

I find it highly probable that you, in finally acting on my Oct. 17, 1996 inquiry into the questionable conduct of attorney(s) Abbott and Horton, Esqs., have now invoked this same harassing conduct towards me that generated my initial concerns. This was the purpose of my request for an inquiry into this type of harassment and coercion being condoned in Nevada.

I am now receiving packets of materials from unknown source(s) (postmarked, Las Vegas) with only the envelope addressed to me. They contained a letter to you, Rob W. Bare, from an Ann Beam, President of Infinite Balance, Inc. with copy(s) to Abbott and Horton, Esq. in reference to CONTACT, the Phoenix Project. It seems this "CONTACT", which I assume is another Nevada corporation, is also having difficulties with Abbott and Horton, Esq., judging by the contents of this letter. I also received (unknown source) a copy of a letter to a Doris Ekker from a Sharri, which also made reference to CONTACT. These were in addition to copies of numerous legal filings involving various other Nevada corporations, a George Green, Betty Tuten and motions to disqualify attorneys representing corporations in dispute with David Horton's clients. This was the exact complaints and rumors I had heard, which initiated concern for my own as well as other Nevada corporations and caused me to request an inquiry.

I found it strange that in your previous response (delayed two months) you also referred to CONTACT and not The Phoenix Institute for Research & Education mentioned in my original inquiry request. Then suddenly I began receiving packets (from "unknown source[s]" that intentionally conceal their identity) containing materials directly connected to a dispute between those representing CONTACT and the clients of David Horton, Esq. I can't help but suspect that you may be inadvertently providing unscrupulous character(s) with the names and addresses of anyone inquiring into the conduct of David Horton, Esq. which expands and perpetuates an already questionable and unethical practice of harassment. I am reluctant to believe you would intentionally aline or jeopardize your reputation through association with this type of intimidating actions against anyone questioning what I perceive to be unethical practices.

Practically everyone in authority in the State of Nevada has indicated only the State Bar of Nevada has jurisdiction over attorneys. This leads me then to expect a direct response from you as to the State Bar of Nevada's findings which results from your investigation into these reported threats, coercion, intimidation and harassment of attorneys representing The Phoenix Institute for Research & Education. I also would like to know what action, if any, the State Bar of Nevada will take as a result of these findings. You have confused the issue by misrepresenting and/or misdirecting attention towards CONTACT and not the Phoenix Institute for Research & Education, the point of my inquiry.

Again I am asking for copies of Nevada statutes giving the State Bar of Nevada sole authority over attorneys' criminal or unethical conduct. Also I would like a quicker response to my letters and not the two-plus months on the previous misinterpreted and pre-conceived acknowledgement. I want answers from you as the representative of the State Bar of Nevada, not clandestine packages in the mail from certain unknown sources, of which I feel is irrelevant at this time to my inquiry into questionable practices being condoned in Nevada.

Sincerely,
John H. Ray

Update On Janet, Susan And Briana

The Three Christmas Miracles

2/10/97 DR. AL OVERHOLT

God has given me the opportunity to befriend Janet Leary who was, on Christmas day, brought back after being across the barrier to heaven twice. She has a remarkable spirit and is determined she will not be kept down as an invalid. It must be some of the old spirit of the Cheyenne and Blackfoot Tribes of her ancestors.

The doctor told her she had 12 broken bones, a concussion of the head, an injured neck vertebra and broke off two front teeth. Her healing is miraculous considering what she has been through [see picture below of her compact car after it became further compacted]. She has her shoulder in a harness because of a fracture and a metal rod from her hip to the knee, which the doctor told her would have been there for 2 years, and a cast from the knee down and then wears a removable brace from the hip down. Her knee cap is gone and her knee was injured badly. They used part of her hip bone to rebuild the knee area. The doctor thinks she will have some usage of it later.

Her spirits are good and she says God must have something for her to accomplish to send her back. She keeps pushing to get her body functioning normally again and is proud of her fast recovery.

Her hope is to be able to help others save their children from our unjust system of child custody and poor home health care. Such as people like her who are fighting, again, after losing one daughter who is now 16, to the injustice of our courts, years ago.

She is now trying to gain custody of Susan, an 8-year-old, and Briana, approximately 19 months old, who were put in the custody of an ex-husband after this accident—who, she says, wants to keep custody only to get the Welfare money for drugs.

Susan has a cast on her leg and one on her hand which were broken in the accident and are healing well. Briana was not injured.

Janet has only been able to see them twice since the accident because of the custody battle.

Janet says she committed her life to God about 3 years ago and still is committed but hasn't had an easy time. This is her 2nd major car accident in 3 years. She was hit from the rear by an 18-wheeler big-rig truck at that time.

Janet was planning for a baby boy before Briana was born and had planned to name him Brian Daniel which means "strong man of God", but when she birthed a girl she changed the name to Briana Danielle meaning "strong woman of God". I think this shows you where her heart is.

Janet has a comfortable used mobile home which she paid for and fixed up nicely, shortly before the accident. However, she does have high electric bills because it is not well insulated and is heated by electricity, and she has need of funds to help with utilities, taxes, and rent for the mobile home park. Fortunately she has good medical coverage. She expects to get some help from Social Security but they told her that would be possibly 4-6 months.

She sends you her love and wants you to know she appreciates all the cards and letters that ones have sent.

Conspiracy To Control The Members Of The House Of Representatives

1/14/97 GARY WEAN

The following is an Emergency Information, a preliminary report to the House of Representatives alerting and informing them that a terrible conspiracy of treason exists within the House of Representatives itself.

It reveals a vicious criminal M.O. of extortion, intimidation and blackmail threats to control the election process such as the insidious computer fraud and illegal voters scam that Jim Collier has exposed nationally for many years.

Loyal Americans can help by sending copies to the Congressmen in their state and letting them know that the people are aware of these criminal acts.

TO THE UNITED STATES HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

January 14, 1997

To the House Ethics Committee, and to each and every member of the House of Representatives: As elected government officials you are individually and personally responsible for the herein related criminal violations:

These heinous violations are too numerous and encompass too many laws, Acts, Codes, Statutes, Rules, Ordinances, etc., etc., to itemize at this time.

This is a preliminary, condensed report of major crimes involving and committed by Newt Gingrich, the Speaker of the House of Representatives. A multiple-page detailed report itemizing grievous injury done to the American people and their Health, Safety and Welfare will follow.

For many years a major, organized operation of illegal gambling and drugs existed in the Western States—more definitively, all the states comprising the U.S. Ninth Circuit Court.

In 1983, one of the ring's wide-ranging illegal gambling operations, a phony church, was busted in Portland, Oregon. Since approximately 1978, Gingrich had participated in and received campaign election funds from these sources.

In 1983 and prior, this false church set-up, the "Church of the Conceptual Truth" operated supposedly as a "nonprofit", charitable group. It was raided by the combined law-enforcement agencies of the Oregon Attorney General, the County District Attorney and the Portland Police Dept. While raiding the "so-called" charitable gambling operation, the police scooped up a crew of professional Las Vegas gamblers running the everyday operations. And, as luck would have it, they also nabbed two of the very important "big-time" members of the Ring. One, a lawyer, Carl Ward, Jr. was a member of the Oxnard, California, law firm of Superior Court Judge Jerome Berenson and his partner, U.S. Commissioner Ben Nordman.

Berenson and Nordman owned the largest, most politically powerful law firm in Ventura County. Ben Nordman was a member of the Levy family. The Bank of A. Levy was one of the several Oxnard banks under their control through which the illegal gambling and drug money was laundered. Carl Ward, Jr. was in charge of all their ring's gambling operations in the Ninth Circuit.

The other "big-shot" nailed was Michael H. Wallace, a businessman and rancher in Oxnard. He owned the Wallace Machinery Co. and was also owner of the Caterpillar Machinery Company agencies in Ventura and other California counties.

Michael H. Wallace was a dynamic money raiser; he was Ronald Reagan's sensational National Campaign Finance Director in charge of raising money. As champion money raiser Wallace was so good that he had replaced the famed Lyn Nofziger. These millions of dollars laundered through their banks were then delivered to the Reagan election campaign organization in Los Angeles and Washington, D.C. The money was used to finance politicians in other states where they were building their forces to take over the majority in the House and Senate.

A close associate of Newt Gingrich was Congressman Robert Lagomarsino, another lawyer from Ventura and Oxnard, California. Lagomarsino owned another of the banks involved in laundering this ring's money which secretly supplied Gingrich. Also a member of the gang involved with Carl Ward, Jr., Wallace and Lagomarsino was William P. Clark, a lawyer in Berenson and Nordman's law firm—Clark also went to Washington with Reagan as his National Security Advisor, then becoming Secretary of the Interior. Gingrich became one of the gang's important cogs in Georgia and the South. When Ward and Wallace were arrested, Oregon's Asst. Atty. General Timothy M. Wood charged them with State (RICO) Racketeering Influenced and Corrupt Organization Act violations.

The Atty. General, Timothy M. Wood took depositions from Ward and Wallace and their professional gamblers from Las Vegas and delved deep into the so-called "charitable, nonprofit" operation and where the money was going. One of the investigation's trails led to U.S. Representative Robert Smith of Oregon's U.S. 2nd District and to other Oregon Congressmen and powerful local politicians and members of the Republican Party organization who were participating in using the illegal money in their election campaigns.

Then the Oregon Atty. General through his investigation became suddenly aware of the immensity of the operation and the full impact of national involvement of U.S. Representatives in using money from these sources for illegal election purposes.

Not only had they broken Oregon's RICO statutes, but they were in serious violation of Internal Revenue Service laws and rules, and deep violations of House of Representatives Ethics rules. The entire investigation was covered up, and Ward and Wallace were released on minor charges, and the hush was on. Gingrich was involved with all the above named persons, and others as yet unnamed, in participating in the use of illegal laundered money for election campaigns.

In 1994 the Republicans won control of the House and Senate, and Speaker Gingrich became all powerful and in line to come into possession of the Presidency.

At the same time in 1994, Robert Smith, who had been Oregon's U.S. Representative since clear back in 1983, and involved with the illegal gambling operation when it was busted, had retired.

A new Republican candidate for the Oregon 2nd District, who was not involved and had not participated in the illegal gambling and drug money, was elected.

This Representative, Wes Cooley, had promised the people that, if he was elected, he was going to honestly represent their interests and their Health, Safety and Welfare to the best of his ability and would not renege on them.

Soon after taking office, Wes Cooley kept his promise to the people. To keep this promise, Cooley had to go against the strict commands of Newt Gingrich's orders.

Instead of following Gingrich's orders blindly, Cooley voted for what he knew was good for America and his constituents in Oregon.

Immediately Gingrich's uncontrollable rage descended upon Representative Wes Cooley. No one was allowed to get out of line—Gingrich ordered a conspiracy of abject terror against Wes Cooley and his family, designed to force him from office—and to also force Cooley to abandon his plans to run for reelection.

First Gingrich through his influence obtained Wes Cooley's "Dossier" from the FBI. The FBI has Dossiers on each and every U.S. Congressman that at the necessary time can be used to blackmail them into doing what they are told.

There was nothing incriminating in Cooley's Dossier, so Gingrich dredged up the ridiculous charge that Wes Cooley had lied on a voter campaign pamphlet which said that he had been in the "Special Forces, in the Korean War".

With this as the basis for his rampage against Cooley, Gingrich instigated and launched the most incredible, sinister conspiracy of threats, intimidation, blackmail and terroristic menace of implied physical violence and harm that any U.S. Representative has ever suffered. The newspapers and TV programs throughout the state of Oregon constantly were full of lies and innuendos against Cooley every minute of the day, every day of the week for months.

What follows herein is a brief summary of how Gingrich mounted his insane conspiracy of terror against Cooley and who was involved and behind it. The conspiracy brought into play all of the corrupt Representatives, Republican Party members, local politicians etc., who had been involved in the 1983 illegal gambling and drug money laundering.

In this incredible conspiracy to destroy an elected U.S. Representative and to "deny the electors their choice of representation, which every law in the land protects", Gingrich and the others enter the realm of Treason, a despicable breach of trust, not to mention violation of IRS, nonprofit charitable laws.

Herblock/Washington Post

'Let's Not Jump To Conclusions Here —
Like Gingrich, I Frankly Admit I Should Have Consulted A Lawyer'

This conspiracy brings back Ronald E. Robertson, another lawyer from Ventura-Oxnard, a long-time conspiratorial buddy and pal of Congressman Robert Lagomarsino; Secretary of Interior William P. Clark (who owns Pacific Telesis); Carl E. Ward, Jr.; and Michael H. Wallace.

Lawyer and politician Ronald E. Robertson, prior to and during the 1983 illegal gambling in Portland, was deeply involved in that money-laundering activity. Robertson was the Chief Counsel for President Reagan's reelection campaign in 1983. Robertson's payoff for his part in funneling illegal money was being appointed General Counsel to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. Robertson lived in Washington, D.C., for over five years and was very closely associated with Newt Gingrich in many politically powerful efforts. Robertson's part in the conspiracy against Congressman Cooley was considered an especially clever plan; it appealed to Gingrich immensely. Robertson was to disavow his old Republican buddies, then claiming dissatisfaction with them, join Perot's Reform Party. Robertson even conned Perot into naming him as their candidate for Oregon's 2nd U.S. Congressional District. The Perot Party even came up with front money to open Robertson a campaign headquarters and pay for media publicity.

Gingrich backed former Congressman Robert Smith to run on the Republican ticket against Cooley and offered Smith a bribe, the position of Chairman of the Agriculture Committee, and Robertson was bribed with promises of a high paying, top priority political position in Washington, D.C.

Smith and Robertson played Mutt and Jeff with Cooley in the newspapers and TV and Robertson's job was to corner any loose Republican votes that might go to the Democratic candidate.

This was their scheme while Cooley was still holding out and intending to run for reelection. But, when the terrorist conspiracy became so fierce and frightening against Congressman Cooley and his family that they could no longer bear up against it, Cooley was forced to announce that he would give up his plans to run for reelection.

As soon as this was made official, Gingrich ordered Robertson to abandon all his Reform Party operations and join Robert Smith and the Republicans and take all the Reform Party votes he had rounded up with him to Smith and assist him in being elected.

This information of fraud and terrible conspiratorial crimes perpetrated by government officials barely scratches the surface, but everything herein stated is a matter of documented facts and evidence.

Not only the Ethics Committee, but the entire U.S. House of Representatives, must take notice of these crimes, and they are responsible for investigating and taking action of prosecution.

Action must be taken to remove Robert Smith as the Representative of Oregon's 2nd District and either reinstate Wes Cooley or arrange a "Special Election".

This report will be delivered to every member of the House and disseminated through newspapers, radio talk shows, the Internet and in every other manner possible to the entire populace of America.

Any attempts to cover up or minimize these horrendous crimes by any member of the House will be fully recognized by the people for what it is: a continuation of the "Conspiracy against the People".

On Russbachers & Ronn Jackson

RUSSBACHERS

I am recently barraged by inquiries regarding the Russbachers. I am not "into" Russbachers so have very little interest in reporting. Within the past two weeks a phone call was made to Ekkers supposedly "for" Gunther. A very heavy accented lady said she was calling for Gunther Russbacher to make sure that this was still Ekkers' phone number and that Gunther would be calling. There is no follow-up.

As for Rayelan, I can't believe that you people don't know that she is still in business espousing great inside information but leaving Gunther out of her, at least radio interviews, speeches. If she thinks she is fooling the people, she is mistaken. She goes by the name Rue Mills and writes an "insider information" paper called Rumor Mill. We wish her well for in every endeavor which encounters serious problems we are left to do whatever it is we do—nothing less but usually a whole lot more in trying to protect the vulnerable assets against those we wish to project as the blame-laden "others". A LOT of people were hurt and damaged by these two and their colleagues which then extended to ongoing accusations and pure fabrications of all sorts.

They are still trying to land the Philippine gold and we wish them well. They "owe" a lot of you beautiful people who shared and befriended the whole lot of them and it would be nice if you were repaid as generously as you gave.

Beyond that, readers, there is nothing of importance, more or less, to them except as you perceive it to be. Love—but discern and always JUDGE ACTIONS. Forgive—but do NOT FORGET so that all experiences can conclude in positive learning through experience. And remember always that you do not have access to the whole of anyone else's story nor even ALL OF YOUR OWN.

RONN JACKSON?

There are no updates and at last input he was incarcerated for parole violation in Carson City, Nevada. We do not receive regular updates.

I prefer you not focus so much on the person of Ronn Jackson and his indiscretions, right or wrong at this time, but rather keep us posted on what is happening with the "Freemen" trials around the country as courts confront the use of "free" drafts drawn against assets such as liens, etc. There have been some positive rulings in that parties using such drafts are not being held liable in some cases. This is a step in the right direction in consideration of FREEDOM in the face of the Federal Reserve and FBI/BATF enforcers of criminal control over citizens.

Judicious Thoughts On Legal Matters

2/4/97 #1 HATONN

A GLORIOUS DAY— EVEN IF YOU CAN'T SEE IT YET

As we begin our work this morning I find my cup runneth over. The professionalism in placing truth before the court bench in response to the US&P charges is so superbly done that it truly doesn't matter, students, whether or not there is negative ruling. I believe that at some time VERY SOON you will want to run the accusations and the rebuttals side by side in CONTACT.

And to you who make great lists and great original thoughts and statements which seem to be now deleted from some of your original declarations, or you find suggestions are made to enter some forgotten thought, think not that these are not the most important original thoughts which will carry the day in court when utilized in a different segment of either paper filings or court arguments and presentations. Your own flashes of memory regarding certain incidents and timing sequences need to be carefully listed and DOCUMENTED if possible, but memory will serve as well in most instances.

Those wonderful documents which were lost, when McDonald did whatever he did with them, can be regathered and Nora will actually better enjoy the next trips than trying to gather with nothing from unknown places. God will see to His own tasks and we will be shown what is needed, where and when it is needed. "But the price seems too high?" No, "the price is right".

Each of you, within, are going through great and sometimes uncomfortable evolvment as we move from day to day in a stressed and sometimes hopeless environment. You are not in hopelessness nor even in helplessness. YOU ARE SIMPLY IN CHANGE. You are maturing, settling into choices now MADE, and you shall now begin to bear the fruit for your labors in the vineyards.

You are making, if I might parabalize, corrections to the wheel hubs so that the spokes now placed in permanent position for the most strength and lasting durability, can support the full foundation of our attempted growth.

I ask that E.J. check with Little Crow and, if permitted, rather than speak of such high and wondrous "sweat lodge" treatment as he has recently undergone, please use his tape as a "Word" mailing. You may or may not receive this information and message in identical ways from one to another, but I assure you that it is TRUE, right down to the unsurvivable temperatures given along with the duration of time presented. I ask you to refrain from asking comment from me regarding him or any point as offered. If there is more to be told it will be told and it will be told in its most perfect sequence.

I accept Dharma's appreciation that she only has to face prison rather than to be "fried" in order to be purified and given ability to fill a place of service. And to our White Eagle: Sir, it is an honor to serve with you. It is our committed intention to be able to support those things which you are guided to confront and build so that you may TEACH and perchance we can, together, bring some semblance of sanity within, at the least, our OWN people.

STILL ON THE SUBJECT OF JUDICIAL MATTERS: O.J. SIMPSON TRIAL

You are now witnessing the hoped-for final act of judicial indiscretion which will REALLY pit the Blacks and others against one another, with this recent "firing" of the Black woman who has a daughter who literally worked FOR the D.A.'s office. This is your sacrificial LAMB. Things were going WELL for the O.J. troops and for O.J. This was unacceptable so wham, bam, off with "mam's" head. Then, when MISTRIAL is all over the demand for justice headlines—the Judge DENIES consideration of such a mistrial, blatantly and final. What is taking place? It is a full-blown setup for major rioting over further intentional fixing of the judicial process to preclude innocent parties from having fair hearings and trials. Further, you will not find a Judge willing to overturn these rulings or the Judge in the Simpson case, unless the outcome could be even more useful for racial separation. O.J. was explicitly appointed and elected TO BE THE FALL GUY IN FULL DESTRUCTION and "they" will not stop until he is destroyed and the citizens are in total frenzied uprising. You cannot have a war, readers, if the warriors fail to come to the war. You are witnessing desperation rulings now on the part of the judicial system in compliance with their MASTERS.

If for any reason O.J. is not thrown to the scavengers for bone picking, the "lamb" will be re-introduced through the Cosby resource which is equally planned and orchestrated by the SAME BAD GUYS. Bill Cosby knows this and wishes to "win" by not allowing the opposition to succeed—but if O.J. doesn't go down, you can bet the Cosby thing will blossom into something so heinous as to blow your minds. Cosby is even more respected and loved among all races as to be an even better target than was/is O.J. The worms are already eating away at past indiscretions and trying to build trial balloons JUST IN CASE the results desired in public uprising are not forthcoming as according to the Goldman/ADL [Anti-Defamation League] plans. Goldman makes no excuses or coverings for the Jewish Leagues and ADL as his source of funds and backing. This is the group through British Intelligence which controls the Judicial System. The intent is accomplished from blackmail from the time a child decides to become a "lawyer" to the compromise procedures in the highest benches of the land(s). Once within that strangle-hold noose it is all but impossible to extract selves—no matter what might have been original and individual intent and no matter what race, creed or color begins the journey through the mind-warp. You will do what the system teaches and demands of you—or you will be destroyed. This is true in medicine and theology and politics as it is in the so-called "practice" of law which deals not with JUSTICE—but infliction of man-ruled laws which bear no substance or semblance to justice or original "law".

If you are not incensed, you must be near death, people. Keep praying for justice and for those babies being used as grab-bags in the bean toss for they are the abused, and not by their father. Pray for the outcome of justice in reality or you may as well fold it in as to ever reclaiming justice within your legal morass of clowns. O.J. relative to GOD will make it through and in so doing will better serve truth than from all the lessons he could ever have learned otherwise. Pray for his strength and those who support truth and justice in this most terrible display of end-times injustice. Unless mankind comes to see the atrocities and recognize the patterns at play he has no chance of recovery for his downhill sleigh-ride.

RESPONSIBILITY VERDICT OF O.J. SIMPSON

What happened? Does this "actually" make O.J. GUILTY? Why? How? Who says?

Friends, O.J. Simpson was destined to be "GUILTY" from long before the murders happened. He was actually convicted at his first trial when he was found, in a criminal case, to be not-guilty. But you have to realize something: jurors in this case don't have to live with, THEY THINK, blood on their hands—ONLY MONEY. And you know something: which is a sad fact indeed? People don't want to go earn their own money; they want whatever others already have.

What I wish all of you would look at are the facts of John Q. Citizen, for it is YOU who are being buried, thieved from, lied about and cheated in every way possible, without recourse, by the octopi gone mad. "But, is O.J. REALLY guilty?" you continue to petition of me. We have been over facts, produced several papers devoted to nothing else—and still you ask, so you must not have read or believed anything offered, in the first several instances. But I will remind of you of the most important fact of all: In THIS case, a voting jury has no way to know for sure and also in this case the jury only wanted money on their hearts and souls. Does this make O.J. guilty? Does it make him innocent? NEITHER, it is simply another ruling by 24 people, 12 of whom said he was not guilty; therefore, do these latest 12 make him guilty? He is either guilty or innocent of these terrible charges, but a split vote of unknowing people does not decide—only the penalty for being voted against, which happens to all of you every election.

Simpson will have to find HIS WAY WITH GOD! He was never to be found truthfully judged when the Fred Goldmans of the world entered the picture and the opposition campaigned for guilt from upstart of circumstances, UNTIL THE VERDICT WAS FINALIZED. And, just like an election, the innocent pay for the indiscretions and costs of the unbalanced campaigning and fixed results.

Will MONEY be enough? Of course not. Simpson and all his beloved family will now also be judged guilty, NOT "RESPONSIBLE". The blood-thirsty throngs shouted it last evening: GUILTY! GUILTY! GUILTY! So, what is the REAL purpose of this lynching? To stop him from being able to locate and present the KILLERS, precious readers. If you can't find work or be allowed substance—you certainly cannot afford, in this bleak world come upon you from the Elite, or achieve enough to allow for truth and honor. The message is, of course, "Get on your knees and plead for mercy while we murder you bit by bit in the places of your inferior kind." Well, I don't know very many Blacks who are willing to do that much any more. This will ferment and foment and then Cosby will be unseated in disrespect and finally disgrace and, somewhere, sometime, the Black race will have had enough—and things will begin to get pretty blood-soaked. Meanwhile, billions of you will be dying from the Elites' diseases, be they from microbes, snatching for that which is not yours, or simply by being put DOWN into the seclusion of prisons by your puppet-masters, you having become the puppets.

All of you should access a set of Federal Court instructions for filing cases and doing trials, hearings, etc. FULLY AGAINST THE CONSTITUTIONS OF ANY STATE AND THE U.S. CONSTITUTION, THE FEDS HAVE BROUGHT DOWN THEIR OWN SET OF RULES—AND THE CONSTITUTION IS TOSSED OUT. YOU CAN'T EVEN SUGGEST HAVING A NON-BAR ASSOCIATION ADVISER IN THE "DOCK" WITH YOU, FOR COUNSEL. FURTHER, YOU ARE AT THE MERCY OF THE WHIMS OF THE MAGISTRATE AS TO YOUR FATE AND WHETHER OR NOT YOU EVEN HAVE COUNSEL. NO MONEY—NO COUNSEL. EKKERS FOUND THIS TO BE FACT AS RECENTLY AS YESTERDAY! OH WELL!

By the way, if your enemy, in this case, Mark Williams (aka Rick Webber) who supplied the nonsense in the first place, with George's emissary, Ann Beam, George Green and T.B. (Teddy Bartholomew), decides you have spoken of GOD IN THE SAME WAY SOMEONE SPOKE OF GOD PRIOR TO YOUR SPEECH, THEN YOU CAN'T USE YOURS! AND IT APPEARS THE MAGISTRATE WILL VOTE IN FAVOR OF HIS OWN HOME-TOWN ELITE LEGAL FIRM, PROBABLY. I STICK THIS IN THIS WRITING SO THE MONITORS CAN TAKE IT OUT.

But readers, in this manner, you are barred from hearing, from freedom of speech, freedom of thought, freedom of press and, yes indeed, freedom to live in any semblance of FREEDOM UNDER GOD AND CONSTITUTION. SO, WHY, I IMPLORER YOU, DOESN'T SOMEONE TAKE THIS INFORMATION AND WRITE, WRITE, WRITE, AND PRINT, PRINT AND REPRINT. EKKERS DO NOT RUN CONTACT AND THEY DO NOT HOLD ANYTHING OVER THE HEADS OF ANYONE. WHY DO "YOU" NOT TAKE CONTROL AND WRITE OF THESE ATROCITIES???? YOU, WALLY, YOU BRUCE, YOU JOHN, YOU ED YOUNG (FOR YOU ARE THE EDITOR) AND YOU, RICK, FOR YOU ARE THE CHIEF JOURNALIST—WHY DO YOU WAIT FOR "ME"? GEORGE GREEN HAS COST YOU JUST ABOUT EVERYTHING, JUST AS O.J. HAS LOST AND WILL NOW LOSE. THEY WILL TAKE EVERYTHING YOU HAVE AND CLOSE YOUR DOORS TO ABILITY TO WORK AND EARN AND RECOVER THESE YEARS OF TORMENT AND THEFT.

BANKING, TEHACHAPI STYLE

This is a small town story so listen up; it is small town U.S.A. and World, in post-1984.

E.J. Ekker went forth to speak with the top-person at a small independently-owned local bank, Sierra National, to inquire if they would honor Nevada Corporations, etc. He also wanted to inquire, next, if gold could be held in security by this local facility. He met with the Banker himself, and his next-in-line assistant.

They were all delightfully nice and said they would get his information for him. This was in response to discussions with Nevada people to find possibility for more convenient banking for corporation account holders.

They said they would get right back to him. In the interim, one day about a week later a man called who identified himself as "John, from Sierra..." E.J. took the call and after many questions about planned operations, amounts to run through accounts (as if they were already established) and thus and so, E.J. got very suspicious and asked the man for a last name and a phone number so "he could get back to him", being interrupted by a long-distance phone call. The man said, "Oh no, no bother, I'll call you back."

Then on that Friday afternoon Sanwa bank personnel called E.J.'s son-in-law and said something funny was going on. They discovered that someone (IDENTIFYING HIMSELF AS E.J. EKKER) with EKKERS' banking INFORMATION had called THEIR bank and asked for the account information on their personal account. The call had been answered by a "new" girl who had already given out the information, which was less than $32. Then this man began to ask for information on "all other accounts for corporations that I sign on". At this, the red flag went up and waved wildly so the new girl had to refer the question to "someone more familiar with those accounts". An thus it got to people who KNOW Ekkers VERY WELL. So, this was met with "Give us the information and we will get back to you because we have to run a search... blah, blah..." The man quickly said, "Oh, I will call back because I hadn't realized it was Friday and you would be so busy." (BUT PEOPLE, HERE IS WHERE A CALL-BACK PUNCH-IN IS OF INSTANT REPLAY VALUE. PUSH * AND 69 AND YOUR TELEPHONE CALLS BACK THE MOST RECENT CALLER. HOW INTERESTING.)

Mr. Ekker attended Sierra Bank instantly on learning details. The BANKER is a close friend of guess who: JASON BRENT. Brent is "in here all the time" goes the secretary—and then, when realization of what was coming off here hit this lady, she about fainted. She said, oh Mr. Ekker, this is SO WRONG and it scares me to death! E.J. agreed and quite persuasively, yet gently, said to this nice person, "Indeed, it is not good, XXX, as Jason Brent is number one on the list of those who 'violently' dislike us and promise to destroy us. Mr. Henry Kissinger is number two, so I think you understand my being placed in this position."

Remember the advertisement for Jason Brent and his partner? "Play it again, Sam"...er..ed, please. "SHARKS? YOU BET!" And moreover, in full conspiracy and coalition with Steven Horn, Timothy Binder, George Green, et al.

How can justice be gotten? How indeed, when you are allowed no counsel? You see, if you have no lawyer—everything goes to the opposing anybody—through DEFAULT. Does that mean Dharma goes to jail? Well, who knows, I would suspect it might well, more interestingly, be E.J. or Rick or Ed Y. or Gene. Dharma in jail will only rouse the sleeping rabble.

In one of the most gracious and responsibility-taking offers from anyone I have recently experienced, ones in South Africa have come to the show and rescue, hopefully, on their white horse with help. It was from South Africa that came the request for the correspondence offered regarding who is God, etc. Does this count? Apparently not. They were private writings which did, in fact, make it into CONTACT—right past the MONITOR COMMITTEE. Who is to "blame"? IS THERE BLAME? This is America; this is the U.S.A.; there is a Constitution involved here and there was NO agreement with US&P or Binder among any others save Doris and E.J. Ekker, at best. The assumption is, and proof is asserted, that E.J. and Doris CONTROL AND RUN 100% OF CONTACT. Herein lies your circumstance.

Dr. Young has rebutted this in legal declaration and actuality—but he forgot to mention that he had wonderful interchanges with Dr. Okilo, CEO and President of US&P, offering permission to print this material. Now Chief Okilo has been banished from the U.S. by US&P's Mr. Binder, who is not even longer CEO-President. Anybody out there?

And, do you still want to know about justice? Do you want to TRULY know status of justice for O.J.? The Phoenix Institute is YOURS, readers. It is NOT Ekkers'—IT IS YOURS!

The South African group is raising funds to allow Ekkers to try and find an attorney—but they only have till the 18th of this month to hire and bring up to speed such attorney—IF ONE CAN BE LOCATED. If, further, you expect to make an impact, it has to be someone so powerful as to stun the ongoing opposition and the COURT. Does ANYONE have such assets or "pull"?

Can't we go with the one we have for the Institute's Nevada problems? No, Mr. Elley is NOT a "house" counsel. He was, further, only put into the Ekkers' case in California against Santa Barbara Savings because he SAID he could get that case settled in our favor, permanently, in only a "couple of weeks". HE OBVIOUSLY DID NOT SUSPECT A CONSPIRACY RUNNING THROUGH MANY STATES AND SO MANY JUDAS-GOATS. The CLC is desperately trying to raise money to simply pay the man for this month's billing. Does this mean that cases are ending? No, it means that the system has managed to extend two weeks into two years with no signs of closure. THIS IS YOUR AMERICA, CITIZENS! THIS IS YOUR WORLD!

Meanwhile, back to Africa: Mr. Magnus Penny must not feel "responsible" for us speaking in response to "What is God and Who is God", for, of all people, the HEAD of the School of Truth, founded by a very high and notable person of high social status, a man by the name of "Campbell" whose son Drummond asked the information from me. It was perceived to be such a worthy writing that it was run in the paper. But, how is Doris Ekker or E.J. somehow responsible? IF YOU make them to be filling all slots of interchange and responsibility—do you see what happens? The facts are that you can get to Hatonn far more easily and quickly through almost anyone else here than through one Doris Ekker. By the way, more and more, writings received through OTHERS are making it into this paper more and more and more readily as they come through their "training", clearing and graduations. They now do, as a fact, also receive from me, although I ask that most of what I share NOT be utilized too often lest misunderstandings come out of this foolish encounter, which never ends, with adversaries.

The offers from South Africa are under full consideration and acceptance if arrangements can be made as offered, for financial assistance. Appreciation is greater than can be expressed, for several reasons, but more notably, because this brings unity to people a half world away. These people also "WILL BE HERE" to testify at any TRIAL. There is STILL Constitutional RIGHT to TRIAL BY JURY. Since, indeed, this is a Civil matter with threat and request for CRIMINAL charges, I believe the opposition might be blundering quite severely—if they manage to damage, more greatly, these innocent people. I happen to believe there are many legal counsels so powerful and recognized as to handle this case nicely and then, those who thieved might well be caused to pay in like kind—you know, jail, fines, damages, etc. If not? Readers, I suppose if you expect nothing you will never get anything. Why? Because you will never try nor expect otherwise than failure.

We don't know who sent mailings or packets from Denver, Colorado OR from Las Vegas, Nevada—for they all are without signatures and identification—however, does that not FIT AN ESTABLISHED PATTERN? How many, many packages did Green send anonymously from Montana. And, readers, although Green kept saying that Ekkers were packed to leave the country with millions of dollars—they are right here where they have always been [please refer to Mr. Moorhead's writing on p. 6] while Green has had to leave and move from Denver to Carlsbad, Calif., to Nevada, to Montana and now secretly to Idaho after sending out information that he would be in Colorado, Arizona or Las Vegas—doing his "big deal" promotions and developments. He is now in Couer D'Alene, Idaho—at least that is where he is seen, heard and has his America West(S) things mailed or sent. We understand the TAX people were after them in Montana and he skipped out "in the middle of the night". I suppose this is a figurative statement for Green always gets somebody to do his moving for him and they can't always be available in the middle of the night.

So, what of the South African offers? We most appreciatively ACCEPT the offers and pray for speed in assistance. They will also have access to Chief Okilo, formerly CEO-President of US&P. I would appreciate immediate intelligence in finding this fine man who must now face his own disillusionment. The "contract" offered by Ekkers, et al., to share with US&P, is hereby revoked and any further tampering or attempting to fund it will be met with the LAW. The numbered contract documents are hereby nullified and I ask Rick Martin to see to same. I believe Chief Okilo should be immediately put in touch with Mr. Drummond Campbell of the Center (School) of Truth.

[QUOTING:]

O.J. SIMPSON AND
THE CIVIL VERDICT

Conspiracy Nation—Vol. 10 Num. 17
by Sherman H. Skolnick

O.J. Simpson lost the civil trial—the reasons are simple but heavy. He could not tell the truth for fear his entire family would be wiped out.

ITEM: OJ has to shut his mouth about the mobsters controlling super-stars like him and their crooked arrangements with the mass media. OJ's gangster business partner, also in dope, was murdered during the criminal trial. Only the newspapers in Buffalo, New York—where OJ is from—talked about it.

ITEM: OJ's business confidants confirmed to us that he told them months before the double murders that his ex-wife Nicole and her crony Ron were big in dope dealing. OJ said it endangered the rest of his family and his businesses, AND HE HAD TO STOP THEM. But HOW?

ITEM: Ron Goldman was part of a homosexual gang distributing dope, on credit, to celebrities and fancy people, through fancy restaurants like where he worked. His sidekick, also a waiter, Michael Nigg, was murdered three weeks before the criminal verdict in October, 1995. AND: The courtroom bailiff during that first trial was likewise murdered. HE KNEW TOO MUCH. Each evening the bailiff had custody of the jurors' notebooks. AND: During that first trial, a nose mass media reporter was knocked off (Robin Clark, covering the first trial for the Philadelphia Inquirer.)

ITEM: The Drug Enforcement police had an undercover team tracking Ron Goldman. They also witnessed reportedly the blood bath, the double murders—their "see in the dark" video (called extreme low lux video) shows three or four hispanics or orientals did the double butcher job. Also, because of jealousy, OJ had private detectives tracking Nicole—they reportedly also witnessed the bloody horror and informed OJ who came on the scene AFTER THE MURDERS. Hence his shoe print there as well as some of the blood on him. A witness prepared to testify about this was clapped away by crooked judges. The highly corrupt narcs and the private dicks did not lift a finger to stop the bloodshed they were reportedly witnessing. They knew better than to mix in.

ITEM: The OJ affair revolves around the bloody turf war—such as in California—between two major dope operations, the Herreras of Mexico and the Japanese mafia, the Yakuza. Both gangs are tight with the American CIA raising money for espionage operations through flooding the U.S. with dope. From the bitter divorce, Nicole got most of OJ's fast food stores and brought in crooked police brass as silent partners. These stores reportedly laundered dope loot through California banks, most of them owned by the Yakuza—such as Bank of America, Wells Fargo, and Household International and their units, Household Bank. In the first trial, Criminal Court Judge Lance Ito knew all about this. His wife, Margaret York, is an L.A. Police Captain in charge of investigating police corruption. AND: Judge Ito reportedly has Heidi Fleiss's secret records that could be used to blackmail top officials, celebrities, and such. She was the convicted head of the call girl rackets tied to some of Nicole's friends.

ITEM: Some of the L.A. detectives in the OJ case are the same ones who covered up the political assassination in 1968 of Robert Kennedy, brother of the slain President John F. Kennedy.

ITEM: Some of OJ's lawyers are reportedly tight with known major dopers.

ITEM: Was it a mere coincidence that a so-called "disgruntled" person slaughtered employees in the L.A. Police laboratory? In the first trial, did one of the jurors get herself removed because she had a relative in that police laboratory and was fearful?

THE BOTTOM LINE: President Clinton knows plenty about the CIA and this dope traffic, going back to the time he was Governor. Unwinding the truth in the O.J. Simpson matter would put in jail the President, top narcs, judges, prosecutors, police brass, and radio, TV, and print media bigshots, along with bankers such as Wells Fargo, tight with Clinton. (Major owners of Wells Fargo, which in turn is a major owner of Household International, include the Yakuza and business blowhard Warren Buffet. And Buffet is a major owner of Disney, that owns ABC News, and he is a major owner of the Washington Post, Coca-Cola Company, and major Wall Street bond houses.)

IF O.J. SIMPSON TOLD THE TRUTH, NO DOUBT HIS WHOLE FAMILY WOULD BE WIPED OUT, including children from his two ex-wives. If you were in his position could you tell the world the truth about all this?

The News Desk

2/11/97 DR. AL OVERHOLT

THE BIGGEST GIVER OR THE BIGGEST HOG

Excerpted from THE ST. PETERSBURG TIMES, 8/23/96, [quoting:]

When Ted Turner forked over $200-million to charity two years ago, he felt a tremor.

"My hand shook when I signed the papers," he recalls, about his first big gifts to universities and the environment, "because I knew I was taking myself out of the running for the richest man in America."

Instead of the joy of giving, he was consumed by the fear of falling-off The Forbes Four Hundred list of wealthiest Americans.

But he learned that giving can be as much fun as making, and now he wants his fellow billionaires—or "ol' skinflints", as he calls them—to "open their purse strings" wider.

"That list is destroying our country!" He bellows cheerfully over the phone. "These new super-rich won't loosen up their wads because they're afraid they'll reduce their net worth and go down on the list. That's their Super Bowl."

America's flashiest extrovert, the Jim Carrey of capitalism, has gone existential on us.

"How many times do you get asked which is your favorite restaurant in New York, your favorite sport, your favorite place to go on vacation?" he asks. "My favorite place is wherever I am! Why do we have to rank everything? Why can't we like a fish restaurant on Sunday and a Chinese restaurant on Monday? Why isn't it better to be the biggest giver rather than the biggest hog?"

The man who raises buffalo here in Montana and businesses in Atlanta, the Rhett Butler romantic who married Jane Fonda, the adventurer who has stacked up amazing achievements in sailing, baseball, television and preserving the condor, peregrine falcon and Western lands, has another great idea. Why not start an annual list of the most generous, offering an "Ebenezer Scrooge Prize" that embarrasses stingy billionaires and "Heart of Gold Award" to honor philanthropists?

Turner, aka Captain Outrageous and the Mouth of the South, is getting warmed up now. "I talked to both Bill Gates and Warren Buffett, the two richest men in the country, and they would be inclined to give more if there was a list of who did the giving rather than the having. What difference does it make if you're worth $12-billion or $11-billion? With a billion dollars you can build a whole university.

"They are fighting every year to be the richest man in the world. Why don't they sign a joint pact to each give away a billion and then move down the Forbes list equally?"

He got incensed after he read in the New York Times that the mega-rich give away a smaller proportion annually than the less gilded. "Why didn't CNN break that story? I was outraged!"

Gates and Buffett have given away some money, but not the really big bucks. The Microsoft founder promises to give away most of his $16-billion, but wants to wait until he is 50 or 60 to plan it. Buffett has said he will give the bulk of his 15-billion to population control [He's one of the Elite so he'd probabaly use any donation to help KILL off the population.], but not until after he and his wife are gone.

Turner impatiently drawls that tommorrow is not another day, when it comes to population and the environment. "They should do it no-o-o-ow!" [He should be worried, NOW!! Can he be so innocent that he doesn't know the Elite ARE depopulating this planet and their methods??]

If the rich continue to control more of the nation's wealth more frugally, the cable visionary sees the specter of the guillotine.

"These big billionaires are busy letting go middle managers in their 50s, the day before their pension plans kick in. We're getting to be like Mexico and Brazil, with the rich living behind fences, like they do in Hollywood. Ronnie Perelman has a whole battery of bodyguards, he's so afraid of being kidnapped.

The federal government, the state government, the municipal government—they're all broke. All the money is in the hands of these few rich people, and none of them give any money away. It's dangerous for them and for the country. We may have another "French Revolution, and there'll be another Madame Defarge knitting and watching them come in little ox carts down to the town square and BOOM! Off with their heads!"

After ranting about Rupert Murdoch maneuvering to avoid U. S. taxes, Turner offers a final blast. "Be like Lois Lane! Don't give up until you get some action. It used to be, to sell newspapers you'd clean up Tammany Hall. I'm going to get in trouble, but I'm a journalist, too!" [End quoting]

Wouldn't it be nice if Ted wasn't so hypocritical about wanting to help this world? He had a golden opportunity to really help by giving us the truth in the news before he lost control of his network. That would have helped much more than a few billions of donated money.

ATF's "GOOD OL' BOYS"

Excerpted from THE ST. PETERSBURG TIMES, 7/16/95, [quoting:]

More than 300 people attended an outdoor retreat last spring in the beautiful hills of Tennessee. It was a fine affair, complete with camping, free beer, delicious food, good music and, of course, the camaraderie of buddies and colleagues.

But the event, dubbed the "Good O' Boys Roundup," had an ominous side.

Many participants wore T-shirts with Martin Luther King Jr.'s face behind a target, and others wore T-shirts emblazoned with O.J. Simpson in a hangman's noose. Racial slurs were everywhere. Near the park entrance, for example, a sign warned: "Nigger Checkpoint". Another read, "Is there a Nigger in your Car?" And music, peppered with the word "nigger", filled the air. The most popular item, though, was the special "Nigger Hunting License" that was distributed to everyone.

Now, guess who the participants were: All were white men, all were either local cops or federal agents. At least six still are active members of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms. Twelve others are retired ATF agents, and a few of them are suspected of helping to organize the outdoor retreat, which has been held since 1980. To their credit, two of the active ATF agents left the scene when they saw and heard the racism.

The implications of this activity are almost too frightening to ponder. We have officers of the law, all sworn to protect the lives of citizens—including African-Americans—participating in a racist affair. How many of these officers and agents have had assignments in black neighborhoods? How many are in a position to hire and fire Black people?

"It's scary," said Ronald Noble, Treasury undersecretary for enforcement. "People who engage in this sort of activity should give up their badges."

Absolutely, John Magaw, director of ATF, said the bureau has a policy of "zero tolerance" for all forms of discrimination. That may be true, but, at this very moment, ATF is facing sexual harassment, age discrimination and race discrimination lawsuits. Apparently, the "zero tolerance" policy is not working.

A spokeswoman for the approximately 300 Black agents in the race discrimination suit said that the racism at the retreat simply is a manifestation of a widespread problem at the agency. She said Black agents routinely are "put up front to do the most dangerous work, the most time-consuming and low-paying work and assignments that don't count toward career advancement."

ATF officials argue that the bureau has made great progress in rooting out prejudice. But that claim is hard to believe when, time and again, top officials and rank-and-file agents are accused of bigotry. When Black agents first filed suit, Michael Riselli, one of their attorneys, said: "It's pretty striking and significant that you've got an agency that from time to time gets called upon to help in civil rights cases...that doesn't handle its own problems in that area."

The time has come for Magaw to clean house, to round up all of the "Good O' Boys". The policy of "zero tolerance" for discrimination should not be mere words on paper. It must become standard operating procedure. Nothing else is acceptable. [End quoting]

Notice the date of this article—since then they appear to have changed only for the worst and I expect it'll be even worse next year. Hope I'm wrong!

DWAYNE ANDREAS AND ARCHER DANIELS MIDLAND

"Mr. Nice Guy" and the "Corporate Citizen"

Excerpted from CONSPIRACY NATION, Vol. 10, Num. 12, 1/12/97, [quoting:] Internet <<http://www.shout.net/~bigred/cn.html>>

In CN 10.10 it was noted how "...prominent GOP supporter Dwayne Andreas of Archer Daniels Midland...donated $100,000 to Bill Clinton's inaugural in 1993." It was also noted how Archer Daniels Midland (ADM) funds the ultra-boring yet oh-so-educational Jim Lehrer Newshour on PBS.

Not seen to my knowledge on the "public" television "news" program has been major coverage of what's been going on for several decades with Dwayne Andreas, Michael Andreas, ADM, and others. (If PBS won't do it, Conspiracy Nation will.)

According to several articles in the New Federalist (7/29/96), ADM and friends are quite a story. Here are excerpts from the articles:

In 1878, John W. Daniels began selling flaxseed to produce linseed oil and in 1902 formed Daniels Linseed Company in Minneapolis. George A. Archer, another experienced flaxseed crusher, joined the company in 1903. In 1923, the company bought Midland Products and adopted the name Archer Daniels Midland (ADM).

Dwayne Andreas, born in Decatur, Illinois in 1918, joined his father's R.P. Andreas firm in the mid-1930s. In 1936, the Andreas family changed the name of the firm to the Honeymead Company. In 1945, [Dwayne Andreas] sold 60 percent of the family's Honeymead to Cargill [another food giant].

From 1946 through 1952, Dwayne Andreas worked for Cargill, learning how to hedge and speculate [a.k.a. rob farmers] in Commodities.

In 1945, Dwayne Andreas met Hubert Humphrey. Andreas contributed $1,000 to Humphrey's first senatorial campaign in 1948. Humphrey and Andreas became intimate. Humphrey was godfather to Andreas's son. In 1977, Humphrey, then on the Senate Agriculture Committee, wrote legislation to establish government supports for sugar, which saved Andreas from huge losses. In the 1980s, Andreas funded a Hubert Humphrey Room at the Anti-Defamation League's new headquarters at U.N. Plaza in New York City. While Humphrey lived, Andreas and Humphrey took 85 trips together.

New Federalist has recently reported on the connections between 1948 GOP presidential candidate and governor of New York Tom Dewey and Republican Party judge-fixer Roy Cohn. According to a July 14, 1996 cover story in the magazine section of the Sunday Washington Post, Dewey, working during the 1950s as Andreas's lawyer, set up the Andreas Foundation, to spread Andreas' influence through charitable and political contributions. Andreas provided the funds, and Dewey decided where to distribute the foundation's largesse. "Give money to both sides [Democratic and Republican]. And give to the people your friends ask you to give to," is how the Post described the foundation's policy.

What did Andreas get in return? For one thing, when Dewey became the governor of New York, he saw to it that ADM was awarded a lucrative contract to provide soy-based food products to the state's prison system.

Over the decades, working "both sides of the fence" also netted ADM a change in the Food for Peace legislation of the 1960s to allow that federal program to sell processed food (from ADM and other cartel companies), and action by Richard Nixon to open China's wheat markets to ADM-supplied grain, to mention only a few of the good turns done for ADM.

In 1974, ADM entered into a price-fixing scheme that overcharged the U.S. Government $19 million in sales of soy-fortified food to the Food for Peace program. ADM was convicted. In 1976, the company pleaded no contest to federal charges that it had systematically short-weighted and misgraded federally subsidized grain that was being shipped abroad.

In 1984, Andreas met Mikhail Gorbachev for the first time. In 1990, Andreas contributed $1 million to create a Gorbachev Institute in the United States and Russia.

Andreas was always close, as a result of his friendship with Hubert Humphrey, to the organized crime-linked Anti-Defamation League of the B'nai B'rith. During the 1980s, Andreas was persuaded by another major grain trader, Burton Joseph, of the Minneapolis-based S.I. Joseph Company, to contribute $1 million to the ADL. Andreas made the payments in amounts of $50,000 to $100,000 per year.

In 1995, the U.S. Justice Department launched an investigation into fraud and anti-competitive price-fixing in ADM's handling and marketing of corn sweeteners and lysine—a livestock feed supplement.

Key personnel connected with ADM are: Howard Buffett, vice president of ADM and son of Warren Buffett; Robert Strauss, George Bush's ambassador to Russia, 1991-1993; Brian Mulroney, former prime minister of Canada; Michael Andreas, son of Dwayne Andreas and heir-apparent to the empire.

Dwayne Andreas sits on the Hollinger International Advisory Board, headed by Lady Margaret Thatcher, Henry Kissinger, and Lord Peter Carrington. Also on the Hollinger board are Evelyn de Rothschild, Giovanni Agnelli of FIAT, and former Fed chief Paul Volcker. [End quoting]

Andreas rips off billions from our taxes and his customers through price fixing and gets fined pennies on the dollar.

ITALY WITHDRAWS VACCINE DERIVED FROM CATTLE PARTS

From NEWSPOT, West Coast Edition, 1/27/97, <http://www.merc.com/stories/cgi/story.cgi>, [quoting:]

The Italian Health Ministry said on Monday it had withdrawn a type of meningitis vaccine made with cattle derivatives that is commonly used on children, because of the potential risks associated with mad cow disease.

The ministry said in a statement it had ordered the drug HIB TITER, produced in Italy by a unit of American Cyanamid (CYNA.BO) Co, to be withdrawn as a precaution pending further consultation with pharmaceutical experts.

It said the move was part of "a strategy which aims progressively to take off the market all drugs whose production involves cattle material belonging to the first class of infectiousness (brain, liver, marrow)."

Cyanamid said it was satisfied HIB TITER, which has been on sale in the United States since 1988 and is available in other parts of Europe, presented no risk from mad cow disease, or bovine spongiform encephalopathy (BSE).

The drug was made with products from certified U.S. and Australian cattle from areas free of BSE and had already been approved by European pharmaceutical authorities, it said.

"There is no problem from BSE and it should be put back on sale. We will be seeking for it to be reinstated," a company spokesman in Italy said.

British scientists last March disclosed a probable link between BSE and a fatal human equivalent, sparking consumer panic.

The European Union subsequently imposed a worldwide ban on British beef and derivatives but has agreed a step-by-step easing of the ban as Britain implements a selective slaughter programme of some 100,000 cattle most at risk of BSE. Britain has been the country worst hit by the disease. [End quoting]

Should we believe this story after all the true stories we've heard about the Elite purposefully selling contaminated vaccines to help fulfill their depopulation plans?

TRACKING DEVICES MAY SPARK CALLS FOR NEW TRIALS

Excerpted from THE BAKERSFIELD CALIFORNIAN, 1/12/97, [quoting:]

Defense lawyers around the nation may seek new trials for defendants whose cars were secretly tailed by police using an electronic tracking device.

State and federal public defenders in several cities have begun asking prosecutors to disclose whether their clients were tracked by the device known as Teletrac.

"They've been really hiding this one," said Ira Kirkdollar, the federal public defender in Dallas. "I think the trap is sprung at this point. They're not going to be able to hide it without us finding out about it."

Dean Steward, head of the federal Public Defender's Office, said the lawyers will begin routinely asking prosecutors whether authorities used tracking devices to follow their clients' cars.

In Orange County, the public defender's office will ask a judge to order every police agency in the county to identify trial defendants whose cars were tracked, Chief Deputy Public Defender Carl Holmes said Friday.

The motion could be made in the next few weeks.

"We want to determine whether or not there were violations of our clients' constitutional rights due to the withholding of evidence," he said.

The Orange County Register reported recently that authorities often plant the magnetic devices without getting a warrant and routinely conceal use of the technology from defendants, their lawyers and the public.

In California alone, 500 defendants may have been sentenced to prison without their attorneys knowing about the computer tracking, said Larry Boyle, a defense lawyer and former Los Angeles County prosecutor.

Defense lawyers argue that federal law requires prosecutors to share evidence. They also say using the devices without a warrant could violate a constitutional ban on unreasonable searches.

PROSECUTORS DISAGREE

"Anybody else could come up and stick some magnetic thing under your bumper, so the government can do it," said Devallis Rutledge, a county deputy district attorney who supervises the appellate unit.

The public defender's office discomposure request is sweeping and a judge probably would reject it, Rutledge predicted.

"This is not a fishing business," he said. "They cannot say, 'We want to know every investigative method used in every case you've ever filed.'" [End quoting]

Big Brother will never let go until he knows every detail of your life, and probably your dreams, also! Remember, they are leeches!

GESTAPO-FBI AND TWA FLIGHT 800

Excerpted from the INTERNET, MHoustonx@aol.com, 1/31/97, [quoting:]

December 17, 1996: The Local Gestapo-FBI is investigating Marshall, a very sincere and curious person who has the rights to investigate TWA 800 and report his findings, and thanks to the Internet, can air his findings—which normally would not get aired in the ever increasing Pravda-style controlled press we seem to have here in the US, with the major presses controlled by very few rich and powerful entities. Bruce Meland, Electrifying Times cc <info@presslink.com>

Here is the near culmination of my conspiracy work over the past few months.

It involves TWA 800 July 17, 1996 8:30 pm. East of JFK Airport.

I put this up on the Internet early Monday Morning. My friends involved in TWA 800 research are already receiving death threats. There has been a complete media blackout in the US. I have obtained the best information overseas. I have never seen anything quite like what I have observed over the past few months. The TWA 800 websites have been raided by government and Navy people calling us "unpatriotic" and saying that it was a mechanical failure and that there is no evidence of anything else. The story is so long that it cannot be contained in this E-mail. I have looked at nearly every possibility. [End quoting]

The real meat of this story is that the FBI is proving they have something to hide. This is nothing new to CONTACT readers but I thought the story might interest you.

TALMUD REVIVAL

Excerpted from a FLYER, source unknown, [quoting:]

The following dispatch out of New York speaks for itself:

The World Academy in Jerusalem will begin printing this year a new and revised edition of the ancient Talmud, the first in seventy-six years.

The announcement was made yesterday by Charles H. Silver, president of the New York Board of Education, who is a trustee of the academy.

Publication will be in thirty volumes of 600 large folio pages each. The first volume is expected to be issued next fall.

In this first punctuated edition, the Talmud will include a digest of unpublished commentaries going back to the eleventh century which have been gathered over the world.

These manuscripts have been made available from private collections and from leading libraries, including Bodleian at Oxford University and those of the Vatican and Columbia University. The last edition of the Talmud was printed in 1880-86 by the Rom Press of Vilna, Lithuania.

Rabbinic scholars and research workers in Jerusalem have compiled more than a million cross-reference cards in relation to the revised edition. In it names of men and places will be identified and placed in their historical and geographical settings. Garments, vessels, foods, instruments, diseases, seeds, animals and plants will be described.

The literature in the Talmud, which embodies Jewish moral and spiritual teachings based upon Biblical precepts and laws, embraces a period of about 1,000 years.

But the first known printing of the Talmud was issued in Spain about 1475, just before the Spanish Inquisition. In the succeeding 400 years about seventy editions of the Talmud were printed in Spain, Italy, Portugal, Poland, Switzerland, Holland, Germany, Austria, Russia and Lithuania.

The World Academy in Jerusalem, headed by Isaac Halevs Herzog, Chief Rabbi of Israel, is devoted to Talmudic and Biblical research. It has headquarters here at 122 West Seventy-sixth Street. Rabbi Herbert S. Goldstein of this city is chairman of the academy's board of trustees.

No one should consider himself a student of Jewish tradition unless he is familiar with the contents of the Talmud. Below we reproduce a few excerpts from the Talmud which appeared in an earlier issue of The Cross and the Flag.

"THE CODE OF THE JEWS"

From The Talmudic Writings

1. "We beg Thee inflict Thy wrath on the nations not believing in Thee, Take away, O Lord, all hope from them. Destroy all foes of Thy Nation." Synagoga Judaica, p. 212 Minhagen, p. 23 Crach Chaim, 480 Hagah.

2. "The teachings of the Talmud stand above all other laws. They are more important than the laws of Moses." — Rabbi Ismael, Rabbi Chamber, et al.

3. "The decisions of the Talmud are words of the living God. Jehovah Himself asks the opinion of the early rabbis when there are difficult affairs in heaven." — Rabbi Menachem Commentary on Fifth Book.

4. "It is more wicked to question the words of the rabbis than those of the Torah." — Mishna Sanhedryn 11:3.

5. "Every goy who studies the Talmud and every Jew who helps him in it, ought to die." — Sanhedryn, 59a. Aboda Zora, 8-6, Szagiga, 13.

6. "To communicate anything to a goy about our religious relations would be equal to the killing of all Jews, for if the goyim knew what we teach about them they would kill us openly." — Libbre David 37.

7. "If a Jew be called upon to explain any part of the Rabbinic books, he ought to give only a false explanation. Whoever will violate this order shall be put to death." Libbre David 37.

8. "A Jew should and must make a false oath when the goyim asks if our books contain anything against them." — Szaaloth Uts-zabot, the Book of Jore Dia 17.

9. "The Jews are human beings, but the nations of the world are not human beings but beasts." — Baba Meca 11, 6.

10. "When the Messiah comes every Jew will have 2800 slaves." Simeou Haddarsen, fol. 56-D.

11. "As soon as the King Messiah will declare himself, He will destroy Rome and make a wilderness of it. Thorns and weeds will grow in the Pope's palace, Then He will start a merciless war on non-Jews and will overpower them. He will slay them in masses, kill their kings and lay waste the whole Roman land. He will say to the Jews: 'I am the King Messiah for whom you have been waiting. Take the silver and gold from the goyim.'" — Josiah 60, 6. Rabbi Abtrbanel to Daniel, 7, 13.

Can you understand, with this sample, how evil the total Talmud was and now they are revising it? It would seem, according to their recent actions, that it would only be for the worst.

It is difficult for most non-Zionist-Jews to believe they are hated so much—and that these other Jews are filled with with so much evil.

A LAWFULLY ASSEMBLED CONGRESS?

Excerpted from a FLYER, source unknown, [quoting:]

IF CONGRESS has NEVER "LAWFULLY"!! re-assembled since the Confederate Union States walked out at the beginning of the Civil War and there has been NO RECORD of the re-admission of the Confederate States back into the Union, or to the U.S. CONGRESS since then...what is the real status of all the "laws" passed since then???

VACCINE CAUSE OF MOST POLIO FROM 1980-94

From THE BAKERSFIELD CALIFORNIAN, 1/31/97, [quoting:]

Practically every case of polio in the United States between 1980 and 1994 was caused by the vaccine itself, the government said Thursday. However, a new vaccine regimen that went into effect this month is EXPECTED to cut the risk dramatically [emphasis mine]. [How about an excuse to change over to a deadlier vaccine??]

According to the CDC, 133 people contracted polio between 1980 and 1994. A total of 125 of those cases—or an average of eight per year—were caused directly or indirectly by the oral polio vaccine, which consists of a live but weakened virus, the CDC said. [End quoting]

The figures are probably much worse than stated. Furthermore, the Elite have a habit of calling polio, etc., another name, when you have sickness after a vaccine was given, to prevent you from connecting the vaccine with the illness.

HEAVENLY WARNING

From ANGELS ON EARTH, Nov./Dec., 1996, Guideposts, 39 Seminary Hill Rd., Carmel, NY 10512, [quoting:]

Two days before Christmas 1993, I was stuck working late. My co-worker Frances and I were at our computers, our backs to each other, when I heard my name called. I went over to Frances to see what she wanted. She looked puzzled. Before either of us could speak, we heard a horrible cracking sound. The huge metal cabinet bolted above my desk tore completely out of the wall. It smashed my chair in half, and partially embedded itself in the wall beside my desk.

Three maintenance men carried it away the next morning. "Whoever sits here is lucky to be alive," one remarked. I don't consider it luck at all. It wasn't Frances who had spoken at that one critical moment. God had sent an angel to call my name.

2/4/97 #1 HATONN

FOR ALL OF YOU, PLEASE URGENT WARNING RE: HEALTH

Now, as to Dharma's lungs—get an inhaler and mist with colloids (all mixed together) those lungs before the symptoms settle into a chronic ongoing state of mutation and disease. Please do this ASAP. I know, the legal deadlines fall on this day so that is why I say as soon as possible. Note that irritation to the lungs, headache, and minor flu-like symptoms are accompanying your old/new disease processing now in the Los Angeles area. Once entered into the body, the microbes change and there is no treatment past the early stages. So, don't let early symptoms overcome you by thinking you can save some silver colloid if you "wait". Get rid of these invaders as quickly as you come to realize you may be hosting some alien bugs.

I believe that an inhaler of the electric variety for "moist" vaporizing is best. This is NOT a humidifier but an "inhaler" apparatus. Or, you can get over-the-counter "asthma" hand-held inhalers from which the contents purchased can be emptied into another container, and the inhaler portion can be utilized to "suck" colloid mist into the lungs for absorption at bronchial surface levels. You may wish to leave a bit of the asthma "treatment solution" (over the counter) in the apparatus as a better "carrier" for the solution. When inhaling, make sure that you add some drops of Gaiandriana so that the absorption and transition to well cells be readily utilized.

I have heard people suggesting hydrogen peroxide sprayed through the nasal passages to cleanse the bronchial tree—DO NOT DO THIS. It can be harmless but you run the risk of actually burning the lungs, caustically. Don't do it. QxySol is GOOD to add to the colloids inhaled but please do not use "straight" hydrogen peroxide for this purpose. Use something which cannot bring harm but, rather, only healing support. And yes indeed, we do try out all these things on people RIGHT HERE before a drop goes to others. We are sort of the "King's tasters". Further, we tend to sometimes "overdose" intentionally to locate any possible unseen effects. We find NONE with anything we offer—except increasing the need for intentional replacement of lowered intestinal flora. This is not "harmful" as such but it can cause great malaise and digestive symptoms until the bacteria belonging in the tract are replaced. I will again see if there is some way to have available, replacement flora critters. These are very easily grown but we have about all the incubation nursery babies we can handle. Perhaps next month we can begin to look into broader facilities and increase our living world species.

Was Little Crow in real trouble? Yes. And I see that Dharma is not going to leave those thoughts so I will speak to that with you. Little Crow has a GREAT mission, a huge mission, and he asked for HEALING and CLEANSING and he got it. Most would and could not survive physically, such trauma; however, it becomes important to realize that your actual "earth physical" properties get in the way, now, of our intended purposes and missions. He will be more careful of his body now so that the mutation of cellular structures is not easily allowed.

If every "body" could be "baked" there would no longer be disease processes remaining—UNFORTU-NATELY, THERE WOULD NOT BE A VIABLE, FUNCTIONAL BRAIN LEFT EITHER! Therefore, in such as the circumstances of Little Crow, even though the brain "remains" intact—he will be the first to tell you that the MIND is removed from the circumstance and the alternate hologram presented is perfectly capable of functioning and here is where he/you can be located in several places at one moment in "time perception". It is a wondrous journey even at the time of undertaking but one can't depend on not being taken to the "undertaker". God is not going to allow Little Crow, however, to "get away"; in fact, HE JUST SENT HIM "BACK" SO WE CAN MOVE FORWARD. He will now assume his POWER and responsibility in full realization of his ability to accomplish any task required in full recognition of both his STATUS and CAPABILITIES. Remember that we are all children at some level of our beingness for it is necessary to come INTO knowing and recognition. "Was I there?" comes the next thought. Of course, do we students not also test our professors? If you do not—then you should. But I suggest you be very careful of your RIGHT and own level of KNOWING before you attempt such confrontations. I suggest you continue to test self under the FIRE of responsibility accepted and not go through the ovens of hell to accomplish more lofty goals.

Sir George Bush: On Her Majesty's Service

2/4/97 #1 HATONN

Now, with some of the legal work in other's hands for a while today, let us move on to Sir George Bush and, yes, I hear you: "bah humbug"! Knowledge, however, can be a PRICELESS commodity.

For the next article shared we are greatly indebted to one whose name will be easily recognized, Lyndon H. LaRouche, Jr. from EIR, January 10, 1997:

[QUOTING, PART I:]

SIR GEORGE BUSH: ON HER MAJESTY'S SERVICE

by Lyndon LaRouche, Jr.

December 24, 1996

British-led intelligence networks' role in supporting international terrorism against France, Sudan, Colombia, and, most recently, Peru, obliges all U.S. citizens who wish to regard themselves as patriots, rather than of a nasty Tory type, to come to their senses on the subject of those continuing services to the British Empire, for which, according to no less an authority than the Queen herself, President Sir George Bush has received a knighthood from her Royal Britannic Majesty.

We examine the present British campaign for UNO sanctions against Sudan, against the background of London's simultaneous backing for the same international terrorism of which it, with witting falsehood, accuses Sudan. We emphasize the relevance of this of France's and other nations' repeated exposures of London as the base for terrorist operations directed against them. We emphasize London's role in furthering the cause of international terrorism in Fidel Castro's Central and South America, as key to understanding the genocide and related terrorist operations which London is orchestrating through Uganda and poor Eritrea against Sudan, Rwanda, Burundi, and Zaire, among other targets in what Sir George Bush's cronies of genocidalist London currently identify as "the Greater Horn of Africa".

Refer to the attached documentation [elaborated documentation not included here], as numbered here, for identification of evidence bearing upon that question. Therefore, (1) consider the role of Britain's

George Soros in orchestrating November's pro-drug-legalization referenda through Republican Party channels in Arizona and in California; also, consider the included documentation [elaborated documentation not included here], in that same location, of charges against Soros and his operations, which have been presented by official circles in Italy, and by President Tudjman, and his government, in Croatia. Combine this with (2) French officials' repeated exposures of Britain's harboring of the most dangerous of the world's well-known international-terrorist organizations operating inside France. Consider additional evidence, from Israeli sources and elsewhere (3), corroborating this exposure of Britain's leading role behind international terrorism operating throughout most parts of the world, such as against Peru and elsewhere today. Take this together with Sir Henry Kissinger's public brag, in 1982 (4), that he had been an agent of the British foreign service at the time he was supposed to be serving U.S. Presidents Nixon and Ford. Add to this (5) recent revelations of the roles of former U.S. President Sir George Bush, as (a) former drug kingpin, (b) Moonie-cult lackey, and (c) as a director of Britain's Canada-based, Africa-genocide-linked Barrick International interests.

The question is: How does one correctly identify the British intelligence agents operating within any given assembly of the world's so-called Very Important Persons (VIPs)? Very few among today's putative counterintelligence specialists have answered that question competently. Even in the instance they identify an actual such agent, their selections usually rely on methods which lead them more often to wrong identifications and interpretations than to correct ones.

For example, note, in attached documentation, although today's principal U.S. television networks were derived from British Empire interests' control of radio patents, the difference between (6) traditional fellow-travellers of the British services, such as The New York Times and The Washington Post, and (7) the newspaper chains outrightly controlled in British imperial interest, by such British Commonwealth agencies as the Murdoch and Hollinger chains. Similarly, what is the Australian angle which U.S. Attorney General Janet Reno has been complicit in covering up in such cases as the Waco, Texas massacre (8), and, also, in (9) the fraudulent 1983-88 covert and legal trials of a U.S. Democratic Presidential candidate whom Henry A. Kissinger and 1980s drug kingpin George Bush wished to put out of the way? What is the massive official, deliberate cover-up, for the benefit of not only both the British government and former President George Bush, but, also, ongoing international terrorism, in (10) the carefully pre-scrambled New York City Federal indictment, trial, and conviction of those accused in the World Trade Center bombing? What is the role of British intelligence's Hollinger press channels (11) in orchestrating the attempts to indict U.S. President Bill Clinton—i.e., overthrow the U.S. government in the same way British intelligence agencies customarily conduct bloody revolutions, invasions, or other forms of political coups against the governments of Third World nations? Consider the manner the British Empire, through Colonial Office ("Overseas Development" office) Secretary Baroness Lynda Chalker, is steering, today, the highest rate of genocide in Twentieth-Century history, against literally millions of refugees from Rwanda and Burundi.

It is past time for the Federal government and ordinary citizens of the U.S.A. to come to their senses in these and closely related matters. Have we not already experienced international terrorism, and top-down, politically motivated, judicial cover-up in the case of former Vice-President George Bush's Special Situation Group (SSG) assets, the (10) Afghan mujahideen, to provide color for the bombing of New York City's World Trade Center? Are not the politically most sensitive aspects of the massacres at Waco, Texas and Ruby Ridge, Idaho (12) still covered up? Do we not witness the effort to explain away what is presented as a highly sophisticated, and relatively large-scale operation, the Oklahoma bombing (13), by suggesting the whole affair is to be blamed upon a convenient pair of scapegoats?

Look at the relevant lesson to be learned from certain among the undisputed, well-known facts in the case of the terrorist attack in Peru (14), Look at those facts; then, say similar terrorist attacks could not happen in the U.S.A. itself, even as early as sometime during 1997. The leading, implicit point is: the legitimate purpose in chasing individual termites, is to find, and destroy the nest from which they come.

HOW TO KILL A NATION

Consider the following, exemplary features of the matter, as drawn from the attached report (14) on the terrorist invasion and occupation of Japan's diplomatic premises in Lima, Peru.

In this case, the putative perpetrator is a branch of internationally organized narco-terrorism operating within Peru, the MRTA, which is otherwise to be recognized as the complement to the similarly connected, mass-murderous, nominally Communist narco-terrorist organization known as Sendero Luminoso. These two organizations represent, combined, international narco-terrorist gangs based in the area which is the largest single source of supply of illegal cocaine to the criminal markets of the world; they are both criminal associations in the highest degree, which have already murdered tens of thousands of proverbial innocent bystanders, criminal associations whose mere toleration by a government would constitute a crime against humanity by that government. For years, Peru's President Fujimori led his nation's military and police forces in a successful campaign to break the power of, and to imprison these mass-murderous, narco-terrorist killers in his own country, a campaign for which all civilized humanity owes a great debt of gratitude to Peru, to its incumbent President, and to the military and police institutions of that nation.

Granted, as EIR and other experts agreed at the time when the majority of these terrorists had been rounded up, Peru had eradicated most of the branches, if not all of the seeds of these terrorist organizations; but, until recent foreign interference, from U.S.A. official channels, and elsewhere, pressed Peru to lessen its security measures against international terrorism, the terrorist menace in Peru remained essentially a dormant one.

These two Peru-linked terrorist organizations are part of a terrorist international called the Sao Paulo Forum (Foro de Sao Paulo) (15), nominally originating in Brazil, and presently headed, at least nominally, by Cuba's President Fidel Castro. This association includes every notable international terrorist organization operating to the south of the United States, and includes also agents operating, from within the Internet, inside the U.S.A. itself. The principal narco-terrorist organizations of Colombia, including the "legalized" M-19 and the FARC, are part of this. The terrorist organization which calls itself the "Zapatistas" (15), which has occupied one of the richest oil-deposits of Mexico, in the state of Chiapas, is part of this same terrorist international.

Executive Intelligence Review

P.O. Box 17390

Washington, D.C. 20041-0390

Some confused minds call these "leftists"; wicked people call them "rebels". History shows (16), that the "leftist" Duke of Orleans, "Philippe Egalité", the patron of terrorist Robespierre, and a terrorist mass-murderer in his own right, was, like Napoleon III after him, a British intelligence services' agent of influence against his own nation, France. The same history shows, that "leftist" terrorists Danton and Marat, were mass-murderers trained in, and directed from London by the then-head of the British foreign intelligence service, Lord Shelburne protégé Jeremy Bentham (16). The "leftists" of Fidel Castro's following among the terrorists of the Sao Paulo Forum, are in that tradition.

The London connection to the MRTA, like the House of Lords' openly expressed sympathy for the narco-terrorists of Colombia, shows us the meaning which the term "leftist" must invoke when employed as a political costuming for the class of international narco-terrorist organizations which the MRTA represents. Terming the MRTA "rebels", as their apparent sympathizers of the CNN network have done, is like terming genocidalist Genghis Khan "a specialist in etiquette".

That said, focus upon the specific kind of criminal complicity exhibited by certain press and related agencies in the recent MRTA affair in Peru (17). Focus upon a collection of accomplices which includes the editorial page of the Dec. 24 New York Times, Time Warner's CNN network [H: Note he did NOT say Turner's CNN...], and other traditionally London-connected news-media accomplices of these terrorists. These terrorists have been operating, like the assassins which British agent Giuseppe Mazzini's Young Europe deployed, or, as in the 1860s tradition of B'Nai B'Rith associate and British agent John Wilkes Booth: as instruments of British policy-shaping.

In this case, as the relevant international television newsmedia insisted constantly, the announced purpose of the recent MRTA terrorists' deployment has been to induce Peru to abandon the last vestiges of national sovereignty, just as shamelessly open sympathizers of Colombia's narco-democracy as the British House of Lords have insisted for Colombia, and the sympathizers of international terrorism's "Zapatistas" have used terrorists' deployment as a pretext for demanding the end of the national sovereignty of the Republic of Mexico.

[END QUOTING OF PART 1]

That is all for today. Salu.

2/6/97 #2 HATONN

[QUOTING, PART 2:]

Take CNN as typical of those parts of the international news media whose editorial policy in this matter clearly expresses culpable kinds of sympathetic actions in aid of at least some crucial features of the terrorists' crimes. From virtually the outset of the terrorist crime, CNN has insisted on terming the terrorists "rebels", and in acting as a de facto, Joseph Goebbels-like propaganda ministry, in support of demands that the government of Peru must submit to in terms presented by the criminals. CNN went to such extremes as suggesting that Cuba's Fidel Castro, the putative head of the relevant international terrorists' political association, might assist in such destruction of the national sovereignty of the people of Peru.

Are CNN reporters therefore to be described as "fellow-travellers of terrorism"? Was Nazi Propaganda Minister Joseph Goebbels, perhaps, a "fellow-traveller" of the Gestapo? Cut through the shyster's quibbling sophistries about "politically correct" choice of words. Why should institutions which some putatively chic persons of reckless opinion wish to term "respectable", such as the Berlin-based Chickie-Mickies of CNN, or Britain's House of Lords, be gushing like yesterday's sex-maniacal bobby-soxers, over the fashionable international terrorists of Peru or Colombia? Granted, some CNN reporters might reject the idea of actually sleeping with an MRTA terrorist; let us give them the benefit of the doubt, by stating that it is irrelevant to this report whether they all do, or don't. The question is, whence the coincidence of desired ends between the operations of the actual terrorists and their putative political fellow-travellers among representatives of today's international mass media?

Is the answer really an elusive one? Are there not people in high places, in the U.S.A., as in western Europe, who think it desirable that the institutions of the modern, industrialized nation-state republic—such as the United States itself—must quickly fade away? Are there not presently currents of opinion, in high places, working openly to eliminate the sovereignty of nation-states, even their own, in order to transfer power to supranational regimes, such as the UNO Security Council, the UNO's locust-plague of Non-Governmental Organization (NGOs), or regional agencies such as the European Union or Organization of the American States (OAS), before the close of the present century?

Might one not conceive of the possibility, that, late some November evening, in the year 2000, Al Gore rushes to inform his wife, Tipper, that he has just been elected President of the United States? To which news Tipper responds with mixed diffidence and pity, "I hate to tell you this, Al, but the United States was dissolved eight months ago. They just forgot to call off the election."

It might not happen like that, but, around the world, there are a lot of people, including Britain's Prince Philip, the Duke of Edinburgh who has served as acting Queen termite of the World Wide Fund for Nature, including some obviously very influential, and also very treasonous persons and circles inside the U.S.A., who have been straining to bring that dissolution of the U.S.A. about, as soon as possible.

There are some people in the relatively highest positions of policy-shaping inside the U.S.A., who have been working to bring about the early dissolution of the sovereignty and present borders of every nation south of the U.S. borders. Many of them are associated with the relevant "Volpi di Misurata" of the old Kissinger State Department, Luigi Einaudi. During late 1995, this reporter, in his capacity as a candidate for the Democratic Party's 1996 U.S. Presidential nomination, had occasion to denounce precisely such a policy for the Americas issued by the now recently resigned U.S. Secretary of Defense Perry himself, a policy which called, point by point, for stripping the republics of the Americas of the most crucial institutions essential to the continuation of their national sovereignties.

The leading effects of the demands placed by the terrorists were fully consistent with such stated goals of eliminating the national sovereignty of every present state within the Americas, the U.S.A. itself included. The most prominent of the demands was that the government free from the prisons about 400 of the most inhuman mass-murderers and drug-pushers in the history of South America. The second is that these terrorists and drug-pushers should be set up, with financing by the government of Peru, to be a "legalized" political organization, like the M-19 of Colombia's present "narco-democracy". What, then, if the MRTA's fellow-terrorists inside Brazil conduct a similar terrorist operation in the near future, or perhaps the allies of the Peru narco-terrorists' Zapatista allies in Mexico? Clearly, CNN and certain other international news-media organizations have no presently manifest objection to turning such mass-murderous, narco-terrorist organizations loose on the entire hemisphere.

Obviously, once one compares the demands of the terrorists with such international news media's expressions of sympathy for those demands, only the most reckless of fools would deny the fact of political affinities between the terrorists and such news media. The next question posed by these recent events in Peru is: What is the nature of the British connection to these terrorists, apart from the fact that not only has Britain's House of Lords expressed its warm regard for Colombia's narco-democracy, but the British government is openly, and officially, harboring the largest of Peru's narco-terrorist organizations, Sendero Luminoso, as well as many other similar organizations, in London. One might ask, without being rightly accused of profanity: "What in Hell has London become?"

THE BRITISH EMPIRE

Persons who show themselves thus to be illiterate in the most elementary features of modern and also ancient history insist that the mantle of imperial authority has passed entirely from the former British Empire to the United States of America. Such persons have frequently defended their delusion to this effect, by advancing the following sophistry. They are wont to assert (often with a telling glint of fanatical blindness in their wild-eyed stare at the unseen), that the poor, little United Kingdom whose economy has been recently almost destroyed by its baby-killing former nanny, Margaret Thatcher, must be viewed either as a mere lackey of the terrible U.S.A., or, at most, perhaps, a moderating influence upon the dumb U.S. strategic giant.

Those officials of governments who, thus akin to Jonathan Swift's fabled sages of Laputa, suffer the delusion that the United Kingdom today is ruled by an elected Parliament and should not, in the interests of their own safety, be allowed out of the house without their vigilant, pig's-bladder-armed attendants. The widespread popular ignorance of the relevant facts must be corrected, if but summarily, here, if we are to bring the popular mind out of its imprisonment in popularized, illiterate virtual reality, into the world as it actually is.

Since the 1714 accession of King George I, the British Empire was established as an empire in fact, as a matter of law, under the implicit terms of the preceding Act of Settlement. In brief, the ruling financier oligarchy of London, acting in a manner copied from the precedent of the imperial maritime and financier power of Venice, selected, instead of an elected Doge, an hereditary, Welf (var., Guelph) monarchy.

Like all empires of note from earlier history, as far back as ancient Babylon, the ruling imperial house was the sole, ultimate authority in law, unless it were ousted by the oligarchy itself. This authority, for as long as it might be continued, is implicitly subject only to the monarchy's observance of certain religious and related local customs. These customs might evolve, in the sense that Immanuel Kant, G.W.F. Hegel, and Karl Savigny later set forth their respective doctrines of changing custom, as changes occurring under the influence of an utterly irrational Volksgeist, Zeitgeist, or Weltgeist, merely "popular opinion"; but, the irrationalist principle of custom was the only "constitutional" form of constraint imposed upon an imperial monarch acting as executive agent for the relevant oligarchy.

For the literate historian, there is nothing extraordinary in this British imperial arrangement. Throughout European and greater Mediterranean history, with the exception of some Greek city-state republics and their imitations, until the first modern nation-state was established, as 1461-1483 France under King Louis XI, the dominant political form of society and law was the imperial form familiar to us from ancient Babylon, ancient Tyre, and the Persian, Ptolemaic, Roman, Byzantine, and Venetian empires. These empires were all ruled, top-down, on behalf of an oligarchical collection of families, an oligarchy of a form symbolized in the Greek Olympus pantheon. In that sense, the emperor, or pharaoh, or Cromwell-like dictator, whether an individually selected ruler, or a selection of an hereditary form of such rule, was the executive—the proverbial Zeus—which the oligarchy put over itself, as the chief capo of the U.S. collection of organized-crime “families”, such as the late Meyer Lansky, might acquire his position.

In the instance of the British Empire, the ruling of oligarchy is constituted presently of several thousands of persons drawn chiefly from those families which represent the financier interests associated with Commonwealth places such as the City of London, Montreal, Toronto, Singapore, Canberra, Hong Kong, and so on. In that sense, yesterday's British East India Company and Barings, or today's Anglo-American and Royal Dutch Shell, the family known variously as Welf, Hannover, Saxe-Coburg, Windsor, has been a “bourgeois” hereditary monarchy, with more likeness to a Doge of old Venice, or the Netherlands' bloody-handed William of Orange, than to a Habsburg, Bourbon, Romanov, or Hohenzollern dynasty. The oligarchy, through a feudal Furstemum under a chancellor such as von Kaunitz or Metternich, or a “bourgeois” assembly of financier-oligarchy nobility, retains implicitly the ultimate power of a Roman pater familias, to continue or replace the currently ruling hereditary monarchy.

Thus, by standard of legal system of government, the United Kingdom is, like ancient Italy under Capri's Emperor Tiberius, merely the chief province of an imperial form of power, of imperial institutions whose legal authority is rooted in the imperial tradition of Babylon and Rome. Like ancient empires, the imperial state of today relies upon agencies whose existence lies essentially outside the reach of whatever other elected forms of government might appear. Consider, for example, Britain's permanent civil-service bureaucracy, of the type which Anglophile U.S. dupes introduced as a corrupting “reform” undermining the U.S. Constitution, as the U.S. civil-service system. In the British Empire of today, the monarchical management of both state and government of the United Kingdom, and of the larger British Commonwealth, is situated within the institution of several hundred persons known as the Privy Council.

The Privy Council controls the customary, popular, side-show entertainment known as the Parliament, and, respecting all truly important matters, also controls the governments of all of the quasi-independent states of the so-called British Commonwealth. It determines who might be selected to constitute a parliamentary government, and, whose government, in good time, must endure a major sort of disappointment. In fact, a government of a Commonwealth state might, occasionally, like present-day Sudan or Nigeria, resist the higher authority of the Privy Council, at mortal risk to the persons of the official, and his or her family, who attempts to free that state from the only slightly disguised colonial fist within the Commonwealth system.

The characteristic feature of all empires, this British Empire included, is axiomatically implicit in the specific type of oligarchy which predominates within the ranks of the assembly of the oligarchical families as a whole. In Britain, the ruling interest is of the financier-aristocratic, rather than, for example, the legendary, landed-aristocratic form of feudal Europe, or the theocratic form of ancient Babylon or Egypt.

All such differing varieties of the species called empire share in common an oligarchical principle which is axiomatically hateful toward the Christian appreciation of the Mosaic principle of Genesis 1: the principle that man and woman are each made in the image of God, that mankind might thus exert a divinely assigned dominion within the universe. That latter is the principle which separates the imperial form from Christianity, and also from Islam, as the case of Prince

“The key to all recent and present-day world history and politics is a continuing, mortal conflict between two axiomatically irreconcilable political philosophies, the continuing conflict between the old imperialism and its creation, the so-called materialist/empiricist Enlightenment of Paolo Sarpi, Galileo Galilei, Francis Bacon, Thomas Hobbes, John Locke, et al., versus the Renaissance heritage of the modern nation-state republic as that is typified by the examples of Gottfried Leibniz and the founding of the U.S.A. as a constitutional federal republic in 1789.”

Philip's 1961 co-founding of the paganist World Wildlife Fund attests this fact. This fact is key to understanding the role of the British Empire in Jeremy Bentham's and Lord Palmerston's fostering the terrorist organizations of such British agents as Robespierre, Napoleon III, and Guisepppe Muzzini's Young Europe, and London's harboring of so many of the world's leading terrorist organizations of today.

The key to all recent and present-day world history and politics is a continuing, mortal conflict between two axiomatically irreconcilable political philosophies, the continuing conflict between the old imperialism and its creation, the so-called materialist/empiricist Enlightenment of Paolo Sarpi, Galileo Galilei, Francis Bacon, Thomas Hobbes, John Locke, et al., versus the Renaissance heritage of the modern nation-state republic as that is typified by the examples of Gottfried Leibniz and the founding of the U.S.A. as a constitutional federal republic in 1789.

If one accepts the Christian reading of the cited Mosaic principle, then it follows that the state must be derived, not from the mere assembly of persons of which a nation is comprised at some choice of moment, nor, of the mere customary and other opinions of such persons, but, rather, from the principle that the state must be constituted to uphold the implications of a principle. The principle, which lies outside and above the mere opinion of such children of the Ockhamite Enlightenment as U.S. Justice Antonin Scalia, is that truth and justice must prevail, and these according to the fact that each newborn personality is made in the living image of the Creator, and must be developed, protected, and afforded opportunities in mortal life consistent with that fact. A state, such as a pro-Malthusian one, which evades that principle is not morally fit to survive, and ultimately, assuredly, will not survive.

The modern European form of nation-state, as first established by the Fifteenth-Century Renaissance in Louis XI's France, occurred as an offshoot of the 1439-1440 sessions of the great ecumenical Council of Florence, where the eastern and Augustinian rites of the Christian churches were temporarily unified over the coordinated political opposition of Venice and Mount Athos. Despite all of the evils done in the name of European nations since the Fifteenth-Century Renaissance, it is simply a statistical fact that, until a 1966 turn toward neo-Malthusian utopianism, the creation of the modern nation-state in western Europe has had the net effect of improving the life-expectancy and conditions of life of the average person on this planet as a whole more than all other forms of culture combined up to the Fifteenth Century.

From the founding of the modern nation-state in late Fifteenth-Century France, a mortal struggle erupted between that new institution and all forms of the old imperial order, both landed and financial oligarchies. Following the near-defeat of the imperialist reactionary class by the early Sixteenth-Century League of Cambrai it was apparent to the leading imperial interest of that time, Venice, that the economic and related military superiority inhering in the new nation-state institution had brought the old order in Europe to an end. Venice's reaction to this perception was: Divide and conquer. Beginning then, Venice fostered bloody schisms within western Europe's Christianity, while looking northward to find a new base for imperial financier and maritime operations, beyond its increasingly vulnerable base at the north of the Adriatic. The Netherlands and England were chosen as the locations to be cultivated for this latter purpose.

Beginning in 1517, Venetian agents typified by Francesco Zorzi (Georgi), Cardinale Pole, and Thomas Cromwell utilized the Howard family's bait, Anne Boleyn, to lure a susceptible Henry VIII into adopting the schismatic role of an English Pontifex Maximus and, a bit later, lured a susceptible Hapsburg dynasty into a foolish, bloody tyranny against the people of the Netherlands. Western Europe entered the last decades of the Sixteenth Century divided within itself by rivers of bloody, politically-motivated, confessional strife.

[END QUOTING OF PART 2]

We have to go attend other legal matters so let us just interrupt this at this point and continue as we have time to do so. I must do some informational work on the “flu” hitting you now as it turns into Meningitis with its rapid mutation within the lungs first and then spreading to the entire system through the nerves and circulatory system. You have a serious thing taking place and we simply have to keep you posted on the seriousness of what is happening. Keep your immune systems in good condition and keep your colloids flowing. There are many test areas being contaminated so don't consider that if a breakout is occurring in Maine you won't have to worry in New Mexico. Remember, the depopulation has to LOOK LIKE GOD IN ACTION.

May you walk in caution until you can again walk in good health. Salu.

The Four Horsemen Of The Apocalypse The Fourth (Green) Horseman

Article V, Section 4

Earlier in this series of articles I reviewed some of the history of the British East India Company (BEIC) and its protected, monopolizing position under the Crown of England. It was the BEIC participants and merchants, most of whom were titled people and could be found in Debrett's Peerage, that formed, together with the Dutch East India Company, what became known as the "Committee of 300". It was President Dwight D. Eisenhower who dubbed this "committee" the "Military-Industrial Complex" after WWII. Their greedy grab for land and power has continued unabated since the sixteenth century. They now control most of the wealth, resources and governments of the world, but still want to be considered the benevolent protectors and philanthropists. (Ref.: Conspirators' Hierarchy: The Story of the Committee of 300; and Stamp Out the Aquarian Conspiracy.)

Curious labels became media-prominent following WWII and into the present year. Among them were "Third World Countries", "Fourth World Wilderness Conference", "Second World Marshall Plan", etc. The significance of these labels was not always clear. George Hunt, investigator into the environmental movement, learned that the international clique, which was promoting this movement and the one-world government, uses these labels with serious intent. It would be wise to memorize them for yourself:

First World = Capitalistic countries of Europe and North America

Second World = Soviet Union and Eastern Block countries

Third World = Countries that have emerged since WWII and are supposed to be under the tutelage of the First World Countries

Fourth World = The one-world government: Leaders such as Edmond de Rothschild refer to the New World Order as the Fourth World. (Ref.: Video Tape titled: U.N.C.E.D.—1992, by George Hunt.)

In a nutshell, as we shall see, the plan is to de-industrialize, take over and dismantle the First World, especially the U.S.A., blaming it for the world's problems; promote the economic growth and political and military strength of the Second World through a Second Marshall Plan, which was promoted at the United Nations Conference on Environment and Development (UNCED)—a free handout at the expense of the people of the "First World"; take over the Third World through land-for-debt swaps, debts that were manipulated by the international clique (the "Elite") in the first place; and create the "Fourth World"—theirs! This agenda became very clear at the UNCED Earth Summit conference in June 1992 in Rio de Janeiro. This conference was intended to further the plans laid out in the Brundtland Report, which had been earlier presented at the Fourth World Wilderness Conference in Denver, Colorado, along with the plans for the World Conservation Bank. Gro Harlan Brundtland's report had been commissioned by the U.N., under the direction of Maurice Strong.

Many believe Maurice Strong is the "single most influential person in the international environmental arena", and is a strong eventual candidate for Secretary General of the United Nations. According to George Hunt, Strong is employed by the Rothschilds and Rockefellers. The Wisconsin Report states he is a Canadian Socialist, who has had a meteoric and unexplainable rise in the industrial, financial and political world. Among his organizational connections are listed the following, which gives an idea of his international influence:

President—World Federation of United Nations Association

Cochairman—World Economic Forum

Member—Club of Rome

Trustee—Aspen Institute

Director—World Future Society

Director of Finance—Lindisfarne Association

Founding Endorser—Planetary Citizens

Trustee—Rockefeller Foundation, 1971-78

United Nations Conference on the Environment and Development (UNCED, June 1992, Rio de Janeiro, Earth Summit)

Business Council for Sustainable Development

Ontario Hydro

Strong formed the Business Council for Sustainable Development, a group of 50 eminent business leaders from all regions of the world. Its purpose was to support the Earth Summit and promote an understanding of and commitment to environmentally sustainable development within the private sector at the highest corporate level.

During an interview with Daniel Wood for West magazine in May 1990, Strong presented the idea that the "only way to save the planet from destruction is to see to it that the industrialized nations collapse." (!) (Ref.: The Greening)

According to the Wisconsin Report of 2/1/96, "Strong has left a long paper trail that vividly illuminates the influence he has exerted upon the institutions and organizations he has led. In a 1991 book published by the Trilateral Commission called Beyond Interdependence: The Meshing of the World's Economy and the Earth's Ecology, by Jim Mac Neil (Strong wrote the introduction and David Rockefeller wrote the forward), Strong said: 'This interlocking...is the new reality of the century, with profound implications for the shape of our institutions and governance, national and international. By the year 2012, these changes must be fully integrated into our economic and political life.'

"He told the opening session of the UNCED conference in 1992, that industrialized countries (USA) have: 'developed and benefited from the unsustainable patterns of production and consumption which have produced our present dilemma. It is clear that current life-styles and consumption patterns of the affluent middle class—involving high meat intake, consumption of large amounts of frozen and convenience foods, use of fossil fuels, appliances, home and workplace air-conditioning, and suburban housing—are not sustainable. A shift is necessary toward life-styles less geared to environmentally damaging consumption patterns.

"The concept of national sovereignty has been an immutable, indeed sacred, principle of international relations. It is a principle which will yield only slowly and reluctantly to the new imperatives of global cooperation. It is simply not feasible for sovereignty to be exercised unilaterally by individual nation-states, however powerful. The global community must be assured of environmental security....

"Whether Strong really believes that the planet is biologically impoverished, or whether he is simply posturing himself, his businesses, and his organizations to be in control of the institutions that control the world's natural resources—is anybody's guess...."

There were many conferences, organizations and promotions prior to and in preparation for the Earth Summit, '92, in Rio. The United Nations Association (UNA) of Iowa hosted a private meeting on 9/22/91 in Des Moines in preparation for the UNCED Earth Summit. Vice President Al Gore, Jr., and Maurice Strong, President of the World Federation of UNA, were keynote speakers at the conference. Maurice Strong has financially backed both Al Gore, Jr. and his father. Al Gore, Jr. is deep into the international environmental programs and was the author of the "Superfund" legislation promoted to "clean up the environment". A very alarming paper was privately distributed at the meeting in Des Moines by the "Cobden Clubs" on 9/22/91, titled: "Initiative for Eco-92 Earth Charter". The "Cobden Clubs" are described at the top of this paper as "Secretariat for World Order". The phone number shown is that of Congressman Richard A. Gephardt. A copy of this "Initiative" was given to me by George Hunt, investigator into the environmental movement. It is retyped here because the copy I received had many handwritten notes on it which are not part of the original. [Quoting:]

INITIATIVE FOR ECO-92 EARTH CHARTER

1. THE PRESSING NEED

a. The time is pressing. The Club of Rome was founded in 1968, Limits to Growth was written in 1971, Global 2000 was written in 1979, but insufficient progress has been made in population reduction.

b. Given global instabilities, including those in the former Soviet bloc, the need for firm control of world technology, weaponry, and natural resources, is now absolutely mandatory. The immediate reduction of world population, according to the mid-1970's recommendations of the Draper Fund, must be immediately effected.

c. The present vast overpopulation, now far beyond the world carrying capacity, cannot be answered by future reductions in the birth rate due to contraception, sterilization, abortion, but must be met in the present by the reduction in the numbers presently existing. This must be done by whatever means necessary.

d. The issue is falsely debated between a political and cultural approach to population and resources, when in fact, faced with stubborn obstruction and day-to-day political expediency which make most of the leaders of the most populous poor countries unreliable, the issue is compulsory cooperation.

e. Compulsory cooperation is not debatable with 166 nations, most of whose leaders are irresolute, conditioned by localist "cultures", and lacking appropriate notions of the New World Order. Debate means delay and forfeiture of our goals and purpose.

f. The U.N. action against Iraq proves conclusively that resolute action on our part can sway other leaders to go along with the necessary program. The Iraq action proves that the aura of power can be projected and sustained and that the wave of history is sweeping forward.

PERILS TO BE HEEDED

There is a twofold opposition which must be eliminated by quick action. There are rumblings among some of the "South" regions, notably Brazil and Malaysia, to thwart the aims of the UNCED Earth Charter and to thwart the international gathering in Brazil in June 1992.

There is also the unfortunate vacillation in our own ranks, an argument that the UNCED leaders have made the agenda "too political" and that the way must first be prepared on a less abrasive cultural basis.

We present only the most recent evidence:

* Gilberto Mello Mourao, the Brazilian writer, warned in the August 4, Folha de Sao Paulo that at Munich in 1938, "It won't be easy to row against the current of that type of ecological epidemic, unleashed against our country, which threatens the structure of our cultural, spiritual, and political values, and against our very national sovereignty.... Messrs. Chamberlain and Daladier, heads of the governments of England and France, calmly offered the Brazilian Amazon to the Fuehrer." Hitler reportedly observed that, since the Amazon was in South America, the United States would cite the Monroe Doctrine and reject a German occupation of Brazilian territory. "Chamberlain and Daladier responded that the proposal had Washington's backing."

* The prime minister of Malaysia, Mahathir Mohamad, announced on Aug. 16 that his country may boycott the Earth Summit and stated that if the conference is used to suppress the Third World, it would be better for these nations to hold their own meeting. Speaking to newsmen in Petaling, Java, Mahathir claimed that environmentalists have launched a global assault on Malaysia, while it is the developed nations, not Malaysia, who are polluting the environment.

* Malaysia's Science, Technology, and Environment Minister, Law Hieng Ding, announced Aug. 20, according to the New Straits Times of Aug. 23, that Malaysia is preparing a document entitled "Greening the World", urging developed countries to use wealth and technology to turn the deserts green.

* Ahmed Djoglaf, Algeria's delegate to the Aug. 15 meeting of the U.N. Conference for Environment and Development, said Aug. 23 in Geneva, according to the U.N. Inter Press Service, that "We have the old pattern of the North imposing the system and the South having to accept. Non-governmental organizations are saying that the North has hijacked the agenda, and they are right.... They are prepared to let people die but not forests."

* The Malaysian Sunday Times editorial of Aug. 16 said, "Environmentalists make so much of their noble mission in protecting the environment which sustains all of us.... They do not credit Malaysians with much intelligence, with a similar concern for the health of the land and themselves. Shades of precious fin de siecle romanticism; visions of the noble savage stalking big game in arboreal groves, in grunting communion with the voices of the land. The same kind of romantic claptrap that got natives all over the world sold down the river into slavery, decimated by small-pox and clap, driven from their land into alcoholism and hopeless helplessness.

"Malaysia has had its fill of cultural and intellectual domination...."

* The Brazilian Journal de Commercio on Aug. 19 reported that Brazilian Foreign Minister Francisco Rezek said that it was "hypocritical to campaign to preserve flora and fauna.... If the human race becomes extinct, there won't be any sense in preserving an exuberant flora or fauna on this planet."

* Brazil's chief of staff of the Amazon military command, Gen. Thaumaturgo Sotero Vaz, stated in an interview in the Aug. 28 Folha de Sao Paulo, that the nation's armed forces will not permit Eco-92 resolutions restricting Brazil's sovereignty over the Amazon or creating "Indian nations" within the region. The general did not rule out the possibility that Brazil could be subjected to "something similar to what happened in the Persian Gulf," and declared that persons like François Mitterrand and Ted Kennedy would not be permitted to order reductions in or elimination of Brazil's armed forces. Sotero Vaz said, "If those idiots try to come in here, we're going to give it to them and [treat them] like guerrillas...." The governor of the Amazon, Gilberto Mestrinho, stated Sept. 8, "The generals' position is the product of looking at reality."

* The president of the Industrial Federation of the Brazilian state of Para in the Amazon region, Fernando Flexa Ribiero, was quoted by the press Sept. 14 as stating that environmentalists want to make the Amazon "a sterile preservation". He said Eco-92 could "promote colonialist practices".

* The Brazilian daily Tribuna de Impresa quoted Joann Grossi, a spokesperson for the U.S. Agency for International Development, as saying that sterilization is the family planning "method preferred by President George Bush to increase the effectiveness of birth control in the Third World."

* The Italian Catholic weekly Il Sabato published a Sept. 14 article by Prof. Franco Cardini stating: "It must be said with utmost clarity that the plans of the International Monetary Fund for the [former] U.S.S.R. and the eastern countries are infamous.... The European Community is in the position to supply not only suggestions, but also capital and technological structures, but all this obstructs the plans of the New World Order, which is strictly hooked to the United States, the country that remains [have we forgotten?] the most indebted country in the world, and is facing a crisis of production exemplified by the crashes of the stock market and the big banks. It is this new frontier that reemerging liberals would like to propose to the former Soviet Union...." The article has been much discussed in Poland, as the first frontal criticism of the International Monetary Fund and the free-market model from this quarter.

* India's delegate at the Geneva UNCED negotiations told the Earth Charter organizers, with the support of negotiations from China, the Philippines, Chile, Venezuela, Ethiopia, Ghana, and Malaysia, that "we are not here as supplicants, and we have not come here for aid", but "compensatory financial flows" to underdeveloped nations are required, according to the Sept. 13 Indian press. The delegate, Chandrashekar Dasgupta, also strongly opposed plans to bring environmental matters under the U.N. Security Council, and insisted that "development" be put center stage instead of bracketed next to the environment. He told newsmen that both India and China will have to be satisfied on these questions before they attend the Rio summit, declaring that without the assent of India and China, no charter will be worth the paper it is written on.

* At the Non-Aligned foreign ministers' meeting in Ghana, India's external affairs [spokesman], Madhavsingh Solanki, called Sept. 11 for a comprehensive and integrated strategy on debt and a development consensus for this decade. The African group at the conference sponsored an urgent call for an international conference on debt.

* The U.N. Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD) issued its annual report Sept. 16, declaring, according to the BBC, that the liberal free market is not an appropriate model for the developing nations. Finance should serve industry, not the other way around, and government has a key role to play in certain sectors of the economy. Directed credit for special projects is sometimes necessary. Developing nations should look to Germany and Japan rather than the U.S. and Britain as examples. The report deplors the tendency to introduce an "Anglo-Saxon" banking system into developing countries.

WHAT THE WORLDWIDE FUND FOR NATURE IS SAYING

* An official of the World Wide Fund for Nature (WWF) said Sept. 10 that the Geneva UNCED results were "absolutely a serious setback. There will be no convention on forests by June 1992 for Brazil. Nobody wants to say it publicly, but the forests convention is finished. The situation has reached a deadlock. This is the first casualty for the UNCED process. Increasingly, UNCED is being broken down into blocs, with the developing sector in one bloc. We heard the statements of Mahathir, and these can be serious. We hope it is just a tactic to precipitate new negotiations, but it has the potential to set the ball rolling and cause other countries besides Malaysia to withdraw. It is a very difficult situation."

* A senior advisor on ecological affairs to Britain's Prince Philip said Sept. 15 that Eco-92 organizer Maurice Strong had "over-politicized" the issue of environmentalism and had raised "ridiculously messianic expectations" for the Earth Summit. "Strong is misfocusing attention away from a clear and present danger confronting the entire ecology movement: the general shift in paradigm toward favoring economic growth, in the former communist nations.... We should be avoiding too much overt politicking. We should concentrate on change-of-awareness models, and attack the underlying ethical-moral considerations that motivate people. Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union, that is our biggest challenge. We will have a major problem if they try to achieve the level of economic growth of the advanced Western nations. This is potentially one of our biggest challenges, and Prince Philip is getting more and more involved in dealing with it.

Strong is somebody who spent too much time at his wife's New Age center; it obviously touched his mind. It all reminds me of the so-called Millerites of the 19th century, who predicted that the world would come to an end at some point in 1844, so they all went into the mountains to prepare. The world didn't come to an end, and the Millerites became the Jehovah's Witnesses. That is what I see happening with the Earth Summit. Just listen to Strong talk about 'the most significant event in human history ever', and 'the last chance to save the planet'. What could be more ridiculous, and guaranteed to create a mess? We see the backlash already, in the reactions of various Third World countries."

WHAT MUST BE DONE

In the face of mounting opposition from Third World elements, certain forces in the Eastern European and Russian regions, and by the Vatican, and certain weak-kneed response within the ecology effort, what really is the purpose of traipsing around America to convince a handful of farmers, unionists, local officials, churchmen, and university environmentalists of the necessity of the Earth Charter? If one truly wished to convert the American public, would it not be necessary to say fully, openly and explicitly what must be done? And that it must be done now?

Do you really imagine that parading some Third Worlders before "hearings" conducted by local celebrities, the Third World will simply quiet down, or that the American press coverage of these events will overwhelm this opposition?

Will you take action now that President Bush has the political momentum or wait until you must convince America to fight a hundred Vietnams simultaneously? This is the time to save the Anglo-Saxon race and its most glorious production, the Anglo-Saxon system of banking, insurance and trade.

We are the living sponsors of the great Cecil Rhodes will of 1877, in which Rhodes devoted his fortune to: "The extension of British rule throughout the world...the colonization by British subjects of the entire Continent of Africa, the Holy Land, the Valley of the Euphrates, the islands of Cyprus and Candia, the whole of South America, the islands of the Pacific not heretofore possessed by Great Britain, the whole of the Malay Archipelago, the seaboard of China and Japan, the ultimate recovery of the United States of America as an integral part of the British Empire...."

We stand with Lord Milner's Credo. We too, are

"British Race Patriots" and our patriotism is "the speech, the tradition, the principles, the aspirations of the British Race." Do you fear to take this stand, at the very last moment when this purpose can be realized? Do you not see that failure now, is to be pulled down by the billions of Lilliputians of lesser race who care little or nothing for the Anglo-Saxon system?

THEREFORE THE FOLLOWING POLICY MUST BE IMPLEMENTED:

A. The Security Council of the U.N., led by the Anglo-Saxon Major Nation powers, will decree that henceforth, the Security Council will inform all nations that its sufferance on population has ended, that all nations have quotas for REDUCTION on a yearly basis, which will be enforced by the Security Council by selective or total embargo of credit, items of trade including food and medicine, or by military force, when required.

B. The Security Council of the U.N. will inform all nations that outmoded notions of national sovereignty will be discarded and that the Security Council has complete legal, military, and economic jurisdiction in any region in the world and that this will be enforced by the Major Nations of the Security Council.

C. The Security Council of the U.N. will take possession of all natural resources, including the watersheds and great forests, to be used and preserved for the good of the Major Nations of the Security Council.

D. The Security Council of the U.N. will explain that not all races and peoples are equal, nor should they be. Those races proven superior by superior achievements ought to rule the lesser races, caring for them on sufferance that they cooperate with the Security Council. Decision making, including banking, trade, currency rates, and economic development plans, will be made in stewardship by the Major Nations.

E. All of the above constitute the New World Order, in which Order, all nations, regions and races will cooperate with the decisions of the Major Nations of the Security Council.

The purpose of this document is to demonstrate that action delayed could well be fatal. All could be lost if mere opposition by minor races is tolerated and the unfortunate vacillations of our closest comrades is cause for our hesitations. Open declaration of intent followed by decisive force is the final solution. This must be done before any shock hits our financial markets, tarnishing our credibility and perhaps diminishing our force.

(End quote)

In my opinion, the above "Initiative or Eco-92 Earth Charter" is a remarkable herald of the prophecy of Revelation 6:8, Death riding a Green Horse (environmental movement) with power over one-fourth of the Earth.

Mr. Hunt wrote to Congressman Richard A. Gephardt regarding the above material because it has his phone number on it. Mr. Hunt did not receive a reply or a response to any of his subsequent phone calls to Mr. Gephardt's office. (Please see attached copy of his letter to Mr. Gephardt, and his handwritten comments.) [see box below]

I tried unsuccessfully to find out more about the Cobden Clubs. From the material presented, it would appear they are "the living sponsors of the great Cecil Rhodes' will of 1887" which was devoted to "the extension of British rule throughout the world"...and read in part like "British-Israel" propaganda.

Why Mr. Gephardt did not choose to respond to Mr. Hunt is an open question. Is it possible that all the media hype on the environment stems entirely from an unabated, unconscionable and insatiable desire on the part of the British Monarchy and the families of the Committee of 300 (the "Elite"/Bankers and Military-Industrial Complex) to rule the world? Could Mr. Gephardt be one of their company or a paid performer? Why hasn't the "Earth Charter" been made a subject of public debate and vote? Certainly the "Cobden Clubs" do not represent the opinions or desires of most Americans and appear to be a throwback to the time before America won its independence from tyrannical rule. Do we want to do that all over again? The "Cobden Club's" Initiative also appears to be an overt attempt to cause the Anglo-Saxon race a great many problems among other people. I think any arrogant and diabolical promotion of a race war should cause its perpetrators the greatest difficulties among the peoples of the nations from this time forward. It is those who think they are superior to others, the "Elite", who have been at the center of all the wars in the past. This should not be forgotten by any man defending his life in any war in the future, a man of any race or culture. It is, in my opinion, the "Elite" members of the nations, not the men in the street, who are creating the divisions among races for the purpose of depopulation and gaining world control.

The next installment of this article will continue with the UNCED Conference in Rio and information on the Bio-Diversity Convention adopted there. The issue of world depopulation was not openly discussed at Rio, but is part of the plan, as will be shown through the programs that were promoted and approved. If "the plan" were to be printed, widely distributed, and openly discussed among all people, I believe it would soon gain the contempt it so justly and richly deserves.

Dear Congressman Gephardt:

Adrienne asked me to send this literature to you. It bears your telephone number, but certainly doesn't seem to represent your political mind. It emerged at the UNCED conference held in Des Moines on September 22, 1991 where an acquaintance was gleaning information about the ECO-92 meeting to be held in Rio in June 1992.

Though the paper speaks against Maurice Strong, we have reason to think that people in his camp distributed this racist literature. Why he would "shoot himself in the foot" is beyond me. And why he would insinuate you as the creator of this volatile literature is still another puzzle of which, perhaps, you may already know.

Strong is stirring up controversy about the Rio meeting. He will preside as the Secretary-General of the Conference. An article not included with these papers quotes his speculations that a world financial collapse will be precipitated by the Rio meeting. Many are watching and listening as this Rio Conference unfolds.

Our country has been undermined by the same sorts of persons who convened the Des Moines UNCED ("unsaid") Conference. We seem to be powerless to stop them. It must be doubly hard on you, Congressman Gephardt; to serve in these last years of our Constitution, seeing how we have lost control of our affairs as we ooze toward the brink. When foreigners like Maurice Strong can thwart our laws and dismantle American systems at will (I have proof of these statements) right under our noses and get away with them, any discerning American can see "the fat lady rising up to sing".

It seems that you and your colleagues are much too busy with other agenda than to follow the machinations of M. Strong and his European treasure hunters, but if Strong is truly responsible for placing your phone number on this literature, you may have some real problems at hand.

Sincerely,

George W. Hunt

What Might Be Ailing You And A Planet

to them far more severely. Since there is argument over which and what is more serious, I suppose I should not have "rated" one beyond that of another for any "dis"ease brought on by anything, such as dust or particulate of any kind, can be as damaging as is anything else. One is basically a response to dusty air and one is a fungal/yeast type of invader often picked up by people who handle a lot of birds or are around pigeons, chickens who can be carriers. One also leads into the other so don't relax your guard. If the lungs are impacted by particulate, the damaged areas are then open for settling-in any microbial organism and allowing it to stake a homestead. Since, however, as in the case of Dharma, she has a productive nasal/sinus mucous effluent which usually indicates mucous in the lungs as well.

I do want all of you to understand that if you are taking anti-histamines and they HELP, you are having a histamine response to the active process taking place. There is an enzyme circulating in the body which inactivates histamine, called histaminase, and there is something else which means having an affinity for "tissues" and not the Kleenex variety.

Now, how can you tell if something untoward and of a histamine reaction is taking place? Well, let's see now: If you are one who shows redness and allergic response to, say, wine and you are in the midst of hyper-attack on your immune system, take a glass of wine and see what happens. If you already have problems you will find that you will far more quickly respond in allergic symptomatology to the addition of alcoholic beverages.

So what might have we in this individual case? Well, she lives with and for her birds, and each bird gives off what I call "dander", and we have an ongoing irritation and histamine reaction now compromised by a bacterial-viral infection.

This would not be a big deal FOR HER at all because she finds an anti-histamine will usually relieve the allergic reactions; however, add a mutation-capable retrovirus to the equation and you have trouble.

You also have to CHECK OUT YOUR SYMPTOMS against what else is going on in your life, i.e., Dharma has a very stiff neck which would be terribly worrisome if it wasn't that she and E.J. had to make two trips of about 150 miles to and from Fresno to file responses to the US&P case. This means that they had to HURRY to meet deadlines and flinging back and forth in an auto causes one to have to brace the head with the neck—leaving stiff muscles just as there would be with "exercising" when one is not accustomed to those particular muscle motions.

IF A RASH MOVES RAPIDLY INTO WHAT CAN APPEAR TO BE POX OR SOMETHING SIMILAR—GET TO A PHYSICIAN INSTANTLY FOR YOU ARE TOO SYMPTOMATIC TO TINKER WITH THIS AT HOME WITH ONLY ORAL "STUFF" TO TAKE. Mutation can start, and can end in death in mere hours, so don't play with these things.

I have had, recently, another episode of someone in the foothills coming down with symptoms on a hiking outing over a weekend. They had colloids and an emergency pack with a syringe and one injection of colloids quieted the disease action and a second one stopped it. I am NOT recommending anything, I am passing along information.

Each area of the country, or anywhere in the world, will be having outbreaks and actual epidemics of these things and you will have to watch what is taking place in your neighborhood. All these "retroviruses", which are being talked about so virtuously and with such a jangle of expert opinion ("only your doctor knows for sure"), are deadly if not attended properly and quickly. Big speeches and big words are used to keep you as confused as are the physicians and medical staffs of any clinic-hospital in any town U.S.A. or World.

This "flu", as it is being called, is now making its way through California—but do not confuse it with the Meningococcemia also killing here and there around your home-base. This begins with a meningococcus mutating to a meningococcal-type retrovirus. But, readers, the onstart symptoms can be so similar that you have to be aware of your own body condition and deterioration rate and type of symptoms. A major lung invader is the pneumococcus in one case and the meningococcus in the other. After mutation with viruses, they become almost identical and give off toxic reactions with very similar symptoms. Moreover, in your MODERN world of mutations, you will find the toxins given off from the viruses and especially their "break-down" are often responsible for "kill off" effect or simple toxic reaction akin to an anaphylactic response or shock. This latter can be so responsive as to cause medications to be interrupted until the body can clear out the dead or dying microbial entities.

In this circumstance, it is the continuation of rupturing of the organisms after the initial impact. In very ill patients this is a MAJOR symptom and treatment should be held until the body is free of reaction symptoms along with lowering dosages of whatever treatment modality is producing the massive "kill off" of the invaders. These symptoms are healing signs but will frighten both the physician and the patient, so don't push the river. These "critters" continue to die off and cause toxins in circulation for quite a long while after successful treatment regimes.

If you have medical intervention apparatus and personnel present, then you can move quickly with treatment. If not, and especially with new protocols when and where you have "time", start low dosage and then don't push the envelope beyond and into major reaction symptoms. Remember that you are LOOKING for a response, and the more lengthy or strong the disease the larger will be the "kill off" and toxins in circulation. You are dealing with "frequencies" and it takes, even by frequency-ray devices, about half an hour or so to move up and past the microbe frequency, but once damaged or ruptured through the protease covering of the cells or microbes, you get a continuation of the rupturing condition. This is why, if treatment is given WITH a protease inhibitor, there is far better evidence of "kill". Further, the protease inhibitors or frequency-specific treatment modalities break down that protein/protease protection on the cells and disallows the retrovirus' ability to "cling".

With all this in mind, but not as a distractor since most of you are not medical doctors, let us look at the presentation on the subject of "flu" in the Bakersfield Californian, Feb. 2, 1997. This is not a discussion of the new cases of meningitis also "going around".

[QUOTING:]

THE FLU

KING OF THE VIRUSES MAKING ITS ANNUAL TRIP THROUGH CALIFORNIA

by Tamara Koehler, Staff Writer

Better watch that person coughing and sneezing with some serious suspicion.

The flu is here.

While the viruses that cause colds and respiratory ailments are nasty in their own right, the flu virus stands head and shoulders above the rest.

Tiny and spiked, these cells of genetic junk pack the punch of a freight train. And this year, it's the A strain of influenza now hitting California on its annual path around the world.

While no cases in Bakersfield have yet been confirmed in the laboratory, public health watchdogs say influenza is definitely here.

There's the complaints of body ache. The searing fever that causes chills. The cough, the joint pain, the headache.

"What we're hearing in the community really fits the clinical picture of flu," said Dr. Claudia Jonah, Kern County assistant health officer.

State levels of influenza activity are described as average, or at expected levels.

And while there's no cure, the good news is that this year's A strain is milder and its effects lessened with antiviral drugs. According to the Centers for Disease Control, amantadine and rimantadine are approximately 70 percent to 90 percent effective in preventing illnesses caused by strains of type A influenza viruses.

If administered with 48 hours of the onset of illness, the drugs have been shown to reduce the severity and duration of symptoms.

Symptoms include coughing, congestion, headache, sore throat, muscle aches, some vomiting and diarrhea, especially in children, and a fever that can last up to five days, various clinics and hospitals report.

Jonah said the flu invasion in Kern County began in December. The peak season in the United States for the airborne virus is December through February.

According to the CDC's monthly disease surveillance report, 99 percent of influenza viruses identified in labs nationwide have been type A.

One to four days after exposure, a person will come down with symptoms. The illness lasts for five to 10 days.

But all too often, a second bacterial infection, such as bronchitis or pneumonia, invades the body weakened with influenza. The risk of catching secondary infections is greatest for elderly and chronically ill people, who should get vaccinated for the flu each year, according to the CDC. [H: NO COMMENT!]

Flu vaccines are made up of killed strains of flu viruses. [H: Don't they just wish! You are getting live monkey viruses in every vaccine of any kind, but if you think you are only getting killed viruses, you are misinformed.] But the time has already passed for most people to be vaccinated. Because it takes about two to four weeks for the vaccine to create antibodies in the body, chances are that most people will already have come down with the flu.

This year's round of flu shots should help combat the season's sickness, but doctors say no shot is 100 percent effective because the strains can mutate at any time.

Each year, new strains appear that are resistant to vaccines. Influenza viruses, like most viruses, are given to mutation for survival. Most often the process is gradual, with only slight changes in the virus from season to season.

But every so often, an abrupt change occurs deep in the proteins of the virus. This change, called an antigenic shift, has led to worldwide outbreaks which claimed tens of thousands of lives. The high rate of death occurs because large numbers of people have no antibody protection against this new virus.

Three antigenic shifts involving influenza A have occurred in this century: the 1918 Spanish flu outbreak which caused 500,000 deaths in the United States and 20 million worldwide; the 1957 Asian flu outbreak that led to 70,000 deaths in the United States; and the 1968 Hong Kong flu epidemic that caused 34,000 deaths in the United States. There is no way to predict if and when the next shift could occur.

People with influenza are most contagious during the first 24 hours after infection.

One of the best ways to lessen your chances of infection is simple handwashing with hot water and soap. Infection can be as simple as shaking hands, handling a telephone used by a wheezing colleague or walking through an invisible shower of virus-loaded droplets sprayed into the air by a sneeze. [H: Or by any natural or artificial method.]

Once you are infected, doctors advise drinking lots of fluids and getting plenty of rest to relieve fever, headaches and muscle aches.

To relieve a sore throat, gargle with lukewarm salt water every two hours. To relieve a cough, use a cold-mist room humidifier. [H: For goodness sakes, people—USE YOUR HEADS HERE. These "fluids" out of the tap and/or contaminated water in the humidifiers will simply SPREAD THE ORGANISMS FOR THEY ARE ALSO FLUID-BORNE AS WELL AS AIRBORNE. TREAT ALL WATER USED FOR ANYTHING WITH AT LEAST 10 DROPS OF HYDROGEN PEROXIDE (FOOD GRADE 35%) OR IN HUMIDIFIERS AT LEAST 35 DROPS OF TOPICAL HYDROGEN PEROXIDE TO EACH GALLON OF WATER. THE STABILIZERS IN OVER-THE-COUNTER ANTISEPTIC HYDROGEN PEROXIDE CAN BE TOXIC SO USE "FOOD GRADE" FOR INTERNAL USE.]

To relieve head, nose and ear congestion, drink hot liquids such as chicken soup or spray salt water drops into your nose.

If symptoms are worse after five days or a fever over 100 degrees persists, call the doctor. Ear or facial pain and shortness of breath may indicate a secondary infection.

[END OF QUOTING]

How the flu takes over

What's happening when the flu hits? A tiny invader has taken control and is being duplicated by the cells of your nose and throat.

FLU VIRUS ATTACKS CELLS

Fighting the infection

The body gets wise to the invader and creates a hostile environment to kill the virus. Here is how the body reacts:

- Sore throat: Inflamed respiratory tract.
- Fever: A body's reaction to infection.
- Shiver: Another heat-creating effort.
- Headaches, muscle aches and fatigue: Caused by cells releasing interleukin - a substance that fights infection and activates other parts of the immune system.

DANGER:

Kills or damages cells in respiratory tract that defend against bacteria. More susceptible to bronchitis and pneumonia.

Passing the bug

Here is an example of how the flu virus can be transmitted:

Now I have comments of a rather general nature as to what you might find hidden in the text above. Realize that, if the first 24 hours are the most contagious, then you are more at risk because people tend to not go home from work or school until they get too sick to continue routine activities.

Remember that heat does NOT kill all viruses so make sure even your chicken soup has a few drops of OxySol, Gaiacol, and/or food grade hydrogen peroxide. Also wash dishes and rinse in a fairly strong hydrogen peroxide-treated water and soak those dishrags in strong hydrogen peroxide solution. You just keep on keeping on infecting yourselves and anyone around you.

If lozenges of Zinc seem to cause lessening of symptoms, then you have a virus with a zinc "neck" which will be knocked out by a silver colloid internally and Zinc applied topically (dripped down and past the sore areas of the throat). However, if these do not work, you have to move to something more effective and that means if you use silver colloids you are going to have to move to GaiaCol which is silver colloid finished with gold with selenium, and add to that titanium colloid. These are totally harmless and are pretty useless on the skin as an antiseptic—but are highly effective integrated within the body.

Then, please, attend your immune-system, lest you turn right around and get hit again in short order.

CANADIAN FRIENDS

This is directed specifically to you Canadian friends who do use Gaia products. You are now headed for hard times for getting products. The places who handle U.S. Products in Canada are now being hit with massively expensive taxes (licensing) on EACH product. What do you do? Well, I don't know anything to do about the government and these taxes but, until "something" else happens, you CAN order directly from New Gaia and if your orders are not more than "family use amounts" you won't have much, if any, problems. The problems crossing those "NAFTA" free-and-open borders are getting worse every day. When it is not acceptable, then we will have to cease shipping. I believe you may actually find you can get the products more inexpensively by ordering DIRECT, but I have no input or knowledge about costs, shipping, etc. This is simply one more evident sign of the "close-down" of freedoms in all categories. It is also a very blatant effort to put health-care facilities, supplement vendors and general health-care enhancers OUT OF BUSINESS. THIS FAIRLY EFFECTIVELY, IN MOST INSTANCES, SHUTS DOWN THE FLOW OF PRODUCTS REGARDLESS OF WHAT THE PRODUCT MIGHT BE.

We spoke of protease inhibitors above and I want to STRESS something here and now: Olive Leaf Extract, as we offer it, is one of the best protease inhibitors around. But more importantly it contains oleuropein which inactivates bacteria by dissolving the outer lining of the microbes. There is also present Naltrexone which is also the name of a drug used in cases of immune system degeneration. There is a generic term for Naltrexone but it eludes me at the moment. The extract we offer in colloid also has DNCB (dinitrochlorobenzene) occurring naturally. This is a chemical which acts as an anti-viral agent which works through the stimulation of "killer cell" activity. These are both effective as protease inhibitors. This is particularly important with the viruses and circumstances of AIDS invasion.

The Olive Leaf Extract in a Gaiandriana IV fluid containing no particulate is exceptionally good at circulating that which gives symptomatic relief, i.e., to enlarged lymph nodes, etc., as well as taking a major toll on the viruses themselves. In other words, you can so "gum-up" the viral covering as to disallow further replication. Olive Leaf Extract is especially effective against the RETROVIRUSES.

Well, I see that I have distracted off into a lecture on physiology and microbiology without intention of doing more than telling you to STAY ALERT to that which is being passed around because the next serious victim can easily be YOU. I suppose this writing would, however, be exemplary of topics we cover OTHER THAN LIGHT AND PULSED UNIVERSES.

Is the above information copyrighted? I certainly don't see how it could be so, any more than basic truth in any scientific arena or in any "religious" doctrine.

I find that what we refer to as Light and God are the same thing that all "God-respecting", and frankly ALL atheistic beliefs, "religions" or "doctrines" are quite acceptable to ALL as we define God, Universe, and Source. Certainly anyone recognizing a HIGHER POWER or BEING would not argue that this which we offer is generalized and truly only a realization of what "God" IS and how human IS and how all things come to BE. I have found NO OBJECTION FROM ANY ORGANIZED RELIGION OR BELIEF SYSTEM. WE ARE BUT THE IDEA OF GOD MADE WHOLE AND MANIFEST. How ELSE can one describe THE TRUTH of this without being able to use THE LANGUAGE of THIS TRUTH? MOREOVER, TO TOSS PEOPLE INTO PRISON FOR SPEAKING OF THE SAME TOPIC IN THE ONLY POSSIBLE LANGUAGE IN REFERENCE TO THE TOPIC IS IMPOSSIBLE IN YOUR HUMAN FORMAT.

Therefore, if you believe this information and explanation of GOD AND UNIVERSE, but are denied ability to speak or write in explanation, and in fact are tossed into prison, are your RIGHTS OF ALL KINDS not violated? You would, as in the case of Doris Ekker, be deprived of every right offered under Constitutional LAW, for her very task is to write that which I offer—that topic being the least utilized of all due to an effort at meeting requirements laid forth by a Judge in a Federal Court at the demand, without hearing, of US&P's Timothy Binder by and through his attorneys.

Remember something else: these people under injunction have never had opportunity to CONFRONT THE ACCUSER(S) NOR HAVE HABEAS CORPUS GUIDELINES OF PRODUCING THE DAMAGED PARTY(S) BEEN DONE. The opposing parties in point HAVE NEVER APPEARED IN COURT OR ELSEWHERE TO ANSWER TO THESE OBJECTIONS. Therefore, the point may well be the reasonable cause IN THE FIRST PLACE of edicting such restraints, especially onto a person whose very mission and career is writing and speaking on LIFE, RELIGION, SPIRITUALITY AND UNIVERSAL LAWS. And is it not terrifying to have to again appear before a Judge who has already threatened such miserable repercussions of speaking on said topics? US&P certainly presents these ideas as being valid and truthful and does, in fact, TEACH PUBLICLY THIS INFORMATION UNDER THE SHELTER OF A STATUS OF NON-PROFIT, TAX-FREE, UNIVERSITY/COLLEGE.

Can a Holy Catholic church be indicted in Texas for teaching the catechism offered by the Holy Catholic Church? How about the Baptist in New Jersey using the Ten Commandments as offered by the New Mexico Baptist or Methodist churches? And furthermore, how is one DAMAGED by the use of the other especially if the one in New Jersey advertises and tells you to get the books in point with this information from the New Mexico church? And furthermore, many books are sold and payments made to the New Mexico church because of this, so how can there be DAMAGE?

Now move a step forward: How can the Holy Catholic Church object to regiving the exact information as from that Holy Catholic higher diocese? Would you not expect more uprising if DIFFERENT information would be given which would change CONCEPT? And furthermore, how can a blanket restraint be placed on other people and on the PRESS when there is no agent or connection with the writer? It is MY BELIEF that you have in the US&P vs. Ekkers case—MAJOR CONSTITUTIONAL ISSUES IN PLAY—FROM UPSTART—AND THERE SHOULD NEVER, IT APPEARS TO ME, HAVE BEEN ALLOWED SUCH PERMANENT, OR EVEN TEMPORARY, INJUNCTION PLACED ON THESE PEOPLE WHO HAVE NO ATTACHMENT TO ANYONE ELSE AT ALL. CERTAINLY IN THIS CURRENT SET OF CIRCUMSTANCES THE ITEMS UNDER LEGAL SCRUTINY WERE PRIVATE CORRESPONDENCE AND WRITINGS PURELY IN RESPONSE TO INQUIRIES OF A VERY PERSONAL NATURE BY INDIVIDUAL PARTIES.

Would the New York Times be prevented from publishing public information with proven TRUTH? So be it.

A further KNOWN is that the body human is created of Light and electricity (simplified) and, deprived of that LIGHT, will perish for the cells cannot maintain or proliferate absent light and fluid for a long period of time. Man cannot, either, survive without BREATH. As a matter of fact, absence of breath is more important than absence of a heartbeat. With absence of breath goes mind—mind and brain must have nutrients and elements in order to function. When this function ceases, life as you recognize it to be in human activities from whole being to cells individual, spirals to a halt and reproduction stops. Nothing ELSE may be present and still the living cells stop their cycling. They then begin to change presentation which you would call "dying" or degradation. NOTHING IN THE UNIVERSE IS DESTROYED—ONLY CHANGED. The body itself reverses or goes back to its original elemental state in death of the physical being. As a matter of fact, in the case of the viruses being disrupted—it is that they disperse in fragmentation when eruption occurs and there is no longer containment of the fragments which can be accomplished through housing (containing the inner substance) to compression which holds or compresses the contents. Just as a split belly will allow the contents to pour out or a ruptured cell will allow the contents to expand outward, so too can you rupture the atmosphere and, people, even though you can't SEE it—you can know that every movement as you perceive it moves out through the atmosphere and into the Cosmos and Universe. You have to come to realize that you are living organisms, parasites, etc., living off of and within other living organisms making their infinite journey through manifestation or invisible beingness.

When you speak of LIGHT, you have to define concepts because the most damaging of the photons (LIGHT) are invisible and in higher frequency than even the infra-red [just below the visible] and ultra violet bands [just above the visible] or "octaves" of tonal frequency and color. These rays are emitted by elements which have octave, color and tonal sound. They are banded at each octave by [the inert] gases, i.e., neon, xenon, argon, etc. Of some of these divider elements you will probably never have heard, such as possibly "niton". Now you tell me how we can explain this SCIENCE without utilizing science and expression? If I have to change my language, say, I give you "zanin" instead of "xenon", what have you got? You have false information and stupidity.

"This new drug works on streptococci, pneumococci and staphylococci. Now here's where you come in . . ."

If I use "farringialcoccus" when the term is "meningococcus", have I said the same thing? No, of course not, and nobody will have ability to relate to anything else in the topic. This is WHY you have succinct and explicit terms in SCIENCE as different from general slang languages, so you can understand—anywhere and everywhere, the terms presented. It would further seem to me that someone placed IN CHARGE OF AND HEAD OF A SCIENTIFIC BRANCH OF ANY UNIVERSITY WOULD HAVE TO REALIZE THIS NECESSITY. Either that OR THIS PERSON DOES NOT KNOW WHAT HE IS ABOUT IN ANY SUCH PLACEMENT. Perhaps it would be good to take the entire set of black notebooks from which the journals and writings are then presented and just offer them as evidence to the Judge in the Fresno Court to exemplify the myriads of topics over which I seem to have some working knowledge. Is it feasible that Doris has such out-of-hand knowledge? Would she go forth and choose these topics for in-depth writing without researching? I don't think so, people, and it appears to me that the entire show might well be interesting.

Does it mean, in addition, that Doris Ekker can't even say, for instance, "...the room was dark but someone pushed the electric switch and electricity flowed and the light went on..."? How would you EXPLAIN THAT PARTICULAR FLOW OF CURRENT AND DEFINE "LIGHT"?

Well, let me explain something to you readers: THIS IS EXACTLY WHAT HAPPENS IN ALL TOPICS GOVERNED AND LIMITED AS TO EXPRESSION IN EVERY SCHOOL ON ANY, UNWANTED BY THE ELITE, TOPIC AND THIS IS WHY YOUR NATION AS A MENTAL WHOLE AND YOUR CHILDREN ARE SO "DUMBED DOWN". TEACHERS ARE NOT ALLOWED TO TEACH TRUTH AND IF YOU CANNOT HAVE TRUTH—YOU ARE STUCK IN THE WHOLE OF THE LIE. Does $2 + 2 = 4$ or does it equal $5 - 1/2$? If you cannot use the terms and numerals of "2" or "4" how can you explain or express $2 + 2 = 4$ (?????) And how about, OK, you change to avoid duplication of copyrighted information and say two plus two equals four. (??) How about $3 + 1 = 4$? What of $1 + 1 + 1 + 1 = 4$? How about $5 - 1 = 4$? Well, this is claimed by US&P as just as bad—or worse, an infringement and is classified as "paraphrasing". What it is truly is to be damned if you do and be damned if you don't. I have another obvious example in, say, a wall painted purple—not lavender or bluish pink but purple. Now do I call this "purple" or a vivid mix of red-blue or what? I can call it "violet" but that is not accurate, or lilac, but neither is this accurate in replacement of what is meant by "purple". I might say, "That wall is afnon!" That is what "I" would call it but what does that mean to you? Well, LIGHT is the same—there is no other way to describe the invisible rays of "light" in content of TOTAL OF ALL COLOR IN TRANSPARENT FORM without calling it "light". I PERSONALLY HAVE NO OTHER WAY TO DESCRIBE OR DEFINE GOD THAN BY USE AND DESCRIPTION OF LIGHT AND ELECTRIC PULSE WAVES, ETC. I could say that it is the invisible compilation of all frequencies of color into a frequency of a ray traveling at around or about or higher than radiant energy that stimulates the organs of sight, having for normal human vision wavelengths ranging from about 3900 to 7700 angstroms and traveling at a speed of about 186,300 miles a second.

So, our highest Deity sends forth valve-like pulses of electric waves in a spiral type of perceived motion, which isn't, an idea, a whole idea, of what will be a projected YOU, at 3900 to 7700 angstroms and traveling (but it doesn't move) at a PERCEIVED speed but is a pulsing wave of electric charged particles in pairs according to DNA-RNA-Mitochondriachal blueprint, of some 186,300 miles per second and that would equate to so many more kilometers... and thus and so. Do you know what I just said? What is an angstrom? Just how much more in counting are kilometers than miles? Are they more or less or are they equivalent to the same thing?

How do you define gravity? How did Newton in Principia Mathematica DEFINE GRAVITY? Or, would that constitute plagiarism to use his definition? Well, it is not what is touted there—gravity is not some push-pull motion toy—gravity simply is representative of elements, particles, THINGS, trying to reach within and become within the same density as itself. If you are SOLID material, as is "human", you are heavier than air, gas or "those invisible frequency rays". Now, is everything clear? Well, what about that old "Rapture" theory of walking on clouds? You are much heavier than air or clouds containing water vapor so what is going to happen to your cute little body? But what if your body became lighter than air and at a higher frequency than air and at the least as light as light? Ah, now we have THINKING to be done, do we not?

Along these same lines you now have to explain to me how to explain that a physical body crucified against his will allows you to dump all your guilt and sins. If you believe this, then surely you are absolved of all crime or ill-thinking and will be Raptured? How so? What process allows a physical "thing" to SAVE YOUR NON-PHYSICAL BEING? THIS IS WITH OR WITHOUT BLOOD-LETTING AND ONLY PHYSICAL BEING-BODY HAS BLOOD!

Does "light" have a circulatory system? Of course, it is called charged particle electricity and frequency. Therefore to be like the "Deity, Great Spirit, Christ Consciousness, Wakan Tanka, Allah, I Am, Umdogie, God, Aton", and on and on and on—you too, MUST BE AS "LIGHT". HOW MANY WAYS CAN YOU, OR EVEN THE GREAT JUDICIAL BENCH (JUDGE), DESCRIBE OR EXPLAIN THIS CONCEPT? And if a free citizen is denied ability to express this concept in the only language available to express THIS TRUTH, are you not violating the very basis and foundation of your CONSTITUTION? And if a paper of public recognition cannot print such information, are you not further violating the Constitution? If you are claiming that the information is FALSE, who claims this? If US&P for instance, claims that we print false and defamatory information by stating truth and fact, then WHO IS IN VIOLATION OF LAWS OF FRAUD AND FALSE WITNESS?

Let us look more carefully at the work of Newton. Newton wrote in one language and then Voltaire had it translated—BY HIS OWN MISTRESS, THE COUNTESS CHATEAU de Lay (phonetically spelled to protect the guilty). Is there any possibility, do you suppose, for error here and there? Have YOU read or studied the Principia Mathematica? And furthermore, didn't Newton do ANYTHING ELSE besides drop apples?

You will be told by the opposition that "this is not the point"—but I assure you readers, THIS CERTAINLY IS THE POINT "HERE". The opposition's point is obviously to deny this particular person and persons the right to exist in a free and open state as a citizen with all rights under the Constitution of the United States. Walter Russell did not write fiction or novels and never claimed otherwise. Therefore, we deal with "assumed" truth as TAUGHT BY AN AUTHORIZED UNIVERSITY IN PUBLIC STANDING EVEN AS A NON-PROFIT INSTITUTION AND TAX-FREE ENTITY. Are not the subjects then taught somehow for public use? Ekkers BOUGHT and enrolled in the Home Study Course offered by this US&P. Are they not, however, entitled to utilize the information taught? Would they present OTHER than the information as taught by the professor? This is to point out the absurdity of the charges in point—and again, PRESENT THE DAMAGED PARTY(S) IN A COURT OF LAW AND ALSO BRING THOSE PARTIES TO BE CONFRONTED IN THAT SAME COURT OF LAW BY THE DEFEN-DANTS. AND AGAIN, NO, THE LAWYERS ARE NOT THE PARTIES IN POINT.

I believe that the defendants, as Ekker, et al., should demand that the erroneously named Greens, their cohorts, Timothy Binder and possibly others of the Plaintiffs, be charged great fines for inflicting damage against defendants and other named parties—AND IT WOULD BE MORE SUITABLE IF LENGTHY JAIL TIME IS ORDERED—TO TEACH THEM A LESSON, AS WAS DEMANDED AGAINST THE UNWITTING DEFENDANTS IN THIS CASE. The defendants set forth very inconvenient monitoring systems to prevent even the appearance of intentional breaking of any agreement with anyone and certainly CONTACT, the newspaper, is not bound by any "other's" agreement or singular order.

This becomes open censorship against the freedoms of speech, thought, press and basically all other of the freedoms within the Bill of Rights of the Constitutions of both State and Nation extended to ALL CITIZENS. I would greatly enjoy the subject under discussion to be undertaken by such as Robert Bork and/or Eustace Mullins. This case should be a total embarrassment to the Federal Court in this case. I further think you who stand before that court in defense should cause Timothy Binder and George Green to sit on the witness bench and be caused to define the subject of Who is God, What is God, and give full definition of all teachings of Walter Russell from whom they claim sole rights of this information. I suggest you remove this sentence, however, because they would undoubtedly rush to the nearest Pleiades Journal to see if they could find definition. They BOTH still have a supply of the books, while we were forced to divest ourselves of any of the disputed information and are allowed to have no copies of either Russell's work or our own. By the way, that fact alone makes it very difficult for Doris to copy anything!

I enjoy the author who claimed to have had his books burned in Europe while being a U.S. citizen. Oh? Well, we beat you, Sir, we have had books burned by order of the court, IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA without any member of the judicial system, including lawyers, having even READ the books in question. The first defense attorney came to the first hearing, and had never even SEEN the books, knew nothing of the books, had no copies of even the points in question, and neither had Russell's books nor had heard of Walter Russell. The Judge had not heard of Walter Russell, and George Green, the accused defendant in the first order, wasn't even required to attend court and ended in SECRET agreements with the Plaintiff, AFTER COMMITTING CONTEMPT AND SELLING BOOKS UNDER INJUNCTION—INTO THE THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS. Doris and E.J. did NOTHING save sit respectfully in the court, never being allowed to speak.

Yes indeed, readers, THIS IS THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, one nation under "the inability to mention", indivisible, and with "liberty" and "justice" for the guilty few. You had best start facing that which is upon you-the-people for it isn't getting any better—FOR YOU.

So, Doris can just stop writing? Well, isn't there something in that Constitution about having the right to happiness, work and freedom in body and secure in your house and with your property? I have tried to phrase this without copy or paraphrase so bear with our paltry attempts at statements without ability to use exact language.

The Ekkers have gotten nothing, not one cent, from any of this work, except severe attacks, headaches, threatened jail terms, bashing, abuse, ridicule and other major and countless damages. And the information is hardly ever even regarding such topics as are under attack. I find it even more interesting that it is GOD who comes under fire. You think it is NOT God under fire here? Well, YOU ARE WRONG!

Good morning.

Soltec: Preparation Includes Listening To Your Guides!

2/9/97 SOLTEC

Good morning, my friend! It is I, Ceres Anthonious Soltec, come in the Radiant One Light of Creator God. Thank you for again sitting this day to write for we of the Hosts.

There is a need at this time to issue yet another warning concerning the geological INstability of your planet. Your planet is under severe stress this day and she is in great need of relief. She shall have her relief! You ones need to be prepared for the upcoming changes. Whether they be from man's tampering with forces that he does not understand, or from natural balancing of pressures within the body of Earth-Shan is of little consequence when the walls of your dwelling are coming apart!

Your Elite controllers feel they are running out of time—when they perceive the extent of their progress toward world control and compare that to where they think they should be according to their blueprint agenda. This is cause for sounding an alarm because there are horrendous plans to counteract this "time" discrepancy in their schedule. There are several plans developed to counter this perceived problem and each plan has a set of back-up plans. We could discuss any number of these plans, but most of them have already been touched upon in previous writings.

However, at this point in the unfolding "play", you who are going to be prepared have already done so, and those who are still sitting on the fence will continue to do so until the fence is literally shaken out from beneath you.

You are well into serious times down there and most know it not. The fox is in the hen house and he has you convinced that he belongs there and that you should have to feed and support him in his efforts to destroy all that for which you have worked.

Many down there will blindly continue to support those dark ones who are draining the life force from the very being of these unsuspecting ones—until this blind majority completely succumbs to the Elite controllers' parasitic condition. The ignorance and naiveté of these clueless ones will enable the Elite controllers to pull off the massive annihilation on your planet.

It is only through knowledge and understanding that you can divert these catastrophic plans for your planet. As always, the masses will refuse to listen for it causes them great discomfort to have to feel responsible for their part in the overall drama of life.

These are the ones who will refuse to hear the messages of Truth. These are the ones who will say, "What's the use? I am only one small person; I can't change anything." These are the ones who are frightened by the thought of taking an action that might lead them into a position of responsibility. These are the ones who will choose to remain in ignorance and thus go along with "Big Brother" as he uses them, and then discards them when they are of no further value. These are the ones who shall have to recycle through this sort of experience, again and again, until they "get it right". These are the "young" ones whose growth we stand ready to assist!

By contrast, many of you who diligently read these messages are the Ground Crew members who have volunteered (Oh, yes you did!) to come at this time, in the physical form, in order to re-give that which others before you have given to you. Inasmuch as you prepare now, you will find that your job will be easier to accomplish in the years to come.

When catastrophe strikes and YOU are prepared, those who are not prepared will come to you asking, "How is it that you knew to prepare for these things?" At that time you will probably have the undivided attention of the ones you have been trying to help all these years. It is at that time when a larger part of your mission will be recognized! You are Teachers and Wayshowers for the ones who are in need of realizing who they are and why they are going through such horrendous experiences.

You are part of the Hosts who have been sent at this time so that God's promise would be fulfilled to those who are seeking diligently to find the answers to the questions that demand an answer. These are questions like: "Why am I here?" and "Why has all this (catastrophe) happened?"

God promised that the truth shall be known and that people would be given to know WHY the great tragedy has befallen them. YOU are the answer to this promise! You shall stand as a Beacon of Light during very dark times. Your job is to assist your brothers in their understanding of WHY all of what will transpire has transpired.

Inasmuch as you prepare NOW for your future survival, you will capture the attention of those around you for having greater insight than they, because your very actions will have proven this to be so!

There are many reasons why we of the non-physical expression suggest that you do the things that we ask. We will, however, always wait to see where you are at, in ability to discern for yourselves, prior to just giving you the answers.

So, if you're just sitting out there all alone, and you are thinking that you do not need to prepare, for you have no real responsibilities to attend such as children or family, then I would suggest that you consider your choices most carefully prior to dismissing preparation as a course of action. To those of you who have prepared for yourselves, you may wish to consider adding to your food supplies so that you have extra to offer those in need.

Know that you ALL have a purpose to fulfill. Realize also that, though we may not always respond to the individual question in this forum, we WILL most certainly respond to individual questions on an individual basis, for the call compels the answer. But that means making the effort to go within and be attentive to the response!

With this said, I will ask that this morning's earlier "private" writing to this scribe be attached following this message, for there are many who can benefit from the words and we simply do not have the time to re-write the message again.

PREPARATION IS THE KEY TO FULFILLING YOUR INDIVIDUAL PURPOSE and we will assist you in ALL your efforts—when YOU take conscious action to meet us part way!

I am Ceres Anthonious "Toniose" Soltec come in the Light of Creator SOURCE! May you see beyond the words and feel the Love with which these messages are sent. Salu.

[Editor's note: The following writing was scribed just before the message above. It is the "private" message which geophysical Commander Soltec suggested was worthy of general attention and sharing in conjunction with the advice penned already.

Indeed, in any imaginable capacity of teaching or wayshowing under the chaotic conditions we are about to experience, connection to Source for guidance is a most prudent first step toward fruitful later action—don't you agree?!]

Good morning, my friend; it is I, Toniose Soltec, come in the One Light of Creator God. Thank you for hearing the call and responding. We have work to get done, so please get comfortable and find balance within.

We shall stand with you throughout all of the challenges that you will face down there. Call upon the Light whenever you feel the desire to do so. Please do NOT hesitate to do this! We can assist you more when a conscious call is made.

Allow for the changes in perception to unfold within your mind as well as within your heart. You will be guided to the answers you desire.

Be patient and persistent, for the answers are there when YOU take the proper focus in order to perceive them.

We shall assist you when and where we can. You can help us by keeping your space cleared and by calling in the Light for assistance. Once the call is made, you can KNOW that an answer WILL present itself to you. But—YOU must recognize the clues and follow your inner nudgings in order to help manifest the answer in physical space (or in the physical consciousness).

Many times we send you ones the answers you desire, or a clue that will lead you to the answers, only to have the opportunity lost due to a lack of cognitive recognition of the subtle nudges that we are sending to you in response to your call for assistance. Be attentive to the nudges and learn to recognize the thoughts that seem to "pop" into your head.

In time you will come to greatly appreciate the communications and insights that manifest because of this developed perception that you ones call INTUITION. We shall continue to work with you ones in order to strengthen this sort of communication cycle.

It always helps to have a reminder, such as this one, to help you to remain focused upon the training cycles that you are experiencing almost non-stop every day. However, this is also to caution that, when you are being constantly guided throughout your life, you will sometimes become complacent with the whole process and thus begin to ignore the suggestions that we are making to you.

When you remain focused and place the proper amplification on a thought, then you will have done YOUR part. You will soon more fully realize the value of maintaining a conscious mental awareness of our Higher Presence within your mind as thoughts come and go throughout the day. You will also be able to connect more easily to the Higher Consciousness of we of the Higher Energy Realms as you consciously practice becoming attuned and then amplifying those thoughts.

As always, you must maintain your guard at all times, for the adversary will most certainly try to influence this process IF you give him the opportunity to do so! Keep your Light shielding up at all times, and if a thought causes you concern, then clear your space and ask for clarification.

Act always in wisdom for you are responsible for all that you dwell upon, and thus manifest in the physical experience. Release the thoughts that will only serve to distract you for they are just that—DISTRACTIONS!

You are under constant barrage from all directions in order to slow you up or even stop you if the adversary is able to "pull it off". Again, there is nothing new here—just a reminder to you to keep an "ear open" to the nudges and follow your Inner Guidance.

Recognize when we are there working with you. Even the small, seemingly unimportant or mundane tasks can be turned into a training session IF you but call us in and then pay attention to the clues that we will provide.

As always, the choice is yours and YOU must have desire to participate, else there is little value that we can add. Thank you for receiving my energy this day. We shall walk through the challenges together, if you but ask.

I am Toniose Soltec—Friend, Guide, and Teacher, in Light and service to Creator Source. Salu!

"I don't know what it measured. The Richter scale is down there."

On Utilities, O.J. & Standing For Justice

2/9/97 #1 HATONN

GAS, ELECTRICITY AND YOU

We have been writing about the dastardly things taking place in "Out of Africa" and other spots around the globe because, whether or not you like to consider it—you ARE a global basket of organized confusion.

But what of BIG things a-comin' down in the U.S.A.? What "killing" can be yet made in a market gone crazy? Oh my, LOTS. But not where you are placing your bets.

UTILITIES

Yes, I suppose you could call this a "scoop" because nobody else is going to explain it to you so that you understand the impact or potential dangers in this particular rainbow.

Let us remember that UTILITIES and their offshoot companies who supply John Q. Public with utility products, water, gas and electricity, are CONTROLLED. Ah, but next year these controls are due to be removed. Remember that committee of blood suckers, the P.U.C. [Public Utilities Commission]? So what? GREAT "WHAT"! THE WHOLE OF THE MESS IS GOING TO COME OUT FROM UNDER CONTROL AND, AS WE WRITE, THERE IS MASSIVE PLANNING AND SHIFTING TAKING PLACE. Let us look at the various places in Southern California. Never mind the location placed here for it will be including everything from Canada to way down South. There will be a gathering of control and shifting out of dead weight and spiffing up for the kill—then the utilities will be "TAKEN PUBLIC". Billions upon billions of bucks will be made by the holders of these corporations. Los Angeles Power and Gas, for instance will be set up by Dreyfus, the BROKER, and when that baby sells, it will be a giant sucking sound of money moving.

The "clue" I want you to pick up here, however, is what is taking place and what probably won't take place for a while. There is no point in doing such a massive shift UNLESS: (1) it is intended to keep the market stable enough to handle this major change, and (2) What is going wrong as is?

The market will probably not be in collapse mode YET because to make money going public, one has to have a good market that can do a land-office business with the new offerings.

Next, you have a massively sprawling octopus in total disrepair. Just like the infrastructure of old New York, New York—you know, that one in New York, not Las Vegas, the systems criss-crossing the nation are defunct. The technologies are such that to continue the old obsolete methods of electric production are insane. You are polluting your world and to continue to run breaking-down atomic systems is stupid.

Once the major money changes hands to the RICH and you think you have something hot and new in your pockets and wallets—it is going to fold. Why? Because it is planned that way.

Does this mean you shouldn't participate? Goodness no, friends. The ones who hold investments in those utilities, especially the more limited ones, will stand to make a fortune—if currency itself doesn't collapse. Once again, the plans are perfected so that the PUBLIC will take the beating as you come on board with this "new" decayed product and, just to keep it running, you will need billions upon billions of dollars. To bring it current and into safety—in what, I repeat, is a defunct system of production, would take more billions. The Elite always know when to dump the old Plymouth in favor of the updated, solar-powered Bentley-Mercedes. You the public will be taking the medically terminal albatross off the backs of the Elite controllers while they move on to get more of your blood.

It should be noted, however, that for you who only have misery with small community districts—you can soon count on more local controls and political authority—or, you can manage to own your own and run it like you please along with modernization and updating.

Let us look at one of the utilities involved here—WATER. The nation's water supply for personal use has become totally hazardous to your health. Even upgraded systems are still serving you microbes and parasites. And YOU-THE-PUBLIC will be picking up the responsibility and the tab for improving everything. If you think you have trouble paying your utility bills NOW, just WAIT! Oh sure, it sounds really good because as a publicly-traded company, there SHOULD be better and more capable management and thus and so—but does it work that way? How many companies have YOU witnessed go down once such a major changeover has happened?

And further, AFTER Los Angeles is sucked into the sea, how much value are you going to get out of your Los Angeles "stock"? And by the way—these new stocks will be sucked up by the Mutual Funds. Ah yes, the commercial Khazarian network of managed and controlled funds.

I know that it seems silly and confusing to have something "public", "going public". That is for the benefit of furthering the ignorance of you-the-people. The only reason you had those controls prior to now was to protect the guilty and Elite money-masters. The environmental restrictions are going to be so great as to bleed everyone dry if nothing else happens. But if you want to make a bundle—hold stock that is going to "go public". People are now trained to HAVE TO HAVE THESE BASIC LIVING PRODUCTS. YOU CAN'T HAVE A SOCIETY IN THIS DAY AND AGE IN DOWNTOWN U.S.A. WITHOUT THE NECESSITY OF HAVING UTILITIES RUN TO YOUR TAPS AND LIGHT SWITCHES, NOT TO EVEN MENTION YOUR WATER HEATERS AND COOKING RANGES.

One thing to consider, however, is when and how to get in and THEN GET OUT of "such a deal" and I'm not going to take more time at it now. Further, you need a pretty good chunk of money in today's currency to participate lest you just exchange something for more nothing. What, moreover, you can expect to evolve in this "public offering" is step one, and then the move of the big boys to MERGE until you have a secured MONOPOLY over the ENTIRE SYSTEM NETWORK. THE UTILITIES CARTEL WILL HAVE FULL CONTROL.

GOLD PRICES

Now, what would you expect to be happening with precious metals while such big things are in the works? Ah ha, as you find that the same ones who have control of the market for such as utility companies, also have control over the fuels to run the utilities around the world AND they also now control the gold reserves around the world. In fact, they are still scooping up the mines, etc., streamlining the methods of mining, depopulating the areas for more efficient management for hanging onto profits—and so, it probably will be that, say, gold will hang even lower while the market is readied for the HIT. Then, if the sky doesn't fall, the prices will skyrocket.

None of this is what you "hear" from noted and learned dealers and financial whizzes who haven't made a cent in 25 years except off you? Well, I didn't come around to watch your piggy-banks. I came around to talk about TRUTH.

You haven't heard anything, or almost nothing, about such a thing as I have just related here? So be it, and just how much are you allowed to hear when something BIG is coming down? Are you going to hear about O.J. Simpson's indiscretions or Los Angeles Water and Power company—when the power company doesn't WANT YOU TO KNOW ANYTHING?

So, I am speaking out before you hear anything about anything of this limited edition of information. You did demand revelations FROM ME, didn't you? Somehow I am not supposed to just hang around and not REVEALATE!

I would revelate about something else which you might well call "speculation" but wouldn't it seem a real shame for these Wheeler Dealers to plan all this and then just have the Big One(s) on the Coasts and in-between and wipe out your utility customers? I would suggest you have a couple of years to get situated, wouldn't you surmise from simple reasoning? I mean, after all, in "going public" you-the-people will have a PRIVATE interest in the companies and WILL FOOT THE BILLS from your pockets instead of your tax-packages taking the whole hit.

So, am I saying that you can again get stuck either way you go? YES. If you can get IN at a right price, however, go public with the Big Boys, and then quickly get out—you will be fine. Better you put your shackles into precious metals, though. Just know something, readers, about me, however: I am not going to continue to hold your hands in these matters. THIS is not my mission. My responsibility is to guide us through some of these bumpy times to secure you of our tribes and that means that I will not be making public very much information that inflicts anger upon the Elite scorpions—my team has had enough stings and agony.

Now, you who skip around the network internets—why don't you investigate this circumstance? I understand CONTACT will be happy to share information space in the paper.

It is not the time to rush out and recklessly do anything until you learn more. Just remember that, as with casino gambling—the HOUSE HOLDS THE CARDS THAT MAKE SURE OF WINNINGS—and THAT is NOT "your" house. Remember something important: As long as there are at least two people alive there will be one who will make sure he makes more money than the other and will build the systems to insure it.

Do not let it be heard that you do foolish things and then say "Well, Hatonn said." No! Hatonn says to learn and know everything there is to find out—and then act only in WISDOM. Wisdom in actions comes only AFTER the knowledge is gained.

I want to point out to all of you what usually happens with such as myself. You want to gain so you come and listen or "not listen" as the case may well be. You then say, "Sir, show me where the gold is buried, or tell me the Lottery winning numbers—and I will give you a tenth or a fourth of my winnings." Why would I do that? I could tell my own trusted, and tested-by-fire people and get it ALL. When will you start using your heads other than as a separator for your ears? Do you think that you do US some great service to prance through our places and, when you are not fed caviar and champagne, you prance out again leaving devastation and false accusations against us for not meeting YOUR EXPECTATIONS AND MISPERCEPTIONS?

I hope that all of you readers read VERY CAREFULLY every word of "Dr. John Doe's" writing and observations this week. It is valid observation: IF I DO NOT SUPPLY YOU WITH THAT DEMANDED POT OF GOLD AT THE END OF "YOUR" RAINBOW—YOU TURN LIKE SCORPIONS AND SERPENTS AND STRIKE AT ANYTHING WITHIN REACH OF YOUR FORKED TONGUE AND FANGS. If all we wanted to accomplish would be to replace one mode of tyranny with that of another even more powerful type of controlling tyranny, then we wouldn't be going through all of YOUR antics to gain control of our lives and our properties. To replace the LIE with a LIE is hardly making proper progress TOWARD GOD.

Does this mean that we can't do business with the people of the world? Goodness no, WITH WHOM ELSE would we DO BUSINESS? However, KNOW that there is certainly no obligation FOR US TO DO YOUR BUSINESS and we don't need just a tenth of your handouts when we need a hundred-fold to just accomplish some modicum of transitional needs. Mr. Bush and Mr. Kissinger certainly understand the structure of their side of the action—why can't YOU understand ours? It has to be through utilizing in goodness that which they have set up for total control. We don't want control of anything so it becomes a very workable relationship if we simply ATTEND OUR WORK AS GOD ASKS. Mr. Bush isn't looking so great these days, in case you haven't noticed. Upkeep and updating takes its toll, and it pays for those who are reaching the point of no return to carefully consider how they might ASSIST our team from time to time. I repeat something from a couple of weeks back: IF YOU HAVE ALL THE GOLD IN THE WORLD—DON'T YOU NEED A MARKET FOR IT IF IT IS TO HAVE VALUE? THINK ABOUT IT, PLEASE. THINGS have to be moved in order to have relative VALUE.

If the tools created for "their" gains work in the marketplace, then won't those same tools, as structured and used by them, work for us? Of course they will—especially if they insist the tools continue to work for them. The Elite have to EAT also. And, contrary to what it may appear—Elite do not live forever in this physical trap. Moreover, the old battalions are dying off and the Young Turks are coming aboard. The intent is THE SAME, but the discipline and dedication to the task of destroying and controlling is not nearly so fixed within the programming of the youngsters and the bad boys can't longer just kill off all the youngsters and have ANYTHING left at all. Even the Bush "Twigs" will not be so dedicated to "having it all" as is Big Daddy. And, by the time you are the Big Daddy, you have equal opportunity players—there are more powerful persons to unseat you than any friends who will struggle for your security and safety. Deterioration comes very rapidly to old replicas.

LET US AGAIN CONSIDER O.J. SIMPSON AND THE BIG QUESTIONS

The major question in this case is NOT, actually, whether or not O.J. Simpson did or did not commit crimes, even murder. The big screen version of the tale is important because there was a crime; he was charged; he was found not-guilty, and then was tried again—double jeopardy in the face of the CONSTITUTION AND JUDICIAL LAWS OF YOUR PEOPLE AND YOUR LAND.

"But this was a civil case..." you say? Oh? Indeed?

I could swear to having seen MASSIVE headlines stating that O.J. found GUILTY by jury—in the "civil" case outcome.

The whole show-and-tell is to dump guilt on the innocent parties to protect the criminal network in action here in this circle of participants. The same criminal actions include high-level parties. Simpson is caught between the rock and hard place for he knows what awaits on both sides of THIS BAD NIGHTMARE.

Therefore, the point is not O.J. Simpson—it is your total lack of respect for LAW and ORDER, JUSTICE in the now defunct Judicial System, a Media out of control for the public and under TOTAL CONTROL by the Elite criminals, and you have no Constitutional Rights remaining as a Nation of Citizens. Confusing? No, simplicity itself. You have put aside your Constitution and all its protections and RIGHTS. You pit race against race and forget the CRIME and criminal. You VOTE on whims rather than judging on TRUTH. You move in mass to the beat of the voice of the fools and controllers and those securing and covering their own guilty backsides. YOU ALLOW YOUR FINAL VOICES OF TRUTH TO BE DESTROYED METHODICALLY BY THE EVIL LIARS AND CHEATS. YOU INSURE THAT THE THIEVES BE ASSURED OF KEEPING THE LOOT THEY JUST STOLE FROM YOU!

Well, in our circumstances within our own friends and teams, it is time to take up voice and pen and STOP the insanity as it comes upon you now having destroyed the breakwater represented by the pioneers who stood, voiced and wrote and shored up the harbor boundaries until you could SEE AND HEAR.

Ah indeed, you can stand with God and nothing will happen until you STAND WITH MAN and demand TRUTH for then and only then can YOU ACT AS MAN, and GOD WILL STAND BEFORE YOU LIKE THE LIGHTHOUSE OF UNFALTERING STRENGTH. HEROES become heroic not by thinking and acting for self—but because they think NOT of self but, rather, of others, and act instinctively in GREATNESS. Heroes do not think of self or their actions as particularly "heroic" and never so at the time of the action required. Usually in heroic circumstances there is not time for calculated and reasoned-out response. Greatness comes from GIVING AND REGIVING. Therefore you can have Big Controllers, Famous and Infamous and Important personages—but that does not equate to GREAT MEN AND WOMEN. "Important" and "Great" are more nearly defined as being at opposite ends of the pole. When you have IMPORTANT WITH/AND GREAT, you have "arrived". And, moreso, when you act in greatness to help great men become yet even greater—you have served mankind and thus, SELF.

Do YOU actually have control over whether or not you are genetically structured as a Black, a White, a Golden, etc. racial product? No, so how dare you present yourself LATER as somehow being superior or inferior to any OTHER hapless victim of sexual intercourse of parents who came before? These same people are usually in a state of LUST, not LOVE. Blessed indeed be the child conceived and birthed in LOVE, HONOR, RESPECT, AND DESIRE FOR THE CREATION OF SAME.

GOD awaits your actions to always come forth with these qualifications guiding your actions from the soul of your being. BECAUSE IT IS THE RIGHT THING TO DO!

Do Doris and E.J. go forth to fight their legal battles against the adversaries in a Federal Court of Injustice because they want to or simply think it is right? No, they don't. They do it because at the moment there is no alternative acceptable to their circumstances. The fact that it is the RIGHT THING TO DO only allows for reasons for continuation of the struggle. Likewise, YOU have alternatives in the same set of circumstances wherein you can help them because it is the right thing to do, or choose safe and secure but DEADLY AND COSTLY TO SOUL alternatives which further isolate you and separate you from righteousness. In each circumstance YOU HAVE ALTERNATIVES and the choice is always yours, from simply standing as observer, a participant, or moving into service of that which is WRONG. Rarely do the people making WRONG CHOICES realize they have chosen "wrongly" in the upstart. To continue, however, to choose over and over again the WRONG in hopes that somehow the opponent will be outvoted, appears to me to be foolish in both concept and deed.

But aren't you GLAD that some of the chaff from the grain and bad from the good has been brought to your attention in things and personages? Are you not benefitted by the KNOWING? You cease to be victim of that which tosses you about on a sea of confusion and haphazard thoughts—when you take a stand in the corner of RIGHT choices, actions and KNOWING. Note the overflow of wondrous self-esteem wash over your being when you KNOW YOU HAVE CHOSEN AND ACTED CORRECTLY IN RIGHTNESS.

I can tell you a personal little secret "on" Doris. She works, receives, etc., but this "little child" is so shy and non-outspoken in reality as to crawl under the couch rather than stand on it to be better heard. But one

ANNOUNCEMENT:

Federal Court "Contempt" Hearing

At the 9th Circuit Federal Court, located at 1130 "O" St. in Fresno, California, on Tuesday, February 18th at 1:30, Department 1, 4th floor, there will be a hearing before Judge Robert Coyle concerning the University of Science & Philosophy's Motion for civil contempt and application for Order to Show Cause regarding Criminal Contempt against Doris and EJ Ekker. Because of the time involved in preparation for this hearing by many people, including the staff of CONTACT, there will not be a paper the week of February 17. For those of you who are planning a trip to Fresno for the hearing, check the Hotline (805-822-0202) for updates or any last-minute changes.

NO CONTACT THE WEEK OF FEBRUARY 17 TH

day a few years back some "White" children denounced and belittled a "Brown child" in her loving circle. She took a stand which has included such negative impacts, birthed enemies untold, brought forth more indiscretions of the opposition in final battle against her—and yet the soul sang that day and does right through THIS DAY. When you do the RIGHT THING, TELL THE TRUTH, confront the evil antics of the clowns who are steeped in theft, cheating and lying, your soul SOARS with the Eagles. She, like you, can then watch the sides forming, the blindfolds coming out and being affixed across the eyes of the guilty to protect ignorance and stupidity and, yes indeed, you will pay dearly for your RIGHT CHOICES sometimes—but that day of unrighteousness CANNOT LAST IF YOU STAND WITH GOD AND RIGHT CHOICES, even if you do so because you see no "alternatives". The fact that you choose a positive and meritorious alternative is the proof of your pudding and your learning. You "could", you know, simply join the evil empire and lose your soul as do the multitudes of participants in this game of life in physical format. But if you sell your soul you have just sold the ONLY VALUABLE THING IN YOUR UNIVERSE.

Doris and E.J. are correct in the KNOWING that it is more important to be heard in the US&P case than winning anything or everything regarding a house and property. In the property case all you can hope to win is physical property beyond the confronting of the evil persons involved and watching a system in decay and degradation. However, in the US&P case you are concerning the very basic CASE ABOUT GOD. This case on Tuesday next is ABOUT GOD and FREEDOM to SERVE GOD AND EXPERIENCE LIGHTED GOD. This is about being limited by force to NOT EXPRESS GOD. And yes indeed, this comes about in the wondrous United States of America in progressive year 1997! YOU didn't think it could happen, did you? Well, it may appear to be HAPPENING TO A COUPLE OF OLD PEOPLE UNIMPORTANT TO YOU—BUT IT IS HAPPENING TO YOU.

Do Ekkers want to go through this terrible ordeal? No more than did Jesus Emmanuel want to be forced by many persons to be hanged on a cross. There is no alternative seen in the face of such determined evil intent. But was there, with either, no alternatives? Yes there are and were, but they become unacceptable as things of plea-bargaining. But is it really a matter of choice as to writing or not writing, speaking or not speaking? Not here because what is to be gained by stupidity of actions? We don't want any more dead martyrs who commit suicide to prove they are incapable of making better choices. Dharma and E.J. don't ever have to write about "light" or any related subject to accomplish what is ultimately THE ONLY important thing in their lives—THEIR INTENT AND KNOWING. What you do about YOUR KNOWING and PATHWAY is YOUR problem. They have served; they have offered—and NOW, it becomes your responsibility as they are thrust into something in which the ONLY alternative is to do what they can under THESE CIRCUMSTANCES. You who wait and wish, through service or input, into "their" hoped for rewards—need to do something positive to disallow further losses of either assets or time—FOR THEY NEED FREEDOM TO ACCOMPLISH THE GREATER GROWTH AND CAPABILITIES OF HAVING THAT WHICH IS NEEDED TO ACCOMPLISH POSITIVE GROWTH FOR ALL. Let us consider the circumstances to be thus: YOU HAVE RUN OUT OF FENCE DOWN THE MIDDLE OF THE ROADWAY! In this instance you can no longer sit on the fence for you will either serve God and Truth or you choose to not do so. And the choice is made against God if you make no seeming choice at all. To word this differently: If you choose to not choose—you have chosen!

I repeat that no matter how it APPEARS TO BE—this CASE coming forth IS ALL ABOUT GOD AND YOU and NOT about a Binder, a Green, a Federal Court, or "druthers". It is about YOU and GOD in America, U.S.A.

May you ever walk in beauty BECAUSE you have learned what beauty IS and choose it against the "seeming beauty" of that which is but illusion of the moment, and traps and shackles you within the physical THINGS of that which is valueless. Why do you choose the Bad and Ugly when you have the GOOD and GOD? Shiny yellow stuff is rarely GOLD. So, why do you choose the shiny imitation when you can as easily HAVE THE TRUTH OF THE GOLD? Can the reality of CREATION work? Of course—it always has, always does and it always SHALL. Just as the WHOLE IDEA OF GOD is the resulting creation of YOU, so too are your WHOLE ideas, YOUR CREATIONS as projected from your thoughts MADE MANIFEST. Therefore, IF your thoughts be toward freedom and Godness, then you shall create freedom and goodness for there is no other alternative. Evil cannot CREATE—it can only USE that which is created and ULTIMATELY destroy.

Evil is an intent only present in the realms of dimensional physical beings for within the realms of God there is no evil; there is only Creation. But wow, the trip from here to there is a doozy, isn't it? You don't have to change the Constitution, change a nation, or save a world—YOU ONLY HAVE TO CHANGE SELF INTO CREATOR RATHER THAN CONTINUE AS USURPER. Simple? Indeed yes, if you could but see it.

Can Ekkers do well in court on court day? They can only do as well as you who stand with them! Think about it. They don't have to DO ANYTHING if you who stand with them in truth DEMAND THE TRUTH be heard and fairly and justly received. They also can serve only themselves and continue to have the bindings drawn tighter and tighter upon all of you for they are only two people in a sea of humanity making individually singular choices. The sea can only move and act as the power it is AFTER the individual drops (persons) question, conclude, and choose to move together. So, it comes right back to the starting point: YOU HAVE TO CHOOSE AND THEN IN THOSE CHOICES—ACT TOWARD THAT GOODNESS IN INTENT. Doing nothing constitutes choice toward the other direction of intent or negativity. Just to stand and stir the pot can sometimes keep from burning the soup but it does nothing else. Sometimes it is enough—but not if you want to participate in the EATING of the GOOD SOUP. ONLY CONTRIBUTIONS MERIT THE REWARDS. Eating without contribution constitutes WELFARE and that is the downfall of mankind and society. Charity is a blessed, blessed thing—welfare under force for the "free lunch" merits food-poisoning. If, further, you are so wishy-washy about your own state of mind as to flow with the easiest and most popular, even if wrong, people and attitudes—you are pretty much a loss to self and humanity as to positive participation in anything. You CAN exist without living, you must understand. That kind of "existing" is already definitive of your "death" and becoming a robotic zombie being tossed about on the whims of the tides sweeping in ebb and flow upon the endless sands of the shore AND WITHIN THE HOUR-GLASS. YOU DO NOT HAVE TO GO DOWN just because the multitudes don't choose to do otherwise. IN YOUR VERY POWER OF GOD YOU CAN CREATE YOUR OWN SOLUTIONS TO NEGATE THE IMPACT OF THE ADVERSARY'S PUSH AGAINST GOODNESS AND FREEDOM.

How many of YOU will become "the ONE" in order to accomplish this glorious and joyful state of achievement in beingness?

Good morning.
