Laundering A Trillion Dollars Of Cocaine-Heroin Money Through Political Campaigns

3/3/97 GARY WEAN

We are in a terrible fix—here is where we stand.

The Murrah Federal Building in Oklahoma City was blown-up; Americans, women, children and men were killed and maimed in the terrifying explosion. We all know the fearful count, we have heard it, seen it and thought of it a million times. Someone must hate us with a bitterness far beyond our comprehension—you will learn who and why. It goes back a long, long time.

In 1947, half a century ago, as a Los Angeles policeman I busted a Black drug peddler, "Black-Dot McGee". He was the main distributor of cocaine and heroin in Watts, South Los Angeles. McGee copped out; he worked for a corrupt L.A. policeman, Sgt. Thomas Bradley in Newton Street Division. Bradley was the boss of all drug operations in Watts. Anyone stupid enough to start up competition was harshly rubbed out—usually a free trip to Georgia Street Receiving Hospital and a year in a jail cell.

BLAST OFF

Excerpted from THE SPOTLIGHT, 3/10/97, [quoting:]

Florida lawmakers, led by Rep. Dave Weldon (R), "plunged into an all-out effort...to sell Cape Canaveral to the Israelis," said the Miami Herald. Israel wants to launch Israeli-built Shavit rockets from the United States to place commercial satellites into orbit. Launching the satellites from Israel has been hampered by tight security restrictions in the Middle East, according to published reports. The Clinton White House is ambivalent on foreign rocket launchings from U.S. soil. [End quoting]

It's surprising Bill hasn't already cashed it in. No thing or no one is safe around him.

WARNING FOR UK CATHOLICS

Excerpted from THE SPOTLIGHT, 3/10/97, [quoting:]

A new secret surveillance proposal, known as the Police Bill, being considered by the British Parliament, came under attack from the Roman Catholic Church which said it was "greatly concerned" that it would lead to the bugging of confessionals. If passed, the measure would give the police powers for the first time to use "intrusive surveillance" in the form of cameras and bugging devices in priests' presbyteries and confessionals, as well as any vehicle or building so long as a chief constable regarded it as a necessary means of monitoring a suspected "serious criminal". [End quoting]

Do you really think that anything said in the confessionals has always been private?? How long has it been since top leaders of religions have been ethical and honest??

GIVE US YOUR SCUM

Excerpted from THE SPOTLIGHT, 3/10/97, [quoting:]

Nearly 72,000 individuals became citizens last year despite having criminal records—some for crimes as serious as rape-murder, child molestation, assault or drug trafficking—a Justice Department review of immigration records has found. At least 180,000 others were granted citizenship without undergoing complete criminal background checks, according to figures provided to Congress by Assistant Attorney General Stephen Colgate. [End quoting]

More thugs to help Billy Boy and the NWO gangsters control you with terror.

U.K. REPORT: 11 YEAR-OLDS SHOULD GET FREE CONDOMS

Excerpted from THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, 2/16/97, [quoting:]

Children in Britain as young as 11 should be offered free condoms and sex education in an effort to reduce the nation's high rate of teenage pregnancies, a health advisory body recommended Saturday. Several members of Parliament were outraged at the report by the National Health Service Center for Reviews and Dissemination, which said that telling young people to say no to sex or wait until they were married simply did not work. Britain has the highest teenage pregnancy rate in Europe. [End quoting]

When parents become good parents the problem will be solved and not until.

THE FULLY INFORMED JURY

Excerpted from THE FULLY INFORMED JURY, a flyer, (for information 1-800-TEL-JURY), [quoting:]

True or false? When you sit on a jury, you may vote on the verdict according to your own conscience.

"TRUE, you say—and you're right. But then...

1. Why do most judges tell you that you may consider "only the facts"—that you are not to let your conscience, opinion of the law, or the motives of the defendant affect your decision?

In a trial by jury, the judge's job is to referee the trial and provide neutral legal advice to the jury, beginning with a full and truthful explanation of a juror's rights and responsibilities.

But judges rarely "fully inform" jurors of their rights, especially their power to judge the law itself and to vote on the verdict according to conscience. Instead, they end up assisting the prosecution by dismissing any prospective juror who will admit to knowing about this right—starting with anyone who also admits having qualms with the law.

We can only speculate on why: Distrust of the citizen jury? Disrespect for the idea of government "of, by, and for the people"? Unwillingness to part with power? Ignorance of all the rights and powers that trial jurors necessarily acquire upon assuming the responsibility of judging a case? Actual concern that trial jurors might "misuse" their power if told about it?

2. How can people get fair trials if the jurors are told they can't use their consciences?

Many people don't get fair trials. Too often, jurors actually end up apologizing to the person they've convicted—or to the community for acquitting when evidence of guilt seems perfectly clear.

Something is definitely wrong when the jurors feel ashamed of their verdict. They should never have to explain "I wanted to use my conscience, but the judge made us take an oath to apply the law as given to us, like it or not."

Too often, jurors who try to vote their consciences are talked out of it by other jurors who don't know their rights, or who believe they are required to reach a unanimous verdict because the judge "said so".

If jurors were supposed to judge "only the facts", their job could be done by computer. It is precisely because people have feelings, opinions, wisdom, experience, and conscience that we depend upon jurors, not upon machines, to judge court cases.

When it's your turn to serve, remember:

1. You may—and should—vote your conscience;
2. You cannot be forced to obey a "juror's oath";

3. It is your responsibility to "hang" the jury with your vote if you disagree with the other jurors!

Why Haven't I Heard About "Jury Rights" Before Now?

In the late 1800s, powerful special-interest groups inspired a series of judicial decisions which tried to limit jury rights. While no court has yet dared to deny that juries can "nullify" or "veto" a law, or can bring in a "general verdict", some—hypocritically—have held that jurors need not be told about these rights!

Today it's a rare and courageous attorney who will risk being cited for contempt for telling jurors their powers without first obtaining the judge's approval.

However, jury veto power is still recognized. In 1972 the D.C. Circuit Court of Appeals held that the trial jury has an "...unreviewable and irreversible power...to acquit in disregard of the instruction on the law given by the trial judge. The pages of history shine upon instances of the jury's exercise of its prerogative to disregard instructions of the judge; for example, acquittals under the fugitive slave law." (4731- 2d1113) [End quoting]

If the fully informed jury laws could be given to all jurors, we probably would see much more positive results in the courts.

THE END OF THE CHAPTER, NOT THE BOOK

The lack of American concern will assure that America is probably going to get the future it deserves.

Excerpted from Media Bypass Magazine, Colorado state Senator Charles Duke's column, March 1997, [quoting:]

For those who have read and commented about this column, let me say how deeply grateful I am for your support. For those editors who have withstood its contents, I am truly appreciative of your courage, which is the appropriate word. A simpler and less complicated word would not apply

Through this column, I have tried over the years to be a witness and to document the constitutional violations of those in office, both at the state and federal level. Most who took the trouble to read it have appreciated the stands I have taken for truth, honor, and justice. Some have, of course, used this column against me, twisting and distorting the words and phrases to something that was not at all intended. I will not judge these latter people. That is an exercise left for others.

If you read this column regularly, you also know that I go to great lengths to not personalize my columns. This one has undoubtedly not escaped your notice that it is different. It is intended to be a personal communication from me to you.

While it is more or less a trademark of mine to not mince words, you have probably gathered that I am leading up to something in a roundabout way. This has been one of my more difficult columns, not to gather the thoughts, but to actually commit the words to paper.

You see, this is my last regularly scheduled column.

There may, on occasion, be future articles about one thing or another that I believe worthy of your time. Hopefully, these will relate to events that are current and sufficiently controversial to merit public debate.

This particular column will be appropriately controversial and there will be those who disagree with its premise, some perhaps strongly. Nothing would be better than for the entire country to disagree and be motivated to prove me wrong.

It is my belief that we have now reached the point of diminishing returns in our battle to restore the Constitution. We would serve each other better to spend our time and energy learning how to survive in a country devoid of freedom, which is, I believe, the unstated goal of powerful interests who are now running our nation, both politically and economically. You may not at this time share this belief with me, but the day may come very soon when you will.

In several previous columns, I went on record stating that 1996 was a critical year and that the only known peaceful solution to reclaiming our Constitution was a public outcry for that at the November elections. While there were some notable exceptions, on balance the status quo won in November. In Colorado, every legislator candidate for re-election who had a strong unconstitutional record was returned.

Since carrying the nation's first Tenth Amendment Resolution three years ago, my life has indeed been very different in both positive and negative ways. I do not wish to dwell on those occurrences, which have been considerable, and which have been directed at me. Suffice it to say that I have a much more real and personal appreciation now for what happened to the signers of our Declaration of Independence.

More important than the attacks against me has been the dissolution of the many support groups that have helped us, not only in the Tenth Amendment battle, but also the defeat of the Conference of States (COS). This COS broadside attack on our Constitution will return in some other form and should, this time, be successful. There are not now enough people who care about our Constitution to present a respectable defense.

This has come about, partly by design, through the deliberate miseducation by the K-12 teaching establishment of our Constitution and related documents. This has also come about because many patriots are now weary from an almost superhuman effort to raise constitutional issues with little or no results from our government. Powerful interests have stolen everything in America that was of value. The ultimate responsibility for allowing this theft belongs to the people who stood idly by in an idyllic dream while the values that our Founding Fathers shed blood and died for were pilfered from them right under their noses.

Benjamin Franklin said, "They that can give up essential liberty to obtain a little temporary safety deserve neither liberty nor safety." The lack of American concern will assure that America is probably going to get the future it deserves.

I have always strived to tell you the truth, some would say, to a fault. You may rest assured that I will continue to do that as long as humanly possible. As the final chapter closes on The Great Experiment, some of us reaffirm the admonition that it is dangerous to be right when the government around you is wrong. [End quoting]

No doubt, one of the biggest reasons the vote last year was so discouraging is not the individuals who did or did not vote but the fact that many good people knew the vote was fixed before they went to the polls.

The answer, Senator Duke, is not to give up, but turn to God for help and keep working as if we will get it turned around.

SCIENTISTS DISCOVER GENETIC MATERIAL FROM SPANISH FLU THAT KILLED MILLIONS

From THE NEW YORK TIMES, 3/17/97, [quoting:]

A group of Defense Department researchers has found genetic material from the notorious Spanish flu virus that killed at least 20 million people in the influenza pandemic of 1918.

Fragments of the virus were found lurking in a formaldehyde-soaked scrap of lung tissue from a 21-year-old soldier at Fort Jackson, SC., who died of the flu nearly 80 years ago. And now, medical experts say, investigators at last have hope to answer a question that has troubled them for decades: what made this virus so deadly?

The search for the 1918 virus is of more than historical interest said Dr. Jeffrey K. Taubenberger at the Armed Forces Institute of Pathology in Washington, the leader of the team whose report is being published today in the journal Science.

Taubenberger and other researchers hope that understanding the genetic code of the Spanish flu virus might help scientists prepare for the next influenza pandemic, which many scientists think is coming soon. [End quoting]

It is quite probable that the flu in 1918 was a deliberate killing of humans by the Elite. They dispersed smallpox among the Indians by giving them blankets laced with it in the 1800s.

TERROR AT CABLE TV CONVENTION: RUPERT MURDOCH'S LATEST PLANS

Excerpted from The Orlando Sentinel, 3/17/97, [quoting:]

Space: The final frontier?

Whether or not Murdoch is a Star Trek fan, his plan to beam hundreds of TV channels—including local stations—directly into people's homes via satellite leaves cable television executives, gathered for a convention here this week, wishing somebody would beam him up.

Already, Murdoch's latest venture—a $1 billion stake in a Denver-based direct broadcast satellite company—is being referred to as the "Death Star".

Even Wall Street thinks the combination of EchoStar Communications with ASkyB, the nascent satellite television business of Murdoch's News Corp., makes a potentially formidable competitor to the $25 billion cable industry. Cable stocks plunged 8 to 10 percent after Murdoch's Feb. 24th announcement.

Kenneth Goldman, a money manager who watches media companies for Entermedia Growth Partners of Denver said consumers can expect more viewing choices than ever.

Telephone companies have scaled back plans to compete head-to-head with local cable systems. And microwave-delivered "wireless cable" has yet to evolve into the competitor policy makers had hoped. But direct broadcast satellite TV is cable's biggest nightmare.

"Cable is worried because Rupert Murdoch has shown a willingness to lose gobs of money to build new businesses. He takes big risks," Goldman said.

"The Murdoch deal restores a cloud of competition that seemed to be waning over the cable industry."

Of the 100 million U.S. homes with television, about 65 million have cable. Just 4.5 million households have direct-broadcast satellite TV, but the industry could grow to 21 million customers by 2001, according to some projections. [End quoting]

No matter who wins this battle I doubt if you will see much in the way of program upgrading in the near future. If we quit watching the raunchy shows we may start getting improvements.

A WAY TO FIGHT 'ROAD RAGE'

Psychologist Wants Universal "I'm Sorry" Gesture For Road

Excerpted from the Modesto Bee, 3/14/97, [quoting:]

Freeway driving is stressful enough without having another driver cut you off, flash you with bright lights or salute you with a raised middle finger.

The anger those gestures can trigger is called "road rage", according to Whittier psychologist Arnold Nerenberg.

People are literally driving themselves crazy, said the 55-year-old Nerenberg, who wrote about the phenomenon.

"When you talk to people about it, they realize it's a very serious problem," he said. "It distracts the person from driving safely and it endangers the subject, the victim and the innocent bystander."

His pamphlet, "Overcoming Road Rage: The 10-Step Compassion Program," describes how to overcome the anger.

Nerenberg breaks the disorder into two stages.

First, "road annoyance", when drivers react angrily and become frustrated with traffic conditions. They don't act out their anger by screaming or seeking revenge on the road. Their anger simmers inside, waiting to reach the boiling point.

The second stage, "road rage", is triggered when someone is pushed to make an obscene gesture, often tailgating a slower motorist or becoming obsessed with another fast driver.

Nerenberg goes for rides with some of his angrier patients, watching them as they drive and interact with other motorists, counseling them as their hostility escalates.

He said the secret to soothing road rage is for motorists to apologize to each other. That is not as easy as it sounds.

"If you get out of your car, the other person might think you are going to attack, and might attack you back or even shoot you," he said.

He is proposing that state motor vehicle departments officially recommend a universal hand sign that means "I'm sorry", much like the left-turn and right-turn signs that are taught in rules-of-the-road guides.

"I think the sign should be placing the palm of the hand upon the forehead," Nerenberg said. "The unspoken meaning would be: 'Ah! I'm sorry!' If drivers would be taught to put their palms to their foreheads after every angry incident on the highway, it would make the roads much safer places."

He said he expects to hear soon whether the American Psychological Association will recognize road rage as a psychological disorder.

Nerenberg, who's been a licensed psychologist in California since 1974, said he realized there was something more to freeway anger than heavy traffic after he counseled a patient who came in to discuss her marital woes. [End quoting]

A small step in the right direction is better than none.

SEX CHANGE AFTER ACCIDENT FAILS TO TAKE; THEORY CHANGED

Excerpted from Modesto Bee, 3/15/97, [quoting:]

A boy reared as a girl after his penis was irreparably damaged has rebelled and now lives as a man, which doctors say suggests sexual identity may be an inborn trait that can't be manipulated.

Researchers became aware of the man after a 1970 accident in which the then-8-month-old's penis was accidentally destroyed during a cauterization to repair a fused foreskin.

The boy's doctors recommended that his family raise him as a girl, and he underwent a sex-change operation.

The change was initially thought to be a success, according to a 1973 account by Johns Hopkins University sexologist Dr. John Money.

Money said the boy adjusted well to becoming a girl, observations that were used to support the idea that infants are more or less sexually neutral at birth and as they are raised as either boys or girls they develop their sexuality.

But researchers who did a follow-up study published in the March issue of Archives of Pediatrics and Adolescent Medicine said that wasn't the case, adding that Money no longer agrees with his earlier findings.

Money declined to discuss the case, saying he does not have the man's permission.

According to the follow-up study, the child began to realize between ages 9 and 11 that he was not biologically a girl.

"We know he didn't discover that new virus — we're just naming it after Rheinblatt because it looks like Rheinblatt."

As a young child, he had rejected dolls and tried to urinate standing up, researchers said.

Classmates also teased him because he looked like a boy.

At 14, after he had contemplated suicide, his parents told him what had happened and he stopped his hormone therapy, underwent a mastectomy and chose to live as a man.

Later, he had extensive surgery that partially restored his penis, and at age 25 he married a woman and adopted her children.

Researchers Dr. Milton Diamond of the University of Hawaii-Manoa at Honolulu and Dr. H. Keith Sigmundson of the Ministry of Health of Victoria, British Columbia, say the case suggests that a sense of being male or female is innate and immune to the intervention of doctors, therapists and parents.

Diamond and Sigmundson plan to use their observations to call for changes in the treatment of babies born with ambiguous genitalia, something that happens in about one in every 1,000 births.

Treatment now usually consists of designating them female because it is more difficult to turn ambiguous genitals into a penis than a vagina. [End quoting]

How many lives are to be ruined before so-called experts wake up??

JAPAN N-PLANT LEAK REVISED

Excerpted from the MODESTO BEE, 3/16/97, [quoting:]

The amount of radiation released in an accident last week at a nuclear plant in northeastern Japan was at least 10 times higher than initially reported by authorities, the plant operator said Saturday. The correction was an embarrassment to the Power Reactor and Nuclear Fuel Development Corp., or Donen. Donen said it could not say exactly how much radiation was released but insisted it was not a dangerous amount. Two Japanese newspapers quoted Donen officials as saying the amount could be as high as 29 times what Donen first reported. [End quoting]

Proof again that the media will lie to you almost everytime when they release radiation accidentally or on purpose. And, of course, about most everything else.

DRUG SUSPECT SKIPS BAIL

From the MODESTO BEE, 3/12/97, [quoting:]

The chief suspect in the biggest heroin shipment ever seized in the United States—enough to supply every American addict for a month—has skipped bail in Thailand. A Thai court granted bail despite a U.S. extradition request, and the United States urged Thai authorities Tuesday to take Li Yun Chung back into custody as soon as possible. Thai police said they fear he already has fled to neighboring Burma, making it extremely difficult to apprehend him. Li, also known as Phongsak Rogjanasakul, has been at large since a senior criminal court official granted him $200,000 bail Feb. 7, without notifying prosecutors or presiding judges. [End quoting]

Surely, the authorities tried their very best to prevent his escape, especially the bosses who ended up with the shipment. Isn't it very convenient not to have him talking in a court room, to cell mates or nosy authorities who aren't in on the cut.

LOST AND FOUND

From ANGELS ON EARTH, Mar./Apr. 1996, Guideposts, 39 Seminary Hill Rd., Carmel, NY 10512, [quoting:]

I had always wanted to settle down in my hometown. A house became available across the street from my childhood home, but I was apprehensive about the Realtor, our former neighbor, Mrs. Knight.

My brother, Guy, and I never could contain our baseball playing to our own property. But we were careful to stay clear of Mrs. Knight's yard. Her husband had suffered several strokes and whenever he fell out of his wheelchair or bed, Mrs. Knight called us over to help her lift him. Besides that, she kept to herself, and her gardening.

One day Guy threw my brand-new baseball right in Mrs. Knight's flowers! I tiptoed into her yard only to have her burst onto the porch. "What are you doing?" she demanded. I mumbled something, turned tail and ran.

My guilt came back to me while Mrs. Knight showed me the house for sale. Afterward, she invited me over for lemonade. I politely obliged, hoping she wouldn't reminisce about the time I ruined her flowers.

In her kitchen, she opened a drawer and pulled out an aged baseball. "I found this in my flower bed years ago," she said. "When I needed strength I looked at it and remembered the boys who had always been there for my husband and me." She tossed me the ball. "Always know what a comfort you were."

I keep that ball on my bookshelf, a reminder that kindness outlives aggravation. —Joshua Edward Gates, Corpus Christi, Texas [End quoting]

We never know what the consequences will be of a wayward ball, act or word.

The Four Horsemen Of The Apocalypse

Editor's note: The beginning of this series, Article 1, Section 1, appeared in the 1/16/96 CONTACT on page 14. Here we continue with Nora's research on the Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse.

The Four Horsemen Of The Apocalypse The Fourth (Green) Horseman

Article V, Section 5

The Rio Earth Summit, 1992

The environmental movement (Green Horseman) must be viewed in its international, political setting. The Fourth World Wilderness Conference was held in September of 1987 in Denver, Colorado. In it the Gro Harlem Brundtland Report, which had been commissioned by the United Nations under the direction of Maurice Strong, was first presented to an unsuspecting and uninformed group of "greenies". It became the basis for the ongoing unfolding of the takeover of our world using the environment as both camouflage and excuse. The 1987 Conference was to be followed by many others in preparation for the 1992 Earth Summit in Rio de Janeiro. According to Larry Abraham in The Greening, the purpose of this "Summit" was to provide "the political capacity to produce the basic changes needed in our national and international economic agendas and in our institutions of governance to ensure a secure and sustainable future for the world community," which changes were to be "fully integrated into our economic and political life" by the "year 2012".

The conditions for "sustainable development" include (quote):

- (1) growth sufficient to meet human needs,
  - (2) a more equitable distribution of wealth among nations,
  - (3) democracy and human rights,
  - (4) an economic system able to generate surpluses on a sustainable basis (the Establishment's counterfeit "free market" and "privatization"),
  - (5) international central planning,
  - (6) preserving resources (global control of all natural resources) and
  - (7) reducing population.
- (End quote)

To keep things in perspective, it is necessary to remember that Communist Russia has always held the veto power over the Security Council of the United Nations, and therefore is the essential head of it. [At one time the U.S. also had such veto power, but no longer.] It was soon after the Fourth Wilderness Conference in Denver (1987) that the supposed "cold war" with Russia ended and Gorbachev became an "American" hero with his "Perestroika" and "glasnost" programs in Russia. The New York Times of December 6 & 7, 1988, reports on Mr. Gorbachev's visit to New York and the United Nations. Reporter Peter Lewis, in his article, entitled "Soviets Taking A New Look At The U.N.", helps provide window dressing to the event:

"Mikhail Gorbachev's address to the General Assembly Wednesday will symbolize the transformation in Moscow's relations with the United Nations in the Gorbachev years.

"After treating the United Nations for 40 years as a platform to attack the West and court the developing world, Moscow now wants the organization to play a more assertive role in international affairs, settling armed conflicts, preserving peace and resolving environmental problems and other matters beyond the means of one country..." (emphasis added).

With Gorbachev's visit, both the environmental movement and the United Nations were strengthened in the press on the international scene, and Mr. Gorbachev's role in the environmental movement was secured, as more recent events have shown. Even though George Bush had promoted himself as an "environmental president", he was outshone by Gorbachev at the Rio Earth Summit in 1992. This turn of events, duly planned no doubt by those seeking control of our world, was foreseen by reporter Flora Lewis in her article "Gorbachev Turns Green", in the 8/14/91 issue of The New York Times:

"PARIS—Soviet diplomacy is preparing a dramatic leap in the concept of 'new world order' that will leave President Bush back in the primeval sludge if he doesn't move.

"Mikhail Gorbachev gave Mr. Bush a hint of his thinking at their Moscow meeting, proposing that next year's U.N. conference in Rio de Janeiro on the environment be held at the summit level. European leaders at the London Group of Seven also urged the U.S. to be ready with firm commitments. But Mr. Bush was evasive, he doesn't realize the pressure building.

"Moscow's new idea is not only an astonishing reversal of Soviet attitudes about international relations; it goes beyond accepted notions of the limits of national sovereignty and rules of behavior.

"Foreign Ministry officials say they are working on a plan for a global code of environmental conduct. Moscow suggests a convention for all states to sign. It would have an aspect of world government, because it would provide for the World Court to judge states. The Court, which has no enforcement power now, could recommend sanctions.

"This is a breathtaking idea, beyond the current dreams of ecology militants. It is meant to show that the Soviets really take seriously their 'integrations' in the world economy. And it is fitting that the environment be the topic for what amounts to global policing. Moscow is aware of how grievously it has sinned against its own land and people in this domain, and has adopted an urgency in making sure that developing countries don't repeat the errors.

"Deputy Foreign Minister Vladimir F. Petrovsky doesn't cavil at the thought of mandatory sanctions. If such a code existed, Baghdad might have thought again before dumping oil in the Gulf and setting Kuwait's wells afire. But everybody would be challenged, not just rogue states. Ideas of world order have traditionally focused on war and respect of borders. Only recently have human rights been accepted as an international issue.

"Environmental problems ignore borders, and the convention would draw the consequences on the basis of laws to be applied to all. The U.S. would find it harder to dig in its heels waiting for full scientific proof of damage before endorsing emission levels for pollutants.

"Moscow intends to put forward its proposal at Rio, and it is bound to provoke controversy. An acceptable convention will be hard to draw, and means of enforcement even harder to agree on. Developed and developing countries will have different ideas of limits and responsibilities. Even starting the efforts would be a giant step for international law.

"A remarkable New York Times report on a scarcely known but huge U.S. military program to start cleaning up damage done by American forces and military industry in the last 30 years suggests the enormous scope of what needs to be done. The whole project is expected to last 30 years and cost $400 billion.

"The convention would serve as a deterrent against continued damage, forcing concern for environmental factors in future projects. China, for example, has apparently decided to go ahead with a mammoth Yangtse River hydropower dam, despite warnings of ecological damage. Under a global code, it would have to take account of the longer term.

"The U.S. is lagging sorrowfully in this aspect of leadership. Mr. Bush said he intended to be the 'environmental President'. But as things are going, he risks being the environmental outcast, with Mr. Gorbachev far ahead by the Rio meeting."

Please remember here that there is no difference between Zionism, Communism, Bolshevism, Nazism, so-called "Democracy", and Freemasonry. They all seek world dominance and are used and headed by the same secret world government in their maneuvers to bring the world under their control. Mr. Gorbachev is now no more "green" than he is "red" (please see earlier article [1/26/96 & 3/12/96 CONTACT] on the Red Horseman). All of the stages in the plan were deliberate and necessary parts of the final objective—world rule by the so-called "Elite". You will note in the following rules adopted at the Rio Summit a very strong resemblance of the "environmental" agenda with the mass slaughter of the Bolsheviks, the return to nature of the Communist Manifesto and Humanist Manifesto, and the destruction of nationalism and religion as proposed in the manifestos, along with their adherence to Adam Weishaupt's code. The plan has simply reached the global level under new propaganda; nothing is actually changed from the original intent or plan for world domination.

By April 4, 1992, there had been enough discussion among the representative countries at the United Nations that 160 nations agreed on a draft document which commits the industrial nations of the Northern Hemisphere to help the poorer countries of the Southern develop in a way that will not damage the environment. Dispute persisted on how to pay for an environmental cleanup. Also unresolved were two legally binding "conventions"—one on stabilizing climate and the other on protecting the diversity of plant and animal life (i.e., the Biological Diversity Treaty). Even though these disputes were not entirely settled at the Rio Conference, nor were the "conventions" signed by all parties (the U.S. of A. in particular), they are being followed internationally as accepted parts of the United Nations Environmental Plan. It is, for example, through the climate control convention that the laws regarding car emission (smog) control have been implemented, etc. (the word "convention" here is used to mean "treaty").

Following is the "Draft of Environmental Rules: 'Global Partnership'" agreed to by the 160 countries prior to the Rio Conference and prepared for consideration at it (quote):

DRAFT OF ENVIRONMENTAL RULES: 'GLOBAL PARTNERSHIP'

Special to The New York Times
UNITED NATIONS, April 4—
Following is the draft text of a declaration of principles for encouraging environmentally responsible development that is to be considered in June by leaders attending an environmental summit meeting in Rio de Janeiro:

THE CONFERENCE ON ENVIRONMENT AND DEVELOPMENT,

HAVING MET at Rio de Janeiro from June 3 to 14, 1992,

REAFFIRMING the Declaration of the United Nations Conference on the Human Environment, adopted at Stockholm on June 16, 1972, and seeking to build upon it,

WITH THE GOAL OF establishing a new and equitable global partnership through the creation of new levels of cooperation among states, key sects of societies and people,

WORKING TOWARD international agreements which respect the interests of all and protect the integrity of global environmental and developmental systems,

RECOGNIZING the integral and interdependent nature of the Earth, our home,

PROCLAIMS that:

Principle 1. Human beings are at the center of concerns for sustainable development. They are entitled to a healthy and productive life in harmony with nature.

Principle 2. States have, in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations and principles of international law, the sovereign right to exploit their own resources pursuant to their own environmental and developmental policies, and the responsibility to insure that activities within their jurisdiction or control do not cause damage to the environment of other states or of areas beyond the limits of national jurisdiction.

Principle 3. The right to development must be fulfilled so as to equitably meet developmental and environmental needs of present and future generations.

Principle 4. In order to achieve sustainable development, environmental protection shall constitute an integral part of the development process and cannot be considered in isolation from it.

Principle 5. All states and all people shall cooperate in the essential task of eradicating poverty as an indispensable requirement for sustainable development, in order to decrease the disparities in standards of living and better meet the needs of the majority of the people of the world.

Principle 6. The special situation and needs of developing countries, particularly the least developed and those most environmentally vulnerable, shall be given special priority. International actions in the field of environment and development should also address the interest and needs of all countries.

Principle 7. States shall cooperate in a spirit of global partnership to converse, protect and restore the health and integrity of the Earth's ecosystem. In view of the different contributions to global environmental degradation, states have common but differentiated responsibilities. The developed countries acknowledge the responsibility that they bear in the international pursuit of sustainable development in view of the pressures their societies place on the global environment and of technologies and financial resources they command.

Principle 8. To achieve sustainable development and a higher quality of life for all people, states should reduce and eliminate unsustainable patterns of production and consumption and promote appropriate demographic policies.

Principle 9. States should cooperate to strengthen endogenous capacity building for sustainable development by improving scientific understanding through exchanges of scientific and technological knowledge, and by enhancing the development, adaptation, diffusion and transfer of technologies, including new and innovative technologies.

Principle 10. Environmental issues are best handled with the participation of all concerned citizens, at the relevant level. At the national level, each individual shall have appropriate access to information concerning the environment that is held by public authorities, including information on hazardous materials and activities in their communities, and the opportunity to participate in decision-making processes. States shall facilitate and encourage public awareness and participation by making information widely available. Effective access to judicial and administrative proceedings, including redress and remedy, shall be provided.

Principle 11. States shall enact effective environmental legislation. Environmental standards, management objectives and priorities should reflect the environmental and developmental context to which they apply. Standards applied by some countries may be inappropriate and of unwarranted economic and social cost to other countries, in particular developing countries.

Principle 12. States should cooperate to promote a supportive and open international economic system that would lead to economic growth and sustainable development in all countries, to better address the problems of environmental degradation. Trade policy meaasures for environmental purposes should not constitute a means of arbitrary or unjustifiable discrimination or a disguised restriction on international trade. Unilateral action to deal with environmental challenges outside the jurisdiction of the importing country should be avoided. Environmental measures addressing trans-boundary or global environmental problems should, as far as possible, be based on an international consensus.

Principle 13. States shall develop national law regarding liability and compensation for the victims of pollution and other environmental damage. States shall also cooperate in an expeditious and more determined manner to develop further international law regarding liability and compensation for adverse effects of environmental damage cause by activities within their jurisdiction or control to areas beyond their jurisdiction.

Principle 14. States should effectively cooperate to discourage or prevent the relocation and transfer to other states of any activities and substances that cause severe environmental degradation or are found to be harmful to human health.

Principle 15. In order to protect the environment, the precautionary approach shall be widely applied to states according to their capabilities. Where there are threats of serious or irreversible damage, lack of full scientific certainty shall not be used as a reason for postponing cost-effective measures to prevent environmental degradation.

Principle 16. National authorities should endeavor to promote the internalization of environmental costs and the use of economic instruments, taking into account the approach that the polluter should, in principle, bear the cost of pollution, with due regard to the public interest and without distorting international trade and investment.

Principle 17. Environmental impact assessment, as a national instrument, shall be undertaken for proposed activities that are likely to have a significant adverse impact on the environment and are subject to a decision of a competent national authority.

Principle 18. States shall immediately notify other states of any natural disasters or other emergencies that are likely to produce sudden harmful effects on the environments of those states. Every effort shall be made by the international community to help states so afflicted.

Principle 19. States shall provide prior and timely notification and relevant information to potentially affected states on activities that may have a significant adverse trans-boundary environmental effect and shall consult with these states at an early stage and in good faith.

Principle 20. Women have a vital role in environmental management and development. Their full participation is therefore essential to achieve sustainable development.

Principle 21. The creativity, ideals and courage of the youth of the world should be mobilized to forge a global partnership in order to achieve sustainable development and insure a better future for all.

Principle 22. Indigenous peoples and their communities, and other local communities, have a vital role in environmental management and development because of their knowledge and traditional practices. States should recognize and duly support their identity, culture and interests and enable their effective participation in the achievement of sustainable development.

Principle 23. The environment and natural resources of people under oppression, domination and occupation shall be protected.

Principle 24. Warfare is inherently destructive of sustainable development. States shall therefore respect international law providing protection for the environment in times of armed conflict and cooperate in its further development, as necessary.

Principle 25. Peace, development and environmental protection are interdependent and indivisible.

Principle 26. States shall resolve all their environmental disputes peacefully and by appropriate means in accordance with the charter of the United Nations.

Principle 27. States and peoples shall cooperate in good faith and in a spirit of partnership in the fulfillment of the principles embodied in this Declaration and in the further development of international law in the field of sustainable development. (End quote.)

Obviously, this "Draft of Environmental Rules: 'Global Partnership'" uses broad and vague language in most instances, leaving the door open for very un-"democratic" application of the rules further down the road, but also eliminating the sovereignty of individual nations in one great global thrust without the vote of any citizen at a ballot box. The rules were approved by "acclamation" at the Conference and are now being required of the individual nations by the United Nations as quickly as possible. Not surprisingly, the man identified at the Rio Summit by its leader, Maurice Strong, as the person who most epitomized the concerns of both the environment and development was Baron Edmond de Rothschild.

Texe Marrs, of Living Truth Ministries, obtained a copy of the ten objectives of the Biological Diversity Treaty proposed at the Rio Summit and later by the United Nations and agreed to by the Clinton Administration. I will list the ten objectives below. For details of the objectives write to Living Truth Ministries, 1708 Patterson Road, Austin, TX 78733-6507, or call (512) 263-9780.

Biological Diversity Treaty Objectives:

1. To make nature the central organizing principle.
2. To establish a legal regime that will utilize international treaties to control all policies, from the international level to the national and local levels.
3. To make the use of natural resources a cost.
4. To promote the precautionary principle that scientific evidence is not necessary to implement radical environmental policies.
5. To inventory natural and human resources.
6. To make man equal to all other species.
7. To classify people as the enemy.
8. To create areas devoid of human presence.
9. To make nature worship a state religion.
10. To promote the traditional life-styles, culture and beliefs of indigenous peoples.

The above certainly leaves no doubt as to intent regarding man's future role in the New World Order (aka Beast of the Apocalypse), or to the critical role being played by the environmental movement to bring about the degradation and control of the human species by a few.

This concludes the present sketch of the Green Horseman. The next article will conclude this series of articles and be a review of the seventh region of the NWO.

Relearning The Common Law

Part III: Sovereignty And The Sovereign Citizen

Editor's note: The first part of this commentary was in the 3/4/97 CONTACT on p.2; Part II was in the 3/18/97 CONTACT on p. 34. We are continuing this informative series here with Part III.

3/26/97 RAY BILGER

"When we consider the nature and the theory of our institutions of government, the principles upon which they are supposed to rest, and review the history of their development, we are constrained to conclude that they do not mean to leave room for the play and action of purely personal and arbitrary power. Sovereignty itself is, of course, not subject to law, for it is the author and source of law; but in our system, while sovereign powers are delegated to the agencies of government, sovereignty itself remains with the people, by whom and for whom all government exists and acts. And the law is the definition and limitation of power. It is, indeed, quite true that there must always be lodged somewhere, and in some person or body, the authority of final decision; and in many cases of mere administration, the responsibility is purely political, no appeal lying except to the ultimate tribunal of the public judgment, exercised either in the pressure of opinion, or by means of the suffrage. But the fundamental rights to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, considered as individual possessions, are secured by those maxims of constitutional law which are the monuments showing the victorious progress of the race in securing to men the blessings of civilization under the reign of just and equal laws... For the very idea that one man may be compelled to hold his life, or the means of living, or any material right essential to the enjoyment of life, at the mere will of another, seems to be intolerable in any country where freedom prevails, as being the essence of slavery itself." Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356, 369, 370.

Thus spoke the Supreme Court in 1886 regarding the fact that "sovereignty itself remains with the people". This was the true intent of America's Founders: That the Citizens were the Sovereigns and that all government, local, state, or federal, exists and acts only by the authority of and for the benefit of The People.

Since the Court stated that Sovereignty is not subject to law, as it is the author and source of law, and since Sovereignty itself remains with the people, then it seems an obvious statement of fact that The People are the ultimate Authority above even the Supreme Court. After all, it is We The People who ordained and established "Our" Constitution which provided the very foundation of and for "Our" government and judicial system, which includes the Supreme Court.

In other words, should we The People conclude that the Congress, the President, and the entire judicial system have and are all committing Treason, then it is we The People who are the ultimate Authority who may decide to replace them all, and to determine the manner of doing so, should we deem such action to be necessary and appropriate.

Let any question in the mind of the reader concerning the truth of the above be erased, for the writers of our Declaration of Independence clearly settled the matter on July 4, 1776. That Declaration states that we do have inalienable rights given us by our Creator, and "That, to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed; that, whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and to institute a new government... (I)t is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such government..."

Black's Law Dictionary, Revised 4th Edition (1968), hereinafter Black's Law Dictionary, at page 1568, defines the word "Sovereign" as: "A person, body, or state in which independent and supreme authority is vested; a chief ruler with supreme power; a king or other ruler with limited power."

It was the intent of America's Founders that we would no longer be subjects under King George in England, but that each of us would now be king (or Sovereign) over our own domain. As such, we could do most anything we wished under the Common Law, so long as we did not interfere with or trespass upon the equal rights of any other Sovereign Citizen. But what looked good on paper and worked in 1776 has now been turned around and completely perverted.

We know that we are controlled today by all sorts of licenses, registrations, permits, etc., which are all forms and types of contracts. We are controlled by those contracts, because we have allowed ourselves to become statutory "persons" (instead of being Citizens), and "persons" are classified the same as corporations. Corporations are rightfully controlled through licenses, regulations, etc., as they exist as a matter of privilege rather than as a matter of right. Citizens have rights, while "persons" are Citizens which have allowed their rights to be converted into privileges. Of course, it wasn't always this way, and this is not in accord with original intent.

In 1905, in their decision in the case of Hale v. Henkel, 201 U.S. 43, the Supreme Court held that:

"We are of the opinion that there is a clear distinction in this particular between an individual and a corporation, and that the latter has no right to refuse to submit its books and papers for an examination at the suit of the state. The individual may stand upon his constitutional rights as a citizen. He is entitled to carry on his private business in his own way. His power to contract is unlimited. He owes no duty to the state or to his neighbors to divulge his business, or to open his doors to an investigation, so far as it may tend to criminate him. He owes no such duty to the state, since he receives nothing therefrom, beyond the protection of his life and property. His rights are such as existed by the law of the land long antecedent to the organization of the state, and can only be taken from him by due process of law, and in accordance with the Constitution. Among his rights are a refusal to incriminate himself, and the immunity of himself and his property from arrest or seizure except under a warrant of the law. He owes nothing to the public so long as he does not trespass upon their rights."

We see here that the Supreme Court in 1905 drew a clear distinction between the Citizen and the corporation. But since March 9, 1933, the Citizen has been replaced by the statutory "person" (the enemy of the government), and this new statutory "person" is now controlled the same as any other corporation.

It is interesting to note that the Congress in March of 1933 was led to believe that the Act of March 9, 1933, which was designed to institute extraordinary measures, was only to be enforced temporarily in order to take those actions deemed necessary to prevent a total collapse of the American Government. Had the Congress known that the devious plans of those who were orchestrating events was for the purpose of creating a permanent state of national emergency, then they may not have voted for passage of the Act!

The actions which took place in 1913 by the formation of the Federal Reserve, which took the power of coining and regulating money away from Congress and gave it to a "private corporation" (See: Lewis v. U.S., 680 F.2d 1239 [1982]) headed by international bankers, ended our national sovereignty in the world of nations. That action begun in 1913 was part of a larger plan completed 20 years later in 1933, when the American Citizens lost their individual Sovereignty and became statutory "persons".

The Citizen is Sovereign and maintains Sovereign rights only so long as being a Citizen. The statutory "person", like the corporation, is not Sovereign and has no Sovereign rights. If the Citizen is truly Sovereign, then, under our Constitution, any attempt by legal means to take away any essential rights from the Citizen would be null and void ab initio (from the beginning). As Samuel Adams said, "If men, through fear, fraud, or mistake, should in terms renounce or give up any essential natural right, the eternal law of reason and the grand end of society would absolutely vacate such renunciation. The right of freedom being the gift of God Almighty, it is not in the power of man to alienate this gift and voluntarily become a slave."

If we truly understand all of the above, it should become obvious that the actions taken in 1913 and 1933 by those in the three branches of our government, and all actions taken subsequently, are totally unconstitutional and comprise nothing less than Treason. As the Supreme Court held in Stoehr v. Wallace, 255 U.S. 239, 241, 242: "The Trading With the Enemy Act, whether taken as originally enacted, October 6, 1917, or as since amended... is strictly a war measure and finds its sanction in the constitutional provision empowering Congress to declare war, grant letters of marque and reprisal, and make rules concerning captures on land and water." Our government has declared war against the people (Mixed War), and all our property is owned by the bankers and may soon be captured, on land and water!!

Thomas Jefferson's words of 1816 seem to be more true today than when he spoke them: "Our legislators are not sufficiently apprized of the rightful limits of their power; that their true office is to declare and enforce only our natural rights and duties, and to take none of them from us."

Editorial Policy

Opinions of the CONTACT contributors are their own and do not necessarily reflect those of the CONTACT staff or management.

Perhaps our legislators and our Judges need to be reminded of the rightful limits of their power. They are our servants and we, their Masters. As Abraham Lincoln said in 1865, "We The People are the rightful Masters of both Congress and the courts—not to overthrow the Constitution, but to overthrow the men who pervert the Constitution." And Benjamin Franklin let it be clearly known who is the servant and who is the Sovereign: "In free governments, the rulers are the servants, and the people their superiors and Sovereigns."

Law, like lawful money, is based on substance (property). Remove the substance from lawful money and the law, like the money, becomes a fiction. A dollar is defined as a certain quantity of gold or silver. Today, we have no lawful money in circulation and thus, there is not in existence twenty dollars with which to invoke a Common Law Court in accordance with the Seventh Amendment to the Constitution.

Our Constitution, at Article I, Section 10, Clause 1, states in part that "No State shall... make anything but gold and silver coin a tender in payment of debts..." The Common Law is based upon substance, which, according to the Constitution, is gold and silver. When we allowed gold to be removed from circulation in 1933, we allowed the removal of the foundation upon which the Common Law was based. Today, our law is a fiction, as is our money.

Today we have colorable law which is applied to fictional persons, colorable money which is bank-credit fiction, and colorable rights which are fictional remedies. It is in part the fictional money system which altered our court system from one under the Common Law to a legislative, Article I (Const.) Court, or tribunal system of commercial law.

Black's Law Dictionary, at page 332, defines the term "Colorable" as: "That which has or gives color. That which is in appearance only, and not in reality, what it purports to be. Counterfeit, feigned, having the appearance of truth. Ellis v. Jones, 216 P. 257, 258."

As a consequence of the above, what was set in place in 1933 was a De Facto Government of the United States. Black's Law Dictionary, at page 504, defines the term "De Facto Government" as: "One that maintains itself by a display of force against the will of the rightful legal government and is successful, at least temporarily, in overturning the institutions of the rightful legal government by setting up its own in lieu thereof. Wortham v. Walker, 128 S.W.2d 1138, 1145."

Black's Law Dictionary also defines the term "Government De Facto", on page 824, 825, in part as: "Such a government might be more aptly denominated a government of paramount force, being maintained by active military power against the rightful authority of an established and lawful government; and obeyed in civil matters by private citizens. They are usually administered directly by military authority, but they may be administered, also, by civil authority, supported more or less by military force. Thorington v. Smith, 8 Wall. 8, 9; 19 L.Ed. 361."

Does this sound at all like what we have in place in America today? In California, for example, if you look under the California Government Code, at Section 439, you will find: "439. Regulations. The Adjutant General shall, by regulation, prescribe rules regarding the times, places, and manner in which the State Flag may be displayed..." And just who is the Adjutant General? The Adjutant General is the Chief Administrative Officer of the United States Army! Why is the U.S. Army prescribing rules regarding display of the California Flag in State courtrooms? You don't suppose California is under Martial Law along with the other 49 States, do you??? Check your own State codes to see who is controlling your State Flag in the courtrooms. You may be surprised at what you find!

Now, for a bit of a contradiction, California's Government Code, at Section 100, states in part: "Sovereignty in People; Writs and Processes. (a) The sovereignty of the State resides in the people thereof, and all writs and processes shall issue in their name..." From this, one would presume that the People are Sovereigns. But what about statutory "persons"?

We need at this point to review the exact role and function of the Federal Government as originally intended and as set forth in the Constitution, and how that original intent has now been perverted.

When the Constitution was enacted, it was set up as a pact between the States of the Confederacy. In this arrangement each State is viewed as a separate nation-state, with its own laws and Sovereignty.

If you will read the writings of the Founding Fathers, you will see that the national government was designed not to interface at all with the Citizens of the States. The Supreme Court clearly stated this when it held that the United States Government is a foreign corporation with respect to a State. In re Merriam, 36 N.E. 505, affirmed 163 U.S. 625. The Constitution set up the national government as a framework for interfacing between the State governments to facilitate trade (commerce), foreign relations, and national defense.

The above is made abundantly clear as set forth in the Constitution at Article I, Section 8, Clause 17, which states in part: "The Congress shall have the power to exercise exclusive legislation in all cases whatsoever, over such district (not exceeding ten miles square) as may, by cession of particular states, and the acceptance of Congress, become the seat of the government of the United States, and to exercise like authority over all places purchased by the consent of the legislature of the State in which the same shall be, for the erection of forts (etc.)..., and other needful buildings."

The wording in this section is clear and unambiguous. Congress shall exercise exclusive legislation over an area not to exceed ten miles square, which is 100 square miles. That area of 10 miles by 10 miles is called Washington, D.C., and is composed of lands given by the States of Maryland and Virginia, and straddling the Potomac River, and also territories, and areas purchased in other States for forts (military bases), etc. And that's it! Congress cannot make laws for the Citizens in the States. Yet we have such laws in force today! How was this accomplished?

Those who deviously created the corporate "United States", which purportedly exists in Washington, D.C., created a further Fiction of Law by incorporating the 50 States into the area of Washington, D.C.! Now, obviously those States could not literally fit within the ten miles square, but on paper, anything is possible. Let's use California again as an example, and its State Income Tax Laws, and let's see just what has been done.

The California Revenue and Taxation Code, at Section 17014, defines the term "Resident" in part as: "(a) Resident includes:

(1) Every individual who is in this state for other than a temporary or transitory purpose.

(2) Every individual domiciled in this state who is outside the state for a temporary or transitory purpose."

This seems clear enough. However, we are dealing with legal codes and statutes and only legal definitions can apply for terms used therein. You are about to see a very clever word game! When the Code says "in this state", you would expect this to mean California, right? Before going to the California Code section which defines the term "state", we need to first look at a legal definition of another term.

Black's Law Dictionary, at page 905, defines the term "Include" in part as: "To confine within, hold as in an inclosure, take in, attain, shut up, contain, inclose, comprise, comprehend, embrace, involve. Including may, according to context, express an enlargement and have the meaning of and/or in addition to... Miller v. Johnston, 91 S.E. 593; Prarie Oil and Gas v. Motter, 1 F.Supp. 464, 468; Rose v. State, 184 S.W. 60, 61; (etc.)"

When statutes or codes use the term "include" or "includes" in definitions, the meaning is "confined" to what is specifically mentioned in the definition. If the term "including" is used, this may express an expansion or enlargement of terms being defined. Now, let's look again at the California Code.

The California Revenue and Taxation Code, at Section 17018, defines the term "State" in full as: "State includes the District of Columbia, and the possessions of the United States." Did you see any mention of California in there? And how did Washington, D.C. get into California? Well, it didn't. It's the other way around. California is now part of the District of Columbia! Think this may be an incorrect interpretation on the part of this writer?

On May 31, 1991, this writer filed an Information Practices Act Request (this is the equivalent of a Freedom of Information Act Request, but on the State level) with the State of California Franchise Tax Board Disclosure Office, requesting a copy of the document or decision that would define this writer as a "resident" of the "State" of California, pursuant to Code Sections 17014 and 17018. This sounds simple enough on the one hand, but understanding the above definitions, it is a bit of a convoluted request, as "State" is now the District of Columbia, while the California Republic is still on the West Coast! What do you think their response was?

On June 26, 1991, the F.T.B. Disclosure Office responded to this writer's request by stating that "No such documents exist."! Nor could they. The stealing of America has all been done by one big word game. When you sign any State Income Tax form in California, you may be standing on California soil, but you have just agreed to be classified as a "resident" of the District of Columbia! Under the corporate "United States", there are no individual states as such, only one big Federal District.

Now do you see why you must go into the courtroom and demand your rights as that belligerent claimant in person? Go check your own state's income tax laws or any other state laws or codes, or the Internal Revenue Code for that matter, for the definition of the term "State". You will be lucky to find any States in existence. They've all become Federal Instrumentalities blended into one big federal stew!!

Yet, as late as 1967, the Supreme Court has stated that: "In our country the people are sovereign and the Government cannot sever its relationship to the people by taking away their citizenship. Our Constitution governs us and we must never forget that our Constitution limits the Government to those powers specifically granted..." Afroyim v. Rusk, Secretary of State, 387 U.S. 253, 257.

gave up the reigns of power and returned control to the people, even if a Constitution was supposedly in place. It just doesn't happen that way. The question, then, before us is how do we regain our Sovereign Citizen Status and control over our judicial system and our government?

There appear to basically be two ways to do this: individually, and/or collectively. Since our One World Controllers have mastered the art of divide and conquer, the collective approach is constantly undermined, and though there are many Citizens' movements nationwide fighting to regain our country for The People, every one of them has been infiltrated, and that includes right here in Tehachapi! Do not be dismayed, however, as these groups continue to make significant advances, and in their ability to network together lies their greatest strength.

The individual approach must be followed every day by each and every one of us, and your inquires to state and federal agencies of all kinds, as well as to the Congress, the President, and the Courts, concerning information regarding definitions of "States" and the use of the Military Flag in our courtrooms, along with a thousand other questions, will help us shape the kind of response and the actions we must pursue in order to reestablish the Common Law and regain control of America for her Citizens.

We must get back to a Government De Jure. Black's Law Dictionary, at page 825, defines the term "Government De Jure" in part as: "A government of right; the true and lawful government; a government established according to the Constitution..." Our Constitution works just fine when it is adhered to. But when the People fall asleep and lose their eternal vigilance, tyrants come in and seize power and Freedom falls! It happens every time.

Federalist Paper Number 78 states in part: "A Constitution is in fact, and must be, regarded by the judges as a fundamental law. It therefore belongs to them to ascertain its meaning as well as the meaning of any particular act proceeding from the legislative body. If there should happen to be an irreconcilable variance between the two, that which has the superior obligation and validity ought of course to be preferred; or in other words, the Constitution ought to be preferred to the statute, the intention of The People to the intention of their agents."

Could this be stated any more clearly? The intent of the Framers of our Constitution is spelled out in unmistakable terms in those Federalist Papers. Judges today, in both State and Federal courts, who do not adhere to the above and recognize the Rights of The People as being paramount and superior to any acts of any legislature, need to be removed from the Bench and brought up on charges of Treason. We Sovereign Citizens must demand this be done, and we must demand it NOW!!!

We must re-establish our State Citizenship and remove ourselves from the exclusive legislative jurisdiction of the corporate fiction titled "United States". Federalist Paper Number 51 reminds us that: "Justice is the end of Government. It is the end of civil society. It ever has been, and ever will be pursued, until it be obtained, or until Liberty be lost in the pursuit."

We close this Part with the very profound words and thoughts of Marcus Tullius Cicero (106-43 B.C.): "Power and law are not synonymous. In truth they are frequently in opposition and irreconcilable. There is God's Law from which all Equitable laws of man emerge and by which men must live if they are not to die in oppression, chaos and despair. Divorced from God's eternal and immutable Law, established before the founding of the suns, man's power is evil no matter the noble words with which it is employed or the motives urged when enforcing it. Men of good will, mindful therefore of the Law laid down by God, will oppose governments whose rule is by men, and if they wish to survive as a nation they will destroy the government which attempts to adjudicate by the whim of venal judges."

TREASON      DRUGS

Cocaine-Heroin Money

Soon after we nailed Black-Dot, Abraham Davidian was busted by L.A.P.D. A major drug and gun smuggler with International Connections, Davidian's "big" connection was Benny Wong in L.A.'s Old Chinatown. (Refer to Chapters 32 and 46 of my book, There's a Fish in the Courthouse.) To escape a very long prison term Davidian spilled his guts—he detailed to us his connections to Benny Wong and L.A. gangster Mickey Cohen and Judge Harry Pregerson. With Benny Wong they were cooking up a gigantic cocaine-heroin smuggling organization, the biggest ever—far greater than all the alcohol-smuggling operations during prohibition put together. This cocaine-heroin operation would comprise all the states of the U.S. Ninth Circuit Court—protected by Judge Harry Pregerson's jurisdiction.

Davidian, to save his own skin, had agreed to testify in court—he was going to be the star-witness that would expose and convict the entire drug organization. All of them: Judge Harry Pregerson, Stanley Mosk (presently a California Supreme Court Judge), gangster Mickey Cohen, Benny Wong and a dozen high-ranking politicians, both federal and state.

At this time the Federal Narcotics Agency took Davidian from the L.A.P.D. and claimed they were hiding him out for his own safety until the trial started. Not even the L.A.P.D. knew where he was. While in the custody of the Feds for "safekeeping" Davidian was shot and killed.

This blew the whole prosecution; without the star witness there was no case. What we had planned to be the end of a vicious, treasonous gang of drug smugglers instead turned out to be only the beginning of Judge Harry Pregerson and Benny Wong's massive cocaine-heroin smuggling organization.

Fifty years later, the year of 1997, Judge Pregerson controls the largest, most powerful drug organization the world has ever known.

On the surface, publicly it has become known as "Clinton's Chinese Connection", but as much as Clinton is hated and despised by the people, and despite the fact that he should have never, never reached the position of President of the United States, he is there for one reason only—a poor, pitiful "scapegoat" for the Mishpucka and its unbelievable evil.

During WWII, many Chinese Nationals were brought to Southern California to be trained as fighter and bomber pilots for the Chinese military. These Chinese made contact with important Chinese people in L.A.'s Old Chinatown—when they returned to China they became high-ranking officials in the Chinese Government, the military complex, and extremely influential businessmen. Like Harry Pregerson, since 1946, they are still alive in China and still in control of the cocaine-heroin smuggling industry.

WWII ended in late 1945. By the first of 1946 the commercial sea lanes, the old trade routes to China and the rest of Asia were opened. Thousands of ships hauling war materials suddenly became available for international commerce.

In the South Pacific, Micronesia became a U.S. Protectorate and under the strict jurisdiction of the Federal Ninth Circuit Court, (Judge Harry Pregerson).

It was set up by Pregerson and Wong with their Chinese Connection to route Chinese ships with cocaine and heroin to a Micronesian Port—there the drugs would be transshipped to American ships and sailed to Port Hueneme, California which was adjacent to the U.S. Naval Sea-Bee Base. Port Hueneme and the Sea-Bee base during the war had been a staging area, a major shipping arena for war machinery to the South Pacific, but now, with peace, the heavy military security and inspections had become lax.

With certain arrangements made, the cocaine-heroin was unloaded without incident. In huge amounts, the drugs were transported south to Los Angeles and north to San Francisco, where it was delivered to top suppliers who then broke it up and spread it to the distributors and street peddlers.

The City of Oxnard, adjacent to Port Hueneme where the drugs first hit the U.S. became the focal point, the hub of the cash, the "Big Payoff".

Even in those early days, 1946 to 1950, the drug money was a problem—it had to be laundered. The money-take was in the multi-millions; it quickly jumped to the billions and multi-billions.

The Bank of A. Levy was owned by Ben Nordman; his mother was Helen Levy, the daughter of Achilles Levy, the Bank's founder. Ben Nordman was a U.S. Commissioner and his law firm partner was Superior Court Judge Jerome Berenson. They were major cohorts of Harry Pregerson and Benny Wong. The first money laundering operations for Pregerson and Wong's cocaine-heroin organization was set up at Oxnard's Bank of A. Levy.

The "front man" for the money-laundering operation was Martin V. "Bud" Smith, who in 1946 was the operator of a small hamburger stand on Highway 101 running through Oxnard. Smith was originally from Hollywood and had gotten an early education in drugs at Hollywood High School. The students of every high school in the Los Angeles School System plus Santa Monica and Beverly Hills in the 1930s knew that Hollywood High was a source of hard drugs.

With all this drug-money pouring in, front-man Smith began tying up huge parcels of land. Smith became known as a developer with immense financial holdings; these included shopping centers, hotels, commercial properties, apartment complexes, restaurants and boat harbors, etc., etc.

Smith established Oxnard's Financial Plaza. By 1965 the Bank of A. Levy was swamped with so much drug-money that they could no longer handle it. The Lagomarsino bank was in the same shape. With Smith's counterpart Harry Maynard, Lagomarsino established his new bank, the American Commercial Bank, and laundered the surplus from Bank of A. Levy.

The fantastic amount of drug money pouring in could not be handled by just a few banks without drawing wonder and unwanted attention that could expose them. It ushered in a proliferation of banks, trading of old banks and forming new banks.

In 1965 Smith founded the Commercial and Farmers National Bank in the Oxnard Financial Plaza and the first of the giant black-glass skyscrapers appeared. Oxnard bragged it was the tallest building between L.A. and Frisco.

I knew Smith and Pregerson were connected, but in 1960 my partner and I (refer to pages 374 to 378 of my book, There's a Fish in the Courthouse), while on a surveillance, had observed Benny Wong meet with gangster Mickey Cohen in L.A. We had tailed him to Oxnard where he had gone directly to the Colonial House and met with "Bud" Smith. We learned that a huge shipment of drugs was coming into Port Hueneme soon. With Capt. Patton, Oxnard Police Department, we had infiltrated our informants into "Bud" Smith's organization at his Colonial House Restaurant.

We were preparing to bust the biggest drug operation going at that time—but (like Davidian getting his brains blown out) they had become suspicious of our operators. Wong was on his way with a gun to kill one of our informants; Patton could not let that happen so he arrested Wong, who was an ex-con, for being in possession of a gun. The "big case" was blown but, quoting page 378 from my book, "From experience I knew there would be another big one."

And now, it is here, the "biggest case" ever, "Clinton's Chinese Connection", the same people who were involved clear back to 1946. But this case is going to take more than just a few guys like me and Frank, and Ed Patton. This case is going to take every good, loyal American in the United States to come together in mass, contacting every one of their Senators and Congressmen to put an end to China getting a foothold on our Continental soil. And, an end to Pregerson's Mishpucka cocaine-heroin operation, the biggest the United States has ever suffered. One that can destroy our children and the country.

The Senators and Congressmen, particularly California Senators Diane Feinstein and Barbara Boxer, had approved President Clinton's conniving arrangements to allow the Chinese to takeover the Long Beach, California, U.S. Navy Base. It was equipped with giant cranes which could unload the huge crates from Chinese ships directly on to railroad cars on the docks. These railroads are transcontinental to every state in the U.S. clear to the East Coast. The Chinese ships would no longer have to go to Micronesia and transship their cocaine-heroin to American ships—they could now sail direct from China and unload in Long Beach, Calif.

Sometime before the Chinese connection began to unravel, FBI Director Freeh secretly arranged to warn Feinstein and Boxer that they should be very careful, that they were in danger of their Chinese conspiracy being exposed. This was the same way that Judge Pregerson was warned by the FBI Director, William H. Webster, an ex-federal judge. Pregerson had taken a bribe to "fix" a case against so-called Mafiosa, Carlos Marcello.

A Jew from Russia, Joseph Hauser, had made arrangements for Marcello to give Pregerson a very valuable Gaugin painting to "fix" Marcello's trial.

The FBI became aware of the bribery conspiracy and they could have nailed Pregerson by catching him accepting the bribe, but instead they warned him. (Quoting pages 424-425 of There's a Fish in the Courthouse.) "It seemed inconceivable that FBI Agents would tell Pregerson about the phone call and 'tip' him off when it was their duty to determine if a bribe, a payoff, was already accepted." When the FBI warned Feinstein and Boxer to be careful, they had already accepted the cocaine-heroin money from the Chinese.

Back in 1946 the Chinese ships had to first go to Micronesia and transship their drug cargos to American ships. Later, when the business was becoming so industrious and complex, Harry Pregerson sent his son and his wife who were both lawyers to Micronesia to supervise the operation. The son, Dean Pregerson and his wife had maintained their law office adjacent to Judge Jerome Berenson in the Ventura Courthouse.

By the mid-sixties Martin V. "Bud" Smith was wheeling and dealing in banks like picking oranges off a tree, and another huge black-glass building even taller than the first one sprang up right next to it. Smith bought fourteen Union Bank Offices. His original Commercial and Farmers Bank was sold to Chartered Bank of London, and Barclay Bank which had contacts with the Chinese in Hong Kong, and then later merged back to the Union Bank.

Stanley E. Cohen, an Oxnard lawyer associate of "Bud" Smith with his office in the newest big black-glass building organized another bank, the Channel Islands National Bank. Smith was a director with this bank as he was with the Ventura County National Bankcorp, an Oxnard-based holding company. Bankcorp was acquiring Frontier Group Inc. of La Palma, near Anaheim in Orange County. Frontier's assets were roughly $70 million, Bankcorp's was about the same but shortly after the acquisition was complete the assets suddenly jumped to $290 million. Drug money was rolling in so fast that front-man "Bud" Smith couldn't buy land fast enough to develop—he bought the local Ventura County Railroad that ran from the Port's shipping docks and ran around the county and then to the mainline. The old, closed-down Oxnard sugar-beet factories were bought up along with everything else in sight.

By 1985 drug money was being unloaded in every bank in California, the banks were a ready market and all were connected and they hubbed in Oxnard. The surplus cash had turned the state into a major center of money laundering. A U.S. Congress House Committee was told by California's State Attorney General John Van de Kamp that in 1984 the state's banks reported a $1.5 billion cash surplus as against five years before when they had to withdraw $300 million from the Federal Reserve Deposit Bank to meet customer demands. A fantastic turnaround. In the Los Angeles area in 1980 the banks reported a $136 million cash deficit, in 1984 the same banks had $374 million in excess cash. In San Francisco over the same period the banks had a dramatic surplus of more than $1 billion from a $166 million deficit.

Quoting Attorney General Van de Kamp in 1985: "From ragtag currency exchange houses to the majestic steel-and-glass headquarters of the financial districts banks there is a kind of leukemia of illicit money in the financial bloodstream of California. Further, the available treatment is no match for the disease."

In 1985 a hooded, convicted "money launderer" testified before a House Committee. The gangster laid it all out, how the drug-cash was manipulated—but the politicians did nothing because they were all secretly taking millions of dollars from the drug dealers.

But now, years later, the so-called political "donations" scam is about to burst. Will the crooks in Washington, D.C. be successful in continuing to cover up their treason against America and the people??

But, it goes deeper than that—in 1913 the Federal Reserve System (central bank of the nation) was created. It manages the country's money supply by controlling the member banks and how much they can loan out. Then the cash can be legally transferred to anyone they want and then transferred to foreign countries.

California has overtaken Florida as being the hub for drug-cash laundering. Florida in 1985 had $6 billion delivered to the Federal Reserve.

As much as $100 billion a year (possibly, across the land, double that) is being delivered to Alan Greenspan at the Federal Reserve and then co-mingled and devoured by Robert Rubin at the Treasury Department. And, then it is consumed by their buddies at Wall Street where their constant scams have the market flipping up and down like a yo-yo, but, only the insiders know how high and low that yo-yo is going—sometimes it even goes side ways and around and around. If there is someone who can tell the American people that these two "fine" Mishpucka conspirators, Greenspan and Rubin, don't know where all those billions of dollars gushing into the Federal Reserve are coming from, I would like to hear from you.

In 1987, March Fong Eu, California's Secretary of State, decided to run for the U.S. Senate. But, her husband Henry Eu, a Chinese National and extremely wealthy Hong Kong businessman, importer-exporter, refused to make public any of his business holdings or operations between the U.S. and China. Because of this, Fong Eu was forced to withdraw from the Senate race.

A serious interference into Pregerson's drug shipments in Micronesia was occurring by another Chinese drug-smuggling organization. In 1988 Pregerson had scheduled an important meeting with his Chinese connections in Micronesia to work out the problem. He was sending one of his oldest, most trusted henchmen, District Court Judge Irving Hill, to handle it.

In January 1989 Judge Hill was tied up in a major product liability case against G. D. Searle & Co. and their CV-7 contraceptive device. It was a "high-stakes" case for both sides, with Searle facing nearly 500 suits throughout the country and millions of dollars involved.

Hill was scheduled to be in Micronesia in March for the meeting. He had also planned a glorious vacation (Oriental girls) in Guam at the same time.

On January 19, 1989, the Searle contraceptive device trial had been proceeding before a jury for over two weeks—suddenly Hill declared a mistrial and dismissed the Jury. It was a disaster. The Plaintiff, Laura McCarthy, who had little money and had spent over three years waiting to get to trial, broke down and collapsed, crying, when the mistrial was declared. McCarthy's lawyers were shocked and outraged by Judge Irving Hill's action; quote: "I've never heard of it, I've never seen it happen, it is a denial of fundamental due process to the Plaintiff. It is horrendously expensive to try these lawsuits, an individual Plaintiff just can't afford to do that," the lawyers said. "You just can't afford to do this if courts are going to declare mistrials in the middle of the case because they have other plans, it's unprecedented." But, these lawyers had just never before been up against a Mishpucka judge who had a "big-drug" deal going and had to be there. Irving Hill had his bags packed and was on his way to Micronesia before the poor Plaintiff and her lawyers knew what was happening.

Back in 1946, corrupt Police Sgt. Thomas Bradley had been the boss of all drug operations in Watts—now he was Mayor Thomas Bradley of Los Angeles. California Secretary of State March Fong Eu lived in Hancock Park, a ritzy, fenced and guarded complex—Mayor Bradley also lived in Hancock Park. Bradley knew there was another Chinese drug operation going on—Fong Eu handled the U.S. end and her husband, with his Hong Kong connection, ran the Chinese end.

Somehow a Black ex-con entered the guarded complex; he made his way to Fong Eu's apartment and Fong Eu got her throat cut. She lived and, after getting her head half cut off, she saw the light—she went to work for Pregerson. In 1994 March Fong Eu resigned as California Secretary of State and was appointed by Pres. Clinton as United States Ambassador to Micronesia. Matthew Fong, March Fong Eu's son, a Republican, was on the powerful State Board of Equalization and was running for State Controller.

In 1996 before the Presidential election, Johnny Chung, a California businessman and his co-conspirator John Huang, with the highest of secret Chinese connections, were spreading millions of dollars of drug money around at political campaign rallies in California. United States Senators Diane Feinstein and Barbara Boxer were deeply involved in these campaign fund operations and quietly assisting Pres. Clinton in ramming through the giveaway of the U.S. Navy Base at Long Beach, California to the Chinese. Feinstein for a long time had been interfering with and destroying private citizens' property rights in the Mojave Desert area, some of which boiled down to the closing of George Air Force Base, an hour's drive from the heart of L.A. Thousands of residents of the area lost their jobs.

But, Mishpucka Senator Feinstein and Boxer had an answer for that: they arranged for a group of Jew financiers to lease and control George Air Force Base. These Mishpucka financier associates of Harry Pregerson with their deep connections to the Chinese businessmen arranged for a massive Chinese project—it is called Da Zhong Hua-Wholesale Town, a huge complex for wholesale and retail sale of Chinese Communist products made by cheap labor in China. Feinstein and Boxer took the Adelanto residents' jobs away by closing George Air Force Base and now they give the desperate people jobs working for the Chinese at only a fraction of what they made before—in a stupor, the American citizens settled for this without putting up a struggle. The treasonous Adelanto Mayor Thomas Thornburg, working for the Mishpucka financiers, had conned the people all the way to their graves.

Thousands of Chinese Nationals will come to Adelanto and bring their families. To make these Chinese feel at home, a traditional Chinese garden will be built and a proliferation of Chinese restaurants and theaters showing only Chinese films will appear. The railroad from the Long Beach docks runs right through George Air Force Base and the huge crates unloaded from the ships without inspection will be speedily delivered to Adelanto.

Without being opened, a large percent of the crates, supposedly wholesale goods, will be sent to distributors throughout both North and South America, Canada and Mexico. This Chinese cocaine and heroin will be so cheap that it will put Columbia, Mexico and all the rest of the drug producers and suppliers totally out of business. All of us, all the Western Hemisphere will be working for the Chinese while the real fiends, the Mishpucka Jew financiers, grin and pull the strings from behind the scenes.

The Jew financiers also will build a new California International Airport at Adelanto to further distribute the drugs—this new airport will decimate and destroy all the businesses relying on LAX. That entire area of L.A. will be financially devastated and hundreds of thousands of jobs will be lost, never to be replaced. The Black areas of Watts which depend on the economy and jobs stimulated by LAX, will turn totally to drugs in desperation.

America will have terrible problems that they cannot even imagine, but, the Chinese and Jews will be laughing all the way to their Federal Reserve Bank and Wall Street.

The Chinese, Huang and Chung, were delivering millions of dollars of drug money to Clinton—but, so were Pregerson's close Hollywood associates, David Geffen, Steven Spielberg and Lew Wasserman, etc., etc. David Geffen is a miserable homo whose relative in the drug organization is Federal Judge Ralph Geffen, one of Pregerson's right-hand men. Fed. Judge Ralph Geffen is a close associate of the Internal Revenue Service Commissioner Fred Goldberg; he covers up the sources of all these Mishpuckas fabulous fortunes. All of the money these Jews and Chinese donate to political campaign funds is raw cocaine and heroin money which has to be laundered. They would have extreme difficulty in proving that this money they gave to Clinton was earned by them through legitimate business entities. These fabulous fortunes that these people claim to have made in the music business and movies is hogwash. They made all their money through drug deals which they have been involved in for years. There is an overwhelming influx of extremely wealthy Chinese into the Seattle and Victoria, B.C. areas—all of these fabulously rich Chinese didn't make all their money by selling Chinese noodles in a small restaurant. A Chinese person once confided to me that the Chinese business people have been known and called, for years, the Jews of the Orient.

The Jews have labeled me "anti-Semitic" because I have exposed their corruption, but now that I have exposed both the Jews and Chinese as joining in a conspiracy against America, what will they now call me??? Perhaps because the Chinese are known as the Jews of the Orient they can lump them all together and they can still call me "anti-Semitic". The Jews persecute White people for so-called Separatism—but on CNN, Alan Dershowitz, in a book he has just written, screams that the Jews are losing their identity because of relationships with people of other races like Ted Danson and Whoopi Goldberg. Dershowitz and the Jews promote something they call Judeo-Christian Religion. But there is no such thing—Christians believe in Christ; they cannot believe in the Rabbis at the same time. Christians should go to their meetings and, at church and at home, sing that old stirring hymn, Onward Christian Soldiers.

All of the Jews and Chinese people involved in these so-called Campaign Rallies were dealing in the laundering of drug money and Washington State now has its first Chinese Governor, who was so highly financed that he bought it outright.

The sight of President Clinton slipping into Abe Lincoln's bedroom in the middle of the night and taking all this unlaundered, bloody drug money from the likes of Spielberg, Wasserman and Geffen, etc., etc., must have poor Old Abe writhing in his grave.

The Mishpucka Jews are fighting madly to prevent the American people from learning that the Jews from Russia are a vicious, deadly organization of criminals. One of the reasons Chief Daryl Gates was removed from office was because his Intelligence Officers had learned that the Jews were illegally bringing Jew criminals from Russia to sabotage America and he had made it public.

On the day after the arrest of Mikail Markhasev, a Jew from Russia who shot and killed Bill Cosby's son, the Jew Controllers of the TV media rushed desperately to cover it up.

Early in the morning CNN had Laurie Levinson, what they call a law professor on TV, loudly and repeatedly exclaiming wildly that Markhasev was not a Jew gang member and that he acted all alone in the murder. And that it was simply a car thief in an attempted robbery. Chief Willie Williams followed suit, quote: "It appears that robbery was the motive—it was happenstance. This was a random stop as far as we know now. It happened to be a man in a car, and the defendant who is now under arrest happened to come by."

Chief Willie Williams' contract is up and he wants to keep his job so bad that he is threatening to sue the city. But, the Police Commissioners have fired him. Willie Williams is lying about the true facts of the case to cover up the fact that Commissioners Stanley Scheinbaum and Ira Glasser are both involved in the Simpson and Cosby murders. Williams hopes they will keep him if he helps them cover-up.

Chief Williams claims that Markhasev is a car thief and that he was robbing Cosby when he shot him. Williams refused to release Markhasev's record, but he has criminal convictions for drugs and assault with a deadly weapon.

Markhasev comes from an area of heavy settlement by Jews from Russia—these are gang members—Irv-ing Rubin has trained them (refer to page 396 of There's a Fish in the Courthouse) starting at the age of eight and ten years with guns and automatic weapons to kill people. Chief Williams claims that Markhasev was only looking for a car to steal on the murder night. He would have the people believe that this guy walked over twenty miles in the middle of the night through residential areas with cars, everything from Porsches and Jaguars sitting at the curb waiting to be stolen, but he kept on walking for miles to an area where there were no cars at all and just happened upon Cosby. Williams says that Markhasev was looking for a car to steal but, he didn't take Cosby's car—Williams says he robbed Cosby but never took anything. And, after he shot Cosby he just disappeared. But, there was someone else at the scene: Stephanie Crane was there wearing an enormous fur coat and a short skirt up to her rear end. A 47-year-old woman, claiming to be an aspiring screen writer, a neurotic person who has been married five times, she claimed she had gotten a phone call from Ennis Cosby wanting her to come to a lonely spot and help him change a flat tire. But, inside sources have revealed that Crane did not arrive alone, Markhasev was with her and she saw him kill Cosby—she then drove the killer away and let him out before returning to the scene and calling the police. Crane was married to Alex Hirsh, a multimillionaire who was deeply involved in the Hollywood scene of cocaine-heroin and prostitutes which was also Crane's world. She was also married to a Hollywood financial operator who along with Hirsh was involved with David Geffen, Steven Spielberg, Lew Wasserman, Harry Pregerson and Diane Feinstein and Barbara Boxer, both California Senators.

Stephanie Crane also said she was waiting for Ennis Cosby at 1:00 a.m. to come to her place. Certain investigators believe Markhasev was at Crane's house waiting to ambush Cosby when she got the call from Cosby to come help with the tire. Willy Williams is also keeping it very secret as to where Markhasev got the gun. Crane and her ex-husbands and her associates were also closely connected to many of the people involved in the O.J. Simpson case, which was only a short distance away from Cosby's murder. Also, as I told Johnny Cochran over two years ago, if he didn't expose the true killers in the Simpson case instead of trying to frame the police officers that O.J. Simpson would lose everything he had and that Robert Shapiro would end up with his beautiful house. At this date they are foreclosing on Simpson to take his home.

But, the people should think about where is all the taxpayers money that Clinton is going to spend on the phony "War Against Drugs" going to go? He has hired a retired Army General (at a ridiculous sum), who wouldn't know a drug dealer on the street if he saw one. But of course, isn't that the whole idea—so come on down to Adelanto, to Da Zhong Hua, Wholesale Town and get it cheap.

If I was President I would have led off a negotiation with China like this—"You want a base in Long Beach, Calif.—okay, you give us Hong Kong, also we want a huge International Airport near Beijing then maybe we can make a deal." Then I would have our Navy, Army, Air Force Commanders, top businessmen and union leaders study it and see if this would be a good deal for America. If not, the Chinese would be out of luck. One more term in the negotiation: If the Chinese attempted to smuggle any drugs or guns the agreement would be terminated and no Chinese ships allowed to dock in America.

But China is still selling all their cheap labor products to Wal-Mart who undersells our American products. However, soon Americans will be able to buy even cheaper direct from the Chinese stores, and Wal-Mart will be out of business.

Of course all the Wal-Mart employees will be out of jobs, but don't worry—like Adelanto, they can go to work for the Chinese at slave pay. Yes, they'll have jobs but only until China brings all their own people from China to take over those jobs. Congress and Clinton are giving America away to the Chinese and Jews.

Americans, let's stand up—like our heroes of 1776.

I don't want to work for China; I don't want my children and grand children to work for China—I don't want America's economy to be based on cocaine-heroin and for us to become known as the world's greatest dope supplier. What I do want is to take our money back from Alan Greenspan, smash his Federal Reserve System (the Central Bank of the Nation)—smash Fred Goldberg and his Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and remove all corrupt federal judges, senators and congressmen who refuse to honor and operate under the United States Constitution and Bill of Rights. The people must take immediate action against all corrupt congressmen who pass Treaties and Bills without reading and understanding what is even in them.

Which Path Do You Take: The Responsible Or The Lazy?

3/26/97 #1 HATONN

IT'S A GLOBAL COMMUNITY WHETHER OR NOT YOU MIGHT LIKE IT!

Where are we today? Are you waiting for me to tell you? I am doing my appointed job—what are you waiting for? Am I in some type of irritation? No, are YOU? I simply have myriads of topics on my plate while more pile up awaiting physical fingers to express my information. And my “fingers” are not well so I am somewhat hamstrung which, of course, is exactly what the adversary demands.

So, just get the fingers well? Not so simple, is it, when the barrage from everyone everywhere is at her? Readers read exactly what they want to see and perceive from anything and everything. I can't help that attitude for misinterpretation is your prerogative. I ask you (again) not to inquire of Dharma for personal information for she is NOT A PSYCHIC READER. However, we just get more and more requests as more and more of TRUTH is recognized from this resource. Get informed and you will be as psychic as is anyone else—especially regarding yourself. If you want something to happen—MAKE IT HAPPEN for it certainly does not require my input or Dharma's. If you are doing the right things—YOU KNOW IT! If not, you KNOW THAT ALSO.

I do, however, have to speak to some of these topics for S. Africa. Further, I don't have time or backup hands to respond to personal inquiries and, more specifically, to personal/personal psychic readings or medical regimens. I weary of the continual onslaught of people wanting me to fix their lives, straighten their “inner children” and, especially, practice medicine without a license. As with “Lana”, for goodness sakes, someone send the lady a note and explain that we CANNOT answer her questions for nothing has changed except more of her inner body has been removed and she is basically stuck with medical treatments. Her body is so out of balance as to be unable to achieve “healing” unless she attends 100% the program as outlined. I can't cause people to do the things they don't want to do, and on again, off again, to suit the whims of the experiencer, will not cut the sickness or the symptoms. She (Lana) can't get well until her body is brought back into some kind of alkaline stability. She is literally eating herself alive with the acid imbalance. When organs and portions of the body itself are removed, there is no ability to readjust to the original operating of anything, be it motor or body. But, when people, for whatever the excuse, do not fully comply with any program, you cannot expect a good outcome. If you are supposed to eat nothing save carrot juice and you decide you prefer hamburgers and french fries—so be it. It is YOUR life, reader, and you will do what you will do and therefore, it will be EXACTLY AS IT WILL BE.

However, let me tell you something—IF AND WHEN you eat those KNOWN destroyers in the face of “could be” healing programs of intake, YOU ARE MAKING YOUR CHOICE AS SURELY AS YOU PRE-

TEND TO BE DOING OTHERWISE FOR WHEN YOU WANT SOMETHING BADLY ENOUGH YOU WILL ACHIEVE IT.

When we get the Spiritual questions, same thing—we have written thousands upon thousands of pages of information. People simply must read the material if they wish responses for there is not longer going to be individual responses for I do not plan to lose my scribe and speaker because people want her to do their homework for them. If they find this invidious or less than satisfactory, then it is their problem, not ours.

This is not a lack of appreciation to anyone—it is just that people seem to relate only to themselves and we are trying to survive as a species, and individuals are simply looking at themselves instead of thinking for selves.

Everyone has to look within and decide what it is they WANT to have happen, and then make it happen, and neither I nor anyone else can do that for anyone else. Even Zita, do you see? She has to release the past from her existence as IS. She has to forgive self and others for their parts in her “play” before she can grow beyond that which she is and has become. She says one thing—but is half-living the very things which are killing her body. She wants things to happen which are NOT GOING TO HAPPEN with people (individuals) IN HER LIFE, PAST OR PRESENT. There is no reason physically that she can't heal—but she harbors inner longings for something and for ones who simply have to be released, and the attention being gleaned is NOT SATISFYING BUT IS FURTHER GUILT PRODUCING. I only use this as an example for it FITS EVERYONE'S FEET. Soon, however, people allow the assault on the body to pass the point of no return. By this I mean that people dwell in the illness to the extent, without release of the problems “eating them”, that the body can no longer reverse the damages acquired. When this happens, the assumption is that the individual “mind” does not wish to do other than what it is doing—killing the body physical. This does NOT mean that everyone around has to also die to suit the wishes, albeit they are quite hidden from “some” intentionally, behind the facade of pretense (reported by the lips) of the transitioning party in point.

Remember, please, that illness is the PRIMARY cop-out of ones who don't want to do other than what they consider their limited tasks. I concern because the diseases are so potent as to slop over onto those who are debilitated by the daily responsibilities accepted and then you pour on more from the weaker players and we have partial failure of our missions—through side-tracking.

It is extremely important to consider self and what self is going to do—for it will be exactly what is chosen. You people do, however, seem to have a penchant and propensity for laying too much onto already overburdened ones because you think they somehow can take “anything”, keep on taking a licking and then come right back, ticking. But, readers, life has to also be “lived” to some “normal” extent or the very purpose of living becomes dimmed and warped. Everyone seems to consider themselves to somehow be an EXCEPTION to every petition I have, especially as regards my speakers and writers. If I ask Dharma to NOT SPEAK today except when absolutely necessary until we can heal those lungs, what do I get back? Everyone and their puppy dog shows up to talk to her and if she doesn't respond it comes back, “Well, what's wrong with you today?”, “What's eating you that makes you cross?”—and after this happens a dozen times, the talking resumes and I am without a speaker.

By the way, good friends, YOU DO NOT NEED DAVID MILLER to accomplish what you need to do. I asked that Ray Bilger and Bruce, along with any who WILL WORK SOLIDLY WITH THEM, formulate probable court filings so we can begin to look at them, tune them up and USE THEM. This means that the “teachers” have to KNOW THEIR SUBJECT, organize and get with it. People don't come here to do what somebody else is already doing—we need people who gather up the goodies and develop them. What you want is SOMEONE ELSE to take you by the hands and pull you along—no more and certainly never less.

What hope do YOU think O.J. Simpson has with that program his lawyers have now dreamt up, of an appeal—to, first of all, the same judge yet? Well, if he is wanting a mistrial, he is going to the wrong cat, isn't he? What are his choices? Well, he is, for one thing, building up cases to USE AGAINST THE SCOUNDRELS WHEN HE GETS AROUND TO ACCEPTING THE COMMON LAW REENTRY WHERE HE CAN GET SOMETHING ACCOMPLISHED. DOES EVERYONE HAVE TO GO COMPLETELY “BROKE” TO UNDERSTAND THE MISERABLE CIRCUMSTANCES IN WHICH YOU RESIDE?

If you keep waiting, and yes I mean local parties also, you are going to find that the repayment is going to be zilch as others wake up before you do and get your own survival goodies while you continue to pay the bad debts and feed the sharks. Here, you wait for Gene to see the light and build the program—WHY? He doesn't know as much about COMMON LAW as do any one of you who have been too busy to study the Constitution and LAW. He was a dedicated attorney in practice, and knows nothing about other alternatives except what is accepted and taught. He is trying his hardest to catch up, but doing things WRONG is not an answer either. This is especially true when the system has you trapped within its very shackles.

What to do, say, about such as the gold held by the court (hopefully still held)? Well, I would have a COMMON LAW filing ready to file immediately BY EKKER-EKKER. Until you stop playing according to THEIR GAME PLAN, you can't hope to pull out the gold from their clutches and, moreover, get it released for use. It doesn't matter which or what attorneys are on your side or against you—the SYSTEM is geared to CAPTURE THE PRIZE—EVERY TIME. You can either do something about this or you can wait until HELL freezes and then still lose to the corrupted system.

Well, can Dharma do it? Yes, and I suppose that is what we might have to do—while the funds you need for survival and the programs underway are given no attention further, from myself or her? (????) You nice people can't have it EVERY WAY for she is simply HUMAN and she is pedaling as fast as she can.

"But," I get back, "I don't know what to write to such as D. Campbell and others who..." Why don't you? Is there some miracle in the brain of Dharma? Let me explain to you, however, that it is important enough for me to attend IT and, therefore, the rest of you get on with figuring out COMMON LAW because I do not intend to let this mission explode because others are too timid to get on with getting on. If you don't know what to do: GO ASK GOD AND THEN LISTEN!

Even though I continually tell you that "I am not going to do this or that, for you," you still WAIT for me to do it. No thank you. If you want some reasonable laws BACK into your judicial systems—you go do it for I don't need your system changed. "Oh—but Dharma does?" Does she? Well, a funny thing happened on the way to Dharma's graduation—she chose to write and speak for God and therefore is not actually too concerned about the judicial system except as directly keeps her from her appointed tasks. Isn't that what lawyers and attorneys are for—to protect the people PAYING for their services?

People come to this place and then announce they are "ready for anything..." Oh? Then why aren't YOU doing what you are here to do? Or, is it—"I will serve anywhere EXCEPT here, there or elsewhere?" Why did you come if you are not meaning sincerely what you said in the first place?

I am continually amazed at the attitudes of you who have chased rainbows all over the world, claiming you want TRUTH. What do you REALLY want? Certainly it is NOT "truth". If you were doing what was worthy of your level of production—you would be doing—not searching—so, in natural sequence, you were NOT being fulfilled successfully OR YOU WOULD NOT HAVE COME TO THIS PLACE! It is foolish to claim otherwise for you ARE what you PRESENT SELF TO BE.

If you can't fit into a mold in service—then why do you expect us to make you fit? We have neither the time nor the inclination for causing YOU to do anything. I am constantly badgered by the call for funds, etc. "Just send me the money so I can get there, and I'll be there to serve..." Why? And Say What? If you can't succeed WHERE YOU ARE why think you that some miracle will happen HERE? If you, for instance, come to farm but cannot farm because you know nothing of farming, in fact, is that not a lie on the very face of it? If you insist on running the message factory computer but can't type—what are we doing here? Ah, but everyone could, if they chose to do so, wash a window. Ah, but that is evidently not in your job description? Or, you are allergic to the wash solution? So be it. What most want to do is simply lay back and say: "Look how hard I tried... but..." Oh, I say—I don't see where you did anything more than "try" which is a demand for accomplishment of nothing. "Try" is to "deny". "Trying" is a word that indicates intentional failure. It specifically "says" that you will "try" but you won't succeed. "Doing" indicates accomplishment. And, you have to "make an effort toward, directly, the act of doing and accomplishment". Want to argue about it? Fine, "arguments" are the same thing as "trying" so it fits the pattern, doesn't it?

Opportunity knocks—you answer the door or you do not. This seems simple enough doesn't it? Opportunity and alternatives are CONSTANTLY banging on your door—but it doesn't SEEM to fit your circumstances? Nothing will ever fit your circumstances until you grab the gusto and run with it. I can also promise you, further, that until you can prove you can wash, WELL, a window, you shall most certainly NOT BE THE CHIEF IN CHARGE OF THE WINDOWS—nor, as far as I am concerned, ANYTHING ELSE I HAVE GOING BECAUSE TELLING ME YOU ARE WILLING IS NOT THE SAME THING AS PROVING TO ME THAT YOU ARE CAPABLE.

Every individual has to LEARN everything—from suckling to walking—except the concept of right and wrong! So, if you wish to play with us, you must learn to do whatever it is you want to do—and LEARN IT WELL, or you will simply wait forever for your life to pass on by.

There are over 7 billion people on your globe now and half as many corporations (artificial persons) and yet NOT EVEN ONE OF YOU HAS PRECIPITATED EVEN ONE CALL FROM SUCH A FAMOUS AND EASY-TO-FIND MAN AS O.J. SIMPSON TO THE PEOPLE WHO CAN SOLVE HIS PROBLEM. Oh, you are waiting for ME to get him so he can lead some march for you, to change the judicial system? Perish the thought—for him also—for he either is real in his presentation—or he is a captive liar to himself. His problems are not my commands for performance and certainly are NOT Dharma's.

I find it most interesting that you can move in any direction and the "waiting" is present—except in the New World Order. No moss is growing under the feet of those would-be Kings. There is a concerted effort afoot to take the very empires of such as DeBeers, Oppenheimers, and on and on down the old world empire lines. However, those people also WAIT for "what"? They have in front of them their own solutions—even unto funding and building—and they wait because they can't "be sure" of who "I" might be. Well, I am TRUTH and their waiting is not my command, either. Nor is their plight the problem of others around them who HAVE OFFERED THEM A WAY THROUGH.

I will tell you right now, AGAIN, for I told you at least nine years ago—that TRUSTS are fixed instruments for take-over. Foreign trusts in the hands of major financial wizards are even more vulnerable. THE PLAN FOR FINANCING THE REST OF THE TAKEOVER BY THE NEW WORLD ORDER—IS TO CONFISCATE THE TRUSTS—ESPECIALLY THE OVERSEAS, OFF-SHORE TRUSTS. It is going to be far more severe than the Savings and Loan debacles.

In addition, the banks are so "oversold out" of gold reserves as to be in teeter-totter circumstances regarding total demise of both currency and reserves—even if you leave out, altogether, the "collateral" reserves.

Do you realize that it doesn't matter WHO IS GOD OR WHAT IS GOD? The point is, what are YOU and who are YOU?

People wait until something "is proven" or "somebody else makes it work...or..." No, people, YOU CREATE THE WAY TO MAKE A THING WORK and you will win—purely and simply. After SOMEONE ELSE discovers the way to make a thing work—IT BECOMES TOO LATE FOR YOU. Are some of you going to sit and say that George Bush can make a thing work—but Nicky Oppenheimer CAN'T? It is the SAME THING, so if it works for one—IT CAN WORK EVEN BETTER FOR THE OTHER!

Moreover, whoever is going to tarry forever over Light, Russell, Ashtley, or Hortense Hopperdink—is going to still be "waiting" when the dying trumpet sound evaporates from the face of the Earth. You live in a physical plane of manifestation and THAT IS WHERE IT IS AT! You can quibble over Spiritual aspects of possibilities until that Hell you froze above, is melted and frozen again. But TRUTH IS—and TRUTH IS WHAT IT IS. There is simply NO WAY that you can make the LIE—TRUTH! Therefore, is it not wise to work toward securing the physical aspects of moving sequences toward what you believe to be GOODLY, or even BADLY, THAN TO SIT ON YOUR RUMP AND LOSE EVERYTHING YOU "THINK" YOU NEED? Percentage-wise you risk more than this, relatively, every minute of your days.

You want us—who offer something in exchange for your help and participation—TO PROVE SOMETHING AS REGARDS WHAT WE CLAIM. WHY? YOU DON'T EXPECT ANY "BUSINESS KING-PIN" TO OFFER YOU ANYTHING OTHER THAN CERTAIN LOSS. We offer you Truth, the Light, and the Way—and you want PROOF? You've got it! You just don't want to bother to change an iota of either your opinions or your ways.

I have been told that these attitudes don't endear me to people. I am not here to be endearing to people. I have no wish to "endear" myself to anyone or any thing. Most of your attitudes don't endear you to me—either. In this very instance I can repeat what I have noted prior to now: it is as with money or gold—neither are good or bad. Men can be good or bad in intent, nothing more. Money (gold) simply IS AND IT IS, FURTHER, ONLY IMPORTANT TO THE EXTENT YOU DON'T HAVE IT. I am interested PERSONALLY in that which is TRUTH—but not particularly relative to the School of Truth, the University of Science and Philosophy, Southern Methodist University, Baylor Baptist University, Notre Dame, or any other ENTITY. No matter what they believe or espouse—it doesn't make an iota of difference IN TRUTH. On the other hand, neither does the working of the world, especially financially, revolve around their attitudes or mine about Spirituality. I need to make contacts—and I use the appropriate conduits to make those contacts. Those with whom I eventually communicate—offer service, or simply interchange, and have nothing to do with one corporation entity or another—other than as a joint venture to accomplish our necessary working tools. Whoever works with me, however, IS GOING TO MERIT GREAT REWARDS because that is the way God returns service. If you plan to misuse, as you might perceive a personal attitude, the abundance—THAT, LADIES AND GENTLEMEN IS BETWEEN YOU AND GOD AND IS NONE OF MY BUSINESS. More bluntly put: If you fund a contract of the money variety—I have absolutely NO INTEREST in what you do with your earnings. I am NOT here to save the world and if you think YOU ARE, then perhaps you had best reconsider very carefully your self-appointed positioning. I DO NOT HAVE TO BECOME MY ADVERSARY TO WORK WITH MY ADVERSARY FOR I HAVE ALREADY ACHIEVED THAT WHICH IS MINE AND THEREFORE WE CAN TALK COMMITMENTS AND AGREEMENTS—WITHOUT SPIRITUAL INTRIGUE OF ONE KIND OR OTHER.

You who go forth and demand that "my way is the only way"—ERR. Your way, at best, is only one 7-billionth of THE way. The problem at present is that only about one hundredth of one percent even knows what in the heck IS THE GAME. I even go further in that I don't need to argue or debate THE way. What you think of me or my teachings IS NONE OF MY BUSINESS. Would I, for instance, help raise funds for such as, say, Native American Gaming? Of course, for I have no appointment with the destiny of deciding man's mind-set—I AM, simply that and nothing more. You have to deal with your attitudes because YOU don't really have "time" to deal with only MINE. What do

SHOE / By Jeff MacNelly

YOU want? Never mind what it is that I WANT. And remember that usually what you CLAIM you want has nothing to do with what you REALLY WANT.

Another point I would like to make is that I suggest you not TREAT ME as some kind of "Holy Grail" for your filling so that I somehow dump back on you the contents of my cup. You need to make up your minds that which you ARE and then, only then, will what I AM be acceptable unto you. You want some pious miracle-worker to spout goodies like water from the endless fountain. That is your problem, readers, NOT MINE. God provides a pure and wondrous fountain of endless sweet water for your taking—but HE is not going to hold you down and pour it down your gullet. HE IS NOT GOING TO OFFER YOU A COP-OUT EXCUSE FOR IRRESPONSIBILITY LIKE A RAPTURE TO HEAVEN FOR POOR EXPRESSION IN YOUR JOURNEY. YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR YOURSELF AND YOUR DIRECTION WITH SOUL, AND SOME MURDERED MAN IS NOT GOING TO SAVE ANYTHING OF YOURS. Being responsible or irresponsible is your singular choice in behavior AND INTENT. I have no business bending your "will" into being "my will". We can work and glean from the same field—without becoming either THE field or the product of the growings in the field.

I can only remind you and remind you and, again, remind you: Man is what he has become because he has become faint of heart in spirit. And as Esu "Jesus" Sananda said so well, "If man is faint of heart in spirit, so are his laws faint-hearted and are like heresy. If man is presumptuous and disregards the Commandments and Laws of The Creation and of God, he is forced to bring forth his own laws which are full of mistakes and lead him astray. Laws and commandments made according to men produce murder and evil, and evil will spread and gain control, and man no longer has any power over it. Commandments and laws are valid only if they are derived from wisdom and logic. But logic requires wisdom and perception."

So be it, and may you be given to realize that there is a difference in YOUR OPINION and that which IS. And, furthermore, when you tire of that which "is", then and only then will you take actions in precipitating change in any direction you so choose that change to reflect—GOOD OR BAD. YOUR ACTIONS AND INTENTIONS ARE, HOWEVER, NOT MY INTENTIONS OR ACTIONS—OR MY BUSINESS. I have NOTHING to PROVE—but perhaps it is time for you to prove your intentions for, until you activate your GOOD INTENTIONS, you reflect nothing save possibly the negative aspects of your intent.

Is it hard to fathom that which I spiel out here for your breakfast cereal? Why? Mankind does NOT WANT TO KNOW TRUTH, for with Truth comes acts of responsibility and it appears that mankind only wishes to hide from responsibility. So be it for it is your life, friend, NOT MINE. You can go whereto ye shall—but your demand is not my command—and I do not have to GO WITH YOU. Furthermore, until you assume responsibility for self and getting informed—I don't need you in my space, and when you understand that YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR YOU, only then will you begin to stop your blathering and start your creating that which is glorious. If you want to die—die. If you want to live—live. But don't dump your living or dying onto MY PLATE. I offer; it is up to you to take and use as you will. Responsibility is the name of GOD'S primary game and you can make it or blow it—that is the SECRET of the game.

Dharma feels so bad within when she can't seem to get every individual answered, even to the most absurd requests. Why? Because she feels that if ones write to her to get something to me, it somehow involves her. The facts are that she is correct for if a person writes to me through her—the assumption is that the ANSWER WILL ALSO COME VIA HER. Sorry about that for if this offends you—then you haven't done your homework and that simply is the way it is.

So, with these things in uppermost mind, we need to close this for our treadmill continues to run and drag us along. I choose to not allow it to further damage our gains.

Wherefrom, as a good problem for consideration, do YOU intend or "think" will come your next paycheck? Oh? How do you perceive that? If you are depending on ME, I suggest you get busy and find a way to get to work on "getting" and stop waiting for me to find YOUR WAY FOR YOU. What have YOU done to continue this journey as is? No, others cannot and SHOULD NOT continue to shoulder YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES. And by the way, people, don't have waited three to nine years to produce a positive turn of an event—when the original event should never have been allowed to HAPPEN in the first place. You are not a success if it takes you years to accomplish that which should have been handled in the first place. If you wait long enough, people, to do your job—everyone will be dead and gone—including you.

I am sick of excuses of why you "didn't win". I want a win in every category—and why would I want or expect less? You expect production and continuation of input from me—is it less I should ask of YOU? THERE IS NO FREE RIDE AND IT IS JUST ABOUT TIME FOR THE TRAVELERS TO START PAYING FOR THEIR RIDES UP TO NOW. PERHAPS ALL THOSE FREE LUNCHES YOU THOUGHT YOU WERE GETTING—ARE GOING TO DEMAND A LOT OF YOU NOW!!

"Well," you say, "...it takes time and I just haven't quite got it yet..." So, why don't you have it yet? The information and way to go has been dumped all over you and you haven't seen fit to gather it unto selves. So, again, that is YOUR problem, not mine, for there is no magic cure for what ails you. Another's miracle IS NOT YOUR CURE. Now, you who understand what I mean—God bless you. You who don't seem to get it, God forgive you for your lies unto self. And, if I seem to insult you—remember something important: It is intentional.

Salu.

Preservation Of The Integrity Of The White House

3/11/97 GRANDMA

Fellow Americans, the alleged preservation of the integrity of the White House is pure bunkum. However, the Federal Regulations on confiscation of real property (homes, lands, autos, etc.) under these so-called federal common laws as published for 30 days before becoming law are in all probability the only reason the Attorney General (Janet Reno) is trying to figure out: How in the Hell do I confiscate the White House?! Now, I need to answer Representative Rogers and others as to what is the cite of law on the crimes committed by this administration and employees residing therein!

Frankly, when Ms. Reno refused to answer the Budget Committee upon being asked "Is taking or soliciting money on federal property a crime, and if so, will you please tell which crime or which law covers this crime?", I was as shocked as the committee members who asked the honorable question, by Ms. Reno's marked disrespect, and outright contempt for the Committee.

Ms. Reno refused to answer the question as to what laws had been broken, alleging that an "investigation was ongoing, and even to mention a law would hinder the investigation?"

Ms. Reno would have absolutely no difficulty in seeking out and identifying the laws if she would just walk over to her wall library, and pick up 18 U.S.C. (Title 18), and throw the entire book at the White House crew!

Now, as to preserving the integrity of the White House. For Heaven's sake, the White House is not of capacity to do anything. It is not a real person. It is made of wood, brick, mortar, stone and has a bunch of antique furnishings (including a few secret panels here and there). It cannot commit a crime. However, those crooks, criminals, communists and treasonists occupying the White House, did commit crimes in violation of the Smith Act, thereby knowingly, willingly, willfully and wantonly attempting to overthrow the Government (people) of the United States.

The attempt to overthrow the Government of the United States (the people) is evidenced by:

(1) Selling off American soil to foreign nations, violating the Monroe Doctrine, the North American Alliance, the Alliance of Pan American Nations, the Constitution of the United States, subsequent treaties with the sovereign territorial civil government so said territorial states of the Union of Republics, by:

(A) Selling off Holloman Air Force Base to a foreign nation, i.e., Germany.

(B) Allowing the forbidden lodging of armed foreign troops on American soil.

(C) Allowing concentration camps and crematoriums to be built with body disposal capacity of 3,000-plus daily.

(D) Disposing of the Presidio, and lodging a known Communist, international leader (Gorbachev) to set up operations on said Presidio military base.

(E) Taking bribes and favoring a notorious, internationally known Communist government (China), to buy and set up an armed military base in Long Beach, California, while knowing said Chinese government shipping facility would be used for selling arms, dealing in arms sales, while not being subject to American laws.

(F) Giving away of American Treasury Trust monies to foreign bankers (Federal Reserve), and lying to the American people, stating the nation is in debt.

The inmates have control of the asylum, and I really don't care who knows it! This crap is like watching a daily Soap, and the players are the U.S. Government! This is outrageous! What is going on in that White House, in the U.S. Congress and Senate, is government out of control, with drunks, drug addicts, child abusers, drug pushers, arms dealers, criminals, crooks, mob rule, persons who do not know the difference between right and wrong, and those who absolutely dare the American people to say anything, or do anything about it. And no matter how hard the people try, no remedy occurs or trickles down from Washington, District of Crooks and Criminals. Instead, they sell off American soil, which by law they cannot do (Monroe Doctrine and the Constitution of the United States). Then they allow armed foreign troops on American soil while in the interim, both U.S. Houses (and Ms. Janet Reno) are passing laws and disarming the American people. Folks, this is serious stuff here! We are being overthrown from within! And our leaders are behind it all!

Yesterday morning we watched television news, and the moderator was discussing "possible cloning of mummified Egyptian pharaohs". What next? Cultism is rampant in our Representative and Legislative bodies of government. The President has openly laughed at the American people when asked about concentration camps, and foreign troops on our soil, by Sarah McClendon. The President and his executive office of committed men and women should be impeached and tried for treason the old-fashioned constitutional way! The same goes for both U.S. Houses and any governors or state representatives who have gone along with this.

Yes, it can be done. Frankly, there is no other way than this, to save this nation or this nation's civil government's sovereignty (the people), from being overthrown by the Communist Fourth Reich "U.S. Federal Government", now in active process.

I sincerely hope you are paying close attention on this cloning fiasco. U.S. Representative Tom Harkin and others think this is just G-R-E-A-T! He states, "I can't wait to see human cloning!" Yep, he said it right there on federal property!

THINK ABOUT THIS!

How many of you are aware of the fact that there is a brain bank (I think it is in the Siberian region) in Russia, which holds the brains of such persons as Lennin, Stalin, Hitler (after he died here just about 4 years ago), and hundreds of more just like them, all sitting there safe and secure, ready for cloning for the Fourth Reich leadership. And that's the facts, folks!

I wrote a long time ago that I thought the Government cloned my husband. I also stated where they excavated his vital body fluids (the photos exist). Also, I told you, he was very high up (military rank), and was involved in the Blacks Beach Government Cloning Facility. The U.S. Government has been cloning for years at that Military installation.

Well, about 4-5 weeks ago, I saw my husband, and a (deceased) scientist friend of his named Chuck. (They had previously worked together at Blacks Beach Laboratory, just inland from Coronado in the San Diego area.) Both men were leaving Scott Air Base in a White Cherokee with Washington State plates. My husband looked to be around 45 years of age and was in full U.S. officer's uniform, winter weight. I drove along side them for about 3 miles. He did not recognize me, and I think it was because he was so much younger and I am getting old. Also, my weight leaves me at a size he would not be familiar with.

Women know their men, just as they do their children, and that's a fact! I do not care who believes me, or who does not, but I saw my husband as clear as I see this word processor sitting here in front of me!

The Sleeping Tigers Are Stirring

3/21/97 V.K. DURHAM

Back in the 1960s, President John Kennedy was told the United States would fall from within, and not a single shot would be fired. Everyone laughed, and said, "impossible."

This is no longer a laughing matter. While Americans were being sold drugs in the classrooms, locker rooms, on the golf courses, in country clubs, yacht clubs, cloak rooms and men's rooms at court houses, a secondary pincer military tactical advance was being made through Psy-Wars.

Psy-Wars (psychological warfare used by governments when one government wants to overthrow the other) began in the United States with a fervor, unknown to the American people who structured their governments and judiciary with a built-in equality in the courts and a sense of fair play. In other words even the suckers got an even break with our ethical and moral sense of fair play. (Hell, even the mob had ethics in those days, and believe it or not some of them had morals.)

This nation was known universally as a nation of morals and ethics. We were law abiding, peace loving, peace keeping, honorable, and considerate for other fellow men and we were respected and envied and enjoyed a reputation as honorable people. Now, we are the most hated nation on the globe. Our lives are in danger anywhere we go. We must ask ourselves what in the Hell happened to cause all this?!

The United States Government no longer represents the people. Agents of other nations and special interest groups have overthrown the government of the people, while our elected leaders are paid to pass laws repugnant to the Constitution and keep the people from a common defense of nation, person, and properties.

Unfair and unequal representation exists in the House and Senate. Our Christian government has been overthrown by Jewish persons. Jewish attorney Dershowitz proudly announced to the public at large: Jews now control Congress and the Judicial System—they have arrived. According to Mr. Dershowitz, 92% are Jewish.

Mr. Dershowitz even suggests intermarriage to absorb Christianity through the children of these mixed marriages, insisting Jewish beliefs must flourish for it is the real culture of basically divine origin! (What about separation of church and state mandated in our Constitution?)

What Mr. Dershowitz did not explain to the public at large is the "Seed of Israel". The most hated thing as related to the Seed of Israel is the fact that one drop of gentile blood taints the entire seed, and it is no longer considered pure stock, or a pure seed. Furthermore, if the mother is gentile the seed is discounted and cast aside. However, if the mother is Jewish the seed is perfected. Only those perfected seeds are acceptable to the Jewish people, the others will remain slaves. These are, to the Jewish people, the goyim or gentile, which in old Hebrew means less than a pig. Incidentally, pigs are unclean and unholy to the Jewish people and must not be associated with, or indulged. In other words the new seedlings will be the workers or slaves to the Jewish people. (I know from whence I speak. I was married to a Jewish male, and paid dearly as a gentile, as has my son.)

Once again, as I have so many times stated before, I am not anti-Semitic—I am Semitic.

Also, I am anti-un-American activities!

LOOK AT THE STRANGLEHOLD ON OUR LAWS, IN OUR COURTS

The International Bar Association controls the American or National Bar Association. The Bar Association is not a recognized entity. It is a carefully organized group comprised almost in its entirety of Jewish Bar members. This organized group determines which laws can be enforced at the bench, and which ones to deny (specifically the Constitution of the United States and the Bill of Rights). In court after court across this land, they deny the Law of the Land to the people! These bar associations are not licensed to do business nor registered with any secretary of state, or licensed to conduct the practice of law.

THE RISE AND FALL OF THE THIRD REICH (It's time all of you re-read the book)

In 1927, the German Bar Association was used to overthrow the old Constitution of Germany. Almost in entirety, the German Bar Association was comprised of Jewish persons. After the overthrow about two thousand men and several hundred women had been apprehended at the beginning of the extraordinary pacification actions. Most of them already had been summarily sentenced, a Nazi euphemism for liquidation. A second batch of intellectuals was then being rounded up for summary sentence. This went on in every nation after the people had been disarmed under the guise of (1) joblessness creating large movements of people from nation to nation seeking jobs to earn money to feed their families; (2) the joblessness allegedly created criminal activity and armed violence; (3) the people were disarmed under an alleged peace agreement; and (4) old constitutions became burdensome and cumbersome and it became necessary to summarily do away with, or overthrow them.

Cleansing by fire originated in Sumaria (a historic origin of Mara or Maria, which controlled the seas), and then transferred to Phoenicia which became Maritime or Rhodian Law (the Law of the Sea), which had a code (this is in Admiralty Law Book One): "The Law of the Sea prevails, as long as there are no other laws to stop it." The only law which can stop the present encroachment of the Sea Laws (Admiralty Laws), is the Constitution of the United States, and our territorial state treaties with the civil government of the United States.

Do yourselves a favor once and for all, go pick up your Bible, and turn to Revelation, chapter 3, verses 9-11. Read them carefully. Then, research Higgins and Unger's Bible Dictionaries. Look up the word Jew. You will find, upon careful research, the term Jew was applied to the tribes of Judah and Benjamin (the wolf). They were slaughtered while they slept in their beds, in Palestine. This is the reason for the present furor for Jewish occupation of Palestine. They must, before the Messiah returns, have the Palestinian power seat. The power seat is Palestine. The Jewish people as we know them today are not those who possessed the covenant with God. These are the ones who broke God's covenants with Abraham, Solomon, and David. They are not that which they profess. They are the assimilators. They have assimilated the role of the Jewish people, those who were slaughtered while they slept in their beds; and their temples of God were desecrated by fire and sexual rituals. These are the Ashkenazi—the merciless, barbaric, ritualistic holocausting (burning with fire) remnants of Sumaria, assimilated into and with the tribes of Levi. This is the barbaric, merciless, ritualistic tribe of Israel. These Levites take great pride in their ability in law, war and overthrowing laws and nations' laws. Mr. Dershowitz knows this to be true; he is a Levite. He also knows history is documented. He also knows that he and others representing themselves as Jews, are not Jews. The Arab nations know this also. Americans are the only ones asleep at the switches, with a runaway government, out of control.

THE LORD ALMIGHTY

THEM BY THEIR DEEDS

LET'S LOOK AT THE
COSCO (CHINESE)
PAYOFF LISTS OF JEWISH PERSONS
IN THE U.S. HOUSES &
EXECUTIVE BRANCH

Almost without exception, those on the payoff lists are Jewish. It matters not if the monies are returned after the deeds of selling out of the nations through legislative and executive resolutions, executive orders, treaties, alliances, GATT and NAFTA. The deed has been done. The deed by act is treason.

Treason defined: When two or more persons conspire to overthrow the Government of the United States (the government [people] of the Article IX and X-defined government). This is in no way to be confused with the U.S. Government (the contracted parties to the Government of the United States). The daily misinformation passed on by the major news media allege that a war must be in progress before treason can be invoked! Woops! Excuse me! Treason is treason!

When elected officials take bribes, pass laws to accommodate corruption, allow silent invasion of foreign nations into and onto American soil, pass laws to protect disarming of the American people to keep the American people from the ability of self defense or common self defense of their communities or nation, while knowing arms and drugs are being illegally brought into the nation and distributed on our streets, and pass laws to protect the perpetrators, while denying rights to the people, in court after court, with our laws held hostage by an organized Jewish Bar Association, with further hostaging of our laws by the President of the United States, who passes Executive Orders which circumvent a lawful Congress, to protect vested and special interest groups, with special committees, appointed by the President, all of whom are Jewish and does so under the Federal Advisory Committee Act which in itself is a repugnancy to the Constitution, then you know We-the-People have been sold down the river. This FACADE allows a dictatorship unparalleled in any historic past of any nation! This is treason; Congress is responsible for this SNAFU (situation normal: all fouled up).

It is up to Congress to repeal the Federal Advisory Committee Act, and make order from chaos! That, ladies and gentlemen, is where the shoe fits! Congress must by law rescind, repeal, impeach, and try acts of treason pursuant to the constitutional guidelines of treason. In the event they choose not to do so, I fear many an honorable, conscientious representative of the people will be judged, and tried with the same treason brush, by the people. I, for one, would hate to see this happen—but as sure as the daylight comes, and is followed by night, it will happen. The sleeping tiger will be awakened.

Gov't Says You Are Expendable!

You Are Expendable

Your government believes it owns your body and had/has a right to perform experiments on you at will as if you were nothing more than a Guinea Pig. It sounds like something out of Nazi Germany that Hitler would have done. Without your knowledge and consent, your government can experiment on you, kill you, or even worse, give you an incurable disease, at any time it wants to use you as its subject for its biological and chemical warfare experiments. Your government has put the Protocols into law in Title 50 of the United States Code, Section 1520. See the law below and judge for yourself.

CHEMICAL AND BIOLOGICAL WARFARE 50 USCS § 1521

XII, Part C, 97 Stat. 695, and not as part of Act NOV. 19, 1969, P. L. 91-121, Title IV, 83 Stat. 209, which generally comprises this chapter.

§1520. Use of human subjects for testing of chemical or biological agents by Department of Defense; accounting to congressional committees with respect to experiments and studies; notification of local civilian officials

(a) Not later than thirty days after final approval within the Department of Defense of plans for any experiment or study to be conducted by the Department of Defense, whether directly or under contract, involving the use of human subjects for the testing of Chemical or biological agents, the Secretary of Defense shall supply the Committees on Armed Services of the Senate and House of Representatives with a full accounting of such plans for such experiment or study, and such experiment or study may then be conducted only after the expiration of the thirty-day period beginning on the date such accounting is received by such committees.

(b)(1) The Secretary of Defense may not conduct any test or experiment involving the use of any chemical or biological agent on civilian populations unless local civilian officials in the area in which the test or experiment is to be conducted are notified in advance of such test or experiment, and such test or experiment may then be conducted only after the expiration of the thirty-day period beginning on the date of such notification. (2) Paragraph (1) shall apply to tests and experiments conducted by Department of Defense personnel and tests and experiments conducted on behalf of the Department of Defense by contractors.

(July 30, 1977, P.L. 95-79, Title VIII, § 808, 91 Stat. 334; Dec. 21, 1982, P.L. 97-375, Title II, §203(a)(1), 96 Stat. 1822.)

HISTORY; ANCILLARY LAWS AND DIRECTIVES

Explanatory notes:

This section was not enacted as part of Act Nov. 19, 1969, P. L. 91-121, Title IV, § 409, 83 Stat. 209, which comprises this chapter.

Amendments:

1982. Act Dec. 21, 1982, in subsec. (a), deleted para. (1) which read:

"The Secretary or Defense shall supply the Committees on Armed Services or the Senate and House of Representatives, not later than October 1 of each year, a full accounting of all experiments and studies conducted by the Department of Defense in the preceding twelve-month period, whether directly or under contract, which involve the use of human subjects for the testing of chemical or biological agents.", and in para. (2), deleted "(2)" before "Not later than".

A message from Negative Population Growth, Inc.

Why We Need A Smaller U.S. Population And How We Can Achieve It

We need a smaller population in order to halt the destruction of our environment, and to create an economy that will be sustainable over the very long term.

We are trying to address our steadily worsening environmental problems without coming to grips with their root cause -- overpopulation.

If present immigration and fertility rates continue, our population, now over 264 million, will pass 400 million by the year 2050 -- and still be growing rapidly!

All efforts to save our environment will ultimately be futile unless we not only halt U.S. population growth, but reverse it, so that our population can eventually be stabilized at a sustainable level -- far lower than it is today.

The Optimum U.S. Population Size

The central issue is surely this: At what size should we seek to stabilize U.S. population? Unless we know in what direction we should be headed, how can we possibly devise sensible policies to get us there?

The size at which our population is eventually stabilized is supremely important because of the effect of sheer numbers of people on such vitally important national goals as a healthy environment, and a sustainable economy.

We believe these goals can best be achieved with a U.S. population in the range of 125 to 150 million, or about its size in the 1940s. This optimum size could be reached in about three to four generations if we do two things now that are well within our grasp.

How To Get There

1. Impose restrictions on immigration that would halt illegal immigration, and cap legal immigration at not over 100,000 per year, including all relatives, refugees and asylees. That alone would sharply slow our growth.

To learn more about NPG's recommendation for programs designed to halt, and eventually to reverse, U.S. and world population growth, write today for our FREE BROCHURE.

NPG is a national nonprofit organization founded in 1972. We are the only organization that calls for a smaller U.S. and world population, and recommends specific, realistic measures to achieve those goals.

 Negative Population Growth, Inc.

P.O. Box 1206, 210 The Plaza, Suite 7K, Teaneck, NJ 0766

2. Lower our fertility rate (the average number of children per woman) from the present 2.0 to around 1.5 and maintain it at that level for several decades. We believe that non-coercive financial incentives will be necessary in order to reach that goal.

If almost all women had no more than two children, our fertility rate would drop to around 1.5, because many women remain childless by choice, or choose to have not more than one child. We promote the ideal of the two-child maximum family as the social norm, because that is the key to lowering our fertility.

Incentives to Lower Fertility

NPG proposes these incentives to motivate parents to have no more than two children:

- Eliminate the present Federal income tax exemption for dependent children born after a specified date.
- Give a Federal income tax credit only to those parents who have not more than two children. Those with three or more would lose the credit entirely.
- Give an annual cash grant to low income parents who pay little or no income tax, and who have no more than two children. Those with three or more children would lose the cash grant entirely.

Two Vastly Different Paths Lie Before Us

With the reductions in immigration and fertility we advocate, our nation could start now on the path toward a sustainable, and prosperous, population of 125 to 150 million.

Without such a program, we are almost certain to continue our mindless, headlong rush down our current path. That path is leading us straight toward catastrophic population levels that can only devastate our environment, and produce universal poverty in a crowded, polluted nation.

New Gaia Offers Journey To Health

What Should We Be Taking?

5/26/95 SANDRA TULANIAN, D.C.

The times in which we live in do not afford us the opportunity to keep life simple enough that health can be taken for granted by just ingesting food and water. The game rules have been changed by bureaucrats (directed by crooks higher up the ladder) who dictate questionable farming practices which, when added to the already choking pollutions of our atmosphere and water, end up depleting the soil, the food supply, plus the air & water we breathe, of many of the essential nutrients that would otherwise allow our bodies to function optimally.

Aside from a core of products that New Gaia carries which will be discussed further on in this article, two brand new products are being offered that are extremely important to present first. They are GaiaCol and OxySol. GaiaCol is a combination of Colloidal Silver, Trace Colloidal Gold and Trace Crystalline Drias. This combination of ingredients has produced a product that is so high-frequency and potent that it could quite possibly be the solution to our ongoing fight against the new antibiotic-resistant diseases that we face today. Colloidal Silver was used extensively and very successfully against bacteria, virus, fungi and the like before the advent of the first antibiotic, penicillin; and the uses for Colloidal Gold at that time were just beginning to present themselves. Once the chemical companies began manufacturing the myriad of antibiotics, silver and gold were no longer looked to for treatment. Interestingly, the antibiotics that they were producing had no effect on the more resistant viruses, fungi and parasites yet this did not stop the medical community from prescribing these drugs regardless of the type of infection. Now we face new generations of bacteria that are completely resistant to any antibiotics merely due to antibiotic overprescribing and resultant survival-of-the-fittest bacteria.

Research has demonstrated that Colloidal Silver is non-toxic to humans and allows no known disease-causing organism to live in its presence. With the addition of Trace Colloidal Gold and Trace Crystalline Drias, the frequency of GaiaCol is remarkably enhanced to allow these newer, more powerful viruses and bacteria to be eliminated. GaiaCol is gentle enough to use topically on just about any skin, hair, or mouth condition without fear of toxicity and is outstanding for burns. For internal use it is recommended to maintain with 3-4 drops, 3-4 times per day under the tongue and if an infection is present, start with 1 teaspoon the first day and then 10-12 drops, 3-4 times per day under the tongue until the infection clears. Important: Due to the powerful nature of this product, friendly bacteria can be affected so it is advisable to replace the natural intestinal flora with some type of acidophilus/lactobacillus supplement daily or, at the least, when symptoms are noted (symptoms may include cramps, bloating, diarrhea/constipation and a general feeling of malaise).

Please note that this product is said to be perfectly safe for children and pets and can be taken with other medications without incident. Colloidal Silver is not addictive and the body does not build up a tolerance to it. For your information only, Colloidal Silver has been used effectively on the following: acne, conjunctivitis, allergies, rheumatoid arthritis, bladder inflammation, venereal diseases, eczema, appendicitis, boils, cancer, candida, otitis media, prostate problems, whooping cough, ulcers, plus many, many others. GaiaCol can also be used to wet wound dressings and bandages and help heal cuts, scratches, abrasions, fever blisters, etc. There is a myriad of uses for this product which makes GaiaCol, in my opinion, one of the most exciting and valuable products on the market today.

OxySol contains Colloidal Silver and Trace Colloidal Gold but has Hydrogen Peroxide (food grade) and other trace minerals to add a new dimension to the effects. Organisms that have plagued us for centuries may be destroyed using this product but the new, more resistant strains will require the higher frequency GaiaCol. When added to water, the OxySol will help to purify, which makes this ideal for taking to restaurants or for travel. When taken with GaiaCol you get a two-fold effect of combating foreign invaders and providing a greater oxygen content for the health of the cells from the Hydrogen Peroxide. OxySol is wonderful topically as well, but is not advised for burns (use GaiaCol for burns). The trace minerals found in OxySol are vital to our health because the nutrients that were once taken for granted in our vegetables and fruits have been systematically farmed out of our soil. These trace minerals need to be replaced, otherwise our bodies continue to be open season for aggressive bugs. Another use for OxySol is to rid the oral cavity of harmful bacteria by brushing your teeth with 4 drops OxySol on your toothbrush or use as a mouthwash or gargle. The recommended amount to take daily for system clearing is 6-10 drops, 3 times a day on an empty stomach. If taken with GaiaCol, reduce both daily requirements in half. If you are adding OxySol to your water, just add 1-2 drops in each glass of water. Both OxySol and GaiaCol are very powerful additions to our pursuit of health.

Without these "food"-based essential nutrients our immune systems and body physiologies are sitting ducks for any attack—from chemical and biological "warfare" practices, to increased nuclear radiation pollution, as well as from other high-energy photon bombardment as this planet prepares itself for the upcoming changes.

It is up to every individual to take personal responsibility for their health and prioritize the needs their bodies may have at this time as well as pay special attention to the needs of their children. I hope to describe here some good products available to you so that your search for a basic, complete arsenal against disease can come to an end.

New Gaia has presented many products to the public that you can pick or choose for individual needs. But there is a core of products, which should be taken regularly, that is felt to be essential to health and well being. These products are: Gaiandriana, AquaGaia, Gaialyte, Kombucha Tea, Kombucha Vinegar, CarbraGaia, GaiaCleanse Program, Chlorella, Spelt, and 3-In-1. Each of these provides a service to the body that is a necessary assistant to the other. We will discuss each one individually to provide you with the information you need to understand why these items are necessary.

The physiology of the body is basically governed by the actions and programming found within the cell. The cells make up the tissues of the body, the tissues make up the organs such as the heart or liver which, in turn, make up the organ systems that work in harmony with each other to keep the entire body functioning. If the cell structure has been altered or is malfunctioning (for whatever reason), every organ system is affected. To what degree they are affected depends on the offending substance that has caused the cell's breakdown or the length of time that cell has been subjected to abuse.

Gaiandriana is a product that is said to help correct the faulty programming that has occurred at the cell level by correcting into perfection the cell's DNA/RNA blueprint. Viruses, unlike bacteria, have the ability to fuse with the DNA strand within the cell, creating a mutation to that cell. By perfecting the DNA/RNA blueprint, the cell may be returned to a level of vitality which allows it to fight off an incoming virus and maintain the homeostasis within the cell and, in turn, within the organ systems.

This is essential for the immune organ system, because without healthy cells that can fight off offenders like free radicals, viruses, and cumulative levels of radiation, the immune system is overtaxed to the point of exhaustion—eventually leading to disease. Another benefit from consuming Gaiandriana is its ability and nature to thrive on the invisible, higher photon frequencies which are bombarding us daily. Gaiandriana is able to speed up the frequency levels of the cells to more nearly match the energies pouring in and assaulting the body. This, in turn, can offer a two-fold benefit: One benefit is the ability of the cell to withstand and actually adapt to these otherwise damaging energies; the other benefit is to help protect ourselves from mind manipulation through pulse beams that are irradiating mankind relentlessly. Originally the dose was 10 drops, 3 times per day, under the tongue. However, with the growing number of "manufactured" epidemics and other stepped-up plans for our demise by the Elite, perhaps more is better. One ounce or more per day may produce faster and more effective results.

AquaGaia was introduced to benefit the mitochondria system that lies within the cell. The mitochondria is the energy producer of the cell and is essential to convert the food we eat into usable cell fuel and to produce enzymes that are absolutely necessary for survival of the body system.

AquaGaia is also said to feed on vessel plaques adhering to blood vessel linings. Most all of us, by the age of twenty, have plaques developing on the arterial walls due to the American diet that is filled with saturated fats, high protein, white flour products, and limited consumption of fresh fruits and vegetables. This product provides added fuel to any compromised system to assist in strengthening the immune system, as well as cleaning out blood vessels and enhancing the pliability of the vessel walls throughout the body. Both Gaiandriana and AquaGaia work in harmony to strengthen and eliminate mutations of all cells by working together within the cell structure itself.

Another product that you will find essential in your daily regime is Gaialyte. This is a fully integrated electrolyte liquid that is brought forth from the Kombucha Tea. The combination of tea and juice, vitamins, minerals, Gingko Biloba, Echinacea, Chlorella, oxygenators, Aloe Vera and Gaiandriana are a powerful combination that helps boost energy levels as well as provides electrolyte balance within the body to help enhance the performance of the Gaiandriana within the cells. Electrolytes are substances which dissociate into ions in solution and thus become capable of conducting electricity. The balance of these electrolytes in the body will aid in the protection from the various high-frequency energies that we are now subjected to as well as enhance the effectiveness of all the other products you are consuming for your health.

Another beverage that should be taken in a dose of approximately 8 ounces per day is the "Tea Breeze" Kombucha Tea. Enough can not be said about this fermented drink from the mushroom fungus found long ago by a prominent Japanese woman in a town called Kargasok, Russia. What she found amongst these villagers astounded her. The women were virtually without wrinkles or other signs of aging and the overall population was comprised of unusually healthy people. She was told that these people drank 8 ounces of Kombucha Tea daily. She brought the mushroom fungus back to Japan and, today, over a million Japanese people drink the fermented tea daily. With the high content of special proteins and enzymes, this tea is said to reduce cholesterol, restore hair growth, strengthen eyesight, help insomnia, aid in weight reduction, help with allergies, bronchitis, asthma and a myriad of other debilitating conditions including the prevention of certain cancers.

While these are claims from people who have used or researched the product, it would simply be prudent to regard Kombucha Tea as a must to add to your daily health regime. Many people make their own tea with the mushroom that is available through New Gaia Products, but for those of us with limited time, the ready-made tea in the 1-liter and 2-liter bottles is both delicious and convenient. Try mixing the tea with the Gaialyte and your favorite juice, or just drink it straight.

There is a Kombucha Vinegar that has been developed which offers similar properties to unpasteurized apple cider vinegar, which has been used for centuries to care for all types of ailments. This product packs a punch when fighting off the common cold and is great as a digestive aid. Many are using this product in their salad dressings or other recipes to enhance the nutrition that their families receive. While Kombucha Vinegar is not recommended for canning or preserving, it certainly is recommended for general consumption.

CarbraGaia is the membrane that is found in the mushroom fungus of the Kombucha Tea bathed in a nurturing amniotic-like fluid of Gaiandriana to aid the body in repair of connective tissue. This product was designed to replace the need for Shark Cartilage supplement, which has been well researched and documented in recent years and which is said to program the body to never develop cancer tumors. By mixing one teaspoon in to any of the above mentioned drinks, you add one more weapon to your arsenal in the quest to build the immune system to its optimum healthy state.

A 14-day program called GaiaCleanse has been developed that assists in the elimination of the nasty and destructive parasites found within the body. Very few people realize the kinds and types of diseases that these parasites can contribute to, such as Cancer, AIDS, Hepatitis, Hodgkin's Disease, Diabetes, just to name a few. There have been reports that people have been able to turn their conditions around by utilizing a program such as the GaiaCleanse Program to eliminate the myriads of parasites, such as flukes, keeping house in their internal organs.

The beauty of this program is that 14 days every 3 months is all that is required to insure a body that is free of most parasites. The GaiaCleanse line includes tinctures that can be mixed in any one of the above beverages or in juice. There is also an intestinal cleanse that comes in the kit to ensure proper elimination and cleansing during the two weeks. These steps to health are important if one is to realize optimum health within the cellular structure and organ tissues of the body.

Chlorella is a single-celled, fresh-water algae which is a nutritionally balanced whole food that is extremely high in protein (60%) and contains more than 20 essential vitamins and minerals, 19 of the 22 essential and non-essential amino acids, enzymes, plus Chlorella growth factor. The combination of these factors results in a product that has been found to be excellent in the healing of wounds, injuries and ulcers, immune strengthening, age retardation, protection against radiation, normalizing digestion and bowel function, and protection against toxic pollutants, to name but a few of the benefits.

Chlorella is a rich source of chlorophyll, which is extremely effective in controlling body odor both internally and externally. The suggested daily consumption is 3 grams per day, but dosages should be adjusted to your individual needs. Many times the alkaline reserves in the body are so depleted that Chlorella, in larger doses, is warranted.

Moreover, because of its superb food value, Chlorella is an important addition to anyone's emergency food storage stash.

As part of an ongoing nutritious diet, the grain of Spelt (Triticum Spelta) should be added to every diet in replacement of the standard wheat grain. Spelt is superior to wheat in that it contains more protein, crude fiber, and fats than wheat. It also contains special carbohydrates (Mucopolysaccharides) which help stimulate the all-important immune system.

Many people who are allergic to wheat find Spelt to be easily digestible. What is most exciting is the delicious nutty flavor that Spelt offers to any baking needs. Another advantage of Spelt is the large amount of vitamin B-17 found in the grain (also known as Laetrile) which has a reputation for retarding cancerous cell growth and aiding in the healing of other serious illnesses. Spelt also has an exceptionally thick husk around the center grain, which protects it from all kinds of pollutants and insects far better than happens with other grains. The Spelt grain can be ground up into flour and used in any recipe where flour is required. New Gaia offers the whole Spelt grain bread mixes, or the grain itself to be ground into flour, or the flour already milled for your convenience. This simple addition to your family's diet can provide a wealth of extra nutrition for your loved ones as well as a great taste experience.

The last product I wish to discuss is a newer product of which you may not be fully aware. Many of you have heard of the latest craze using a product called "Pycnogenols". Pycnogenol comes from the bark of the pine tree and is said to have remarkable anti-oxidant properties that are aiding in the relief of a number of chronic conditions. The 3-In-1 product offered by New Gaia has been found to be superior to Pycnogenol. The research that has been conducted on the elements found in Pine Bark were primarily conducted on Grape Seed Extract because this, too, had the components that offered the superior anti-oxidant protection.

What was discovered is that the Grape Seed Extract was even superior to the Pine Bark in that it contains a higher level and higher potency of OPCs (Oligomeric proanthocyanidins) which are the active ingredient for free-radical scavenging. These OPCs found in the Grape Seed Extract are known for their instant bioavailability to seek out nasty free radicals and produce rapid counter-effect results. While no claims are here being made for the healing qualities of any product, the OPCs found in Grape Seed Extract have been identified with: Anti-aging protection, improved vision, decrease in wrinkles, resistance to mental deterioration, reduced risk of heart disease, reduced risk of stroke, enhanced immune system, faster healing, subdued PMS, and reduced inflammation of arthritis.

The other substances found in 3-In-1 are Ester-C and Aloe Vera. Ester-C is found to get into the blood stream faster and in larger amounts than other forms of vitamin C and wastes only a fraction of what other vitamin C products lose through elimination. It is also found to penetrate white blood cells more efficiently, which is necessary for their metabolism. There is also a reduction, if not an elimination, of the side effects from the acidity of regular Vitamin C because Ester C has a neutral pH. Each capsule also contains 150 mgs. of Aloe Vera which is the equivalent of one-and-one-half ounces of natural Aloe Vera juice. Excerpted from an article by John C. Pittman, M.D., we read: "Acemannan, a mucopolysaccharide, is a long-chain sugar which is found as an active ingredient in Cold Processed Whole Leaf Aloe. It interjects itself into all cell membranes. This causes an increase in the fluidity and permeability of the membrane, allowing toxins to flow out of the cell more easily and nutrients to enter the cell. The net result may improve cellular metabolism throughout the body, resulting in a boost of energy production."

These three powerful ingredients are found in one product called 3-In-1. It is a potent product that should be utilized by anyone suffering from a chronic condition or for those wishing to maximize the functioning of their immune system on a day-to-day basis.

All the above products discussed: OxySol, GaiaCol, Gaiandriana, AquaGaia, Gaialyte, Kombucha Tea, Kombucha Vinegar, CarbraGaia, GaiaCleanse, Chlorella, Spelt and 3-In-1 can be the keys to a healthier and more vibrant life by reinvigorating the immune system, increasing the metabolic activity of the cells, providing more complete nourishment to allow the organ systems to function in harmony with one another, and to increase our bodies' overall frequency levels to withstand the onslaught of various high-frequency energies that are thrown our way. These products work synergistically together to maximize the effects of each product.

Of course, right thinking, right exercise, and right eating are absolutely necessary to add to any health regime, but the benefits and gifts found within these various products are priceless to our well being in this high-stress world.

TELEPHONE HOTLINE

This is a service for our dedicated readers. Today's Watch telephone hotline carries the latest news and comments from Commander Hatonn's most recent writings. This is our way of keeping you informed about fast-breaking news and events.

The message machine will answer after 2 rings if there are any new messages for that day, and after 4 rings if not. Thus daily callers can hang up after 2 rings and save toll charges if no new message has been recorded. If the hotline does not answer your call then that means that there is currently no hotline message.
