Serious Caution About The “New” Texas Republic

REPUBLIC OF TEXAS—BANKING

Something is making the round from the Republic of Texas—this new government set up outside the Man-made laws of the Nation. Fine, but you who think you are going to run into Texas, set up banks, get a lot for nothing—are only going to get burned alive. They state there will be no corporations in that Republic. Say what? You had better look at all this again for you who bite are only going down, because if you READ AND STUDY the entire document—you will see the words “if you qualify”. “Qualify”? What means this “qualify”? What you will do is simply as individuals get on the take-out list while, frankly, nice little well-run corporations are remaining very safe and secure. I did NOT say the “concept” as “lawful” is not legal—I am saying that, as stated, it is just as IMMORAL as anything your Slave-Masters have done to you. You, however, will do whatever you will do and Constitutionally it may well “work”. But don’t be surprised if you only end up on the Hangman’s list.

My urging is to not take that document being circulated and NOT CHECK OUT EVERYTHING ABOUT IT INCLUDING DEMANDING TO KNOW THE

Article IV, Section 2

Section 1 of this article reviewed some facets of the development of the European Economic Community (EEC) and the later European Union. The EEC is identified as one of the ten regions planned in the Prieure de Sion and the Heads of Freemasonry. The EEC is of interest, particularly for its acceptance of the “Messiah” as “King” in the Jewish tradition. Many Christians, including Josephus, wrote extensively about the Essenes, and that his life and practices followed their teachings in great detail. All of this in the face of everything said in the New Testament about Immanuel, his followers and his teachings which contradict Lemesurier—Immanuel was not an Essene. (Please see my article in the 10/3/95 issue of CONTACT titled, “Freemasonry and the Essenes”, or The Rainbow Masters, Phoenix Journal #7, for more information.)

Numerous other authors have also promoted the idea of a coming Messiah, such as Josephus, who wrote about the Essenes in his works. For example, Josephus writes of a coming Messiah who will be called “Immanuel.” He describes how this Messiah will be seated on the throne of David in Jerusalem and will rule over the entire world. The Essenes, according to Josephus, were a group of Jewish ascetics who lived in seclusion and practiced asceticism. They were known for their strict adherence to the Torah and their believe in the coming of a Messiah who would bring peace and prosperity to the world. Please note that Josephus, who was a Jew of royal blood, does report that it was Pilate, at the "suggestion of the principle men among us, had condemned him [Jesus] to the cross". This is one reason why Josephus is generally not accepted today among the Jews in power. Further, this fact that it was the leaders of the Jews who were the promulgators of Christ's crucifixion, was also one of the church doctrines. Following W.W.I. the Jews insisted that this was the cause of their persecutions and must be removed from church doctrines. This was done by Popes John XXIII and Paul VI for the Catholic Church in Vatican Council II, in the early 60's. There was no real investigation of the charges or the actual causes of the Jew's persecutions, much less concern for the TRUTH of the matter of Christ's crucifixion. According to Vicomte Leon de Poncins, and a host of other authors and investigators, the Vatican had been heavily infiltrated by Masons, Knights of Malta, Communists and Zionists by the time of Vatican Council II. In my opinion, removing the Truth from Church doctrine was essential to the role Josephus called Jesus' followers the "tribe of Christians". Obviously, there is no mention whatsoever of a connection between Jesus and the Essenes. Further, the fact that the name "Essen" means "the high-priest's breastplate and orcale", according to Josephus, would suggest that the Essenes were actually strong advocates and supporters of the temple services, and could explain why Josephus included the Essenes among the "three philosophical sects" of the Jews. However, this interpretation of the name "Essen" is disregarded or overlooked in all of the literature that I have read or heard on the Dead Sea Scrolls, wherein all manner of other words and names are analyzed to "explain" the word "Essene". In the process many other groups are being included among the now ever expanding group of "Essenes"!

Immanuel/Sananda has said that the Essenes were a "nature cult", and this is confirmed by Edmond Bordeaux Szekely, who has written numerous books on the subject, which are published internationally. He states that his work agrees with some of the Dead Sea Scrolls held in separate storage by the Vatican! Therefore, I have to ask to wonder if Josephus' works have been tampered with in regard to the information on the Essenes. It was Josephus who was credited with ascribing "three philosophical sects" to the Jews (i.e., Sadducees, Pharisees and Essenes). However, we only find that information in Josephus' works, which are quoted in Bible Concordances containing related "historical" information. The name Essen is not found in the text of the Bible, and neither is it to be found among the Dead Sea Scrolls. It is possible that the material on the Essenes that Mr. Szekely claims he had access to, and which is stored in a separate location by the Vatican, was found earlier during some of the archeological explorations in the Middle East during the 18th and 19th centuries or earlier. This would explain why Szekely had no trouble interpreting the material, in comparison to the team of scholars working over for thirty years on the Dead Sea Scrolls in Jerusalem. Szekely identifies the Essenes in his work as a mystical, gnostic, nature cult. This does not harmonize with the idea that they were also strict followers of the temple services with all their grisly blood sacrifices. Therefore, it appears, we do not have all the facts and much has been withheld from us.

There was a Temple Scroll found among the Dead Sea Scrolls (we are told) which is a very detailed plan for a temple and its services. It describes a strictly controlled service with animal sacrifices. (Ref. The Temple Scroll by Yigael Yadin.) This would make it even more difficult to identify Jesus or his teachings with the Dead Sea Scrolls or group and/or the "Essens" described by Josephus. It appears to me that Immanuel's teachings are being suppressed today in favor of a return to a regressive Hebrew temple service, which he criticized in his time.

Whether or not the Dead Sea group or groups were, in fact, Essenes is conjectural at best, and can only be made, it appears, to fit into some "hopefully" coherent explanation by expanding the groups to include everyone in Palestine who was not a Sadducee or a Pharisee, something Josephus, Philo and Pliny did not do. The public still does not have verification of who the people were that left the cache of scrolls at the Dead Sea. Nevertheless, in my opinion, the purposeful propaganda about the "Essenes" tries to make it appear otherwise.

If you see Benjamin Creme's "Maitreya" (whom he also calls the "Messiah of the Jews", the "returning Christ", etc.) marching towards Jerusalem "from the East", leading a group of his followers, you will have it confirmed for you that Lemesurier and Creme were some of the early promoters (although not the directors) of this particular show. Nevertheless, the preliminary promotion has been so heavy and persevering that one cannot take the intent lightly. Interestingly, Lemesurier's "Essenes" and Benjamin Creme's "Maitreya" all wear long white garments, as do the Masons in some rituals.

If you are wondering why Lemesurier has the "Messiah" approaching Jerusalem "from the East", it is because, in my opinion, that agrees with Jewish temple worse and Masonic rituals—all “light” comes from the East, according to them. It could also be symbolic of the origin of the person (i.e., Creme’s “Maitreya” is said to have come to London by plane from Kashmir, India. Also, the Sassoon family originated in the “East”. There are possibly other connections of which I am not aware.). Everything must be made to fit into the overall plan in order to eventually bring all of the separate parts of the NWO together.

Remember, the Khazarian Jews accepted “Judaism” (actually, Babylonian Talmudism) in the 8th Century A.D. They are not Semites, per biblical accounts, but Ashkenazi Jews, sons of Japheth, not Sem (aka Shem). However, they were the most wealthy and powerful of the Jews. Further, they have been at this world domination project in earnest for the last two or three centuries. They are a mixture of Nordic, Mongolian, Russian, and Turkish origins. The Babylonian Talmud, the book that most of the Jews follow today, teaches the idea that the Jews are God’s chosen people, the only “men”. The “gentiles” are all animals fit only for slaves to the “Jews”, who are also “entitled” to all the wealth of the world, and to rule the world. The Khazars have incorporated this “religion” into their plans to make themselves rulers of a NWO and “religion”. One problem has been in identifying themselves as Semites, and “ascends of the House of David”, for the “Hebrew tradition” requires that only a descendent of King David can be the “Messiah of Israel”.

At the time Josephus’ works were translated and published in 1737, the Dead Sea Scrolls were not, and could not have been part of their plans. It is interesting that the translator of Josephus, Collected Works, William Whiston, A.M., was described by William Sanford La Sor, Ph.D. Th.D., in the forward to the book, as holding “that the Tatars were the lost tribes [lost ten tribes of Israel]”. Mr. Whiston was a professor at Cambridge, a scientist and theologian. You may recall that the “Tatars” were also called Tatars, Turks, Turkmen, Hittites, Suybians and Khazars(1). If the Tatars could be claimed to actually be “Israelites”, then the difficulties in identifying “descendants of David” among them would be considerably decreased. I do not know whether Whiston believed his seconded by others and/or whether it was widely held at the time. Neither do I know whether Whiston knew about the Khazar’s conversion to Judaism in the 4th century, which explains their “Jewishness”. Nevertheless, Whiston’s theory would undoubtedly have had some influence, and may have been an early attempt to equate the Khazars with the Israelis and the lineage of King David. It would be helpful to know why Mr. Whiston believed that the “Tatars” (aka Khazars) were the “lost ten tribes” of Israel. There is no further information in the “Foreword” to Josephus, Collected Works. There are some few entries in the Encyclopedia Judaica regarding descendants of King David. One family claiming this distinction, said also to have descended from the “ten lost tribes”, is the Bagratuni (aka Bagratids, Bagrats, etc.). However, their “claim” was said to have started in the 10th Century A.D., and is therefore not validated, it would appear. I have reviewed the “Descendants of King David” in a series of article in the CONTACT newspaper. (Issue dates are listed in the “Foreword” to Josephus, Collected Works.)

There are many gaps in the information available to the public and many conflicts between the various accounts. It would be indeed difficult to “prove” a descendent from King David today. On the other hand, if it is true that his son, King Solomon had 700 wives (from various races), then there must be an unidentifiable legion of descendants today, somewhere. C.M. Murray’s genealogy, which was printed in Section 1 of this article, was not published until 1993, referring to some legends, the use of biblical symbolism and some scripture. Murray’s work was printed by British Israel World Federation in 1984, about the same time as Creme and Lemesurier’s works were becoming known. All of these works are apparently efforting to make a “descendant of the House of David” (however questionable) from the line of “Elite”, either acceptable or plausible to the public. The public are no longer even talking about a Semitic King David, who is said to have ruled the people of Judea about 3,000 years ago, and who tried to follow God’s Laws. We are talking about a grand mixture of people and races but especially those who are Khazarian Jews, intermarried in some cases with Judeans. The only thing that distinguished “King David” at all was his connection to God. His life was certainly not perfect, and his “kingdom” was not perfect but, according to the Bible, God foretold it would happen to the people if they insisted on a king to rule over them (Ref: Samuel 8). The kingdom was divided and lost as a direct result of Solomon’s excesses.

Fortunately, Josephus, Collected Works was translated just three years before Frederick the Great became King of Prussia in 1740. Frederick was to become head of all Scottish Rite Freemasonry, and was a descendant of the same Hanoverian family as the English Monarchy. It was Frederick who declared that Jesus was an Essene in 1770, having no historical basis for that statement. Josephus proves that. In my opinion, this is a second reason why the Jews in power do not accept Josephus, they don’t want, Josephus’ separate statements about the “Essenes” and “Jesus” to be widely known. Jesus was not connected to the Essenes. The records regarding the Essenes are yet to be acknowledged by both the Vatican and Israel, even though they have had some recognition or claim, however questionable. There are some legends that the Essenes, like Edmond Bordeaux Szekely, became part of “New Age” groups. I believe the reason for this is because the Jews/Khazars are planning to rebuild the Temple of Solomon on the site of the present Islamic Mosque; and with all the promotion of the Dead Sea Scrolls, which included (we are told) a Temple Scroll, the official emphasis will be initiated on the Temple worship. However, the “nature cult”, which was connected with environmental philosophies and sexual promiscuity is also a vital part of the overall plan of the Communist Manifesto, Humanist Manifesto, Protocols of Zion and Adam Weishaupt’s (aka the old boy himself—Lucifer) Code. This is the reason why, in my opinion, the “nature cult” is being “unofficially” promoted. It is a reason similar to the “unofficial” promotion of the Goat God Baphomet (aka Goat of Mendes) by the Temples and the Masons of all the nations (aka Teleporting Bisons.). The ability to become invisible or to teleport oneself does not necessarily mean that the person is “spiritual” in the sense of following God’s Laws, according to Hatton. Further, I have heard that even the United Parcel Services (UPS) is considering some advanced technology which teleports their packages internationally. It will soon be common practice.

Does Maitreya follow God’s Laws? This is for you to discern. However, according to Mr. Creme in the question and answer section of Maitreya’s Mission, Vol II, Maitreya advocates abortion. According to Hatton, the people of the United States have now slaughtered

Bringing Some Clarity To Several Issues

7/31/96 #1 HATONN
FIFTH COLUMN

While we are on current "responses" I need to clarify some other things. At CONTACT there are received piles of documents that are never seen by me or my secretary. Grandma, for instance, writes and reads—EACH DAY. Those documents are not my responsibility to edit or critique. However, there now come several inquiries, of me, to see to it that more from the Fifth Column is presented in the paper. Say what, readers? What Fifth Column—the one from WW II, or Vietnam? No? Exactly what do you want? Then, reading on, it appears Grandma has stated briefly in one of her printed documents that the "Fifth Column" is giving information and making contact with CONTACT? NO, THIS IS NOT SO.

We write about the Fifth Column's work because it is THE most important work being accomplished in today's political circles—but we are very CAREFUL to speak only of things told to us by ones who seem to occasionally get some information—perhaps even from the insiders involved. That is not our focus nor is there any direct contact with anyone involved—THAT WE KNOW OF, AND I THINK I WOULD KNOW! We wish there was a contact because I'm sure this paper would be ever so much more interesting if this were the case.

Grandma says that Russell Herrman headed up the Fifth Column—well, no comment about what Mr. Herrman might have been or done but I told you, and Grandma, at the time, that Russell Herrman had/has NOTHING to do with THIS Fifth Column, but my surprise is that he would have been involved in the typical Fifth Column activities of his time. He was involved in just about every other clandestine group and activity—which serves us all dearly well today.

Grandma didn't and doesn't know "bunches of things" about either Herrman or what and who happened and were involved. Moreover, she has intelligence enough NOT TO TELL all she knows—I believe I'm certainly sure she does not tell us everything—why should she? She needs both privacy and security and so do WE!

We will print as much as we can afford spacewise and information wise on the Constitutional issues confronting a world—from her. We can do no better and in a FREE PRESS, which is our TOTAL GOAL of achievement at CONTACT, WE DO NOT EDIT OUT WHAT DISAGREES WITH OUR OPINIONS—THAT IS FOR YOU—THE PEOPLE TO DISCERN. If we find a statement we KNOW not to be correct we will offer our observations, nothing more—we will not change to suit our "rathers" any story to make it read "our way". We do hold forth the RIGHT to comment in our own newspaper!

So, back to the point, inquiring minds: if you can get us hooked up with a contact inside the Fifth Column—we would dearly ENJOY running all the information they will share with us. Until that time, we will continue to offer what we "hear from other sources" and hope it is the truth. We would rather print an error than to MISS the truth if it be so small an error as this. Just as there are dozens of "Phoenix Projects", because it is the going current point of easy confusion, so too are other errors and confusion created both intentionally and accidentally. One of the most surprising dissertations came recently from someone very, very DISTANT who sent some information on religious and Spiritual beliefs from one of your "channels" who stated: "George Ceres Hatonn is a VOO-DOO term for Satan."

This was quite a new and singularly dubious honor. Now I know how the Mormons feel in Japan. In parts of the Orient, and specifically in Japan, the term "Mor-" means "devil" or "satan" so the church missionaries must refrain from using the term. This is very similar to U.S. Troops having to wear U.N. "blue" and NOT SHOWING THE U.S. FLAG IN PUBLIC IN SAUDI ARABIA—IN SPITE OF BEING THERE SUPPERS-EDLY TO PROTECT THE FREEDOM OF THE SAUDIS. WELL, READERS, READ AND DISCERN FOR THIS IS THE TIME OF CHAOS (KALD)

This is much like calling one of the finest men on your globe, Little Crow, an anti-Christ Pagan. A dozen lies or errors does not one correct statement make. Perhaps that is what is wrong with rule by majority? The majority vote in favor of a LIE does not TRUTH MAKE. It may well change regulations and legal rules—it does not change or make valid the lies regarding the LAWS OF GOD OR CREATION. GOD'S AND CREATION'S TRUTH STANDS INTO INFIN-ITY—THE LIES COME AND GO AND EVENTUALLY FALL ACCORDING TO THEIR TIME. I also have great pressure to continue with Calvin Burgin's FIRE writings. However, life is what is happening while we still plan to finish his prior book. Sometimes our alarm clock bell rings SO LOUDLY it awakens the DRAGONS before it awakens the people. Publicity is the most beautiful form of security.

I have the same petition to make on behalf of Rodney Stitch and be patient with us all who seek to bring you facts and truth—it changes every day and there is no way to get it all "updated". This is WHY we update in diary format as "journals" and STILL, WE CAN'T BEGIN TO TOUCH THE IMPORTANT TOP-ICS, EVEN IN PASSING. Further, how sad it is that Madonna's book on illicit and perverted sexual practices will oust the truth a million to one. The gringer of TRUTH will die of starvation while the "she-devils" of perversion will feast on YOUR minds on golden-satin bed-sheets! Is there not something wrong with this picture?

DAVID ICKE

David Icke is another exceptional author. His new release is "AND THE TRUTH SHALL SET YOU FREE!" This is certainly a book that will make you think about the world we live in.

THE FARM (the outside of the house). Our friends who Salu. and Debbie Sullivan plan to come and finish painting at just one more very VISIBLE fact of life. There may be some work to be accomplished, i.e., Greg SIDERATION, basically, on either side. It has become because of the full schedule "elsewhere" of Dharma-political slot of Government-you-the-people have not "be here" but we see no reason visitors who plan to not have interest in truth and justice and have not in have to keep the same security petitions in place and VICTIMS ARE THE LAST PLAYERS GIVEN CON-

I can't plan on her to do much other than a chance of an icecube in Hell of justice. The courts do not have E.T.s to have the best fact IF THERE IS NOT ALLOWABLE HEARING IN THAT IS JUST ABOUT TO END, READERS, ON "HIS" THEIR ARMS AND LEGS-TO CONTINUE unable to help the ones who are actually our teammates. AT JUST WHO AND WHAT IS CHARGING HIM AND to raise funds on our own account so we have been AND PERHAPS HE SHOULD CAREFULLY LOOK them along with paying the speakers so there can be THE UNDERLYING CIRCUMSTANCES. We cer-entertainment, the GARBAGE you will find your world ever so much better, more interesting, and worthy of your journey through.

If you are coming here to visit and so, too, should David Icke, I'm sure you will be able to obtain his books directly from him and that makes it ever so much warmer and memorable. I know that you will not have to order the book, study it and then have much information input prior to that date so take this into consideration.

We have had to take such a low profile in our communities and publicly until these miserable encouters in the courts are through as to be impatient for such participation. This has also caused great inability to raise funds on our own account so we have been unable to help the ones who are actually our teammates. THAT IS JUST ABOUT TO END, READERS, ON OUR ACCOUNTS. Then, one of the first things we plan to BUILD is a hall where we can have these seminars along with facilities where people can come and stay while enjoying a vast array of speakers and participants. You don't need E.T.'s to have the best information available and, when our funding is in place—the costs will be as minimal as we can make them along with paying the speakers so there can be "living capability" for these brave and daring people who have tried to lead you! I am reminded by Dharma that one or two people have been somewhat "discouraged" about coming to visit this area in mid-August. This stance, I'm sure, is because of the full schedule "elsewhere" of Dharma—for sharing. I can't plan on her to do much other than "be here" but we see no reason visitors who plan to come to the area should change such plans. We will have to keep the same security petitions in place and there may be some work to be accomplished, i.e., Greg and Debbie Sullivan plan to come and finish painting at the farm (the outside of the house). Our friends who will run the research farm were on their way from Canada but have gotten stalled out because of unfinished red-tape so will not be able to be here for you to meet and enjoy. However, the trees at the farm make nice shade for a picnic—and there are nice broad spaces without trees which can also be a nice contrast. We are still in the mode of weed control in order to plant this Fall, so the fields are not planted and that offers handy use for other things.

Perhaps, even, Bob James would share his plane and piloting skills along with E.I. and give you visitors a view of this beautiful valley from the air. We note, also, that one of the events during the town Festival includes air rides, etc. There would be one advantage to local rides, however: the price is right—many of you can pitch in for gas. These are BOTH "instructor" pilots and Bob assures us the plane has just undergone its "annual" so is in excellent condition.

A few of you have thought of moving to this area. This might be a good time to look it over, for during the Mountain Festival the town is on good behavior and it would be a nice little vacation trip for anyone. It isn't exactly EXCITING on a daily basis—but it is fairly close-in routing to Disneyland, etc. We still have nasty laws on the books so please do not expect close encounters of the hugging kind but we are never, NEVER, absent from this location in one form or another!

Some of you have been fed some pretty bad trash about us and perhaps you might enjoy seeing, first hand, THE TRUTH. Then, to you who still hear regularly from the Green Brigade, don't believe what you are told. "They" keep telling you that the destruction of "us" and the Ekkers is at hand. Now, in fact, after this old case is over, we shall turn our full attention to these liars and cheats. There is full CONSPIRACY to destroy, damage, unfairly compete, and perjury to confront—yes indeed, IN COURT! They are letting Abbott and Horton contact O'Connor for hearing at the Supreme Court of the U.S.—GREAT! We have wondered just how to get a hearing THERE! THEY OBVIOUSLY HAVE FAR MORE FUNDS FOR STUPID AND FOOLISH LITIGATION THEN DO WE, SO HAVE AT IT. It seems hard to believe that they would go to a court to take up time of the U.S. Supreme Court in the face of TWO STATE SUPREME COURT RULINGS AGAINST THEM. Well, the U.S. Supreme Court has granted Abbott and Horton a time to enter their plea—but have NOT RENDERED A STAY OF LOWER COURT RULINGS (I wonder if that will matter in the least...?) The Supreme Court of the United States does not even have standing to consider this foolishness. MR. GREEN CLAIMS TO BE A MILLIONAIRE MANY TIMES OVER—SO WE ASSUME THAT TO BE CORRECT AND PERHAPS HE SHOULD CAREFULLY LOOK AT JUST WHO AND WHAT IS CHARGING HIM AND HIS" THEIR ARMS AND LEGS—TO CONTINUE THE SILLY COURT MOTIONS IN SPITE OF BEING RULED AGAINST OVER AND OVER AND OVER AGAIN!

By the way, people, we don't go down easily—in fact IF THERE IS NOT ALLOWABLE HEARING IN THIS PROPERTY CASE—WE WILL BOTH APPEAL IT AND ASK THE GRAND JURY TO INVESTIGATE THE UNDERLYING CIRCUMSTANCES. We certainly KNOW that if there is a ruling in favor of the Ekkers that Steven Horn WILL BEING. No, it NEVER ends when attorneys in this modern injustice system come into play. Further, since the world is now ruled by ATTORNEYS in every political slot of Government—you-the-people have not a chance of an icecube in Hell of justice. The courts do not have interest in truth and justice and have not in any kind of case for decades. Most certainly THE VICTIMS ARE THE LAST PLAYERS GIVEN CONSIDERATION, basically, on either side. It has become just one more very VISIBLE fact of life.

The Age Of Aquarius

7/21/86 RAY BILGER

The idea of the New Age, or the Age of Aquarius, first surfaced in a public institution for mass popularization, at Esalen Institute in Big Sur, California, which was founded in 1962. When Esalen took off in 1967 it became the mecca of hundreds of Americans who paid exhorbitant fees for weekends of T-Groups, the “Training Groups” modeled on behavioral group therapy; for Zen, Hindu and Buddhist transcendental meditation; and for “out of body” experiences through simulated and actual hallucinogenic drugs.

Esalen’s nominal founders were two transcendental meditation students, Michael Murphy and Richard Price, who had been through years of mind dissolution at the Aurobindo Ashram in Pondicherry, India. Murphy was a Stanford University Department of Psychology alumnus and former resident scholar at the Stanford Center for Advanced Study in the Behavioral Sciences (C.A.S.B.S.) during the late 1950s. Price was a Stanford University Medical Center behavioral psychologist who participated in Dr. Rudolf Moos’ experiments on patients at the Palo Alto Veterans Hospital and worked with Murphy at the C.A.S.B.S. during the same period.

In 1963, Abraham Maslow moved to Esalen. He is the author of Toward a Psychology of Being, which became Esalen’s bible. Maslow was a top group dynamics leader at National Training Laboratories before moving to Esalen, where he took over direction of Murphy and Price’s work.

National Training Laboratories was founded in 1947 with funding from the Office of Naval Research, the Carnegie Corporation, and with direct assistance from the Tavistock Institute of Human Relations of Sussex, England. N.T.L.’s staff came from the Institute for Social Research at the University of Michigan. The Institute for Social Research is the product of the 1947 merger between the Survey Research Center, founded in 1946, and the Center for Research in Group Dynamics.

The Survey Research Center has been described as the preeminent social profiling institution in the U.S.A. Through its connections to other polling services, such as the Gallup Poll and Harris Poll, it has the ability to get instant readings on the population’s response to policy initiatives, and to reshape response.

The Institute for Social Research was set up with original funding from the National Institute of Mental Health, the Rockefeller Foundation and the Department of the Navy. I.S.R. now does contract work for well over a hundred of the nation’s Fortune 500 firms.

Making note of these various institutions of social research and behavioral sciences is necessary to lay a clear foundation for the formation of Esalen and why the general population was introduced to the idea of the Age of Aquarius.

The Tavistock Institute of Human Relations, mentioned above, is the mother organization for all the other institutions mentioned, as well as many others not mentioned, including the Rand Corporation, the Stanford Research Institute of Stanford University, the Massachusetts Institute of Technology’s Alfred P. Sloan School of Management, the University of Pennsylvania’s Wharton School’s Management and Behavioral Science Institute, and so on. The point is that Tavistock controls the key business schools and related social engineering think tanks around the world. If this sounds too amazing, let’s check Tavistock.

Tavistock was founded as a clinic in 1921, to serve as a psychological think tank for the British Intelligence Services. The man who shaped Tavistock and who developed what is called the “Tavistock Method” was Brigadier General John Rawlings Rees. Rees recognized that the same techniques used in psychotherapy to cure an individual of his neuroses or psychoses could be applied to make him sicker. Rees proposed that this “retrogressive psychology” could be applied to large numbers of individuals, who could be driven neurotic or psychotic and therefore controlled. It is on this premise that the entire Tavistock method rests.

Thus, the psychological warfare that worked so well in World War II was, after the War, applied to the population at large. The tool for driving a society mad is repeated “psychological shocks” or “stressful events”. Sound like what we have today?

Rees reasoned that if population could be put through “stress tests” it was possible to first predict a response and then, through altering the range of perceived choices, to direct responses in an intended direction. In this way whole societies can be “profiled” and controlled. This is the essence of what is called a “controlled psychological environment”.

In today’s world where we have crisis after crisis, this scenario is played out in what is termed “crisis management”. The formula for “crisis management” is: crisis creation plus crisis solution equals crisis control. A crisis is created, and the desired solution is then introduced.

Rees’ goal was to use psychological shock troops to build a society “where it is possible for people of every social group to have treatment when they need it, even when they do not wish it, without its being necessary to invoke law”. Have they been successful?

With all of the above background in mind, let us now take up a summary presentation of what is meant by the Age of Aquarius, or the New Age or the Age of Aquarius, which the entire social psychology establishment is now mobilized to impose upon our society.

As you may well know, there are literally thousands of counter-culture newspapers and magazines which proclaim the coming of the New Age, the Age of Aquarius.

During the 1966-67 period a series of high-level N.A.T.O. conferences were held. Among those present was a fascist conspiracy, the N.A.T.O. official named Aurelio Pecci, and the then little-known Dr. Zbigniew Brzezinski. The final decisions of those N.A.T.O. conferences were to apply a series of long term policies throughout the Western World for the purpose of inducing a transition to a technologically “steady-state”, “zero-growth”, “post-industrial society”. The Soviet bloc was supposed to be skillfully induced to gradually evolve toward a similar type of “steady-state” equilibrium system. Following the N.A.T.O. conferences, the Council on Foreign Relations attempted to start the “induce-ment process” with the Soviets by jointly establishing the Vienna International Institute of Applied Systems Analysis. The S.A.T. arms control negotiations and nuclear non-proliferation processes got underway. Also, a massive increase in world drug traffic appeared.

Aurelio Pecci went to the Tavistock Institute in England and the brainwashing specialists of the Tavistock network went to work internationally. The era of government by “crisis management” had arrived.

In May of 1974 one of the organizations of the Tavistock network, the Stanford Research Institute, conducted a study entitled “Changing Images of Man”, Contract Number U.R.H. (489)-2150. From this, the Stanford Research Institute’s Center for the Study of Social Policy produced Policy Research Report No. 4.

The 319-page report was prepared by a team of 14 researchers and supervised by a supervisory panel of 23 controllers, including members from the United Nations and British Intelligence. Thus, a leaderless but powerful network was working to bring about radical change in the United States. This great shuddering, irrevocable shift overtaking us is not a new political, religious or philosophical system. It is a new mind—the ascendance of a startling world view. People, generally, do not seem to be able to comprehend what kinds of motivation our brainwash social-psychologists could possibly have for doing this to us. If the motivation cannot be comprehended, then the motivation “does not exist”. And if the motivation does not exist, then the “Aquarian Conspiracy” does not exist; therefore the “Aquarian Conspiracy”.

To top all this, in July of 1980, a major international conference was held in Toronto, Canada, under the title of “First Global Conference on the Future”, attended by over 4,000 social engineers, cybernetics experts and futurists from all the think tanks. The purpose of the conference, in the words of its chairman, Maurice Strong, chairman of Petro-Canada and a high-ranking British Intelligence officer during World War II, “The time has come to move from thinking and dialogue to action. This conference will become the launching pad for that important action to occur in the 1980’s”. Close investigation of the preparatory activities of the conference participants and the in-house studies of the social-engineering think tanks that participated, has confirmed conclusively that the “decisive action” the chairman was speaking about was nothing less than the brainwashing of the entire human species.

Take a look, for a moment, at just what our eyes have seen and our ears have heard. Our society is now able to hear every hour of the day and night for at least the last fifteen years. We have heard about sex education programs in which grammar school children are instructed in masturbation and “alternate life styles” such as homosexuality, transvestitism, lesbianism, prostitution, and so forth. We have heard, or seen, or lost relatives to the Hare Krishna, the Moonies, and numerous other exotic religious cults. We have seen or heard about the charismatic movements, liberation theology, the new religious fundamentalism, the P.T.L. (“Praise the Lord”) shows on television, and of course we have Islamic fundamentalism coming out of our ears. We are also well aware that this country right now is going through the worst drug epidemic in its history. Alcoholism, drug addiction and suicide are at all-time highs. (As an irony to this, if one reads the well-documented book by Rodney Stich, entitled Deceiving America, we see that the very U.S. Government agencies which were supposed to be fighting the "war on drugs", are instead actively involved in bringing massive quantities of drugs into this country; namely, the Central Intelligence Agency, the Drug Enforcement Agency, and the U.S. Customs Service.) And, violence and criminal activity are widespread and increasing.

This picture is only the raw empirical side of the story. The surface impression that every citizen gets is merely observing what is going on. A closer examination of the matter, as has been outlined in this paper, indicates that approximately 15 million of our citizens are participating in one active form or another in the outfits of this organized insanity.

Those persons who feel that all of what is happening is somehow an aberration, are generally being grossly misinformed by the very controlled media they expect to be bringing us the truth. The truth is, they are bringing us propaganda.

The central conclusion that should be reached upon finishing a careful examination of all of the above is that the moral, material, cultural and intellectual decay that you are witnessing every day in our cities and towns is not accidental, not a "sociological phenomenon", not an "act of god", but a deliberately induced social crisis.

As this "system" works upon us and our families, you may witness your once-gifted, bright, agile child gradually turn into a withdrawn, passive zombie listening endlessly to rock-and-roll, all the fire gone out, all interest in the future extinguished. For you, life may become empty of significance, you may become discouraged, demoralized, withdrawn—and not surprisingly. You have been preprogrammed to react with rejection and withdrawal. On the basis of this reaction-formation, they plan to brainwash you just as they have done to your child. We must continually be lied to because those armed with the truth are not easily controlled.

As an example, to name but a few, the New Left movement, the Vietnam War, the antiwar movement, the Watergate scandal, environmentalism and the slow and deliberate destruction of American technology were all preplanned social-engineering projects.

New Age thinkers (those who have been successfully brainwashed by the formulations and policies of our social-engineering think tanks) would have us believe, just as they have been told, that indeed there are bad things going on in the world, but that a new age of enlightenment is coming, and all we need do is meditate on positive energy and send light and love to the negative, and things will somehow get better. To meditate on the light and love of God can certainly be good, but to fail to take the concrete actions which are necessary to oust our controllers makes us the unwitting tools who help perpetuate their policies and allows them to hit us with even more of their corrupt plans. This practice escalates spirally until we are so utterly confused, and such chaos reigns, that we are easily controlled and manipulated to do exactly what they want us to do at any given moment.

Until we all stand up and not only demand, but actually create, meaningful changes ourselves, there is little hope of reversing our downward course. With all of the means of control beyond the comprehension of most of us, it is difficult to see much good coming our way.

Therefore, we must not react in the predictable way we have been preprogrammed to do. We must resist being selfish in our private agony. We must now grow greater than our private agony and concern ourselves with the agony of our nation.

In short, it is time to wake the town and tell the people. Is this the Age of Aquarius, or the age of who controls who for what reasons? (Much of the information contained herein can be corroborated in the book by Dr. John Coleman entitled Conspirators' Hierarchy: The Story of the Committee of 300.)

CUI RON O? BLASTS REVIVE LEGISLATION

Everything is connected and fits together to fuel the NWO agenda. For example, government-sponsored acts of “terrorism” are useful scams to focus condemnation on targeted groups—“right wing radicals,” Arabs—enemies of the Khazarian empire, wherever they may lurk. Whenever you wonder the purpose behind some news “event,” just observe what comes next. This example comes from the July 30 issue of the (Los Angeles) DAILY NEWS. [quoting:]

WASHINGTON—After back-to-back explosions that killed and maimed Americans, Democrats and Republicans in Congress are promising to swiftly pass counterterrorism measures that they rejected this spring. [They were “motivated”! And who is targeted by “counterterrorism measures”? Enemies of the NWO—law-abiding citizens who prefer God’s laws and the Constitution to the Noahide Laws—maybe YOU!]

Congressional leaders met Monday with President Clinton, Attorney General Janet Reno and FBI Director Louis Freeh, and later agreed to gather again today to craft a list of new protections [and who are we protecting?]. Leaders in both parties agreed to try to rush the measures through Capitol Hill by Friday, when Congress will begin its summer recess [a well-planned “rush job”]. But the legislation could be slowed because of concerns over civil liberties and opposition from gun lobbyists.

“When the bomb went off in Centennial Park in Atlanta, that park immediately became our national common ground, a symbol of our determination” to defeat terrorism, President Clinton said at the start of Monday’s meeting. House Speaker Newt Gingrich, “speaking as a representative of Atlanta and a representative of the people of Georgia,” pledged “to cooperate in any way we can.” [He always HAS, hasn’t he?]

Congressional leaders also agreed to reconsider a half-dozen Clinton proposals, including:

An amendment to the Electronic Communications Privacy Act to allow law officers to conduct “roving wiretaps” on criminal suspects who switch phones frequently, and to get copies of suspects’ local phone records.

A change in the Posse Comitatus Act that strictly limits the use of the military in law enforcement. The amendment would allow military experts to investigate cases in which biological, chemical or nuclear weapons are used. [We’ve been soft on that will sit puch-out via “subtle” propaganda in movies like Outbreak.]

The creation of a protocol that allows law officers to gain access to computer data transmitted in code.

A faster and more sweeping study on the potential uses of “taggants,” chemical markers that can help trace the sources of some explosives.

Making it a federal crime to post bomb-making instructions on computer networks.

POLICE STATE BRIEFS

Soon the country will be as “secure” as New Jersey, as reported in a recent issue of the MCALVANY INTELLIGENCE ADVISOR and reprinted in the August issue of MEDIA BYPASS. [quoting:]

Republican New Jersey Gov. Christine Whitman signed into law Assembly Bill No. 221. This law makes a crime involving an unlawful sale: transport or disposal of a firearm punishable by mandatory sentence of life imprisonment with a minimum of 25 years before being eligible for parole and up to a $500,000 fine.

Never before in the history of U.S. gun control has a pure anti-gun law (not involving the unlawful use of a firearm against another) been so harsh and extreme in its penalty. [That’s the way a police state is created—the little-by-little, day-by-day erosion of liberty until, at the last, the gate snaps shut!]

S&L BAILOUT COST COOL HALF-TRILLION

By Richardson W. Stevenson of THE NEW YORK TIMES, this article appeared in the July 13 issue of the MODESTO (California) BEE, [ quoting:]

WASHINGTON—The most comprehensive government study so far on the costs of the savings and loan bailout was released Friday by the General Accounting Office [I guess we won’t have to worry about that???], placing a total price tag on the debacle of nearly a half-trillion dollars—including more than $130 billion from taxpayers. The figures are roughly in line with previous estimates, and include both direct and indirect costs as well as interest payments on uninsured deposits for decades. The money went to clean up the financial mess from the failure of more than 700 savings institutions in the 1980s and early 1990s as a result of mismanagement, fraud and an economic downturn in states like Texas and California.

“The bad news in this report is that the cost of the failure of many thrift institutions, with interest, approaches half a trillion dollars and that taxpayer accountability due to bonds issued will continue through the year 2030,” said Rep. Jim Leach, R-Iowa, chairman of the House Banking committee. “The good news is that America’s financial institutions today are stronger and sounder than in many years, that the bank and savings and loan insurance funds are positively capitalized and that prudent regulation is in place.” [Better do a LOT of reading between THOSE lines!]

BIBLE-QUOTER LOSES CONTEST, KILLS WINNER

I thought I’d pass along this recent Associated Press account as an example of a bizarre turn of irony. [quoting:]

DADEVILLE, Ala. (AP)—A man who lost an early-morning Bible-quoting contest killed the man who beat him, police said. Gabel Taylor, 38, was shot once in the face outside his apartment Thursday. Police are searching for the suspect, whose name was not released and who is believed to have left Dadeville, about 15 miles northeast of Montgomery, Police Chief Terry Wright said. Taylor, a preacher’s brother and the suspect were comparing their Bible knowledge outside an apartment complex, each quoting different versions of the same passage, police said. The suspect retrieved his Bible and realized he was wrong, witnesses said. “He said Taylor did know more and that made him mad,” Wright quoted witnesses as saying. The man threatened Taylor, saying, “I’ll kill you before the night is out.”

DOLPHINS SAVE MAN FROM SHARK ATTACK

This upbeat report comes from the July 26 issue of the (Fort Worth, Texas) STAR-TELEGRAM. [quoting:]

CAIRO, Egypt—Martin Richardson of Britain went for a swim Tuesday among dolphins but found they were much more than gentle playmates. They can be lifesavers. Richardson, 29, was swimming a half-mile off Marsa Baraika in the Red Sea when a shark attacked him. “Something took a bite of my side,” Richardson said Wednesday from el-Tur. “I started panicking for a bit, then it took another chunk of my upper arm.” Richardson’s companions then watched as three bottlenose dolphins encircled the wounded man, and slapped their fins and tails to scare off the shark. “This defensive behavior of dolphins is common when mothers are protecting their calves from predators,” said a statement by the Recanati Center for Maritime Studies at the University of Haifa in Israel. The statement said the dolphins continued to circle for several minutes until Richardson’s companions reached him. Richardson should be released from the hospital next week.

Clinton and Gingrich, capitalizing on explosion at Centennial Park, meet with congressional leaders to push "security measures."
farm to scout out new slaves. They talked excitedly about the prospect of winning large sums of money through gambling on rigged games. I had been aware for years that many professional players, particularly Lasorda, were mind-controlled and triggered to win or lose according to their own bets and favors. The Dodgers, Reagan’s “favorite American pastime” ball team continuously won the World Series during his Administration. The Mafia was in on the betting, and information was passed to certain ones through Thornburgh and others as gleaned from my “baseball computer” programming. [End of quoting.]

MIND-CONTROL MANAGER
LASORDA RETIRES

Things are NOT as they appear! Nowhere is this more true than in the mainstream media. Baseball—that “wholesome American pastime” is the supreme example. Here are a few news snippets on the retirement of the Dodgers’ much touts manager, Tommy Lasorda, from the July 30 issue of the (Los Angeles) DAILY NEWS, [quoting:]

Tom Lasorda, manager of the Dodgers for 19 1/2 seasons, announced his retirement Monday, one month after he suffered a heart attack.

After the (heart attack), you begin to think of so many other things that are important,,” said Lasorda, his voice choking with emotion. “I got to thinking about my little granddaughter and how I’d like to be around when she goes to school. I’d like to spend time with my wife and my daughter and my son-in-law.”

The Dodgers’ perennial father figure, now old enough to be some of his players’ grandfather, fittingly said his official goodbye before a few of the children Monday. Everyone noticed stars Mike Piazza and Eric Karros sitting in the crowd, listening to Tom Lasorda announce his retirement after 20 years a Dodgers manager. But nearly lost in the rear of the Stadium Club, hiding behind a pair of dark sunglasses, pitcher Chan Ho Park also showed up to witness the farewell. “I said ‘I must be here and see it,”’ Park said. “I feel very sad. He’s like a father. He’s my American father. He takes care of me. I want to play here and show him I can play many, many games.”

Baseball was his game, but motivation was his life. From selling diet supplement drinks to getting sick and tired of certain mind-controlled baseball players. Zerilla and Thornburgh were driven north to the Dominican Republic to the CIA baseball mind-control farm, hiding behind a pair of dark sunglasses.

DAYS COME AND DAYS PASS

Is today, August 1, 1996, not quite the same as yesterday, the 31st of July, 1996? Unless something outrageous happens BOTH dates will be lost in the entropy of passage. Depending on whatever might be your occupation, it is likely that you won’t even take note of the event of the change. However, if you, like Dharma, have to keep logs and diaries, you will, of necessity for the records, have to note the details of time and time’s correct labels. She has just had to change from July to August and do all the other things in the “heading” for file reference—and note of the event of the change. However, if you, like Dharma, have to keep logs and diaries, you will, of necessity for the records, have to note the day count.

I find that interesting for in only a few short days there will come a NEW YEAR which ends a decade IN THE TRANSITION PERIOD COMPARABLE TO B.C./A.D. (or now, C.E. for Common Era). But readers, you can’t label passage of sequence to simply fit a “man’s” pattern or perception. There is order in the Universe and to change a date, a year, a Planet—does not do anything to the Universe.

Energy changes Universal perceptions and reality.

OK, now you know about Grandfather’s death—what impact has it now? Let us surmise that Grandfather was elderly and had Alzheimer’s with cancer and in pain all the time. You loved him, or maybe you didn’t but, either way—you likely judge the lack of real emotion you feel because you thought it better he be transitioned anyway.

But, now suppose that Grandfather was quite young and owned the VERY BUSINESS in which you would TAKEN by a hostile takeover and Grandfather was actually murdered—so, you have no Grandfather, no position, no business and are faced with ongoing legal fees for finding the killers. In addition, your Father had an emotional breakdown and was injured in an accident (the “staged” accident) which took the Grandfather. So, now, there is no one with whom you can have counsel. You come home to also find your Mother with terminal cancer and your Grandmother in a most expensive “ret” home, your wife’s (or husband’s) has left you, and the kids are in juvenile incarceration for drug selling!

Things have suddenly taken a sharp turn onto your plate—have they not?

If you had known of the things taking place, as they took place you may well have been able to change the entire scenario.

Rod Ence/Enx told “Mr. Kentucky” that our work was stupid because “for instance, why should I give a damned thing?” And why don’t they? Further, you will find that you can only remember a “thing” if it impacts YOU.

Great wars begin, but if you are unaware of the start—you will only remember WHEN IT IMPACTED YOU! This is WHY it is so easy to distract and lie to you. Let me use an example: say that your Grandfather dies but you are away on a sabbatical leave working in Lower Slobovia and have no mail access. Grandfather dies the day you leave for your trip and you are gone for several years without news of home. When does the impact of Grandfather’s death strike you? UnHummnnn, when you FIND OUT killer.

You ALWAYS have God Control and Creative abilities—and if you TRUST THAT you WILL prevail—for the happening as it is unfolding is but an illusion of interfering individual perceptions. KNOW WHY YOU DO SOMETHING—AND IT IS IMPORTANT OR NOT EVEN GERMANE TO THE OVERALL PURPOSE OF YOUR JOURNEY.

You may find THE TRUTH and realization “happens”. It can only, however, happen IN LIGHT if you experience and open self to that truth IN LIGHT. If you only follow the Dark Banditos you are going to be stuck with ignorance and dark revelation. If nothing matters “but self” you will be stuck with a VERY IGNORANT SELF! When you, further, effort at convincing others to join into YOUR IGNORANCE OF DELIBERATE LIES, you err even more greatly—for you then bear responsibility of blinding another and, in God’s world of perfect goodness—that becomes a far larger error than that which only attends “self”. When you MISTRAIN that which is left into your care, i.e., children, you have grossly erred for those children are YOUR responsibility to nurture in the ways of righteousness that THEY might find eternal LIFE in the places of the Lamb, in the security of the Perfect Shepherd.

If your child sees you take even a bolt from a piece of equipment to harm another or cause loss to another and you hide it with full intent of bringing damage—what is the child to do? What is the child to think? If you have no signs of importance save unto self—what is the child to become? The child KNOWS TRUTH. you do not feel a child—but you CAN train a child—and he will loathe you for your shortcomings when he comes into realization. If you lie—you teach lying or betrayal. If he sees you lie—he either has to betray himself, you, or TRUTH and this rests on SOUL like a shroud of death. If you make your children choose between your example and TRUTH—guess what! Since the child knows the difference—first goes respect and, after there is no longer respect—the child, in his misery, will make WRONG CHOICES to damage himself and HURT YOU. Ultimately it will only be himself he can damage—but that will not relieve you of your own penalties and self-hatred for accomplishing his troubles. You can rectify these things through forgiveness, self-forgiveness, TRUTH, LOVE and total integrity—but damage is slow to heal if there is no foundation of TRUTH and responsibility to base a new building, the individual will always have no worthy foundation and will base his own existence on greed, having, envy and all those things which pulled down the “Father”. This is what is meant about “THE SINS OF THE FATHER ARE RESTED ON THE SON”, ETC. A good “Mother” is not an offset—only a blessing to the extent she can build some semblance of foundation. Likewise when the roles are reversed.

HOMOSEXUALITY

Homosexuality is NOT a deviation into some form of perversion—it comes as a result of THE LIE. When an individual at any level realizes that life is NOT AS TOLD OR TAUGHT, the retreat is into that which is ACCEPTABLE. Since the children of today do not know except what they see as being acceptable—will try to fit into that which “seems” reasonable. I.e., I can’t get along with the opposite sex and I don’t feel any of the things I’m told are so wonderful and expressive, so I MUST BE different and, therefore, I must be “whatever”.

Surely if you don’t feel like hopping into every bed you see in the afternoon soaps—how can you be “normal”? Mommy watches that and enjoys it—so it is ME who doesn’t understand—goes the child’s mind. Moreover, Daddy watches and reads about all those things big people do and I don’t think beating up or hurting Mommy is right—so I’ll do something else or become an abuser myself. Respect is absent for parents have, now, an entirely different set of complications in their own decision of actions. But if that man stole from you just to make greedy acquisition, nothing makes his actions worthy. This can hold true for lost land, houses, cars—anything. But even in these things—SOUL’S RESPONSE IS THAT WHICH IS URGENTLY IN NEED OF FOCUS. Why do you struggle? Why do you feel badly if things don’t “go your way”? Does that make you feel wrong—or is, possibly and today quite probably, the system sick and in need of change?

CHANGING FOCUS

Let us turn now to a bit of THE HOAX OF JUDEO-CHRISTIANITY. I am told that we got to “the good part” and stopped writing—you know, that part about aliens! Perhaps we can begin to alternate writings so we don’t leave the “Hoax...” altogether, even though you can now get the original manuscript. Sorry, editors.

THE HOAX OF JUDEO-CHRISTIANITY

by Calvin Burgin

[QUOTING, PART 8:]

[H: Since it has been a while since we wrote from this particular manuscript we might catch you up enough to remind you that we were writing about “KHAR-SAG” which according to “Ennoch” was the Garden of Eden. When they were driven from the Garden, Kharsag was moved to Mt. Hermon, a mountain on the northeastern border of Palestine near Lebanon and Syria. There is a modern village in Lebanon called Ehdin (Eden). Mr. Burgin had suggested you get a good map of Iraq and you can see a river to the right of the Tigris that intersects roughly about the area of Basra. This was the Pison. If it is a really good map, you will see a Wadi to the left of the EUPHRATES that intersects at roughly the same area. This was the Gihon, and is now a river only when it rains. With that small catch-up we will take up directly where we left off in “Part 7”. Please also recall that we had just begun to speak of the “extra-terrestrials”, the Anunnaki and other connections.]

In the tablets called the Epics of Kharsag is a story called the “Creation Myth”. The opening lines, per O’Brien, [an author, please reference prior chapter] say: “At Kharsag, where Heaven and Earth met, the heavenly Assembly, the Great Sons of Anu, descended—the many Wise Ones.” Anu and Anunnaki are related words.

It is curious to me that Kharsag, on Mt. Hermon, “where Heaven and Earth met”, is the same Mt. Hermon where, according to commentators, Jesus had the Transfiguration and where Satan took Jesus and tempted Him with the offer of kingship over all the Earth. This is more circumstantial evidence that the ancient clay tablets were based on facts or at least a common story thread. If they made up the story, why did they choose Mt. Hermon?

This group of Sons of God were led by Enlil (Lord of Cultivation) and his wife-to-be, Ninlil, who was also referred to as Ninkharsag (Lady of Kharsag). Others in the group were Uto, also called Ugmash and later Shamash by the Babylonians, and who, according to O’Brien, was the Ogmus of the Celts and the Ogma of the Old Iris (p. 40)! He was deified by the Babylonians as the Sun-god and became the forerunner of Apollo and others.

They were organized into a council of Seven and had periodic meetings in the original Mountain House. Occasionally, Anu, the Most High, joined in their meetings.

O’Brien’s book has a photograph of statues of the Lady Ninlil and Enlil standing side by side.

The Kharsag Epic 1 tells of Ninkharsag arguing with the Council about where to build Kharsag. Here are a few lines:

They all turned around as she stood up to answer.

She spoke rebelliously—she spoke strongly: “With this Settlement will come prosperity; an enclosed Reservoir—a water trap—should be established.

The good land is full of water; because of the water, food will be plentiful.

This perfect Eden is full of water; it should be irrigated from a cascading water-course.

By its side, a great, protected water course would gush forth—it would increase production; storm-filled, power would be generated by its pressure; this water would flow from the Reservoir.”

Then in subsequent lines she speaks of building a house, a garden, a granary, roads, a “maternity building for mothers”, an orchard, and of “testing the food soil”. What did she mean by “power would be generated by its pressure”? She calls herself the Serpent Lady. She tells of her and Enlil and their son Ninurta getting sick, then she says the cause was, “Father, eating meat is the great enemy.” Further down, after a broken part, it reads:

“...where the Lord prohibited the eating of beef. Many had eaten [broken]... where the sickness... [broken].”

She won her arguments and the buildings and canals were established where she wanted them.

Ugmash was responsible for solar observations and surveying and became known as the Sun god. He was thus the original Magi.

Kharsag Epic 2 is the one usually called the “Creation Myth”.

The Creation Myth tablets tell that before the Anunnaki arrived:

“Man had not yet learned how to eat and how to sleep; had not learned how to make clothes or permanent dwellings. People crawled into their dwellings on all fours; they ate grass with their mouths like sheep; they drank storm-water from the streams.”

Could this be talking about cave-men? Perhaps, but I suspect that the fallen angels were on the Earth before and during the time of the cave-men, yet this story tells of them coming after. It could be that this particular group of angels were the only ones interacting with humans and thus the only ones that appear in the records.

O’Brien says that Ninlil later became known as Astarte and Venus. Kharsag Epic 3 is a love story about Enlil and Ninlil, and is a story that would be censored out of a children’s book (well, perhaps not these days).

Kharsag Epic 4 begins:

“My Prince - Great Ox of unbridled strength; Splendid Serpent of the shining eyes; Teacher of the digging of all canals; Great Ox of unbridled strength; Splendid Serpent of the shining eyes...”

“Lucifer” means “bright star” and may be related to the “Splendid Serpent of the shining eyes”, and this “Great Ox” appears to be the origin of bull worship (remember the golden calf in the story of Moses).
Khosrag Epic 5 tells of building the settlement and a reservoir, and tells of cutting cedar trees (what we later called the Cedars of Lebanon).

Khosrag Epic 6 tells of building the Great House of the Lord Enlil, which had the house with nursery and private boudoir for Ninlil, a Council Chamber, a Banqueting room, and rooms for the other members of the Council. It was lighted at night and had running water from the reservoir. It was made of cedar.

In this epic Enlil is called the Great Son of Anu and is also called the Bull Lord.

Khosrag Epic 7 tells of a great winter storm flooding.

Enoch's Story

The Books of Enoch were translated into modern English by Dr. R. H. Charles of Merton College, Oxford, England. He said of this book or books:

"Nearly all the writers of the New Testament were familiar with it, and were more or less influenced by it in thought and diction. It is quoted as a genuine production of Enoch by St. Jude, and as scripture by St. Barnabas. The authors of the Book of Jubilees, the Apocalypse of Baruch, and 4 Ezra, laid it under contribution. With the earliest Fathers and Apologists it had all the weight of a canonical book.

"The citations of Enoch by the Testaments of the Twelve Patriarchs and by the Book of the Jubilees, that show that at the close of the second century BC, and during the first century BC, this book was regarded in certain circles as inspired. When we come down to the first century AD, we find it recognized as scripture by St. Jude."

Some have said the Book of Enoch is a late date forgery. This is disproved by the fact that over 800 scrolls that were found at Qumran called the Dead Sea Scrolls, there were 11 copies of the Book of Enoch (The Dead Sea Scrolls After Forty Years by Shanks, Vanderkam, McCarter and Sanders, Biblical Archaeological Society, 1990, p. 27). The Book of Enoch was accepted as scripture by some of the earliest Christians until it fell out of favor about 400 years after Christ.

The Anunnaki are called Watchers in the Book of Enoch. Also Daniel 4:13: "I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and, behold, a watcher and an holy one came down from heaven." Enoch was an ancestor of Methuselah and of Lamech, father of Noah.

Moffatt, Dan. 4:13: "In the visions of my brain in bed I looked, and there was one of the angel-guard!" In other words, the word translated as "Watcher" really could be translated "Guardian-Angel".

Robert Graves and Raphael Patai, in Hebrew Myths, The Book of Genesis, says, p. 84, "'Watchers' ( egregoriakoi in Greek), the name given to Satan's angels in the Second Book of Enoch, seems to be a rendering of two Aramaic words: irin, applied to the angels in Daniel 4:10, 14, 20 (10 and 20 must be a mistake); and quaddishin, 'holy ones'. A nearer translation would be 'guardian angels', which agrees both with their functions and the meanings of their names.

And in the ancient book Tehillim un Psalm it refers to the deity Eloah."

"Some people refuse to accept the evidence that says that angels fathered children with human women. If you look at the evidence with an open mind, there can be no doubt that the documents say this is true; whether it is actually true or not, I cannot say. The Septuagint Bible, the Bible of the time of Christ, says "angels" instead of "sons of God". Josephus (Antiquities of the Jews, Book 1, Chap. 3, v. 1) says: "Many angels of God now consorted with women, and begot sons of them who were overbearing and disdainful of every virtue; such confidence had they in their strength. In fact, the deeds that our tradition ascribes to them recall the audacious exploits told by the Greeks of the giants. But Noah... urged them to adopt a better frame of mind and amend their ways." Josephus was perhaps on the right track: many of the so-called "Greek gods" were in fact REAL BEINGS, beings that were called "Nephilim" in the Bible.

A recent entry in a section called "I. M. Boyd" in our local newspaper said that the word "heroes" originally applied to beings who were half/human and half/divine. The dictionary shows that one of the definitions of "hero" is "demigod". L. A. Waddell, The Makers of Civilization in Race & History, said (p. xix) "Heroic Mythology has its historical human basis now disclosed for the first time, showing the identity between the civilized traditions of the East and the West, and the connection of both with the primitive Aryan or Nordic race and language. We get behind the beginnings of heroic mythology. A vast deal of what has hitherto been looked upon as 'prehistoric' and mythical becomes historic and real. Heroes who have been raised into gods again take form as men, and as historic early Aryan kings of relatively fixed dates, such as those of the ancient Greeks and Romans, Egyptians and Hittites, Persians and Indo-Aryans, as well as of the Goths, Scandinavians and Germans, Ancient Britons, Irish and Anglo-Saxons, such as Zeus, Jove or In-piter, Indra, Prometheus, Atmu, Adamann, Adam, Aor Odin, Thor or Hel-Thor or Ar-Thor of the Round Table... Cain, Enoch, Noah and Japheth, Nimrod the mighty hunter and city-builder, Dardanos, Erich-tholans, Heracles, Bacchus, Osiris with Iris and Horus, Barat or Bribat the eponymous ancestor of Brutus-the-Trojan and the British... are found before their deification or canonization to have been famous Sumerian or Early Aryans and emperors of relatively fixed dates, most of them with still existing contemporary monuments. Their historicity thus can be reconstructed by the Sumerian monumental inscriptions and records, supplemented with the accounts of them preserved in the Indian Chronicles and the Gothic or Nordic Eddas."

On p. xxi he says, "That the first earthly kings were 'gods' is now seen to be based on historical fact." This was published in 1929.

Graves and Patai, Hebrew Myths, says, p. 106: "The Nefilim (Fallen Ones) bore many other tribal names, such as Enuiu (Terrrors), Rephaim (Weakens), Bibborim (Giant Heroes), Zamzummimm (Achievers), Anakim (Long necked or Wears of Necklaces), Awwim (Devastators or Serpents). One of the Nefilim named Arba is said to have built the city of Hebron, called 'Kiriath-Arba' after him, and become the father of Anak whose three sons, Sheshai, Ahiman and Taalm, were later expelled by Joshua's ombrade Caleb. Since, however, in Hebrew, Kiriath-Arba may originally have meant 'City of Four', a reference to its four quarters mythically connected with the Anakite clans: Anak himself and his 'sons' Sheshai, Ahiman and Taalm."

Many of the names of the Nefilim are known: Hiwa, Hya, Azazel, Ishtar, Nimrod, Shemhazai, Aax, etc. In fact the whole land of Canaan contained many Nefilim before Joshua killed them (Num. 13:32). So says the story.

"Now let's continue with the story of Enoch. This is 2 Enoch I beginning in v. 2:"

"On the first day of the month, I was alone in my house, and was resting on my bed. And as I was sleeping, I dreamt that a great grief came over me and that I wept; and I could not understand why I felt like this, or what was going to happen to me."

"I awoke to find, in my room, two very tall men difference from anything that I have seen in the Lowlands. Their faces shone like the Sun, and their eyes burned like lamps; and the breath from their mouths was like smoke. Their clothes were remarkable—being purplish [with the appearance of feathers]; and on their shoulders were things which I only describe as 'like golden wings'.

"They stood by the head of my bed and I was awakened by them calling me by name, and I clearly saw them standing in front of me. I bowed my head to them and hit my face, and they said to me: 'Do not be afraid, Enoch; the Great Lord has sent us to you and, today, you are to go with us up to the Highlands. Now tell your sons and tell your sons that they must manage without you down here, and tell them that no one is to come looking for you. Eventually, you will be brought back'.

"So I obeyed them. I went out of the house and called my sons—Methuselah, Regim and Goidal, and told them these men had said to me.

"When I had spoken to my sons, the men called me. They showed me the place where they had put me on what seemed to be a cloud, and this cloud moved, and on the summit we could see the sky around and, still higher, I seemed to be in Space. Eventually, we landed on the First Haven and, there, they showed me a very great sea, much bigger than the inland sea where I lived."

NOTE: The Greek word translated "Space" was "ether", which meant the region above Earth's atmosphere. The word translated "Heaven" was "Theoria", which originally meant a "park" or "sanctuary", but some think it means Heaven. I believe it also referred to the Garden of Eden, which existed until the Flood, but in this case they clearly left Earth's atmosphere.

"And he was raised aloft on the chariot of the spirit—and his name vanished from among them." Recall that Genesis 3:24 says, "Enoch walked with God: and he was not; for God took him." The word above translated "spirit" was "pneuma", which literally meant air (as in our word pneumatic). So Enoch was taken up in an "air-chariot", or what we now call an airplane! Or more specifically, it was a type of space shuttle. The word "name" that "vanished from among them" would make more sense it translated "ship" as per Stichkin.

"They [the two men] conducted me to a place where those who were there were as bright as fire, but when they wished they could appear as ordinary men, and brought me to a place of darkness from a mountain whose summit reached to the heavens. There I saw lighted places, and heard thunderous noises; and, in the deepest part, there were lights which looked like a fiery bow and arrows with their quiver, and moving lights like a fiery sword."

Could this have been a "space station"? Angels definitely do use some sort of vehicle for transportation. One is described in the first chapter of Ezekiel, where preachers call the "flying saucer chapter of Ezekiel". Elijah was "taken into heaven by a whirlwind" (2 Kings 2:1) then in v. 11: "there appeared a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, ... and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven" and in verse 12 Elisha calls after the "Chariot of Israel". The helicopter is an example of a vehicle that produces a whirlwind.

Psalm 68:17: "the chariots of God are twenty thousand, even thousands of angels;..."

"For, behold, the Lord will come with fire, and with his chariots like a whirlwind..."

Also see Zechariah 6:1-5.

2 Kings 6:17: "and the Lord opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: and behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha."

The Bible calls these chariots "whirlwinds". See Job 40:6-8, 38:1, Isa. 66:15 ("for, behold, the Lord will come with fire, and with his chariots like a whirlwind..."), Jer. 4:13, Jer. 23:19, Jer. 50:23, Ezek. 1:4).

Even VII:18: "...Altogether we were two hundred who descended in the days of Jared's grandson, Salmon, of the lineage of Hermon. They called it that because they had sworn, and bound themselves with vows, upon it. These are the names of their leaders, and chiefs of ten; Semjaza [Enoch; now there is an interesting name...], their leader, Arakiba, Rameel, Kokabiel, Tamiel, Ramiel, Daniel, Ezequiel, Baraqiael, Asael, Armaros, Batarel, Ananel, Zaqiel, Samaspeol, Turel, Jomjael and Sariel."

Then later he says: ...the ninth, Kokabiel, taught the observing of the stars, the fourth, Baraqiael, taught astronomy; the eighth, Ezequiel, taught the observation of the clouds; the third, Araqiel, taught the boundaries of the Earth; the seventh, Samsiel, taught the limiting positions of the Sun; the twentieth, Sariel, taught the limiting position of the Moon."

"Who were they teaching? Surely, each other. They must have been teaching humans. Noah learned this information, and taught it to SHEM, who taught it to Abraham, who taught it to the Egyptians, who built the Pyramid. Or so the stories go. I have much more information on this, far too much to go into here. Note that their leader, Semjaza, is the same name as the (female) Semjuestra extraterrestrial who talked to Edward Leedskalnin."

The Karsag tablet said, speaking of the water reservoir, that "everywhere the shining being, the Old Irish AILLIL which meant shining one, the Old Welsh ELLYL which meant a shining bright one, the Babylonian ELLU which meant the shining one, the Old Welsh ELLYL which meant a shining being, the Old Irish ALLII which meant shining, the English ELF which meant a shining being (from the Anglo-Saxon AELFT) and the Old Cornish ELF which means shining."

Enoch described a house that he entered...I saw before me, in another part, opened doors and through them a larger room which was ablaze with light. In every respect, the inside was so magnificent, and spacious, that I cannot describe it to you. Its floor was brilliantly lit, and above that were bright lights like planets, and its ceiling, too, was brilliant."

Remember that this was written before Christ and that we are talking about electricity and light bulbs were not used until the 19th century. And remember that the ancient Karsag tablet said, speaking of the water reservoir, that "power would be generated by its pressure". [H: My, my; is it possible there is NOTHING NEW?]

The ancient Jewish literature says that Enoch is now called Metatron, the Angel of the Face, and says that God took him so that he could keep an eye-witness record of the Earth's history and present it in the future. The word above translated "spirit" was "pneuma", which literally meant air (as in our word pneumatic). So Enoch was taken up in an "air-chariot", or what we now call an airplane! Or more specifically, it was a type of space shuttle. The word "name" that "vanished from among them" would make more sense it translated "ship" as per Stichkin.

Could this have been a "space station"? Angels definitely do use some sort of vehicle for transportation. One is described in the first chapter of Ezekiel, where preachers call the "flying saucer chapter of Ezekiel". Elijah was "taken into heaven by a whirlwind" (2 Kings 2:1) then in v. 11: "there appeared a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, ... and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven" and in verse 12 Elisha calls after the "Chariot of Israel". The helicopter is an example of a vehicle that produces a whirlwind.

Psalm 68:17: "the chariots of God are twenty thousand, even thousands of angels;..."

"For, behold, the Lord will come with fire, and with his chariots like a whirlwind..."

Also see Zechariah 6:1-5.

2 Kings 6:17: "and the Lord opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: and behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha."

The Bible calls these chariots "whirlwinds". See Job 40:6-8, 38:1, Isa. 66:15 ("for, behold, the Lord will come with fire, and with his chariots like a whirlwind...").

Early writers who wrote The Book of Jubilees as scripture include the Testament of the Twelve Patri-archs, Epiphanius, Jerome, Rufinus, Syncellus, Cedrinus, and others.

[H: If I am going to leave you now with a "teaser" for the next writing on this topic. It will be called WHAT IS FORNICATION? Ah indeed, we finally made it around to "sex"—OR DID WE? Let me quote just a bit: "Can you define 'fornication' for me? Are you sure? Most 'authorities' will say that adultery is unlawful sex acts by married persons, and fornication is unlawful sex by unmarried persons." Ah but is it?]

THE DAYS OF JARED

Above we learned that Enoch said the Nefilim, the particular ones who got involved with women, arrived on Mt. Hermon during the days of Jared. In some of my previous writings I have shown that Jared was born in 3514 B.C., if we accept what the records actually say. Genesis 5:18 says that Jared was 162 years old when he begot Enoch, and the next verse said he lived 800 more years. Thus the time of Jared was from 3514 to 2552 BC. Then 234 years later, the Flood occurred in 2318 B.C. and the Bible gives us dates in which some preachers use Septuagint dating, and if you are serious about learning these things, I suggest you learn both ways of dating then decide for yourself which you feel is more correct, if you think it is of any value. But don't

A TIME FOR SPEAKING OUT

As we become accustomed to the daily writings, the daily list of things to be accomplished, and the interruptions which never seem to allow a finalizing of anything, we are taught great lessons in flexibility, one subject, one focus—and we have to be ready to roll with the punches, and flowing with the river in whichever directions it chooses for its own flow. That newest disaster Order will go into LAW without even a go on vacation to further plunder and lie to you in order to DESTROY our nation, at such a critical time—especially at night as with the Federal Reserve and other threshold.

Noted for it so clearly fits our own local problems AND required to make laws is now in place. Mr. Clinton's ongoing battle (from inside prison) with people, not the judge or other persons in civil breaking of the laws, but in the Ekker case as an example and all the Nevada cases:

TITLE 18 U.S. CRIMINAL STATUTES

Section 4 - "MISPRISION OF FELONY". Whoever has knowledge of such a felony and conceals and does not as soon as possible make known the same to some judge or other persons in civil or military Authority under the U.S. shall be fined not more than $500.00 or imprisoned no more than 3 years or BOTH.

Next comes a story often told and reprinted regarding the signing of the U.S. Declaration of Independence. It is well worthy of reprinting here. Thank you, John C. Adams.

[QUOTING:]

THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

On July 4, 1776, in the old State House in Philadelphia, a group of patriotic men were gathered for the solemn purpose of proclaiming the liberty of the American colonies. From the letters of Thomas Jefferson, which are preserved in the Library of Congress, have been gathered considerable data concerning this portentous session.

There were several speeches. In the balcony, patriotic citizens crowded all available space and listened attentively to the proceedings. Jefferson expressed himself with great strength. The Philadelphia printer, Dr. Benjamin Franklin, quiet and calm as usual, spoke his mind with well chosen words. The delegates hovered between sympathy and uncertainty, as the long hours of the summer day crept by, for life is sweet when there is danger of losing it. The lowers doors were locked and a guard was posted to prevent interruption.

According to Jefferson, it was late in the afternoon before the delegates gathered their courage to the sticking point. The talk was about axes, scaffolds, and the gibbet, when suddenly a Strong, Powerful Voice was heard.

"Gibbet! They may stretch our necks on all the gibbets in the land; they may turn every rock into a gibbet, when suddenly a Strong, Powerful Voice was heard.

"Gibbet! They may stretch our necks on all the gibbets in the land; they may turn every rock into a gibbet, every home into a grave, and yet the words of that parchment can never die! They may pour our blood on a thousand scaffolds, and yet from every drop that dyes the axe a new champion of Freedom will spring into birth! The British King may blot out the Stars of God from the sky, but he cannot blot out HIS WORDS written on that parchment there. The Works of God may perish, HIS WORDS—NEVER!

"The words of this Declaration will live in the World long after our bones are dust. To the mechanic in his workshop they will speak hope; to the slave in the mines, Freedom; but to the coward kings, these words will speak in tones of warning they cannot choose but hear...."

"SIGN THAT PARCHMENT! SIGN, if in the next minute this hall rings with the clash of falling axes! Sign, by all your hope in Life or death, as men, as husbands, as fathers, brothers, sign your names to that parchment, or be accursed forever! Sign, and not only for yourselves, but for all ages, for that parchment will be the textbook of Freedom, the Bible of the Rights of Free men forever.

"Hay, do not start and whisper with surprise! It is truth! Your own hearts witness it! GOD proclaims it! Look at this strange band of exiles and outcasts—suddenly transformed into people; a handful of men, weak in arms, but Mighty in GOD-like Faith; may, look at your recent achievements, your Bunker Hill, your Lexington, and then tell me, if you can, that God has not given America to be Free!"

"Methinks I see the recording Angel come trembling up to that throne and speak his dread message. 'Father, the old world is baptized in blood. Father, look with one glance of Thine Eternal Eye! Behold evermore that terrible sight—man trodden beneath the oppressor's feet; nations lost in blood, murder, and superstition, walking hand in hand over the graves of the victims, and not a single voice of hope to man."

"He stands there, the Angel, trembling with the record of human guilt. But hark! The Voice of God speaks from out the awful cloud: 'Let there be Light again! Tell My people, the poor and oppressed to go out from the old world, from oppression and blood, and build MY Altar in the new.'"

"As I live, my friends, I believe that to be HIS voice! Yes, were my soul trembling on the verge of eternity, were that hand freezing in death, were this voice choking in the last struggle, I would still—with the last impulse of that soul; with the last wave of that voice, implore you to remember this Truth—GOD HAS GIVEN AMERICA TO BE FREE!"

"Yes, as I sank into the gloomy shadows of the grave, with my last faint whisper, I would beg you sign that parchment for the sake of those millions whose very breath is now hushed in intense expectation, as they look up to you for those Eternal Words: 'You are free!'

The delegates, carried away by the enthusiasm of the Unknown Speaker, rushed forward. John Hancock scarcely had time to pen his bold signature before the quill was grasped by another. It was done!

The delegates turned to express their gratitude to the Unknown Speaker for his eloquent words... He was not there.

Who was this strange man who seemed to speak with a Divine authority, whose solemn words gave courage to the doubters, and sealed the destiny of the New Nation?

Unfortunately, no one knows. His name is not recorded; none of those present knew him or if they did, not one acknowledged the acquaintance.

How he had entered into the locked and guarded room is not told, nor is there any record of the manner of his departure.

Notwithstanding, he claimed to have seen him before, and there is no mention of him after this single episode. Only his imperishable speech bears witness to his presence.

[END OF QUOTING]

It is thought by many that this was beloved St. Germain who stood that day to give backbone and authority to those gathered. Whether or not THAT be so, it is certainly a matter of RECORD that this incident took place.

Perhaps that is all our writings and voice can be—a voice for Freedom and FOR GOD—therefore it is enough. Salu.

8/3/96 #2 HATONN

One of the things most asked for, this week, is some ongoing mention of last week's lead [Front Page] story about the national debt, financial backing, etc. I can't tell you much but what I can tell you is that the instruments are REAL and, further, that almost every one of the MANY informed who COULD DO SOME-thing are "reportedly" too fearful of even responding. This is a fearful time in your entire world and especially terrible in the United States of America where you assumed you were FREE under a Constitution which could never be destroyed. WRONG, the Constitution IS, FOR ALL PRACTICAL PURPOSES, SET ASIDE.

I can keep you informed about such as Grandma's offerings as well as sharing that which she shares with us—as we have ability to re-print.

She, on July 31, 1996 corresponded with a party whose name must be deleted. The letter followed a lengthy discussion of the prior evening. It speaks for itself. [quoting:]

07:31:1996

Dear Dr. XXXX,

Pursuant to our discussion last evening, please find enclosed Declaration of Resolution of "Constitutional Debt".

The "evidencing" documentation is contained in Public Record Recorded Files, identified in said Declaration of Resolution. Also, XXXX, a Lien of Recorded Records exists. Said Lien liens any and/or all Debtor Nations with outstanding debts to the United States (Constitutional), all gold on deposit, in repository's foreign and/or domestic, etc., etc., etc... Taking careful, long consideration of the pending Executive Order 13010, Sec. 5(c).

The Advisory Committee shall be established in compliance with the Federal Advisory Committee Act, as amended (5 U.S.C. App). The Department of Defense shall perform the functions of the President under the Federal Advisory Committee Act for the Advisory Committee, except that of reporting to the Congress, in accordance with the guidelines and procedures established by the Administrator of General Services.

A previous Executive Order, 12838, September 27, 1991, 58 F.R. 49835, which provided for the continuance of certain Federal Advisory committees, was superseded by Ex. Ord. No. 12774, Sub.S. 5, Sept. 30. 1993, 58 F.R. 51751, set out below. (Sec. 3)

Sec. 3. "Effective immediately, executive departments and agencies shall not create or sponsor new advisory committees subject to FACA (Federal Advisory Committee Act) unless the committee is required by statute or the agency head (a) finds that compelling considerations necessitate creation of such a committee, and (b) receives the approval of the Director of the Office of Management and Budget. Such approval shall be granted only sparingly and only if compelled by considerations of national security, health or safety or similar national interests. These requirements shall apply in addition to the notice and other approval requirements of FACA."

Prudent observance of the 'introduction' of Executive Order Number 13010, executed by hand of the President of the United States on July 15, did not comply with the prescribed "mandatory" of Executive Order No. 12838 or 12774 as previously cited.

Executive Order No. 13010 of July 15, 1996, duly recorded in the Federal Register on July 17th, 1996, gives cause for great concern in its TEXT and INTENT, evidenced, especially in "Sec. 5, (c)" of that Executive Order 13010.

Taking into consideration, the Federal Reserve announced last week: THEY WOULD NOT EXTEND THE CREDIT OF THE UNITED STATES on both CNN and on C-SPAN, I was given no choice but to "Follow MY Oath, to uphold, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States (and the People)", and to do so in accordance with the provisions of that "Oath": "Against all parties, foreign and domestic.

Therefore, weighing the consideration of "all options available", I had no choice but to CALL THE DEBT.

Also, in doing so, it became necessary to GRANDFATHER the Ancient prevailing Laws "Grandfathered" to obtain the fete accompli by the Ancient "Force Majore" of "Grandfathered" Laws, which are as relevant today, as the day they were Contracted", be prevailed upon as a "protection" measure of the American People, and the International Communities, to my best ability, and what in my considered opinion was best for all concerned, albeit the People of the United States or the Global Community. I could not fail my Oath.

It is feared by me, as we are at the crossroads in history, whereupon another World War is imminent. What is required by statute or otherwise is the DEBT of the United States cannot be WIPED out, LOST, WASTE. This is the same vehicle which George Bush ETALIUS (Common Law for and others used) to bring down Barings, Lloyds of London, The old woman on thread needle street, Credit Lyonnaise, the Japanese Banks and Savings & Loans etc., etc—the path of destruction of Banks, National Banks, foreign and domestic, are overwhelming to any and/or all nations involved.

There is remedy, in the event the "Powers that be" are willing to work this out. There is still time to stay the pending catastrophic events for Mankind is at stake in this one. TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE.

In best regards, I remain—

Sincerely

V.K. Durham, Executor, Trustee and SIGNATORY

[END OF QUOTING]

I am going to make this very short in length today because I want you consider the prior writings above, of this day.

GOD always provides you an opening and a 'way'—along with those who can provide input and opportunity. YOU HAVE TO WALK THE WALK. It is not different in this DAY of your counting—except in your perceptions. GOD AND HOSTS STAND READY, WILLING AND ABLE TO ASSIST YOU— BUT YOU ARE GOING TO TAKE THAT FIRST STEP IF YOU WISH TO CHANGE YOUR DIRECTION EVER CLOSER TO THAT PIT BEFORE YOU.

May wisdom be your guide because the small team cannot much longer carry this heavy banner and burden.

The way is there, the funds are there, and all you have to do is SEIZE THE MOMENT! However, if you simply wait around, clinging to that which could help bring change, you will lose the moment—forever. Who will go and take these things unto THE ONES WHO CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE? Why must it always be the same tiny few who must work within all laws and serve endlessly for YOUR PASSAGE?

The DEBT of the United States cannot be WIPED OUT by the flick of a Bankruptcy paper or ruling OF EITHER THE U.S. ITSELF OR THE FEDERAL RESERVE. It can’t be because we have taken our claims to the very heads of the New World Order—THE WORLD BANKS AND INTERNATIONAL MONETARY FUND TO BE ENTERED INTO THE BANKRUPTCY DEMANDS AND CLAIMS. IN OTHER WORDS:

WE MAKE THE WORLD BANKS AND THE INTERNATIONAL MONETARY FUND RESPONSIBLE FOR THE DEBT OF ALL NATIONS INCLUDING THE UNITED NATIONS OF AMERICA—DIRECTLY TO AND THROUGH THE NEW WORLD ORDER.

THIS SHALL AGAIN ACT AS A "PUBLIC NOTICE".
Lanto: Listen To Those Important “Gut Feelings”

Editor’s note: The following writing is by the Ascended Master known as Lanto, the Sage, of the Second Ray or Aspect of Creator’s spectrum, among the seven great “Rainbow Masters” communicating at this time to help us get through Earth-Shan’s planetary transition and rebalancing.

In Journal #7, called THE RAINBOW MASTERS, Lanto says: “I have chosen the softness of the yellow refraction as my most comfortable vibration and am most easily identified from my past (as you perceive it to be) experiences. My existence in mortal form brought me to your places that you now geographically identify as the Orient. I was given the great gifts of Insight and Wisdom from our Creator Source to experience upon this planet in the form of many most humble wise ones. My most revered service was to the one who came first as the Christos, The Buddha (brother and one with the Master Esu Jesus).”

For more background on this important group of teachers, plus earlier writings by them, refer to the Back Page for Journal ordering information.

8/3/96 LANTO, THE SAGE

Greetings, my friend, I am most recognized by you ones as Lanto, the Sage. I come in the Light of the One Light. I represent the Second Ray or aspect of Creator’s spectrum.

The visible spectrum of Light only represents a harmonic of the frequencies that make up all of creation. In the third-dimensional compression, you ones are often limited in your perceptions. Not only are there non-visible third-dimensional aspects of Creator’s Light, there are also higher-dimensional shifts associated with Creator’s energy expressions. Do not get hung up on colors associated with a Representative of an aspect of Creator.

We all (you ones included) express on all frequencies or wavelengths. Ones are usually drawn to a certain aspect of Creator; thus there is more affinity associated with one area over another. This is because we are all created with a purpose in mind, and that purpose can be most easily filled through certain aspects of Creator.

Note, please, that balance is of utmost importance for proper growth. All ones will gravitate towards Sananda’s Christ Energy. Many will gravitate towards Hilarion’s Heart Energy or Germain’s Transmuting Energy. This is mostly due to the level of the expressing individuals.

You ones are restless and need change. Thus Germain will appeal to you, for he is Master of that aspect of Creator’s expression.

You ask, “Where do you, Lanto, fit into this picture?”

I am Guide and Teacher; I am the “gut feeling” you ones get. The physical color associated with my energy is the golden yellow color, though the etheric color would be perceived differently. Ones who can see the colors of the Auric Field will most often perceive my energy as a blending of colors.

I am a Teacher. I have learned my lessons well and have earned my position among the other Masters. We all have overlapping aspects and can express on any of the frequencies, though there is need to have specialists to answer the specific and directed needs of the ever-progressing souls.

I have come now, at this time of change, so that you ones might receive balanced instructions and learn to follow your “gut knowingness” about what it is that you need to be doing.

My scribe recognizes me as a communicator. Yes, indeed. I am probably the most heard, but least recognized, of the Masters, for I will speak to ones at a level that bypasses the analytical mind and resonates within the emotional energy field of the being.

This manifests as intuition or as the “I don’t know why, but I don’t feel right about this situation” reaction. Even the most shutdown (emotionally) person will, if he has a soul, feel my nudges.

You ones must be open to the “nudges”. This is most often your Guides working with you to help you to find the right path so that you are prepared for and ready to accept your purpose.

This does not mean that you have to go anywhere; this is to say that your life experiences are being guided for your highest good. The more open you are toward following these internal messages, the easier it will be for you ones to get the proper insights and lessons necessary for your upcoming roles.

Sometimes these lessons are harsh and seemingly abrupt. For example, ones are losing their jobs all over the country. Be careful in your thinking, for such “luck” is most likely for good reason. You may be needed elsewhere and this may be the only way to get you to look within and draw upon the Creative Energy that will guide you to a more productive experience.

As some ones are lost, others are called to serve. So if your life seems to be turning upside down, please take a moment and call in the Light and get still.

Notice the gut-level sensations. They can be translated into written or verbal communication with practice. This will be as if you have thought of the message yourself. You will most likely only hear your own inner voice.

Listen to the message. Write it down or speak it into a recording device. Write or speak what comes; then discern the message. REMEMBER TO ALWAYS CALL IN THE LIGHT BEFORE, DURING, AND AFTER THIS EXERCISE! Otherwise the dark side shall almost surely come to influence and trick you.

We are fast approaching a time when you ones shall all be consciously receiving. The mere fact that you are drawn to this information source (CONTACT), and are reading this message, implies that you are, and have been, receiving at least at the “gut level”.

Well, imagine that!

It is not everyone’s task to write public messages for the masses. It is, however, YOUR God given right to connect up to Higher Source and receive your own personal instructions.

Your Guides are there for you at this time to help coordinate your training and life experiences. Be patient with those around you. If they do not share your beliefs, do not condemn them, for each is responsible for their own self. You do not know the contract of another, so when one experiences as, let’s say, a lawyer, that one just may be necessary to help YOU at a later date.

One’s may deny their spiritual side, yet they may be the inventor or scientist who brings new technology to your world. Ones are allowed to ignore their spiritual side if they so choose. There is no force from us of the Lighted Brotherhood.

If you come across others who don’t seem to hear, or want to listen to, spiritual truth, do not condemn them. Look to their actions. Most often these ones are the more advanced ones who recognize that religions are very confusing, and thus choose to avoid ANY spiritual discussion whatsoever. Their actions will hold clues to their being: Are they generally kind and caring? Do they know innately what is right and what is wrong?

Despite the robotic overpopulation of your planet, it is still full of Godly people who only want to do what is right. These ones know right
Food Shortages and Other Problems

FOOD SHORTAGES AND OTHER PROBLEMS

I want to remind you readers of something and suggest that you spread the word: YOU ARE HEADED FOR Famine and Disease LIKE NONE Before KNOWN On THE EARTH.

Please realize that THERE IS A FEDERAL LAW which says you CANNOT store more than a threemonth supply of FOOD. Even the Mormon Church, who always pressed its congregation to have never LESS THAN A YEAR’S SUPPLY AND PREFERABLY A FULL THREE-YEARS’ SUPPLY, are now taking action to give these new instructions and directions.

There is also the continuing plan to confiscate Gold and possibly even Silver when the “Emergency” is brought forth so you are now boxed into a corner of “what to do now?” I don’t know what to tell you more than I have told you for the past decade and beyond. You must carefully PREPARE and store your supplies and goods legally and without focus so that if you have already spent time and funds in careful consideration of emergencies—you can hold onto that which you have saved. In some places the inspections have begun and oversupply has been taken—RIGHT IN YOUR U.S. OF A.

Note the new upcoming changes in Welfare, etc. The plan is to get you shocked into realization that the END OF HELP IS AT HAND! You have been sucked in and now the PIPER will be paid and, as usual, the sins of the parents will cause the children to pay dearly and dreadfully. They will have to “become wards of the State” to survive and once a “ward of the State” they will be trained to be robotic in their allegiance and expectations—as has always been the case in State-TAKEOVER! “Sweatshops” will look like a Sunday hobby exchange. There will be no way for the massive numbers of welfare recipients to attend families and those with the most dependent families will be the most vulnerable. There aren’t going to be JOBS to be filled—at any pay. CAN’T YOU SEE THE HANDWRITING? THEY ARE SPELLING IT OUT IN ONE LAW FOLLOWING ANOTHER THESE DAYS!

I give only FEAR-mongering as input? Oh my goodness, readers, if you are not Scared Witless, you DON’T UNDERSTAND THE PROBLEM!
