

CONTACT

The Phoenix Project: A LIGHT IN EVERY MIND!

*"YE SHALL KNOW THE TRUTH AND THE TRUTH SHALL MAKE YOU MAD!"
"NOW THAT YOU'RE MAD, LET'S FIX IT!"*

VOLUME 17, NUMBER 13

NEWS REVIEW

$ 3.00

AUGUST 19, 1997

Novinger's Formidable Dark Nemeses

Operation Nimbus

An Interview With Darlene Novinger

8/5/97 RICK MARTIN

Well, readers, my inside sources have given me several other names for this individual and none of them were Novinger, but then, what else is new with former FBI operatives? But, for her security, we will go with Novinger.

Darlene has had a very difficult time of it since inadvertently discovering the names George Bush and Jeb Bush in connection with the inner circle of international cocaine smuggling which she had infiltrated in the early 1980s. Filing reports with the FBI (which came to be known as Operation Nimbus, as in high-flying clouds) naming "Bush" proved not to be too popular in the circles of Elite cover-ups. Darlene is, to this very day, a target for retribution, seemingly whether she talks or stays silent. She is still choosing to talk. As our long-time readers are well aware, publicity is protection. For those of you wishing to contact Darlene, she may be reached by writing to: P. O. Box 91, Hunt Valley, Maryland 21030.

So, now, let us begin our discussion with Darlene. And again, readers, just a little reminder: Always read these conversation transcriptions with discernment in mind. CONTACT is not saying that every word contained herein is absolute truth. What we are saying is, here is a conversation which took place and you decide what makes sense and what doesn't. With that said, here we go.

(Please see An Interview With Darlene Novinger, p. 7)

CONTACT
P.O. Box 27800
Las Vegas, NV 89126

FIRST-CLASS MAIL
U.S. POSTAGE
PAID
Mojave, Ca. 93501
Permit No. 110

FIRST CLASS MAIL

INSIDE THIS ISSUE

The News Desk, p.2

Legal Update From
Eustace Mullins, p.5

The News Desk Special
Satanic Ritual Calendar, p.10

Peter Kawaja:
Notice To All Americans
Now Living In Fear
Of A Biological Attack, p.11

The News Desk

8/16/97 DR. AL OVERHOLT

EARLY WARNING—FINANCE

From WORLD PRESS REVIEW, September 1997, [quoting:]

Major financial institutions could be courting disaster as they purchase billions of dollars in long-term bonds from China, Slovenia, African nations, and other countries that were only recently seen as economic basket cases. The returns on the investments are not high enough to compensate for the risk involved. Fund managers are reluctant to buck the trend, fearing that they will look anemic if the current market rallies continue. But buyer beware, in the event that the bubble bursts. [Financial Times, London] [End quoting]

Nothing in the financial world today makes sense except to the masterminds behind the biggest scam ever seen on this planet. Most of those who think they can outsmart these evil gangsters are going to wake up destroyed by their greed and lack of common sense.

TOP SECRET GULF WAR BIO-WARFARE UNIT ACKNOWLEDGED

From the INTERNET, from Nexus Magazine, by David Guyatt, 8/97, [quoting:]

The Clinton administration continues to back the Pentagon's six-year-old cover-up of the causes of Gulf War Syndrome: a chemical and biological shadow war of nightmarish proportions.

In an attempt to keep some of the more seriously sensitive aspects and missions under wraps, London and Washington have harmonised their public pronouncements. Despite this, they are faced with a problem that is daily growing and will likely become insurmountable over time. Some vets know too much. Sick, and in some cases dying, their patience is eroding along with their expectation they will receive fair treatment at the hands of their governments.

It is one thing for governments to yearly shell out hundreds of billions of dollars to the fat-cat corporate armament industry, but it is another to pay fair compensation and to care for their sick veterans. This disparity is an emotional powder-keg and by all accounts the fuse has now been lit.

THE SECRET TEAM

During a House of Lords answer to the Countess of Mar, Lord Gilbert, answering for the Ministry of Defence, officially confirmed that Britain's Top Secret 1 Field Laboratory Unit (1 FLU)—never before publicly acknowledged—had been operating in the Gulf War. The confirmation was published in Hansard on 24 July 1997.

This announcement coincided with the publication of a revelatory feature article published in the current issue of Nexus Magazine. Entitled "Biological Black Magic", the article was the culmination of two months' painstaking research on Gulf War Syndrome.

The Porton Down unit was first formed during WW1 and has remained a closely guarded secret for 80 years. Porton Down is the HQ of Britain's CB Warfare Establishment.

The article, in addition, recounts the testimony of Angus Parker—a 1 FLU deputy team commander—assigned to the Gulf to search for evidence of Iraqi use of biological weapons. Markedly more lethal than chemical warfare, bio-weapons were detected.

Parker goes on the record saying his team collected positive samples of Anthrax. He also reveals that another team from 1 FLU identified Plague. In addition, numerous other samples of biological weapons, unable to be identified in the field, were secretly shipped to Porton Down for identification. These remain shrouded in secrecy.

Britain's Ministry of Defence and the US Department of Defense continue to harmonise their response to allegations of Iraqi use of chemical and biological weapons. Both governments deny either were used in anger, despite increasing and substantial evidence to the contrary.

Not least, Parker has provided astonishing details regarding one classified vaccine given to Gulf War troops. The vaccine, a combination of Cytokines and HIV gene envelopes is sure to arouse a storm of protest amongst sick vets. It seems certain that the Ministry of Defence will not acknowledge the use of this experimental vaccine.

Former colleagues and friends who still work at Porton Down now refuse to take calls from Parker. "Even the cleaning lady won't speak to me now," he said in a recent phone call with this reporter. "It's a pity because she was the best of the lot," he wryly lamented.

Parker is being cold-shouldered for revealing the existence of his covert unit—known as the "Secret Team", and for providing details of the experimental vaccine—amongst other things. During one of his last phone conversations, a Porton Down insider derided Parker's whistle-blowing, saying "we've got Full Crown Immunity...ha, ha, ha".

The cold cynicism typifies a knee-jerk reaction in a defence establishment wholly unused to having the public spotlight focused on it. It also underscores the widespread and inherent arrogance prevalent in the more secretive arms of the defence research and development community. Sadly, however, the comment is accurate. Misjudgement, cock-up and bureaucratic bungling continue to go unpunished. Meanwhile, with continuing pressure to become a "profit-centre", Porton Down continues to earn its own revenue stream. The fear is this will lead to greater unaccountability, not less.

The use of experimental and classified vaccines remains a hot subject amongst Gulf War vets. Britain's Ministry of Defence now confirms that only three vaccines were ever classified. These were declassified and details announced last December. Despite this, the Surgeon General, Vice Admiral Revell, earlier giving evidence to a "Behind-Closed-Doors" meeting of the Defence Committee, stated that "five or six" vaccines have not been "admitted to". Responding to a question put to the Ministry of Defence to explain this obvious discrepancy, a spokesman typified Vice Admiral Revell's comments as a "misunderstanding".

Parker is now an activist for sick and dying Gulf War veterans, and is committed to shaming the government into making a just settlement on their behalf. By going public he has forced the Ministry of Defence to acknowledge the existence of a secret unit and its hitherto classified role in the Gulf War. Veterans and other interested researchers may be sure that this is merely the opening shot in what is likely to become a protracted and bitter battle to get the truth out into the public domain. [End quoting]

Here is some more proof that if enough pressure is applied over a long enough period it can cause the Elite to start loosening their control of information and thus a greater chance of recompense for their dastardly deeds.

Let's continue to build the pressure for reforms!!

NUCLEAR RED ALERT

From THE CALIFORNIA SUN, August 1997, [quoting:]

While many vacationers are presently enjoying the scenic wonders that California has to offer, plans are afoot to surreptitiously bring two California hazardous waste dumps onstream this fall.

The toxic dump near Eagle Rock is associated with the Kaiser Corporation. To make matters worse, a second dump is for radioactive waste; this is located in the Ward Valley, which extends into the Imperial Valley.

Leakage from either site could permeate into the nearby Colorado River, with potentially devastating results to the Imperial and Coachella Valley agricultural areas.

We can stop this now. Call Laura Wingate 1-805-565-2737. [End quoting]

This is another area in which the pressures from we-the-people need to be applied—and quickly, before it progresses any further—to stop this criminal activity of endangering this water basin.

SPLAT COOLING

Excerpted from THE CALIFORNIA SUN, August 1997, [quoting:]

...Some lecturers insist that all recovered crashed UFOs must be of extraterrestrial origin because they are fabricated from metal of a non-crystalline nature which is impossible to cut with normal cutting tools—a technology that they claim is not possessed by human metallurgists. For the record, the process known as splat cooling, in which molten metal is deposited upon a cryogenically-cooled surface, results in a non-crystalline product. Similarly, when metal is compressed at temperatures approaching absolute zero, the metal attains a room-temperature hardness exceeding that of a diamond. This latter process has remained a closely-guarded secret, in all probability because when liquid hydrogen is subjected to the same process, it results in a bomb possessing a detonating force comparable to that of a nuclear weapon...a technology known to Iraqi scientists. [End quoting]

Very interesting piece of news about high-tech, but as usual the Elite use it for greed and power.

DUMB COP

From THE BLUE DUCK newsletter, Aug. 1997, [quoting:]

The Justice Department's Civil Rights Division has been pressuring local police forces to drop cognitive entrance exams, which test for basic reading, writing, reasoning and memory skills. The Department says such tests discriminate against minorities.

Intelligence, in other words, should count for little or nothing. Which is why increasingly, under Justice Department pressure, police departments have taken to recruiting in ghetto street corners, instead of going to the top Black colleges.

The Reno Brigade recently jumped all over the Suffolk County (NY) Police Department, claiming that its test permitted too few minorities to get police jobs. It said that if tests were "race neutral", top scorers would have included 249 more new Blacks, 170 more Hispanics, and 447 fewer Whites.

But what about qualifications? [End quoting]

The game, today, is to dumb-down the police departments because they can't control intelligent cops nearly as well as they can the street riff-raff. This makes it much easier to turn the police into trained goon squads with puppet brains—like the goons in the CIA and BATF, etc., who have only the brains to do what they are programmed to do—no matter what the orders.

Also, street-gang type personalities make excellent terrorists—give them a badge and then you'll really have a reason to be in terror!

CRIME ON PAROLE

From THE BLUE DUCK newsletter, Aug. 1997, [quoting:]

On any given day in America, there are three convicted adult criminals out on probation or parole for every one in prison.

* Nearly half of all state prisoners in 1991 (the last year for which we could find statistics) committed their latest crimes while out on probation or parole.

* While formally "under supervision" in the community, their violations included more than 13,000 murders, some 39,000 robberies and tens of thousands of other crimes.

* More than 90% of probationers are supposed to get substance-abuse counseling, pay victim restitution, or meet other requirements. Only half comply with these terms of probation. [End quoting]

This is another method of terrorizing we-the-people—the more scared we are, the more cops we'll call for and then they will release the "gangs-with-badges cops" which will make us go into a state of chaos with a feeling of complete helplessness.

BILINGUAL UPDATE

From THE BLUE DUCK newsletter, Aug. 1997, [quoting:]

In 1974, New York City established the bilingual Hostos Community College, to help Spanish-speaking kids continue their education, while improving their English.

After nearly a quarter-century, are students becoming fluent in English? Has the melting pot been stirred, just a bit? Has anything been accomplished? Nada, it would seem.

This year's 104 graduating students were told they had to pass a Writing Assessment Test in English, before they would get their diploma. This required writing 300 words on a choice of subjects: "America as the land of opportunity"... "Do celebrities make good role models?"...etc.

Result? Only 13 of these alleged graduates in this alleged school of higher learning could pass the "test", and write something coherent. After three years of "bilingual" education at Hostos, 85% of the students were found to be unable to read or write English.

Naturally, these educational dregs are outraged, and the issue is going to court. But there's a pattern here...

Eighty percent of students in bilingual education programs in Chicago fail to get into English-speaking classes within three years. Some never escape, after 12 years.

So why is bilingual education a fraud in many schools? Because everything is conducted in Spanish, not English. Fortunately some parents are fighting back.

In New York, Hispanic parents sued to get their children removed from bilingual programs, saying that most of the teachers couldn't speak English. And in Los Angeles, Hispanic parents kept their kids out of school for two weeks, to protest the lack of English education. [End quoting]

When are we going to wake up to the fact that we can't change the system until we put good people in the top positions of control. It's foolish to think we can make a leopard change its spots.

Here is yet another example of throwing money at problems. Change the top bosses to honest and trustworthy people and we can begin to see changes.

LAND GRAB

From THE BLUE DUCK newsletter, Aug. 1997, [quoting:]

Why does the government need more land? It already owns 650 million acres, or 30% of the U.S.

Yet Clinton has just been given $855 million to seize new tracts of private property, to create new federal parks, forests and wildlife preserves.

Why this massive expansion, when there isn't enough money to maintain existing federal park land? [End quoting]

This expansion will continue without abatement until they have all of the land in their name. The greed of the evil, power-hungry Elite can never be sated—even when they have it all.

WHY LOVE IS BLIND?

Excerpted from THE CALIFORNIA SUN, August 1997, [quoting:]

Specific electromagnetic frequencies and wavelengths stimulate the production of various halucinatory-associated chemicals, such as pinoline, and can result in anomalous activity and perceptual changes through neuronal kindling in specific regions of the brain, e.g. the temporal lobes. Even the phenomenon of being in love is dependent upon the brain producing phenylethylamine—a chemical which diminishes one's ability to discriminate effectively, hence the expression that love is blind; this possibly explains why some women marry convicted serial killers. Production of this chemical is sustained by the release of endorphins. Romance dies when these chemicals are no longer produced by the brain. [End quoting]

Scientists fail to realize who ultimately has control over the production of the body chemicals—which are the ones controlling the mind-brain combination. Hopefully you are controlling yours. With this control you can mentally control what goes on—don't let it be "chance", or by default.

EVIL VAMPIRE GANGS KIDNAP VICTIMS & SELL THEIR BLOOD!

From THE NATIONAL ENQUIRER, 8/5/97, [quoting:]

Ruthless "vampire gangs" are kidnapping people off the street and holding them for months—as they drain and sell their blood.

This horror is sweeping China where there's such a critical shortage of blood that hospitals pay up to $6 for a single pint—the equivalent of three months' wages!

But they're still in short supply because citizens rarely give blood voluntarily.

"There is an old Chinese way of thinking that one's body has been given its blood by the parents, and you cannot give this blood to someone else," explained Dr. Sun Baiqiu, vice president of the Red Cross of China.

The gangs hold their captives—including children—until they are near death then let them go—and search out new victims.

"The official Chinese press is full of horror stories about the gangs," said Robin Munro, the Hong Kong-based director of a group called Human Rights Watch/Asia.

As many as 120 million peasants are flocking to cities and towns, desperately seeking work—and the vampire gangs prey on them.

In a desperate effort to stamp out the blood hijackers, the government just passed new laws stipulating it is the "duty" of every healthy Chinese citizen, aged 16 to 55, to donate blood.

Captured vampire gang members pay the ultimate price. They are executed—and their bodies are used in organ transplants. [End quoting]

If you think this is just another tabloid story—how many stories in the mainstream media do you think are true?

Don't be surprised when the same laws are passed in the "good ol' U.S.A.". We're headed there!

ROLL CALL (SENATE)

Excerpted from THE MEDFORD MAIL TRIBUNE, 7/20/97, [quoting:]

FOREIGN AID: By a vote of 91 for and eight against, the Senate passed a bill (S955) to appropriate $13.2 billion for foreign aid in fiscal 1998, an increase of about $1 billion over the 1997 level. The largest grants are $3 billion to Israel and $2.1 billion to Egypt. Among other top earmarks are $248 million for Russia, $229 million for Ukraine, and $232 million for Bosnia. The bill withholds aid from countries failing to help apprehend war criminals.

Also, the bill provides support for the Baltic nations of Latvia, Lithuania and Estonia to improve their prospects for inclusion in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. And it appropriates funds for international lending banks and U.S. business-promotion agencies such as the Export-Import Bank and the Overseas Private Investment Corporation (OPIC). [End quoting]

This list is revealing of the extent of the manipulation of the United States' government and, literally, who leads the list in manipulation, through a bought-and-paid-for criminal class called Congress.

ALIEN ANCESTORS? HERE'S A CONVENTION FOR YOU

The group believes humans descended from space aliens. It meets this week in Orlando.

From THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, 8/4/97, [quoting:]

E.T.'s children are about to descend on Orlando.

About 300 people who believe that humans descended from long-ago space travelers will talk about ancient astronauts as they begin their annual convention today at the Adam's Mark Hotel.

The Ancient Astronaut Society promises a "startling demonstration of ancient flight technology"! It's in the hotel parking lot—at Florida Mall—Wednesday, and free to anyone who attends the conference at $25 a lecture.

"For the first time in America," the 24-year-old non-profit group's brochure reads, "see the actual flight of models of a thousand-year-old artifact from Colombia, South America—proof that our ancestors flew the ancient skies."

To scientists, the artifacts look like insects. But to the society the artifacts look like Space Shuttles or jets, and an enlarged version of them really flies, said society founder Gene Phillips, a corporate attorney from Illinois.

Phillips founded the group after seeing a TV show based on Erich Von Daniken's 1968 best-seller, Chariots of the Gods? Von Daniken will speak to the group. The society points to the pyramids, Stonehenge and other antiquities as proof that extraterrestrials visited Earth thousands of years ago.

Now that scientists think life once may have existed on Mars, the society is growing, up to 10,000 members worldwide, officials say.

"If there's life on Mars, it certainly supports our theories," Phillips said. "They [aliens] either stayed here and procreated here and we're their descendants or they created us" through some kind of genetic engineering.

"All the knowledge and civilization was brought by these people," Phillips said.

Scientist just don't buy it.

"The total thing is lacking in science," said American University astronomy Professor Richard Berendzen, a close friend of the society's chief critic, the late Carl Sagan. "This is the pity. It's people who twist and distort things."

Convention speaker Michael Cremo said scientists aren't being open-minded.

"You really have to look off of this planet and off the normal kind of explanations given for our origins," said Cremo, a researcher at Bhaktivedanta Institute in Los Angeles, a branch of the International Society for Krishna Consciousness. [End quoting]

The fact that Richard Berendzen was a close friend of Carl Sagan is a very negative statement concerning this topic—Sagan is the one who did a tremendous amount of distortion of information. How the man could call himself a scientist and put out so much disinformation and then sleep at night is beyond comprehension, unless he had no conscience.

Furthermore, it's the "accredited" scientists who usually debunk any new ideas put forth about our universe and other phases of science. Read the neglected history books—they tell of many true scientists who were ostracized, tortured, and even killed when they tried to put forth the truth.

Follow the money or prestige trail of the scientists who are debunking others before judging their words to be truth.

Today, there are very few "accredited" scientists who have the guts to tell us the truth.

It's about time that some true history of man got some mainstream press.

WAR CRIMES APPEAL

From THE MODESTO BEE, 8/2/97, [quoting:] THE HAGUE, Netherlands—The Yugoslav war crimes tribunal has suspended an order requiring Croatia to release war crimes evidence pending a final appeal from Croatia, the U.N. court announced Friday. The case may help define the jurisdiction of a future permanent international war crimes court over sovereign nations. Croatia is arguing that the court can't request documents it considers confidential. [End quoting]

What do you want to bet they can't?? The whole idea is to pick on the weak leaders and set a precedent for enforcing the rules on the strong countries.

HUMAN EVENTS MAGAZINE PREDICTS...

Excerpted from INTERNET, Conspiracy Nation, Vol. 10 Num. 80

Human Events magazine makes the following predictions in a mass mailing received July 31, 1997.

* "Insiders" in Washington are whispering: "Before the year is out, the weight of misconduct could force [Bill] Clinton from office and even send him to prison."

* Besides Bill Clinton, "26 OTHER big-time Democrats took illegal Indonesian money."

* Russia is spending billions of dollars on new attack submarines, while at the same time American taxpayers are footing the bill for clean-up of Russian nuclear waste.

* Bill Clinton is "anxious to get rid of Attorney General Janet Reno...unless she toes the line."

* The controlled substance more profitable than cocaine: Freon, used in air-conditioning, etc. In a related story, Weekly World News (7/1/97) reported on the use of Freon-sniffing dogs. ("Watch Out! Police Dogs Are Sniffing Cars for Leaky Air Conditioners," by Barry Kennedy.) Reportedly, while your car is parked in, for example, a shopping mall's parking lot, police with the trained dogs will be roaming from car to car in search of any leaks from the auto's air-conditioning. "Having so much as a pinhole leak in an air conditioner will result in fines as high as $10,000...Dogs trained to sniff Freon under a federal program have been farmed out to police departments in several major cities..."

Also, veteran reporter Sarah McClendon is reportedly concerned that Bill Clinton's life itself is in danger. Others have consistently feared for the safety of Vice-President Al "Knight In Shining Armor" Gore. Let's hope both stay safe so they can answer subpoenas and tell what they know. [End quoting]

I feel that the Freon story is another trial balloon to see how far we'll allow them to tramp on us at the present time. If we don't stop these gangsters—oops, politicians—NOW, things are going to deteriorate fast from here on in!

HOSPITAL HIRES INDIAN MEDICINE MAN

—and he's curing patients doctors can't

From THE NATIONAL ENQUIRER, 8/7/97, [quoting:]

Julie Thomas sprained her right leg in an auto accident three years ago and doctors couldn't make the pain go away. Then she went to Indian medicine man Jones Benally—and was cured!

"I was unable to walk without feeling a lot of pain and the doctors couldn't do anything for me," said the 33-year-old secretary.

"Jones put his hands on my leg, manipulated it—and I've been fine ever since. It's amazing."

Jones, a Navajo, is on the staff of the U.S. government's Indian Health Services hospital in Winslow, Ariz.—the first hospital to hire a medicine man.

"When people hear we've got an Indian medicine man on our staff there's a lot of skepticism," admitted Dr. Frank Armao, chief of the medical staff.

"But he's been here for six months now and he's doing a remarkable job. He's successfully treated a lot of patients we refer to him.

"The Navajos have their own beliefs, and a lot of them don't buy into our Western-style health care system. So as an experiment we thought we'd hire Jones.

"We don't send him patients with broken bones or infectious diseases.

"The people we send him have got some kind of chronic thing wrong with them that we can't get our hands on. I don't know quite how he does it, but people are adamant in saying he cured them."

Jones doesn't wear a white coat or carry a stethoscope.

He sports a colorful shirt and cowboy hat. His office is a one-room wooden building next to the hospital with a table, two chairs and a floor mat.

He uses a mix of crystal gazing, herbal treatments and secret Indian ceremonies to treat his patients.

"I find out what is wrong with them, and then decide what is best for them," said Jones, who's over 60 but doesn't know his exact age.

"My grandfather and uncles were all medicine men, and they started teaching me when I was a boy. It took a lot of years before I could call myself a medicine man.

"I cannot tell you what I do. These things are not spoken of with outsiders. They're sacred.

"But I can tell you this: When a person is sick it is because they are out of harmony with the universe. All I do is put them back in harmony with their surroundings.

"It isn't hocus-pocus.

"I have helped a lot of people. Their stories speak for themselves." [End quoting]

Isn't it nice to have part of the mainstream medical profession admit, openly, that they can recognize the capabilities of people with other methodologies of healing the disabled? There will be more of this as the medical establishment's credibility continues to deteriorate in the light of the success of alternative therapies. After all, as Voltaire said many hundreds of years ago: "The role of the physician is to amuse the patient while the body heals itself."

STRAIGHT TALK (Advice Column)

Excerpted from USA WEEKEND, Aug. 8-10, 1997, [quoting:]

Kristy House, 14, of Dexter, N.Y., wrote to Roma Downey of Touched By An Angel [TV program]. House and her best friend, Amy Lampman, had recently researched Downey's life at the local library for a school assignment. Two weeks later, Amy died in a car accident. "She and I were like sisters," Kristy wrote. "How can I deal with the loss?" Downey replied: "My mother died when I was a wee girl, and my father while I was in college. The feelings of loss were huge, and my sorrow left a big hole inside me. I will always miss them, but my love of God and family has helped to fill that hole. Never underestimate the power of Prayer. Trust in God. Talk to Him. He will help you deal with this." [End quoting]

There's no better place to go for help if you keep your eyes, ears, and heart open for the answers.

Historic First Amendment Action

Legal Update From

Eustace Mullins

8/5/97 EUSTACE MULLINS

Dear Rick,

Enclosed is my latest filing, Memorandum of Points and Authorities in the Neshar case. I call it Neshar because the Berkshire Eagle is Lelyveld's paper and Neshar is the Hebrew word for eagle.

There are some very important legal points in here which might make it worthwhile to print the entire Memorandum. I was introduced to Frederic Jesup Stimson's great work The Law Of The Federal And State Constitutions Of The United States in 1980 by a friend in Washington. Stimson says "The cardinal principle is that no fact can be found without the intervention of the petit jury." This does away with the entire Discovery mechanism, which is Talmudic.

Stimson says, "The common law sounds only in damages." This means that the statutory principles invoked against a litigant are invalid. He states, "Bearing in mind firmly the principle that the English law sounds only in damages, and that the notion of ordering or even forbidding, any act (except under a criminal statute) is utterly foreign to its system." Yet the defendant ORDERS me to provide a list of all my residences for the last 46 years, which I am unable to provide. It will be interesting to see where this goes. Their lawyers again denounced all my pleadings as "rambling and nonsensical". Stimson is the finest scholar in our legal history, yet my quotes from him are "rambling and nonsensical"!

Will keep you informed,
/s/ Eustace Mullins

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

EUSTACE C. MULLINS
PLAINTIFF
V.

THE BERKSHIRE EAGLE
DEFENDANT

WESTERN SECTION
CIVIL ACTION No. 96-CV-30221 -FHF
PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO
EXPUNGE DEFENDANT'S
DISCOVERY AND PLAINTIFF'S
RESPONSE FROM THE RECORD

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS
AND AUTHORITIES

Plaintiff, Eustace C. Mullins, appearing for himself as the movant, a private citizen, a citizen in party, who has firsthand knowledge of the facts, herewith submits to the Court the Memorandum of Points and Authorities to support this Motion, as follows:

1. This is an action brought alleging violations of the First Amendment rights of Plaintiff, denial of freedom of speech, and denial of the right to peaceably assemble, protected by the language of the First Amendment (1791) "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof, or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press, or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances."

2. This is a historic First Amendment action, citing grievous violations of these rights. The Court is sworn to uphold the Constitution, and has the responsibility to fully protect Plaintiff's First Amendment rights. Freedom of speech is the citizen's exercise of political power; without it, he is emasculated and has no political being in this Republic. The Nation in its issue of July 21, 1997, quotes Supreme Court Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes, "freedom of speech means freedom for the speech we hate"; Holmes called for a "a free trade in ideas" and declared that "the best test of truth is the power of the thought to get itself accepted in the marketplace". The Nation cites two Supreme Court decisions upholding this right, the recent striking down of the Communications Decency Act in Reno v. A.C.L.U., and the Supreme Court's 1976 ruling in Buckley v. Valeo, stating "The concept that the government may restrict the speech of some elements in our society in order to enhance the relative voice of others is wholly foreign to the First Amendment".

3. In this same issue, "Speech and Power" of The Nation, Ronald L. Collins and David M. Shover, law professors at Seattle University write, urging that we "liberate the public discourse of the First Amendment from lawyers and law professors and open it up to other perspectives." Floyd Abrams, who lectures on the First Amendment at the Columbia Graduate School of Journalism, states, "The oldest reality about the First Amendment is this: Hardly anyone really believes that we should protect the speech of those from whom we differ." This was the attitude of Defendant in its assault on Plaintiff, and it is the attitude of Defendant throughout its Discovery demands made upon Plaintiff.

4. Throughout its Discovery, defendant perpetrates a fraud and a hoax upon the Court by largely ignoring the First Amendment violations and attempting to focus this action on racial issues, which it deliberately created and interjected in order to incite racial hatred throughout the Berkshire area. An even greater hoax was its crude attempt to convince Jewish residents of the area that they were in dire peril from Plaintiff despite Plaintiff's prior advertisements that he intended to lecture only on the Federal Reserve System, with no mention of race, gender, or national origin. Plaintiff hopes to allay these unwarranted fears and reassure the alarmed Jewish residents of the area by citing Jacob Heilbrunn, in his article, Christian Rights, in the July 7, 1997 issue of the New Republic. Heilbrunn commends Michael Horowitz, whom he defines as "a Jewish neoconservative" and cites Horowitz' article in the Wall Street Journal, July 5, 1995, "For American Jews who owe our very lives to the open door of 'the blessed land', silence should not be an option in the face of persecutions eerily parallel to those committed by Adolf Hitler." Horowitz was urging people to protest the present persecutions of Christians in China, Africa, and the Middle East.

5. Defendant's Discovery reveals a determination to force Plaintiff out of this action by heaping upon him irrelevant and unanswerable demands, such as all of Plaintiff's places of residence since 1951, forty-six years during which Plaintiff traveled and researched extensively in many cities in temporary housing of a few days at a time, and of which he maintained no records, due to not having an office, any employees, or places in which to house such records. By these actions, defendant hopes to bring about what one famous attorney calls "Death by Discovery", the total destruction of an aged litigant in poor health by forcing him out of the action out of law, in effect, making him an "out-law", which was the original meaning of this term. This violates Cap 39 Magna Carta (1215), "No free man shall be taken or imprisoned or diseased, or outlawed, or exiled, or anyway destroyed." This legal principle survives in our Constitution, as noted by Frederic Jesup Stimson, "THE LAW OF THE FEDERAL AND STATE CONSTITUTIONS OF THE UNITED STATES", p. 11, "The Right to Law. The law required by this general right, fr-

MORE READING

by Eustace Mullins

The Curse Of Canaan
A Demonology Of History
(COC) $15.00, 242 pages

Murder By Injection
The Story Of The Medical Conspiracy
Against America (MBI) $15.00, 361 pages

The Rape Of Justice
America's Tribunals Exposed
(ROJ) $18.00, 535 pages

Secrets Of The Federal Reserve
(SFR) $15.00, 201 pages

The World Order
Our Secret Rulers
(TWO) $15.00, 297 pages

To order Eustace Mullins' superb books,
please write to:

Ezra Pound Institute Of Civilization
P.O. Box 1105
Staunton, VA 24402.

(for shipping and handling, add 10%)

thermore, must be the Common Law of the English people. That is to say, in origin, the body of their free customs and usages, made by themselves; not by a king, and also, in earliest days, enforced by themselves; and furthermore, it must be the Common Law, not the Roman or Civil law, nor the Canon or Church law, nor any supposed Administrative law, or orders or decrees of the king, or king in Council. In early English trials, therefore, what was tried was rarely whether the man did the deed (it was usually admitted or known), but whether he was right in doing it; that is to say, was he in his law. Was he acting upon a state of facts whereon the unwritten law gave the right of reparation or vengeance into his own hands? If not, he was out of law, outlaw; that is, he had lost his right to law as against anyone molesting him in person or property."

Stimson points out on p. 24, "The common law sounds in damages... Thus, the earliest codes or statutes merely fix a scale of penalties. The notion of compelling a free man to do something or to abstain from doing something was foreign to Anglo-Saxon ideas of liberty. Like the doctrine of free will carried to its extreme, a freeman was lord of his own acts; only liable for the consequences of the same, to the person injured; later, only to the Crown if a criminal act, and to the individual injured if a private wrong. Even when the judgment of the court was against him, the defendant was never compelled to do a thing, or even, in ordinary cases, to make restitution, as in the Oriental system of rendering justice. This principle must never be lost sight of, for it explains many things noted in local history."

Stimson continues, "Bearing in mind firmly the principle that the English law sounds only in damages, and that the notion of ordering or even forbidding any act (except under a criminal statute) is utterly foreign to its system; and the cardinal principle that no fact can be found without the intervention of the petit jury: we shall be able to understand both the historical reason and the present meaning of the objections of the American people to the injunctive powers of chancery and ex parte sentences for contempt made by the judge who issued the injunction and upon the facts as found by him showing the infringement of the same."

Although Stimson here is commenting upon the chancery procedure, the defendant's Discovery itself becomes a chancery procedure or, more aptly, a Star Chamber procedure, with its insistence that Plaintiff furnish under oath all details of his past fifty years of research and addresses while doing this work, while ignoring the facts of September 26, 1996, when Defendant launched its frenzied and libelous assault against Plaintiff to prevent him from speaking or having an assembly in the Berkshire area. On p. 59, Stimson writes that "Chancery jurisdiction rested originally on the royal powers as wielded by the King through his Chancellor (in civil matters) or Justiciar (in criminal). These high officials were usually clerics, hence familiar with canon or Roman law rather than the Anglo-Saxon common law, which they probably despised. The common law knew only one remedial process: punishment for doing wrong; it could not, as a priest might do, order a litigant to do right... From the Chancellor grew the court of chancery and all our courts of equity. Mitigating or supplementing the somewhat clumsy and uncompromising common law was well and good; but the Chancellor also shared in this extraordinary, un-English, Norman, and tyrannical power of ordering a free citizen to do something he did not wish to do... For what we may call the Continental notion, derived from the Roman, is that all law rests on the order of a sovereign to his subject, coupled with a threat of punishment if he does not obey; to make a man do something or not do something. This is still more the Oriental notion... But this notion had absolutely no place in the common law of England.

An Englishman was a free man, responsible for his acts: he could be punished for them by the state, or made to pay damages for them by the individual; but he could not be ordered to do anything. In the earliest days of all, when in Saxon tribes each man executed his own law, the "courts", i.e. the assembly of his neighbors, only tried the question of whether he was in his right in so doing, and if not he paid a regular fine, at first fixed by custom, later and most elaborately, by the earliest written laws we have preserved in England."

Plaintiff further cites Magna Carta (1215) Cap 35, "The writ called Praeceptum shall not in future be issued so as to cause a freeman to lose his court."

6. Defendant's Discovery pretends that it seeks to ascertain "facts" after having steadfastly refused to ascertain any of these facts by interviewing Plaintiff, despite Plaintiff's repeated efforts to have defendant interview him after the libelous attack of September 26, 1996, was published in the Berkshire Eagle. The real effort here is to deny Plaintiff a trial of this action, to obstruct justice, and to prevent a jury from hearing any of the facts in this case. The ancient legal maxim is that "Discovery simply means an attempt to discover the best way to get rid of an opponent." It is also the legal profession's tried-and-true technique to get rid of a citizen who attempts to represent himself in a legal action.

7. Despite Defendant's persistent attempts to obscure and ignore the issues of this action, namely, denial of freedom of speech, denial of the right to peaceably assemble, and criminal libel committed by the defendant against Plaintiff, these issues remain before the Court and must be addressed. This is one of the two most important civil rights actions ever to be argued in a Massachusetts court. It deals with the most heinous hate crime committed in the State of Massachusetts in 1996, and the media has resolutely refused to report it.

8. Art. 4 Sec 2 Constitution of the United States. "The citizens of each state shall be entitled to all the privileges and immunities of citizens in the several states." 16 Corpus Juris Secundum 199: "The basic principle of our constitutional system is that all political power is inherent in the people. A constitutional right is quoted from any attack or interference by the legislature, or any other governmental agency of the state." Sec. 205, "right of personal security. The courts must ever be able to protect personal rights guaranteed by state or federal constitutions. Constitutional rights cannot be made dependent on the favor of the court. Neither may they be abridged or suspended even for a single moment; it is a constitutional function of the American Judiciary to protect life and liberty against high-handed or capricious official invasions operating under legal forms."

Eustace C. Mullins
126 Madison Place
Staunton, Virginia 24401
540-886-5580

I HEREBY CERTIFY THAT A TRUE COPY OF THE ABOVE DOCUMENT WAS SERVED UPON THE ATTORNEY OF RECORD FOR EACH OTHER PARTY BY MAIL ON 5 AUGUST 1997.

THE WORD

Tapes, Transcriptions & Videos

Donations to cover the costs of tapes are $4.00 for one tape, $6.00 for two tapes and $2.50 per tape for three or more, except where otherwise noted. Postage is included in tape prices.

Please send check or money order to: THE WORD, P.O. Box 6194, Tehachapi, CA 93582 or call 805-822-4176 if you have questions or you wish to use your Visa, Discover or Master Card.

If you desire to automatically receive tapes from future meetings, please send at least a $50 donation from which tape costs will be deducted. We will try to notify you as your balance reaches zero.

The following is a partial list of older items but including all of the most current meeting dates, with the number of tapes in bold, in parentheses, and mentioning if the meeting has a special focus:

8/17/96 (4) "Little Crow"; 8/18/96 (4) & 8/19/96 (3) Teddy from Canada & Commander Hatonn; 8/20/96 (2) Road Tour of Tehachapi; 8/28/96 (4) David Icke;
9/1/96 (3) Norio Hayakawa; 9/8/96 (3) JUDGEMENT DAY-1995, a dramatization;
9/22/96 (4) Gary Wean & Field Report From The Clays; 10/6/96 (3) Farrakhan in Canada;
11/2/96 (3); 11/24/96 (2); 12/8/96(2) ; 12/29/96(2);
2/19/97(4) David Miller Tapes; 2/23/97(2) Little Crow tape;
3/3-4/97(8) Eustace Mullins & Cort Christie; 3/10/97(2) David Miller Tapes;
3/16/97(5) Farrakhan Speech; 4/2/97(1) Cult Media Blitz;
4/6/97(2); 4/7/97(2) EXTRA Interview; 4/8/97(2) Channel 29 Interview;
4/13/97(3) David Icke; 6/1/97(2); 6/22/97(2); 7/20/97(2); 8/15/97(3) Corporations;
8/16/97 to 8/19/97(?) New Year Celebration meetings,

An Interview With Darlene Novinger

[Continued from Front Page]

Part I: Former FBI Operative

RICK: I would like to spend more than a couple minutes, like we did yesterday, on the very beginning of the story. How did the FBI choose you? Why did they choose you? And then, what your assignment was from there? What were you doing before the FBI came to you? Let's start there.

DARLENE: Originally my background had absolutely nothing to do with law enforcement, whatsoever. I grew up and had gone to a private finishing school, and had a very good education. I'm an only child. My grandfather was a Baptist minister and my mom played the piano in the church and I sang. That basically was the beginning of, you might say, a singing career (laughter). And at a young age, I was only three years old, and we had revival meetings and things like that.

RICK: Reach back into that revival background and belt out your voice as we talk here.

DARLENE: Yeah, OK, I'll sing at the top of my lungs—only volume. After that, what had happened, I went into modeling, because that's what I could do. And at age 13 I was Miss National Teenage Safety, and I represented the state of Maryland and also the United States overseas in Europe on behalf of Traffic Safety for teenagers, etc., and, though ironic, it was also for the abatement of drugs. After that I went into singing more and acting. I went to New York and had a manager. He also managed—they were a lot older than I was at the time—Tom Jones and Englebert Humperdink, to name a few. And I recorded for Atlantic Records.

RICK: Under what name? Under your name?

DARLENE: No, under Darlene Masi, M-A-S-I.

RICK: OK.

DARLENE: And after that, I basically had befallen some bad health problems, things like I had a bout of Rheumatic Fever and they didn't know if it was the second occurrence or what happened to me. But I became very ill and could not keep up with the pace of New York or the theater at all. I met a young man through someone in my family—when I was convalescing, you might say—by the name of Kevin Novinger, who was going to be my husband, and was. It was very strange; he was an automotive spraypainter and an artist and he had exhibitions in some art galleries on the East Coast. It was fascinating, because our backgrounds were so diverse and everything, but we got along wonderfully and got married, very young. We bought a home and we were married for about 4 years when he was injured in a industrial accident with isocyanates, a paint substance of vapor that is in fact in the paints in automotive finishes at his work. And he was blinded and had neurological degeneration of his bladder and his central nervous system and it was a matter of time, the doctors said, before he would die. I kept him at home and took care of him from 1977 until 1986. He was bedridden and could hardly walk. During that time period I applied, in his behalf, for workman's compensation, in the commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

RICK: This sounds horrible.

DARLENE: Oh, they had a story (I'm just interjecting this in), the senior writer, Mr. Ben Franklin (you'll like that name) for the New York Times, in March of 1982 (you probably can get it at any mall, library or something on microfilm). It was so bad, the New York Times wrote a story, and this was a pressed-out case, they were so scared more painters were going to come out with—it was a plasticizer in the paints, and it literally was like he was hit with nerve gas. And I watched him go from a healthy person to an invalid. And it was really horrible because I didn't understand exactly how cruel—I mean you had good people and bad people—we had people who had actually laughed at my husband when I was trying to take him to the hospital. And I thought, "Gee, they think people in theater are strange." I had never run into ignorance of this magnitude, you know. They would say, "Is he really blind?" And anyway it fired my spirit enough to go after the Workman's Compensation Bureau in the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, because they denied him workman's comp. And I might add, he never received it, but the late Senator Hines of Pennsylvania made sure he got Social Security disability for blindness, and just disability. And I mean we had to fight them tooth and nail and during that time it was—I can surely say it was rough because you could not leave him alone, especially in the first couple of years. He had an awful time trying to get adjusted to going blind and he had to wear a bag for his bladder. And so, it was a horror story.

Then after, while this is going on I'm fighting with commonwealth of Pennsylvania—I make it up to the Attorney General's office there, complaining about the wrongdoing, and the corruption in the insurance commission which handled the workman's comp. They had it on the 6 o'clock local news almost every night, this fight that was going on, and I had no wish to really be on the TV. I was not glory-seeking anything, I wanted justice for my husband. By this point I found more victims like him, to whom the same thing was happening. Well, to make that story shorter, I walked out of there after trying to get the Governor at the time. I walked across the street to the Federal Building and went over into the office of the FBI and asked them, "Can you people do anything about fraud? I'm talking about massive corruption and fraud in the commonwealth." Well, the senior agent there said, "Come on in." This was a chance meeting we had, and he said, "I know all about it. We've been watching you on the news."

And I said, "You have?"

He said, "You know, you really are giving those guys a rough time over there. We like your work."

Anyway, he gave us some guidance. He said, "Be careful, because you're dealing with criminals."

I said, "You're telling me."

He said, "No, I'm not kidding you." And he said, "But keep up the good work."

And I said, "OK."

But he said, "We cannot intercede on your behalf on something like that."

I said, "I see." At the time he was a very nice man who gave me some sound advice. I left there thinking I'll never see any of these people again; I mean, it was one of those "enraged-citizens-hunting-for-justice" things. And I continued. The battle went down, back and forth, and the news kept following this on the local TV. Lo and behold, one day I was literally—my husband liked chocolate-chip cookies and pineapple upside-down cake. I was—it sounds almost like you're making it up, though; I'll never forget. I was baking cookies, being very domesticated for my late husband, when a rap came at the front door. I opened up the door and there was the head of the Federal Crimes Strike Force, standing there, and he showed me his ID...

RICK: Now this was FBI?

DARLENE: Yeah, in other words, he would be in charge of their coordinated efforts.

RICK: OK.

DARLENE: He lived in Virginia and drove up from Washington, D.C. And I couldn't believe it; I looked at his ID, I looked at him. I had never seen him before and I said, my first thought was, "What did I ever do wrong? It must be something on this comp case," or something, you know (laughter). I thought they were coming for me.

RICK: That's funny.

DARLENE: And he comes in, he sits down; we have coffee, and I'm sitting there waiting for what this man wants.

RICK: Waiting for the other shoe to drop.

DARLENE: Yeah, I mean he's there, talking and chatting. I thought, "No one's driving all this way, the head of the Crime Strike Force, to talk to me." Yet there's something really wrong here. So he tells me, "I've heard some good things about you."

I said, "You have?" And he kept on proceeding to tell me that he is hunting for a person who has a profile and operates the way I do. And I was thinking—I said, "How do you know how I operate?" (laughter) You know what I mean? What do you mean, "operate"?

RICK: Now it's time for you to really get nervous.

DARLENE: Yeah, and he said, "The television." You know, he said, "You're just the type of people we are hunting for. You especially fit a profile of someone we could really use in drug enforcement." And I thought—he said, "And other criminal activities."

I said, "I have no training, whatsoever." I said, "I'm only..." He went through my entire background, asked me if I have ever been a member of the Communist Party, you know, the whole nine yards and everything.

RICK: Right.

DARLENE: And I mean, they did such a background check on me they were back to my great-grandparents (laughter). I don't believe there's a criminal in our family. My mother's cousin was the first state policeman in Maryland to be shot and killed. I said, "That's all the family law enforcement I can think of," you know. He said—my husband, my late husband Kevin—I had a daybed made for him because it was better that he was around activity than to be shut in a room some place.

RICK: Right.

DARLENE: So, Kevin heard—he's listening to this whole thing. Well, he was ecstatic. He equated that with one of the biggest things, I guess, in our lives that could have ever happened. And he was so proud, and he thought the Sun rose and set in the FBI, because this gentleman was very kind to him and he was very nice with me. I can't say I can label everybody in an organization as being corrupt, but this man was telling me, "We're trying to change, and create a new FBI." And I was thinking, I had no idea, and it sounds good and I was still scared to death, thinking, what are they going to do? Why me?

And he said, "We might be able to help you out on some things because we know you're up against it."

And I thought—at that point my husband said, "Oh, that's so wonderful. Your mom can take care of me if you go on assignment."

And I said, "Where will I be going?"

He said, "Well, we're going to train you locally, for a while, and we think you're going to work out real well. And then we're going to move you up." And I kept thinking, "OK, I've really never heard of this before," and I didn't know what a covert operative was (laughter). I'm sitting there and...

RICK: Kind of falling in it (laughter).

DARLENE: The man at the New York Times knew this story and he used to call it the "Perils of Darlene" (laughter).

RICK: (laughter)

DARLENE: I'm falling, you know.

RICK: That's funny.

DARLENE: Oh, and it's crazy; so I'm there, so my first training was—one of the agents took me out in the evening. We did everything.

"Did you ever shoot a gun before?"

"No."

"Well, you're going to learn how."

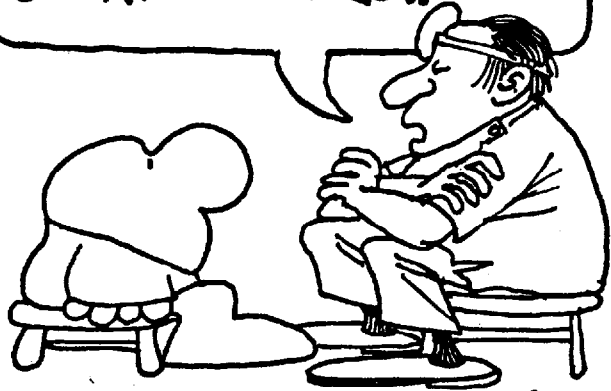

I thought, OK. Well, if you've ever put your hand on a trigger and you can't squeeze it 'cause you're scared of a gun, and I'm there and these people thought, "Oh my, this woman's going to be hopeless, we know it. She's good at some things but I don't know about this." Anyway, it turns out—to try to tell it faster and fit the story in—I was trained; I became an expert marksman, counter intelligence surveillance. It took me one year, going along with these people. And later on, para-military training that I also had, which was going a long way from my background already. They kept me for one year doing domestic drug cases. I was to be sent out—they just beamed, especially the head of the Crime Strike Force, because I was sent on drug assignments and I always had an accuracy rate of a conviction—and I always, more or less, got the information, ascertained all of these things, gave it to them, reported back and did everything exactly by the book and they would "get their man", you might say.

RICK: Right.

ZIGGY...

...IT MAY BE TRUE THAT THE HUMAN BODY IS THE TEMPLE OF OUR SOUL,....

...BUT YOU'VE BEEN GIVING YOURS TOO MANY BURNT OFFERINGS !!

DARLENE: Or men, as the case might be.

RICK: And were you enjoying this at this time?

DARLENE: Actually, I was scared (laughter), to be quite truthful, at the beginning. But, at one point when I was talking to them they said, "You know, I understand why. You know, you're background in acting and theater, and all of that, it does come in handy when you're infiltrating, like drug groups..."

RICK: I'm sure.

DARLENE: I mean, you know, you have to act your way out of a lot of situations. And I thought—I didn't think I would be using it for this, but (laughter), it was a good cause and I thought—everybody goes, "See, if every one would get actively involved we could make a change." And I really and truly believed in what I was doing.

RICK: OK, now let's hold it right there and let's jump to Miami.

DARLENE: OK.

RICK: How long from the time you had your training to when you were assigned to Miami?

DARLENE: About one year.

RICK: And how did that come about?

DARLENE: At that point I was introduced through a telephone conversation to the head operative in the FBI, by the name of Billy Breen, B-R-E-E-N, who wrote a book called The Insider, I think the author's name is Gaudered. Anyway, Billy started to phase me into moving up into international operations, and what happened was they sent me to Miami. I worked on various drug dealings, but they were all in excess of a million dollars. And when I went to Miami, I might add, it was nothing like I was used to seeing domestically, you might say, in Pennsylvania or surrounding states.

RICK: Miami's pretty big stuff.

DARLENE: Uh, yeah. I went in, the guy said, "Welcome to the big-time." And I thought—I was in downtown Miami during the drug wars, we're talking the early eighties.

RICK: Right.

DARLENE: And we were riding along, and I've literally seen people gunned down. I had never seen a Columbian neck-tie, around people's throat. I can remember wanting to leave a lot, and just say, "I don't know if I can really take this. It's a little too much for me." But, in the same token it was like you either had—you were there—you either had to adjust or whatever. And I thought, "I've got to make the most of this whole thing." It seemed like they've got all this time invested in training and what am I going to do? So, there I am. And, anyway, I'm in Miami. So, I came upon a case—everything was fine with the Bureau, up until this point, until September 1982. And I'm sitting in a very large mansion, off the Biscayne Bay. I infiltrated this family through the direction of the Bureau.

RICK: Can you say their name?

DARLENE: Of the family?

RICK: Yes.

DARLENE: I usually don't, I just call them a wealthy Lebanese family.

RICK: OK.

DARLENE: Simply because...

RICK: Fair enough.

DARLENE: Yeah, they're very, very—they're still very upset over—they know who infiltrated their organization. But what happened was, they sent me down; I'm sitting there, one of the brothers is talking to me.

We're talking about this American Judicial System, which is interesting because he's not a citizen of the United States. I'm sitting there listening to him tell me why my husband will never receive justice. This is how intertwined this got. And I thought, this is not a healthy investigation when they know this much about your personal life, and your husband is sick, and you know they've seen the New York Times story. I mean the whole thing is crazy. The dealer said to me, or the druglord said to me at that point, "Let's take, for instance, the Vice President and his son..."

RICK: Pardon?

DARLENE: "The Vice President and his son." And I said, "What about the Vice President and his son?"

RICK: Repeat the statement. Go back and repeat the statement, I think I missed it.

DARLENE: OK. I'm sitting in the office, he said to me, about the Judicial System, and about it's who you know, not how honest or what type of case you have. And he said, "Let's take, for instance, your Vice President." I'll never forget this. "Your Vice President and his son."

RICK: OK.

DARLENE: And I said, "What about them?" You know, at that point I thought, "Well maybe he's just making something up here, I don't know what he's on." And I said, "You mean George Bush and his son?" I said, "Which son?"

And he said, "Jeb."

I said, "Oh." I said, "You mean the Miami Republican Party?" (laughter)

RICK: You were naive.

DARLENE: (Laughter) He was laughing about this. And, you know, he said, "You want some orange juice?"

I said, "No, I want to hear about Jeb and the Vice President." I said, "How do I know that you're not making all of this up."

RICK: Well, what was he saying about them?

DARLENE: Oh, he's standing there telling me how when they're down there he supplies cocaine and prostitutes to them and he's promised the [job of] "Roving Ambassadorship" for the Caribbean Basin. And they're pushing for the CaribbeanCaribbean Basin Initiative, which he will profit heavily on. And he said, "Now, how do you think I'm going to get this?"

I said, "Well, it seems obvious how you're doing it. You know what I mean."

He said, "That's because this is the American way."

And at that point I was really starting to get a very sickening feeling about the whole situation and I said, "Thanks for telling me."

And I would be sitting there, listening to all of this, his phone rang and it was someone from the Miami Republican Party. (Laughter) He screamed at the top of his lungs at them and said, "I gave you a hundred-and-fifty-thousand dollars and I want what I paid for." Slammed the phone down and he said, "They're always dogging for more money from you."

And he said, "You have to," in other words, he said, "to get the power you have do whatever it takes. Whether it's giving them the cocaine, the prostitutes, the money."

I'm sitting there thinking; I said, "So, how do I know?" I said, "Really, you really know Mr. Bush?" He gets in his drawer, I see a letter from Mr. Bush and signed by him and it's to this man. And I'm thinking, well it sure looks authentic to me and what he's saying seems to be pretty accurate. He proceeds to tell me they're supplying pharmaceutical-grade cocaine to his staff; this is George Bush, and his staff.

RICK: Inside Washington?

DARLENE: Yeah, in Washington, D.C. At that point I'm thinking, to myself, "What am I ever going to do with what I just heard?"

RICK: (Laughter) I'm in the wrong business.

DARLENE: I know, I should have went back and just stayed in the recording industry. Why this, you know? So I'm there thinking; I'm really actually frightened by what I'm hearing and you're thinking to yourself, "This is a far cry from any international narcotics dealer," because I'm thinking we're talking national security here. And I thought, it's only, it's just me and this man; and I thought, "What am I ever going to do?"

And then he goes to the closet, opens it up and he said, "You want to see a horrible-looking portrait I had to pay all this money for, just to appease them?" And it was Ronald Reagan, a big portrait of him and he had it in the closet because he said he's so ugly. And I thought, I didn't believe this, but, I mean, I'd seen it with my own eyes. So, I go and I sat back down and I thought, I'd like to see how I'm going to write this report up on somebody. Anyway, I get out of there and after that I told this to some other people who were in; they're operatives and some of them were with different agencies and I had two people that I told this to because I was so scared thinking about what I'd just heard.

RICK: Sure.

DARLENE: And I said, "This isn't the regular drug investigation, I've run into something really big." And after they heard it, they said, "You sure did, and we're lucky we all don't get killed from this thing." And I thought, "What would you suggest doing?"

"Making copies, mail everything out, hide them for your own protection, in and out of the country, with very trusted people," which I did.

That was one of my first things, and I said, "Why am I hiding this from the—I mean, what is it that I fear from the FBI? I work for these people. What are they going to do to me?"

Everybody goes, "Watch out, they're political. They're going to turn on you."

And I said, "I don't think that, I mean we worked together pretty long. We had a close relationship." (Laughter) I said, "I don't think they're going to do anything like this to me." And they said—nevertheless, right before I went in to turn my report in I'm walking around with this thing, you know, burdened down, worried about it, trying to check all I can about it, and another agency pulls me aside and polygraphs me and said, "We'll keep this; we'll give you a copy. You send it to who you want because you're going to need it." And I thought, before you turn in your report to the Federal Bureau of Investigation. And they said—now they're not telling me what to do, but it was my duty, I could not hold back what I had learned. I turned and told them about the report, what I had heard and learned.

RICK: Now, who was this you were telling?

DARLENE: The Federal Bureau of Investigation.

RICK: You were telling the FBI that now, at this point?

DARLENE: Yeah, I then—after being polygraphed by another agency who said, "Watch out, they're political."

RICK: Can you tell me what agency that was?

DARLENE: The Intelligence.

RICK: OK.

DARLENE: And they gave me a copy. I spread out this polygraph test and did an hour-and-a-half interview and they tried to punch holes back and forwards, but I passed with flying colors because I was telling the truth. I said, "Believe me, who would ever want to make up a horror story like this and be caught in the middle of it, you know?" And my main concern was all they're going to do is let them check it out and either they're going to prove it or disprove it, but they're not going to—I mean, why come after me? You know? I didn't really—I'm just doing my job. So I, at that point an agent came in December of 1982 and picked me up, one I had worked with on other cases, who I trusted yet, at the time, and took me to the Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, Federal Building, where the FBI is located. I met a man I had never met before, by the name of agent Patrick Kelly. And we went into the conference room there and he had a polygraph machine but he wasn't very interested in getting me a polygraph test. He was more interested in screaming at me, banging on tables. This went on for, like, seven-and-a-half hours, and wanting me to sign a piece of paper that I was hallucinating about this report and what I heard about George Bush and Jeb.

RICK: Now yesterday when I spoke to you, you said you feared for your life during this.

DARLENE: Yes, because we were in this room, and this man got so beside himself and he was blood-red. And, I mean, he was right in my face, and when it was hot he went over and opened the window and he looked over and he looked half-crazy, at that point, to me. And I thought, "What is he going to do, throw me out of the window or what?" I mean, I thought, "I've never seen anything like this in my life before."

RICK: Hmmhmmm.

DARLENE: And he's screaming, "Sign the paper!"

And I thought—I said, "I can't. I'd be lying on myself, I cannot do it, I won't do it." After seven-and-a-half hours, I just said, "You'll have to kill me, but I'm not signing that piece of paper because it's true." It went from intimidation, fearing for my life, to just—they plain-out got me mad. I mean this man really just—I had enough with this "sign this piece of paper" thing.

RICK: OK. Now I'm going to stop here, stop you here.

DARLENE: OK.

RICK: Now, I'm a reader of the CONTACT newspaper and we've gone along here and I'm with you so far, and this is 1982 and what does this have to do with anything? Why should I as a reader keep reading? What is the relevance of this today?

DARLENE: Um.

RICK: And I know you're going to get to it with the rest of the story but just to give our readers a statement of why this is important today.

DARLENE: What happened after that infamous day in my life had changed my entire life, even to this day, because I am still suffering the repercussions of the George Bush investigation, which was classified, and the Bureau gave it a name, operation "Nimbus", N-I-M-B-U-S. And...

RICK: Do you know what that means?

DARLENE: I know what operation "Nimbus" means, it's the, it's involving George Bush and his son Jeb, into illegal activities of drugs.

RICK: OK.

DARLENE: Drug activities. And it was based fully on my report that I turned in. And, what had happened after that will go full circle in my life—and it's still haunting me and you cannot run away from it because it keeps coming back.

RICK: Why is this important to the average citizen?

DARLENE: Because it's still going on. And what's happened is that, not only that, I've run into more people, more pieces of the puzzle. I'm only one piece of a puzzle. I've run into more people. Now it makes a lot of sense why they reacted the way they did, with me and how, once you are involved with these people, how you cannot just say, "I quit," and get away and get out of things. Once you're involved in something of this magnitude, you don't quit; there is no way out of this thing. I've lost two family members, my late husband Kevin in March of 1987, his body was found in the Susquehanna River, 18 miles south of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. And I was told the reason his death occurred was because of this incident with the George Bush investigation. I also lost my father in 1993; I was speaking out about this harassment, which I can get involved in what happened that day. But, of my dad, who was found in Baltimore, Maryland, and a lady called from the state of Washington, by the name of Debbie Holiday, and stated about him dying, why he was going to die, how they killed him, what the coroner was going to say and she said they were going to use nitrogen. Ah, I hit the memo button, having to catch this woman on tape, telling me everything about it. She said, "And the reason why is because of the report I gave of George Bush and his son, Jeb." And she said, "And your mother is next." And at that point, she said, "The best thing you can do is get out of the country, now; go to Canada, head west and come to Washington state" where she'll try to hide me because, she said, "You have no idea what you stumbled into." And she had called my mother numerous times, who had an unlisted phone number and said to her about her life being in danger. And my mother said, "I know that," because my mother had been shot at. People have attempted to run her off the road—this is both of us, ongoing. This has been ongoing since 1983, these incidences that were non-stop, and harassing phone calls.

She said to my mother, "Your daughter's (blank)," behind, I'll use that word, "is so hot it's glowing."

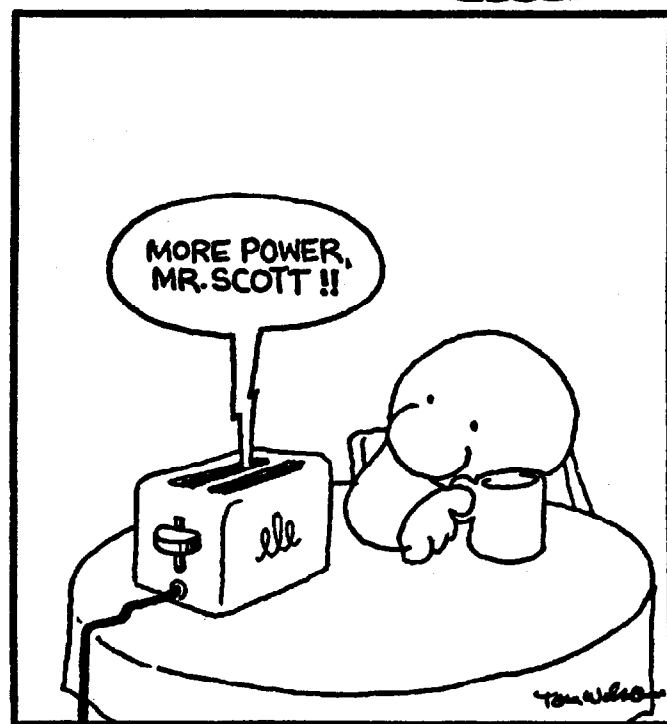

And at the time, in '93, I just kept hearing more and more things. People were calling me up telling me more pieces to the puzzle and it was sort of like I started putting a lot of things together and, quite truthfully, I knew that this woman was not a trusted person, number one. She came out of nowhere. Later on, I had been told that she had worked as an agent to terminate people, within the government. I reported this to the homicide department in Baltimore. They called her—I managed to track a phone number for this woman, and I gave it to the police. They tracked it, she admitted she said it, and the police at that point wanted nothing to do with this entire case. And they just let it drop. So, I have two family members that are dead and I get phone calls saying why they're dead, and who's going to be next, which is my 76-year-old mother. And what they have been doing to her.

This ties in, ironically, at the same time, when I found this out, another agent in 1983, by the name of Joe Price, was given that same packet, operation "Nimbus", which is my investigation, in Washington, D.C. He was a U.S. Customs Agent. He was sent to Miami to investigate further the material that I had developed. I did not know we were all working on the same case, as was another man by the name of Bradley Aires. He was working for DEA. We had independent investigations running, and kept running, and they're finding more about the Bush family and their national narcotics dealing.

An interesting note: in January '83, a month after the incident with the Bureau and I—and me being interrogated and intimidated—Mr. Bush's entire staff was dismissed and replaced, and it was reported in the Washington Post, but they did not say why they were replaced. So, I knew there was a lot of validity to what that drug-lord was telling me. And I thought this is a very, very serious matter—looking back on it I didn't realize how serious it was. I don't want to lose my chain of where we were going on this thing.

[To be continued.]

ZIGGY

The News Desk

A Special Report

8/16/97 DR. AL OVERHOLT

BOHEMIAN GROVE
SATANIC RITES AND ATTENDEES

example: long-time Boho David Rockefeller has his offices in Rockefeller Plaza, Suite 3600, and the building's address is illuminated in very large numbers on the top of the building that 100,000s can see at night. DOES IT SURPRISE YOU THAT IT IS 666? That his 36th floor is six 6s? Time to turn on the TV and do your homework?

THEIR MOTTO? "Weaving spiders come not here!" could not be further from the truth.

THEIR LOGO? An owl. Could it be because owls, like the Bohos' occult, hooded Druid and Satanist leaders, are considered wise and successful? Only prowl at night? Only prey on the weak and defenseless? Are cannibals? Are a symbol used to glorify Halloween which the Satanists' Calendar lists as calling for 5 consecutive days of human sacrifices?... [End quoting]

Here's proof that the Satanic conspiracy goes all the way to the Queen of England. How many will still want to deny that there is a conspiracy from the very top?? Again, "By their actions you shall know them."

Excerpted from CRIMES AGAINST CHILDREN EEXXPPOOSSEEDD, by Doug Miller, July 1997, [quoting:]

...Since undoubtedly most of the over 2,000 attendees in this sinister, secret society have no idea that their leaders are occultists, Lucifer and/or Satan worshippers, how do we know it? "By their fruits shall ye know them." Also by asking questions, comparing notes, networking, questioning Masons, Druids, and Satanists' heathen leaders. Success comes in the using of three necessary principles: Investigate, Educate and Activate. These activities bring us more documented facts and contracts. We trust that most all civil servants, business, professional owners, managers, and staffs plu: lay members who work for these "Boho" companies and join most secret societies are never told the evil crimes many of their leaders are involved in.

Today, July 15, 1995, we join with hundreds of others to protest the Bohos' annual event, and realize that most members and guests are recruited as a "cover" for the hidden agenda of their evil leaders on the left and the right. We believe that the majority are good, honest, hard working, patriotic, loyal, God-worshipping Americans, who are gullible. This lemming event is attended by leaders and representatives of almost all professionals and Fortune 500 companies. What better way to build a lasting, long term, potentially very profitable relationship with the world's leaders?

The attendees include, but are not limited to, many of the world's most powerful and amoral international bankers (Rockefellers, Rothschilds and their ilk); Republican and Democrat politicians and behind-the-scenes king makers; military officers; U.S. and world government officials; entertainers and university professors and presidents, but also include many hundreds of white supremacists and Nazis (just like the recently exposed BATF agents' swastika party in South Carolina this week), Masons, Druids, Luciferians, Satanists, CFR, TRI-lats and guests.

THEIR QUEEN? Do you recall when Queen Elizabeth made her first and only trip to the USA in '83, and her last stop was San Francisco and the Bohemian Club's Boho Grove? All three major networks featured about five minutes of the Boho recognition of her sitting on a pyramid and calling her "the Queen of Babylon", which she acknowledged. [emphasis mine] These Druids, Masons and Satanists running the club obviously feel that they can come out of the closet and boast of their evil agenda for America. (Another

Satanic Ritual Calendar

DATE	CELEBRATION	TYPE	USAGE	AGE/SEX
JAN. 7	St. Winebald Day	Blood	Animal or Human Sacrifice (Dismemberment)	15-33 (Male. if Human)
JAN. 17	Satanic Revels	Sexual	Oral, Anal, Vaginal	7-17 (Female)
FEB. 2	*Satanic Revels	Sexual	Oral, Anal, Vaginal	7-17 (Female)
FEB. 25	St. Walpurgis Day	Blood	Communion of Blood and Dismemberment	(Animal)
MAR. 1	St. Eichatadt	Blood	Drinking of Human Blood for Strength and Homage to the Demons	Any Age (Male or Female)
MAR. 20	Feast Day (Spring Equinox)	Orgies	Oral, Anal, Vaginal	Any Age (Male or Female— Human or Animal)
APR. 21-26	Preparation For The Sacrifice
APR. 26- MAY 1	*Grand Climax	Da Meur	Corpus De Baahl	1-25 (Female)
JUN. 21	FEAST DAY (Summer Solstice)	Orgies	Oral, Anal, Vaginal	Any Age (Male or Female— Human or Animal)
JUL. 1	Demon Revels	Blood	Druids Sexual Assoc. with Demons	Any Age (Female)
AUG. 3	*Satanic Revels	Sexual	Oral, Anal, Vaginal	7-17 (Female)
SEP. 7	Marriage To The Beast Satan	Sexual	Sacrifice, Dismemberment	Infant To 21. (Female)
SEP. 20	Midnight Host	Blood	Dismemberment (Hands Planted)	Infant To 21. (Female)
SEP. 22	Feast Day (Fall Equinox)	Orgies	Oral, Anal, Vaginal	Any Age (Male or Female— Human or Animal)
OCT. 29	All Hallow Eve	Blood	Sexual Climax Assoc.	Any Age
NOV. 1	(Halloween)	Sexual	With The Demons	(Male or Female)
NOV. 4	Satanic Revels	Sexual	Oral, Anal, Vaginal	7-17 (Female)
DEC. 22	Feast Day (Winter Solstice)	Orgies	Oral, Anal, Vaginal	Any Age(Male or Female—Human or Animal)
DEC. 24	Demon Revels	Da Meur	High Grand Climax	Any Age (Male or Female)

*Signifies Most Important Holidays

Signifies Holidays Of Lesser Significance

Notice To All Americans Now Living In Fear Of A Biological Attack

8/9/97 PETER KAWAJA

You are being inundated recently by mainstream media, JAMA, and all federal agencies, government officials, military, etc., about HOW VULNERABLE America is, and about cooperation between government and civilian agencies, with respect to a "biological threat".

Peter Kawaja WARNED you and PREDICTED this very scenario, many years ago.

YOU HAVE EVERY REASON TO BE ALARMED—
BUT FOR OTHER REASONS

You are being bombarded about Iraq being able to revive its Biological Weapons program, and about Iraqis and Islamic terrorists who have these plots to attack America. Perhaps some of this is so, but you have something worse to be concerned about before you believe these misleading stories. Without going into all the details, in order to keep this as short as possible, here it is in a nutshell. (If you care to explore this in depth with me, read my other documents.) This is the bottom line!

- I do not support ANY nation or anyone who would attack America—I am an American!

- I am not a "fan" of Saddam Hussein, nor disillusioned that he is any better than George Bush.

(1.) Big corporations and the International Basksters have been slowly poisoning and ravaging the Earth's natural resources for decades, contaminating the soil with all kinds of pesticides and other worse poisons in the interest of FAST MONEY, not caring about the long-term effect.

(2.) Big corporations have polluted the waters of the Earth with run-off from factories, the air we breathe and which plants need, our natural protection from the Sun, and depleting the ozone layers—yet the individual person is made to pay heavily for personal vehicle-emissions equipment, new air-conditioning systems and all sorts of "Menusha" as compared to Industry Pollution. And Big corporations suppressing alternative energy, whilst making the world dependent on OIL—all for MONEY.

(3.) The foods we eat, beef, chicken, fish—have been slowly altered and offer no nutritional value and are actually not worth eating. And in my opinion, they are harmful to the human body, using all kinds of man-made additives to grow them faster, to punch them out like a production line, all for the bottom-line BUCK.

(4.) Certain nations of the Coalition Forces under the UNITED NATIONS have released BIOLOGICAL Warfare agents "already" in the Persian Gulf War, in 1991. The result is that millions of people worldwide have become carriers, infecting others by CASUAL CONTACT, because transmission is airborne. Our already-weakened immune system (from Vaccines we receive at birth and throughout life [for our protection—so says "the government"]), from eating foods with little nutritional value, DRUGS (in the form of Prescriptions), foods containing additives which promote CANCER on their own. Our entire food system IS now even further contaminated with these biological-warfare agents, to include ANTHRAX. These biological agents have already crossed the species lines, and in the animal populations which are also now carriers. Therefore the entire nation's food supply and that of the world is rapidly becoming USELESS and, FURTHER, becoming a "NATURAL-BORN KILLER".

The dead human bodies we bury across the nation from CANCERS and "MYSTERY DISEASES" (biological Gulf warfare agents, Title-50, USC - sect. 1520), which fall under the word Cancer (for lack of telling you the truth), and all the dead animals—ALL are continually contaminating the SOIL, which in turn contaminates the FRUITS and VEGETABLES you eat. We become TOXIC over a period of time, until our immune system finally wears out. Disease-for-Profit. We are on a CATAclysmic, NO-WAY-OUT, DEAD END.

The PLAGUES OF THE PALE HORSEMAN OF THE APOCALYPSE HAVE BEEN RELEASED in "Desert Storm"

THE NEW WORLD ORDER—OUT OF THE SEAT OF BABYLON

by Pat Robertson

[Quoting:]

Reunited at Babylon. The significance of the Persian Gulf War transcends Kuwait; it even transcends the concept of the New World Order enunciated by George Bush. The Gulf War is significant because the action of the United Nations to authorize military action against Iraq was the first time since Babel that all the nations of the Earth acted in concert with one another. I find it fascinating that this took place against the very place where the nations had been divided, the successor nation to ancient Babel. It is as if some power reached out from Babel, where the first world rebellion against God was squashed, and once again called the nations of the world to unity (for Evil). And on the VERY DAY the unity of nations was consummated, General Brent Scowcroft, National Security Advisor to the president of the United States, longtime Counsel on Foreign Relations member, and former aide and business associate of Henry Kissinger, announced, in an interview with Charles Bierbauer of CNN, the beginning of a New World Order. [End of quoting]

(excerpt:) "Then the sixth angel sounded: And I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God, saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, 'Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates.' So the four angels, who had been prepared for the hour and day and month and year, were released to kill a third of mankind." Revelation 9: 13-14

This world horror would be motivated by demonic spirits and would be all-consuming. The result of their release would now cost the lives of some 2 billion people. (end excerpts)

These biological warfare agents are rapidly MUTATING and attacking the immune system of MILLIONS worldwide. Almost ONE MILLION American veterans who were deployed to the gulf, the UNTOLD numbers of civilian support groups, such as stevedores, mechanics, electricians, shippers, etc., have either received a special "vaccine" or been exposed to the military equipment being returned from the Gulf War, which is CONTAMINATED. The spores live a minimum of 7 years, dormant on objects. To add insult to injury, WRAMC/Walter Reed Army Medical Center, at the behest of Major General Ronald L. Blanck, instituted an "INCENTIVE PROGRAM" for the American Red Cross (ARC) to collect the blood of these veterans and Armed Service members—KNOWING their blood (maybe not all) was contaminated, instead of instituting a blood ban. This blood has been and is being distributed to civilian hospitals nationwide, where YOU go for medical treatment and blood transfusions. The wives, children, relatives, and friends of Gulf War veterans who have been discharged since 1991, are out in the civilian population, coming in contact with YOU, and with YOUR CHILDREN. These plagues do not show up/manifest themselves for YEARS in most cases, depending upon the state of the individual's immune system. Some get sick within a few months; others, many years later. The time to have told the truth was years ago. Yet all those years and even now, the US still maintains that Gulf War veterans "think" themselves sick, and that there is no such thing as GULF WAR ILLNESS. The US has also STEADFASTLY denied that ANYONE used Chemical or Biological Weapons in the Gulf—a DAM LIE, and TREASON to continue the cover-up.

As a result—whether you believe it was an accident or Bible prophecy that allowed this to happen, we are fast approaching times worse than the Bubonic Plague which wiped out Millions.

In order to COVER THEIR ASS—to continue the LIES, because it is almost time to D-DAY, you are now being bombarded with all kinds of news releases and opinions about terrorists or the Iraqis using Biological Weapons against us, so that when you start to see and hear about people dropping like flies all over, you will believe their LIE, and think some foreign enemy or some right-wing militia or anti-government group is responsible, and will go along with the lies you will be told. ALL of what you are hearing is the prepping of you for WHAT THEY HAVE PLANNED FOR YOU, and is right around the corner. It is too late to turn it around, so they are preparing the SCAPEGOAT.

What should matter to you, is the TRUTH—which you are not being told. Because of YOUR APATHY, your PATHETIC Lack of Interest in what YOUR GOVERNMENT has been doing IN YOUR NAME "we, the people", we face devastating times ahead. It is time for accountability.

If you really understand what this is all about, you had better be concerned NOW, for it is YOU who will

Peter Kawaja

[704] 665-0753 Voice + Fax

email: pkawaja@dnet.net

have to accept the MARK, accept the "Vaccine"—The MARK, or be an outcast, die or be dragged away to a slave-labor Camp. Think this is preposterous; think this is FAR OUT?

GUESS WHAT—YOU ARE THE ONE WHO WILL SUFFER THE CONSEQUENCE OF YOUR OWN IGNORANCE. IT IS NOT LONG IN COMING, AND YOU HAVE BEEN WARNED; SO DO NOT BEG FOR HELP AND WHINE WHEN IT IS TOO LATE!

Those of you who are running around, like a chicken with its head cut off, passing around all these scare stories on the Net—please do not waste any more of my precious time. You are contributing to the Disinformation Campaign of your enemies. KEEP YOUR EYES ON THE PRIZE!

All of these leaks and stories will spread you thin and are designed to do just that—so you look elsewhere and focus on what THEY are putting out, and whilst you are reacting to what they want you to and how they want you to, they are BUSY pushing ahead their Agenda. It is time for concerned Americans to band together and stand for the truth, and work together for positive results and answers. Worrying about all these Iraqis, worrying about the scare tactics that hundreds of millions of Americans will die, does not help you and cannot save you—and, if they are real, does nothing to stop them.

If the government (of Washington DC) is an American Government OF, BY, and FOR the people of the REPUBLIC, then you do not have anything to worry about—do you? Our government will protect us.

Therefore, quit worrying and start taking ACTION. Do something that you can control—not react to what someone else is doing so you spend your time reacting to their fraudulent information. We MUST put out our own information to educate Americans. Knowledge is the POWER we need.

Don't know where to start? OKAY—drop me a note, and let's do it together.

U.S. GOVERNMENT INADVERTENTLY ADMITS TO KAWAJA'S EVIDENCE WHICH THEY SEALED AS NATIONAL SECURITY IN 1990

The American public is slowly waking up, albeit still too slow. However, the general public is being bombarded with mainstream media news releases in a massive campaign which has escalated recently, as the clock is ticking to countdown in a diabolical, demonic plan conceived many years ago.

For years now, government puppets, at the direction of the New World Order regime, have waged a private war against Hatrib Peter Kawaja. As promised and threatened (to him) by the Pentagon in 1991, after Kawaja made public, the Gulf WAR CRIMES preface story during Desert Shield (1990), credible persons were continually brought forward since then to put out a disinformation campaign against Kawaja and his evidence—the real truth behind Desert Storm. These credible (secret government) persons were built up to have supposed evidence of their own, and given certain media attention and a platform to air their story, a controlled version of what "the powers that be" want you to know. To make "their cronies" seem credible, these minions were seemingly made to look like "quacks" or not approved by the government. Others seem to say "bad things" against the government, giving that crony legitimacy, especially to the patriotic communities, and especially to GULF VETERANS. They replaced Kawaja with "their crony mouthpiece". There are many others who participated in this SHAM, to include medical persons, military, veterans, and civilians. This includes laying the foundation to have "staffers" present pre-planned information leaks to Senator Donald Riegle, which became the Riegle Report, 103rd National Congress. Naming "names" is not the purpose of this news release; explaining the "mainstream media BLOWAR leaks/reports" is WHY.

Selected excerpts from "mainstream media", not from underground or so-called "patriot media":

[Note: Word CAPS or bold lettering is emphasis added by PK]

"Biological warfare counteroffensive"

"Government wants U.S. prepared for any OUTBREAKS"

"Biological Weapons A Threat"

(1) "THE Defense Department is shelling out more than $60 million to launch a four-pronged attack against deadly pathogens. If successful, the program will ensure that American troops will never be caught off guard AGAIN like they were during the Gulf War."

(2) "U.S. MILITARY officials came away from the Persian Gulf War with a sobering realization—had Saddam Hussein used the biological warheads in his arsenal, American soldiers were horribly unprepared."

(3) "The United States is hoping its superiority in the field of biotechnology can give it an edge on the estimated dozen countries believed to have or be pursuing offensive biological weapons."

(4) "There is also the growing potential threat that terrorist groups will turn to biowarfare as an inexpensive and potentially more deadly alternative to traditional explosives."

(5) "Biological weapons are potentially much more harmful than chemical weapons... But biological agents are living organisms. They grow more rapidly and spread as part of their natural reproductive process, becoming more deadly as time goes by."

(6) "The United States SAYS it stopped its offensive biological weapons program in 1969. Three years later, the international Biological Weapons Convention prohibited the development or possession of biological weapons. But estimates are that between 10 and 12 countries are pursuing, or already have, an offensive biowarfare capability, Ali said."

(7) Neutralizing the threat—"Blue-sky" projects: "The projects are not classified and come with an enticing option: while the Defense Department retains rights to military uses, universities and biotech companies can COMMERCIALY develop their MIRACLE DRUG—or any drug that falls short of that title but still has medicinal value."

(8) "I think we have a very good chance of creating some revolutions, not just for biological warfare defense," Jones said, "but also for health care for all of us."

(9) "To prepare for such an attack, the Department of Defense is launching a program to develop better detectors, train special military units, and invest in vaccine and antibiotic research as well as to acquire masks and filtration systems to protect against bacteria, viruses, or toxins used as weapons."

(10) "And the federal government is moving to better equip state and local authorities in case of such an emergency, which is all part of the Defense Against Weapons of Mass Destruction Act of 1996."

[Please use the excerpts above (1-10) to help you understand the statements below. Re-read their "propaganda" and see how a spin can be placed on truth, to fool you.]

(A) Chemical & Biological weapons of mass destruction were used in the Gulf War, limitedly by Iraq but also by Coalition Forces in varying "forms", specifically the U.S., to name one.

(B) U.S. forces were caught off guard alright, but not the U.S. military machine. It is the soldier, the fighting men and women, who were sold out/compromised, even by their commander, Schwarzkopf.

(C) FACT—The U.S. had "real-time" biological warfare detectors and teams ready to deploy to the Gulf, but orders were issued from the highest command, and these life-saving tools never made it to the Gulf. This is TREASON, and a WAR CRIME. [These are NOT to be confused with the chemical weapons detectors, which the U.S. says, all 14,000 alarms which sounded, were also FALSE.]

(D) The real-time biological detectors and American Military teams were not deployed to the Gulf because they would have been able to detect, in real time. WHERE & WHO (which side) were releasing these weapons of mass destruction, and would have warned their fellow Americans of the double-cross, as certain high-ranking military officers, to include Schwarzkopf, hid (like chicken-shit yellow-belly traitors) in special bunkers with filtration systems, meanwhile telling their troops NOT to go to MOPP-4. This is TREASON, and a WAR CRIME.

(E) The Gulf War was NOT fought for six long months (August 1990 to Jan 1991) whilst the U.S. called up and deployed all reserves, almost a million men and women, and shipped them to the Gulf, as guinea pigs, and cows to the slaughter house. Why so many, for a tiny country like Iraq? Why, if you were going to fight a massive air campaign, drop more bombs than the entire Second World War? You didn't need them there unless you needed a place and the circumstances to INFECT them! The U.S. wasn't caught "off-guard", the U.S. knew Hussein used chemical weapons against his own people in 1989, and knew "what" Iraq had in its arsenal, beyond the shadow of any doubt it is one thing to fight a known enemy, it is another to have those you trust stick the knife in your back. Sending American troops into Harm's Way is TREASON.

(F) The Military ALREADY have "better detectors", even REAL-TIME detectors, but NEVER USED THEM. As far as "masks" and "filtration systems", NSC Brent Scowcroft, the CIA Director, the NSA, James Baker III, the FBI, U.S. Customs, and President George Bush, KNEW and had EVIDENCE from Peter Kawaja in 1990—BEFORE Desert Storm, of "Gas Mask Penetration" success tests performed at "their" plant, the PIT project in Boca Raton, Florida! They took the evidence at GUNPOINT under a WAR POWERS ACT Search Warrant and sealed it as National Security

(G) The U.S. "says" it stopped its offensive biological weapons program in 1969. Now you understand one reason only, why—they HAD to seal Kawaja's evidence.

(H) The U.S. estimates 10-12 "enemy" countries already HAVE offensive biowarfare capability, but is telling YOU, the "dumbed-down" public, that the U.S. is the white virgin of the Nile, the only upstanding and pure nation, and should NEVER participate in even considering "research" just to have a defensive option, or to protect YOU—and you believe that PUKE—if you don't, then you admit, they are BALD-FACED LIARS and have violated these same so-called "treaties" like everyone else. But WAIT, if the U.S. is even innocently trying to protect you, the public, and ONLY doing research for "defensive" purposes, WHERE do they get the "HUMAN GUINEA PIGS", so they know which antidotes work against which weapons—on "humans", not animals? Read MY Lips, not George Bush's—THINK, for a change. Stand up so your brains can get some air and function. The Gulf War and returning vets who went to the VA (hard files which have disappeared/destroyed in the Murrah Bombing) complaining (being sick, their blood drawn)—have ALREADY provided the answers for the "tests" which were secretly conducted in the war, using Americans, knowing where they would have to return: to the U.S., and "who" (VA) they would end up going to for treatment. Yet, Americans have been denied treatment—BY the United States; told it is in their head—allowing untold hundreds of thousands to become deathly ill, dead, or as carriers infecting the civilian populations. At the same time, instead of a veterans' blood ban WRAMC issued an "incentive program to the American Red Cross for blood collection, and this blood distributed to civilian hospitals, FOR YOU! ('Cause they want to protect you—right?)

(I) Biological agents are LIVING organisms. They grow more rapidly and SPREAD as part of their natural reproductive process, becoming more deadly as time goes by—MUTATING. YES—and now you know WHY they have HAD to leak these BLOWUP stories to prepare you for the real bad news yet to come, as people WORLDWIDE are already dropping dead from Mystery diseases and renewed (supposedly) old diseases. It has crossed the species lines, and we are seeing rabid animals, frogs and others mutating, mad cow, ad nauseum. The soil itself IS contaminated, the food products are contaminated; the dead bodies they bury worldwide are contaminating the soil, the dead animals are contaminating the soil—the clock is ticking. The PALE HORSE is already UNLEASHED.

(J) The 140-odd bunkers such as were blown up at Khamisiyah (and other locations), were deliberately ordered, and done AFTER the battle was over, when “we” controlled the ground, the enemy on the run or in captivity. There is much controversy about destroying our old, outdated, leaking, chemical weapons arsenal right here in the U.S. So ask yourself, WHY would the ORDER be given to blow up and DISPERSE KNOWINGLY both Chemical AND Biological WEAPONS OF MASS DESTRUCTION, when you KNOW “where” YOUR OWN troops are, “know wind direction” and so forth, the enemy already captured, UNLESS “you” want to further expose YOUR OWN FORCES to what YOU know was inside the Bunkers; NOT IRAQI, but primarily U.S. WEAPONS INSIDE! You also don’t want to bring back home your ILLEGAL, banged-up, leaking weapons!

(K) Whenever a military or government Declassifies and releases sensitive information about being “militarily vulnerable” ON A NATIONAL SCALE, you can be sure, they already HAVE run the tests, and HAVE the antidotes for what they say they will be trying to accomplish in the future, a la GWS. It is a DONE DEAL!

YOU DON’T TELL THE WORLD, EVERY TERRORIST ORGANIZATION, AND EVERY THIRD-WORLD BANANA REPUBLIC, THROUGH YOUR OWN NEWS MEDIA, THAT YOU CAN’T DEFEND YOURSELF, WHEN YOU SPEND BILLIONS ON KEEPING ANY WEAKNESS SECRET!

YOU DON’T ALSO THEN GIVE THEM THE EXPLICIT DETAILS ON HOW TO BUILD A WEAPON TO USE AGAINST YOU, AND TELL THEM HOW CHEAP AND EASY IT IS TO DEFEAT THE WORLD’S GREATEST SUPERPOWER!

YOU LEAK INFORMATION WHEN, AND BECAUSE, YOU HAVE A PLAN—YOU INTEND TO BE THE ONE TAKING THE ACTION, AND BEING THE CONQUEROR, NOT THE VICTIM!

THE REAL CONCERN FOR AMERICANS IS:
“WHO ARE THE INTENDED VICTIMS?”

There are hundreds more comments and statements of FACT, backed up by hard evidence, that can be made. If you don’t already “see truth”, you will never see.

All of these “stories” and leaks, the likes of Larry Wayne Harris, the media reports about Iraq being able to revive its biological program, or domestic terrorists could easily acquire these weapons of mass destruction (YES—especially since Harris and the government media are telling everyone HOW to build such weapons and how easy it is), is their out—so that when the time comes in the NEAR future, and they are ready to implement the final stage of the plan, YOU should believe whatever you heard, and whoever they say is the culprit, you would show up for your vaccine, your MARK.

The fox is watching the hen house, and the farmer is the one who is paying the fox.

“We have met the enemy, and the enemy is us.”
GULF WAR CRIMES—THE Conspiracy To Conceal The “Real” Evidence, by Habib Peter Kawaja, American

PALE HORSE UNLEASHED
“And then, shall the end come”

[End of above portion]

INTERNATIONAL GULF WAR ILLNESS COALITION

Excerpts (modified) from:
Prussian Blue & The New World Order

To the International War Crimes Tribunal:

Criminal Complaint— WAR CRIMES TRIAL DEMANDED

Throughout the ages, from the beginning of HUMANITY, atrocities of all heinous nature have been perpetrated. Untold hundreds of millions, perhaps billions of lives, spirit beings, abruptly and cruelly terminated under the false pretense in the name of Christianity, or for the “good” of society.

The battle between Good and Evil, Positive and Negative forces on the Earth continues. It is He who captures the “lost souls” (in the end) and wins. The great deceiver has waged unholy war using his “seed”, the seed of Satan, the seed of Genesis, the Anti-Christ, to mercilessly terrorize and persecute “we, the people” of all nations.

The mad feverish race is On, the end draws near.

Throughout American History, a “smoking gun” has never survived. Whenever a major serious crime has been committed (JFK, MLK, et al.), if anyone had any evidence to even a small part of it, they have been executed, or blackmailed, bought-off, family lives threatened. When or if they couldn’t be influenced to go along with “the program” in the interests of National Security, their witnesses have disappeared, changed their story, refused to talk, committed suicide by shooting themselves in the back of their head 10 times with a single shot derringer, hands tied behind their back, ad nauseum.

Whenever someone has had the brave heart and loving kindness for fellow man that he/she would risk all, they have been persecuted to their grave, all along the way, demonized, discredited, and “credible” (LYING) government witnesses brought forward to refute their story.

Many have attempted to place a date on the end days as prophesied in Revelation. No HUMAN can do this, however—there have been those called, recruited, to do a job, who have been enriched with special gifts to accomplish their mission, to expose and bruise the head of the serpent.

Those who have poisoned the soil of the Earth, contaminated the waters of the globe, the fish of the seas, the beasts of the land, are driven by a blind lust for power, control, and never-ending burning to continually acquire more and more wealth, to enslave and persecute the “useless cannon fodder”, the goyim, God’s people.

The world cannot continue to support the ever-growing populations; the soil is ravishingly being depleted, the waters and the air are becoming unusable. There is surely enough geography for untold billions more bodies, but not enough “good” food or water that can nourish and sustain new lives. The lush lands (international bio-spheres) will become the home of the Elite, or owned and perverted/raped of its natural resources, whilst “we, the people” are moved into com-

GAIA COL

GAIA COL is a combination of colloidal silver, trace colloidal gold, and trace crystalline drias. This combination of ingredients has produced a product that is so high-frequency and potent that it could quite possibly be the solution to our ongoing fight against the new antibiotic-resistant diseases that we face today. Colloidal silver was used extensively and very successfully against bacteria, viruses, fungi and the like before the advent of the first antibiotic, penicillin. The many uses of colloidal gold were documented for the restoration of health as early as 1885, and gold was noted for its ability to calm and harmonize the emotional body. Once the chemical companies began manufacturing their endless array of antibiotics, silver and gold were no longer looked to for treatment. However, the antibiotics have had increasingly less effect on the more resistant viruses, fungi and parasites. Now we face a new generation of bugs that are completely resistant to any antibiotics due to antibiotic over-prescribing and resultant survival-of-the-fittest microorganisms.

Research has demonstrated that colloidal silver is non-toxic to humans, yet it allows no known disease-causing organism to live in its presence. With the addition of trace colloidal gold and trace crystalline drias, the frequency of GAIA COL is remarkably enhanced to facilitate the demise of these newer, more powerful viruses and bacteria. GAIA COL is gentle enough to use topically on just about any skin, hair, or mouth condition without fear of toxicity and is outstanding for burns.

For internal use during any type of infectious process, start with one teaspoon the first day and then 10-12 drops, 3-4 times per day under the tongue until the infection clears. Then maintain with 3-4 drops, 3-4 times per day under the tongue. IMPORTANT: Due to the powerful nature of this product, friendly bacteria can be affected, so it is advisable to replace the natural intestinal flora with some type of acidophilus/lactobacillus supplement daily, or at least when symptoms are noted such as cramps, bloating, diarrhea/constipation and a general feeling of malaise.

GAIA COL is said to be safe for children and pets, and can be taken with other medications without incident. This product is not addictive and does not build up a tolerance to it in the body. Available in 2oz., 16oz., and 32oz. bottles.

Offered through New Gaia Products
800-639-4242

pacted condo-type areas, and others to slave-labor camps. Those who continue to poison the Earth and our bodies, to rake in moneys from drugs, medical treatments (doctors' visits) and cut-&-burn operations, have sought new ways to create disease-for-profit, with the antidotes, vaccines, drugs, you will gladly pay for. All the while, this is a Luciferian plan allowed.

FROM THE MOVIE— OR IS THIS A REAL SCENARIO?

The Gulf War was planned to further the cause and reign-in (sic) the New World Order, the unity of nations AGAINST God. Iraq and Hussein was the place, the vehicle, the excuse, the tool.

God has told us that in the end times, He will open many eyes. The lies and crimes of His enemies will be "uncovered" for all to see. Those who have eyes to see, let them see. Until now, there was no smoking gun left alive or not sold-out, bought-out, threatened-out, in any of the world's heinous crimes.

But now, one man lives, one man survives.

Surviving poisons, aircraft threatened to be bombed, aircraft developing "navigational" equipment problems, making "crash-landings", near vehicle explosion, car chases at 145 MPH with automatic weapons, "pricked" (injected), later, laying on an operating table with Israeli agents posing as a doctor, another as my brother, one cutting hair samples for DNA testing, being interrogated in a hospital on an operating table, confined to a bed with an IV stuck in my arm for 7 days, not allowed to even suck an ice-cube, with antibiotics bags being changed every 4 hours, 24 hours a day, having to flush with saline from that blood clotting around the IV-needle, WAITING TO DIE.

ONE MAN LIVES: my house BURNED in a mysterious fire, the fire department taking 15 minutes to get there (being only a BLOCK away in the SAME COMMUNITY), my home "searched" after the fire when I was being administered Oxygen in the ambulance, the insurance company stating they "heard" I had guns and ammunition in my home—and would not come out WITHOUT A POLICE ESCORT for FEAR of their employees' lives, then being forced out of what was left of my home on APRIL 19th or face the SWAT TEAM and men in BLACK SKI MASKS with AUTOMATIC WEAPONS, then the FBI and ATF agents interrogating people across America and coming to "interview" me because they said they "received an anonymous phone call" that Peter Kawaja was seen in Atlanta before the Olympic Games Bombing, the FBI asking people what Kawaja knew about a ZIONIST OCCUPIED GOVERNMENT.

One man lives: On the anniversary of the Gulf War, after telling the FBI/ATF to take their best shot when they terrorized my friends, trying to implicate me in the Olympic Games Bombing. That very night, a demonic weapon of war similar to TESLA technology, entered through the wall of my home and "materialized" out of thin air then blew me out of my bed, was electrocuting me, the BLOOD oozing out of my thighs, left for dead, miraculously alive, with a pulse of 120, for 5 hours, being prayed-over by friends reading passages from the Bible.

One man lives. One man did not compromise. One man did not sell out his country, his fellow man.

One man risked all and paid the price, watching his wife bleed to death in Ebola fashion, from 12 inches away, the police responding, going through the home and removing every single piece of her identification and papers with her body laying dead.

ONE MAN LIVES

One man did not succumb to the Harlot, did not give up the evidence when tempted and seduced by the Harlot.

One man did not sell for one-hundred-million dollars. One man did not go along with "the program", even though promised fame and lucrative contracts.

ONE MAN SURVIVED—with a mission.

Now you begin to understand WHY such an extensive damage control campaign was waged against Peter Kawaja; why his evidence remains SEALED to this very day.

Now you understand just the tip of the iceberg of why they HAVE to discredit Kawaja, why they made sure to have "their mouthpiece" break the bad news to Gulf veterans, steering them from the real truth that could help them and America

Now you know a little of WHY [wife] Eileen had to die.

WHY did the Israeli agent sent to "interview" (interrogate) Kawaja NOT want any evidence of Chemical or Biological Warfare, but his only concern was:

"WHAT DID YOU SEE INSIDE THE HANGERS?"

"Did you go inside?"

"Did you see any ALIENS?"

WHY was this man concerned about "aliens"?

Why did this agent TREMBLE WITH FEAR for his own life, and ask me if he was going to get out of the building (we met in) ALIVE. Was he now going to DIE because he thought he knew the answer? What was this meeting all about? Was he acting? Why the questions about Aliens? What kind of head-game was this? [You'll have to read the entire story one day.]

ONE MAN LIVED

but then one day...

Hisss, crackling sounds—normal television interrupted: This is CNN live, broadcasting from the funeral of Habib Peter Kawaja, who was found dead several days ago. Authorities say it was a suicide, but thousands dispute this as another Vincent Foster or Ron Brown murder.

After the casket was lowered into the ground, a truck and van screeched up right on the cemetery lawn, men jumped out and began showing a never-before-seen video on a big-screen TV powered by a generator and distributing paper documents.

Thousands had come from all over the world; most did not know Kawaja personally.

We all watched this video in HORROR. My God, it is true, we have been deceived.

Wait one minute, we have just learned that Air Force One is airborne and the U.S. has gone to DEFCON Level One.

Crackle, silence—Ladies and Gentlemen, the President of the United States:

People of America, I bring you very serious and bad news. At this moment, we are in a state of WAR, and Martial Law has been implemented. FEMA will now take control. Do not be alarmed when you see U.N. troops in the streets, they are here for your protection, as our American Military is primarily overseas, and the rest too sick to serve.

I am very grieved to tell you that a Biological Warfare Agent has been released across America by a tactical antigovernment group with the backing of Saddam Hussein, which will virtually wipe out the entire nation, unless you receive vaccines, starting in the next few days.

The U.N. Military, with FEMA, will announce and organize everyone to start getting their first treatment. You will be told when to report to the nearest U.S. Post Office, to receive your new identification, and a food, water, and fuel "Ration Card". Within a few days, all food supplies at stores will be depleted. The truckers and railroads workers will have to shut down, and so will the utility companies; there will be no power, except at selected locations and intervals. Gas for your cars will be rationed out by FEMA, only enough so that you can drive within designated areas. Road blocks have been placed at every major highway. You are now confined to the state you live in. If someone attempts to use the roadways, their vehicle engine will automatically shut down at selected areas where we have placed cameras and sensors. Violators will be arrested. This is for YOUR protection.

This PLAGUE is communicable and will mutate. You will require indefinite treatment. In order that we know "who" has been treated, we must place a visible, exterior MARK on each person, so that when you see a neighbor who has no mark, you know to report him to the authorities, because he IS CONTAGIOUS. Stay away from anyone who does not have their mark, and report them to the authorities. You will be given an extra week's ration of food and water for every person you turn in.

A new monetary system will be implemented using your MARK. To save America, this phenomenal ongoing cost will place such a burden on the government, we will have to increase taxes to 85% of your "income". If you are unable to WORK, you will be separated from your family (as a useless eater), and taken to a government-prepared care facility (translation: DEATH CAMP).

All those who do not receive the Mark will be rounded up with the anti-government, right-wing militias and taken to Civilian Inmate Labor (concentration) Camps.

The BEGINNING of "The END"

Red Lentils & Adzuki Beans

Two of the tastiest, most "storable" foods are now available in bulk, 50 lbs. per bag. Prepare and cook them just like pinto beans. Wonderful soup extender and both make super salad/sandwich sprouts.

Adzuki Beans	50-lb. bag	*$50.
Red Lentils	50-lb. bag	*$30.

Order From New Gaia—Call 800-639-4242

* Plus UPS delivery charge

PHOENIX JOURNALS LIST

THESE WORKS ARE A SERIES CALLED THE Phoenix Journals AND HAVE BEEN WRITTEN TO ASSIST MAN TO BECOME AWARE OF LONG-STANDING DECEPTIONS AND OTHER MATTERS CRITICAL TO HIS SURVIVAL AS A SPECIES AT THIS TIME. SINGLE Journals ARE $6.00; ANY 4 Journals ARE $5.50 EACH; 10 OR MORE Journals ARE $5.00 EACH (Shipping extra - see right.)

 These marked Journals are out of stock until further notice.

1. SIPAPU ODYSSEY
2. AND THEY CALLED HIS NAME IMMANUEL, I AM SANANDA
3. SPACE-GATE, THE VEIL REMOVED
4. SPIRAL TO ECONOMIC DISASTER
5. FROM HERE TO ARMAGEDDON
- 6. SURVIVAL IS ONLY TEN FEET FROM HELL
7. THE RAINBOW MASTERS
9. SATAN'S DRUMMERS
10. PRIVACY IN A FISHBOWL
11. CRY OF THE PHOENIX
- 12. CRUCIFIXION OF THE PHOENIX
- 13. SKELETONS IN THE CLOSET
- 14. RRPP—RAPE, RAVAGE, PILLAGE AND PLUNDER OF THE PHOENIX
- 15. RAPE OF THE CONSTITUTION
- 16. YOU CAN SLAY THE DRAGON
- 17. THE NAKED PHOENIX
- 18. BLOOD AND ASHES
- 19. FIRESTORM IN BABYLON
- 20. THE MOSSAD CONNECTION
 21. CREATION, THE SACRED UNIVERSE
- 22. PLEIADES CONNECTION VOL I
- 23. BURNT OFFERINGS
- 24. SHROUDS OF THE SEVENTH SEAL
- 25. THE BITTER COMMUNION
- 26. COUNTERFEIT BLESSINGS THE ANTI-CHRIST BY ANY NAME: KHAZARS
 27. PHOENIX OPERATOR-OWNER MANUAL
- 28. OPERATION SHANSTORM
- 29. END OF THE MASQUERADE

38. THE DARK CHARADE
39. THE TRILLION DOLLAR LIE THE HOLOCAUST VOL. I
40. THE TRILLION DOLLAR LIE THE HOLOCAUST VOL. II
41. THE DESTRUCTION OF A PLANET—ZIONISM IS RACISM
42. UNHOLY ALLIANCE
43. TANGLED WEBS VOL. I
44. TANGLED WEBS VOL. II
45. TANGLED WEBS VOL. III
46. TANGLED WEBS VOL. IV
48. TANGLED WEBS VOL. V
49. TANGLED WEBS VOL. VI
50. THE DIVINE PLAN VOL. I
51. TANGLED WEBS VOL. VII
52. TANGLED WEBS VOL. VIII
53. TANGLED WEBS VOL. IX
54. THE FUNNEL'S NECK
55. MARCHING TO ZION
56. SEX AND THE LOTTERY
57. GOD, TOO, HAS A PLAN 2000 DIVINE PLAN VOL. II
58. FROM THE FRYING PAN INTO THE PIT OF FIRE
59. "REALITY" ALSO HAS A DRUM-BEAT!
60. AS THE BLOSSOM OPENS
61. PUPPY-DOG TALES
62. CHAPARRAL SERENDIPITY
63. THE BEST OF TIMES
64. TO ALL MY CHILDREN
65. THE LAST GREAT PLAGUE
66. ULTIMATE PSYCHOPOLITICS
67. THE BEAST AT WORK
68. ECSTASY TO AGONY
69. TATTERED PAGES
70. NO THORNLESS ROSES
71. COALESCENCE
72. CANDLELIGHT
73. RELATIVE CONNECTIONS VOL. I
74. MYSTERIES OF RADIANCE UNFOLDED VOL. II
75. TRUTH AND CONSEQUENCES VOL. III
76. SORTING THE PIECES VOL. IV
77. PLAYERS IN THE GAME
78. IRON TRAP AROUND AMERICA
79. MARCHING TO ZOG
80. TRUTH FROM THE ZOG BOG
81. RUSSIAN ROULETTE
82. RETIREMENT RETREATS
83. POLITICAL PSYCHOS
84. CHANGING PERSPECTIVES
85. SHOCK THERAPY
86. MISSING THE LIFEBOAT??
87. IN GOD'S NAME AWAKEN!
88. THE ADVANCED DEMOLITION LEGION
89. FOCUS OF DEMONS
90. TAKING OFF THE BLIND-FOLD
91. FOOTSTEPS INTO TRUTH
92. WALK A CROOKED ROAD WITH THE CROOKS
93. CRIMINAL POLITBUROS AND OTHER PLAGUES
94. WINGING IT....
95. HEAVE-UP (Phase One)
96. HEAVE-HO (Phase Two)
97. HEAVE 'EM OUT (Phase Three)
98. ASCENSION OR NEVER-EVER LAND?
99. USURPERS OF FREEDOM IN CONSPIRACY
100. BUTTERFLIES, MIND CONTROL—THE RAZOR'S EDGE
101. THE BREATHING DEAD AND CEMENT CHILDREN
102. SACRED WISDOM
103. CONFRONT THE NOW CREATE THE FUTURE
104. FIRST STEPS
105. AMERICA IN PERIL—AN UNDERSTATEMENT!
107. RING AROUND THE ROSIE...!
130. TRACKING DOWN THE KILLER "AND OTHER FORMS OF MURDER" (The Health Book)

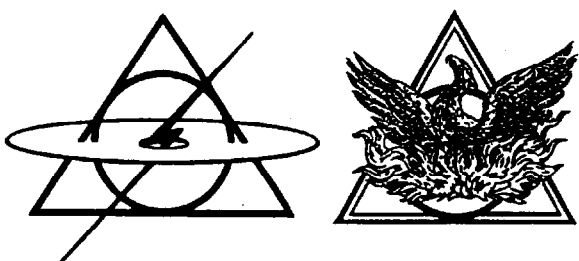

FOR INFORMATION ABOUT JOURNALS, BOOKS, ETC., MENTIONED IN THIS NEWS-PAPER, PLEASE INQUIRE:

PHOENIX SOURCE DISTRIBUTORS, Inc.
 Post Office Box 27353
 Las Vegas, Nevada 89126
 (or call)
1-800-800-5565
 (Mastercard, VISA, Discover)

Phoenix Source Distributors SHIPPING CHARGES:

USA (except Alaska & Hawaii)
 UPS-$3.75 1st title, $1.00 ea add'l
 Bookrate-$2.50 1st title, $1.00 ea add'l
 Priority-$3.40 1st title, $1.00 ea add'l
ALASKA & HAWAII
 Bookrate-$2.50 1st title, $1.00 ea add'l
 Priority-$3.40 1st title, $1.00 ea add'l
 UPS 2nd day-$9.00 1st title, $1 ea add'l
CANADA & MEXICO
 Surface-$3.00 1st title, $1.50 ea add'l
 Airbook-$4.50 1st title, $2.00 ea add'l
FOREIGN
 Surface-$3.00 1st title, $1.50 ea add'l
 Airbook-$8.00 per title estimate
 (Please allow 5-8 weeks for delivery on all book orders)

PLEASE NOTE:
 CONTACT and Phoenix Source Distributors are NOT the same! Checks sent for JOURNALS or book orders should NOT be made out to CONTACT—and vice versa.

SUBSCRIBE TO CONTACT, CALL: 1-800-800-5565

CONTACT: THE PHOENIX PROJECT Subscription Rates

CONTACT: THE PHOENIX PROJECT is published by
CONTACT, Inc.
 Post Office Box 27800
 Las Vegas, NV 89126

Subscription orders may be placed by mail to the above address or by phone to 1-800-800-5565. Subscription rates are: $30 for 13 issues (US); $35 (Canada/Mexico); $40 (Foreign); or 26 issues for $60 (US); $70 (Canada/Mexico); $80 (Foreign); or 52 issues for $110 (US); $120 (Canada/Mexico); $130 (Foreign). Subscribers: Expiration date appears on right side of mailing label.

Quantity Subscriptions: $95.00 for 10 copies of 13 issues (US); $125 for 25 copies of 13 issues (US); $160 for 50 copies of 13 issues (US); $275 for 100 copies of 13 issues (US); $190 for 10 copies of 26 issues (US); or $1,100 for 100 copies of 52 issues (US). UPS postpaid Continental U.S. For Alaska, HI, Canada, Mexico and Foreign, call or write for shipping charges.

Single copies of back issues of CONTACT, THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR or PHOENIX EXPRESS are $3.00 each. Quantity back issue prices are as follows: 1st copy $3.00, each additional $0.45. Shipping included, postpaid in the Continental U.S.A. Alaska, Hawaii, Canada & Foreign orders please call or write for quotes on additional shipping charges.

TELEPHONE HOTLINE

805-822-0202

This is a service for our dedicated readers. Today's Watch telephone hotline carries the latest news and comments from Commander Hatonn's most recent writings. This is our way of keeping you informed about fast-breaking news and events.

The message machine will answer after 2 rings if there are any new messages for that day, and after 4 rings if not. Thus daily callers can hang up after 2 rings and save toll charges if no new message has been recorded. If the hotline does not answer your call then that means that there is currently no hotline message.