A Unity Of Purpose To Restore Our Constitution

Then, on Page 19, is the reprinting of a special issue of distinguished, retired Police Officer Jack McLamb's Aid & Abet Newsletter covering Constitutional issues for Law Enforcement professionals. The "simple" matter of examining our motor vehicle rights and privileges gets instantly right back to our Constitution and some thorny matters of conscience for those sworn to uphold that special document.

As Commander Hatonn implores below,

*please don't just skim this edition of THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR. Much that we take for granted in this country is rapidly eroding away and will end in disaster if ignorance of The Truth is allowed to take any stronger hold on the majority of our citizenry. PATRIOT TESTING TIME

Some of your "Patriot Groups" (and no, we are not a group at all—affiliated with no-one save GOD!) could not have served you worse had they simply claimed to be TRAITORS in the first place—this includes MOST of your evangelical rapture-rousers AND self-proclaimed "saviors" who have spoken out of proper sequence by accident or deliberateness. It is MOSTLY IN IGNORANCE that ones fall prey to the enemy's tricks and not through malice. Unfortunately damage is done either way and credibility is lost and, likewise, otherwise good workers are discredited in the package deal. "Hope" always, students—but "MAKE" the reality. Truth will always be reasonable in its validity and possibilities. This does not mean that God will not allow and present incredible presentments for your needs—but He will never present them in such manner as to destroy rather than build toward your ability to utilize them properly. Much damage and setback has been accomplished through overt prattling. That, too, by intent or ignorance, is not the point. I pray that you did not respond to the desire for names and addresses—for you will have ended up on the listings of the very ones who have set you up—this goes doubly so for the Perot group! Do you have to make a stand? Yes—but you do not need serve up your own head on a silver platter as was required of John the Baptist.

Let us just assume that "nothing" to help you shall come from any magnificently magical source. In that event you won't sit waiting for some golden spoon to come down and feed you—you will get busy and do something for selves.

In that vein, today, I am going to simply write a brief statement about this edition of the paper and it can all go from that point on its own. My scribe is still facing a contempt of Federal court order and the opposition is pushing for punitive damages for something she had absolutely

Our Sordid Government At Work:

Statement Of POW Involvement

By Col. James "Bo" Gritz

JAMES GRITZ POW INVOLVEMENT

THIS STATEMENT WAS PREPARED BY BO GRITZ FOR PRESENTATION ON 23 NOVEMBER 1992 BEFORE THE U.S. SENATE SELECT COMMITTEE ON POW/MIA AFFAIRS DEPOSITION STAFF AND IS TO BE OFFERED INTO THE OFFICIAL RECORD. THE TEXT OF THIS DOCUMENT IS THE TRUTH, SO HELP ME GOD, AS I KNOW IT TO BE: ATTESTED TO BY MY SIGNATURE ON THE 22nd PAGE THIS 23rd DAY OF NOVEMBER 1992 IN THE CITY OF SPRINGFIELD, VA. [See p.31 for Senate Deposition Notice.]

OVERVIEW

I have outlined my involvement in POW/MIA matters in the 22 pages that follow using operation (OPN) titles to separate events and times. It is my studied opinion over the past 12 years that responsible officials within the Executive Branch of the U.S. Government (USG) knowingly abandoned U.S. Prisoners of War (POW) held by Communist powers as a result of World War I, World War II, Korea, and Southeast Asia. I believe that presidents up through and including George Bush have known that Americans were left alive and, in violation of law, these high officials and certain of their appointed subordinates have continued and perpetrated a cover up of this reality. I believe certain members of the U.S. Congress have aided in the oppression and diversion of critical information that could have revealed a fullness of truth long ago. I am convinced there exists a mindset in most USG offices that everything possible must be done to discredit the living POW movement and those that support it.

It may not be economically or politically expedient for the USG to deal with the POW issue in real terms, but I am certain it is right. It may provide excellent photo opportunities, but it is my view that for U.S. officials to look interested posing with Communist officials before stacks of old uniforms and equipment is an insult to the heroes who once were a part of it. The fact is that the Communists in Laos, for whatever and all the reasons, did not return our POWs! The fact is that the Vietnamese held Americans after 1973. The fact is that Americans were sent to Russia that have not been returned. "Accounting" is a term used in reference to things, like boots, helmets, pistols, et al. Our POW/MIA's should be returned! STOP THE BUSHLIP AND GET TO THE HEART OF THE MATTER - HERE AND THERE!

OPN LIBERATOR

I was asked in October 1978 by the Deputy Director, Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA), Lt. Gen. Harold R. Aaron, to go in search of U.S. prisoners of war thought to still be held against their will by Communists in Southeast Asia. At the time, I was assigned to the U.S. Army Element, Office of the Secretary of Defense, as a Chief of Congressional Relations (DSAA). I retired from active duty in February 1979 for the specific purpose of resolving this political dispute.

General Eugene Tighe, Director, DIA, requested H. Ross Perot sponsor a private effort to determine whether or not any U.S. POWs were left alive. Perot called me to his EDS, Dallas office in April 1979. He instructed me accordingly: "I want you to go over there and see everyone you have to see, do all the things you need to do. You come back and tell me there aren't any American prisoners left alive. I don't believe it and I'm not interested in bones." Col. Arthur D. "Bull" Simons was there. In contrast to Perot, he told me: "I'm going to plan the operation and you're going to execute it." I left for Asia immediately. Bull Simons died while I was away.

I went overseas hoping to prove that all our POWs were home. I came back convinced that they were still alive. Everywhere I went in Asia, people I knew who were actively engaged in intelligence operations were certain we had failed to bring them out. Col. Frank Collins was one of the most convincing. He was the senior Defense Attaché. Frank said that he consolidated reports from the entire East Asia region. He was positive American POWs had been abandoned. He offered Nguyen Giang as one example. Giang was in a refugee camp, having escaped from Vietnam. He said he was with 49 American POWs only months before. Two of the POWs had died. Giang buried them. The others were still alive at the time of his escape. The Americans were being held at Tan Lop, a camp near the Red River, north of Hanoi.

I reported the results to Perot and recommended that we make Giang available for interrogation by electronic and chemical means for verification of his claim. Perot telephoned Gen. Tighe and requested that Tighe bring Giang to the USA. Tighe wrote a memo to Secretary of Defense Harold Brown making the request. Brown forwarded the recommendation to Secretary of State Cyrus Vance. A month later, Vance wrote a note to Brown turning down the appeal. These documents have since been denied by the Executive Branch, but they were written and I have copies. I returned to SEA for more convincing evidence. Patrols were launched into Laos to suspected POW holding areas using forces loyal to Gen. Vang Pao (CIA mercenary chief Military Region II — Laos during the war). One of the units returned with a positive sighting of 30 U.S. POWs at Nhommarath, Laos. Satellite photography confirmed "30 non-Asians by measurable shadow" and a figure 52 made in the ground to be visible by air. The Nhommarath report became Top Secret — Special Intelligence! Admiral Jerry O. Tuttle told me that he briefed President-elect Reagan on the finding in the West wing of the White House in January 1981. The information was so sensitive I was told by Tuttle "never to even say the word Nhommarath!"

OPN VELVET HAMMER

I formed a pilot team in Florida to begin initial planning for a possible private sector rescue effort. I had maintained liaison with Ann Mills Griffith who was director of the League of Families since my first trip to Southeast Asia when it appeared POWs were still there. Ann made two trips to our base. I had been told by Admiral Tuttle in his Pentagon office to stand down. He stated, "President Reagan is excited and intends to make the rescue using Delta Force." I questioned the acceptable risk of the new president invading Laos in the wake of the Iran raid and criticism of Russia in Afghanistan. I used the planes being turned around during the Bay of Pigs as an example. Tuttle assured me, "The planes will not be turned around in this case!" Still I was concerned that politics would get between us and our POWs.

Ann brought George Brooks with her to the Overstreet Ranch where we had assembled those asked to be part of Velvet Hammer. Brooks offered to write a check for $20,000 to help keep the effort together. Gordon Wilson, my executive officer, handled all funding. I didn't feel right about accepting money from a "Family" member, but George was insistent. As I recall he arranged through Gordon to make the check payable to the Special Forces Association. The time soon came at the termination OPN GRAND EAGLE when Ann, with George always faithful, would become adverse to those who support the "living POW movement". This was because things didn't go Ann's way. They have been acutely critical of my operations and George has even said that I asked him for $250,000 to bring his son home. That is a total lie and absolute fabrication. George knew perfectly well from information given to him by Ann that Velvet Hammer was oriented only towards Nhommarath and we had no idea who might be there. Col. Earl Hopper, former director of the League, can verify the truth. Both Hopper and I questioned Brooks at the Crystal City Stouffer Hotel concerning the money Brooks had donated. Brooks clearly said he had no problem with Gordon's accountability. I state for the record that I have never sought funds from any POW family, nor led them to believe in any way that we were going on a mission to rescue their specific missing loved one.

We held the team together for as long as possible and then sent all except the most critical personnel home. Gordon told me that Brooks even helped with the transportation. I went to Ft. Bragg and learned that Delta was indeed gearing up for the rescue. Still I was concerned the Reagan staff would not be willing to take the risk of sending an official military force into Laos. The Thais wouldn't actively support such an overt launch so the heliborne force would have to infiltrate using a high risk corridor across Vietnam. I wrote a Top Secret memo to President Reagan outlining a private sector alternative. The message was delivered to National Security Advisor Richard Allen on 30 March 1981, the day President Reagan was shot! I was told that Haig was outraged that such an option existed. I was warned by Tuttle to watch out for a witch hunt and protect my sources. Tuttle said he was recommending to Lt. Gen. Philip Gast, JCS Operations chief, that I be brought back on active duty for the operation.

I sent what remained of Velvet Hammer personnel home. Admiral Tuttle called me at my Los Angeles home on May 20th and said that the next day's Washington Post would carry a front page story stating that CIA mercenaries were sent into Laos looking for POWs, but found none. The planes had been turned around!

OPN GRAND EAGLE

Next, I was contacted by Jerry King, officer in charge of the Intelligence Support Activity. Even the initials "ISA" were classified because Congress knew nothing of the organization which was headquartered in Arlington Hall under the code letters "TCA". King wanted to continue Velvet Hammer under the new designation, Grand Eagle. I was to establish a network throughout Asia to gather information. Part of the operation was to focus on photographing POWs in captivity using ground units. I met with Gen. Vang Pao in LA and arranged to use Col. Soubane's troops. A four man training team was assembled in October to prepare the ground recon units for launch in December. Former Special Forces Master Sergeant J.D. Bath was the training team leader. Scott Barnes was an unfortunate add on!

Barnes identified himself as a close personal friend of Gen. Vang Pao. Barnes said he had worked in the Army Security Agency during the Vietnam war and had met Vang Pao at a special forces camp. Barnes was present, but aside during the Vang Pao meeting. I had no reason to doubt Barnes. He had no operational talent, but said that Vang Pao wanted him to go along to monitor our relations with Soubane. The general's letter to Soubane instructed him to provide men for operational cost only, but Soubane was prone toward profit taking. It made sense that Vang Pao might want someone he trusted to oversee the operation. ISA said "NO". Their records check found him to be a flake who was dropped from military service as "unsuitable". I protested since Barnes would have no operational responsibilities. They relented — I'm sorry to say.

Bill Macris (MI specialist) punched Barnes in the nose one week into the field mission. Barnes was returned immediately to the States. He did not go into Laos. He did not photograph POWs. None of these claims came up until long after the mission was over. What Barnes did tell Rob Ostrow of the L.A. Times was that I had sent him with Ed Wilson to Thailand to train for an assassination of President Reagan!

I was slated to go into Laos to photograph American POWs in December 1981. Instead, Jerry King put the mission on hold and called me to D.C. Admiral Alan Paulson had replaced Jerry Tuttle. A bureaucratic tug-o-war developed. King told me that Paulson was trying to pull in ISA's POW authority. Paulson was complaining that I had "too much visibility" to be a principal field agent. King said that Paulson suggested that I function within in the agency as a staff assistant. House Foreign Affairs, POW subcommittee Chairman Robert Dornan had called a hearing to question both Paulson and CIA deputy, Admiral Bobby Ray Inman about inner-agency problems in POW field operations. I was asked to meet with Admiral Inman. There was conflict over who had final POW operational control. King said that DIA was only a coordinating agency — not an approving authority. Inman said he would contact me before Christmas with a decision. King called on 4 January to say that "Grand Eagle was to be put on the shelf as if it never existed. Too many bureaucrats in Washington didn't want to see live Americans returned!" King said he was empowered to have me returned to active military status as his deputy.

Ann Griffith called. She said Admiral Paulson wanted to continue Grand Eagle under his auspices and that he would soon be contacting me. Ann was very excited. Jerry King telephoned warning me about Paulson. King stated that Paulson only intended to completely dismantle the net so that no future operations would be possible. King indicated further covert support. Paulson was angry when I turned down his proposal. He contacted J.D. Bath and told him I had gone crazy and wouldn't cooperate with ongoing efforts. He convinced J.D. to meet with DIA rep Pat Hirt and divulge what he knew of our operation. Ann Mills was furious. I didn't feel it appropriate to share with her all that had happened between Paulson, King, Inman and myself. From that moment forward, Ann became critical of all I did. Let there be no doubt — Ann Mills has full access to DIA POW data.

OPN LAZARUS

Using the assets and resources already in place, I prepared to launch Operation Lazarus. Fred O'Green, CEO Litton Industries, was supporting the mission with night vision and nuclear fire control communications devices. He informed me that continuation of the mission was meeting resistance in the Pentagon. I acknowledged problems with Paulson. O'Green confirmed that Paulson was the choke point. I asked, "Is the mission on or off?" O'Green said he would confirm things on his end and let me know. The next day I received word that we had a green light.

We spent from August 1982 until November overseas setting up the operation within Thailand. I had 10 potential targets from ISA/CIA to check for POW presence. It was important to define which of three Lao resistance groups had the highest potential for mission success. We worked with Phoumi Nosavan, Vang Pao and Kong Le organizations. Gordon Wilson briefed President Reagan on the operation in the Santa Barbara White House. Gordon coordinated through the U.S. Embassy in Bangkok.

We made two precursory patrols into Laos in November and December 1982. A decision was made to conduct our main operation using Kong Le's people. A guerrilla organization was trained in the use of HF radios, codes, cameras, and special reconnaissance techniques. The commander, General Kham Bou Phimasen, agreed to survey the target sites and communicate any positive findings. Gary Goldman and I had spent more than a month in Laos.

Scott Weekly had been operating a radio relay station through Esso at Khon Khan, Thailand. A CIA liaison informed him that we would not be allowed to reenter Laos even if POWs were found. He said higher authorities had feared our capture and compromise. That prediction turned out to be true.

On 10 January 1983, we received confirmation that one of the targets contained live U.S. POWs. I was told by O'Green that operational funds had been cut off and no return was authorized. When I proposed to sell one of the "boxes" we were cleared to return. Scott Weekly, Gary Goldman and I re-entered Laos 30 January 1983 with the purpose of rescuing U.S. POWs. We spent the next 30 days toward that end. We received messages from the CIA to return immediately. One message said that if we did not "stop and return — all support is off!" Our mission was compromised within the United States and international attention made it extremely difficult to return safely to Thailand. I was charged by the Thai authorities with operating a high powered radio and fined. A State Department rep named Mulkey came to us saying he was there to help, but wasn't cleared for any POW conversation. The team returned to the U.S. in March 1983. ISA personnel reported they were instructed that it was life and death that they find us and maintain a fix on our location. I believe Jerry King may have been right!

Upon return to LAX, we were met at the plane by FBI agent Fred "Rusty" Capps. Who was there to give us swift and direct transportation home. He was concerned about sensitive equipment, until assured that everything would arrive in the U.S. secure and separate. Persons from the Munitions Control Board wanted an interview, but Capps explained that we would have nothing to say. Capps would later testify that he had communication with the CIA and, while I had not revealed to him my contacts, he had determined they came from a "unit that didn't exist" at Arlington Hall from a non-existent Jerry King. Later I saw Capps in the Los Angeles USG Wilshire building with a man he said was taking their files on our operation to Washington. Capps said the IG was making an inspection and wasn't to have access to the information. The sensitive devices were all received and restored to proper channels.

During the mission, Walter Jones, a team member, was given a package containing bone fragments by a Lao. The source said they were from a crash site. He presented photographs showing himself in company with others digging around obvious aircraft debris. The pictures were of personal USAF equipment and human remains. There was enough evidence to convince me that the package should go to D.I.A. for examination by the ID lab in Hawaii. A short time later the Pentagon made a press release that I had brought back "chicken bones" claiming them to be U.S. MIA remains. I have nine graduate level semester hours from the University of Kansas in Anthropology and undergrad work in bioscience and toxicology. I am certainly not qualified to make serious judgement calls on identification, but I can distinguish between bird and human bones. DOD's demeaning treatment of our good-faith effort was to become standard fare from a bureaucracy determined to keep its skeletons hidden! For some reason it was "kill the messenger" instead of "seek the truth."

The "Nhommarath 30" has been put off like everything else that the USG would rather not deal with, as "old information that has been thoroughly investigated and been found without substance." I don't believe Nhommarath has ever been properly looked into. Admiral Jerry O. Tuttle told me he personally briefed the president! It was A-1 Top Secret Special Intelligence! He was a key DIA-POW official. To my knowledge, Tuttle has never been called to testify before the Kerry, or Murkowski, or Solarz, or any other so-called POW-concerned Congressional hearing. Subpoena and question Tuttle - under oath — in detail about Nhommarath.

I was asked to testify before a Solarz sub-committee hearing upon our return to the U.S. in March 1983. When questioned whether or not I had any official sponsorship in my POW pursuit, I responded in the affirmative, but would not identify the agency in open session. That afternoon Admiral Paulson disclosed the existence of ISA during executive session. True to confidential Capitol Hill tradition, the information was immediately leaked and the Washington Post ran an article, "Reagan told to reign-in rouge intelligence operation." In accordance with intelligence tradition, ISA went further underground to resurface with a new face.

OPN BROKENWING

Gary Goldman and I then went to Paris to meet with General Kong Le who had just made his way out of exile in Red China. Kong Le agreed to help resurrect Operation Lazarus. One of his former officers had a son that reportedly was in charge of three U.S. POWs at a camp near Xieng Khouang, Laos. I contacted the father along the Thai border northeast of Vientiane. A communication net was developed to allow indirect contact with son. Positive relations were established to the point where, to demonstrate access to physical U.S. POW intelligence, the source acquired Lance Peter Sijan's U.S. Air Force Academy ring for a reward of $1000 and a photo-signature of Major Walter H. Moon who was missing in action. The ring was genuine containing the proper Balfour markings, class date '65, wear marks, and inside scripted name of "Lance Peter Sijan." The photo showed a full-face close-up of a bearded caucasian in prison garb with a bandaged head. The picture had been taken by someone considerably shorter than the subject. A scrap of aged paper had written in pen the following, inscription in three lines: "1. Name WALTER HUGH MOON 2. Date of birth 31 MARCH 1923 3. Place of birth Rudy, Arkansas, USA." Under that, in an Asian cursive hand, was: "Name and Signature of prisoner." Beneath was a clear and bold "Walter H. Moon."

I immediately sent the ring back by courier with instructions for John Mangham to personally contact the Sijans and arrange for it to be returned with honor to the father and mother in Wisconsin. Peter Sijan had received the Medal of Honor for his valiant acts as a POW. One of the USAF Academy dorms is named after him. I knew the family would treasure the ring. When Mangham called, Mr. Sijan contacted DOD for guidance. I later learned that Assistant Secretary of Defense Richard Armitage advised them not to accept the ring since it was a fake!

Upon returning from overseas, I was puzzled at the refusal and angry that a high government official like Armitage would be so quick to powerfully discredit something without so much as an examination or inquiry. Armitage's knee-jerk reaction was standard Pentagon response to any private sector offering. I telephoned the Sijans. They expressed doubt as to the ring's authenticity. An Air Force colonel and military lawyer from Nellis AFB came to view the article and wanted to know if I would give it to them so they could send it to Armitage. I refused and personally went to Milwaukee to offer the ring to Mr. and Mrs. Sijan. They instantly recognized it as genuine and having belonged to their son who died in captivity. They showed me a duplicate that Balfour had made for them.

I dutifully turned over the photo, negative and "signature of prisoner" to chairman Solarz of the House POW sub-committee. He gave it to DIA who denounced it (they said Moon had been executed shortly after capture) even though the wife, Mrs. Ruth Moon verified both the picture and handwriting as clearly being those of her husband. Actual samples of Maj. Moon's signature and file photos matched those given to me in Laos by the Kong Le contact. Armitage testified before Congress that I was unscrupulously withholding personal articles from POW families and that I was turning over manufactured intelligence. The fate of Maj. Moon still remains unresolved largely due to a constipated Executive Branch not willing to view its own mess for fear someone may be found responsible! Why wasn't the Moon document ever presented to the Lao authorities for explanation and possible resolution?

You can possibly begin to see why it becomes non-habit forming to furnish Congress such findings. They end up on the DIA scrap heap while you are defamed and lied about in undated and unsigned National Security Council memos that are released to the media, sent as responses to public inquiry, and publicized by Ann Mills in her League reports.

One of the three POWs was described as having the use of only one leg. An effort was coordinated to have the three Americans delivered by the son on the Thai side of the Mekong River near Si Chiang Mai west of Vientiane, Laos during the Christmas-New Year period 1984-85. A Lao police colonel was to drive brokenwing in his truck from the camp to meet with the others near the river. The son and six defecting Pathet Lao guards were to escort the other two Americans on foot to the rendezvous.

Agents reported their safe arrival — except for brokenwing and the son. They said the police colonel had lost his nerve and returned brokenwing to the camp after the others had departed. It was also reported that the son had been killed in an altercation during the cross-country move! At the appointed time and place a reconnaissance/boat team was sent across the river to pick up those who had arrived. Contact was made and the party started back in two dug-out boats. Mid-stream the lead boat was taken under fire by a patrol boat hidden alongside an island. The boat then ran down what was left.

The second pirogue was seen to turn back and successfully make land. Agents reported the two Americans safe. Two dead and two wounded members of our team were recovered by the Thais and treated. We tried throughout the week to arrange another pick-up without success.

The final effort came when our reconnaissance team reported contact with the POWs and their guards by radio near midnight at a prearranged crossing site. As we prepared to launch a rubber boat for the pick-up, I noticed, through night vision goggles, a strange "glitter" along the far bank adjacent to and about 100 meters from the pick-up point. One of the recon team was directed to move along the shore in that direction. I monitored his progress through the PVS-5 goggles. As he approached, the suspect area erupted in gunfire. Rounds were fired not only at the recon, but across the river into Thailand! Thai military liaison said that I was to report to the Province chief the next day. The Thai-English newspapers printed a story saying U.S. Embassy officials were officially inquiring as to Bo Gritz presence along the border. I was informed the mission was over.

Aside from OPN BROKENWING, Special Forces Major Mark Smith had been assigned from his duty as SFOD-KOREA commander to monitor my POW operation in Thailand. Mark knew that U.S. POWs were scheduled to be brought across the Mekong, but he was not informed of the intercept and subsequent abort. Major Smith was left to believe that Americans had been abandoned with no one to receive them. I was to meet Major Smith face-to-face in 1986.

OPN SOUTHSIDE

The following dry season (September thru March). I was still working on trying to verify the facts concerning BROKENWING and three MIA POWs. I was introduced to a source who said he represented a Pathet Lao general officer willing to turn over five U.S. POWs in exchange for safe passage to the U.S. for his family and support in fighting Soviet-sponsored Vietnamese occupying his south-central region from Saravane to Sepone (Tchepone). Huge caches of munitions had been removed from Vietnam during the 1973-75 period by Erich von Marbod and Richard Armitage. These were located in Thailand and the Philippines to continue resisting Communist forces. I figured that some of this would be made available if Americans were returned from captivity.

The source said the general would personally escort the senior U.S. prisoner, as a show of good faith, to a point near the border where we would meet. Once identification was verified, I would receive the POW who was reported to be Richard A. Walsh. Walsh was shot down flying an A-1J Skyraider on 15 February 1969. I questioned the wisdom of a general officer driving a U.S. POW along Route 23 and 9 through roadblocks we had determined were occupied by Vietnamese. I was told the general had authority and passes to allow such a trip and that I should only be concerned with safely negotiating the border to arrive at a point just north of Savannakhet. Once Walsh was safe, I was to arrange acceptance of family belonging to the general and several of his key officers. Four more Americans were to accompany them across the border into Thailand.

Christmas-New Year 1985-86 was the target date. Liason reported both the general and his passenger had been intercepted and were being detained by the Vietnamese. The only evidence that gave this report credibility was a joint public release by the Lao and Vietnamese in the press on or about mid-January stating they had "apprehended and were holding a U.S. citizen".

As part of the coordination, I had furnished the liaison with a U.S. Passport to be used as ID by Walsh as required once we crossed into Thailand and before he was returned to U.S. control. The Thais supported our efforts throughout, but if caught without proper credential, a foreigner would immediately be arrested. It was possible to lose a POW in the Thai bureaucracy unless surface effort was made to satisfy all their requirements. It was feasible that Walsh or another American was carrying that passport when stopped by the Communists. Not knowing the true identity and poor communications could have misled them into thinking they had someone else.

A second comment added to that theory. Not long after returning, I was in the U.S. State Department. A friend, Colonel Nestor Pino, noticed me and made the comment, "Good to see you alive. We thought maybe you had been captured — your passport turned up in a strange place." The question remains: Why didn't U.S. officials follow up on the Communist report of an American in custody?

Tom Harvey had worked as a military assistant to Senator Warner, but was currently assigned to the National Security Council. Harvey was following the Murkowski POW hearings. He was especially interested in what Mark Smith had to say about POW video tapes. A person having the tape was to make it available through Mark, but was to remain anonymous. Somehow his identity was revealed through government leaks and the person had gone underground — with the tape. All that was left was Smith's testimony.

Harvey had been in touch with

DeConcini from Arizona. Senator Dennis DeConcini asked that I personally question Mark Smith to determine whether or not his report of a video showing U.S. POWs was genuine. I talked to Mark and brought him to speak directly with Senator DeConcini. Mark was to be recalled and further questioned along the lines developed in his conversation with DeConcini. Additionally, at the Senator's interest and insistence, I gave to Mary, the Senator's Chief of Staff, in the presence of Tom Harvey, several POW cases in original document form that I thought, if properly investigated, would conclude that our brothers were certainly still in captivity. Mary assured me that they would be safe and presented before the committee. They were locked in the safe and I was to receive the originals back after the hearings concluded. Murkowski canceled the hearings. Mary sadly could never locate the "secured files," Mark Smith was labeled a charlatan, and Medal of Honor recipient Howard a drunk. I was glad the committee did not call me to testify.

Later, in the third-quarter of 1986, I included Mark as part of an Afghan training team. I wanted to have adequate time to determine if his story about seeing the POW video tape in Lebanon was fact or fiction. After spending days with him in after-hour conversation concerning every detail of his experience with the video, I'm convinced he saw exactly as he testified. I was to involve Mark in a 1987 exercise code named RED BULL.

OPN EMERALD CITY

Harvey called me the last of October 1986 from the White House (NSC). Vice president Bush had received information that a most infamous drug lord in Burma had U.S. POWs! The DIA, CIA, and DEA had no means to verify the report, but it came from very high placed and reliable sources. Harvey wanted to know if it was possible for us to confirm the information. He said that President Reagan was prepared to do whatever was required to get the men back if General Khun Sa had and would release them! Scott Weekly and I flew to DC and met Harvey outside the White House. He gave us letterhead and language that identified us to Khun Sa as having only a humanitarian interest in POWs. We left in November for Burma.

I had previously established several ethnic agent networks. I had never activated a Malaysian-Chinese group. Since Khun Sa spoke Mandarin, I felt our best bet was through the Chinese mafia. It worked and within a short time Scott and I were inside Khun Sa's headquarters. We established good rapport and determined that the reports of him having American POWs were false. I used both video and a CIA-provided portable polygraph to produce proof that Khun Sa had no knowledge of U.S. POWs. The VP report said that Khun Sa had five POWs and sightings on 70 more. It said that Khun Sa had lost four POWs drowned along with some of his own men trying to cross a rain-swollen Mekong River to safety.

Khun Sa said while he had no information on POWs, he would send agents to scrub Laos along a north-south line running from Vientiane — west to the Burma border. He promised to either secure any Americans found or give me 2,500 of his best troops to recover them. I was told to return in March for the results. I asked Khun Sa about trafficking in Heroin. He told me to take an offer back to President Reagan. Khun Sa was willing to eliminate all the Golden Triangle opiates and disclose the U.S. government officials who were his best customers for more than 20 years! In return Khun Sa wanted a trade agreement which would allow free world exploitation of the Shan State natural resources. VP Bush was leading the war on drugs and it sounded like an offer we couldn't refuse.

I turned over three video tapes to Harvey just before Christmas 1986. Two tapes showed polygraph interviews of source information to the vice president wherein deception was obvious. The third tape included Khun Sa's drug eradication offer and verification that the things attributed to him that were reported to VP Bush were false.

Harvey telephoned with congratulations on successfully resolving the POW report, Khun Sa's sweep of western Laos and offer to help in any rescue operation. When I inquired about the drug offer, Harvey said there was no interest. Such a negative response was surprising, but staff assistants in DC tend to develop tunnel-vision and see no importance outside of their own narrow focus. I returned to Burma and found reason why there was "no interest!"

OPN RED BULL

I left again for Thailand in January 1987 to follow-up on POW leads from BROKENWING, SOUTHSIDE and Khun Sa's sweep of western Laos. Upon arriving in Bangkok, I was given residence in the Prime Minister's quadrangle. Som Suk, an asset who normally works as a representative for the Thai Red Bull union, reported that he could not help. He would be traveling to Vientiane with the minister of commerce to speak with Kaysone Phomviharn about an up-coming rice deal. The Red Bull was similar to Jimmy Hoffa's Teamsters. No rice was marketed that did not include their participation. In return the government used the Red Bull to quell such disturbances as student up-risings at the university. Posing as "plain people" the union members quickly and mercifully broke up demonstrations.

A short time later, Som Suk burst in to say that he had spoken with Kaysone in social conversation about the possibility of buying out U.S. POWs. He said that the Prime Minister asked, "How much do you think we could get?" When Som Suk replied, "10 million Baht for each," Kaysone's reply was, "Good, that's 8 million for me and 2 million for you." Som Suk was excited to know if he had acted correctly in making the offer of 10 million Baht — he was quick to add that we did not have to pay him the 2 million. I assured him that his action was proper. Kaysone had told him that there were two Americans near death held in Vientiane and two not far away. If the operation could be kept secret, Americans could be officially listed as having died in captivity when they were actually being covertly transferred to U.S. control.

A meeting was held to work out the details with lawyers and persons representing Kaysone. A Thai Special Forces general would provide security from Udorn to Bangkok. The police chief at Nong Khai would clear the route from the border. We would present a bank voucher showing sufficient funds in an "overseas account" for the transaction. Once the money was incountry, the Lao would produce positive ID of four U.S. POWs. Satisfied with the currency of ID, the first deposit of 10 million Baht would be made into an "incountry account". Satisfactory proof of deposit would produce the first live American. After positive ID, we would transfer the money as directed. Subsequent transfers would proceed as mutual confidence evolved.

Scott Weekly assured me that our planning messages were passed to Tom Harvey and that "the money is on the way," but it never showed in the account. I have no way to know all or exactly what happened, but after a short time of not being able to demonstrate a deposit, the Lao went home, as did an angry Som Suk. It is conceivable that Harvey relayed the information to Assistant Secretary of Defense Richard Armitage who was responsible for POW/MIA recovery and "other arrangements" were made that cut me out of the net.

OPN HEROIN HIGHWAY

I delayed going back into Burma until April because of newspaper reports that "Khun Sa's mountain stronghold had been seized". Banner headlines proclaimed: "U.S. Declares No Mercy in Drug War Against Khun Sa." It looked like air strikes, along with joint Thai and Burmese ground operations involving 26,000 soldiers, had finished the Shan State and Khun Sa. Still his messages arrived wondering why I hadn't returned as invited. I decided to brave the battle and try to get through the lines to Khun Sa. Was I surprised to find the border wide open. Not only that, but a major road-building operation was underway that allowed one-day service by pick-up truck from Mae Hong Son, Thailand to Khun Sa's headquarters! I took team members Lance Trimmer and Barry Flynn as observers. On our November 1986 visit, Weekly and I had used horses over a three day journey along narrow winding opium trails.

Khun Sa was in rare form. He had a new crew-cab Toyota, hospital and temple. He laughed and wondered, "What took you so long?" He was delighted when I answered that I had waited for the war to die down. "That was a newspaper war," he boomed! "After you left with my Reagan message in December, I thought maybe I'd see B-52 bombers overhead. Instead, both the Thai and Burmese came to me and said they had to make it look like they were doing something, or they could lose millions of U.S. drug suppression dollars. I told them to do anything they wanted as long as it included a road from Mae Hong Son Airport." Ten-ton trucks had replaced the horses and mules as the drug tonnage quickly indicated. A news article showing the U.S. Ambassador presenting the Thais with a $1.8 million check for all their hard work cooled political concerns.

Khun Sa said he understood the problem. He sadly reported that after an exhaustive search his agents had turned up no evidence of U.S. prisoners alive in Western Laos, but he was willing to reveal some of the U.S. officials he had dealt with since winning the Burma-Laos Opium War in 1967! My ears pricked up when Richard Armitage was named as the person who handled the money with the banks in Australia! I was familiar with the Michael Hand's Nugan-Hand Bank chain that laundered CIA drug money worldwide. The Chiang Mai branch telephone was answered by the DEA secretary. Mike Hand had been a Special Forces operative. Nugan was found shot to death after the bank examiners revealed their nefarious dealings. Hand disappeared. If Armitage was the bagman, then he wouldn't want live POWs coming home. Follow-on investigations would involve him as the responsible bureaucrat. Armitage and Harvey were close associates who lifted weights together at the Pentagon Officers' Athletic Club. If Armitage was involved and saw Khun Sa's offer to name names, it could have sparked the "newspaper drug war" — something certainly did!

Immediately upon arrival at the Bangkok safehouse on 19 May 1987, I was called by Joseph Felter who informed me that U.S. Government authorities had come to him so that I might be advised to erase and forget everything I had just learned from Khun Sa and return immediately with all documentation to be turned over to Harvey upon arrival. My failure to properly respond would "hurt the U.S. Government!" Felter lives in the DC area and knew of my association with Harvey.

Felter called again on 29 May after my arrival in LA at the request of William Davis, a State Department official to warn me about any disclosure of Khun Sa information. I was told that if I did not cooperate, aggravated charges and hostile witnesses would be brought against me - that I would serve 15 years as a felon! My oath was not to lie, shred, or cover up. I chose instead to present the information and was called to testify before Larry Smith's House Sub-Committee on Narcotics Oversight. It was a mistake. Smith did not allow the members to view the Khun Sa video record and questioned the "heroin highway" as being a road to attack Khun Sa. He said the charges against Armitage were old, investigated, and unfounded.

The DEA finally admitted to a new road from Mae Hong Son to Khun Sa's HQ, but they said it was a "graduation road." Khun Sa wanted Thai officials to attend a special ceremony and didn't want them riding mules for miles so he had a highway built that they could drive along. Official heroin statistics record that in 1986 Khun Sa shipped 600 tons of opiates out of his Golden Triangle. The amount went up to 900 in 1987 (per the highway), then 1,200 tons in 1988 and 3,050 tons in 1989! The road became so visible that Khun Sa had to alter the direction of flow and means of transport, but not the volume. As Khun Sa said to me, "How do you think I can move so much opium product out of this jungle if it is not with badges?" Attorney General Richard Thornburgh indicted Khun Sa calling him the world's blackest criminal. Khun Sa had offered President George Bush one metric ton of #4 pure Asian Heroin that sells for over $1 million per pound on metropolitan streets of America. It was to be a show of good faith that he would eliminate every one while divulging his best customers. There was no interest!

Charges were brought against me in Oklahoma City for training Afghan. No true bill was ever obtained. In Los Angeles, it was for violation of the Neutrality Act. The FBI came to my rescue and the charges were dropped. I was indicted in Las Vegas for using a false passport. After two years and more government phone calls trying to get me to stop talking about government drug operations and POWs, I was taken before a sealed Classified Information Procedures Act (CIPA) hearing. White House, NSC, State Department, and Justice Department officials testified. Judge

Philip Pro ruled that all I could say before the jury was that I had been asked by a high level U.S. intelligence agency official to go in pursuit of U.S. POWs and that I had been doing so. I was acquitted, but had been prevented from travel for two years. On May 9th, 1989, State Department Special Agent Scott Farquar made an official statement: "Let me start by telling you that Gritz has been confirmed to have been an agent of the Intelligence Support Activity (ISA) of the United States Army. His mission and the mission of the ISA are deemed to be classified."

OPN DEUCES WILD

As of late 1990, OPN Lazarus member, Marine Gunnery Sergeant Jack Thompson, assigned to the Philippines, had been working on U.S. POW photo/dossier reports out of northeast Thailand. He had developed source information to a point where more experienced operatives were needed to handle and evaluate the agents and their offerings. The source was offering for sale a photo showing three men holding a sign. The non-Asians in the picture were said to be POWs Lundy, Robertson, and Stevens. I had rejected the buy based on Jack's description of what he saw. Robert B. Keplinger from Reno, Nevada was asked to go with Jack and determine whether or not additional Lazarus ground personnel and resources should be dedicated to follow up the agent reports Jack thought might be valid.

Bob Keplinger left with Jack for Thailand in April 1991. The source said he had contact with U.S. POWs. He again offered as proof a black & white photograph showing three Caucasians with a sign. The photo was rejected as a fake because of obvious alterations. The handwriting on the sign was Asian. The sign appeared to be the corner of a paper (manila) folder written on and placed on the photo of three men and retaken to look like a poster. Markings on the sign indicated a "Lao Date" of 25 May 1990 and location of Nanon Tbakheth (NNTK). Our records indicated John Robertson was shot down over North Vietnam while the other two were missing from Laos. It didn't jive.

I supplied Bob with "Key Question Dossiers" containing 55 queries that only the POWs could answer correctly. Four times the source said he gave the dossiers to the POWs, but while there were hand and finger prints, not one of the written answers were correct or even written in an American hand. We concluded that the source was phony and only trying to scam money out of those interested in POW info.

OPERATION EMERALD SEEKER/INSIDE STRAIGHT

Robert B. Keplinger had reported contact with a source in the summer of 1991 who said they had connections out of Hong Kong with U.S. POWs in Vietnam. Bob said the source claimed relationship with a French-Vietnamese narcotics operation wherein a freighter was loaded with drugs out of Vietnam in return for $1 million (U.S.). The Vietnamese intelligence officials involved had asked if any of the French side knew of Americans with interest in recovering live U.S. POWs.

Bob went to Hong Kong to check out the connection and was convinced that the source apparently had access to VN officials with information on American POWs in Southeast Asia. Communications developed into third and fourth quarter 1991 visits to Hanoi, Ho Chi Minh City (Saigon) and Laos under the cover of resource mining business interest by Bob Keplinger and Chuck Johnson. In compliance with the Logan Act, the Lazarus Team had been asked in writing by families of U.S. servicemen missing in action to represent their interest in both Laos and Vietnam.

The Lazarus Team (R.B.K.) was sponsored beginning in August 1991 by an "International Company", Guernsey Limited, Channel Island, calling itself C.O.D.E. with Nguyen Hao Tam and several French nationals. On one I was asked to send a fax to the United Nations Laos delegation chief verifying that Bob Keplinger was representing me (Bo Gritz) and the Lazarus POW Recovery Team. Two other verifications were to be included from Eugene McDaniel and Ross Perot assuring the receivers that Bob was not a USG official. I prepared the fax and sent it to Red. Capt. McDaniel said he would get Perot's chop and send the consolidated message on to the UN.

Bob took Gary Lane with him to Hanoi. Gary was part of a Red McDaniels POW/MIA documentary team. Bob opened doors through our VN defense contacts that allowed Gary to preview huge amounts of VN war footage showing shoot downs, injured Americans and U.S. personnel captured as a result of ground action. Gary selected what he wanted and Bob arranged for the film to leave Vietnam. The team was sharing the same hotel in Hanoi with Gen. Vessey and his group.

After a trip into Laos with Tam, Chuck Johnson and several French nationals, Bob Keplinger called to say that a Laotian official was stopping by Reno, Nevada to see him. The visitor turned out to be the son of the ruling prince in Laos, Souphanouvong. He was accompanied by a U.S. State Department escort officer. The Lao instructed Bob to "be patient — we will be doing business." During a subsequent visit to Vietnam, Bob and Chuck Johnson were shown an area in Saigon and told that Americans were being held there under the authority of the Interior Minister. Further developments prepared Bob to go to Vietnam for a physical inspection of U.S. POWs.

January 1992, Bob Keplinger left Reno, NV for Saigon, via Paris, accompanied by Nguyen Hao Tam with assurances that he would be taken to a VN resistance chief and allowed to interview 10 U.S. POWs. The POWs were part of a 50-man American group being held in the Ban Me Thout highlands area (IICTZ) of Vietnam west of Nha Trang.

On the previous trip, Keplinger and Chuck Johnson had been asked to list 10 U.S. POWs they wanted to see. Since inspection tours and talks had taken place over the past six months in both Vietnam and Laos, and not knowing whether the sample should be taken from either one or both areas, Lance Trimmer and I supplied a list of 10 from each country who we felt were still in captivity.

Keplinger was to be allowed 10 minutes with each of 10 U.S. POWs (whether it was to include any of those we listed wasn't known) to thoroughly document their identity by video-audio tape, photography, fingerprinting, and key question dossier. Once there was no doubt as to confirmed POW identities, at a near term date to be determined, two of the Americans were to be released and given safe VN escort to a neutral zone (that would be determined mutually between the VN and our joint U.S. - French team). The others were then to be freed in phases. H. Ross Perot had agreed to pay for the transfers. Eugene "Red" McDaniels was "in the loop".

By Mid-February '92 Keplinger and Tam were in Saigon. Keplinger sent a fax stating that he departed Saigon at 0530 on 17 Feb '92 north to Nha Trang and west to the RV near Ban Me Thout. Keplinger reported that he and Tam were taken by VN guide overland in a van type vehicle to Nha Trang. He met with armed guerrilla on the beach near Cam Ranh Bay who guided them westward through a restricted travel zone to a rendezvous in two vehicles. Keplinger reported hearing explosions to the rear during a night drive and was later told that the second vehicle was ambushed and destroyed. Keplinger said the atmosphere with the so-called FULRO reps was less than cordial and threatening if not almost hostile.

The FULRO chief did not produce the 10 American POWs as agreed. Instead, Keplinger said the VN took offense at the inspection requirement and offered the two POWs for instant turn-over without compensation. When Keplinger said he wasn't prepared to accept two U.S. POW at that moment, he said the FULRO chief told him to make arrangements and be ready within the next 30 days.

Keplinger returned the last of February from the failed inspection trip to Ban Me Thout with FULRO amid press reports from a Frenchman, Michele Honorin, who said he had been part of our team in Laos and had recorded U.S. POW locations on film. The Kerry Committee wanted to hear from Bob in March. I advised Keplinger that this was not a good time to discuss the forthcoming rescue plans with anyone outside our team. He agreed and said that he would keep comments about what had happened involving the Frenchman vague. Keplinger would use the "emerald" business cover to conceal active POW dealings. Keplinger said that he would not admit to, or discuss, live POWs with the committee.

For the record, Bob Keplinger told me, Jerry Gillespie and other team members that he had personally viewed two U.S. POWs. He said they were identified as A-6 pilots and that the G-chief was willing to turn them over immediately. Keplinger told me that he refused custody of the two Americans because he had no infrastructure at that time to insure security and safe passage home. Keplinger reported that he was working necessary arrangements through Tam for the contemplated turn-over.

Chuck Johnson had other ideas. He was in Paris wanting to go to Saigon to help, but had been vehemently rejected by Bob. Chuck was of the opinion that Bob had been less than sincere. Chuck suspected he was more oriented on personal business than our POWs and had made a major error in not accepting the two POWs he said were offered. Gary Lane had said that Keplinger had identified himself using another name five years ago in Washington, D.C. when Lane was doing a POW TV segment. Lane further complicated the issue by stating that Bob referred to himself as "working for the company." Chuck was in close personal contact with Tam and reported that little or nothing was being done to prepare for the turnover. Chuck began an approach through Tam that would involve Lance Trimmer, Tam and himself, but exclude Bob.

Travel to Saigon was set for the last week in March. Lance joined Chuck in Paris at Tam's headquarters. According to Chuck, Tam received a fax from VN saying that all was ready. All that was needed was for them to "bring two suits of clothing and two passports." The POWs would be turned over per the FULRO agreement. Travel documents and tickets were secured, but the day before departing, Tam said the VN were putting the meeting on hold since it was announced that Senator Kerry was coming to Vietnam. Chuck and Lance were told that the VN did not want to risk any initiatives that might be reached through the chairman's official visit. Chuck and Lance waited in Paris until it was announced that a 56-man DOD "search team" was being dispatched to Vietnam.

Our private sector effort closed out in May 1992. We had secured film records from the VN allowing Red McDaniels and Gary Lane to produce their POW documentary video. We had visited remote areas of Laos and Vietnam. Government officials from Laos and Vietnam had demonstrated considerable interest in our live-POW effort. We had successfully assessed and exercised a French-connection into Communist Asia. Keplinger was last in Vietnam with Tam the last of October 1992. Since April 1992, I have received no further communication concerning VN willingness to access U.S. POWs.

Many of the contacts and comrades made over these past 12 years are dead. Almost everyone who dedicated themselves to this righteous cause is worse off. I must conclude that while we have labored long and hard, the enormity of government opposition has taken its toll. I salute all those who have kept the faith with our missing in action. Our reward may not be now, but someday it will be noble. I pray for those who may still remain in captivity that their hope might forever burn bright knowing that they will never be forgotten as long as Old Glory flies and even one true American lives that we will forever be in search of them until we all come home!

THIS CONCLUDES MY OFFICIAL STATEMENT TO THE U.S. SENATE SELECT COMMITTEE ON POW/MIA AFFAIRS. MY COMMENTS RECALL EVENTS AND EXPERIENCES SPANNING MORE THAN 12 YEARS. I HAVE FAITHFULLY RECONSTRUCTED EACH COMMENT WITH CARE AS TO ACCURACY IN AS MUCH AS MEMORY AND RECORDS ALLOW. I CERTIFY THIS A TRUE STATEMENT AND AFFIX MY SIGNATURE THIS 20TH DAY OF NOVEMBER 1992 IN THE CITY OF SPRINGFIELD, VA.

A Planet Out Of Balance

1/13/93 SOLTEC

Good evening, my child, Soltec present in the Light of the Holy God. Peace be unto you this evening as we address the activities of the past few days. It has been interesting, would you not agree?

We of the Host of Holy God take all attacks and attempts of attacks against our own most seriously. It is not a matter which is open to any discussion with any one, any where, any time. The Elite of your world are fully aware of our stand on this subject and each time they cross that border, they place themselves in an extremely delicate position with our Mission Command. Believe us when we say that they do not want to deal with us on this matter. Your Elite are running for their very lives at this point in time, and they know very well that their time is limited and that they are losing ground rapidly. Is it any wonder that they would bother to strike out against any voice that may have the fortitude to speak up and tell You-The-People the Truth of the way things are? The attack against this, my scribe/speaker, on Saturday last (January 9, 1993) was viewed as a personal assault, as are all direct personal attacks against any of our people. The situation has been addressed and your controllers are now very well aware of our position on this.

You see, you do live in a very dangerous world and the more headway that is made toward freedom and Truth, the more flak you ones are likely to encounter. You have been well advised that the battle has heated up and that this year will likely be one you will not soon be able to forget. Your strange weather occurrences should be enough in itself to get your attention. In the past 48 hours, that part of California known as Marin County has received in excess of 5" of rain! And, more is predicted for the next five days! The deserts are literally soaked and flooded and the West is still digging itself from beneath a terribly strong snow-storm.

These strange weather patterns are only the beginning of what is in store for you in the next months. Our advice is to batten down the hatches and hold on tight because it is only going to get more interesting on your placement. You are living in the time when all things are changing—both from natural events and man-made ones. Past data can no longer be used to predict future events as all things are out of their proper sequence. You would have to go back several thousand years, to the time of the last Earth changes, to see the correlations to that which is occurring at this time on Earth. At that time, man chose to ignore God and the order of Creation and got himself into much the same state of affairs as is present on Earth today. The planet at that time reacted much the same way as it is today, and went through a long period of cleansing. This cleansing took the form of extreme weather changes, massive volcanic eruptions and widespread, destructive earthquakes, as well as widespread, strange, deadly diseases. Yet, it was through this destruction that the Earth was able to renew and rebirth life.

A planet is a living organism, regardless of what your religious preachers spout. In all Creation there is order and when radical entities act in ways that are contrary to that order, Creation just goes on creating. If that act of creating destroys life, then that life was not living in balance and at one with Creation. For had that life been in balance and at one with Creation, it could never have been destroyed, for Creation does not destroy itself. Earth Man, however, is not in a balanced relationship with his Creator; therefore, as Creation continues on its natural course and man lives in opposition to that Creation, then Man will be his own destruction. It is actually very simple. All must come into the knowledge that they are a part of Creation for, otherwise, they will cease to be by their own choices. Creation does not destroy—it simply creates over and over again. Sometimes that creation may appear to be destruction, but only for a period of time, for out of what is perceived as destruction, new life is created.

Earth man of today has managed to upset the balance of his world to the point that the world has become a very unpredictable and hostile place for him to live. But, it is the time of accounting and you are experiencing the payment for your past actions. Though we are not in the habit of quoting much from your Bible, I shall at this time. Does it not say that it shall rain on the just and the unjust? Look around you—is it not falling on all, both the just and the unjust? God does not judge. Man judges himself by his own words, actions and thoughts.

You have been very busy this day. You have launched another shuttle mission and you have once again managed to get yourselves involved in another air battle over Iraq. So, you are now involved in Somalia and in Iraq and are about to commit troops to Bosnia, and just in time for your new President to take office. How convenient. As I stated earlier—just hold on tight for you are in for the ride of your lives!

My scribe is in receipt of a letter from one called Pat who has posed a most interesting and thought-provoking question regarding a place on your world known as the Great Rift Valley in Africa, and in particular a place called Lake Victoria. The Great Rift Valley runs through the eastern part of the plateau region of Africa, from Northern Ethiopia into Mozambique. It is a series of deep trenches that were created by faulting of the earth's surface. In several areas, the steep sides of the valley appear as mountains, among which are the Ruwenzoria Mountains in Central Africa. Associated with the faulted valleys are several volcanoes, including Kilimanjaro in Tanzania and Mount Kenya in Kenya. This Great Rift Valley is the principal lake region of the continent and among these is Lake Victoria, Africa's largest lake and the chief source of the White Nile River.

At one time in your planet's history, all the land was one continent. However, during one of the Earth Change cycles, the poles shifted, and the Earth literally tipped. This tipping action caused much geologic activity to begin and through this activity pieces of land broke away from the main land mass and became separate continents. This is when the Great Rift Valley was formed and it is a remnant of that separating. This fault is what is known as a transform fault, which in this case is a tectonic plate boundary, just as is the San Andreas Fault in California. The area was thought to be dormant, geologically speaking, but that was in the past. As we are attempting to inform you, the entire Earth is in the beginning of a whole new geologically active cycle and those places thought to be long dead are experiencing renewed life. This place, then, can be expected to come to life, as well. The bottom of Lake Victoria is rising, as was surmised by Pat. It is due to the geologic activity known as uplifting, which is the ground beneath the lake pushing upward, giving the impression that the water level in the lake is rising. The entire region of Eastern Africa and the Middle East are riddled by faults—both transform and subducting; therefore, the likelihood of newly discovered geologic activity in this entire area is quite high, with the other events of geologic activity accelerating so rapidly on your planet.

It is also noted that, in the same general area, thousands of bats once lived and thrived, but recently all the bats have left and not returned. This, too, should be an indication to you that something is definitely going on. Bats are extremely sensitive to ultra sound frequencies, those which humans cannot hear audibly. Since radical changes in frequencies most often accompany earthquake activity, it is a good bet that these little mammals know something. Recall, if you will, what I have previously stated regarding the relationship of the habits of the animals and earth changes.

We do appreciate the questions from you ones, as it shows that you are doing some thinking and digging on your own.

As you develop in your sensitivities, you will be able to glean the answers on your own as you "tune in" and listen. All have the ability; it simply must be developed and, like anything else, it can only come through the doing. You must exercise that ability and build it until it is strong—if you will, you must do your spiritual aerobics!

Let us bring this writing to a close. Thank you for your attentiveness and your stamina. Keep your heart joyous and be of good cheer, little ones. Know that God is ever with you in these times of tribulation and allow your Light to shine forth in Truth unto your darkened world.

Soltec to clear. Salu.

the Dispersion, although it undoubtedly gained impetus through the later activity of the Neo-platonists.

The seven planetary governors came to be associated with various angels, etc. As the system evolved, Michael came to be associated with the Sun and was called the "Hidden God of Israel", according to "The Secret Tradition in Israel". The ideas involved are akin to those in the Zohar and/or Cabala—not the Old Testament (at least as we know it). The Zohar and Cabala are of much later origin than the Old Testament and do not pretend to be "words of God."

Theodore Herzl was in favor of placing seven stars on the flag of the new Zionist state of Israel—depicting, he said, "the seven working hours in a day". His suggestion regarding the stars was used temporarily, but did not become a part of the present flag. The use of the six-pointed star (hexagram) was adopted by the Zionist Organization (of which Herzl was the leader) in 1897.

The term "Magen David" or "shield of David," is reported in Jewish sources to be earlier than its application to the hexagram and occurs as a designation of God—similar to the expression "shield of Abraham." Does that mean that, to the Zionists, the symbol of the six-pointed star represents God? It is not clear.

"Magen David Adom" was the name given to the red symbol used by the Jews in place of the Red Cross. The originator of this symbol, and its date, were not given. The organization equating with the Red Cross in Israel is still called the Magen David Adom.

The history of the hexagram found in the Encyclopedia Judaica, The Jewish Encyclopedia, and other Jewish sources goes back to King Solomon. According to those accounts, Solomon had a seal ring, known as the "Seal of Solomon," which he used to control the demons in building the first temple! There is a substantial amount of pseudographic (and other) writings regarding this activity of Solomon. The story of the "Seal of Solomon" was first given out by Arabic sources (according to some) in the stories of Sinbad The Sailor. The seal itself has been represented as both the five-pointed and the six-pointed star. It was said to have adorned the drinking cups of the sailors (of piracy fame).

The symbol of the six-pointed star has also been incorporated in Masonic dogma, according to Albert Pike and Mackey. It was stated at first, by Pike, in Morals and Dogma, that the symbol was first found in India. Several years later, when Mackey wrote his History of Freemasonry, he stated that the symbol is a "Mason's Mark". One Jewish source said "the symbol had far more usage outside Israel than within and sees no historical, Talmudic or meaningful association of it with the people of Israel."

Nora's Research Corner

THE MAGEN DAVID AND THE SYMBOLS OF ISRAEL

(Part I of A Series)

The earliest symbols, according to the Biblical accounts of the Twelve Tribes of Israel, would have to be the flags of the individual tribes—each of a different color and with a different symbol. The fact, according to Biblical accounts, that a split occurred among the tribes and that the Tribe of Judah became the recognized group associated with the religion of the Pentateuch (or Torah, the first five books of the Old Testament), would mean that Judah's symbol, the Lion, should carry the greatest significance to those who now claim to be Judaists, if indeed they do follow Old Testament symbology.

But no—it did not. Neither were the symbols of any of the other tribes used for the new state of Israel. These symbols had been acquired through each tribe's association and the descriptions of their attributes in the Old Testament accounts. In fact, it was said of Judah that "the scepter would not fall from his hands until Messiah came"—a scripture long quoted in Israel.

If there were any strong discussions over the use of Judah's Flag for the new state of Israel, it was not voiced in the media. (If you look up "Judah" in the Encyclopedia Judaica, you will see him pictured as a dwarf! The implications of this must be significant to those who consider themselves "true Judaists," as well as to those who think that Zionism is synonymous with Judaism.)

The next symbol, which has had much use in the culture of Judaism, is the tablets of the Law, or later, parchment scrolls. These Tablets would be representative of a people of the Law, and/or of the "Book". But no—these symbols also were bypassed.

Another symbol in much use by the Judaist has been the seven-branched candelabra, called the Menorah, and presently a symbol of the new Zionist State of Israel, although not their flag. Accounts of the candelabra first occurred, we are told, when David was instructed in the preparation of the Tabernacle in the wilderness for the Lord.

I did some research on the present use of the Menorah. Surprisingly, it appears there have been candelabrum with seven, eight, nine and ten candleholders in use by various ones—leaving the meaning of their use rather vague unless the intent now is a "festival of lights", as someone has said, and which may be the case with many people.

There is also the fact that a "festival of lights" is performed each year at the time of the eight days of Hanukkah (November-December), to celebrate the victory of the Maccabees (prior to Jesus' time). There are several ways of performing this festival, some light one candle each day until all are lit, some light them all and extinguish one as each day passes, etc. In any event, the use of the seven-branched candlestick has not been consistent, as it appears it would require eight for Hanukkah.

In addition a "Hebrew tradition" equates the seven-branched candlestick with the "seven planetary rulers"—an idea akin to the "seven archons", or "seven stars" and/or "seven wise men" of some Greek philosophers and the Neo-platonists. I was very much surprised to locate this information. The original "seven planetary rulers" are: the Sun, the Moon, Venus, Jupiter, Mars, Neptune and Saturn. This "Hebrew tradition" goes back probably at least to the use of astrology in Judah before

According to Jewish sources the first use of the red, six-pointed star was in a flag presented to the Synagogue of Prague by Charles IV, the King of France, in 1254 A. D. The account includes no information on the purpose of the gift or its appropriateness as a representative symbol of the Jews in Prague. Later, it is stated a rabbi, R. Mordecai Meisel, in 1592, requested and was given permission to use the flag in his synagogue. Still later it is said the aristocratic (and banking) families of Montefiore and Rothschild (who are related by marriage) incorporated the symbol in their family coat-of-arms, further promoting its use.

Beyond that, it appears the symbol has a more personal association with the house of Rothschild. There are several accounts of the red sign on their house in the ghetto at Frankfort-on-Main, Germany. The houses in the ghetto did not use numbers at the time. The family was identified in 1563 as "the house with the red sign" (Rot-Schild, that is "red sign" or "red shield"). When the family moved, the sign went with them. Prior to Mayer Amschel Rothschild (1743-1812), Jewish names were not standardized as to use. A son might bear a different surname from his father, etc. Mayer adopted the family name of Rothschild.

From the foregoing it appears that the promotion of the "Magen David Adom" (or Red Shield) had a great deal to do with the house of Rothschild. At the time of the decision to use the six-pointed star (or two interlaced triangles) in the Zionist flag of Israel, it was said that the symbol was of "long association with the people of Israel."

Because the red, five-pointed star, was originally a "symbol of Zionism and Jewry" (according to a quote by Mr. M. Cohan on page 295 in the book World Revolution, by Nesta Webster) I add information on the red, five-pointed star. It is reported in Ms. Webster's book that the term "red Jew" originated from the slightly red skin of some of the Mongolian races who had accepted Judaism. However, the term took on other connotations in the Bolshevik revolution. The following are quoted excerpts from Nesta Webster's work:

"At the outbreak of the March revolution of 1917 the Bolsheviks were, however, completely in the minority amongst the various revolutionary groups — a fact frankly admitted by the Bolsheviks themselves (according to Trotsky, The History of the Russian Revolution to Brest-Litovsk (Allen Unwin, page 62). A report on the White Paper on Bolshevism asserts that 90 percent of the population were in favour of the monarchy (date of October 14, 1918) — and it was only by a course of systematic deception, and finally by force of arms, that the party which might be described in Bakunin's words, "the German-Jew Company," the "red bureaucracy", succeeded in establishing its domination. Such popularity as it had achieved had been won by the old method of the conspiracy — promising one thing and doing precisely the opposite. Thus according to the word of command of the Secret Societies — "Constitution" — the Bolsheviks had clamored for a Constituent Assembly, and their first act was to dissolve the assembly elected by Universal suffrage; exploiting the war-weariness of the troops they had promised the people immediate peace, and having by these means created disaffection first in the Navy, then in the First Army, and finally throughout all of the troops, they inaugurated a regime that could only exist on warfare and of which the whole policy is aggressive militarism; they had promised the peasants the land they coveted, and then denied them the right to own the crops they grew on it."

"The Bolshevik revolution has in fact followed out the code of Weishaupt in every point — the abolition of monarchy, abolition of patriotism, abolition of private property and of inheritance, abolition of marriage and morality, and abolition of all religion."

Page 295

Quoted from The Communist, a newspaper published in Kharkoff (number for April 12, 1919), "we find Mr. M. Cohan boasting that,....without exaggeration, it may be said that the great Russian social revolution was indeed accomplished by the hands of the Jews....It is true that there are no Jews in the ranks of the Red Army as far as privates are concerned, but in the committees and in Soviet organizations, as Commissars, the Jews are gallantly leading the masses of the Russian proletariat to victory....The symbol of Jewry, which for centuries has struggled against capitalism, has become the symbol of the Russian proletariat, which can be seen even in the fact of the adoption of the Red five-pointed star, which in former times, as it is well known, was the symbol of Zionism and Jewry." A note at the bottom of page 295 indicates the above newspaper article was "quoted from the American edition of The Protocols, pg. 88." [For those of you who are unaware of it, the red five-pointed star is still (1992) on the red flag of Russia. Also, a red flag has always been used as a warning. During the days of pirates it meant they would "give no quarter" — meaning they would fight to the death!]

Hatonn has indicated that the first use of the blue, six-pointed star in a flag was by David Alroy, a Khazarian Jew and psuedo-messiah of the 12th century whose messianic enterprise failed. His story was written-up as fiction by Benjamin Disraeli, between 1831 and 1839. It is titled, "The Young Duke, Contorinie Fleming, The Wondrous Tale of Alroy." Disraeli was a Jew whose grandfather moved from Venice to England to engage in commerce. The family was much involved in political as well as financial activity in England. Disraeli is also known as the Earl of Beaconsfield. This is the same Earl of Beaconsfield who wrote and carried out England's policy during the Crimean conflicts. It was a "failed" policy for England according to historians. Was it also a "failed" policy for the Khazars? The historians do not tell us.

Very little is known about Alroy. The chief source is the traveler, Benjamin Tudela, Alroy's contemporary. Alroy's agitation was apparently local. He raised a following and stormed the citadel of his home town. He was assassinated following his defeat and thought to have been killed by his father-in-law (AKA ALRUI) (according to The Encyclopedia of Jewish Knowledge). According to Arthur Koestler in his book, The Thirteenth Tribe, "the rabbinical hierarchy in Baghdad took a hostile attitude towards Alroy and threatened him with a ban."

Also, according to one theory, noted by Koestler, the six-pointed "shield of David", which adorns the modern Israeli flag, started to become a national symbol with David Alroy's crusade." Before this it had been "mainly a decorative motif or a magical emblem" as quoted from Baron, "Long used interchangeably with the pentagram or the "Seal of Solomon", it was attributed to David in mystic and ethical German writings from the 13th Century on." (Underlining mine - Nora.)

It is not clear to me whether the current intent is to identify the blue, six-pointed star as the Shield of David Alroy or David, father of Solomon. There is no mention in any sources available to me of the "Seal of Solomon" having originated with "King David". Therefore it appears that the blue, six-pointed star is essentially a Khazarian "Jewish" symbol, or has become one.

It also appears that the symbols of the earlier, "Old Testament Hebrews" have been eclipsed. In addition, the name, Contorini Fleming, given to David Alroy by Disraeli, indicates that Alroy originated with the Dutch or Belgium group of Khazars (Goths). It is possible the Zionists do recognize Alroy as a descendent of the "House of David" which would be difficult to prove. Nevertheless there is a great deal of information pointing to this possibility.]

When the final choice was made for the present flag of Israel (a blue six-pointed star on a white background with a blue band at the top and bottom edge of the flag), it had already been used by a Zionist group led by David Wolfson in the United States. David Wolfson was instrumental in seeing that the flag took its present form.

The Encyclopedia Judaica reports that the shape of the flag and its colors were "long associated with the tallith (prayer shawl), and therefore best represented the people of Israel". Any opposition to its use was apparently either overcome or suppressed. (I could find no information about the use of the symbol on prayer shawls, who "authorized" it, or who manufactured the shawls. It would be fair to assume that the "Sanhedrin" would make such decisions.)

The two blue bands on the flag (according to Commander Hatonn) are symbols of the Euphrates and Nile Rivers. Many who are directing the development of Israel will only be satisfied when the state of Israel encompasses all of the area between these two rivers. These "directors" believe, or say they believe, the Biblical account which says God "gave" the area to Abraham as a perpetual inheritance. It is strange that they are "taking" the land by force and few of "Abraham's" people now occupy the State of Israel. The greater percentage of the people are Ashkenazi Jews—people of Japheth, according to Biblical accounts.

In researching the red shield in the book Baron James, The Rise of the French Rothschilds, by their relative, Anka Muhlstein, I noticed the elaborate coat-of-arms depicted on the back of the fly-cover of the book. It bears no red shield but is closely akin to the symbol of Great Britain shown in the book, Symbols of the Nations, by A. Guy and Janet Barker Hope. There is a Lion and a Unicorn, and much more, of course. The Unicorn with the one horn, as shown in the British symbol, has a chain on it. The Unicorn of the Rothschilds does not.

It is well to keep in mind when considering that "gift" of the flag by Charles IV, King of France, with the red six-pointed star to the synagogue in Prague (now Czechoslovakia and formerly known as Bohemia) that the blood line of the Saxon Kings (including France) has also remained in the English Monarchy since the Saxon invasions of Great Britain in the 5th century. Also, the Jewish Financiers have been the financial counsellors of most monarchs since before the Dispersion from Palestine. The "gift" of Charles IV, in other words, may not have been a spontaneous act. One wonders at the interchangeableness of the five and six-pointed stars.

It was England that had Palestine as a protectorate before it was partitioned to allow Israel a new state. The first action taken by the English government after the decision to partition Palestine was to send a letter to Rothschild advising him of the decision. (See material on the "Balfour Agreement" in the Encyclopedia Judaica and The Jewish Encyclopedia.)

There is a progressive pattern in all this having to do with magical control of demons, and world control. The parts of the pattern available to us at this point, as far as symbols go, include:

1. Solomon's magical gold ring of the five and/or six pointed, single star (or the pentagram and hexagram). Solomon, according to Biblical accounts, was an exceedingly wealthy despot, and King of Israel after David, about the year 1,000 B.C.

2. David Alroy's use of the single Blue, six-pointed star on a white flag in the 12th Century and written about by Disraeli, 1831-1839 A.D. Alroy lived in the area around Baghdad. The name, Alroy, may have been taken from the town he lived in Alruis.

3. The King of France's presentation of the Red six-pointed star to the "Jews" of Prague in 1254 A.D., followed by Rabbi Meisel's request to use it in his synagogue in 1592 A.D. (Remember, the "King of France" was of a long line of the "upper class".)

4. The Red, six-pointed star being used as a sign on the house of Rothschild from 1563 A.D.

5. The Blue, six pointed star on a white field being accepted as their flag by the Zionists, 1897 A.D.. (The seven stars were also under consideration for this flag "seven-planetary rulers".) The blue and white colors are the favorites of the barbarians, and are now the colors of the United Nations.

6. The incorporation of the five and six-pointed stars in the symbols of Masonry, and called "Mason's Marks" by Albert Mackey in his Encyclopedia of Masonry, 1898 A.D. (about the same time that the Zionist organization chose its flag).

7. The single, Red five-pointed star being the chosen symbol of the "Jews" in the Bolshevik Revolution in Russia, 1917 A.D. This was when Russia came under Communist control.

Obviously, the colors gold, blue, red, and white are favorites of the "Jews". Of course, they are also appreciated by others. My point is simply that these colors must be important and meaningful (symbolically) to the Zionists in particular, as applied to both the five- and six-pointed star, because of the above historical facts. It does not mean that all of the "Jews" agree on the matter, or that the symbols were chosen by all of them.

Part II of this series will take up the subject of the "Eagle With the Red Tail", and will have more to say about the use of the pentagrams and hexagrams of the Communists-Zionists-Bolsheviks.

On the next page is a map taken from a booklet titled Jewish Conspiracy and the Muslim World, with complete text of The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion, printed by the Social Reform Society, P.O. Box 4850, Kuwait. No date of publication is given. Dates mentioned in the Introduction include comments made in 1951. Therefore this material must have been published since 1951.

The map itself shows the next step in the Communist-Zionist-Masonic plan, as laid forth in the booklet, which is taken from an original report on a secret meeting of the "Elders of Zion". The original report was written in 1905. Massive attempts have been made to keep it from the public. Additional copies were made and translated into English at the time of the Bolshevik Revolution in Russia (1917). This was when the Muslim world began to see "the handwriting on the wall" (i.e., the next stage of the "snake's" plan was the takeover of the area of Palestine). Who can deny that this stage of the plan is almost completed? The map shows clearly that the Zionist plan is to include all the land between the Rivers Euphrates and Nile, as symbolized on the Zionist flag.

The triangles decorating the "snake" are the single triangles, which, when interlaced, become the six-pointed star of Zionism.

The progress of this "snake" has gone far beyond the Muslim world. In fact, it is now "embracing" America. This symbolism of the snake with the "delta" design is now being flashed on television! It is a sinuous, horizontal movement in green light with faint triangular designs along it. This representation has been shown during "light" shows, especially when "heavy metal" or "rock and roll" music is played.

Why is the symbolism of the snake important? In our times it has come to represent the adversary. Also, Commander Hatonn has said many times that the adversary and his cohorts call themselves "the snake people". Beyond that, the leader of the Khazars is known as the "KHAN".

Dictionary interpretations have said that "KHAN" means "Prince" in the Tatar language. I recently found a much earlier interpretation—from the land of Mu: "Khan" means serpent!! There is a great deal more to discuss on this subject which must wait. For now I shall be content to tell you that the above information was discovered about 1880 A.D. among some ancient Naacal tablets in India by Col. James Churchward, who wrote on the subject in his book The Lost Continent of Mu. Mr. Churchward states that the "Naacals left Burma about 15,000 years ago".

The symbol of the unadorned snake simply meant "water" to the people of Mu. It has since become greatly corrupted and debased by later priests. Further, that the Naacals came from Burma is proof that the original "Vedas" did not come from the "Indo-Iranian plateau" as those proponents of the "Aryan languages" would have us believe. The teachings in the Naacal tablets prove that the later teachings of the Brahmins (who were the original "Aryans" according to the philologists) are indeed a CORRUPTION of the earlier writings. (I am greatly indebted to a friend who brought Churchward's writings to my attention, and to Commander Hatonn who steered us both towards the study of "Mu", also known as the former continent of Lemuria). Further, the circle within a six-pointed star is a symbol of the "Motherland of Mu".

Please note in the map that the "snakeline" is halfway between Jerusalem and Somalia. Also, Baghdad is within the snake's circle. There are now U.N. troops in both of these areas, the Muslims are pushing for a "Holy War", and Israel continues to arm while remaining uncooperative.

Esu told the people, when he was here about 2,000 years ago, that a sign of the end time would be: "And when ye shall see Jerusalem encompassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh." (Luke 21:20)

The Divine Plan, Part XI:

At A Grand Crossroads

1/11/93 MOSES

Greetings to each of you this morning. It is I, Moses, and we shall diverge this morning somewhat to speak of matters which are of concern to some of you. For you have the minds working overtime with thoughts of just who is this one, Rosah, and from under what brick did she crawl? Well, the same question could be asked for any and every one of you. But, alas, this is not the consideration here.

Let us take but one moment and look at the fact that each of you is an ENERGY BEING visiting a physical form. If you have learned a thing about your physical self and physical world, you should know by now that THE PHYSICAL IS HERE TODAY AND GONE THE MORROW. What is remaining is the spiritual/energy part of yourself which is created to be ETERNAL. THIS IS CALLED THE SOUL. Now, you find yourselves in physical form yet within the Earth sphere for you have DEBTS to settle therein. There are few among you, who are therein, who come as volunteers with but the desire to be of service in this, the end of the Earth cycle as you know the same to be. These are on missions of service...goodwill. The end of the Earth? Nay, for it is only the end of a cycle, a circle, which is about to have closure.

Let us look at that which is called a HAPPENING. A HAPPENING, or EVENT, occurs when one or more energy lines cross, or come in contact. These may cross at 90 degrees or be as a head-on collision or cross at many other varying degrees, with varying speeds or forces. There may be numerous energy lines to cross or collide at the same time which may COMPOUND THE IMPACT. THE NATURE OF GOD'S WORKS IS THE INTERPLAY OF ENERGIES, THIS INTERPLAY BEING PREDICTABLE AND SYSTEMATIC, GOVERNED BY LAWS.

Now, as regards each of you. You are designed and created to be CO-CREATORS with God. Your actions are given to a FREE WILL and are therefore created of you, with outside forces coming to interact bringing closure or the lack of. It is the constant decision-making of each of you which brings LIGHT or ABSENCE of LIGHT to your soul. Many of you act in IGNORANCE and go about with a TRIAL and ERROR attitude. It is in this manner that you bring about much darkness and commit many acts in stupidity which will require many generations to settle. THESE ARE DEBTS INCURRED AGAINST YOUR BRETHERN OR YOUR VERY SELF. You are left with a created darkness unto which you must bring A HEALING LIGHT OF GOD.

PRECIOUS CHILDREN, THE VERY WORST THING ANY OF YOU CAN DO IS TO TAKE AWAY THE FREE WILL OF ANOTHER TO ACT FOR SELF. FOR YOU NOT ONLY STOP YOUR OWN SPIRITUAL EVOLUTION, YOU STOP THE SPIRITUAL EVOLUTION OF ANOTHER. You, who do the same, will be a long while in settling what you have done in this nature.

And you might say, "WHAT GOES AROUND COMES AROUND." Nay, for tis not the case. In other words, if I slap you, tis not true that the very worst thing which might happen to me is to be slapped in likewise manner. IT IS NOT, THUSLY, AN EYE FOR AN EYE AND A TOOTH FOR A TOOTH. A simple act, a DESTRUCTIVE SEED, once planted potentially impacts in all directions.

Let us share with you what I have shared previously with Rosah. For example, suppose a careless and uncaring driver of a vehicle came along one morning and ran across the dog of a small child, immediately killing the dog. This same driver sped away in a cold and heartless manner, never stopping to attend to what he had done. It was early morning and the mother of the small child was about ready to leave to go to work. The young child was greatly saddened, to the point of grief, as the dog was a friend and companion, the child being without sibling. The mother of this child would have to call in to work and would then be late.

Now, at the workplace, there was but one who was familiar with the nature of the accounts and how the same were programmed into various electronic devices. The owner of the business had entrusted the same to this one office manager, and this had been a fairly safe procedure until this day. Now, however, the assistant to the office manager was on vacation and there was none other to operate the machinery and this spelled trouble. For there were many trucks ready to be loaded with produce to be shipped to many places around the country. Truckers sat on "the clock", as you would say. The produce was at risk of spoilage as time passed. It was a Monday morning and many produce suppliers in many states were waiting for the produce to supply schools, hospitals, restaurants, grocery stores and the like. Thousands upon thousands of consumers were waiting to be fed. Thousands upon thousands of dollars had been spent to purchase the produce. Hundreds of dollars were being spent as the truckers were being paid for doing NOTHING. This is not to mention the fact that THERE WAS NOW ONE GRAVELY HEART-BROKEN CHILD, WHO HAD LOST A DEAREST FRIEND AND COMPANION. This child would suffer great sadness and loss in the days to come.

So, is one SMALL INFRACTION just one SMALL INFRACTION? Will you ever know the results of just one harmful deed? Can any of you see, hear or know of just how you have impacted on your environment by just one negative action? So just what is due the one who carelessly ran over the child's dog? If the one who ran over the dog had stopped, and offered to buy another dog or to make amends in every way possible, would the situation have been helped? Well, perhaps not in terms of much of the loss in terms of dollars. But the energies, the negative energies associated around the situation might have been balanced to a degree in the thinking of the child and the mother. ANGER MAY HAVE BEEN REPLACED WITH LOVE AND COMPASSION. Then, the mother might have portrayed the same in a different manner to the owner, who might have responded in a different manner to those up and down the line. For you must remember, it is NEGATIVE WHICH BUILDS UPON NEGATIVE WHEN TENDED, AND POSITIVE WHICH BUILDS UPON POSITIVE WHEN TENDED. So it is that LIKE GROWS LIKE.

So, you have a very brief look at a chain reaction set into place by one careless act. In this case, who was responsible for the planting of the first seed? Well, the one who ran over the dog. Did the same have any idea that he was responsible for such? NO, MOST LIKELY NOT. Was he interested? Most likely not. Is he accountable? Most definitely. Will he have to settle his debt? Most certainly. Well, you might say, "My goodness, he ONLY ran over a dog."

ONLY A DOG! Precious Ones, turn the word, dog, around, and what do you get? GOD. ARE NOT THE LEAST THE GREATEST AND THE GREATEST THE LEAST? Precious ones, you are to love ALL CREATIONS of the Creator. How can you love the Creator and not the created?

Now, here comes a clincher. Many of you say, "Well, I have seen such and such and they never paid!" or, "I just don't believe that. Look at so and so. He has never had to pay." Perhaps not that you could see. For you are as the one who ran over the dog. You have been given only a very small portion of the picture. What goes on outside your line of vision? And what happens down the line? You will most likely not be there to see, but you can be assured of one thing...that boomerang which you toss out as but one comes home to you with a family. Whether the family returns with gifts or with debts remains up to you. The rich with the poor...all receive according to their works. And if the works be good, even unto the thoughts (which are things), then oh how great the peace and the joy of the one who does good. FOR ALL IS RECORDED AND YOU WILL SETTLE YOUR DEBTS, IF NOT IN THIS LIFE, THEN IN LIVES TO COME. Yea, for it is so.

Precious Children, you have been given laws and a manner in which to live, that you might lessen your own suffering and that of those around you. These laws are often perverted and thrown upon you as diluted truths or lies, and you absorb and live the same as TRUTH. (Are you any less accountable?) You go in ignorance and extend your own suffering. This goes on life after life, millennia after millennia. FOR, THE EASY WAY IS TO BELIEVE THE FOLLOWERS OF DARKNESS WHOSE PLANS HAVE NEVER BEEN BUT TO ENSLAVE YOU, TO TAKE AWAY YOUR FREE WILL.

This, Precious Ones, is exactly where you stand at the moment with the SATANIC ONE WORLD GOVERNMENT, and you are on the precipice of falling into slavery, where those who LORD OVER YOU will do everything within their power TO TAKE AWAY YOUR RIGHT TO FREE WILL. Precious Ones, the attitude of most of you is BEYOND ASTOUNDING. Many of you have large families with NUMEROUS CHILDREN in your care AND YOU WILL NOT SO MUCH AS RAISE A VOICE OR DO ONE THING TO STOP THE ADVANCES OF SATAN UPON YOU. DO THOSE OF YOU NOT THINK YOU HAVE A COLLECTIVE INDEBTEDNESS TO ACT FOR THE GOOD OF YOUR SOCIETY TO RETAIN YOUR FREEDOMS? What is with you that you continue with such blatant DISREGARD for the FREEDOMS OF EACH OF YOU? YET, THERE ARE LARGE NUMBERS OF YOU WHO HAVE THE WHEREWITHAL, FINANCIALLY, TO ACT, TO GET INVOLVED AND TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE. YET, YOU

WILL NOT. LET IT BE KNOWN THAT YOU WHO ADHERE TO SUCH DESERVE TO CONTINUE TO LIVE IN THE DARKNESS WHICH FAST BEFALLS YOU.

Many of you cry, "Well, I follow the teachings of the church." Woe, unto you. For you are following the teachings of the antichrist. The antichrist would have the very last one of you continue to SLEEP, losing the very last one of your GOD-GIVEN freedoms. But you would not know the difference. For, you will only do that which you are so told. You leave it all to prayer. Well, prayer is good and fine. You are told to "PRAY ALWAYS", but PRAYER is only half of the equation. For it is the EXPRESSIVE end of the continuum. WHAT OF THE RECEPTIVE END? What is the other half? Just how many of you are on the RECEIVING END? Nay, not the grandest numbers of you. FOR YOU WAIT FOR OTHERS TO FEED YOU, AND THIS IS ONE DANGEROUS SITUATION. FOR, JUST WHO IS DOING THE FEEDING? If those feeding you are telling you NOT to get INVOLVED, you can bet you are being FED the poison which will LEAD to your very own destruction. FOR THE VERY BET OF SATAN, HIMSELF, IS THAT YOU AS A COLLECTIVE, LAZY BUNCH WILL SIT IDLY BY AND DO NOTHING.

YOU CATHOLICS WHO ARE LOOKING FOR A SPLIT IN YOUR CHURCH. WELL, LOOK NO MORE. SOME OF YOU FINALLY WOKE UP AND REALIZED WHO IS RUNNING THE SHOW FROM AMONG YOUR VERY TOP ECHELONS. Some of you finally drew the line to the invasion of, and leadership by, the dark forces. Yes, there is a "new" kind of thinking among certain select ones of you. Blessings unto you, for you, too, are crawling from beneath the rocks of antichrist oppression. For there are those among you who are receiving direct revelations and your sleepy eyes and ears are awakening to Truths long hidden from you.

What is the split? Well, this is the split...THOSE WHO ARE AWAKENING TO TRUTH AND THOSE WHO REFUSE TO AWAKEN. But, those of you who are awakening have forgotten one point. WHY ARE YOU AWAKENING? FOR WHAT PURPOSE? WELL, MOST CERTAINLY, YOU ARE AWAKENING TO TRUTH, TO FREEDOM. FORGET NOT THE PRICE OF FREEDOM, AND THAT THE POWERS THAT BE, THE ONES IN CONTROL OF YOUR WORLD HAVE DESIGNS TO RIP FROM YOU YOUR MOST CHERISHED FREEDOM.....YOUR FREEDOM TO WORSHIP AS YOU VERY WELL PLEASE. FOR THE PLAN OF SATAN IS A ONE WORLD GOVERNMENT AND A ONE WORLD RELIGION, AND THOSE WHO WILL NOT BOW TO SATAN AND TAKE AN OATH TO WORSHIP SATAN AND TO "RECEIVE THE MARK OF THE BEAST" MUST GO—AND THIS MEANS YOU, YOU AND

YOU! FOR THIS IS THE DESIGN OF THE COMMUNIST/SATANIC ONE WORLD GOVERNMENT.

You, all of you, as children of the Creator had best awaken to the fact that the days of division and separation among yourselves had best come to a halt. YOU ARE ALL FROM THE SAME SOURCE AND YOU ARE ALL FIGHTING THE COMMON ENEMY. YOU HAD BEST BE SETTING ASIDE YOUR DIFFERENCES, YOU EGOS, AND UNITE FOR THE COMMON GOOD.

Precious Child, we have digressed somewhat. It was my desire to tell the readers something about the rock from under which you emerged. Yea, for it was one large and solid rock of fear and confusion and isolation. For it was not so much that you had chased the dark side. Nay. This was not the case. But that you withdrew to the point of isolation from all sources such that you became a recluse and alcoholic.

But Rosah's decision to withdraw, to leave your sphere was not to be, for she had one commitment, one promise to attend to. She had the debt of leadership. And while she would have preferred to remain a coward, forever hidden away, twas not for her to do. Messengers were sent upon her to awaken her to her mission and she turned slowly inward to renew her acquaintances, which were never far away, except in her very own thinking.

Was the same an easy task? No, indeed, for it was at one point that she lived as homeless and slept in a car. Her fault? No. For, she was one day with job and the next day without a means to survive. And through no fault of her own. And were it not for a homeless shelter, for which she had once played a piano, she might not have survived. For it was the director of this shelter who loaned her monies to get by. Who is she? Well, she is, as you, a composite of all experiences.

Why is it that she is now the one who speaks for Moses? Well, it was at another time and place that she learned to do so and now is only in the recalling. For she once walked among you at another time as Aaron, my brother. Is she Aaron? Yes and No. For she is as you are, a composite. And she says, well, yea, how about the gold idols? What of it? Is she interested in gold this day? No. Is she interested in the material this day? Well, yes, for so much of the same is needed to survive. There is no greater desire within the heart of Rosah save it be to serve and to do the will of one Holy Creator....to work in the service of her fellow man. How long has this one KNOWN me? WELL, FAR BEYOND YOUR VERY THINKING, OR HER VERY OWN, FOR THAT MATTER.

THE POINT IS THAT WHEN TWO OR MORE LINES CROSS, THE ENERGY IS BROUGHT TO BEAR FOR CERTAIN HAPPENINGS TO OCCUR. WHETHER THE SAME OCCURS IS TO A GREAT DEGREE DEPENDENT UPON THE FREE WILL OF EACH OF YOU. WELL, THE LINES HAVE CROSSED FOR ROSAH, AND SHE HAS REMEMBERED TO COME TO SERVE IN THE MANNER IN WHICH SHE HAD AGREED TO SERVE LONG AGO.

For she too has a vested interest in this country. She was among your Founding Fathers and has an incredible love and loyalty to this, the United States of America. She once walked as William Penn. And wishes me to stop, for the revelation of the same is disquieting to her. And she interjects, "Well, what about all the lives spent groveling?" Well, tis TRUTH. WHAT ABOUT THE TIME SPENT groveling in this one? ALL COMES FULL CIRCLE, PRECIOUS ONES. LOOK NOT UPON ONE'S FACE AND THINK YOU TO KNOW HIS DESTINY. YOU ARE GIVEN TO SEE AND KNOW A MERE SPECK AND WHAT YOU SEE AND SWEAR TO BE TRUTH MAY BE NO MORE THAN A LIE. FOR MANY ARE CALLED, BUT FEW REMAIN AS CHOSEN. AND, SO IT IS.

THOSE WHO FOUGHT IN THE FOUNDING OF THESE UNITED STATES ARE BACK IN GRAND NUMBERS, AND IT MATTERS NOT THAT YOU DO NOT SEE, HEAR OR BELIEVE. FOR THESE SAME ONES ARE UNITING TO BRING YOU BACK FROM THE BRINK OF SLAVERY. JUST REMEMBER THE STORY OF THE BOY WITH THE DOG. FOR, TIS WHERE EACH OF YOU FALLS. FOR YOU CANNOT SEE OR KNOW THE REPERCUSSIONS OF ONE SMALL ACT, NOR ARE YOU MEANT TO. For, in time all is both seen and known.

But, now comes PUT-UP OR SHUT-UP TIME. Which are you going to do? For if the greatest numbers of you choose to SHUT-UP, this might be your sentence for many ages into the FUTURE. If, on the other hand, you PUT UP your voices, your actions for causes of TRUTH AND FREEDOM, many of you will start chain reactions which will be literally FELT around the globe. FOR YOU ARE AT A GRAND CROSSROADS WHERE MANY, MANY FORCES ARE BEING BROUGHT TO BEAR AND THE TIME OF LEARNING IS EVER SO GRAND. I am Moses. Blessings unto each of you. There are literally millions of us here within your very midst beyond the field of vision. Call upon us often for guidance. AND work, for the night is upon you. Alas, remember, tis the darkest just before dawn. AND TIS DARKNESS WHICH HAS FALLEN IN UPON YOU. I am Moses.

Wealth is a weak anchor, and glory cannot support a man; this is the law of God, that virtue only is firm, and cannot be shaken by a tempest.

Then there was a war in Heaven; Michael and the Angels under His command fought the Dragon and his hosts of fallen angels. And the Dragon lost the battle and was forced from Heaven. This great Dragon—the ancient serpent called the devil, or Satan, the one deceiving the whole world—was thrown down onto the Earth with all his army.

Then I heard a loud voice shouting across the Heavens, "It has happened at last! God's salvation and the power and the rule, and the authority of His Christ are finally here; for the Accuser of our brothers has been thrown down from Heaven ONTO EARTH—he accused them day and night before our God.....But woe to you people of the world, for the devil has come down to you in great anger, knowing that he has little time." (Excerpted from The Revelation, The Living Bible, Reference Edition: Rev. 12.)

(Excerpt, Rev. 21:1-3): Then I saw a new Earth (with no oceans!) and a new sky, for the present Earth and sky had disappeared. And I, John, saw the Holy City, the new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of Heaven. It was a glorious sight, beautiful as a bride at her wedding.

(Excerpt, Rev. 22:3): There shall be nothing in the city which is evil; for the throne of God of the Lamb will be there, and His servants will worship Him. And they shall see His face; and His name shall be written on their foreheads. And there will be no night there—no need for lamps or sun—for the Lord God will be their light; and they shall reign forever and ever.

Then the Angel said to me, "These words are trustworthy and true: 'I am coming soon!' God, who tells His prophets what the future holds, has sent His Angel to tell you this will happen soon. Blessed are those who believe and all else written in the scroll." [H: This "scroll" is NOT any of the so-called "Holy" books! All of the so-called "Holy" books bear tampering even unto the one in use at this writing—but it will suffice. I, with the Hosts, bring the Holy Scrolls and this be Truth whether or not ye like of it!]

I, John, saw and heard all these things, and fell down to worship the Angel who showed them to me; but again He said, "No, don't do anything like that. I, too, am a servant of Jesus as you are, and as your brothers the prophets are, as well as all those who heed the truth stated in this Book. Worship God alone."

Then he instructed me, "Do not seal up what you have written, for the time of fulfillment is near. And when that time comes, all doing wrong will do it more and more; the vile will become more vile; good men will be better; those who are holy will continue on in greater holiness."

"See, I am coming soon, and My reward is with Me, to pay EVERYONE ACCORDING TO THE DEEDS HE HAS DONE....."

May the Light of Holy God be with you as you sort of your journey path and purpose. Ours is to give you insight and avail you of that which has been and IS—that which has been changed and hidden from your eyes and consciousness in order to bring you down.

Each and every "thing" is as valid and "real" as that of another—it does not mean that the facts are either as presented to continue the charade of the Elite Serpent People—or good in revelation and purpose. It means that YOU MUST SEE BOTH SIDES AND DISCERN FOR SELVES AND JUDGE THE ACTIONS AND PRESENTATIONS FOR SELVES. WE ARE COME TO SHOW YOU THE WAY—NOT LIVE YOUR EXPERIENCE FOR YOU. WE OFFER—IT IS YOUR CHOICE WHETHER OR NOT TO ACCEPT THE GIFTS.

You are experiencing in a time of contradictions and confusion—but you are given that with which to sort and guide actions. I can only present the programs offered by the ones on various "bandwagons" and "snake oils" and you must go to the other lessons and guidelines from which you can easily discern actions for both security and privacy in waiting and sustaining. If you hop onto the enemy's wagon and hand over your own head to the Serpent—then ye have MADE YOUR CHOICE—EVEN IF IT BE TO REMAIN IGNORANT!

You are in an expression of pre-prepared programs, propaganda, little truth and nothing presented is for the purpose of YOUR freedom—only that movement into the pits of the Dragon. You CAN live in this world of pitfalls, programming and puppy-dog tales if you take within that which God is sending in this manner, and through the hands of brothers, unto you.

When ones of my own friends state that I present lies and half-truths—I suggest they most carefully LOOK AGAIN—FIRST WITHIN! Further, I suggest the reading and studying of our work be THOROUGH and not skimmed for content for, obviously, the WHOLE is not making it through if these be your conclusions. I am not come back unto this place with the Hosts of God and God Himself to delude, half-Truth or lie to you and I suggest that in current instances of confusion that it is not I who lacks discipline or Truth. It is one thing to effort to fool the people to protect egos and embarrassment—it is quite another to state the above accusations. If my work is now felt to be lies and half-Truths in many instances—then I would not burden these ones with my load for obviously their hearts are not in the task at hand—to spread that very word! IT CANNOT BE BOTH WAYS, DO YOU SEE? I often speak in riddles and parables—for I am not here to do your discerning and judging FOR YOU—anyone. I do not even discern or judge FOR MY SCRIBE! She must take the lessons, the presentations and discern and judge FOR SELF.

I would further state that accusations, response and actions made against another—are most often reflection of that which would reside in the intent and mind of the accuser. Would this mean that I am working with ones who lie and give half-truths? INDEED—are there other? When the created thwart and revolt and put themselves above the Creator and against the Creator—the Creator often attends the matter most thoroughly and with great finality—note “above citings”. Again, the lips may speak one thing but within the heart expression of intent lies the validity of any and EVERY instance of action or thought. If the actions and thoughts “fit”, then keep or remove the shoes but do not blame God for misfitting the feet! YOU no longer have time for the playing of little games regarding this passage and choices must be made—on both sides of the activities—you in choosing—I in responsibility unto the whole of the flock. So be it. May each expression be a guide to better choices. If a “thing” be presented unto you—handle it cautiously, follow the instructions for privacy and sovereignty in the Light and act or wisely “wait upon the Lord” for more insight.

If ye set yourself forth as THE God—ye shall as surely fall as the perceived cycles of the day. Further, when “Prideful Ego” leads the way—so shall come the fall. To place a brother in despair and loss for your own gain is to have done it unto God Himself. To cover thine own assets at the expense of another is indeed ill intent and the cycle will be almost immediate in return in kind. So be it, readers—may you each be gaining in wisdom. I do not come as a hap-hazard “teacher” from somewhere out there—I COME AS “THE” TEACHER AND “HEAD MASTER” OF THE COHANS THEMSELVES—I HAVE MY CREDENTIALS—SHOW ME YOURS!!

Good Police Officers Speak Out Our Constitution Reigns Supreme Consider The Case Of Motor Vehicles

SPECIAL POLICE OFFICER BULLETIN

AID & ABET Newsletter

by Officer Jack McLamb, Ret.

Constitutional Issues For Lawmen
NO. 11

U.S. COURTS CONFIRM:
"DRIVING A MOTOR VEHICLE" IS A RIGHT—
NOT GOVERNMENT PRIVILEGE

For many years professionals within the criminal justice system have acted upon the belief that traveling by motor vehicle upon the roadway was a privilege that was gained by a citizen only after approval by their respective state government in the form of the issuance of a permit or license to that particular individual.

Legislators, Police Officers and court officials are becoming aware that there are now court decisions that prove the fallacy of the legal opinion that "driving is a privilege and therefore requires government approval, i.e., a license". Some of these cases are:

Case #1 "Even the legislature has no power to deny to a citizen the right to travel upon the highway and transport his property in the ordinary course of his business or pleasure, though this right may be regulated in accordance with the public interest and convenience." Chicago Motor Coach v Chicago 169 NE 22

("Regulated" here means traffic safety enforcement, stop lights, signs, etc., NOT a privilege that requires permission, i.e., vehicle registration, etc.)

Case #2 "The right of the citizen to travel upon the public highways and to transport his property thereon, either by carriage or by automobile, is not a mere privilege which a city may prohibit or permit at will, but a common right which he has under the pursuit of happiness."

Thompson v Smith 154 SE 579

It could not be stated more conclusively that Citizens of the states have a right to travel, without approval or restriction, (license,) and that this right is protected under the U.S. Constitution. Here are other court decisions that expound the same facts:

Case #3 "The right to travel is a part of the liberty of which the citizens cannot be deprived without due process of law under the 5th Amendment." Kent v Dulles, 357 U.S. 116, 125

Case #4 "Undoubtedly the right of locomotion, the right to remove from one place to another according to inclination, is an attribute of personal liberty, and the right, ordinarily, of free transit from or through the territory of any State is a right secured by the 14th Amendment and by other provisions of the Constitution." Schactman v Dulles, 96 App. D.C. 287, 293.

FUNDAMENTAL RIGHT

As hard as it is for those of us in law enforcement to believe, there is no room for speculation in these court decisions. The American citizen does indeed have the inalienable right to use the roadways unrestricted in any manner as long as they are not damaging or violating property or rights of another.

Government, in requiring the people to file for drivers licenses, vehicle registrations, mandatory insurance, and demanding they stop for vehicle inspections, DUI/DWI roadblocks, etc., without question, are "restricting", and therefore violating, the Peoples common law right to travel.

Is this a new legal interpretation on this subject of the right to travel? Apparently not. The American Citizens and Lawmen Association in conjunction with The U.S. Federal Law Research Center are presently involved in studies in several areas involving questions on Constitutional Law. One of the many areas under review is the area of "Citizens right to travel." In an interview a spokesman states: "Upon researching this subject over many months, substantial case law has presented itself that completely substantiates the position that the 'right to travel unrestricted upon the nation's highways is and has always been a fundamental right of every citizen.'"

This means that the "beliefs and opinions" our state legislators, the courts, and those of us involved in the law enforcement profession have acted upon for years have been in error. Researchers armed with actual facts state that U.S. case law is overwhelming in determining that—to restrict, in any fashion, the movement of the individual American in the free exercise of their right to travel upon the roadways, (excluding "commerce" which the state legislatures are correct in regulating), is a serious breach of those freedoms secured by the U.S. Constitution, and most state constitutions, i.e., it is unlawful.

THE REVELATION THAT THE AMERICAN CITIZEN HAS ALWAYS HAD THE INALIENABLE RIGHT TO TRAVEL RAISES PROFOUND QUESTIONS TO THOSE WHO ARE INVOLVED IN MAKING AND ENFORCING STATE LAWS.

The first of such questions may very well be: If the States have been enforcing laws that are unconstitutional on their face, it would seem that there must be some way that a state can legally put restrictions, such as licensing requirements, mandatory insurance, vehicle registration, D.W.I. roadblocks, to name just a few, on a citizen's constitutionally protected right. Is that not so?

For the answer to this question let us look, once again, to the U.S. courts for a determination on this very issue.

The case of Hertado v California, 110 U.S. 516 states very plainly: "The State cannot diminish rights of the people."

"The assertion of federal rights, when plainly and reasonably made, is not to be defeated under the name of local practice." Davis v Wechsler 263 U.S. 22, 24

Would we not say that these judicial decisions are straight to the point—that there is no lawful method for government to put restrictions or limitations on rights belonging to the people?

Other cases are even more straight forward:

“Where rights secured by the Constitution are involved, there can be no rule making or legislation which would abrogate them.” Miranda v Arizona, 384 U.S. 436, 491.

“The claim and exercise of a constitutional right cannot be converted into a crime.” Miller v U.S. 230 F 2d 486, 489

“There can be no sanction or penalty imposed upon one because of this exercise of constitutional rights.” Sherer v Cullen, 481 F. 945 (There is no question that a citation/ticket issued by a Police Officer, for no drivers license, no current registration, no vehicle insurance, etc., which carries a fine or jail time, is a penalty or sanction, and is indeed “converting a Right into a crime.”)

We could go on, quoting court decision after court decision; however, in addition, the Constitution itself answers our question, “Can a government legally put restrictions on the rights of the American people at anytime, for any reason”? (Such as in this particular case—when the government believes it to be for the safety and welfare of the people.)

The answer is found in ARTICLE SIX of the U.S. Constitution:

“This Constitution, and the Laws of the United States which shall be made in Pursuance thereof;..shall be the supreme Law of the Land; and the Judges in every State shall be bound thereby, any Thing in the Constitution or Laws of any State to the Contrary not withstanding.” (This tells us that the U.S. Constitution is to be upheld over any state, county, or city laws that are in opposition to it.)

In the same Article it goes on to say just who it is within our governments that is bound by this Supreme Law:

“The Senators and Representatives before mentioned, and the Members of the several State Legislatures, and all executive and judicial Officers, both of the United States and of the several States, shall be bound by Oath or Affirmation, to support this Constitution.” ART. 6 U.S. CONST.

We know that Police Officers are a part of the Executive branch. We are “Executive Officers”.

Article 6 above, is called the SUPREMACY CLAUSE, and it clearly states that, under every circumstance, the above listed officials in these United States must hold this document’s tenets supreme over any other laws, regulations, or orders. Every U.S. Police Officer knows that they have sworn an oath to the people of our nation that we will not only protect their lives and property, but that we will uphold and protect their freedoms and rights under the Supreme laws of this nation, the U.S. Constitution.

In this regard then, we must agree that those within government that restrict a Citizen’s rights (such as restricting the peoples’ right to travel) are acting in violation of his or her oath of office and are actually committing a crime against such Citizens.

Here’s an interesting question. Is ignorance of these laws an excuse for such acts by officials?

If we are to follow the “letter of the law” (as we are sworn to do), this places officials that involve themselves in such unlawful acts in an unfavorable legal situation. For it is a felony and federal crime to violate or deprive citizens of their Constitutionally protected rights.

Our system of law dictates the fact that there are only two ways to legally remove a right belonging to the people. These are: (#1) by lawfully amending the Constitution, or (#2) by a person knowingly waiving a particular right.

Some of the confusion in our present system has arisen because many millions of people have waived their right to travel “unrestricted” upon the roadways of the states and opted into the jurisdiction of the state for various reasons. Those who have knowingly given up these rights are now legally regulated by state law, the proper courts, and “sworn, constitutionally empowered officers-of-the-law”, and must acquire proper permits, registrations, insurance, etc.

There are basically two groups of people in this category:

#1: Any citizens who involve themselves in “commerce” (business for private gain), upon the highways of the state.

Here is what the courts have said about this:

“...For while a citizen has the right to travel upon the public highways and to transport his property thereon, that right does not extend to the use of the highways, either in whole or in part, as a place for private gain. For the latter purpose no person has a vested right to use the highways of the state, but it is a privilege or license which the legislature may grant or withhold at its discretion...” State v Johnson, 243 P. 1073, 1078.

Other U.S. court cases that confirm and point out the difference between the “right” of the citizen to travel and a government “privilege” are: Barney v Board of Railroad Commissioners; State v City of Spokane, 186 P. 864; Ex Parte Dickey (Dickey v Davis), 85 S.E. 781; Teche Lines v Danforth 12 So.2d 784.

There are numerous other court decisions that spell out the JURISDICTION issue in these two distinctly different activities. However, because of space restrictions we will leave it up to officers to research it further for themselves. (See last page for additional references.)

#2: The second group of citizens that are legally under the jurisdiction of the state is the individual citizen who has voluntarily and knowingly waived their right to travel “unregulated and unrestricted” by requesting placement under such jurisdiction through the acquisition of a state drivers license, vehicle registration, mandatory insurance, etc. (in other words “by contract only”).

We should remember what makes this “legal”—and not a violation of the individual’s common law right to travel “unrestricted”—is that they knowingly volunteer, freely, by contract, to waive their right. If they were forced, coerced or unknowingly placed under the State’s powers, the courts have said it is a clear violation of their rights.

This in itself raises a very interesting question. What percentage of the people in each state have filed, and received, licenses, registrations, insurance, etc., after erroneously being advised by their government that it was mandatory?

Many of our courts, attorneys and Police Officers are just becoming informed about this important issue and the difference between “Privileges vs. Rights”. We can assume that the majority of those Americans carrying state licenses, vehicle registrations, etc., have no knowledge of the rights they waived in obeying laws such as these that the U.S. Constitution clearly states are unlawful, i.e., “laws of no effect”. In other words — “LAWS THAT ARE NOT LAWS AT ALL.”

OUR SWORN DUTY

An area of serious consideration for every Police Officer is to understand that the most important law in our land he has taken an oath to protect, defend, AND ENFORCE, is not state laws, but, that law that supersedes all laws in our nation—the U.S. Constitution. If laws in a particular Police Officer’s state or local community are in conflict with the SUPREME LAW of our nation, there is no question that the officer’s duty is to “uphold the U.S. Constitution”.

What does this mean to the “patrol officer" who will be the only sworn "Executive Officer" on the scene, when knowledgeable Citizens raise serious objections over possession of insurance, drivers licenses and other restrictions? It definitely means these officers will be faced with a hard decision. (Most certainly if that decision affects state, city or county revenues, such as the issuing of citations do.)

Example: If a state legislator, judge or a superior tells a Police Officer to proceed and enforce a contradictory (illegal) state law rather than the Supreme Law of this country, what is that "sworn Officer" to do? Although we may not want to hear it, there is but one right answer: "the Officer is duty bound to uphold his oath of office" and obey the highest laws of the nation. THIS IS OUR SWORN DUTY AND IT IS THE LAW!

Such a strong honest stand taken by a Police Officer, upholding his or her oath of office, takes moral strength of character. It will, without question, "SEPARATE THE MEN FROM THE BOYS." Such honest and straightforward decisions on behalf of a government official have often caused pressure to be applied to force such officers to set aside, or compromise, their morals or convictions.

As a solace for those brave souls in uniform that will stand up for law and justice, even when it's unpopular, or uncomfortable to do so...let me say this: In any legal stand-off over a sworn official "violating" or "upholding" their oath of office, those that would side with the "violation" should inevitably lose.

Our Founding Fathers assured us, on many occasions, the following:

Defending our freedoms in the face of people that would for "expedient's sake", or behind the guise, "for the safety and welfare of the masses", ignore peoples' rights, would forever demand sacrifice and vigilance from those that desired to remain free.

That sounds a little like "Freedom is not free!"

Every Police Officer should keep the following U.S. court ruling, that was covered earlier, in mind before issuing citations in regard to "mandatory licensing, registration and insurance"—versus—"the right of the people to travel unencumbered":

"THE CLAIM AND EXERCISE OF A CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHT CANNOT BE CONVERTED INTO A CRIME." Miller v U.S. 230 F. 2d 486, 489.

And as we have seen, "traveling freely", going about one's daily activities, is the exercise of a most basic right.

THE FREEMAN MOVEMENT

There is a growing national movement of Americans that go by titles such as: "Constitutionalist", "Freeman", and "Patriot".

We have been told by federal officials and agencies that these individuals are any, or all, of the following: radicals, racists, violence prone, anti-American, anarchists, Communist, bigots, tax protestors, neo-Nazis, right-wing fanatics, to name just a few. The latest is "White Supremist". This seems strange to many Police Officers since professional encounters have proven that there are Indians, Orientals, Hispanics, Caucasians, and Blacks in many of these groups.

Many Police Officers are voluntarily attending local meetings of such groups, which are open to the public, in an effort to find out what these "crazy" Americans are all about. In almost every letter our agency has received over the last 5 years from Police Officers who have personally attended such meetings, we have heard a far different story about these people. These officers will commonly use several or many of the following terms in describing these individuals. They describe these people as: well educated in the law, history and national affairs, morally upstanding and honest, non-violent, rational, hard working, and fanatically dedicated to God and Country. Indeed, just the kind of Americans for our government to beware of!

Whatever these people are, there is one thing we all can say for sure. These individual Americans are unlike most of the people in our nation today in one very obvious way. This group of people believe in study and acquiring knowledge. They have an unusually well founded understanding of the rights of every American, which is more than we can say for most government officials.

Another thing we know as "fact" is that many of these individuals are also very defensive and protective over any government infringement on what they believe to be "God given rights".

A hundred years ago these fanatical Patriotic Americans would have been held in high esteem by their fellow countrymen. But today, in our highly controlled society where the vast number of Americans have been taught that Government is seldom to be challenged and always obeyed without question, this last remnant of free thinking individuals now find themselves scoffed at by their less "courageous and informed" countrymen.

It is no secret to Police Officers why these people are so reviled and pursued by government officials, whose job it is to prepare this nation's people for greater restrictions and control over their daily lives — "for the good of Society as a whole", of course.

MAKING ADJUSTMENTS—DIFFICULT

To make adjustments in the system at this time for "rights" that only a relatively few such "informed" Americans realize they have, would be difficult at best. It is also quite understandable that this is upsetting to those in government who for years have not had anyone around to call attention to such infringements on the public's rights. In addition, it seems the general consensus among such government officials is that such insignificant issues as this "right to travel vs privilege to drive" is something that seems to be such a "small and necessary infringement when one considers the overall good which comes through strong government control over all our lives."

In keeping with this philosophy, our leaders annually promote the adoption of approximately 17,000 new laws and hundreds of thousands of new regulations in the U.S. For every new law or regulation passed, someone's freedoms are restricted. The mistake made by many is believing that only the "Bad Guys' " rights are restricted by new laws. The wise Police Officer, who has to enforce all these new laws, knows that if this "there ought to be a law" mentality continues, a police state is inevitable. Of course not all Police Officers are against being given more power and control over our fellow countrymen each year.

As to the driver's license issue, there are many of the Peoples' "Servants" that believe it's in the best interest of Government that the People, knowingly or unknowingly, trade their "common law rights" for "government granted privileges". Of course a government-granted privilege of permit can be rescinded at any time, an INALIENABLE RIGHT of the People cannot.

SAVE US FROM "EDUCATED" AMERICANS

As difficult as it is for some officials to adjust to (officers included), we now have some Americans among us that "know their rights". And, as if that wasn't bad enough, these individuals profess that — "every Right is as important as the next."

Of course they're correct, but, the truth is, we Police Officers get a bit indignant over being told we have erred in the past by ignoring some of our countrymen's basic rights. Even so, every Police Officer has an important choice to make when it comes to handling those "Freeman" today. Several are as follows:

1. Officers can make it as rough as possible on these individuals who wish to retain their freedoms. Officers can come down hard on these sometimes arrogant (and perhaps a bit foolish) Americans that are firmly convinced that they still live in a nation with a government "of, for, and by the people.".....OR—

2. We can try our best to understand them and their obsessive desire for "freedom", which isn't illegal as of this writing. In so doing, we can try to understand their "reasoning", which is surprisingly very similar to some of our nation's past Statesmen, like Daniel Webster, when he reminded our forefathers:

"IF THIS CONSTITUTION BE PICKED AWAY BY PIECEMEAL (piece by piece), IT IS GONE AS EFFECTIVELY AS IF A MILITARY DESPOT HAD GRASPED IT, TRAMPLED IT UNDERFOOT, AND SCATTERED IT TO THE WINDS."

Another American recently made this rather radical statement:

"IT IS NOT THE FUNCTION OF OUR GOVERNMENT TO KEEP THE CITIZEN FROM FALLING INTO ERROR; IT IS THE FUNCTION OF THE CITIZEN TO KEEP THE GOVERNMENT FROM FALLING INTO ERROR." Justice Robert H. Jackson, 1954. (This, of course, sounds like SEDITION to a Bureaucrat.)

As to "Officer choices"...it is more than obvious that if we choose to support our oaths, and therefore our fellow countrymen's rights, we will need great courage. It will require that "both sides" become more understanding of each other's obligations and duties. As officers, you will at times, be sorely taxed and tempted to "correct a particular attitude forthwith", when a Freeman, Patriot, Constitutionalist (what-ever-the-name), rather crudely, or rudely, expresses his views to you.

It will take great patience to understand that these people are attempting to regain and save certain rights that belong not only to them, but, to every Police Officer and their family.

We must remember that EVERY AMERICAN, (Police Officers, and Freeman included) has not just the right, but the DUTY, to point out perceived injustices in our system of government. The truth is, most Police Officers would have little respect for any American that shirked this most important patriotic duty.

HOW TO TELL A BOGUS FREEMAN

I inquired of a very respected and well known Freeman as to how an Officer could tell a true, dyed-in-the-flag FREEMAN from a fake. Here is a small portion of his response:

"A Freeman does not believe he is above the law. To the contrary. Those who truly understand, take full responsibility for their own actions. They do not drive while under the influence, DUI/DWI. They are very cautious in their driving habits. They obey the rules of the road. They take personal responsibility for damage they may cause to the person or property of another. They expect the 'police powers' to correct them if they become inattentive or careless. When observed committing some act or omission that is a clear endangerment to others, they will expect to be confronted and, if necessary, arrested.

The Freeman's real "bone of contention", according to my friend, "is the manner in which the government, surreptitiously, converts rights, belonging to the people, into a government-granted, regulated and taxed privilege." He further stated, "Freemen object to the use of the 'police powers' as a 'revenue enhancement' tool via the cash register courts."

I explained to him that many Police Officers feel the same way about being trained to, daily, hunt, track and capture the unsuspecting citizen as PREY, "binding-up" this prey for the Courts to methodically SKIN. Lastly, the officer objects to being made to take the "HEAD" (count) of his prey for the precinct wall where hangs the monthly officer recap or quota sheets.

I further explained that the intelligent, dedicated, Police Officer resents being made the peoples' ADVERSARY. They want to work with the people as a friend and serve them as their protectors, as was the "Peace Officer's" role of the past.

It seems to be a poor judgement call or a case of misplaced priorities, in the minds of most city Police Officers, when they are made to spend a majority of their "Non radio call" time, lurking on street corners, attempting to track and capture good citizens going about their daily activities for traffic violations when the real criminal element is in these same citizens' homes and neighborhoods robbing and burglarizing at will.

After my unexpected little speech, my Freeman friend grew silent for a moment. He then looked me in the eyes, as if in disbelief, and said,"and where might these fine Officers be found?"

A ROSE BY ANY OTHER NAME.....

By any name, Freeman, Patriot, Constitutionalist, I doubt that there are many Police Officers that don't hope and pray Americans will always cry out loudly, and take the firmest stand, when they honestly believe they have grievances with their government. I hope, for our nation, and for the sake of our children's future, that I echo the feelings of the U.S. Lawmen when I say that rather than LESS of these "loudmouth" concerned Americans, who are not afraid to stand up and be counted, (even if they go to jail or worse), that we need MORE Americans that care enough to fight for what they believe is right.

As for me, I'm much more afraid of the growing numbers of "SPINELESS, PUSSY-FOOTIN', LIMP-WRISTED, MEALY-MOUTHED, FORKED-TONGUED, COMPROMISING PUSH-OVERS" that pass themselves off for REAL AMERICANS, than I am of those who, RIGHT OR WRONG, "tell it the way they believe it is" and stand squarely behind their convictions. Can I have an AMEN to that?

It is for this reason, this editor believes, we should not fear these Freeman/Patriots. Instead, perhaps, we should have great concern for those among us that turn a deaf ear to "voices" that expound the values that have established this land that we are privileged and proud to live and raise our families in.

It might very well be said that the strongest evidence that we still live in the Land of Liberty would be if these Freeman were able to exercise their rights to speech and to redress the government of their grievances, without Police Officers and the courts seeking them out and persecuting them for being so bold. (Of course if we could just convince them to promote something important and wholesome like....say....Satanism, Drugs, Sodomy, Pornography, Marxism, etc., etc., we Police Officers wouldn't be allowed to touch them. But, preach the CONSTITUTION and LIMITED GOVERNMENT and you and I know...they are asking for big trouble!)

ONE FINAL THOUGHT (straight from the editor)

For you BRAVE STREET SOLDIERS who want a truly invigorating experience, try this:

The next time you encounter, "professionally", one of these unusually concerned American Freeman who has just told you that "he or she is not legally required to have a license," (and is now standing-by to absorb your wrath), try...extending your hand in friendship, put on a smile, and utter words something like this:

"My family and I thank you for your vigilance and commitment to our liberties, and we hope you will continue to fight and stand up for all of our Rights. May God go with you, my Countryman."

RISK POTENTIAL

Yes, there is a risk to such actions taken by a Police Officer. Not a risk to the officer, however, but to the "Freeman", who may have a coronary attack at the scene.

Several officers have written to express their own personal reactions, after having taken similar "irregular actions" when confronting a Freeman in an "enforcement" scenario. One officer said, "It felt good" ...like he had just "pushed some tea in the harbor somewhere!" Another officer explained it this way: "For a fleeting moment...I really felt what it was like to be a friend of the motorist, instead of playing the role of the plunderous Sheriff of Nottingham!"

I think it's important to note that no officer, after having warmly greeted and congratulated a Freeman, without issuing a citation, has reported — "the earth opening up and swallowing them".

EDITOR'S REQUEST:

Aid & Abet News requests input on the proper implementation of an orderly method for returning to the days when Americans did not have driver's licenses, registrations, insurance, etc. It has been many years that Police, and other government agencies have used this information for what is believed to be for "the good of the community", i.e., investigating Hit and Runs, stolen vehicles, and other crimes where a vehicle was involved, to name just one such area.

"Just how can we continue to compete with the criminal element if government were to do away with such means of recognition?" is one of the major questions that has perplexed many officers.

Recognizing that these requirements placed on the People by their government is a violation of their rights, and can not be enforced "legally" is only half the battle. What is needed now is a time of "cease fire", a moratorium for every Police officer to stop writing tickets for such laws. It is a time for officers to use their own good judgement. Officers may find themselves pressured to continue to violate the people's rights by those whose only concern is government revenues and more government power and control.

We, the "People's protectors", must remember: "No one in government, not legislators, judges, bureaucrats, nor government superiors, can make a Police Officer violate his or her oath of office!" That is a very personal decision that we each will make and live with. This is a time for reflection and research into which of these "restrictive devices", in the eyes of the public, and the eyes of the government, is actually NECESSARY, not — "just nice to have".

It is important that logic, rather than emotion, be used to pave the way back to the time when an individual's rights were not trampled by swarms of government agencies and officials.

IF WE CARE - IT CAN BE DONE.

OFFICER WITH "HEART" SABOTAGES TICKETS

LOUISVILLE, Ky. Police on Thursday were investigating about 1,050 apparently bogus traffic tickets written by a veteran officer who said he simply didn't have the heart to write any more real tickets.

Michael Ghrist, a 17-year veteran of the force, was suspended Tuesday for 25 days.

"I had a conscience. I had a heart," he said. "I started seeing the human beings behind the driver's wheels."

DISCLAIMER:

The publisher and staff of AID & ABET NEWS to Lawmen are not attorneys and do not practice law or give legal opinions—even though we believe we should have this freedom under the Constitution. Free disclosure of the law is imperative to not just Police Officers, but, to every American. It is too bad that certain individuals within society have been allowed by the Courts (which the same ELITISTS control), to monopolize this vital area and make it a criminal act for others.

It is our opinion that, if our present day attorneys and jurists had been around when Moses returned from the mountain proclaiming to the people the TRUE LAW, we can be assured they would have called a Police Officer and had him CHARGED & BOOKED.

(Sounds like a good subject for another Aid & Abet Bulletin.)

Pleiades Connection
JOURNALS Update

1/15/93 PHOENIX LIBERATOR DESK

Upon receiving word of an intended "Contempt of Court" action initiated by the attorneys for the University of Science and Philosophy, Tehachapi Distributing, acting in good faith and in accordance with the Federal Court order (directed at George and Desiree' Green, America West Publishers, America West Distributors, Doris and EJ Ekker), has divested itself of all Pleiades Connection series JOURNALS, including AIDS: THE LAST GREAT PLAGUE and MATTER ANTI-MATTER. Tehachapi Distributing is now out of business and no longer has any of these books.

Through the attorneys of the University of Science and Philosophy, the books were ordered to be destroyed by dumping or by fire...the most precious books on the planet destroyed by fire! (The Adversary shows his hand every time!) The books have now been delivered into the hands of the Federal Court in Fresno, California.

It should be clearly understood that a Contempt of Court action in this case could mean imprisonment for Dharma, even though she has no relationship with the independent book distributor, Tehachapi Distributing and even though the books are now held by the court.

Of the 67 JOURNALS currently in print, the 8-10 JOURNALS which scientifically outline the nature of God and the physics of the Universe are the very books which have been banned. This information was given for the benefit of all mankind and, incidentally, this court action ought to emphasize better than anything else — for those with eyes to see — just how important those Pleiades Connection series of JOURNALS are!

Restore Our Constitution

NOTHING with which to do. My urging is that America West settle its accounts with any and all distributing companies before this dust settles.

I also repeat: I do not give lies and half-truths and, further, it is invidious to me that my publisher would state such. So be it, but we must allow time for attending the various court cases of which there are now at least three going on simultaneously. Thank you, readers, for the blessed support shown to Dharma and E.J. as well as the LIBERATOR crew. THE PAPER WILL GO OUT ONE WAY OR ANOTHER! SO SHALL THE JOURNALS BUT WE SHALL HAVE TO SEE IF AMERICA WEST WISHES TO CONTINUE IN THE PRESS. We will have to rely even more heavily on you readers and subscribers but you have proven that you wish the resource and will allow continued printing of the material. The JOURNALS are camera-ready when they leave this place, so it is only a matter of finding a reasonable "press" to print them. We already have several asking for the job so I believe we would simply have to get ISBN numbers so that the public can find reference at book-sellers, etc. We shall have to wait until we are contacted (I suppose) by Mr. Green's attorney. Mr. Green stated to a worker here that he would not speak with Mr. Ekker except through his attorney. It is difficult to understand how these misunderstandings can become so unyielding but THIS IS THE TIME OF THE HARDEST ASSAULTS ON PATRIOTS AND GODLY PEOPLE OF ALL TIME AND HISTORY.

I am asking Mr. Martin to re-evaluate his decision to close completely his Tehachapi Distributing company and/or locate (or relocate) another possible distributor in Nevada—preferably Las Vegas, so that business can continue to be handled through Nevada without interruption. We will effort to keep all of you current as we move along here for there is a JOURNAL ready to be sent to press this very day. We have been ignored in our request for an ISBN number as routinely assigned so will hold a day or so until this is resolved or handled as a totally separate operation.

I have to tell you that in the assault upon the PLEIADES CONNECTION series the opposing head of the University of Science and Philosophy AND the representing attorney in Fresno—at the Federal Court—wanted the entire collection of books and originals buried at "a" major dump—but preferably incinerated (burned), with required witnesses! The volumes were, however, delivered by driver via instructions of Mr. Martin, to the Fresno Federal Court Judge where they will be housed until this is settled. We knew it would be ugly and difficult but we had no notion that it would be this difficult from our own "side". Or, did we? So be it.

JACK McLAMB—POLICE ACTION, ETC.

In this paper you will find reprinted, a copy of an edition of Aid & Abet. It will be interesting enough in its own right—but I urge you, if you are not on the regular mailing list for tapes, that you get the two-tape set made by Mr. McLamb regarding himself and his program under way. [See the advertisement for The Word on page 9 for ordering information.] They are so important that I have asked The Word to make sure all subscribers to the regular tapes get copies so that you can understand the seriousness of the efforts and WHO this man is. I would further ask that the cases referenced in the article be made available for immediate use and recall with the Constitutional Law Center—citizens must have some recourse while inroads in education regarding the Constitution are made to enforcement teams.

Some local police departments will allow Vampire Killer 2000 [Retired distinguished Police Officer Jack McLamb's booklet informing law enforcement professionals and concerned citizens about the truth of the New World Order; the LIBERATOR ran this in two installments over the issues of 12/29/92 and 1/5/93.] to be left at headquarters—most will NOT. So far ALL Sheriff's Departments from which there have been reports—WILL NOT ALLOW IT IN THE BUILDING AS "ALL MATERIAL MUST BE APPROVED BY COMMAND HEADQUARTERS." The State Highway Patrol headquarters will not allow ANY material to be read by enforcement officers except that which is picked and approved by State Headquarters and the "National Network" of "highway patrol" central. That means "national".

I would ask, further, E.J., that the information from Mr. Wallace of Neo-Tech be pointed out to the CLC for attention. The Neo-Tech thrust is totally humanistic in its approach but the methods work none-the-less. You have a lot to cover and "do" on that "human" level and you need all the help you can get in calling up protective laws. You MUST utilize the system at hand for you cannot simply WAR against it—look at what is happening to Iraq: YOU CANNOT WIN AGAINST THE WORLD AS IT IS STRUCTURED, SO YOU MUST BUILD UP THROUGH IT WITHIN THE PATHS YET ALLOWED—DON'T GET "THROWN OUT" BEFORE YOU CAN EVEN HAVE YOUR ATTORNEY RECOGNIZED. Note that even if it is perceived that Saddam is "backing down"—the news arrangers are finding it hard to hide facts about the aggression of the U.S. in deliberate incident following incident. You must be heard when and where you can.

COMMANDER JAMES "BO" GRITZ

We, along with other papers, have given you about as negative outlay of information, from adversaries of Gritz, as can be found anywhere this day. You have seen what the "Commander" has done—and you can see what those split-tongued writers and "claimers" have done—which will it be, America?

Everyone seems to have forgotten, also, that when I suggested you vote for Perot in order to "overwhelm" the "fixed" election system—I ALSO SAID TO START CAMPAIGNING FOR BO ON THE FIFTH OF NOVEMBER FOR THE NEXT ELECTION. The campaign fell into disarray and confusion as ones attacked and rebuked, worked from false assumptions and typically fell to the Adversary's sickle. Your "leader" did not cop-out on ANY ONE—I hope you can say the same about selves. I am herein going to point out that one of the most evil intents came in the form of that blackmail article written by J. B. Campbell and pushed by many of the so-called "religious" rags. Yes indeed, we published it also—and I asked you to ponder it, think carefully upon it and consider possibilities. Bo Gritz is a "man"—what expect ye—God?

We got many copies from all over your nation—of that article put to press and as a "paper" we will always run both sides, negatives and positives of EVERY INCIDENT, as is possible—for YOU-THE-PEOPLE must learn to discern the "man" and judge the actions.

Commander Gritz did not leave his post. At the time of election he was sick! He had blanketed the nation without even so much as recognition or mention in any media. He mostly "flew" his own plane to save time and expenses. He is now accused by former campaign workers of getting a new plane, vacations, etc., from ALL THE CAMPAIGN FUNDS—WHAT FUNDS? I, Hatonn, personally had to prevent the plane from running in an instance or so because it needed work and the enemy was waiting to crash him to get rid of him. Does this sound like a “vacation” at your expense?? He had to attend Idaho and Weaver, Oregon and Campbell (Maynard)—he even had to attend “here” and was sick at the time the SWAT teams were around the Ekker’s dwelling and I see that he was not notified as claimed, in any event.

Does anyone remember the POW/MIA hearings wherein the Bushwhackers sold out the POWs forever? Well, you will never find it in the Congressional “bound” report which was released—but Col. Gritz was ordered by Sen. Kerry (POW/MIA Committee Chairman) to deposition in Virginia on November 23, 1992! The testimony has been marked “security hold” and no report and certainly no media mention or C-SPAN hoopla was allowed. Well, GOD will help when and where He will and AS He will—when intent of petition is toward HIS service. Herein you will find the orders to confirm the deposition [see page 31] AND a copy of the Colonel’s statement at the deposition [starting on page 2].

We were presented with a copy from another source—which the Colonel has since acknowledged and has written to us personally regarding same and shared his intent and activities. We will first print the latter [an informative fax, immediately following this writing]—and then, in full, the statement, under oath, at deposition [this dynamite document starts on page 2]. Your willing leader has not abandoned you—have you abandoned him? I know that you have NOT—for you have waited patiently while new directions are formulated and many, many of you ask constantly, “What shall we do?” I will tell you readers here and now (although all things with each entity are subject to change with the will of the entity) that this is a “chosen” man for the leadership of the reclamation of your national status under the Constitution—if it can be done, for he will listen to GOD and be given to SEE possibilities of action. E.T.s and Colonels?? God perish the silly thought. “If” there are “goodly and Godly E.T.s”, he will utilize the help—if not, so be it. But, you see, WE COME IN THE SERVICE OF HOLY GOD, OUR FATHER. I am simply a “HOST” in HIS command—therefore we serve the SAME COMMANDER. You who do not wish to recognize me—it matters not, for soon enough you will begin to see that which God is sending unto you via US. That which will grant you ability to make this crossing is being, now, given into your use—IF YOU RECOGNIZE IT WHEN PRESENTED. However, if the NEW WORLD ORDER is stopped and your nation reclaimed—YOU WILL DO IT! We will show you the way and remind you of “how to do it” and help you see and hear. BUT YOU MUST NOT ALLOW A CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION BY ANY MEANS NECESSARY—FOR IF THE CONVENTION WOULD BE HELD—YOUR CONSTITUTION WOULD BE LAWFULLY KILLED—DEAD. IT IS NOT USED BY YOUR GOVERNMENT NOW—BUT BY UNLAWFUL MEASURES IT HAS BEEN ABANDONED. And please be reminded, Mr. Perot has declared himself in favor of a CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION at the earliest—and he will be pushing for this in his “electronic town halls”.

As you read this edition of this paper—pray for guidance and possibilities and HE WILL HEAR. Then you must come into a unified brotherhood—not flippant and overtouted “patriot” groups. There is NO “group” at all in this place—and “patriot groups” are the dead-aim targets for the very ones who will destroy you. Just the word “patriot” and “Constitutional rights” triggers violence in the enforcement teams—LISTEN TO THE TAPES BY McLAMB! You MUST play this game BETTER than your enemy or you cannot prevail.

God blesses you and know that with the intent toward FREEDOM and righteous reclamation of that which has been stolen from you—YOU CAN PREVAIL AND THAT PROVERBIAL “FORCE” IS WITH YOU! I HAVE PLEDGED THE FULL SUPPORT OF MY COMMAND AND GROUND CREW TO JAMES GRITZ AND I WOULD HOPE THAT YOU WILL WISH TO COME ABOARD, AT LEAST LONG ENOUGH TO SEE IF TRUTH AND LIGHT RESIDE WITHIN—ALL CAN BE CHANGED WITHIN ANY PLAN IF CIRCUMSTANCES OR INTENT CHANGE AND FLOW IN THE WRONG DIRECTION—BUT YOU NEED STRENGTH IF YOU ARE TO DO THIS JOB SO LET US MOVE FROM THE POINT WHEREIN LIES THAT STRENGTH IN GREATER MEASURE AND TAKE ONE STEP AT A TIME. GOD CAN SEE THE ROAD AHEAD AND SEND THE WARNING SIGNALS IN TIME TO CORRECT THE COURSE. REMAIN INFORMED, BE CAUTIOUS AND ALWAYS QUESTION IN ORDER TO GET INFORMATION—BUT YOU MUST “ACT” OR NOTHING SHALL BE ACCOMPLISHED! THE LIBERATOR WILL NEVER REPRESENT “A GROUP”—IT REPRESENTS THE “VOICE” OF THE PEOPLE TOWARD LIBERATION. WE WILL AFFILIATE OUR CREW WITH NO DESIGNATED “GROUP” BUT WILL SUPPORT ANY AND ALL FREEDOM SEEKERS AND GOD INTENTIONED ENTITIES. YOU CAN ONLY BEAT “EVIL” IN ONE WAY—BECOME “GODLY”! SO BE IT. TRUTH WILL SET YOU FREE—BUT YOU MUST “KNOW” WHAT IS THAT TRUTH!

I ask that you give special and full attention to this edition of the LIBERATOR. Please do not “skim” or “skip” for your circumstances are far too critical to handle your very existence in such “overview” inattention. Thank you.

EXCERPTS FROM A RECENT FAX FROM COL. JAMES “BO” GRITZ:

ACKNOWLEDGE UR 13 JAN. COMMUNICATION

I understand you have a copy of my Senate POW statement. You probably won’t find it included as part of the Committee Report, but every word is true and sworn to. In the book, Called To Serve, I wrote something that many people found confusing: Time doesn’t change history, people do.” It is a fact that Americans were left to die in the hands of our enemies. Political pukers have been trying to change that fact since 1973. I pray those responsible will someday balance the scales of justice. I will continue to seek the security of my brothers until the doors lock me out. I am sad to believe that they are rapidly closing.

I would rather have my mouth tied around the exhaust pipe of a bus and be dragged all the way from Sandy Valley to Washington, D.C. than ever enter another political arena. I hate politics and politicians! But, I am convinced that people must have a choice. I don’t want there to be a single American with justification to look into an empty sky and wail, “Why, God, did You bring this terrible tyranny down upon us?” We will deserve everything we either stand or fall for. I don’t like it and I don’t know why, but if we can’t find a single patriot, or politician in Idaho willing to represent the Constitution without compromise in the 1994, I will! I pray that God will relieve me of the task, but people must be able to choose their destiny whether it be as slaves or sovereigns. If the citizens of Idaho would live free elect someone into the Governor’s Office who would mobilize if necessary and secure the state against the rising tide of globalism, maybe voters in other states would follow suit. If not, so be it.

Until that decision must be made, I am pressing forward with a series of seminars, I call SPIKE Training. I have called three members of my “Mission Impossible Force” back into service for this purpose. I plan to run 10 phases everywhere in this nation that people love Liberty enough to defend it. Each phase will consist of four two-hour classes. There will be Self Defense, General Quarters Readiness, Combat Medicine and Special Purpose stations. Dick Clark, 26 year LAPD combatives chief instructor; Navy Seal, Scott Weekly (Doctor Death) and Airborne Ranger, Gary Goldman will act as principal instructors. We will cover every essential subject from lock picking to defensive driving. By the time our SPIKE students have completed the 10 phases they will be more than prepared to hold things together during perilous times. Additionally, we have identified and acquired all the best equipment at wholesale. SPIKE leaders will be able to purchase necessary tools at savings that will pay for their training many times over. Classes will be limited so that everyone gets personal attention. Politics — I don't know, but SPIKE, I do!

The SPIKE training will become part of a program we call SAVING AMERICA. It is designed to do what "United We Stand" should, but won't. Funds will be raised through the sale of "Made in USA" products. The profits will allow local chapters to identify and support Constitutional candidates for offices at all levels. This means replacing sheriffs who won't keep the populace safe from Federal intrusion; mayor, city council, commissioners, assembly, representatives, senators, and governors. I don't know whether or not we can SAVE AMERICA, but people who complete SPIKE training will be well prepared to save their own. We haven't started advertising yet, but already we are booked into Utah, Idaho and Oregon for SPIKE training and SA sessions.

Have you noticed how the really weak and ignorant only attack the brave from the back and then flee into obscurity—until another sneak, without risk of identification or confrontation, opens up? Is it wrong for me to despise those cowards who distort Truth through the safety of publication without identifying themselves? Yellowbellies using your publication and unsigned circulars continue their malicious efforts to separate me from the patriot movement. They distort information supplied by me to make it appear that I am a public enemy. For example, you carried a lengthy "quote" from an unidentified source who stated that I was wearing a body wire the entire time I was briefing the vigil and media during the Weaver siege. Absolute crap! What anal orifice the author must be. Why didn't anyone bother to ask me? I was the one who told the crowd the FBI required me to carry a bug. It was the only way they would let me go into the cabin and out of their vision. It was either that, or they would have removed me from the hill and dealt with Weaver in their own way. I had a calling. It wasn't from Washington, D.C. I was called by God to get Weavers out safely. The wire came off as soon as I came back out in the open. Nothing was said that would prejudice Weaver. Conversely, I made certain the conversation was favorable. I believe we converted many of the FBI who will never again assault a family.

Your deceivers say that the "citizens arrest" was a cover to make it look like I wasn't a CIA/FBI spy. BULL! Where were they when there was blood on the mountain? They say I was insensitive in the way I disclosed Vicki's death. I was the one who came down and revealed the fact that she had been shot! You bet I was worried about crowd reaction. There were problems enough with three dead and two wounded without having a blood-bath at the police line. I told the truth: Vicki was dead, Kevin hurt, Randall healed and the girls OK. What would you have said and done? The BS experts you give ink to say that my Las Vegas trial was phony — let them be indicted and under pre-trial supervision for two years! You bet, the Nevada U.S. Attorney had no jurisdiction to charge me. It should have been LA, but the California U.S. prosecutor had already refused to charge me. The only way the feds could try and jail me, having failed to get indictments in Oklahoma and California, was through Maddox and his two-year maneuver. READ THE COURT RECORD: I WAS ACQUITTED BY THE JURY! THE JUDGE, PHILIP PRO SAID: "WHILE YOU ARE ACQUITTED, YOU ARE NOT EXONERATED." That is when I got up to speak and he slammed down the gavel with, "You will not say one word in my court room!" When the court room cleared and I went to the elevator, two female jurors came to me and said, "Bo you were in our prayers every day!" Two men approached me who were on the jury and said, "Colonel, you go get 'em!"

There is something I didn't tell the media nor the crowd at Ruby Creek. Sunday night as I came down, having carried Vicki's body out and helped Kevin Harris to safety, Gene Glenn told me that FBI intelligence had uncovered an assassination plot to shoot me as I came through the police line that night. He said the skinheads had moved the women and children away from the entrance and planned to gun me down as I walked out. Glenn said it was a highly reliable report and that I could either stay with the FBI in the headquarters camp, or they would move me by secure means wherever I wanted to go. I asked the major in charge of the Idaho State Police if he would send a unit to check with the Swiss owner of the place we were staying. He refused, saying, "It's too dangerous. I won't expose my men under these circumstances." I asked if he would just send a car to drive by and see if things looked normal. He would not. His wimpy attitude made me so mad that I stormed down the hill and into the crowd alone. Obviously, if anyone did shoot at me, they missed! Many people were mad that the Weavers didn't end up as charred remains. They wanted martyrs to fuel their already foaming hatred of others.

Having seen some of their trash you've elected to print, I can understand why police harbor brutal attitudes against the patriot movement. They are conditioned by a few real scumbags to believe that Constitutional people are all garbage. LET IT BE CLEAR THAT I DON'T CARE WHAT YOUR COLOR, CREED, SEX, AGE, MARITAL STATUS, HEIGHT, WEIGHT, EDUCATION, EYE OR HAIR COLOR, GENEALOGY, PLACE AND DATE OF BIRTH, ET AL, IS: IF YOU ARE AN AMERICAN AND YOU WANT TO LIVE FREE, I AM YOUR BROTHER! I know black people that not one of the white detractors I've met could measure up to. Loh Theraphant was born in Hanoi, yet to me and the LAZARUS Team, no finer human being ever walked the Earth. I've served in every quadrant of the globe. I've been privileged to know and work with super people of all colors and creeds, shapes and sizes. I JUDGE A PERSON BY THEIR ACTION AND INTENT. I THINK IT IS VILE FOR ANYONE TO JUDGE GENERICALLY. I AM FOR ALL TRUE AMERICANS. I AM AGAINST ANY WHO WOULD DENY ANOTHER AMERICAN EQUALITY WHO HAD NO MALICE. I don't believe ALL Jews are bad just like I know all Anglo-Christians aren't good!

Let's get a few other minor dents straightened out: I was raised in pentecostal churches — not Mormon. My family joined the LDS Church in 1984. Until then I had little idea what Mormons believed in or practiced. Before you continue running fabrications in your publication, I suggest you read in context the book, Called To Serve, it is an accurate account of major events in my life. Call Lamond Mills (Las Vegas) if you doubt that Perot was willing to testify at my trial. The entire mention of George Brooks and extorted POW money is a lie! Your writer knows absolutely nothing about Special Operations Detachments B-52 or B-36. In my book I disdain the CIA assassins that operated not in these cross-border units, but the Phoenix Program. It is amazing to me how people who have not one second experience in Special Forces suddenly become over-night experts. READ THE BOOK TO FIND OUT ABOUT SPECIAL FORCES!

I pray that I will not lose faith with the real people of our nation just because of the excrement that spoils the appearance of our movement.

Unity — Someday. I support you in as much as you present the Truth without compromise. There is enough smoke and mirrors in the establishment media and throughout the patriot movement. I hope all that you cause to be printed will be in the interest of accuracy. God Be with You in moments of genuine gallantry.

When The Shuttle Goes Up Much Mischief Comes Down

1/16/93 SOLTEC

Good evening, Soltec present in the Light of Holy God. We come to write this day with many events having transpired in the past several days of your time. With another shuttle mission having been launched just a few days ago, there seems to be much mischief afoot again. There have once again been attacks against this scribe's residence. Just this very morning there was experienced a blast. First there was the sound of an explosion, followed almost immediately by the entire house shuddering and shaking. It was not an earthquake, as no one else experienced same. The shielding was sufficient to the extent that there was no damage to either dwelling or persons inside, though it was very disconcerting to this one. It is quite obvious to her now that her participation in this mission is very serious and not one to be taken lightly, as there are those about who would do her and her's harm. Two evenings past, there was, witnessed by several people, what appeared to be "green" lightning flashes in the area, which of course was not lightning of natural causes; rather it was blasts directed at this one. The opportunity has been given for her to cease her participation but, rather than stop, she has made the decision to fight on as this has, in her words, "gotten her dander up!"

Our goal is not to bring harm to anyone in any way, but hardly is there ever anything won of any worth that was taken without some kind of battle. In most cases, it becomes a matter of sheer determination and stubbornness, of going on in spite of, or because of, the obstacles set in the path. Scribing or speaking or receiving of our messages is a dangerous job for the physical expression and we know that those who have come into this service openly and knowingly are very often on the front lines of fire. Yet, each was given the options of serving or not serving—we never shove anything off on anyone. When service is given in the purest manner—that is, serving without expectation of reward or renown, protection is offered to each of those who serve. The protection is never a forgone conclusion, for it must be requested by each one. When the request is sincere and the one requesting is asking in the pureness of heart, then that protection is given without reservation. THE KEY IS IN THE ASKING.

It has been a very busy several days, indeed. You have experienced earthquakes in California (the San Francisco area) and Japan, and a volcano eruption in Colombia, South America. Plus, you are still receiving torrential rains in California and Arizona, so much so that states of emergency have been declared in both places. There was a tornado in Buena Park, California and tornado warnings were issued in Florida. And, let us not forget the heavy snowstorms that are blasting the northern regions of Utah and Colorado and the mountains of California.

The storms that have been coming in from the West Coast are being referred to on The Weather Channel as "impulses". With the little dirty tricks that are being played on you from space, the term impulses carries with it some very interesting implications, wouldn't you say? Are they again telling you, without telling you, what is actually going on? Remember, Chelas, pride always precedes the fall. In this case, the Elite are so proud of their accomplishments that their pride is allowing them to make subtle little slips, in hopes that you will recognize what is happening. They cannot help but brag a little now and then about what they are doing to you. Impulses, or pulses, are exactly what you are experiencing. You did not really think that all this nasty weather was totally natural, now did you? If you have been following any of the messages from the Host, then you know that you are experiencing pulses continually and they are stirring up a whole nest of hornets for you ones!

The rains that you have been experiencing have reached the critical level, as the ground is literally soaked beyond capability of saturation, so it sits upon the surface creating mud. In California, this mud is beginning to move and now you have the famous California mud slides. It is becoming somewhat of a joke as to whether you will fall into the ocean from earthquakes, or if you will just slide off into the ocean on a sea of mud. Either way, you can see that it is an extremely critical situation that you are experiencing, and it gives your governor the opportunity to call FEMA into action.

The rains are causing dams and bridges to collapse, rivers to overflow and ground water to be contaminated yet further, due to all the garbage and poisonous substances that are being swept downstream by the flooding. In some cases, the floodwaters are so powerful that their force has caused natural gas lines to rupture, releasing yet more poison into the environment. So, you see, it is not just the problem of too much water. The effects are multi-fold and long-term, I fear.

The earthquake experienced in Japan on Friday, January 15th was situated on one of the northern islands. It was reported as being 7.5 on your scales and caused considerable property damage, several injuries and, I believe, the number is now two dead. Japan is a hotbed of geologic activity because of its position—that being part of the Circum-Pacific Mobile Belt, also known as the Pacific Ring of Fire. Japan is a series of islands which are actually exposed parts of mountains that rise abruptly from the ocean floor. Some rise from the extreme depths of the Japan Trench, to the east of the islands, to more than 34,000 feet. Mostly, Japan is hilly or mountainous, with several hundred of its mountain peaks rising to above 6,500 feet above sea level. Flat lands, or plains, account for only about one-tenth of the total area and are mainly along the coast. There are 192 known volcanoes in Japan, with some 50 considered to be active. Mount Fujiyama is, of course, the most famous of these. Though earthquakes are very frequent in Japan, in the past few have been of serious magnitude. Yet, the more recent activity there is causing scientists to re-evaluate their studies. As the rest of the Pacific Rim becomes more active, Japan is especially vulnerable to increased seismic and volcanic activity. Should a serious earthquake, such as the one experienced two days ago, strike a city like Tokyo, the destruction, injuries and death rates would have multiplied a thousand fold. The overcrowding of Tokyo causes it to be a potential deathtrap should such a disaster happen there. The potential is very high for just such an event.

The earthquake experienced in California last evening was officially reported as being 5.1 by your measurements. [Editor's note: It was reported "officially" as a 5.1 by the U.S. Geologic Survey in Menlo Park, CA and as a 5.7 by the competing Berkeley Seismic Institute, which measures the shaking the way Richter originally did his measurements in the 1930s. The larger measurement number already means a quake of more than five times the intensity of the lower number. Wouldn't you be the least bit surprised if "professionals" couldn't distinguish or had to argue over whether you were traveling at 20 MPH or 100 MPH?!] However, it was felt for hundreds of miles away from the actual event center, which was at Gilroy, California [80 miles south of San Francisco, claiming to be the "Garlic Capital" of the world, and close to the critical area where the East Bay — Calaveras and Hayward — Faults intersect the San Andreas Fault]. This quake was on the Calaveras Fault, which lies to the east of the San Andreas and Hayward Faults, and runs north to Napa, south to Hollister. The fact that the shaking was felt so far away from the actual seismic event is an indication that it was again a very deep quake, so the estimate of its magnitude should be pushed upward to at least a 7 or greater. I can only tell you that it is merely more of the same of that which has been occurring in your place.

The volcanic eruption in Colombia took the lives of six of your scientists, who were in the crater doing studies on volcanoes at the time of the eruption. This volcano poured out tons of steam and ash for miles around the crater itself. Of course, in the past few years there have been several volcanic eruptions in this part of the world, and it leads one to ask what in the world these scientists were doing down inside the crater of this volcano. With the recent history of seismic and volcanic activity in this area, it was indeed a foolish venture in the first place. Due to the fact that your shuttle is in orbit again, and again you have had earthquakes, strange weather and a volcanic eruption, you should be able to reach your own conclusions about what the causes be.

As a side note, it was observed by this scribe on the evening non-news that the Centers for Disease Control made a statement that new AIDS cases would be on the decline this year. She asked how they could know this. Their name should be all the answer needed, child—Centers for Disease CONTROL. They are in control of the deadly "invaders" such as viruses of AIDS, Hepatitis B and Tuberculosis, just as the American Cancer Society is in CONTROL of Cancer.

Yes, dear ones, it has again been a very busy week on your planet and each one approaching holds the promise of yet more to come as the Elite get into full swing for their Countdown to 2000. You are again bombing and going to war in Iraq, you are in a battle in Somalia and you grow ever closer to getting involved in Bosnia. Your current, yet short-timer, President Bush has told you that it is all being done under the flag of the United Nations, your new world government. Remember what Emmanuel spoke that was to come during these times:

"Take heed that no man deceive you. For many shall come in My name, saying, I am Christ and shall deceive many. And you shall hear of wars and rumors of wars; see that you be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. For nation shall rise against nation and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines and plagues and earthquakes in diverse places. But these are only the beginnings of the throes. Then will they deliver you up to be afflicted and will kill you and you will be hated by all the nations for My sake. And then shall many be offended and shall betray one another and shall hate one another. And many false prophets shall rise and shall deceive many."

Chelas, you are in that time of which was spoken of nearly two thousand years ago of your time counting. You do have wars everywhere, famine and plagues, earthquakes and more. And you are delivered up because you dare to bring forth The Truth in the face of personal danger and attack. You are hated of all nations for you bring forth The Truth which unbinds the shackles of the bondage of slavery. You dare to bring forth The Light in a world of darkness. You bring forth The Truth of that which is going on behind the backs of all the people everywhere—you are bringing all the skeletons out of the closets and exposing that which goes on in the darkest reaches. And, though it may seem that you are but going in endless circles, know that you are succeeding. You may lose a battle or two, but we shall win the war. Our weapons are not guns and knives, but THE TRUTH and THE LIGHT of HOLY GOD. These weapons are much more powerful than any military weapon that can be used, for these are the weapons of God, and nothing is greater than God.

Hold tight to The Truth in these days, children, for only with Truth shall there ever be true and lasting freedom. Though it be difficult and trying, this Truth shall stand forever and it is your strength and the weapon that your enemy fears most. You see, Truth is the only weapon that can destroy this enemy. Ponder on this, please.

On that note, we shall bring this writing to a close. It is an honorable service which you have chosen and we are proud to serve with you ones who walk the rocky path daily. I shall leave you this day with the blessings of Holy God and the Host of Heaven.

Soltec to clear.

Salu.

Nevada Corporations

TRUSTS VS CORPORATIONS

Time and time again we are asked whether a trust or a corporation is the best form of ownership. From one end of the country to the other, I have heard why one is better than the other. We are professionals in the world of corporations and not in the world of trusts, so with that in mind, we will share with you some of the understanding that we have gained in our exposure to both.

When deciding whether to work with a trust or a corporation, one needs to consider carefully all of the given specifics of the situation that one is considering using the trust or corporation for.

Some of these specifics are: cost, public exposure, privacy, use-of entity, and tax position. There are, however, some situations where a combination of trusts and corporations work well together.

From a non-professional perspective, corporations are generally much more accepted and understood. Unlike trusts, there are very few different types of corporations. When setting up a corporation, you are confronted with "Profit or Non-Profit" and "C-Corp. or S-Corp." When looking at trusts, it can become quite confusing deciding which type is best for your situation. There are Living Trusts, Common Law Trusts, A-B Trusts, Grantor & Non-Grantor Trusts, Statutory and Non-Statutory Trusts, Irrevocable and Revocable Trusts, Business Trusts — also called Unincorporated Business Organizations (UBOs), the list goes on and on. From this perspective alone, you can see how there is much more to be aware of when working with a trust. It is very important to work with an experienced individual when creating a trust.

One of the most serious concerns that we have about either form of ownership is, how they are viewed by the courts. Clearly, corporations are better understood by the courts than trusts, but this does not necessarily mean they are better. One of the most alarming articles that I've read regarding the asset protection strength of today's more popular trusts, was written in the Low Profile newsletter for October. This article, titled "Some Trusts Can't Be Trusted", went into the recent boom of trust promoters around the country. The trusts that are most commonly sold by these promoters are called: Common Law, Massachusetts Business Trusts, UBOs, Pure, Equity, and Family Preservation Trusts.

The article states that "Promoters of such trusts misrepresent the law and conceal that courts have consistently ruled that such trusts were shams lacking in economic substance and invalid for tax purposes." This last statement, about trusts being invalid for tax purposes, caught my attention because so many patriots today use these trusts to protect their assets when taking a stand against taxation. Because these trusts are used commonly by tax protestors and the untaxed, I fear for their future. The article went on to say, "The courts have repeatedly ruled that these trusts provide absolutely no liability protection against the claims of personal creditors or the IRS."

With this in mind, let's continue on. Once an individual becomes experienced with trusts and corporations, there are benefits to layering assets with multiple trusts and corporations where ownership of an asset is meant to be obscured. It is my opinion that trusts do have their place. Trusts are less expensive to create and maintain. Trusts, unlike corporations, don't have to pay the state for their existence. So, if you know how to set up a trust, or can find someone who is not going to overcharge you, trusts can be very inexpensive. I have found, however, that most promoters of trusts overcharge for their services and their trust packages.

Because of the courts' past decisions allowing creditors and the IRS access to trusts, we would advise not using trusts except in specific situations, and certainly not by themselves. We have not run into a case yet where a properly run Nevada Corporation has been broken into by the courts. This does not mean that this will be the case in the future. But, with so many large corporations in this country in operation and successfully separating the liability of a corporation and its owner(s), the odds are that corporations will maintain their strength into the future.

1/18/93 #1 HATONN

WHAT IS BEING SAID ABOUT THE
"PUNISHMENT" BEING THRUST
UPON THE U.S. THROUGH DISEASE,
WEATHER DISASTERS, ETC.

"GOD IS PUNISHING ISRAEL", is what is being said around your world, America, and you have arrived at the status, United States of America, as being the MOST HATED NATION ON THE GLOBE!

WHAT WILL BE FOUND IN BAGHDAD?

In every happening these days you have "the surface or what appears to be" the cause which is generally a lie, as stated, and the REAL thing which is both "cause" and Elite secret operations.

Now, let us use as example the bomb (or missile [Tomahawk]) fragment with ID numbers, found outside the hotel in Baghdad. THAT fragment holds the whole story and you will likely NEVER know its train of origin—it CAME DIRECTLY FROM ISRAEL!! What will YOU be told? Oh, something like Saddam had it placed there in the crater, etc. Also, you will find that it is "most unusual" to find an identifying piece of fragment that "just happens" to have ALL identifying information from manufacturer (in Florida, USA) to numbers which identify the trail of the entity. Now, just WHO do you REALLY think tossed that "thing" into the crater outside that hotel? THAT is a MEDIA HOTEL. You could not get media coverage of the "thing" otherwise! That was NO ACCIDENTAL BOMBING and you better go right to your MOSSAD/CIA/KGB. Saddam a madman? Saddam may well be the only sane operator in the whole bunch. Moreover, the "nuclear" plant that was supposedly the "target" is NOT. Further, how can you again have "surgically precisioned" missiles that continue to bomb women, children and hit "bedroom" areas? Indeed, shame is upon America this day.

CLINTON vs BUSH

It isn't Clinton vs. anything or anybody. The men in POWER are the same group only with stronger lead-dogs in the operator's seat.

Do you NOT SEE, AMERICA, THAT YOU ARE HAVING A PUPPET CORONATION—NOT AN INAUGURATION OF A "SERVANT"? Right down to the trumpets blasting as the puppets take the stage! Does it not remind you of Caesar coming to the Forum with cheering crowds, a war in progress with humans being blasted to bits and pieces, your army off in distant lands maintaining "nothing" in places where you cannot know anything about it?

PEROT

For goodness sakes, don't give me the old "Well, maybe we should have put PEROT in power." The point was NEVER to PUT PEROT IN POWER when I suggested you vote for him. I told you what Perot is—he is just another "internationalist" Elite CFR brother and close, close friend of Rockefeller. It was to OVERWHELM the fixed election computers! The man, for the devil's sake, wants to push and demand a CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION and SAYS SO! In his nice little Texas Two-Step dance across your dreams—he can cause you to demand such a thing and cast your nation and freedom to the dogs in one act of ignorance!

ANYTHING TO INCITE RIOTS AND TROUBLE

Anything and everything is being done in Government and by Government to incite irreversible civil war. All actions are taken to insult and degrade freedom and separate all patriots from that which is taking place before your eyes. The plan of the Zionist Elite One World Tyranny is falling into perfect finalization. READ THE PROTOCOLS!

The nation called the United States is run by the Zionist "Jewish" lawyers and if you cannot see it, you are truly as blind as a salamander in the deepest cave on the globe.

Your Constitution (your book of rules for FREEDOM) can be written on one page of paper with a second sheet for the Bill of Rights Amendments—and not one court left in your land utilizes those laws and not one person in 3 million even KNOWS what is in that document and can back up a case with that information—actually, not one in 3 million can even "recite" the document correctly after memorizing it.

LIES AND HALF-TRUTHS

Don't accuse me, friends, of lies and half-truths about anything for if you can't even recite and understand your own Constitution and LAWS FOR FREEDOM then you don't have any information valid enough to accuse me of anything!! If you read that which I bring as well as you study your Constitution and Laws—you DON'T KNOW ANYTHING ABOUT ANYTHING, IN ACTUALITY—ESPECIALLY THE TRUTH OF HEAVEN AND GOD!

It appears we will simply have to pen some more JOURNALS and remind you again of who you are and WHO "THEY" ARE. Your enemies are as near as Pat Robertson, the evangelist, and Alan Dershowitz, the lawyer who is first into every legal fray, Jerry Falwell, who claims to "be a Zionist and proud of it" and so on. These also lie to you because they don't give a damn about religion as touted or "Zionism" as properly defined—they are the power-hungry would-be-kings who plan to rule your world and hold ALL PROPERTY.

Dear Readers,

The Constitutional Law Center wishes to thank all of you for your support and prayers. It is because of your dedication toward preserving the Constitutional rights of everyone that we continue to become increasingly effective.

Currently, we are seeking experts in Constitutional Law, as well as other areas of law, to assist us with the tremendous research that we must develop. This research can be done in your area and forwarded to us via fax or mail.

We are especially in need of the legal knowledge of suspended, disbarred or retired attorneys and are desirous of establishing contact with those who are naturally "drawn" to the study and practice of Constitutional (Common) Law.

We urge you to contact us if you, or someone you know, are available to perform such research for the Constitutional Law Center.

And again, we thank you for your tremendous support.
