Curious Congressman Henry Hyde The “Perfect” Judge To Investigate Bill Clinton?!

Editor’s note: The following provocative information was assembled by our News Desk guru, Dr. Al Overholt.

9/26/98 SHERMAN H. SKOLNICK

HENRY HYDE AND THE JUDGEMENT BUSINESS

Henry Hyde supposedly is heading up the congressional group to find out whether there are grounds to impeach Bill Clinton. Are there grounds to put Hyde himself in federal prison?

Hyde, a supposedly retired Commander of Naval Intelligence, assigned to the American CIA, has one of the highest positions in espionage. He is head of CIA’s “black budget”, their highly secret bloody tricks apparatus. As such he violates the U.S. Constitution’s mandate of Separation of Powers; a federal official in one branch cannot also be in another.

AS congressman from Chicago’s western suburbs, Hyde is in the Legislative branch. But, as CIA “black budget” chief, he is a high-ranking official in the Executive branch of the U.S. government. Hyde has more actual authority as CIA covert operations than the Director, himself, of Central Intelligence.

With the aid of George Herbert Walker Bush and Ollie North, Hyde supervised the CIA’s dope and gun-running operation in the Southern states,

CANADIAN SCIENTISTS FORCED TO APPROVE DRUGS NOT SAFE FOR HUMAN CONSUMPTION

From the INTERNET, 9/98: [quoting]

The Health Protection Branch is once again the center of controversy, with six of its scientists charging they have been pressured to approve drugs of questionable safety. In what is believed to be one of the first cases of its kind in Canada, the Professional Institute of the Public Service of Canada—the union representing the scientists—has taken the complaints of management interference before the Public Service Staff Relations Board.

Activists from the Sierra Club and the Council of Canadians held a news conference Wednesday to publicize the case, since the scientists are under Health Department orders not to talk to the media.

“The department scientists are forced to approve drugs not safe for animal and human consumption,” said Maude Barlow of the Council of Canadians. “This is the corporatization of the government of Canada’s Health Protection Branch.”

She called for a public investigation of the branch, saying drug companies now provide 70 per cent of its financing and have too much influence over the drug-approval process.

Earlier this month the Canadian Medical Association Journal carried an article saying secrecy at the Health Protection Branch is raising suspicions about the influence drug companies have over drug approvals.

In 1996, Michele Brill-Edwards resigned from her job as a drug reviewer at the branch because of what she considered to be undue industry influence over the drug approval process.

Government lawyers failed Wednesday to get the grievances of the six scientists tossed out for lack of evidence. It’s expected the Public Service Staff Relations Board will release a decision next month.

Asked about the alleged gag order placed on the scientists, Robert Joubert of the Health Protection Branch said it is normal policy that only designated officials speak for the Health Department.

Many of the scientists’ concerns center on bovine growth hormone (BGH), a genetically-engineered drug manufactured by Monsanto which increases milk production in dairy cattle.

The drug has been under review for some 10 years and it has become a symbol in a seemingly endless tug-of-war between biotechnology companies seeking markets for their products and skeptical consumers groups.

An internal document obtained by the Sierra Club under Access to Information legislation shows BGH produced cysts in the thyroid of male rats when administered at high dosage. Two years ago Health Department officials said the consumption of milk or meat from cattle treated with BGH poses no risk to human health, although they were not sure about the safety for animals. Joel Weiner, a spokesman for the Health Protection Branch, said Wednesday that position has shifted due to new scientific evidence. The question of human safety is now considered open, he said. [End quoting]

This type of situation goes on all over the world. This sure helps the elite’s depopulation plan.

MOTORCYCLE-MOUNTED PARAMEDICS

From the INTERNET, <para-discuss@tje.net>, 9/25/98: [quoting]

A hospital system has rolled out what it says is the nation’s first squad of motorcycle-mounted paramedics.

Starting next week, 12 paramedics at Saint Barnabas Health Care System will share two BMW motorcycles to weave through congested traffic to bring emergency care to people in need.

“Ambulances do not do well in traffic jams,” Dr. Jay Kaplan, chairman of Saint Barnabas Emergency Services, said Thursday.

“That’s been a major problem. This motorcycle paramedic team solves that.”

Customized to Saint Barnabas’ specifications, the bikes carry medicines, trauma equipment, even defibrillators. The hospital system paid nearly $16,000 for each bike. “They can initiate treatment, fill the gap until the ambulances get to the scene,” Kaplan said. The bikes cannot carry patients.

The motorcycles will be based at Saint Barnabas, but used throughout a 10-hospital system from Hudson County down the New Jersey shore to Ocean County. Jeffrey Goldstein, a paramedic for Saint Barnabas and a rider for 24 years, had proposed the idea. [End quoting]

Sounds like a very good idea.

CLINIC INVESTIGATED

From the INTERNET, <para-discuss@tje.net>, 9/24/98: [quoting]

Authorities in California are investigating charges that a clinic in Los Angeles recruited poor city youngsters and paid them up to $10 to undergo unnecessary medical exams before billing the state.

Paramount Medical Center employees are accused of picking up children between the ages of 9 and 14 from housing projects and taking them to the clinic, paying each boy $5 and each girl $10. Girls were paid more because gynecological exams could be performed on them, sheriff’s Sgt. Mason Kenny said. The children were given prescriptions for spermicidal condoms and other forms of birth control after the examinations, Kenny said. No arrests have been made. Clinic officials did not return phone calls. [End quoting]

This doesn’t surprise me, the way they throw money away without making the politicians account for it. Don’t forget a lot of political friends get paid off by allowing these kinds of clinics and other unethical situations to operate.

SHAKESPEARE WAS CORRECT ABOUT LAWYERS

Excerpted from THE DAILY NEWS, Los Angeles, by Maureen Dowd, 9/21/98: [quoting]

It was inevitable, of course, that lawyers would destroy civilization.

Shakespeare warned us to kill them all. We didn’t.

And now Washington is in a psychosexual meltdown so insane that the rest of the country—and the world—can only watch in horror.

It’s time to update the notion of the best and the brightest. It used to be politicians and their ambitious staffers who dragged us into our long national nightmares. Now it’s top flight lawyers who bollix up everything and make a ton of money doing it.

The capital is in a titanic twilight struggle between armies of lawyers. The president and first lady came from a generation that believed the law was the highest calling. Now the First Lawyers owe more than $6 million to lawyers who have given them bad legal advice and allowed Clinton to turn his White House into a lying machine and dodge behind silly, tortured legalisms about sex. [End quoting]

I can never be convinced that these gangsters—who got trained while young—ever thought the law was good for anything except to fill their pockets and the road to power.

BRITAIN, IRAN RENEW TIES AFTER DEAL ON RUSHDIE

From THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, 9/25/98: [quoting]

A 1989 decree to kill the British writer had been a major obstacle to better relations between Iran and the West. Britain and Iran sealed a landmark agreement to restore full diplomatic relations on Thursday after Teheran formally dissociated itself from a death edict against British writer Salman Rushdie.

British Foreign Secretary Robin Cook described the deal with Iranian Foreign Minister Kamal Kharrazi as historic.

It was reached more than nine years after the late revolutionary leader Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini condemned the author of The Satanic Verses to death for blaspheming Islam.

Rushdie, invited to the Foreign Office in London to hear the news, said he was relieved after spending years in hiding under British police guard.

“It looks like it is over,” he said. “It means everything. It means freedom.”

Khomeini’s fatwa or religious order has been a major obstacle to better relations between Iran and the West. Although Teheran says it cannot rescind the decree, it came close to that in Thursday’s carefully negotiated statement.

“The government of the Islamic Republic of Iran has no intention, nor is it going to take any action whatsoever to threaten the life of the author of The Satanic Verses or anybody associated with his work, nor will it encourage or assist anybody to do so," Kharrazi said at U.N. headquarters.

A $2.5 million bounty on Rushdie's head, offered by the 15th of Khordad foundation—a non-governmental welfare fund—remains in force.

Cook said Rushdie would continue to receive protection based on the security services' assessment of threats.

During the past decade, several people associated with the book have been killed or injured. [End quoting]

Why would Rushdie's life mean so much to the British? Just who is this man who is so valuable to them and what is his real purpose to them?

EL NINO OCEAN PHENOMENON SEEMS TO BE WINNING IN PACIFIC

From THE DAILY NEWS, Los Angeles, 9/24/98: [quoting]

El Nino and the La Nina seem to be battling it out as the latest observation from NASA's Topex-Poseidon satellite show the Pacific Ocean running hot and cold.

And there are hints La Nina may be losing, although experts caution that it is a very complex situation.

"The very, very strong signal we had last winter from El Nino continues to linger, and embedded in that is this La Nina signal that began last May," JPL oceanographer Bill Patzert said Wednesday after release of the latest Topex image.

"It looks like the El Nino signal remains pretty strong and the La Nina signal seems to be waning a little bit. But both signals are very, very strong," Patzert said.

"What we really see here is a highly perturbed climate system. It's going to make the call for next fall and winter's climate season over the United States a little difficult."

El Nino is the phenomenon in which a large mass of warm water across the equator begins to pile up against the west coast of South America.

La Nina is essentially the opposite—cold water that exists along the coast of South America extends out to the central equatorial Pacific. [End quoting]

The elite can heat the waters of the ocean or cool them as they see fit, thus can create El Nino or La Nina—whichever meets their requirements at the time. However, Mother Earth has a mind of her own and desires balance. Thus things are going to be getting a lot more interesting in this department as the days unfold.

WANT STRONGER MUSCLES?

From NEWSWEEK, 9/28/98, [quoting:]

No sweat. At least not at the Artificial Muscle Research Institute at the University of New Mexico, where scientists have created synthetic sinew that's twice as strong as human muscle. The extra brawn is built by baking artificial silk and boiling it in sodium hydroxide. Still awaiting FDA approval, the prefab muscle can be grafted on bone and replace paralyzed tissue. It can also be sewn into clothing that will stretch and contract when electrical charges are applied. Now, that's power dressing. [End quoting]

Wow! It doesn't take much imagination to think of uses for this.

SEMICONDUCTOR SLUMP PARALYZES MOTOROLA PROJECT

Excerpted from THE GOOCHLAND GAZETTE, 9/19-25/98: [quoting]

Facing what it describes as the "worst global downturn in semiconductor history", Motorola Inc. announced this week that it is mothballing its planned Goochland County facilities indefinitely.

The announcement took many local officials by surprise, skewed the county's drive to secure utility agreements with its neighbors, and for the time being shot down the local efforts to establish a public water and sewer authority.

"The world markets are just tearing up the semiconductor industry right now, the worst market ever. As a result, we're extending the timeline and moving out the timeline on West Creek," said Motorola spokesman Scott Stevens. [End quoting]

Another major sign of the times and another proof of the politicians' lies about a booming economy.

I also read that the retailers are sweating over the prospects for Christmas sales. As well they should, as they listen to the hype of the media that "everything's coming up roses". The only thing coming up roses is the Rose Parade—if things don't get so bad they cancel it, too!

Thank God that He is giving us more time to get things settled His way. I hope we all can join together and prevent the worst scenarios from coming to pass.

REGULATIONS OF A "FREE SOCIETY"

From THE SOVEREIGN SOCIETY, John A. Pugsley: [quoting]

...40,000 new regulations are imposed on citizens of industrialized nations every year. Add on another 25,000 if you live in the United States.

If you violate any one of these regulations you could be slapped with a fine that could bankrupt you, your assets could be seized, your business could be shut down, or worse—you could find yourself behind bars.

Did you now that merely depositing $9,000 in cash on two consecutive days is now a federal crime? You will have been accused of structuring your transactions in such a way as to avoid reporting requirements. Americans are required to report any monetary transaction over $10,000. Europeans must report all monetary transactions over 11,400 pounds. By consecutively depositing money just under the reporting requirements you can be fined $250,000 and up to six months in prison. No criminal intent need be proven. The financial transactions themselves are the crime.

Over two and a half million accounts were seized in the US last year. One man, Dr. Low from Haleyville, Alabama had $2.6 millions seized just for transferring the money from one bank to another. What crime had he committed? He merely failed to file a Currency Transaction Report, IRS Form 4789.

A string of money-laundering regulations have swept the nations. You are now in danger of violating any number of these regulations without knowing it.

But the truth is so many things are considered crimes these days that it's almost impossible to engage in any business or financial activity without contravening a few regulations.

There are anti-discrimination regulations, property regulations, environmental regulations, endangered species regulations and the list goes on and on.

If you own a business and you don't have an even racial mix you can be fined for being racist. World's Finest Chocolate, a Chicago-based firm was fined $2 million dollars for having a predominantly White workforce.

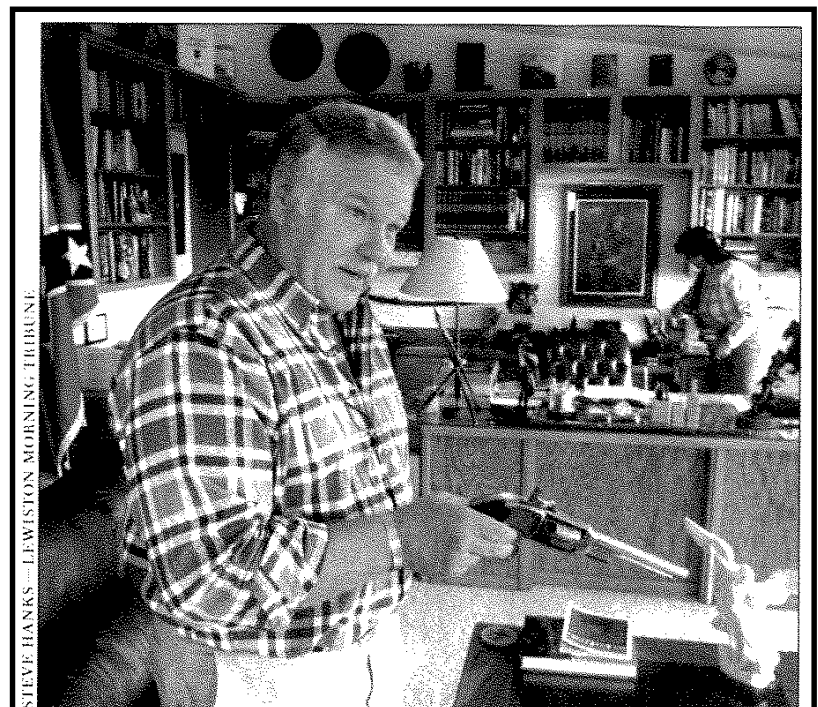

Have you ever spanked your child? Or maybe prevented him from watching too much television? These trivial actions are grounds enough to give government social workers the right to come and seize custody of your children. [End quoting]

Isn't it about time we all woke up?? Tomorrow it will be one of us who are trying to hide our heads in the sand who will feel the iron fist of Uncle Scam.

TROUBLE ON THE HOME FRONT FOR BO GRITZ

From NEWSWEEK, by Andrew Murr, 10/5/98: [quoting]

Bo Gritz thought he could just fade away. On the afternoon of Sept. 20, the storied Green Beret hero, Vietnam POW hunter and self-proclaimed leader of the right-wing Patriot Movement veered his GMC pickup off Idaho's Highway 12 and drove up into the dense woods. Dressed in his old Army Ranger uniform, his chest festooned with ribbons and medals he'd earned in his years of military service, Gritz grabbed his .45 pistol and got out of the truck. This was to be the 59-year-old soldier's last stand. Gritz put the gun—loaded with flesh-shredding Hydra-Shok rounds—to his chest, and fired. But something strange happened: he didn't die. A motorist found him minutes later and called 911. Doctors discovered the bullet had passed clean through his body without hitting his heart. The famed sharpshooter had missed his mark. Gritz was dumbfounded. "I don't know what I'm doing here," he told friends the next day.

News of the incident quickly raced through militia groups. Members speculated the shooting was no accident. Some charged the U. S. government had conspired to kill their leader. Others pronounced it the work of the Israeli Mossad. The truth was more mundane. Friends say Gritz was grief stricken because his third wife—tired of his long absences from home promoting the movement—had recently left him after nearly 24 years of marriage. "I've thought about looking at the other end of my pistol a few times," Gritz told a reporter three days before the suicide attempt. "What kind of life do I have without my bride?"

In recent years Gritz, who became famous in the '80s for his real-life Rambo missions to Southeast Asia in search of POWs, had emerged as a hero of the militia movement. He led paramilitary training seminars for budding separatists and hawked an eclectic line of survivalist products—from freeze-dried rations to a $40 soapmaking kit called Bucket of Bubbles. His two-hour radio show, Freedom Calls, is broadcast daily on more than 50 stations. Gritz's loftiest enterprise: a self-governed housing development in Idaho he dubbed "Almost Heaven".

Gritz's bona fides with disaffected militia members helped him to mediate conflicts between his fellow Patriots and the Feds. He negotiated the end of the 1992 Ruby Ridge standoff between Randy Weaver and federal sharpshooters. But he wasn't always so successful, and his latest efforts may have proved his undoing. When the Feds began combing the North Carolina mountains earlier this year in search of suspected bomber Eric Rudolph, Gritz said he'd try to talk the wanted man out of the woods. Gritz's wife, Claudia, implored him not to go. Since marrying him in 1974 at the age of 16, she had tried to remain patient over the years as her husband traveled the country—sometimes staying away for months at a time. The couple had no children of their own, but she helped raise his four kids from earlier marriages, some nearly as old as she was. Now she wanted him home. Instead, Gritz got on a plane heading east. His attempts to coax Rudolph out of hiding failed. So did his marriage; the day he returned home Claudia packed up and left. Four weeks later, Gritz was pointing a pistol at his chest.

Since the apparent suicide attempt, Gritz has been staying in Nevada with his son. He's already planning a comeback. His radio show will once again hit the airwaves this week. Gritz tells friends he desperately wants to reconcile with wife Claudia, who is living in an Idaho RV park and who Gritz says wants a divorce "real bad". Getting her back could be one of Gritz's toughest missions. [End quoting]

Hopefully Bo will change his life around and get his thoughts on God's plan. He desperately needs our prayers encouraging that God's Will be done in his life.

PHONE TAP CASE

From MILITARY magazine, 10/98: [quoting] A federal judge dismissed Rep. John Boehner's (OH) civil suit against Rep. Jim McDermont (WA) for his role in leaking an illegally recorded phone conversation to the press. Boehner's conversation with GOP leaders was said to have been recorded by a Florida couple after they picked it up on a cell phone. McDermont was forced to resign from the House Ethics Committee. [End quoting]

It's only illegal if you're not "one of the boys".

LINCOLN BEDROOM

From MILITARY magazine, 10/98: [quoting] In a vote of 391 to 4, the U.S. House voted to prohibit further use of the White House for fund raising. The four who want to keep the Lincoln bedroom open for rent are Alcee Hastings (FL), Paul Kanjorski (PA), John Murtha (PA) and Robert Wexler (FL). [End quoting]

Can you believe after all the negative publicity the Lincoln bedroom is still for rent to the highest bidder in our White House? Chutzpah or what??

ARAFAT AILING?

From MILITARY magazine, 10/98: [quoting] Age and deep depression have resulted in the 69-year-old Yasser Arafat "barely functioning", according to an aide. Once a man described as a workaholic, often up all night working with his staff, he now goes to bed early and is said to be suffering from a nervous disorder or Parkinson's Disease. [End quoting]

They showed him on TV 9/29/98 with his mouth opening and closing quite fast, as though he had no control. It was a strange sight to behold. Will "they" replace him with a new model or just let him slip?

NUCLEAR HIT

From MILITARY magazine, 10/98: [quoting] Did you know that our defense policy now is to "absorb" a nuclear first strike, then retaliate? If the economy is good and you don't think your town is on the list of those most likely to be hit, you probably don't care. But if you're concerned, read "Invitation to a second Pearl Harbor" on page 26. [End quoting]

PRINCIPLES OF SELF-SUFFICIENCY

Excepted from McAlvany Intelligence Advisor: [quoting]

1. Change the way you look at everything. Rethink your entire lifestyle.
2. Develop discernment about people.
3. When you invest, invest first in the right people.
4. Honestly look at yourself, your strengths, and your weaknesses.
5. Seek the counsel of others you trust.
6. Find like-minded people who can be part of a mutual support group and who you can cooperate with.
7. Find alternate methods for doing everything.
8. Develop an instinct for what doesn't feel right. No matter how good something looks or sounds on the surface, go with your gut feeling, with your instinct, with your intuition.

9. Eliminate nonessentials from your life. Eliminate all time-wasters and money-wasters, i.e., clothes, furniture, junk, etc. Eliminate television from your life.

10. Simplify your lifestyle—learn to say "no" to things or activities which do not make you self-sufficient. Learn to please God and yourself, and not other people.

11. Develop physical, mental and spiritual disciplines.

12. Learn to treat everything as if it were irreplaceable.

13. Buy things that will last, even if they cost more.

14. Acquire tools that do not depend upon electric power.

15. Learn to spend time alone with yourself in total silence—think, reflect, reminisce, and plan (or strategize) in silence.

16. Learn to spend time alone with yourself and your family, apart from superficial entertainment and distractions.

17. Learn something from every situation you are in—everything you hear, see, touch, or feel has a lesson in it. Learn a principle from every mistake you make, from everyday life situations.

18. Make sure your trust is in the Lord and not your own preparedness. Pattern your preparedness according to the guidance of the Lord. Listen to what the Lord puts in your heart—don't use only your reasoning power.

19. Learn to enjoy simple pleasures from the smallest things—have a measure of joy and happiness that doesn't come from creature comforts or entertainment.

20. Store up memories for times of isolation or separation from your loved ones.

21. Establish priorities for all of life (i.e., relationships, needs, present needs, future needs). Set goals for areas you'll be proficient or self-sufficient in. Set a schedule or time line based on money and time you can invest in self-sufficiency.

BUFFETT SAYS MARKET WOES DON'T FAZE HIM

Excerpted from ASSOCIATED PRESS, 9/1/98: [quoting]

Billionaire investor Warren Buffett says he's not shaken by global financial market turmoil.

"It isn't the end of the world at all," Buffett said Wednesday at a meeting of shareholders of his company, Berkshire Hathaway Inc.

"I'm used to things bobbing around," said Buffett, who is known for buying stock for the long haul. "It doesn't change my outlook on value at all."

His comments came at a special shareholders meeting, which approved Berkshire's $22 billion acquisition of General Re of Stamford, Conn., the nation's largest insurer of insurance companies. [End quoting]

I hope you don't make any stock market "bets" on this—he is one of the elite who knows what's going to happen BEFORE it happens. The way I see him is that his game is partially to sucker the fools in so the elite can fleece them—similar to the likes of old Bernard Baruch.

ARIZONA'S OFFICIAL ENGLISH LAW CONTESTED

From MIDDLE AMERICAN NEWS, Sep. 1998: [quoting]

Bob Park, a leading English language advocate in Arizona, has filed an appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court to reverse a state Supreme Court ruling which overturned Arizona's Official English law.

Said Park, "The action of the state Supreme Court, in ruling that the people of Arizona had no right to require their government employees to conduct official business in a common language, is simply an invitation to language chaos and divisiveness." He added, "It is discouraging that while bilingual education is being successfully challenged in California, the Arizona Court ruled that public teachers and administrators, among others, can ignore parents' rights with impunity...."

Park is also a candidate on the Reform Party Arizona ticket for the U.S. Senate seat now held by John McCain. He may be reached at Box 1230, Prescott, AZ 86302, Tel. (888) 820-0061. [End quoting]

The elite insist they are going to divide and conquer us and so what better way than not to have us converse with our neighbors in a common language. Remember the story of the Tower of Babel?

WILSON SIGNS BILL TO END SCHOOL SOCIAL PROMOTION

From THE DAILY NEWS, Los Angeles, 9/24/98: [quoting]

Gov. Pete Wilson signed into law a bill Wednesday that will stop California schools from promoting failing students to the next grade, calling the practice a massive deception by the education system.

Under the law that will first apply in the 1999-2000 school year, students who are not performing at grade level at the end of the term will have to attend summer school or take other remedial tutoring. If they do not progress, they will be held back, Wilson told a crowd of children at La Ballona Elementary School in Culver City.

California schools have in the past participated in a "massive deception where they graduate high school students that are functionally illiterate", Wilson said.

Added Wilson, "Yes, some children will be held back and that can be painful. But, it is nowhere near the pain they will suffer being held back from a good job or a college education." [End quoting]

Another victory!! Now it's up to us to get this kind of law passed in the other states. Keep up the pressure on the politicians and so-called educators.

CLINTON QUOTES

"The road to tyranny, we must never forget, is the destruction of the truth." 1995, in a speech at the University of Connecticut.

"If a President of the United States ever lied to the American people, he should resign." 1974, while running for Congress and at the height of Watergate.

LANDFILLS ARE DANGEROUS

From the INTERNET, <para-discuss@tje.net>, 9/26/98: [quoting]

A new study by the New York State Department of Health reports that women living near solid waste landfills where gas is escaping have a four-fold increased chance of bladder cancer or leukemia (cancer of the blood-forming cells).

The new study examined the occurrence of seven kinds of cancer among men and women living near 38 landfills where naturally-occurring landfill gas is thought to be escaping into the surrounding air. Of the 14 kinds of cancer studied (7 each in men and women), 10 (or 71%) were found to be elevated but only two (bladder and leukemia in women) achieved statistical significance at the 5% level. The seven cancers studied were leukemia, non-Hodgkin's lymphoma, liver, lung, kidney, bladder, and brain cancer. In women living near landfills, the incidence of all seven kinds of cancer was elevated. In men, the study found elevated (though not statistically significant) incidence of lung cancer, bladder cancer, and leukemia.

What is most surprising about the New York study is that it only examined 38 landfills. The state Department of Health began looking at 131 landfills, but eventually studied only 38 of them (29%) on the grounds that only those 38 were likely to be releasing gases. In contrast, a 1990 study of 356 California landfills found 240 of them (or 67%) emitting one or more toxic solvents. It is not clear why New York authorities assumed that gases are escaping from only 29% of New York landfills when toxic gases have been measured escaping from 67% of the landfills tested in California.

Landfill gas consists of naturally-occurring methane and carbon dioxide, which form inside the landfill as the waste decomposes.

As the gases form, pressure builds up inside a landfill, forcing the gases to move. Some of the gases escape through the surrounding soil or simply move upward into the atmosphere, where they drift away.

Typically, landfill gases that escape from a landfill will carry along toxic chemicals such as paint thinner, solvents, pesticides and other hazardous volatile organic compounds (VOCs), many of them chlorinated. [End quoting]

Be very thorough in checking any place where you may move to, that you don't get near one of these dump sites. You can be sure that the salesperson won't expose this knowledge to you if they think they can get away with not reporting it.

SPRAY-ON CYLINDER LINERS

From POPULAR MECHANICS magazine, Oct. 1998: [quoting]

The assembly line carrying V8 aluminum engine blocks comes to a stop. The engines need cylinder liners. But they don't receive standard press-in liners. Instead, a robotic "fist" lowers a gun. It fires 10,000F nitrogen and a mixture of stainless steel and microscopic nickel "capsules" filled with a solid lubricant. Working in pairs, the robots "spray-paint" the bores with a .006-in. cylinder liner. In 2 minutes the V8 has sprayed-on cylinders.

Tests performed by Ford on its 4.6-liter V8 suggest this "Plasmaspray" technique can cut cylinder bore wear in half and reduce wear on normally vulnerable top piston rings by as much as two-thirds. The potential: mass-production engines that perform like new after a quarter-million miles.

Ford is running field tests in limousines in Chicago, taxis in Las Vegas and police cars in Florida and North Dakota. [End quoting]

Sounds like this product is so good they might hold it back from general use. The auto makers like their products to wear out before this length of time.

FAMOUS QUOTES OF KNOW-IT-ALL, SHORT-SIGHTED PEOPLE

From the INTERNET, <para-discuss@tje.net>, 9/26/98: [quoting]

Hi Everyone,

I hope you enjoy the following quotes, and in light of them, makes you wonder what the future still holds for us. As I believe, anything is possible, it's just finding the way there that can be difficult. As long as we dare to dream and believe in ourselves, and instead of saying impossible, maybe it is possible; not always plausible, but possible. Take care, Yvonne.

TOLERANCE

From THE SPOTLIGHT, 9/14/98: [quoting]

America, it is said, is suffering from intolerance. It is not. America is suffering from tolerance—tolerance of right and wrong, truth and error, virtue and evil. Our country is not nearly so over run with the bigoted, as it is with the broad-minded. —Ralph A. Packard, Jr., St. Petersburg, Florida—[End quoting]

At age 4,
Zachary Alessandro knows he wants to help children in need.

From THE DAILY NEWS, Los Angeles, 9/15/98: [quoting]

STUDIO CITY—It was the lead story on local television stations that evening. Parents leave children alone for days. Details at 11.

Zachary Alessandro of Studio City was all of 2 years old. But he was old enough to comprehend the distraught faces that flashed back at him from the tube. Sadness, he concluded.

He walked into his bedroom, peeled a pillowcase off a pillow and began filling the bag with his toys.

His parents smiled. How cute, they thought. They let the situation pass. Zachary would forget about the troubled children, they thought. He was, after all, only 2.

But Zachary didn't forget. He wanted to give small sacks filled with goodies to children like those on television. "When are we going to make the sacks?" he asked occasionally.

Zachary's parents, who donate to various charities, are compassionate. But they hesitated about pursuing their son's idea. They worried his good deed might expose him at too early an age to such real-world issues as delinquent parents.

But Zachary kept pushing. And his parents finally relented.

The idea for "Zax Sax" was born.

A year after that fateful television news program, Zachary opened a lemonade stand strategically located near neighborhood garage sales to raise money to stock his Zax Sax.

A relative pitched in $50, and soon he had raised about $120 to buy fabric that his mom sewed into small bags, complete with drawstrings and stuffing on one side of each bag for a makeshift pillow. "So they can take a nap," Zachary explained.

Now, two years since he learned about the less-fortunate fates of other children, he occasionally fills the homemade sacks himself with toys Mom orders in bulk from catalogs. At the family's kitchen table, he walks down his assembly line of crayons, trolls, rubber snakes and sunglasses, dutifully depositing one of each in his bags.

"Then you stuff it up," he said, pulling the drawstring and closing the bag. "And put it in the box. Yeah."

During the past month, Zachary and his mom have delivered some 60 bags to the North Hollywood and Van Nuys divisions of the Los Angeles Police Department.

"This is the first time I have ever

Zachary's bags of goodies are meant for frightened children who pass through police stations.

for a child: Just saw Dad beat Mom. Police came and handcuffed Dad. Now sitting in police station amid strange adults who are busy processing paperwork. Tired. Scared. Nothing to do.

That's why Zax Sax are a welcome relief for officers and the children who receive them.

"They don't get gifts quite often, and to be handed something, especially when they're nervous and fearful, it breaks down many barriers," said Detective Thomas Culotta of the North Hollywood division.

Zachary originally wanted to meet and hand his sacks in person to children at police stations. But detectives said laws require them to keep children's identities private.

It still didn't dissuade Zachary from wanting to reach out and help.

His parents don't regret giving in to their young philanthropist's wishes. The project has helped Zachary appreciate how lucky he is compared to some other children, they said.

"He knows there are bad mommies and daddies that get arrested," said Lorraine Alessandro, Zachary's mother.

Besides, who could say no to a child with such good intentions?

"I took out my toys, and I wanted to give them away, so we came up with the idea," Zachary explained. The reason was simple: "Because I've got a lot of toys." [End quoting]

Does this make our excuses for not helping others look puny?? One wonders how many other "old souls" are now returning, like Zach, to help us awaken to what's really important in life. ☺ such as through the airport at Mena, Arkansas. This was done with the aid and connivance of CIA-darling Bill Clinton. Hyde arranged for the laundering of hundreds of millions of dollars of dope proceeds through the reportedly tiny First National Bank of Mena, owned by Clinton's handlers the Riadys, ethnic Chinese. The disguised loot helped Clinton's two campaigns for President.

The "Perfect" Judge To Investigate Bill Clinton?!

With the reported assistance of super-espionage operative, Rahm Emanuel, who later became Clinton White House Senior Advisor, these funds were laundered through the Little Rock "bond daddies", and then up to reportedly Chicago's Garfield Ridge Trust & Savings Bank, owned by one of Hillary Clinton's brothers with Congressman Dan Rostenkowski, now a defrocked lawmaker and ex-convict. From there, with Rahm Emanuel's help and supervision of Henry Hyde, the dope funds were disguised as soybean and currency trading on the Chicago Board of Trade, the Chicago Mercantile Exchange, and the Chicago Board Options Exchange. Reportedly participating in this has been soybean tycoon Richard Dennis, who trades for hotshots in the movie industry as well as sports super-stars like Michael Jordan. Dennis interfaces in finance with former movie star and now supposed campaign fund reformer, Sen. Fred Thompson (R., Tenn.).

Henry Hyde has been linked to a reputed weapon silencer nationwide operation, centered in the Chicago area. Such item are unlawful under federal regulations, particularly those of the U.S. Treasury's Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco & Firearms.

Law enforcement and other sources contend Hyde has been linked in such business with Jerome Soskin who owned a gun business in the Chicago suburb of Bensenville called Article Two Gunshop, Inc., in or near Hyde's Congressional District. The business, sources contend, had a major sideline of reportedly supplying forbidden weapons silencers to foreign intelligence operatives in the Chicago area and nationwide, for purposes of political assassinations on U.S.

soil. Those supplied include French CIA, British MI-6, Israel's Mossad, Italy's infamous P-2, members of the Soviet KGB operating as the Russian mafiya [sic] in the U.S.

To further disguise the ownership, or to eliminate the role of his reputed partner Jerome Soskin, Henry Hyde reportedly prevailed upon BATF agents to frame up Soskin on a very minor gun-selling charge. In one of the strangest cases of its kind, Soskin was sent away to federal prison. Those knowledgeable about the illegal gun silencer trade find it interesting that Soskin's business somehow went into bankruptcy in Chicago's highly corrupt U.S. Bankruptcy Court starting in 1985. (There is strong reason to believe that a handful of corrupt Chicago lawyers who monopolize the Bankruptcy Court there, skim off huge funds from fake bankruptcy cases, and are supposed to keep 20% of the loot for themselves and 80% as a supposed "donation" to Israel. Some Bankruptcy Court personnel, however, have been murdered because they turned the corrupt formula upside down, keeping 80% for themselves and only 20% for Israel. Among those murdered, Chicago Bankruptcy Court auctioneer Wallace Lieberman, December

In a long ride for a Chapter 11 proceedings, Soskin's corporate bankruptcy was coming to an end in 1992. Soskin's attorney for his corporate bankruptcy—mostly a one-man corporation with Henry Hyde's role concealed—was John E. Gierum, of the suburb of Park Ridge, same place Hillary Rodham Clinton is from. Gierum is a close crony of Hillary's family having grown up with them and having gone to law school with one of Hillary's brothers.

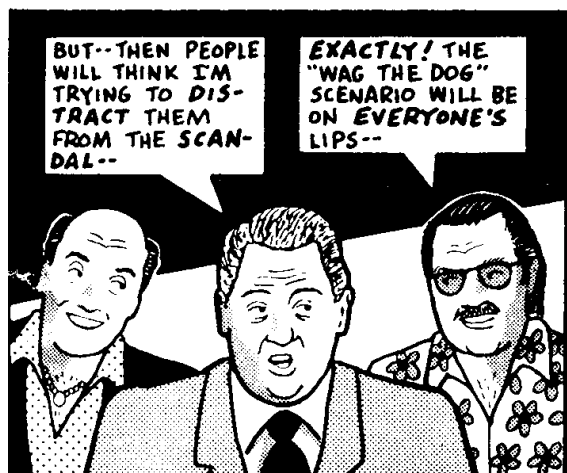

As was later shown in undisputed federal court records in 1996, in a case against Gierum and the First Lady, Gierum confessed to this writer in January 1994, that the Clintons are trying to frame up Gierum for the mysterious disappearance of 50 million dollars of 58.4 million dollars of federal funds parked with Household Bank and Household International. The funds had been parked to make good the long-pending claim of a caulking contractor, Joseph Andreuccetti, of the Chicago area, that certain banks and savings & loans swindled him of a sum close up to the amount so parked. Hyde has a large financial stake in Household and supervised the secret transfer of the 50 million dollars to Little Rock, to attempt to cover up an embezzlement of 47 million dollars from Madison Guaranty Savings & Loan, for which Bill and Hillary Clinton are subject to being sent to federal prison.

Major Clinton campaign fund-raiser and money-laundry crook, Rahm Emanuel, who later became Clinton White House Senior Advisor, latched on to the 3-million-dollar difference in the clandestine transfer to jump-start Clinton's presidential campaign in November 1991.

Attorney Gierum had a corrupt apparent conflict of interest. Among Soskin's creditors was the Small Business Administration seeking payment from Soskin of over two-hundred-thousand dollars. As having been senior litigation attorney for the S.B.A. and also attorney for Soskin's and Hyde's corporate alter ego, Gierum arranged to settle Soskin's debt to the S.B.A. for a pittance, a mere two thousand dollars.

The Chicago Bankruptcy Judge in the case [No. 85 B 17456], Judge Robert E. Ginsberg [office #(312) 435-5530] is no stranger himself to dirty espionage matters. Before getting on the Chicago bench, Ginsberg was chief consultant to William Casey who became Director of Central Intelligence in the Reagan Administration. Casey was an espionage expert going back to World War 2 and CIA's predecessor OSS. Casey conveniently died at the height of the Iran-Contra scandal in which he was to be a key witness. Spy shop Judge Ginsberg was part of the cover up in the Soskin-Hyde spy case.

Soskin and Hyde's gun business had as a bookkeeper, apparently knowledgeable about the clandestine operation, a very short little woman [about 4 foot 10 inches or so] reportedly using the name Cherie Snodgrass. According to published accounts, Cherie Snodgrass was Henry Hyde's extra-marital mistress. About 1996, Soskin's bookkeeper was engaged to marry Jerome Soskin.

The Chicago Tribune in their gossip column, 9/18/98, Section 1, page 2, said:

"The San Antonio Express-News caught up with the woman involved in the extramarital affair more than 30 years ago with U.S. Rep. Henry Hyde. Cherie Soskin, formerly Cherie Snodgrass, said, at the time of the affair, she had started divorce proceedings and 'was no longer living with my husband....' " (Emphasis added.)

Cherie Snodgrass "eventually" moved into her own apartment and one day her husband, Fred, found Hyde there. "I yelled to Cherie, 'Get him out of the house so I can talk to you.' So I'm waiting outside, sitting in my car, and here comes Henry Hyde. I didn't confront him; I didn't say anything. I got no guts." Salon [magazine] quoted Fred Snodgrass as saying. Chicago Sun-Times, 9/17/98, page 2 (Emphases added.)

Did Fred Snodgrass chicken out because he knew how powerful Henry Hyde has been in the espionage business in with the criminal element?

Starting in the 1960s and continuing thereafter, Henry Hyde and his reputed partner Jerome Soskin had a large financial stake in a north suburban gunshop which secretly supplied millions of dollars of weapons used by the Arabs against Israel in the 1967 "Six-Days War" as well as subsequent conflicts.

Because of Hyde's spy agency links, Hyde and his reputed partner Soskin, and their north suburban partners in the gun-running business to the Arabs, escaped federal prosecution.

Hyde's crony, Rahm Emanuel, who works both sides in the Israel-Arab conflicts as well as both sides in the Clinton White House scandals, is returning to his home-base of Chicago to continue his dirty work. With dual citizenship, U.S. and Israel, Rahm Emanuel is reportedly going to continue his money laundry operations through his and Hyde's cronies on the commodity and currency markets in Chicago. Rahm's new "cover" title? Investment banker.

Like Henry Hyde, Rahm Emanuel is no stranger to political assassinations. Rahm's father reportedly was part of an assassination team that murdered United Nations Peace Advisor Count Bernadotte during the Palestine Partition controversy in 1948.

Rahm Emanuel, with the aid of Henry Hyde, spy super-chief, reportedly arranged many of the strange deaths in the Clinton scandals. Clinton campaign security chief, murdered, gangster-style, in 1993, a month after the death of Clinton White House Deputy Counsel Vincent W. Foster, Jr. (Foster's death, some contend, was murder not suicide.) White House intern Mary Cairtin Mahoney, an eyewitness to treasonous deals between Clinton and Wang Jun, the head of the Red Chinese Secret Police, wherein Clinton gave Wang Jun U.S. industrial, financial, and military secrets. Independent Counsel Kenneth W. Starr is silent. Why? Because Wang Jun is Starr's private law client. Ms. Mahoney was murdered in July 1997, in a Starbucks coffee shop in the District of Columbia, in an intelligence agency "hit". National Reconnaissance Office, the super-secret agency, satellite imagery head

Daniel Potter, murdered in March 1998. Potter had video pictures showing Foster's body brought from near the White House in a two-car caravan to Fort Marcy Park and dumped there across the road from the Saudi Ambassador's mansion. Also, Potter had video showing two air-burst missiles from a foreign submarine shot down TWA Flight 800.

Who in the alleged "government" has the guts to finger Henry Hyde, spy boss, and his murder machine? Who will dare prosecute Hyde and send him to prison?

Those who know a lot about all this say Hyde and Clinton should share the same jail cell, with Rahm Emanuel in the next cell.

BILL CLINTON AND HENRY HYDE HAVE JOINT INTERESTS

Chicago-area Congressman Henry Hyde heads up the House Judiciary Committee inquiring into whether there are grounds to impeach Bill Clinton. Who is going to investigate, however, the overlapping interests of Clinton AND HYDE?

The Congressman has for years escaped scrutiny himself. In 1969, while he was a State Legislator, he corrupted other state and federal officials to instrumentally protect a gangster-owned gambling casino on Paradise Island in the Bahamas. The toll bridge linking the place with Nassau was owned by then-President Richard M. Nixon, now by Nixon's Estate.

Hyde found it simple to have the Nixon Justice Department and Tricky Dick's domination of the IRS, to take no action on massive tax evasion. The island facility was part of an operation shuttling illicit funds from criminal enterprises in Chicago to offshore blind addresses.

Like Nixon, Hyde has been part of Naval Intelligence assigned to the Central Intelligence Agency, Hyde having the retired rank of Commander. Then just leaving office as Vice President, Nixon played a supervisory role in the CIA's aborted invasion of Cuba at the Bay of Pigs, in 1961.

Hyde became part of the spy agency's worldwide covert funding and political assassination apparatus, masquerading as the Nugan Hand Bank. The General Counsel of the bank was the former Director of Central Intelligence, William Colby. [Colby disappeared, apparently murdered, just as related details were expected to be revealed.]

Upon the collapse of Nugan Hand Bank in 1980 and the supposed destruction of their records, their worldwide espionage and dirty tricks funding—disguised as banking, in Australia, Hong Kong, the Philippines, the Persian Gulf, London, and California—was taken over by their successor, Household International and Household Bank, in previous years supposedly only a gangster loan-shark operation [HFC, Household Finance Corp.,] now headquartered in a Chicago suburb near a convenient suburban airport [identified on my TV Show as a dope movement center].

Colby remained as the reputed, not official, general counsel of Household while Henry Hyde has a large financial stake in Household. The public is falsely led to believe, by Household's advertising propaganda, that Household is merely a loan-sharking, credit-card handling, mortgage servicing facility worldwide.

Upon the collapse of the Chicago suburban American Heritage Savings & Loan Association, the Federal Home Loan Bank, acting as midwife, arranged its takeover by Household. The cover-up included sending some of American Heritage's officials to federal prison to shut them up. Keeping the criminal matter from getting into Henry Hyde's complicity in the affair was Assistant Federal Prosecutor Susan Bogart, now part of a special Chicago team on Hyde's Clinton impeachment inquiry.

After being accused in a published decision by the Federal Appeals court in Chicago of jury-tampering, which favored some of the S&L defendants in the criminal case, Susan Bogart left federal employment.

To arrange the takeover of the S&L, the Home Loan Bank parked 58.4 million dollars with Household to make good the pending claims of Chicago-area caulking contractor, Joseph Andreuccetti, who contends the S&L helped swindle him of sum close to that amount.

In 1988, 50 million dollars of those parked funds were secretly transferred from Household to Little Rock, Arkansas, in an attempt to cover up the embezzlement there of 47 million from Madison Guaranty Savings & Loan, for which Bill and Hillary Clinton are subject to being prosecuted and sent to federal prison. [The 3-million-dollar difference was used by Rahm Emanuel to start Clinton's first campaign for President.

When a senior investigator of the S&L bail-out agency, Resolution Trust Corporation, Jon Parnell Walker, discovered the details, he demanded a full inquiry by his federal agency. His insistence was cut short when he was mysteriously thrown to his death from a building in Arlington, Virginia.

The secret transfer of the 50 million dollars was arranged by Hyde with the aid of John E. Gierum, a lawyer in the same suburb of Chicago, Park Ridge, that Hillary Rodham Clinton's family is from. A close crony of the Rodhams, Gierum grow up with that family and went to law school with one of Hillary's brothers. In January, 1994, Gierum confessed to this writer, in the presence of Joseph Andreuccetti who was once Gierum's law client, that the Clinton White House is attempting to send Gierum to prison on a frame-up, as if Gierum was the only one involved in the transfer of the secretive 50 million dollars. Later, when confronted in court by us with his confession, Gierum did not dispute the same. [U.S. District Court, Chicago, No. 96 c 4373, Skolnick and Andreuccetti vs. Hillary Rodham Clinton, etc., and John E. Gierum, et al. Chicago U.S. District judge George M. Marovich put the case out of court claiming he could not hear it because it had too many details. More about him later.]

A simple explanation of why Hyde arranged the 50-million-dollar transfer is that Hyde is protecting two CIA operatives with the agency since an early age, each with a separate agenda, Bill and Hillary Clinton. Also, in violation of the U.S. Constitution's mandate of separation of powers, Hyde is not only a Congressman but is head of the CIA's "black budget" with more actual authority than the Director of Central Intelligence. Hyde sits in the Legislative and Executive branches of the U.S. Government at the same time.

When Andreuccetti became aware that the federal funds parked with Household to make good his long-pending claims was secretly transferred to help the Clintons, Andreuccetti filed an IRS Form 211, Application for Reward, for turning in the Clintons for massive tax evasion. In a letter from an IRS official to Andreuccetti, acknowledging his request for reward as to the Clintons and the 50 million dollars, the IRS makes the ridiculous statement that the amount of his claim is too small to warrant a reward to Andreuccetti from the IRS.

Thereafter, as a reprisal against a whistleblower, the Clinton-dominated IRS instigated a criminal prosecution against Joseph Andreuccetti and his wife Naomi, an attempt to jail them, as part of a frame-up involving a questioned two-thousand-dollar withholding tax problem, supposed to have been taken care of by a U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee [crony of the Clintons] in the couple's pending Bankruptcy Court case.

With the aid and connivance of the Clinton White House and a politicized IRS, Henry Hyde has been reportedly allowed to escape prosecution for huge evasion involved in a Chicago suburban strip joint owned by Hyde. Displaying foreign naked women ostensibly brought into the U.S. in violation of Immigration and Naturalization Service provisions, Hyde's reputed enterprise is a center for prostitution and dope trafficking receiving immunity from federal authorities.

[As known to grumbling local drug enforcement agents, Hyde's daughter is herself a dope trafficker corruptly granted immunity from prosecution.]

In an attempt to use him in a shake-down effort against Hyde, an independent-minded TV Show producer was offered what was supposed to be a video showing someone, apparently exactly like Henry Hyde, sexually molesting 11-year-old girls. The TV producer rejected the attempt.

As head of the House Judiciary Committee with power to launch impeachment of Federal judges, Hyde was able to strong-arm and corruptly influence Chicago U.S. District Judge George M. Marovich to resolve a U.S. government agency 17-million-dollar damage suit against Hyde without Hyde being required to pay a single dime. Hyde was sued as a director of the now defunct Clyde Savings & Loan, once in a Chicago suburb.

Among the charges against Hyde, that he caused millions of dollars of federally-insured funds of the S&L to be sent to Arkansas where they apparently disappeared. Because Clyde Savings was one of four S&Ls in the Chicago area part of a CIA covert funds operation, a CIA attorney was brought into the case and most of the file was kept secret, impounded for reasons of "national security".

Hyde was apparently able to uncover the same documents as retrieved by this writer. The documents show Judge George M. Marovich as the owner of a shopping center a few feet away from where Clyde Savings was located. Other investigations show the shopping center in a location for massive illicit funds laundered through various enterprises there. That all this is done with the corrupt connivance of top officials of the state revenue and the Internal Revenue Service [an unpublicized issue currently in Court].

Henry Hyde, having blackmailed Judge Marovich, was able to brag to the Chicago Tribune that he is not going to pay a single dime in the case against him. (RTC vs. Franze, etc., and Henry Hyde et al., No. 93 C 2477, in U.S. District Court in Chicago.)

Henry Hyde is also reportedly implicated in a million-dollar embezzlement scandal in which Hyde and Bill Clinton have jointly been part of the cover up. Located just west of Chicago is Du Page County, known as a Republican stronghold. According to matters in court in Wheaton, Illinois, the Du Page County Bar Association, over a period of years, had one million dollars or more misappropriated or embezzled. With the corrupt connivance of both Henry Hyde and Bill Clinton, an IRS audit, together with a state revenue department audit of the same, was stopped and hushed up. [in Wheaton, case numbers 98 CF 828, 98 CF 829, 97 CM 4797, 97 CM 4798.]

Benefitting from this embezzlement, according to court records in Wheaton, have been judges elected or appointed in the Du Page Courthouse and in surrounding counties, all GOP strongholds. The judges, their election campaign staffs, their election campaign print, radio, and TV advertising budgets, have all benefitted from the siphoned-off funds directly or through entities set up in attempts to disguise the embezzlement.

Other Du Page County officials have also reported benefitted including Aldo Botti, once Chairman of the Board of Commissioners of Du Page County. With a heavy espionage agency background, Botti and his cohorts, once from Brooklyn, New York, reportedly are part of the Gambino crime family. Some commentators point out that the crime syndicate, once headquartered on the West Side of Chicago, have moved their activities to Oak Brook in Du Page County. I feel it is no coincidence that a major owner of the Oak Brook Shopping Mall has been Frank Sinatra (and now his Estate). Sinatra's rise to fame was in great part due to his underworld connections.

A master tape of one of my Cable TV shows, "Corruption: Chicago to the White House", has been seized by local officials under the domination of Henry Hyde and Bill Clinton. The tape was forced to be turned over to the judges, among those benefitting from the funds embezzled as mentioned, who so far refuse to return it. The tape relates to matters in this story.

Knowledgeable sources continue to aver that Bill and Hillary Clinton are actually closet Republicans long pretending to be Democrats.

Henry Hyde has also been able to blackmail Judge Marovich in a series of cases actually involving dope funds from Arkansas, hundreds of millions of dollars of the same, disguised as soybean trading on the Chicago Board of Trade. A director of the Board of Trade confessed to us that they had to pay bribes totalling 62 million dollars to a group of 5 federal judges in Chicago including the selfsame Judge Marovich who has been the owner of a suburban bank tied to the Chicago markets and their speculations. The dope funds, disguised as both soybean deals and currency trading on the Chicago Mercantile Exchange, also were a clandestine operation to help fund Clinton's campaigns for President.

In other stories we have pointed out that there are joint interests as to the Red Chinese secret police between Bill Clinton and Independent Counsel Kenneth W. Starr. And, as we see, there are joint interests between impeachment inquiry Chief Henry Hyde and his supposed target Bill Clinton.

Ticking Clocks And Likely Time Bombs

TICKING CLOCKS AND TIME BOMBS

Physical living is simply a schoolroom, and handling of circumstances and making choices are the testings for graduation, or hold-back. Therefore, until you can reach out and beyond that which SEEMS to be reality and into the REALITY of WHAT IS, you are only playing hop-scotch with your fantasies. A prayer in order to simply chant and mumble words is nothing, dear friends, for there is not intent or sincerity of the LIVING SOUL, but rather the rantings of lips and a mouth—usually in misunderstood languages.

But if soul is all that is actually imperative to have attuned to God, then why all the fuss with money, business, relationships and the status of the world in general? Because you are manifest in a physical experience where screenplays are written for your survival or demise—a created illusion in which you must participate or change dimensional status. I do not argue “religions” because there is nothing over which to argue—spirituality is of God; religions are established by Man. If you cannot get along with a single Spiritual connection to God Creator, then you cannot hope to have any respect or reverence for a bunch of religious doctrines and rituals. There IS nothing over which to argue—you are either with God or you are not. The choice is yours.

But what of the world and the change of the millennium? What of it? The world adjusts and moves on as any living “thing” or being, dealing with whatever is foisted off onto her, be it balanced and harmonious or destructive in all ways. You don’t need any more prophets or soothsayers—the truth has been sent many times through many messengers and it remains the same then, now, and for always. IT’S UP TO YOU.

You can find yourself participating in a destructive game of “getcha” and “destroy” or you can create the way to evolve and revolve into a worthy, balanced, society of brotherhood. You certainly do not need to speak the same lip-language to speak the same soul language. God will provide that for which you ask and that which allows abundance greater in all cases than are the adversary’s tools—if your intent is toward balance, harmony, goodness, love, faith and hope. Selfish greed will no longer merit Man anything except his own destruction.

The upcoming Plan 2000 “grab the world” game is in the final attempt to pull down and capture the world through monetary controls, theft and a grab for power. This is not acceptable to God and must not be acceptable to you—but for the right reasons, brothers.

I, myself, have given pictures of how it will be. You KNOW how it will be IF YOU CHANGE THE PATH, and IF YOU DO NOT. THIS DOES NOT HAVE TO BE REPEATED AND REPEATED UNTIL YOU INSURE THAT YOU ALL FALL DOWN. GET UP, GET WITH IT, AND CREATE A BETTER WAY. You remind me of the hungry man who stands before the food-bar and there are many things there he doesn’t like, but eats them anyway, just because they are there and someone suggests he must eat them. Why not pick something from the table that allows satisfaction, preference of flavors, and creates fullness instead of gnawing hunger unsatisfied?

NEW AGE?

Don’t err in misunderstanding “The New Age” and “The New Age Movement”. The “New Age Movement” is simply another type of religion put forth by mankind here and there to suit some fantasy for the malcontents and misfits. The NEW AGE is coming whether mankind likes it or does not. It is already upon you and much will be understood more clearly as you move into that which you perceive as the new millennium. But, you missed the actual date of the onset of the millennium change and what did you experience? Nothing different, I would suggest. IT IS A TIME FOR MOVING OUT FROM UNDER THE OPPRESSION OF GOD’S ADVERSARY—LET’S CALL HIM SATAN FOR LACK OF BETTER DEFINITION. THE ONLY PLACE, PEOPLE, THAT YOU CAN GO FURTHER FROM GOD CREATOR IS DOWN INTO THE PITS OF TOTAL DESTRUCTION THROUGH THE VERY THINGS WHICH COULD GIVE YOU LIFE IN ABUNDANCE AND EXPERIENCE IN GLORIOUS CIRCUMSTANCES. If you want cataclysms and destruction, loss and upheaval—you will get it for you will create that very thing for self. When enough of you DO NOT WANT THIS TRAGEDY, YOU WILL STOP THE

IDIOCY.

The Earth will change as it has always changed, and as you destroy more and more in unbalanced genocide to everything you touch—it will be ever more and more eventful, but it DOES NOT HAVE TO BE SO.

Do you actually think that suddenly out of the depths of somewhere or other came El Nino and La Nina? Of course not—you have always had periods of drought and rain but it comes in cycles more intense now that you have brought imbalance to your own nests and built cities where once only earthquake faults were left to shift and change without note. The whole scenario is to build within the individual—terror, hopelessness and slavery. Island chains were grown from volcanic activity. Mountain ranges were formed by crustal upheavals. So stop the nonsense. Man causes his own demise and through his own actions, or lack thereof, flourishes or falls. You cannot blame God in punishment of selves, OR ANYONE FOR THAT WHICH IS A NORMAL CHANGE OF NATURE’S OWN LIFE-FORM.

Mankind has, however, as in Atlantis, Pan, and Mu before you, become so entranced with your own importance that you build that which you cannot manage and ultimately, left uncontrolled within the goodness of man’s capability for better use, you will again blow away your “recognized” world, cause major land-shifts and quite unnecessary changes. But don’t blame God for YOUR IDIOCY and stupidity. GOD GAVE YOU REASON, BALANCE AND HARMONY AS THE VERY GIFTS WHICH SET YOU ASIDE FROM ALL OTHERS OF HIS CREATIONS—AND YOU HAVE BECOME DEAD—THE BREATHING DEAD.

You have been warned time and again to prepare for whatever comes, for you can watch and know what the restrictions will be. Food will be tampered with, money will be controlled, regulations and laws will be restrictive and finally, if you allow it, you will be consumed by the confusion and massive happenings. Famine, for instance, is due upon the Asians by FALL. So, what makes the rest of you, especially the most enslaved people of ALL, the U.S. citizens—think you are somehow different? The Federal Reserve System is the most constrictive and destructive system devised by the Elite for control of the species. Then, as things become worse and worse in the world arena by mismanagement, etc., the powers that be will hide further their theft of resources and again confiscate the only value you had remaining—precious metals. Even as “collateral” the major players will have it all. You will form a global alliance with enough backup and backbone to protect assets, base value on hard substance, and become an active brotherhood—or the beast will eat you alive after he sucks the blood from your very beings.

Why do I have my people in Malaysia? Because there is a team of God’s capable players here who CAN MAKE A TRULY NEW WORLD ORDER AND ALLIANCE—IN BROTHERHOOD—WORK.

This has been an exhausting and debilitating time for my U.S. team. It is a time of meeting every barrier possible thrown against them, from outright illness to political walls. To not finish in success of intent is not acceptable for they find that all the necessary components are located right here, including some off-shore institutions which can house rewards in security. If our own example cannot be correctly set forth—there is no hope that others can succeed, for the gift is given into the hands of THESE, MY SERVANTS.

It is time for man to stand forth and be counted on the side of creativity or destruction. The average person does not realize that choices, made daily, are part of this responsibility to choose this day whom you will serve. And readers, if a thing is WRONG, all the voting it “in” will not make it even remotely “ok”. It is not alright to break the laws of God as to moral structure lest you grow a society of evil thistles which will take your lands, your garden, and then your very soul.

I suggest you pay attention because the likelihood of the mountain falling on you to get you out of misery—is not great, even in earthquake-land. The Evil pathway brings man to a slow and most painful demise of the physical entity and, yet, that which destroys the most painfully is the dying of the soul within thine being.

You can take the hand of God in opportunity which knocks upon your door or you can deny the call. Those choices remain within self—but you will pay the consequences, good or bad, of your choices. Blame upon “another” is no longer even a feasible time-filler. You will take control of your lives, your governments, your nations, and turn into the pathway of balance and reason within Creator—or you will topple your little empires as you suck unto selves the very things for which you fear.

Risk? There is no risk with GOD. Risk is that which binds through the movement within the sorry groups of God’s adversaries who place usury of all kinds upon the heads and property of all who pass this way. The risk you take with the bunch from Shatanville is like gambling in the rich-man’s casino—he is going to get your money one day and you KNOW IT.

I am always amused by all of you in your searching for confirmation—or a somehow “bigger truth”, or even a “different” truth. You will go search for wisdom and truth, say, from Standing Bear of the Wolf-Wolf tribe, or Big Bird of the Who-Who tribe—or even from the local “out on a limb” secret guru group. You either find truth or you don’t and you will find, my dears, that I BRING YOU TRUTH—EVEN IF YOU FIND A THOUSAND POINTS OF CANDLE-FLICKERS OUT THERE. WHAT HAS THIS TO DO WITH MY SPEAKER/RECEIVER? NOTHING IN THE TRUTH—ONLY IN WHETHER OR NOT IT IS TAMPERED. BE CAREFUL IN YOUR SEARCHING—CHECK OUT WHAT IS IN THE MESSAGE GIVEN—FOR THE GIVER! THERE HAS BEEN NOTHING HERE BUT HARD WORK, LONG HOURS, NO RESOURCES, LEGAL BATTLES AND NOW, FACE THE NATIONS! GOD IS SIMPLE IN HIS PRESENTATIONS—NOT EASY. AND IF THE “TRUTH” OF ONE DIFFERS FROM MINE—YOU HAD BETTER CHECK ON YOUR NEW CONTACT, BECAUSE I WILL PROMISE YOU—AGAIN—I AM TRUTH IN BEING. DO YOUR HOMEWORK. SALU.

Mitar Tarabich—Serbian Prophet: An Update

9/29/98 NORA BOYLES

Many months ago Hatonn suggested that I obtain information on the Prophetic Visions Of Mitar Tarabich. He gave the name of Swami Veeten as a library reference and said Mr. Tarabich’s prophecies were more accurate even than Nostradamus.

It has been a long search, but thanks to the help of many, and especially Gail Irwin, some information about Mr. Tarabich and his prophecies has been gathered. At this point we seem to have exhausted the possibility of finding anything on Swami Veeten. If one of you readers has access to, or happens to come across his work, I will be most interested in hearing from you.

Unexpectedly, a relative of mine was able to obtain a copy of Mr. Tarabich’s prophecies from a bookstore in Germany. It was copied from notes made by the Serbian Orthodox priest to whom Mitar confided his prophecies by the priest’s great-grandson, Dejan Molenkovic, with the help of Dragoljub Golubovich. The name of their book is Kremansko Prorocanstvo (The Prophecy From Kremna). It is written in the Serbian/Croatian language using the Roman letters and was printed in 1982. It is perhaps the most complete information available at this point. However, I do not understand the language. This book is over 200 pages long and contains numerous photos of the priest and his relatives as well as relatives of Tarabich. Due to the language difficulty I could not identify a photo of Mitar Tarabich. Hopefully, someone can help us with the language problem.

Gail Irwin’s first find on Mr. Tarabich was by surfing the Internet. The Internet lists of libraries, bookstores and their catalogs were unfruitful. A Tim Hobbs, website author, provided a short summary of work in progress by Jura Sever, editor of an upcoming book on the prophet’s life and prophecies. Mr. Hobb’s website is (or was) <http://www.wildmantim.com/cc/mitar.html>. I understand from Gail that the information on Tarabich was not available at this website upon a second attempt to locate it. Fortunately a printout of the material had been obtained the first trip to the site.

It was from Tim Hobbs that Gail Irwin obtained Jura Sever’s name and website: Sever Jura <3js49@qlink.queensu.ca> and eventually learned of the availability of the book she and Zoran Vanjaka were writing on Mr. Tarabich. It is available from Vantage Press, 516 West 34th St., NY, NY 10001, and is titled The Balkan Prophecy (price $9.95 + S&H). It is a small paperback book with 89 pages. From the bibliography I see that they made use of the priest's great-grandson, Dejan Malenkovic's work, Kremansko Prorocanstvo, as well as several other reference works to provide the basis and historical support for the accuracy of Mr. Tarabich's prophecies.

Mr. Tarabich (1829-1899) was an illiterate peasant and therefore did not write down his prophecies but told them to his godfather and priest, Zaharije Zaharich (1836-1918). The priest wrote down the visions and prophecies. Unfortunately some of them were lost due to a fire. It is possible that the Serbian government has a secret file on the prophecies, which they kept from the public. Mr. Tarabich's prophecies were so accurate the government didn't want the people to know about them. They interviewed Mr. Tarabich at length and kept a record of the interview. Therefore it is possible that additional information could come forth at a future date. The reason the government was so concerned is that Tarabich's visions were primarily about the future of Yugoslavia from before the time of World War I, the rise and fall of ruling dynasties and how some were murdered or fled, the various wars among the people and the changes in relationships with Turkey or the Ottoman Empire, the Austrian-Hungarian Empire, the Nazis, and Communism. He predicted the rule of Tito, his death and the government that followed—all accurate except the way Tito died. Tarabich said Tito's death would be caused from a fall from his horse. Sever and Vanjaka state that death was caused by exacerbated diabetes. (One wonders if it could have been a combination of both causes.)

In any event, the extended period covered by Tarabich's prophecies and the astounding way they have proved so accurate for the people of the Balkans make his prophecies for our time of critical interest and concern today.

Tarabich appears to have been a loving, humble man, faithful to his beliefs, his country and family, although he greatly lamented the various wars between his people. He considered himself a Yugoslavian and not a Serbian, although his village of Kremna was in Serbia and he spoke the language. He considered the Croats, Serbians, Slovenians, etc., all brothers. Even the languages are made up of words familiar to them all. Tarabich speaks against the hatred that rises up between them. He prophesied that after World War II there would be a time of apparent peace and abundance, but then that old hatred would rise again (and so it has).

On a world scale Mr. Tarabich predicts World War III, in which every country would be affected except one country as large as Europe which is surrounded by water (Australia?). He predicted some of the modern inventions, and described some of the modern military missiles. He predicted that people would go underground for protection but that millions of people would die. He states that those who are ground soldiers will fare better than those flying the skies. He sees a lot of dead bodies falling from the sky onto a field near his home. He also predicted a world court, which would be disregarded by some big kings and some small kings, and that there would be numerous small wars prior to the larger WWII. In the end Archangel Michael would return (he is considered a guardian angel of the Balkans), and there will be a man with red hair, who will rule the world in peace for a thousand years!

I have made my comments short so that you can read the greater details and more prophecies in The Balkan Prophecy. Always remember that prophecies do not have to happen. Man can change things! ~~✶~~

The Dash

I read of a man who stood to speak at the funeral of his friend. He referred to the dates on her tombstone from the beginning — to the end.

He noted that first came the date of her birth and spoke of the second with tears, but he said that what mattered most of all was the dash between those years.

For the dash represents all the time that she spent alive on Earth, and now only those who loved her knew what that little line is worth.

For it matters not, how much we own—the cars, the house, the cash. What matters is how we live and love, and how we spend our dash. So think about this long and hard: are there things you'd like to change? For you never know how much time is left. (You could be at “dash mid-range”.)

If we could just slow down enough to consider what's real, and always try to understand the way other people feel.

And be less quick to anger, and show appreciation more, and love the people in our lives like we've never loved before.

If we treat each other with respect, and more often wear a smile, remembering that this special dash might only last a little while.

So, when your eulogy is being read with your life's actions to rehash, would you be pleased with the things they have to say about how you spent your dash? ~~✶~~

Soltec: Desire Is What Gets The Creative Juices Flowing!

9/27/98 SOLTEC

Good morning, my friend. It is I, Toniose Soltec, come in the Radiant One Light of Creator Source. Be at peace.

As Geophysical Commander of this Earth Transition mission, I would briefly call to your attention the greatly increased earthquake activity in the region of your South Pacific. For some, this is being regarded as "business as usual". However, along with all of the other clues of heightened planetary anomalies being observed at this time, it will soon become apparent that Mother Earth is efforting without further hesitation along her path toward a rebalanced state. THIS IS HER DESIRE, AND THIS DESIRE IS A POWERFUL CREATIVE TOOL, AS I SHALL EXPLAIN AS WE MOVE ALONG WITH THIS LESSON.

All is unfolding into magnificent perfection. Do not concern yourself with that which others do or think, for that is none of your business. Perfection has many ways of expressing and often will look like failure from an external, physical viewpoint. This is to say that what physical man places value upon is often regarded as trivial from our point of view, in terms of what has true value—soul growth!

The experience of life and living in the third-dimensional environment is perhaps the greatest teacher. In the many attempts to start and focus upon a desire or goal, there is the initiation of the creative flows of the infinite Life-Force Energy. Regardless of the apparent success of any such attempt, there is indeed great value to the ones who set forth into motion these creative forces. The value comes in the form of recognizing the process of creating.

Pre-planning and determined focus on the end result will get you ones very far down the road of manifesting your desires. It is most often that you ones get sidetracked into a direction that looks appealing in the moment, and thus you lose focus, even if just temporarily, of the Larger Picture—soul growth.

This too is fine, for there are no rules which say how or what you must or should focus your Energy upon. Some focus with great intensity, and they are like a laser beam which cuts a straight and narrow path to reaching their goals. Others, the majority, are very undisciplined in their mental focus and tend to drift toward their goals, and are often easily distracted.

Distraction comes in an infinite variety of forms, and though distraction may cause time delays in the manifesting of the end result desired, it also provides you ones with quite objective experiences from which to draw upon.

There is value in all experience and there is truly no activity which is a complete waste of time. Even the most mundane of distractions will lead one to a point of boredom, and out of the perfect state of boredom is born a great desire for change and newness. This desire summons forth change, and the boredom is often replaced with a new challenge.

Allow your inner connection to Creator Source to show you that which will lead you to more productive endeavors. When one truly understands the Power of their being, they will draw into their experience that which will be most satisfying, productive, and valuable.

One need not go anywhere "special" or "sacred" for "miracles of creation" to occur. You each would do well to recognize that ALL are special and sacred, and where you are physically located has nothing to do with your ability to connect to the infinite Life-Force Energy and allow it to flow abundantly through you.

Worry not over those things you have done in the past. There is no wasted time, for the experiences of life are full of ebbs and flows, and the greatest realizations often come after a bout with boredom and mediocrity or other avenues of avoidance of the challenges in front of you.

When ones learn to manifest perfect anger or grief, they also are preparing the way for a "sling shot" effect toward being able to recognize and manifest a greater joy than they have previously known! This is to say that when ones become completely bored with being angry or grief stricken, they will, in that moment of complete overwhelm, "give up" (let go) and there will come a release of the emotional blockage of energy. Then the infinite Life-Force Energy will once again be allowed to flow, and the new and creative ideas will once again come forth.

There is never anything that truly stops this infinite Energy. It is infinitely abundant and without beginning or end. You are given the ability to do with it what you will. If you choose to disallow this Energy to flow and be a natural part of your experience, then that is fine. It is still there, awaiting the time when you once again summon it forth.

This Energy is very NON-judgmental in that, no matter what you have done, it will still be there for you in all of its infinite potential. There are no wrong ways to use this Energy, for even in the event of creating something which hurts another in some way, you are "rewarded" with an experience which will cause you inner turmoil that will eventually help you to grow in understanding.

Again: those things which many of you place great importance upon are often insignificant in terms of the infinite life experience of the soul. Most of you are several trillion years old! How important is that old gold ring you used to wear when you were experiencing in Atlantis? Or, how important is that shuttle craft you used to fly prior to choosing your current experience?

Do you see that many of you place too much significance on having "things" and you view your lives as successful in terms of your material status in life. This too is fine, and we would like for you all to have as much or as little as you like. There is complete abundance in the universe and all can have it all!

The point here is to realize that YOU are creator of YOUR reality. If you feel that you somehow must work hard and hammer away at success, then you will certainly do so if success be your desire.

The point here is to realize that YOU are creator of YOUR reality. If you feel that you somehow must work hard and hammer away at success, then you will certainly do so if success be your desire.

There is, however, an easier way. Simply change the self-imposed limitation that says: "I must work hard for..." to a belief that is not restricting, such as: "All I have to do is focus my thoughts upon what I am wanting, and hold my desire in mind without any resistance, and it will naturally flow into my experience."

Now, this sounds wonderful and many of you will say "Yeah, sure! I've tried this and it doesn't work that way for me!" To you ones I would suggest you be patient and realize that what you have actually done is to put forth many contradicting desires.

For example, your desire for, say, money is often countered with the realization (mental focus upon) NOT having money. Therefore you have both the desire for money and the desire for (mental focus upon) the lack of money. These two wave patterns mostly cancel-out one another in Energy space!

WHEN YOU CAN TRULY FOCUS UPON WHAT YOU ARE WANTING, WITHOUT THE SUBSEQUENT ATTENTION TO THE LACK OF SAME, YOU WILL BEGIN LITERALLY MANIFESTING ALL SORTS OF "MIRACLES"

IN YOUR LIFE, AND THE "COINCIDENCES" WILL BE ASTOUNDING!

Yes, I am aware that this is somewhat of a "Catch 22" situation (a paradox of sorts). The simple facts of the matter are that many of you struggle unnecessarily because you have not yet recognized that YOU create that which YOU focus your attention upon.

When you become content with what you have, you will not likely ever have anything more. Likewise, when you desire change and you go out and look for newness, you are often finding new things to experience and learn, or new people to interact with and thus learn from. Do you not see that newness and learning are what you truly desire—much more than all the physical objects?

Do you think that most go out and buy an airplane prior to ever having flown in one? Not many! Ones typically first go out and fly in one, and then there is born a great desire to become a pilot, and for some a desire to have their own airplane.

Each of these steps build upon the one preceding in a natural, unfolding manner. Moreover, the successful pilots will be the ones who never even entertained the idea that it would be a difficult endeavor to learn to fly; they simply allowed their innate desire to fly to guide them along their new path of learning.

Another way to say this is that you ALL have goals. Always look forward to your goals. Looking back will only serve to create that which you already have. Seek newness with each day and you will find that your life will transform into a much fuller, free-flowing experience.

Pay attention to your intuition! You all have it and you would be wise to pay closer attention to this great gift. If you think you don't have intuition, then it is because you haven't been paying attention to what you are feeling, and most likely you don't pay very close attention to what you are thinking about, either.

When you get angry, do you sit and "stew" in your anger? Why not try "stewing" in your joys? Wallow in your delights! Do you see that it is YOU who decides which way it will be?

Truly understanding (taking to heart) this basic message will give you ones the necessary tool you need and are desiring in order to go forth and live the experiences you are wanting. THERE REALLY IS NOTHING MORE POWERFUL THAN YOUR DESIRES FOCUSED WITH A DELIBERATE, UNWAVERING INTENT! The dark elite work quite deliberately, through all their avenues of mind control, to keep you from realizing this basic, incredible potential.

Ones of you who regularly listen to the Art Bell late-night talk-radio program will be dramatically aware of the lesson we are conveying here. On several occasions, as an experiment, he has asked his large listening audience to mentally focus upon various projects which have ranged from boosting the health of a popular guest who was very ill at that time, to modifying serious weather conditions. The success observed in each of the seven or so experiments attempted has so startled Mr. Bell that he has temporarily suspended further projects while he considers the implications and consequences of such endeavors!

This was simply many minds focused simultaneously upon the same goal (desire). And while Mr. Bell is now a bit apprehensive about "playing" with forces that he does not fully understand, he is basically exercising his God-given right as a co-creator.

Of course personal responsibility is a key result will often be an evolution of thought and a newness as ideas are shared. If you enjoy debating, then you will do so regardless!

IF YOU WANT TO MAXIMIZE YOUR POTENTIAL TO LEARN SOMETHING NEW FROM THE ONE WITH WHOM YOU ARE HAVING THE INTERACTION, YOU WILL STOP AND LISTEN VERY CAREFULLY TO WHAT THEY ARE SAYING AND ALSO CONSIDER VERY CAREFULLY THEIR VIEWPOINT. Chances are they will give you clues and insights into fears or limitations behind their considerations. At this point, an inspired question offered to them will often do more toward advancing the debate along a productive path than will the forceful thrusting forth of YOUR explanation.

A good teacher will ask questions and allow the student to find their own answers. A good student will ask a lot of questions. Do you see that this is, in effect, inspiring ones to summon forth the natural Creative Energies?

Remember: "The call (question) compels the answer." Or stated more directly: the desire summons forth that which will fulfill the desire.

Your desires are what summon forth the means to move mountains, go into space, bring forth a new cake recipe, or create in any way. There is no invention ever built that did not first start with a desire. There is no project undertaken that did not begin with a desire. All actions you take are born from a desire.

WHAT IS IT THAT YOU DESIRE?!

I am Ceres Anthonious "Toniose" Soltec come in response to the desire for knowing and for clarification which many of you are setting forth. As always, I am but a part of the infinite Energy cycle of interchange and growth. I come in the Light of Creator God and my intention is to assist you in maximizing the lasting (soul growth) value of your experience.

Salu!

Your desires are what summon forth the means to move mountains, go into space, bring forth a new cake recipe, or create in any way. There is no invention ever built that did not first start with a desire. There is no project undertaken that did not begin with a desire. All actions you take are born from a desire.

ingredient in the growth of all beings who are expanding in their co-creational abilities. However, it is likewise important to recognize your fears (one of the quickest ways to disconnect self from Source) as they will only serve to distract you from your goals and disconnect you from that most essential Inner Guidance. You each have an Inner Guidance to help you along with each step of your creative unfolding—if you but allow this connection to Infinite Source.

Your teachers come in many forms and are indeed all around you—including Mr. Bell! Recognize that each being has a unique gift to bring and a unique perspective to share. Even if the perception of another is in direct opposition to yours, you will still provide one another with quite a challenging experience as you each tap into the Creative Energy to "prove" your respective points!

The truth of the matter is often that you both are holding onto inaccurate beliefs, and the

TELEPHONE HOTLINE 805-822-0202

As an adjunct to CONTACT, the Telephone Hotline keeps you as informed as possible on current events and other important information that needs to get to our subscribers before our publishing date.

The message machine will answer after 2 rings if there are any new messages for that day, and after 4 rings if not. Thus daily callers can hang up after 2 rings and save toll charges if no new message has been recorded. If the Hotline does not answer your call, then that means there is currently no Hotline message.
