A time to give thanks

11/28/91 #1 HATONN

I, Doris, wish to express my appreciation for and to all of you who are so kind to me. I am especially grateful to those of you who know and work with me for your understanding and support--for I, too, am but a human instrument--as bewildered as the rest of you in this time of chaos. I do not understand my own role in this wondrous experience for I am not psychic--nor can I find my way downtown. I am overwhelmed with the information I receive and I need to share it the same as any who read the reports and messages. Much is kept from my view so that I don't have to "interpret", although from time to time I see and understand more clearly for I do have ear to the "horse's mouth" and I perceive directly the "tone" of presentation which brings word structure to "life" and "intent"--the written word cannot in full reveal the expression of love as it is given forth and I am sorry for that. There is no love on the face of the Earth which can express that energy of love and caring which I am given to witness.

To subscribe to The Phoenix Liberator call America West Publishers 800-729-4131. For subscription rates see the back page of this issue.

I am so well attended that it is NEVER the work of God with my brothers of higher understanding which causes me failure--it is the incredible press of the human experience--but then, so it is with ALL. I have but a job to do for which I was trained and am but grateful to be allowed this experience for I have been allowed to see the other side and know these speakers as you know your parents or children or your next door neighbor. I find no separation in them except for the roles they, like we, play in this game of evolvment. So, is there difference in YOU and me? No, not any other than I have learned to "allow the balance necessary for their contact" for which I take no credit other than one who learns to transmit or receive a transmission via a radio or transcription machine which speaks in "code". I was not, but have become, a very good typist in that I can make errors more quickly than almost anyone I know, and the people who clean up the transcription do the hard work of correcting and I thank them for I am not given "time" to attend it.

I long for a way to share this unimagined connection with all--I have no experience nor have I experienced any "channels" or psychics who claim recognition--I seem to have none of the "symptoms" that I am told of from others. I am but a receiver and my transmitters simply come into total silence and infinite balance and their presence is as the timelessness of infinity for a brief expression of connection--just as if you were tuning in a crystal set and bring the frequency on the radio into perfect reception without the static or shrillness of "other" signals. My head hears those other signals as you can hear the tones as you change a radio dial--but I cannot interpret them. You ones who cannot hear must realize that that which the doctors often treat as "ringing in the ears" is actually frequency "tones" intentionally beamed to your "mind"--it is NOT your EARS. Try being still for a bit and tune in on those tones. It will not be the audible ones which you will HEAR but rather, those of the higher frequency which will become evident to you as you attend God and ask for the hearing. I don't know how I came to KNOW for I was gifted to participate in a reverse manner--from the "other side", so to speak.

I can only say that as I am given information I am not allowed the time to think about it--it is not my "job" to interpret. When I am made privy to the information, I am as bewildered as any as to how to accomplish that which must be done. In that brief time of service, however, it is without thought of negativity regarding the task--I only KNOW that we can do what needs the doing for I am working with ones who KNOW EXACTLY WHAT THEY ARE DOING. "THAT" is my sanity. Friends, we WILL do it--we will do our job and at this point it is giving the WORD to the multitudes and when that is accomplished, the multitude will awaken--and evil shall be put down--whether it be on this planet or elsewhere--AND IT DOES NOT MATTER ONE WHIT--WHICH IT IS.

Thank you for allowing me expression for I am so humbly grateful to be allowed some part in this most precious and wondrous experience of my lifestream. May I further make it known that my job is only "first"--it is no greater! In fact, as I work, I watch E.J. and George and the "miracle workers" who take the messages and transform them into books and papers. I see that energy move out to all of you who participate and press it further and/or question and write and HEAR. Yes, I become distressed and totally awash with depression over the events coming down around as the tidal wave of oppression--but it is as with any one of you--the human weakness in the state of unrecognized power. I KNOW that I alone have the God Power to change all that appears "amiss"--but only for self. I further know that we must unify in action and loving attention to our instructions from our Creator--but I, too, have to find my human way in the maze for there WILL NOT BE ANOTHER GURU "GOD" PRESENTED TO DO IT FOR US--WE MUST DO IT FOR OURSELVES. OUR PLACE-MENT IS PREPARED AND YES, I HAVE SEEN IT--FROM THE SMALLEST "PROBE" TO THE LARGEST AND FINEST STATIONS OF EXPERIENCE--BUT I CAN GET NO-ONE "THERE" EXCEPT MYSELF FOR IN SO-

DOING I WOULD TAKE FROM YOU YOUR OWN EXPERIENCE--FOR IN THE ENDING WE ARE BUT ONE AND IT IS DESTINED THAT WE SHALL WALK TOGETHER INTO THE HIGHER EXPERIENCE OF EXPRESSION.

These are the answers I am allowed to "see" in my lessons and preparation "work" out of this human restriction for I have to realize that I come not from Earth and I find Earth somewhat of an abomination of sorts which I long ago ceased to understand--but that, too, is the most important portion of my own experience. I am also, on this day, without adequate language to express thanks to those who work with me and share this "confusion"--Druthea, Thomas and unnamed others--perhaps even A.N. Other--who doesn't even recognize his direct line of communication. We don't understand and yet I'm sure I speak for all of you who HEAR--I would go to my death willingly to secure that love and place I have been given in that higher expression. There is nothing of the human expression that can "touch the hem of His garment" in approximation to that fulfillment in service. Further, I shall have to be physically "taken out" before I shall cease my work. This statement is for you who see my frustration and, at times, desperation as we battle life and enemies on this earth plane. I have now been given knowledge and I can discern Truth from lie and I watch and listen to those who attack and proclaim their own status as receivers and I am caused to laugh at them, and to fear for the masses of innocent readers--for God simply does not project as they represent Him and I can see the evil intent around their beings and comprehend the subtle falseness in their projections as they project that which is purely "physical". The "physical" is but the journey and experience--the YOU is that which is God reflection. God will work with the physical for that is exactly what He has projected--His own expression in each fragment called human and He awaits US seeing the difference.

Evil is conjured by the "physical" expression for that is all we humans have with which to work and play on this level of manifestation. God will, however, be right there to guide our feet and hands if we but listen and follow instructions. He will show us the way out of the maze and tell us what to do to get to that goal--IF we listen and are willing to express according to His rules. If there were one thing I could give to all of you in this experience it is my ABSOLUTE "KNOWING". I believe that to be the gift given in exchange for my hands on a set of keys.

Thank you for allowing me voice for I am so human in my expression that I do, from time to time, cry out to be heard and I want to bonk everyone on the head and say "look around"--we don't have to be do-do birds or nit-wits. Those reactions are of evil intent set to cause us inability to think or act while THEY get the world--well, I don't want THEM to have MY WORLD. Selfish? Perhaps, for I know it starts with ME--if I am to be a part of the experience. There is no way to express my appreciation and thankfulness on this Thanksgiving Day, 1991, for if I pass this day--I will have grown from the experience and that which awaits us is without description--and it isn't streets bogged with milk and mush with honey or golden sidewalks--it is EXPERIENCE IN MANIFESTATION OF ALL THINGS WONDROUS, EXCITING AND FILLED WITH TECHNOLOGY BEYOND OUR PHYSICAL CAPABILITY TO IMAGINE--IT IS THE NEXT STEP INTO KNOWING AND EXPRESSION. THOSE THINGS WILL NOT BE AVAILABLE TO THE HUMAN SPECIES GIVEN INTO THE DESTRUCTION OF THAT WHICH HAS BEEN ALREADY GIFTED INTO OUR TENDING AND TO THAT WHICH WE HAVE FAILED MISERABLY TO ATTEND. Tunkanshila (Grandfather), thank you for giving your trust into me for I am humble in your expression. AHO!

While I have the floor for a moment, I want to share another point with you. Hatonn was quite serious when he offered the suggestion that we all pronounce ourselves "Jews" for this bursts the select and unique balloon of perception. But I am having great fun, as Doris, over what has happened since that writing. I want to share what one has done in writing and I hope we can conjure a way to make this a wave across the nations. It is funny, it is delightful and I wish to give credit for the following writing to Robert Morse of North Carolina.

I AM A JEW

As of this date ___/___/___, I, _____ hereby call myself a Jew and claim all the Privileges, Rights and Honors attached to that title;--specifically the Right to be called one of God's CHOSEN PEOPLE, the Right to live in the State of Israel--(which is anywhere on Earth that I happen to be residing) and I further claim the Privilege of receiving large 'loans' of money from the Government of the United States of America--monthly or more often, as needed.

Other Privileges, Rights and Honors (not yet specified) will be added to this list as deemed necessary.

NOTICE: Any person or Government who, knowingly or unknowingly, offends me, a Jew, in any way, may be labeled 'anti-semitic', and may be tried as a perpetrator of 'Genocide' in any country which has signed the Genocide Treaty.

Robert also gave us a statement which is to be made in a personal sized "card" which can be used as a "business card" so that no-one misses the point with whom you speak or share this information. I suggest that you also carry with you your signed legal certificate (above) in duplicates so that there is even less reason for misunderstanding of the intent.

To make this a "legal" document, it should be registered with the U.S. Government Secretary of State (and I plan to send mine to the President as well). I may even send mine to Mr. Shamir if my level of aggravation continues to grow over what I see happening as now the children are being TAUGHT in INDIANA AND OTHER PLACES the lies of the Holocaust! I also intend to send my statement to my State Officials and any other public office any of you readers can think of. I especially suggest the Anti Defamation League and all Jewish Organizations--because I have missed out too long by this persecution thrust upon myself by those bigots who claim all rights to israel and jewishness. These organizations are obviously a group of dangerous and bigoted anti-semites and I, for one, am sick and tired of their abuse of me. I, Doris, am open for any and all suggestions. Those of the Anti-Defamation League told me to "go to hell" and I can only say that as long as "they" are in power--I am already "there". Mr. Cooper tells me personally that he is going to use "every fucking legal thing there is against me, you slimy little puke", and I herein denounce him as an "Anti-Semite"! Could it be

It is my honor to be allowed service with you ones. I also take the opportunity to express my own love and appreciation. I am most "Thankful" this day for the swell of Truth is rising about the lands and--although you cannot see it for it is hidden from you--there is GREAT HOPE. With each new realization of Truth instead of lie belief--we gain in great strides and, dear ones, the people ARE awakening!

that Mr. Cooper is giving you lies about "aliens"? I suggest you study documentation and information readily available--and NOT just from JOURNALS. Herein and herewith may it be proclaimed this day, Thanksgiving, 1991. You see, friends, I AM a Semite of lineage--although I AM NOT A KHAZARIAN ZIONIST BY EVEN THE REMOTEST DEFINITION. I suggest all of you consider your own historical HERITAGE! If I have learned nothing else in these past couple of years of writing--I have learned to be open to possibilities and when told to NOT look at those possibilities--I go as rapidly as I can to the information in point--anywhere I can get it. Their thrust is to prevent us from gaining information and Truth and so far it has all but destroyed a planet.

Well, Commander says I have had my fun for the day and we have work to do. Thank you for allowing me to share for I do have the very human aspect of feeling "left out" and totally ignorant as well as helpless to change anything--most of the time. D.E.

own places. It will be through "unity" that you shall overcome the adversary. We of the Command of Hosts as sent forth at this glorious time of evolvment are overjoyed to be allowed service. We have great and wondrous things to accomplish and so shall it be. Salu.

I have several things which have been brought to me with urgent inquiry and petition to "share". Perhaps this is an excellent time to do so. The information can act as confirmation for, you see, the Truth SLIPS through from time to time and if you know what you are seeking--you will see it right through the shroud. I will use as an example a rather "unnotable" article sent to George from the "Publisher's" information letter and he gives it to me for its hidden importance. Let me just copy it here, and then I ask you to see what you perceive without us pre-notationing your attention.

PUBLISHER'S WEEKLY

From: Publishers Weekly/November 29, 1991.

WHO'S BUYING BAKER & TAYLOR?

With close ties to government, the four-year-old Carlyle Group has made acquisitions worth $1.2 billion and intends to make its newest the world's largest single source of English-language books.

Even though the sale of Baker & Taylor Books--and its video and software distribution units--has not yet been finalized, the deal between buyer and seller is said to be "moving along smoothly", so PW decided to learn a little more about the Carlyle Group, which is in the process of purchasing the international book wholesaler from W.R. Grace.

Known, according to the company's press release, for its "national reputation of superior financial skills, high returns on invested capital and a high degree of confidentiality", the Carlyle Group is a private merchant bank and investment firm in Washington, D.C., that has major ties to the White House and national politics.

Co-owned by the company's board of managing directors and the Richard King Mellon "family interests", the Carlyle Group was founded in 1987 by Frank Carlucci, whose background included decades of top-level government service, including his most recent positions under President Reagan as Secretary of Defense (1987-1989) and as Assistant for National Security Affairs. (He was also Deputy Director of the CIA from 1978-1981). [H: Bush boy?]

Now vice-chairman of the Carlyle Group, Carlucci has surrounded himself with several other politically connected company advisors and managing directors. One is David Rubenstein, a managing director who--during the Carter Administration--served as Secretary of the Treasury and Chairman of the Federal Reserve Board. [H: Everybody with us so far?--especially all you goodly Jews?]

Also associated with the investment firm, in a senior advisor capacity, is Frederic V. Malek, who was appointed by President Bush to direct the 1990 Economic Summit of Industrialized Nations; he also served as director of the 1988 Republican Convention and in various "policy-level positions" in the federal government.

Despite the investment firm's connection in politics, its professional emphasis is on big business. According to managing director Daniel D'Aniello (whose professional background is free of politics, and who will serve as Carlyle's key liaison to Baker & Taylor), the firm has done "about $1.2 BILLION in capital value of acquisitions" since its inception four years ago. "We've largely acquired service companies and our primary philosophy is to invest in market leaders and in companies that have superior management teams," he told PW.

"We prefer to structure our deals so that they are co-investment opportunities with the management team."

Asked about who at Baker & Taylor will be offered the opportunity to co-invest in the company, D'Aniello said those details are still in the negotiation phase. "But at this point, the very minimum will be the heads of all of the divisions and I'm assuming it will go down to key managers at lower levels as well."

In addition, he confirmed that Gerald Garbacz, Grace executive vice-president and head of Grace Specialty Businesses--who will become president and CEO of Baker & Taylor Distribution once the deal is done--was the person responsible for bringing the book wholesaler to the attention of the Carlyle Group. (Garbacz, who ran Baker & Taylor before moving to Grace, is also said to have White House connections, in the area of defense, dating back to the Kennedy administration.)

D'Aniello, who has held top management positions with the MARRIOTT CORPORATION (BUSH family), Pepsico and TWA, said the Carlyle Group hopes to open Baker & Taylor up to "many interesting new opportunities both internationally and domestically in the area of marketing and information services. What we'd like to be able to do", he said, "is build on the strength of that company--beyond the distribution function. We'd like to see it become more of a national extension of its suppliers' marketing departments. And, on the client-side, we'd like to provide more shelf-ready services to assist and add value at the retail and wholesale level, such as point-of-sale consulting and other services for libraries and such."

Ultimately, he said, "We'd like to expand on what we think is one of the MORE FORMIDABLE ASSETS IN THE INDUSTRY, MAKING BAKER & TAYLOR THE SINGLE LARGEST SOURCE OF ENGLISH-LANGUAGE BOOKS IN THE ENTIRE WORLD."

END OF QUOTING

I couldn't resist the highlighting of some portions but I believe you will see the unspeakable control and intent of this group. The article is simply a write-up of notable "interest" and actually appears to have more credibility because of its "high" connections. What do you think? Can you put the paper down a moment and think about the above--or, re-read it and then ponder it?

Do you think this company is going to print the JOURNALS? Do you think perhaps they will now control the press of publications as they do the media??? DO YOU SEE HISTORY IN THE VERY INCUBATION? Ah, chelas, this is EXACTLY the manner in which the other things came about in your world--hidden, unsuspected and yet blatant in intent to deceive a world. This intent is to be the biggest in the "whole world". Moreover, as other publishers are driven by fear or collapse--out of business, and/or they simply "buy-up" all other presses (for they certainly have the assets and no distribution company can compete)--can you see the results??

Now: WOULD YOU KNOW THIS IF WE DIDN'T TELL YOU? SO BE IT!

I will leave the above subject but I believe you get the impact of that type of massive subterfuge and control of the masses--for it is intended that all "foreign language" books be translated into English through that source; allowing for the "correction" of any desired portions.

I have received some numerous copies of an article which appears to have originated in a reprint found in the CBA BULLETIN, Vol. 10, Issue 11, Nov. 1991. (CBA, P.O. Box 935, Medford, Oregon 97501. (503/779-7709). The inquiry is the same: "Is this true?" Oh yes, indeed, indeed! Thank you for sharing and asking. I think it worthy of reprint herein that it can move into more attention as I would hope other newswriters would also effect. It is only through this media of what might be considered "underground" that citizens can ever learn of Truth--as you can see from the above--soon all except "authorized" material will be ille-

APPRECIATION TO GEORGE AND DESIREE

Because of my personal interaction with Dharma and Oberli, I feel remiss in not giving appreciation to George and Desiree every moment of every day. These two people go before the firing-squad and debunkers and insulters--CONSTANTLY. They, like Dharma and Oberli, have poured every last drop of energy and all assets into this project and yet they treat it as "simply our jobs". No, it is not "simply their jobs"--and they serve without complaint nor the desire for "attention" and I am humbled to be in association. I can protect them but I cannot do this confrontation "for" them and I wish to make public acknowledgement to them for the endless months and hours of service with little reward except "just remaining alive in the physical format". "That" in itself is NOT a very good reward in their own interpretation--believe me, friends--for them, to simply make that "transition" would be far preferable. At any rate, beloved ones, I thank you on behalf of the rest of your team as well as unto all of you who give until you have no more time or assets to give. The rewards are awaiting a hundred fold--it is the promise of God. I salute you--not as human but as equal to self and it will be a while before you realize the magnitude of such a statement. Salu.

THE ALASKAN CONSPIRACY

We recently received the following letter from a friend in Alaska and thought our readers would find the important information surprising and necessary to their continuing studies.

Dear Friends:

I have xeroxed some information for you on the Alaska Statehood issue and have more to do directly from Alaska Statutes on Statehood and the Tennessee Plan. Will try to get that done this week and in the mail to you soon.

Here's another bit of info on the voting for Alaska Statehood. The federal government brought in 12,000 "Gandy Dancers" to work on the Railroad and 20,000 military for a WINTER training operation at the end of October. They were here just long enough for the 30 day residency requirement for voting and then packed up and left right after the election. WE DON'T HAVE WINTER IN OCTOBER! TO MY KNOWLEDGE THERE WAS NO RAILROAD WORK DONE! I understand that Congress passed special legislation for the military to vote on a "special residency" situation. Apparently they were afraid that the locals were not that strong in "joining" the Union!

From what I can figure out, the Tennessee Plan was set up for Congress to admit Corporations into the Union as 14th Amendment states. There were several others admitted in like manner--Hawaii, etc. Also, we seem to come into the picture under ADMIRALTY JURISDICTION meeting the WINTER ROUTE (Maritime Laws). There doesn't seem to be ANY Common Law in this State.

To recap a few of the other points I mentioned to you when you were here:

Edna Ferber's 3 week visit up here touring around by airplane, visiting the "locals" and the Eskimos (some couldn't even speak English). Her return to Texas(?) to write ICE PALACE which was VERY PRO STATEHOOD with its propaganda to the "lower 48" folks.

Alaska was set up with Boroughs (like New York) rather than Counties. We have no Sheriff.

You will remember our Governor Hickel who was called by Nixon in the 1960's to sit on his Cabinet? When Hickel (or so we are told) advised Nixon to listen to the young folks, he was fired! Hickel wrote the book WHO OWNS AMERICA? and revealed that the oil companies owned America. Since ALL oil companies here are owned by the British, then, who owns America? I suspect that the British Law of Shetar is now being pulled all across Europe-Russia-and U.S. Hickel is once again Governor here. He will be going to Russia very soon for a conference. Perhaps this will be about the new ice-bridge connection???

My friend tells us that the insurance people here are going for 6 MONTHS TRAINING in Florida to learn new insurance laws and methods. All oil activity is at a halt position here right now.

There is a high military influx here in Anchorage and in Fairbanks (Eielson Air Force Base) coming from Clark AFB (Philippines). Much increased housing construction is taking place on the bases.

21 out of 28 department heads at the University of Alaska have been filled by Soviets.

There is a VERY HEAVY emphasis on cultural exchange programs. Alaska Airline has a direct flight to a city in Russia (I can't remember the name right now). ALASCOM has direct communication from here to there, too.

A "buddy system" of Soviet policemen riding around with our lo-

For the past forty years or more the Russian flights have been coming into Anchorage International Airport (AIA). About five years ago they erected a 12-foot high fence completely around the runways. They told us that it was for security purposes in case of "terrorism". THE LOCALS HERE ARE NOT "TERRORISTS"!

Let me remind you about the relationship between the NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC and the Federal Reserve System, which is their monthly supplement to their Shareholder's Report. Theodore Roosevelt, who was known for his establishment of National Parks and wildlife refuges also gave those lands as collateral to the Federal Reserve. National Parks and D-2 lands are collateral for loans. They closed the mine here in about 1938???

Alaska was once known as "Guggenheim Land". The British Israel Identity message is Jewish. Identifyism is Jewish to the core. Admiralty Law came out of the old Persia (Babylon) and went to England. Took over England and Scotland, and became the "British Isles". [H: Everybody awake?] The Queen had TWO Coronations. One, the Queen of England and the other the Queen of Israel (Great Britain). Both the State of Israel and Kuwait were set up by British. (Kuwait is owned by British Petroleum.)

Remember your article in the PATRICK HENRY booklet on "Washington's Surrender" by Senator McCarthy? How he links the British Empire! Cornwallis was "right on"!

London--inner city--Admiralty Law--Insurance--the Cecils and Rhodes from the Aegean Sea. Cecil Rhodes--Rhodesia--Rhode Island--the first State to give citizenship to Jews. The Pilgrims and the Puritans were converted Jews. LOOK AT THEIR NAMES! They Anglicized their names and took "Christian" names. Christopher Columbus (Don Cristobal Colon--his eldest son, Diego) brought Jews from Spain in 1492. (Colon = colony!) Washington, District of Columbia (Why?) British Columbia (Why?) Columbia University (Jewish). Columbia the Gem of the Ocean!

War of 1812--the British Bank Charter had expired and our Congress would not renew it. Big war about it resulted! History books and current day Encyclopedias hardly mention it. Encyclopedia Britannica (Jewish) first encyclopedia. Basis for ALL OTHER encyclopedias!

There is MUCH, MUCH more, and MORE to be researched. IT WOULD TRULY BE WONDERFUL to have someone with the time and research skills to come up here NOW and get all this material together! Many of the people are still alive for interviews re: Statehood.

The uncanceled check for the "purchase" of Alaska is here on display. Funny thing, the paperwork doesn't say "Purchase", it says "LEASE"! Alaska was LEASED, not PURCHASED, and therefore belongs to....?? Newspapers of the era are still available. THERE IS NO RELIGION HIGHER THAN TRUTH!

I must close for now. I will send the xeroxing mentioned above within a few days. Have a report from the Chickaloon Natives on Statehood and the CONSTITUTIONAL STATUS AND GOVERNMENT OF ALASKA (1927). Very interesting.

Victory and Valhalla!

END OF QUOTATION

Dharma, let us have a break--I do not believe I need to make any comment on the preceding for it most certainly ACCURATELY speaks for itself. I trust you readers will keep us posted on additional publication regarding this matter.

Please see ALASKA, next page.

11/29/91 #1 HATONN

Let us look at "fragments" before we move into more detailed subjects. You need to attend several things this day to watch the unfolding.

BANKS IN THE SOVIET UNION

The "central" banks in the Soviet are OUT OF MONEY! They will be completely devoid of hard money by the end of the weekend. First go the rubles, then the dollars and then nothing. This is a massive attempt to pull the government down. Note what can happen when the people refuse to allow a central government to have "blood" (money via taxes). What will happen? Oh, perhaps a rescue but not of the sort you expect for note back a day or so where the headlines read: "Bush endorses shift in Soviet Relations," i.e.: "President Bush has authorized a major shift in American policy away from the central Soviet government and toward the republics, deciding to recognize an independent Ukraine 'expeditiously' if the second-largest Soviet republic breaks with Moscow...."

We have given you blow by blow events as to be expected, so check it out for these ARE your confirmations. Watch Dr. Coleman's countdown to economic "Doomsday" because the events are falling right on cue.

FALLING MARKETS--AMERICA

Note the fiasco going on in your markets and the total failure of your "large" multi-corporations to cooperate. Well, they can't cooperate for what is "left" of them in the U.S. is in dismal shape. The shoring up is coming from worthless paper and there you "have it".

I want all of you to pay attention here, please. The world markets are nothing but a manipulation of the British ownership of your world. The governments AND the industries of any importance whatsoever are OWNED BY THE

BRITISH CROWN THROUGH THE COMMITTEE OF 300. REMEMBER, WHATEVER COMES DOWN--THE BIG BOYS AT THE "TOP" ARE ALL WORKING FOR THE SAME GOAL--RULERSHIP AND OWNERSHIP OF THE PLANET.

FALLING MARKETS--JAPAN

Japan is losing massively in the market. The market is off sharply (daily) for over a week now. This is "serious" time, chelas.

OTHERS

All are in trouble--Germany is in real trouble and so reflects the British market. You see, England is bankrupt--the wealth is in the hands of the Crown--not the country.

I repeat: The markets are only a manipulation of Britain's ownership through the British Israelites. It all happened while you dreamt of sugarplums and tooth fairies. You have also been conditioned to violence so that you will praise Allah for another WAR to help the economy. After all, what are a few million husbands and children killed and mangled if you can continue to have your beer and crumpets? Get ready for it's on its way.

SHUTTLES AND SATELLITES

Dear ones, the spying from your latest shuttle is on the U.S. Your little floating children playing at something or other--are setting surveillance capability on the satellite that can watch over 7,000 targets at once--as to heat and "ray" emissions. The rocket sent from Vandenberg Base yesterday--gave you the bad news! And you don't know what took place elsewhere from New Zealand, French Guiana, Australia, and the Aleutians.

PHOENIX, AZ

A friend called upon me to answer as to whether or not the information that there would be something over Phoenix, like an atomic explosion-- on the yesterday. Well, it was planned already and postponed--even Mr. Cooper knew as much. Since the bastard killers keep their toys within your atmospheric limits and the bombs stationed on radio towers where they can simply be detonated--we can't interfere. I am not going to answer, T.D., such a question because I refuse to play the game of pitch and catch with anyone.

I am asked by various ones "...is it time for me to move to your area?..." Do you not think there is much to be done in the area in which you are located? Ponder it for I am told by ones that you have your own interchange with higher energies--so, why do you continue to ask ME for verification? Yes, many of us "go a long way back", but it is THIS duty at hand which holds importance.

T.D. reports that in an Arizona area many boxcars were discovered off on a siding. They were observed for a long time and no-one claimed them nor was there activity around them. As curiosity got greater, the police inspected them only to find they were all filled full of manacles (handcuffs and shackles). Yes indeed, and the detention camps are awaiting.

Hatonn to clear, Salu and Adonai part of the business elite. That has to affect coverage. By JEFF COHEN

It was pure luck that a Time Warner journalist ran into a Time Warner executive this summer at a redwood retreat 70 miles north of San Francisco. It was also bad luck, at least for the journalist. The Time Warner executive threw him out.

You see, it wasn't just any retreat. The chance meeting occurred at the exclusive, super-secret Bohemian Grove, where the old boys (no women, ever) of America's government and corporate elite gather each summer for two weeks of laid-back schmoozing and speechmaking, not to mention the club's mock-Druid fire rituals.

And it wasn't just any journalist. Dirk Mathison was, until recently, the enterprising San Francisco bureau chief of People magazine, owned by Time Warner. Since reporters are banned from

ISRAEL IN YOUR DOORYARD

11/29/91 #1 HATONN

Note that this week "LUZ" International Corporation (the largest hot oil, solar electric plant in the world) filed bankruptcy. Reason?? They didn't get a "...fair share of government subsidies and support relative to other alternative energy installations".

I find that most interesting since U.S. money entirely built the installation on U.S. soil and the builders lived luxuriously in Westwood, etc., in the Los Angeles area. Is this important? ONLY IN THAT THIS IS A FULLY-OWNED AND OPERATED ISRAELI COMPANY!! I warned you about this one also and no-one even blinked an eye. You will lose almost all of your backup support system for the entire L.A. area when the dam in Nevada is destroyed and Luz is shut down. An earthquake will leave the coast without backup energy supply for an indefinite period for the individual electric plants, within the area itself, are already set for sabotage.

Bohemian Grove, Mathison hiked over back-country trails to sneak into the July "encampment" three different times. The third time, he ran into the Time Warner executive who recognized him and tossed him out.

Mathison had already learned a lot. Contrary to the claims of the grove, Mathison saw more than just summertime relaxation. Former Secretary of the Navy John Lehman, for example, gave a lecture in which he stated that the Pentagon estimated 200,000 Iraqis were killed during the six weeks of the Gulf War. [H: There were actually over a million but that is not what is important here as you will see.] The Pentagon never gave the rest of us an official count. Other speakers included Defense Secretary Dick Cheney and former Health, Education and Welfare Secretary Joseph A. Califano, speaking on "America's Health Revolution--Who Lives, Who Dies, Who Pays."

Expecting to read all about it in People? It won't happen. Even though Mathison embarked on the Bohemian Grove story with his editor's approval and even though Mathison says his article was so well received that extra space was allotted for it, the story was mysteriously killed.

People's managing editor told my researchers that although he had authorized Mathison to infiltrate the grove, he later killed the piece after realizing that he had authorized "trespassing". He denied any pressure from Time Warner higher-ups.

Mathison said a full explanation would be elusive: "It's easier to penetrate the Bohemian Grove than the Time-Life building."

But one need not penetrate Time-Life to realize what this episode says about journalism today: It can be difficult for journalists to report fully on America's political and economic elite when their bosses are loyal members of that elite.

Every year at Bohemian Grove, media executives hobnob with news makers. Walter Cronkite, for example, resides at the same lodge at the grove as George Bush. But the grove--whose membership includes every Republican President since Coolidge, and on whose premises presidential campaigns have been fueled and the Manhattan (A-bomb) Project conceived--is off-limits to news coverage.

Since the grove is such a closed institution, it is admittedly difficult for journalists to cover. But what about other issues that affect reporters' new mega-corporate masters? How tough can the public expect major media to be in covering mergers, buyouts and executive greed in an era of middle-class downturn and layoffs?

Well, working journalists are part of that middle class, with reason to be cautious. After Time merged with Warner to form the biggest media firm in the world, Time Warner Chairman Steve Ross told Variety that journalists "cannot afford to be anywhere but part of a strong, diverse company with global reach and responsibility...A diverse, financially strong media company makes it possible for managers to attract and nurture talented journalists."

Instead of nurturing journalists, Time Warner--thanks largely to debt incurred during the merger--recently laid off 600 magazine employees, including 19 of Time's 75 correspondents, to achieve a savings of $30 million. (This after Ross, the nation's most highly compensated chief executive, made $78 million last year in salary and stock profits.)

And what about Dirk Mathison, the enterprising journalists who tried to cover the lords of free enterprise? He's one of the 600. He's been notified that his San Francisco bureau will be shut down Dec. 31 in a cost-cutting measure.

Ship releases contaminated water

11/29/91 #1 HATONN

From San Diego, Calif. A nuclear-powered navy cruiser has leaked several hundred gallons of radioactive water in five Navy ports since last year. The USS Long Beach has a malfunctioning primary relief valve. But not to worry because the government refuses to overhaul the reactors because they plan to "retire" the vessel. What of the men aboard with constantly growing radiation levels? What of the sea-life? What will they do with the leakage while "retired"--unfortunately you cannot "retire" nuclear "reactors" like turning off the gas supply. Good luck!

Remember that little company called IBM? In a move akin to the breakup of the East bloc, International Business Machines Corp. has embarked on a plan to split the lumbering giant of the computer industry into swifter-moving subsidiaries. "Swifter-moving" is your clue. This is another of your "British-Zionist" companies and the full intent is to "swifter-move" the operations OUT OF THE U.S. JUST LIKE THEY DID THEIR "COMMUNICATIONS CENTER".

Mormons involved in BCCI scandal

11/29/91 #1 HATONN

I am continually queried about the "Mormons" and how "they" fit. I don't speak of religious groups. If anything is done in "SECRET PLACES" and in secret ritual--IT IS NOT SET UP BY GOD! It is none of my business and I shall not ARGUE with you--facts are facts and SECRET, SELECT GROUPS WHICH ONLY ALLOW INNER PARTICIPATION WITH THE PAYING OF FEES AND SWORN OATH TO SECRECY--IS NOT OF GOD!

Now as to political connections. My yes--the Mormon Church is totally involved in all of the scandals--specifically the BCCI case.

Senator Orrin Hatch of Utah is completely involved and has links directly to the banking scandal. I believe you will find he is being investigated at present.

Hatch, representing the Church of LDS, is involved in business deals with Houston entrepreneur Munzer Hourani and Mohammad Hammoud. Both are completely linked to the Bank of Credit and Commerce International. This involvement is linked with all sorts of central money laundering and arms trafficking with support of terrorists.

Hammoud is also a BCCI shareholder and operated as a key front for the outlaw bank. Hourani readily admits Hatch offered to help him get money from BCCI.

Does Mr. Hatch know all of this? Of course, blind lambs--he is going to have a "statement" to release "soon"--as soon as he can find a good cover story and buy off a few good witnesses.

Well, Hatch has publicly defended BCCI which he now says he did for "Altman"--I suggest that all of you attend the fact that Robert Altman, president of First American Bankshares and completely involved with a Bush twiglet, CenTrust Savings Bank of Miami IS A FOREMOST ZIONIST AND "ISRAEL FIRST" SPOKESMAN.

You just "can't believe it?" Sorry about that--I cannot help what YOU believe for I give you facts and it will be facts of truth that shall prevail.

These vipers are being backed into a corner by their own doing and guess what vipers do when cornered? I thought you might get the drift.

The ultimate mail fraud

11/29/91 #1 HATONN

Dharma, allow us to move on for there are a couple of subjects I promised to outlay for you. We will begin with the Mail Fraud.

I thank Jim Hazel for the following. His address is: P.O. Box 1317 Brookings, Oregon 97415.

THE ULTIMATE MAIL FRAUD

QUOTE:

Everybody knows...the Post Office is a government institution. Just ask anybody on the street and he'll tell you so. And some people like the fact that the Post Office is run by the government. And some people don't. Some people, most of whom see government as a bumbling, wasteful bureaucracy, propose that the Post Office should be privatized; that it should be operated as a private business. And a lot of people agree with them.

But everybody, without exception, who thinks the Post Office is an agency of government, and who supports government control of the mails, or opposes it, is ignorant, deluded...and not very observant.

The legal, factual status of the post office is documented in numerous pages of fine-print statutes (Title 39 USCA), Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), Postal Manuals and case law court decisions, all of which violently conflict with and contradict...what everybody knows. But what normal person would want to read all that legal stuff? You'd have to be a lawyer to understand it, and a nerdy egghead to enjoy it.

What everybody knows about the post office is what everybody else knows. End of discussion; end of argument. Should some troublemaker suggest that the mails are controlled by a private, obscenely-profitable business monopoly, everybody will shun him like a drooling madman, because everybody knows that's not so...and that's the end of it.

Funny how everybody sees what they want to see. They see what supports their ingrained prejudices and delusions. But they are totally blind to facts that challenge them to examine long-held dogmas. And they can get downright rude, even violent, when someone throws them a hard, fast, 97 MPH incontrovertible fact. With some folks it's like someone just told them their spouse has been seen sleeping around. "My mind is made up", they seem to say. "Don't confuse me with facts." [H: Or, as Judge J. Brent said in the municipal court of Mojave to these people fighting for their property..."...I refuse to hear any more facts in this matter." It was like a rerun of a very bad Grade F movie in which you think no such thing `could ever actually be stated'. It becomes more understandable that the entire taped session was totally removed from the file when the clerk said there were three copies of the tape in point. Then a `reconstruction hearing' was set up with only the Judge and the attorneys present--and changed the actual happenings. You are in trouble, America and World!]

And so--relative to this question of whether the post office is a government institution or a private business monopoly, everybody's vision is very selective. They see only what they want to see.

Will you Americans be as brave and wise? As Khmer Rouge leader Khieu Samphan moved into Phnom Penh to "take control"--the Cambodians attacked in full force and drove him from the country! This was a massive show of the hatred and unacceptability of returning with such horrendous government. It showed the hatred that remains for Pol Pot's revolutionary Communist group, which turned Cambodia's countryside into "killing fields". Khieu Samphan is the right-hand man to Pol Pot, who has remained underground in recent years but fully planned to move in immediately following takeover by Khieu Samphan. FOR GOODNESS SAKES, U.S., YOU STILL HAVE PRISONERS IN CAMBODIA WHICH YOUR OWN GOVERNMENT WILL NOT ALLOW RELEASED.

When they approach a post office, for example, they see a prominently positioned brass-toned sign which proclaims that the building is a "United States Post Office", under which is given the name of the city of locus, the state, and the ZIP Code. And it looks so official; so definitive, so.....governmental. What they fail to see, or seeing, ignore for its familiarity or because it is fastened to a different side of the building, is the other bronze-colored plaque bearing the registered trademark of the United States Postal Service (USPS):

The presence on the building of two dissimilar identifiers, one of which incorporates a trademark-indicia, must arouse the curiosity of all who are not hopelessly brain-dead.

One question that must inevitably arise in the active mind must be, "Are the United States Post Office and the United States Postal Service one and the same thing, or two separate and distinct entities, one public and one quasi-public, occupying this building?"

Another provocative question that must spring to mind is, "Why has the USPS, which I thought was a government agency, registered its logo as a 'trademark'?" After all, everybody knows that congress can statutorily criminalize the use, forgery or duplication of any thing related to government sovereignty or property. Impersonation or unlawful use of its symbols is punishable under existing fraud statutes. Registering of its names and indicia must be superfluous and unnecessary.

Among that withering minority known as curious individuals one might, having the USPS logo brought to his attention, examine some of the official-looking literature displayed in the lobby of the post office. If he does this, his questions will begin to find answers. He will discover many other instances in which official-sounding terms have been made the legal property of the owners of the USPS by registering of them as trademarks, including:

First-Class mail
U.S. Mail
ZIP Code, and INTELPOST.

When he sees that ZIP Codes are the intellectual property of the USPS, he will understand that the sign on the building which reads, "United States Post Office", when incorporated with a ZIP Code, becomes the exclusive property and under the absolute control of the owners of the USPS.

Obviously, that which everybody knows about the post office is Alice-in-Wonderland fantasy. But how, the curious observer must wonder, can so many people be fundamentally deceived about a service they use with such frequency? And how can so many be so deluded as to think they are using a service provided by government, when in fact they are the harried and over-charged customers of a privately-owned business monopoly? Could their ignorance be accidental; a result of inattention or apathy? Or is there a sinister plan at work by which all the psychological resources available to the USPS owners are brought to bear to keep the public in ignorance? And why would any person or coven of persons want to control post offices in America? Is the motive greed for money, or could it have other even more diabolical ends in mind?

In pursuit of answers to these unavoidable questions, it would behoove the investigator to retrace the history of post offices. If diligent in his inquiries he will come upon the name of one ADAM WEISHAAPT [Zionist]. Weishaupt was a Bavarian son of a Rabbi who, as an adult, converted to, and later defected from, the Jesuit Priesthood. He became the protege of the infamous patriarch of the international banking fraternity, AMSHELL ROTHSCHILD. The quotable Rothschild is credited with boasting, "Give me the power to issue a nation's money; then I do not care who makes the laws."

ADAM WEISHAAPT was a quick and militant student under the master banker. He devised and implemented an intricate plan for controlling, by a Chosen few, the world and all of humanity. His organization, founded in AD 1776, is still known as the Illuminati.

The Illuminati did not strive for instant gratification. Its success was calculated to be obtained through gradual, progressive stages over many decades; even over centuries. Prerequisites to its success were to first control the issuance of all money, to be followed by control of all national governments and particularly of their armaments. Finally, to assure that the Chosen, once installed in absolute power could not be evicted, it would be necessary to suppress all dissent against them.

A major restatement and affirmation of the Illuminati Doctrines were promulgated during an 1897 convention of 'insiders' which met in Basel, Switzerland. The protocols or minutes of that convention are public record under the title of THE PROTOCOLS OF THE LEARNED ELDERS OF ZION. The following is an excerpt from the original Illuminati Plot:

"We labor first of all to draw into our association all good and learned writers. This we imagine will be the easier obtained, as they must derive an evident advantage from it. Next to such men we seek to gain the MASTERS AND SECRETARIES OF THE POST-OFFICES, IN ORDER TO FACILITATE OUR CORRESPONDENCE." [H: also to keep all undesirable correspondence or material from being facilitated.]

Ultimately, the legalized ability to inspect mail (including newspapers) and to punish incidences of thought-crimes, potential sedition, misrepresentation and the like, would constitute nuclear weaponry against organized attempts to upset the conspirators' apple-cart. Their regime would then be invincible.

America and her constitutional government was a thorn in their side. European sovereignties, debilitated by inbreeding and excess, would succumb to them with hardly a whimper. Asiatics in their naivete' would become unwitting accomplices to the Illuminati goals. Russia's plodding peasantry were tougher to crack, but famine and violence would soften their resolve. But America--the last great hope for humanity--the land of the brave and the free; of vibrant individualism...would require extraordinary measures.

America's Constitution, which tandemly mandated Congress should (1) establish (and maintain) post offices and (2) coin money, could not easily be breached. To nail Americans and commandeer their post offices, the would-be controllers must alter their Supreme Laws. But it was necessary to proceed with caution; to castrate the peoples' defenses without their becoming prematurely alarmed else, still armed, they might rise up en masse and slaughter the crooks.

Major progress was made toward American enslavement by the following radical alterations of law:

1913: The Federal Reserve Act and its amendments, enacted by bribed prostitute congressmen during Christmas vacation, provided for the U.S. to borrow abstract credit-at-interest, from the Fed owners, to be repaid in specie-coin. As debts became unpayable, the creditors began foreclosure on the collateral; i.e. on the sovereignty, assets and resources of the debtor nation. Among the first claims foreclosed was upon the autonomy of Congress. Congress became the slave to its creditors, compelled to legislate, not on behalf of their constituents, but only for the creditors.

1933: HJR 192, enacted on behalf of the FRS creditors, outlawed specie-clauses in private contracts.

THE LEGAL TENDER STATUTES (31 USC 392): did the physically impossible and preposterous! They equated debt-instruments with specie-coin money, thus assuring the withdrawal of specie-coin from circulation and leaving only debt-instruments (Federal reserve notes) as a medium-of-exchange.

1968: Congress repudiated redeemability of silver certificates; concluding that final stage of conversion of America from a monetary system to one in which all Americans would be obliged to deal in Company Store Script.

1968 was the fatal year of debarkation that would lead to the gutting of the Post Office Department and the gift of its assets and rights to the Governors of the newly-established USPS. The methodology for accomplishing that radical misappropriation of public property, and ultimately ensuring the suppression of dissent in a way that not one man in 10,000 would fathom, was...The Hegelian Principle of Change.

Agents provocateur, planted among post office workers, incited discontent that would result in strikes and interruption of mail service. The National Guard was called in by the Commander-in-Chief to process and deliver the mail. The media--the semi-official, self-styled spokesmen for the American People, screamed for a change. "We must de-politicize the postal service. We must provide for binding arbitration of labor disputes; we must streamline and economize, and quit subsidizing a wasteful post office bureaucracy. We must run the postal service like a lean, mean business!"

In 1970, the morphodite Congress, half bribed, prostitutes and the other half, pathetic, misguided fools, responded to the media's demands by establishing the USPS as a privately-owned and controlled business monopoly. Congress simultaneously legislated prohibitions for use of the mails for purposes of undefined "misrepresentations", explosives and seditious materials. The nuclear weapon against dissent was then in place, armed and awaiting only the proper moment for detonation.

One of the clearest evidences that the USPS is intended to suppress dissent is the fact that it holds an iron-clad monopoly on processing of First-Class Mail, while permitting 'competition' in the delivery of freight classes such as parcel post matter. Inclusion of such as personal letters is prohibited in lesser classes.

So as not to prematurely alarm the natives, the creditors continued foreclosure of U.S. sovereignty under the auspices of its foreclosed slave-congress, president and bureaucracies. All edicts appear to come from America's marionette "leaders" and not from the hidden puppeteers who put words in their mouths.

By numerous interlocking treaties, constitutionally proposed by the president and consented to by the Senate, virtually all U.S. sovereignty has been transferred to a "holding company" called "THE UNITED NATIONS". Treaties become The Supreme Law of the Land without direct (republican) consent, and often without the knowledge of the people. For example, how many Americans have heard of the Universal Postal Union, a 'special agency of the UN' to which the U.S. is bound?

"THE UNIVERSAL POSTAL UNION (UPU) is a specialized agency of the United Nations that sets rules for the flow of mail between countries. It operates under an international convention (treaty) called the Universal Postal Convention. The Universal Postal Congress is the main legislative body of the UPU. If a congress changes a convention (treaty), all UPU members must abide by the changes, EVEN IF MEMBER NATIONS MUST ALTER THEIR LAWS IN ORDER TO COMPLY." (SOURCE: WORLD BOOK ENCYCLOPE-DIA--among others.)

Examination of the statutes, treaties, CFRs and records of legislative debates on which this report is founded must lead the investigator to acknowledge the fact that we are a microscopic hairsbreadth away from total, all-out slavery. What will YOU DO to avert national catastrophe?

Secret Service confiscates novelty notes

11/30/91 #1 HATONN

Reprint: William T. Gibbs. Coin World Staff: 9-11-91.

QUOTE:

Novelty notes with a "face value" of $1 million being sold nationally are illegal in northern Illinois, but may be legal in the other 92 federal districts of the country, according to the U.S. Secret Service.

That unequal enforcement of federal law has Ohio paper money dealer Hy Brown a bit upset.

Twenty of the $1 million novelty notes were confiscated from Brown by Secret Service agents during the American Numismatic Association's 100th Anniversary Convention in Rosemont, Ill., after a United States attorney in Chicago found them to be in violation of federal law. An additional note was confiscated from a customer of Brown's after the client took it to the agents at the Secret Service's educational display about counterfeit paper money, located between the bourse area and the exhibits.

How much longer do you think you will be receiving disagreeable material such as this newspaper? How about the JOURNALS now that the publishing of books in the English-language will be controlled by ONE company? Already a portion of America West's mailings NEVER are received on the other end. ALL mail from these sources are monitored, inspected and much is "simply lost".

All of your phone lines are coded with trigger words and when those words are used, your conversation is automatically recorded. When these recordings show multi-usage, etc., you are personally monitored and so on and on and on. Finally, massive numbers of you are totally monitored on a full-time around-the-clock basis. Ah yes, "FREEDOM"?????

I will leave you with one more coffin nail and then we will take a bit of a break.

Secret Service agent Daniel Pioposi of the Chicago office said the U.S. attorney for the district found the novelty notes to be in violation of two regulations concerning the reproduction of U.S. paper money or like items.

However, the attorney's finding is applicable ONLY in the northern Illinois area, according to the Chicago Secret Service. The legality of the novelty notes in other areas depends on the findings of the U.S. Attorneys' offices in those locales. There are 93 districts in the country, each with its own U.S. Attorney's office and Secret Service office.

BEYOND COMPREHENSION

Brown, a paper money dealer from Mentor, Ohio, said of the attorney's finding, "That's beyond my comprehension." Brown said he was told by the Secret Service agent who confiscated the notes that they are considered legal in Hawaii, and might even be considered legal in "southern" Illinois, apparently depending upon any ruling of the U.S. Attorney's office responsible for that region of the state.

Brown told Coin World Aug. 27 that he was not the only dealer in the ANA convention who had the novelty notes for sale although his were the only ones confiscated. He was promoting the notes through a sign at his table. Secret Service agents confiscated the sign as well, Brown said.

Brown said that the two Secret Service agents and a local police officer came to his table when the notes were confiscated. He said, with a laugh, he wondered what the dealers at tables next to his were thinking when the notes were confiscated.

Brown originally bought 100 of the notes, and will probably purchase more to sell to customers.

SIZE AND COLOR RESTRICTIONS

According to Pioposi, the novelty notes--printed in color--violated the federal restriction requiring reproductions to be printed in black and white only. The face of the note is printed in black with green serial numbers and seal; golden rays are superimposed over the face. The back of the note is printed in green with a golden 1,000,000 and rays overprint.

In addition, the notes were found to be in violation of size restrictions governing the size of reproductions of U.S. paper money. The size of reproductions may not fall into a range from 75 percent to 150 percent of the actual size of a note.

Each of the notes do not resemble in detail any current legal tender U.S. paper money. The face shows a central vignette of the Statue of Liberty from the waist up. The back features the denomination and the phrase NON-NEGOTIABLE.

The notes are being marketed by the International Association of Millionaires, IAM Enterprises, under the name the "Million Dollar Bill". IAM Enterprises has offices in South Pasadena, Calif., and Honolulu.

Tari Steward of IAM Enterprises said Aug. 27 that IAM has been selling the notes for two-and-a-half years, and that the confiscation in Rosemont was a first. He said he contacted various federal agencies ranging from the Department of Justice, Department of Treasury and Bureau of Engraving and Printing, only to be told the government does not offer legal advice to private individuals.

Steward said that based on the advice of his legal counsel, he entered into a contract with the private American Bank Note Co. to print the notes. ABNCo. is an internationally known printer of security documents, including actual paper money for foreign governments. ABNCo. produced some legal tender U.S. paper money for the federal government during the 19th century.

ABNCo. printed 4 million $1 million notes for IAM, according to Steward. Of those 4 million notes, 700,000 were sent to IAM. According to Steward, the remaining

3.3 million notes and the steel printing plates were destroyed by ABNCo. after the Secret Service informed both IAM and ABNCo. that the notes were considered to be in technical violation of U.S. law.

Steward said he used the Freedom of Information Act to obtain the government's documents concerning the notes. He said he learned the notice WAS NOT one Treasury official's opinion and that the individual districts would be responsible for determining whether the notes are illegal or not.

IAM has continued to offer the notes since 3.3 million notes were destroyed. Steward said only a few thousand pieces remain. He expects all of them to be sold by the end of the year.

Steward said he has been in contact with the Secret Service in Honolulu, where the legality of the notes was raised as well. According to Steward, the U.S. attorney's office there said the notes did not violate the law.

Both Steward and brown said it was the opinion of some dealers at the show that the Chicago office of the Secret Service was overreacting during the convention. Agents also confiscated key rings attached to miniature color reproductions of $1, $5, $10, $50 and $100 U.S. paper money from the ANA's sales booth.

Stephen Bobbitt of the ANA said the Secret Service confiscated 167 of the key rings Aug. 15.

As it stands now, the novelty notes are considered in violation of federal law only in the district of northern Illinois. IAM plans to continue to offer the notes, and Brown intends to keep selling them as well (though not in northern Illinois).

Brown summed up his feelings about the confiscation of the novelty notes, saying he does not understand the "screwy rules some federal officials come up with."

Santa and AIDS

Note Macy's Santa Claus set-up. On advice of doctors, Macy's Department Store declined use of a "Santa" who has full-blown AIDS. The Act-Up group are fighting it and bringing in multitudes WITH AIDS to picket and harangue. NOVELTY, cont. from previous page.

I understand it and I certainly hope that you do, also. Perhaps I should define "numismatic" for you who might not be into the coin collecting or metal collecting interest.

NUMISMATIC: 1. pertaining to or consisting of, coins, medals - -. 2. Pertaining to "numismatics".

NUMISMATICS: The study of or collecting of coins or medals, and the like.

This is a perfectly valid and legal activity. Therefore, I certainly HOPE that you can see that big handwriting on the wall, America.

There are several things in the above of which you MUST TAKE NOTE. They utilize 93 DISTRICTS--not states. That is obviously a division of the operating genius of the New States and New States Constitution--already being practiced by your Feds. And a show of total power to confiscate anything deemed appropriate by local criminals in charge. Now, note carefully that "the `Feds'" said these collector's notes were "legal" and also "illegal", but this is not the issue in real point. ONLY YOUR GOVERNMENT CAN DECLARE

THE LEGALITY OR ILLEGALITY OF SUCH!

The fact that "keyrings" were confiscated also, SHOULD SCARE THE LIVING DAYLIGHTS OUT OF EVERY READER! So be it.

Allow us to close this writing.

I wish to take up, in depth, the solicitation from Col. Oliver L. North regarding raising money to overthrow the attempt to legally open and/or dissolve the CIA.

This is the most obvious and blatant attempt to usurp your freedom I have witnessed. You who think this criminal, North, is on your patriotic side--you had better look again. He is now the goon set up to touch your hearts with lies and subterfuge to keep the most evil of organizations which has forcibly destroyed your nation, alive and well. The CIA has far more Zionist Soviet operatives within its organization than are there Americans. Little Lambs, even I cannot see how bad it is going to be for you if you fail to open your eyes!!

Get set for war

11/30/91 #1 HATONN

Watch them!! Look at what the Congress and administration are doing. Watch Israel. Watch and see what they do this year to you while Congress is on Vacation! Has anyone noticed that it is ALWAYS while Congress is in recess that all the multi-disasters occur? Where will your war start this year? You still don't have a budget! The Soviets are out of cash (is anyone taking note of the "pretty money" in point? You printed it for them!) Did you catch the big bank mergers in your nation this weekend? Second and fourth largest banks now--two instead of four. How long until it is one, in Basel, Switzerland? SOON!!

You have to have a war, you know! There is no other way to avoid the crash in your dooryard. You can't even put off the fall if something drastic and major doesn't come up for distraction, like NOW. IBM laid off a whole bunch just today--

YOU ARE INTO THAT DEPRESSION WE HAVE TOLD YOU ABOUT FOR SEVERAL YEARS NOW. THE MANIPULATORS CAN ONLY HOLD STEADY FOR A TINY BIT LONGER AND THEN EVEN THE FACADE WILL TUMBLE. ENJOY THE HOLIDAYS--IT MAY WELL BE YOUR LAST! Whether or not it is, is strictly up to you for I am about run fresh out of patience and understanding at that which I see allowed to go on under your noses and you do nothing but quibble with me to "get off our backs". Indeed, I hope you have a wondrous Satan Day, world--for that old buddy has some dandy plans in mind for your last decade. So be it.

The next is more sickening than the above. I can find nothing this day which does not cause me to add naught but doom and gloom upon you.

North speaks out for CIA

11/30/91 #1 HATONN

I tell you in advance that the CIA is only a branch of the MAFIA/KGB/SOVIET MAFIA/MOSSAD. The CIA deals in massive drug running, arms dealing, treason and criminal activities--headed right out of your White House on this side of the ocean and the One World Order under the direction of the Committee of 300--Banksters.

I do not wish to talk personalities herein, I simply want to say that Daniel Moynihan has introduced legislation to dismantle the CIA. The following is follow-up in a most dastardly way (even the letter is written by the Zionists for North's signature) to disallow any kind of worthy legislation from happening in this matter. Remember, for your purposes within the nation you have your own FBI and police. Good or bad, we are here speaking only of the CIA--the biggest bunch of organized criminals in the world--or that the world has ever known now that it is a branch of the KGB/MOSSAD on any political lists (in favor of the CIA) you will get one of the blanket letters. However, in case you are one who just throws things away, I am going to make you sit through a repeat of the letter itself AND my comments. Just know that Oliver North does NONE of his own work--even to writing of his Autobiography! He is a tool of the Elite, hook, line and sinker. At this point I feel he is such a treasonist as to categorize him at this writing--as the "dead fish" coming with the sinker. Don't sit and worry about whether or not Oliver North is REAL or PHONY. THAT is not the point herein.

Dharma--copy the letter please. Copy it as nearly the same as is possible--with underlining as in the original. I will not stress within the letter proper. I will comment within brackets. Thank you.

Is California going to be the next Dustbowl?

11/30/91 #1 HATONN

Many of you in this area of the nation are shocked at a 100-car pile up on one of your freeways--caused by blowing sand from drought-ridden fields and high winds. This, too, will worsen. You are now beginning to experience the early signs of the changed weather and cycle patterns. Remember the "dust bowls"? Remember the topsoil that changed from state to state in the '30's? California is in its deserting process and yes, you are in serious trouble. I know not what it requires to get your attention. Does death on the freeway do it? Does deliberate spreading of AIDS to your children do it? What will get your attention to bring you up out of your lethargy for action? I can continue to "comment" into infinity and nothing will happen except a good history will be made for the long-future generations to discover (probably under a desert sand-pit).

God's name are you doing? This is exactly the worst one person to allow anywhere near that store or any other--IMAGINE--AIDS victims holding and laughing, coughing and kissing your babies! IT IS AS IF YOUR ENTIRE WORLD IS ON A CRASH COURSE TO DELIBERATE SUICIDE! WHAT IS THE MATTER WITH YOU?

Liberal Senator Daniel P. Moynihan (D-NY) has introduced legislation to dismantle the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA).

That's right! Even after recent events in the Soviet Union have again demonstrated how unstable the world is, and how critically important it is to have accurate and timely intelligence.

Hatonn brings us up to date on critical world events such as: The details of the phoney Soviet coup. What their new (old) plans are and who their new (old) leaders are. The more things change the more they remain the same, albeit under different names or facade. How the Soviets pretend weakness while they increase their preparations for war, and "blackmail" us for more billions of dollars of aid while we disarm and can't feed our own hungry people. NORTH, cont. from previous page. nation, [H: Col. North and others of the criminal treasonists have already done this job for you as a nation!] I urge you to immediately:

- 1) sign and mail the enclosed postcards to your two U.S. Senators demanding that they vote "NO" on the Moynihan bill; and
- 2) sign and return the enclosed petition to President George Bush asking him to Veto Senator Moynihan's naive and foolhardy CIA-killing bill if it passes. [H: Since the CIA IS Bush's baby all the way, I suggest that he would most likely veto it without your input, don't you think?]

Please, I urge you, do not delay your response. Senator Moynihan is one of the most powerful Members of the U.S. Senate.

When he speaks the media and the congress listen [H: Well, maybe--but at least YOU now know who to swamp in REAL important matters.] and today, they are listening to his wrong-headed arguments against the CIA.

Senator Moynihan's plan is simple--destroy the CIA now, if possible.

If not, compromise in the Foreign Relations Committee or on the floor of the Senate in order to severely wound the CIA today--and then kill it in future legislation that would, if necessary, be introduced incrementally over an extended period of time.

That's how the liberals operate. And that's why you and I must act now to completely smash and discredit the anti-CIA campaign before anyone, anywhere takes it seriously.

However, the immediate requirement is to stop the Moynihan bill!

Your petition and postcards are part of a two front strategy we have put into action to accomplish this.

First, we hope to defeat the anti-CIA Moynihan bill outright in the United States Senate by flooding the offices of all 100 U.S. Senators with a sea of pro-CIA postcards. [H: REMEMBER THE INSTRUCTIONS: USE THAT WHICH THEY USE AGAINST YOU--FLOOD THE OFFICES WITH POSTCARDS BACKING THE DISSOLUTION OF THE CIA--THREE OR FOUR TO EACH CAN ONLY BE BETTER--AND CALL. IS IT NOT A GOOD PLACE TO STOP THE INSANITY AND UNCOVER THE COVER-UPS? AS LONG AS THE CIA IS WORKING AS IT IS--YOU ARE BOUND AND HELPLESS TO CHANGE YOUR PLIGHT!]

At the very least, we hope to keep the anti-CIA votes below a "veto-proof" liberal majority of 66. That's why your petition to the President is so crucial. George Bush knows first-hand the importance of the CIA. He was the Director of the CIA under President Gerald Ford. And armed with your (and thousands of other) petitions we hope to generate from across the nation, the President will have the firepower he needs to defend the CIA against attacks from Moynihan and the liberals.

But even if we defeat the Moynihan bill now, even if it is crushed in Committee, our campaign to save the CIA will not be over.

On the contrary, the Moynihan bill is just one battle in a major war the liberals have launched against the CIA and our entire intelligence community:

* far left Senator Howard Metzenbaum (D-OH) has introduced an amendment to give the media access to the secret "Black Budget", the annual spending figures on intelligence-- [H: My gosh, and let you-the-people know about all that blackmail, cover-up, bribe and stolen money? You would also learn about the billions which are poured into the massive drug business of your government! Now, that would be interesting, would it not?]

--this will allow known and potential enemies of the United States to know exactly how much we spend on intelligence and what kind of intelligence we are spending it on. [H: Better yet--it would let YOU know what all that "black budget" is about and how you have become the world's most bloody criminals in the world today!]

* House Speaker Tom Foley (D-WA) has appointed two of Congress's most anti-CIA Members, radical Congressmen Ron Dellums (D-CA) and David Bonior (D-MI) to the super sensitive House Intelligence Committee. I believe this was reckless and dangerous. [H: Put them on your contact list also--THEY MUST BE DOING SOMETHING RIGHT!]

* After wasting nearly 40 million tax dollars, Iran/Contra Special Prosecutor Lawrence Walsh is now using his unlimited taxpayer funded budget to attack and, in the process, discredit the CIA--with the ultimate objective of seriously harming the President as an election year approaches. [H: My gosh, and I thought Walsh didn't do anything worth while. This is a good recommendation to help, listen and abet Walsh at every opportunity. Could it be that Walsh learned something about the CIA that the CIA certainly does NOT want you-the-people to know? Further, it seems that all the prosecutions, such as North and Poindexter--all got turned over at a higher level anyway! Does this not tell you about your judicial system and how corrupt it really is? I actually cannot quite believe these dunderheads blundered badly enough as to send Hatonn a mailing of this material. I bet we have indigestion in full-flower at the CIA and Edwards--RIGHT THIS MOMENT!]

And these attacks are just the tip of the iceberg.

The liberals, fresh from their successful campaign for deep cuts in the military, are now setting their sights on the CIA.

For proof, consider the words of radical far-left Congressman Ron Dellums (D-CA). At one time, he personally stated that he wanted to:

"dismantle every intelligence agency in this country piece by piece, nail by nail, brick by brick"

This certainly is an irresponsible position for any member of Congress to take. [H: Yes, especially if he intends to stay alive to fight another day! Few are brave enough to buck this hoodlum bunch.] But to appoint such a man to the highly sensitive House Permanent Select committee of Intelligence is totally irresponsible and a national disgrace! [H: National disgrace? Someone finally does something RIGHT and this treasonist calls it a national disgrace! North and the CIA are the NATIONAL DISGRACE!]

It makes you wonder whether House Speaker Foley is the least bit concerned about the safety of U.S. Intelligence personnel who are routinely assigned missions involving great personal risk. [H: Forget Foley--what about all those missing Prisoners of War you continue to cover-up in the name of the CIA? Did it ever occur to you, North, that if you had no CIA--THE INTELLIGENCE PERSONNEL WOULD HAVE NO RISK?]

My friend [H: A bit of overstatement where I am concerned--I consider Oliver North no friend of mine, yours or your nation's.], throughout my career...in the U.S. Marine Corps...and during my years on the National Security Council at the White House...I have worked closely with many of the dedicated men and women who serve in the CIA.

I know these Patriots for what they are: a competent group of professionals, many of whom frequently risk their lives while serving their country. [H: Or so they

Please see NORTH, next page.

NORTH, cont. from previous page. thought at the time--too bad, the country only serves the Elite bastards who would enslave this chosen nation. The next would gag a you-know-what!] Over the years, many have suffered and died protecting and defending you and me. [H: What a shame, indeed. How many people, do you suppose, Oliver North is responsible for imprisonment, torture and outright death in horrendous fashion? You can't even begin to count them, the secret is so deep and malignant!]

But you won't read about these Patriots in The Washington Post or see them talked about on NBC NEWS.

You will never know the critical role the men and women of the CIA played in our decisive victory over Iraq in OPERATION DESERT STORM. [H: Do you need a "time-out" to go heave now--or later--for it does get more sickening as we move on.]

You will never know how many terrorists the CIA has stopped before they attacked, kidnapped, maimed or killed innocent Americans.

You will never know how many times the CIA stopped serious sabotage and espionage plots against our nation.

And you will never know how many lives were saved in Grenada, Panama, the Middle East and throughout the entire world--thanks to the CIA. [H: Whew--see what I mean?]

The only time you will ever hear about the CIA in the news is when one' rogue agent goes bad. Or when someone makes a mistake. Or when someone is implicated in some sort of trumped up political scandal. [!!!!??]

But you won't hear one word of complaint from these dedicated personnel.

They understand. They know what the rules and rewards are in their profession. [H: Stockwell, where are you? Blessings be upon you precious ones who have seen beyond this veil.]

I, and other Marines, were given combat medals with great pomp and circumstances for action in Vietnam. But my friends in the CIA received theirs in secret.

An operative in the CIA lives, works and dies--in total secrecy.

That's the CIA I know.

Proud. Professional. Dedicated. Patriotic. Selfless.

I know, I spent two years of my life trying to save a brave CIA agent, Bill Buckley, from the clutches of Arab terrorists. [H: Yes, and you sure helped Waite and Anderson, too, didn't you? They wouldn't have been hostages if it were not for OLIVER

NORTH. Guess who is also responsible for the death of Buckley?]

I will regret to my dying day that I could not win his freedom. Bill Buckley, a good man and a great American, was tortured and executed in cold blood before we could rescue him. I further regret that unlike fallen combat veterans, the only memorial to Bill Buckley and to all other CIA agents who have sacrificed their lives in service to their country--

-- is a headstone inside the CIA's main headquarters in Langly, Virginia--and it is located in a restricted area that is closed to the public!

I have seen this memorial to these brave and Patriotic Americans. And it can bring a tear to the eyes of this old Marine. [H: Don't be fooled--ANYTHING can bring a tear to those "old" Marine eyes. I marvel that your nation made it as far as it has with such compassion.]

But it also makes me angry.

Angry that the CIA is so misunderstood and unappreciated. [H: Well, golly-gee whiz, who just said above, that no-one should know about activities and/or budgets? You can't have it all ways, North.]

Which is just another reason why my blood boils every time I hear the liberal media or self-serving, arrogant Members of Congress

smear the CIA!

Or when an appointment to a highly sensitive congressional committee totally ignores national security needs and the safety of our intelligence personnel.

My friend, the United States must constantly rely on a strong and ready CIA--and for more reasons than I can list in this letter. For example:

- + the attempted coup in the Soviet Union and the continuing turmoil in Yugoslavia clearly shows that the world remains a very unstable and dangerous place;
- + from Iraq, Syria, Iran and Cuba, to North Korea, anti-American tyrants continue to develop nuclear and chemical weapons that may someday be used to kill innocent Americans;
- + industrial espionage against our nation is growing more and more dangerous to our economic security;
- + as the war against the South American and Asian drug lords heats up, "narcoterrorism" is becoming a huge threat;
- + our victory in OPERATION DESERT STORM did not end the terrorist threat. [H: And just who did all that pin-point intelligence work that allowed for ONLY the bombing of innocent civilian installations in that little fire-storm? Do we give full credit to the CIA for the most heinous crimes in war known to man since Katyn Forest? Thank you CIA, I wondered JUST WHO to give appreciation unto for all that accurate and tedious work. Did the CIA suggest all the medals for crimes which were passed out to cover your son's conscience?]

I could go on and on. [H: Certainly, and so can I!]

But I think you understand how serious this crisis is.

Which is why I am hoping I can count on you to join me and Freedom Alliance in a massive nationwide campaign to save the CIA.

Freedom Alliance is a non-profit, tax-exempt organization that is dedicated to preserving the values and principles that have made America the greatest nation on Earth. [H: What values? What principles? America has long since NOT been the greatest nation on Earth--thanks to traitors like you, old "friend".]

And with the help of thousands of Americans like you, we have developed an outstanding record of success. Freedom Alliance is fighting for what you and I believe in--God, family, country and duty. [H: Dharma's fingers almost refused to type these words of blasphemy.]

When Freedom Alliance learned that U.S. troops in DESERT STORM and DESERT SHIELD [H: Hold on now, for the biggie!] were short on certain personal items (razors, bootlaces, sunscreen and so on), we rushed 125,000 care packages worth $2.7 million to the Persian Gulf and the front lines.

And right after the war, Freedom Alliance established our Casualty Assistance Support Team (CAST)

--a program we developed to help pay the bills of families of our wounded DESERT STORM and SHIELD veterans when visiting loved ones in distant military hospitals--visits they could not otherwise afford. [H: This is the CIA? Why were those people in those places in the first place? What were you doing and WHO were they serving? Come now, don't give me the old "national security" routine. This may not be the most bilious piece of junk mail I have ever read but it sure does come close. What an insult to you wondrous giving citizens to be used in such blatant manner. This is, without a doubt, among the most insulting documents to the intelligence of the public that I have ever witnessed.]

(Thus far, Freedom Alliance has donated more than $50,000 to the U.S. Army Health Services Command Chaplain Fund for this purpose.)

But charitable and military and community support programs are not all that Freedom Alliance is doing.

We are also a political force that is fighting on a number of fronts here in Washington. [H: Ah, clues as to where this came from!]

In fact, Freedom Alliance has already launched an all-out campaign to have radical far-left congressman Ron Dellums removed from the House Intelligence Committee. [H: Of that we can be quite sure.]

And we have also launched a campaign to repeal the law that gave Iran/Contra Special Prosecutor Lawrence Walsh unlimited money and power--the unconstitutional Independent Counsel Law. [H: I barf when this indigenous nerd speaks the word: "Constitution".]

But, we need to do more--starting with the defeat of Senator Moynihan's dangerous and reckless CIA-killing bill. [H: Please note that part of the reason for doing this letter is to make more publicity--for this bunch doesn't just "kill" bills--they "kill" anything and anyone in their path who gets in the way!]

And to do that, Freedom Alliance must:

- * distribute a minimum of 1 million informational packages explaining the danger our CIA is in and why it must be defended at all costs; [H: That in turn may mean that we have to send a million and a half packages--you be the judge!]
- * enlist a minimum of 100,000 Americans willing to join our war to save the CIA;

- * raise the funds we need to produce media ads exposing the liberal threat to the CIA. [H: I would guess that they can get all the money from the government since they are all working through the Israel-first leagues. Remember--it pays to be a Jew in this nation this day. How many of you new "Jews" petitioned for your fair share of that cut?]

Freedom Alliance is taking steps right now to accomplish all of these goals and more.

But the most important thing I have done so far is contact you. [H: INDEED!]

Because without Americans like you, Freedom Alliance is helpless against the liberal arsenal of Congress and the media. Which is why I pray today that I can count on you for a special donation of $15, $25, $50, $100 or more today.

Your most generous donation will ensure that Freedom Alliance has the ammunition we need to expose and defeat the anti-CIA, anti-defense liberals here in Washington and across the nation.

And finally, your gift will allow us to continue the many other programs to strengthen and protect our Armed Forces, and the values for which you and I care so deeply.

So please,

- 1) sign and return the enclosed petition to President Bush asking him to veto Senator Moynihan's CIA-killing bill;
- 2) sign and mail the enclosed postcards to your U.S. Senators demanding that they vote "NO" on the Moynihan bill;
- 3) rush me your most generous donation of $15, $25, $50, $100 or more to Freedom Alliance today.

Yes and No. No, because all are suffering, alcohol has swept through the tribes and winter is upon the nation. You who have local tribes--TEND THEM, PLEASE, GIVE OF YOURSELF IF YOU HAVE NAUGHT ELSE. LET US BRING THESE BROTHERS OF OURSELVES BACK INTO OURSELVES FOR WE ARE ALL BUT "ONE"--ALL RELATED WITHIN CREATOR, AND THESE

BROTHERS HAVE BEEN GIVEN INTO THE RESPONSIBILITY OF NURTURING OF THAT WHICH IS OUR MOTHER'S (NATURE). They have lost their way and most have forgotten tradition and now, they, like you, are helpless and worse, are freezing and starving. Hard times are upon your lands and people of all creeds and colors. There will only be YOU to tend of one another and God returns that which is given in love and Truth, a hundredfold.

Little Crow comes from the Sioux, I hasten to state that what I offer herein is NOT FROM LITTLE CROW NOR DOES HE KNOW OF IT. I DO, HOWEVER, FULLY INTEND TO ASK PERMISSION TO UTILIZE THE MAILING BEFORE I ASK PRINTING IN THE LIBERATOR. If you are reading this then you can know that we have received his permission--we tread not on another's tradition. However, I cannot wait to speak with him lest the mailing not be ready for the printing and ones perish from our dawdling. I shall also ask Little Crow to share with us a message for brothers, it is time that God's ancient ones will rise again and show you the way again into balance for they bear the oral tradition of that balance and harmony which the visitors (most of you) to the planet have long forgotten and cast aside. Now, you have abused and cast aside the very brothers who can show you the path, and called them "Pagan" (heathens). Shame is your cloak for so-doing for they are not "pagan", they revere each fragment of God's gift of Creation and give honor unto each as a "relation" as meaningful as self. They do not "worship" water, wind, rocks or air, stars, sun or moon--THEY HONOR THOSE PROJECTIONS OF CREATOR. Yes, ones have taken the tradition and dishonored it--but, who has not may well be qualified to "cast the first stone". I ask you to think upon these things and then when enough of you are ready to "receive" and "hear"--we shall make available Truth of the ancient tribes as brought down through the oral tradition by one who is given the task of making the recording for this time of passage, a responsibility beyond all--to give only TRUTH for this ending/beginning cycle of Mother/Father Creator/Creation. So be it, Mitakuye Oyasin and AHO!

Dharma, please reprint the letter from the American Indian Relief Council. I can do no more than offer it unto your hearts. Please let it be a reminder of sharing and that which the brotherhood of this Season is "really" about and may you be prompted to reach out a hand unto those who suffer and have no place unto which to turn for they have been imprisoned by the very ones who now come to imprison YOU and YOU didn't realize it. They have no limits as to a "Christmas Day"--their need is now until - - - !

Then, I ask that a council be formed with the brothers of the brown man, red man, etc., and see how and where we can utilize the newly designed "dome housing". It shall be perfect for our brothers who already form their hogans to honor the directions of manifestation. I ask that Little Crow and Cesar join with the builders and let us demand help in return from those who have "taken by the gun" that we might bring shelter unto as many as we can cause to be built--we must start with that first step and then we can move into bringing esteem again unto the people of this nation and then other nations and so on--. It can only begin with YOU!

QUOTE:

AMERICAN INDIAN RELIEF COUNCIL
P.O. BOX 6200
Rapid City, SD 57709-9979

(David G. Myers, President), and,
(Alex "Little Soldier" Lunderman)

My Good Friend: [H: I am honored for this is truth--not the dishonor of one, North, who lies in order to USE me.]

Will you consider sharing your family Christmas celebrations, in spirit, with the people of the Sioux Nation this year by placing the enclosed Family Prayer Card in your midst when you sit down to Christmas dinner? [H: I am sorry that there is no card included, for none got as far as this desk of my scribe. However, I shall ask Little Crow to give us a message which will join us in spirit as we "gather" or sit for a silent moment to share petition unto Grandfather Creator for our gifted blessings.]

I've had [for those who received an original petition] inscribed on the Prayer Card in recognition of the fact that you are one of the most loyal friends the Native American people have today.

Sadly, very few non-Indians out here in "Indian Country" would ever invite a Native American to share a holiday gathering in their home. It "just isn't done".

Even if only in spirit, I ask that you would ask and welcome the Native American Friends at your table even if only in spirit of brotherhood.

I am asking you to do that, please.

Please place the message at the center of your table when you and your family gather in your Christmas sharing.

Please say the little prayer on the card to untie your family, in spirit, with the thousands of Native families who have so little, in the material sense, but who share with you the same peace and joy that you and your family are celebrating. I ask especially this day for the Sioux and the Northern tribes for many shall not make it through this winter.

If a child or grandchild should ask you what it's all about...please tell them what you know about the Native Americans, what a noble and dignified people they are, and about the obligation to help and share with those less fortunate than selves and how these blessed ones have not had the gifts available to rise above that which has binded them. That would really be a "Christmas" lesson with meaning.

My wife Bernice and I will have a Family Prayer Card on our table when we sit down to Christmas dinner, or any meal, at the little apartment we've just moved into in Rapid City, South Dakota.

We've moved out here to be closer to the Native American People we serve through the American Indian Relief Council. Our daughter won't be with us for Christmas. She is still working "back East". But she will be with us "in spirit", just like our "adopted family" will be--all the friends we've made on the Sioux reservations and among the "City Indians" here in Rapid City.

We'll pray for them, because we know that most will not share our good fortune in enjoying a hearty Christmas dinner in a warm apartment.

The winter winds are already blowing strong out here across the Native Country. It is bitter cold right now, and it's going to get even colder as we move into December and January.

Temperatures 20 and 30 degrees below zero are common during the winter months. Some nights it goes down to 70 below! We have already had snow this year. It will probably stay until April--often 2 or 3 feet deep for weeks upon weeks at a time.

Here in Rapid City, a lot of the Indians have no home at all to go to in this weather. They come to the city looking for work and a better life and they find themselves homeless and hungry. You can see whole families, including little children and elderly Grandmas and Grandpas, huddled up in their blankets in doorways and under bridges--anyplace they can find a little shelter from the cutting wind--like hoboes in the Great Depression.

I'm old enough to remember something of those days. Tragically, for a lot of Indians, living conditions like the Great Depression aren't a memory--they're an everyday reality.

And almost worse than the cold is the "third class citizen" treatment the Indians still get so often.

A hundred years ago, the Sioux were a proud people living free on the Great Plains. Today they're welfare dependents, exploited in so many ways--the "welfare" does not cover the bare needs to sustain life in most instances.

I've seen stores in "Indian Country" where they double grocery prices on the first of the month because they know that is when some Indians get their meager government checks! This is also true in all the "ghetto" communities where the need is greatest for the discount markets--and yet there are none, no choices.

Please see SIOUX, next page

What an eye-opener! When I started the American Indian Relief Council I was sure we could make a big difference because, once they knew the facts, everybody would want to help.

But I was wrong! Not very many are generous and caring. I guess a lot of people just don't want to admit to themselves that some people could be as bad off as the Indians, in the midst of our prosperous society.

I wish some of those people could just spend a couple of days with me on a Sioux Reservation. If they visited right now, I'm sure they wouldn't believe the cold--bone-chilling cold day and night for weeks on end without relief. There are no shelters to move into even temporarily--there are not even heat escape vents for there are no sidewalks, train stations, cardboard boxes or even grocery store carts to hold your possessions.

We take central heat and warm clothes for granted. The Indians can't. Many houses on the Reservations have NO HEAT AT ALL. One of the most beneficial things the Council has ever done was when we purchased some chain saws and log splitters for a group of Sioux who wanted to go into business supplying firewood. Now we can turn a $15 donation into a whole cord of firewood for a family that might otherwise freeze if they didn't have it...because they can't afford the $80 to $100 per cord for government-subsidized firewood!

In fact, a lot of Indian families can't even afford to buy their children reasonably warm winter clothes to wear to school. I've seen Sioux children on the street in mid-winter without shoes. They outgrew the last pair they had and their parents have no money to buy new ones.

I've been through hard winters, and I know you have, too. But have you ever watched a mother burning the last of her furniture to keep her children from freezing? That happens in the Sioux Nation.

Please help me. Please--help me! To most of us, the winter holidays means home, warmth, family and love. Christmas means sharing and all the things of joy and "having". It means the same to the American Indians! Even though most of them don't even have a warm home to go to this Christmas. This is the hardest winter remembered, to our people.

Please use the prayer reminder because in the long run it is our prayers for one another that will make the most difference. If you can help in a material way, we are humble in our thanks but it will be the prayers that will bring unity and hope and finally, dignity.

Please, I beg of you to look into your heart and stretch your generosity to the limit and a bit beyond, to assist us with at least the children and the elderly. The young and the elderly. The babies and the old folks. They're always the hardest hit by a cruel winter.

[H: I am not going to print more of the letter--you will help or you will not and I cannot ask a man to beg for that which should flow in love and abundance. I will close this with a statement from Alex Little Soldier, who speaks in behalf of the integrity of Dave Myers. I would only ask that you all remember the horror of Wounded Knee so recently ill-conceived and blatantly bashed upon these honorable people by the government. If you do not start HERE--where shall you begin?]

NOTE FROM LITTLE SOLDIER

Ring Thunder, South Dakota

Dear Friend:

When I was President of my Tribe, I came to know Dave Myers very well. I don't know of any private organization that has done more for the Sioux people than the American Indian Relief Council.

From major projects like distributing turkeys at Thanksgiving or giving three ambulances to the Emergency Medical Service...to everyday needs like getting firewood to an elderly widow's cabin in the middle of Winter...Dave Myers and the A.I.R.C. have always been there when the Sioux people have needed help.

The Holiday Season is upon us and for most Americans, it is a time of celebration, peace and joy. But for many of us Indians, it's hard to celebrate when the snow is falling, it's 20 or 30 below zero, and you can't heat your house or give your children a decent meal because you have no job.

This is the time of year when the A.I.R.C.'s help is needed most by the Native American people.

Please help Dave Myers help us. I know how careful Dave is with every penny. And, believe me, I know how desperately needed your gifts are, both among the "City Indians" as well as for us here on the Reservations.

May the Great Father bless you,

Alex "Little Soldier" Lunderman

END OF QUOTING FROM THE LETTER.

I would share a bit of information which it is past time you understand--THESE BROTHERS COME DIRECTLY FROM PLEIADES AND AS GOD SAID: "THAT WHICH YE DO UNTO THE LEAST OF MINE--THUS HAVE YE DONE IT UNTO ME!" SO BE IT FOR THE CYCLES OF SEQUENCE SHALL ALWAYS RETURN INTO INFINITY. SALU

If you have a coat, a tool, a blanket, tarps and rope--anything that can help even ONE make it through the winter, send it. Funds can be received and I shall also ask that Little Crow accept funds in behalf of the Sioux and he can direct them personally. Please, however, do not send packages intended for the Dakotas to him, for it is far too costly to forward them. There is need, however, in his own gathering circle so most certainly, I place no limitations upon you and your own choices. I shall ask him for a statement regarding this matter.

Thank you, chelas, for allowing me to share this message and petition--for when a brother comes in honest petition as unto a "friend" there IS NO GREATER HONOR UPON YOU--AND IT IS TIME TO COME BACK INTO THAT "KNOWING" AS MUCH.

Dharma, take this from the machine and allow us to get on with our work. Blessings are unto all who see and hear. Salu. ☺

New evidence shows Demjanjuk frame-up

12/3/91 #2 HATONN

I believe that today is a good time to begin to speak of the "trials" of Germans who were executed for that which they DID NOT DO. In the name of "revenge" a massive movement became the show of the day at Nuremberg. But the "Holocaust" lies never stopped nor did the haunting and incredible atrocities against innocent people who were "fingered" as villains from that "holocaust".

I am going to write about this matter now and ask that this portion be placed in the paper as well because it speaks for itself.

WAR CRIME FRAME-UP EXPOSED

I ask you to take careful note of this information for it will not be run on the front page of your Establishment newspaper or make CNN's Special Report. These false accusers have now destroyed another innocent life without even an apology for the action. Retired Cleveland autoworker, JOHN DEMJANJUK, deported to Israel to face execution as a "war criminal", was framed by the Soviets and Israelis, and those defending him have been smeared as "anti-Semites". NOW THE TRUTH CAN NO LONGER BE SUPPRESSED, AND THE ESTABLISHMENT MEDIA IS ADMITTING ITS "MISTAKE"!

I have been sent a publication article regarding this matter and I think it better to have it reprinted. I spoke on this particular case at great length long ago and said the man was innocent and a heinous crime was in committing and now you have truth finally flowing from under the cracks in the doors of the liar's dens. I see not how you people can do this to each other nor how you can sit by and allow of it!

Quote:

Since the start of the tragedy that has engulfed John Demjanjuk, there has been little truth in reporting. No one, save a small paper or two, printed anything regarding the serious deficiencies which existed in the case brought against him by the state of Israel. Now the Establishment press has suddenly discovered those same flaws.

The Washington Post reported on November 17 (1991) that NEW EVIDENCE uncovered over a year ago in the files of the Soviet KGB secret police shows Demjanjuk is just what he claimed: wrongly accused of being "Ivan the Terrible", a brutal prison camp guard in Poland during World War II.

Demjanjuk is the retired autoworker from Cleveland whose naturalized American citizenship was stripped from him by a Justice Department eager to do Israel's bidding, and which shipped him to the Mideast State for trial in 1986, even though it was clear a death sentence was already planned.

Demjanjuk is specifically accused of having been a sadistic camp guard at the German-run Treblinka camp during World War II. However, long-suppressed interviews of 21 Treblinka guards conducted by the KGB between 1944 and 1961 found the guard was another man altogether, named Ivan Marchenko. And a 1940's photograph identified by one of the guards as being that of "Ivan" is CLEARLY NOT DEMJANJUK.

EVIDENCE CONTRADICTORY

Even the Post concedes Demjanjuk's conviction in 1988 by an Israeli court of "crimes against humanity"--and his death sentence--were fallaciously based on largely circumstantial evidence that was itself contradictory. For example, one key document was a German identity card showing he had worked at two other camps; the other was the claim by five elderly former inmates of the Treblinka camp that Demjanjuk was stationed there as a guard.

But despite the revelation of new evidence, at least one longtime Demjanjuk supporter doubts the retired autoworker will ever see justice prevail.

"They had all the proof that in a normal, humane society would be needed to exonerate the man," said Jerry Brentar, who has served as an investigator on the Demjanjuk defense team for more than a decade.

"The man is 100 percent innocent," he added. "The only thing the U.S. Justice Department's Office of Special Investigations has to hang their hat on is Demjanjuk put down on immigration papers in 1948 that he was never in the army," hardly a capital crime.

Demjanjuk's credibility was damaged, the Israeli Supreme Court ruled, because he had denied having worked as a camp guard and because he had used the name Marchenko when he applied in 1948 for a U.S. visa at Stuttgart, Germany. Not surprisingly, Demjanjuk believed he would be denied entrance to the United States by admitting he served in the German army, no matter that he was a captured Soviet army soldier who might not have had a choice in the matter.

As to the visa issue, Demjanjuk was told to list his mother's maiden name, but said later he had forgotten it. So he used Marchenko, at common Ukrainian name, not realizing this would come back to haunt him.

RULING PROMISED

Demjanjuk's Israeli defense attorney, Yoram Sheftel, presented the KGB files to Israel's Supreme Court in August, and the justices have promised to issue a ruling in the case this month. However, prosecuting attorney Michael Shaked told the court how Demjanjuk could still be found guilty (and executed).

Shaked said, in essence, that even if Demjanjuk were not Ivan the Terrible, he should be found guilty, instead, of war crimes for being stationed at German camps at Trawniki and Sobibor. There was no evidence submitted to show the now 71-year-old Demjanjuk had done anything more than guard the facility, as did many other Soviet soldiers taken prisoner and later pressed into service by German authorities.

The Post report on Demjanjuk's three-year-long wait for execution conceded Israel's Supreme Court could face serious problems by authorizing a hanging in the face of such contradictory "evidence". However, the Post also quoted Tom Segev, identified as a journalist who covered the Demjanjuk trial for a Tel Aviv newspaper, as saying the original guilty verdict handed down "was more a part of the literature of Jewish lamentation than a sober legal document".

Brentar said the Israelis clearly are NOT interested in justice.

END QUOTE

Today the Ukraine seems to become a "free" nation but here you have a Ukrainian-AMERICAN ready to go to death for a crime he COULD NOT HAVE COMMITTED--at the hands of the Zionist Israelis. AMERICA, HOW CAN YOU SIT BY AND ALLOW THIS MIS-CARRIAGE OF JUSTICE TO ONE OF YOUR OWN CITIZENS? HOW CAN YOU BEAR THIS ON YOUR CONSCIENCE?

I can only ask that the Constitutional Law Center and/or the Common Law Service Center find out what you can, and at least we can make objection and loud outcry--we cannot sit and do nothing! The prestige of the Constitutional Law Center bears gaining of attention. The family of this man has struggled about as far as they can go. This has already happened to another of your countrymen and the effort did not come in time. May God have mercy for you have so long been blind.

Will anyone reading this document who knows anything of this case, please contact Rick Martin at the America West address.

Depleted uranium shells contaminate desert

12/3/91 #2 HATONN

Now let us turn our attention to another heinous killer at loose--this one is High-Tech ammunition which is yet another legacy of the Persian Gulf War; high-tech ammunition left behind by U.S. forces, fashioned from spent uranium, is slowly poisoning the region.

The spreading contamination of the radioactive debris, left behind by U.S. forces after the Gulf War, keeps on killing civilians in the region, with an estimated 500,000 additional deaths expected by the end of the decade. This comes from a "top-secret" scientific report leaked by an insider.

A senior UN diplomat who represents a major nation of the Arabian peninsula stated, "Our air, our water, the soil, the food chain--everything--has been poisoned. My government supported the military intervention against Iraq, but now many of us wish we had opposed it."

The concern voiced by this veteran foreign affairs official and numerous of his UN colleagues, who always go "unheard" and certainly "unpublished", has been prompted by a recent top-secret study of the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) distributed to Gulf diplomats with high security clearances in mid-November.

The study, researched and compiled by an IAEA task force of largely British and French scientists, reveals intense artillery, armor and air attacks last February by U.S.-led coalition forces using so-called sub-atomic ammunition left behind some 50,000 tons of radioactive and toxic rubble in Kuwait and Iraq.

The Bush administration is "desperately trying to suppress this survey" asserted an Arab UN delegate. "We cannot let that happen; our nations face genocidal catastrophe unless we sound an alarm."

To break the cover-up of the IAEA report, Middle Eastern diplomats arranged access to a copy of the study, on the understanding that the identity of these sources would remain protected, and that no duplicates of the highly sensitive text were made.

DEPLETED URANIUM

Estimates are that during the brief but intense combat phase of the Gulf War U.S. ground forces fired between 5,000 and 6,000 advanced, armor-piercing shells known as depleted uranium (DU) rounds. (And all the while you didn't realize you were already IN A NUCLEAR WAR--YOURS!)

In addition, American and British aircraft on anti-tank and combat support missions launched "perhaps 10 times as many" rockets and projectiles made of depleted uranium at enemy targets.

DU ammunition, developed in tightly guarded secrecy by U.S. and British defense contractors during the mid-1980's, contains an exceptionally hard, dense core of U-238.

These projectiles are "the best tank killers we've ever seen", said Lt. Col. Vincent Macchi, a combat commander in the Gulf campaign who now works as a Pentagon operations analyst.

"The trouble is, we've never used DU ammo before, and we had no idea what the aftereffect would be," Macchi added.

To determine the long-range impact of this new war-fighting technology, physicists and decontamination specialists from the Royal Atomic Energy Authority, the British affiliate of the IAEA, conducted a series of secret field tests and surveys in the Gulf during August and September.

They found shell fragments, uranium dust and other debris left behind by the "firestorm" of high-tech shells fired during the February campaign are generating enough radiation to present a "serious, and ultimately lethal health hazard" to large population masses in the region.

A computer analysis of these field tests and "on-site" findings by the Radiological Protection Unit of the IAEA has come up with the grim estimate "at its present level, the contamination, radiation and other health hazards generated by shell fragments and similar debris is sufficient to cause some 500,000 deaths among the civilian population of the region" within the next few years, 10 at most.

This is a stunning forecast, chelas. This has prompted the IAEA to add an appendix to its findings urging all bomb removal and cleanup crews in the affected areas be provided with protective clothing and other anti-radiation safeguards "before they commence another day's work". It also prompted a "top-secret" designation on the information.

But the Bush administration, though "shocked and staggered" by the IAEA's findings, views them as a "dangerous challenge", one White House source interviewed privately--has disclosed.

The reason: Any public admission about the long-range threat presented by DU ammunition may lead to a call for international treaties banning such genocidal sub-atomic armaments from future warfare.

For the moment, Bush and his top advisers are simply trying to "sit on the IAEA report and play for time" until they "come up with a way to circumvent it", related this knowledgeable observer.

This, however, may not prove an acceptable response for the masses of civilians who face deteriorating health, cancer and kidney failure along with other ailments, and in the end untimely death, until the Bush administration finds the courage to face the consequences of its military intervention in the Gulf.

Understanding and coping with "Restless" feelings

12/4/91 SANANDA

Greetings precious Druthea. I AM Sananda, Esu, Immanuel. I AM the one many know as "Jesus Christ". I come in service to Holy God of Light and to you my brethren upon earth Shan. Sananda is my inherited, earned label given of Our Father, God. It simply means "One With God".

My scribe is in process of tremendous change and has been for some years now. This I share because many of you will relate to the feelings which are or have been produced by these "changes", or what I prefer to call "challenges" to facilitate spiritual growth. None of you will escape these "growing" pains which I will speak of.

When this one, Druthea, first became involved with the works of Hatonn and Dharma, contained within THE PHOENIX JOURNALS, she was quite skeptical. It took many months of self-searching and testing for her to find comfort with the fact that, yes indeed, she was in contact with beings not of this planet, called Earth.

When it finally sunk in that what Commander Hatonn and the other Hosts said is in fact true and that this civilization is in serious trouble, absolute terror set in for her. Then came the denial. "Oh no, DOOM AND GLOOM NEGATIVE HATONN", and "NO BEING OF THE LIGHT WOULD

Now, let me give you some pretty bad news regarding this "accidental" genocide. The morals as projected by this part of the world is not suitable for the spread of AIDS, etc., as readily as in other places where depopulation is desired. This is just more form of weakening the population of your globe to more easily cause all to come within the One World Elite. You are going to have to face this nightmare, dear ones, lest you all perish in the whirlwind.

SPEAK THIS WAY was constantly put in her mind deliberately by ones whom she thought very near and dear to her. She began to doubt her sanity. She wanted her life the way it was BEFORE she knew the Truth...and there was NO turning back as hard as she tried.

Does this sound like any of you out there reading this? I thought so. It doesn't end yet, my chelas. She then went through a very long period of deep confusion and became very angry. She cried frequently. She spent much time alone in self-pity. She was harsh to her loved ones. She was even embarrassed at her own behavior at times, but she frankly felt most helpless. She asked for everyone's opinion and interpretation of the transmissions presented by Commander Hatonn and even myself, Sananda. All the while God waited patiently for her to listen, mostly she was too terror-stricken and confused to quiet herself enough to do so.

Many ones, including myself, worked with her and kept a constant outpouring of loving light upon her. Many of you ones in the early circle did the same. This child is loved very greatly by many ones and I think she recognizes now the great degree of love given her to assist her during these "difficult" testing times she has gone through. But remember this, chelas, our outpouring is only useful to the degree that the receiver allows it! Otherwise it simply returns to sender.

So what did she finally do to recognize and change the fact that she allowed the adversary (satan) to rule her life for a time? WHEN SHE BECAME SO EXHAUSTED AND DEPRESSED AND HOPELESS, SHE TURNED HER FACE TO GOD AND SAID, "Father, please HELP ME!" The call from the heartplace compels the answer and she was at that moment ready to listen for her instructions and act upon them. From that moment on she has commanded shielding of love, protection and guidance that she may serve God honorably in His reflection. Does she falter and have her "bad" moments? Certainly. The difference is now she knows she has a choice in the matter (as she always did and did not know) and so she then can make the necessary "attitude" adjustments.

I will share with you that this child finds it most difficult to "sit still" to listen. She has much of what you call "nervous" energy. Which has little to do with nerves as such. Anyway, for those of you who wonder what and how to listen to God, read on. This one "walks" every day for "exercise". This is the "time" early on that we, of the Hosts, found it easiest to reach her because she actually puts herself in a self-hypnotic trance while walking. She also cleared her space, commanded protection and asked for guidance to sustain in God's service. It is really that simple, chelas! It begins with Desire, Devotion and Self-Discipline. You must DO your part as Co-creator for God already has DONE His.

I will share with you that NO ONE was more surprised at Druthea becoming a "receiver" than was she! You must realize, precious chelas, that receiving from the Lighted Source and Command is something ALL have ability to do and many do it unwittingly. God is WITHIN you and so the still quiet voice of His love and guidance must be accessed within you. It is not mystical, it is only a mystery until YOU KNOW how to do it. Eventually, and hopefully sooner than later, you

RECLAIM OUR U.S. CONSTITUTION

Become informed about:

The Truth, The Whole Truth, Nothing But The Truth

RAPE, RAVAGE, PILLAGE AND PLUNDER OF THE PHOENIX RRPP VOL I

$10.00...Trade Paper...G. C. Hatonn
This volume describes the truth of matters heavenly and earthly; of the legislative, judicial and executive unlawful functions of the U. S. Government; of the universal corruption of organized religion; of anti-justice in the courts of the nation and of deliberate murderings in the medical system.

RAPE OF THE CONSTITUTION DEATH OF FREEDOM RRPP VOL II

$10.00...Trade Paper...G. C. Hatonn
Read the truth about: the necessity to return to the U.S. Constitution; Common Law and Admiralty Law; the power of the Rockefeller Syndicate; the Khazar Zionists; the real John Birch Society; the corruption of organized religions, the medical and educational systems in the U.S.; the plan to enslave Americans by a Constitutional Convention called to balance the budget, and the ones who wish to destroy the original Constitution: the Bilderbergers, the Trilateral Commission and the Council of Foreign Relations.

YOU CAN SLAY THE DRAGON THE PHOENIX RISES

$10.00...Trade Paper...G. C. Hatonn
When the Federal Reserve Act is repealed and the U.S. Congress regains its Constitutional power to coin money and regulate the value thereof, when "We The People" refuse to feed the Dragon by repealing the 16th Amendment to the Constitution (Income Taxes), when the I.R.S. is recognized as an unlawful, private corporation deceitfully bleeding the Phoenix unto death, when "We the People" refuse to disarm ourselves, the Phoenix can slay the Dragon.

CRY OF THE PHOENIX DEATH RATTLE OF FREEDOM, THE PLAN "2000"

$10.00...Trade Paper...G.C. Hatonn
If you are not guaranteed a place among the Elite this book describes your future and how you might help change it. The government of the U.S.A. is now firmly in the hands of the Elitist Cartel, including the world bankers, who are dedicated to the collapsing of all nations into a One World Government by the year 2000.

will all learn to commune with God within you constantly, regardless of the task you may be performing.

Druthea says she thinks there is one down side to knowing you are responsible for all you do and create and how you respond to situations. That is that when you "goof" or make an "error" against God's LOVE principle, YOU KNOW IT and there is no hiding and saying you did not know!

True, precious, you cannot hide behind ignorance when you do know, but I would not say it to be a "down side" for would you not rather KNOW your errors immediately so that you bear the consequences quickly? In this way you are less apt to repeat the error. It is only when in ignorance ones defy the law of balance and love and then wonder why they are having "bad" luck or are so very unhappy. Remember even in ignorance of your errors will you still reap the consequences. So would you not rather stand responsible and KNOW the error be so and KNOW YOU must change your behavior or thinking accordingly? I trust you see the wisdom in knowing!

WHAT HAPPENS AFTER YOU'VE CONQUERED THE FEAR?

So what became of Druthea after she accomplished communion with God and We of His Hosts? Bliss and Contentment? Not hardly, not even at all. Once the novelty wore off, she began to realize and to remember that SHE herself had a purpose, a commitment to serve God here on Earth. We simply reminded her of this commitment. Yes, she was no longer "afraid" to die. She did begin to have a sense of inner peace, although she, I must admit, was not too thrilled to find out about the nature of her responsibilities in service to God. And that is the key word, RESPONSIBILITY. It was like one minute she was just responsible for herself and NOW the whole world was included. That is just about how she felt.

It seems to be, and it certainly is, a MASSIVE job to awaken a sleepy humankind, uncover the lies of the adversary, boot him out, and clean up the mess and then hopefully graduate beyond these physical dimensions. We continually remind her, as well as all of you, that you each CHOSE to be here and you will CHOOSE to serve GOD OF LIGHT or continue in the service of the adversary to God.

ALL ones of you reading this material have made a commitment to serve in some capacity. We are ringing the alarm clock. If some of you are angry, that is good for at least we know you're alive and cooking and perhaps we can help you out of the boiling pot before you are too cooked to escape!

I suggest that you NOT be angry at God or the truthbringers for waking you up, for you will only find yourself in misery and powerlessness. You must be willing to DO your part to change the evil circumstances and bring forth TRUTH and to do it you must sincerely DESIRE TO KNOW WHAT IT IS YOU MUST KNOW AND DO TO SUSTAIN IN GOD'S SERVICE. It is not necessarily easy. It most probably will involve hard work, physically and emotionally. It may not be convenient. But so what! Do you not enjoy a good worthy challenge? A strong spiritual BOND? Inner fulfillment of a commitment accomplished to the best of your ability? Do you realize for most of you this is a rare and precious time of opportunity to serve? The changing of a cycle of a planet. You proclaimed to God YOU would serve. Will you honor your commitment?

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT?

So now that the fear is gone, how do you feel? Druthea found herself being tested in ways which produced forth her "insecurities", for example in her case, money. She does not like this being discussed, and many of you are in the same rut as she. The funny thing is, Druthea has always had more than she needs and yet you would think the child is close to poverty by the way she magnifies "expenses" in her own mind. She has an over developed sense of frugality on one hand and then can be quite frivolous on the other. Many of you share her problem in similar ways.

So what is the root of this insecurity? FEAR rears its ugly head again. It's sort of silly when she looks at it. For she no longer fears death, yet she is terrified of losing her "shopping" budget! This fear/insecurity about money is, in her case, related to deep attachment to physical world illusion as she has been comfortable within it. Chelas, the people of this world, save a few, are in the process of losing all of their dollars/wealth. As Hatonn says, "The world is being foreclosed upon!" So she, as well as all of you, will need to make some adjustments in perceptions of comfort and "needs". So be it.

Comfort in the days ahead, my friends, will be a warm bed, home, food and clothing. And you will be HAPPY to have them. There is no longer room in your minds for excess physical frivolity. If that frightens you, I am sorry for you. For your 30 pairs of designer shoes, and your valuable gold jewelry and gems, and your expensive houses, cars and countless other "luxuries" will not serve your basic survival needs in the times ahead. Nor will ANYTHING of the physical leave with you when you depart this plane in the so-called "death" experience. You will need release attachment to these things "you think" make you happy, for if you are honest with yourself, you will find that they DO NOT.

Does this mean throw out your furs and abandon your home? Of course not, precious ones! God IS Abundance, only His abundance is NOT LIMITED TO PHYSICAL abundance! Enjoy your "things" which bring you comfort. Although if you have an expensive home with a big mortgage in the city, I would suggest you reconsider that decision. Perhaps it would be wise for you to sell your home (if you can find a buyer) and move to the country, store some food and water and prepare for leaner times ahead. If that sounds negative and doom and gloom perhaps it is your perception which is in error! Perhaps you simply do not understand HOW SERIOUS YOUR CIRCUMSTANCES REALLY ARE!!

IS MY TESTING OVER YET?

This Druthea asks. No. And it does not become OVER until your return to the ONE Creator God is completed! Remember I, Sananda, am also being tested for this grand finale confrontation with our adversary here on earth Shan. So don't feel alone, chelas.

Now at the current time, Druthea is dealing with the challenge of feeling restless and "let's get on with it, I'm bored with the adversaries' games." This feeling occurs when you finally begin to see the light at the end of the tunnel. It is not a freight train. It is God returning. And now that she feels it is happening within her, she's becoming impatient for completion of the job. And she asks why doesn't everyone just wake up and get on with it? Well, it doesn't work that way, chela. Just as you have struggled and continue to struggle in your own way with awakening and serving, ALL will need to go through their testing and process of awakening. This is part of your growing experience upon this beloved orb. My suggestion? Be as patient with those you are reaching as God and His Hosts have been patient with you! (Big Gulp from Druthea).

Perhaps some of you can relate to her feeling if I describe it as like a horse you are riding. Often when the horse you are riding is leaving the stable, it trots along. When you turn back towards "home", the horse can barely contain itself and wishes to run all the way home! Druthea knows she's on the road "home" and wants to run and miss all the scenery. Not only will she miss the scenery, she undoubtedly will become careless and trip in a gopher hole, and make her journey much slower and somewhat painful too! Ponder it carefully, precious ones! There are NO shortcuts to God. ENJOY the journey. Welcome the "challenges" and testing which YOU and God design for you to bring you home in honor.

SO HOW CAN YOU BECOME INSPIRED OR RE-INSPIRED?

Impatience comes with not wanting to go through the "process" of an experience or "repeating" something which seems so obvious to you. For the first reason, I say, trust the process of GOD working within you. Your impatience will subside when that is truly accomplished. For the second, that of repetition of a circumstance, such as how the adversary lies and fools you, or when you are explaining the same to others, I say that you have reached the top of one level of awareness and are anxious for inspiration to move into the next. You may recognize reaching this level by feeling "stuck" and also a feeling of "boredom" and/or "restlessness" may occur. Again, Desire, Devotion, Discipline. Trust the process of God working within you. Be patient for the unfolding WILL occur in the right time for you. And lastly, GOD ALWAYS DOES HIS PART! KNOW AND DO YOURS!

Hatonn is: Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn-Aton. I write through a "translator"; communications through pulsed short-wave transmission. This is not "psychic channeling nor hocus-pocus". This is purely "physics" of frequency transmission, receiver termination of transmission and translation of the signal into the English language.

I will close this segment. Thank you, Druthea, for your service and for allowing this sharing of your personal experience. There are many who will benefit from this sharing and you are truly blessed for having it to share! I Thank you, my precious brethren, for taking the time to read this. May it inspire you in your growth process. Walk gently with one another and Bless our Mother Earth Shan for allowing herself to be your stage of learning.

Thank you, Father, for allowing mine sharing through this scribe. Please hold her gently in your loving light of guidance and protection that she find the peace within which only exists in your KNOWING MIND. So be it and Selah. I AM Sananda. I come in service to Our One HOLY Creator God/Aton. Salu. ☉

I am Commander of the "Phoenix Project", serving the Command of that ONE whom you refer to as "The Messenger, Christos, God, etc." The "Command Fleet" is from the sector Pleiades from which originated your ancestral lineage. My mission is in preparation for the return of the "God" to reclaim His property. He went forth and has prepared safe passage and "a place" for each of you who would come within His shelter. The choice is individual for force is not of God and you have free-will for all choices.

Our direct commission is to set the records into Truth of content of historical facts for the planet is ending one cycle and beginning a new and wondrous cycle of experience. This gives cause for you of the human species to make changes concurrent with the greater physical changes of the planet. Yours will be a "spiritual change" and may or may not include physical translation. Each will be given choice of direction and translation.

The purpose of these writings and speakings is to allow the Truth to be put forth unto the masses who would wish to receive them. The JOURNALS also serve as historical documentation of this portion of "history" relative to that which has come before--known and unknown--for whatever life forms and generations to follow this manifested experience.

You come against the wall, so to speak, wherein you all but cross the societal point of no return. You will act to reclaim your human rights or you will fall to the Adversary who, by the way--is that one touted to be the "anti-Christ". You are in the time of, and the action of, Armageddon as recognized from prophecy. It makes no difference to me whether or not you are believing of this information. Truth will stand into infinity and God does not send us, the Hosts, to banter or kibitz with you about the facts of the matter--ours is to present the situation as it is, unto you.

Your "enemy" as to "space aliens" are now all landlocked to your orbiting system. YOU HAVE NO ENEMIES AMONG THE BROTHERHOOD IN SPACE (COSMOS). YOU DO HAVE ENEMIES IN YOUR "SPACES" BUT THEY ARE VERY EARTH-ORIENTED AND ORIGINATED.

All of this is explained in depth in the writings--this message is for identification of myself and my co-workers who bring information and assistance at this time of evolution.

We bring the unfolding and uncovering of the actions upon your globe so that you can awaken unto your plight--with "reason" and "proof". It is up to you as to what action you take for our commission is to respond to you who have asked input and assistance. We will DO nothing FOR you; we will serve and inform with "HOW TO" as we move along through the maze of incredible deceit. You have NOTHING TO FEAR from us of the Lighted Brotherhood of the Cosmos for we work and act only within the Laws of God and those of The Universal Creation (Natural). Your would-be-"Kings" (rulers of the globe) have heinous plans to injure you and place blame upon the Cosmic Brotherhood--what will be claimed is a blatant LIE. You are "People of the Lie" and unless you awaken and reclaim your heritage as nations and people--you shall fall--no more and no less.

Massive efforts are put forth to stop our presentations--so be it. We have naught to lose--YOU HAVE EVERYTHING TO LOSE, INCLUDING YOUR SOULS AS WELL AS YOUR LIVES PHYSICAL. My commission is to "inform" you and I shall do so to the best of my allowed abilities for I (we) are not allowed by Cosmic Law to interfere or intervene except in specific and delineated instances which have been covered in lengthy dialogue prior to this.

I serve aboard the Command Ship, Phoenix, and I head the Fleet Command. I am Commander of the United Federation Fleet, Intergalactic Federation Command. I link with other Commands, i.e., the referenced "Ashtar Command", only in time of imminent planetary destruction at which point that Command will be in charge of any evacuation of general nature. Our Command will bring all of God's people into security. I have no responsibility to the "adversary" nor his followers and no evil shall be brought into the places of Lighted God. Evil is a manifestation of "human" and we do NOT allow evil within our orderly God-revering societies. This does not, however, mean that ones who are in deciding will not be taken into a placement which can preserve "soul" survival.

I am not here to ask your permission for anything; I care not what any aspect thinks or believes. I have a mission of God and I shall see to it. You may join with me or deny me for it makes not one iota of difference. I do not "sell" anything--not this paper nor any other item. I have a commitment and obligation and I will see to it. You may do that which you will--agree or disagree. I do, however, suggest that all read with an open mind to the "possibilities" herein for you are told by all corners of your intelligence that you are in a traumatic time of change--you might well be advised to look into the possibility of the Truth of this information. I chair the Cosmic Council relative to this Universal Sector and I believe you will find that I am not overruled. He who denounces my person had best be carefully looked at through the intent of wisdom for I meet with any man and/or energy who claims my falseness. I find that no one ever, somehow, wishes to participate in that invitation for confrontation--do you not find that strange?

You will find most of the "New Age" groups and speakers fully in alignment with the "New World Order--Global Government". This will be denied for they do not realize the subterfuge and "sucking in" of the innocent and ignorant. I suggest you pay close attention for you are on the brink of losing your world--not just your freedoms.

I shall continue to bring to your attention the cover-ups as they occurred and still occur. God has no mysticism nor hidden agenda--God is open and the only "mystery" is that which you simply do not yet understand--that too, He gives unto you openly and freely. There are no secret rituals or hidden doctrines, royal titles or elite placements. If you find any of these things in that which YOU follow--I suggest wisdom in discernment of your choices. If you give of your Power unto another according to his decrees--you have forfeited your Power forever. God asks that you accept and take your POWER in HIS name that you can become one within His Grace and reclamer of that which is your rightful heritage.

I feel that we must begin to publish

BEWARE OF FLU SHOTS

We are looking at a three-stage campaign geared toward mass inoculation of flu shots. The first stage was a series of nation-wide news bulletins, carried by all the major T.V. networks, the wire services, radio and newspapers, that this winter will see the appearance of a particularly virulent strain of flu. This part of the campaign is more or less complete.

The second stage is a nation-wide warning that flu shots are going to be in short supply and will be allocated first to the elderly, to the children, and those who cannot afford to pay for the necessary shots which, it is stressed, everybody should get. This stage is on-going.

The third stage is an expected rush by various population groups to get their shots while supplies last, having been falsely led to believe the "short supply" message. No medi-this identification and purpose for we are swamped with new readers and it is magnificently important that you KNOW who we are and that which we are about--for we are about our Father's business. Again, you have nothing to lose by gaining TRUTH and insight--but you do have everything to lose in the physical and soul realms by remaining ignorant at the hands of the deceivers who would hide Truth from your eyes and ears. So be it. I salute you who assume responsibility. I pity you who do not and I have great compassion as we pass on into the more compressing times ahead, as you perceive the journey. I offer my hand in love and brotherhood and I give you all that I have and am. Accept or deny my person--but I suggest you look into the possibility that what we bring "might" well be Truth and you will come to understand. To deny the robber, who has just bound and gagged you, is to be a stupid fool. The better part of wisdom is to look, discern and then act. God never limits your investigation into all facets of the Truth--does your "minister"? Does your controlling hierarchy? I suggest you ponder this well. ● cal health facility has questioned the need for the shots, much less explained to the public that the shots cannot possibly cover all of the known 2000 strains of flu viruses, so how can flu shots protect people from what the authorities are vaguely describing as "a particularly virulent type"? Does the government know exactly WHAT type this is? If it does, it is not telling.

No one is willing to state what the flu shots contain that people are being urged to take. My source indicates that it is a compound of three strains and may resemble swine flu shots, but only in greater strength. If this is the case, then we shall see serious side effects, similar to those produced by swine flu shots. The young and the elderly will be most vulnerable. Do not be surprised if the shots prove to be life threatening for the very old and the young.

Could it be that the new flu vaccine is intended to supplement the AIDS wave sweeping the country? During her recent tour of Africa, Queen Elizabeth said that "overpopulation" is the biggest problem facing Africa and, by inference, the world. Also by inference were comments indicating that AIDS isn't killing fast enough.

Before accepting a flu shot, ask your doctor EXACTLY what the shot contains, and if he or she cannot tell you with certainty, and explain any side effects that might arise, then, conventional wisdom dictates that you don't have it.

CHOLERA ON THE MARCH

Meantime a virulent new strain of cholera has been reported as far north as Mexico near the Mexican-U.S. border. Unlike any previous strain of cholera, the new strain kills within 2 hours of onset. At present there is an increase in the number of cholera cases worldwide. Since January 1991, there has been an epidemic of this disease raging unchecked across Latin America. The new cholera strain should be of grave concern to the United States, given the virtual open border between Mexico and the U.S.

IRRADIATED FOODS

The Department of the Army has announced that it will use irradiated foods. General William Tuttle, who commands the Army Materiel Command, has advised the U.S. Department of Agriculture that, henceforth, irradiated food will be taken into the military subsistence program.

STARVATION

The World Bank has announced that it will reduce financial help to African nations where millions are already starving. The World Bank says that African nations are not "on the reform path", and that it will no longer give money to countries in Africa that are "not doing all they can"--presumably to comply with the policies of genocide imposed by the International Monetary Fund.

UPDATE

The U.S. has only sufficient foodstocks for five days as of the end of November. ●

U.S. economic woes continue

12/3/91 DR. J. COLEMAN

Not a single one of the scenarios that Bush hoped would save the economy has been forthcoming. His last gasp is the planned air assault on Libya which is very much in the cards. However, the "bomb Libya" plot is stalled because of the intransigence of Italy, which gets most of its oil from the desert sands of Libya where once the armies of El Duce ruled.

Other voices have been added to the Italians, namely Iran and Syria. Bush fears that a backlash against his planned act of visiting destruction from the air on Libya may outweigh the political advantages. The plan is therefore on hold. In case we are wondering about those two Libyans, it is well known in the intelligence services of Britain, France and the U.S. that the Pam Am bombers are two Syrians, presently in Damascus. Colonel Qaddafi has repeatedly challenged John Major and President Bush to produce a single piece of evidence that the two intelligence agents were in any way involved. Thus far they have not responded.

President Bush has nothing left with which to fight the depression, so he has resorted to playing the fiddle, the tune dictated by our British masters, while Washington burns. In all fairness to the President, until the 2% inflation rate target for our economy, set by the Bank of England, is reached or else rescinded, there is not much he nor anyone else can do. The British oligarchists who dictate our economic policies do not want Federal Reserve interest repaid in inflated dollars.

But the planners of this scenario have been hoisted by their own petard. Cutting the interest rate will have no effect. That was proved in 1929-1930, when conditions similar to those which now exist collapsed the economy. President Herbert Hoover was blamed, when in reality it was the Bank of England acting through its U.S. surrogate that was the culprit.

The November 6th cut in the interest rate has not stopped the collapse of our economy. It was an act of desperation. The cut was only supposed to come after Christmas sales results were reported. The discount rate of 4.5%, following five cuts since December 1990, stands at its lowest since 1973.

The lower interest rate has sent foreign investors scrambling to get out of U.S. investments. Worse yet, the latest information received from my economic intelligence source is that ominous signs are appearing which indicate that foreign investors have begun to disinvest so rapidly in U.S. securities and the dollar that, if the present pace continues, it will amount to dumping of these key assets.

European money managers attribute this to the panic cut in the discount rate, the pending collapse of Citicorp and Britain tying the pound Sterling to the German Deutschmark. The consensus among intelligence agency economic watchers is that even if the Federal Reserve rallies the dollar, any advance will be of very short duration. This was confirmed by my friend who used to work for Salomon Brothers until a short time ago. European and Japanese money managers see no relief in the underlying causes of what is now openly being called "the U.S. depression of 1991".

Those who favored a drastic reduction in the discount rate have backed the wrong horse. Although at its lowest since 1973, it has not brought the desired results. One of the primary reasons is that the U.S. is still in a high price market. Although very small signs of deflation are starting to appear, the price of overinflated real estate has not dropped significantly, nor have big ticket items like cars, refrigerators and television sets. Until PRICES take a big drop, the consumer does not want to invest in these items, and in most cases does not have even the downpayment.

Yet the government itself insists on trying to prevent the apple from falling to the ground. Take, for example, the Resolution Trust Corporation (RTC), whose sleazy methods of doing business are a national disgrace. In trying to prevent the law of gravity from operating, the RTC held out its hand and caught billions of dollars worth of real estate from falling onto the market.

What is the purpose of such economic sabotage? Quite simply the RTC is preventing the real estate market from getting back to reality by withholding the properties it holds from the market. Its agents say, "We don't want to be the cause of a blowout." What right does the RTC, working with public money, have to protect its friends? How dare the RTC withhold real estate from the market unless it can sell for what they call, "its threshold value", which is 25% of its INFLATED market value? The President ought to tell the RTC to stop playing around and protecting its pals in the real estate business and tell RTC to put ALL OF THE BILLIONS OF DOLLARS IN REAL ESTATE IT HOLDS ON THE MARKET IMMEDIATELY.

This would have the effect of pricking the balloon of inflated real estate values and returning the market to sanity. The RTC says, "Well, there are no buyers," but this is only partly true, because it is the RTC which is keeping prices high and preventing buyers from coming to the market place.

When prices do drop, as they will have to with car prices, television sets, refrigerators, washers and dryers, etc., a chain reaction will be set up that is most likely to blast the economic sector and take down the entire economy. No matter which way we look at it, the U.S. is in a perilous economic state which interest rate cuts cannot save.

In fact, interest rate cuts are making things worse. Apart from the disinvestment going on, the pending dumping of securities and the dollar, investors are starting to see that government paper is soon going to be worthless. The Japanese were the first to notice this and have ceased buying U.S. government paper--hence the insults being hurled at them by the Bush administration.

Unlike the post-1987 period, there is simply no foreign investment money coming in. This means that investment must come from domestic sources, but these have been virtually dried up by massive Treasury borrowing. Primary dealers in paper don't want to buy any more because they know that they will have to sell at potential losses because their clients see that there is no purpose in investing in low yield paper.

One such government paper badly hit by interest rate cuts is the bond market. Witness what happened on November 5th when sales of 3-year notes collapsed. The $14 billion offer was the first of the $38 billion refunding program. Nobody wanted to buy paper that would yield only 6%. The Japanese and Swiss buyers stayed away in droves.

There are some frightening statistics to be observed in this sector of the economy: (1) The "bid to cover" ratio was 1.55, the lowest for the past 18 years. (2) Bidding for the notes amounted to $21.7 billion--the lowest since 1978. Combined November 5th and 6th sales forced the government to borrow another $250 million from a loan market already squeezed dry. It becomes increasingly clear that the many cuts in the discount rate has left the bond market in total disarray. It is too far gone even for a new war with Iraq--which the London Financial Times mentioned as a distinct possibility--to pull Bush's chestnuts out of the fire.

The banking industry is close to a blow-out following revelations that off balance sheet liabilities of Citicorp are $660 billion or more than THREE TIMES its assets of $203.10 billion. These figures were confirmed for me by my source in the House Banking Committee, who also told me that Citicorp is operating under the control of federal regulators who are trying to prevent the bank from collapsing until after the 1992 elections.

Citicorp has always been highly secretive about its off balance sheet exposure, but my inside source has confirmed the foregoing. Off balance sheet liabilities are not reported to federal bank regulators by the big banks, a practice that has long been criticised by the General Accounting Office (GAO), but smaller ones who do, show a startling situation which even many economists are unaware of. The GAO says that off balance sheet liabilities of reporting banks exceeded $4 trillion--or 884% of equity capital in 1988, and rose by $11 billion in 1989. My economic intelligence source told me that this year off balance sheet liabilities EXCEED bank equity by 6,150%.

In 1988 only 11 types of off balance sheet activities were reported to the GAO, whereas over 35 categories were reported by the FDIC during the same period. What off balance sheet activities can do is wreck any bank, even the biggest like Citicorp. CITICORP'S OFF BALANCE SHEET LIABILITIES NOW STAND AT $1 TRILLION AS OF TODAY. To make matters worse, Citicorp, in conformity with its long-standing practice won't write down its losses and keeps real estate loans that are long gone on its books as if the assets existed.

Citicorp's credit card business is on the skids. According to a friend of mine who used to work at Salomon Brothers until he was laid off recently, Citicorp has been grossly overstating its credit card business profits for the past two years. In trying to cover up its malfeasance, Citicorp fired top executives in its credit card division, saying they had used fraudulent tactics.

That Citicorp is in the first stages of being taken over by bank regulators has been confirmed by three of my sources. But no amount of rescue effort will stop Citicorp from collapsing. Representative John Dingell said a few days ago, "CITICORP IS TECHNICALLY INSOLVENT." That Citicorp will fail is almost a foregone conclusion, and when it does, it will drag hundreds of banks down with it. This is only one of many signs that the British are burning down Washington--for the second time, and all President Bush can do is play his fiddle on the sidelines. ●

Yugoslavia: A critical analysis. Part II

10/31/91 Dr. J. Coleman

Arising directly from the anti-Croatian campaign, an incident was created by the intelligence services of Britain and the U.S. In March 1991, in response to the barrage of lies and distortions and heated rhetoric against Croatia, armed Serbians took to the streets in the Croatian town of Pakrac. Amidst gunfire, the Croatian police were called upon to put the rebellion down. This was a fatal error. The Croatian leaders had been profiled by the CIA who knew they would react in this manner, but who actually ordered the police action is still something of a mystery. The trap was sprung.

What the Croatian leaders should have done was call in the Yugoslavian Army to put down the rebellion in accordance with the constitution. Thus, in the small town of Pakrac, the seeds of a wider, disastrous and possibly fatal conflict for Croatia and Germany were sown. Let there be no mistake about it, the CIA played an active role in triggering the Pakrac action, just as it had done in Sharpeville in South Africa in the 1960s, and in the Gulf of Tonkin, and the revolution that brought down the Shah of Iran. As Secretary of State James Baker III subsequently confirmed, the United States, while not publicly condoning this key Serbian operation in Pakrac, certainly did not condemn it.

WHY YUGOSLAVIA?

Why all this activity against a small nation crying for independence, when all over the world the rights of self realisation of ethnic peoples is being encouraged? (The exception being South Africa where the Whites are facing genocide, thanks to the treasonous De Klerk and his U.S. State Department allies.) So why Yugoslavia?

For answers to the question we must examine the entente which has grown up between Germany and Russia, with Japan steadily drifting toward an alliance with these two countries, confirming the work I wrote in 1984 in which I gave reasons why the lineup in a Third World War would be the U.S., China, Britain and France against Russia, Germany and Japan.

In order to neutralise a united Germany strongly tied to the Soviet Union, which was not anticipated by the CIA or the State Department, it was decided to use Croatia as a destabilising factor and cause a rift between Moscow and Bonn. In addition, it has always been important for Britain to restore the Venice Connection through a Serbian monarchy closely allied with British royalty.

U.S. and British strategists felt that if they supported the Serbians, who are largely communists, the Soviet Union would have no option but to stand by Serbia in a clash with Croatia. Germany on the other hand, being a Western Christian country, would be duty bound to support Croatia, partly by reason of its historical ties to the Croats. However, the State Department, James Baker and Company have miscalculated. There will be no splitting of the Soviet-German alliance.

What then? Draw the Germans into the conflict by blocking their trade rights in the Danube Basin and destroying Croatia? This is exactly what followed. To add to the brew, economic conditions in Yugoslavia were deliberately worsened. The Croats who privatised some of their industry are now a convenient scapegoat for the ongoing chaotic economic problems plaguing the country. It is all too pat, which rules out happenstance.

One must also bear in mind the role played by Kissinger Associates and Lawrence Eagleburger, Undersecretary of State, who always acts for his boss, even when that means risking conflict of interest, which has happened numerous times in the context of Yugoslavia and will no doubt continue to happen. We shall return to the subject of Kissinger and Eagleburger as we proceed. An interesting development which came in late September was a diplomatic note from the State Department urging Hungary not to support Croatia. As a former part of the Austro-German-Hungarian empire, Hungary has been sending equipment and medicine to its Croatian ally.

There is a lesson in the situation that has developed in Yugoslavia since May 17th, particularly for South Africa. The lesson is that "power sharing" is a dismal failure, just as it will be in South Africa if the De Klerk government tries to implement its farcical bluff that its agreement to share power with the ANC actually has a chance of working.

According to the Yugoslavian constitution, the presidency is supposed to rotate each year, with all six leaders of the federated republics having a turn at taking the reins. On May 15th, the rotation process was stopped by the Serbians when it came to the turn of Croatian President Stipe Mesic. Led by a communist bloc of Serbian Bolsheviks, Slobodan Milosevic refused to hand over power. Had he done so, command of the Yugoslavian military forces would have passed to the Croatian President and, barring an army revolt, there would have been no shooting.

To the disappointment of Kissinger Associates representing the Bush administration, not even this lowdown piece of trickery was sufficient to start the desired war. Instead of reacting angrily, Croatian President Stipe Mesic called for a referendum, the result of which proved that 94% of the Croats wanted an independent state. Surprisingly, the Croats were backed by Macedonia and Bosnia.

At that point, wiser counsels prevailed, and a civil war was averted by anti-war Generals Petar Gracanin and General Veljko Kadijevic joining a national Coordinating Committee to discuss the future of Croatia in a loose federation. This unexpected development shocked the RIIA and its pro-monarchical faction. Shortly thereafter, following the guidelines laid down by the British controllers of President Bush in the pre-Gulf War situation, Bush received his orders to take the necessary action to undercut the National Coordinating Committee.

MADAME DUFARGE

Enter Tricky Tutweiler May 20th, 1991-the same Tutweiler who misled Saddam Hussein down the road to hell. Tutweiler, warming to her role as Madam Dufarge, then announced punitive economic measures against ALL SIX REPUBLICS, while shielding behind the lie that U.S. economic measures were designed to punish Serbia. A neat little trick that! Punish your friend so that punishment also falls on the five innocent victims of his brutality, thereby deflecting criticism of U.S. failure to support Croatia.

Tutweiler's announcement did the trick and inflamed Serbians were now able to say that they were fighting not only to preserve Yugoslavia, but also against American efforts to intervene in the country's internal affairs. When the U.S. vetoed IMF loans totaling $3.5 billion, Yugoslavia was pushed into civil war. The Serbian Bolsheviks blamed Croatia for the financial mess because of its break-away actions and said they were obligated to unify the country so that economic calm could be restored to the entire country.

On June 21st, 1991, Secretary Baker bade his spokesperson Madam Dufarge a fond farewell and arrived in Belgrade on June 22nd. The ground for his visit had been carefully prepared in advance by Lawrence Eagleburger, his assistant and king-pin in Kissinger Associates. Never a man to let the grass grow tall, Baker gave carte blanche approval for the Serbian Bolshevik leader, Slobodan Milosevic to launch his attack on Croatia by telling this close friend of Eagleburger's that Washington would only recognise Yugoslavia if it did not break up into federated states.

Had Baker announced from the housetops that he was for Serbia, he could not have been clearer. Certainly Eagleburger's friend, Milosevic didn't have any trouble in correctly reading Baker's signal. To understand the dirty role played by Baker and the Bush administration, we need to refer to the Congressional Record of April 25th., where Congressman Gonzales, testifying before the House Banking Committee, tied Kissinger Associates in with the Banco Nazionale del Lavoro scandal and its connections with Yugoslavia.

Gonzalez led the committee through the Eagleburger connection with the top British assets in Belgrade whom he assisted with the founding of the New York branch of Ljubljanska Banka Yugoslavia. In spite of his nomination to the position of Undersecretary of State, Gonzalez revealed that Eagleburger had remained on the board of LBS right up until the day of his Senate confirmation hearings.

It also came out that Eagleburger is in daily contact with the Serbian leaders. The role of the Institute for Policy Studies in the Eagleburger-Yugoslav-Serbian partnership runs through Carl Gershman, formerly of Social Democrats U.S.A. and continues with the National Endowment for Democracy (NED), a CIA operation spinoff of Project Democracy.

In July 1991, an important step was taken by the Bush administration on behalf of its British masters. With the growing "threat" of a united Germany, the RIIA felt that the time had come to block German "expansion" into 'the Danube Basin. Eagleburger, as the Bush administration's expert on Yugoslavian affairs and his close colleague R. Mark Palmer, drafted Gershman to form the Central European Development Corporation (CEDC).

The CEDC was in turn controlled by former U.S. Ambassador to Austria, Ronald Lauder, who is tied to Canadian property developer billionaire Albert Reichman. The purpose of this network? Prevent Germany from doing any business in the Danube basin. To me this looks like an eerie rerun of the economic warfare waged against Japan that provided the entree for the U.S. into the Second World War. R. Mark Palmer may be guilty of serious conflicts of interest because he carried out a great deal of work for CEDC while still in government service.

ROBERT MAXWELL

Newspaper billionaire Robert Maxwell was drafted into the "hate Germany" press campaign which had his and other papers calling it the "Fourth Reich" but he has not had very much to say since the arrest of former East German President Honecker, his closest friend. My source said that Honecker and Maxwell shared more than just a friendship; they also shared STASI secrets, which have the potential of doing a great deal of damage to British, U.S. and Israeli interests. STASI was, before the dissolution of East Germany, the most feared intelligence service in the world. Now that Honecker is under arrest, Maxwell will have to watch his back.

PRINCE ALEXANDER

Lurking in the shadows behind President Bush, British interests saw to it that their puppet, Serbian Crown Prince Alexander, born in exile and living in splendour in London, was airfreighted to Washington two days before Queen Tut made her move against Croatia. Addressing the National Press Club, Alexander made it plain that his return to Serbian Yugoslavia was in the cards.

He did not tell his audience that, once back in Yugoslavia, he would revert to the 1941 role of his Karageorgevich family as puppets of the RIIA. The history of the Karageorgevich family stamps them as pure Black Nobility, beginning with Kara George (George Petrovich) who was part of the Petrovich-Nlegosh Montenegrin dynasty, and one of Blackest most bloodthirsty bandits in the Balkans.

The Karageorgevich family got its royal decrees from the Ottoman empire hence its Serbian Byzantine outlook. The family made a great deal of money out of its monopoly of the pork business. Their connections with Greek royalty eventually brought cozy relations between the Battenburg (Mountbatten) and Karageorgevich dynasties.

It was Kara George who led the first bloody Serbian insurrection, so the Serbian war of attrition and bloodshed of Croats will not shock Crown Prince Alexander. After doing the rounds in Washington, Crown Prince Alexander ended up in that queer place, the Bohemian Club in California where many a crooked deal to spill the blood of nationalists of sovereign nations has been hatched.

After Alexander's U.S. visit, the plot thickened considerably. It is an old maxim that politics makes strange bedfellows. Germany is now being warned by its closest former ally, the U.S., to stay out of the war raging in Croatia. Hans Deter Genscher, in turn warned that any attempts to alter borders by force in Yugoslavia for and on behalf of a Greater Serbia was "totally unacceptable" and could lead to war that might spill over into Europe in a far wider conflict involving Germany.

It will be recalled that Serbia acquired large tracts of Austria during the First World War, and the bitter taste of that is still with many Austrians and Germans. On August 5th Genscher called upon the EEC nations to recognise the independence of Croatia. The EEC missions led by Hans van den Broek of Holland have all been turned down by Serbian President Milosevic who is confident that he has the total support of the Bush administration.

Isn't it strange that ever since the First World War, the United States has ALWAYS found itself on the wrong side of global and regional conflicts, which no matter how hard sovereign nations that befriended the U.S. fought for their rights, always ended up losing their country and their liberty? Bush has pledged that the New World Order will not recognise Croatia, yet gladly recognises the Zionist state of Israel notwithstanding its constant aggression against Arabs and Palestinians. The Austrian government sent diplomatic notes of protest over the double standard of the U.S. The State Department merely acknowledged the notes but unlike its warning to Hungary and Albania to "stay out of it", did not address Austria's concerns.

The Bush administration is steadfastly refusing to recognise that Greater Serbia is a threat to world peace and thus a concern of all nations, by sweeping it under the carpet as merely a regional matter. How can it be a "regional matter" with Britain, France and the U.S. solidly backing Serbian-Yugoslavian assaults by air, sea and land on Croatia? By September 1st, the war in Croatia had reached the proportions of a major war with in excess of 1000 killed and close to twice that number wounded. The Yugoslav-Serbian offensive in late August was conducted not by partisans, but by two infantry brigades, 200 tanks and 100 warplanes.

What is the Serbian game plan and why is it that so many EEC "peace plans" have come to naught? The answer is that first of all, anything Lord Carrington has a hand in is guaranteed to fail and second, none of the EEC plans were approved by Washington. This leaves the Yugoslav Serbian partnership free to seize as big an area of Croatia as they can subdue before their Byzantine British puppet King arrives. Indeed the strategy is the same as that followed by the Serbians in the Austro-Serbian war of 1914-1918.

ANOTHER MAJOR WAR?

Is there any danger of the "local conflict" starting another major war? I believe so, bearing in mind that the First World War began at Sarejevo with the assassination of Archduke Ferdinand by Bolshevik Serbians. At least half of Croatia is now occupied by Serbian-Yugoslavian armed forces. It is strange how Bush refuses to ask the United Nations to give him an Iraqi-type mandate to send U.S. forces to Croatia to put an end to "brutal naked aggression". The cowardly U.S. Congress which lives beholden to the British oligarchy also does nothing.

But Serbian aggression does not stop with Croatia, in fact in September it extended to Bosnia, Montenegro and Macedonia. Large movements of Hungarian refugees from these areas are in progress. Hungarians remember all too well the slaughter that occurred when the Serbians overran parts of their country in WWI and WWII. A general mobilisation of civilians was called for by Croatia at the end of September.

The failure of the Bush administration to stop Serbian naked aggression contrasts very strangely with his lightning support of the evil dictatorship of Kuwait and makes a total mockery of his U.N. speech on September 23rd when he promised peace and security for nations under a New World Order. There has not been a word from that miserable apology for a human being, Secretary Perez de Cuellar, no rush to condemn Greater Serbia for its violations of international law. What hypocrisy marks our foreign policy. The Bush administration must bear full responsibility for its role in creating Greater Serbia for the British monarchy and those it has infected with the virus of anti-Germanic phobia.

Bush has the nerve to go on starving the Iraqi nation to death while mouthing the word "principle" which sounds strange on his lips. Apparently the invasion of Croatia by Serbian troops is not "a menacing precedent threatening the New World Order". We who follow British history, and by that I mean the history of its secret societies, most notable among which is the Committee of 300, know full well what Bush is doing in helping to construct a new imperialist Britain, that has as its intention the subjugation of even the United States.

Bush showed where he is coming from when he joined the notorious Boris Pankin in proclaiming the task ahead as "development of long term U.N. strategy of the use of U.N. forces". From the forgoing statements Bush has signaled that henceforth the U.N. will decide national boundaries, and any nation that kicks against it will suffer the fate of Iraq. Not one word was mentioned about the illegal war going on in Croatia. Apparently the U.N. has a double standard when it comes to "regional conflicts".

While I have frequently mentioned the Yugoslav Army, it should be made clear that it is a Serbian national army. Even before the First World War, the army has consisted of Serbians with a dominant Serbian officer class. It was the Serbian army under the direction of Britain and the European Entente that pushed the Croatians into the agreements that created the new country of Yugoslavia in 1918.

Intimidation, threats, violence, blackmail and murder, forced Croatians to accept the new country much against their wills. The differences between Serbians and the Croatians are very clearly marked: Serbians have always been a Byzantine Bolshevik eastern people (at one stage they fought with the Turks against Western Europe), while the Croatians are Western Christian people.

CROATIAN MASSACRE

In the post WWI and WWII periods, Croatians were forced to live in a state they despised. Tito imposed a barbaric rule over them, and silenced any resistance leaders who had the temerity to speak up for the Croatian people. About 300,000 Croatians died because they wanted freedom, murdered at the hands of the Serbian police and military. The full story of the terrible massacre of Croatian civilians who fled to Austria during the Second World War has yet to be told.

Fearing for their lives, the 300,000 Croatians moved across the border to the British Army occupied Austrian town of Bleiburg in front of the advancing Chetniks under Broz Tito. Thinking they were safe now that they had given themselves up to British military occupiers of the town, they were horrified to find themselves surrounded early one morning by Tito and his gang of murderers. Tito had obtained the express permission of war criminal Winston Churchill to violate Austrian territory to attack and murder the Croatian refugees.

This was the basis for "Operation Keelhaul" when at the close of WWII, Churchill and Eisenhower forcibly returned hundreds of thousands of Russians who had fought with Germany to the USSR and certain death at the hands of Stalin's butchers. The British government has given its permission for a replay of these events in Croatia in 1991, and if Croatia is defeated, we shall see murder of civilians on a scale that should, but will not, shock the world.
