Confirmations Unto You, The People

2/24/92 #3 HATONN

Dharma, as we sit to write this evening I am aware that you are weary unto breaking--trust thine strength, chela--trust thine strength. I shall give you ease that the hands can work. Tomorrow we shall wrap your arms and allow healing but we cannot set aside the work--not even for a day for lives are in the balance.

We shall be moving from that which was planned for this writing but priority has caused change due to that which has been brought unto us this day for urgent attention.

I have awaited your receiving this material in point for it is extremely important. I desire that we work on reproduction until we have completed the material sent to us. We cannot do it all this day but we can get a good beginning.

I ask that the first portion of this be sent quietly to the sender of the documents so that those ones, so distant, know we have the material and WILL PRINT IT ALL AS WELL AS PUBLISH IT IN A JOURNAL. We have not utilized the material sent some time past because I felt it dangerous to the writer. I, too, see that the writer is already under heavy assault and I honor him for his relentless effort to bring Truth to a dying world and people.

Ones in the United States sleep on as they cannot believe their nation is in trouble--I, too, know not how to get their attention but we shall work at it together and perhaps the alarm shall be heard.

I ask that the writer of the documents take a moment and allow my communion. It matters not that which he "thinks" about regarding my person or perceived "reality" of such communications. Ask only in guidance and contact with God and so shall ye come into the cover of our shield. I request that he accept that for the present time for he is already very seriously failing. Truth shall come forth as in this manner and so shall the comfort of realization of my presence and mission. Spiritual Truth is NOT A RELIGION OF MAN DOCTRINE--SPIRITUAL ATTENDING TO THE GODNESS PATH OF LIGHT IS THE POINT AND THAT WHICH WE ARE SENT FORTH TO SERVE--YE AS WELL AS MYSELF. WESHALL BECOME QUITE "REAL" VERY SOON NOW. Friends have no national boundaries, creeds nor color--you are on the same mission unto this globe and therefore, ye too, are "brother". And I thank my old friend and comrade for loyally sharing so generously in this dangerous time fraught with terror. Know that none can pierce the shield set forth from God come again to reclaim and return balance to a blind and ignorant humanity--brought down by heinous conspiracies.

CONFIRMATIONS UNTO YOU- THE-PEOPLE

As we walk through this journey, know that there are ones in every nation--every corner with the same intent as you of Light--to uncover the dark betrayals and move your planet into Light and allow Man vision into Truth before it is too late. Can it be done? Indeed--IF man will attend his business.

I wish you to realize, dear friends, that we are making progress--our material is being denounced via expensive television and radio episodes set forth to destroy our work. It destroys not--it is wondrous news to hear that the adversary fears God's Truth enough to take such measures to silence the word. We shall cover this subject after we handle the information herein from ones in New Zealand. Yes, America--I said New Zealand.

You tend to live in day-tight compartments never looking to right nor left but only at thine disinformation programming boxes set forth for your mental destruction.

I am grateful to have this information and to be allowed the printing of it for I have not allowed Dharma time to read any of the segments of John Coleman's book and I believe that as you reproduce the document in hand--written by one now residing--under full surveillance and terror--in New Zealand you will make the similarities and confirmations.. He has asked hearing for he has done all he can and is so oppressed that he can do no more from where he is. This is a brave man, chelas, who would risk his own very life for your enlightenment. He knows, as does the sender of the information, that if America fails to awaken and CHANGE--there is no chance for the rest of the world.

The person who has forwarded the material is doing so because he has come into it and feels it important for me to receive it in this manner. The author of the material knows me not and did not send the documents. Much of the material has been received from me long prior to this but we are going to start "out of order" because Dr. Coleman's book is now in printing and one will confirm the other as well as giving Dharma peace over the unknown which she is required to write.

First, let me reproduce a letter received from this sender from New Zealand and that is sufficient information. I shall ask that the letter be typed as is except for simple personal reference.

If America cannot hear the plea of brothers of other places crying out for you to "do something", then I see no way to reach through.

ROBOTOIDS REMEMBERED

Before we do that however, I will harken you back to that which I have recently presented on material from Dr. Coleman and on writings by Zbigniew Brzezinski called THE TECHNOCRATIC ERA commissioned by the Club of Rome for the Committee of 300. The book deals with the open announcement of the manner and methods to be used to control the U.S. in the future--and thus, the world. It also gave notice of

Introduction to Hatonn

1/13/92 #1 HATONN

I am Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn, Commander in Chief, Earth Project Transition, Pleiades Sector Flight Command, Intergalactic Federation Fleet. You may call me Hatonn. I am come in service unto the ONE GOD of Lighted Creation, and as "Host" unto His people who will be brought into His places long prepared for you. My own "Captain" is Sananda, the Christed Being you have called by many names--now one totally with Creator/Creation. [Sananda: simply meaning of/with God]. We are not "mystical" nor even "mysterious" aliens. We are the "Hosts" sent in preparation for His return, bringers of Truth according to His promise and to reveal the lies foisted upon you to claim your souls for the physical evil Elite controllers. We come in total love and without intent of force, coercion or judging. "Judging" is a state of evaluation of self in the presence of Creator in which actions in the physical experience are evaluated.

The information within the documents revealing Truth; THE PHOENIX JOURNALS and LIBERATOR, are the outlays of lies and hidden facts for which you can find confirmation. If you don't know the problems and the source of the problems, you can have no solutions.

I do not "channel"; I transmit on a frequency attuned to my "receiver" who is simply a translator of the pulses into English. This is true of all receivers who receive from any of this Command come forth with God for this transition of species and planet.

The receivers mostly have no reference for material given until after the giving and then, only for their own confirmation and yours. My petition is that you pay no attention to this resource if it is confusing and uncertain unto you--LET TRUTH STAND ALONE IN ITS PRESENTATION--THE REST WILL FOLLOW IN PROPER SEQUENCE.

cloning and "robotoids", i.e., people who acted like people and who seemed to be people, but who were not. Brzezinski, speaking for the Committee of 300, said the United States was moving "into an era unlike any of its predecessors; you would be moving toward a "technotronic era" that could easily become a dictatorship. I do not wish to get sidetracked here for the outlay is forthcoming. I only ask that you readers recall the subject for it will become easier to relate to information already given. I would note herein--that the book is being efforted at acquirement for Dharma's "comfort level" but it is now necessary to obtain it through very covert intelligence means and it has not made it back to her. It is fine, she will simply have to go with me--as usual. Readers, please understand how hard this task becomes--you are shocked at the reading and these ones must work blindly and still have to face the truth of the lies as do you.

You will note that as we move along through the "thesis" and then in the reprint of articles that KISSINGER is always involved--to and over his eyes--in EVERYTHING in EVERY PART OF THE WORLD.

You shall also become aware that people in other nations know who Col. James "Bo" Gritz IS and know all about him. It is only in America that he is buried and hidden from view by the Elite who most certainly DO NOT WANT HIM IN ANY POSITION OF OPPOSITION TO THEIR "PLAN". I ask that you pay close attention to that which this person requests and then, perhaps you can come together and figure a way to get some housecleaning done in the government.

LETTER FROM NEW ZEALAND

The following letter was written by a friend of mine in New Zealand on Feb. 17, 1992. You must recognize, readers, that ones in countries such as South Africa, Australia and New Zealand are suffering greatly as rights and economy are already destroyed!!!

QUOTE:

Hello Commander Hatonn and welcome. It is your old friend from New Zealand. I am going to address this letter to the people of America.

Soon you will be having an election. This election will be the most important in your country's history and also in the world. You are at the crossroads--one road leads to slavery--loss of freedom and a world Dictatorship. In other words, NEW WORLD ORDER.

I appeal to you to vote for Bo Gritz for your President! IF YOU WON'T DO IT FOR YOURSELVES--PLEASE DO IT FOR YOUR CHILDREN AND THE CHILDREN OF THE WORLD. THERE ARE INNOCENT PEOPLE ON THIS PLANET WHO HAVE NO CHANCE. PEOPLE ARE HUNGRY--STARVING AND SICK WITH NO HOPE.

BUT MAYBE IF YOU ACT IN TIME AND VOTE IN SOMEONE OF STRENGTH AND CONVICTION--BO GRITZ--INTO THE PRESIDENCY, WE CAN MAKE A START ON THE RETURN OF THE AMERICAN DREAM, JUSTICE AND FREEDOM FOR ALL WHICH CAN THEN FLOW LIKE A WAVE AROUND THE WORLD. LET US AS A PEOPLE JOIN TOGETHER AND KICK OUT THESE INSANE MANIAC MURDERERS THAT ARE CONTROLLING THE WORLD.

As I pen this letter to you I have the newspaper in front of me and the headline reads: Bush Plunges into Campaign. The article reads that the President will tout his foreign policy strengths that under his stewardship the Berlin wall fell, the Cold War thawed out and the chances of nuclear holocaust have dipped as low as they have ever been. [H: Remember--this is a paper in New Zealand so why would it make headlines--do YOU know who is President of New Zealand? I thought not. After all, New Zealand is a colony of England--JUST LIKE YOU IN AMERICA!! A COLONY RUN BY THE BRITISH-ISRAELI ZIONISTS AND THE COMMITTEE OF 300 CONSPIRATORS HEADED BY THE CROWN OF ENGLAND.]

WHAT KIND OF PATRIOTISM?

Having used the U.S. flag to his benefit in 1988, he will also appeal to American patriotism in the Gulf War, etc. I have never heard so much BS in my life. How can he appeal to American patriotism when he still has prisoners of the Korean War and Vietnam War STILL IN PRISON WITH NO HOPE AT EVER GETTING OUT, AND DOESN'T WANT THEM OUT? He won't allow them out because he KNOWS THEY WILL TALK AND TELL THE TRUTH, and he will be in big, big trouble. He talks about the Gulf War--what about the sanctions on that poor country--no food or medical help. Bush only went into Iraq BECAUSE THEY WOULD NOT JOIN THE NEW WORLD ORDER!

Last night I watched, on television, a documentary on East Timor where the Indonesians have overrun the place. They have killed and tortured the Timor people, brought their own people in and taken over the East Timor people's business and jobs, kicked them out of their lands and taken all their property. If Bush is so concerned about human rights WHY doesn't he do something about this?

My own country's politicians turned a blind eye because we do millions of dollars in trade every year and it is the same with Australia. Is it not an example of what is happening in Israel with the Palestine people?

REGAIN RIGHTS WITH GRITZ

NOW YOU, THE AMERICAN PEOPLE, HAVE THE CHOICE!! HEREBY I DONATE $100 DOLLARS TO GETTING BO GRITZ IN AS PRESIDENT AND I CHALLENGE ALL FREEDOM LOVING AMERICANS TO DO THE SAME! IF YOU CAN'T GIVE A $100 [H: AND ACTUALLY, NEITHER COULD THIS PERSON AFFORD TO GIVE IT.]--THEN PLEASE JUST GIVE A DOLLAR. THIS MAN MUST WIN THIS ELECTION FOR ALL OF US--FOR ALL OUR SALES. REMEMBER THAT A VOTE FOR GRITZ IS A VOTE FOR FREEDOM. YOU HAVE NOT MUCH TIME--I CAN SMELL THE SMOKE AND SEE THE FIRE BURNING. WHO WILL PUT OUT THE FIRE BEFORE IT ENGULFS YOU? THIS IS YOUR LAST CHANCE, AMERICA, YOU ONLY HAVE ONE LEFT--TAKE IT AND MAKE IT THE RIGHT ONE FOR YOURSELVES AND THE REST OF THIS WORLD IN WHICH WE ALL MUST LIVE--OR DIE.

IF YOU MAKE THE RIGHT CHOICE YOU WILL BE THE GREATEST NATION ON EARTH--LOVED AND RESPECTED BY ALL. IF YOU DON'T YOU WILL BE HATED BY THE PEOPLE BECAUSE YOU HAD THE CHANCE TO GIVE FREEDOM BACK TO THE PEOPLE OF THE WORLD AND DID NOT TAKE IT. YOU ARE

THE ONLY ONE NATION WITH THE STRENGTH TO DO IT. RISE UP, AMERICA, AND TAKE THE LEAD--WE WILL FOLLOW! I PLEAD WITH YOU--DO THIS FOR THE FREEDOM OF THIS WORLD AND NEW ZEALAND.

I now ask Commander Hatonn if you think this letter is good enough to publish it in the Phoenix Liberator along with the Economic Betrayal of New Zealand and the Reserve Bank Paper sent last year at a time when you know is right to do so. Hatonn, if you publish the papers the author asks me to tell you he desires his name published with the articles. He believes people will not believe what is written otherwise and he is quite prepared to answer any questions people have and wish to ask him. His mail is stopped and sorted (censored) except for bills. He is watched all the time. No newspaper in New Zealand will dare publish the papers for they are too frightened. If you decide to publish them please give him protection.

May I please ask a few questions? In 1972 we had a Labour government in power. N. Kirk was the Prime Minister. He only lasted just over a year before he "died". He went into the hospital for an operation on the veins in his leg--and died. At the time he was Prime Minister, "they" were drilling for oil off Stewart Island in the Great South Basin. There was an American Company drilling. Now the rumours are that they struck oil and Kirk was going to Nationalize it for the benefit of the New Zealand people. The rumour was that he was killed because of what his actions were going to be regarding the oil. At the time the oil prices rocketed with the trouble in the Middle East. "They" certainly would not have wanted a big oil strike at that time. I have read enough to wonder if he was murdered? [H: Yes. It was a covert operation set up and orchestrated as a joint effort of British Intelligence and Special Operations of the U.S. Government and in connection with the massive installations, both surface and underground, in Australia and New Zealand. The biggest benefactor, of course, was British Petroleum owned by the Crown of England. There is far more to the clandestine causes than simply nationalization--but Kirk thought he could bring pressure to bear to stop the insane drain on the economy. You will note that even the changes of currency took place right according to the Elite plans--you have even sent some articles regarding that very subject. Oh, indeed--the United States IS NEXT!!! Note how cleverly they handled the money situation--changed it to "dollars" so you wouldn't realize your own "mother" was killing you! Lessons are indeed hard to learn and worse "to bear" in Truth.]

LAUNCHING AREAS

Also, can you tell me where in New Zealand they are firing those rockets--with satellites on them? Are they from the bases on Stewart Island or the one on the West Coast? If it is better I should not know, I will accept what ever you say. Hatonn, if you print my letter--please don't let harm come to me--I want to be here to help my country and do my piece for the Planet. [H: They utilize a launching facility on the main island (South Island). There is also a lot of activity around the Bay of Plenty as well as around Auckland. I am sure you will recall the "Greenpeace" flagship, the Rainbow Warrior, which was sunk by bomb by the French in 1985. Yes, there are French in the conspiracy--lots of them. More important to your interests might well be the area of Ross Dependency, administered by New Zealand in the Antarctic. It comprises some 160,000 square miles of the Antarctic and is very active indeed, with massive underground facilities. I believe it not wise to further discuss the matter.]

....Is there any sign of awakening in America? I do not like what is coming to this Planet.

Dharma, keep going, you are doing great--we must ever remember: a boxer can win the fight in the last round. [H: Dharma responds that, actually--it is ALWAYS IN THE LAST ROUND THAT A BOXER WINS! You have managed to waggle a weary smile out of this scribe. She has a nifty cartoon which we shall effort to share: there is a whole herd of dozing sheep and one far into the middle raises up and says to the hundreds of others, "We don't have to act like sheep, you know!" No, you don't!]

END OF QUOTING

There is more to the letter but it deals only with the information which I shall now share with you. The author in point is "making a lot of waves" in

New Zealand and that is a most dangerous activity. I can only offer services which we have available and we are most happy to share information--perhaps the words will strike a heart wherein they will not hear me. Thank you, son, for your love and caring--it is a tired old world who is very sick. She must now be nurtured if she is to survive--thank you for caring.

It is a bit hard to determine which document to share in which order but I think you will find the "Intelligence Report" the most timely in view of our recent writings so we will dive right off into that one.

I will do as usual in my commentary--my comments will be in brackets: [H: ]. I effort to follow another author's intent entirely if possible. If I disagree greatly, I will make comment. If the issue is not urgent, I do not change opinion nor output. You will note that the presentation is only an Appendix of an original paper.

APPENDIX B

The traditional values of this nation are meant to be extirpated from our people's souls by means of a large variety of methods known in the trade as "psychosynthesis" and "psychotechnics". They are to be replaced by another set of values developed in psychology and brain research laboratories under government and foundation funding. This other set of values, ranging from homosexuality and oriental mysticism to "cosmic consciousness" and "religious fundamentalism" has been given the collective code-name "Age of Aquarius", "New Age", or "The Aquarian Conspiracy".

The purpose of this report is to mobilize the average American citizen to take the specific types of measures required to stamp out this monstrosity. Without our special kind of coaching in this matter, you will tend to find this situation too overwhelming, too emotionally wrenching, and in the end, too demoralizing. The kind of information we are putting at your disposal, information otherwise deliberately kept secret, will give you the ability and the instruments by means of which you, together and in coordination with us, can stamp out the brainwashing project code-named the Aquarian Conspiracy.

EVIL "MAD SCIENTISTS"

This report is not the ordinary type of book or pamphlet you pick up for leisure reading. It was written by a group of scientists and politicians who--from their headquarters--have been watching another group of evil scientists and evil politicians attempting to carry out the largest scale brainwashing project ever.

We, the undersigned group of scientists and politicians who are attempting to rescue you from this nightmare, are distinguished from our enemies, the evil scientists and politicians who are trying to brainwash you, by the fact that we estimate that brainwashing will fail if the victim of brainwashing is given adequate knowledge of who is doing it, who are the brainwashers and why it is done. [H: Absolutely TRUE!]

Our evil enemies also know that this kind of knowledge is sure to disrupt and derail the brainwashing process. For this reason, our resourceful opponents have maintained over the past 14 years a massive containment and harassment operation aimed at preventing us from reaching you with this information.

This pamphlet is designed to help you help us break through this containment operation so that the largest possible number of American citizens can gain full access to the information they need if they are to be effective in weathering the massive social and national crisis imposed on the United States by our internal enemies, the social engineers we are about to introduce to you here. Therefore, you are a very important factor in the "de-brainwashing" process that this report is designed to commence. Your deeper, innermost intellectual and emotional response to the facts presented to you will determine the outcome.

Many of you average, patriotic Americans have for a long time puzzled over various "conspiracy theories", trying to understand what are the underlying hidden causes of the alarming moral, social, political and economical decay of your nation. But you had no access to the facts. Some of you, lacking the facts and reluctant to "subscribe to conspiracy theories", have been so discouraged by the dismal state of your national affairs that you have turned cynical and reverted to the suicidal path of withdrawing from politics--some of you have not seen the inside of a voting booth for many years. Everyone of you, however, regardless of how you have been interpreting what is going on in the country, regardless of how much knowledge you lack respecting the facts of the matter, are all unanimous that somehow, somewhere, "the game is rigged" in your national political affairs. This is a correct estimation, but it is too abstract and too vague to be effective.

PERTINENT INPUT

This report has been written for the purpose of giving you an exact idea of who has rigged the game, how it is rigged and what can be done to put an end to this national destruction. Therefore, you must read this report in the way a combat-unit commander reads and masters his Army Field Manual. This report will give you a description of a) the enemy forces, b) enemy deployments, c) enemy strategic objectives, d) weapons used by the enemy, e) enemy strategic and tactical doctrine--his method. This report will also supply you with the basic weapons you will require for the purpose of demolishing the enemy.

The outcome depends on how you, the reader, shall conduct yourself.

ABSTRACT OF THE THESIS

The central conclusion that you will reach upon finishing the examination of the facts in this report is that the moral, material, cultural and intellectual decay that you are witnessing every day in our cities and towns is not accidental, not a "sociological phenomenon", not an "act of god", but a deliberately induced social crisis.

All this brutal experimenting has caused tremendous agony--both private agony, such as the deep agony dying souls experience, and the public agony of dying nations.

You as a parent may have only tasted a few drops of the cup of agony our nation is forced to drench. You may have witnessed your son becoming a drug addict--the policy papers that caused his destruction were written a few years earlier by social-psychology laboratories; you may have silently watched your daughter become a lesbian--before that she had become a prediscouted statistic in a social policy computer; you may have seen, with silent tears in your eyes, your once-gifted, bright, agile child gradually turn into a withdrawn, passive zombie listening endlessly to rock-and-roll, all the fire gone out, all the aspirations deadened, all interest in the future extinguished. And you sit there, bitterly, quietly, impotently weeping for the posterity that you have lost. And having lost your posterity, you reckon, you have also lost all meaning for the life that you have lived until this dreadful moment. "If it all ends like this, all my struggles and all my sacrifices, even my modest achievements will have meant nothing!"

BRAINWASHING FOR YOU, TOO

Life becomes empty of significance, you are discouraged, demoralized, withdrawn--and not surprisingly. You have been preprogrammed to react in this way. As we shall inform you, the evil people and institutions that have snatched your child away from you have been counting on you to react with dejection and withdrawal. On the basis of this reaction-formation, they plan to brainwash you, too, as they did your child.

Therefore, you must not react in this predictable way. You must resist being selfish in your private agony. You must now grow greater than your private agony and concern yourself with the agony of your nation.

In the late 1940's and early 1950's, the very same group of powerful interests who today command the evil forces of social engineering, then launched an irrational Cold War and a McCarthyite witch-hunt. Suddenly, rational argument in policy formulation disappeared from national life. The traditional debate that American citizens historically conducted to determine their foreign policy, the special moral and practical weight of this nation among the nations of the world--all that was abandoned, to be replaced by the unchallenged, axiomatic, pervasive irrationality of the Cold War. The result was that the moorings of national moral purpose collapsed, the citizens who make up the nation and share its moral purpose surrendered to a morally indifferent irrationality.

Disarmed by this moral indifference and irrationality, young adults entered the decade of the 1950's in pursuit of private goals and petty career concerns. And the children of this generation began growing up without clear moral moorings. What followed was the notorious "generation gap" and the large-scale manipulations of the social-engineering establishment, the Rand Corporation, the Stanford Research Institute, and other institutions we shall meet presently. The New Left, the Vietnam War and the antiwar movement were all social-engineering projects. The Watergate scandals, environmentalism and the slow and deliberate destruction of American technology were also preplanned social-engineering projects.

END OF QUOTING

We need to take a rest break. We will then take up the International Caucus of Labor Committees. You are going to find out the truth about WHY the Elite saw to it that Lyndon H. LaRouche, Jr. was REALLY locked away into prison. It will also make more sense to you WHY THE REST OF THE WORLD PAYS MORE ATTENTION AND EFFORTS TO GET HIM RELEASED THAN DOES ANY IN AMERICA. WELL, THE CONSTITUTIONAL LAW CENTER WILL SOON CARRY A VERY LARGE STICK AND WE SHALL SEE HOW LONG THEY CAN KEEP HIM INCARCERATED. The farce called "trial" of LaRouche is as ugly and horrendous as anything done politically to any citizen--AND YOU HAVE ALLOWED IT, SANCTIONED IT--AND MOST OF YOU DON'T EVEN KNOW OF WHOM I SPEAK!--EXACTLY AS THE "BIG BOYS" WANT IT!

We shall see, won't we? Will America sit still for blatant disregard for Constitutional Law? I think NOT--"IF" THEY KNOW IT. WE INTEND THAT THE WHOLE WORLD KNOW IT.

Go take rest, chela. Our work is very critically important for several reasons--it brings protection to both writers in point. Publicity is that which will bring safety--in numbers. Let us be grateful for our opportunity to serve this magnificent "cause" for it is blessed indeed. Adonai.

Hatonn to stand-by and cleared.

INTERNATIONAL CAUCUS OF LABOR COMMITTEES

Before we proceed to give you a summary identification of these networks, you ought to know a few vital facts about the group of people who have assembled the information we are presenting in this pamphlet. We, a group of scientists, mathematicians, physicists, biologists, historians, economists, philosophy and music specialists, in North America, Western Europe, Latin America and India, known by the name of International Caucus of Labor Committee, now numbering over one thousand, have been engaged in a continuous war of ideas against the Stanford Research Institute and related networks of brainwashers since the 1964-68 period. This scientific organization was pulled together and trained by Lyndon H. LaRouche, Jr., considered by many to be the greatest scientific mind that America has so far produced and probably the most advanced thinker since Gottfried Wilhelm Leibnitz (1646-1716).

LaRouche founded this scientific organization upon certain important discoveries he made in economic science in the 1950's when he began to apply the advanced topological conceptions of Riemannian geometry to economics. The result of that breakthrough was a thermo-hydrodynamic theory of economics which treats the rate of growth of advances in science and technology as the primary invariant of economic systems, and which views creative mental activity, the principle of causality behind advances in science and technology, as the epistemological equivalent of the ontological existent of negentropy--in physical processes, that primitive substance which accounts for the evolution of higher orderings of the organization of "energy" and "matter" from lower orderings. LaRouche's scientific breakthrough, his identification of the equivalence between primary epistemological and the primary ontological transinvariant, happens to have massive implications in advanced research currently being conducted in every branch of science, from high-energy physics to biology, physiology, psychology, and applied social sciences including political science, economics and military-strategic studies.

In the 1966-68 period, LaRouche's seminal breakthrough had a twofold initial impact. First, it generated great stimulation among more gifted university layers, especially among graduate and advanced undergraduate students who attended his lecture on the East Coast; this led to the coagulation of that group of scientists and future scientists who came together to form the International Caucus of Labor Committees. Second, LaRouche's conceptions caused enormous alarm and consternation in those circles of the country's scientific establishment most closely associated with the principal institutions of social psychology, social engineering, and among their powerful patrons, a cluster of sixty or so major financial and manufacturing corporations, who during that time were busy undermining the NASA space program and beginning to put a firm straitjacket over the nation's advanced physics and natural science research and development centers.

From that moment on, an uneven contest began between two rival scientific tendencies: LaRouche's ICLC, armed with the most devastating and effective sort of scientific conceptual weapons, and the crude, plodding, amoral crowd of social engineers and social psychologists following orders from this particular coalition of powerful patrons. The ICLC forces were inferior in material resources; their opponents resolved on a strategy of "containment of influence". Over the years, this containment has assumed various forms, ranging from rumor campaigns and slander operations to financial warfare and even assassination attempts.

In the course of the conflict, the ICLC developed formidable security, counterintelligence and strategic intelligence capabilities, which enabled it to survive and begin exerting a significant and rapidly growing influence in elite policymaking circles in Western Europe, the Third World and North America. During the 1960's and early 1970's, the ICLC deployed against the New Left and developed the evidence demonstrating that "the movement" was a thoroughly controlled social-engineering project. Similar thrusts were developed against various "community control" and "radical minority" social engineering projects such as the Kawaida project of Imamu Baraka, built around the same ideology which produced the Symbionese Liberation Army; against terrorism, which is also a controlled social-engineering project; and against the emerging zero-growth movement.

During the 1972-73 period, our ability to demolish the New Left, Kawaida scenarios and our embarrassing exposés of Law Enforcement Assistance Administration complicity with terrorism plus the international uproar we caused against zero-growth, caused considerable consternation at the headquarters of the "mother" institution of our rivals, the Tavistock Clinic in England. In the late months of 1973, Barbara Ward (Lady Jackson) wrote a secret memorandum on the need to curb ICLC deployments and influence. Shortly thereafter, a group of intelligence officers from Great Britain, headed by Messrs. Schroeder and Walsh of MI-6 and coordinating with elements of the FBI and individuals from the New York Police Department (under LEAA jurisdiction) launched a major assault against the ICLC leadership, including numerous assassination attempt scenarios, kidnappings and the administration of psychotropic drugs.

We countered that offensive by a mobilization which had as its purpose to place in the hands of appropriate officials the appropriate sort of intelligence. In the course of that effort, we beat our opponents by educating a significant number of law enforcement and intelligence officers in the subject of "who controls international terrorism", among other matters.

But within the United States, the dimension of containment against the ICLC and LaRouche grew by leaps and bounds once Dr. Zbigniew Brzezinski assumed office as National Security Advisor to President Carter. In January 1977, the new NSC coordinated various elements of a number of government agencies to launch a sustained, ongoing operation called "FIST and SWEEP". Subsequent investigations by the ICLC turned up the fact that the real controllers of "FIST and SWEEP" went beyond the National Security Council to include a powerful elite above and outside the United States government proper. The NSC functions as an arm of a powerful extragovernmental group. It turns out this same group controls and deploys all the social engineering and social psychology outfits in the country, including Stanford Research and its Aquarian Conspiracy.

Our researches identified this powerful group with certain old aristocratic families in England, the United States and Canada with control, for purposes of social manipulation, the world's $200 billion drug traffic. Those findings were published in the best-selling book, DOPE, INC., which caused quite a stir among the law enforcement agencies of numerous nations, and threw the governors of the U.S. Federal Reserve System in Washington into turmoil for a protracted period.

TAVISTOCK

Our first systematic study of our opponents' techniques and methods in psychological social control were published in April and May of 1974 in the magazine The Campaigners as a series of research papers under the joint title The Tavistock Grin.

We identified the Tavistock Clinic in London, England as the world's center for mass brainwashing, social engineering programs and activities in the postwar period. During World War II, Tavistock was the headquarters of the British Army's Psychological Warfare Bureau which, through the arrangements of the British Special Operations Executive, also dictated policy to the United States Armed Forces in matters of psychological warfare.

Toward the end of the war, Tavistock personnel took over the World Federation of Mental Health and the Psychological Warfare Division of the Supreme Headquarters, Allied Expeditionary Force (SHAEP) in Europe. Tavistock's chief theoretician, Dr. Kurt Lewin, organized the Harvard Psychological Clinic, the MIT Research Center for Group Dynamics, The Institute of Social Research at the University of Michigan. Lewin also played a pivotal policy role at the psychological department of the Office of Strategic Services (OSS), at the Office of Naval Research, the U.S. Strategic Bombing Survey and the Committee on National Morale. Moreover, a large number of influential people at the top policy level were trained in Dr. Lewin's theory of topological psychology, which is to this day the world's most advanced method of behavior modification brainwashing. [H: Please, you regular readers who think you have heard this ALL from me before--READ IT AGAIN. Until you are totally convinced that you have been duped and played the fool--you cannot, for you WILL not, act. This IS the most

TANGLED WEBS

"GOTCHA"--VOLUME I

$10.00...BY HATONN

Hatonn reveals the tangled webs of deceit woven throughout all religions. Topics include: The Holy War; Origins of Christian and other; doctrine; Desecration of Judaism; The role of British Freemasonry; New Age Deception and what is meant by the ONE WORLD CHURCH. Also included are updates on current world events.

TANGLED WEBS - GOTCHA' - - AGAIN --VOLUME II

$10.00...By Hatonn

Hatonn presents the history and operations of the CIA, also called the "Cult of Intelligence", since 1952, as presented by two former insiders who remain anonymous (IMA and A) for their protection. Related Topics: Oliver Stone and JFK; Psychological warfare; Espionage and Counterespionage; Bush and CIA connection; National Security Act.

gigantic mass cover-up and brain-washing/programming in the history of your planet. It IS the time spoken of in the prophecies of all seers. How could it be thus? Because the plan was written and orchestrated by EVIL itself and YOU WERE SOLD A POISONOUS, DESTRUCTIVE BILL OF GOODS. WE ARE GOING TO GIVE THIS PUBLICLY IN SEVERAL DIFFERENT WAYS AND, YES, I HAVE ALREADY GIVEN IT IN OUR MATERIAL--BUT SUCH A TINY PORTION OF MANKIND HAS HAD ACCESS. IT IS NOW UP TO YOU.]

Other important colleagues of Kurt Lewin, including Eric Trist and John Rawlings Rees of Tavistock, as well as H. V. Dicks, W. R. Bion, and Richard Crossman, took the personnel from the Strategic Bombing Survey, the Committee on National Morale and the National Defense Resources Council, and from this pool founded the Rand Corporation, the Stanford Research Institute, the Wharton School, the National Training Laboratories, the National Institute of Mental Health and others.

GOVERNMENT FUNDING FOR EVIL

The United States government started contracting multimillion-dollar projects with all these outfits. Over a period of thirty years, tens of billions of dollars have been allocated by the federal government to fund the work of these groups; other tens of billions of dollars found their way into these institutions from private foundations.

Over the years, these institutions grew and the scope of projects they contracted grew. Every aspect of the mental and psychological life of the American people was profiled, recorded, and stored into computer memories. The institutions, personnel and networks grew and penetrated deeply into every nook and cranny of federal, state and local governments. The in-house specialists and graduates were called in to develop policies for welfare departments, labor, mediation boards, trade unions, the Air Force, the Navy, the Army, the National Education Association, and psychiatric clinics.

CLOSE RELATIONS BETWEEN THINK TANKS, POLLING GROUPS & MEDIA

Close cooperative relations were developed between these think-tanks and the U.S.A.'s key polling organizations and the major media. Gallup Polls, the Yankelovich-CBS-New York Times polls, the National Opinion Research Center and others are incessantly conducting psychological profiles of the entire population, sharing them for evaluation and processing with the ubiquitous social psychologists. What the public sees printed in the newspapers as opinion polls is only an infinitesimal portion of the work that the pollsters do.

Above this closely cooperating grouping of social psychologists, pollsters and media manipulators, presides an elite of powerful patrons, "the gods of Olympus" [H: Olympians! The Committee of 300! branched out as Club of Rome, then Bilderbergers, etc., as priorly given.], as they delight in being called. These are a cluster of corporations and families on top of the electronics, communications and related sophisticated-technology industries, etc. The core cluster consists of the following: International Telephone & Telegraph, American Telephone & Telegraph, Xerox, Rank Organization, Bendix, Raytheon, Arthur D. Little, Eagle Star Group, RCA, Bechtel, Textron, Reliance Group, Prudential Insurance, American Express, Lazard Brothers, Kuhn Loeb, Blyth-Eastman Dillon, Petro-Canada, Standard Telephones and Cables and their subsidiaries, affiliated and interlocking corporations. All in all, it is estimated that this group, which on matters of long-term strategy tends to act in a very disciplined and unified way, commands over 60 of the Fortune 500 companies in the USA. [H: It is far worse than this projection for you will take note and harken back to the past few years when companies merged and were bought and sold and taken over willingly or not--to the extent that there are NO major corporations owned by the "general" citizens of the United States. And--this very writing was done long before 1984. It was simply republished in 1984 and now brought again in this particular format in 1991 but was not updated for this late publicizing. It is far worse today, chelas, than your wildest estimates. If you have been taking the LIBERATOR or reading the JOURNALS, such papers as the World Intelligence Review, Insider's Report, New Federalist, Spotlight and several other daring publications--then you are aware, frustrated at the blind populace and possibly quite bored by this presentation.] It has swallowed up all the other "power groups" of earlier U.S. history, the Morgan Group, Rockefeller group, Cabot-Lodge group, etc. In the deeper recesses of the intelligence establishment in Washington, veteran intelligence officers refer to this awesome group, in hushed tones and mysterious language as the "COMMITTEE OF THREE-HUNDRED". THE GROUP PREFERS TO BE CALLED "THE OLYMPIANS". THESE ARE THE REAL POWER IN THE LAND, THE DEPLOYERS OF OUR SOCIAL ENGINEERS AND SOCIAL-PSYCHOLOGISTS.

[H: I cannot urge you strongly enough to get your name on the list for obtaining Dr. Coleman's book on this Committee and related matters. America West is risking everything in bringing it into print and it is not foreseen if it will be allowed into the public to any great extent before being permanently squashed. Information will be somewhere in this document for its ordering. You who have had great difficulty with my being and Dharma's receiving--must have this information in what you perceive as "reality". Do not be put off, in this instance, by that which is unseen for we will deal with that matter later when you come to realize TRUTH.]

WHAT IS AQUARIUS?

We now come to a summary presentation of what is meant by the Aquarian Conspiracy and the New Age or Age of Aquarius, which the entire social psychology establishment is now mobilized to impose upon our society.

First, let us survey the terrain of physical evidence, what our eyes see and ears hear every hour of the day and night over at least the last fifteen years. You have heard about sex education programs in which grammar school children are instructed in masturbation and "alternate life styles" such as homosexuality, transvestitism, lesbianism, prostitution, and so forth. [H: Now it is "safe sex" and condom use in the very lowest grades of grammar school and free condoms for older children and babies. You will learn how and why AIDS was introduced and why you don't have an antidote available (there is one)--please go back and read our JOURNAL, AIDS, THE

LAST GREAT PLAGUE.] You have heard, or seen, or lost relatives to the Hare Krishna, the Moonies, and numerous other exotic religious cults; you have seen or heard about the charismatic movements, liberation theology, the new religious fundamentalism, the PTL ("Praise the Lord") shows on television, and of course you have Islamic fundamentalism coming out of your ears; you are well aware that this country right now is going through the worst drug epidemic in its history.

Fewer among you have noticed that in the 1970's a drastic shift occurred in school curricula at all levels, to the point that youngsters are now rewarded school credit for such courses as "TV soap opera", "Socially relevant Basket Weaving", and various environmentalist subjects with little or no content. An epidemic of cultism, kookery and Sodom and Gomorrah sexual behavior has overwhelmed the country, accompanied by pseudo-science, charlatanism and superstition in our educational institutions.

This picture is only the raw empirical side of the story, the surface impression that every citizen gets by merely observing what is going on. A slightly closer examination of the matter, statistical compilations and so forth, indicate the following: approximately 15 million of our citizens are participating in one active form or another in the outfits of this organized insanity.

There are literally thousands of counter culture newspapers and magazines which proclaim the coming of the New Age, the Age of Aquarius.

To top all this, in July 1980, a major international conference is being held in Toronto, Canada, under the title First Global Conference on the Future [H: Note reference to "upcoming" year of 1980 and shiver a bit at the years gone by in which this was available and you DIDN'T KNOW!], to be attended by over 4,000 social engineers, cybernetics experts and futurologists from all the think tanks. The purpose of the conference, in the words of its chairman, "The time has come to move from thinking and dialogue to action. This conference will become the launching pad for that important action to occur in the 1980's." [H: Please go back and read that statement over a couple of times!] So says the billionaire Maurice Strong, chairman of Petro-Canada, high-ranking British Intelligence officer during World War II, one of the chief executives of Dope, Inc., and former director of the United Nations Environmental Program. One of the chief speakers will be Dr. Aurelio Peccei, chairman of the Club of Rome, a NATO THINK TANK about which we will say more later.

Close investigation of the preparatory activities of the conference participants and the in-house studies of the social-engineering think tanks that will participate, has confirmed conclusively that the "decisive action" Maurice Strong is speaking about is the brainwashing of the entire human species. All the kooks of the world are coming out in the most impressive Witches Sabbath yet in Toronto.

The peril this nation is imminently confronted with, in fact the peril to the whole human species, is nothing less than complete elimination of what mankind has historically regarded as its soul. Our brainwashers are proposing the complete extirpation of mankind's inner sense of identity, and the placement, in the vacant space, of an artificial, synthetic pseudo-soul.

Before you howl "incredible", you ought to review the technical study that was prepared in May 1974 by the Stanford Research Institute, whose contents were later used in popularized form in Marilyn Ferguson's book.

The study is entitled CHANGING IMAGES OF MAN, Contract Number URH(489)-2150. Policy Research Report No. 4/4.74, prepared by SRI Center for the Study of Social Policy, Willis Harman, Director. Dr. Harman later personally coached Marilyn Ferguson in writing her popularized version, THE AQUARIAN CONSPIRACY. The 319-page mimeographed SRI report was prepared by a team of 14 researchers and supervised by supervisory panel of 23 controllers, including anthropologist Margaret Mead, psychologist B. F. Skinner, Ervin Laszlo of the United Nations, Sir Geoffrey Vickers of British Intelligence and others. [H: Now does it become a bit easier to see that British Intelligence actually set up the Anti-Defamation League (ADL) who is working day and night to stop this information from reaching you-the-people and actually HAS NOTHING TO DO WITH JEWS?]

When this was published in May 1974, the authors were careful not to fully reveal their direct involvement in artificially manufacturing all these hideous, inhuman forms of countercultural zombie-ism. Six years later, however, in February 1980, Dr. Willis Harman, the project director of the report, after lengthy collaboration with Marilyn Ferguson, induced her to come out into the open to boast that all this was, from the beginning, the work of a deliberate conspiracy.

A leaderless but powerful network is working to bring about radical change in the United States. Its members have broken with certain key elements of Western thought... The great shuddering irrevocable shift overtaking us is not a new political, religious or philosophical system. It is a new mind--the ascendance of a startling worldview.... We concede that one of the things that causes people to be incredulous when this picture is presented is that they do not comprehend what kinds of motivation our brainwasher social-psychologists could possibly have for doing this to us. If the motivation cannot be comprehended, then the motivation "does not exist". And if the motivation does not exist, then the action that derives from it does not exist; therefore "The Aquarian Conspiracy".

But the Aquarian Conspiracy itself proclaims that it exists!

Therefore, you should sit down to reason out what its motivation might possibly be. Identifying its history, both before and after the events of World War II, the social experiments of H. G. Wells, Aldous and Julian Huxley, Teilhard de Chardin, and others will give you some added basis for understanding the motivation. Identifying the recent history of the matter, from the 1960's on, will give you a further basis. On that basis you can project into the more distant past history of this school of thought that our brainwashers represent, into the period of Aristotle.

Meanwhile, with respect to the more recent history: the strategic foundations for the current form of the Aquarian Conspiracy were laid down during the 1966-67 period in a series of high-level NATO conferences which at the time involved, among others, a famous NATO official, Aurelio Peccei, and the then little-known Dr. Zbigniew Brzezinski [H: You will note that all of these "leaders" in the movement have changed names, i.e., Kissinger and ALL of the Communist Party foundation leaders--including Lenin. All members of the Communist Party government set-up were so-called "Jews". Actually, as we have said over and over and over again--they were and are Khazarian Zionist Talmudists and have nothing to do with "Jewry" as later defined when the word was developed. Note these ones develop and change words to have any meaning they desire and YOU ALL BUY INTO THE LIE.] in his capacity as a staff member of the State Department's Policy Planning Group, and most of the leaders of those multinational corporations we mentioned earlier. [H: You Americans must understand that ones such as Brzezinski and Kissinger are NOT natural citizens of the United States--they do not even function under their real names. They are planted in your highest government policy-making positions and as public spokesmen and authorities to RUN YOUR GOVERNMENT, FOR A PRESIDENT, SENATOR, ETC., MUST BE A CITIZEN. THE EFFORT, IN FACT, IS TO CHANGE YOUR CONSTITUTION SO THAT THESE "ACTUAL FOREIGN CITIZENS" CAN BE YOUR PRESIDENT. THAT IS ONE MAJOR THING WHICH WOULD BE CHANGED AT A CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION--ALONG WITH BURYING YOUR ENTIRE CONSTITUTION AS WRITTEN.]

The final decisions of those NATO deliberations were to apply a series of long-term policies throughout the Western World for the purpose of inducing a transition to a technologically "steady-state", "zero-growth", "post-industrial society". [H: Go back and read that again!] The Soviet bloc was supposed to be skillfully induced to gradually evolve toward a similar type of "steady-state" equilibrium system. Dr. Brzezinski, in the aftermath of those NATO meetings, wrote his famous essay, THE TECHNETRONIC ERA and Aurelio Peccei [H: Interesting?] his famous book, THE CHASM AHEAD. Following that, McGeorge Bundy and the Council on Foreign Relations attempted to start the "in-

The SALT arms control negotiation and nuclear non-proliferation processes got underway. The NASA space program was gradually terminated. A massive increase in world drug traffic appeared. Aurelio Peccei went to the Tavistock Institute in England and there he launched the notorious Club of Rome jointly with Tavistock.

The brainwashing specialists of the Tavistock network internationally went to work. The era of government by "crisis management" had arrived. Some basic things ought to be said now about the social-engineering technique of "crisis management".

[H: As we move into this subject, let us take a brief look at other things which were utilized to bring people into compliance. At that time as the populations were being hyped through brainwashing, came the age of "Channels" and everyone began to get into the act of "talking with extraterrestrials and other disembodied entities" and the "New Age Cults" were founded. When I am asked about this Channel or that one, I am stymied at the gullibility of the masses to fall into unreasonable expectations. It seems that the New Age touters offer all for nothing, total irresponsibility and fortune-telling and the populations of the world flow like honey across a biscuit trying to sop it up. It seems all God-given reason flew the coop with the last of the chickens so that you are left with NOTHING. The technique derives from the "topological psychology" doctrine of Dr. Kurt Lewin, the seminal theoretical influence in the entire field of social-psychology, the patron-saint of all the Tavistock-related think-tanks and the man upon whose theories the psychological warfare battles of World War II were fought.

To summarize the matter of Lewin's doctrine in chunks manageable by the layman: all psychological phenomena occur in a domain defined as "psychological phase space" or "life space". This space is composed of two interdependent "fields", the "environment" and the "self". Life space is the domain in which human behavior occurs. Behavior depends on both environment and self or  $B = F(E.P.)$  (Behavior is a function of Environment and Person.) This is accompanied by a tremendous amount of misplaced emphasis on mathematical/topological interpretations of psychological relations, none of which makes any contribution to scientific knowledge, but is admirably suited for transforming psychological problems into computer-programmable problems. This was promptly done.

The concept of "controlled environment" arose from the common-sensical observation that if you have a fixed personality (one susceptible to being predictably profiled), and if you want to elicit from this personality a particular type of behavior, then all you have to do is control the third variable of the equation and thus produce the desired behavior. This was the standard social-psychology formula used for years in every type of situation from labor negotiations to army counterinsurgency operations, to important diplomatic maneuvers, until apparently sometime in the 1960's. From that point on the greater emphasis of social-psychology practice and theory was placed on the problem of using the technique of controlled environment to produce not the desired B (behavior) but the desired P (personality) in the equation. It can be speculated that our brainwashers found it very frustrating to merely modify the behavior of the victim case-by-case and once-at-a-time, and started puzzling over how to accomplish something more drastic and permanent, like altering the deeper structures of human personalities. Thus, brainwashing moved from the era of "behavior modification" to the era of "identity change".

The theory for this type of activity again relied upon the original formulations of two Tavistock theoreticians, Dr. William Sargent's theory in this BATTLE FOR THE MIND, and Kurt Lewin's own work on personality regression.

Lewin observed that the inner self of the individual displays certain reactions when under tension from the environment. When there is no tension, then the normal inner self of a person is well differentiated, balanced, multifaceted, versatile. When a reasonable amount of tension is applied, then this geometry collapses into blinded, undifferentiated soup; a primitivization, a regression of the personality occurs. The person is reduced to an animal, the highly differentiated and versatile abilities disappear. The controlled environment takes over the personality.

Or, as Marilyn Ferguson puts it, "Stress and transformation...these paired ideas are a theme, a litany in the literature of the Aquarian Conspiracy."

From this bit of nastiness emerged the theory of government by "crisis management". The social psychologists reasoned, more or less, in the following fashion: "Since we are already in control of a 'controlled environment', what will happen to the P (person) entrapped inside it when we introduce 'social environmental turbulence'? The deliberately directed turbulence will create tensions for the P (person) and under those conditions we shall examine the effects of directed tension upon the personality and character structure of large populations."

A senior psychiatrist of the Tavistock clinic, Dr. Fred Emery, now at the national University of Australia and formerly a member of President Johnson's Kerner Commission, describes the following symptoms that large populations display under conditions of this sort of "social environmental turbulence"--the social crises that crisis management causes:

There are three phases of reaction to social crisis.

The first is "Superficiality", in which the threatened population will react by adopting some shallow sloganeering ideals to which, however, it will not attach any serious "ego investment". This is a passive "maladaptive" response, maladaptive because it fails to identify the causes of the crisis and therefore the crisis (tension) will persist.

The second phase of reaction, since the crisis continues, is "fragmentation", in which panic begins to strike, social cohesion breaks down, and small social groups try to protect themselves from the crisis at the expense of other small, fragmented social groups. This is also a "passive maladaptive" reaction and, failing to identify the cause of the crisis, it degenerates further into a third phase: "dissociation".

In the third phase, the victim turns away from the source of tension, from the induced crisis, and goes into a fantasy trip of internal migration, introspection, obsession with self. This is the so-called "self-realization" process of the Stanford Research Institute's report.

Subsequently, Dr. Emery adds that these three "passive" maladaptive responses are each accompanied by an "active", but equally maladaptive response. "Superficiality" is thus paired with "synoptic idealism" as its opposite; "fragmentation" with "authoritarianism", "dissociation" with "evangelicism". The report then goes on to summarize the results of the last thirty years [H: Thirty years? Stop and think a moment--this means that your enemy has had over half a century to perfect his deadly plans.] of combined applied social psychology and crisis management.

In the decade of the 1960's we had the "superficiality" of the new Left movement paired with the "synoptic idealism" of the Great Society.

In the decade of the 1970's we had the "fragmentation" of "community control" movements paired with the "authoritarianism" of the Nixon era.

In the decade of the 1980's we have the "dissociation" of "self-realization", "transcendental meditation", paired with the "evangelicism" of all forms of mass religious fundamentalism.

So all these scenarios are in the computers of our pervasive social engineering think-tanks. The scenarios are in operation at the present time. What is supposed to emerge out of the pair of "disassociation" and "evangelicism" of the present national crisis is the Age of Aquarius.

The snag in the whole project is that the brainwashers of our society are counting on the populations responding with exclusively maladaptive responses--responses to the crisis which fail to identify the causes of the crisis or "environmental turbulence".

Should the population, or even significant minorities of the population, be able to identify what the causes of the crisis are, the whole social engineering operation of the last thirty years will collapse.

The reason we of the ICLC are putting this report in your hands is to enable you to identify the causes of the crisis. If you successfully do so, then your reaction will not likely be maladaptive, because you will know the causes. If your mental abilities are within the range of the national average, you will know without being told that your best "active" "adaptive" response will be to get to the nearest copying machine and make copies of this report for literally every citizen you know, or get to the nearest telephone to contact us for further mobilization.

If you have any notion that anything else, apart from collaborating with us, (ICLC), (Editor, Remember this was in the 1970's. Now there are other alternatives) will have any effect and if your behavior turns out to be typical of most of your fellow citizens, then you will be acting according to the way you have been profiled. If you do so, you will not be able to retain your sense of identity, that inner sense which you call your soul, for more than the time between now and the year 1984. By that time, if you do not succeed in producing anything but maladaptive responses, you will no longer be the same person you are now.

The body-snatchers of the Aquarian Conspiracy are after you.

When we write again we will discuss the Psychiatric Shock Troops--the enemy's main army.

I find it most interesting and I hope so will you that E. J. Hart, as far back as May, 1991, said that Mr. Gorbachev would become active with the "hardliners" of Kissinger Associates Incorporated just as has come to pass. You who underestimate the intentions of one Henry Kissinger err greatly. Also you will find as we move along and confirm by news releases that Kissinger, Fraser (Malcolm Fraser: former Australian Prime Minister) and Brzezinski are the founders of a think-tank called "Anzus". This was a major thrust in New Zealand and Australia in 1984-85. It was set up and would be directed by one Ray Cline...ex CIA and Reagan adviser. Cline was later Director of Intelligence in the U.S. State Department and later Deputy-Director of Foreign Intelligence at the Central Intelligence Agency. The facts are, chelas, that no matter what we write about in this tangled web of deceit, we come back to the same groups of participants who hold the power and control the intelligence community--except the major dealer is the British Intelligence.

This must have been a severe blow to the people "down under" for the project would be controlled by the Center for Strategic and International Studies, an independent unit which was attached to the Georgetown University in Washington, D.C.

Also, I wonder how many of you know that Henry Kissinger joined the "Advisory Board" of Banca Nazionale del Lavoro in late summer of 1985. Perhaps you would enjoy seeing how he is written up in international circles: London: Wed., Aug. 21, 1985, International Herald Tribune: "Banca Nazionale del Lavoro (yes, this is a biggie doing the same kind of criminal activity as BCCI), the state-controlled institution that is Italy's biggest bank (Mafia run), has appointed Henry A. Kissinger to its international advisory board.

"Formed in 1984, the board advises the bank on economic and social conditions in countries where it operates.

"Mr. Kissinger, a former U.S. Secretary of State, is Chairman of the Board of Kissinger Associates Inc. which gives political advice to governments."

In 1984 Mr. Kissinger gave his expert help in political affairs and economics to Brazil and Argentina. I believe that you will note both are in very, very bad circumstances with Brazil totally devastated economics-wise. Where the man, Kissinger, goes there follow sell-outs, collapse, wars and disasters. I find it interesting.

Good evening,

THE PSYCHIATRIC SHOCK
TROOPS
THE ENEMY'S MAIN ARMY

What happens when a massive ill-working experiment fails? Actually, it usually means that the Elite Psychotics have made it WORK. Remember the "rule of thumb" and the "Theory of the Bureaucracy"--Whatever they say they intend to accomplish, they will accomplish the direct opposite. Let me remind you that the adversary ALWAYS WORKS IN THIS MANNER AND IF HE TELLS YOU A THING AND YOU WORK ON THE ASSUMPTION OF THE DIRECT OPPOSITE--YOU WILL BE CORRECT.

DRUG WAR BEING
"FOUGHT" BY DRUG
DEALERS

Let me example. While drugs were being introduced and addictions were being set forth so you could have a world "war on drugs"--the very persons "fighting the war" were the ones selling and dealing drugs--worldwide. In Switzerland where the major drug money would flow and be hidden, the most cruel of all tortures was set up--right under the public's noses--a whole park, right behind the massive banking houses of the world and Elite--where drugs were wholesaled, needles were provided freely and over 10,000 injections were done in a given day on average.

Now they say, as casually as they will tell you that the "we were mistaken about the economy--there IS a massive depression and the economy has collapsed--SO EXECUTIVE ORDER THROUGH EMERGENCY MUST BE INSTIGATED,"--"...and the park idea didn't work out and we must now put those addicts into the neighborhoods and clean up the park." Go look at your special reports on CNN this day! This is also a clue of the intent to bring the world up short and within control--ALL THE SIGNS ARE PRESENT!!

CONVERT THE RUSSIANS?

Another major clue to the madness of confusion: Schuller and TBN are going into Russia and, weekly, the NEW ideas of religion will be blasted out to all of the Soviet bloc people. In other words, give them hopelessness in "hope" while you depress and kill them physically. If you are not terrified--get with the program for it is SERIOUS time. The Russians in opposition to the New World Order are onto you, however, and it is going to get very ugly as you try to spread evil under the guise of goodness and "allowing". They don't want loose morals and they have had their bellies full to overflow of abortions with sanction and irresponsibility and lazy counterfeits.

Yes, our New Zealand friend is correct--if America can't pull out of this pit of vipers then the world is LOST. I can speak from authority, precious ones, for I see both ends of the path.

NATIONAL TRAINING LABORATORIES

THE TAVISTOCK NETWORK

In this section, we summarize the network, indicating its evolution, its general character and its leaders. In the United States, this network, which we shall call the Tavistock Network, has ten major installations, an estimated four hundred medium sized installations and probably about two to three thousand mini-sized spin-off groups deployed around the major ones. The total number of professionals employed in these institutions is an estimated 35,000-40,000 persons. [H: Count those years since this document was written and you will realize how understated this is, especially as ones are "laid off" now that installations and underground technical facilities have been completed and are ready for use.] The annual budget was running at over $5-6 billion.

(International Institute for Applied Behavioral Science)

Rosslyn Station, Va.

Tel. 703-527-1500

Founded: 1947

Director: Leeland Bradford

Number of Employees: 500 (including regional NTL branches)

Gross Expenditures Per Year (1979): $23 million.

Percentage of Total Research Devoted to Futurology: 10%

Major Clients and Types of Contracts: NTL runs "T-Groups" ("Training Groups") on Lewin

Group Behavior, including "role-playing" involving plunging the participants into "artificial stress situations".

NTL annually runs these T-Groups programs for the entire managements of the following:

U.S. Department of State

U.S. Civil Service Commission

National Education Association: NTL is an official unit of the NEA, the largest Teachers Association in the U.S. for which NTL conducts most of the Leadership Training Programs.

NTL's clients include the following corporations: Alcoa, American Cyanamid, Bell Telephone, B.F. Goodrich, Eli Lilly, Dow Chemical, U.S. Steel, Westinghouse, Lockheed, DuPont, Eastman Kodak and all major oil companies. [Remember: 1979 in point of numbers. That is over a decade past.]

INSTITUTE FOR SOCIAL RESEARCH

426 Thompson St., Ann Arbor, Michigan [H: This one is completely controlled and integrated within the Naval Intelligence Training Program.]

Founded: 1946 (officially)

Director: F.T. Juster

Director Emeritus: Rensis Like
Survey Research Center: Director, Stephen Withey

Group Dynamics: Director Emeritus, Dorwin Cartwright

Center for Research on Utilization of Scientific Knowledge: Director Emeritus, Ronald Lippitt

Center for Political Studies: Director Warren Miller

Number of Employees: 500

Total Revenue (1978): $14 million

Major Clients and Types of Contracts:

UNESCO: "International Study on the Organization and Performance of Research Units", an international study on the conditions that constitute a productive organizational climate for scientific R&D.

Russell Sage Foundation: "The Human Meaning of Social Change", the current state of research on subjective well-being, followed by a national survey supported by Russell Sage which sought to conceptualize and measure people's feelings of well-being.

National Science Foundation: Continuation of above, with emphasis on both individual and group change in perceived well-being over 1971-78 period.

OECD: "Social Accounting System", relates various data on the production of goods, household use of time, and products of household production, and individual and societal welfare, to establish the significance that various areas of life have for people's evaluations of their well-being and how rapidly these states can be disrupted.

Department of Health, Education and Welfare, U.S. Office of Education: "Youth in Transition".

What are the major causes and consequences of dropping out of high school? Are some high schools more effective than others and why? Various controlled studies on disruptions as introduced into the settings.

National Institute on Drug Abuse: "Monitoring the Future", an assessment of personal lifestyles, drug use, attitudes about drugs, intergroup and interpersonal attitudes, and other ethical and social issues--and, how quickly groups respond to introductions of substance and activities within those groups and concerning those issues.

National Institute of Mental Health: "How Americans View Their Mental Health" and "Effects of Introduction of Added Stress and Disease upon Populations".

National Chicano Survey: "Chicano Research and Training".

U.S. Congress Office of Technology Assessment: "On Learning to Plan--and Planning to Learn", the use of technology assessment as a tool to guide public policy and planning, as witnessed by the establishment of the OTA.

Identify psychological, sociological and political factors affecting the utilization of technology products for public policy formation and planning.

U.S. Department of Labor, Manpower Administration: An analytical comparison of systems for R&D diffusion and utilization in four federal agencies.

Government of PERU: ISR has helped Peruvian Government establish a survey research facility.

[H: And my, my--have you EVER HELPED PERU INTO DESTRUCTION!!]

Grants and contracts have also been received from: U.S. Department of Agriculture, U.S.

Big Sur, California
 Tel: 408-667-2335
 Founded: 1962
 Director: Richard Price
 Co-Director: Michael Murphy
 Number of Employees: Over a 100 with spin-off institutes in the U.S. numbering over 1,000, with a total staff in 1979 of over 10,000. Gross Volume of Sales Turnover Per Year (1979): $4 million; $400 million estimated for total national spin-offs.
 Major Clients and Types of Contracts: Esalen is the popular version of National Training Labs, and like NTL conducts essentially the same seminars for all its clients: T-Group ego-stripping sessions, Group Therapy including group sexual therapy as a form of "couples counseling", mind-expansion with and without psychedelic drugs, and religious cult experiences such as the chanting of Yoga mantras and Zen meditation. More than 2.5 million individuals have been brainwashed through Esalen group techniques since 1962. Organizations who have used Esalen for their membership in institutional training include: Episcopal Church of California, San Francisco State

College, San Francisco Grace Episcopal Cathedral, Brandeis University, UCLA, American Psychological Association, Playboy Magazine, Stanford Research Institute, Journal of Transpersonal Psychology, Journal of Humanistic Psychology, Western Behavioral Sciences Institute (La Jolla), World Council of Churches, Mendocino State Hospital, Stanford University, Santa Cruz University--and the list goes on so long as to preclude re-publishing it. [H: It has been proven and re-proven that the leaders were the epitome of corruption of both financial and moral attitudes of self and as practiced (taught). You who have been brainwashed through Esalen need compassion for if you are "screwed-up", you now know the source and where the problems REALLY began. This was among the most evil intentional brain-change programs ever produced against the citizenry to gain control and mind-warp.]

THE TAVISTOCK
 "MOTHER"

The "mother" institution for this network of psychological warriors is the Tavistock Institute of Human Relations located in London, England. While the name of the institute is unknown to all but certain members of this psychological profession and their students, it is no exaggeration to say that the techniques for psychological control of "target populations", the key planning for their implementation, and the training of most of the "controllers" are the Institute's handiwork.

JOHN RAWLINGS REES

Tavistock was founded as a clinic in 1921, to serve as a psychological think tank for the British intelligence services. The man who shaped Tavistock and who developed what is sometimes referred to as the "Tavistock method" was Brigadier-General John Rawlings Rees, an intimate of Margaret Mead, Gregory Bateson and Kurt Lewin who became the clinic's director in 1932. Rees's contribution to psychology, to put it crudely but accurately, was that he recognized that the same techniques used in psychotherapy to cure an individual of his neuroses or psychosis could be applied to make him sicker. Rees proposed to deliberately induce controlled forms of neurosis, or even psychotic behavior.

First applying this to single individuals, then to groups, Rees eventually proposed that this "retrogressive psychology" be applied to large numbers of individuals. It is on this premise--that large numbers of individuals can be driven neurotic or psychotic and therefore controlled--that the entire Tavistock method rests. It certainly works for as with the Holocaust circumstance in Germany during World War II--whole massive groups of people were made to believe in something that simply did not transpire as given forth publicly. It also allows for ones to increase those numbers of atrocities annually to quantities beyond original numbers of possible participants and NO-ONE EVEN NOTICES BUT PROCLAIMS THE LIE AS ACTUALLY THE FACT--AND WORSE--BELIEVES IT TO BE TRUTH!

HOW TO PROFILE AND CONTROL A SOCIETY

The tool for driving a society mad--or neurotic--was repeated "psychological shocks" or "stressful events". Rees and his cothinkers reasoned that if populations could be put through "stress tests" it was possible to first predict a response and then, through altering the range of perceived choices, to direct responses in an intended direction. In that way whole societies could be "profiled" and controlled. In his published works and private conversations, Rees reasoned that it was possible to induce a population to believe almost anything, provided that the dissemination of information, and therefore the population's perceived choices, were rigorously controlled. This is the essence of what is called a "controlled psychological environment".

While some of Rees's more timid colleagues claimed that this could only occur under laboratory conditions, Rees boldly asserted that the entire society or parts of it could be turned into a laboratory. [H: America and the Western World were turned into that laboratory in the Gulf War against Iraq and caused to act and believe exactly as programmed. Moreover, you were treated to another dose of it with the so-called collapse of Soviet nations. Nothing has changed except the level OF CONTROL and the intensity and absurdity of the lies--to which you prove to fall over and over and over again.]

PEOPLE "TREATMENT"?

The goal, according to Rees, is to use psychological shock troops to build a society "where it is possible for people of every social group to have treatment when they need it, even when they do not wish it, without it being necessary to invoke law." [H: NERVOUS YET??]

Starting in the mid-1930's, Rees began to systematically build his invisible army. [H: THEY HAVE NOW HAD OVER HALF A CENTURY TO PERFECT THEIR DASTARDLY TRICKS AND PROVE THEIR THESIS TO BE CORRECT--YOU HAVE PLAYED YOUR PART TO PERFECTION AND PULLED THE ENTIRE WORLD DOWN WITH YOU.]

He recruited W. R. Bion, who developed the concept of the "leaderless group", to the Tavistock staff. Eric Trist, now at the Wharton School in Philadelphia and the effective head of the Tavistock operations in the U.S.A., was recruited in 1940 while doing experiments on hypnosis-reduced abreaction at an English hospital. H. V. Dicks, who became Tavistock's assistant director, was brought on board in 1940.

REES COMMANDS BRITISH ARMY

But it was the war that gave Tavistock its biggest boost. It is absolutely no exaggeration to say that Rees, from 1938-42, proceeded to take over the effective command of the British Army. The military, according to Rees, was the ideal place to test out his theories. "The army and other fighting services form rather unique experimental groups since they are complete communities and it is possible to arrange experiments that would be very difficult to do in civilian life."

Rees eventually became the consulting psychiatrist to the Army at Home and later effectively ran the directorate of Army psychiatry. From this position, Rees was able to recruit from all over the British Commonwealth to fill out his "first team". Rees demanded that his "team" meet regularly in informal sessions, dubbing the meetings the "invisible college". Rees managed to get his personnel assigned to the staff of every British Army unit and the Allied Command itself, especially SHAEF (Supreme Headquarters, Allied Expeditionary Force).

The Tavistock crew worked closely with the Special Operations Executive, the British intelligence service section in charge of clandestine operations. Rees's top assistant, H. V. Dicks, was seconded to the Directorate of Military Intelligence on a semipermanent basis. Tavistock personnel were responsible for training the American Office of Strategic Services (the forerunner of the CIA) and the allied psychological warfare division.

It would require pages to provide full details of Tavistock's wartime exploits. The point to be made here is that Tavistock under Rees's direction used the war to both expand its staff and influence; more importantly it became impossible to separate Tavistock and its personnel from the Allied military command structure. It was this structure which was to evolve in the immediate postwar period into the NATO command.

POSTWAR NETWORK

At the close of the Second World War, John Rawlings Rees outlined his postwar plans to a group of U.S. Army psychiatrists. Said Rees, "If we propose to come out in the open and to attack the national and social problems of our day, then we must have shock troops and these cannot be provided by psychiatry based wholly on institutions. We must have mobile teams of psychiatrists who are free to move around and make contacts with the local situation in a particular area."

Rees proposed the creation of a psychological conspiracy--modeled on his wartime "invisible college"--and expanded to include points of influence and control in every major nation on earth. In a world driven deliberately mad, the only arbiter of sanity is psychiatry and this power can only be exercised by a cabal "in every country, groups of psychiatrists, linked to each other" capable of influencing the "political governmental field". [H: Now you are getting nervous? Remember, we are still at only the Second World War! NOW COMES THE MORE INTERESTING

MOVES.]

TAVISTOCK NETWORK

Please, as we move along here you must pay close attention because as we switch countries on you, you will get fully confused if you have skipped and slipped through this outlay of information. Since we have spoken of London and Tavistock and British and Tavistock it will be hard for you to grasp the next statement.

The Tavistock network is the EVOLVED FORM OF THIS REESIAN CONSPIRACY--[H: THIS IS NOT "RUSSIAN", HE SAID "REESIAN". THIS NEEDS TO BE UNDERSTOOD BECAUSE SUCH CLOSE PROXIMITY OF LABELS CAN MISLEAD YOU--IN THAT YOU WILL FIND THE SAME KIND OF POWER ALLOCATED TO "RUSSIA" VIA "SOVIET" "COMMUNISM" WHICH IS ACTUALLY "FASCIST SOCIALISM"/MONARCHY/DICTATORSHIP.]

At the center is the Tavistock Institute of Human Relations, founded in 1947 by Rees to supersede the old clinic. Unlike the clinic, which has only informal relations with other institutions and members of the "network", the Institute from its inception moved to establish direct relations with like-minded individuals and institutions in other countries, most notably in continental Europe and especially in the United States. Funding for the project came from the British government and from the Rockefeller Foundation, and a number of large corporations such as Unilever.

For the operation to be successful, it was required that new institutions be created to train social controllers in the "Tavistock method". These controllers were to create yet another layer of institutes to spread Tavistock's ideas throughout the population.

On the other side of the Atlantic, the Tavistock network had as its core group the circle around Kurt Lewin, the German emigré psychiatrist who developed the field theory of psychiatry and its corollary, the concept of group dynamics.

It was these credentials of the Lewin group that identified them as the key American collaborator of the Tavistock crowd. Like Rees, their concern was the use of wartime psychological warfare techniques for peacetime "mind control".

Even before the war ended, Lewin's group began planning for postwar activity. In 1944, Lewin established the Center for Research in Group Dynamics at MIT while simultaneously setting up the Commission on Community Interrelations for the American Jewish Congress. The former was to be a base of domestic operations for the Lewin group similar to Tavistock. Its key personnel, including Gordon Allport, Dorwin Cartwright and Rensis Likert, were seeking to "multiply" themselves--to create a new generation of controllers schooled in Lewin's small-group brainwashing techniques. The CCI, on the other hand, was one of the first sophisticated projects in racial and ethnic profiling dealing with the question of cultural assimilation. While the CCI received money from the AJC and similar funding conduits, the CRGD received its funding from both MIT and private grants, including the U.S. Navy.

In 1966 the Science Policy Research Unit (SPRU) was set up at Sussex University in England. The SPRU is cited in the book the Handbook of Future Research (1978) as the mother institution for all comprehensive "future oriented" research in the postwar period. The SPRU incorporated Tavistock's group dynamics and related social manipulation techniques into policy planning. It quickly established itself as a principal think tank and training institution for other future-oriented planning centers. As such, the SPRU was able to locate--or as referred to in military parlance "second"--key Tavistock agents into planning positions in major European centers. Significantly, such planners are aided in proliferating these techniques among government and corporate layers by Tavistock personnel who ran seminars for SPRU.

By the 1970's, no major center for long-range planning, either private or public, had avoided the long arm of SPRU. It is important to note that the SPRU has done direct contract work for the NATO command and that this relationship, while the details may be classified, is nonetheless a widely acknowledged fact.

The parallel U.S. institution to the SPRU is the Institute for Social Research at the University of Michigan. ISR is the product of the 1947 merger between the Survey Research Center founded in 1946 by Lewinite Rensis Likert and the Center for Research in Group Dynamics headed by Dorwin Cartwright which moved from MIT following Lewin's death. The ISR, along the Tavistock model, is the most "Action-oriented" psychological institute in the U.S.A., conducting a myriad of project studies in every aspect of social life. Of particular significance is Rensis Likert, who functions as director of the Survey Research Center, described as the pre-eminent social profiling institution in the U.S.A. Likert and his staff, through their connections to other polling services, such as the Gallup Poll and Harris Poll, have the ability to get instant readings on the population's response to policy initiatives, and to reshape response. More importantly, Likert has trained or supervised the training of market researchers for major corporations, including General Motors and Ford, thereby playing a role in determining what products will be placed on the market and when.

The Institute for Social Research, set up with original funding from the National Institute of Mental Health, the Rockefeller Foundation, and the Department of Navy now does contract work for well over a hundred of the nation's "Fortune 500" firms. In addition, the ISR has effectively taken over the "education" departments of several major unions, most notably the United Auto workers, drafting worker education plans and plans for dealing with in-plant troublemakers, drug addicts, and alcoholics.

ISR exists as a key American resource for the Tavistock cabal.

At present the ISR command structure is in the hands of former Lewin students: the institute's director is Alvin Zander, the CRGD is headed by Dorwin Cartwright, while the Survey Research Center is still headed by Rensis Likert. [H: For more current update as to players in the lead roles, I suggest you refer to Dr. John Coleman's book for I do not wish to take time herein to update information.]

The third institution is the National Training Laboratories, founded in 1947, by Ronald Lippett, Kenneth Danne, and Leland Bradford, all students of Lewin, with funding from the Office of Naval Research, the Carnegie Corporation and with direct assistance from Tavistock. Its staff comes from the Michigan ISR and from Tavistock. From its inception, NTL had one mission--to put as many key leaders of society as possible through Lewinite small group brainwashing sessions and to guarantee that these methods were applied in educational systems and in corporate environments. The NTL, which eventually became the NTL Institute of Applied Behavioral Science, set out to train a new circle of "controllers". This was done through a series of "workshop seminars", some on site at corporate headquarters, or at the NTL mansion at Bethel and later in Florida. The hallmark of NTL "training techniques" was the so-called T-group sessions, which were more generally popularized towards the end of the 1960's. The encounter groups stressed the development of "organizational" identities, with NTL group leaders infusing values into the flaccid minds of the participants. Special emphasis is made on techniques for establishing "non-coercive" small group sessions for all levels of corporate management and in using "group dynamics" as a basis for planning "new responses" to "discontinuous developments" in corporate existence.

From the mid-1950's on NTL has run similar sessions for the U.S. State Department, the U.S. Navy and the U.S. Civil Service Commission. Each of these seminars or consulting projects has involved input from Tavistock, which has drafted portions of the NTL program.

From 1964 onward, the NTL became a direct part of the National Education Association, the largest organization of teachers in the United States with membership of more than 2 million. The NTL institute is funded by the NEA as well as the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, and drafts programs for the training of the nation's primary and secondary school teachers. Under the NTL's supervision, the NEA has set up "group sessions" for its affiliates and pushed such educational "reforms" as the open classroom. Here, as in other NTL operations, Tavistock has had its input in a massive and major way.

The NTL has spawned literally hundreds of similar institutions around the country, including the establishment of a West Coast base of operations, the Western Training Laboratories in Group development. The NTL Institute has no firm figure on the number of Americans that have gone through its "group dynamics" program or spin-offs at satellite institutions. All estimates place the figure at well over one million.

The Tavistock network does not stop here. In another location, we show the development of a California nexus. The network goes even farther. The Center for Research in Group Dynamics was set up as part of the Sloan School of Business Management at MIT; Lewin operatives such as Gordon Allport worked out the School of Business and its management division at Harvard.

The point is that Tavistock controls the key business schools and related think tanks around the country (world). The case of Eric Trist is exemplary. Trist came to this country from Tavistock in 1960 after first heading Tavistock's management division and then its human resources center.

Trist then proceeded to make some assigned rounds. In 1960-61 he headed for the Stanford Center for Advanced Behavioral Sciences, where he joined fellow Tavistock operatives Bertram

Gross, Fred Emery and Dorwin Cartwright in solidifying Tavistock's West Coast operations; then he headed for Case University in Cleveland where he spent 1964 establishing a Tavistock management program; from 1967-71, Trist was seconded to the chairmanship of the graduate business school at UCLA; and finally, in 1971, Trist "landed" the chairmanship of the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School's Management and Behavioral Science Institute. The Wharton School, one of the leading economic think tanks in the country, is effectively a branch of Tavistock.

Since 1965, Trist has been directly involved in establishing a network of primarily corporate-linked psychological "problem solving" operations that are grouped under the heading of Organizational Development. There are two levels to this operation. At one level on the shop floor in as many as 500 factories, schools, etc., OD is a sophisticated small-group-oriented, brainwashing project. Through the application of controlled stressful situations, workers and employees are "broken from their individualism" and given a "team spirit". They are then "allowed" in "consultation with management" to set their own working rates, which Trist has found are "higher" than normal. In short, they are induced to speed themselves up. The program is coordinated directly with ISR and the NTL Institute. Wharton publications speak highly of the way such methods "increase productivity".

On a second level, OD deals with training corporate management in using these techniques.

An NTL brochure describes a course in the Tavistock model of group dynamics: "This model provides participants with opportunities for increasing their understanding and awareness of group processes, with particular emphasis on the covert dynamics which occur in groups with regard to the issues of authority, leadership and followership.

"The learning focus is upon groups rather than individual personalities. This perspective is emphasized in order to facilitate a new understanding of institutions, organizations and communities. The focus of the staff is upon the major problems of group life--those encountered in the exercise of authority based upon competence, power or both. It is assumed that people who understand something about the nature and exercise of their own authority, as well as that of others, are thereby equipped to deal more effectively with these issues as encountered in any work setting."

BRZEZINSKI'S 'ONE WORLD' VISION

[H: This is an incredibly important section so please attend it closely.]

When the first results of Tavistock's profiling of NASA were turned in, an alarmed mobilization took place. In May 1967, the Scientific and Technological Committee of the North Atlantic Assembly and the Pennsylvania-based Foreign Policy Research Institute (headed by NATO Ambassador Robert Strausz-Hupe) organized the Conference on Transatlantic Technological Imbalance and Collaboration in Deauville, France. Among the participants were Dr. Zbigniew Brzezinski, then on the staff of the State Department Policy and Planning Council, and Dr. Aurelio Peccei, the current head of the Club of Rome and during that time the chairman of NATO's leading think-tank, the Economic Committee of the Atlantic Institute in Paris.

That conference was one of many in that period in which a decision was shaped to put an end to the scientific-technological advances of the United States. Two books were produced out of those deliberations. Brzezinski's TECHNETRONIC ERA and Peccei's THE CHASM AHEAD. From the ideas presented in these books, the Club of Rome was later formed.

In his piece, Brzezinski wrote that America was moving into a society "increasingly unlike its industrial predecessor", a "technetronic" society that could easily become a "technocratic dictatorship". The society would be characterized by an "information revolution", "Cybernetics", and the replacement of "achievement-orientation" by "amusement-focus" based on "spectator spectacles (mass sports and TV) providing an opiate for increasingly purposeless masses."

"In the technetronic society," Brzezinski announced, "industrial employment yields to services, with automation and cybernetics replacing individual operation of machines." This will occur simultaneously with "the increasing availability of biochemical means of human control". In addition, "new forms of social control may be needed to limit the indiscriminate exercise by individuals of their new powers. The possibility of extensive chemical mind control... will call for a social definition of common criteria of restraint as well as of utilization."

A brave new world? In a critical passage further in the text, Brzezinski laid out the following chilling description of the "technetronic society":

The challenge in its essence involves the twin dangers of fragmentation and social control... The next phase may be one of sullen withdrawal from social and political involvement, a flight from social and political responsibility through inner emigration. Political frustration could increase the difficulty of absorbing and internalizing rapid environmental changes, thereby prompting increasing psychic instability.

At the same time, the capacity to assert social and political control over the individual will vastly increase... It will soon be possible to assert almost continuous surveillance over every citizen and to maintain up-to-date complete files, containing even most personal information about the health or personal behavior of the citizen, in addition to more customary data. These files will be subject to instantaneous retrieval by the authorities.

Moreover, the rapid pace of change will put a premium on anticipating events and planning for them. Power will gravitate into the hands of those who control the information, and can correlate it most rapidly. Our existing post-crisis management institutions will probably be increasingly supplanted by pre-crisis management institutions, the task of which will be to identify in advance likely social crises and to develop programs to cope with them. This could encourage tendencies during the next several decades towards a technocratic dictatorship, leaving less and less room for political procedures as we now know them.

Finally, looking ahead to the end of this century, the possibility of biochemical mind-control and the genetic tinkering with man, including eventually the creation of beings that will function like men--and reason like them as well--could give rise to the most difficult questions.

This transformation means that America, having left the industrial phase, is today entering a distinct historical era, a different one from that of Western Europe and Japan. This is prompting subtle and still indefinable changes in the American psyche, providing the psycho-cultural underpinnings for the more evident political disagreements between the two sides of the Atlantic. ....Europe and America are no longer in the same historical era. What makes America unique in our time is that it is the first society to experience the future ... be it pop art or LSD. Today, America is the creative society; the others, consciously and unconsciously, are emulative."

This, Brzezinski continued, will have enormous international repercussions. "The instantaneous electronic intermeshing of mankind will make for an intense confrontation, straining social and international peace." There could well be a "three-way split into rural-back-ward, urban-industrial and technetronic ways of life" that will "only further divide man".

The "implications of a truly new era" will require a "universal intellectual elite" and a "world super-culture" produced "inevitably" by the "the network of electronic communications". Brzezinski demanded "creative interpreters of the new age" to develop a concept of "regionalism and due deference to the symbolic meaning of national sovereignty". This could be best thrashed out at "a special world congress, devoted to the technetronic and philosophical problems of the coming AGE." [H: If this doesn't point out from where came all your "channels" and false religious teachers with BS for information, then

I don't know what will convince you. You are direct victims of the LIE as it was constructed and thrust upon you step by certain step.]

* * *

We need a break and this is quite enough to digest at this sitting. We will work into this scenario the connections between Brzezinski and Peccei when we write next but let us consider a thing or two of the above message.

All changes have been directed at the original thrust of the adversary to pull you down into finite physical limitations by brain manipulation and LIES. The Tavistock Institute and all other such institutions and organizations have simply been the formal thrust in recognized format for the final devastating thrust for control.

The mission has been aided and abetted by thousands of others who either thought they served peace and/or deliberately were part and parcel of the overall plan. I have no intent to discern, for you, which is which. If it is against God it is against me. If you turn from God along the path and deny God, God will deny you!

You will find personal pain and growth in my scribe this day as Sister Thedra and ASSK have attacked again for the acquisition of money for some past perceived non-production. This time, at least they do not invoke the name of Sananda or Christ to garner material possession. I suggest that is indeed wise for I suspect the next statement from Sananda would be, "I know them not!"

This relationship is very close with the workers of evil in the United Nations as ones such as Donald Keyes set you on a course whereby this very governmental unification against you could be put into final motion for fulfillment. Innocent? NO--deliberate and orchestrated!

Are the followers in the "New Age" innocent? No, for they have now had ample opportunity to gain TRUTH and they refuse--in continued attack on Truth-bringers and further deliberate pulling of the citizenry away from that truth.

It is up to each that which you will do but if you do not come into responsible individual recognition of the shroud cast upon you, soon, it shall be too late for action for you can see from the projections in planning that the end is nigh. So be it.

Hatonn to clear, thank you.

Leap Year?

2/29/92 #1 HATONN

Add a day every fourth year to make up missing "time"? A "Pope" did this, you know! Pope Gregory. Also you efficiently and scientifically add a minute a century to account for the slowing of Earth's rotation due to something or other with the moon. So be it. In New York state, once, it was offered by the State Politicians to round off "pi" (a symbol denoting the ratio of the circumference of a circle to its diameter. The ratio itself: 3.14159...) Reason? Because the fractions were too inconvenient. This was to have become the legalized ruling for "new mathematics" among a few dandy other changes.

You ask me to give you frequencies, tones and mathematical equations to "cure" this or that and "how to build a spacecraft" and what proportions of "things" to use for free energy, etc. Do you begin to understand the problem we face herein? Your people (politicians) are ready to blow you out of the universe and you have to work with figures such as pi rounded to "easy" non-fractions. It is sort of like saying, "Well, the blacks don't feel much about death," or the Iraqis don't feel much importance to death," etc. That must be why you gave them and continue to give them so much of it. You know, just kill off the blacks in Africa (their homeland) and keep right on killing the Arabs because they must not mind. Are you totally insane? No, you are programmed, controlled and have become robots in the hands of the Elite.

I like what I heard yesterday from a speaker that I greatly respect: When asked if he is a "Conspiracy Theorist", he responded: "No, I am a Coincidence Theorist. Everything MUST be 'just coincidence' for surely no one in their right minds would actually conspire to pull off such atrocities." I take it a bit further: I think that it truly must be coincidence for, as badly as the general order functions, it is amazing that the conspiracies come off at all and must be a coincidence of activities. Coincidences, however, were not working their percentage of the odds in the bombing of Iraq for far too many "precision" bombs ONLY FELL ON CIVILIANS AND I THINK THAT, PERCENTAGE-WISE, SOME SHOULD HAVE HIT MILITARY TARGETS. So much for introduction this morning.

Neuremburg Trials

2/29/92 #1 HATONN

This morning it is announced that Kuwait and allied coalition "persons" are about ready to have Neuremburg trials for Iraqis just like in the original Neuremburg trials of Germany. God have mercy on such atrocities--do you never get enough of the bloodshed from the lies and crimes? You went to war to protect and regain position for a MONARCH WHO WOULDN'T EVEN GO BACK INTO HIS OWN COUNTRY UNTIL HIS "LUXURIOUS LIFESTYLE" WAS RESTORED. SADDAM HUSSEIN WAS GUILTY OF REFUSING TO JOIN THE NEW WORLD ORDER! NO MORE AND NO LESS! Your New World Order thugs set up the entire scenario, sold it to you--the people and went in to destroy and torch a nation and kill thousands and thousands of innocent women and children because that is where Saddam would be worst hurt and insenced. YOU--AMERICA! YOU!! IT WAS TO TEACH THE OTHER NATIONS THAT THEY COULD NOT AND WOULD NOT STAND AGAINST THIS MASSIVE TECHNICAL MACHINERY. IT IS GOING TO HAPPEN TO YOU, AMERICA--YOU!! IT WILL "TEACH YOU A LESSON" IT WILL BE SAID AFTER MOST OF YOU ARE DEAD OR DYING.

If you learned nothing from the Soviet stupid fiasco pseudo-splitup than the fact that the Russians do not want a New World Order, either, you will have been a wise perceptor. The controllers want a New World Order--the "people" are willing to die for prevent that happening--they have had ENOUGH of the New World Order. But apparently YOU have not. You are headed for the most massive time of deprivation of historical note since the blowing away of Atlantis and return to the blackest of Dark Ages human of Earth ever experienced. Look at your globe and you will see WHERE the most massive damage took place--look and see where the resources of life are scarce and the deserts vast and the lands arid. Keep going, humans, and you shall surely have it again--only this time it will be massive and total.

WAR

Your coalition of Global masters prepare for a war of wars--they are ready to introduce unto you the terror of the Space Aliens. Believe me, they have the replicas in their hidden underground bases to "prove" it to you. Note, however, that these aliens are somehow predominantly in the U.S. while the Cosmospheres and "enemy" are from the Russias. They are about ready to launch some pretty strange craft loose on you--the people and call them alien intrusion. They claim, and your UFOlogists tout and scream "aliens are holding the government hostage". BS! You have replicated a bunch of clones which will do-in your world because you plan to go to all out war in space with the Cosmospheres and in turn the Hosts of God. We shall see how that turns out, won't we? You can't live off your orb--no way, no how! And yet, the seeds are now planted for a massive war to be launched very, very soon now.

Ones are nervous living in this area of underground facilities some 40 levels into the earth and catacomb right under this dwelling in which we work. MAKE MY DAY AND JUST "TRY IT" BECAUSE IF YOU EARTH BARONS OVERSTEP YOUR BOUNDARIES YOU SHALL FEEL THE WRATH OF THAT GOD WITH WHICH YOU EFFORTED TO TERRIFY MANKIND BY LIES. YOU ARE NOW TINKERING WITH THE SPACE COMMAND OF THE HOSTS OF GOD AND YOU SHALL NOT FARE WELL, EARTH HUMAN. LYING TO YOUR SHEEPLE WILL NOT HELP YOU OR THEM. HOSTAGES? YOU WILL HOLD MY PEOPLE HOSTAGE? SURELY YOU JEST, LITTLE TOY SOL-DIERS MARCHING TO DEATH. YOU CANNOT HOLD MY PEOPLE HOSTAGE! AND IF MY PEOPLE ARE SUPPOSEDLY HOLDING YOU AND YOUR GOVERNMENT HOSTAGE, HOW BE IT THAT YOU HAVE BUILT MASSIVE WAR MACHINES BENEATH YOUR EARTH IN THE RAT TUNNELS OF DARKNESS? WHO IS GOING TO HOLD THIS WAR? OUR PEOPLE AGAINST US? COME, COME YOU STUPID LIARS--DO YOU THINK THERE IS NO END TO THE STUPIDITY OF YOUR BROTHER HUMANS? ALL THESE SLEEPING MASSES HAVE TO DO IS WAKE UP AND SEE THE LIE AND "YOU" ARE FINISHED! SO BE IT FOR THIS THAT IS PLANNED IS GOING TO BE THE DOOMSDAY IDIOCY OF ALL HISTORY. I SUGGEST YOU SURVEILLANCE TEAMS PUT THIS MOST CAREFULLY INTO YOUR LITTLE PIPES AND PASS ON THE WORD--YOU HAVE MET YOUR MATCH AND YOU SHALL FIND YOURSELVES TO BE BUT AS CHAFF IN THE WHIRLWINDS. I SUGGEST YOU KEEP YOUR GAMES LIMITED UNTO PHYSICAL ENCOUNTERS OR YOU SHALL FEEL THE WRATH BEYOND YOUR WILDEST IMAGININGS. WE DO NOT COME TO INTERVENE NOR TO PHYSICALLY DO ANYTHING TO YOU SO I SUGGEST, STRONGLY, THAT YOU LEAVE OUR MISSION TOTALLY ALONE. WE SHALL COUNTER EVERY LIE AS INVADES THE PLACES OF GOD IN THE UNIVERSAL ORDER. YOU MIGHT BE AWARE, HOWEVER, THAT IT WILL ONLY REQUIRE "TRUTH" TO DEFEAT YOUR PURPOSE.

Thank you readers, for allowing me to take a moment to give unequivocal announcement to the surveillance groups who monitor all our machines in this place--you can consider this information and instructions "RIGHT OUT OF THE 'HORSE'S' MOUTH!"--ME BEING THE HORSE IN POINT.

INFORMATION

We shall speak later this day about delaying these current writings on the "Mother of all Web Builders". The information is not new--it is old by half a century--it only now becomes pertinent to the understanding of your people and nations of citizens. Why do you wish it delayed? Study that question most carefully for, in fact, the author of other volumes stands to be shot in the delay. This is the time of pulling the mass of information forth and putting it into the hands of the people in a manner in which it can be utilized instantly--in such outlay lays the possibility of a world's recovery. Be careful to whom you listen for instructions lest ye be led into the trap of doom. You who work with me and cannot quite find the doubts fallen away--must look again and consider your suggestions in the light of my truth as measured against the "intelligence" community with half-facts and planted information. Let us always consider the aspect of human EGO and make sure we do not endanger our people and/or our mission through ego desires.

Let us return to our subject of the Tavistock Institute and players and see if we can wrap up this volume of Tangled Webs as I am reminded that I draw to the limits of the numbered pages. Thank you for your attention.

ENTER AURELIO PECCEI

Brzezinski's line was echoed in various NATO conferences of the period. In his book, THE CHASM AHEAD, Aurelio Peccei fully endorsed Brzezinski's "technetronic age" perspective. In Peccei's words, America was entering the "IBM age", while Europe was still in the "GM age".

Chaos would ensue unless the Atlantic alliance ruled world policy, Peccei argued. But that alliance was threatened by this "gap". Therefore, Europe must end its resistance to aligning itself with "post-industrial" America, and redirect its policies toward the "informational society", and thereby re-create the Atlantic Alliance.

Peccei realized this would mean Malthusian triaging of industrial capital on a global scale. At some point, a collision with the scientific-technological-military apparatus of the Soviet Union and the Warsaw Pact would occur. So, Peccei suggested, citing Brzezinski as his source, that the Warsaw Pact be offered "convergence" with the Atlantic Alliance as the alternative to "explosion". This "convergence" would lay the basis for what Peccei labeled "One World" government, to run global affairs on the twin foundations of "crisis management" and "global planning".

A VISIT TO TAVISTOCK

While this new world strategy was being prepared in NATO, Peccei had a series of consultations with key officials. One was McGeorge Bundy, former National Security Council chief during the Cuban missile crisis, another was the chief scientific administrator for NATO, Dr. Alexander King, the Director General of Scientific Affairs for the OECD; a third was Dr. Homer Perlmutter, editor of Tavistock's magazine Human Relations. Peccei also met extensively with White House officials and with the State Department Policy Planning Council.

Finally, Peccei traveled to the headquarters of the Tavistock Institute of Human Relations in England, where the decisions on how to proceed in transforming NATO policy were finalized. An attempt would be made to induce the Soviets to accept "convergence", by offering "disarmament negotiations", and through ideological/psychological manipulations centered on the offer of "Systems Analysis" cooperation. McGeorge Bundy and Alexander King would offer the Soviets an "entry point" through the International Institute of Applied Systems Analysis (IIASA) and the International Federation of Institutes of Advanced Studies (IFIAS).

The job of brainwashing the peoples of the NATO countries, with special emphasis on the American population, would be coordinated by a "Club of Rome" to be founded by Aurelio Peccei and Alexander King, with Tavistock Institute functioning as the evaluator/controller of the process. [H: IT HAPPENED IN 1990-1991!]

already in transition toward the New Age. They are therefore mobilizing their faithful to begin the next phase creation of cults and mass brainwashing of Americans into acceptance of the death of the American dream. [H: It has happened.]

A special bicentennial meeting of the Club of Rome was held in Philadelphia in April 1976 on the theme, "New Horizons for Mankind". Preparations were advanced for the 1977 opening of an office of a new U.S. Association for the Club of Rome in Washington, D.C. Donald Lesh, then of Potomac Associates and formerly of the National Security Council, became head of the office.

Meanwhile, the Woodlands Conference in Houston, Texas, sponsored by oilman George P. Mitchell, continued to put out the Club of Rome line as it had since the early 1970's. From Oct. 28-31, 1979, the Woodlands Conference on Growth Policy featured presentations stressing that people could be induced to accept "limits to growth".

The conference was cosponsored by the University of Houston System, the Center of Integrative Studies, the Aspen Institute, and the Mitchell Energy and Development Corporation.

The Club of Rome itself was founded in late 1968 at a meeting pulled together on the basis of Peccei's call for a new one-world government.

ESALEN A CASE STUDY IN CALIFORNIA

The Aquarian Conspiracy first surfaced in a public institution for mass popularization at the Esalen Institute in Big Sur, California, founded in 1962. When it took off in 1967, Esalen became the mecca of hundreds of Americans who paid exorbitant fees for weekends of T-Groups, the "Training Groups" modeled on behavioral group therapy; for Zen, Hindu and Buddhist transcendental meditation; and for "out of body" experiences through simulated and actual hallucinogenic drugs.

But Esalen, in all its kookiness, was a direct product of the "practical" industrial theorist Kurt Lewin and his Tavistock network of professional behavioral psychologists. Michael Murphy and Richard Price, the nominal founders of Esalen, were guided by Lewin's student, Abraham Maslow, the respected Harvard psychologist and head of the American Psychiatric Association whose book TOWARD A PSYCHOLOGY OF BEING served as Esalen's bible. Maslow, who took control of Esalen in 1965, had arranged for extended visits and lectures to the out-of-the-way retreat by Sir Arnold Toynbee, wartime head of British Intelligence Research, and his Oxford student, Aldous Huxley.

As described in the Esalen Institute Newsletter:

Esalen started in the Fall of 1962 as a forum to bring together a wide variety of approaches to enhancement of the human potential....including experiential sessions involving encounter groups, sensory awakening, gestalt awareness training, and related disciplines. Our latest step is to fan out into the community at large, running programs in cooperation with many different institutions--churches, schools, hospitals, and government.

Despite its "far-out" hippie image, Esalen boasted as its founders one of the most distinguished international casts of highly trained psychologists, psychoanalysts and neurophysiologists assembled by Tavistock since the World War II effort. Esalen was a massed redeployment of the entire forces of the Tavistock network into California, led by personnel directly from London Tavistock Lewin's National Training Labs, and the Stanford Center for the Advanced Study of the Behavioral Sciences. Mass popularization of the Aquarian mind control process was underway.

Esalen was set up to do what Lewin's National Training Labs could not, to become the national laboratory for the indoctrination of the American people into Lewinite T-Group behavior modification. NTL, the training center for the trainers, with its top-level government and corporate clientele, was inappropriate for a popular mass marketing of the counterculture--which would have cost NTL many of its distinguished accounts.

Esalen's nominal founders were two transcendental meditation students, Michael Murphy and Richard Price, who had been through years of mind dissolution at the Aurobindo Ashram in Pondicherry, India. "Mike wants to turn on the world," said a close friend, referring to the founding of Esalen. A closer look reveals that Murphy was a Stanford University Department of Psychology alumnus and former resident scholar at the Stanford CASBS during the late 1950's. Price was a Stanford University Medical Center behavioral psychologist who participated in Dr. Rudolf Moos' experiments on patients at the Palo Alto Veterans Hospital and worked with Murphy at the CASBS during the same period.

BEHIND THESE MEN WERE THE FOLLOWING INSTITUTIONS WHOSE LECTURERS TRAVELED TO ESALEN:

London Tavistock: R.D. Laing and Aldous Huxley came to Esalen. They were accompanied on occasion by Arnold Toynbee, the Oxford history professor whose work on the Western mind and its dissolution at the hands of primitive ("Third World") cultures laid the basis for the thought of Mao Tse-tung and Franz Fanon.

National Training Labs: Abraham Maslow, author of TOWARD A PSYCHOLOGY OF BEING, which became Esalen's bible, was a top group dynamics leader at NTL before he moved to Esalen in 1963 and took over direction of Murphy and Price's work. In fact, NTL had established a California division, Western Training Labs, whose leadership began to teach group therapy sessions at Esalen with regularity. Among those included was Roger Tannenbaum, an NTL Fellow who was personally trained by Eric Trist during Trist's tenure at UCLA during the 1950's. Tannenbaum, described by the Esalen Newsletter as "a top leader in the field of Sensitivity Training", ran Esalen T-groups while serving as a co-director of UCLA's "Learning Community in Organization Development" designed by Trist.

James F.T. Bugental, trained by Eric Trist at UCLA, and a fellow of NTL from 1963, became a major force at Esalen, while on assignment as a professor of Clinical Psychology at Stanford University Medical Center and the VA Hospital. He is currently a fellow at SRI. As indicated by his book, THE SEARCH FOR AUTHENTICITY; AN EXISTENTIAL-ANALYTIC APPROACH TO PSYCHOTHERAPY, Bugental is one of Esalen's leading ego-strippers, a man who assassinates personalities. Bugental leads seminars in "Getting Deeper Faster", which according to the Esalen Newsletter "are devoted to the acting out of various techniques for accelerating the getting-acquainted process between two people", for the dissolution, that is, of the individual's sense of himself, into the group environment.

Stanford Medical Center-Palo Alto Veterans Hospital: Gregory Bateson not only taught seminars in consciousness raising at Esalen but trained Esalen's major inhouse guru, Alan Watts, at the Palo Alto Veterans Memorial Hospital, where Bateson, Watt's psychiatrist, indoctrinated him with LSD. Bateson also introduced Baba Ram Das, a leading guru of the LSD cult, into Esalen. Baba Ram Das' REAL name is RICHARD ALPERT, together with fellow psychologist TIMOTHY LEARY. Alpert ran the MK-Ultra Project at Harvard University's Department of Psychology which launched the LSD movement on the U.S. East Coast in 1965.

Today, Esalen acts as the center for the Aquarian Conspiracy through the Journal of Humanistic Psychology. Its board of editors includes Aldous Huxley and Abraham Maslow (posthumously); Willis W. Harman, of Stanford Research, Hazel Henderson of the Club of Rome, Marilyn Ferguson, Robert Tannenbaum and James F.T. Bugental of Esalen. Carl Rogers and Warren Bennis of Tavistock.

NOW SHUDDER: FOR IT IS COME UPON YOU.

THE ESALEN METHOD

One of the main techniques for breaking morale through a strategy of terror consists in exactly this tactic--keep the person hazy as to where he stands and just what he may expect. In addition, if frequent vacillations between severe disciplinary measures and promises of good treatment together with the spreading of contradictory news, make the cognitive structure of this situation utterly unclear, then the individual may cease even to know a particular plan would lead toward or away from his goal. Under these conditions even those individuals who have definite goals and are ready to take risks are paralyzed by severe conflict in regard to what to do... Kurt Lewin, TIME, PERSPECTIVE

AND MORALE, 1941

The essence of the democratic experiment is tested in the laboratory of California. Having tended our national myth, California, purveyor of our electronic and celluloid myths, transmits to those looking for hope. If it can work in California, maybe it can be adapted and put to work elsewhere.... Marilyn Ferguson, THE AQUARIAN CONSPIRACY.

THE REVOLUTION HAS BEGUN. HUMAN LIFE WILL BE TRANSFORMED. HOW IT WILL BE TRANSFORMED IS UP TO US.... George B. Leonard, Senior Editor, Look magazine; Board of Editors, Journal of Humanistic Psychology AT ESALEN, October 8, 1967.

In 1967, after Gregory Bateson, Ken Kesey, and Timothy Leary had softened up the American population for the counterculture, Esalen began to assume a high public profile. Lewinite T-Groups, religious cults, and hallucinogenic experiences were henceforth to be merchandized like deodorant. Here is a catalog of Esalen's products.

T-Groups: Esalen's use of T-Groups, also called Sensitivity Sessions, concentrates on "ego stripping", putting the individual in a group situation in which he is forced to dissolve his identity into the group. In the Esalen version, extensive emphasis is placed on group physical contact; during Esalen's early years, this was restrained to group hand-holding, hugging, and other forms of "mothering". As Esalen grew, together with the much-publicized "free sex" of the "love generation", these T-Groups became increasingly pornographic. Today, group sex is used at Esalen as a brainwashing tool: the individual becomes totally psychologically dependent on the "love" of the group, and intellectual regression is intense.

Recent T-Group sessions as described in the Esalen Newsletter have included:

Psychodrama Marathon. Weekend Marathon, with Husain Chung.

This psychodrama marathon, 40 hours long, will provide an intense confrontation with the meaning of being human. The process of the marathon will be to provide an intensive encounter, breaking through defenses, and from this experience to reawaken one's capacity for faith and trust and to strengthen one's tolerance for anxiety, frustration, and ambiguity.

Husain Chung was born in Shanghai and educated in the United States. He has practiced Subud intensively here and in Indonesia and has studied psychodrama with J. L. Moreno. He has taught and counseled in California schools, clinics and mental hospitals, and is now associated with the Human Institute, Menlo Park, which conducts psychodrama workshops and marathons.

Fight Training for Lovers and Couples: Weekend Workshop with George R. Bach and Staff.

This workshop, beginning with a theory and demonstration session, will include a mini-marathon on Saturday in which participants will practice the fine art of intimate communication. Verbal and nonverbal, fighting and loving, autonomous and dyadic ways of deepening and stimulating the male-female bond will be explored. Participants will be introduced to Dr. Bach's original "Fight Training for Lovers" in which intimate partners can strengthen their love relationship by learning how to "fight" fairly and effectively. The weekend will end with a critique, integration and "Lovefeast" on Sunday from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Participants should bring fight-willing partners and be prepared to study assigned sections in Dr. Bach's latest book, THE INTIMATE ENEMY, a copy of which will be supplied at the beginning of this weekend.

George Bach, Ph.D., founder and director of The Institute of Group Psychotherapy, is an innovator of the marathon experiences and couples therapy. He is the author of THE INTIMATE ENEMY.

Religious Cults: Whereas Platonic religions are based on the godliness of the creative human mind, Esalen religious cults are based on the destruction of the individual's creativity under the pressure of the group or in the face of "meditation" upon man's "oneness with the environment"--the dissolution of the boundary between the person and his "life space". This includes the sort of "out of body" experiences associated with Bishop Pike and his disciple, Elizabeth Kubler-Ross, the proponent of "death with dignity" who regularly "communes" with the dead. Esalen cult sessions as described in its newsletter include:

LSD Experiences and the Great Religions of the World, Weekend Seminar with Stanislav Grof.

A comparison of the experiences of subjects in LSD research to those described within such religious traditions as Christianity, Judaism, Islam, Hinduism, Buddhism, Taoism and various primitive and heretical traditions. Consideration will be given to the authenticity of chemically induced religious experience.

Stanislav Grof is a research psychiatrist currently on a fellowship at the Johns Hopkins Medical School in Baltimore. During the past decade he has conducted numerous studies with LSD subjects in Prague, Czechoslovakia.

Are You Sound? Weekend Workshop with Alan Watts.

The double meaning of this question will be explored through both discussion and experiment. We shall investigate the "musical mysticism" of mantra-yoga in Hinduism, Buddhism, Christianity and Islam, considering the universe as an energy-pattern which is essentially musical in its nature.

Alan Watts, author of THE WAY OF ZEN: NATURE, MAN AND WOMAN; PSYCHOTHERAPY EAST AND WEST; BEYOND THEOLOGY: THE BOOK: ON THE TABOO AGAINST KNOWING WHO YOU ARE; and many other writings, has been--with D.T. Suzuki--the leading popularizer of Zen Buddhism in the United States. In recent years Dr. Watts has worked to unify science, philosophy and religion into a totally modern view.

Creating New Forms of Worship, 3-Day Workshop with Bill McGaw and Wilson Van Dusen.

Today religion is facing a crisis of far reaching proportions. In many situations a sense of community is almost non-existent, and in many churches there is less and less participation from youth. A possible source of renewal may be the inclusion of encounter and awareness techniques in Sunday morning worship and other rituals.

Workshop members will be introduced to a dynamic theory of ritual and symbol which is open to creative change. Experiential worship services will be presented and discussed.

HALLUCINOGENIC PSYCHOSIS

Still the most powerful among the tools of the Esalen brainwashers, the induction of psychotic experiences through administering hallucinogenic drugs is practiced openly. So-called "Non-Drug Approaches to Psychedelic Experiences", the various methods of meditation and self-hypnosis have also been taught at Esalen in small-group tests, to see if they might not be taught to large populations, without necessary chemicals, over television or other electronic media. Such seminars at Esalen have included:

Non-Drug Approaches to Psychedelic Experience, Weekend workshop with Bernard S. Aaronson and Steven A. Stroud.

Psychedelic experiences can be produced without drugs by methods involving the creation of hypnoideal states. Through the use of visualization and other procedures, including music, readings, and techniques for enhancing perception, participants will experience and try to understand the nature of psychedelic experience.

Bernard S. Aaronson, Ph.D., heads the experimental psychology section of the New Jersey Bureau of Research in Neurology and Psychiatry. He is interested in many techniques to promote human growth including hypnosis, elements of occult traditions, meditation, and operant conditioning. He has sixty publications to his credit, and has been professor at several universities and is also engaged in the private practice of psychotherapy. With Humphrey Osmond he is editor of PSYCHEDELICS: THEIR USES AND IMPLICATIONS to be published by Doubleday.

I hope that as you read the above it became a bit more clearly apparent why the orthodox religions would speak out against hypnosis, etc. Also, why the very group promoting such would disallow legal practice of same--for if a state is introduced into the subconscious mind through this above type of hypnotic programming--IT CAN INSTANTLY BE UNDONE BY RECLARIFYING THE SUBCONSCIOUS MIND. This is why ones who are onto the plan and know the methods being utilized are not subject to the program in point. You can fool and reprogram the subconscious mind--YOU CANNOT VOID OR REPROGRAM THE GOD SOUL SUPRA-MIND. VALUES INBRED WILL NOT BE OVER-

COME THROUGH THE GIMMICKS AT THAT HIGHER LEVEL AND WHEN REAWAKENED TO THE MORAL VALUES OF "RIGHTNESS". THE CONSCIOUS WILL RESPOND WITH REASON AND INTELLIGENCE EVEN IF THE PROGRAMMING OF THE SUBCONSCIOUS IS STILL AT WARP SPEED. THIS IS WHAT CAUSES THE TREMENDOUS CLASH IN EMOTIONAL RESPONSE AS CHAOS AND CONFUSION IMPACT THE HIGHER BEING OF THE SOUL INDIVIDUAL. IN OTHER WORDS, NO MATTER WHAT IS TAUGHT TO THE CONSCIOUS AND SUBCONSCIOUS--THE GOD LEVEL OF BEING KNOWS TRUTH.

Let us close this portion at this point, Dharma. I believe this will be the final chapter in this JOURNAL as well.

I have rapidly ripped through this material and I can only ask that you move rapidly in obtaining the more detailed writings and updatings of Dr. Coleman. By the way, for his own protection--know that this is a "pen-name" for this person because his background is such that birth names cannot be utilized. He has, however, gathered quite a reading audience and is recognized by this title and therefore we shall honor him in that manner.

Yes, you readers who have studied this subject widely will recognize portions already have been given over the past decades. I urge you to not get lazy in your homework for you are going to get the details, updating and far more information than I have given. I have only rapidly run through the facts so that misperceptions are not allowed to bring damage to any writers or speakers. There is comfort and safety in numbers and my mission is to get you the detailed information via the best and most accurate routing and still give security to the daring participants.

And to YOU, the readers, please remember that information is only printed symbols if you heed it not and do not act on the input. You may well experience overwhelming overload--please, just rest a bit and reread. Ignorance is your enemy--never truth. Salu.

New World Order At Work

3/2/92 #1 HATONN

As you open the pages of a new volume you must wonder "where have I been?" or "...this is pure idiocy and fabrication." Let me share a moment with you as Dharma ponders: "There must be an ending--a limit--to this deceit and surely he will run out of stuff to write about." NO--we have not so much as dented the surface layers but WE HAVE GIVEN YOU THE WHO AND THE INTENT. The rest is the unraveling of the web so that you can confirm Truth as the different scenarios come into the focus of the ONE. For instance, what think ye means "Trilateral" Commission? Obviously by the word itself, if not changed to suit the needs of the Elite, it refers to "three"--three whats? Three whiches?

NEW WORLD ORDER AT WORK

Dear ones, you have a working New World Order. The judicial system is corrupt and has long since stopped practicing "justice". All your major "systems", i.e., education, religion and government for SOVEREIGN CITIZENS are GONE! So, what is happening in the service of that "Mother of all Webs"? It is simply the legalization of the New World Order.

Few, FEW, (FEW), know this next information--but enough know to recognize that someone "out-there" is giving you-the-public the information if only someone would listen and HEAR! I do not speak of myself--I speak of ones who learn of these coalitions in the same secret manner as they are conceived. YOU only are introduced to them in a jumble of hidden debris so that you THINK THE THING OR ORGANIZATION HAS BEEN AROUND FOREVER, DOING ITS "GOODLY" WORK IN YOUR BEHALF.

CNN: THE MOST CONTROLLED OF THEM ALL

I repeat a most important thing--THE CNN NETWORK IS THE MOST CONTROLLED MEDIA OF ALL OF THE CONTROLLED MEDIA FOR PLANNED INFOR-MATION GIVEN FROM THE ELITE TO YOU IN THE EXACT FORM AS A MOVIE SCRIPT--TO PRESENT AN ILLUSION WHILE YOU BELIEVE THE STORY TO BE NON-FICTION. THEN, THE REMAINDER OF THE NETWORKS ARE REQUIRED TO PRESENT BACKUP INFORMATION FOR THAT ILLUSION. YOU NOW LIVE IN TOTAL "LA-LA" LAND OF MAKE-BELIEVE AND, WORSE, IT DOESN'T SEEM TO BOTHER YOU VERY MUCH.

LEGALIZING THIS "NEW WORLD ORDER"

COMING: APEC

This elusive NEW organization being powerized and soon to be thrust upon you is--the Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC). It is so near to terminology, like for instance, OPEC, that no one notices it is something else of unknown fiber and power--it is also called a "forum".

This is the East Asian counterpart to the Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe (CSCE). The point is to confuse you with so many "initials" that you haven't the vaguest idea about what anyone is speaking.

I urge you to make no mistakes about this link-up of this trilateral structure. The game goal is the same as always--without deviation. Only a few incidents and players are changed along the way as necessary to better accomplish the Elite ends. Unfortunately for you--things are remaining exactly as described by your author, George Orwell in 1984. It may SEEM otherwise--it is not. In one of his private talks, David Rockefeller put it succinctly for you, that is, "to restructure the world into three regional (or "trilateral") blocks. In each area, the ONE CONSTANT will be the initiation, participation, and open checkbook of the government of the United States."

And make no mistake about this, either: The Insiders' dream of a New World Order, as first envisioned by John Ruskin, Cecil Rhodes, Andrew Carnegie, and Elihu Root a century or so past, has the full blessings and support of the Bush Administration. This also falls directly into the overall blueprint of the Khazarian Zionist Elders outlined within the Protocols for Global Control--by year 2000.

The real thrust will come immediately in implementing these plans being pushed through Congress, once the inconvenient but necessary facades of elections of 1992 are out of the way. THESE TREATIES WILL BECOME THE SUPREME LAW OF THE LAND. THEY WILL NOT BE THE "EQUIVALENT" LEGAL AUTHORITY OF YOUR CONSTITUTION--THEY WILL SUPERSEDE IT.

CSCE IN ACTION

Ones are now pointing out recent developments which show just how comprehensive the New World Order game plan is for participants in the CSCE or its regional facsimiles. In January, 1992, during a two-day conference in Prague, both Foreign Minister Hans-Dietrich Genscher of Germany and President Vaclav Havel of the Czech-Slovak Federal Republic openly called for the establishment of CSCE peacekeeping forces. Just as predicted, Yugoslavia would serve as an excuse for such an action.

Following is how the publication The Week in Germany reported the story (funny that YOU don't get any of THESE details).

...against the background of civil war in Yugoslavia, Genscher and Havel stressed that the CSCE needed more rights and powers. Genscher said that the conflict in Yugoslavia had shown the "continuing structural weakness" of the organization and he called on the CSCE to "create the opportunity of CSCE blue and green-helmet missions to keep the peace and to protect our foundations of life."

The minister stressed that the "control of military power must remain an essential element of the CSCE process in the future."

BLUE AND GREEN HELMETS

I suggest you go back and take note of "blue and green-helmet missions". Shake, shudder and wheeze

For those of you who witnessed 60 Minutes yester-evening I believe you will begin to find our writings regarding the outrageous infiltration and violence within your "intelligence" groups to be quite accurate and denial should lessen considerably.

I found much humor afoot and you will note that the most ludicrous of all of the American intelligence services is making the most fuss about infiltration, as terrorists, of your own special forces into the Navy's installations. I sincerely hope and pray that you are beginning to see all things through different "eyes" these days as your awareness is piqued.

For you who missed the previous and have access to this first, let me say that I shall not give background information. Suffice it to say that I am utilizing a document censored by the CIA prior to allowing printing and that censorship was upheld and, in fact, required, by your judicial system. We are identifying the author as "I.M. Anonymous (IMA)" for security for I desire the missing information be brought or sent to me and I shall see to its publication. It must be without knowledge of the author for he would be in direct contempt of court.

As we trip off onto side issues you will find that we are giving you that information at any rate as we set the players of the Elite Conspiracy Cartel into focus. I only wish you readers to get "turned-on" and to the point of "I won't take it any longer"--but I do not ever suggest violence nor disadvantageous actions which are illegal in any way whatsoever.

Please note that I make remarks in brackets (H:!) and effort to set up the areas of deletions exactly as has the author--in centered space in bold lettering. The work is the outlaying of the workings of the CIA which in turn, structures all Intelligence Cults to great extent. ## CUBA

Latin America in 1954 was the scene of one of the CIA's greatest paramilitary triumphs--the successful invasion of Guatemala by an agency-organized rebel force. And it was in Latin America that the CIA seven years later suffered its most notable failure--the abortive invasion of Cuba at the Bay of Pigs. But the agency was slow to accept defeat in the Cuban operation. The only reason for the failure, the CIA's operators believed, was that President Kennedy had lost his nerve at the last minute, refusing more air support for the invasion and withholding or reducing other possible assistance by U.S. forces. [H: We have covered all of this in other writings as it REALLY happened. You must constantly keep in mind that you will be receiving information herein from the perspective of ones experiencing that which they can uncover at the time and cannot be totally accurate in the forefront of the issues in point. Remember always--hindsight is much better and--yet, in these matters--still deliberately hidden and clouded.] Consequently, the agency continued its relationships with its "penetrations" of Cuban exile groups--in a way reminiscent of its lingering ties with Eastern European emigré organizations from the early Cold War period. And the CIA kept many of the Bay of Pigs veterans under contract, paying them regular salaries for more than a decade afterward [H: Moreover, you will find these same operatives popping up at every major event of scandal

Time after time, the Cuban government would parade CIA-sponsored rebels before television cameras to display them and their equipment to the Cuban public and the world. Often the captives made full confessions of the agency's role in their activities.

HOT BOAT FOR NEW INVASION

Nevertheless, the CIA kept looking for new and better ways to attack the Castro government. Under contract to the agency, the Electric Boat Division of General Dynamics at Groton, Connecticut developed a highly maneuverable high-speed boat designed for use by guerrilla raiders. The boat was supposed to be faster than any ship in the Cuban navy, and thereby able to move arms and men into Cuba at will. There were numerous delays in putting the boat into production, however, and no deliveries were made up to 1967. By that time, the U.S. was too deeply involved in Southeast Asia to think seriously about a new invasion of Cuba. The CIA, therefore, quietly dropped the boat project and turned the developmental model over to the U.S. Navy.

Also during the mid-1960's

By 1968, almost everyone in the Clandestine Services had finally accepted the fact that special operations against Cuba had outlived their usefulness. To be sure, there were still some diehard veterans around who would continue to propose new schemes, but even "Frank Bender"--the heavy-accented, cigar-smoking German refugee who had helped manage the Bay of Pigs fiasco--could no longer bring himself to believe in them. The death knell for CIA Cuban operations was sounded that year, seven years after the Bay of Pigs, when the agency closed down its two largest bases in Florida. One of these, located on an old naval air station at Opalocka, had served as an all-purpose base for CIA-sponsored raids on

LATIN AMERICAN OPERATIONS

While the CIA was largely concerned with Cuba in its Latin American operations during much of the 1960's, the rest of the continent was by no means neglected. For the most part, the agency's aim was not to overthrow particular Latin American governments but rather to protect them from local insurgent movements. The CIA generally avoided getting involved in any large way, instead using relatively small amounts of covert money, arms, and advisors to fight leftist groups. While this switch in tactics reflected the counterinsurgency theories popular in the Kennedy and Johnson administrations, it also came as a result of the diversion of a substantial part of the nation's military resources--covert and otherwise--to Southeast Asia.

PERU

The CIA assumed the role of coordinator of all U.S. government counterinsurgency activities in Latin America, and other agencies--particularly AID, with its police-training programs, and the Defense Department, with its military-assistance and civic-action programs--provided the CIA with cover and additional resources. Much of the agency's manpower for Latin American special operations was furnished by the U.S. Army's Special Forces; small detachments of Green Berets were regularly placed under CIA control. These soldiers usually came from the Third Battalion of the Seventh Special Forces, located at Fort Gulick in the Canal Zone. The agency had its own paramilitary base in the Canal Zone, and even when the Special Forces carried on missions outside the CIA's direct command, agency operators kept in close touch with what was going on. Since 1962 more than 600 Special Forces "mobile training teams" have been dispatched to the rest of Latin America from Fort Gulick, either under direct CIA control or under Pentagon auspices. Green Berets participated, for example, in what was the CIA's single large-scale Latin American intervention of the post-Bay of Pigs era. This occurred in the mid-

1960's, when the agency secretly came to the aid of the Peruvian government, then plagued by guerrilla troubles in its remote eastern regions. Unable to cope adequately with the insurgent movement, Lima had turned to the U.S. government for aid, which was immediately and covertly forthcoming. [H: If you find this kind of action unacceptable to your belief system--then I suggest you hear what Col. Bo Gritz (who has one of those cute little green berets) has to say about his own stint in Panama, etc.]

JUNGLE FORT BRAGG

The agency financed the construction of what one experienced observer described as "a miniature Fort Bragg" in the troubled Peruvian jungle region, complete with mess halls, classrooms, barracks, administrative buildings, parachute jump towers, amphibious landing facilities, and all the other accoutrements of paramilitary operations. Helicopters were furnished under cover of official military aid programs, and the CIA flew in arms and other combat equipment. Training was provided by the agency's Special Operations Division personnel and by Green Beret instructors on loan from the Army.

As the training progressed and the proficiency of the counter-guerrilla troops increased, the Peruvian government grew uneasy. Earlier, the national military commanders had been reluctant to provide personnel for the counterinsurgency force, and thus the CIA had been required to recruit its fighting manpower from among the available local populace. By paying higher wages than the army (and offering fringe benefits, better training, and "esprit de corps") the agency soon developed a relatively efficient fighting force. In short order, the local guerrillas were largely wiped out.

A few months later, when Peru was celebrating its chief national holiday, the authorities refused to allow the CIA-trained troops into the capital for the annual military parade. Instead, they had to settle for marching through streets of a dusty provincial town, in a satellite observance of the great day. Realizing that many a Latin American regime had been toppled by a crack regiment, Peru's leaders were unwilling to let the CIA force even come to Lima, and the government soon moved to dismantle the unit.

BOLIVIA

As large and successful as the CIA's Peruvian operation might have been, it was outweighed in importance among agency leaders by a smaller intervention in Bolivia that occurred in 1967; for the CIA was out for bigger game in Bolivia than just local insurgents. The target was Che Guevara.

THE TRACKING OF CHE

When he vanished from the Cuban scene in the spring of 1965, there were reports that Ernesto "Che" Guevara, the Argentinean physician and comrade-in-arms of Fidel Castro, had challenged the Cuban leader's authority and, as a result, had been executed or imprisoned. There were other reports that Guevara had gone mad, beyond all hope of recovery, and was under confinement in a villa somewhere in the Cuban provinces. And there were still other reports that Che had formed a small cadre of dedicated disciples and had gone off to make a new revolution. At first no one in the CIA knew what to believe. But eventually a few clues to Guevara's whereabouts began to dribble in from the agency's field stations and bases. They were fragmentary, frustratingly flimsy, and, surprisingly, they pointed to Africa--to the Democratic Republic of the Congo, now called Zaire. Yet another insurrection was going on in the former Belgian colony, and information from the CIA's operatives in the field indicated that foreign revolutionaries were participating in it. Some of their tactics suggested the unique style of Che Guevara.

Before the intelligence could be verified, however, the rebellion in the eastern inland territories suddenly evaporated. By the fall of 1965, Lake Tanganyika was again calm. But the CIA mercenaries (some of them veterans of the Bay of Pigs operation), who had been assisting the Congo government in repressing the revolt, were convinced, as were their agency superiors in Africa, that Che had indeed been in the area.

CHE GUEVARA WOULD "SET AFRICA AFLAME"

Later it was learned by the

Please see CIA, next page

CIA that Guevara and a group of more than 100 Cuban revolutionaries had infiltrated into the Congo from neighboring Tanzania in the spring of 1965. They intended to set Africa aflame with rebellion, but their revolutionary zeal was not matched by that of the native guerrillas or the local populace. In disgust, six months later Che secretly returned to Cuba to lay plans for his next adventure. At the time, however, the CIA knew only that he had once again disappeared. Again conflicting reports as to his whereabouts and status, health and otherwise, began to drift into the agency. By early 1967, almost a year and a half later, the information available to the agency pointed to the heart of South America, to Bolivia.

While many of the officers in the CIA's Clandestine Services firmly believed that Guevara was behind the insurgent movement in the southern mountains of Bolivia, a few of the agency's top officials hesitated to accept the fact. Despite that air of doubt, some agency special operations personnel were sent to the land-locked

THE SUN, Thurs, Jan. 30, 1992. NEW YORK (AP): An Arab immigrant ACQUITTED of killing Jewish extremist Meir Kahane was sentenced Wednesday to up to 22 years in prison on lesser charges by a judge who chastised the jury of its verdict "devoid of common sense".

El Sayyid Nosair was sentenced to the maximum term on assault and weapons charges for shooting two men and trying to hijack a taxi as he fled the hotel where Kahane was slain in November 1990.

In a 10-minute speech before sentencing, Nosair, A U.S. CITIZEN originally from Egypt, declared his innocence.

South American country to assist local forces in dealing with the rebel movement. Ironically, at this point not even Bolivian President Rene Barrientos thought that Guevara was involved in the guerrilla movement.

A couple of months later, in April, two events occurred that dramatically underscored the belief of the CIA's clandestine operators, both in Bolivia and at headquarters, that Che was leading the rebels. Early in the month a Bolivian army unit overran the base camp of the guerrillas at Nancahuazu, capturing documents, diaries, and photographs which the fleeing insurgents had left behind. Included in the materials seized at the guerrilla base camp were photographs of a partially bald, gray-haired man with glasses who, upon close examination of certain features, bore a striking resemblance to Che Guevara. In addition, a couple of smudged fingerprints on some of the documents seemed to match Guevara's. The documents, furthermore, clearly established that a number of the guerrillas operating in Bolivia were Cubans, probably some of the same men who were thought to have been with Guevara in the Congo.

FRENCH JOURNALIST CONFESSES

Ten days later Regis Debray, the leftist French journalist, who had disappeared months earlier upon arriving in Bolivia to do a geopolitical study, was captured near Muyupampa, along with two other foreigners suspected of having been in contact with the rebels. According to his statements months later, the journalist Debray was saved from summary execution by the CIA men accompanying the Bolivian forces who captured him. Afterward he was confronted with secret evidence by the same CIA operatives, disclosing that the agency knew a great deal more about his activities abroad and in Bolivia than he had thought possible. Denying, at first, any knowledge of Guevara's connection with the rebel movement, Debray soon wilted and began to talk in an attempt to save himself from trial and execution.

Even with the rapidly mounting evidence, Director Richard Helms still could not accept that the legendary Cuban revolutionary had indeed reappeared to lead another rebellion. He scoffed at the claims of his clandes-

More La Rouche Questions

3/2/92 #3 HATONN

I cannot do this subject justice AND get on with the CIA--which I feel must come next in the outlaying. I am continually asked to comment on LaRouche and now, with the release of Dr. Coleman's book (which I have recommended highly), comes more inquiry.

I want you ones to discern intent of the LaRouche thrust. I will say that his all-out effort to "get" Kissinger is what has ended him in prison with a life sentence.

You want me to sanction, somehow, this man. I do not. He had a most unConstitutional treatment and that does need to be looked into most closely. He also saw what was coming down and WHO was doing it.

"Well, he claimed the Jews were this or that or the other." No, he did not. Your assumption is that he did because the Anti-Defamation League set him up and brought him down.

LA ROUCHE AND THE ADL

In order to discredit LaRouche, over the prior 15 years the ADL accused LaRouche of being an anti-Semite--the term used against anyone "they" want out of the way. In this instance it was primarily due to LaRouche exposing the international drug traffickers, which the ADL fronts for and protects. The testimony of one Irwin Suall of the ADL totally discredited the charge that LaRouche was an anti-Semite. Suall "swore under oath that he did not know what a Jew was. He defined an 'anti-Semite' as one who attacked the Anti-Defamation League or Edgar Bronfman! He had called LaRouche a 'small-time Hitler', but testified he had no first-hand knowledge of LaRouche's writings or actions. Suall thus admitted that he had made no effort to discover facts which might prove or disprove hearsay reports that LaRouche was alleged to be an 'anti-Semite'." So herein you have the actual facts of the matter. The accusation of "anti-Semitism" actually means anti-Anti-Defamation League and Israeli Political Action Committees and Lobbyists.

Now we will get to the reason for the confusion: During the trial John Weber, a member of the Club of Life (hold this in your heart a moment) AND the B'nai B'rith (ADL), testified about his lifelong involvement with Jewish affairs and his personal association with LaRouche. He stated: "If Lyndon LaRouche is an anti-Semite, then I would have to be called an anti-Semite, and no one who knows me would ever call me that." Right--so you see, one has no reference to the other than the picture which has been erroneously painted for you to swallow.

Then another name enters the picture; Roy Innis. Innis is a founding member of the Club of Life and Chairman of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE). So, if all these types of men are LaRouche's allies then what could have been the matter? More important is the fact of an Anglo-American-Soviet Conspiracy.

The important thing in this scenario which might allow you to see more clearly is the lack of God in LaRouche's plans. There is also only minimal intention to utilize the Constitution of the united States to any great extent. There is a total focus on the "HUMANISTIC" (physical human aspects of physical being)--without "under God" being considered in much of any way except as a useful item in countering the Pugwash crowd and the Kissinger crowd.

HATONN AND COLEMAN

You will find that Dr. Coleman has covered this subject. I happen to take differing views in some instances but I do not wish, at this time, to distract from the volume just come to public offering. You can begin to shift your country about through use of strictly "human" means but you will not find solutions for life existence without God as your focus and goal intent.

I will take time to present this to you without taking sides in the issue. I will effort to simply lay it out for you and then you will be able to measure against other documents at your disposal and perhaps you can get an objective view of the differing "sides" in the issue in point.

Yes, I realize that by my writing on the subject I shall distract from Dr. Coleman's project. I cannot, however, allow such human ego to disallow you-the-readers from having the information. There are many writers who will discount Dr. Coleman's accounting as with all men--for or against an issue. My job is to bring the facts in addition to that which is given and therein you can begin to discern for self. Am I biased? Indeed--for I come only in service to God of Light and the Perfect Creation. I am a "Host" come to set preparations for this return unto the human experience of this Divine Being and one human OPINION above another makes very little difference to me. Truth is what is offered and it is very delightful when there can be overlay and confirmation from the human aspect--it becomes easier for you of the human experience--to accept and understand. Otherwise it simply becomes one more confusion quarrel over "opinions". I remind you--you can "judge" a thing (not a man) by the LAWS OF GOD AND THE CREATION. If the presentation deviates from the given LAWS then the projection is of false intent. If the thrust is only unto the

ECU Currency

3/2/92 #1 HATONN

The major argument over the future COMMON CURRENCY of the European Community IS NOT WHETHER TO HAVE ONE, GIVE UP SOVEREIGNTY AND SUBMIT TO GLOBAL GOVERNMENT AND ONE WORLD BANK-CURRENCY--BUT OVER WHAT TO NAME IT. And, guess what! Look at how much information you get out of one little argument. Let me scan it and point out some things: England will win, of course, for the term is "ecu"--meaning "cow" in German. But in England it is an acronym for "European currency unit", which, of course, means "because we say so!"

".....diplomats at the community's headquarters IN SWITZERLAND (Home of the Committee of 300 and World Bank.) said....."

"...for the sake of consistency, the name 'ecu' is being adopted as a word rather than an acronym because the acronym would vary among countries--UCE in France, EWE in Germany,..."

"And, after all, there is the phrase 'avoir des ecus', meaning 'to have lots of money', a proposition that sounds good in any language..."

physical expression--it is not of God but projection of MAN. SINCE ALL PHYSICAL MEN ARE HUMAN--THEN YOU WILL FIND ERRORS IN DISCERNMENT AND JUDGMENT TOWARD THIS OR THAT OF THE HUMAN ASPECT. MINE IS TO SEPARATE AWAY FROM THAT FOCUS AND OFFER THAT WHICH WILL ALLOW YOU TO MOVE WITHIN THE HUMAN ASPECT TOWARD THE SPIRITUAL FULFILLMENT OF THE JOURNEY INTO FREEDOM. ALL THINGS FOCUSED SOLELY ON THE "PHYSICAL" LEAD ULTIMATELY INTO SLAVERY WITH ONLY THE NAMES IN POINT CHANGING TO SUIT THE NEEDS OF THE PROJECTORS. SO BE IT.

I ask that you be reminded as we speak of Constitutional rights, etc. A human can be quite vile and rightfully be deserving of consequences of his actions--HOWEVER, if his Constitutional "RIGHTS" are violated and injustice brought down--the two wrongs do NOT make the circumstance correct. Please do not confuse the two things. Mine is never to cause interference in JUSTICE--only INJUSTICE--for JUSTICE IS GIVEN AS A PROTECTION BY YOUR CONSTITUTION AND A PERSON IS PRESUMED INNOCENT UNTIL AND "IF" PROVEN TO BE GUILTY. IF A MAN BE GUILTY THEN THE INVESTIGATION SHALL PROVE THE FACTS "IF" THERE IS NOT TAMPERING WITH THE JUSTICE OF THE EVIDENCE.

A man's belief or non-belief in Sovereign Holy God is between that Man and God--it is none of my business. If a man be accused of a "crime" of physical perpetration and he be innocent, he deserves the full extent of the Constitutional laws to protect him and God belief has naught to do with it on that personal, physical level. The "crime" is in point--not the man's spiritual belief system.

Because, for instance, Dr. Coleman or George Green, Dharma or Johnny Jump-up has an opinion regarding a circumstance of outlay of historical review--DOES NOT MEAN I HOLD THE SAME OBSERVATION REGARDING THE MATTER. FOR INSTANCE--JOHN COLEMAN MAY DEPLORE OR ADMIRE BEYOND REASON, A LYNDON LA-ROUCHE. I MAY WELL HAVE AN EXACT OPPOSING VIEW OF THE MATTER--AND I WOULD GIVE THAT UNTO YOU FOR YOUR OWN REASONING.

THIS IS "WHY" I MAY RECOMMEND AN AUTHOR'S WORK BUT WILL NEVER SANCTION SAME IN TOTAL FOR HUMAN OPINION ALWAYS COLORS THE OUTPUT FOR THE WRITER CAN NEVER DISASSOCIATE HIS OPINION FROM THE SUBJECT CONCLUSIONS ACCORDING TO THE MANNER OF HIS LIFE COURSE. MY LIFE-STREAM IS NOT OF YOUR PLACE AND I HAVE NO INTEREST IN A MAN SAVE AS HIS RELATIONSHIP TO GOD AND HOW HE FUNCTIONS AND SERVES OR TAKES FROM THOSE IN HIS ENVIRONMENT. YOU ARE GIVEN GUIDELINES AND BY THOSE, IN YOUR ACTIONS, SHALL YE BE JUDGED--NOT BY SOME SPACE CADET. IT WILL BE JUST YOU AND GOD, FRIEND--JUST YOU AND GOD.

Dharma, enough on the matter for now. I see that I shall have to interrupt the CIA to cover these myriads of questions regarding the "above" but I do wish to move on with the "intelligence" information for it will become a major discerning tool in all material given. Therefore, let us immediately take up where we left the printing. Thank you. I do not give Dharma opportunity to read material prior to our writing for I want not her opinions to give pain if they differ from that which I must write. John has made the material available for her reading--I have given her no time to do so except in small portions which would be given for your reader's input. She, too, has the listing of the names on the Committee but has had no time given to check them out except on specific ones of curiosity. This is so that if there is contradiction, she is not troubled by the material--if she knows no other input then there can be no contradiction. Afterwards, she can do as you--go read it all if she can find time and then she can have all the "opinions" she wants regarding the matter. She is my secretary and, although she may be a large part of "management", her opinions do not necessarily reflect the opinions of myself--THAT IS OUR CONTRACT AND WE EACH HONOR THAT CONTRACT--ALWAYS.

I am not here to argue with man--any man. If the answers were correct and you lived according to that Truth--there would be perfection in your place--not the confusion and chaos which reigns. Ponder it.

tine operatives that they had acquired proof of Guevara's presence in Bolivia; Helms guessed Che was probably dead. Thomas Karamessines, then chief of the CIA's Clandestine Services, who had presented the case to the Director, would not, however, back down from the contention that his operatives were now hot on Guevara's trail, and Helms' attitude seemed to spur the clandestine operators to great efforts. More agency "advisors", including Cuban veterans of the Bay of Pigs adventure, were soon dispatched to Bolivia to assist in the tracking down of Guevara. A team of experts from the Army's Special Forces was sent to la Paz from the Canal Zone to train Bolivian "rangers" in the art of counterinsurgency operations.

THE CHE OBSESSION

The Clandestine Services were obsessed with Guevara, and even somewhat fearful of him. He was in part a constant and irritating reminder of their failure in the Cuban operation. Unable to vent their frustrations and anger against those U.S. officials who had undercut that desperate effort, and incapable of gaining direct retribution by destroying Fidel himself or his Soviet and Chinese allies, the CIA's Clandestine Services were left to brood over their failure--until Guevara exposed himself. In so doing he presented himself to the CIA as an inviting target; his capture or death would provide some measure of revenge for past failures.

Let us take a respite at this time. We shall take up the next chapter utilizing this same subject of Che.

TRACKING CHE, CONTINUED

During the summer of 1967, while the agency's special ops experts were assisting the Bolivian army in hunting down Guevara, information as to his entry into Bolivia became available. It was learned that in November 1966 he had come to La Paz from Havana, via Prague, Frankfurt, and Sao Paulo, traveling on a false Uruguayan passport and disguised as a balding, gray-haired merchant with horn-rimmed spectacles--a far cry from the familiar poster picture. He had been preceded by fifteen Cubans who would assist him in his Bolivian venture. There was no longer any doubt in anyone's mind that Che Guevara was in the country and in charge of the guerrilla movement in the southern mountains. Both President Barrientos and Helms now accepted the fact. The Bolivian government offered a reward ($4,200) for Guevara--dead or alive. It was only a matter of time until Che would be run to ground.

GUEVARA CAPTURED

In the months that followed, the guerrillas suffered defeat after defeat at the hands of the American-trained, CIA-advised Bolivian rangers. One battle, on the last day of August, resulted in the death of the mysterious Tania, the lone female in Guevara's rebel band. Although she evidently was a Cuban intelligence agent, a link between the guerrillas and Havana, it was rumored by the CIA that the East German woman was actually a double agent. Her employer supposedly was the Soviet KGB which, like the CIA, wanted to keep tabs on Guevara's Cuban-sponsored revolutionary activities in Latin America. Less than six weeks later, on October 8, Guevara himself was wounded and captured near the small mountain village of La Higuera.

GUEVARA EXECUTED

As they had done for Debray earlier, the CIA advisors with the Bolivian army tried to bring Guevara back alive to La Paz for in-depth interrogations. The Bolivian commander, however, was under orders to execute Guevara. All that was to be brought back were the head and hands--incontestable proof that Che had failed in his mission and was dead. [H: Remind anyone of John the Baptist?]

While the CIA advisors stalled the Bolivian colonel, the agency's station chief in La Paz tried to convince President Barrientos of the long-range advantages of bringing Guevara out of the mountains as a prisoner of the government. Barrientos was adamant. He argued that the Debray affair had caused enough difficulties and that the arrival of Che Guevara, alive, in the capital might spark disturbances among the students and leftists which his government would not be able to control. In desperation, the station that night appealed to Langley headquarters for assistance, but to no avail.

Going on the assumption that neither the station nor headquarters would be successful in getting Barrientos to change his position, the senior CIA operative at La Higuera, ( DELETED ) attempted to question Che. The revolutionary, however, would not cooperate. He was willing to discuss political philosophies and revolutionary movements in general, but he refused to permit himself to be interrogated about the details of his operation in Bolivia or any of his previous guerrilla activities elsewhere. The CIA would have to settle for the contents of his personal diary, which he had been carrying at the time of his capture.

Final word came from the capital early the next morning. The prisoner was to be executed on the spot and his body, strapped to the landing gear of a helicopter, was to be flown to Vallegrande for inspection at a local laundry house by a small group of reporters and government officials. Afterward the corpse was to be buried in an unmarked grave outside of town. On hearing the order, ( DELETED ) the CIA operative, hurried back to the schoolhouse where Guevara was being held, to make one last attempt at interrogating Che. There was not much time left; the execution was to be carried out in the next hour or two.

Guevara's last moments were recorded in a rare, touching message to headquarters from the CIA operator. The Cuban veteran, and agency contract officer, noted that Guevara was at first still confident of somehow surviving the ordeal, but when he finally realized that he was about to die, his pipe fell from his mouth. Che, however, quickly recovered his composure and asked for some tobacco. His painfully wounded leg no longer seemed to bother him. He accepted his fate with a sigh of resignation, requesting no last favors. (DELETED) clearly felt admiration for the revolutionary and compassion for the man he had helped to capture and thereby condemn. Minutes later Che Guevara was dead.

CHE'S DIARY

The following summer Che's diary suddenly surfaced and soon found its way into the hands of his comrades in Havana and certain American admirers (Ramparts magazine), who immediately verified its authenticity and published it, much to the chagrin of the CIA and the Bolivian government, which had been releasing only those portions which buttressed their case against Guevara and his rebels. In the midst of the confusion, charges, and countercharges, Antonio Arguedas, Bolivian Minister of the Interior, disappeared in July among rumors that he had been the one who had released the document. Arguedas, as Minister of the Interior, was in charge of the Bolivian intelligence service, with which the agency had many close connections. And Arguedas himself was an agent of the CIA.

THE FLIGHT OF ARGUEDAS

It was quickly learned that Arguedas had escaped to Chile, where he intended to ask for political asylum. Instead, authorities there turned him over to the CIA station, and the agency man who had been his original case officer was dispatched from headquarters in Washington to cool him off. But despite the CIA's counsel, Arguedas spoke out publicly against the agency and its activities in Bolivia. He denounced the Barrientos regime as a tool of American imperialism, criticized the government's handling of the Guevara affair, and then disappeared again, precipitating a major political crisis in Bolivia.

At various times during the next several months of 1968, Arguedas popped up in London, New York, and Peru. Alternately cajoled and threatened at each stop by CIA operatives who wanted him to shut up, the former minister nevertheless admitted he had been the one who had released Che's diary because, he said, he agreed with the revolutionary's motives of attempting to bring about popular social, political, and economic change in Bolivia and elsewhere in Latin America. And ultimately, much to the horror of the CIA and the Barrientos government, Arguedas announced that he had been an agent of the CIA since 1965 and claimed that certain other Bolivian officials were also in the pay of the secret agency. He described the circumstances under which he had been recruited, charging that the CIA had threatened to reveal his radical student past and ruin his political career if he did not agree to participate in its operations.

THE CIA-ARGUEDAS DEAL

Eventually the CIA was able to strike a bargain with Arguedas, and he voluntarily returned to Bolivia--apparently to stand trial. He told a New York Times reporter on the flight from Lima to La Paz that should anything untoward happen to him, a tape recording detailing his accusations against the CIA and the Barrientos government would be delivered to certain parties in the United States and Cuba. The tape, he said, was being held for him by Lieutenant Mario Teran. Teran, inexplicably, was previously identified as Che Guevara's executioner.

Arguedas, during his interview, hinted at the magnitude of his potential revelations by disclosing the names of several CIA officers with whom he had worked in the past; Hugo Murray, chief of station; John S. Hilton, former COS; colonel Ed Fox; Larry Sternfield; and Nick Lendiris. He also identified some of the agency's contract officers who had assisted in the tracking down of Guevara; Jolio Gabriel Garcia (Cuban), and Eddie and Mario Gonzales (Bolivians). Arguedas credited the Gonzales brothers with having saved Debray's life. He now claimed, however, that Barrientos and even the U.S. ambassador were unaware of the full scope of the CIA's penetration of the Bolivian government, undoubtedly a concession to the powers that arranged his safe return to La Paz.

BOLIVIAN PRESIDENT KILLED

The final chapter in the episode was acted out the following summer, almost two years after Che Guevara's death. President Rene Barrientos was killed in a helicopter crash while returning from a visit to the provinces. Six weeks later Antonio Arguedas, the self-admitted agent of the CIA who had yet to stand trial for treason and releasing Che Guevara's diary, was apparently shot to death on a street in La Paz. A month later Herberto Rojas, the guide for the Bolivian rangers and their CIA advisors during the final trackdown of Guevara, and one of the few people who possibly knew where the body of the rebel leader was buried, was assassinated in Santa Cruz.

LONE SURVIVOR

The incriminating tapes Arguedas claimed to have given to Mario Teran for safekeeping have never surfaced. Arguedas himself, however, managed to survive the Che episode. In 1970, he mysteriously appeared in Cuba, having brought with him the death mask and embalmed hands of the charismatic revolutionary.

We shall move on to Proprietary Organizations when we write on this subject next.

I would like to leave you with a thought for self in the confusion of weighing facts and making discernments in this time of awakening. Every human being has an attendant spirit; and wise are they who obey its signals. If it does not always tell you what to do--IT ALWAYS CAUTIONS YOU WHAT NOT TO DO!

Good evening, Hatonn to stand-by reminding you: Your Spirit is your inner guide. Your Spirit never, never, gives you wrong direction. Because you are human, it is all too easy to deny the voice from within and those sent to your assistance from without. Some call this voice within, conscience. Often your behavior may belie what your conscience KNOWS is right--eventually you suffer for it. As you grow and awaken--it will become much more easy a task for you to discern that which is right and will move you to your perfect goal. A sense of security and peace always accompanies the partnership between each of you and your Spirit--don't betray SELF. SALU.

PROPRIETARY ORGANIZATIONS

As far as depots of "untraceable arms", airlines and other installations are concerned, one wonders how the CIA could accomplish the tasks required of it in Southeast Asia without such facilities. Lyman Kirkpatrick, Former CIA Executive Director, U.S. News and World Report, Oct. 11, 1971.

[H: Since the writing of IMA's book, the proprietary list has grown enormously but not quite as "obviously", due to scandals and Congressional hearings. All that actually happens is that the operations go further and deeper underground.]

"THE INTELLIGENCE ESTABLISHMENT"

Late one windy spring afternoon in 1971 a small group of men gathered unobtrusively in a plush suite at Washington's Mayflower Hotel. The host for the meeting was Professor Harry Howe Ransom of Vanderbilt University, author of The Intelligence Establishment, a respected academic study of the U.S. intelligence system. He was then doing research for another book on the subject and had invited the others for drinks and dinner, hoping to gather some new material from his guests, who included ex-CIA officials, congressional aides, and David Wise, co-author of THE INVISIBLE GOVERNMENT and THE ESPIONAGE ESTABLISHMENT, two of the best books on the CIA and clandestine intelligence operations ever published. [H: I concur with that opinion--at the time--these same authors have presented more current work in various forms and I recommend them if you can still find them. These books are often written by a "team" but if you will search under the lead author you will be able to find the information and whether or not it is out of print.

Every book on the subject which can be really damaging is removed from the shelves in an effort to get it out of print. Sometimes "establishment" publishers and/or printers will take a manuscript in full intention of burying it--it is accepted but simply never gets to wide publication. Patriots rarely get their material published by "establishment presses" in these days. Beware of the ones which do--for there is usually a bigger purpose on the part of the establishment.] That afternoon someone brought up the CIA's use of front companies.

"Oh, you mean the Delaware corporations," said Robert Amory, Jr., a former Deputy Director of the CIA. "Well, if the agency wants to do something in Angola, it needs the Delaware corporations." [H: Pay attention here. This is no longer a valid place (Delaware) to get the best protection although there is still some shelter. Nevada remains as the only state in which privacy is assured, at this time.]

PROPRIETARY CORPORATIONS

By "Delaware corporations" Amory was referring to what are more commonly known in the agency as "proprietary corporations" or, simply, "proprietaries". These are ostensibly private institutions and businesses which are in fact financed and controlled by the CIA. From behind their commercial and sometimes non-profit covers, the agency is able to carry out a multitude of clandestine activities--usually covert-action operations. Many of the firms are legally incorporated in Delaware because of that state's lenient regulation of corporations, but the CIA has not hesitated to use other states when it found them more convenient. [H: They moved to the utilization of incorporating heavily in places like Panama, the Grand Cayman Islands, etc., also. But their favorite, as with all entities wishing privacy--is Nevada, if in the U.S. This is an excellent opportunity to remind you to utilize those shelters set forth for the benefit of the few for they are totally legal and there is a reason for their existence. You can function in the same shelter streams if you attend your business, follow the rules and explicitly follow the laws--and remain small. You have no idea how much "stuff" did NOT GET NOTICED AS TO TRANSAC-

TIONS in any of the scandals--because the people involved FOLLOVED THE RULES AS TO MANAGEMENT.]

RADIO FREE EUROPE & RADIO FREE LIBERTY

The CIA's best-known proprietaries were Radio Free Europe and Radio Liberty, both established in the early 1950's. The corporate structures of these two stations served as something of a prototype for other agency proprietaries. Each functioned under the cover provided by a board of directors made up of prominent Americans, who in the case of RFE incorporated as the National Committee for a Free Europe and in the case of RL as the American Committee for Liberation. But CIA officers in the key management positions at the stations made all the important decisions regarding the programming and operations of the stations.

RADIO SWAN

In 1960 when the agency was preparing for the Bay of Pigs invasion and other paramilitary attacks against Castro's Cuba, it set up a radio station on desolate Swan Island in the Caribbean to broadcast propaganda to the Cuban people. Radio Swan, as it was called, was operated by a New York company with a Miami address, the Gibraltar Steamship Corporation. Again the CIA had found a group of distinguished people--as usual, corporate leaders with government ties--to front for its clandestine activities. Gibraltar's president was Thomas D. Cabot, who had once been president of the United Fruit Company and who had held a high position in the State Department during the Truman Administration. Another "stockholder" was Sumner Smith, also of Boston, who claimed (as did the Honduran government) that his family owned Swan Island and who was president of the Abington Textile and Machinery Works.

During the Bay of Pigs operation the following year, Radio Swan ceased its normal fare of propaganda broadcasts and issued military commands to the invading forces and to anti-Castro guerrillas inside Cuba. What little cover Radio Swan might have had as a "private" corporation was thus swept away. Ultimately,

Radio Swan changed its name to Radio Americas (although still broadcasting from Swan Island), and the Gibraltar Steamship Corporation became the Vanguard Service Corporation (but with the same Miami address and telephone number as Gibraltar). The corporation, however, remained a CIA proprietary until its dissolution in the late 1960's.

THE DOUBLE CHEK CORPORATION

At least one other agency proprietary, the Double-Chek Corporation, figured in the CIA's operations against Cuba. Double-Chek was founded in Miami (which abounds with agency proprietaries) in 1959, and, according to the records of the Florida state government, "brokerage is the general nature of the business engaged in." In truth, Double-Chek was used by the agency to provide air support to Cuban exile groups, and it was Double-Chek that recruited the four American pilots who were killed during the Bay of Pigs invasion. Afterward the CIA, through Double-Chek, paid pensions to the dead fliers' widows and warned them to maintain silence about their husbands' former activities.

When the CIA intervened in 1964, Cuban exile pilots--some of whom were veterans of the Bay of Pigs--flew B-26 bombers against the rebels. These pilots were hired by a company called Caramar (Caribbean Marine Aero Corporation), another CIA proprietary.

INTERARMCO

Often the weapons and other military equipment for an operation such as that in the Congo are provided by a "private" arms dealer. The largest such dealer in the United States is the International Armament Corporation, or Interarmco, which has its main office and some warehouses on the waterfront in Alexandria, Virginia. Advertising that it specializes in arms for law-enforcement agencies, the corporation has outlets in Manchester in England, Monte Carlo, Singapore, Pretoria, South Africa, and in several Latin American cities. Interarmco was founded in 1953 by Samuel Cummings, a CIA officer during the Korean war. The circumstances surrounding Interarmco's earlier years are murky, but CIA funds and support undoubtedly were available to it at the beginning. Although Interarmco is now a truly private corporation, it still maintains close ties with the agency. And while the CIA will on occasion buy arms for specific operations, it generally prefers to stockpile military materiel in advance. For this reason, it maintains several storage facilities in the United States and abroad for untraceable or "sterile" weapons, which are always available for immediate use. Interarmco and similar dealers are the CIA's second most important source, after the Pentagon, of military materiel for paramilitary activities.

BIG FLEET

Direct CIA ownership of Radio Free Europe, Radio Liberty and the Bay of Pigs proprietaries, and direct involvement in Interarmco are largely past history now. Nevertheless, the agency is still very much involved in the proprietary business, especially to support its paramilitary operations. CIA mercenaries or CIA-supported foreign troops need air support to fight their "secret" wars, and it was for just this purpose that the agency built a huge network of clandestine airlines which are far and away the largest and the most dangerous of all the CIA proprietaries.

Incredible as it may seem, the CIA is currently the owner of one of the biggest--if not the biggest--fleets of "commercial" airplanes in the world. Agency proprietaries include Air America, Air Asia, Civil Air Transport, Intermountain Aviation, Southern Air Transport, (DELETED) and several other air charter companies around the world.

FLYING TIGERS BECOMES CAT (CIA OWNED)

Civil Air Transport (CAT), the original link in the CIA air empire, was started in China in 1946, one year before the agency itself was established by Congress. CAT was an offshoot of General Claire Chennault's Flying Tigers and during its early days it flew missions of every kind in support of Chiang Kai-shek's unsuccessful effort to retain control of the Chinese mainland. When Chiang was finally driven out of China in 1949, CAT went with him to Taiwan and continued its clandestine air operations. In 1950 CAT was reorganized as a Delaware corporation under a CIA proprietary holding company called the Pacific Corporation.

In a top-secret memorandum to General Maxwell Taylor on "unconventional-warfare resources in Southeast Asia" in 1961, published in The Pentagon Papers, Brigadier General Edward Lansdale described CAT's functions as follows:

FROM PENTAGON PAPERS:

CAT is a commercial air line engaged in scheduled and nonscheduled air operations throughout the Far East, with headquarters and large maintenance facilities in Taiwan. CAT, a CIA proprietary, provides air logistical support under commercial cover to most CIA and other U.S. Government agencies' requirements. CAT supports covert and clandestine air operations by providing trained and experienced personnel, procurement of supplies and equipment through overt commercial channels, and the maintenance of a fairly large inventory of transport and other type aircraft under both China (Chinese Nationalist) and U.S. registry.

CAT has demonstrated its capabilities on numerous occasions to meet all types of contingency or longterm covert air requirements in support of U.S. objectives. During the past ten years, it has had some notable achievements, including support of the Chinese Nationalist withdrawal from the mainland, air drop support to the French at Dien Bien Phy, complete logistical and tactical air support for the Indonesian operation, air lifts of refugees from North Vietnam, more than 200 overflights of Mainland China and Tibet, and extensive air support in Laos during the current crisis....

EARLY VIETNAM FAILURE

The air drops at Dien Bien Phy occurred in 1954 when the U.S. government decided not to come directly to the assistance of the beleaguered French force but did approve covert military support. 1954 was also the year of the airlift of refugees from North Vietnam to the South. These were non-secret missions, but the CIA could not resist loading the otherwise empty planes that flew to North Vietnam with a cargo of secret agents and military equipment to be used in a clandestine network then being organized in North Vietnam. Like other guerrilla operations against communist countries, whether in Europe or Asia, this CIA venture was a failure.

Dharma, it is time for you to go. Thank you for your service; we must continue to get as much to print as possible. Salu.

PROPRIETARY ORGANIZATIONS

I am first asked by Dharma to make a statement herein about David Duke. This doesn't have much to do with "politics" but rather, unfolding of truth and insight in unexpected and casual ways.

DAVID DUKE

"FRONTLINE" had a program on the Public Broadcasting System Network last evening--subject: David Duke. Duke was not interviewed but a fair expose' of his past and activities to current seemed rather benign except the program, of course, was totally slanted to the "anti-Semitic" approach, along with "Black" hatred.

No, Duke doesn't "hate" either Jews or Blacks and is, in fact, a bit chagrined over what to do with "Jews". The most embarrassing thing to these politicians is that they know that most of the "so-called" "Jews" of today are NOT Jews but rather right out of the ranks of the "white" race. Jews cannot be set aside as a race any longer for there are only rare fragments of the Judean race or original tribes remaining. So, what the politicians are "against" are the "so-called", "self-styled" tools of the Elite One World Order. THESE KHAZARIAN ZIONIST ELITE ARE DIRECTLY FROM THE NORDIC, RUS AND MONGOL RACES AND, THEREFORE, ARE OF THE SAME RACE AS ARE THE BRITISH RULERS. LET US BE LOGICAL, READERS, DO YOU FIND MR. SOLARZ, LANTOS, ETC., TO BE "COLORED" IN SOME MANNER? You see, you can be accused of some- thing or other and often it only shows the total ignorance of the one making the accusation.

THE MARK OF THE ADVERSARY

However, this IS THE MARK of the adversary--to accuse in direct opposition to truth, with "authority", and all believe the accusation.

The major hit against Duke shakes down to be his outright, outspoken statement that he believes there was no Holocaust as stated and "...if there are more 'survivors' getting pay-offs than there were Jews to be in the camps, there is something very wrong with the story." Now, I tell you the same thing--let REASON be the judge. If there were over 6-1/2 million Jews killed in the "death camps" and there were not even 6-1/2 million Jews in the European area in point--how can 6-1/2 million Jews have been killed? Oh, you quarrel, "...they say there were 6 million, not 6-1/2 million." You count again--this year THEY UPPEd THE NUMBER BY 500,000--I REPEAT: THIS YEAR!

Do you not see? If there had only been ONE--it is too many and to take pictures from Eisenhower's death camps and pictures taken of the starving in the Civil War and tout them as "helpless Jews" is heinous and deceitful by any measure of decency. This is gross dishonor to those precious beings who did have great atrocities against them and this degrades their own suffering.

REAL JEWS ASKING FOR HELP

I have a stack of mail in which I am petitioned BY JEWS, to please help get the truth forth for they are stopped at every corner by the Zionist Organizations. These groups run ads in every paper which will carry them and they have a great many organizations desperate for funding to get the TRUTH to the public. I must remind you--THE "JEWS" OF GOD ARE THE FIRST TO BE WIPED OUT BY THESE DECEIVERS IN SHEEP CLOTH. WHAT WILL YOU SAY THEN, AMERICA? "Oops, guess I was wrong after all and shoulda' listened???"

This is not what Dharma was asking about--I wanted to honor these groups who work so hard, at all costs, for their honor, dignity and truth. I wish we had a daily press so that I could share all the information with you. But we will get there if we are but patient and continue in support of this work. We could fill three or four papers a day and still not get it all into your hands.

CIA, DAVID DUKE AND AIR AMERICA

As we are into the subject of the Proprietary Organizations of the CIA, we wrote yesterday on the Air Proprietaries and how and where they functioned. This is what stunned Dharma: On this program last evening, Duke was being pushed about his lack of participation in military services, etc. He countered with approximately the following statement: "I was very active in Vietnam--I flew on many flights in and out behind the enemy lines on air drops, rice drops, etc. Very dangerous missions these were and I served my country with honor--I went regularly behind enemy lines with Air America!!" Dear ones, by any note--THAT IS WITH THE CIA! So be it--I leave the deductions into your own hands.

PILES OF MAIL

This does leave me opportunity to speak with you precious writers who send mountains of mail to me. I am in great appreciation and only ask that you be patient with us for Dharma simply cannot handle more load--I have over 200 pieces of mail needing response and I fear we are going to have to give her a rest at best, for her hands and arms are about to cease functioning. We tend them every day and we have encapsulated the tendons but even the elbow joints are now in serious handicap and we must begin to allow time for healing.

The JOURNALS and LIBERATORS must take priority in writing--I simply cannot ask that this mountain of mail filled with inquiries be attended daily. I do wish to say that I shall effort to respond to inquiries as quickly as we can--I would remind you, however, if you have only read one or two of the volumes--you are not getting the answers as, so far, 100% of the questions, other than personal ones, have been responded to at length, i.e., Melchizedek, Saul, Paul, the Church organizations, initiations, rituals, illumination, etc.

Our people are working presently at getting an overall INDEX to the Journals but the indexer doesn't have the same pull to get these works done as I desire--for he has no interest in the material because he knows nothing of it. I must suggest that ones wish to participate and glean from my work--they WILL care about the important order of things or they shall not participate. I want these JOURNALS indexed and a separate volume covering the prior printed books available to our readers. These are NOT novels--they are reference books for civilization and there can be no other "more important" jobs at hand. Our people are overworked, as the same ones who must do that job also must put together myriads of "project proposals" and we have to ask indulgence and patience from you precious readers.

OIL AND THE GULF WAR

I use as an example of need of indexing, such a thing as Gen. Schwarzkopf's statements regarding the war. I spoke long and in detail about that war and the leaders of and in that war. Now comes the General to make a statement in Jan. 1992: "The war was over oil, simple as that." Schwarzkopf told an audience of more than 2,000 in Miami Beach. "Sixty-seven percent of the world supply is in the Middle East; when the West runs out, they will still have a 200-year supply."

THE "MIRACLE" OF THE JOURNALS

This is true--but the main reason was that Hussein would not play ball and would not succumb to the "New World Order". But the biggest LIE of all for you ones to attend is this one: "Most of their income (Soviets) came from selling arms throughout the world. No one will buy Soviet equipment anymore." Oh, my goodness--not only is the entire Middle East buying Soviet arms but also importing Soviet scientists at full-bore ahead.

You need confirmation that I spoke of these things months and years past but I understand the problem--you can't find the information in the conglomeration of the many documents--some 52 volumes in 2-1/2 years. This is why Dharma's hands and arms are shot and so, too, is her voice going because I talk a lot also. This has been an incredible job--which I believe you might classify as one of those asked-for "miracles". The amount of work presented, published and distributed in just a period of some 24-30 months is without matching--anywhere. Further, the writings are on everything from evil activities to the Source and Order of the Universe. Please be patient with us, for our ones are doing absolutely all they can--for life goes on and they are constantly under attack even into the courts. Dharma and Oberli go to court for a full trial by jury on the next Monday, over their home--against the RTC. Evil workers NEVER back off for their goal is never lost sight of for even a minute. You, too, must always hold strong and unbending as these slings and arrows come against you. Please be patient and "wait upon the Lord" and God shall work His plan in His perfect time. Thank you.

THE AWAKENING FLOWS ACROSS THE LANDS

Let us just return to the subject in point. It is wondrous to be able to see and witness you ones putting the pieces together--I find a new awakening flowing across the lands as you see and hear with different intake--it is like new life to see reason and knowing of Truth, sorting out the lies and demanding truth of the presenters. You who become discouraged--know you are being heard. If your loved ones cannot find your truth--yet--know that THEY WILL for they will soon not be able to hide as the house of cards falls. You must release, for force is not of God and ones who deny--must be allowed to find their way--THAT is of God.

The masses feel panic as insight comes for the perception is that there is no way to counter this "thing" if it be true. You who KNOW must allow these precious ones to "find their own way into knowledge", part of your own journey is in the ability to stop judging and thrusting "your desires" upon another--make available the Truth and then "release it" for as the world comes apart--YOU OF TRUTH--are needed to fill your own missions and it will never be to "hold a single hand" for you are the guides of the many who must be gathered unto the Hosts that they can be brought into security of the fold. SELF. FURTHER, TO SACRIFICE SELF-SOUL FOR ANOTHER IS BUT TO PULL TWO DOWN INTO THE PITS FOR ONCE IN "KNOWING" THERE IS NO RETURN INTO DARK IGNORANCE.

Dharma, let us begin at the point of discussion of "air drops"--regarding the CIA.

CIA: CONTINUED AIR DROPS

By "the Indonesian operation", Lansdale was referring to the covert air and other military support the CIA provided to the rebels of the Sukarno government in 1958. Allen Pope, the pilot who was shot down and captured during this operation by the Indonesian government, was a CAT pilot. Six months after his release in 1962 he went to work for another CIA proprietary, Southern Air Transport. The attorney for Southern at that time was a man named Alex E. Carlson, who had only a year before been the lawyer for Double-Chek Corporation when that CIA proprietary had furnished the pilots for the Bay of Pigs.

The "more than 200 overflights of Mainland China and Tibet" that Lansdale mentioned occurred mainly during the 1950's (but continued well into the 1960's), when the CIA supported, on its own and in cooperation with the Chiang Kai-shek government, guerrilla operations against China. CAT was the air-supply arm for these operations, and it was in a CAT plane that Richard Fecteau and John Downey were shot down by the Communist Chinese in 1954.

CAT SPLITS INTO 3 AIRLINES

By the end of the 1950's, CAT had split into three separate airlines, all controlled by a CIA proprietary holding company, the Pacific Corporation. One firm, Air America, took over most of CAT's Southeast Asia business; another, Air Asia, operated a giant maintenance facility on Taiwan. The portion still called CAT continued to fly open and covert charter missions out of Taiwan and to operate Nationalist China's scheduled domestic and international airline. CAT was best known for the extravagant service on its "Mandarin Jet", which linked Taipei to neighboring Asian capitals.

CIA OPERATES CHINA'S AIRLINES

In 1964, about the time of the mysterious crash of a CAT plane, the CIA decided that running Taiwan's air passenger service contributed little to the agency's covert mission in Asia, and that the non-charter portion of CAT should be turned over to the Chinese Nationalists. CAT's former public-relations director, Arnold Dibble, wrote in the Saturday Review of May 11, 1968: "A highly suspicious crash of a C-46 claimed the lives of fifty-seven persons, including that of perhaps the richest man in Asia, Dato Loke Wan Tho--the Malaysian movie magnate--and several of his starlets from his Cathay studios. The full story of this crash has yet to be unraveled; what is known has not been told because it has never been, for instance, an official airing of the part played by two apparently demented military men aboard who had stolen two radar identification manuals (about the size of a mail-order catalog) in the Pescadores Islands, hollowed them out with a razor blade so each would hold a .45 caliber pistol. The manuals and one pistol were found, but fire and perhaps inadequate investigation marred the evidence. It was never definitely determined if the weapons had been fired."

But the Nationalists' own China Air Lines had neither the equipment nor the experience at that time to take over CAT's routes, and the Nationalist government was not prepared to allow the CIA to abandon Taiwan's principal air links with the outside world. The CIA could not simply discontinue service, because such action would have offended the Chiang government and made uncertain the continued presence of the agency's other proprietaries and intelligence facilities on Taiwan.

The negotiations over CAT's passenger routes dragged on through the next four years. The CIA was so eager to reach a settlement that it sent a special emissary to Taiwan on temporary duty, but his short-term negotiating assignment eventually turned into a permanent position. Finally, in 1968 another CAT passenger plane--this time a Boeing 727--crashed near the Taipei airport. This second accident caused twenty-one deaths and provided that rarest of occurrences on Taiwan, a spontaneous public demonstration--against U.S. involvement in the airline. Bowing to public pressure, the Nationalist government then accepted a settlement with the agency: China Air Lines took over CAT's international flights; CAT, despite the agency's reluctance, continued to fly domestic routes on Taiwan; and the CIA sweetened the pot with a large cash payment to the Nationalists.

SOUTHEAST ASIA OPERATIONS

Air America, a spin-off of CAT, was set up in the late 1950's to accommodate the agency's rapidly growing number of operations in Southeast Asia. As U.S. involvement deepened in that part of the world, other government agencies--the State Department, the Agency for International Development (AID), and the United States Information Agency (USIA)--also turned to Air America to transport their people and supplies. By 1971, AID alone had paid Air America more than $83 million for charter services. In fact, Air America was able to generate so much business in Southeast Asia that eventually other American airlines took note of the profits to be made.

PIERRE SALINGER & CONTINENTAL AIRLINES

One private company, Continental Airlines, made a successful move in the mid-1960's to take some of the market away from Air America. Pierre Salinger, who became an officer of Continental after his years as President Kennedy's press secretary, led Continental's fight to gain its share of the lucrative Southeast Asian business. The Continental position was that it was a questionable, if not illegal, practice for a government-owned business (even a CIA proprietary under cover) to compete with truly private companies in seeking government contracts. The CIA officers who had to deal with Continental were very uncomfortable. They knew that Salinger had learned during his White House days of the agency's activities in Southeast Asia and, specifically, of Air America's tie to the CIA. They feared that implicit in Continental's approach for a share of the Southeast Asian market was the threat that if the agency refused to cooperate, Continental would make its case publicly--using information supplied by Salinger. Rather than face the possibility of unwanted publicity, the CIA permitted Contimental to move into Laos where, since the late 1960's, it has flown charter flights worth millions of dollars annually. And Continental's best customer is the CIA itself.

WHAT AIR AMERICA HAS DONE

But even with Continental flying Laos, the agency was able to keep most of the flights for its own Air America. This CIA airline has done everything from parachuting Meo tribesmen behind North Vietnamese lines in Laos to dropping rice to refugees in the Vietnamese highlands. Air America has trained pilots for the Thai national police, transported political prisoners for the South Vietnamese government, carried paymasters and payrolls for CIA mercenaries and, even before the Tonkin Gulf Resolution, furnished pilots for secret bombing raids on North Vietnamese supply lines in Laos. It has also been accused of participating in Southeast Asia, and its flights are almost never inspected by customs authorities. It has its own separate passenger and freight terminals at airports in South Vietnam, Laos, and Thailand. At Udon, in Thailand, Air America maintains a large base which is hidden within an even larger U.S. Air Force facility (which is ostensibly under Thai government control). The Udon base is used to support virtually all of the "secret" war in Laos, and it also houses a "secret" maintenance facility for the planes of the Thai, Cambodian, and Laotian air forces.

Before the cease-fire in Vietnam, Air America was flying 125 planes of its own, with roughly 40 more on lease, and it had about 5,000 employees, roughly 10 percent of whom were pilots. It was one of America's largest airlines, ranking just behind National in total number of planes.

Now that the U.S. military forces have withdrawn from the Vietnamese theater, the role of maintaining a significant American influence has reverted largely to the CIA--and Air America, under the circumstances, is finding its services even more in demand than previously. Even the International Supervisory and Control Commission, despite the membership of Communist Poland and Hungary, has signed a contract with the CIA proprietary to support its supervision of the Vietnam cease-fire. In 1973,

Air America had contracts with the Defense Department worth $41.4 million.

AIR ASIA

A wholly owned subsidiary of Air America, Air Asia, operates on Taiwan the largest air repair and maintenance facility in the Pacific region. Established in 1955, Air Asia employs about 8,000 people. It not only services the CIA's own planes, it also repairs private and military aircraft. The U.S. Air Force makes heavy use of Air Asia and consequently has not had to build a major maintenance facility of its own in East Asia, as would have been necessary if the CIA proprietary had not been available. Like Air America, Air Asia is a self-sustaining, profit-making enterprise.

SOUTHERN AIR TRANSPORT

Until the CIA decided to sell it off in mid-1973, Southern Air Transport, another agency proprietary, operated out of offices in Miami and Taiwan. Unlike CAT, Air America, and Air Asia, it was not officially connected with the Pacific Corporation holding company, but Pacific did guarantee $6.6 million loaned to it by private banks, and Air America loaned it an additional $6.7 million funnelled through yet another CIA proprietary called Actus Technology. Southern's role in the Far East was largely limited to flying profitable routes for the Defense Department. Other U.S. government agencies have also chartered Southern on occasion. In the first half of 1972 it received a $2 million AID contract to fly relief supplies to the new state of Bangladesh.

But within the CIA, Southern Air Transport was primarily important as the agency's air arm for potential Latin American intervention. This was the justification when the CIA took control of it in 1960, and it provided the agency with a readily available "air force" to support counterinsurgency efforts or to help bring down an unfriendly government. While Southern awaited its call to be the Air America of future Latin American guerrilla wars, it "lived its cover" and cut down CIA's costs by hiring out its planes on charter.

When the CIA brought Tibetan tribesmen to the United States in the late 1950's to prepare them for guerrilla forays into China, the agency's Intermountain Aviation assisted in the training program.

Then in the early 1960's CIA air operations grew by leaps and bounds with the expansion of the wars in Southeast Asia and the constant fighting in the Congo.

But a reporter visiting Tucson in 1966 still wrote, "Anyone driving by could see more than a hundred B-26's with their armor plate, bomb bays, and gun ports". Not long after this disclosure appeared in the press, ( DELETED ) were made available to ( DELETED ) to build hangers for the parked aircraft. Prying reporters and the curious public soon saw less.

ILLEGAL SALES OF BOMBERS TO PORTUGAL

In 1965, Intermountain Aviation served as a conduit in the sale of B-26 bombers to Portugal for use in that country's colonial wars in Africa. The sale directly violated the official United States policy against arms exports to Portugal for use in Angola, Mozambique, or Portuguese Guinea. The U.S. government, at its highest level, had decided to sell twenty B-26's to Portugal, and the CIA proprietary was following official orders. Theoretically, the embargo on weapons exports for use in Portugal's colonies remained intact—but not in fact. The U.S. government was, thus, doing covertly what it had forbidden itself to do openly.

Through the spring and summer of 1965, seven B-26's were flown from Arizona to Lisbon by an English pilot hired by an ostensibly private firm called Aero Associates. By September the operation's cover had worn so thin that Soviet and Hungarian representatives in the United Nations specifically attacked the transaction. The American U.N. delegation conceded that seven B-26's had been delivered to Portugal, but Ambassador Arthur Goldberg stated that "the only involvement of officials of the United States has been in prosecuting a malefactor against the laws of the country." This was a simple mistruth. Ambassador Goldberg, however, may have not known what the facts were. Adlai Stevenson before him had not been fully briefed on the Bay of Pigs invasion and wound up unknowingly making false statements at the U.N.

The same techniques were used to distort the prosecution of the "malefactor". Ramsey Clark, at the time Deputy Attorney General, got in contact with Richard Helms, when the latter was the CIA's Deputy Director, and the agency's General Counsel, Lawrence Houston, to discuss the Portuguese airplane matter. Agency officials assured Clark that the CIA had not been involved. Recalling the case, Clark says, "We couldn't have gone to trial if they (the CIA) had been involved. I don't see how you can just prosecute the little guys acting in the employ of a government agency."

Still, the United States had been exposed as violating its own official policy, and, for political reasons, those knowledgeable about the facts refused to intervene to aid "the little guys". Thus, one agency of the government, the Justice Department, unwittingly found itself in the curious position of prosecuting persons who had been working under the direct orders of another government agency, the CIA. Five indictments were finally secured, but one of the accused fled the country, and charges against two of the others were dropped. But in the fall of 1966 the English pilot, John Richard Hawke, and Henri Marie Francois de Marin de Montmarin, a Frenchman who had been a middleman in the deal, were brought to trial in a Buffalo, New York, federal court.

Hawke admitted in court, "Yes, I flew B-26 bombers to Portugal for use in their African colonies, and the operation was arranged through the State Department and the CIA." However, CIA General Counsel Houston flatly denied under oath that the agency had been involved in the transaction. Houston did reveal that the agency "knew about" the bomber shipment on May 25, 1965, five days before it began, and that this information had been passed on to the State Department and eleven other government agencies. He also said that on July 7 the CIA was "informed" that four of the B-26's had actually been delivered to Portugal; again the CIA gave notice to State and other agencies. He did not explain why, if the U.S. government had so much intelligence on the flights, nothing was done to stop them, although their flight plans had been filed with the Federal Aviation Administration and Hawke, on one mission, even inadvertently buzzed the White House.

The jury found Hawke and Montmarin innocent. Members of the panel later let it be known that they had not been convinced that the two accused had deliberately violated the

THE CIA IN NEPAL

Perhaps the CIA's most out-of-the-way proprietary was located in Katmandu, Nepal. It was established to provide air support for agency-financed and -directed tribesmen who were operating the Chinese-controlled Tibet. CAT originally flew these missions, as indicated by General Lansdale's reference to CAT's "more than 200 overflights of Mainland China and Tibet". But flying planes from Taiwan to the CIA's operational base in northeastern India proved too cumbersome; thus the Nepalese proprietary was set up. As the Tibetan operations were cut back and eventually halted during the 1960's, this airline was reduced in size to a few planes, helicopters, and a supply of spare parts. Still, up to the late 1960's, it flew charters for the Nepalese government and private organizations in the area.

DIFFICULTIES OF SELLING A PROPRIETARY

The CIA's Planning, Programming, and Budgeting Staff back in Langley believed that the airline's usefulness as an agency asset had passed, and the decision was made to sell it off. But, for the CIA to sell a proprietary is a very difficult process. The agency feels that it must maintain the secrecy of its covert involvement, no matter how moot or insignificant the secrecy, and it does not want to be identified in any way, either before or after the actual transaction. Moreover, there is a real fear within the Clandestine Services that a profit will be made, and then by law, the CIA would be obliged to return the gain to the U.S. Treasury. The clandestine operatives do not want to be troubled by the bureaucratic red tape this would entail. It simply goes against the grain of the clandestine mentality to have to explain and justify such a transaction to anyone--let alone to the bookkeepers at the Treasury. [H: It may make more sense now, as to why Oliver North's little personal gains such as fences and security systems might have been reasonable and acceptable--it was the way everything was handled. This is also why the ones involved in the Iran mess felt they had earned money return for their services rendered and profits made. It is you-the-people who don't seem to understand the system.]

SELLING SOUTHERN AIR BECOMES A FIASCO

Unloading Southern Air Transport in 1973 proved to be something of a fiasco for the agency. Following past practice, the CIA tried to sell it quietly to a former employee--presumably at an attractive price--but the effort failed when three legitimate airlines protested to the Civil Aeronautics Board. They complained that Southern had been built up with government money, that it had consequently received lucrative charter routes, and that it represented unfair competition. When word of this prospective sale got into the newspapers, the CIA backtracked and voluntarily dropped Southern's CAB certification--greatly reducing the airline's value but guaranteeing that the agency could sell it off in complete secrecy.

A "GIVEAWAY" FOR SECRECY

And with the Nepalese airline, CIA found a buyer who had previously worked for other agency air proprietaries. Since he was a former "company man", secrecy was preserved. He was allowed to purchase the airline's for a small down payment. Following highly unorthodox business procedure, the airline itself served as collateral for the balance due. A CIA auditor at headquarters privately described the sale as a "giveaway", but this was the way the Clandestine Services wanted the affair handled. The new owner remained in Miami although all his airlines' operations were in Nepal. Within a comparatively short period of time, he liquidated all the airline's assets. He wound up with a considerable profit, but the agency made back only a fraction of its original costs. The Clandestine Services was pleased with the sale, in any case, because it had been able to divest itself of a useless asset in a way both to guarantee maximum security and to assure the future loyalty and availability of the buyer.

14½ LINES DELETED

NO LAWS FOR CIA EXPENSES

While ethics of transactions of this sort are questionable, conflict of interest laws presumably do not apply to the CIA; the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949 conveniently states that "The sums made available to the Agency may be expended without regard to the provisions of law and regulations relating to the expenditure of Government funds." In any case, the use of proprietary companies opens up to the participants an opportunity to make substantial profits while "living their cover".

NO REAL AUDITS OF CIA

The fact remains that CIA proprietaries are worth hundreds of millions of dollars, and no one outside the agency is able to audit their books. [H: Sounds just like the Federal Reserve and IRS, doesn't it???] And as will be seen later in this writing, CIA headquarters sometimes has only the vaguest notion about what certain proprietaries are doing or what their assets are. Undoubtedly, there are wide opportunities for abuse, and many of the people involved in fields such as the arms trade, paramilitary soldiering, and covert air operations are not known for high ethical standards. While only a few agency career employees would take money for personal gain, there is little to prevent officers of the proprietaries from doing so, if they are so inclined.

As can be seen, the CIA's proprietary corporations serve largely in support of special, or paramilitary, operations, information purposes and, like most other covert assets, proprietaries can also be used on occasion to further the espionage and counterespionage efforts of the Clandestine Services. In the main, however, there has been a definite trend in the agency for more than a decade to develop the air proprietaries as the tactical arm for the CIA's secret military interventions in the Third World. The fleets of these CIA airlines have been continually expanded and modernized, as have been their base facilities. In the opinion of most CIA professionals, the agency's capabilities to conduct special operations would be virtually nonexistent without the logistical and other support provided by the air proprietaries.

CIA CONSIDERS PROPRIETARY AIRLINES ESSENTIAL

The performance of the Pacific Corporation and its subsidiaries, Air America and Air Asia, in assisting the CIA's many special ops adventures over the years in the Far East and Southeast Asia has deeply impressed the agency's leadership. The exploits of the contract air officers in that strife-ridden corner of the world have become almost legendary within the CIA. Furthermore, the advantages of having a self-sustaining, self-run complex which requires no CIA funds and little agency manpower are indeed much appreciated by the Clandestine Services.

Without the air proprietaries, there could have been no secret raids in Communist China. There could have been no Tibetan or Indonesian or Burmese operations. And most important of all, there could have been no "secret" war in Laos. Even many of the CIA's covert activities in Vietnam could not have been planned, much less implemented, without the assurance that CIA airlines were available to support such operations. Thus, it is small wonder that the agency, when it moved to intervene in the Congo (and anticipating numerous other insurgencies on the continent), hastily tried to develop the same kind of air support there that traditionally was available to special operations in Asia. And one can easily understand why the planners of the Bay of Pigs operation now regret not having made similar arrangements for their own air needs instead of relying on the U.S. armed forces.

Election Year Theater

BY DR. J. COLEMAN

In September, 1991, President Bush gave a very polished performance in the long-running Washington play, "Will He or Won't He?" Other players included James Baker III, Ariel Sharon, Yitzhak Shamir, Benjamin Netanyahu, Hafez el Assad and Hosni Mubarek, backed by a large supporting cast. The plot was based on promises made by President Bush to provide loan guarantees for Prime Minister Shamir, to enable 400,000 Russian Jews to live in nice little homes in the "promised land".

Enter the villain, Ariel Sharon, from Israel. He demanded that the world stop interfering with the right of Israel to build houses on land that belongs to someone else. "This," declared the bellicose Ariel, "is a right we shall never give up." Naturally, Ariel's attitude caused problems with Hosni, the ruler of Egypt. "I mean, you know, Pharaoh would never have stood for this kind of thing," he complained to George.

"Don't you remember, Georgie, when we went against our very own kith-and-kin and sent our legions to fight your war in Kuwait, how you promised me and Hafez to put the Israelis in their place after we had helped them and you do the dirty work? 'No more stomping all over Americans and Arabs,' you said. We took you at your word, even though you told a whopping lie when you promised your citizens, 'No new taxes'."

Put on the spot, George said he would get on with his promise and put a spanner in the works of Ariel, although he had just received bad news from Tel Aviv. "Ariel has built so many settlements on the land belonging to those pesky Palestinians that the process will soon be irreversible."

Bush thereupon summoned the Council of the Wise, which consisted of 100 hand-picked yes-men chosen from the ranks of Capitol Hill Lobbyists Inc., headed by the intrepid James Baker. "What you must do, Mr. President," said a solemn-faced James, "is move while pretending that you are not giving in to Ariel and old Yitzhak. That way, we will be able to keep the Tel Aviv boys happy and deceive our own people at the same time. Make a brilliant speech like Valerius Aurelian or Caligula, you know the routine; 'Let them hate me but let them fear me.' That will impress Hosni no end, and stop him from coming to us for another hand-out. This time it might even be more than the $7 billion we gave him for sending his legions to Kuwait."

George immediately sent for his scribes and told them to write, "Let it be known that as of September, 1991, I will no longer cave in to bully-boy Yitzhak and enforcer Ariel Sharon." Mounting the rostrum, his face set in stone, George told the gathered throng who were eagerly awaiting his new "no nonsense" policy toward Yitzhak: "As you know, I promised our Egyptian and Arab friends that, as a token of appreciation for their efforts in our war on behalf of that gallant firm, British Petroleum, Al Sabah & Four Hundred Sheiks, who so daringly refused to knuckle under to the Brute from Baghdad (loud boos from paid extras in the audience), I would get Yitzhak to consider giving back the land taken from the Palestinians."

"Now that moment has arrived. I am going to fight for what I believe. (Slams his hands on the rostrum to emphasize sincerity.) And, it may not be politically popular to delay the vote (to give old Yitzhak my guarantee to get his hands on $40 billion), but good politics is not the question here. We are up against very strong and effective groups up there on the Hill. I heard today that there were a thousand lobbyists on the Hill working on the other side of the question." (Note that George always talks in riddles to avoid using the word ZIONISTS.) "We've got one, lonely, little guy down here (pointing to himself) doing it."

Following his successful public announcement that he was now a certified public hero, George's scribes at Newsweek, a tabloid devoted to misleading and, in some cases, downright falsifying the news, trumpeted the word to the Bloc of the Faithful back in Tel Aviv, "The settlements now make it impossible to draw a conventional border between Israelis and Palestinians. In effect, the settlers have won."

At the same time, George hurriedly dispatched James to Tel Aviv with orders to smooth Yitzhak's ruffled feathers. James was much beloved by the Queen for his sterling performances in duplicity par-excellence during the BPALS FHS crisis. The crisis almost cost her billions when The Thief of Baghdad audaciously tried to steal back his own property. James well remembered how Her Majesty bestowed on him the Order of the Golden Garter of the Hermetic Order of Polished Liars.

Arriving in Jerusalem, James was thoroughly roughed-up by Ariel, who has a penchant for rough stuff. (Remember 1982, and all those nice fat American bombs falling willy-nilly on Beirut?) James managed to draw just enough breath to yell to a beaming Yitzhak, "STOP HIM! Don't you know by now that when it comes to crossing you guys, George is only kidding?" Thereupon, Ariel reluctantly loosed his grip on Jim's throat. After much "negotiating", it was decided that another round of throwing West Bank sand in the eyes of the world was called for.

Characterizing his rough-house with Ariel "a dispute", James said, "There has been a satisfactory conclusion to the dispute. We will agree not to ask for delays beyond January 1992. The White House will lobby for the acceptance of the $10 billion guarantee by Congress in January." It seemed as though George did have some troops up on the Hill after all. He was not the "lonely little guy" he held himself out to be. No matter, the American people have remarkably short memories. Just understate the amount for Yitzhak. $10 billion sounded less of a problem than $40 billion.

"The U.S. restates its commitment to the principle of providing Israel with aid to help settle Soviet immigrants." Never mind the 4 million homeless in America. If the prickly question should unfortunately come up, James had been briefed to say that they didn't count because they had no clout and would probably be too cold and hungry to go to the polls anyway on that great day when George would be reelected.

After all, better to worry about all those Zionist fat cats up on the Hill with their string of faithful servants in Congress, rather than a bunch of down-at-heel people thrown on the scrap heap, even if it did include 150,000 VETERANS who had fought for their country in Vietnam. What ever would the Queen say if she found out that he and George were going soft on people who didn't amount to a hill of beans? None of THEM would ever qualify for the Order of the Golden Garter of the Hermetic Order of Polished Liars!

Thus reassured, James told the world: "The administration will solicit housing aid from other countries," meaning those nasty Japanese and the European Economic Community. Leaning back to whisper in the ear of a glowering Ariel, James hissed, "Don't worry, NONE of it will go to the homeless in America, it is ALL for you." In closing, James, who is known to keep his master-strokes for last, assured Yitzhak and Ariel: "The United States will reimburse your out-of-pocket expenses, which have inevitably occurred because of the unconscionable wait for your $40 billion. Just send the chits to the White House. Incidentally, you can pad them up as much as you like. When it comes to Israel the GAO won't dare to say a word!"

James's trip to Tel Aviv was a smashing success, except for that "roughing up" incident. What is a small difference of opinion between friends? Yitzhak and Ariel were happy. Benjamin could go tell the newly-arrived Russian immigrants and the Bloc of the Faithful not to worry, they would soon be getting their housing. After all, didn't they know that in the end, the short, stubby little tail of Yitzhak always wagged the big American Sheepdog?

Everybody lived happily ever after. That is, except for 4 million homeless Americans and the millions of Palestinian and Arabs whose land "the promised land" actually was. But then, nobody worried about them.

The big thing was that George had successfully played politics with the American people. After September, 1991, they saw him as a heroic figure willing to risk his career by standing up to Yitzhak and Ariel, and they were about to cough up the promised $40 billion. Not all theater plays end on such a happy note, do they?
