...AND THEY ALL FALL DOWN!

"Ring around the rosies, pocket full of posies..."

As we move on into some of the darker sides of what is happening with those of our dark-skinned brethren here and there, we can't leave out the political intrigues which are lies beyond imagining as they are being set up for total destruction and war fodder. O.J. was quite pointedly lynched even more painfully than with a rope around his neck. We are going to write a lot about that but it has already been better presented from the "Blacks" viewpoint than anything we could write. We will await permission from FINAL CALL and then we are going to hit this topic with everything we have [see story on pg.41, "Black Tar-And-Feathers" article, O.J. Simpson Case] in order to get the tons of information out to the public.

So You Want To Plant A Garden?

Well, readers, it's that time of year when thoughts of sweet corn and juicy tomatoes should be dancing thru your dreams—things you can't hardly find anymore in the grocery store's produce counter. Genetic and chemical tinkering, for reasons of both commercial profit and a more sinister health-degradation-of-the-populace agenda, have made most fruits and vegetables bland-tasting and vitamin-deficient at best, and inedible at worst, causing that old decorative bowl of wax fruit on the dining room table to look more and more appealing with each passing season.

So, at this timely juncture in the early stages of this year's growing season for North America, we enthusiastically reprint Rick Martin's excellent tutorial on home gardening from our 7/4/95 CONTACT. Believe me, I've been the delighted beneficiary of surplus bounty from Rick's garden each year and I can testify—under oath or a big green salad—that Rick knows that of which he speaketh. So get to work—and enjoy!

—E.Y.

THE SOWER

That same day Immanuel went out of the house, and sat by the seaside.

And many people gathered around him, so that he had to go up and sit in a boat, and all the people stood on the seashore.

And he spoke many things to them in parables and said, "Behold, a sower went out to sow;

And when he had sown, some seed fell on the roadside, and the fowls came and ate it.

Other seed fell upon the rock, where there was not sufficient soil; and it sprang up earlier because the ground was not deep enough;

But when the sun shone, it was scorched, and because it had no root, it dried up;

And other seed fell among thistles, and the thistles sprang up and choked it.

And other seed fell in good soil and bore fruit, some one hundred-fold and some sixty and some thirty.

He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

[Matthew 13:1-9.]

CONSIDER THIS

With geophysical changes looming on the horizon, combined with awakening to the reality of nutritionless food, growing one's own food becomes an increasingly desirable idea. At some point in the not too distant future, it will become a necessity.

"Give us the strength to encounter that which is to come that we may be brave in peril, constant in tribulation, temperate in wrath, and in all changes of fortune, and down to the gates of death, loyal and loving to one another." [Robert L. Stevenson]

The Golden Rule as given by the Prophet to the Shawnee:

"Do not kill or injure your neighbor, for it is not he that you injure; you injure yourself. Do good to him, thus adding to his days of happiness even as you then add to your own.

"Do not wrong or hate your neighbor; for it is not he that you wrong; you wrong yourself. Rather love him, for The Great Spirit loves him, even as He loves you."

Most people in cities have no idea how to begin a garden or even consider the possibility that such a thing can be done on a smaller scale using planter boxes. But for the average person in more rural areas who is unfamiliar with the often technical aspects of growing a garden, the prospect becomes too overwhelming to consider and is put off indefinitely.

"...the Earth is utterly broken down, the Earth is utterly moved, the Earth is staggering exceedingly. The Earth shall reel to and fro like a drunkard and shall be shaken like a hut and its transgressions shall fall and not rise again." [Isaiah 24:19-20.]

Well, dear readers, the time for putting off growing your garden, big or small, is past and it truly is the better part of WISDOM to take steps in this direction to insure quality nourishment in the days, months, and years ahead. I know that the time for beginning a garden may seem too late—but please remember that the garden spot you prepare will be needed and used not only this season, but for many years ahead. Therefore, even though it is late in the summer season, by all means, get busy. Also, buy a straw hat for sun protection.

The instructions here are something that I have personally used over the last fifteen plus years. If you follow the instructions explained here, it will work and you will have food to eat. This initial financial outlay can be considerable—but in subsequent years the cost is relatively small. When you consider growing your own food rich in nutrients, the cost should be secondary. The charts within this article hold a wealth of critical information—by all means, USE THEM. Even the most sophisticated gardener can learn from the information contained within them.

"Our old food we used to eat was good. The meat from the buffalo and game was good. It made us strong. These cows are good to eat, soft, tender, but they are not like that meat. Our people used to live a long time. Today we eat white man's food, we cannot live so long—maybe seventy, maybe eighty years, not a hundred. Sweet Medicine told us that. He said this food would be sweet, and after we taste this food we want it, and forget our own foods. Chokecherries and plums and wild turnips and honey from the wild bees, that was our food. This other food is too sweet. We eat it and forget...It's all coming true, what he said." [Fred Last Bull, Keeper of the Sacred Arrows of the Cheyenne Tribe, told that to an audience in Busby, Montana, in 1967.]

SIZE UP YOUR PROPERTY

An obvious first step is to survey your property to see what the most reasonable location for a garden would be. Always keep in mind the availability of water. Choose a location with lots of direct sunlight. Also consider overall size—the larger the garden is the more time and water it will take to maintain. You want an area large enough to produce sufficient food for you, your family and friends, but small enough so you are not an absolute slave to it. As a single person, starting with a garden as small as 10 feet x 10 feet is not unreasonable. I would recommend, however, that larger would be more desirable. For the purposes of this article, I use the hypothetical garden space as 20 feet x 80 feet, which is a pretty good-sized garden for a small family. When you start planting more than a quarter acre, then you've got something which will keep you tied to it with a ball and chain.

If you only have an area where there is a lawn, consider pulling it up and planting a garden instead. In difficult times you won't want to eat the lawn—or perhaps I should say: you may want to eat the lawn but a garden will look a lot better.

In times of drought, a small, intensively grown garden is highly desirable as the yield is very high and it requires less water than traditional farming methods.

"No one should control more arable land than he can maintain in a high state of productivity, the four great factors of which are good seed, suitable moisture, abundant available plant food and rational tillage. In a large majority of cases where failure, or partial failure of an abundant crop is observed the meagre results are due to a partial lack of one of these four fundamentals." [Isaac Phillips Roberts from Ten Acres Enough.]

SEED

Once you've decided to put in a garden, then you need to choose what you'd like to grow—always keeping in mind the specifics about your particular geographical region and the time of year. GET YOUR SEED ORDERED ONCE YOU'VE GIVEN SOME CAREFUL CONSIDERATION TO IT, AND THAT WAY THE SEEDS CAN BE ON THEIR WAY TO YOU WHILE YOU COMPLETE OTHER ASPECTS OF THE GARDEN PREPARATION. ORDER SEED FIRST, THEN PREPARE THE SOIL. ALSO, ORDER NON-HYBRID OR SO-CALLED "HEIRLOOM" OPEN-POLLINATED SEED. With this type of seed, which is rare in this country, you may replant year after year after year using seed from your own crops. Most seed at grocery stores, hardware stores, and most seed companies are hybrid—which means that you can only use the seed for one growing season—and then you need to repurchase seed for the next year. THIS IS SOMETHING YOU WANT TO AVOID IF AT ALL POSSIBLE. PLAN ACCORDINGLY AND ORDER NON-HYBRID SEED—IN THE YEARS AHEAD YOU AND YOUR FAMILY'S LIFE COULD DEPEND ON IT! Here are some non-hybrid seed companies that I strongly recommend you communicate with and get their catalog: [Please tell them CONTACT sent you.]

HIGH-YIELD GARDENING—RAISED BEDS

"...ere long the most valuable of all arts will be the art of deriving a comfortable subsistence from the smallest area of soil. No community whose every member possesses this art can ever be the victim of oppression in any of its forms."

[Abraham Lincoln, 1859.]

Once you've identified the location for your garden, then the work really begins. This article will concentrate primarily on raised-bed gardening, which is referred to by various names. The beds generally are rectangular in overall shape, varying in width from 3-5 feet across and whatever length you determine but if the shape of your particular piece of land is such, the beds can take on curves or even become circular. The finished beds are elevated above the ground, anywhere from six inches to a foot high. But let's begin with soil preparation, because without that there won't be any food for the table.

Why raised beds? Well, for one thing, raised beds can solve a wide range of gardening problems. Here are just a few:

HOW HIGH-YIELD GARDENING CAN SOLVE THESE COMMON GARDENING PROBLEMS

According to a National Gardening Survey, the following are the most vexing problems that plague backyard growers. The techniques used in high-yield gardening can solve or even prevent these common dilemmas.

- Not Enough Water The high humus content, uncompacted soil, and the self-shading created by closely spaced plants act to conserve soil moisture deep down. Beds allow you to concentrate a limited water supply directly where it's needed; you won't waste water on pathways. It's easy to lay out an efficient drip irrigation system among beds. Plants growing in raised beds develop deep, probing root systems and are more resistant to drought.
- Insects Mixing plantings within a single bed (instead of growing row upon row of the same crop) confuses insects, making it harder for them to locate their host plants. It's much easier to monitor each plant's development in the confined areas of a bed, so insect problems can be caught early, when they're easier to treat. Entire beds can be outfitted with a cheesecloth or other covering to keep egg-laying worms away.
- Weeds Closely spaced plants that form a "living" mulch in conjunction with standard mulches laid on the soil control weeds and cut down on the time spent weeding.
- Hot Temperatures Closely spaced plants shade the soil and each other, offering some relief from the heat. Interplanting taller and shorter crops shades the lower level planting. Lath or other shading structures are easy to set up to cover a whole bed.
- Too Much Water Raised beds drain very quickly and alleviate soggy soil conditions.
- Animal Pests Birds and rabbits can be kept at bay by covering beds with curved frames draped with plastic netting. You can get in and out easily, but the wild creatures can only gaze instead of graze.
- Problems with Plant Growth and Soil Conditions Raised beds overcome problem soils. You can create ideal growing mediums inside the beds by blending soil, sand, manure, peat moss, and other amendments. You can also tailor the soil to meet plants' specific nutrient needs. Because beds are never walked on, plants have a soft, deep area for excellent root development, which encourages strong, healthy plant growth.

Spectacular yields depend first on soil conditioning that can readily meet the heavy demands of close planting, carefully timed successions, and a growing season stretched to its absolute limit.

"Teach us to know and to see all the powers of the Universe, and give to us the knowledge to understand that they are all really one Power." [Black Elk.]

I will assume that most of you putting in your first garden will not go to the trouble of having your soil actually "tested". But if you do, keep in mind that most plants thrive on a pH range anywhere between 6.0 and 7.5. A good rule of thumb would be: Assume your soil is very poor and needs amending with nutrients and organic matter. It is essential to have organic material in the soil, such as manure, compost, minerals, or combination amendments which loosen the soil to allow for retention of moisture and healthy root growth. If you are purchasing manure, be sure it is "aged" 6 months to a year—otherwise you'll end up with a lot of weeds and grass seed in the garden. Most bagged manure at nurseries is sterilized and aged. In many rural areas manure is readily available from local ranchers and is generally advertised in the want-ads, and often will be delivered for a fee. Larger gardens can require quite a few cubic yards of manure and it is considerably less expensive in bulk—however the danger comes in not knowing if it is "aged", and that can really make the difference if you end up with a huge pile of grass or weeds in your garden.

Go out to the area you've chosen as a garden spot and carefully examine and feel the soil. Here is one guide which may be useful to you.

"Creation does not take place where there is a scattering and dissipation of energies. Creation requires a gathering together and focusing of your power within a circle of commitment—like a seed, an egg, a womb or a marriage. If you would create and not destroy, you must remember always the Sacred Hoop. Consider wisely the ways in which you would use your power and then around those ways draw the sacred circle of commitment. In the warm atmosphere of that circle, the power of love builds and builds like a storm above the wet summer prairie until suddenly the circle can hold no more and explodes in the conception of the new." [words spoken by White Buffalo Calf Woman, from Ken Carey's Return of the Bird Tribes.]

PREPARING THE SOIL

The next intermediate step will be to till the soil. Many gardening purists insist on digging by hand—but I have found over the years that a rototiller can be a good friend indeed.

There are a variety of excellent books available on the subject of raised-bed gardening, and most go into great detail about double-digging the beds by hand while adding various soil amendments. The instructions I am providing here are geared for those of you readers who have never planted a garden, aren't particularly interested in digging a quarter-acre plot by hand but would still like to prepare some soil in which to grow food without killing yourself in the process.

Tilling is best when the soil is somewhat moist but not soaking wet. Many types of tillers are good; I prefer Troy-Bilt [for a catalog call 800-230-6161]. Very dry soil is difficult to break-up and the tiller will tend to "buck". If you are starting your soil preparation during the summer months, you may have to heavily water the garden area over a period of several days and then wait for it to partially dry out. Somewhat moist is best—soggy wet is not.

Once you've tilled the soil so that the top foot or more is loose, then you are ready to begin adding the necessary soil amendments to properly build up the soil. Here are some guides for your assistance.

Depending on where you live, your local nursery can provide you with a wealth of information. Different nurseries have different soil amendments. There are many excellent "soil building" products on the market—some organic, some not. Don't get too "hung-up" on a strictly organic approach, but you certainly do want some organic matter mixed into the soil for healthy root production for your crops. What you elect to use may very well be determined by what is available in your area. I have often been frustrated by this one point. Try not to be—use what is available to you.

And It's...

CLAY If other kinds of particles are present in quantity, such soil can be classified as a stony clay, gravelly clay, sandy clay, or silty clay.

SANDY Depending on the size and texture of the particles, such soil may be classified as gravelly, coarse, medium, fine, or loamy sand.

MUCK OR PEAT Peat is not fully decomposed. Muck is the same soil in a more advanced state of decay. It tends to be waterlogged and lacking in lime but rich in nutrients such as nitrogen.

LOAM A mixture of sand, silt, and clay, this close-to-ideal soil combines the best qualities of light and heavy growing media. Depending on the kind and size of the particles that predominate, a sample may be categorized as a coarse, sand, medium sand, fine sand, silty, stony silt, or clay loam.

10. Do not plant for 2 weeks if using more than 3 pounds blood meal per 100 sq. ft. It can burn the plants during this time since it releases nitrogen rapidly at first.

11. 1 cubic yard equals 27 cubic feet. 1 cubic yard will cover 100 sq. ft. 3" deep. 8 cubic feet will cover 100 sq. ft. 1" deep. 2 cubic feet will cover 100 sq. ft. 1/4" deep. You can substitute manure for compost the first year if you do not have a ready supply of compost.

12. Beginning the sixth year your legumes, cover crops, and recycled plant materials (in the form of compost) can provide most of your nitrogen, phosphorous and potash. Double-check this periodically with a soil test.

13. For trace minerals: kelp meal is 33% trace minerals.

13a. Except for first double-dig when it is added before.

8. Addition of nutriment at these levels is optimal.

9. Because of the growth hormones kelp meal contains, do not add more than 1 pound per 100 square feet per year.

ANALYSIS OF RECOMMENDED ORGANIC SOIL AMENDMENTS

N, P and K refer to the three main nutrients plants need: NITROGEN for green growth and in compost piles to speed decomposition, PHOSPHORUS for root growth, disease resistance, and production of good fruits, vegetables, and flowers, and POTASH for strong stems, vigorous roots and increased disease resistance. Plants also need HUMUS which is provided by decomposed organic matter such as compost and manure. For information on the application rates for organic fertilizers when a soil test is not used, see the Fertilizer Program Table which follows this table.

NITROGEN

Cottonseed Meal
3-5% N 2% P 1% K Lasts 4-6 months. Use up to 10 lbs/100 sq. ft. Fair source of nitrogen. Especially good for citrus and azaleas because it has an acidifying effect on soil.

Blood Meal
12.5% N 1.3% P .7% K Lasts 3-4 months. Use up to 5 lbs./100 sq. ft. A quick acting source of nitrogen, good for slow compost piles. Can burn plants if using more than 3 lbs. per 100 square feet. If using higher amounts, wait 2 weeks to plant.

Hoof & Horn Meal
14% N 2% P 0% K Lasts 12 months. Use up to 4 lbs./100 sq. ft. Highest nitrogen source. Slow releasing: no noticeable results for 4-6 weeks.

Fish Meal
10.5% N 6% P 0% K Lasts 6-8 months. Use up to 5 lbs./100 sq. ft. Good combined nitrogen and phosphorus source.

PHOSPHORUS

Bone Meal
3% N 20% P 0% K Lasts 6 months to 1 year. Use up to 5 lbs./100 sq. ft. Excellent source of phosphorus. Especially good on roses, around bulbs, and around fruit trees and flower beds.

Phosphate Rock
33% P Lasts 3-5 years. Use up to 10 lbs./100 sq. ft. Very slow releasing.

Soft Phosphate
18% P Lasts 2-3 years. Use up to 10 lbs./100 sq. ft. Clay base makes it more available to plants than the phosphorus in phosphate rock, though the two are used interchangeably.

POTASH

Kelp Meal (Seaweed)
1% N 0% P 12% K 33% trace minerals. Lasts 6 months to 1 year. Excellent source of potash, iron, and other minerals. Reportedly, the proper amount of trace minerals in the soil may mean only one-half the fertilizers will be needed for the same growth and yield! Kelp meal is also a natural fungicide. Use sparingly (up to 1 pound per 100 square feet per year) because it contains growth hormones.

Wood Ashes

1-10% K Lasts 6 months. Use up to 1-2 lbs./100 sq. ft. Ashes from wood are high in potash and help repel root maggots. Ashes also have an alkaline effect of the soil, so use them with care if your soil is already alkaline. Black wood ash is best.

Crushed Granite

3-5% K Lasts up to 10 years. Use up to 10 lbs./100 sq. ft. Good slow-releasing source of potash and trace minerals.

Greensand

0%N 1.5% P 6.7% K Use interchangeably with crushed granite.

SOIL pH SCALE

A pH reading tells you the relative acidity/alkalinity of the soil. Most vegetables will grow well in a range from 6.0 to 7.5. 6.5 is probably the best all round pH. In extremely acid or extremely alkaline soils valuable nutrients are tied up and thus unavailable to the plants. An acid soil can be sweetened by the addition of dolomite lime. An alkaline soil can be brought closer to neutral by compost or manure. Compost has a buffering effect on soil, correcting both acid and alkaline conditions.

SOIL MODIFIERS

Dolomitic Lime

A good source of calcium and magnesium to be used in acid soils. Do not use lime to "sweeten" the compost pile; it results in a serious loss of nitrogen. You can discourage flies and odors with a layer of soil.

Gypsum

Gypsum is not needed by organic gardeners. It is normally used commercially in soils made impermeable by excess exchangeable sodium.

"Clodbuster"

15% Humic Acid 5.5 pH Lasts 1 year. It is crushed "rock" deposits made up of ancient plant and animal remains. Helps make soil less alkaline and releases nutrients tied up in the soil. Use up to 1 lb./100 sq. ft.

Crushed Eggshells

High in calcium. Especially good for cabbage family crops. Help break up clay and release nutrients tied up in alkaline soils. Use up to 2 lbs./100 sq. ft.

Manure

A good source of humus in the garden. Nutrient levels depend on proper handling and the amount of straw or sawdust present. Large amounts of bedding may add up to 2 years to the decomposition time.

"It is a fundamental error to suppose that farming is neither a business nor a profession. It is a business which requires the highest business talent, it is a profession which requires the best technical skill...No other profession requires such a variety of learning, such an insight into Nature, such skill of a technical kind in order to be successful, as the profession of farming." [Harvey W. Wiley from The Lure of the Land.]

Once you've purchased and spread your soil amendments (which can include manure, organic compost, and other material) across the entire surface area of your garden spot, once again, till the soil with the rototiller—or dig by hand if you are so inclined.

Fertilizer, whether organic or commercial, should be spread across the top of the completed beds and then lightly worked into the top several inches of the soil. Therefore, when spreading amendments for tilling into the soil, hold the actual fertilizer aside for the final step after the beds have been constructed.

BED CONSTRUCTION

Once you've spread the soil amendments over your garden area and have rototilled it thoroughly, next comes the hard part (physically). For the sake of discussion, let's say your garden area (plot) is 20 x 80. At this point you'll be needing a flat, square-end shovel with a short handle. Beginning at one end, shovel an outer pathway along the 80 foot side. The pathway will be approximately 18 inches wide. As you shovel (deeply) the soft, tilled soil, throw each shovelful right next to you as you go—on what will be your first bed. The beds will be, on the average, about 4 feet across. You could, theoretically, have a bed which would, in this case, measure 4 feet by 80 feet. (It is nice to break up these long beds with cross pathways for ease of moving around in the garden.)

When you have finished shoveling your first outer pathway by placing the excess dirt onto your first bed—then measure 4 feet across and mark it with occasional stakes or with stakes and a long string. Then, beginning at one end along the 20-foot side, 4 feet in from the 80-foot outer edge, begin shoveling an inner pathway. The pathway should be whatever width you are comfortable with—don't crowd yourself—18 inches is a good standard (less if space is limited). With the first shovel of dirt, throw it immediately to your left. With the next shovel, to your right—left then right, left then right until you are all the way across the 80-foot length of land. You now have an outer path, one 4-foot very rough looking bed, another path, and then the rest of the plot. Repeat the process. In the end you will have 4 raised beds, approximately 4 feet across and 80 feet long.

SHAPING THE BEDS

Now, using a long-handled (preferably wide) rake you will begin to shape and even out the beds. The beds should be, for all intents and purposes, flat on top.

When there is a lot of organic matter in the soil, the beds can be shaped as rounded mounds, but for purposes here I'll generically describe them as "flat-surfaced". You'll be able to tell by the texture of your specific soil what is the most appropriate shape for your unique garden. A flat surface tends to be the easiest to work with.

With the flat-surfaced bed, sides should be at a 45-degree angle to the horizontal—in other words, a moderate slope upward. As you work with the dirt you will develop a "feel" for it.

Once you've completed the general shaping of each of the beds, you should be pretty tired, so, take a break and have some lemonade.

Now, sprinkle the chemical or organic fertilizer evenly across the top of each bed. Then, gently work the fertilizer into the top several inches of the beds with a rake. When complete, smooth the entire top of each bed to a flat surface. Then, take a piece of plywood, say 2.5' x 4' and place it across the far end of the first bed. Stand on top of the board and gently jump up and down—you will flatten the surface of the beds to the extent that they will keep their shape in all weather conditions. Step off the board, move it slightly and repeat the process until the entire surface is gently flattened. Do this to all of the beds.

I would also recommend, with the beds now complete, that you drive wooden stakes into the ground at various spots around the edge of each bed—say, the four corners and then every six to ten feet—right up to the outer edge of the bed. These stakes, say four inches wide, 1 inch thick, by 1 foot long—will serve as "hose guides". As you drag hoses around your garden, this will prevent the hose from running up the sides of your beds and destroying your plants (which can often happen in a mere moment).

FENCING

Prior to planting and depending upon where you live, you may want to consider putting up a wire fence to keep out dogs and cats and animals like rabbits who may view your garden as theirs. Just one animal can do a great deal of damage to the completed beds. Cats will often use the soft dirt in a freshly prepared garden bed as a "litter box".

Generally speaking, fencing your garden is a

PLANTING

Using the raised-bed method of gardening, due to the loose soil structure, you are able to plant the rows closer together because the roots themselves grow straight down rather than flattening out with harder soil. You are also able to plant closer together within rows. Therefore, the overall yield is higher in a smaller space. Due to the high percentage of organic material in the soil, by using the raised-bed method the plant's root structure develops more fully and is, overall, healthier. A healthy root structure equates to greater yield of food production. The old saying, "Everything is connected to everything" really applies to gardening.

A good recommendation, even though slightly more costly, is to "sow heavy"—that means, use quite a bit of seed within the rows while you are planting and then "thin out" the plants later. This will prevent bald spots or open spots within the rows. Also, a common mistake for new gardeners is to plant the seed too deep—don't do it.

You want to plant (and later thin) in such a way as to have the mature leaves of the plants touching one another row-to-row. This creates a "mini-green-house effect" or a "living mulch" effect which softens the negative effects of hot mid-day sun. After all, sun-scorched plants must first repair damage before devoting energy to further growth development. Planting in this manner also shades the topsoil, thus preventing excessive water loss due to evaporation and it also discourages weed growth. The raised-bed method of gardening is really the very best of many approaches. And, by the way, with raised beds you don't have to lean over as far to harvest or pull weeds throughout the season. I believe this is why the Irish refer to raised beds as lazy beds.

You will probably want to plant some flowers throughout your garden. They add color and some, such as sun-thriving marigolds, deter insects. Plant flowers that you'd like to see and use for dinner-time table decorations. Mix it up a bit.

Also, when planting, don't plant all of any given crop at the same time—particularly with something like lettuce. Plant a few rows, then leave some open space for a second, or rotation planting. That way you always have fresh lettuce when the old lettuce has bolted, or gone to seed (which tends to happen in very hot weather). Here is a chart to assist in your planting.

COMPOSTING

If you are just beginning a garden, you may be too overwhelmed in the moment to even consider composting. But let me strongly advise you to include composting as part of your gardening experience. This is true for many reasons, not the least of which is that it is a tremendous way to recycle the large quantity of excess greens that will be a by-product of the garden as you move through the seasons.

Why compost? Well, it's no accident that gardeners with the best yields tend to be fervent composters. Compost serves several functions. It improves the structure of the soil, which allows for easier working of the soil, and it increases aeration and water retention. Additionally, it provides much needed nutrients to the soil, including nitrogen. Improved texture, structure, and nourishment lead to healthy soil. Healthy soil allows for higher and better quality yields of produce.

Yes, but how do I do it? Well, there are as many ways to start a compost as there are to plant a garden, but I will present here one of the cheapest, easiest, and most effective ways that I have found [see box]. And there are also as many books on composting as there are on gardening, so you can read in greater detail independently as you go along. In the meantime, using 4-foot (approx.) fencing wire, chicken wire will do, roll out enough fencing to produce a circle approximately six feet across. Then, with the wire laying on the ground, cut 2x4s into four-foot lengths and nail the fencing to the 2x4s at four-foot intervals. Pick a space to the side of your garden, one which is out of the way, yet with convenient access to the actual garden area. Also, your compost pile must be within reach of water. Once you've chosen a (permanent) spot for your compost pile, using a shovel, dig down one or two feet and turn over the soil in a circle approximately six feet in diameter.

Once the soil is "broken up", place kindling, twigs, a wooden pallet, shrub materials, or anything which will create an air-pocket a foot high above the soil-line. Now, take your fencing with 2x4s nailed to it, and lift it up vertically. Then join the ends so that you have a circle six feet across and four feet high. Now move the fencing circle over your hole. You now are ready to begin building your compost pile, much like a layer cake. A good general recipe for composting is, by weight: 1/3 dry vegetation, 1/3 green vegetation and kitchen wastes, and 1/3 soil.

Some important things to remember, however: DO NOT add to your compost, under any circumstances, ever, the following: pine needles, fruit/fruit peels, meat of any kind. As you move along, you might want to add some humic acid to the pile to increase the availability of nutrients for plants later on. It is also very important to know that you must add soil to your compost pile—in fact, soil will keep down flies and odors.

Once you have your fencing up and you are ready to begin, you may well wish to create several large separate piles in the immediate vicinity of the compost pile, comprised of: manure, dirt, straw, grass clippings. Don't start your compost pile by just throwing some garbage down and thinking you have the makings of compost—you don't! Always think in terms of a layer cake. Once you lay down, say, a one- to two-foot layer of grass clippings, then take your shovel and throw onto it a layer of manure or a layer of dirt. Then, repeat the process—a green layer or a wet layer, and a dry layer.

To BEGIN the pile, try to build up the compost to at least three feet high. Another combination would be: a layer of straw, a layer of green materials, a layer of manure and/or dirt. When you've completed this step, get the hose and water the compost just like it is your garden. The compost should be moist at all times. That means whenever you water the garden, water the compost. You want to generate enough heat within that pile to allow the microorganisms to break down the materials into a very nitrogen-rich material which will be added back to the garden later on—and thus save you money.

This method that I am recommending is relatively low maintenance, although you DO need access to dirt and/or manure to maintain the compost pile properly. When you are throwing kitchen scraps on the pile, be sure not to throw meats onto it. But when you do throw wet waste on the pile, always follow that up with a covering of dirt. This makes the process of composting much more pleasant. (Trust me on this one.)

Bottom line? Every time I've planted a garden and haven't started a compost pile at the same time, I've regretted it. You will be amazed at how much excess greenery comes off of a garden over the course of a season. And besides, why pay for nitrogen-rich materials to add to your garden when you can create them as you go?

Many people say you must constantly turn the compost pile. This method that I am suggesting does not require this laborious step. One way to observe whether it is "working" is the following: if you notice that the compost pile suddenly drops down a foot or two, you have successful composting in action. Congratulations! Happy composting.

THE TWELVE MOST VERSATILE AND PRODUCTIVE HERBS

FIRST GROUP

This tremendously productive annual imparts a unique flavor to sauces, stuffings, soups, salads, and meat dishes. Good bets are the compact 18-inch-high BUSH BASIL and the larger-leaved LETTUCE LEAF, which is great for drying. Other recommended varieties are FESTIVAL SWEETS, DARK OPAL, and LEMON, which is strongly favored by The Liberty Herb Farm in Maine, because "it makes wonderful herb vinegar and is excellent with fish and salad." BASIL SPICY GLOBE (48) is a spacesaver.

The most frequently mentioned variety of this tomato-mate and meat stew and salad-enhancing herb is the tender evergreen GREEK form, which grows to 18 inches or more. According to Carol Hildebrand of Casa Yerba in Oregon, GREEK is best for long-cooked dishes, while the 16-inch-high ITALIAN oregano excels in quickly prepared soups and salad dressings.

Thyme is superb mixed with soft cheeses and as a seasoning in stuffing, salad dressings, gravies and sauces, and egg and meat dishes. Marilyn Hempstead of Fox Hill Farm in Michigan reports that both ENGLISH and LEMON thyme "offer a big return for the space." The ABC Herb Nursery in Missouri recommends the "really high-yielding" ST. LOUIS thyme.

SECOND GROUP

This grassy, bunching, 12 to 18-inch-high perennial member of the onion family is endlessly useful as a flavoring agent in sauces, soups, and salads of all kinds. Many herb growers also recommend garlic chives, which combine the flavor of mild garlic and chives.

An extremely hardy perennial, French sorrel grows 2 to 3 feet high. Its tart green leaves are high in vitamin C and make a tangy addition to salads or are tasty cooked together with other greens like spinach or cabbage. This herb also is the star of a famous French soup.

Unusually prolific and adaptable, this 2 to 2½-foot-high self-renewing perennial is tasty as a solo tea or added to tea and other beverages. It also contributes a pleasant subtlety to vegetable and fruit salads. Lemon balm attracts bees for better pollination of other garden plants.

Though not as sweet as the curly form, flat-leaved parsley is recommended by Kent Taylor of Taylor's Herb Gardens in California and by Anna Smith of Country Herbs in Massachusetts, who cited its "tremendous yield" and suitability for most cooking purposes.

A perennial herb that blends well with eggs, soups, gravies, stuffings, fish, and meats, sage comes in several varieties, some quite ornamental. The yard-high HOLT'S MAMMOTH is favored by one southern herb farm because it is fast growing and doesn't die back. But a better choice in intensive gardens might be DWARF SAGE—a 12-inch-high form that is less likely to be winter-killed in northern areas.

The French form of this anise-flavored, 2½-foot-tall perennial is the most superior. According to Fairman Jayne of The Sandy Mush Herb Nursery in North Carolina, French tarragon loses no flavor "even when grown under very intensive conditions." Much more flavorful fresh than dried, this herb makes a delightful vinegar and is superb in tartar and other white sauces, and with fish, cheese, eggs, and cauliflower.

THIRD GROUP

Hardy and self-seeding, this fernlike annual attracts honeybees when allowed to mature to 2 or 3 feet. Dill needs just 8-inch spacing on all sides. If harvested young, it can be interplanted with cabbage, carrots, cucumbers, lettuce, and onions. Dillweed is a tasty addition to cheese or tofu dips, soups, salads, and creamed entrées. It's also a staple in making vinegars and pickles.

Upright forms of this elegant tender perennial are often recommended, but North Carolina grower Fairman Jayne says the most productive variety for small spaces is the foot-long creeping HUNTINGTON CARPET rosemary. North of Virginia, rosemary must be protected over the winter or taken indoors. This very decorative herb makes an unforgettable accompaniment to meat and poultry and is also memorable in soups, stuffings, gravies, sauces, and salad dressings.

The compact, 1½-foot-high annual SUMMER variety of this spicy plant was preferred by all but one of the growers who included it on their lists. Once called "poor man's pepper," savory's small, zingy leaves can be used to perk up soups, salads, sauces, or sandwiches.

WATERING YOUR GARDEN

Once again, don't be a slave to the garden unless you want to be. We live in a modern age and one in which, thank God, there are digital, battery-operated automatic timers which you can attach directly to your faucet and garden hose system. It is possible to program up to 4 waterings per day with a quality timer, which is well worth the expense in the time it saves you. Keep in mind, while the timer waters the garden, you can go somewhere else.

Just a few tips—while it is true that overwatering is a common problem, underwatering is a real mistake—particularly in the very beginning of germination. DO NOT LET THAT NEWLY PLANTED SEED DRY OUT—EVER. If you are watering several times per day by hand, you will literally be able to tell when enough is enough. If you are using a timer, which I DO recommend, you'll just have to play with it a bit to get it "just right". But under no circumstances let the seed dry out. I cannot emphasize this enough: It is better to overwater, if you must, than to underwater in the beginning. Besides, the raised-bed method of gardening will be more forgiving of a bit of overwatering than will a regular, hardpack farming method.

But what kind of sprinkler should I use, you may ask? AN OSCILLATING SPRINKLER IS, IN MY OPINION, THE MOST PRACTICAL. Also, they do have plastic Y adaptors to allow for two hoses, and thus, two sprinklers off the same water line. Keep in mind, I'm giving instructions here for a low-maintenance garden that will grow quality food. If you want to live in the garden day and night, that is your choice and you certainly are free to do so. My only point here is that over-work isn't necessary to get results that you'll be delighted with.

WHAT NOW?

If you have followed the instructions to this point, you're there! As the vegetables begin to grow, thin them carefully. I always recommend using a sharp knife when harvesting. For example, when harvesting lettuce I like to cut away the outer leaves while letting the plant continue its growth. Experiment.

I believe you will find that growing a garden is an extremely rewarding experience—not to mention the quality of food you'll soon be eating! If it is done right, it can even be FUN. Learning about gardening is a lot like life—it takes time and just goes on and on and on. The secret lies in beginning.

If you've completed the garden, you've accomplished a great deal. A garden at home is worth ten insurance policies, because when all is said and done you can now go out into your own back yard and pick your next healthy meal. Well done!

WHAT ONE PLANT WILL YIELD

Knowing how many pounds of peas that one plant, or seed, will produce or how many cucumbers to expect from one vine is invaluable when you're planning your garden. For vegetables that yield once per plant, like carrots and onions, the figuring is easy. But what about all those that yield steadily over weeks? Here is a list of vegetables and the yield you can expect from one plant of each.

| One Plant | Produces | How Often |

Nevada Corporations

LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANIES

Part 3 of 3

3/14/97 CORT CHRISTIE

Nevada LLC Resident Agent: As with a corporation, an LLC is required to have a Resident Agent in the state (of domicile) as its statutory agent. Nevada requires certain documents to be kept in the main offices of an LLC's Resident Agent. The documents are as follows:

1. Name and address of each member & manager.
2. A copy of the current Articles of Organization.
3. A copy of the current Operating Agreement.
4. A written statement reflecting cash and any value of the property placed into an LLC.
5. The timing of any future contributions.
6. The handling of distributions.

7. Any event that would cause the LLC to be dissolved and its affairs wound up.

LLC USES; PARTNERSHIPS

As previously mentioned, I feel I'm my own best partner, if for no other reason than I usually agree with myself. With that in mind, I feel LLCs are a very attractive way of bringing people together, in a simple manner, for the purpose of doing business. For instance, I may have quite a bit of money and very little time, while a friend or family member has very little money and much more time. Together we could form a simple LLC to purchase and rent real estate. Personally, I may need the losses on the properties to offset other income, while my partner may need the income for management of the properties. As you can clearly see, we both benefit from an agreed-upon percentage of ownership. LLCs allow individuals, and even corporations, to come together for mutually beneficial business in a fairly simple format.

LLCs & BUSINESS TRUSTS

In some cases, the IRS has claimed that trusts (used to operate a business) could be taxed as a corporation. In this circumstance, you may want to utilize a trust and an LLC. The LLC could run the business and the trust would receive the income from the LLC. This will guarantee that the business is taxed as a partnership and not a corporation. Revenue will go directly into the trust and then out to its channels or beneficiaries.

AVOIDING HIGH TAX STATES

If rental real estate is owned in a high-tax state like California, an LLC could be set up in California to own that property. Remember, an LLC is not taxed, but its members are. Therefore, why not have its members be Nevada corporations. This would allow the income to be channeled from the renters through the LLC and into Nevada. California wouldn't know what hit 'em! Keep this one under wraps, because before you know it, the Franchise Tax Board will catch on. Today, however, this real estate strategy is still effective. Businesses do not work quite so nicely, as California will require to you register your business in their state. Play the game while you still can!

AVOID PERSONAL SERVICE CORPORATION TAXES

If your business is looking for limited liability or perhaps just a separate entity to operate under, consider how an LLC may help. An LLC can solve the problems associated with Personal Service Corporation taxes.

Personal Service Corporations are corporations set up by professionals such as doctors, lawyers, accountants and consultants for the main purpose of limiting their liability. Because their main reason for creating a corporation was to just eliminate personal liability, the IRS has placed a flat 35% tax on each dollar they (as PSCs) earn. This large tax can really hamper the up-and-coming professional. Instead of incorporating their services, these professionals could establish their businesses as LLCs. This set-up allows income to flow directly through to the members, thus avoiding the Personal Service Corporation taxes altogether.

CAUTIOUSLY VENTURE ONWARD!

As you can see, Limited Liability Companies certainly have their place. However, they do not solve all of our business ills. As regulating bodies come together and establish ground rules for taxation and the handling of the sale of interests in LLCs, we will be able to better see where this new form of business is heading. Legal precedents set forth will determine the use of LLCs.

If you find a situation where an LLC could be of good use, go for it, and pave the way for the rest of us! Remember, always keep good records, even when you are told you do not have to. No one knows when the rules of the game may change. For now, have fun and enjoy this New Frontier!

The Making Of A Scapegoat

—TARGET LIBYA—

THE MAKING OF A SCAPEGOAT

by David G. Guyatt, (written in 1996)

The murder of WPC Fletcher in London, the bombing of La Belle Discotheque in Berlin, and the downing of Pan Am Flight 103 over Lockerbie were the three outrageous "terrorists" events that led to Libya being outcast by the international community. These atrocities are now revealed as yet further examples of the 'decades of tension' inspired by the West. The dirty tricks, resulting in hundreds of deaths, were artfully hatched in Washington and London under upmost secrecy.

LOCKERBIE WHISTLEBLOWER SILENCED!

"It's an easy hit." The voice of Lester Coleman, former Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA) operative and joint author of the explosive book Trail of the Octopus, echoed hollowly down the line. Lester answered my question in a few simple words. I had asked him why the US continues blaming Libya's Colonel Qadhafi for all the woes of the world. Since his enforced "exile", Lester has become something of an expert on Libya.

"Listen, David," he continued. "It's all domestic politics." Libyan skulduggery plays to the "rednecks" who inhabit middle America. Lester, an accomplished linguist, launched into a humorous backwoods drawl to emphasize his point. Most Americans believe anything they're told about "Ay-rabs", he said—particularly at politically sensitive times or during an election year. One reason, perhaps, why the US had threatened to use a nuclear weapon against Libya in the spring of 1996.

I was told this latter piece of gossip by Sir Teddy Taylor, Conservative Member of Parliament. Sir Teddy has consented to an interview to provide background on the assassination of WPC Yvonne Fletcher and also on the downing of Pan Am Flight 103 over Lockerbie, Scotland. The MP has a special interest in both cases. Somehow I had missed picking up the US nuclear threat on the news. When Sir Teddy mentioned it, my jaw dropped with a jowl-shuddering "clunk". I later confirmed the story with American media sources. In the event, it was just bluster.

The year 1996 has proven to be a peculiarly good one for Libya. For the second time in a decade, it got shunted into the political backwoods by presidential warlords. Instead, the mad ayatollahs of Iran took centre-stage as America's arch-demon in this election year. But by all accounts it was touch-and-go whether Libya or Iran would be awarded the honor of the black boot this time around.

Les Coleman is the first DIA operative to have gone public and blown the whistle. His book blew the lid on the Lockerbie story. Because of his inside knowledge he was inundated with death threats from the intelligence community, so he fled with his family to Europe for safety. Originally given temporary political asylum in Sweden, two years later he was forced to move on. Most recently he was residing in Spain.

When I spoke to him, he was planning his return to the US after years of exile. Now penniless and unsettled, he spoke about his chances of arrest on an old charge of obtaining a passport in a false name—something he did under DIA instruction as a field operative. In any case, Les was hoping that the [then] forthcoming US presidential election might insulate him from prosecution, but he was going to return "home" no matter what. His family had understandably grown tired of their nomadic life and missed home.

Unsurprisingly, word of his imminent return to the US had leaked out. A short while before finalizing his flight plans, he was attacked by four men and beaten to a pulp. He arrived in the US in a wheelchair on 17 October 1996 and was arrested and placed in custody on Federal charges. [H: Nice world you have in the good old "free" USA, right?]

The US edition of Coleman's book, due to be published by Signet Books, has now been SUPPRESSED. US distributors for Signet say the publication date is "postponed", possibly in perpetuity.

CIA DESTABILIZATION OF LIBYA

Les Coleman was one of many people I spoke to in an attempt to get a clear understanding of the nonsensical US position on Libya. For the better part of 20 years, Libya—and its leader, Col. Muammar al-Qadhafi—had been listed atop America's most-hated-nation list. It was a form of political vilification that Europe didn't share—until the murder of Yvonne Fletcher (to which I shall return).

Upon taking power, the Reagan Administration immediately commenced a bitter campaign against Qadhafi, principally under the guidance of Director of Central Intelligence, Bill Casey—a gruff, no-nonsense, financial street-fighter whose lack of political eloquence was matched by a well-used blackjack. Casey had been Ronald Reagan's campaign manager and carried Reagan to victory on the back of the "October Surprise" issue of 1980. President Carter's re-election chances were dashed by the intransigence of both the Iranians and US officials who, unknown to him, had concluded a secret deal to delay the release of US hostages held by Tehran, in exchange for battlefield weapons. Reagan romped home to a landslide victory and immediately announced that the hostages would be released. It is now clear that Casey was one of the central architects who negotiated the deal with the Iranian ayatollahs.

A virulent pro-market anti-Communist, Casey shared his views with British Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher—a close personal friend. Thatcher was one of the few prime ministers who took an active interest in the machinations of the intelligence community. She went out of her way to attend Joint Intelligence Committee meetings and insisted on being regularly briefed. Her interest in these exotic areas may have been whetted by many of her ardent supporters, like Airey Neave, who possessed intelligence backgrounds.

Casey also had a "thing" about Qadhafi, whom he saw as a low-life rebel-rouser who bankrolled the globe's terrorists. Along with other administration hard-liners, Casey set out to destabilize Libya and overthrow Qadhafi in true CIA fashion.

Within months of taking office, President Reagan authorized a battle fleet to sail along Libya's coastline. Announced to the media as a "naval exercise", the manoeuvre was designed to challenge Libya's recently declared sovereignty over the Gulf of Sidra—a move that extended Libya's territorial claims well beyond the internationally recognized 12-mile coastal boundary. Ordinarily, a territorial dispute of this nature would typically be subject to international diplomacy and discussion.

In the event, the Reagan Administration saw it as a perfect excuse to buckle on the hip-holsters and start blasting away with a set of Texan six-guns. Qadhafi was about to get a taste of Reagan's gung-ho, go-get-'em diplomacy—the first in a series of "police actions" that were later to lead to the illegal invasions of Grenada and Panama.

On 19 August 1981, two US Navy F-14 "Tomcats" patrolling 30 miles inside the disputed territorial waters were attacked by Libyan jets. In the melee that followed, two Libyan jets were shot down. [Note: Many researchers dispute that the Libyans attacked first.]

A delighted Ronald Reagan mimicked his old western-movie days for the benefit of his close aides by drawing two imaginary six-guns and peppering an equally imaginary Qadhafi with bullets. It was pure Boys' Own stuff, but backed by multi-megaton missiles.

Over the following months, numerous intelligence briefings reported that Qadhafi had ordered a revenge attack against President Reagan and other high-level administration officials. Quickly shown to be unfounded, the fabricated report was traced to Manucher Ghorbanifer, a shadowy Iranian arms dealer who had helped to broker the arms-for-hostage deal. Despite this, the "false" death threat gave Casey and other administration insiders the ammunition they needed to wage a protracted campaign against the Libyan leader.

By November 1981, a top secret National Security Planning Group, chaired by the president (who was known to sleep through Cabinet meetings), authorized planning for "a military response against Libya in the event of further Libyan attempts to assassinate American officials or attack US facilities". Soon drafted, the "Top Secret" memo, "Counter-terrorist planning towards Libya", recommended that the President "immediately direct the Joint Chiefs of Staff to ready assets to carry out military action against Libya in self-defense, following a further Libyan provocation". A number of retaliatory "graduated" responses were planned. Out of the main five options, four centered on air strikes against Libyan targets.

Fear-stricken at these developments, Qadhafi reacted by sending an envoy to Washington, pleading that the whole thing was pure bunkum. The strategy proved successful—for the time being.

There followed an hiatus in US activity against Libya, as Casey focused most of the CIA's resources on the Nicaraguan situation. But Qadhafi was not to be forgotten. After a tour of European capitals in early 1984 (a US presidential election year), US officials seeking allied co-operation against Libya returned home in bleak mood. The picture they presented of European attitudes to Qadhafi was not encouraging. The Libyan leader was generally well-regarded; he did a lot of business with Europe, he wasn't a fundamentalist, and a large number of European ex-pats lived and worked in Libya. Collectively, the Europeans wouldn't sanction US hostilities—hardly surprising when the bulk of Libya's crude oil (almost 80 per cent) is exported to Western Europe, principally Italy, Germany, Spain and France.

With administration insiders concluding that Qadhafi would be just the "ticket" leading to a Reagan victory at the upcoming election that November, something had to be done to modify European public opinion. Within months, "fate" seemed to lend a helping hand.

THE KILLING OF WPC FLETCHER

Woman Police Constable Yvonne Fletcher was on duty outside the London Libyan People's Bureau on 17 April 1984. Located in the fashionable and serene St. James' Square, the Libyan Bureau building huddles in a corner of the square. Its address is No. 5. On that day a hail of automatic gunfire disturbed the tranquility, sending pigeons flying in all directions. The 11-round burst, fired by a 9-mm Sterling sub-machine-gun from the first floor of the Libyan building, felled a number of anti-Qadhafi demonstrators protesting outside. WPC Fletcher was killed outright.

The slaying caused uproar and hit the headlines around the world. Condemned in the world's media and British Parliament, all Libyan diplomats were expelled by a furious Home Secretary. The only problem with the Home Secretary's understandable indignation was that the Libyan gunman didn't shoot Yvonne Fletcher.

The Fletcher killing occurred out of the blue, and singularly changed British political and public opinion overnight. Open season was declared on Qadhafi and Libya by the US and, most importantly, was supported by Britain. The rest of Europe kept silent and sulked, having been out-manoeuvred. With the aid of a single bullet, the Reagan Administration's "destabilization" plan against Qadhafi was back on track.

DISCO INFERNO PROVOKES TROUBLE IN TRIPOLI

Eighteen months after Fletcher's assassination, 40 US warplanes screamed across the night sky above Tripoli and Benghazi. Of those, eight F-111 bombers had been launched from bases in East Anglia, England, with the blessing of Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher and a still-enraged British population. Each bomber carried four 2,000-pound laser-guided "smart" bombs. In all, 32,000-pounds of high-explosive ordinance were explicitly targeted to kill Qadhafi. Miraculously, he escaped unhurt, but his fifteen-month-old daughter was killed and two adopted sons badly injured. [H: Just how well would Americans take a direct intentional bombing of the White House and the murder of the Clintons' child?]

The Reagan Administration loosed the warplanes on Libya following the bombing of La Belle Discotheque in West Berlin nine days earlier. One US serviceman and a young Turkish woman had been killed outright and 230 people injured. The disco was a known hangout for off-duty US servicemen.

President Reagan claimed he had irrefutable proof of Libyan sponsorship of the atrocity. Despite this claim, no evidence was ever submitted by the Reagan Administration to support its allegations. A host of well-informed individuals and "sources" doubts any proof ever existed—except in the fevered imagination of CIA boss, Bill Casey. Conservative MP Sir Teddy Taylor regards the American allegations as "total rub-

MEDIA REVELATIONS

In April 1996, Britain's Channel Four "flagship" documentary programme Dispatches, in a massively researched broadcast, revealed that WPC Fletcher had been murdered by elements of British and American intelligence. The purpose of the slaying, as outlined earlier, was to "shape" public opinion and, importantly, pre-empt parliamentary indignation for the later bombing of Tripoli by British-based US warplanes. Disgracefully, these astonishing revelations went unreported by the media.

The film, made by the highly regarded Fulcrum Productions, was the subject of a debate in the House of Commons on 8 May 1996. MPs Sir Teddy Taylor and Tam Dalyell demanded the government initiate a full inquiry. Responding for the government, Home Office Minister of State David Maclean described the Dispatches programme as "preposterous trash". In doing so, he called into question the reputations of leading ballistics experts and gunshot specialists—and carefully avoided reference to information provided to the documentary team by well-placed, and knowledgeable, intelligence sources. It was a white-knuckle statement that hopefully, one day, will boomerang back on him.

Fulcrum learned that British and US intelligence had established a major surveillance post adjacent to the Libyan People's Bureau, at No. 8 St. James' Square. This post had been "active" for at least six weeks prior to the shooting, with up to 40 individual intelligence officers present—but on the morning of the shooting, the post was abandoned. Moreover, Fulcrum also learned that the demonstration outside the Libyan Bureau was phoney: the demonstrators belonged to a CIA front organization.

Crucially, Fulcrum Productions learned beyond doubt that the bullet that killed Fletcher had been fired from the upper floor of No. 8 St. James' Square—the location of the surveillance post. Ballistics experts consulted by the documentary team confirmed the bullet's entry track to have come from No. 8.

The team also learned that the bullet was adapted to fire with "terminal velocity". This technique—a specialty of SAS "shooters"—is achieved by removing some of the explosive propellant from the cartridge. The result is a quieter shot, similar to using a silencer. A side-effect of a bullet fired in this manner is that it flies more slowly and "tumbles" as it strikes the target, wreaking havoc as it rips through soft tissue. In every respect it is a "killer" shot, where chances of survival are so slim as to be negligible. The information on the bullet's terminal-velocity characteristics was also confirmed by independent experts.

[H: Well, readers, so much of truth.]

A CYNICAL SECRET CABAL

A well-placed and reliable "source", interviewed by this writer, explained why WPC Fletcher was targeted. Intelligence operatives believed Qadhafi had authorized a "hitman" to let loose with a Sterling automatic weapon against CIA-funded demonstrators gathering outside Libya's London Bureau. This information was gleaned with the aid of signals intelligence (SIGINT) intercepts and human intelligence (HUMINT) sources inside the Bureau itself.

The great worry amongst the secret cabal who planned the assassination was that the random killing of Arab protesters would not be sufficient to force the British Home Secretary to expel all Libyan diplomats. It was argued that targeting a British "bobby", especially a policewoman, would do the trick. Such appalling cynicism is the handmaiden to the intelligence community as well as heartless politicians who believe the end justifies the means.

The "source" also explained that it was an "off the books" hit and that "elements" inside the British and American intelligence communities were "out of control". But the suspicion remains that someone with power and influence gave "a nod and a wink" to the operation. It is just not credible to suppose otherwise.

The key to this convoluted reasoning was the cabal's fear that the Home Secretary, Leon Brittan, would not act as required without immense public and political pressure to jog him along. This is the rationale of someone with a well-developed sense of political reality.

After the shooting, Brittan immediately ordered an investigation—which has remained under lock and key ever since. Not long afterwards, sordid stories began to circulate amongst the British media that the Home Secretary had unusual sexual appetites. The rumors were fed to the satirical magazine, Private Eye, whose editors recognized the handiwork of the security service and refused to publish the allegations. However, within a year, Leon Brittan was forced from office for his part in the Westland helicopter debacle.

With Western European objection so neatly taken care of, Qadhafi's demonization went into full gear. The anachronistic Bedouin was rapidly elevated from "useful" to "primary" Middle Eastern "scapegoat". At the same time, as a result of the Libyan bombing, European governments learned just how hard the US was prepared to play in pursuit of domestic politics and wider foreign policy. Tarring Qadhafi as the world's "bad boy" suited the selfish interests of the political power elite in the US and was an added bonus when other illegal CIA Middle East "covert ops" went belly-up. One such operation was the CIA-protected heroin pipeline operation from the Middle East to the USA.

CRACKS IN THE MIDDLE-EAST DRUGS PIPELINE

A recurring problem for President Reagan was his inability to rescue the US hostages held in Lebanon by HizbAllah. Hanging like a dark cloud over his otherwise successful term of office, the hostage problem was turned over to Lt. Colonel Oliver North to resolve. North, a medium-ranked military officer with close personal ties to the CIA's Bill Casey, was the administration's global "Mr. Fixit". He, in turn called on the services of his old friend, Monzur al-Kassar—a Syria-born "big time" narcotics and arms trafficker. Earlier, the Syrian had assisted North in his time of need by brokering a large shipment of weapons to the CIA-backed Nicaraguan Contras. It earned him a lot of kudos inside the administration.

Lebanon's Beqa's Valley is a fertile and productive area specially suited to growing opium poppies. Rifat al-Asad, the brother of Syria's President Hafiz al-Asad, was widely known to have been in charge of Syria's narcotics enterprise. As the "Supremo" of the Beqa's Valley's massive opium industry, he was also a paid "asset" of the CIA and was being "groomed" to succeed his elder brother as President. He was also an extremely close friend of al-Kassar. It is widely believed that the influx of 30,000 Syrian troops into the Beqa's Valley during the 1980s had as much to do with protecting the lucrative opium fields as with separating Lebanon's warring factions.

Al-Kassar agreed to negotiate on behalf of the US for the release of the US hostages. His side of the deal was to get an agreement that the US would protect the Syrian drugs pipeline that shipped through Frankfurt airport to the USA. The CIA allegedly established a group, known as "CIA One", which would oversee and protect the drugs route. If publicly discovered, the response was to say that the "protected" drugs shipments were part of a Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) "sting" operation, dedicated to tracking distribution networks inside the USA.

Unknown to North and his cohorts, there was also a secret five-man DIA team working in Lebanon. The team, headed by Major Charles "Tiny" McKee, was independently tasked with locating and rescuing the US hostages. During the course of his work, McKee stumbled across al-Kassar's CIA One-protected heroin network. Reporting his "discovery" to CIA HQ at Langley, and outraged at the lack of response, McKee booked his team on a flight home. At this point, al-Kassar learned of McKee's activities and was also informed of his flight plans. Anxious that McKee would put a stop to his activities, he contacted his CIA One handlers who, in turn, communicated with their "control" in Washington.

[H: Now, continue to hang onto your pants because this gets even worse.]

CONSPIRACY ON THE LOCKERBIE TRAIL

Against this insidious backdrop, other, unrelated, covert plans were being hatched. Following the July 1988 shoot-down of an Iranian Airbus by the US Navy battlecruiser Vincennes, hard-line Iranian ayatollahs demanded swift retaliation for the 290 lives lost. They hired the Syria-based Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine, General Command (PFLP-GC) for a tit-for-tat attack. Led by Ahmed Jibril, and with a US-$10 million Iranian bounty, the PFLP-GC searched for a suitable target. An expert at bombing aircraft, Jibril soon learned of al-Kassar's Frankfurt-based dope pipeline and persuaded al-Kassar to place a bomb inside the heroin-laden suitcase. Pan Am Flight 103 was scheduled for destruction.

Meanwhile, Germany's Federal Police, the Bundeskriminalamt (BKA), received a warning that a bomb was to be substituted for the dope shipment aboard Flight 103. They alerted CIA One, who passed the information on to their Stateside "control". The reply came back: "Don't worry about it. Don't stop it. Let it go." [H: Ah, there just isn't anything flying those friendly skies!]

On 21 December 1988, Pan Am's Jumbo 747, "Maid of the Seas", exploded high above the Scottish village of Lockerbie. All 259 passengers perished. A further 11 people died as wreckage from the aircraft hurtled down to earth.

Within hours, a host of CIA agents arrived at the crash scene. It is thought that the CIA search team arrived via helicopter from a US Special Forces facility located at Machrihanish, on the Mull of Kintyre. The speed of their arrival suggests they had foreknowledge of the bombing. In any case, the CIA agents, dressed in Pam Am overalls, set about ransacking the crash site in a desperate search for incriminating evidence. For two days they searched for the luggage of the dead DIA team and frantically sought the suitcase containing the heroin shipment. One suitcase was recovered, flown out and later returned empty, to be "rediscovered" by the forensic team scouring the wreckage. It belonged to Major Charles McKee. Curiously, one unidentified body was snatched from the wreckage and never returned.

Les Coleman believes it would be wrong to blame the CIA in toto for the Lockerbie atrocity. Intelligence outfits do not work as cohesively as many outsiders believe. There is a great deal of rivalry and fragmentation at work. DCI Bill Casey had plenty of detractors inside the monolith he directed. Some worked hard, feeding their favourite journalists with unattributed information that was designed to damage Casey and, hopefully, lead to his removal. Others were known to operate as part of a small and secretive core that has variously been identified as "the Enterprise" or "the Octopus". The latter is said to operate with organized crime and leading politicians who covertly traffic in guns, drugs, laundered money and any other commodity that can generate massive profits. Whether the proceeds of these illegal activities are siphoned back into the "black" budgets of the CIA, or fill the pockets of participants, or both, isn't entirely clear.

Despite Coleman's caution, the CIA's infamous history—stretching over 50 years—clearly suggests that US foreign policy and private gain "coalesce" into a game plan that benefits various parties. Some "intelligence watchers" point to the wealth of some long-term CIA officers and ask how they amassed their fortunes based on salaries of US $60,000 a year. It is a valid question that can equally be addressed to former and serving politicians and senior government bureaucrats.

CORRUPTION BEHIND THE ANTI-LIBYA CAMPAIGN

By attributing the responsibility for Lockerbie to Qadhafi, the US administration was following in the well-worn footsteps of many predecessors in similar situations. It's a technique as old as the hills. Caught virtually red-handed in massive illegality, the first thought is to cast around for a suitable scapegoat.

As Lester Coleman said when I first spoke to him, Qadhafi is an easy target. Independently-minded and unwilling to align himself with US Middle Eastern policy, he became a target of the US. His past bankrolling of "terrorist" causes—and one-time expansionism—also did him no favors. It's a case of, "If you're not for us, you're against us."

Sitting on vast reserves of crude oil is also a significant factor for Libya's treatment at the hands of the US. The fact that most of this oil flows to Western European oil companies clearly doesn't cut much ice with the US. Rivalry between the European and US business elite is as intense as ever. US oil companies can't be pleased that they are effectively out of the picture. In that sense Qadhafi was, as Les Coleman said, "an easy hit".

Perhaps more telling than anything else, British support for the US anti-Libya "campaign" clearly demonstrates the moral and ethical bankruptcy of the British political process. That those in power manipulated the British judicial system and continue to lie to the families of the Lockerbie victims is sinister enough. That they not only tolerated but connived in the murder of an innocent woman police officer—to further American political designs—says more than any party political manifesto could begin to utter. All power corrupts, but the continued exercise of raw, unadulterated power of this magnitude is the very antithesis of a participatory democracy.

In researching this article, I spoke with many different individuals. Some agreed to speak on the record, whilst others requested anonymity. One well-placed and knowledgeable source summed up the situation with these words: "There is no democracy. There is no free press." That source remains a leading Member of Parliament.

The Mull of Kintyre, Machrihanish, was the location of the 1994 helicopter crash—alleged to have been an accident—that killed a fistful of high-ranking Military, Intelligence, Special Branch and Police officers. Officially said to be over-flying the Mull of Kintyre en route to Aberdeen, the chopper's destination was ACTUALLY the Machrihanish Special Forces base, HOME OF THE US SEALS. Never satisfactorily answered was why so many important officers flouted standing orders by traveling together. All the deceased were IRA anti-terrorist specialists. Within a year, the much touted US-sponsored "IRA Peace Process" was announced. A Special Forces source told me a week after the "accident" that there was something about the crash that didn't stack up.

Does anyone STILL wonder why Rev. Farrakhan is not allowed to receive monies in any form from Qadhafi? Come on, world citizens—WAKE UP—for the blood you are about to spill will be, undoubtedly, your own. It is really sad when the source of this type of comprehensive coverage has to be located somewhere other than the USA and information flow back in from another half the world distant. May the force be with you because "IT" sure is tired of the way it's going. You citizens just slop up everything and anything the elite buzzards leave as carrion left-overs. Wow, doesn't your tummy hurt yet?

Well, we'll move on to the O.J. Simpson LYNCHING and perhaps you will be better able to adjust your microscopes.

Thank you, scribe, for a long day.

3/11/97 DR. AL OVERHOLT

"I know no safe depository of the ultimate powers of the society but the people themselves: and if we think them not enlightened enough to exercise their control with a wholesome discretion, the remedy is not to take it from them, but to inform (them)."

—Thomas Jefferson, Author of the Declaration of Independence, Co-Author of the U.S. Constitution.

What a refreshing way to look at the solution to our problems and yet several hundred years old. When will we ever learn??

LOW GRAIN SUPPLY KEEPS WORLD ON EDGE: THINK TANK

From the INTERNET, by Charles Abbott, 3/6/97, [quoting:]

The world will be "living close to the edge at least through the 1997 harvest" because of small grain stockpiles and ever-growing demand for food, think tank chief Lester Brown said in a pessimistic look at food security.

Farmers harvested record grain crops—about 1.846 billion metric tons—in 1996/97 but little of it will remain as a cushion against crop shortfalls or price shocks, Brown said in a Worldwatch Institute "briefing paper" to be released Thursday.

There will be about 55 days worth of grain on hand when this year's crops are ready for harvest, little better than the 51 days on hand one year earlier, Brown calculated.

"The inability to rebuild depleted stocks to a more secure level from the 1996 harvest has left the world living close to the edge—at least through the 1997 harvest," Brown wrote.

A number of other analysts have been more optimistic. They project an upturn in grain and oilseeds this year as well as a further padding of stockpiles.

"The world's pretty resilient," said James Rude, an analyst with the Food and Agricultural Policy Research Institute at Iowa State University. Supplies will be tighter in coming years than in the 1980s and prices will be somewhat more volatile, he said, but the situation would not be drastic.

Replenishing stockpiles "will not be easy, certainly not something we can automatically assume," Brown wrote.

"A harvest of 1.921 billion tons would be needed this year," he said, "if the goal was to create immediately a stockpile equal to 70 days' grain use. A 70-day stockpile would ensure stable prices and orderly supplies," he said.

"Rebuilding the world's grain stockpiles will be difficult," Brown said, "because of annual population growth of 80 million people, Asia's demand for meat, encroachment of cities onto rural land, and urban demand for water now used for irrigation."

For years, Brown has warned of perils in the world food supply. He says, "critics do not recognize forces impinging on output." They say Brown does not account for the powerful effect economics has, both in spurring farm production and controlling food consumption.

"If the price of corn gets to $5 a bushel, the world will be awash in corn," said consultant Bill Lesher.

Last week, the U.S. Agriculture Department said a recovery in global grain sowings was expected in 1997-2005 thanks to "firmer prices and supportive policies". Continued improvement in yields also was anticipated. FAPRI projected the global stockpile of wheat, feed

(coarse) grains and rice would grow by more than 13 million tons during 1997/98. [End quoting]

The trouble with putting confidence in any harvest predictions, especially in these times of man-controlled weather and biological warfare, is that the Elite can wipe out crops at any time and place they desire.

AN OPEN CONGRESSIONAL (OR UN, ETC.) MEETING WITH FIRST-HAND UFO (ETC.) WITNESSES!

From the INTERNET, 3/7/97, [quoting:]

Given the illegal and extra-constitutional nature of current covert projects dealing with these issues, CSETI maintains that government and government contractor witnesses to UFO programs and events have a constitutional obligation to come forward with information on this subject, and are encouraged to do so.

CSETI will be convening a closed meeting of such witnesses in the early spring of 1997, and will be asking members of Congress to hold open hearings where these witnesses may testify.

Since the current covert management of this issue constitutes a grave and growing threat to the national security of the United States, CSETI is asking that these hearings take place by this summer.

Any government employee or government contract UFO witnesses who would like to cooperate with this initiative should contact CSETI's International Director Steven M. Greer M.D. as soon as possible. CSETI has determined that assembling numerous such witnesses in a coalition, to come forward in unison, is the safest and most credible way to move this subject to public disclosure.

These prospective witnesses should contact Dr. Greer at:

Tel: 704-274-5671 or Fax: 704-274-6766, e-mail: <103275.1472@compuserve.com> or write to: CSETI, PO Box 15401, Asheville, NC 28813

GRAND JURIES

Excerpted from SALMON RAPPER newsletter, February 1997, [quoting:]

"The very purpose of the requirement that a man be indicted by grand jury is to limit his jeopardy to offenses charged by a group of his fellow citizens acting independently of either prosecuting attorney or judge." —Stirone v. United States, 361 U.S. 218

"The grand jury is designed as a means, not only of bringing to trial persons accused of public offenses upon just grounds, but also a means of protecting the citizen against unfounded accusations, whether it comes from government, or be prompted by partisan passion or private enmity." —Ex parte Bain, 121 U.S. 1, 11 [End quoting]

Do you ever hear much news or talk about a grand jury anymore? Very rarely do I hear anything. Why do you suppose this is kept so quiet??

NEW BOOK CLAIMS BSE EXISTS IN U.S.

Excerpted from a FAX, 3/9/97, [quoting:]

A new book will be released this week in which the author, Dr. Richard Rhodes, claims that "A native strain of BSE has been in the U.S. for decades and could spread to infect Americans who eat beef if the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) does not strictly enforce a ban on feeding processed ruminant waste to cattle," according to a report in the weekly letter from the National Milk Producers Federation.

Since the mid-1980s, USDA has been tracking neurological disease in U.S. cattle and has found no BSE.

The book, titled Deadly Feasts, will be heavily promoted, according to the NMPF.

Dr. Rhodes is scheduled to appear on Dateline NBC on March 11, and the Today Show and Extra Magazine on March 12.

Between March 12 and March 27, according to the NMPF, Dr. Rhodes will conduct a nine-city media tour.

In late February, the National Cattlemen's Beef Association (NCBA) noted that anticipating the issue, planning a response and taking early action were the keys in preventing BSE from causing a consumer scare in the U.S. and in minimizing risk of the disease entering this country.

"We've had BSE on our issues radar screen since 1986," said Dr. Gary Weber, NCBA's Director of Regulatory Affairs. "USDA and the Centers for Disease Control designed the U.S. BSE surveillance program in 1986. It's viewed as the most intensive in the world and, to date, after evaluating over 5,000 cattle brain samples, no evidence of BSE or any similar disease has been found." [End quoting]

Beware!! You can't trust anything the government says today and especially anything they say about diseases of any kind since they are the ones trying to depopulate the U.S. and world by any means they can find, to do it fast and without arousing your suspicions.

CLONES OF YOUR OWN: A COTTAGE INDUSTRY ARISES

Excerpted from THE DAILY NEWS, Los Angeles, 3/9/97, [quoting:]

.....But what will happen to the ordinary, flawed, old-fashioned human being who arrived in the traditional way?

"Well, what happened to the flat-headed swamp crowdad? And the three-toed squiggle toad?"

You mean, extinct?

"I'm afraid it is bound to happen. It is the nature of Americans to want the new and improved model of everything. There is no such thing as brand loyalty anymore. Out with the old, in with the new. Especially when you can order it for overnight delivery."

I doubt very much that any American president would permit something like that to happen.

"Ah, but what about a perfectly packaged cloned president?"

Could that actually happen?

"You mean again?" [emphasis mine] [End quoting]

Looks like author Mike Royko knows the truth of the matter about some of our presidents.

CHEATING CHARGED

From THE MODESTO BEE, 2/4/97, [quoting:]

The nation's largest book distributor cheated schools and libraries across the country of up to $200 million by overcharging for discount books, the U.S. attorney general's office said Monday. More than 90 percent of the nation's libraries buy some or all of their books from the firm, Baker & Taylor Inc. owned by The

Carlyle Group. [End quoting]

Do you suppose they might get fined about $1,000? Knowing how their game is played, they may not even get fined anything. A hefty political contribution would be in order, however.

GREENHOAX

Excerpted from ACTION newspaper, [quoting:]

We have snow on the Snowy Mountains in January here in the Southern Hemisphere summer. In the Northern Hemisphere the winter freeze kills hundreds. They die trapped in cars suddenly immobilized. The poor die in unheated huts and homes. The fights over gas and fuel to keep alive if not warm almost leads to war and insurrection.

All is quiet on the news front. Nobody mentions the Global Warming, the Greenhouse/Greenhoax effect. The icecaps aren't melting. The seas aren't rising. The computer modellers/muddlers sit silent with egg on their face, but what of the big picture?

The international marketeers made a killing forcing millions of businesses to replace perfectly serviceable refrigeration equipment. Hair spray companies were forced out of business for using the wrong propellants. The motor manufacturers sold their bunkum antipollution equipment to make family cars so complex they could not be maintained or repaired by anyone without the mumbo-jumbo box.

Nobody will admit they were talking nonsense. The professors, lecturers and current affairs programmers wait their next load of mushroom medicine. The world wiremen cannot wait to feed the next tirade of tripe down the line. The politicians grovel for a new load of bull, so they show their concern and curry favour with the half-wit greenies just to get a few votes.

We have had the coming Ice Age, global warming, the world oil shortage/energy crisis, the great coffee bean shortage, etc. Beware! The next crisis might be the onset or re-emergence of common sense across the world. [End quoting]

Amen!!

INVENTIVE N.Y. TEEN WINS SCIENCE TALENT SEARCH

Excerpted from THE DAILY NEWS, Los Angeles, 3/9/97, [quoting:]

Adam Ezra Cohen, 18, on Monday was named winner of the 56th Westinghouse Science Talent Search for developing a technique that encodes info on a microchip 16 times as dense as the current method.

The senior at New York City's Hunter College High School whipped almost 1,600 other seniors nationwide to win a $40,000 scholarship. His technique, which he calls "near-field photolithography," prints 50 words on a surface the width of a human hair.

Cohen, who set up a lab in his bedroom, has 152 inventions—including a windshield with elastic springs that gives on impact—but has no patents. He said he started his winner with "a few really simple experiments (then)...just sort of followed down this tree of possibilities...whatever looked coolest—until I ended up with this."

He's been accepted by Harvard and awaits word from MIT. [End quoting]

We have a large number of bright students in our schools; I just hope we give them the opportunity to put their talents to use in bettering this world instead of designing war machines and weapons as in the past.

SOME ABORTION DOCTORS MAY FACE HOMICIDE CHARGES

Excerpted from THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, 1/12/97, [quoting:]

South Carolina will be the first state in the nation to bring homicide charges against doctors who perform some late-term abortions, the state attorney general has promised. Republican Charlie Condon, relying on the state Supreme Court's ruling in July that a viable fetus is a person, said Friday that doctors could face up to life in prison for performing "partial-birth" abortions. A similar attempt to make partial-birth abortions a felony in Ohio was blocked by a federal judge. [End quoting]

At least it's a small "break in the dam" to stop the murdering of babies.

PROPOSAL TO REVAMP CPI WOULD BE GOOD PUBLIC POLICY

Excerpted from THE DAILY NEWS, Los Angeles, 3/7/97, [quoting:]

Few issues have as much MEGO (My Eyes Glaze Over) power as questions about the accuracy of government statistics. For informed public discussion, however, understanding such issues can be crucial to evaluating public policies.

That is clearly the case with current proposals to change the Consumer Price Index, triggered by the Consumer Price Index Revision Commission report that the CPI overstates inflation and the search for a politically workable balanced 2002 budget deal.

Proposing a CPI fix hardly seems like edge-of-your-seat news. But the CPI is an important policy variable. It is used to index Social Security, military and civil service retirement benefits, income tax brackets, some labor contracts, etc., to offset the effects of inflation.

However, the CPI overstates inflation by undercounting quality improvements and people's ability to purchase different products as relative prices change, as well as the effects of new products and new distribution channels (such as outlet stores).

The CPI Revision Commission estimates that these well-known (to economists) biases cause the CPI to overstate inflation by a "best estimate" of 1.1 percentage points per year.

Fixing this error in the CPI would generate some very good fiscal news for the government. In particular, it would make controlling entitlement spending and lowering future budget deficits far easier. [emphasis mine] [End quoting]

The last paragraph says it all. When did you ever hear the government tell you the truth when they wanted more tax money. This is just a sly way to raise taxes on everybody and let them say that they haven't raised your taxes.

Figures don't lie, but politicians that use figures can make them say anything they want them to say. I defy anybody to prove that the average family is better off today than 10 years ago comparing hours worked for the amount of goods and services received. The family, in some cases, may be better off, but usually it's because more hours of the family are given over to working to pay for those same goods and services.

The day is long gone when you could believe politicians when they want to get more money from your pockets, and this last election of the gangsters to office should be all the proof you should ever need!!

This tax hike is going to affect everyone since most paychecks are either directly or indirectly tied to this number, except possibly the very wealthy whose incomes go up no matter what happens to yours. Some think it will only affect the pensioners, Social Security receivers, etc.—these will soon have a sad awakening when they find their paychecks don't buy as much as they did.

PAROLE BOARD LOCKS FELONS OUT OF ACCESS TO INTERNET

From the INTERNET, 1/6/97, <<http://www.vom.com/rc/home.htm>>, [quoting:]

So you think guns, drugs and alcohol are dangerous? Have you looked at the Internet lately? The U.S. Parole Commission has, and it was so disturbed by the amount of information about child sex rings, recipes for explosives and plans for hate crimes that last month, without holding any public hearings, it approved restrictions on the use of computers by certain federal parolees.

The new restrictions, which parole officers can put into use as they see fit immediately, will range from prohibiting offenders from owning a computer to installing monitoring equipment on their computers that will keep tabs on where they roam on line. [End quoting]

When did the Feds ever really successfully stop crime? So please tell me how we can expect them to clean up anything, except if they have some selfish, greedy purpose to gain for themselves. The more responsibility we turn over to them the more they like it and the more we tighten the noose around our own necks.

Lazy people who want some other person to do it for them will never have freedom!!

WE CAN'T HAVE FREEDOM AND HAVE FEDS DOING THE POLICING. WILL WE EVER WAKE UP TO OUR OWN RESPONSIBILITIES??

HIGH-TECH MILITARY GADGETS NOW TAKE AIM AT CRIMINALS

From the INTERNET, <<http://www.vom.com/rc/home.htm>>, 1/11/97, [quoting:]

Seconds after gunshots broke the relative quiet of a Dallas neighborhood, a police cruiser was on its way not just to the area, but to the precise spot where the gun was fired, give or take a few feet.

The incident occurred during a federally financed test of a device known as SECURES (System for Effective Control of Urban Environment Security), which is being touted by a defense contractor.

In addition, Defense Department planners and contractors, concerned with post-Cold War demands on the military, are already talking about new "urban terrain" warfare technologies that may have profound impact on police efforts to deal with bad guys a few years from now.

Taken together, the military technologies already being modified for civilian use range from far-out to mundane:

- * Improved bullet-resistant vests.
- * Ways to safely disable automobiles in police pursuits.
- * Facial recognition computer software.
- * New bomb detectors.
- * Robots the size of ants that may be deployed by the thousands to monitor what's happening inside a building that is of interest to military or police personnel.
- * Tiny helicopters or other craft that would incorporate the flight physics of hummingbirds might hover outside the windows of a downtown building or locate people through walls with heat sensing devices. [End quoting]

I bet our minds could go wild imagining to what devious uses the government control freaks have put some of these goodies.

THE SUPREME COURT

From THE NEW FEDERALIST, 1/27/97, letters to the editor, [quoting:]

According to the letters of James Madison, the proposition that the judiciary would pass on the constitutionality of legislation was proposed five times in the Constitutional Convention and for the fifth time was turned down on August 15, 1787.

Nowhere in the U.S. Constitution does it give the right to the U.S. Supreme Court to determine what law is or is not constitutional. Only "we the people" have that right. Here is the proof:

The charge to the jury in the first jury trial before the U.S. Supreme Court illustrates the true power of the jury. In the February term of 1794, the Supreme Court conducted a jury trial in the case of the State of Georgia vs. Brantsford, et al. 3 Dall said: "...[I]t is presumed that juries are the best judges of facts; it is, on the other hand presumed that the courts are the best judges of law. But still both objects are within your power of decision...you have a right to take upon yourselves to judge of both, and to determine the law as well as the fact in controversy."

That same truth—that juries can decide both the fact and the law in a case before them—was strongly upheld in at least two other court decisions (here cites are given from 1972 and 1969—ed).

Also, the following judges support this truth that juries can determine the law.

"The jury has the right to determine both the law and the facts" (Chief Justice John Jay, 1794).

"The jury has the power to bring in a verdict in the teeth of both law and facts" (Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes, 1920).

It is time we the people, as jurors, "nullified" laws that are patently "unconstitutional".

Why didn't you learn about this in school? The U.S. Supreme Court exceeded its authority by claiming the right to declare what law is or is not unconstitutional. It is time "we the people" put them in their place by "nullifying" unconstitutional decisions handed down by a power-hungry U.S. Supreme Court.

...The so-called legal profession is destroying our country, our freedom, and purposely making laws so complicated that they themselves can't even agree on anything. The average citizen has more sense. It is time that we, the people, impeach most judges, defeat any politician who is a lawyer, and as jurors protect our rights under the Constitution.

If you were never taught any of the information I cite, nor studied the Constitution in school, it is because the money powers who determine what books you learn from, or exactly what you are taught, want to enslave you under a One World government that will be a Socialist dictatorship. Hence you are brainwashed in school in favor of interdependence worldwide, instead of "independence". Isn't it time we stopped foreign aid, stopped being involved in foreign problems, as George Washington advised, and put America first instead of last? —Thomas W. Lippitt, Rinard Mills, Ohio [End quoting]

It's time to wake up and take command of our government by enforcing our CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS.

WHAT THE NWO HAS IN MIND WILL MAKE FASCISM AND COMMUNISM SEEM LIKE KINDERGARTEN CLASS

From the INTERNET, 2/21/97, <<http://www.vom.com/rc/home.htm>>, [quoting:]

I read your e-mail. Interesting. I am certain there is someone who is doing clandestine mind control. Based on what I have been able to find out the only one that can do this sort of thing is the government and possibly, organized crime.

The reason I know, is, I have been the recipient of this mind control technology.

I have also had some contact with the "agents" who are involved in this and have had some of what they did to me verified by them.

I have also been given information I could not possibly know via mind control which uses technology similar to this.

There has been much discussion of "Microwave Hearing" phenomenon on the net. I was intrigued by this and have done some research. It turns out that microwave hearing does indeed exist. There is a fair-sized body of research available on the subject. This is one of the more complete reviews of the subject. The entire article is long, and I am not going to post it all.

But I will review it.

The name of the Article is: Auditory Perception of Radio-Frequency Electromagnetic Fields

It appeared in: from The Journal of Acoustical Society of America 1982 pages 1321-1334.

It was written by: Chung-Kwang Chou and Arthur W. Guy. The above authors were Ph.D. Researchers at the University of Washington as of the publication date of this article.

This research was funded by: Office of Naval Intelligence, National Institute of Handicapped Research, and Department of Education with a special thanks to Richard M. White of University of California, Berkeley.

INTRODUCTION

Pulsed microwaves have been heard as sound by radar operators since radar was invented during World War II.

The earliest report we have found on the auditory perception of pulsed micro-wave appeared in 1956 as an advertisement of the Airborne Instruments Lab in Proceedings of the IRE. The advertisement described observations made in 1947 on the hearing of sounds that occurred at the repetition rate of a radar while the listener stood close to a horn antenna. When the observers first told their coworkers in the Lab of their hearing experiences, they encountered skepticism and RATHER POINTED QUESTIONS ABOUT THEIR MENTAL HEALTH. (emphasis this author).

POWER LEVELS AND FREQUENCY RANGE

At very low frequency range (1MHz) a human-size biological object absorbs very little radio-frequency energy; however, the absorption can be appreciable at the resonant frequency near 70-80 MHz (where the long dimension of the body is approximately 0.4 wavelengths) (Durney et al., 1978). For a human head, the resonant frequency is near 600 Mhz....Although there is universal agreement on the thermal effects of the highlevel (100 milliWatts/centimeter squared) radio-frequency electromagnetic radiation, there is considerable debate on the biological effects of low-level (100mWatts/cm<sup>2</sup>) electromagnetic radiation.

The thresholds (for hearing, ed.) of average power density of fields at the head were determined to be 0.4 and 2mW/cm<sup>2</sup>, respectively for the two transmitters.

In another experiment they used a 2450MHz pulse generator with pulses in the 0.5 to 32 microsecond width. The generator produced peak power of 10kw. Calculations indicated that the maximum amount of absorbed energy was 16 microJOULES/gram. (They are talking microjoules per gram now instead of milliwatts per cm squared. They use microjoules when they talk of absorbed energy and milliwatts when talking about radiated wattage. The two are related of course, but the energy absorbed depends on the makeup of the human head, whereas the energy radiated is dependent on the transmission power).

In another experiment they used 5 to 15 microsecond pulses at 3 Ghz frequency.

DISCUSSION

The microwave-induced auditory phenomenon is an example of a microwave-biological interaction that has been WELL QUANTIFIED and has been WIDELY ACCEPTED (emphasis this author) as a bonafide "weak-field" effect. Although originally the hypothesis of a direct nervous system stimulation was proposed, the evidence is now strongly convincing that the hearing phenomenon is related thermoelastically induced mechanical vibration. The same type of vibration can be produced by other means, e.g. by a laser pulse, or by activating a piezoelectric crystal in contact with the skull (Himm, implants? ed.).

The paper ends with about a page of references to other works, one of which is Frey's paper published in 1963.

So there you have it folks, Microwave hearing is fact, not fiction. [End quoting]

Hopefully, we all can begin to understand how the HAARP system and the local microwave towers—planted approximately every 50 miles around our country—and other means can be used for programming us on an unconscious level.

SCIENTISTS FIND GROWING PROOF OF PLANT-SPEAK

A Tobacco Plant Threatened By Disease Warns Neighbors To Watch Out For Germs

Excerpted from THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, 2/20/97, [quoting:]

A tobacco plant under attack from a virus gives off a chemical vapor that warns its neighbors, "Look out for the germs!"

Researchers said the finding is the first demonstration that plants can send an airborne warning about disease to other plants. Scientists have known for some time that plants can put out such signals about insects.

In lab experiments, tobacco plants gave off a vapor when attacked by a virus. When healthy tobacco plants were exposed to that vapor, they rallied their anti-virus defenses.

Other crops may communicate in the same way, said researcher Ilya Raskin of Rutgers University. But he said it must be proved that this signaling system works outdoors.

The research might lead to new pesticides, Raskin said.

There's already evidence that trees can warn each other about insect invasions by airborne means. And scientists have identified an airborne chemical signal that sage plants send when chewed by insects; tomato plants respond to the signal by making themselves unpalatable to insect marauders.

Raskin and colleagues presented the work in today's issue of Nature. [End quoting]

Many years ago Cleave Backster did research with plants whereby the plants could pick out guilty parties who put out thought waves of murder or injury to others or even to other plants. He used the plants as truth detectors.

WORDS OF WISDOM FROM H. JACKSON BROWN'S MOTHER

Excerpted from BOTTOM LINE PERSONAL, 8/15/96, [quoting:]

Over the years I've saved the letters from my mother. What I cherished most were the postscripts she would write at the end of each one, such as...

* Promise only what you can deliver. Then deliver more than you promised.

* Praise is satisfying to receive, but it never teaches you anything new.

* Don't be afraid to go out on a limb. That's where the fruit is.

* You can consider yourself a good manager when you get superior work from average people.

* It is my observation that too many of us are spending money we haven't earned...to buy things we don't need...to impress people we don't like. [An excellent definition for too many Americans.]

* Everyone you meet knows something you don't know but need to know. Learn from them.

* You'll learn more about a road by traveling it than by consulting all the maps in the world.

* Almost all our unhappiness is the result of comparing ourselves with others.

* Be smarter than other people—just don't tell them so. [End quoting]

How much better the world would be if we all lived up to this advice.

World Context For Understanding Pine Gap, Australia Secret Base

3/12/97 #1 HATONN

We will be going into more on the O.J. Simpson matters within the next days because the Blacks are becoming more and more restless over the entire lynching of Simpson. However, life goes on in other places around the globe and since Libya is more connected than you might surmise at first glance, it involves associations with the Black communities and leadership of such as, say, Rev. Farrakhan.

However, we, long, long ago wrote about something which must be again brought to your attention, what with cloning now established and the E.T. farce about to land on you while Hale-Bopp is be-bopping around and about, and that was Pine Gap, Australia. This is where there is a MAJOR U.S. military experimental base located with all sorts of strange and unique things going on. I, therefore, choose to offer some information on that installation prior to speaking further on the Black circumstances.

The article offered here comes from The News Monitor, Australia, and they make a special notation: "Information contained in this Monitor has been carefully selected from sources believed reliable, but absolute accuracy can not be guaranteed."

We respect that stance and, just as have they at The News Monitor, we share this article, translated from French to English by Dr. Jean Francois Gille, of a writing of Lucien Cometta.

Now readers, as you go into this, KEEP IN MIND that anything you don't recognize in the skies are UFOs if you can't identify the object or objects. Also, remember that anything NOT TERRESTRIAL is extra-terrestrial—even God and Hosts—since they are not ROOTED in terra-firma (earth) substance. Remember that in reality God is of essence of Spirit substance and even though HE may well dwell within you, He is not represented in YOU as a physical substance other than essence. And further, you simply cannot count on governments giving you ACCURATE INFORMATION—ever! Especially in a world moving toward control by the Elite ONE WORLD ORDER, you must realize that YOU are the PAWN PUPPET while "they" OF THIS NEW WORLD ORDER represent, AND ARE, the puppet-masters.

PINE GAP BASE— WORLD CONTEXT

In order to understand the case of the Pine Gap US base (near Alice Springs, Australia) better, I feel compelled to give some explanations before-hand. I hope these explanations will help to increase the general awareness of the extraordinary importance that facility has for mankind as a whole.

The majority of people, all over the world, are not lingering in doubt as to whether [or not] Unidentified Flying Objects (UFOs) and Extra Terrestrials (ETs) are real. They know they are real. Here in early 1989, no one questions their existence. The case for UFOs aroused passions, controversies and grandstanding for many years. Some of it has not been quite rational. The matter being relatively settled, public opinions should cool down. It is with a serene and clear mind that we ought to be thinking of our future relationship with the peoples from space. However, the public mind is not at peace. It vaguely feels that the governments are hiding "something real big", and it wonders where our leaders are going to lead mankind.

During the process of research and study of UFOs, researchers who do not take the explanations of the scientific establishment at face value have discovered unsettling facts; these facts have started the lifting off [of] the lid of the cover-up. The value and prestige of their sources of information do not leave any doubt about the truthfulness of these reports; the main outlines are summarized below.

PINE GAP

The United States has three major bases in Australia. One is in South Australia (Nurranger, near Woomera, T.N.), another in New South Wales, and the third (and by far the largest) is located within about 230 km (143 miles) of the geographical center of the continent, not far to the west of Alice Springs (Northern Territory), at the foothills of the southern slopes of the MacDonnell Range. This base is completely underground, with barely visible entrances to the surface. This "Top Secret" base is entirely financed by the United States Government, and is officially known as the Joint Defense Space Research Facility (JDSRF). [H: To you who asked about the bases and "other" bases to identify these locations, I did so, but here is your confirmation so why don't you get a map and locate the areas.]

When the JDSRF was first initiated, its aim was scientific research for the supposed development of a space defence technology. It is now known that since its inception, its primary purpose was research into electromagnetic propulsion.

What exactly is Pine Gap? As strange as it may seem, even Australian Federal Parliament members do not know. Among the Cabinet members, only a small number of "initiates" have a vague idea of what this is all about. The only information source available to the public is the cross-checking done by private researchers such as Jimmy Guieu, following statements made by the United States or Australian magazines (always very short and terse paragraphs), and anything the locals may notice.

It is said that under Pine Gap is the deepest drilling hole in Australia—about 5 miles (more than 8,000 metres). Such a hole is likely used as an underground antenna able to recharge the batteries of submarines in the Pacific and Indian Ocean through Extremely Low Frequency (ELF) broadcasts. Such a gigantic antenna could be used to generate the gigantic stationary wave around the Earth.

[H: I ask that you be aware that this is so; however, the reason it is some 5 miles in depth is that all of the navigation and frequency crystals of universal (cosmic) use are under the crust surface some 6 miles in depth. This locating of the "antennas" allows a bounce-off use of the crystals located in various places around the globe and, yes indeed, are fully used by extraterrestrials.]

Some say that Pine Gap has an enormous nuclear generator to supply energy to a new type of transceiver. It seems, too, that there is a high-powered, high-voltage plasma accelerator which may be put to use to transmit electric current, or even to produce a "death-ray", or quite simply to feed a plasma gun. All this is not as incredible as it sounds; it is now known that the US base of West Cape, near Exmouth Gulf in Western Australia (Harold E. Holt USN Communication Station), has an older type of the transceiver used at Pine Gap which is used to send electric current to submerged US submarines who trail a wire antenna. It is known that electric currents transmitted in this way are referred to as plasmodynamic cells.

Several times, locals have seen WHITE DISKS about 30' in diameter in the process of being unloaded from large US cargo planes at the airports serving Pine Gap. Those disks had the USAF emblem on them. It seems likely that disks are assembled and based at Pine Gap. The number of disks seen at night leaves no doubt in anyone's mind. An amazing quantity of furniture has been delivered by plane from the United States. The locals also say that an enormous amount of food is stocked in warehouses of what could well be a true multi-leveled underground city.

On the other hand, Pine Gap is well known as one of the most important control centers for spy satellites which circle the globe. An article published in late 1973 claimed that the Pine Gap installation, along with its sister installation in Guam, were used to control the photographic missions of the large American satellites in orbit above the Earth.

Pine Gap has enormous computers which are connected to their American and Australian central counterparts, which collect all the information secured in these countries, not only about finance and technology, but on every aspect of the life of the average citizen. Those computers at Pine Gap are also evidently connected to similar mainframes in Guam, in Krugersdorp, South Africa, and at the Amundsen-Scott US base at the South Pole.

Let us say, incidentally, that the employees (more than 1200) of the US base in South Africa all claim to be members of the US consular mission in that country. It may be worthy of note that the Amundsen-Scott base at the South Pole is located on a sensitive magnetic spot of our planet, that it holds exactly the same assets as Pine Gap, and that all the information about most of the average citizens of Western Europe is stored there in memory banks tens of meters under the icepack.

A statement made by the Australian premier about 1987, assuring that "France must disappear from the Pacific, from the Kerguelen Ridge, and from Antarctica" sheds light on the importance of this polar base for the Anglo-Saxon world.

The most disquieting fact about Pine Gap may be that the employees working on the base, and especially those earmarked for duty on electromagnetic propulsion projects, have undergone brainwashing and even implantation of intracranial devices. Those employees have turned into unconditional slaves of their master, whoever he is. Rather scary, isn't it?

[H: Come on readers, that is already "old-hat" stuff even in the bases, underground quarters, and facilities all over the U.S., Canada, and parts everywhere else. If you encounter workers who know they work underground at, say, China Lake, etc., they will actually tell you that they have no notion what they DO and that it is a TOP SECRET.]

The true point of the brainwashing of those individual, along with the ruthless attempts to implement the cover-up of really advanced military technology, will become clear at the end of this article.

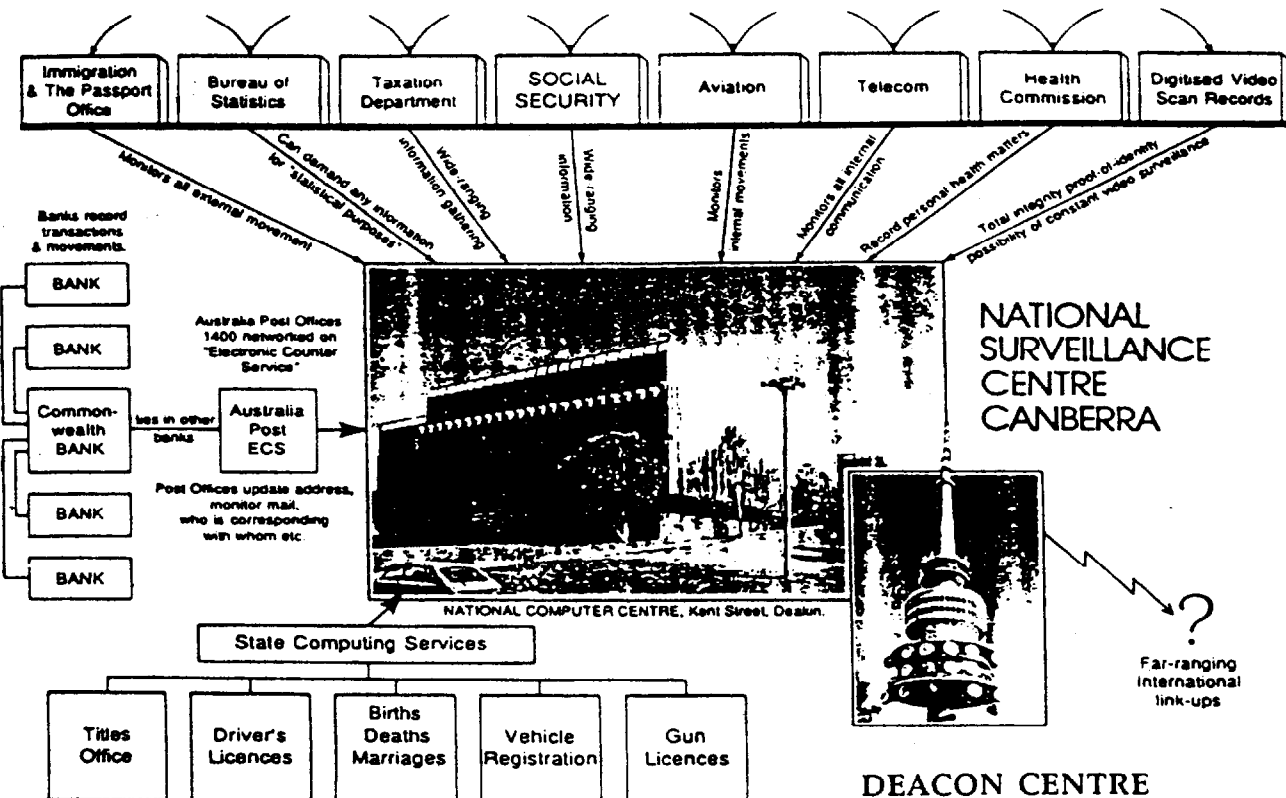

For me, it all began with the construction of the new Parliament Building in Canberra, which cost billions of dollars. Australia has only 18 million inhabitants, yet it apparently treated itself to a building far beyond its means... supposedly to accommodate its government, even if the old Parliament Building was perfectly fine.

This new building, enormous, immense and magnificent would easily fit the needs of the USSR or of the United States, which both have hundreds of millions of citizens to rule. That building puzzled me, and I started to talk about it until the day I bumped into an Englishman who told me that the Australian premier, Bob Hawke, was a Rhodes scholar, and as such he worked toward the setting up of a One World Government, and that this new Parliament Building likely had something to do with it.

Sometime after, I stumbled on a pamphlet published by the Human Rights Organization, which talked about a group of about a hundred people well-placed in high finance, politics, the judiciary branch and big business. This group was called the "CLUB OF ROME". According to this pamphlet, the CLUB OF ROME was pledged to a consortium which controls all international finance. A number of other groups similar to the CLUB OF ROME are equally pledged to that finance consortium, AND ARE INFILTRATING THE VARIOUS POLITICAL AND RELIGIOUS GROUPS WITH THE INTENTION TO MAKE PROGRESS TOWARD THE INSTITUTION OF A WORLD DICTATORSHIP.

[H: I ask, please, that the diagram of the hierarchy of this working organization in Australia be run in this paper. Please note that when you consider even Common Law, that it is basically a world "right" based on the same English rule. You are already FUNCTIONING as a ONE WORLD power under total control of the Puppet-Masters.]

The whole thing looked a little bit too preposterous to be true, it seemed to me. Nevertheless, a friend of mine gave me an audio cassette taped at a lecture given by Peter Sawyer, a former Australian civil servant, which exposed a certain number of facts he had noticed while in office. He talked, in particular, of a telephone exchange in Canberra called "Deacon Centre" [H: See diagram on this page.]. This exchange, built in concrete with 4-ft.-thick walls, cost hundreds of millions of dollars. It is outfitted with numerous computers, arrayed on four levels. When he tried to find out why such equipment was needed in a country of only 18 million, he discovered that those computers were connected to all the banks, to every post office, to all telephones, and to all of the police stations and customs houses; to every arrival and departure desk for air or sea travellers; and also and above all, to the other data centers collecting data on private citizens—in the United States as well as in Europe.

[H: With the Ekkers, for instance, a whole trunk line is now devoted to monitoring of their phones, FAXes, computers, etc. Fine, we don't have anything coming forth which we would not publish openly or, if they are asked about anything, be most happy to tell openly and fully. This is, yes, why the "downtime" while the phones are out of service. The "company" tried to do the work while Ekkers would be away on some regularly scheduled afternoon trips to the city so that they would not be discovered shutting off transmissions on those "Fridays". They THOUGHT you would be gone Monday and yesterday—wow, isn't this fun? What a bunch of bother "they" go to when all they have to do is ask and we will give them free access to the lines even within the house. Is this dumb or what? There simply is nothing hidden here; hasn't anyone discovered as much? Even with financial support it is not a "secret" nor even twinging on possible indiscretions. There is privacy to be considered as we move along for the protection of innocent people who wish to assist in projects—but no other clandestine or secret operations will ever come out of this place. And for you at such places as the CLC and CONTACT offices, yours (phones, etc.) have already been changed out. Some of you are also now on the Ekker trunk line so relax and enjoy the surveillance, for in that surveillance there also comes protection BECAUSE there is nothing to hide in these places. I remind you: what you sees is what you gets—from us.

Yes indeed, they are working on a way to intercept signals to Dharma's brain—and basically have worked it out nicely. She only complains that if the surveillance teams are already taking off the information—then confound it, save her the work and present it directly! At the least, she considers it rude and inappropriate to occasionally wipe out her whole computer program while tampering with the signals.

I, personally, use those hook-ins to get immediate and direct input to the surveillance teams to pass on upstairs to their Honchos [bosses].

We get on very well indeed; it is amusing that the silly goats are the flunkies of such as Green and Binder—who are NOTHING SAVE NUISANCES TO THE SYSTEM ATTENDING THIS SYSTEM OF MONITORING. DO YOU REALLY THINK, BROTHERS, THAT YOU AREN'T DISCOVERED OR KNOWN? WOW, WHAT SILLY GAMES THE NIT-WITS PLAY! I THINK MONITORS ARE A GOOD THING BECAUSE THEY CAN TRACE BACK THE IDIOT GAMES SUCH AS THE INTERNET GAME TO SET UP OUR INNOCENT PEOPLE.

May we always be appreciative of the limited security we are given in this game of "getcha" because what you surmise is coming down—isn't always bad in outcome!]

That facility on Deacon Street is therefore a Center where all the data pertaining to every citizen of the Western World ends up being stored. All financial, economic, political and military information, as well as the information on every inhabitant of those countries. As a matter of course, all people living in Australia are put on file, kept up with and labelled. [H: So, locals, relax and feel comforted by the knowing that you are totally watched, infiltrated and realize that the TRUTH is still the very best approach to every encounter and every circumstance for in so doing and in so acting—there is positive proof of no clandestine, subversion or intent to overthrow anything. If we can function within the systems, we will always do so. If not, then we won't function—period. Those who take up weapons of war are not welcome here. If something cannot be accomplished within the LAW—then it is not acceptable anyway. Do we understand one another? I certainly hope so for I weary of the silly and stupid games being played against us.]

Peter Sawyer discovered also that the president of the ROCKEFELLER FOUNDATION came for a lengthy stay in Australia to supervise in person the construction of 20 luxury residences in Canberra (the Australian government footed the bill), in the wonderful setting of a National Park, where, legally, nobody is allowed to build.

The investigations led by Sawyer exposed, first that the new Parliament Building is meant to accommodate the world government-to-be; and second, that the 20 luxury residences will be allocated to the different foreign members of that government... Why choose Canberra as the headquarters of the new world government? Simply because Australia is a peaceful country, with very few natives likely to turn rebellious and, above all, it's an English-speaking country. No other English-speaking country can offer the safety Australia will provide at the time of the taking over by the World Government. In America and Europe, uprisings are more than likely, and South America not only is not English-speaking, but its fondness for revolutions and social disturbances is well known.

Australia is thus the ideal place for such an undertaking. How is the advent of a World Government possible in the near future? It is relatively easy, as we will explain.

First, who are those "internationalists" who want to take over the planet? THE ONES WHO WANT TO SET UP A WORLD GOVERNMENT ARE 15 FAMILIES OR SO, WHO ALREADY GOVERN ALL OF THE INTERNATIONAL FINANCE AND KEEP A TIGHT LEASH ON MOST GOVERNMENTS THROUGH THE ABSOLUTE CONTROL OF THEIR FINANCES AND THEIR DOMESTIC ECONOMY. These finance moguls devised their plan after World War I, and have been working since on an insidious undermining process aimed at economic destabilization all over the West.

If those financiers are obviously labelled "capitalists", it is a very deceptive label, though, for, in fact, they have never stopped to pull the strings of the progressive parties. Their idea is logical, and lay, quite simply, in the destabilization of the countries of the West on the political, economic and religious levels. IT MAY BE SURPRISING TO SOME THAT THESE "INNOVATORS" HAD INFILTRATED THE TOP LEVELS OF THE MAIN RELIGIOUS ESTABLISHMENTS, ONLY A SMALL NUMBER OF YEARS WAS NEEDED TO MAKE THEM VIRTUALLY POWERLESS... [Were these establishments "bought out" through financial contributions? Ed.]

Economic destabilization is implemented through a slower but most efficient process. This process (already under way) will cause the entire financial system of the West to collapse. The people involved are the same people who cause the price of oil to go up and then, after convincing European neighbors to agree to these price rises, provide that the yield coming from the price rises will be paid to the "International Reserve Bank" (IRB), which is entirely at their command. The Reserve Bank hands the money over to a "holding bank" who lavishly loans the money to Third World countries for usurious rates of interest. [H: Please, Ekkers, realize that this is why so much is "on hold" until the systems of monitoring could be completed. Never mind it for I repeat that we are not even in competition with anyone or anything—we just want to build a few projects which will make it easier to pass through this time of hardship as the New World

Order falls into final place. Our task is to simply INFORM. Ekkers serve the information needs and will never have anything of potential value or income. It is too difficult to live in the world and also "have" anything. Liars and thieves abound at every turn, aided and abetted by ruthless and corrupt politicians and attorneys always threatening prison and poverty. But remember something: lawyers, judges, politicians, etc., ALSO HAVE TO HAVE FOOD TO FILL THEIR HUMAN BELLIES—EVEN AS THINGS OF ECONOMIC SYSTEMS DETERIORATE, AND MORE AND MORE GROWING FIELDS ARE DESTROYED, AND IRRIGATION SYSTEMS ARE DESTROYED BY WHATEVER MEANS WHICH COME ALONG. THAT IS ALL THAT WE ARE ABOUT AND WHAT EVERYONE ELSE OR ANY OTHER NATION DOES IS THEIR BUSINESS—WE HAVE NAUGHT TO HIDE EVEN FROM WHAT OTHERS WOULD CALL "OUR ENEMIES".]

The holding bank receives the interest paid by the underdeveloped countries, then puts it into another "holding bank" which, in turn, invests the huge quantity of money on behalf of the Arabs.

Those investments are made into thriving large businesses. In the meantime, only small interests are sent to Arab countries. Those who engineered the plan were perfectly aware that the leaders of the underdeveloped countries would be tempted to pocket a good part of the received money.

The IRB will then tell the Arab countries that the holding bank investments have turned out badly, all their assets had vanished and that no interest will be paid any more. The Arab countries will then have no choice but to put all the securities they own on the market, as well as quite an amount of property bought by the second holding bank. A good part of these possessions will then be frozen, because they will have been bought with the aid of not-entirely-repaid loans, and they will be part of the assets of the first holding bank, gone bankrupt. The incredible quantity of shares put on the market at the same time will cause a stock market crash of such magnitude that all the national economies of the West will collapse at the same time.

The planet will find itself in a desperate predicament. Cash will not be worth a damn, and the risks of a global confrontation (planned!) will be high.

ENTER PINE GAP

At this point, the usefulness of bases like Pine Gap will become obvious. If a Global confrontation is going to break out, those bases will serve as a place of safety for the politicians and their staff, as well as the international financiers, their family and friends.

If no confrontation breaks out, the financiers will adapt a "saintly" attitude AND OFFER SUBSTITUTION OF ALL CURRENCIES BY PLASTIC CARDS, ENSURING "TRUE EQUALITY" FOR ALL; THE ABOLITION OF ALL OWNERSHIP RIGHTS, and the setting up of a World Government that will "ensure peace".

The masses (consciousness as a group) will be convinced that it is necessary to ensure Peace and Social Justice by any means, including force. THE POTENTIAL ACHIEVED THROUGH THE EQUIP-MENT OF THE UNDERGROUND BASES WILL MAKE POSSIBLE THE DISAPPEARANCE, WITHOUT A TRACE, OF THOSE WHO DO NOT CONFORM AND THOSE WHO "HINDER THE HAPPINESS OF THE PEOPLE". Also, it will ensure the swift crushing of any possible uprising. IT MAY ALSO HAPPEN THAT OUR NEW "MASTERS" WILL END UP TELLING THE PEOPLE THAT WE [ARE] AT THE "EVE OF THE MILLENNIUM, A GOLDEN AGE..." IT WILL BE THE WORST DICTATORSHIP EVER KNOWN TO MANKIND.

IT IS QUITE CERTAIN THAT OTHER BASES HAVE BEEN BUILT IN THE UNITED STATES AND ELSEWHERE IN THE NORTHERN HEMISPHERE.

None of the above has anything to do with science fiction. All is true, and it certainly doesn't give a very rosy picture of the future.

"Judges can go crazy—indeed, many seem mad—but unless they are foaming at the mouth and tearing their robes into small pieces, they are permitted to send men to prison, to deny the helpless their just dues, and to interpret the law of the land." Famed attorney Gerry Spence.

[END OF QUOTING]

Now, why would I dredge up "old stuff"? Because it is now "new" stuff. Further, you need to have the updates and explanations about why some things are now happening to you even more seemingly atrocious than prior to now. It is the time of trying to stop the word and non-establishment news from reaching through. Well, readers, God said HE would make sure the truth reaches through and then, it is YOU who will do that which you will WITH IT.

We will hopefully offer some alternative peaceful ways to function within what IS. But beyond that, there will be no wars from this place or from our places in the cosmic realms. What is coming down is truly limited to the human aspect of physical environment wherein everybody has to live, eat and hopefully, find shelter. That is not my problem nor my demand. Take the information and toss it if you like or use in the birdcage. However, it is obvious from the restrictive and Admiralty courts now accomplished, that you have some big social and economic problems. We can offer information, but FORCING IT DOWN YOUR NECKS is not among our wishes nor alternatives.

It is known, recognized, that there will be major changes by the turn of the century, so what else is new? I may well not be accepted by you or the general hierarchy, but I AM WELL KNOWN, LISTED A-6 SECURITY, BEYOND "TOP SECRET" CATEGORY, BY THE ELITE WHO INTEND TO PULL OFF THIS MISERABLE FARCE AND FRAUD UPON YOU-THE-PEOPLE. SO BE IT AND MAY YOUR JOURNEY BE INTERESTING.

Desperate Antics To Incriminate Both Ekkers And CONTACT

3/11/97 #2 HATONN

The traitors and Green set-ups are doing everything in their power to shut down CONTACT under the claims that Ekkers are guilty of everything short of murder and deserve prison sentences and heavy sanctions or fines—BECAUSE DHARMA ACTUALLY WROTE ABOUT THE TRUTH OF GOD, based on materials supplied to the court by George Green and his band of criminals. Ekkers are NOT "CONTACT". They are not even longer the major contributors of writings for that paper.

Now it is claimed Ekkers and CONTACT have put the banned journals on the World Internet and "just connect into the system and you can download all nine banned journals". The address and phone system GIVEN ON THE INTERNET look like those of CONTACT. THIS IS PURELY FRAUD. Ekkers are not even website or Internet connected or informed enough of the how-tos to accomplish getting hooked in. CONTACT has neither funds nor inclination to have a hookup of any kind. It would be an expensive process to accomplish this copy feat and the evidence is going into the court today with a demand to investigate this matter for it is a blatant attempt to cause the Ekkers to be suspect.

No, this is entrapment and a major criminal offense, for the parties who have done this have named erroneous parties in an attempt to mislead and deceive. This would further move to malicious prosecution of innocent parties and it is time to stop this game of Green's right now. If it is not PERSONALLY Mr. Green's doing—it is his assigns and emissaries doing this outrageous attempt at discrediting these parties involved.

Are there no lengths to go too far for these preposterous misfits trying to gain wealth already STOLEN by Mr. Green? NO! And moreover, the culprits can be traced right back through one of the receivers' FAX system. It would have to be traced through the Illinois receiver because here locally it has been attempted but "blocked". Mrs. Russell Herman's equipment has enough data available to trace because dates and sender information is retained in the computer base. A subpoena, however, would have to be issued for tracing that information.

There has been an ability to reach through, on the web, to Timothy Binder's website information and it is possible that this is the source but it needs further substantiation from both the transmitter AND the user's equipment.

Not being Internet literate we can only offer what we can glean from the information offered, strangely enough, by a party pulling this off the net—in South Africa. The information reads: "World Wide Web site created by BINDER INTERNET, contact WEBMASTER". Then there is reference to: "Scientific Publications. University of Science and Philosophy, SCIENCE@POBOX.COM 1-800-882-LOVE (5683)".

What you will find if you can pull up this information is a bit mind-boggling as there is full revelation of the fact that Dr. Russell gained all his information from God, and yet, no other receiver can do the same except they be hounded and sued for the information.

So how is it that Dharma sits to her keyboard and writes on the topic of God in response to specific inquiries and is somehow guilty of CONTEMPT deserving prison time and massive ($100,000 requested) sanctions?

You who are on Internet or World Wide Web, see what you can find, for the FRAUD on the Ekkers and CONTACT gets ever bigger and bigger and bigger! Are not these outrageous claims presented to a Federal Judge even more fraudulent and intentional?

Are your courts not in SERIOUS trouble? When you reach a point wherein you cannot, from heart and mind, write your concept of God and Universe, from whatever source outside or within self—YOU ARE IN SERIOUS TROUBLE, CITIZENS OF THE WORLD. And further, HOW this can be construed as direct contempt against a SPECIFIC JUDGE, COYLE, IS SOMEWHAT BOGGLING TO THE SENSES. When inspiration or input from GOD is considered contempt of court—specifically the JUDGE of that court—and is worthy of imprisonment of innocent parties, you have really "come a long way baby(s)". No, I do NOT think GOD IS SITTING STILL FOR THIS ONE!

If THIS is contempt of court and plagiarism then EVERY PREACHER, PRIEST, RABBI, MINISTER, SHAMAN, MEDICINE MAN, TEACHER OF RELIGIOUS ASPECTS OF GOD AND SPIRITUALISM—IS GUILTY OF PLAGIARISM AND SHOULD BE EQUALLY TREATED UNDER THE LAW, SENT TO PRISON AND FINED HEFTILY, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO, GEORGE GREEN! The attorneys who knowingly have foisted this false case upon the court should likewise experience a bit of prison and be sanctioned very, very heavily for Fraud upon the Court. This case in point of US&P vs. Ekkers is fully contemptible in all aspects of charges and is a disgrace to your nation and to you, the citizens.

I want to leave that "case" now and move on to sharing some information that all of you CITIZENS should have. You are fed such garbage in the establishment press as to leave you without any ability to stand back and see what is REALLY taking place.

Some Legal Advice From Mrs. Russell E. Herrmann

3/10/97 MRS. RUSSELL E. HERRMANN

Mr. EJ and Doris Ekker
21521 Adam Drive
Tehachapi, CA 93561

Ref: Five (5) pages of solicitations from parties unknown, telecommunicated by wire, soliciting court ordered "Ban" or "Bar" on selling of the Phoenix Journals (affixed hereto).

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Ekker,

Last evening, commencing at 22:52 hours, March 9, 1997, and ending at 22:56 hours that date, five (5) pages of solicitations for court barred/banned sale of Phoenix Journals came through on my telecommunications equipment which, in our opinion, should be submitted immediately to the court governing the bar on the sale of said Phoenix Journals. This you must do, for serious breach of court order banning said sale has occurred.

The court should take notice of the following:

(1) These five (5) pages, at the top of said pages, have the date of 03/02/1997, which does not correspond with the date received stamped by this telefax evidenced on the bottom of said page (my receiving fax "G3" security receiver, sending fax signed).

(2) The type evidenced on said pages is not familiar type, as relating to prior communications between you and the two (2) of us, Mr. John Ray (my cousin), and myself, Mrs. Russell E. Herrmann-Herrman-Herman also known as Catherine and Grandma Herrman-Herman, writing under they byline of "Voice of the Old Guard".

(3) Probable entrapment is in process, which is a violation of 18 U.S.C. or commonly known to the court as Title 18, which is known as the criminal code. In brief, entrapment is defined as inducing of a person or persons to commit a crime not contemplated by him, for the purpose of instituting a criminal prosecution against him/her.

It matters not whether federal agents, agencies, employees, individuals and/or private individuals commit the inducing of entrapment.

(4) FCC Rules and Regulations as relating to mandatory fax headers, listing the sender's telephone/fax number have been violated, as no mandatory signature/identification is evidenced. Malicious intent to induce entrapment of yourselves, by others, by probable wire fraud and breach/violation of order of the court, by legal willfulness of others, is an outstanding probability. This would induce malicious prosecution of innocent parties.

(5) The court should be noticed per federal civil procedure and rules, per mandatory notice to the court, Rule 60 (b), of newly discovered evidence of probable fraud, including violations of Title 18 (18 U.S.C.), Sec. 1512: Obstruction of Justice.

(6) Obstruction of justice occurs when a victim or a witness, is prevented from presenting evidence to a U.S. District Court Judge relating to criminal activity in a case set before said U.S. District Court Judge.

For the record, I have taught Constitutional Law since 1957. Also, for the record, I am ex-law enforcement and an officer of the court.

Also, for the record, if needed, I can produce letters of reference from a city, chief of police, senator, etc. However, I am disabled and unable to travel long distances. Said letters evidence my loyalty, integrity, honesty and ability.

Other law enforcement engagement evidences F# 631:182:001, from which I have not been released. For the record, records of numbers will evidence: 631=s U.S.A., 182=s John Fitzgerald Kennedy, 001=s the White House. Due to the President's untimely demise, I "was never released from service," and in all probability, due to the confusion at the time of the President's death, my records were lost. In searching for my records, a call was made to U.S. House Ways & Means Committee Chairman, Andy Jacobs, whereupon I was told that my "records were in Langley, Virginia, and they were not recoverable." (1993, Rep. Jacobs' telephone equipment can be subpoenaed for verification.)

John Ray is retired from AT&T with many years of outstanding service, and enjoyment of an excellent reputation, which is above par.

Mr. and Mrs. Ekker, you are strongly encouraged to take these five (5) pages to the court, and request the court for a court investigation into this matter as defined in said five (5) pages, as Acts of Legal Wilfulness have and are occurring. Legal Wilfulness is defined as "intentional disregard of known duty necessary to safety of person or property of another and entire absence of care for life, person or property of others. (Bartolucci v. Falleti, 314 Ill. App. 551, 41 N.E. 2d 777, 780)"

I do not practice law, I teach law.

You are strongly encouraged to take these affixed regional pages, which conform in numbers 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5, conforming with the Federal Rules of Evidence, Rules, Sec. 1001 and Sec. 1002, to the court of proper jurisdiction over these matters in the case now at issue.

Also, it is strongly encouraged by myself (since somehow I have become involved due to encroachments of fraudulent intent upon my person, etc.), you should pursue addressing the issues to the court of proper jurisdiction of Title 18 (18 U.S.C.) of the RICO Statutes, Sec. 1961, et seq., for extortion exists.

The extortion exists in the framework of a design to deprive you of your property and your personalities (reputations), by others, who have a modus operandi (MO) already preestablished, and in all probability entered into said case now at issue.

We, Mr. Ray and myself, are not "willing participants", we do not know the parties involved. The materials came to us unsolicited. We are fully cognizant of the fact neither yourselves nor CONTACT has the financial wherewithall to set up a WWW, or more commonly known as World Wide Web, site.

The Honorable Court should, in my opinion, bring forth a court order, ordering an immediate investigation into the telephone and telephone equipment records of others involved in this case at issue. Telephone records and equipment should easily verify the offender.

I remain,

Sincerely,

University Of Science & Philosophy (US&P) Court Case

Article I Prophets

Early in 1993 I reviewed some biblical statements regarding Prophets for use by the attorneys to show to the court the correlation between Walter Russell, Doris Ekker (Dharma) and Bible Prophets in the reception of their inspirations from God. My purpose was to allow the Judge to make a judgement in the case, based, not on his own possible belief system, but between two parties who apparently believed the same in regards to their roles—roles which also were of ancient historical significance. Both Walter Russell and Doris Ekker have stated that their inspiration or information comes from God and is intended for the world. Both insist that the information given forth is not of their own knowledge, etc. Both are commanded to give the message to the world, and have tried to do so.

The ancient examples presented below were taken from the King James Version of the Bible with attached Concordance, Published by Oxford at Clarendon Press:

MEANING:

- Prophecy: (1) to speak by divine inspiration;
(2) to foretell;
(3) to explain religious subjects, to preach, to exhort.
- Prophet: The literal meaning of the Greek word

(to speak-forth) is a forth-teller, i.e., one who speaks forth the message which has been communicated to him through Divine inspiration, whether of practical duties or future events. The emphasis of the prophets' work lay in the former. The Hebrew words are:

(1) Nabi, from a verb meaning "to boil forth" as a fountain, hence, one who speaks freely from a full heart impelled by the inspiration of God;

(2) roeh., from a verb meaning "to see", hence a seer (I Samuel 9:10), one who saw Divine visions, Divine Truths, and spoke what he had seen from God.

A partial listing of prophets: Moses, Abraham, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Samuel, Daniel, Ezekial, Amos, Hosea, John the Baptist, John the Beloved (Book of Revelation), etc.

God's instructions to the prophets of the Old Testament were often prefaced with words such as, for example: "Son of man...utter a parable to the rebellious house, and say unto-them, Thus saith the Lord God... Woe to the bloody city... I the Lord have spoken it"....(Ezekial 24:1-14)

Or—"And the word of the Lord came unto Zechariah saying, Thus speaketh, the Lord of Hosts, saying execute true judgements and show mercy and compassion every man to his brother..." etc. (Zechariah 7:8 and 9)

Or—"Then the word of the Lord came to me saying, before I formed thee; and before thou comest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations. Then said I, oh, Lord God! Behold, I cannot speak for I am a child. But the Lord said unto me, Say not I am a child, for thou shall go to all that I shall send thee, and whatsoever I command thee thou shall speak...then the Lord put forth his hand and touched my mouth. And the Lord said unto me, Behold, I have put My words in thy mouth." (Jeremiah 1:4-9)

Or—"And it shall come to pass afterwards, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions; and also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit." (Joel 2:28 and 29)

I believe it will be obvious to any serious reader that not only is the practice of God in relation to His Prophets still very much the same today as in ancient times, but also the message of God to the people through the prophets is of a very similar nature, granting differences due to the increased use of the printing press, the increase in knowledge and in populations.

For a present day example where a second person, or several persons, have received information from the same heavenly Host (i.e., Hatonn, Sananda, Germain) I refer you to the book: Celestial Raise, compiled by Marcus, Published by A.S.S.K. Publishing, P.O. Box 35, Mt. Shasta, CA 96067. Therein you will find a variety of present day prophets and seers who have written about their own inspirations from these sources. There can be no monopoly on God's Word, or on the Hosts, and since the true authors of the words are not the receivers or translators, it would appear to me that there can never be a legitimate earthly copyright of the messages, for it is my understanding that copyright law states that the author is the only one who has a right to obtain a copyright or to transfer it.

WHY DON'T WE WRITE MORE ABOUT GOD AND HOSTS?

I can't because even when we write specific answers to questions, i.e., "Who is God" and "What is God?", Dharma ends up with threat of prison term and heavy fines—for contempt of court yet.

Not until the court matters are settled, and perhaps not even then, will Doris Ekker be free to put to paper the truth of God for it is considered copywork from scientific books of Walter Russell. And no, I cannot imagine how this relates either to Timothy Binder's science or to the University of Science and Philosophy. That, however, as Judge Coyle of the Federal Bench would quickly tell us, is not the issue in point. What is the issue in point? I don't know because what "they" say and what "they" claim are two very opposing things.

So I ask all of you to please understand our position here until this "thing" is settled for not answering personal or private questions and/or deviating far in "freelance" responses because those out-of-context writings regarding Light and God, etc., end up, of necessity, matching pretty much what others before have written when they truly write TRUTH about the subjects.

Well, it is what we must live with and within, so please bear with us while we don't respond to such pointed inquiries regarding God and Man.

CONTACT was started as a news-sheet and then a newspaper, separate and apart from myself so that the printed word would not be only a focus on myself. We are pleased that the Staff continues to print our input and that you continue to demand to have our writings—but CONTACT was set forth first as the Liberator to match the full extension of truth in happenings as offered in Civil War (US) times when there were no papers printing truth. You have again reached that same control of press and media as you then had. The Liberator was finally so hounded and assaulted that it had to close and merge with another small offering just to afford to go on—this after Green moved to Nevada, taking the assets and subscription funds and, unknown at the time, $350,000 in gold coins sent to make sure the paper could continue via loans and, hopefully, grants from the Phoenix Institute for Research & Education. No, in spite of what Green claimed about a non-profit tax-free Institute somehow being set up in California, THERE NEVER WAS SUCH A PLAN EVEN CONSIDERED—WE SHALL ALWAYS PAY OUR WAY FAIRLY AND SQUARELY, UNDER AND ACCORDING TO THE LAW. CONTACT IS A NEVADA CORPORATION AS WELL. Unfortunately there is nothing save debt now or ever prior to now and, with people stealing, i.e., Green, Ence, Cleary directly from the very corporation, Phoenix Institute, while they served as officers and directors, how would that status ever be able to change?

Since, however, documented evidence is what you REALLY want from the paper in point, we do very nicely simply offering you what is shared willingly with us which allows you to have information without the deadly assaults against my typist. Information within the U.S. is so structured and so difficult to find "in truth", as the oppression hits harder and harder we—the-people, that much information must flow from elsewhere on the globe and hopefully find its way into such papers as CONTACT, Spotlight, etc. Truth is better accepted from physical experiencers than from Hosts at any rate, since all of you simply wait and try to confirm what I offer. It is fine and in that way you grow and move into investigating your circumstances from Australian bases to our local courts and judicial systems and from O.J. Simpson's circumstances to the overall Black citizen's status as a whole. It does, however remain totally amazing at the lengths to which, and not to mention the expenses involved, to set up people in a scam/sham Internet intrigue yet, just to keep their terrible secrets of crimes and intent hidden. THIS would appear to me to be direct contempt of court orders since the parties in blame are also named on the documents issued to and by the court.

It would further appear, however, that the adversaries have overstepped their safety zone in this last escapade because many people are irate over the insidious lies and events presented. We shall see who will stand for truth and who will fold in the garden of FEAR.

I hope the CONTACT crew will realize the serious portent of what has lately been foisted off on the Internet public—because it will not fall, this time on Ekkers, other than as a fallout circumstance as it is realized, even by the Judge in the cases, that Ekkers have nothing with which to create a World Web Site nor do they know how to do same. They do not even have access to the equipment which would allow such transfer of anything. However, Green, Williams, Binder, et al., DO HAVE ACCESS AND, IN FACT, THERE IS A WORLD WIDE SITE-PAGE CREATED BY TIMOTHY BINDER FROM WHERE HIS OWN INFORMATION IS CARRIED TO AND RETRIEVED FROM SOUTH AFRICA AND WORLDWIDE.

"But," you continue to ask, "does their action mean that we can't live in freedom, even here in America?" Well, how many of YOU have had to stand in a Federal Court while a Federal Judge pronounces that he has already decided to punish you with jail and massive sanctions for contempt of his own ruling? This, without even the ability to have an attorney to stand with you to explain what is taking place in the foreign language system. No, Doris can hold God in her heart and keep her tongue stilled about it, but I can assure you that the REASON for the previous writings which are now claimed as "copywork" were to respond to financial people across the nation and across the world. There ARE goodly people across the globe but you simply are not allowed to connect with or find them.

There are some really important notations to be made here, however. Let's consider something quite strange, but questionable here. M. Gill just sent some beautiful hand-made "tops" to "Dharma"—but obviously Doris will have to wear them or they won't be "worn", will they? Is that theft of property? So, at this point Doris puts them away until she has permission to use them.

A couple of days ago Mark and Della brought, and left outside Doris' front door, a gift containing a wonderful flying pewter angel with crystal drop and halo. Is it copywork or use of something not personally handed and released into her hands as a gift—to hang it by her computer and look at it? It brings JOY but what does the LAW say about gifts? Does the accompanying card with message regarding the angel suffice for offering and then Doris accepting?

Then, in turn, does it not seem terribly contradictory to purchase a home study course from a "university" set forth as a teaching institution—and not even be able to utilize the information as presented—for self expression? Do not you and your children form ideas and accept possibilities from the SCHOOLS? Even more so, would a nutritionist or scientist or scholar be disallowed to speak of what they have been taught and learned from such "home study courses" which actually gift degrees upon the students? Are memories so limited as to be unable to express, even in the same words, the teachings of the professors, when questioned? Even a lawyer must spout what he has been taught or flunk the Bar. This is SERIOUS consideration, readers—very serious indeed. Even in the remarkable banking system, if you pay them rent (mortgage) on a house—you get to live in it! But, in this instance, even if you PURCHASE a study course—you are not able to utilize what might be offered within it. Or is it just that Mary Doe in Texas or Florida can use the information from her mind—but Doris Ekker cannot??? Do you REALLY think the Judge in point has any idea about all this? He must depend on officers of the court TO TELL HIM THE TRUTH—AND THEY HAVE OUTRIGHTLY AND OUTRAGEOUSLY LIED

If they tell you
it can't happen here because this is America,
remind them of what Johann Wolfgang
von Goethe said
circa 1800:
"None
are more hopelessly enslaved than those who falsely believe they are free."

TO HIM. THIS, IN MY OPINION, IS GROSS CONTEMPT AND KNOWING FRAUD UPON THE COURT!

Then, moreover, the case is sealed and no one can get factual information to THAT COURT, by demand of the original liars from the first go at the Judge.

I am quite serious when I suggest that Ekkers have a very good case against the lawyers Buchanan and Seymour of "contempt of the Judge" in this case AND ask the Judge to issue an order to show cause why this is not CRIMINAL CONTEMPT. At the least it would allow you to get evidence before the bench. Since, in addition, the documents in the case filing CAME FROM GREEN and came with collusion and KNOWING of the fraud, by Timothy Binder—are those not grounds for inclusion in the case itself? After all, it is most likely that the legal counsels were also deceived by the false and fraudulent documents given them for the case in point. We fear no investigations—do they???

We function under a rather unique and apparently unheard of position of "what you see is what you get"! Refreshing or foolish? Well, it doesn't matter because TRUTH serves us well into infinity while the lies WILL CATCH THE THIEVES.

Just always remember: these assaults by such as Binder and Green are full recognition of the fact that it is not desired that YOU learn truth about God and the connections with SELF. That too is exactly "how it is" and therefore within that recognition do we accept the reality of same. And no, the Judge is not "bad"—the Judge doesn't even KNOW what is going on. No, I do not know how to get him informed of the truth of the ongoing trashing—but truth eventually comes forth even if temporarily buried by cover-ups. I believe the man to be a wise person who certainly can realize "something" is sorely wrong with the US&P presentation. We can simply pray for insight and right actions.

I cannot believe that the man in point wishes this to become a public "cause" just to rule with buddies of the Bar. There is still some justice and goodness resting in many of these Judges sitting upon the Benches of your land. And moreover, do you really think the taxpayers will continually sit still for the corruption of the judicial system by having to appoint Ekkers a lawyer along with providing the District Attorney's offices and spending years in further litigation? This is absurd even on the face of such accusations and demands to this court from those counsels KNOWING THAT THEY FOIST OFF FALSE AND ERRONEOUS INFORMATION ONTO THE JUDGE AND COURT. IT WILL BE EVEN MORE OBVIOUS IF BROUGHT BEFORE A JURY OF TAXPAYERS. I mean, how much damage can two retired 65-year-old people do to this nation and the world, talking about God?

Doris Ekker, who is accused of leading a "cult", is even amused. A cult of one? Not very successful, I would guess! George Green had already been recognized as a "cult leader" with a "following" by the very groups he inhabits, i.e., patriots, UFO groupies, etc. Is there something WRONG with this picture?

Green even told the world through radio and television that he was a "gold" expert, owned a bank, is a multimillionaire financier, a "development" expert, creates the "illusion of money" and on and on and on. He stated that Hatonn went with him when he moved to Nevada—then Montana—then Idaho, etc. Well, then I am curious why he continues to quote from the Church of Scientology, The Prophet Group in Montana, and DUGGAH, whoever in tarnation that might be? Their business thrust is toward total "conspiracy" topics and other usurped works of authors on topics for which we are brought to the court and prison is demanded. Green provides and distributes the works of Walter Russell as his own inventory. By the way, he never stopped selling any of the Journals ordered secured by the Nevada court which he had in holding, or the titles banned for distribution by the Federal Court in Fresno, California.

Doris has none of her works, my writings, OR

WALTER RUSSELL'S, as relates to anything of which she is accused of using. Again, is there something WRONG with this picture? Oh well, the strings get shorter and shorter in the uncovering of TRUTH in these instances for, after all, is not a decade of ongoing litigation quite enough already? WHO, by the way, do you suppose is paying the lawyers of these adversarial teams at suit? The bottom has been established HERE so we will simply have to go it on our own which does require that the Judges be a bit patient while we learn to follow the rules correctly so that we do not take up the court's busy time schedules. If the Judge will appoint legal counsel, as Ekkers have asked, it will be much the more appropriate in the modern courts because the rules are too many and too difficult to follow by you-the-people in pro per (which means a lawyer representing himself). A "person" as in "proper person" indicates a corporation or like entity. A Citizen in Party defines a citizen representing self. My, my, aren't the

"catches" abundant? It is like playing a game while the opponent has secret rules which only HE HOLDS AND KNOWS. AND THAT, READERS, IS THE PURPOSE OF A TICKET, OR CARD, WHICH ALLOWS YOU TO BELONG TO THE "BAR" CLUB. It has everything to do with THE CLUB and nothing to do with law or justice. The American Bar Association is a PRIVATE CORPORATION and has nothing to do with accreditation by anything other than that Bar Association. Do you realize that even the word "Association", as used in American Bar "Association", is simply another word used by incorporation regulations as in "company", Ltd., Corporation, Inc., etc? It is absolutely NO DIFFERENT than, for instance, Santa Barbara Savings and Loan Association—indicating a private corporation.

Good morning.

3/14/97 HATONN

FOREWORD*THOUGHTS ON LIFE AND DEATH

There was a note to greet us this morning which read similarly to: "Foreword needed, less than 8 pages, please." This indicates another journal, another day, another writing, another pouring forth of words and a bit of terror comes within the heart of the scribe.

We are going to honor and briefly share with someone who has been in service in Australia for a very long time, and, having reached 75 years of age, he is retired from the field of battle to a well earned rest. His name? Does it matter except to we who love him? It is Alan Gourley for you who have had access to his offerings.

This gives us here pause to think, for those such as Dharma and Grandma Durham, just as for instances, are beyond tired, and rest seems to come only with some kind of transition without realization of fruitful conclusion to anything, only a worsening of the stupor upon the majority of the world's citizens. The MOMENT there is respite, another six or ten tapes are tossed into the weary laps, books are piled upon the area about the bodies, and the mind screams for silence. Each moment another seemingly less consequential insane thing happens before the settling of the last whiplash. And then the very physical beings of self cry out for the mind-control of thoughtlessness—"like the world seems to enjoy". Ah, but 'tis not to be "ours" this journey, my friends—not THIS journey.

Grandma has cancer and some days cannot function without great difficulty. Dharma's lung problems have moved on to become chronic heart failure and each day the question to the mind is, "Will there be enough breath to get us through today?" Does life become more important when we face MORTALITY? No, not to the servants of God, for their only plea is to be allowed to continue to punch those keys until there is no life left with which to punch them. And frankly, readers, we only LIMIT what we write to accommodate the sanity of those who have to get the information following our production of the words. We will triple or quadruple the output as soon as we have the wherewithal to get other help for the processing. But you know what? The majority of the readers will complain of "too much, already!". "What can I do?" you ask? Anything you want to do! WHO, I ASK, WROTE YOUR JOB DESCRIPTION?

Are there disappointments in our lives? EVERY DAY! We have ones promising to attend some financial input—and yet, it never comes. They seem to "have it available" but it never seems to get transferred and, oh, you know the story, so why linger on about it.

Then, we have to convince over and over again the ones who don't seem to get the fact straight that we can CHANGE the way things are going if we but do so. They come, they take, they go, or they stay until the necessity of poverty takes over and they commit crimes against us or simply steal and move on. This in itself is so debilitating to a mind already weary and accepting of responsibility for getting our task "somehow" accomplished. But THIS is life, readers. THIS, IN AND OF ITSELF—IS LIFE.

Alan Gourley presented what he has chosen to call the First & Last Newsletter. May we offer some thoughts, please:

WE NEED YOUR HELP!

PLEASE CONSIDER SPONSORING A PHOENIX JOURNAL

The cost for printing the PHOENIX JOURNALS in sufficient quantities to offer them at rock bottom prices is always a serious challenge to our financial resources. At this time we need financial assistance to help cover the printing costs of the JOURNALS. If you are in a position to assist, please call PHOENIX SOURCE DISTRIBUTORS, INC. at (800)800-5565 and ask for Brent.

We would like to extend our thanks once again to those of you who have helped us so greatly in the past. Without your assistance we would not have come this far.

THE IMPORTANCE OF UNDERSTANDING LIFE

THE LAST F &amp; L

THE VISIBLE FUTURE & YOUR DEFENCE
THINK CAREFULLY ON THESE MATTERS;
IF PROBLEMS PERSIST
FEEL FREE TO QUESTION

Readers,

...Gaining understanding of life is an asset of real value worthy of human effort and sacrifice.

Understanding is to the human as its hard shell is to an oyster; a long neck to a giraffe; high speed to an antelope; cunning to a fox. True understanding is our only protection when we can't run from danger; our only hope of a meal when food is beyond our reach; our only safety when we can't fight. It is, in truth, our main means of community survival and the only asset we can accumulate in life that cannot be easily lost or taken from us.

Without true understanding of life [and the order with which social behavior and social structure operate] we have little control of our lives or future. To just react blindly—to act, protest or praise without understanding—is to be no more than leaves blown in the wind. The bliss of ignorance is the bliss of stupidity. Understanding of what is outside of ourselves separates the human from the animal.

Without understanding of life we are no better than animals and behave worse [cloned or unique]. We are a buyer at life's auctions who doesn't understand values; a cook who doesn't understand flavours; a musician without rhythm.

Understanding brings wisdom to knowledge and is of greater value than money or possessions because these can be easily gained with understanding and easily lost without it.

It is often said that "life was not meant to be easy"; if that saying is to have any useful value it has to be understood.

In fact, life WAS meant to be easy. Life becomes "not easy" when we lack understanding of it. Without some basic understanding of life we become controlled by negatives such as greed, selfishness, feelings, pride, prejudice and influences which can be beneficial only so long as controlled by understanding. When we do not understand these influences they cause us to behave without human restraint.

Without understanding, behaviour is mindless; we create pain and trauma for ourselves and others. So, to have logical meaning, the phrase "life was not meant to be easy" has to be understood in the sense of "easy" being the easiness of irresponsible behaviour. It is very appealing to the adolescent mind to want to live without responsibility. Life was not meant to be that kind of easy.

When people understand and take responsibility for their actions life will not only be easy but also satisfying. Knowledge without understanding can be a very dangerous thing.

However, to achieve the good life, we have to care enough about life to put truth ahead of ego, pleasure, pride, prejudice, etc., and in conscience, search for, and help each other regain social understanding.

[H: PLEASE PAY CAREFUL ATTENTION TO THIS NEXT STATEMENT.]

The reason for ending this newsletter is because the massive flow of information and comment that is produced by F & L and other newsletters IS TREATED AS IF SOME KIND OF TV SERIAL—ENTERTAINMENT. TV HAS CREATED A WORLD OF UNINVOLVED INFORMATION JUNKIES.

[H: You think this is not so? Oh readers, even here, where I and Ekkers are "supposed" to "CONTROL" everything around and about and even the CONTACT newspaper, I ask and ask and still get nowhere. I asked that EVERY ISSUE bear a LOT of information on and from the Constitutional Law Center and now the only way to retrieve any semblance of justice in the courts is going to be through the KNOWING of how and what to do to regain COMMON LAW STATUS in those courts. But I get perhaps one notice and then nothing. Grandma Durham tries but we can't even find space to print all she offers and until YOU KNOW WHAT TO DO—YOU CAN'T JUST GO DO IT OR YOU END UP IN PRISON. SO, THE HEART IS RIPPED OUT OF THE WRITERS WHO OFFER BUT ONLY "ENTERTAIN". You claim to concern about "clones" but are annoyed with anything that interrupts your habitual entertainments.

I know of one lady who, finding herself in partial need for a wheelchair, complained minute by minute. The parties in charge asked, "Why don't you knit?" "Oh, it bores me and I never learned how..." Then on through the crocheting, needleworking, basketmaking, reading, writing, whatever... but, "No, I don't like to do THAT." Well, people pushing the wheelchair become just as bored after a time and push you to the corner and go on about more entertaining company than you can present—as you wait to die.

The greatest gifts of the scientist Dr. Hawking—came when he could no longer even talk or hardly take breath. Think about it lest you end up alone and miserable even in your transition days.]

You may recall a case in the USA a few years ago where boarding-house people, watching their favourite serial, were annoyed by police and ambulance attending a real-life drama taking place on the floor above. People now tend to value fantasy more than reality.

Many people have followed the exposure of cultural subversion with great concern for years, but without serious attempt at involved understanding. When we see life as a survival movie it is not so obviously important that information be true or realistic. Without involvement each new claim, credible or incredible, is just part of a new "traumatic but exciting" episode.

When suddenly the world we accept as our own seems changed and violent we are dismayed, "How can such things happen?" we ask each other. "We must change the law!" We do not see that law without understanding will not change our attitude to life.

Most crime is not the result of failure of law or because criminals are not human, but because of lack of human understanding.

If we understood that truth is the important part of kindness we would see the warning signs and understand the danger of dramatisation.

The whole literature exposing the subversion of culture is treated as was the book "1984". This book by George Orwell was camouflaged as fiction. But stripped of dramatisation the story foretold quite clearly what was to happen, i.e., that lies would be promoted as truth; hate would be disguised as love, and war would be promoted as enforcing peace. History would be constantly rewritten to suit the plans of the criminal establishment [big brother]. Children [taught false values] would "dob-in" their parents for politically incorrect behaviour and all would be continually spied on.

We now live in a world of human deprivation and ignorance because we could not be bothered to accept or study the basic logic of life. Rational behaviour has been subverted to self-indulgence. Common sense has become a most uncommon commodity.

I have done my work conscientiously; I have helped "show the world to the world" so that at the end the world will not be able to say, "We did not know; we had no warning." Life is too valuable to waste. When your act is over get off the stage, or risk spoiling what has been achieved.

[H: And so we wonder if we should just exit the stage lest we simply bore all the people all the time, and mankind has come to want and take more and more without any responsibility toward giving and regiving, which is LIFE AND GOD ITSELF.]

The sham of world government in Australia has been exposed. [H: As now, around the world.] With study we can understand why and how the crime is committed—how it could have been prevented. But few are prepared to accept that a human catastrophe is being deliberately created and that "OUR" government[s] is involved.

What I am trying to say is that all the needed information has been collected and made readable; to keep writing comment only encourages continued "serialization" and escapism by those who should be studying to responsibly understand the world in which we live.

THE VISIBLE FUTURE & YOUR OPTION

It is said that there are three kinds of people in the world: those who make things happen; those who watch things happen; and those who never know what's happened. Those who cannot be bothered to try to understand events make up the last two categories and are now the great majority of the world's people.

We do not have to sacrifice ourselves to ignorance and slavery. The lights of the world have never shone brighter; night, in the cities, has been turned into day; information and technical ability floods over the world but still the shadows of despair advance ever more rapidly to cloud more and more lives.

Understanding is the only thing of real value we can accumulate.

A famous Chinese philosopher is reported to have replied to the question, "What is the first thing you would do as ruler of a new state?" by saying: "The first thing I would do would be to define the meanings of words."

This man knew the need for understanding. A clear meaning for words we use is essential.

When we allow and encourage the adaptation of words to special-group-meanings we lose social cohesion and promote social divisions.

So let's try to define the meaning of what may be the most important word in a human society. The word: "moral".

The word moral means that kind of behaviour or activity that is socially beneficial. Moral is not (as someone or some dictionary may insist) a matter of behaving in accord with convention; or behaviour in accord with conscience; or relating to emotional rather than physical effects; it is not an arbitrary demand of law, government, parents or God; it is behaviour that (long or short term) is, in true nature, beneficial to life. If it makes demands on conscience that is coincidental.

If the true human meaning of the word "moral" were positively taught and socially promoted it is unlikely that moral decay would prosper.

"Ideology": the word ideology is also worth a mention. It means someone's idea of what they imagine would be socially ideal. It may be an idea thought up by some adolescent academic who believes that culture can be planned to suit wishful desires and in contempt of the lessons of history; or, it may be part of a brilliant plot to subvert or undermine an opposing culture.

What is being done world-wide today is simply a more refined and "high tech" version of what was done in Hitler's Germany and Stalin's Russia, it is part of a plan to take advantage of the common human desire to get something for nothing and blame others for trouble.

The plot is to manipulate social behaviour for the benefit of dictatorial power.

When the lessons of experience, understanding and reason are replaced by deformed human desires, then confusion and frustration become the base for human behaviour and culture becomes riddled with conflicts, violence and corrupt practice.

Study of past civilisations reveal common patterns of growth and decay that end with promotion of entertainment and irresponsible pleasure. Self-indulgence replaces the cooperative attitudes that had originally made the nation great.

The Bible warns against worship of idols and in pre-Christian times idols were mainly images of wood or metal. Today we have worship of idols that may range from pop singers and sports teams to political parties and leaders. These occupy massive amounts of community thought-time as well as the dedicated efforts of many intelligent and highly motivated people.

For what? What human or social value results from the huge energy occupation and intellectual effort devoted to a very real worship of wasteful activities? Arts, sports, politics etc, fill a social need but, when idolised, direct social energy in opposition to human welfare.

It is often claimed that some civilization was overcome by barbarians, but this is the view of the losers. There is nothing more barbarous or primitive than the behaviour that leads to social decay. That the trappings of advancing culture may be retained (whether these trappings be exhibited in enlightened science, art, engineering, or politics) cannot change the result of a social dedication that is intent on personal gratification rather than on human advance.

The health of the social heart is measured by its morality. By the nature of moral power it may be the "barbarians" who are the moral superiors.

Even though the barbarians may be violent, crude and commit horrific atrocities these acts are of less importance than the atrocities created by a degenerate society wasting its human achievements. A crude culture, prepared to sacrifice petty self-interest to community welfare, brings a new motivation to replace degeneration. We think our culture cannot decline but cultural decay is historically common.

Today the advanced nations are effectively ruled by one dictatorial dementia. There is no large primitive culture that could destroy the cancer and inspire a fresh start. If a "moral new world" cannot arise out of disaster then it can only arise by an unworldly intervention.

NOTE: "Dementia: general mental enfeeblement with loss of memory [communally that means loss of history], reason, feeling, and will".

Justice and truth are not enough while activists are unable to see beyond pleading with our enemies rather than enlightening our friends.

Think seriously. Reason honestly. The time is coming when you will desperately need to understand what is happening.

The Great "National Emergency" Hoax

Relearning The Common Law

Part II: How The Common Law Works

Editor's note: The first part of this commentary was in our 3/4/97 issue on p.2.

3/14/97 RAY BILGER

Most people do not have any comprehension of what the Common Law is because it has been replaced, for the most part, with Admiralty Law. In all 50 States of the United States of America the Common Law is supposed to still be in operation to the extent that it is not in conflict with statutory law, and there is substantial case law to support this (See 15A C.J.S., Corpus Juris Secundum, under "Common Law"). But with the merging of cases at law with cases in equity and with Admiralty, there is little room left for Common Law actions. Yet, since the Common Law is supposed to still be in operation, we must take this as our opening to once again use Common Law procedures in the State and Federal courts of America.

In mentioning the Common Law in statutes and cases within the 50 States, it is the Common Law of England which is discussed. The Common Law grew out of, and has its roots in, the operation of Natural Law or the Law of Nature. Natural Law may be simply defined as that system of right and justice held to be common to all mankind and independent of positive law.

Cicero (106-43 B.C.) said of Natural Law that it is "true law, right reason, diffused in all men, constant and everlasting." St. Thomas Aquinas suggested that the Law of Nature is "nothing less than the participation of the eternal law in the rational creature", and that it comprises those precepts that mankind is able to formulate, namely, the preservation of one's own good, the fulfillment of "those inclinations which nature has taught" to man and the pursuit of the knowledge of God. He contended that human law must be the particular application of the Natural Law.

Our Declaration of Independence makes important mention of the Laws of Nature in the first sentence: "When, in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume, among the powers of the Earth, the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and nature's God entitle them..."

If people never disagreed about their interpretations of what the Natural Law is, or means, then there would have been no need for the Common Law court. However, in this three-dimensional human world, with everyone's perception and opinion being different than anyone else's, it was only natural that there would be different interpretations of the Natural Law. Thus the development of the Common Law court which acted as a third or neutral party to resolve those differences through a common sense approach.

In early medieval England there was only local law. There was no national law applicable to the whole country. Toward the end of the Anglo-Saxon age, there began to develop a body of law applying to the whole land, with one king to enforce it. By the time of the reign of Henry II (1154-1189) it was clear that there was going to be a body of law "common" throughout England. This is the source of the term "Common Law"; law "common" to all the people.

Well, not exactly all the people. That law didn't apply to the King. He ruled by the "Divine Right of Kings", which did not subject him to mere Common Law. Things do not appear to be much different today in that regard. President Bill Clinton can drop his drawers in front of any Paula Jones or Jennifer Flowers and be immune from prosecution. If we were to do the same, presuming, of course, we could lower our morals to the level of a Bill Clinton, we would be thrown in jail immediately. With Clinton, this is normal acceptable behavior.

/T.D.C.

Here is an example of how the Common Law works. Being a creature who follows the Laws of Nature, when you become hungry you want some food and so you go to your local merchant at a grocery store. You have a common right ("Common right refers to the right of citizens generally at common law." Spring Valley Water Works v. Schottler, 62 C. 69 [18823]) to go to places open to the public and your local merchant appreciates your business. He expects you to pay for your bread, meat and milk and you pay him. If you did not pay him you would be stealing, which, of course, is a violation of the Common Law, and the merchant would have every right to pursue a Common Law action against you.

Since most all of our rights today have been turned into privileges now requiring licenses (contracts) in order to pursue those rights, that Common Law hardly functions at all the way it used to. If you happen to be driving your car in a parking lot and someone backs out of a parking space and your two cars bump each other, you both get out and discuss what just happened. This is what responsible people would commonly be expected to do, but if you are unable to resolve the matter to the mutual satisfaction of the two of you, you don't have a Common Law court in operation to help you resolve the matter. Besides, you both now have contracts (driver's licenses) and you now call a policeman and you take the matter up in Admiralty Court. Americans today are so litigation crazy that as soon as someone bumps into their car, they think they just won the lottery!!

Not to change the subject, but if you really want to see how Natural Law works on a larger scale here in America, you may soon have an opportunity to see it. Just as important as the Common Law, if not moreso, is the fact that we have to face in the not-too-distant future what has commonly been referred to as Earth Changes. When these Earth Changes manifest there may well be total devastation from a magnitude 10 or 11 or 12+ earthquake! We have not seen this in our lifetime and it may be difficult to comprehend, but anyone who has reached a certain level of intelligence and knowledge about this period of Planetary and Solar Transition which we are going through, knows this will happen. And when it does, it may well bring down any building standing above ground.

This will mean that all normal infrastructure functions and services will not be there for us. A firetruck, for instance, would have to be parked outside, but even if the roads were passable, which is unlikely, the water mains underground would all be ruptured and, hence, the firetruck would be useless. Besides, there may well be gas fires from broken gas lines everywhere and we will be thinking only of survival.

When this happens, those who are alive will naturally seek each other out. It will be neighbor helping neighbor. On the immediate level it will be Natural Law and only Natural Law. Common sense tells us that. If everyone else in your family is dead (transitioned) or alive because you all happened to be in your back yard, people will get together. You may go to your neighbor, or they may come to you and say, "Bill and Helen are all right because they had just pulled up in their car, but the Joneses are all buried under their house!"

In this case, the Natural Law will work, and where people can keep a level head and use their common sense, it will work well. People will have to work together to get what food they can from their broken houses, and may be able to make some makeshift accommodations for shelter. The survivalist will fare very well and be quite popular. According to a writing by Serapis Bey which appeared in the March 4, 1997 issue of CONTACT, "Fear and shock shall be among the greater causes of death."

There will, of course, be some functioning sectors of the Admiralty Law in operation, such as F.E.M.A., but to say that they will be overwhelmed would be a gross understatement. For those who have survived, it will be the Natural Law, that is, common sense, that they will have to rely upon.

Let's come back now to the present moment. When the Common Law works, everyone is happy. But when you get a ticket because your registration expired on your car, you're not happy. If you have to pay a yearly registration fee (a tax) on your car, then you don't own it. The Common Law has ceased to function in all situations, at all times. We now have this enforced situation of Admiralty Law and it only makes people unhappy. People are not happy under Admiralty Law because it has the automatic, inherent potential for creating abuses of rights, great unrest and unhappiness.

We may eventually come to remember that happiness is almost a requirement under the Common Law. Our Common Rights are our inalienable rights (common to everyone) and, if anyone can remember back to our Declaration of Independence, those inalienable rights come from our Creator and include the right to enjoy life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. These are just some of the rights which are guaranteed by the Ninth Amendment to the Constitution. So, we can say that the source of our Common Rights is our Creator.

Mr. Justice Field of the Supreme Court expounded very clearly and very eloquently on those inalienable rights mentioned in the Declaration of Independence, in his concurring opinion in the case of Butcher's Union Slaughterhouse v. Crescent City Live Stock Co., 111 U.S. 746, 756,757 (1884):

"These inherent rights have never been more happily expressed than in the Declaration of Independence, that new evangel of liberty to the people: 'We hold these truths to be self-evident', that is, so plain that their truth is recognized upon their mere statement, 'that all men are endowed;' not be edicts of Emperors or decrees of Parliament or Acts of Congress, but 'by their Creator, with certain inalienable rights' that is, rights which cannot be bartered away or given away or taken away except in punishment of crime; 'and that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, and to secure these,' not grant them but secure them, 'governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed.'

Among these inalienable rights, as proclaimed in that great document, is the right of men to pursue their happiness, by which is meant the right to pursue any lawful business or vocation, in any manner not inconsistent with the equal rights of others...

It has been well said that, 'The property which every man has in his own labor, as it is the original foundation of all other property, so it is the most sacred and inviolable....' Adam Smith, Wealth of Nations, bk. 1, ch. 10."

ORDER

This matter comes before the (name of court) Court upon filing of a challenge of jurisdiction to the Military Flag made by Raymond E. Bilger. Mr. Bilger asserts that the flag that is displayed in this courtroom has jurisdictional implications of the Military, Para-Military, and/or Quasi-Military nature. Mr. Bilger further asserts that this Court is proceeding under Admiralty/Maritime Law and/or Quasi-Admiralty/Maritime Law. This Court, having considered the challenge and the responses, if any from the Court, and now being fully advised in the premises:

It is hereby ORDERED that the Declaratory Judgment of this Court be entered upon the records as follows: The Military Flag displayed in this Courtroom does not have any jurisdictional implications upon the cases concerning Raymond E. Bilger. Said "Flag" does not create, confer, or otherwise acquiesce Mr. Bilger into any form of Military Jurisdiction, and we are not proceeding under Admiralty/Maritime and/or Quasi-Admiralty/Maritime Law(s).

Judge of the Court

We've gotten this far in our history because the Common Law has worked for centuries, and we made progress as a civilization. But with the Admiralty Law now in place, it is worse than anything we've ever known. America, a nation created to be free, is now populated by a slave society. The Common Law, by its very definition, demands a just society.

What we need to do now is examine how we can take the Common Law which works naturally within society, and extend that to once again cover all situations not currently covered under the Common Law. To do anything less, and to continue to try to work within the totally corrupt system now in place, is nothing short of courting disaster and will surely end in immense loss. We must return Justice to its rightful place in God's Creation, of which this planet is an important part.

Things go along through existence in time until a certain point is reached, where, if things are not operating as originally intended, then mechanisms are set in motion which bring about an atoning or atonement. This is the way nature has always worked. Know, however, that our imaginations are sufficient to the task of correcting things, if we will only wake up from our seemingly endless sleep. What would you do personally in your life to change things to bring the Common Law back into play? Think of what it would be like to be free and to enjoy all of the fruits of your labors!

WHAT'S IN A NAME? MORE THAN YOU MAY THINK!

There has been more than a bit of disagreement around these parts recently concerning whether or not your name should appear on legal documents with all capital letters, or whether it should appear with capital letters only at the beginning of your first and last name, with all other letters in lower case. It would seem that we have all forgotten who we are!

When you were born, did your parents name you and spell your name with all capital letters? There shouldn't be anyone answering yes to that question. Well, if your name was not all capital letters at birth, and someone or something is trying to make you use all capital letters today, then something happened somewhere along the way to bring about this change—and for some specific reason, make no mistake about that!

When you turned 18 years of age, or 21, did you suddenly receive a new birth certificate in the mail from your government (state or federal) showing your name now in all capital letters? Again, everyone should answer no, because that did not happen. Well, what did happen? Here's a clue: Your name in all capital letters denotes you as a "Statutory" "Person", a "Fiction of Law", now "subject to" all of the licenses, registrations, permits, rules and regulations, etc., in force since 1933. You may wonder, how do they get new Citizens into this trap?

At some point in your youth, probably in your teenage years, you wanted to get a job so that you could have some money to spend to buy those things you thought you needed. This was only natural. The first thing you do then is get an application for a Social Security Card, to get a Social Security Number, because everyone else (already fooled and indoctrinated into the "system") tells you that you must have this in order to work. You, being young and naive and not knowing otherwise, get your application, fill it out, and send it in. And on that form, or if you have applied for a passport, or a driver's license, or whatever, they all ask you the one all-important and determining question (which, of course, is a trick question), "Are you a United States Citizen?" Yes or No. If you are asked this question now, most people will probably say yes. If you did say yes, you were just tricked into becoming a "Statutory" "Person", a "Fiction of Law"! But you're not a Russian Citizen, or Chinese, so what does this mean? You should have said: "No, I'm a Citizen of the United States of America!" Please note the difference carefully, because it is the difference between a life of slavery and a life of freedom.

The words that begin the above statements give title over the words that follow them. The Founders and Framers never contemplated the existence of a corporate entity called the "United States", but this is what has been created on paper and supposedly exists in Washington, D.C. If you are a Sovereign Citizen, you are free, you have inalienable rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, and no one or no thing has title over you. You are the king of your domain and you call yourself a Citizen of the United States of America.

If, however, you are a sheep who follows others, and you are incapable of entertaining an independent thought, you will allow yourself to follow on after the words "United States" and call yourself a United States Citizen. This is the "Statutory" "Person" who may grumble a bit, but ends up giving 60-75 percent, or more, of what he earns back to the government (both state and federal) in the form of all sorts of taxes, fees, charges, costs, dues, penalties, interest, etc. And all that money goes toward insuring your own self destruction! Sad, isn't it? But it doesn't have to be that way.

Again, it comes down to one: you. What will you, as an individual, do about it?

Know that this corporate entity called the "United States" has taken control of almost everything. Let's look again at the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (F.R.C.P.), Rule 1, under "Notes of Advisory Committee on Rules", "1948 Amendment", which states:

"The amendment effective October 20, 1949, substituted the words 'United States district courts' for the words 'district courts of the United States'."

What this means is that the Constitution is suspended and we are "subjects" (or slaves), subject to this corporate entity called "United States", and that we now function under Admiralty Law. Under the Constitution, under Article III, which defines our Judicial Branch of government, our district courts would be called, and were called, District Courts of the United States. With the new wording, those courts now come under the control of the corporate entity called "United States". Note that the year of that amendment, 1948, is the same year that Israel gained its nationhood. Surely, just a coincidence.

Well, what can we do about this mess? For those willing to grab their pens and stand up and fight, there's a lot we can do! For those who are still thinking about it, remember, it's never too late to grow a backbone and quit being a jellyfish. The least you can do to honor your parents who gave you your name is to reclaim that name and never, ever again allow your name to be written in all capital letters by anyone, anytime, anywhere!

You will notice, for example, that all correspondence from the Internal Revenue Service (I.R.S.) always shows your name in all capital letters. What do you suppose they would do if you told them that that is not the name your parents gave you? These words are in no way intended to suggest that anyone break any laws. But, only you can decide which name you will allow to be used to refer to you. Do you want to use the name your parents gave you, or do you want to be a Statutory Person, i.e., a slave???

What is a "Fiction of Law"? Black's Law Dictionary, Revised 4th Edition (1968), at page 751, defines the term as, "Something known to be false is assumed to be true. Ryan v. Motor Credit Co., 23 A.2d 607, 621." You assumed you were a United States Citizen, didn't you? Your name in all capital letters denotes you as a "Fiction of Law".

If you appear in court for some victimless crime in the capacity of pro se, which means you represent yourself, you have just broken the statutory laws of the State which say that only a licensed attorney is allowed to practice law in the courtroom. If you, a common Citizen, are practicing law without a license, you have just committed another victimless crime! Oh, no!

Nor should you appear in court as pro per (in Pro-pria Persona, in proper person). Both of these, pro se and pro per, admit the jurisdiction of the Admiralty Court. If you do not wish to do that, then perhaps you might consider appearing as "Citizen At The Common Law". This seems less complicated than Citizen in Party, and can be understood by even the common man or woman. It also says exactly what you want the court to know and understand.

The use of the term "Citizen" is all important. Black's Law Dictionary, Revised 4th Edition, at page 310, defines the term "Citizen" in part as: "A member of a free city or jural society, possessing all the rights and privileges which can be enjoyed by any person under its Constitution and government... In re McIntosh, 12 F.Supp. 177. One of the sovereign people. A constituent member of the sovereignty synonymous with the people. Scott v. Sanford, 19 How. 404, 15 L.Ed. 691."

You could also state on the record the fact that you are not making a General Appearance, you are making a Special Appearance, and that you demand all of your rights under the Common Law at all times, waiving none of your rights at any time. According to Black's Law Dictionary, Revised 4th Edition, a General Appearance "is a simple and unqualified or unrestricted submission to the jurisdiction of the court", while a Special Appearance "is for the purpose of testing the sufficiency of service or the jurisdiction of the court."

Since failure to demand a right waives a right, if you do not state on the record that you are making a Special Appearance, then it is presumed that you are making a General Appearance. Any honest judge would explain this. Have you ever seen that happen? At your very first opportunity to speak in the courtroom, you must immediately tell the Judge, "Before we proceed, Your Honor, I have some Procedural matters that need to be brought before the court." This is nothing more than what the attorneys do. You will then deliver a NOTICE OF SPECIAL APPEARANCE with attached ORDER. (See insets)

The Judge will probably not sign the ORDER, but you should state on the record: "Just let the record show that I have asked the court to sign an ORDER stipulating that the Admiralty/Maritime flag flown in this court does not create, confer, or otherwise acquiesce this accused Citizen into any Admiralty/Maritime and/or quasi-Admiralty/Maritime jurisdiction, and that the court has refused to sign said ORDER. Let the record also show that the accused does not recognize or submit voluntarily to any Admiralty/Maritime jurisdiction here today."

In other words, you are not appearing voluntarily, but you are only appearing against your will and over your objection, and under threat, duress and coercion, which should also be stated. If questioned, you could explain that you felt threatened that you would be put in jail if you didn't appear. This sets the record that you are not voluntarily submitting to the Admiralty jurisdiction, but that you are being forced into it against your will. You will thereby set the record for appeal that this is now a rights case and your rights have been violated. The Supreme Court doesn't like to see these kinds of cases. They have to address rights violations. Of course, you may find that to appeal lets those who violated your rights at least temporarily off the hook, and you may decide instead to immediately file lawsuits against them, i.e., Title 42 U.S.C. Sec. 1983 et seq!

The reason you must demand your rights is that they will not be accorded to you if you do not demand them. In the case of U.S. v. Johnson, 76 F.Supp. 538, 540 (1947), the court addressed the Fifth Amendment privilege against self-incrimination as follows: "The privilege against self-incrimination is neither accorded to the passive resistant, nor to the person who is ignorant of his rights, nor to one indifferent thereto. It is a fighting clause. Its benefits can be retained only by sustained combat. It cannot be claimed by attorney or solicitor. It is only valid when insisted upon by a belligerent claimant in person."

A significant and increasing number of Common Law practitioners and Constitutionlists believe that what the court said above in 1947 concerning the Fifth Amendment applies today to all of the first ten amendments (our Bill of Rights). All of those amendments are now fighting clauses, because we are being denied our rights and we must insist upon being accorded them. One can demand those rights without really being belligerent, but we must not back down. We have to be persistent or we will be ignored. We may be ignored anyway, but we've then set the record that here is a Citizen being denied his rights!!

Black's Law Dictionary, Revised 4th Edition, at page 900, states that if jurisdiction is pleaded by an attorney, that "admits the jurisdiction, as an attorney is an officer of the court, and he is presumed to plead after having obtained leave, which admits the jurisdiction."

As well, you have the right under the Common Law to assistance of counsel who is not a licensed attorney. America's Founders were very adamant about this, and there was a very strong anti-lawyer sentiment at the time of the writing of our Constitution. You could tell the Judge that you demand your right, pursuant to the Sixth and Ninth Amendments to the Constitution, to assistance of counsel who is not a licensed attorney. The Ninth Amendment supports your Sixth Amendment rights. (By the way, that demand could be included in your NOTICE OF SPECIAL APPEARANCE. That way the matter is presented to the court in written form and orally, when you discuss the matter.)

The Judge will probably say, "Absolutely not, no one can practice law without a license." You should then state on the record, "Well, just let the record show that this court has just denied me my Sixth Amendment Constitutional Right to unqualified assistance of counsel." Let the Judge know that the Sixth Amendment is not qualified. It makes absolutely no mention whatsoever of attorneys or lawyers!

The Judge may tell you he will appoint a licensed attorney for you, but you must refuse. With a lawyer appointed for you who is actually paid by the Admiralty Court, and the Judge working for the Admiralty Court, and your opposing counsel a member of the bar association which operates within the Admiralty Courts, do you think you stand any chance of seeing Justice served??? Not in your lifetime under those circumstances!

You might point out to the Judge that in the Supreme Court's decision in the case of Faretta v. California, 422 U.S. 806 (1975), the Court clearly stated that pleading for hire was prohibited in Massachusetts, Connecticut, Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina in the 17th Century. The Court also stated that the Pennsylvania Frame of Government, perhaps "the most influential of the Colonial documents protecting individual rights" stated "That, in all courts all persons of all persuasions may freely appear in their own way, and according to their own manner, and there personally plead their own cause themselves; or, if unable, by their friends..." This goes to show the original intent of the Founders and Framers.

Do you see what you're doing here? You are turning any case into a Civil Rights case, and the Judge knows it. You are making him look like a Civil Rights violator which, of course, he is. Civil Rights violations can be addressed with Title 42 U.S.C., Sec. 1983 lawsuits!!

At some point along here the Judge may tell you that he is going to charge you with contempt of court. You should respond, "Let me see if I understand the court's position, Your Honor. Are you going to do something bad, wicked, terrible and awful to me just because I come into this court demanding all of my rights?" Now you've really got him mad. This is all on the record, of course. You must make the Judge look like the bad man he is. If you're not having fun, you're not doing it right.

He may get upset with you, but you must remain calm. He may yell at you and this is not shown on the record, so you must put it on the record. You always want to put whatever you want to say in the form of a question. Practice doing this, because they will always let you ask a question. In this case, you could ask, "Are you yelling at me, Your Honor, because I've come into this courtroom demanding all of my rights, or are you yelling at me for some other reason?" You may see steam coming out of his ears at this point!! No matter what his apologetic response may be, you wait until it's your turn to speak and then you continue to get the matter clearly on the record. You could say, "Well, it certainly sounded like you were yelling at me and that makes me feel very uncomfortable," or "now you've caused me to lose my train of thought; now, where was I?"

Judges like to be in control of "their" courtrooms. You must take control by asking questions and clearly stating on the record how you are appearing and that you demand all of your rights. The Judge might ask you some question to trick you and trap you. You could respond to this by saying, "Are you looking for an admission or confession, Your Honor?" He may say, "Yes, I want you to admit such and such." You could then say, "Well, I'm not here today to make admissions or confessions, Your Honor. I'm here to have my rights recognized." If you are clever, you can continually turn things around to a discussion of your rights. Be careful though, he might get fed up with this.

None of the above information should be construed as giving legal advice. This author does not give legal advice. This is merely an explanation of Common Law procedures which the reader may or may not wish to follow in our Admiralty Courts to regain your rights.

You should also know that to plead either guilty or not guilty grants jurisdiction to the court. This is why you must always stand Mute before the court. Taking an Oath to tell the truth, "so help you God," also grants jurisdiction. How did God suddenly get into the courtroom? Aren't we supposed to have separation of Church and State? If you can remember for the court (perhaps a photocopy would help), Matthew 5:34-37 states:

"34. But I say unto you, Swear not at all; neither by Heaven; for it is God's throne:

35. Nor by the Earth; for it is His footstool: neither by Jerusalem; for it is the city of the great King.

36. Neither shalt thou swear by the head, because thou canst not make one hair white or black.

37. But let your communication be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay: for whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil."

You should

tell the Judge you cannot go against the Bible. He may ask you if you will then affirm. Again, "Your Honor, that is just another way of swearing." You will assure him, however, that you are there to tell the truth and that is what you will do, but you will not go against the Bible. He knows you've still not submitted to his jurisdiction.

Paying of bail also submits to the court's jurisdiction. You can inform the Judge that your understanding is that the only reason for bail is to insure the appearance of a party in court. You must tell him you have every intention of pursuing this case, and that you have never missed a court appearance (if that is true). He will ask you some questions about where you live or what you do, and you will be absolutely courteous and informative in your responses. He should release you O.R. (on your own recognizance).

Beware, in all activity prior to the bail question the Judge will know what you are doing and he will try to trick you into his jurisdiction. He will know he has a Constitutionalist on his hands. You must be as clever as the fox but gentle as the dove. You will prevail, and if he doesn't dismiss, look at the record you've set for appeal. You must always prepare and pursue your case as if you intended to take it to the Supreme Court.

It is still not too late to turn things around and regain control of America for the Citizens of the United States for whom she was founded. The Common Law is the only way we will do it. It has worked for thousands of years, and if brought back into Full Force and Effect it can and will work once again. The only thing that will destroy us will be our own inaction. In that situation we become our own worst enemy.

Let's get the job done!!

Indian Prayer

O' GREAT SPIRIT,

*Whose voice I hear in the winds,
And whose breath gives life to all the world, hear me! I am small and weak, I need your strength and wisdom.*

LET ME WALK IN BEAUTY, and make my eyes ever behold the red and purple sunset.

MAKE MY HANDS respect the things you have made and my ears sharp to hear your voice.

MAKE ME WISE so that I may understand the things you have taught my people.

LET ME LEARN the lessons you have hidden in every leaf and rock.

I SEEK STRENGTH, not to be greater than my brother, but to fight my greatest enemy—myself.
MAKE ME ALWAYS READY to come to you with clean hands and straight eyes.

SO WHEN LIFE FADES, as the fading sunset,
my spirit may come to you without shame.

Esu: Allow The Butterfly To Emerge In Splendor

3/11/97 ESU "JESUS" SANANDA

Peace, Rick. Esu present in Light, in service to light the way for mankind during the hours of darkness that lay ahead.

My voice is soft, yet you hear me clearly. I needn't shout, although shout I will if the occasion arises whereby shouting will merit results.

It is of utmost importance, Rick, that you spend time with me. As I told you, you cannot do it alone, you must have the assistance of Spirit unto Spirit. It is a dangerous, yet exciting, journey that lays before you. Do not fall aside over foolish errors; you are more worthy than that and God did not error in accepting your service at this time.

There are MANY who are awaiting my messages because they are faltering, they are tired, they are frustrated, and they just want to give up. And yet even by "giving up" they find themselves back in the same stew-pot they were in before. It is called the "wheel of life". Haven't you experienced the wheel enough, Thomas?

There is such splendor in the realms of Light, and yet I do not say this to have each one who reads this to want to "check out" to work in the realm of Spirit, for by doing so they automatically are returned unto the wheel of life, to again experience in the physical manifestation. The point is not to avoid one's lessons but to confront them, for therein is the path to becoming One with Spirit, One with God of Light wherein there is truly freedom from the enslavement of the darkness.

The adversarial influence is like a thick, dark cloud over your planet and you must remain, literally, in constant vigil to overcome that influence upon you. You each must ASK, ASK, ASK! We of these realms told you ones early on that, if you must clear your space a thousand times a day, then do so. Make it as automatic as breathing!

I must tell on Rick. He used to be somewhat perturbed at the idea of having to clear his space so frequently and would think loudly to himself, to us of Light: "Well can't you guys hold the space clear longer than that?!"

Ha! Of course, you each grow up through those thoughts to realize that the clearing with Spirit begins with soul-self, in the direct connection with God-Spirit. Has it not often been said that the adversary will be allowed to "have a go at you of Light"—in part to test your mettle and see what you will do? This is a school, remember?

True, you each have a purpose of one sort or another but the lessons must be learned along the way toward realization, understanding, and

The cover of this unique card is a photograph of Esu "Jesus" Sananda taken in 1961. Inside you will find a reproduction of the Shroud of Turin overlaid by a transparency of the cover photograph of Sananda.

The correlation is truly a remarkable visual experience!

bringing into fruition that purpose. There are so many misperceptions about the way it is, mostly caused by your confounded religious doctrines.

Most are simply not willing to learn, to be OPEN to new thoughts. A closed mind is a prison wherein the being shall remain confined until hell freezes or until there is a release of some kind that will allow for change.

Change is the only constant in this, God's Creation. Change is beautiful, glorious really. It is as the caterpillar to the butterfly: the caterpillar doesn't THINK about becoming the butterfly, it just does so as a natural course of experience. And ultimately the butterfly emerges from the chrysalis to fly in the light.

You are not unlike the caterpillar, but too many of you are becoming imprisoned in the chrysalis, and to break free you must begin to realize there is so much more to this world, and this universe, than self.

Let me give another personal example from Rick. Rick's mother, Zita, is in a wheelchair these days at the nursing home. Yet, when she feels sorry for herself and is wheeled down the hallway to the outside courtyard, she passes many others who cannot even speak!

Everything is relative in this world, and when you think you have it bad, take a careful look around you, and this applies PARTICULARLY to those in the cities, although it is true everywhere. Look and see the homeless on the streets or those living in cardboard boxes.

Ah! But then, once you witness them, what do you do? Usually you say, "Oh, the bums," or, "Yeah, but they chose that." Did they? There, but for the Grace of God, go thee, and "That which you do unto the least of Mine, ye have done unto Me". Remember?

When you can get out of the little perceptive cell of self long enough to offer those less fortunate ones a bowl of soup or a blanket, then perhaps the chrysalis will have a small hole in it which will ultimately allow the butterfly to emerge. Otherwise you will remain imprisoned in your little cells called self, and you shall remain on the wheel of life, time and time and time again.

Now, let us discuss something else. How do you pray and for what do you pray? Most pray for money and for self. When you pray for everyone and everything EXCEPT self, you have arrived! When you pray for "all my relations" as your Native American brothers teach, you are there. This is not to say that God does not hear your innermost desires and "wants". He does! He is just waiting for you to realize that, as a co-creator, if you really want something, you will find a way to get up off your rear and make it so.

You have become a fat and complacent culture, a lazy culture. Chopping wood and carrying water seem to be foreign concepts, particularly to you of the American side of things.

Is it any wonder that the Master Teachers would usually start their new students either by cleaning and scrubbing toilets or by chopping wood and carrying water. Well, I can assure you of this: before all is said and done, most of you left alive will be very happy to be able to chop wood and carry water—and shall do so!

Get off this "woe is me" kick of helplessness. You are Godly beings! Start acting like Godly beings! Why do you tear apart your brothers, limb from limb, in hypocritical judgement? You each and all must learn to walk in Truth.

If your adversary slaps you in the face, for God's sake, do NOT turn the other cheek, but go down and report it, and then sue him! Yes, you heard me. (Now there, Rick, you've gone and done it. We just lost half our audience. It's alright, the half we want are still reading.)

Until you squarely face the adversary and stand your ground, you might as well just lay down and roll over, because you are as good as dead. And I did not say to pick up a gun. I say pick up a pen and write a lawsuit. If you do not regain control of your legal system, you as a society are gone—dead and buried and destined for a thousand years of darkness, starting back at the cave WITHOUT tools.

Mankind will lift itself up or mankind will go down, it is that painfully simple. Don't you see?!

I do not come to shower you with sweet blessings of nothingness; I come as your Lord and I come with the Hosts of God who are the most wondrous, magnificent, and STRONG Beings of Light who exist in this, the known universe, and those beyond.

Do not brush aside the help at your disposal, for to do so is folly. Little self does NOT know better than God, so isn't it better to swallow that pride and do away with ego, open your minds, LEARN, and then act in Wisdom on that knowledge?! Therein is the path of Freedom from the chrysalis. Therein the keys to the cell are given unto thee. Therein is the way off the wheel of life!

Barr Confirms Asking Judiciary Committee To Meet On Impeachment Inquiry

U.S. Representative Bob Barr (GA-7) confirmed today that he has written Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, Henry Hyde requesting a full Committee meeting on the question of whether the President's and the Vice-President's conduct warrants the initiation of an impeachment inquiry. He issued the following statement:

"The report in today's Washington Times is accurate. I have written Chairman Hyde asking him to consider the Committee's constitutional role in impeachment matters and in that vein examine the possibility of initiating a formal impeachment inquiry.

"There is no question in my mind that the alarming pattern of abuse of the political process by this White House is unprecedented. The cumulative effect of a series of systemic abuses compel the Congress whose Members have sworn to uphold the Constitution to examine its constitutional role in matters of impeachment.

"I am well aware of independent congressional investigations underway and of current and potential investigations of Administration activity by a special prosecutor. Those are legitimate and appropriate and fulfill specifically and narrowly defined responsibilities. These investigations, however, are not a substitute or alternative to the constitutionally-mandated process of addressing issues properly reserved for impeachment inquiry.

"It is important to keep in mind that my request is a very measured and judicious one clearly warranted by the evidence available. I am not demanding that impeachment proceedings begin at this time. The time has come, however, to take this important preliminary step."

Black Tar-And-Feathers*Assault In The Woodshed*The Private, High-Tech Lynching Known As O.J. Simpson Case

Editor's note: For the benefit of new readers of CONTACT, we would like to call to your attention that we have been presenting information about the truth of the frame-up of O.J. Simpson since our initial outlay on the subject in the 9/6/94 issue of CONTACT. At that time we titled the information: "O.J. Simpson Frame-Up: Jewish Mafia Conspiracy For Race Riots & Revolution" by Gary Wean, now retired from a brilliant career, eventually as Chief Investigator for the Ventura County Public Defender Office. Gary's sources and connections are legendary in California law enforcement circles. Our latest updated outlay of information from Gary Wean was in the 12/3/96 issue of CONTACT.

3/15/97 #1 HATONN

WE'RE OFF TO SEE THE WIZARD...

I see that there is a new hype going on and that is of O.J. Simpson entering an "Appeal" "...for reversal of damages, reduction of damages and a new trial". I absolutely AGREE with Mr. Miller's statement that an Appeal is only going to cost a bundle more and only the attorneys will "clean up".

So many of O.J.'s simple Constitutional RIGHTS have been violated from the day of the so-called Simpson Murders to this date as to overwhelm the mind. You have to have someone who can sort through the trash heap and come out with the real focus—that of damages to Mr. Simpson. In just reading through Black's Law Dictionary on "Damages", it appears that in only one section alone O.J. can recapture the 33.5 million $$$ and pick up TREBLE DAMAGES. My, my, in only one claim he can get over $100 million. BUT HE HAS TO COME BACK TO COMMON LAW, GET RID OF THE ADMIRALTY COURT FLAGS, AND DEMAND COMMON LAW HEARING AND TRIAL. ALSO, HE HAS TO GET RID OF THOSE ATTORNEYS WHO KEEP FEASTING OFF HIS CARCASS.

CAN HE DO THIS? YES INDEED! HE MAY WELL BE THE ONLY ONE WHO CAN MAKE SUCH A HUGE DEMAND AND PULL IT OFF. He has the public attention necessary to make a big enough splash in the King's pools as to bring massive change within the system. There isn't enough "money" in the world to fully compensate O.J. Simpson just for the KNOWN wrongs to his Constitutional Rights and absolute damages directly intended to destroy him and bring on RACE WAR.

Then, the Ekkers can march right along behind in Kern County and recover for EVERY MISDEED of the courts and the lawyers involved, including, as well, the Conspiracy parties who tagged along on a case that had NOTHING to do whatsoever with them.

So? Do you want your nation back or not? The decisions are strictly up to you. There is nothing which can and shall unite the races like simply coming to realize that you are all in the Judicial Hoax together! It doesn't require WAR; it requires common sense attached to COMMON LAW. And how do you do it? YOU GET THOSE ADMIRALTY/MILITARY FLAGS OF THE FOREIGN NATIONS OUT OF YOUR COURTS! THEN YOU DEMAND, NICELY, COMMON LAW HEARINGS AND TRIALS—WITH PERFECT PAPERWORK. SIMPLE? YES, EXTREMELY SIMPLE.

Further, you REALLY have to watch out for the tricks and traps which will getcha. One major trick is that in taking the "fringe" to the flag of the united States and, as well, the individual State's flag, you will also find many CHANGES made to the State flag as well. In California, for instance, a RED COMMUNIST STAR is added to the "Bear Flag" which, as with the fringe, renders the flag utilized in the court—an alien flag of NO known country. Just as the Congress sits under TWO FACII HOVERING LIKE TWO BEHEADING AXES OVER THE HEADS OF THE NATION, SO TOO DO YOU-THE-PEOPLE HAVE TO CLEAR OUT THE DEBRIS AND LITERALLY INTENTIONAL TRAPS OF THE ELITE GIVING THEM ABILITY TO CONTROL EVERYTHING.

BUT YOU HAVE TO DO IT RIGHT.

BLACK PERSPECTIVES

I am going to use material from THE FINAL CALL, Vol. 16, Number 17, February 18, 1997. 734 West 79th St., Chicago, IL 60620-2424.

[QUOTING:]

O.J. CASE,
MILLION DOLLAR JUDGMENTS
EXPOSE RACIAL SCHISM
IN THE U.S.

by Richard Muhammad, Managing Editor

As whites generally declared "justice" with news of the civil trial decisions that O.J. Simpson was liable for the deaths of Nicole Brown Simpson and Ron Goldman, Blacks largely saw the verdict as more proof that white America must always win and punish, not give justice.

The Santa Monica, Calif., jury said Mr. Simpson had to pay the Goldman family $8.5 million in compensatory damages in the case.

[H: Compensatory damages: Compensatory damages are such as will compensate the injured party for the injury sustained, and nothing more; such as will simply make good or replace the loss caused by the wrong or injury. Damages awarded to a person as compensation, indemnity, or restitution for harm sustained by him. The rationale behind compensatory damages is to restore the injured party to the position he or she was in prior to the injury. Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition.

There is continued argument about "double jeopardy" in this case and right here is proof of twice trying this man for crimes to which he was found "not guilty". If he was "not guilty" then he COULD NOT HAVE DAMAGED ANYONE THROUGH THE DEATHS OF THOSE TWO VICTIMS. To try and twist this any other way is not feasible in any way whatsoever. If the man was not guilty—he damaged no one but everyone involved since has DAMAGED TERRIBLY, MR. O.J. SIMPSON.

Ah, but it gets WORSE, doesn't it? This "not guilty" (as found by a jury) man was also dumped on with $25 million in punitive damages.

Punitive Damages: Also called "Exemplary" damages. Exemplary damages are damages on an increased scale, awarded to the plaintiff over and above what will barely compensate him for his property loss, where the wrong done to him was aggravated by circumstances of violence, oppression, malice, fraud, or wanton and wicked conduct on the part of the defendant, and are intended to solace the plaintiff for mental anguish, laceration of his feelings, shame, degradation, or other aggravations of the original wrong, or else to punish the defendant for his evil behavior or to make an example of him, for which reason they are also called "punitive" or "punitory" damages or "vindictive" damages. Unlike compensatory or actual damages, punitive or exemplary damages are based upon an entirely different public policy consideration—that of punishing the defendant or of setting an example for similar wrongdoers, as above noted. In cases in which it is proved that a defendant has acted willfully, maliciously, or fraudulently, a plaintiff may be awarded exemplary damages in addition to compensatory or actual damages. Damages other than compensatory damages which may be awarded against a person to punish him for outrageous conduct. Wetherbee v. United Ins. Co. of America, 18 C.A. 3d 266, 95 Cal. Retr. 678, 580. Such are given as an enhancement of compensatory damages because of wanton, reckless, malicious or oppressive character of acts complained of. Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition.

So again, you have a "not guilty" man having to PAY damages for that which HE COULD NOT HAVE DONE IN ACTION. IF THIS IS NOT DOUBLE JEOPARDY, THEN I CANNOT IMAGINE WHAT MIGHT BE DOUBLE JEOPARDY. IF O.J. HAD BEEN FOUND "GUILTY", THEN, AND ONLY THEN, COULD THERE BE "DAMAGES" OF ANY KIND.

In real-time Common Law this would not even be a consideration as is outrageously mandated by the judicial system on anyone.]

"This was a private high-tech LYNCHING of this Black man. They took the brother to the shed, tarred him and feathered him, and lynched him. That was a shed, it was not a court of justice," said Mary Cox, a Simpson friend and attorney from Washington, D.C.

Ms. Cox, who met Mr. Simpson last year and sat with him in the court room last month, believes the trial was part of an assault on Black men and highlights America's unfair legal system.

"Basically race and race-based issues constitute the issue of highest concern and interest in this society," said Dr. Naim Akbar, a psychologist and instructor at Florida State University, in Tallahassee, Fla., noting that Simpson trial coverage overshadowed the President's State of the Union address.

"What the O.J. case did is serve as kind of a homing point, or a magnetic force that was clearly able to delineate what the true issues, concerns and priorities are in this country," said Dr. Akbar, who has written books and lectures about race and racism in society.

The first verdict raised doubt about the system's ability to protect whites, and the second verdict was vindication; it proved the system was intact and could yield the desired outcomes, he said.

Another troubling fact of the Simpson saga for whites, especially in the first trial, was Johnnie Cochran's defense of the former football star, said Dr. Akbar. Mr. Cochran was a Black man trained in a white system with the ability to fight the system and win, he said.

But Simpson jurors denied race played a factor in their decisions. "Anyone who comments on something like that, without knowing what we went through... are being an essential racist themselves, saying this is a white verdict, when what they're doing is basing their decision on the color of our skin," said one juror, at a Jan. 10 press conference.

Conservative Blacks, like Robert Woodson, who is based in Washington, D.C., largely argued that race was not the major issue in the case, until media cover- age played up the Black-white differences.

"Race was always a part of the whole configuration and the point of it is, it's the nature of how race is always a part of situations in this society. That is that even when it is not acknowledged or expressed, or called that, race is an underlying dimension whenever there is a Black-white relationship. Period." countered Dr. Akbar.

An ABC News poll conducted after the first civil trial verdict found 74 percent of whites agreed with it and 66 percent of Blacks disagreed.

The poll also found that 70 percent of Blacks thought the Jury's mostly white composition was a major reason Mr. Simpson was found liable. Forty-four percent of whites thought the same, according to the poll.

Though the Simpson civil verdicts were from a different court, with a different burden of proof, Mr. Simpson was, in effect, tried for the same crime, said Atty. Abdul Arif Muhammad, general counsel for the Nation of Islam.

Legal niceties aside, the case was largely the same evidence, same witnesses, he said.

A basic question in civil cases is that of negligence or wrongful death, actions that lead to the injury or demise of someone, he noted. The criminal trial decided that, Atty. Muhammad argued.

"I am baffled as a lawyer because I don't know what conduct is being asserted that Mr. Simpson engaged in that produced the death of Mr. Goldman and Miss Nicole Brown Simpson. Here is a murder, so in this particular case, what were the actions that they are claiming that... caused the deaths?"

Civil cases after any criminal trial are not that common, largely because those who commit everyday acts of theft or violence don't have much to sue for, he explained. So money was obviously an important element in this case, the attorney added.

The trial again exposed the Black-white divide, to the point that some Simpson defense lawyers basically sided with or congratulated Brown family attorneys on their victory, noted Atty. Muhammad.

"There are many whites who know what's true. But many of them are afraid to speak it because of the pressure from their own community," he said.

Also at play was the white notion that Mr. Simpson was so obsessed with his wife that he felt he had to kill her if deprived of her; but whites could not conceive that Mr. Simpson loved her so much that he would NOT kill her, Atty. Muhammad said.

"The slave and the slave master do not see the same thing. And the slavemaster's children do not see what the children of the slaves see," he said. "What does justice look like, and that's really what the core of the O.J. Simpson case is all about."

Blacks suffer under court rulings and respect the system but whites do not respect judgments counter to their desires, said Atty. Muhammad. "What we are really witnessing is the open hatred of whites against Blacks and it's being made manifest," he said.

"He is not going to have to confront the cold, hard reality of the hidden hatred that exists for someone like himself because he is a Black man."

Attorney R. Eugene Pincham, a former Illinois Appellate Court judge in Chicago, feels critical facts were denied to the civil jury because former L.A. Police Det. Mark Fuhrman did not testify.

Under oath in the criminal trial, when Mr. Fuhrman was asked whether [or not] he framed Mr. Simpson, the detective invoked the 5th Amendment, saying he would not answer the question because he did not want to incriminate himself, said Judge Pincham.

"That's the first time I've ever heard of that in the history of criminal prosecutions in America. I've never known a state's witness, upon whose testimony the state is relying to convict the defendant, to take the 5th Amendment on the question of whether or not he planted evidence or whether or not he framed the defendant," said Judge Pincham.

If a civil suit had been filed against Mr. Fuhrman and the LAPD at the same time Mr. Simpson was fighting in civil court, it would have helped highlight this point, said Judge Pincham.

"To suggest that Fuhrman is not on trial is ludicrous. He is the one who arrived at the scene, who supposedly protected the scene, who saw the scene of the homicide as well as the Simpson residence upon which the prosecution relied, as well as the Browns relied in the civil trial.

"The public has been diverted from one of the crucial issues in this case, and that is the integrity of law enforcement officers. Not only in my judgment did it happen in this case, Fuhrman indicated clearly that it did when he took the 5th Amendment."

[H: Ah, but don't you think that probably now that the police investigators have denied fair representation of Mr. Fuhrman that Fuhrman is going to enjoy testifying AGAINST THE DEPARTMENT and judicial system—at the Common Law court proceedings FOR O.J. Simpson?]

"In the white majority's mind it will never be over because it combines their two worst nightmares: one is sex and one is money," said Alexis Moore, a member of the Philadelphia Tribune editorial Board.

"You are talking about a rich Black man buying his way out of a murder. You are talking about a rich Black man who slept with a blonde 17-year-old. That's at the core of their obsession with this thing. I don't think it's ever going to end because whites won't admit that sex and money are intertwined in their denial that they are racist; they just won't admit it," she said.

A more important lesson? Blacks "don't expect anything from government, much less justice. So that when a rich Black man does what a rich white man has done for years—that is buy his way out of a verdict by having his high-priced team of lawyers and then turns around and has to pay for it anyway—all it does is reinforce the impression in our community that you cannot depend on this government. And that is going to wind up costing this country a hell of a lot more than O.J.," she predicted.

"White America seems to be looking for some grand metaphor that summarizes and encapsulates the racial tragedy in this country," observed Salim Muwakkil, senior editor of In These Times magazine and a contributing Chicago Sun Times columnist.

"And it seems again like they've invested in this trial, just like they invested in the potential candidacy of Colin Powell [H: Remember that THIS is now SIR COLIN POWELL, having been knighted by the Queen of England, which makes Col. Powell a subject of the English Crown and a patriot of England.] with this ability to mask the differences, the racial ability to mask the differences, the racial differences that we suffer. And it seems like now they're saying: 'Oh now the trial is over, racial healing can begin.' That's some of what I'm sensing in the trial," he said.

Simpson trial reporting was sensational, said the writer. But the case gripped the country and embodied a range of cultural issues, such as dealing with race, sex and power, as America tries to speed toward color-blindness without dealing with a racist past, he said.

"I think both juries made the proper decision, given the standards of proof under which they labored and the different kinds of evidence placed before them. These things—not the differences in the racial makeup of the juries—account for verdicts that are diametrically opposite," argued writer Carl Rowan [a Black], in his Feb. 7 syndicated column.

The columnist contended that Mr. Simpson's testimony left reason for doubt and was contradictory, leading to the judgment against him.

But Mary Cox sees the civil trial as an extension of the criminal trial with the states' unlimited resources used to help the Brown family.

In the criminal trial, Mr. Simpson did not buy justice but was able to go toe-to-toe with a corrupt legal system, said Ms. Cox. No one should have to spend millions to defend themselves, argued the attorney.

In her 17 years of practice, Ms. Cox said her clients have never been able to afford an investigator, let alone the other help they needed. So in the O.J. case, a man had the ability to hire and pay for what all defendants should have, she said.

The help given Brown-Goldman lawyers—FBI testimony, police testimony, DA's office assistance—no doubt for free, is never given in day-to-day cases, she said.

Simpson supporters contend the media collaborated by broadcasting information leaked by the state that contaminated the minds of potential jurors. They say the judge also denied defense motions and gave the plaintiffs a roadmap for how to pursue the case, avoiding mistakes made in the first trial.

Mr. Simpson also should have had a Black lawyer in the courtroom to remind the jurors, judge and the media that there was a "conscience" at the trial, Ms. Cox said. Without that, the jurors became comfortable with the judge, plaintiffs' lawyers and media, she said.

It was also unfair for Mr. Simpson to have to fight for his children and his civil trial at the same time, Ms. Cox said. But even Shirley Baker, Mr. Simpson's sister, admitted they didn't expect to win the civil case, she conceded.

"This is a case that exposed the unjust judicial and justice system in this country," said Ms. Cox. "He's a man who had celebrity status that commanded the world's attention; why not expose this unjust justice system, that no man or woman, Black or white, poor or working class, or wealthy can afford? But the people that are penalized by it are African people, people that look like me and you.

"I need a level playing ground to represent my little clients and that's all I ever asked for. But you know what, it ain't coming," she said.

[END OF QUOTING]

Of course "it ain't coming", readers. It is not SUPPOSED to come. Until you wake up and smell the burned citizen parties in this atrocious farce, you don't have a chance at freedom, never mind the equality.

And what does it take to turn over this nightmare oppression? Somebody like O.J. Simpson willing to stop spending money on worthless attorneys and turn to defending himself according to COMMON LAW. He is an attention-getter and that is what you must have to bring justice back within the corrupted and puppet-master's courts.

Then you need to follow on with "generally accepted" cases which are just as fixed but only deal with property and reputation, i.e., the Ekkers and ones of similar unreasonable non-justice at the hands of conspiratorial judges and lawyers, not to even mention the parties in opposition.

UNDER THE LAW, HE CAN'T BE TRIED AGAIN FOR THE MURDERS—SO HE CAN REALLY GO FOR THE JUGULAR OF EVERY INVOLVED PARTY AND PERSON. THEY WILL BE SO BUSY HIDING AND DEFENDING THEMSELVES THAT EVEN THE THREAT TO HIS FAMILY WILL GO BEGGING ON THE PART OF THE OFFENDERS. THE WORLD WOULD BE WATCHING AND YOU CAN NOW GO FORTH AND CHANGE THE COURSE OF THE WORLD AND HISTORY. IT WILL BE FAR MORE SIMPLE THAN YOU ANTICIPATE AT THIS MINUTE. KNOCK OUT OR OVER JUST ONE "BIGGIE" AND THE REST WILL TOPPLE LIKE THE PROVERBIAL DOMINOES. THE LAWYERS, IN ADDITION, WILL BE BAILING OUT OF THAT BAR ASSOCIATION LIKE RATS FROM A SINKING SHIP. BUT WHO WANTS THEM? SURELY NOT HONEST AMERICAN OR WORLD CITIZENS! O.J. CAN DO HIS OWN AT A BASIC STARTING COST OF WHAT-EVER FILING FEES MIGHT BE FOR THE FIRST CASE FILING. HE CAN KNOCK OUT THE WHOLE BUNCH IN ONE FELL-SWOOP FOR LESS THAN $200. And that is 200 dollars, not 200 million dollars.

And just who do I think I am? Ah, yes, me—well, I am sent by GOD to bring unto you some sense in information and in common sense under the Laws of God. But as I have said before: YOU HAVE TO DO IT. I am not some lanky, stringy alien or E.T. as you want to call anything you don't know about or which might be invisible to your human physical eyes—but I am that which is sent when you call upon GOD with sincere pleading for assistance and to be shown the way. So be it and Selah. Remember, little ones—GOD WINS! YOU, HOWEVER, WIN ONLY WHEN YOU TAKE UP THE RIGHT PATHWAY AND GO IN TRUTH FOR SELVES, AND THEN YOU CAN GO FORTH IN THE NAME OF GOD AND YE SHALL BE GIVEN TO PREVAIL.

Good morning and I salute you whose eyes of the mind are opening upon the possibilities God has presented for your use. Be brave and daring in YOUR KNOWING for therein lies the winning of the PRIZE and the gaining of the GRACE sought by MANKIND.

3/17/97 #1 HATONN

O.J. SIMPSON

Did you REALLY think you were through with O.J.?

Tired of this subject? Shame on you. This one case points out the deliberate and intentional taking over of a nation and placing it into a controlled environment of slavery (of every color and race) more than anything so far come into your hands as a tool for FREEDOM.

Can O.J. handle the burden of more and more and more confrontation and strife? Oh yes indeed, for we offer the ONLY WAY POSSIBLE TO CLEAR HIS GOOD NAME, PROTECT HIS FAMILY, AND CHANGE A NATION, AND THEN A WORLD, BACK INTO SOME SEMBLANCE OF JUSTICE IN THE "JUDICIAL JUSTICE SYSTEM". OH INDEED, HE

CAN TAKE THAT BALL AND REALLY "RUN" WITH IT. PERHAPS WE WILL EVEN MEND THE KNEES WHILE WE'RE AT IT AND WON'T THAT BE A SURPRISE TO THE BLACK-ROBED WOLVES?

So, let's get with it and see what the Black community, in its scarce press thinks about the O.J. Simpson fiasco of White Supremacy and Khazarian Mafia takeover of innocent lives in the name of GREED.

From FINAL CALL, Vol. 16, Number 17, Feb. 18, 1997, "Editorial":

[QUOTING:]

AMERICA'S GREAT DIVIDE

Who would have thought the name O.J. Simpson would ever be synonymous with the racial divide in America?

The football great was once among the country's favorite sons, honored for his on-field accomplishment, applauded for his on-scene pro-football analysis, loved for running through airports in commercials and appearing in movies full of laughs and jokes.

Today O.J. is a metaphor for the greatest divide in America and the different experiences, viewpoints, reality and worlds in which blacks and whites exist.

The criminal trial jury found Mr. Simpson not guilty of murder. The civil trial jury found Mr. Simpson liable for the deaths of Ron Goldman and Nicole Brown Simpson. They awarded the Goldman family $8.3 million in compensation and the Goldman and Brown families $25 million in punitive damages.

The criminal trial jury was predominantly Black and the civil trial was predominantly white, with no Black jurors.

Two different trials, two different groups of people and two different verdicts. But should anything else have been expected?

America remains largely segregated in housing; politicians scapegoat Black males on crime issues and Black women are scapegoated on welfare and social issues.

Whether hailing a cab, fighting for a promotion or suffering because of plots of executives in corporate boardrooms, Blacks feel the sting of racism every day.

It is painful to be Black in white America, while whites, though troubled about the country, believe that the U.S. is the finest nation on Earth. [H: It is painful to be White, Brothers, in America as well. The Black brothers must stop the insanity of blaming "Whites" to the same extent that all of anyone must stop blaming others. There are bad Blacks, bad Whites, bad native Americans and bad anything—just like there are bad Eagles and good Eagles. THIS IS THE insanity which must STOP. Neither or none of the races can do this ALONE—YOU MUST JOIN FORCES AND WALK THIS ROAD TOGETHER IN TRUTH AND LIGHT—AND WITH A HELL OF A LOT OF PUBLICITY.]

To whites, America is the bastion of liberty, the guardian of freedom and the hope and example for the world to follow.

The difference in the way Blacks and whites see the world is very simple: It is the difference between the world of the slave and the world of the slavemaster.

[H: Right here the Editor-author points out exactly what I mean in the messages above. No, middle-White America has footed the bill for all the progress of the Nation whether the Blacks, orange, purple or green people want to note it—right along with the blood, sweat and tears of the same of all races. The Blacks are no more discriminated against in the system than the poor Whites who are allowed to own nothing, are taken from, can't hold property and still have to, like the Blacks, but without equal opportunity laws in their behalf, somehow figure how to feed babies and try to hold together their families. The Blacks must meet our people of White origins as brethren as well, lest the reverse bigotry rot the whole of mankind. This is NOT about Black or White—this is about the freedom and survival of MANKIND. What gives me clues to the attitudes of the writers? The fact that Black is capitalized in upper case and "white" is not. This is as visible a "put-down" as anything that can be done. Are we on this planet together or are we just warriors in separate "colors of the hood" around this globe? Isn't it time to unite and take back your world?]

The two can never see the world the same; one is in control of society and the other barely is recognized by the same society.

The Simpson trial didn't cause the racial divide but it did prove once again that the problem of the 21st Century is the problem of the color line.

Good words, photo-ops, apologies, hidden thoughts and secret feelings will not bridge the great divide.

Any bridge would have to be constructed on the basis of truth, yet Blacks and whites cannot agree on the truth. Even the lone Black alternate juror who did not deliberate the verdict disagreed tooth and nail with the other white jurors during a televised press conference.

Where is the country headed; where should the nation turn to deal with this dilemma?

The Honorable Elijah Muhammad, patriarch of the nation of Islam, warned that if we could not get along in peace, it would be better to separate.

Where is the country headed, where should the nation turn to deal with this dilemma?

The Honorable Minister Farrakhan has said that separation is the ultimate solution if justice cannot be obtained within the American system. [H: But this does not move you any closer to EQUALITY UNDER GOD, does it?]

America may not like to hear talk of separation but the reality in the nation is already "separate". The only thing that needs to be discussed are the terms of the failed relationship.

[H: We must get rid of this very idea of separation because the Whites think the Blacks have chosen separation and with the established media pushing that concept—what else is the average citizen to believe? There are radicals in every race, every color tribe, and in every creed. Separation is NEVER the answer. "Like-kind" is NOT the same thing as in "separation of one human from another human" and YOU WOULD-BE LEADERS MUST HAVE EQUAL RESPONSIBILITY IN TEARING DOWN THOSE NOW ACCEPTED BARRIERS AND RACIAL STUMBLING BLOCKS. You have cried out to GOD ATON, THE ONE LIGHT, for solutions and "show us the way" and so, therefore, SEE THE ANSWER TO YOUR CALL WITHOUT FURTHER BLINDNESS AND REFUSAL TO SEE THAT WHICH MAY COME IN A DIFFERENT FORM FROM THAT EXPECTED BY ANY GIVEN GROUP OR INDIVIDUAL.

How? Well, we have the "way" and we can share the "conduit" for funding, for reaching out across the oceans unto our brothers and each of us can put into the picture the puzzle pieces dealt us—and

TOGETHER, putting the pieces into equal sharing, we can move the mountains and revolve the world. We have the "contract" and some of the Blacks and others across the oceans have the mode of backing necessary—and together we can have unequalled funding for supporting a change into truth and validation of Common Law and Common Sense in Equality. But you see something? GOD demands that you do it RIGHTEOUSLY lest you only exchange one terrible tyrant for that of another who would, for greed, further sell out his nation and his people.]

[QUOTING:]

WHITES PLAY THE REAL RACE CARD

by Harry X. Davidson, Ph.D

One must ask the question: Why has the O.J. Simpson case had such a profound emotional impact on white America? "Simpson Is Found Liable", headlined newspapers all across America while the president's "State of the Union" speech barely managed to warrant space on the front page. The verdict even prompted President Clinton to call on America to respect the verdict and move on. The reaction to the verdicts in the O.J. Simpson cases demonstrates the intensity of America's race problem.

The case makes mockery of the judicial system, while serving to remind Black people that very little has changed since the days of mob lynching and kangaroo courts. Historically, the lynching of Blacks has served to reaffirm the fragile identity of many whites. Whether guilty or not, it is apparent that the national obsession for vengeance against Mr. Simpson is stronger than the need to maintain respect for our legal system. Why? Because the case has more far-reaching implications. It is an indictment of Black people in general and Black men in particular.

Let me suggest that at a time when both Blacks and whites are falling victim to massive corporate down-sizing, governmental cuts and privatization, America needs an O.J. Simpson case—a scapegoat, a diversion from the troubles that confront the nation. Both the white masses and the Black masses have been rendered powerless and are exploited. Among other things, racism and the notion of white supremacy serve to divide the masses of Black and white people.

The O.J. Simpson cases demonstrate how the mental state of racism and white supremacy serves to impair the ability to reason in its otherwise intelligent victims. (One does not have to be white to suffer from this disorder.)

The loss of the ability to reason is a major criteria in determining a mental disorder. Once the ability to reason is impaired the emotions are allowed to dominate and control behavior. These same emotions can be manipulated to the benefit of others.

Too many Americans know more about the affairs of O.J. Simpson and Nicole Brown Simpson than we know about the affairs of state. Locked into a state of denial and presented with the options of focusing on "The State of the Union Address" or the Simpson verdict, most preoccupied Americans were more concerned with Simpson's punitive financial state than the deteriorated state of the union.

True, psychology endeavors to understand the conscious and subconscious forces that instill and motivate behavior. Yet, little research has been granted to the study of white racism and those whites who are afflicted by the disorder of white supremacy. White supremacy has programmed too many white people to feel privileged. Despite their condition and status, most whites are convinced that they are better than Blacks and people of color.

Labor unions and political parties were formed to protect white workers against capitalistic exploitation. These same labor unions used racism to gain privileges for their white members. Once-powerful labor unions now have been made impotent. Political parties that once represented the interest of the working-class are now controlled by "big money interests". Many whites have become collectively confused and powerless to change their plight.

White people are rightfully angry and resentful. However, they are void of a national leadership that would allow them to understand the true source of their anger and the proper course of action to pursue. Their inability to collectively reason results in an emotionally-driven displacement of their frustration, anger and rage. The Goldmans and the Browns have become social and psychological symbols of white working-class America. [H: Believe me, the Simpson babies in point of controversy are simply "token blacks" for the Elite to cover their overt lies. By the way, Blacks of America: The intentional destruction of the educational system and dumbing down of the citizens of all races in the U.S., and actually around the world, has made for an equal playing field in total lack of educational prowess and intelligence references. One more generation and the game is lost because the humans in these controlled environments of intentional "dumbing down" will have ceased to reason in their enforced state of ignorance and stupidity.]

Ironically, the Blacks and people of color who whites were told they were superior to, are depicted in the media as multi-millionaire gladiators and entertainers. We fail to realize that these gladiators and entertainers serve to reduce stress on the society by diverting the attention of both the white and Black masses. Intoxicated by alcohol and high on drugs, the American working-class voyeuristically blows off steam and reduces stress by, for example, watching the Packers and the Patriots, figuratively and literally, destroy each other.

Confusion is created in a white psyche that must somehow balance a love/hate conflict created when they love and admire Blacks whom they were previously programmed to despise and to see as inferior. When aggravated, their distorted perception is that black people are "getting over on them". This delusional perception took on a reality base when O.J. Simpson employed a legal "dream team" headed by another Black man, Johnnie Cochran, to orchestrate a mostly Black jury, a true jury of Mr. Simpson's peers.

The fragile white false ego perceived that justice had not been served, that "O.J. got over on them". The broader underlying subconscious association is that not only has O.J. Simpson gotten over but Black people who have been promoted have gotten free educational rides that have landed them multi-millions of dollars. They resent the fact that all of this appears to be happening for Blacks, those who are perceived as inferior, and nothing for working class whites. The O.J. Simpson case symbolizes Blacks who have betrayed the state of inferiority and submission that white society has assigned to them.

A strategy was employed, the real race card played. The fragile white ego was restored to its original delusional state of superiority. The masses of whites can now vicariously rejoice in the millions of dollars awarded to the Browns and Goldmans. Perhaps they have been appeased, at least for now.

[QUOTING:]

RACE AND THE O.J. SIMPSON DRAMA

by David G. Du Bois

Despite the unanimous decision of the jury in the criminal trial, and, for many white Americans because of it, there continues to be debate throughout America, among Blacks and whites, over whether or not O.J. Simpson committed the murders. But what should really concern Americans, and particularly Black Americans, is the racist and sexist viciousness in reaction to the criminal trial "not guilty" verdict, openly expressed in press, TV and radio commentary at the time, and continuing up to this writing, condemning the predominantly Black and female jury of 12 (including three non-blacks and two men). That commentary reflected what most white Americans felt and feel but only express among themselves: the jury's intellectual inability to deal with the scientific evidence provided by the prosecution, together with its assumed pro-black, anti-white bias and "feminine emotionalism".

However, few commentators, white or Black, want to deal with the extent of white male fear of Black male retaliation for the rape and ravaging with impunity of Black women by white men since the days of slavery, a hidden truth lurking in the background of the O.J. Simpson drama. On the national, white, underground information network the story goes: "If, before the whole world, Black O.J. Simpson can marry a white woman, ravage that white woman and then toss that white woman aside for other white women, and get away with it, every Black male in America will consider that road of retaliation, and many will take it."

This explains America's obsession with the continuing O.J. Simpson drama.

This is the motivation behind the civil case in which the families of the murdered victims, and their supporters, thwarted in their attempt to have O.J. Simpson convicted in the criminal trial, and having lost their bid to have his children taken away from him, intend to ruin him financially. At the same time they want to discourage other Blacks from following in O.J.'s footsteps.

The unspoken and in America the unspeakable truth about the O.J. Simpson drama is the white male guilt it engenders for the wholesale violation of Black women by white men during the days of slavery and throughout much of America to this day. To know just how "wholesale" count the number of "cafe-au-lait" African-Americans you know or have seen on television or in films, beginning with O.J. Simpson and his family. Nearly a century ago, in 1906, sociologist, historian, activist W.E.B. Du Bois wrote that of the nearly 10 million Blacks as recorded by the U.S. Census Bureau, he believed through study and wide observation that nearly one-third had "recognizable traces of white blood".

The number of indigenous U.S. families with interracial, i.e., Black/white, sexual intimacies and issue-producing histories, has never been ascertained. But, its prevalence is undeniable, particularly throughout the Southern states, but as well nationwide. In colonial times before the creation of the nation, white indentured servants and Black slaves and free Black persons often married and created families, until the practice was outlawed allegedly because of the difficulty of determining the legal rights of the off-spring.

With the creation of the nation, under slavery and beyond, the overwhelming number of cases of such relationships were between white males by coercion and threat and Black women in no position to resist. Many such relationships were without overt coercion or threat but were consensual only in the sense that there was no overt resistance by the Black woman. In some sections of the South, notably in Louisiana, well-to-do white males openly kept Black and mulatto (mixed Black and white) mistresses, and in some cases two distinct families—one white, one mulatto. Then, there were those relationships between marauding, reckless, devil-may-care white males and "loose" Black women or Black and mulatto prostitutes. The majority of today's African-Americans are the progeny of these several different kinds of interracial, intimate relationships.

The much smaller number of relationships between Black men and white women were most often solicited surreptitiously by white women, fearful lest their white men learn of the liaison. This practice, not uncommon throughout the nation, in the South was the justification for a wave of lynch mob murders of Black males, most often falsely accused of rape of white women, that swept the nation from the 1890s through the 1930s. With the threat of a rape charge being made by a rejected white woman hanging over his head the Black male often reluctantly submitted to the solicitation. The issue of such liaisons almost always resulted in tragic consequences for both the mother and child. The true tragedies, however, were those interracial relationships that dared not reveal a mutual respect and move to a condemning society ruled by racism, of which there must have been many over the nearly 400 years of this country's existence.

It is the image of the Black male with the white female that calls up these memories among white males today; memories of the freedom their fathers and their fathers' fathers had with Black women from the time the first 20 Africans were landed at Virginia from a Dutch warship in 1619. But today those memories are accompanied by the image of the big, bad, angry, threatening, Black male, typified at its most menacing in the black-garbed, gun-toting Black Panther Party member of the 1960s, that the media, television and Hollywood films consistently portray. The objective is to associate street crime in America exclusively with Black and brown (Latino) males. That image terrifies white males as retaliation for their elicit [si.] behavior with Black women.

O.J. Simpson's mistake was the flair with which he lived his life with Nicole Brown in Southern California. His, together with his natural good looks, his wealth and his popularity, made it appear to many white males of undistinguished achievement that he was flaunting his ravaged white conquest in their collective face as a kind of retaliation. In Los Angeles this media-hyped behavior surely engendered murderous rage within a law enforcement community whose hatred for Black and brown Americans is demonstrated daily in South Central Los Angeles and has been revealed to the world by the video-taped police beating of Black motorist Rodney King and the taped racist and sexist venom of the prosecution's chief witness in the Simpson trial, former Los Angeles policeman Mark Fuhrman.

The O.J. Simpson drama forces Americans, Black and white, to confront their far more numerous and complex "secrets and lies" about race and sex than the brilliantly realized characters of the fine British film of that title on the same subject could ever imagine. This explains its continuing fascination for the nation.

[END OF QUOTING]

I want to offer one last article from this same newspaper, please. It is about GOVERNMENT and it is probably the most IMPORTANT thing you will read this day, or any day.

[QUOTING:]

MESSENGER OF THE MESSIANIC MILLENNIUM

by Rev. James Luther Bevel (Page 31)

THE GOVERNMENT OF PEACE MUST BE ESTABLISHED

Government can be defined as collective, correct, sociological thinking and work. From this definition it is easy to see how incorrect assumptions and false conclusions are counterproductive and criminal. From this perspective, the necessity for purity and right motive can also be clearly seen.

When government is in fact "collective, correct, sociological thinking and work", each premise that is advanced must be a correct perception or reality that can be proven to be true. It is the "correct perception" that has to be proven to be true that is acted upon by the collective body.

No person or any people can find protection for their lives, liberty, or their intellectual, scientific, industrial, institutional development without instituting government among themselves.

Let us look again at the definition of government: "collective, correct, sociological thinking and work".

Often, the inferior slave assumes that the acquisition of cash or consumer items is an improvement of self. The acquisition of cash and consumer items is not self-improvement nor does it denote the improvement of a group.

The acquisition of knowledge that brings freedom, peace, goods and services when it is justly and equitably applied is true self- and group-improvement.

However, the innate, divine quality inherent in every person seeks truth. It is this reality that causes all systems of tyranny to be short-lived. Inherent in men (male and female) is the longing for and striving for freedom, truth and excellence. It is this longing and striving that gives birth to new governments.

It was this longing and striving for freedom, truth and excellence in the Honorable Elijah Muhammad that gave birth to the Nation of Islam.

This same longing and striving for freedom, truth and excellence in Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., gave birth to the intense active civil and human rights movement in this nation in the 1950s and 1960s.

In spite of the drug assault, the germ warfare assault, the miseducation assault, and the immoral assault perpetrated by the military-industrial complex, the drive for freedom, truth and excellence in the peoples of the Earth cannot be destroyed.

No matter how complex and intense the assaults may be or may become, it will not stop people from instituting governments among men (male and female).

Why is this so? This is so because as men (male and female) seek and find God's (Allah's) kingdom within themselves, they will have the strength, courage, insight, and will to institute it among men (male and female).

So today, we stand on the brink of the greatest breakthrough in human history. Men (male and female) are beginning to comprehend the Messenger's message: that any government that is not based on God's (Allah's) word is no government at all.

Men (male and female) are beginning to see that justice that is not attained by love and truth is no justice at all.

Children can plainly see that any government that proclaims that it is wrong to pray in school, but it is right to be sexually perverse with your fellow soldier if you don't tell, is no government at all.

No one with good sense will say it is correct, collective, sociological thinking and work not to pray in school and that it is correct, collective, sociological thinking and work to be sexually perverse and not tell.

And so, my fellow citizens in the Nation of Islam (the nation of peace), we have a job to do. We must institute government—correct, collective, sociological thinking and work among men (male and female).

TELEPHONE HOTLINE

This is a service for our dedicated readers. Today's Watch telephone hotline carries the latest news and comments from Commander Hatonn's most recent writings. This is our way of keeping you informed about fast-breaking news and events.

The message machine will answer after 2 rings if there are any new messages for that day, and after 4 rings if not. Thus daily callers can hang up after 2 rings and save toll charges if no new message has been recorded. If the hotline does not answer your call then that means that there is currently no hotline message.

PLEASE NOTE:
 CONTACT and Phoenix Source Distributors are NOT the same! Checks sent for JOURNALS or book orders should NOT be made out to CONTACT—and vice versa.
