Zionist Bankster Way

Savvy Asian Economies Fight Back!

Editor's note: Commander Hatonn has asked that we share with you the following three articles from the 12/7/98 issue of SPOTLIGHT newspaper. You can follow the "destruction and takeover" game of the international Zionist banksters (banking gangsters) quite well, especially as it is being played out currently in the Asian arena.

We thank Dr. Overholt for assembling this material and call your attention to related news in this week's News Desk, starting on page 2. We also especially thank THE SPOTLIGHT newspaper for some very fine, well written, understandable investigative journalism in this arena of international economic politics—an arena whose usual complexity is made all the more incomprehensible by the crooks who mastermind most of the diabolical engineering therein.

Remember that "all is connected to all" and the following three articles skillfully make that point clear in showing how rigging the U.S. stock market and world gold supplies are utilized as offensive weapons, along with political puppets like Gore, in the Zionist bankster war for takeover and control of countries.

So, you can imagine the magnitude of the uphill battle of those trying to do genuine good towards assisting the Asian (and ultimately world) economic situations. It's not an easy job!

SOROS CALLS FOR OVERTHROW OF MAHATHIR

From the INTERNET, courtesy of Sofie Mattsson <sofiem@algonet.se>, 12/6/98: [quoting]

[Source: New Straits Times, Dec. 5]

WIESBADEN—In the discussion period after his speech at Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore yesterday, Soros attacked the Malaysian prime minister with only being occupied with bailing out his “cronies”, and with deepening the country’s financial crisis through the capital controls which Mahathir has imposed. “So I think what needs to happen is, he needs to be removed from power,” Soros said. “I hope that Anwar will be either let out of jail, or if he’s put in jail, the public opinion is going to turn against Mahathir.” [End quoting]

SOROS: “I’M A FIGMENT OF MAHATHIR’S IMAGINATION”

From the INTERNET, New Straits Times, Washington, 12/5/98: [quoting]

George Soros was in rare form for his Johns Hopkins speech, accusing Prime Minister Mahathir of singling him out for attack for political reasons. “I hardly knew the man’s name,” Soros said of Dr. M. “He really invented me. He needed me for his political purposes, so I’m a figment of his imagination.” [End quoting]

MALAYSIANS SLAM SOROS

From the INTERNET, Utusan, Malaysia, Kuala Lumpur, 12/6/98: [quoting]

Datuk Seri S. Samy Vellu, Works Minister and head of the Malay Indian Association told the state wire service Bernama: “Soros’ statement clearly indicates a long-term plan of him and his parasites to destroy the democratically-elected government of this country.... In view of his selfish motives to enrich himself, he has chosen to destroy the economy of the developing nations.... Malaysia is one of the victims which is now trying to recover from the economic wounds inflicted by him on us.” Samy Vellu added that if it were up to Soros to decide who should lead a country, “I think that will be the end of the world. Soros has completely deviated from the principles of non-interference of a citizen of one country to another. The day will come that the world community should punish him for economic treason.”

Utusan Malaysia records similar sentiments from UMNO Secretary General, also Culture, Arts and Tourism Minister Sabbaruddin Chik, UMNO Vice President and Education Minister Najib Tun Razak, senior ministers from several states, including Pengang Chief Minister Dr. Koh Tsu Koon, who said Soros and cronies are “big bullies”, who have murdered small countries.

“Soros needs to be removed from the world’s financial and capital markets.” The Malay Chamber of Commerce issued a statement condemning Soros’ remarks as carrying a subversive and terrorist slant. The leading dailies,

New Straits Times and The Star, will no doubt have more in their Sunday edition. [End quoting]

MALAYSIAN OPPOSITION REJECTS SOROS’ SUPPORT

Parti Islam chairman, and head of the Kelantan state government, Nik Abdul Aziz Nik Mat responded to Soros, saying “We have asked Soros to keep his mouth shut for quite a while and there is no need for him to comment on Malaysia in future.” The Parti Gerakan, which was created in the first flush of enthusiasm for “reformasi”, after Anwar’s arrest, issued a statement today calling on Malaysians to unite behind Dr. Mahathir and not be manipulated to turn against him and the capital controls! “Parti Gerakan believes Malaysians are not foolish and will be able to decipher the true intentions of Soros.”

In fact, Soros may have contributed to a delay in registering a “reformasi” party to be headed by Anwar’s wife. Despite expectations to the contrary, no one turned up this weekend to make the “reformasi” legal. [End quoting]

[Source: New Straits Times, Dec. 5, quoting]

WIESBADEN, Dec. 5—THE WTO POLICY OF THE UNITED STATES RUNS AGAINST THE NATIONAL SOVEREIGNTY OF OTHER NATIONS, charged the Malaysian International Trade and Industry Ministry in its new annual report, commenting on the trade sanctions imposed by the States on the Cuban, Iranian and Libyan cases. Particularly U.S. sanctions announced against any foreign companies that want to invest more than $20 million in Iran, have tried to deter the engagement of France’s Total SA, Russia’s Gazprom and Malaysia’s Petronas companies, from the planned development of Iran’s South Pars gas field, the report said. “This practice undermines the sovereign right of countries, companies and persons to undertake trade and investment in third countries,” the ministry report charged. [End quoting]

It should be obvious to anybody who has an inkling of what’s going on in this world that the NWO gangsters are milking all countries dry those for ones who stand up against them—and those are being badly hurt. Don’t give up support of these ones who have the guts to say no to these banking gangsters!!

U.S. CONSTITUTION AND TREATIES

Excerpted from DR. COLEMAN LETTER, 11/4/98: [quoting]

...anarchists set as their goal the destruction of the highest law of the land, the U.S. Constitution and the Bill of Rights and that by so doing, they have perverted and continue to pervert the principle in law that only laws based on truth will ensure a just and enduring government. Any government that tries to prevail on theft, grand larceny, injustices, bribery and corruption, is bound to fail in the long run. Organized injustice, held in place by perverted laws and force to back it up, will eventually lead to revolution. No one can go on living at the expense of others.

Such a “law” was passed, and I am referring to H.R. 2580, which thoroughly violates the 2nd, 4th, 5th, 9th, 10th, and 14th Amendments to the U.S. Constitution and unlawfully presumes to take powers not delegated to the federal government in Article 1, Sec. 8, Clauses 1-18, H.R. 2580 is an example of so-called legislation drawn up by a coterie of Communists of both parties, a most inept piece of supposed “criminal law” which totally rapes the U.S. Constitution and is in perfect harmony with the Communist Manifesto of 1848.

The third rule on constitutional law is the law governing treaties. Examples are the U.N., GATT, NATO, C.W.C., Panama Canal, are all “treaties” which were unlawfully entered into by the United States and which are nullities, one and all. The U.S. Constitution is Superior to all treaties, which are like any other law and can be abrogated by a variety of means, whereas the Constitution cannot be abrogated.

Treaties cannot be used to annihilate the U.S. Constitution which is what the Socialists in this country are trying to do with the U.N. Treaty. The Genocide Treaty can never annihilate the U.S. Constitution, and neither can the CWC Treaty, nor NAFTA nor GATT. A treaty by its very terms may be self-executing, that is, it does not require funding by the Congress. The crooked Carter administration tried to tell the American people that the Panama Canal treaty was self-executing, but it wasn’t because Congress had to fund it.

This proves that a treaty, far from being the law of the land as some will incorrectly have it, is almost always dependent upon the goodwill of the Congress which has the constitutional power to pass all laws deemed to be necessary and proper and carry it into execution. But the legislators are not compelled to do anything in terms of the treaty of which the Congress does not approve... “And again, the treaties before us require execution by Congress and the very first article of the Constitution declares: All legislative powers herein granted shall be vested in the Congress of the United States.”

Note, it does not say “vested in treaty-making powers” so how in the world can a treaty be “the law of the land” and superior to the U.S. Constitution? The very idea flies in the face of common sense, and the U.S. Constitution is based on common sense. As Sen. Thurmond said in one of the debates of the Reconstruction period: “A treaty is only a law.” It is a temporary law at best and is subject to being constitutional and if it is not in consonance with our Constitution, it has to be rejected by the Congress. In reality, all treaties are no more than games, confidence tricks, to gain the ascendancy in one way or another and the history of the U.S. proves that it has been fooled and taken in by more treaties than any other country in the world.

We said that the Panama Canal Treaty was bogus. One good reason why it is bogus is that ONLY the Congress through a constitutional amendment can alienate U.S. territories, and this never happened. Instead we had group of self-interest traitors acting for the Wall Street bankers, “negotiate” away the Panama Canal. Congress has the power to void the Panama Canal Treaty and it ought be one of the things the Republican Party should be doing, instead of frittering away its mandate on “balancing the budget”. Talk about a con game—this balancing-the-budget game is just another huge confidence trick.

Another bogus treaty is the U.N. Treaty. As we say elsewhere in the chapter dealing with the U.N. it would have taken one or perhaps two constitutional amendments to make U.S. "membership" of the U.N. a reality. In the 1945 debate in the Senate, shockingly insufficient time to debate the constitutionality of the U.N. Treaty/agreement was allocated; in fact only one day was set aside for debate out of the three days that the measure was before the Senate. I have referred to the U.N. document as a "treaty" from time to time for the sake of convenience, but it is not a treaty; rather it is an agreement and agreements are not found in the U.S. Constitution, so that on this point alone, the U.N. "treaty" is a treasonous fraud.

On a second point, it was physically impossible for the senators to have studied the U.N. AGREEMENT within the three days allowed in an intelligent manner, but under tremendous pressure from the Roosevelt-controlled press, a climate rampant with emotion was created—the timing well chosen to present the agreement for ratification by the Senate. Let us not imagine that the timing to bring it up in the Senate in 1945 was just happenstance; nothing could be further from the truth. Whipsawed by the press, with a terrible war in Europe fresh in their minds, with the bombing of Japan, Roosevelt and the TAVISTOCK INSTITUTE knew that the time was right for the American people to be duped and connived into believing that the U.N. agreement was a peace plan.

And thus it was that the senators failed to do their duty, and Roosevelt and the Communists in Washington D.C. triumphed. Compare the time spent by the senators on the U.N. agreement with the 3 months they spent debating the Panama Canal treason, and even then, they could not get to the bottom of the Carter-Rockefeller-Wall Street fraud. Likewise with NAFTA and GATT. [End quoting]

This is important to know—especially now—since the turnover of the Panama Canal is coming up soon! Are we going to sit back and just watch this happen?

NEW TWIST ON WOMEN & TEENS—ABDUCTIONS IN STORES

From the INTERNET, courtesy of John Winston, <HEOT@onelist.com>, 12/5/98: [quoting]

A good friend of mine recently posted this scary notice to a web site.

I don't know if it was posted to ours but I feel it is important enough to repost with my added ADDITIONAL SCARY comments.

Last night on Inside Edition there was an article that is of interest to all women. There are several new scams to abduct women. In one, a man comes up to a woman in a mall or shopping center and asks if she likes pizza. When she says she does, he offers her $100.00 to shoot a commercial for pizza, but they need to go outside where the lighting is better. When the woman goes out of the mall she is abducted and assaulted.

Another ploy is a very nicely dressed man asks a woman if she would be in a public service announcement to discourage drug use. The man explains that they don't want professional actors or celebrities, they want the average mother to do this. Once she leaves the mall, she's a victim. The third ploy, and the most successful, a very frantic man comes running in and asks a woman to please help him, his baby is not breathing. She runs out of the mall following him and also becomes a victim. These have been happening in well-lit parking areas in daylight as well as night time, all over the country. The abductor usually uses a van to abduct the woman.

(This actually happened at Short Hills Mall.)

Inside Edition set up a test in a mall and 10 out of 15 women left the mall on the pizza and the PSA scam. And all of them went out of the mall on the baby scam. Please pass this along to your friends and family as, now that it has been shown on nationwide TV, there are bound to be copy cats.

The third one, I think, is the scariest. You might resist pizza or becoming a commercial celebrity, but who would be able to resist a frantic father asking for help for his child? I'm sure that one would get me. I was going to pass this on to ladies only, but guys, if you love your mothers, wives, sisters, daughters, etc., you may want to pass it on to them, as well. [End quoting]

Sorry to say this type of situation will only get worse as society continues its downward spiral of decay.

WEST TEXAS INVADED BY GERMAN LUFTWAFFE

German pilots Say "Vee Will Do Things Our Way"

Excerpted from the INTERNET, 12/3/98: [quoting]

The ranchers and landowners in West Texas complain that low-flying jets are spooking cattle and antelope herds and other wildlife. German jets are causing horses to throw riders, pickups report running off roads out of fear, tourists in the Davis Mountains complain that the old West atmosphere of the Marfa, Alpine and Ft. Davis triangle is disrupted and private pilots are scared to death.

Many ranchers in the mountainous Big Bend Country have had startling and sometimes damaging encounters with military jets flying far below the current 500-foot requirement. Wildlife and cattle get tangled in stretches of barbed wire after being startled by low-flying aircraft.

People have actually reported being blown down and seeing property damaged by low flying jets.

The German pilots flying out of Holloman Air Force Base say "tough schnitzel". Your American laws cannot touch them. They argue that German trainees flying out of Holloman Air Force Base in Alamogordo, N.M., and training over West Texas skies for the past several years, have "diplomatic immunity", and "U.S. federal district courts therefore have no jurisdiction over them".

German pilots training in the United States are immune from the restrictions of U.S. law, the Luftwaffe has argued in response to a lawsuit filed in April by West Texas ranchers seeking to limit flyovers by military planes. The Luftwaffe's response was filed last week in federal court in Pecos.

The surprise response has pricked the West Texas ranchers like prickly pear. They charge that low-altitude flights pose hazards to livestock, ranch workers, wildlife and tourism. These ranchers warn that West Texas is a different breed. One drawls, "this won't be like invading France."

"We will just put up with so much." [End quoting]

Sounds like a Nazi attitude to me. Are we going to do something or not?

BETTER PRODUCTS FROM TINY SPHERES

From POPULAR MECHANICS magazine, Jan. 1999, [quoting:]

VAPORIZER

Under a powerful microscope the powdered metals used in antifungal medications and silicon-chip polishing slurries look like clumps of wet sand. The performance of these and other products could be improved if the particles could be made smaller and more spherical.

Nanophase Technologies of Burr Ridge, Ill., says its new manufacturing process can create nearly uniform, spherical, noncrystalline particles, for a fraction of what it costs to make them in the lab.

The details of the process are proprietary. In general, it works something like this: Titanium, zinc, gold or other metals are vaporized as shown here. A reactive gas used to create a specific compound is then added. The vaporized metal and gas are then quickly cooled, forming tiny, nearly uniform spheres.

"The result is a parade of materials with dramatically superior performance attributes," company Spokesperson Darcy Bretz tells PM.

Potential products include ceramics that mold as easily as plastics and harden to become stronger than steel. [End quoting]

This one sounds like a real winner—ceramics stronger than steel and easily moldable will have thousands of uses.

ROGUE MISSILE IN NEAR-MISS WITH AIRLINERS

From the INTERNET, <para-discuss@tje.net>, 12/6/98: [quoting]

A missile fired by accident exploded above a South Korean city yesterday, narrowly missing four passenger jets.

Three people on the ground were injured and dozens of cars wrecked as they were showered by metal fragments from the mid-air blast above the western port city of Inchon, on the heavily militarized border with communist North Korea.

South Korea's air force said the fully armed Nike-Hercules antiaircraft missile was fired when an electronic circuit malfunctioned during a routine training session.

It was automatically destroyed by a built-in safety device seconds after it left the launcher.

Virtually all of the 250 passenger and cargo planes that use Seoul's Kimpo International Airport each day pass over Inchon. [End quoting]

Do you think this was really just an accident?

COSTLY WEDDING MAY GET SOME JAILED

From the INTERNET, <para-discuss@tje.net>, 12/7/98: [quoting]

DUBAI, United Arab Emirates—Couples planning lavish weddings in the Emirates now have more than the guest list and venue to consider: the possibility of time in jail.

A new law imposes a prison sentence or a $137,000 fine for couples who have expensive weddings, the Gulf News reported Sunday.

The law aims to make it more affordable for young men to marry local women, the paper said. High wedding costs have forced many Emiratis men to seek foreign brides.

Sheik Mohammed bin Rakad al-Amiri, an official with the state-run Marriage Fund, said a groom should not have to pay a dowry of more than $13,700 and slaughter more than 21 camels on his wedding night. Dowries and other wedding expenses, including the cost of a dress and jewelry, can add up to more than $70,000.

Al-Amiri said the length of jail terms to be imposed—and the maximum allowable price for a wedding—have not been determined. [End quoting]

MORE HOLOCAUST TORTURE BY ZIONIST JEWS

From THE DECKERT DISPATCH, Oct/Nov 98: [quoting]

In Switzerland, the accused Mr. René-Louis Berclaz was acquitted of the charge of racial discrimination in connection with the circulation of the Rudolf Report. However, Berclaz was given a four-months suspended prison sentence, for distributing other information material on revisionism and for quoting Nahum Goldmann incompletely. The quote Berclaz referred to was Nahum Goldmann's famous statement: "I'm scarcely exaggerating. Jewish life consists of two elements: getting money and protesting."

Nahum Goldmann, President of the Jewish World Congress in: Das Jüdische Paradox, athenaum, Frankfurt 1988, page 77)

The unfortunate Mr. Berclaz omitted the words, "I'm scarcely exaggerating", therefore "distorting the meaning" of the quotation. Now, judge for yourself, if this warrants a four month jail sentence? [End quoting]

The Zionist disinformation experts are having a hard time keeping the lid on the truth.

BILL WOULD LET CITIZENS CUT OUT TELEMARKETERS

From THE JOHNSON CITY PRESS, 11/15/98, [quoting:]

Matt Kisber and his wife are tired of telemarketers disturbing their evenings at home. So the state lawmaker plans to file legislation making it illegal for solicitors to call folks who want to be left alone.

Kisber, a Jackson Democrat and chairman of the House Finance Committee, said the bill would allow people to have a check mark by their name in the telephone book. Those identifying checks would also appear beside the names on any computerized phone lists sold to telemarketers.

It would be illegal to call anyone with those checks by their names, Kisber said.

If people can get their names removed from mailing lists by contacting the Direct Marketers Association, he said, there also should be a means of eliminating telephone calls they don't want.

Kisber said he has not yet worked out all the details, but enforcement probably would be handled by the Tennessee Regulatory Authority. The TRA—formerly the Public Service Commission—sets rates and service standards for some telephone, natural gas, electric and water utilities.

Civil penalties would be assessed on violators.

Kisber said he is still trying to determine the amount.

"It would be my hope that most companies would try to comply with the law, but I think as we have seen in the long-distance scenario with 'slamming' (companies switching your long-distance phone service without your permission), we are going to have to have stiff penalties for those who fail to comply with the law," he said. [End quoting]

Sounds simple and good to me, much to the dismay of the telemarketing hounds.

THE POWER OF MONEY

From FREE AMERICAN newsmagazine, Dec. 1998: [quoting]

"If the American people ever allow private banks to control the issue of their money, first by inflation and then by deflation, the banks and corporations that will grow up around [the banks], will deprive the people of their property until their children will wake up homeless on the continent their fathers conquered." —Thomas Jefferson [End quoting]

We can't say we weren't warned.

IS YOUR CHURCH TEACHING PAGAN EARTH WORSHIP IN SUNDAY SCHOOL?

Excerpted from the INSIDER'S REPORT, Oct. 1998: [quoting]

Many parents have sought to protect their children from the behavior-modification programs that have taken over public schools. To escape the assault of Outcome-Based Education (OBE), Goals 2000 and School-to-Work, parents, in ever-increasing numbers, are placing their children in private schools or are home-schooling.

Public schools, and even some private schools, spend valuable classroom time engaged in "cooperative" learning (group learning) encounter sessions and discussion groups that employ pop psychology that teachers are simply not qualified to apply. These programs are designed for a very specific purpose—to change the attitudes, values and beliefs of your children. Such behavior-modification programs are the very root of the destruction of America's education system.

In spite of the "school wars", parents have felt safe taking their children to Sunday School to help build a solid moral foundation. But, have you looked at your church's Sunday School curriculum lately? You may be shocked to find tree-hugging, Earth-worshipping paganism intermixed in the class lessons.

Many churches are now using a Sunday School curriculum created by an organization in Colorado called "Group". There is nothing in Group's publications that tell who they are, what they believe in, or anything about the backgrounds of the creators of the materials. But Group curriculum is now sold in most Christian book stores. The Group material offers "Hands-on Bible curriculum" and advocates a "new approach to learning".

However, a close inspection of Group's materials and teaching methods shows it bears a close resemblance to the behavior-modification techniques of OBE. For example, under the sub-head "Successful Teaching: You can do it!" the teacher's manual asks the question—"What does active learning mean to you as a teacher? It takes a lot of pressure off because the spotlight shifts from you to the students. Instead of being the principal player, you become a guide and FACILITATOR..." This is basic OBE classroom organization, where students are not taught by a teacher, but told to learn on their own, as the class FACILITATOR simply suggests, and gently directs toward a preprogrammed lesson plan.

Just as in OBE behavior-modification exercises, the Group curriculum provides "Problem Cards" for student discussion of personal and family issues. Some examples from the workbook for fifth and sixth grade Sunday School classes:

1. PROBLEM CARD: "It seems like my parents fight all the time. I don't know what's going to happen. I'm afraid they're going to split up."

2. PROBLEM CARD: "The cool kids at school treat me like a total nothing. It's like I don't even exist."

3. PROBLEM CARD: "My dad is afraid he's going to lose his job, so we don't get to go anywhere on vacation this summer."

4. PROBLEM CARD: "I got in trouble for not cleaning up my room. Now I'm grounded for the weekend and can't go to my friend's birthday party. Doesn't that stink?"

Each of these examples are designed for group discussions in which the entire class takes on one child's personal problem. Personal family business is disclosed, parental authority is questioned and student "self-esteem" becomes the central concern. This is Outcome-Based Education at work in the Sunday School class—led by a volunteer teacher (facilitator) with no qualifications to do so. Worse, all of it is done under the authority of the church. [End quoting]

How many people trust their churches? You'd better keep check on them, or your children and you are going to pay dearly. This isn't something new. Churches have been the tool of the "elite" from their beginnings. However, a few independent churches are doing some good.

U.S. RESTRUCTURING SOCIETY THROUGH EDUCATION

CHANGING LOYALTIES

Excerpted from THE NEWS MONITOR, No. 25, Vol. 1: [quoting]

The centre or nucleus of the new society will no longer be the home or the family; it will be the school. Increasingly, schools are displacing the traditional family unit. Students are now getting such non-educational services as healthcare, social services (welfare, counselling and Social Security services), childcare, nutrition, employment services, international curriculum, and a host of other things as massive government asserts its primacy over the family. It may be labelled as a family support or parental assistance program, but, in reality, it is advancing a plan of parental obsolescence with replacement by a United Nations agency disguised as a benevolent government program.

[The Clintons and their gang are determined to get their dastardly plan for our schools into full operation, and fast.]

KINDERGARTEN THROUGH THIRD GRADE

ANOTHER SECTION:

Education Researcher Anita Hoge explains how the system is designed to work. She says the early mental health initiative now involves children, kindergarten through third grade. Play-rooms are set up where specially trained mentors/programmers observe the children. If any "abnormal" or "suspect" behavior is observed, the social worker will call the parents saying something innocuous like, "We are fearful that your child is at risk of future failure in school. Can we come to visit in your home?" They gain access in this way and when once they do this, the parents have no protection, no due process. For almost any reason, (untidy housekeeping, etc.) they can declare the child "at risk", removing the child from the home.

GENERAL "EDUCATIONAL" GOALS:

Goals 2000 is a major shift of power; it gives the federal government control of each individual's compliance to national standards. Anita Hoge told The WINDS that "under a policy called Total Quality Control Systems, federal money enforces national goals, national testing, national teacher certification, national curriculum, with a national database to monitor all of the above. Pennsylvania was the pilot for the national test. So when they say they're testing integrity, I understand how it's scored. When I first found the evaluation for state tests, I immediately felt betrayed because I found that they're scoring it through collectivism.

National standards are not reserved for students only, they are to be imposed on society as a whole. This is being accomplished by "partnering" schools with a multitude of non-educational agencies, services and businesses, referred to as "coordinated access". This is part of a massive program of transforming the community through the takeover of schools, making schools the hub. The family is drawn into this system through parent education, day-care programs, school-based health clinics, and "lifelong learning" in a continually expanding program.

The plan is particularly concerned with those it considers to be on the fringe of compliance.

This plays out in your schools as follows: Title 1 identifies a child "at risk" or "future risk" if he/she does not meet a state outcome (standard). The next step is remediation which reopens the door for the healthcare agenda that had been pushed by the present administration in Washington. This is accomplished by use of Medicare funds made available by a special waiver, which drops the poverty specification and expands the "medical need clause". This is the pretext used for the entrance of this invasive system of socialized (physical, mental, social) healthcare.

SCHOOL

Congressman Henry Hyde says on the surface, "School-to-Work sounds good. But when carried to its logical extreme, it chooses careers for every American worker. Workforce Development Boards and federal agencies will choose children's careers for them 'at the earliest possible age'. In some cases, as is currently happening in Pennsylvania, this is [taking place] in the third grade. [End quoting]

This is what is happening right under our noses—and we get to pay for it through school taxes!

THREAT TO SYRIA

From MILITARY magazine, Dec. 1998: [quoting]

Turkey has warned Syria they will attack if Syria continues to support anti-Turk Kurds. Ankara has said "the Army is waiting for orders". [End quoting]

Doesn't this make us feel cosy and good at this season for "peace" and love?

CLINTON BLUNDER

From MILITARY magazine, Dec. 1998: [quoting]

Because we cannot influence Saddam Hussein with our military, Clinton brought two Iraqi-Kurd leaders to Washington to entice them to make trouble for Iraq. Turkey has been fighting with Kurd insurgents on its southern border with Syria and Iraq. Turkey was not consulted by Clinton and is both insulted and angered because they fear the U.S. will arm these Kurds who will also be a problem for them. [End quoting]

Of the two, Clinton or Saddam, the world would probably be better off without Clinton.

At the same time that Clinton is giving his OK to assassinate, he is also giving the OK for someone to do the same to him—that's how stupid this man is!

NOT ENOUGH TIME FOR PRAYER

From the INTERNET, 11/30/98: [quoting]

I knelt to pray but not for long,
I had too much to do.
I had to hurry and get to work,
For bills would soon be due.
So I knelt and said a hurried prayer,
And jumped up off my knees.
My Christian duty was now done,
My soul could rest at ease.

All day long I had no time
To spread a word of cheer.
No time to speak of Christ to friends,
They'd laugh at me, I'd fear.
No time, no time, too much to do,
That was my constant cry,
No time to give to souls in need,
But at last the time, the time to die.

I went before the Lord,
I came, I stood with downcast eyes.
For in his hands God held a book;
It was the book of life.
God looked into his book and said,
"Your name I cannot find.
I once was going to write it down...
But never found the time."

SOMEBODY ANSWERS

From the INTERNET, courtesy of John F. Winston, <HEOT@onelist.com>, 12/1/98: [quoting]

As most of you know, I have a dog called Yogi The Telepathic Dog. I sometimes call him the following names; 1. Yog 2. Yogi Poo 3. Yogi, you hound dog. 4. Yogi Poggey. 5. Yogi my friend.

Yogi will be 13 years old one day before Christmas Eve and he's not getting around too good, but with a boost he can still get in the car and have some fun.

Here is a story that came my way.

From: B M; Subject: God Answers Prayers

Don't attempt to read until you've got some time to devote to this long, touching story. B.

"Watch out! You nearly broadsided that car!" my father yelled at me. "Can't you do anything right?" Those words hurt worse than blows. I turned my head toward the elderly man in the seat beside me, daring me to challenge him. A lump rose in my throat as I averted my eyes. I wasn't prepared for another battle. "I saw the car, Dad.

Please don't yell at me when I'm driving." My voice was measured and steady, sounding far calmer than I really felt. Dad glared at me, then turned away and settled back. At home I left Dad in front of the television and went outside to collect my thoughts. Dark, heavy clouds hung in the air with a promise of rain. The rumble of distant thunder seemed to echo my inner turmoil. What could I do about him?

Dad had been a lumberjack in Washington and Oregon. He had enjoyed being outdoors and had reveled in pitting his strength against the forces of Nature. He had entered grueling lumberjack competitions, and had placed often. The shelves in his house were filled with trophies that attested to his prowess.

The years marched on relentlessly. The first time he couldn't lift a heavy log, he joked about it; but later that same day I saw him outside alone, straining to lift it. He became irritable whenever anyone teased him about his advancing age, or when he couldn't do something he had done as a younger man. Four days after his sixtieth birthday, he had a heart attack. An ambulance sped him to the hospital while a paramedic administered CPR to keep blood and oxygen flowing. At the hospital, Dad was rushed into an operating room. He was lucky; he survived. But something inside Dad died. His zest for life was gone. He obstinately refused to follow doctor's orders. Suggestions and offers of help were turned aside with sarcasm and insults. The number of visitors thinned, then finally stopped altogether. Dad was left alone. My husband, Dick, and I asked Dad to come live with us on our small farm. We hoped the fresh air and rustic atmosphere would help him adjust. Within a week after he moved in, I regretted the invitation. It seemed nothing was satisfactory. He criticized everything I did. I became frustrated and moody. Soon I was taking my pent-up anger out on Dick. We began to bicker and argue. Alarmed, Dick sought out our pastor and explained the situation. The clergyman set up weekly counseling appointments for us. At the close of each session he prayed, asking God to soothe Dad's troubled mind. But the months wore on and God was silent. A raindrop struck my cheek. I looked up into the gray sky. Somewhere up there was "God". Although I believed a Supreme Being had created the universe, I had difficulty believing that God cared about the tiny human being on this Earth. I was tired of waiting for a God who didn't answer. Something had to be done and it was up to me to do it. The next day I sat down with the phone book and methodically called each of the mental health clinics listed in the Yellow Pages. I remarkable study done at a nursing home. All of the patients were under treatment for chronic depression. Yet their attitudes had improved dramatically when they were given responsibility for a dog. I drove to the animal shelter that afternoon. After I filled out a questionnaire, a uniformed officer led me to the kennels. The odor of disinfectant stung my nostrils as I moved down the row of pens. Each contained five to seven dogs. Long-haired dogs, curly-haired dogs, black dogs, spotted dogs—all jumped up, trying to reach me. I studied each one but rejected one after the other for various reasons—too big, too small, too much hair. As I neared the last pen a dog in the shadows of the far corner struggled to his feet, walked to the front of the run and sat down. It was a pointer, one of the dog world's aristocrats. But this was a caricature of the breed. Years had etched his face and muzzle with shades of gray. His hipbones jutted out in lopsided triangles. But it was his eyes that caught and held my attention. Calm and clear, they beheld me unwaveringly. I pointed to the dog. "Can you tell me about him?" The officer looked, then shook his head in puzzlement. "He's a funny one. Appeared out of nowhere and sat in front of the gate. We brought him in, figuring someone would be right down to claim him. That was two weeks ago and we've heard nothing. His time is up tomorrow." He gestured helplessly. As the words sank in I turned to the man in horror. "You mean you're going to kill him?" "Ma'am," he said gently, "that's our policy. We don't have room for every unclaimed dog." I looked at the pointer again. The calm brown eyes awaited my decision. "I'll take him," I said. I drove home with the dog on the front seat beside me. When I reached the house I honked the horn twice. I was helping my prize out of the car when Dad shuffled onto the front porch. "Ta-da! Look what I got for you, Dad!" I said excitedly. Dad looked, then wrinkled his face in disgust. "If I had wanted a dog I would have gotten one. And I would have picked out a better specimen than that bag of bones. Keep it! I don't want it." Dad waved his arm scornfully and turned back toward the house. Anger rose inside me. It squeezed together my throat muscles and pounded into my temples. "You'd better get used to him, Dad. He's staying!" Dad ignored me. "Did you hear me, old man?" I screamed. At those words Dad whirled angrily, his hands clenched at his sides, his eyes narrowed and blazing with hate. We stood glaring at each other like duelists, when suddenly the pointer pulled free from my grasp.

He wobbled toward my dad and sat down in front of him. Then slowly, carefully, he raised his paw. Dad's lower jaw trembled as he stared at the uplifted paw. Confusion replaced the anger in his eyes. The pointer waited patiently.

Then Dad was on his knees hugging the animal. It was the beginning of a warm and intimate friendship. Dad named the pointer Cheyenne. Together he and Cheyenne explored the community. They spent long hours walking down dusty lanes. They spent reflective moments on the banks of streams, angling for tasty trout. They even started to attend Sunday services together, Dad sitting in a pew and Cheyenne lying quietly at his feet. Dad and Cheyenne were inseparable throughout the next three years. Dad's bitterness faded, and he and Cheyenne made many friends.

Then late one night I was startled to feel Cheyenne's cold nose burrowing through our bed covers. He had never before come into our bedroom at night. I woke Dick, put on my robe and ran into my father's room. Dad lay in his bed, his face serene. But his spirit had left quietly sometime during the night.

Two days later my shock and grief deepened when I discovered Cheyenne lying dead beside Dad's bed. I wrapped his still form in the rag rug he had slept on. As Dick and I buried him near a favorite fishing hole, I silently thanked the dog for the help he had given me in restoring Dad's peace of mind.

The morning of Dad's funeral dawned overcast and dreary. This day looks like the way I feel, I thought, as I walked down the aisle to the pews reserved for family. I was surprised to see the many friends Dad and Cheyenne had made filling the church.

The pastor began his eulogy. It was a tribute to both Dad and the dog who had changed his life. And then the pastor turned to Hebrews 13:2. "Be not forgetful to entertain strangers." "I've often thanked God for sending that angel," he said.

For me, the past dropped into place, completing a puzzle that I had not seen before: the sympathetic voice that had just read the right article. Cheyenne's unexpected appearance at the animal shelter—his calm acceptance and complete devotion to my father and the proximity of their deaths. And suddenly I understood. I knew that God had answered my prayers after all.

JW: This reminds me of the old song, "A Little Bitty Tear Let Me Down. —John Winston. johnfwin@mlode.com [End quoting]

Thank God for His angels and animals and the help they give us in our desperations.

FORECLOSURE, COLLECTION AND TAKEOVER

Oh blind lambs, how is it that you cannot recognize the signs and read the script?

The nations, having been brought to their knees, are not unlike any individual with some assets who use up their currency and then hock their property to have credit at the banks and thus and so. The collateral you must register against the money you borrow are things like your houses, your automobiles, stocks—anything that can be construed as value.

When you deal with credit cards, you pay high interest rates and you WILL pay the accumulated debts or your credit is ruined and you will be forced into bankruptcy. However, as your credit ratings are impacted, you finally end up with absolutely NOTHING for it has all gone to the bandits in banker's clothing.

It is no different with nations. YOU may not control the credit lines as do the politicians, but YOU PAY THE BILLS. In one way or another, citizens, YOU PAY THE BILLS.

All that is happening now, and is planned to be cleaned up and operative by year 2000, is a full takeover of all assets and property by the World Banksters. It is happening before your eyes; everyone is impacted, and YOU will pay the Piper. The records being structured and now in place can keep a record of everything, everywhere. You have no privacy, no place to run, and certainly, no place to hide. The world is basically in FORECLOSURE and the accounts are being set forth for operation as the property and assets are TURNED OVER TO THE BIG BOYS FOR THEIR OWN USE AND CHOICES OF MANIPULATION. THEY NOW OWN EVERYTHING IN YOUR WORLD OF BOOKS, BANKING AND SEIZURE.

The point of MORE funding from such as the IMF is to keep the individual nations now in the big basket in some type of operation, at the least cost, by the new owners of you, the slaves, and all the natural resources, businesses, etc., of your recognized world.

There will always be lots of talk about projects, growth, building and housing and feeding the poor—but count the money—there will not be funds made available (ONLY PROMISES) for accomplishing such massive programs.

In Manila we just read that some 40,000 families will be displaced just by the cleaning-up project of the Pasig River, which is now just a sewer, and a very shallow sewer at that. However, from that river comes the water that is contaminated by raw sewage and anything else tossed or fallen into the river, for consumption of these "squatters". Now, you clean up the river—where are you going to put those PEOPLE? And this, readers, is only counting a small stretch of that riverway through, basically, METRO Manila.

These squatters have no jobs, no transportation, no houses—NOTHING. They simply "squat" for they have no furniture, only boxes or plastic pails upside down on which to sit or toilet and what else are they going to do?

This is anywhere in the world today, readers, not just Manila. It happens to be under the writer's nose at the moment, but there are worse, by far, places.

When the final world-wide blows are struck, there are the provisions with considerations. This means that there may or may not be further assistance from the money gods, but that assistance will come with higher interest, quicker demands for payback, never enough to do anything except pay "some" to the banks, and the society will slip further and further into that polluted river, whatever its name or location.

Since the World Zionists don't have enough population to occupy the lands, they take over the government control, place their high-level puppets to run the slaves, and you have what you have become today as you move into the new era.

WHEN PAYMENTS ARE MADE TO A NATION THESE DAYS BY SUCH AS THE IMF OR WORLD BANK, WHERE DO THEY GO? THEY GO TO SATISFY THE BANKS WHICH ARE IN AS BAD TROUBLE AS IS THE POPULATION AS A WHOLE—EXCEPT FOR THE MANIPULATORS AT THE TOP.

Nations who refuse to play in the ballgame of Get Everything are outcasts, bashed and isolated away from trade, interchange, funding "unless" (and the "unless" is usually to topple the standing government and all the standing leadership).

You "think" there is an international law that says you can't assassinate a leader or topple a government? Silly children. Not only is the New World Order run by the Zionists doing exactly THAT, but they are offering up rewards of very high amounts to anyone who will accomplish the task—dead or alive.

Do you actually think that George Soros, the thief of all time, has qualms now about demanding the overthrow and ouster of such as Mahathir of Malaysia? [See the News Desk, p.2]

Nobody dares to do anything against these dragons of deception for nobody seems to understand their game. GO TO THE PROTOCOLS OF ZION, which are also the basis for the Nazi Protocols, the Communist Manifesto, and on down the line. GET THE GOLD! Get control of the currency and you can control the masses. Then, one by one, you pick off every other thing meaningful to life. YOU PASSED ORWELL'S 1984 IN ABOUT 1979—IN FULL OPERATION WITH THE MONITORING AND EVERYTHING SUGGESTED.

Why do I bother to AGAIN go through this boring scenario? Because you somehow still think you can come forth and WISH for something better and somehow somebody (else) will change things to better suit you. You see, the enticements along the way suited you just fine as you deteriorated into lazy, sleeping, luxuriating zombies while thinking you were really doing well. No, you were in training to give everything, including your soul, to the enemy.

Riots won't help. Demonstrations won't help. WAR WON'T HELP. If you don't change attitudes and begin to build again from foundation up, you won't find anything that will "help".

Does this mean the world will end? Of course not. That would be an easy way out, wouldn't it? You could just say "Oh well, the world is going to end anyway and/so/but...". No, the world is not going to END, silly ducks. That is another of the lies foisted off on you. Neither is there going to be a RAPTURE! You may well die, but it will not be from rapturing up somewhere to some god created out of nothing for your convenience to save your asses by cloud sitting.

You will note that the orbiting planets in your solar system keep right on orbiting. They once held life as, or more so, abundant than your own. They didn't "go away"; ONLY THE PEOPLE AND LIVING FORMS WENT AWAY. But before that life-status went away, it sure got miserable on the physical players.

I hear all the time about what Cayce said, or Nostradamus said, or some guru said—what about the visible evidence in your face? In Manila, for instance, anyone can look at the growing numbers of people on the edge of the Pasig River and KNOW it cannot go on like this. Disease is now rampant with no way to bring the insect carriers under control. The pesticides are as bad as the diseases. So, it has become a point of how do you most easily kill the people. Does the government do it by famine? How about untreatable diseases? What about simply burning everything, including the people, to the ground? I have news for you: Caesar didn't have anything ELSE to do in the great fire of Rome but fiddle!

The people at the TOP don't want to be displaced for being at the top is their only prayer of survival. Do you actually think that if Clinton were not President, he would last a day? Come on, readers, the game is no longer a little game, and not even on the gladiator stages and ball fields is a game anything but a bloody war to distract you sleeping giants while Rome burns to the ground along with YOU.

GOD DID NOT SAY HE WOULD FIX IT. GOD SAID THAT THE WORD WOULD GO FORTH TO THE CORNERS OF THE WORLD, AND WHEN THAT WAS DONE, IT WAS UP TO THE HUMAN PEOPLE.

You have allowed the changing of the world from a balanced orb to an unbalanced shell of itself now destined to great upheavals and topographical alterations by both natural and unnatural causes.

You want truth, even in your psychic scare games? No you don't! You don't even want to be annoyed while you sleep off your hangover from the escape party last evening. You certainly don't want to have to clean up the mess of an air-raid that might make debris in your living room and spoil your carpet, for after all, the credit is about used up for the replacing of same. And do you have enough reserves to rebuild your house, your roof, your missing patio table set? Oh, you don't own any of these things? Right—YOU DON'T. However, no matter who owns the house in which you dwell—when it is gone, it is GONE. Will you just rebuild? No, you will expect the "government" to do it for you, pay for it and send welfare!

Dear ones, until YOU change, nothing can be changed very much and nothing at all can be changed in YOUR SPACE. You may well be able to ride along on a wave, GOOD OR BAD, that ripples through society—but unless YOU CHANGE, you will always find a way to remain basically unchanged except for the depression that comes with a downward spiral.

I am always forced to look at the people in any given circumstance. I see the wives and husbands basically growing totally apart from one another after only minute time-spans. Why? What do YOU do to make a circumstance any different than what is bringing you down? What do YOU do that would cause an upsurge in your situation? WHAT DO YOU DO TO MAKE THE THING WORK? Do you simply want to "find self" and "self motivation" or do you focus on the mental stability and loving atmosphere of the children's welfare and balance? Who do you blame for your lack? Your parents? Oh? If you are old enough to be a parent—then how dare you blame your parents for their own limitations when you have EVERY OPPORTUNITY TO CHANGE YOURS! Responsibility is a unique and individual thing, and blame upon another is never other than a total waste of time. To blame another simply demonstrates, for all to see and hear, your own shortcomings.

By the way, readers, the thing that burdens you becomes the thing you worst wish to get rid of. Let us example: Say that a bigger storm than has hit Manila came ashore and washed all 40,000 squatter families out to sea and to their death. What would be the result? There would be a big "thing" in all the media. There would be a big "thing" in all the press. There would be bunches of wilted flowers and burning candles at the "site" or the grave. There would be a big weeping and wailing from all the politicians—and then, nothing EXCEPT GREAT RELIEF TO HAVE THE PROBLEM GONE. Don't fall for the false front and pious voices. When you have a problem, you want it gone, and that is whether it is political trashing or a dying spouse or parent. You lie to self and to everyone who comes along—but YOU WANT TO BE RID OF THE PROBLEM, WHATEVER IT MIGHT BE, THAT INTERFERES WITH YOUR

COMFORT OR YOUR SELF-INTERESTS.

Christmas, which is considered a fellowship time of the year in a spirit of giving, might well serve as a time for introspection to see what it is that YOU are seeking and what YOU are willing to GIVE. GOD GIVES AND REGIVES—WHAT DO YOU GIVE AND REGIVE? YOU CAN ONLY, TRUTHFULLY, RECEIVE, IF YOU GIVE! THIS IS SIMPLY A UNIVERSAL LAW FOR YOU DO NOT GET SOMETHING FOR NOTHING—EVER—NOT EVEN IN A PERPETUAL MOTION MACHINE, FOR SOMETHING HAD TO START THE THING RUNNING.

"But, there is Santa Claus who gives without any strings!" I'm told. Oh? No strings? Just your soul and your life is the only cost! PRETTY PACKAGES DO NOT A PERFECT GIFT MAKE!

"What a dull and dreary lesson today"? Perhaps. It certainly depends on YOUR attitude, doesn't it? And just how many in my own household will even bother to READ THIS MESSAGE? Oh, I see, you are too busy with the things of the day in your own lives and "...with Christmas and all—and I didn't have time to read it at work on someone else's time card! When I get around to it conveniently, I'm so distracted...". Oh well.

Dharma wonders if I am going to do a "Christmas message". Why? You don't want to hear a REAL Christmas message. You want Daddy to tell you how wonderful you are, how wonderful is the Season, how brilliant is your whatever, and lie to you about circumstances. No thank you, readers. You have that kind of garbage all the time. Why would you want God to lie to you TOO?

You often miss my points regarding such things as Christmas. I implore you to participate, enjoy the wondrous giving of lights and friendship and that which touches the heart and warms the soul on traditional days. TRADITIONAL DAYS is the key phrase herein. TRADITIONAL THINGS AND TRADITIONAL CULTURES—THESE ARE THE THINGS WHICH GIVE UNIQUE FOCUS ON ANY STORY OR TALE. IF YOUR TRADITIONAL PRACTICES ARE OF LIGHT, GIVING, SHARING, BEAUTY AND TRUTH, YOU WILL FIND THESE WONDERFUL THINGS.

Since we are in the Philippines, let me point out what happens here, there and everywhere. There is such lack of knowledge, understanding or outright "caring" that it eludes the consciousness to even know how to respond.

We are boggled by that which has happened in just one incident, that of a fire in an orphanage with a death toll of some 30 babies and children readying for a Christmas party.

The firemen were slow to respond, and so today, what might the response be to the complaint? Headline: "Manila firemen deplore low pay". By the end of the article you don't know whether to laugh or cry. The firemen say that things are so bad economically that they are depressed and slow to respond. They say that they are forced to pay into an insurance fund regularly, which fund never goes to insurance. They have to pay into a "loan fund" which never seems to reduce the loans. And on and on it goes. Are the babies better off or worse off for their transition to God and the Angels? Some of the children in the orphanage are children of some of the firemen, who could no longer feed or shelter their children. THIS IS LIFE, CHELAS, NOT TRADITION OR A FLUKE; THIS IS THE LIFE THAT HAS COME TO REST ON THE PEOPLE BECAUSE OF THE CORRUPTION AND EVIL GREED OF THE PEOPLE AT THE TOP.

The attitude, unfortunately, is no different on down the ladder of participation. The firemen would do unto the others just to individually gain a bit more, so it is hard to cast stones.

GRAVEYARDS AT CHRISTMAS?

You should have pause right here to ask what kind of a "heading" is that? Well, there are not rooms in the Inns for all the children, so thousands live in the gutters and streets. SOME LIVE IN THE GRAVEYARDS. Nobody bothers them very much in the graveyards and they can sniff their glue in peace.

Did I say "sniff their glue"? Indeed. The children get a bit of pesos of less than a dollar a day for food. The children have learned, however, that if they get glue and sniff it, they forget about being hungry—so they spend all their funds on glue and then live in the cemetery. These children are so many in number that they are simply called "Grave Children". They don't fear the dead, they fear the living, and now they themselves are the "living dead". And no, I jest not: THIS IS A FRONT PAGE STORY.

This is not, however, the lead story for that is "Asia's last sporting spectacle of the century opens in Bangkok."

Do I do this so that you don't enjoy anything in your own lives? NO, NO, AND NO! I just want you to understand why "I" might get testy sometimes and the hearts break over the overwhelming task of helping somehow while only being able to watch further deterioration. NO, I want you to use the things you have, appreciate the beauty and even the gaudy things of the holiday because life MUST HAVE SELF-PLEASURE OR THERE CAN BE NO JOY FOR THE SOUL FOR NO ONE WOULD REALIZE PLENTY OR LACK OF IT.

Do I want you to just GIVE IT ALL TO THE POOR AND BECOME POOR YOURSELF? NO!!! YOU COULD GIVE EVERYTHING YOU MIGHT EVER HAVE OR WILL HAVE AND YOU COULDN'T "FIX" THIS IMBALANCE. YOU MUST BE WILLING TO LIVE TOWARD CHANGE OR THERE IS NO POINT IN THE JOURNEY.

There have always been beggars since the beginning of man for many reasons, real or conjured. However, you now offer Viagra for more pleasure and need while you dump the babies which are sired—into the graveyards and gutters. Many simply bypass the stint of trying to "live" in the Graveyard.

Do I object to your games with such as Viagra and sex and folly? Yes. You are living on the edge of extinction and all you can do is think of your toys and games. Poor children: THERE IS NOTHING IN VIAGRA TO REALLY DO ANYTHING EXCEPT USE A BIT OF MIND-CONTROL ON YOU WHILE YOU GO FOR WHAT YOU THINK MIGHT BE A BRIEF MOMENT OF WHAT? EXCITEMENT? LOVE? OH BARF! Sex may well be fun and exciting but it is deadly in more ways than one while it totally drains the body of energy and physical stamina. Aren't you "out of control" enough without deliberately placing yourself further "out of control"? Do you actually think Bill Clinton's "drives" have merited him great accolades as Statesman of the Year? I promise you: screw around and you are going to be screwed up. In addition, if you are working on something noble and interesting—you won't even think about wasting your time "sleeping around".

Well, let's leave that topic for it is so dear to the heart of man (in his pants) that none can adequately deal with the subject, much the less responsibility in the matter. I would check the HIV ALONG WITH EVERYTHING ELSE.

I would note here, while mentioning HIV, that almost all the children, those Graveyard children, are HIV positive. And what explanation is offered? Well, the little girls are more profitable the younger they are and the little boys are too small for the condoms provided. People, we are talking about babies usually less than ten years old. And it is all right there, spelled out right in the daily paper, pictures right on the front page showing the bags for sniffing and the glazed and unseeing eyes.

"Oh, but that's Manila," you might say. GO LOOK IN HOLLYWOOD ON THE BACK STREETS WHERE THE CHILDREN GO. IT IS ANYWHERE, GLOBAL EARTH.

It was interesting to note that there are major advertisements in the Manila guides for massage places and house calls, escorts, and you name it. In Malaysia it was far more subtle but there were more pages in the phone book for these "services". There was even a little back-room dealing going on right in the Hotel in which the team stayed. How interesting? No, not "interesting"—disgusting. These hotels such as Concorde and Galarmi are BUSINESS CENTERS where business people can have a bit of a refrigerator and a few things of home with a full office center for doing business. This is where business men/women stay for convenience to business locations and ease of getting around in the business areas. The bigger MAJOR hotels have even more lavish arrangements for their "tend your comfort needs" as they advertise their perks.

Who do YOU tend to throw stones at, the prostitutes or the ones who hire them? Check it out pretty carefully for I will tell you something: a mother will do what she needs to do to feed her babies as long as she can—any way she can. So, get out the old travel-kit with Viagra and hit the road because you undoubtedly deserve a break today from your hard labors and inferiority complexes.

God does NOT ask that you run hither and yon and stuff your religions down the throats of the unsuspecting natives. You are far less Spiritual than almost all of the "primitive" natives, so keep that line of push and shove out of your sights. Be individually grateful for that which you have, even if it seems small and insignificant. Be grateful for the lessons so necessary to find peace and joy within. Appreciate those things for which you gain through labor and enjoy, as well, those things acquired in abundance. GOD IS ABUNDANCE and you must learn the difference in having and taking. Receiving is equal to giving, chelas, so don't jump to incorrect conclusions. Remember also, example is the best teacher and nobody, but nobody, wants to follow the leader into the pits. If we can offer nothing more than poverty, then we have accomplished NOTHING.

Accept God's gifts in the manner in which He bestows them, in LOVE and ABUNDANCE. Do a nice random act of kindness and goodness—and then PASS IT ON. You need not rush hither and yon DOING FOR someone else except in instances of love and true charity of sharing—but you must help others to be able to gain for themselves. That often only requires allowance and tolerance along with just a bit of encouragement. Try to see all the circumstances in any situation and then, only then, see what you can do to REALLY help and not just JUDGE. It costs NOTHING to give LOVE, a smile and a bit of encouragement.

Now that the lecture is over, I might remind you of my beloved self, that I cherish you beyond your imaginings and I know, even if you do not, that you can do and create that which is "impossible". Therefore, let us press forward and do it.

Salu, and may the true Joy of the Season be resting upon your minds.

MERRY CHRISTMAS From New Gaia Products

Oh, you have no idea how much we hate having to say that already. After all, it is still 1 week away. Gadzooks!!! What did we just say? ONE WEEK!!!

Well there's nothing like getting the shopping out of the way early.

AND to help you with your joyous task we have decided to give you a hand and a break (Don't worry this won't break your hand).

Beginning December 1st and running through December 23rd we will have on SALE Cu29-Copper, GaiaCol & GaiaGold, Gaia DHEA and Noni. The sale will be: "BUY TWO, GET THE THIRD ONE FREE". Well, kinda free. We will add on a small fee for each freebie, to cover the freight. The amounts are as follows:

2oz-freebies @ $1.00 s&h
16oz-freebies @ $2.00 s&h
32oz-freebies @ $3.00 s&h
other, regular freight fees still apply.

This offer is good only on orders shipped within the United States.

*Limit 2 free offers per product and size. Note this sale is on all sizes: 2oz, 16oz, and 32oz: GaiaCol, GaiaGold, Cu29-Copper, Gaia DHEA and Noni.

*The way this will work is, you can buy 4-2oz GaiaCols for $10.00 each (and get two freebies). That's $40.00. Plus you will add $1.00 s&h for each freebie. That's $2.00 s&h. So the total for the 6-2oz GaiaCols would be $42.00. Or if you choose to go with the 32oz size for this Product, it would look like this: 4-32oz GaiaCols for $96.00 each. That's $384.00. Plus you will add $3.00 s&h for each freebie. That's $6.00 s&h. So the total for the 6-32oz GaiaCol would be $390.00. This is a savings of $186.00.

Imelda Marcos And The Peruvian Gold Certificate

12/11/98 #1 HATONN

IN THE WORLD OF GOD EVERYONE HAS, OR WILL HAVE THEIR OPPORTUNITY FOR CHOICE

Dharma is, so far, the only one who sees what is coming and for that, Precious, I apologize. For everyone else, no apologies. I have sent to the drowning parties life-rings, canoes, boats, ocean liners and helicopters. My, my, the hearts are hard of hearing.

We are going to write this "book" exactly as that—a full-blown book. The names will not, in most instances, be changed for I am weary of all the hyped-up protection of the guilty parties. The only problem we have is WHERE TO START.

Therefore, we will use the old Hollywood method of many flashbacks while we are writing and, finally, after running in a series, we will fit the pieces together properly in sequence which will make historical order more easily discerned. At this moment, however, I have no interest in historical "order", but rather, current events and calling events as they are and not as the tales have somehow surfaced.

Since we are in the Philippines, obviously the point will be, and the plot played out, as to the Philippines. I will have insertions later to flesh out the story and I will be asking Nora to do a final "historical saga" of the circumstances still unfolding in this fantasy world of such as Imelda Marcos.

I will start by simply telling you some things you never really wanted to know—but it will make a difference as to how we present and are accepted in this day of trying to get something worthwhile accomplished.

IMELDA MARCOS

Let us be a bit kind to this poor manipulated soul trying to escape the bindings of what has happened to her over her lifetime.

She began and lived her early life in about as bad of circumstances as most of you could even dream. She was, however, a strong little girl and managed to somehow survive, due mostly to her ability to live in "fantasy". And oh my, she was beautiful and knew how to use that beauty to her best advantage. This was never lost on the manipulators, set on creating the greatest con game ever imagined on humanity.

Today Imelda changes her plot—AGAIN. little Meldy was doing. After she married

She has been going to sue the pants off Marcos' old cronies, but suddenly today she is mumbling "compromise" and "negotiation" with the government.

Along with that attitude, TODAY, she is accused of being the mastermind and "calling the shots" during the Ninoy slaying. Does she even know it? Well, yes of course, it simply has NO MEANING FOR HER OR TO HER as life was that which was "happening" to this little girl in the whirl of incredible stresses and make-believe.

All during this time of ripening, the CIA had control of the Philippines. And here enters such as Russell Herman, known by many names, into this intriguing picture. The CIA had Edward G. Lansdale in charge of things in Manila, and he was fed instructions from William Colby and Theodore Shackley.

By the way, even in the Philippines the BIG play unfolding was called "The Phoenix Programme". It was set up in 1969 formally. It was established to give the GVN (Government of Vietnam, South) and the U.S. troops in Asia the license and justification for the arrest, torture or killing of anyone in the country, whether or not the person was carrying a gun. By then, what was seen as the magic formula Lansdale had invented and pioneered in the Philippines had become the CIA's standard operating procedure elsewhere in the Third World—not merely in Vietnam but in Indonesia, Cuba and Chile. In each case the operations were carried out by the same team of Americans and Filipinos who had created the Magsaysay government.

This was a global crusade that transcended mere national politics.

And who might have been important in that interchanging time of "getcha"? Well, immediately come to mind some of the immediate players who would always show up in the US Senate in Armed Services Committee Reports signed by Senators Stuart Symington, Stephen M. Young and Daniel K. Inouye.

Everything was enabled as far as a working plan by the "Cold War" with Russia (Soviets). This very thing was well-presented as it was, in truth, by I.F. Stone: "The truth is that we have spent a trillion dollars since World War II on a gigantic hoax..."

And I tell you here and now, to be unfolded and confirmed later, that the entire world ongoing idiocy was a hoax of the most magnificence ever dreamed.

But let us move back in time and see what

Marcos, which is a wondrous tale in itself, she tried diligently to fit into a world which was both criminal and immoral, and it wore away at her even with her own desires for recognition and attention.

She began having severe migraine headaches and became totally zombie-like. She would overeat and would lock herself away and gorge on sweets. She developed double vision and inability to function at all.

When the crisis came, she had a full-blown nervous breakdown—and GUESS WHAT, kiddies: Ferd took her to New York for treatment. And wow, guess what's more: she got the cure and "became a totally different person" from that time on. Wow! She was put through the mind-altering programs where she was programmed by auto-suggestion and the change was a "revelation" as Saul's on the road to Damascus. From that time on there were no deviations from the path decided for her marching.

Now, I don't want to shock you too much, but as people get old and sick and things in the world about them become undone and it is obvious that the "thought to be" allies and friends turn—so too will the manipulated.

At the time of Marcos' exile in Hawaii, you will find it to coincide with all the nasty stuff happening here and there, INCLUDING, FINALLY, an attempt to snatch the Peruvian Gold Certificate from Herman, which caused Herman to change it into a contract and register the thing.

In those times of "hit men" and greed mongers, the whole thing with Marcos and his buddies was COMING APART. After all, while Marcos was dying, Imelda was brought forth in the US and charged and tried for racketeering. This developed a great deal of bitterness within the lady—but being a good little PROGRAMMED MOTHER OF ALL BUTTERFLIES, she took it quite well, considering everything.

Marcos, could, however, see what was happening, and it was then that he asked Russell Herman to see to it that somehow the contracts and certificates could be protected, and to please see to it to the best of his ability that Imelda be protected. Herman took that pledge seriously. But his world was coming apart anyway as the Bush Brigade was in high gear trying to cover their own criminal tracks from BCCI to Saddam Hussein.

As the plagues of Satan were being brought upon Russell, it was then that he began to set his agreements with Rick. Rick didn't have enough experience to have any idea the magnitude of that which was asked of him.

Russell came to me and it was purposefully to utilize CONTACT as a mode of information networking. It was decided that EVERYTHING would simply be public as to anything done by any person relative to myself or participation.

Russell passed on to Rick the agreement that Rick would continue to work for the protection of Imelda, and utilize what could be utilized in the Philippines to somehow get back some of the massive wealth which was outright stolen during the time of Marcos "reign". And yes indeed, Imelda knew Russell very well. She simply was so programmed that she never really knew much of anything other than what she was told, and she became the cute little outrageous lady of the world. But she was able, through it all, to accomplish things which no man in the same position could even begin to contemplate. She is, however, also programmed to have NO RECALL, except of things imprinted on her TO REMEMBER. As a matter of fact, Russell Herman was one of her "handlers".

Russell told Rick that one of his contacts, after his demise, should be in the Philippines, and further, should be Lucio Tan. Now, come on chilluns, who in Tehachapi had ever heard of a Lucio Tan? Well, it all makes sense TODAY. Ah, but to get Lucio Tan to acknowledge and Imelda to do anything more than "acknowledge" is interesting in itself.

Yesterday there was a meeting with the Chairman of the Board and writer-owner of the major Manila newspaper. He was shocked and stunned at information—but held his time. He had someone with him, however, who owned right up as to KNOWING RUSTY HERMAN. Wow? Is old Dad giving you good information or what, kids?

Now, is this dangerous? Of course, but not if anyone THINKS ABOUT IT. We have the very THING which will bail everyone out of their hog-mire. The Central Bank needs shoring up and they are in the same predicament here as you were, as citizens in the U.S., and cannot hold gold other than as jewelry articles. ONLY the Central Bank can buy, hold, sell or use GOLD. This, of course, was to allow all that massive movement of gold OUT of the Philippines (as happened in the US) and off shore. Further, it is here, as it was there, structured so that Treasury Bills could not be paid in gold to citizens. So, this leaves the "other arranged governments", i.e., Israel, to demand every payment of anything IN GOLD. More than that, there then came the day when the GOLD STANDARD was abolished. This came so quietly that nobody in the world, by intent, ever realized that there was no longer any VALUE COMMODITY backing currency.

So, LET'S HAVE IT NOW. There were also gold certificates, flowing like water, out of Taiwan. They were claimed to be from the former head of state of China and flowed through someone touted to be a granddaughter, called, but not spelled correctly through intent, Grace Sue.

This was working pretty well until it came to light that the certificates are NO GOOD for they were originated AFTER THE FEDERAL RESERVE ACT BECAME LAW IN 1913. So, wow, they could be simply DISMISSED. However, they were not dismissed and now there are BILLIONS of dollars running around based on those screwed-up documents which were mostly conjured up by Roosevelt.

But so we can go on. What would a Bush Brigade have to do to make something legal and valid? They had to have certificates which were based ON GOLD, valid BEFORE THE FED RESERVE ACT, and BIG. Bonus Certificate (Peruvian) fit all of the necessary qualifications. Therefore, through high-level players such as Bentsen, Baker, Greenspan and other top-level manipulators, the Certificate was valued BY THE FED at its incredible size. This became Bush's "Superfund" and was without limits. However, only one thing was wrong with this game—the certificate WAS NOT HIS. And oh yes indeed, it was certainly also all entangled with Ferdinand Marcos.

The US government couldn't just "wipe it out" because it was not theirs to handle. It was, after all, in the control and management (ownership if you will by "Bearer" standing) of one Russell Herman.

I don't need to write the whole of the story today for I just don't want to get ahead of myself.

Why would WE then have had reason to struggle on behalf of Russell Herman? Simply put, naive need. Russell Herman left to our "Gutsy little paper, CONTACT", $40 MILLION dollars in his will—along with 48% of the value of the Bonus Contract to the various States of We-The-People of the US. This got the whole thing registered and entered as valid US documents and DEBT.

Because, after the Fed Reserve Act, the Treasury of the US transferred debts to the Fed, you have the Fed holding this DEBT. That means that since the IMF, World Bank, et al., along with the International Settlement Bank in Switzerland are all major parts of the SAME SNAKE, the responsibility of this debt goes all the way to the top Elite Banksters. Note WHY, and THAT, Rubin, who is supposed to be Secretary of the U.S. Treasury, is actually A PAID EMPLOYEE OF THE IMF!

Now, you will note that just in the past two days Switzerland has a new president: "Interior Minister Ruth Dreifuss was elected Switzerland's first-female AND FIRST JEWISH president by parliament yesterday..." [The Star, Philippines, Dec. 10, 1998 from Reuters, Zurich.]

How do you like them apples and how about that Holocaust money-gold push?

EURO MONEY

We find Mr. Soros doing his super projections today that somehow the Euro will help straighten out the mess into which he helped push the poor misguided world. Say what? WHAT BACKS THE EURO CURRENCY? Right—NOTHING. So you are considering replacing NOTHING with NOTHING. What you are really doing is bringing more plagues upon your houses. So be it, it is YOUR world and foolishness is one among your FREE-WILL

CHOICES.

So what are WE DOING? Are we trying to SAVE THE WORLD? No, absolutely not. If you want your world saved—GET OFF YOUR ASSETS AND SAVE IT. We are going to meet our commitments and our agreements. We bring opportunity to cover the asses of quite a few "mistake-bound" players while we are at it. Why? Because what is sauce for that old goose is also a good and worthy sauce for that gander.

Banks in trouble can use our plan to build and grow out of the mess in which they are mired and they can do it with total TRANSPARENCY while stopping the hiding-at-all-costs.

The players who got the players into such trouble can escape by reworking the tools in honor and with integrity.

So, what part is Granny's? I haven't any idea what she thinks and it appears that Mr. Jackson may just help her right into a legal trap from which they can't extract themselves. I agreed to take as much care of V.K. Durham as SHE WOULD ALLOW AND SHE ALLOWS NOTHING. So be it.

Does she know all about these things? NO, NO AND NO. Come on, chelas—what do YOU THINK?

Yes indeed, you are going to find things unfolding regarding such as Iraq and Libya which will be entirely shocking in the unfolding. Don't let it upset you—what did you think was going on? Certainly nothing takes place as you are TOLD by the very criminal elements themselves.

Look around you RIGHT NOW as gold is controlled at a major loss to every nation, and so too is oil suppressed at a loss to the intended states for their demise. Oh my, and it just goes on and on and on.

We don't have more time to sit at this writing longer, so let us just close where we are and we will take up more as we have time and it is suitable to what we must accomplish here and what we must make public to secure our position and our people.

Thank you for being flexible, Scribe. ☘

WALL STREET'S GOLDEN EGG IS SCRAMBLED

NEW YORK CITY, New York, by Martin Mann, EXCLUSIVE TO THE SPOTLIGHT—The White House is quietly assembling a task force of federal investigators to look into reports that a back-room syndicate of Wall Street's largest banks and hedge funds has been engaged in vast and risky speculative maneuvers that involved, among other tactics, rigging the market value and global supply of gold.

This vital precious metal has been bought and sold for more than a year in large quantities at unnaturally low and stagnant price levels in both of the world's principal gold trading centers, London and New York, sources noted.

When Federal Reserve Chairman Alan Greenspan engineered an emergency bailout worth billions last September for a foundering East Coast hedge fund, known as Long Term Capital Management (LTCM), regulators found that this private investment firm had assumed large hidden trading positions in gold.

That was a disturbing discovery, sources say. LTCM was known for wheeling and dealing in the securities and currency markets, but not in commodities.

"They made enormous bets on stocks, bonds and even Asian currencies," says veteran financial analyst Ron Welker. "When they suddenly went bust in late August, they were in danger of defaulting on speculative forward contracts worth a staggering $200 billion. But gold was never supposed to be a part of LTCM's portfolio."

"LTCM used gold merely as an instrument to finance its gambles," says Welker. "They found that they could borrow gold in any quantity at dirt-cheap interest rates, often amounting to no more than one and one-half percent. They immediately sold their borrowed bullion, and thus acquired funding on which they paid only minimal interest, far below the prevailing loan rates."

There was a catch, of course. "Gold prices had to be kept stagnant, otherwise LTCM would have incurred a loss, instead of a profit, when its gold-borrowing contracts expired and it had to buy back the bullion it had sold in order to return it to the lenders," Welker explained.

But LTCM was not alone in making mammoth speculative bets in the financial markets, regulators found.

"Wall Street's largest commercial and investment banks are increasingly acting like hedge funds themselves," says Tracy Corrigan, who covers U.S. money markets for The Financial Times, the prestigious business daily based in England.

Behind the scenes were the Rockefeller dynasty's flagship, Chase Manhattan conglomerate; Citigroup, the largest U.S. financial-services corporation; and Banker's Trust. They were all found to have turned to the sort of high-risk speculation characteristic of hedge funds.

"They all reported losses running into the billions after LTCM's collapse," says Welker. "Many of these megabanks were apparently also involved in borrowing and manipulating vast amounts of gold to finance their betting streaks."

SPECULATIVE RAIDS?

Was gold used to help fuel the speculative raids that wrecked the economies of half-a-dozen Asian countries last year? A group of regional leaders, led by Prime Minister Dr. Mahathir Mohamad, Malaysia's long-ruling nationalist strongman, wants to know.

Moreover, as this issue of The SPOTLIGHT went to press, it was learned that at the Clinton White House, a recently formed and mysterious authority known as the President's Working Group on Financial Markets is moving to coordinate its own broad investigation of these speculative excesses that have roiled the world's financial and commodity markets in recent months.

AL GORE'S ASIANS WHILE BILL BLASTS SADDAM

EXCLUSIVE TO THE SPOTLIGHT
by James Harrer

Behind the inflammatory incident there is an urgent effort by the Clinton administration to divert attention from the makings of a scandal.

Vice President Al Gore's incessant attempts to distinguish himself as the Clinton administration's most submissive supporter of Israel's far-flung interests backfired this month in Asia, where he wrecked a critical economic summit with a startling attack on one of the minstate's most mordant critics: Malaysian Premier Mahathir Mohamad.

There is growing evidence that international speculators in New York and Moscow, bound by common ethnic ties to Israel, are secretly manipulating the supply and price of gold in the world markets, well-placed Wall Street sources have told The SPOTLIGHT.

"As soon as he arrived in the Malaysian capital, Kuala Lumpur, to represent the United States at a summit conference of 21 hard-pressed Asian and Pacific Rim nations—replacing Clinton, who stayed home to deal with Iraq—Gore took an unprecedented step: He gave a speech making common cause with anti-government street demonstrators," says Russell E. F. Faulkner, a British broadcast correspondent covering the conference.

BITTER CONTEST

The street rioters were demanding the ousting of Prime Minister Mohamad, a revered figure in Asia, who has recently become embroiled in a bitter contest with a political rival.

"The vice president's strange sally, suggesting that the United States supported the overthrow of Dr. Mohamad, Malaysia's long-established leader, who was, after all, the sponsor of the APEC conference and Gore's own host, stirred up a storm of outrage," related Faulkner.

Other Western observers expressed similar conclusions. "Mr. Gore's blunt words have left the meeting of Pacific Rim nations a shambles ... [the scheduled] discussion on how to rein in global capital flows were scarcely heard today," reported Mark Landler in The New York Times on Nov. 18.

That may have been the real purpose of Gore's unusual intervention in his host country's internal affairs, Wall Street analysts and regional experts say.

"Ever since Dr. Mohamad blamed 'Jewish speculators' and 'criminal Zionist financiers' for wrecking the currency of his nation (and that of other Asian countries) at last year's APEC meeting, he has been a major target of Israeli intrigues," related Dr. Anatol Abusir, a senior economic advisor to the conference delegation from Brunei.

This year, Dr. Mohamad reportedly planned to follow his denunciation of the rapacious international money moguls (now commonly known from Moscow all the way to Manila as "Zionocrats") with a discussion of several related topics, including their covert manipulation of the worldwide supply and price of gold.

"That issue is now likely to be tabled or largely muted, and even if it isn't, there won't be any major press coverage," added this experienced observer.

Most headlines dealt with the chorus of condemnation that met Gore's extraordinary expressions of encouragement for the unruly Malaysian opposition attempting to force out Premier Mahathir Mohamad's regime.

Malaysian Foreign Minister Adbullah Badawi formally denounced "incitement by the U.S. government to lawlessness by certain elements to use undemocratic means in order to overthrow a constitutionally elected government."

Malaysia will hold the United States "accountable" for any violence stirred up by Gore's speech, Badawi angrily added.

NOT THEIR WAY

Australian Prime Minister John Howard "deplored" Gore's intervention emphasizing that "it was not Australia's way to tell others what to do".

"You don't necessarily achieve a desirable outcome by constantly hectoring other nations. We also recognize that different countries have different views and ways," added the Australian leader.

Strangely enough, Malaysia's leading opposition party—the very protesters whom Gore's speech was supposed to support and encourage—agreed with the Australian leader's repudiation of the U.S. vice president's heavy-handed meddling in Asia's domestic politics.

Lim Kit Siang, a key Malaysian opposition leader, warned that Gore had "stirred up a hornet's nest ... there is a feeling of national embarrassment that a foreign leader should interfere in our affairs and preach about the need for democratic change on our soil."

CIA AND MOSSAD

Chandra Muzaffar, another spokesman for the dissidents, cautioned that "Gore's speech will not help the opposition, it may even discredit it ... it will support those who have been talking about a plot by the CIA and the Mossad [Israel's secret service] to destabilize Malaysia and overthrow its government."

Whether it is true—as Malaysian security officers privately claim—that there is evidence Mossad agents are involved in organizing street demonstrations against the incumbent regime, "One thing is for certain: If there is no further public discussion of what alien speculators have done to Asia's economy, Gore's heavy-handed meddling will have served the interests of its two real sponsors: Wall Street and international Zionism," concluded Dr. Abusir.

U.S. PUSHES MALAYSIAN COUP

by Warren Hough

The prime minister of a friendly nation has been targeted for elimination. His crime is that "in a world order built on lies, this man tells the truth".

Behind the scenes, President Bill Clinton is being pushed to sign off on a series of covert actions designed to overthrow Malaysian Prime Minister Mahathir Mohamad, an elected, democratic and long-established Asian leader.

Under Mahathir's nationalist administration, Malaysia has been the only Southeast Asian country to achieve real economic progress this year. But the pressure to destroy his regime is mounting, says Russell E. F. Faulkner, a British broadcast correspondent stationed in Hong Kong.

The campaign to destabilize the Malaysian government is being driven by Israel's aggressive Washington lobby, its secret service (the Mossad), their powerful allies on Wall Street, and the Establishment media, Faulkner found.

"They have never forgiven Mahathir for publicly denouncing the international financiers whose currency raids ruined Southeast Asia's hard-working economies last year as 'Jewish speculators' and criminal Zionist money manipulators," Faulkner related.

In addition, Mahathir "has established himself as a leader among critics of the unfettered global markets and the IMF's economic prescriptions", reported Washington Post staff writer Paul Blustein from Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia's capital, on Nov. 21.

"Instead of backfiring, as the IMF and the U.S. Treasury had not-so secretly hoped, the controls [monetary and fiscal reforms inaugurated by Mahathir] are saving Malaysia from being destroyed by the Asian financial crisis, according to the country's leading industrialists," Blustein conceded.

Now the IMF and the Clinton administration are more eager than ever "to discourage other countries from following Malaysia's lead on imposing financial controls" on speculative "hot money" maneuvers, the Post story related.

In fact, Zionism's worldwide agent network and the web of dual-loyalist policymakers in Washington, led by Vice President Al Gore, are doing more than just discouraging neighboring governments from emulating the Malaysian leader's patriotic reforms. They are encouraging a coup d'état against him, diplomatic sources say.

"Dr. Mahathir is getting what is known as the 'Marcos treatment,'" says Dr. Lee Sirivedhin, a Thai economist on sabbatical at the State University of New York. "In public, he is being relentlessly denigrated, while infiltrated agents are covertly organizing protest demonstrations and setting the stage for a coup."

The difference is—unlike the late President Ferdinand Marcos whose disposition to admire and trust all Americans made him an easy target when the CIA and the Mossad set out to oust him—Mahathir is a resolute nationalist who rejects alien interference in his country's affairs.

The Malaysian leader's innate distrust of globalism has kept the meddlers of the IMF and the World Bank at bay in his bailiwick. Strong-willed resistance to globalist domination has added these powerful international financial enforcers to the list of Mahathir's sworn enemies.

Reliance on its own industry and resources has boosted Malaysia ahead of other Southeast Asian economies this year, most Western observers now admit.

"Interest rates came down, from 11 percent to 7 percent, and the stock market is improving," said Francis Yeh, chief executive of a leading Malaysian conglomerate, to The Post. "There is confidence in home buying now, too. I have 3,000 people que to buy houses at a project of ours."

But Gore, known among Washington insiders as the nation's first "Dual Loyalist", took a different stance while visiting Malaysia this month at the head of a U.S. economic delegation.

On arrival in Kuala Lumpur, Gore noted there were student demonstrations in the streets who were, for the most part, radical splinter groups similar to the dissident youths mobilized by CIA agents against Marcos in the Philippines. Gore praised the rioters.

"It was an outrageous violation, not just of civilized international relations, but of the most elementary decorum," noted Sirivedhin. "It amounted to telling the demonstrators: 'Go ahead and overthrow your government—the United States supports you'."

It was "a smug and arrogant intervention" in another nation's internal affairs, said conservative Washington columnist Robert Novak.

Soltec: Put Excuses Aside And Recognize Your Power!

12/12/98 SOLTEC

Good evening, my friend. It is I, Toniose Soltec, come in the Radiant One Light of Creator Source. Be at peace.

Those of you who are attentive to such things have noticed that both volcanic and earthquake activity have increased again around your planet as of late. Because all is connected to all, you can see in this activity (which is due to the rising "blood pressure" of Mother Earth) a reflection-reaction from the increasing stress-energy being emitted by many ones this Holiday Season. Many feel "in the air" a tension of underlying unrest and discontent, despite the superficial flurry of activity and glitter, as society continues to fall apart and spin downward into ever worsening moral decay—in blatant and unsettling contrast to the True Meaning of the Season.

Allow for the unfolding "drama" of life and living to present its challenges and lessons. This is what all of you have come to planet Earth-Shan to experience at this time. You each have come for important lessons, and lessons you are getting. Offer a helping hand to those who ask for assistance, and recognize and allow for those who wish to forego such assistance.

Many quickly forget that ALL aspects of the physical experience have growth opportunity—not just what is foremost on your mind. This is to say that, though you may be preoccupied with one small aspect or challenge at this point in time, it does NOT mean this one thing is REALLY very important at all. It may simply be a distraction that is keeping you from doing (or seeing) the Greater Truth.

If you are having car troubles, and you are worried about losing your job because you cannot get to work, this may seem ALL-important to you in the moment. But, what if the very next moment you get a call and find out that your child (or some close relative or friend) was in an "accident" and is in intensive care, fighting for their life? Are the car troubles still THAT important?

What is it you are overly fixated upon that is so IMPORTANT? What is motivating you to fixate upon this "MAJOR" dilemma? Do you find that others suffer because of the narrowness of your focus? The point here is to help you ones become aware of a more balanced, broader picture. Many of you, through your physical actions, show the world your lack of understanding as to how the physical "GAME" works.

YOU are each creators of your own experience and reality. YOU choose what you will focus your attention and desire upon. YOU choose the path you will walk in this life experience. All creation is born in the form of desire. This desire summons forth the energies (dimensional forces not limited to a standard definition of the term) that begin to physically manifest the heartfelt emotional equivalent to your desire.

If you desire money, yet you hold anxiety in your heart while seeking this desire, you will have greater and greater anxiety along with your money. The more money you get, the greater your anxiety will be.

Likewise, if you desire an "ideal" relationship, but associate great loneliness in your heart with this desire, you will summon forth relationships that leave you feeling lonely.

Hold first the feelings of joy and happiness in your heart, and from that place state your desire. Then you will find that you will begin manifesting joy and happiness in all aspects of your experience!

Many of you are in a constant state of overwhelm, and the pressures of perceived commitments seem to be building at an ever increasing rate. Learn to let go of the belief that YOU have to do it all. No, you do not!

Remember your basic "creative manifestation" lessons, especially about the Law of Giving and Regiving. Learn to give with love in your heart, and so too shall love be forever regiven to you. Learn to feel fulfillment in the most mundane of tasks, and you will find ever increasing fulfillment in every other part of your life.

The process of creative manifestation (whether it be positive or negative) is one which builds momentum and inertia. There is always an amplification of the energy (emotion) that you put into everything you create.

Many of you do not take the time to sit quietly and consciously feel the emotions related to your desires. When you think about money, is it an overwhelming feeling of "not enough", or is it a feeling of "total abundance without end"? When you think about finding Mr. or Mrs. Right, do you feel "anxiety and loneliness" about not finding that one, or do you feel a pleasant "anticipation and excitement"?

Believe it or not, there are many in your world who don't worry about such things. They tend to keep in mind that "larger picture" perspective I mentioned earlier in this message. These are the ones whose flames burn bright with the innate knowing that the physical experience is to be enjoyed as a precious gift and not despised as a worrisome chore.

Many of you of Ground Crew come from experiences of advanced thinking and great balance. The environment in which you now find yourselves is one of contradictions, lies, and outright suppression. This causes you ones to be very confused and thus emit a vibrational frequency that is opposite to that which you believe you are offering.

Again: do whatever it takes (which means letting go of worries and fears) for you to get YOURSELF feeling really good. And THEN (and only then) state your desires to the universe, and hold the associated feelings of anticipation and joy in your heart, along with the conscious desire. THIS IS THE KEY TO HAVING A HAPPY AND PRODUCTIVE LEARNING EXPERIENCE!

We of the Hosts of God bear witness to the fact that MANY of you of our awakened Ground Crew entertain such thoughts as: "I wish I could make my transition (death) NOW, and get the hell out of this insane mess." SUCH THOUGHTS ARE IN DIRECT CONTRADICTION TO THOSE OF YOUR HIGHER KNOWING SELF!

This situation will always cause you to emit a "jangled" energy signal, for their will be an inner anxiety associated with such contradicting thoughts and desires—ALWAYS! Many of you ignore your Inner Guidance (emotional signals offered by your Higher Self, connected to Source, in response to your conscious thoughts) and justify the entertainment of the negativity by saying (or thinking) such things as: "I've had enough!" or "It's too hard!" or "I can't take it anymore!" and "I want to leave!"

These are self-imposed limitations. You create a condition that is akin to having a foot planted almost as firmly on the brake pedal of your automobile (out of fear) as you do on the gas. In this mode of "driving" there's a lot of wasted effort and any forward progress is a much more "painful" and struggling endeavor than it needs to be.

You are each co-creators capable of creating planets, stars, galaxies, and universes—yet you claim that your present experience is "too hard"!?! If this is too hard, then you are most definitely not ready to handle the responsibilities of managing a planet, solar system, galaxy, or universe—let alone the responsibility of creating same!

You are each efforting toward a greater understanding of your own Inner Potential as an infinite, creating being born of the mind and desire of Creator Source. You each are on a path of SELF discovery. As you progress along your personal pathway, you will begin to realize the true importance of the basic lessons many of you are struggling with during these times of challenge.

All that you learn will be needed and necessary for all of your future growth challenges. There is no end to the cycles of growth. There is no end to the expanse of your being. You are a facet of Creator God, manifest in infinite form and infinite desire.

Just as there is no limit to the number of times you can divide a number or count forever higher in sequence by adding one to the previous number, there are no limits to the Potential of your being—except perhaps those you conjure in your own mind and hold for self to be true.

It is a difficult concept for the conscious physical person to accept, because your physical environment is one of perceived boundaries and limitations. But eventually, if your civilization does not destroy itself, you will find that ALL of the "impossible" things will become, one day, quite possible. Less than a hundred years ago the general belief on your planet was that it was impossible to reach the Moon, let alone neighboring planets. Today that limiting belief has mostly vanished from the consciousness of man.

One day there will be the vanishment of the idea that anyone is ever a "victim" of anything, for your society will move forward in understanding and recognition of the inner worlds of the creative mind and soul—and how there is a direct correlation between what you think and feel, and what manifests in your experience. All of you who read, understand, and apply these concepts, are doing your part to bring forth this advancement upon your world!

Many of your forefront researchers are running into this very phenomenon as they are using ever more sensitive equipment for monitoring changes in physical parameters such as temperature, voltage, light frequency shifts and such. Many are quite hesitant to talk about such "spooky" phenomena, for they would have to admit to observing a non-physical, mind-matter interaction—and here you have current scientific philosophy and true spiritual philosophy bumping into one another!

Please go within and find KNOWING that the challenges of life you are faced with at this time in the physical are indeed quite within your abilities to work with—as well as being unique, wonderful, and WORTHWHILE! Each of you entered your current experience with a great eagerness and joyful anticipation toward experiencing during such a unique time as now exists upon planet Earth. Besides, you haven't even made it to the "good" part yet!

Let not the conscious, ego-based fears paralyze your minds with such negative feelings as to lead to overwhelm. You are each infinite beings who are quite able, at any time, to stand up and set aside the ego and say, for instance: "I was wrong to worry about trivial things like money (or any such physically limiting idea). I've no need for such distractions. Let me get on with that which my heart tells me is truly important!"

Learn to discern what your Guidance is telling you, and if your Guidance is seemingly not in harmony with your heart, then ALWAYS seek clarification within the perfection of God and Truth. Sometimes the answer will be to take an action that you've been afraid to take (but deep down inside you know you should). Often the answer will be to recognize and overcome a limiting fear, else the same situation is bound to repeat and repeat until you do. Being honest with self will go a long way toward helping you to not fall for the adversarial "easy way out" of your growth challenges.

The popular path of the masses around you is one of external (physical) gratification, not inner (spiritual) gratification. First find Peace and Balance within, and you will always manifest a solid, balanced foundation for your external experiences. Seek always the best long-term soul-ution, and you will find that your outer experiences will be infinitely more satisfying as well.

Be determined and invest the time and energy to recognize, interpret, and ACT upon what your Guidance is telling you. This is fundamental to maximizing your current growth experience—especially at this most important time of a planetary transition event.

I am Ceres Anthonious "Toniose" Soltec, come as Teacher and Guide. May you find the inner fulfillment of your heart's deepest desires.

In the Light (Pure Energy) of Creator God, SALU! ☘

Wisdom Of The Rays: The Masters Teach

ABOUT THE BOOK

This large collection (over 400 pages + 4 color photos) of popular spiritual writings from the CONTACT newspaper includes a detailed introduction to the 14 Higher Authors, plus several commentaries unique to the purpose of this volume.

The expansive yet compassionate nature of the messages delivered in WISDOM OF THE RAYS: The Masters Teach not only challenges those already firmly committed upon the spiritual path, but also provides a serious first step to help ones who are just awakening to (and inquiring about) the magnificent Spiritual Transformation now sensed by many to be in progress upon this planet.

FROM THE BACK COVER

"Our Elder Brothers from the Higher Realms of Creation are attempting to communicate with ALL of us at this time. Why? Take a look around you. The old ways of doing things aren't working. Our planet is entering a time of massive, turbulent change and renewal. To put it bluntly: we NEED help! And that's where this book comes into the picture. Yes, eventually 'the Phoenix will arise from the ashes' after this Great Cleansing process, but the ride could be quite a bumpy one, especially for those ill-prepared for what is to happen."

"Just how we choose to deal with such change is THE question each of us must confront. Yet confusion swirls everywhere upon Earth at this time. And restless searchers cry out for that which may help them cope with these truly challenging times ahead. Thus these messages courtesy of our most loving Elder Brothers from the Higher Realms of Creation who are but further along the same spiritual path we all must eventually walk."

Rise Of Antichrist Vols. 1-4

THERE IS NOTHING THAT THE INTERNATIONAL JEW FEARS SO MUCH AS THE TRUTH, OR ANY HINT OF THE TRUTH ABOUT HIMSELF OR HIS PLANS. AND, AFTER ALL, THE ROCK OF REFUGE AND DEFENSE, THE FOUNDATION OF ENDURANCE FOR JEW OR GENTILE MUST BE THE TRUTH.

THERE ARE MANY WAYS TO CHANGE THIS CIRCUMSTANCE UPON YOUR WORLD AND TURN ABOUT INTO GOODNESS—BUT YOU MUST FIRST LEARN AND KNOW WHAT IS THE FUNDAMENTAL TROUBLE OR WRONG INVOLVED. ONLY THEN CAN YOU “FIX” THAT WHICH IS BROKEN OR CORRECT THAT WHICH IS WRONG.

RISE OF ANTICHRIST

—VOL. 1

$6.00 198 Pages #227

I would like the next series of Journals to be listed as RISE OF ANTICHRIST.

What will I use to kick off this next information? Some Essays on Antichrist as offered by Rev. Charles E. Coughlin. If you know of him, fine; if not, never mind. He served well, he understood, and he can have what rest can be gained by his work's purpose and his alliance with God. You will NOT find this book available anywhere, probably, so don't waste your time searching. This was sent to us to assist Dharma in her own work, by excellent summarizing which gives YOU published backup and confirmation. Is it not amazing how "when the student is ready, the teacher appears"? And, isn't it wondrous that when we are ready to begin a new and touchy topic—the information flows like a fountain from the mountain?

Some topics:

- Killers Of Women And Children!
- Sananda: It Is Time To Awaken From The Lie
- Vatican III Quickly Needed
- War In The Heavens
- War On Earth
- The Militiamen
- The Mystical Body Of Satan In Action
- Bill Clinton And The Rockefellers
- Jerry Falwell, Christian?

RISE OF ANTICHRIST

—VOL. 2

$6.00 207 Pages #228

This Journal concludes the Rise Of Antichrist Essays begun in Vol. 1 of this series and introduces a 3-part series entitled Plot and Plotters, Anti-Gentilism. Also in this Journal we begin the series entitled GLOBAL PARASITES—reprinting the information presented in The Dearborn Independent in the 1920s entitled The International Jew and other related topics.

Some Topics:

- The Great Betrayal
- The Jew In Character And Business
- Jewish History In The United States
- The Last Ends Of Masonry

RISE OF ANTICHRIST

—VOL. 3

$6.00 201 Pages #229

In this Journal we continue the series entitled GLOBAL PARASITES [Parts 7-14]—reprinting the information presented in The Dearborn Independent in the 1920s entitled The International Jew and other related topics.

Some Topics:

- Vince Foster; More Zipper Update?
- Princess Di
- Anti-Semitism—Will It Appear In The U.S.?
- Patriot Groups And Biological Agents
- Jewish Question Breaks Into The Magazines
- Clinton Hoodwinked On Iraq Disinformation Campaign By Mossad
- Arthur Brisbane Leaps To The Help Of Jewry
- Does A Definite Jewish World Program Exist?

RISE OF ANTICHRIST

—VOL. 4

$6.00 227 Pages #230

In this Journal we continue the series entitled GLOBAL PARASITES [Part 15-24]—reprinting the information presented in The Dearborn Independent in the 1920s entitled The International Jew. Some Topics:

- "Jewish" Plan To Split Society By "Ideas"
- Did The Jews Foresee The World Wars
- "When Prophets Speak"
- Is The Jewish "Kahal" The Modern "Soviet"?
- How The "Jewish" Question Touches The Farm
- Does Jewish Power Control The World Press?
- Does This Explain Jewish Political Power?
- The All-Jewish Mark On "Red Russia"
- Jewish Testimony In Favor Of Bolshevism

A PHOENIX JOURNAL

Why don't the Jewish controllers make a big play for shutting down such as CONTACT and these Journals? One major reason is that there have been so many years of publicity on their activities via these routes that any assault NOW would end up with worldwide attention to the work in progress, namely, giving away their secret PLANS. A major court confrontation would undo THEM, not us, this time.

TELEPHONE HOTLINE 805-822-0202

As an adjunct to CONTACT, the Telephone Hotline keeps you as informed as possible on current events and other important information that needs to get to our subscribers before our publishing date.

The message machine will answer after 2 rings if there are any new messages for that day, and after 4 rings if not. Thus daily callers can hang up after 2 rings and save toll charges if no new message has been recorded. If the Hotline does not answer your call, then there is currently no Hotline message.
